“In applying at Walsall Police Court for the transfer of the license of the GLOBE INN, Darlaston Road, from John Benton to Bertie R. Swinnerton, Mr. Hodgkinson, solicitor, explained that Benton had given three months’ notice, which had expired, but the question of alternative accommodation had been raised. Benton however was a manager. Mr. R. A. Tench (Wednesbury), who opposed the application, said that since receiving notice from the brewery company Benton had continued as licensee, and had himself tendered three months’ notice, which did not expire until December 10th. Mr. Hodgkinson thereupon remarked that it was purely destructive and blackmailing opposition with the object of getting something out of the brewery company. Mr. Tench replied that if Mr. Hodgkinson would repeat the charge outside the Court he should be given an opportunity of proving it or paying for it. The Bench granted the transfer.”

Evening Despatch 9/3/1939

“Notice of objection had been made by the Justices to 11 licenses, chiefly on the grounds of redundancy.....

Applying for the renewal of the license of the GLOBE INN, Darlaston Road, which was granted subject to the provision of plans for rebuilding, Mr. E. W. Haden stated that the house had been in one family for over a century.”

AND

Walsall Observer 11/3/1939

“Representing the owners of the GLOBE INN, Darlaston Road (respecting which there had been notice of objection at the opening of the sessions), Mr. E. W. Haden stated that the house had been in the occupation of the present owners for fifty years and of the Clews family for over a century. Negotiations were proceeding, he said, that would enable the owners to submit plans for rebuilding in the course of a few months.

Subject to the undertaking to rebuild, the license was renewed.”

Walsall Observer 18/11/1939

“Plans for the complete rebuilding of the GLOBE INN, Darlaston Road, were submitted by Mr. Gordon Hawley on behalf of the owners. The war, he said, created considerable difficulties in a matter of this kind, but the owners felt that every effort should be made to carry out this scheme, because of an undertaking given at the last adjourned licensing sessions and also because everyone who had seen the present premises must agree that this was work that ought to be done.

Subject to minor modifications, the plans were approved, the Chairman remarking to the architect (Mr. H. W. Shipley), ‘We hope you will be able to get on with the building soon.’ ‘That is the difficulty,’ replied Mr. Shipley. ‘It will be far more difficult to do that than it has been to get permission this morning.’”

1939 Register

356, Darlaston Road – GLOBE INN

[1] John Ray, date of birth 18/3/1876, licensee, married;

[2] Lucy Ray, dob 19/3/1879, unpaid domestic duties, married:

Walsall Observer 7/12/1940

“Walsall Licensed Victuallers’ Society.

Motor Ambulance Effort on behalf of Walsall and District branch of the British Red Cross Society.

First List of Subscriptions.....

GLOBE INN, Darlaston Road, £2 2s 6d.”

Walsall Observer 24/12/1942

“Walsall Licensed Victuallers’ Society. The Duke of Gloucester’s Red Cross Fund. List of Subscriptions.....

GLOBE INN, Darlaston Road. £2 0s 0d.”

Walsall Observer 15/1/1944

“Walsall Licensed Victuallers’ Society.

Appeal on Behalf of the Merchant Navy Fund, The Duke of Gloucester’s Red Cross Fund and the Aid to China Fund. List of Subscriptions.....

GLOBE INN, Darlaston Road. £1 9s 4d.”

Birmingham Daily Post 24/2/1945 - Advert

“By Direction of the Rt. Hon. the Earl of Bradford. Third Sale of Valuable Freehold Ground Rents.....

Nine Licensed Houses..... GLOBE INN, Darlaston Road.”

George Henry Mole was fined £15, on 11th December 1953, for three cases of permitting his premises to be used for betting.

Cyril Dennis Morris – see also WELCOME STRANGER.

[2017]

GLOBE

Mountrath Street, WALSALL

OWNERS

LICENSEES

Jeremiah Needham [1834] – [1835]

NOTES

It had a beerhouse license.

Jeremiah Needham, retailer of beer, Monrath (sic) Street. [1835]

GLOBE

New Street, WALSALL

OWNERS

LICENSEES

Ferdinand Bedworth [1834] – [1835]

NOTES

It had a beerhouse license.

Ferdinand Bedworth, retailer of beer, New Street. [1835]

London Gazette 22/3/1842

“Ferdinand Bedworth, late of Dudley-street, Walsall, Staffordshire, out of business, formerly Retail Brewer. In the Gaol of Birmingham.”

London Gazette 25/3/1842

“The following Prisoners, whose Estates and Effects have been vested in the Provisional Assignee by Order of the Court, having filed their Schedules, are ordered to be brought up before the Commissioner on Circuit, to be dealt with according to the Statute, as follows....

Ferdinand Bedworth, formerly of New-street, Walsall, Staffordshire, Retail Brewer and Cow Keeper, and late of Dudley Street, Birmingham, out of business.”

GOATS HEAD

BLOXWICH

OWNERS

LICENSEES

Joseph Beech [1835]

GOATS HEAD

30, New Hall Street, Windmill, WALSALL

OWNERS

Jane Badger and Cannock Brewery Co. Ltd.

George Nicklin, Hatherton Street, Walsall

George Smith

Elizabeth Smith, Bath Road

Thomas Russell Ltd. [1925]

Sarah Ann Butler

William Butler and Co. Ltd. (acquired on 27th July 1932)

LICENSEES

Charles Holland [1841] – [1850]

Jane Holland [1851]

Henry Holland [1858]

Mrs. Maria Holland [1860] – [1865]

Thomas Badger [1870]

Mrs. Jane Badger [1871] – 1873);

John Timmins (1873 – [];

Joseph Bytheway [];

Alexander McArthur [];

John Curnock [];

William Evans [1881];

Miss Phoebe Collumbine [];

William Woolley [];

Samuel Frederick Smith [1888] – 1908);
Elizabeth Smith [1908] ?
S F Smith [1911] ?
Mrs. Sarah Ann Butler (1908 – 1924);
Frederick Morgan (1924 – 1929);
William Hodson (1929 – 1931);
Mrs. Marion Hodson (1931 – 1932);
William Riley (1932 – 1933);
William Gudge (1933 – 1936);
Thomas Henry Cheese (1936 – 1937);
Harold Draisey (1937):

NOTES

It had a brewery attached.

1841 Census

Windmill Newhall Street

- [1] Charles Holland (45), spur manufacturer, born Staffordshire;
- [2] Jane Holland (45), born Staffordshire;
- [3] Charles Holland (20), born Staffordshire;
- [4] Frances Holland (15), born Staffordshire;
- [5] Henry Holland (10), born Staffordshire;
- [6] Eliza Brees (20), born Staffordshire;
- [7] Matthew Fox (15), apprentice:

Joseph Holland was also a bit, spur and stirrup manufacturer. [1845]

Staffordshire Advertiser 16/10/1847

“On Thursday last, the members of the Walsall Harmonic Society held their annual meeting at Mr. J. Holland’s, the GOATS HEAD INN, Windmill, where a most sumptuous dinner was provided by the worthy host, whose endeavour to please gave universal satisfaction; the dinner being of the first order, and the wines excellent. About 40 sat down to dinner. The chair was ably filled by Mr. Vincent Davies, supported by Mr. T. J. Bingham, secretary, and Mr. Holden. After the cloth was drawn, the worthy chairman, in his usual eloquent and pleasing manner, gave the customary loyal toasts; after which Mr. W. Taylor, in an excellent speech, proposed the health of the chairman, which was duly acknowledged, followed by the health of the worthy Secretary, Prosperity to the Association, the Town and Trade of Walsall, the Ladies of Walsall, &c, &c, which were duly acknowledged. During the evening the members were highly entertained with the singing of Messrs. Davies, Bingham, Holden, Birch, Slater, &c, which reflected great credit on them, and contributed much to the enjoyment of the evening. After singing ‘God save the Queen,’ the party separated at a late hour, highly delighted with the day’s entertainment.”

Charles Holland was a spur manufacturer. [1849], [1850]

Wolverhampton Chronicle 22/5/1850 - Died

“May 16, suddenly, Mr. Charles Holland, of the GOATS HEAD, Newhall Street, Walsall, aged 57.”

1851 Census

New Hall Street

- [1] Jane Holland (59), victualler, born Willenhall;
- [2] Sarah Hunt (19), servant, born Willenhall;
- [3] William H. Hack (1 month), grandson, born Walsall;
- [4] John Lloyd (58), lodger, widower, journeyman saddler, born London:

1861 Census

30, Newhall Street – GOATS HEAD

- [1] Maria Holland (35), widow, victualler, born Walsall;
- [2] Elizabeth J. Holland (6), daughter, scholar, born Walsall;
- [3] Kate Holland (4), daughter, scholar, born Walsall;
- [4] Anne M. Holland (2), daughter, born Walsall;
- [5] Anne M. Eagles (64), mother, widow, retired shop keeper, born Walsall;
- [6] Emma Eagles (27), visitor, parlour maid, born Walsall;
- [7] Caroline Beech (39), visitor, agricultural labourer’s wife, born Walsall;
- [8] Anne Hatton (19), house servant, born Wyrley, Staffordshire:

Walsall Free Press 14/3/1863

“A select party of above forty gentlemen sat down to an excellent dinner at the GOATS HEAD, Windmill, at which the chair was occupied by Mr. Benjamin Abnett, and the vice-chair by Mr. John Smith, among other toasts the health of the Prince and Princess of Wales was given and cordially responded to.”

Walsall Free Press 9/9/1865 - Advert

“To Be Let, and may be entered upon immediately, the Old Licensed and well-accustomed Public House, the GOATS HEAD, situate on Newhall Street, Windmill, (has been in the family for 25 years) and is now to be Let in consequence of the death of the Proprietress.

For particulars apply to John Osbourn, Auctioneer, &c, 52, Lower Hall Lane.

N.B. The Coming-in will not exceed £200.”

Walsall Free Press 9/3/1867 - Advert

“To Be Disposed Of, the Licenses, Goodwill, and Possession of that well established Old Licensed Public House, the GOATS HEAD, Newhall Street, Windmill, Walsall.

Apply on the premises, or to Mr. T. W. Coldicott, 60, Lichfield Street.”

Walsall Free Press 6/3/1869 - Advert

“To be Sold by Auction, by Mr. John Osbourn, on Thursday, the 18th day of March, 1869 at the GOATS HEAD INN, Newhall Street (Windmill) at six o'clock in the evening subject to conditions.

All that Freehold Messuage or Old-Licensed Public House known as the GOATS HEAD in Newhall Street, Walsall, in the occupation of Mr. Thomas Badger, at the annual rent of £20.

The house comprises kitchen, bar, tap-room and parlour, good club-room, bed chambers and attics, and large and convenient cellars, and also the brewhouse, stable and loft over, coach-house, piggeries and out-buildings and yard thereto belonging.

The above property is in good repair, in the occupation of an excellent tenant, and being near to large manufactories is a desirable investment.

And also all those Two Freehold Houses, fronting to Newhall Street.....

And also all those Two Freehold Houses, situate at the back of the above (one of which is in front of Highfield Passage) and also the House adjoining, also fronting to Highfield Passage.....

And also the extensive Two Storey Shopping (capable of accommodating from 20 to 30 pair of hands) in the occupation of Mr. Holland, and which may be entered from the Gateway and Yard belonging to the Public House, or a separate road may be made from Highfield Passage.....”

1871 Census

30, Newhall Street – GOATS HEAD

[1] Jane Badger (47), widow, victualler, born Walsall;

[2] Louisa Badger (15), daughter, barmaid, born Walsall;

[3] Kate M'Cormack (19), general servant, born Walsall:

Walsall Free Press 1/11/1873

“Municipal Election. St. George's Ward.....

On Saturday evening a large and respectable meeting of the supporters of Messrs. Cotterell and Evans was held at the GOATS HEAD INN, Newhall Street. Mr. Cotterell, in a lengthened address, defended the policy he had pursued in the Council during the three years he had represented St. George's Ward.....”

Birmingham Daily Post 10/3/1880

“Last night a meeting of the burgesses of St. George's ward was held, at the GOATS HEAD INN Newhall Street, for the purpose of selecting representatives on the General Committee of the Liberal Association. Councillor R. T. Jupp presided, and briefly opened the proceedings.....”

1881 Census

30, Newhall Street – GOATS HEAD

[1] William Evans (34), foreman at buckle works, born Walsall;

[2] Eliza Evans (35), wife, born Manchester;

[3] Frederick Thomas Evans (11), son, scholar, born Walsall;

[4] Ada Elizabeth Evans (9), daughter, scholar, born Walsall;

[5] William G. Evans (6), son, scholar, born Walsall;

[6] Hetty Evans (4), daughter, scholar, born Walsall:

Birmingham Daily Post 10/4/1888

“At the Guildhall, yesterday, Samuel Frederick Smith, the GOATS HEAD INN, Newhall Street, was fined 20s and costs for having opened and kept open his house at 12.15 on the morning of Sunday, the 1st inst.”

Birmingham Daily Post 1/9/1888

“At the annual licensing sessions, yesterday.....

The applications for renewal of licenses on the part of twenty persons whose names were on the black list were adjourned till the adjourned licensing day; and the applications of the following were also adjourned, the Chief Constable opposing on the ground of the unsuitability of the premises for licensed houses, bad management, or the house being unnecessary, viz.....

Frederick Smith, the GOATS HEAD.”

Walsall Advertiser 29/1/1889

“Staffordshire Conservative League.

The annual dinner of the ‘Beaconsfield’ Lodge of the above order was held on Wednesday evening last at the GOATS HEAD INN, Newhall Street, when about 45 members partook of an excellent repast served by Host and Hostess Smith and staff. Mr. J. Moseley, JP, occupied the chair, and he was supported by Messrs. H. H. Tucker, H. Pickett, J. Shirt.....”

1891 Census

30 Newhall Street – GOATS HEAD

- [1] Samuel F. Smith (28), victualler, born Walsall;
- [2] Elizabeth Smith (27), wife, born Walsall;
- [3] George T. Smith (8), son, born Walsall;
- [4] Ernest Smith (6), son, born Walsall;
- [5] Emily Smith (3), daughter, born Walsall;
- [6] Sam F. Smith (1), son, born Walsall;
- [7] Jane Archer (19), domestic servant, born Walsall;
- [8] Harriett Stephens (20), domestic servant, born Walsall:

Walsall Advertiser 1/7/1893

“The ninth annual meeting of Lodge No.322 of the Grand Independent Order of Caledonian Corks’ Friendly Sick and Draw Society was held on Wednesday evening at the GOATS HEAD, Newhall Street. Dinner was served in an upper room to over 70 brethren, the catering reflecting credit upon the host, Bro. S. F. Smith.....”

Walsall Advertiser 29/4/1894

“The annual dinner of Lodge No.322 of the Grand Independent Order of the Loyal Independent Corks’ Friendly Sick and Dividend Society was held at the GOATS HEAD INN, Newhall Street, on Wednesday evening last. There were upwards of sixty members present, and the repast served by Host Smith, was excellent in every respect, and reflected much credit on the caterer. Mr. J. H. Allsop, P.C.C., presided, Mr. Rattenbury, D.C., the vice-chair.....”

1901 Census

30, Newhall Street – GOATS HEAD INN

- [1] Samuel F. Smith (38), licensed victualler, born Walsall;
- [2] Emma Smith (28), wife, born Walsall;
- [3] George T. Smith (18), son, joiner (wood), born Walsall;
- [4] Ernest Smith (16), son, harness maker, born Walsall;
- [5] Nellie E. Smith (14), daughter, born Walsall;
- [6] Emily Smith (13), daughter, born Walsall;
- [7] Samuel F. Smith (11), son, born Walsall;
- [8] Herbert Smith (5), son, born Walsall;
- [9] Leonard Smith (2), son, born Walsall;
- [10] Harriet Hancock (17), domestic servant, born Walsall:

Samuel Frederick Smith was a committee member of Walsall and District Licensed Victuallers’ Association. [1902]

Walsall Advertiser 11/4/1903

“The monthly meeting of the Walsall and District Licensed Victuallers’ and Beer Retailers’ Friendly and Protection Society was held on Thursday last at the house of Mr. Samuel Frederick Smith, GOATS HEAD INN, Newhall Street, Walsall.....”

Samuel Frederick Smith – see also PRINCE OF WALES.

A team from here took part in the Walsall and District Air Rifle League. [1906]

Walsall Advertiser 25/12/1909

“The various sick and dividend societies in the town have, during the last week, paid out the yearly dividends.....

The following dividends were paid out in connection with the various lodges of the Loyal Caledonian Corks: Lodge 504, BOROUGH ARMS, Ablewell Street, 6s 6d, night and card; 422, SPURMAKERS ARMS, Tantarra Street, 7s, night and card; 322 GOAT INN, Newhall Street, 5s 3d, two nights and card; 325, ALBION HOTEL, Wolverhampton Street, 2s 6d, night and card.”

1911 Census

30, Newhall Street

[1] Sarah Ann Butler (57), widow, licensed victualler and brewer, born Coleshill, Warwickshire;

[2] Fred Butler (31), son, carpenter, born Walsall;

[3] Sydney Butler (26), son, railway clerk, born Sedgley;

[4] Howard Butler (22), son, electrical engineer, born Sedgley;

[5] Dora Winfer (14), general servant, born Sedgley:

Walsall Observer 21/11/1914

“The following is a list of box collections to date made on behalf of the Prince of Wales’ National Relief Fund (Walsall Branch).....

GOATS HEAD, Newhall Street, Walsall, 4s 1d.”

Walsall Advertiser 24/4/1915 - Advert

“Lot 4. The Highly Important, Old established and well-known Fully Licensed Home Brewing Free Freehold Public House, known as the GOATS HEAD INN, No.30 Newhall Street, Sandwell Street, Walsall, let to Mrs. Sarah Ann Butler (daughter of deceased) at the low rental of £40 per annum, the Tenant being responsible for all internal repairs. The Tenancy is held subject the three months’ notice to quit from any quarter day.

This valuable Inn will be offered free from any trade tie whatever.

It is situated in one of the best and healthiest parts of the Borough, is noted for its excellent Home Brewed Ales, and has always commanded a very large and lucrative Trade, for which the premises are admirably adapted.”

Walsall Observer 12/1/1918

“Walsall and District War Aid Committee. Collection By The Licensed Victuallers, December, 1917.....

GOATS HEAD, Newhall Street. £0 13s 10½d.”

Staffordshire Advertiser 15/2/1936

“Walsall Licensing sessions were held at the Guildhall on Tuesday.....

Mr. Cooper also applied, on behalf of Messrs. Butler & Co, Wolverhampton, for the removal of the GOATS HEAD, Newall Street to premises to be erected at the junction of Harden Road and Coalpool Lane, the approximate cost of the building, exclusive of land, being £4,700.”

The license removal to the HARDEN was granted on 11th February 1936, and confirmed on 19th May 1936.

The house closed at 2pm on 16th November 1937.

Demolished

GOLDEN EAGLE

268, (269), Green Lane, WALSALL

OWNERS

Thomas Kearney

John Lester [1899]

Wolverhampton and Dudley Breweries Ltd. [1933]

LICENSEES

Thomas Kearney [1871] – [1881];

Elizabeth Kearney [];

Stephen Wilson [];

John Mason [1891] – 1899);

John Lester (1899 – 1900);

Harriet Lowe (1900 – 1902);

Albert Edward Cliffe (1902 – 1913);

Thomas Roberts (1913 – 1917);

Louisa Roberts (1917 – 1919);

Thomas Roberts (1919 – []

Joseph Taylor [] – 1933):

NOTES

269, Green Lane [1871], [1872], [1901], [1911]

268+269, Green Lane [1881]

268, Green Lane [1891], [1904], [1912]

It was an ante 1869 beerhouse.

1871 Census

269, Green Lane – GOLDEN EAGLE

[1] Thomas Kearney (59), shopkeeper and publican, born Galway, Ireland;

[2] Elizabeth Kearney (62), wife, born Walsall;

[3] Emma Baker (12), boarder, domestic servant, born London:

Birmingham Daily Post 12/9/1871

“The Adjourned Licensing Sessions. This session took place at the Guildhall, yesterday.....

Mr. Glover then applied for the renewal of the licenses of the undermentioned, whose licenses were suspended on licensing day.....

Thomas Kearney, GOLDEN EAGLE beerhouse, Green Lane. Granted.”

Birmingham Daily Post 6/4/1872

“Thomas Kearney, beerhouse keeper, Green Lane, was charged with having sold ale during prohibited hours on the morning of Sunday, the 31st ult, but there being a doubt in the case, he got the benefit of it, and the summons was dismissed.”

1881 Census

268+269, Green Lane

[1] Thomas Kearney (65), shopkeeper, born Tipperary, Ireland;

[2] Elizabeth Kearney (62), wife, shopkeeper, born Walsall;

[3] Ann Pitt (56), lodger, born Birmingham;

[4] Walter Kenedy (48), lodger, general labourer, born Meath, Ireland;

[5] Fanny Roberts (15), servant, born Walsall:

[Possibly not the first Elizabeth Kearney?]

Birmingham Daily Post 24/1/1884

“Yesterday afternoon a large piece of brickwork, forming a sort of extensive and high parapet along the front of the GOLDEN EAGLE public-house, Green Lane, Walsall, was blown down into the street, causing considerable consternation. Happily, no one was hurt.”

Birmingham Daily Post 4/1/1886

“On Saturday, Mr. T. H. Stanley, coroner, held an inquest at the Guildhall, on the body of James Joyce (42), a miner, of Blakenall. At 11 o'clock on the night of the 19th inst, the deceased left the GOLDEN EAGLE INN, Green Lane, with his nephew John Joyce, and went into the house of the latter in Long Acre, where he remained until 1.50 in the morning. When he started for home and no more was seen of him until Friday afternoon, when his body was found in the Birmingham canal at the Brickhill, by Frederick Colsy, a boatman, residing at the Pleck. The enquiry was adjourned for the purpose of a post mortem examination.”

1891 Census

268, Green Lane

[1] John Mason (45), brass plater, born Walsall;

[2] Emily Mason (42), wife, born Walsall;

[3] Emily Mason (19), daughter, tailoress, born Walsall;

[4] Arthur Mason (16), son, office clerk, born Walsall;

[5] John Mason (14), son, Smith and Sons newsboy, born Walsall;

[6] Jennie Mason (12), daughter, born Walsall;

[7] Florence Mason (7), daughter, born Walsall;

[8] Lillie Mason (4), daughter, born Walsall:

Walsall Advertiser 18/5/1895

“On Monday last a party numbering about 40 were entertained to dinner at the GOLDEN EAGLE, Green Lane, by Mr. John Mason to celebrate the coming of age of his son Arthur. After the cloths were drawn Mr. W. A. J. A. Holden was elected to the chair, and Mr. E. A. Allen the vice-chair. The health of the hero of the evening was proposed by the chairman, who remarked that during the time he had known Mr. Mason he had found him to be an honest and straightforward person. The toast was drunk with musical honours, and was briefly responded to by Mr. A. Mason. Mr. J. Bradbury gave the Host and Hostess, which was suitably acknowledged by Mr. John Mason. The following contributed to the harmony of the evening: Messrs. Bayley, Bradbury, Bull-ock, Brown, T. and F. Coats, Dilks, Ford, Holmes, Howl, Mason, Noakes, Payton, Taylor, Upton, and Wood. Mr. E. G. Taylor kindly acted as accompanist. After a hearty vote of thanks had been given to the chairman and artistes the company dispersed with the singing of the National Anthem.”

Walsall Advertiser 21/12/1895

“John Mason, GOLDEN EAGLE, Green Lane, was summoned for having sold drink to a drunken person, and permitted drunkenness on his licensed premises, on November 30th.

Mr. H. H. Jackson defended, and admitted that drink was sold but the question was whether the man was drunk or not.

Police-constable Shipley said he visited defendant’s house, and noticed that one of the six men in the tap-room was drunk. The landlord argued that he was all right, but told him to leave. The man gave his names as C. H. Collins, Birmingham, but his wife said it was Charles Henry Price, of Short Acre. She led him off home.

Mr. Jackson, in defence, stated that the house had been kept free of complaint for eleven years; and the landlord and other witnesses denied the charge of having permitted drunkenness.

The case was dismissed, as also against Price for having been drunk on the premises.”

John Mason, beer retailer, 268, Green Lane. [1896]

Walsall Advertiser 29/8/1896

“The annual general licensing sessions for the Borough of Walsall were held at the Guildhall yesterday.....

The Black List. The return spoken of showed that the following had been proceeded against. Beer Retailers.....

John Mason, GOLDEN EAGLE, Green Lane, December 20th, 1895, permitting drunkenness, dismissed License renewed.”

Walsall Advertiser 28/9/1897

“John Mason, landlord of the GOLDEN EAGLE, Green Lane, was charged with permitting drunkenness on the 3rd inst, and with supplying liquor to a drunken person. Mr. H. H. Jackson (Messrs. Stanley and Jackson) was for the defence.

Evidence was given by Samuel Spink, of 2 Court, Short Acre, that about 10 o’clock on the morning of the date mentioned he was at defendant’s house, and was in and out about three times during the day. His wife came to see where he was, but was ordered out, as she had already had enough to drink, although it was only 10 o’clock in the morning. She did not have a sup in the defendant’s house. Next morning he found his wife on the floor at the bottom of the stairs in his own house. On the previous night when he went home, his wife was in Short Acre, and he told her to follow him home as he had to go to work the next morning. He found her lying dead at the bottom of the stairs the next morning.

Mr. Jackson argued that they had nothing to do with what happened next morning. The question was whether drink was supplied to a drunken person.

Replying to the Bench, witness said his wife had been ‘on the drink’ for a month. In answer to Mr. Jackson, witness said he was not drunk.

Edward Langley deposed to seeing Spink and his wife drunk in Short Acre near their own house on the night in question. Spink was not so drunk as his wife.

Recalled, Spink said he had had one glass of beer at another place about dinner time on the day named. The last time he went into defendant’s house was just after eight o’clock, and he had about two pints. He was not drunk when he came out.

Case dismissed.”

Walsall Advertiser 9/9/1899

“John Burns, of Burrowes Street, was summoned for wilfully damaging a window, the property of John Lester, GOLDEN EAGLE INN, Green Lane, and 5s damage was claimed.

Complainant said the defendant came into his house on Saturday evening the worse for drink. He refused to serve him, and escorted him to the door, but immediately the door was closed, complainant heard the window smash. He at once proceeded outside and saw the defendant there with others. Defendant said he would let him (complainant) see that he could not do what he liked with him, in Green Lane, as he was ‘the cock o’ the North.’

A man named Russon who was in the house at the time, spoke to having heard the window smashed, but like complainant did not actually see the defendant do it.

Defendant denied the offence, but was nevertheless fined 10s and costs, together with the damage, or in default 7 days with hard labour.”

1901 Census

269, Green Lane – GOLDEN EAGLE INN

[1] Harriett Lowe (43), widow, publican, born Nuneaton;

[2] Selina Lowe (16), daughter, barmaid, born Walsall;

[3] Charles Lowe (13), son, born Walsall;

[4] Thomas Lowe (12), son, born Walsall;

[5] Luke Lowe (8), son, born Walsall;

[6] Leonard Lowe (5), son, born Walsall;

[7] Anne Hands (68), mother, living on own means, born Nuneaton:

Walsall Advertiser 31/8/1901

“The annual brewster sessions for the borough of Walsall was held at the Guildhall on Wednesday.....

Mr. H. H. Jackson appeared for the owners and licensee of the GOLDEN EAGLE, Green Lane, and remarked that the objection of the police to the renewal of the license fell to the ground as the house was licensed prior to 1869. Decision deferred.”

Walsall Advertiser 18/6/1904

“Walsall & District Air-Gun League. Hospital Cup & Medals.

The concluding draw, to be shot on Tuesday next, the 21st inst, at the VINE HOTEL, Lower Hall Lane, is as under:

1. VOLUNTEER or KING WILLIAM v GOLDEN EAGLE.

2. NEWPORT No.1 or CRITERION v CROWN or Leamore.

Final. Winner of No.2 v Winner of No.1.

The first team to have choice of shooting. The first match to commence at 8pm sharp, the second at 8.45, final at 9.45. Individuals to immediately follow.”

Walsall Advertiser 6/8/1904

“Walsall Air-Gun League.

The first annual meeting of the above was held at the CRITERION, Stafford Street, on Wednesday evening. Mr. H. Smallwood presided, and there was also present Messrs. Hicken (EAGLE), G. Smith (OLD KINGS ARMS), Powell (TANNERS ARMS), E. James (PLUMBERS ARMS), McDonald (CRITERION), Cliffe (GOLDEN EAGLE), Hunt, E. Towe (treasurer), and Mason (secretary).....

The undermentioned clubs with power to add to their number, were elected to the League for the forthcoming season: The WHITE HART (Walhouse Street), TANNERS ARMS, OLD KINGS ARMS, EAGLE, PLUMBERS ARMS, CRITERION, GOLDEN EAGLE, LEATHER CUTTERS ARMS, OAK, and DUKE OF YORK.

There was no other business of public interest.”

Walsall Advertiser 1/6/1907

“Isaac Haywood, 17, High Street, Bloxwich, sent his wife to plead guilty to a charge of refusing to quit the GOLDEN EAGLE INN, Green Lane. The man would not leave the house when requested by the landlord, and Police-constable R. Wooley had to eject him.

Fined 2s 6d and costs.”

Walsall Observer 14/11/1908

“The monthly meeting of the Walsall and District Licensed Victuallers' and Beer Retailers' Friendly and Protection Society was held on Thursday last at the house of the President, MANOR ARMS INN, Daw End, Rushall. Mr. R. Anson, Daw End (president), occupied the chair.....

Mr. A. E. Cliffe asked to be allowed to resign his seat on the Executive Committee, as he was unable to attend on the evenings the society met. The resignation was accepted with regret, and he was thanked for his past services. Mr. Alfred Webster, BRITISH OAK INN, John Street, was unanimously elected to fill the vacancy.”

Walsall Advertiser 6/2/1909

“There was a large attendance at the annual Brewster Sessions for the Borough of Walsall, on Wednesday, at the Guildhall.....

In the case of the GOLDEN EAGLE, Mr. C. A. Loxton (clerk) stated that the Bench considered the back entrance to these premises very objectionable, and they suggested that some improvement should be effected.

Mr. A. E. Cliffe, landlord, who was represented by Mr. H. H. Jackson, undertook to carry out the necessary improvements.”

1911 Census

269, Green Lane

[1] Albert Edward Cliffe (39), beerhouse keeper and brewer, born Rushall;

[2] Gertrude F. Cliffe (37), mother, married 16 years, born Walsall;

[3] Margerette Cliffe (15), daughter, typewriter, born Walsall;

[4] May Rudd (23), servant, born Bloxwich:

Albert E. Cliffe, beer retailer, 268, Green Lane. [1912]

Walsall Advertiser 11/1/1913 - Advert

“Albert E. Cliffe (deceased).

GOLDEN EAGLE INN, 268, Green Lane Bloxwich.

Fox & Harrison are favoured with instructions from the Executors under the Will of the late Albert Edward Cliffe, beerhouse keeper, to Sell by Public Auction, without any reserve, on the premises of the Inn above named (the business of which they are transferring) on Tuesday, 21 January, 1913, the whole of the valuable Modern Household Furniture, Cottage Pianoforte, in burr walnut case (Sidney Thomas, Walsall), and Effects, being Contents of 3 Bedrooms, Kitchen and Sitting-room, and various outside effects, as detailed in posters to be obtained from the Offices of the Auctioneers.

On view an hour prior to sale.

Sale at 11am.
Auctioneers Offices, 51, Lower Hall Lane, Walsall. Tel. 198.”

Walsall Advertiser 1/3/1913

“The adjourned Licensing Sessions for the borough were held at the Guildhall yesterday (Friday) morning.....
Transfers..... The GOLDEN EAGLE, Green Lane, from the Executors of the late Albert Cliffe to Thomas Roberts. Granted.”

Walsall Advertiser 20/12/1913

“Sick and Dividend Societies. The Society at the GOLDEN EAGLE, Green Lane, has 139 members, and at the meeting held on Wednesday a dividend of 7/2 together with two nights and card free, was declared. The total receipts for the year was £109 17s 9d, and the Reserve Fund, which stood in 1912 at £15 1s 8½, has been increased by 4/-.”

Birmingham Daily Gamete 5/8/1914

“A labourer named Harry Potter, aged 32, of 9, Heath Street, Heathtown, was charged at Walsall Police Court yesterday with stealing 10s on Saturday afternoon while he was a customer at the GOLDEN EAGLE INN, Green Lane, Walsall. Roberts, who said he was sorry for what he had done, and had never been before in a police court, was fined 10s and costs or fourteen days.”

Walsall Observer 15/5/1915 - Advert

“Currier’s Vat for sale; brand new.
Apply GOLDEN EAGLE, Green Lane, Walsall.”

Walsall Observer 12/1/1918

“Walsall and District War Aid Committee. Collection By The Licensed Victuallers, December, 1917.....
GOLDEN EAGLE, Green Lane. £1 4s 8½d.”

It closed on 25th November 1933, after the Compensation Authority had paid £2,965.

GOLDEN LION

37, Birchills Street, (Birchills Lane), Birchills, WALSALL

OWNERS

Joseph Busst, Stafford Street, Walsall
Arthur Beebee Ltd. [1910], [1924]
Highgate Walsall Brewery Co. Ltd. (acquired in 1924) [1939]
Mitchells and Butlers Ltd. (acquired in 1939)

LICENSEES

William Heykin [1834] – [1842]
Smallwood [1848]
John Adams [1849] – [1851]
John Dudley [1851]
John Dutton [1853]
William Oakley [1858] – [1871]
Thomas Taylor [] – 1872);
Samuel White (1872 – []
William White [1873];
John Russell [1880] – [1881]
Mrs. Harriet Russell [1891] – [1908]
Kate Russell [] – 1909);
John Albert Hearn (1909 – []
Elijah Ford [1911] – [1912]
Henry Chaplin [1914] – [1921] manager
Frank Trawford [1925] – 1934); manager
Stanley Leonard Nicholls (1934);
William Noah Mills (1934 – 1942);
William Sheldon Hutchinson (1942 – 1943);
Ellen Hutchinson (1943 – 1957);

Michael Gerald Day (1957 – 1960);
Alfred Gordon White (1960 – 1961);
Wilfred Bevan (1961 – 1964);
William Leonard Cantrill (1964 – [1966])

NOTES

Birchills Lane [1849]
Birchill Street [1860]
37, Birchills Street [1932], [1940]

OLD RED LION [1850]

Staffordshire Advertiser 7/6/1834

“An inquest was held on Monday last, at the GOLDEN LION, Birchills, before Henry Smith Esq, on the body of a boy named Robinson, aged about 12 years, killed under the following circumstances. On Friday afternoon, the boy (in the employ of Mr. Archer, lock maker, at Birchills,) was at work at the bob belonging to the engine kept by Mr. A. for the purpose of polishing locks, curbs, buckles, &c, when it is supposed, thinking that the machine had not sufficient power, he endeavoured to fix a strap on a hook in the wall to increase it, unfortunately his foot slipped and he was thrown on the drum, and thence dashed against the wall; the strap twisted round his neck, and his head literally torn from the body! Verdict Accidental Death, deodand 2s 6d.”

Staffordshire Advertiser 29/4/1848 - Advert

“To Publicans, Coopers, Brokers, and Others.

Valuable Brewing Vessels, Household Furniture, and other effects, comprising capital 10-strike mash tub, square ale vats, round coolers, 100 gallon furnace, ten capital ale casks, pocket of prime hops, malt mill, kitchen screens, store pig, light spring cart, three sides of prime home cured ham, two hams, &c. The household furniture consists of mahogany chests of drawers, excellent eight-day clock in mahogany case, chairs, tables, fenders, fire irons, beds, bedsteads, washstands and ware, toilet glasses, and other useful effects.

Which Will Be Sold By Auction, by R. L. Courtney, on Wednesday next, May 3rd, 1848, belonging to Mr. Smallwood, GOLDEN LION INN, Birchills, Walsall.

Sale to commence at ten o'clock a.m.

N.B. The premises are to be Let, with the Licenses, and immediate possession may be had, by applying on the premises, or to the Auctioneer.”

John Adams was also a chain and hame maker. [1849], [1850]

1851 Census

Birchills

[1] John Adams (34), victualler, hame and chain maker employing 9 men, born Butts;

[2] Harriet Adams (34), wife, born Bloxwich;

[3] Harriet Smith (16), general servant, born Lane Head:

Staffordshire Advertiser 25/6/1853 - Advert

“Walsall. Sale At The GOLDEN LION, Birchills.

George Allin will Sell by Auction, on Wednesday, June 29, 1853, all the clean and useful Household Furniture, Brewing Vessels, quantity of Pit Tools, &c, comprising strong tent bedsteads, fine feather beds, painted washstands and dressing tables, dressing glasses, three sets of mahogany and painted chests of drawers, mahogany hair-seat Windsor and chamber chairs, oak and deal dining, drinking, and other tables, kitchen requisites, eight excellent ale casks, mash tub, coolers, &c; Also, ten excellent oval and ironstone skips, skip wheels, quantity of hammers, blowing tools, tackling chains, dog pikes, &c; five sets of chain pony and thiller tackle, quantity of carpenters tools, wheelbarrow, two chaff engines, and numerous other effects, belonging to Mr. John Dutton, who is leaving England.

Sale to commence at eleven o'clock.

Particulars in catalogues; may be had at the Auctioneers Offices, Bridge Street, Walsall.”

William Oakley = William Ackley

Walsall Free Press 21/1/1860

“William Oakley, landlord of the GOLDEN LION, old Birchills, was charged with having had his house open for the sale of drink during prohibited hours, on Sunday morning last, namely at a quarter to twelve. Defendant admitted the charge, but stated that Mr. Boys had a boat sunk in the canal, and that some men engaged in getting it up had got very wet, and Mr. Boys requested him (defendant) to fill then a quarter of rum, which – as he considered the men very much in need of it – he filled. Sentenced to pay a fine of 5s and costs.”

1861 Census

37, Birchills Street – GOLDEN LION

- [1] William Oakley (56), victualler, born Wyrley, Staffordshire;
- [2] Carey Oakley (65), wife, born Bentley, Staffordshire;
- [3] Thomas Taylor (34), son in law, bricklayer, born Bloxwich;
- [4] Mary Ann Taylor (35), daughter, born Walsall;
- [5] Jane Carey Taylor (10 months), granddaughter, born Bloxwich;
- [6] Hannah Perry (16), house servant, born Brownhills:

Staffordshire Advertiser 19/12/1868

“On Tuesday, Mr. A. A. Fletcher, borough coroner, held an inquest at the GOLDEN LION INN, Birchills, on the body of John Twigg, aged five years, the son of a couple living in Summer Row, Birchills. The child had been ill for some time, but on Friday he got better. During the night of Saturday a relapse took place and convulsions set in. No medical man was sent for, and at about nine o’clock on Sunday morning, after eight hours’ suffering, the child died. The jury found that death had resulted from Natural Causes, accelerated by neglect in not getting medical assistance; and the coroner severely censured the mother for such neglect.”

Walsall Free Press 23/4/1870 - Notice

“Lost on Tuesday Morning last, a Light-brown Bull and Terrier Bitch with Black Muzzle, answers to the name of ‘Lady.’ Whoever has found her and will bring her to the GOLDEN LION, Birchills Street, Walsall, shall be handsomely rewarded. Any one detaining her after this notice will be prosecuted.”

Birmingham Daily Gazette 14/2/1871

“Yesterday afternoon, Mr. A. A. Fletcher held an inquest at the GOLDEN LION public-house, Birchills, on the body of Jacob Twigg, aged 13, son of Joseph Twigg, boatman. From the evidence it appeared that the deceased took his father’s tea to Birchills furnaces on Friday evening, and nothing was seen or heard from him from the time he left the furnaces till Saturday morning, when his body was found in the canal near to Birchills Wharf, which place he would have to pass on his way home from the furnaces. The jury after hearing the evidence of William Parker, who found the body, returned a verdict of Found Drowned.”

1871 Census

37, Birchills Street – GOLDEN LION

- [1] William Oakley (66), widower, licensed victualler, born Wyrley;
- [2] Thomas Taylor (44), widower, son in law, bricklayer, born Essington;
- [3] Jane Taylor (10), granddaughter, scholar, born Coal Pool;
- [4] Matilda Lappage (20), domestic servant, born Great Bridge:

Staffordshire Advertiser 28/8/1872

“Adjourned Licensing Session The undermentioned transfers were effected, viz....
The GOLDEN LION, Birchills, from the executors of Thomas Taylor to Samuel White.”

1881 Census

37, Birchills Street

- [1] John Russell (55), chainmaker, born Walsall;
- [2] Harriet Russell (47), wife, born Walsall;
- [3] Henry Russell (19), son, currier, born Walsall;
- [4] Richard Russell (16), son, carter, born Walsall;
- [5] Harriett Russell (14), daughter, scholar, born Walsall;
- [6] William Russell (11), son, scholar, born Walsall;
- [7] Katherine Russell (9), daughter, scholar, born Walsall;
- [8] Alice Rogers (17), servant, born Walsall:

Birmingham Daily Post 11/8/1884

“On Saturday Mr. F. Bill (deputy coroner) held an inquest at the GOLDEN LION, Birchills, on the body of William Eadling (13), son of parents living in Blue Lane West, and who, whilst bathing with his brother George, aged 15, in the canal, on Friday evening, got into difficulties as he was attempting to cross to the opposite bank, and was drowned before help could be given to him. The body was shortly afterwards found by a person named Richard Evans, and one named Henry Everett exerted himself with conspicuous bravery on the lad’s behalf. A verdict of Accidental Death, was returned, and Everett was complimented by the jury.”

1891 Census

37, Birchills Street – GOLDEN LION

- [1] Harriet Russell (58), widow, publican, born Walsall;
- [2] Richard Russell (25), son, iron caster, born Walsall;
- [3] William Russell (21), son, harness maker, born Walsall;
- [4] Kate Russell (19), daughter, born Walsall;

[5] William Dewsbury (45), brother in law, chain maker, born Walsall;

[6] Emily Cartwright (19), general servant, born Walsall:

1901 Census

37, Birchills Street

[1] Harriet Russell (66), licensed victualler, born Walsall;

[2] William Russell (30), son, hame maker, born Walsall;

[3] Kate Russell (28), daughter, music teacher, born Walsall;

[4] William Denis Guy (56), brother, chainmaker, born Walsall;

[5] Annie Morris (28), domestic servant, born Bloxwich:

Walsall Advertiser 20/6/1903

“On Wednesday afternoon an inquiry was held before Mr. T. H. Stanley (borough coroner), at the GOLDEN LION, Birchills Street, into the circumstances attending the death of Edward Tuft (34), of 4, Birchills Street.

The deceased was a journeyman engine-fitter, and it was now stated by his wife that during the whole of the nine years they had been married deceased had seemed strange in his manner, and had many times threatened to commit suicide, though as a rule no notice was taken of his language. Medical advice was obtained for him about a year ago, but he would not have anything done for him. With his head on his hands he would sit, apparently in deep thought, for hours, and did not want to speak to anyone. He got up about 9.30 on Sunday morning, and, while having his breakfast, seemed strange, remarking ‘Ah, well! I shall not be here long!’ As he was depressed, witness attempted to induce him to go for a walk, but he did not do so. Deceased went to bed in the afternoon, but could not rest, and would not have a powder which witness wished to send for. The deceased got up next morning at half-past five o’clock, it being his custom to rise early. Three hours afterwards, on witness going downstairs, she found deceased’s coat and boots, and went into the yard. Going to a workshop, in company with Clara Lloyd, a neighbour’s daughter, it was found that though the padlock was off the door was fastened from inside. The door was forced, when deceased was found lying near the side of a half-horse-power gas engine, on his right side, with a shawl round his face, and a sofa pillow under his head. When asked what he was doing there, no reply was received, and it was then seen that life was extinct. Witness and the deceased had always been on the best of terms. It transpired during the inquiry that deceased had about three inches of rubber tube, used for feeding the gas engine, down his throat, the gas being turned on. The gas smelt very badly, and Jabez Lloyd, a youth, turned it off. Death was attributed by Dr. C. S. Oliver, who was called in, to asphyxia, from gas poisoning. Suicide whilst of Unsound Mind was the verdict.”

Walsall Advertiser 17/11/1906 - Advert

“Tuesday, 12th December, at 7pm at the Property Mart on The Bridge.

Highly important sale by auction of the Very Valuable Freehold, Full-Licensed Free Public-House known as the GOLDEN LION, Birchills Street, Walsall, and the adjacent Freehold Foundry, by direction of the Executors of the late Mrs. Harriet Russell, as also Freehold House and Factories, Bath Street and Vicarage Street, and long Leasehold Property at corner of Shaw Street and Blue Lane West. Solicitors, Messrs. S. Pearman-Smith and Sons.

Full particulars of the above may be obtained from Walter Hughes, F.A.I., Auctioneer, the Bridge, Walsall.”

Walsall Advertiser 10/9/1910 - Advert

“A. Beebee’s Noted Home-Brewed Ales.

Brewery – Sandwell Street, Walsall.

Houses.....

GOLDEN LION, Birchills Street, Walsall.”

1911 Census

37, Birchills Street

[1] Elijah Ford (44), licensed victualler, born Walsall;

[2] Annie Ford (45), wife, married 11 years, assisting in business, born Walsall;

[3] Frank Alfred Hulse (25), boarder, jeweller’s factor’s clerk, born Walsall;

[4] Ethel Ford (10), daughter, at school, born Walsall;

[5] Edward Ford (9), son, at school, born Walsall;

[6] Charles Wilfred Hulse (22), boarder, warehouseman (buckle), born Walsall;

[7] John Clifford Hulse (16), boarder, cycle pattern maker (lead), born Walsall;

[8] Florence Darby (23), general servant, born Walsall:

Walsall Advertiser 28/9/1912

“Prior to the ordinary business at yesterday’s (Friday) Police Court, the usual Licensing Sessions were held when the Magistrates were the Mayor (Councillor J. Venables, in the chair), and Messrs. R. Thomas, J. Clare, A. D. Cozens, and E. J. Shaw.....

An application was made by Mr. Wilson Smith who appeared on behalf of the licensee of the GOLDEN LION, Birchills Street.

He stated that they wished to put a window out of the passage into the bar, for the purposes of the out-door departments. The tenants found that the entrance to the house being rather narrow, the ordinary passage was continually barred, and they wanted to serve customers for out-door trade out of the passage.

The Magistrates after having retired deferred the question of alterations to the GOLDEN LION to the annual Licensing Meeting.”

Walsall Observer 8/2/1913

“The annual Licensing Sessions for the borough were held at the Guildhall on Monday.....

Mr. W. J. Pearman-Smith, in asking plans to be passed in connection with the GOLDEN LION, Birchills Street, explained that the alteration was for the provision of a window, 18 inches square, in a passage running alongside the GOLDEN LION. The object was to enable outdoor trade to be carried on through the window and save anyone who wished to take beer away from entering the licensed premises. A door would be put across the entry exactly at the window to prevent anyone going higher up the entry.

Mr. Blyth: What guarantee have we that the door will be kept closed? – Mr. Pearman-Smith: As far as I can see it is immaterial to the good conduct of the house, whether it is open or closed. At the present time it is open. I think if you grant this application it will be in the cause of temperance.

The application was granted.”

Walsall Advertiser 20/12/1913

“The general meeting of the GOLDEN LION Sick and Dividend Society was held on Wednesday night, when a dividend of 9/- was declared. The total income for the year had been £73 19s 6d, there being 89 members. The balance in hand at the beginning of the year was £4 8s 9d, and is now £3 4s 4d.”

Walsall Observer 12/1/1918

“Walsall and District War Aid Committee. Collection By The Licensed Victuallers, December, 1917.....

GOLDEN LION, Birchills Street. £1 0s 0d.”

Walsall Observer 5/4/1924

“As a result of recent negotiations, the freehold licensed properties belonging to Messrs. Arthur Beebee Ltd, which include the DURHAM OX, Park Street; OLD STILL, Digbeth; THREE CROWNS, Sutton Road; Red Lion, Aldridge; MALT SHOVEL, Lower Rushall Street; GOLDEN LION, Birchills Street; the off license, 6, Camden Street; the brewery in Sandwell Street; and the lease of the FOX INN, Stafford Street, have been sold to the Highgate Brewing Co. Ltd, through Messrs. Fox and Harrison, FAI, of Walsall.”

Birmingham Mail 26/1/1939

“Darts Teams Title. Fifth Round Draw for Lord Lonsdale Trophy.

The draw for some of the fifth round matches in the county section of The People National Darts Teams Championship has now take place. Matches must be played by February 11. The winning team in the county finals will take part in an area final, winners of which will play in the national contest at Earl’s Court, London, on May 27.....

Shropshire, Staffordshire and Derbyshire Section F.

Old White Lion Dart Club, Tamworth v GOLDEN LION, Walsall.”

Walsall Observer 29/7/1939

“More than fifty licensed premises in Walsall and neighbouring place become Mitchells and Butlers houses this week as a result of the well-known Cape Hill brewery company’s acquisition of the whole of the undertakings of the Highgate-Walsall Brewery Co. Ltd., and the Walsall Breweries Proprietary Ltd., and of all the licensed and certain un-licensed properties of Messrs. John Lord, brewers, of Short Acre.....

A list of the licensed premises that form part of the properties acquired by Mitchells and Butlers is as follows.....

Highgate houses.....

GOLDEN LION, Birchills.”

1939 Register

Birchills Street – GOLDEN LION (2 of 3)

[1] William N. Mills, date of birth 8/2/1896, licensed victualler, married;

[2] Grace H. Mills, dob 30/10/1897, unpaid domestic duties, married;

Walsall Observer 29/8/1942

“County Borough of Walsall. Mayor’s War Aid Fund. Nineteenth List of Subscriptions.....

Mr. Mills, GOLDEN LION, Birchills Street. £1 6s 0d.”

Walsall Observer 24/12/1942

“Walsall Licensed Victuallers’ Society. The Duke of Gloucester’s Red Cross Fund. List of Subscriptions.....

GOLDEN LION, Birchills Street. £2 10s 2d.”

Walsall Observer 1/1/1944 - Advert

“Lost between GOLDEN LION, Birchills and Lichfield Street, Lady’s Left-hand Fur-backed Glove.

Please return to GOLDEN LION. Reward.”

Walsall Observer 15/1/1944

“Walsall Licensed Victuallers’ Society.

Appeal on Behalf of the Merchant Navy Fund, The Duke of Gloucester's Red Cross Fund and the Aid to China Fund. List of Subscriptions.....

GOLDEN LION, Birchills Street. £7 3s 7d.”

[2005]

It was renamed LION BAR AND CLUB. [2007]

[2017]

GRANDSTAND

WALSALL

OWNERS

LICENSEES

NOTES

It was built in 1819.

Closed

It was demolished in 1879.

GRAND THEATRE VAULTS

28, Park Street / 34, Station Street, WALSALL

OWNERS

Charles Crooke

Elizabeth Crooke

R. Beebee Esq, JP, Walsall

Walsall Theatres Co. Ltd.

Grigg and Brettell Ltd.

LICENSEES

Charles Crooke [1864] – [1881];

Elizabeth Crooke [1881];

William Henry Westwood [1897] – 1918;

Albert Merrett (?) (1918);

William Joseph Andrews (1918 – 1937);

Samuel Richard Hipkiss (1937 – 1941);

NOTES

It was originally the ALEXANDRA.

The name was changed to GAIETY.

It became the GRAND THEATRE VAULTS. [1900]

It had a six-day license.

Charles Crooke = Charles Crook

Birmingham Daily Post 22/8/1864

“The Forthcoming Borough Licensing Day. The following is a list of persons who intend to apply for spirit licenses at the Special Sessions for that purpose, to be held on the 28th inst.....

Charles Crooke, Station Street and Townsend Bank.”

Birmingham Daily Post 30/8/1864

“Annual Licensing Session. Applications for new licenses.....

Mr. Matthews applied for a license for the house at the corner of Station Street and Park Street, occupied and owned by Mr. Charles Crooke. The house contains eight bed rooms, a commercial room, 24 feet by 15 feet, and a second room, 15 feet square, also designed for the accommodation of commercial travellers. Three documents were put in, the first signed by twenty-five commercial travellers, who expressed their intention to use the applicant’s house, should the license be granted; the second, signed by a large number of inhabitants of Bilston, where the applicant formerly carried on business as a licensed victualler; and the third, by Superintendent McCrea, the Chief of Police in that town; the last two documents being certificates of character. Refused on the ground that another licensed house is not required in the neighbourhood of the station. Mr. Matthews gave notice of appeal to the County Quarter Sessions.”

Walsall Free Press 2/9/1865

“Licensing Day. There were 174 applications for the renewal of licenses, and 19 new applications.....

Mr. Matthews, from the office of Mr. Wilkinson, applied on behalf of the following parties.....

Charles Crooke, corner of Station Street and Park Street Refused.”

Walsall Free Press 1/9/1866

“General Licensing Day. Yesterday a special session was held in the Guildhall Assembly Room.....

Mr. Mathews next applied on behalf of Charles Crook, landlord of the beerhouse at the corner of Station Street and Park Street, and referred to the excellent character of the applicant and to the superior manner in which he conducted his house. Application refused.”

Charles Crooke, beer and wine retailer, 28, Park Street. [1868], [1870], [1872]

Walsall Free Press 29/8/1868

“Yesterday, the annual meeting for the granting of licenses was held at the Guildhall.

The following were the applicants.....

Charles Crooke, MUSIC HALL, Park Street.”

Walsall Free Press 12/9/1868

“Mr. Wilkinson renewed his application on behalf of Mr. Crooke, proprietor of the ALEXANDRA MUSIC HALL, Park Street, for a transfer of a license from the WOODMAN public-house, Wolverhampton Lane, to his house at the corner of Station Street and Park Street.

Mr. Crooke having purchased the WOODMAN public-house, which he intends to close.

Mr. Wilkinson was proceeding to address the Bench when the Mayor said, as the Bench were fully aware of the whole of the facts of the case there would be not necessity for him stating the case at any great length.

Mr. Wilkinson said if their worships were satisfied, he would not occupy their time by a single remark.

The Mayor said the Bench had, by a majority, decided to grant the application.

Mr. Newman: Which is simply a transfer.

Mr. Wilkinson: I have already pointed out how the Bench can retain power in their own hands.

Mr. Wilkinson said he felt bound to make some explanation in consequence of a report having got abroad, that one of the magistrates present on Monday, had attended in consequence of a special request from him. He begged to state, most explicitly that the report was entirely without foundation.”

1871 Census

34, Station Street

[1] Charles Crooke (45), licensed victualler, born Kilsby, Northamptonshire;

[2] Elizabeth Crooke (50), wife, born Kilsby, Northamptonshire;

[3] Jeffery C. Crooke (16), son, apprentice to bridle cutter, born Rugby;

[4] Charles G. Crooke (14), son, scholar, born Kilsby, Northamptonshire;

[5] William J. Crooke (7), son, scholar, born Bilston;

[6] Harriett Taylor (32), servant, barmaid, born Walsall;

[7] Esther Morgan (18), domestic servant, born Walsall:

Walsall Free Press 26/7/1873

“Mr. Chas. Crooke, the proprietor of the ALEXANDRA CONCERT HALL, applied for a renewal of a theatrical license granted to him three months ago. The Magistrates’ Clerk having explained that a temporary license had been granted to Mr. Crooke, the Mayor said the magistrates desired to know from Mr. Cater in what manner the house had been conducted. The Chief Superintendent said that, in anticipation of a report from him being required at the close of the temporary period, he had on several occasions visited the house, and from his general observation he had to say that all appeared to him to be conducted very satisfactorily. The justices thereupon granted the renewal until November next.”

1881 Census

34, Station Street

[1] Charles Crooke (55), licensed victualler, born Kilsby, Northamptonshire;

[2] Elizabeth Crooke (60), wife, born Kilsby, Northamptonshire;

[3] Frances M. Crooke (28), daughter, born Kilsby, Northamptonshire;

[4] Jeffery B. Crooke (26), son, bridle cutter, born Rugby;

[5] John S. Crooke (19), son, pawnbroker, born Matlock, Derbyshire;

[6] William J. Crooke (17), son, dentist, born Bilston;

[7] Martha D. Roberts (26), barmaid, born Madeley, Shropshire;

[8] Jane Johnson (23), domestic servant, born Bloxwich:

Walsall Advertiser 13/2/1897

“William Henry Westwood, proprietor of the GRAND THEATRE, was summoned for selling intoxicating liquors during prohibited hours on the 6th inst.

Police-constable 33 (Priest) gave evidence, but Mr. H. H. Jackson, for the defence, was able to convince the Bench that the persons found on the premises were personal friends whom Mr. Westwood was entertaining, and the case was dismissed.”

Walsall Advertiser 29/9/1900

“Yesterday the adjourned Brewster session for the borough were held at the Guildhall....

On the application of Mr. H. H. Jackson the magistrates consented to alterations at the GRAND THEATRE VAULTS, to take into the licensed premises the shop formerly occupied by Mr. Greenslade as a tailor. The shop, it was explained, was under the same roof and part of the same building, and it was desired to make arrangements for a gallery bar and to improve the lavatory accommodation.”

Walsall Advertiser 26/6/1909 - Advert

“The GRAND THEATRE VAULTS, Park Street, Walsall.

Edgar V. Booth (Late of the STATION HOTEL), Will Be Found At The Above Ancient Rendezvous.

Holder Celebrated Ales, in Fine Condition.

Edgar will be pleased to see old friends and make new ones.

All Noted Brands of Whiskies, Brandies, and Wines.”

Walsall Advertiser 22/1/1910

“John Goode (25), labourer, was charged with unlawfully wounding William Hawkins, by stabbing him on the head with a knife, on January 14th. The man was brought up on Monday and remanded. The injured man first gave evidence, and stated that at 5.35pm, on the 14th inst, he went into the GRAND THEATRE VAULTS. His brother was there, and soon after prisoner entered with some other men. They called for three half pints, but the landlord refused to serve them. They then commenced to use bad language, and refused to leave, so witness tried to persuade prisoner to leave. As they would not go his brother helped to eject the men, when they went across Park Street towards the PRIORY HOTEL. His brother followed them, and he went after his brother to fetch him away, as they were ‘shoving’ him. Prisoner struck him on the head, but he did not feel the blows, until the blood was running down his face. A little boy said to him, ‘He’s stabbed you Blondin.’ Witness then hit prisoner, and knocked him down, but he did not see a knife in his hand. He sent a young lady for the police and he went to the Hospital, where he had two stitches put in his wound. Cross-examined by Mr. J. F. Addison, witness said that there had been a quarrel between his brother and prisoner for the past seven or eight months.

A boy named Joseph Turland (14), 4 house 1 court, Garden Street, stated that on Friday evening between five and six o’clock he was in Park Street, when he saw two men fighting. He saw prisoner rush at Hawkins, and strike him on the head with a knife. Prisoner got the knife out of his top right pocket. He heard a man named Daly say, ‘Let him have it,’ and then the other men who were there rushed at Hawkins, who knocked prisoner down. Witness gave the knife with which Hawkins was stabbed to the police.

A boy, named David Mansell, 37, Margaret Street, said that he saw Hawkins bleeding, but he did not see any blows struck. He picked the knife out of the gutter, and handed it to Turland.

Police-constable Taylor said that when he arrived on the scene, the two men were in a fighting attitude. When he charged the prisoner, he replied, ‘Not guilty.’

Dr. Newman, from the Walsall Hospital, stated that the man Hawkins attended the Hospital; he had an incised wound three quarters of an inch long on the head, and it had gone through the scalp for about a quarter of an inch. There was no danger.

Prisoner was committed to the Quarter Session bail being allowed, himself in £10 and two sureties of £5 each.”

[John Goode was found not guilty at the Quarter Session in March 1910.]

1911 Census

4, St. Pauls Terrace

- [1] William Henry Westwood (60), theatrical manager, born Birmingham;
 - [2] Ellen Westwood (60), wife, married 39 years, born Preston, Lancashire;
 - [3] Rose Westwood (25), daughter, theatrical box office keeper, born Walsall;
 - [4] Alice Maritana Westwood (19), daughter, theatrical money taker, born Walsall;
 - [5] Joyce Taylor (18), visitor, born Aldridge;
 - [6] Hannah Collings (16), servant, born Walsall Wood.
- [Note the address is different to the pub.]

Walsall Observer 5/7/1924 - Advert

“Barmaid Wanted for GRAND THEATRE Smoke Room Bar.
Apply by letter to General Manager, Walsall Theatre Company.
Applicants please state age, experience, and wages required.”

Staffordshire Advertiser 1/11/1924

“Andrew O’Neil, 21, clerk, Parker Street, Boxwich, was remanded in custody for a week on a charge of inflicting grievous bodily harm upon Frederick Scott, of Reedswood Lane, on the 17th October. The Chief Constable stated that the men quarrelled in the GRAND THEATRE VAULTS, and the prisoner, it was alleged, smashed two drinking glasses on Scott’s head and jaw.”

Birmingham Mail 5/6/1939

“One of the biggest fires which has occurred in Walsall for a number of years, took place last night and in the early hours of today and involved the complete destruction of the Grand Theatre the Corporation fire brigade turned out all available equipment, under the personal command of the Chief Constable. On arrival it was found that the structure, which included a licensed bar on the ground floor, which does not open on Sundays, was already a mass of flame, and it was soon evident that there was little or no hope of saving the building. Efforts were accordingly directed to protecting adjoining business premises, comprising shops and living quarters from which the occupants were evacuated. The task of the brigade proved a most difficult one as the heat was terrific and flames shot up to a great height. So fierce was the glare that it was visible in the sky as far away as Wolverhampton and West Bromwich. . . .

The cause of the fire, which has caused thousands of pounds worth of damage, is at present a mystery. . . .

The Grand Theatre was opened in 1890 by Vesta Tilley, who spent some of the earlier years of her professional career in Walsall, under the direction of the late Mr. Harry Westwood. . . .

Walsall Public Works Department staff were engaged all night long clearing debris from Park Street, which is one of the main thoroughfares of the town, and Corporation Transport Department engineers also worked during the early hours repairing damage to the trolley ’bus wires which were brought down by the falling masonry. As a result of these efforts all transport services were in normal working order today.”

Birmingham Daily Post 18/8/1939

“Permission to erect temporary premises on the site of the GRAND THEATRE VAULTS, Walsall, which with theatre were destroyed by fire on 4 June, was granted by the Walsall licensing justices yesterday.”

Walsall Observer 17/2/1940 - Notice

“Licensing Acts, 1910 to 1934.

To The Clerk of the Licensing Justices for the County Borough of Walsall.

To the Chief Constable for the said County Borough.

To the Clerk of the Rating Authority for the said County Borough.

To James Groves, the Licensee of the WHITE LION, Portland Street, in the said County Borough.

To Ansell Brewery Ltd, of Park Road, Aston, in the City of Birmingham, the Owners of the WHITE LION, Portland Street, in the said County Borough; and to whom it may concern.

I, Tom Bentley Golby, of 148, Broadway North, in the said Borough of Walsall, Supervisor, Do Hereby Give Notice that it is my intention to apply at the Adjourned Licensing Meeting, to be holden at the Guildhall, Walsall, on Thursday, the 7th day of March, 1940, for the Provisional Grant to me of an Order sanctioning the Removal of the Justices’ License now in force and held by the said James Groves, in pursuance of which the said James Groves holds an Excise License to sell by retail at the licensed premises situate in Portland Street, and known by the sign of the WHITE LION, any intoxicating liquor which may be sold under a Publican’s License for consumption either on or off premises, from such premises to a certain House and premises proposed to be erected upon land which or part of which forms the premises known as the GRAND THEATRE VAULTS at the corner of Park Street and Station Street, in the said County Borough of Walsall, and of which License when removed I desire to be the holder.

And I Hereby Give Notice that Ansell Brewery Company, Ltd, Park Road, Aston, in the city of Birmingham, are the owners of the said premises known at the WHITE LION, Portland Street, aforesaid, and that Grigg and Brettell Ltd, of Holt Street, in the City of Birmingham, are the owners of the said premises at the corner of Park Street and Station Street, Walsall aforesaid.

Given under my hand this 13th day of February, 1940.

Tom Bentley Golby.”

Evening Despatch 7/3/1940

“The magistrates also granted an application for the removal of the license of the WHITE LION, Portland Street, to premises proposed to be erected by Ansells Brewery on the site of the GRAND THEATRE VAULTS, Park Street, which was destroyed by fire last June.”

Walsall Observer 4/5/1940

“Walsall transfer sessions held at the Guildhall on Thursday.....

The justices gave their final sanction for the removal of the seven-days licence of the WHITE LION, Portland Street, to new premises to be built on the site of the GRAND THEATRE VAULTS where there was only a six-day licence.”

Staffordshire Advertiser 8/2/1941

“‘Apparently Hitler has not driven us to drink yet.’ This comment was made by Mr. T. M. Watson (chief constable) in presenting his report at the annual meeting of the Walsall Licensing Committee on Thursday.....

An application was granted for the renewal of a provisional order for the removal of the license of the WHITE LION, Portland Street, to premises being erected on the site of the GRAND THEATRE VAULTS, Park Street.”

The license was surrendered at 2pm on 1st May 1941.

GRANNIE’S KITCHEN

88, Stafford Street / Whitehouse Street, WALSALL

OWNERS

Andrew Holmes, painter, Stafford Street, Walsall

Mrs. Nicklin, NEW INN, John Street, Walsall

W. A. Young

Anthony Beebee

Arthur Beebee [1910]

John Lord

Mitchells and Butlers Ltd. (acquired on 11th August 1939)

LICENSEES

John Young [1857] – [1865]

James Osbourn [1868] – [1870]

John Cheatle [1871] – [1872]

Mrs. Ann Cheatle [1872];

Samuel Brown [1873] – [1876];

Andrew Holmes [];

John Stevenson [1881];

Frederick Davenport [];

Charlotte Francis [];

Isaiah Chilton [] – 1887);

William James Lunn (1887 – 1888);

James Cockerton (1888);

William King (1888 – 1889);

William Alfred Young (1889 – 1909);

William Street (1909 – 1923);

George Wallis (1923 – 1925);

Henry Chaplin (1925 – 1937);

Francis Edward Brookling (1937 – 1938);

Daniel Simcox (1938);

Ernest Thickett (1938 – 1940);

Doris Thickett (1940 – 1945);

Ernest Thickett (1945 – 1947);

Eric Johnson (1947 – 1963);

Raymond Blanton (1963);

Allen Perry (1963 – 1965);

Peter John Meakin (1965 – 1966);

James Alexander Johnson (1966 – 1967);

Ronnie George Morgan (1967 – [])

NOTES

It was originally the BRICKMAKERS ARMS. [1861], [1863], [1864]

It became the BELL. [1870], [1872], [1874], [1876], [1881], [1901], [1909], [1911], [1940]

It had a beer, cider, wine and refreshment license.

Birmingham Journal 14/3/1857

“At the Guildhall, on Monday, Thomas Stanway was charged with stealing several sacks, the property of John Young, innkeeper, Stafford Street. One of the sacks had been sold to John Smith, marine store dealer, having been identified, the prisoner who elected to be tried summarily, pleaded guilty, and was sentenced to seven days’ imprisonment.”

Staffordshire Advertiser 4/9/1858

“Annual Licensing Day..... The following beerhouse keepers applied for victuallers’ licenses.....

John Young, Stafford Street, Walsall. Refused.”

John Young, beerhouse, 88, Stafford Street. [1858]

John Young, beer retailer, 88, Stafford Street. [1861], [1864], [1865]

1861 Census

88, Stafford Street – BRICKMAKERS ARMS

[1] John Young (38), beer seller, born Walsall;

[2] Ann Young (38), wife, born Bilston;

[3] Eliza Roger (14), general servant, born Wolverhampton:

John Young, retailer of beer, 88, Stafford Street. [1862]

Staffordshire Advertiser 14/11/1863

“At a meeting of the miners of Walsall and neighbourhood, held at the BRICKMAKERS ARMS, Stafford Street (Mr. Young’s) it was unanimously resolved to join the national association at present holding a conference at Leeds.”

Staffordshire Advertiser 26/12/1864

“On Tuesday evening, Mr. A. A. Fletcher, coroner, held an inquest upon the body of Thomas Low, aged 35, labourer, who resided at the BRICKMAKERS ARMS, Stafford Street, and who came to his death under the following peculiar circumstances. On the 10th instant the deceased was assisting Mr. George, butcher, to kill a pig, when suddenly the animal kicked the knife out of the butchers’ hand, and caused it to strike the deceased on the arm, which was severely wounded. The deceased was attended by Mr. Whymper, surgeon, and his assistant, and also by Mr. Day and Mr. Davis, surgeons; but mortification having set in, he expired on Saturday last. The jury after hearing the evidence returned a verdict of Accidental Death.

One of the jury, named Richard Hall, was given in charge by the Coroner, for contempt of court, he having spoken rudely to the Coroner, who said he had been asleep during the investigation, but he was liberated at the termination of proceedings.”

James Osbourn, beer retailer, 88 Stafford Street. [1868], [1870]

1871 Census

88, Stafford Street

[1] John Cheatle (43), innkeeper, born Ashby de la Zouch, Leicestershire;

[2] Ann Cheatle (42), wife, born Ashby de la Zouch, Leicestershire;

[3] Anne Cheatle (19), daughter, born Ashby de la Zouch, Leicestershire;

[4] Emily Cheatle (15), daughter, born Ashby de la Zouch, Leicestershire;

[5] Richard Knight Cheatle (13), son, scholar, born Ashby de la Zouch, Leicestershire;

[6] Ada Cheatle (11), daughter, scholar, born Ashby de la Zouch, Leicestershire;

[7] Harry Cheatle (8), son, scholar, born Woodville, Leicestershire:

John Cheatle, beer retailer, 88, Stafford Street. [1872]

Staffordshire Advertiser 20/8/1873

“The annual licensing sessions took place at the Guildhall yesterday.....

Samuel Brown, 88, Stafford Street, applied for a wine license, and the application was granted.”

Birmingham Daily Post 30/10/1874

“Sitting in Wolverhampton County Court, yesterday, the Judge (Mr. A. Martenau) had brought up before him a cross action involving an important point, which had been remitted by consent from the Walsall Adjudication. Mr. Samuel Brown, of the BELL INN, Stafford Street, Walsall, was sued by Mr. Josiah Lloyd, car proprietor, of Willenhall, for £50, as damages alleged to have been caused through the negligent driving of the defendant’s servant; and Brown brought a cross action for £8. Mr. Ebsworth was for the plaintiff; and Mr. Young (instructed by Mr. Glover of Walsall) appeared for Brown.

The evidence was to the effect that on the 25th of August, one of the Walsall race days, Mr. Brown gratuitously lent his horse and trap to a collier, named John Taylor, who, being on strike, wanted to earn money by driving visitors to and from the course. As Taylor was going along Wolverhampton Lane towards Walsall, and passing a cart near the middle of the road, a wagonette with four horses, belonging to Mr. Lloyd, and driven by a boy, ran into Brown’s trap. The collision injured Mr. Brown’s horse, smashed the trap, and rendered Taylor insensible by inflicting injuries which necessitated his removal to, and detention in the Cottage Hospital for a fortnight. The wagonette was damaged, and one of the horses, said to be worth £50, was so hurt that it died in a few days. It was to recover the loss thus occasioned that Lloyd brought his action, alleging that Taylor was to blame for the accident. Mr. Ebsworth maintained that Brown was liable, the relationship between him and Taylor being that of principal and agent. His Honour: I should be astonished if I had lent a man a horse out of charity, and he did damage, and I was held responsible. Mr. Ebsworth disclaimed having advanced that proposition, admitting that if such were so he could not further argue with reason. He put it to the Judge whether if a drunken man was put in charge of a horse and committed serious damage, the owner would not be liable.

His Honour replied that there was an excellent chock upon such a course, for the damage done to the property of the lender would be irrecoverable. Answering another instance cited by Mr. Ebsworth, his Honour was of opinion that a man entrusted to deliver a letter was a servant according to law.

The legal representatives here deliberated, and communicated the result to his Honour, who then said that the first action would be nonsuited, and the other would be withdrawn on payment of costs; and this because Taylor, the latter not being recognised as either servant or agent of Brown, was not responsible for Taylor’s actions.

Mr. Glover intimated that he acquiesced in this arrangement solely because of the loss sustained by Mr. Lloyd.”

Staffordshire Advertiser 15/5/1875

“On the evening of the 7th inst, at the BELL INN, Stafford Street, the members of the Retail Brewers’ Association presented their late hon. sec., Mr. Neville, with fine portrait of himself, executed in oils by Mr. Brown of the Bridge, and enclosed in a handsome gilt frame. The presentation was made by Mr. R. W. Gillespie (in the absence of Mr. W. Coath), and it was suitably acknowledged by Mr. Neville.”

Staffordshire Advertiser 27/5/1876

“William Brown, for refusing to leave the house of Samuel Brown, the BELL INN, Stafford Street, was fined 20s and costs, or 21 days’ imprisonment in default.”

Walsall Advertiser 24/6/1879 - Advert

“A Good Stable and Shop To Let.
Apply, BELL INN, 88, Stafford Street.”

1881 Census

88, Stafford Street – BELL INN

- [1] John Stevenson (29), licensed victualler, born Walsall;
- [2] Emily Stevenson (37), wife, born Walsall;
- [3] Alice Maud Stevenson (5), daughter, born Walsall;
- [4] Bertha Stevenson (4), daughter, born Walsall;
- [5] John Stevenson (2), son, born Walsall;
- [6] Louisa Wise (15), general servant, born Pelsall:

1891 Census

88, Stafford Street

- [1] William Young (38), retail brewer, born Walsall;
- [2] Hannah P. Young (33), wife, born Walsall;
- [3] Ada A. Young (14), daughter, scholar, born Walsall;
- [4] Alfred Young (9), son, scholar, born Walsall;
- [5] Florence G. Young (5), daughter, scholar, born Walsall;
- [6] George Holden (57), father, widower, living on own means, born Walsall;
- [7] Emily Swinburne (17), domestic servant, born Walsall:

Walsall Advertiser 3/9/1892

“Friendly Sick and Dividend Society. The opening annual supper in connection with this society was held at the BELL INN, Stafford Street, on Monday evening, when about sixty members sat down to an excellent supper, the catering for which had been placed in the hands of the host and hostess (Mr. and Mrs. Young). After supper the usual toasts for the Queen and the Society were given, and songs were afterwards ably rendered by Messrs. Onions, Price, Higgins, Young, and others. Before the party broke up a toast for the host and hostess was given with musical honours and was ably responded to by Mr. Young. The members dispersed about 10.30, having spent a very enjoyable evening.”

Walsall Advertiser 19/5/1894

“Walsall and District Licensed Victuallers’ Society. The monthly meeting of this society was held at the BELL INN, Stafford Street.....”

Walsall Advertiser 14/11/1896

“The monthly meeting of the Walsall and District Licensed Victuallers’ and Beer Retailers’ Friendly and Protection Society was held on Thursday last....

Mr. William Young, BELL INN, Stafford Street, was elected a member of the Executive Committee.”

1901 Census

88, Stafford Street – BELL INN TAVERN

- [1] William A. Young (47), brewer, born Stafford;
- [2] Hannah E. Young (43), wife, born Stafford;
- [3] Alfred Young (19), son, carpenter, born Stafford;
- [4] Florence Young (15), daughter, born Stafford;
- [5] Beatrice M. Young (4), daughter, born Walsall;
- [6] Florence Darby (18), domestic servant, born Walsall:

William Young, beer retailer, 88, Stafford Street. [1904]

Walsall Advertiser 22/6/1907

“James Hope, 34, Rowland Street, was summoned for being drunk on licensed premises, the BELL INN, Stafford Street, on the 11th inst.

Police-constable Smith (51) stated that at 9.32pm on the date named he heard a quarrel in the BELL INN, and on proceeding there saw defendant being ejected by the landlord’s son. Defendant was holding a door with both hands, and when he let go he fell down.

Fredk. Young, the landlord’s son, stated that he refused to serve the defendant because he was drunk, and when ejecting him he fell on the floor, sustaining a black eye.

The defendant stated that it was the officer who caused the black eye. It was the first time he had been in the hands of the police. He denied being drunk, and the same night went to the police station, and reported the officer for throwing him out.

A fine of 5s and costs was imposed.”

Walsall Advertiser 3/10/1908

“On the evidence of Police-constable Ashby, William George Pigg, of 37, Whitehouse Street was ordered to pay the costs for leaving his handcart outside the BELL INN, Stafford Street, from 8.30 to 8.50 on the 17th ult.

Defendant emphatically denied the offence.”

Walsall Advertiser 12/6/1909

“Master Willie Street, the brilliant fourteen year-old Walsall violinist, has added another to his list of distinctions. He has won another year’s free studentship under Mr. Max Mossell, of the Midland Institute, Birmingham. This is more than an ordinary distinction, as it is only students with exceptional talent that are admitted to this tutelage. During the past season, Mr. Mossell has been engaged in the musical subjugation of the Dutch East Indies, Burmah, China, and Japan, but his place was taken by Miss Muriel Warwood, who, according the music critics of high standing, is one of the most accomplished living violinists. Willie Street is a credit to her powers of inculcation, as well as to his father, Mr. William Street, of the BELL INN, Stafford Street, Walsall.”

Walsall Advertiser 10/9/1910 - Advert

“A. Beebee’s Noted Home-Brewed Ales.

Brewery – Sandwell Street, Walsall.

Houses.....

The BELL, Stafford Street, Walsall.”

1911 Census

88, Stafford Street – BELL INN

- [1] William Street (46), licensed victualler, born Walsall;
- [2] Charlotte Street (46), wife, married 24 years, assisting in the business, born Walsall;
- [3] William Street (17), son, music student, born Brownhills;
- [4] Ada May Street (21), daughter, assisting in the business, born Walsall:

William Street, beer retailer, 88, Stafford Street. [1912]

Walsall Observer 10/1/1914 - Advert

“W. A. Street, who has gained 5 years’ Free Scholarships under Max Mossell, the great Violinist, and Miss Wadeley, LRAM, has vacancies for a few more pupils. Terms on application. 88, Stafford Street, Walsall.”

Walsall Observer 12/1/1918

“Walsall and District War Aid Committee. Collection By The Licensed Victuallers, December, 1917.....
The BELL, Stafford Street. £1 2s 7d.”

Staffordshire Advertiser 14/3/1925

“At the adjourned licensing sessions, on the 5th inst..... the following were adjourned for plans of alterations to be submitted.....
BELL INN, Stafford Street.”

1939 Register

88, Stafford Street

[1] Ernest Thickett, date of birth 25/8/1907, public house manager, married;

[2] Doris Thickett, dob 25/11/1908, unpaid domestic duties, married;

[5] Christina A. (Thickett) Marlow, dob 25/12/1934, at school, single:

Walsall Observer 29/7/1939

“More than fifty licensed premises in Walsall and neighbouring place become Mitchells and Butlers houses this week as a result of the well-known Cape Hill brewery company’s acquisition of the whole of the undertakings of the Highgate-Walsall Brewery Co. Ltd., and the Walsall Breweries Proprietary Ltd., and of all the licensed and certain un-licensed properties of Messrs. John Lord, brewers, of Short Acre.....

A list of the licensed premises that form part of the properties acquired by Mitchells and Butlers is as follows.....

John Lord’s houses.....

BELL, Stafford Street.”

Walsall Observer 24/12/1942

“Walsall Licensed Victuallers’ Society. The Duke of Gloucester’s Red Cross Fund. List of Subscriptions.....
BELL INN, Stafford Street. £2 17s 6d.”

A full license was granted on 2nd February 1950.

Name changed to GRANNIE’S KITCHEN. [1993]

Closed [2003], [2014]

Demolished [2015]

Check GAS FITTERS ARMS.

GREAT BRITAIN

120, Regent Street, WALSALL

OWNERS

LICENSEES

D Shelley [1857]

David Webster [1857] – [1862]

NOTES

Bells Life in London and Sporting Chronicle 25/1/1857

“George Baylis of Walsall will take one yard start in 100 of Rueben Craddock of Anden, from £5 or £10 a side. Money ready any night next week at Mr. D. Shelley’s, the GREAT BRITAIN, Walsall.”

Bells Life in London and Sporting Chronicle 26/4/1857

“G. Bayliss of Walsall will run J. Jones 80 yards for £5 or £10 a side. Money ready any time next week, at D. Webster’s. GREAT BRITAIN, Regent Street, Walsall.”

Staffordshire Advertiser 4/9/1858

Annual licensing day..... The following beerhouse keepers applied for victuallers' licenses.....
David Webster, Regent Street, Walsall. Refused."

David Webster, retailer of beer, Regent Street. [1862]

Bells Life in London and Sporting Chronicle 27/7/1862

"H. Willis of Wolverhampton and C. Fowler of Walsall. Immediately after the above race these men will get to their mark, to run a quarter of a mile, round the grounds, for £5 a side. The final deposit for the above has been made to the final stakeholder, Mr. Webster, GREAT BRITAIN INN, Regent Street, Walsall."

Birmingham Daily Post 25/6/1866 - Advert

"To Be Let, a Beerhouse and Fixtures; Tap Room, Bar, and large Kitchen, Parlour, Club Room, three Chambers, and Cellarage. Coming in from £7 to £10. Leaving on account of _____ of employment.
Apply, GREAT BRITAIN, Regent Street, Walsall."

Walsall Free Press 17/4/1869 - Advert

"To Be Let, the OLD WHEAT SHEAF INN, Birmingham Street, the GREAT BRITAIN INN, Regent Street, Burrowes Street.
Apply to Farrington and Son, Auctioneers &c, Walsall."

1871 Census

120, Regent Street – GREAT BRITAIN Public House
Unoccupied.

GREEN DRAGON

293, Green Lane, WALSALL

OWNERS

Timothy Smith, Darlington Street, Wolverhampton
Manchester Brewery Co. [1901]
Samuel Allsopp and Sons [1909]
Holt Brewery Co. Ltd.
Frank Myatt Ltd. [1912], [1938]

LICENSEES

James Yates [1841] – [1842]
Samuel Tonks [1845] – [1862]
Mrs. Louisa Hartland [1864] – [1865]
William Fisher [1868] – [1870]
Timothy Leary and Son [1872] – [1873]
John James Leary [1872];
Edward Leary [];
Philip Perry [1881] – 1900);
John William Howley (1900 – 1901);
Thomas Molineaux (1901 – 1903);
Joseph Loynes (1903 – 1910);
William Cooper (1910 – 1913);
John Thomas (1913); manager
Frederick 'Fred' Davies (1913 – 1914);
John Ignatius Cunningham (1914 – 1916);
William Joseph Owen (1916);
Thomas Hammond Townsend (1916 – 1918);
Thomas Clark (1918 – 1920);
Rupert Raybould (1920 – 1922);
Sidney Dyde (1922 – 1932);
William Mulloy (1932);
Phoebe Ann Mulloy (1932 – 1933);

Harry Salt (1933 – 1934);
Charles Henry Hadley (1934 – 1935);
Frank Cowlshaw (1935 – 1936);
Joseph Seagar (1936 – 1937);
Albert Edwards (1937 – 1939):

NOTES

[1816]

DRAGON [1841], [1842], [1845], [1849], [1850], [1858]

Samuel Tonks was also a bridle cutter. [1845], [1849], [1850]

Staffordshire Advertiser 23/6/1855

“On Saturday last, an inquest was held at the GREEN DRAGON, Green Lane, before A. A. Fletcher, Esq, coroner, on the body of William Smith, aged thirty. The deceased was a miner, and worked in a stone pit at the Green Farm Colliery, Darlaston, for William Aston. About mid-day on Friday, while following his usual employment, a large quantity of stone, about four hundred weight, fell from the roof of the pit on to his head, crushing him in a most shocking manner, and from the effects of his injuries he died in a few minutes. Verdict Accidental Death.”

Staffordshire Advertiser 29/3/1856

“An inquest was held by A. A. Fletcher, Esq, borough coroner, on Monday afternoon, at the GREEN DRAGON INN, Green Lane, on the body of Thomas Ordish, aged 30, lately employed in a coal mine called Green Lanes Colliery, the property of T. and C. Highway, Esqs. It appeared that on Friday last, between twelve and one o’clock, the deceased and a man named Errington were propping up some part of the roof of the pit; and while deceased was driving a plug – whether from the vibration thus produced is not known – a mass of coal weighing from five to six cwt., fell upon him, and he died directly. Several persons bore testimony to the general safety of the mine, the only part considered dangerous being the one they were ‘timbering’ when the melancholy affair occurred. A verdict of Accidental Death was recorded. The deceased has left a wife enceinte, but no children.”

Walsall Free Press 24/7/1858

“Ancient Order Of Foresters. The third anniversary of Court Philanthropic, No.2763, of this ancient order, was celebrated on Monday last, on which occasion the members and their friends, to the number of forty, dined together at the GREEN DRAGON INN, Green Lane. Ample justice having been done to the repast, which was served up in a style highly creditable to Mr. Tonks, the cloth was removed.....”

1861 Census

293, Green Lane

- [1] Samuel Tonks (52), victualler and bridle cutter employing 1 man and 1 boy, born Walsall;
- [2] Rhoda Tonks (48), wife, born Bloxwich;
- [3] Henry Tonks (29), son, brewer, born Walsall;
- [4] Eliza Tonks (17), daughter, born Walsall;
- [5] John Tonks (15), son, currier’s (?), born Walsall;
- [6] William Tonks (10), son, scholar, born Walsall;
- [7] Mary Tonks (5), daughter, scholar, born Walsall:

Walsall Free Press 1/6/1861

“Michael O’Neil v. Michael Hagley. Defendant was charged with assaulting complainant, in Blue Lane East, on Tuesday night week. Complainant said he was in the GREEN DRAGON, Green Lane, having some beer, when defendant came in and asked him to lend him a shilling. He declined doing so, and went out. Defendant followed him, and again asked him to lend him some money. He again declined doing so, when defendant at once attacked him, knocked him down, and kicked him. Complainant called a witness, but he did not see assault committed. For the defence a witness named John Murphy was called. He took the book readily, and went through the formula of the oath. He was asked by the Bench if he knew the nature of an oath. He replied that he did. He was then asked if he knew what book that was. He said he knew it very well – it was a swearing book. Beyond that he knew nothing of the nature or contents of the ‘swearing book.’ His evidence, was of course, not acceptable. Defendant was fined 2s 6d and costs.”

Samuel and Rhoda Tonks – see RAILWAY.

Walsall Free Press 19/3/1864

“Louisa Hartland, landlady of the GREEN DRAGON, Wolverhampton Lane, was charged with having had her house open at five minutes past four o’clock on Sunday afternoon; but as she proved that the parties who had been supplied with ale at the time in question had come from Bilston, the charge was dismissed.”

Birmingham Daily Post 15/6/1864

“At the Guildhall, on Monday, before Messrs. S. Cox (Mayor) and J. Shannon, four men, named Thomas and John Haley, John Costello, and Michael Conroy, were charged under the Wine Licenses Act, with being disorderly in the GREEN DRAGON public house, Green Lane, on Monday night. It was shown that about seven o'clock on the night named Police-constable Kates was called into the house by Mr. Hartland, to quell a disturbance, and he found the four defendants breaking the cups and glasses, and overturning the chairs and tables, and also brutally ill-treating a man who was in the house. The man was rescued from their hands, and went away, subsequently a great crowd of persons assembled, and the constable was placed in some peril. The defendants were each fined 10s and costs, or in default fourteen days' hard labour.”

Walsall Free Press 8/7/1865

“Mrs. Hartland, landlady of the GREEN DRAGON, was charged with having had her house open, at half-past six o'clock on the morning last, for the sale of beer. The charge having been proved by Police-constables Lees and Tatton, the defendant was sentenced to pay a fine of 5s and costs.”

Walsall Free Press 11/11/1865

“Louisa Hartland, landlady of the GREEN DRAGON, Green Lane, who had been previously convicted, was fined 2s 6d and costs for having had her house open for the sale of beer during prohibited hours, on Sunday morning last.”

Walsall Free Press 18/1/1868 - Advert

“To Be Let, with immediate possession, that excellent Old Licensed Public house, the GREEN DRAGON, situated in Green Lane, Walsall.

Apply W. Horobin, Auctioneer, 7, Wolverhampton Street.”

T. Leary and Son, 292-293 Green Lane, grocers and victuallers.

Staffordshire Advertiser 31/5/1873

“On Tuesday Mr. Fletcher, coroner, held an inquest at the GREEN DRAGON INN, Green Lane, on the body of Patrick Maloney (5½), son of parents living in Blue Lane. On Friday afternoon he was missed, and after a time one of his play-fellows said he had fallen into a pool in Shaw's Leasowe while sliding down the embankment. Drags were procured, and after a search of about an hour and a half Supt. Mason found the child's body in the water.
Verdict Accidental Death.”

1881 Census

Green Lane – GREEN DRAGON INN

- [1] Philip Perry (27), licensed victualler, born Bloxwich;
- [2] Mary Pendrill Perry (28), wife, born Walsall;
- [3] Bernard Perry (2), son, born Walsall;
- [4] Mary Perry (1 month), daughter, born Walsall;
- [5] Eliza Ball (19), domestic servant, born Bloxwich;
- [6] Henry Jenkins (21), barman, born Coventry:

Birmingham Daily Post 27/11/1890

“At the Guildhall, a special session – the first under the new local Act – was held for the purpose of hearing applications for music, singing, and dancing licenses Philip Perry, the GREEN DRAGON, Green Lane, who had given notice of their intention to apply, did not appear.”

1891 Census

293, Green Lane – GREEN DRAGON INN

- [1] Philip Perry (37), licensed victualler, born Bloxwich;
- [2] Mary P. Perry (43), wife, born Walsall;
- [3] Bernard Perry (12), son, scholar, born Walsall;
- [4] Mary B. Perry (10), daughter, scholar, born Walsall;
- [5] Iznelda (?) Perry (2), daughter, born Walsall;
- [6] Catherine Perry (2 months), daughter, born Walsall:

Walsall Advertiser 18/6/1892

“On Tuesday, the borough coroner (Mr. T. H. Stanley) held an inquiry at the GREEN DRAGON, Green Lane, on the body of Frederick Cook (5), whose parents live at 4-house, 11-court, Green Lane. The child was well until the previous Saturday, when he complained of pains in the stomach, and was given medicine which had been obtained from a chemist, after taking which he appeared relieved. Next morning, however, he became sick, and grew worse during the day, dying suddenly in the afternoon. A neighbour, who was present at the time of death, stated that it was a case of convulsions; and a verdict to this effect was accordingly returned.”

Philip Perry – see also WOODMAN, Blue Lane West.

John William Howley = John William Hawley

1901 Census

293, Green Lane

- [1] John Howley (28), licensed victualler's manager, born Wolverhampton;
- [2] Naomi Howley (24), wife, born Wolverhampton;
- [3] Maria Howley (1), daughter, born Wolverhampton;
- [4] Mary Howley (56), mother, widow, retired dressmaker, born Wolverhampton;
- [5] James Garrigher (25), barman, born Wolverhampton;
- [6] Louisa Kirkham (17), domestic servant, born Wolverhampton:

Walsall Advertiser 3/8/1901

“Maria Booker, back of 297, Green Lane, was summoned for damaging a window pane belonging to John William Hawley, of the GREEN DRAGON, Green Lane, doing damage to the amount of £1 14s. Mr. H. H. Jackson (Stanley and Jackson) prosecuted. On Friday morning, the 26th July, defendant went into the GREEN DRAGON, and a short time after she was supplied with some rum she smashed one of the front windows.

Ada Hollingshead, of Blue Lane, stated that she saw defendant smash prosecutor's window with a brick. Witness said she thought defendant was drunk, for defendant came up to her and threatened to smash her window if she said anything about it.

Defendant said that she did not know whether she broke the window or not. She was supplied with a lot of drink in the prosecutor's house and then forcibly ejected.

Fined 10s and costs and ordered to pay the damage, or 21 days in default.

Defendant: I shall have to do the 21 days.”

Walsall Advertiser 26/10/1901

“Mr. T. H. Stanley (Stanley and Jackson) made application for the temporary transfer of the license of the GREEN DRAGON, Green Lane, from John William Howley to Thomas Molineux. The agreement under which Molineux was to hold the license was produced, and Alderman Holden said he did not feel prepared to consent to the transfer under the conditions of the agreement. The man was subject to 14 days' notice, and a man could not be responsible for the good conduct of his house if he was subject to so short a notice.

The Bench retired for consultation in private, and, on returning, Alderman Holden announced that they would grant the temporary authority, but they were strongly of opinion that the responsible person should be the tenant, and not a mere servant for one or two weeks. The Bench thought there ought to be a better class of people as managers of public houses.”

Walsall Advertiser 11/1/1902

“Licensed Victuallers' Society. The monthly meeting of the above society was held on Thursday.....

New Members..... Mr. Thomas Molyneux, GREEN DRAGON INN, Green Lane.”

Walsall Advertiser 26/8/1905

“Ellen Fisher, married woman, 6, Tiger Yard, was charged with assaulting Kate Leonard, 1 court, Blue Lane, on the preceding Tuesday; and there was a cross-summons charging Leonard with assaulting Fisher. Both women have frequently been before the court. It seemed they met in the GREEN DRAGON, Green Lane, on the evening of the date named, and each said the other used filthy language. Leonard alleged Fisher assaulted her with a hat pin, and used very bad language; Fisher said Leonard struck her behind the ear, causing a wound which bled profusely, and she produced a collar besmeared with blood and also a cloth saturated in blood. She also alleged that it was Leonard who used the filthy language, and challenged her to fight because she knew that she (Fisher) was bound over to keep the peace; and Leonard also pulled her blouse off in the street to fight.

Several witnesses were called, but Alderman Clare said the Bench did not know which side to believe. There were some lies being told somewhere. Both summons were dismissed, each side to pay 3s costs.”

1911 Census

Green Lane – GREEN DRAGON

- [1] William Cooper (43), publican, born Nuneaton;
- [2] Mary Cooper (37), wife, married 16 years, born Parkgate, Yorkshire;
- [3] Archibald Cooper (11), son, school, born Parkgate, Yorkshire;
- [4] Dorothy Cooper (13), daughter, school, born Parkgate, Yorkshire;
- [5] Annie Raybold (24), servant, born Brierley Hill:

Frederick Davies = Frederick Davis

Walsall Observer 25/7/1914

“Ernest Lawrence, greengrocer, of 217, Green Lane, was summoned by William Dowlan, of 225 Green Lane, for assault on July 20th. Mr. F. A. Platt, defended.

Complainant said that on July 20th, at 11.30pm, he saw a row going on near defendant's house. Some of the gipsy class were setting about a man who they accused of spying upon them about thrashing horses. Defendant, whom complainant had never previously seen, came up to him and said, 'Here is one of them.' He then knocked complainant down, kicked him, and scratched his face.

Answering Mr. Platt, complainant said it was not true that he had suggested that he and Lawrence should each put 3s 6d down, and they should fight it out.

William Bird and Mrs. Sidwell corroborated complainant's story.

In reply to Mr. Platt, Bird admitted that he challenged Lawrence to fight.

Lawrence said a man came into his yard, refused to leave, and jostled him.

Fred Davis, landlord of the GREEN DRAGON, in Green Lane, gave evidence as to statements made by Dowlan, and the case was dismissed."

Walsall Observer 15/9/1917

"At the Police Court yesterday, before the Mayor (Mr. S. M. Slater) and Mr. A. D. Cozens, Patrick Feeley (47), labourer, Bull's Head Lodging House, Green Lane, was charged with stealing a bottle of whisky, value 6s, belonging to Frank Myatt, brewer, on the 2nd inst.

A motor driver named William Littleford, of Heath Town, who was in charge of a vehicle belonging to prosecutor, spoke of visiting the GREEN DRAGON INN, Green Lane, and to missing the bottle of whisky off the vehicle. A girl, named Alice Brown, of 19½, Wolverhampton Street, Walsall, saw prisoner take the whisky, and also said he shook his fist at her.

Detective Bell arrested prisoner, who admitted that he broke the bottle and drank the whisky.

In defence prisoner said he was drunk.

The Mayor: Before you did it or after? – Prisoner: Before.

It was stated by Chief Inspector Ballance that there were over sixty convictions against the man, who had been convicted all over the country for theft, but was a Walsall man.

Prisoner was sentenced to the maximum term of three months' imprisonment."

[Bull's Head Lodging House is the de-licensed BULL'S HEAD, Green Lane.]

Walsall Observer 12/1/1918

"Walsall and District War Aid Committee. Collection By The Licensed Victuallers, December, 1917..... GREEN DRAGON, Green Lane. £1 3s 3d."

Rupert Raybould – see also ALMA.

Harry Salt – see also SPURMAKERS ARMS.

Joseph Seagar – see also THREE CUPS, STAG, Bloxwich, and SPOTTED COW, Bloxwich.

It closed at 2pm on 4th May 1939, and the license was transferred to the COTTAGE, Harden.

Birmingham Daily Gazette 5/5/1939

"The special removal of the license of the GREEN DRAGON, Green Lane, Walsall, to premises erected in Harden Road, Walsall, was approved yesterday by Walsall Licensing Justices.

It was explained that demolition notices in respect of the GREEN DRAGON were served in June last owing to a scheme for the widening of Green Lane. The owners had now erected a modern house in Harden Road."

GREEN MAN

5, Dudley Street / Upper Hall Lane, (Vicarage Place), WALSALL

OWNERS

William Henry Farmer, Dudley Street, Walsall

Leary's Brewery, Pleck, Walsall

Manchester Brewery Co. [1906]

Samuel Allsopp and Sons Ltd.

Holt Brewery Co. Ltd.

Frank Myatt Ltd.

LICENSEES

John Farrington [1818] – [1822]

John Farrington [1826]
 Miles Farrington [1828]
 George Farrington [1828] – [1830]
 John Farrington [1835]
 Edward Parker [1841] – [1850]
 Francis Priscilla Clements [1851]
 Joseph Archer [1855] – 1866;
 Thomas Russell (1866 – []
 Robert Crow [1868] – [1873];
 Mrs. Sarah Jane Crow [];
 William Elliott [pre 1879];
 Patrick Edward Donnelly [];
 Arnold Lewis [1881];
 John Mabyn [];
 John Donnellan [] – 1888;
 George Pearson (1888 – 1892);
 William Horton (1892 – 1893);
 Herbert Tuckley (1893 – 1894);
 George Pearson (1894);
 Denis Gordon (1894 – 1898);
 William Lawrence (1898 – 1899);
 William Farrington (1899 – 1900);
 Patrick Lyon (1900 – 1903);
 Eliza Powell (1903 – 1906);
 William Wright (1906 – 1909);
 Frank Midwinter (1909 – 1910);
 George William Walter Hey (1910 – 1911);
 Albert Victor Murdock (1911 – 1913);
 George Turpin (1913 – 1914);
 William Swann (1914 – 1917);
 Catherine Winifred Swann (1917 – 1918);
 James Anson (1918 – 1926);
 Frederick Albert Hadley (1926 – 1931);
 George James Briscall (1931 – 1934);
 James Platt (1934 – 1936);
 William Platt (1936 – 1940);
 Dora Platt (1940 – 1943);
 Lilian Bennett (1943);
 Nellie Marian Turner (1943 – 1946);
 Charles Mason (1946 – 1952);
 Harold Francis Drummond (1952 – 1953);
 Charles William Cass (1953 – 1958);
 Denis Ash (1958 – 1959);
 Alfred Charles Gardener (1959 – 1960);
 George Edward Morris (1960 – 1962);
 Harry Dobson (1962);
 Mabel Brown (1962 – 1963);
 Stanley Herbert Kirk (1963);
 George Albert Hudson (1963 – 1964);
 Albert Westwood (1964 – 1965);
 Malcolm Leslie Corbett (1965 – 1966);
 Frank Austin (1966 – []

NOTES

ORIGINAL GREEN MAN [1828], [1832]

OLD GREEN MAN [1861], [1866], [1872], [1906], [1907], [1909], [1911], [1912], [1918], [1941], [1942], [1944]

OLDE GREEN MAN [1940]

‘The History and Directory of Walsall’ by Thomas Pearce 1813

“Number of Lodges, Clubs, and Benefit Societies, at Walsall Additional Friendly Societies, known by the name of Gift Societies.....

A Gift, or permanent fund, held at GREEN MAN, Dudley Street.”

Aris's Birmingham Gazette 18/12/1826 - Advert

"John Farrington respectfully solicits the support of the inhabitants of Walsall and its neighbourhood as an Auctioneer and Appraiser, and pledges himself for the most unremitting attention and punctuality to all business with which he may be favoured. GREEN MAN, Dudley Street, Walsall. December 16, 1826."

Aris's Birmingham Gazette 5/1/1829 - Advert

"To Maltsters And Brewers.

Wanted, a steady active Man who understands Malting and Brewing.

Constant employment may be met with by enquiring at the GREEN MAN, Dudley Street, Walsall."

Staffordshire Advertiser 13/12/1830

"The subscribers of the Walsall Harmonic Society held their annual meeting on Friday, the 2nd inst. at Mr. Farrington's, GREEN MAN, Dudley Street, when Mr. John Heeley, Esq., was chosen president, and Richard Jesson, jun., Esq., vice-president, for the ensuing year. An excellent dinner was provided on the occasion, and a numerous and respectable party spent the evening with the utmost glee and hilarity. The vocal performances of Messrs. Pearsall and Simmonds of Birmingham, assisted by Mr. Stone of Walsall, elicited much applause."

Excise office. [1834], [1845]

It had a bowling green. [1834]

Aris's Birmingham Gazette 1/1/1838

"To Brewers And Hostlers.

Wanted immediately, a steady Man as Brewer and Hostler. One who understands malting would be preferred.

Apply at the GREEN MAN INN, Dudley Street. Walsall."

Baptists worshipped here in 1845.

Edward Parker was also a maltster. [1845]

He was described as a maltster, horticultural architect and landscape gardener. [1849], [1850]

Birmingham Journal 5/5/1849

"Exhibition Of The Walsall Floral And Horticultural Society. The first exhibition of this society this season took place on Wednesday, at the Blue Coat School Room, and in a commodious marquee erected adjoining the GEORGE HOTEL. The specimens shewn were decidedly superior to those exhibited in previous years, notwithstanding the late unfavourable season. In the afternoon, the subscribers and judges, competitors, &c dined together at the GREEN MAN INN, Dudley Street, Mr. Richard Jesson in the chair, the vice being ably filled by Mr Charles Eyland, treasurer of the society. The usual loyal toasts were drunk, after which 'Success to the Walsall Horticultural Society,' 'The Chairman. The Treasurer, and Secretary.' 'The Judges,' 'The Amateur Florists,' &c, &c, each of which were suitably responded to, and after spending a pleasant evening the company broke up at an early hour."

Staffordshire Advertiser 3/11/1855

"John Jaques, a man of colour, was indicted for obtaining on the 29th September, six pounds of sugar, and a pound of tea, by false pretences, from Mr. Robert Keyte, grocer. The prisoner went to the shop of the prosecutor, and representing that he was sent by Mrs. Archer, of the GREEN MAN, Dudley Street, where he was employed, obtained the articles above named, which he was found afterwards trying to dispose of in a lodging house. He was, it appeared, tipsy at the time, and Mrs. Archer having given him an excellent character, and stated that she would again employ him, he was acquitted and discharged with a caution."

Staffordshire Advertiser 13/12/1856

"Charge Of Uttering Forged Bank of England Notes.

At the Guildhall a young man named Edwin Keyte, brother to Daniel Keyte, who keeps the PIGEON beerhouse in Bullock's Row, was charged with the above offence. Mr. Joseph Archer, the landlord of the GREEN MAN, prosecutor, deposed that about half-past seven on the Saturday night a man, who is not in custody, went to his house and asked for five pipes, six papers of tobacco, and six quarts of ale. He said the ale was for the workmen of Mr. Murray, cabinet maker, Digbeth, and that it was foot-ale, or what is paid for by a man newly employed. In payment he presented a note, purporting to be a £5 Bank of England note. He left, taking the change, but the prosecutor feeling doubts as to the genuineness of the note, sent William Horton, locksmith, who was sitting in the kitchen, to follow the man and see where he took the ale to. Horton saw him pass up Dudley Street, where he was joined by the prisoner, to whom, on meeting a policeman, he handed the bottle. They proceeded at a rapid pace to the PIGEON, kept by the brother of the prisoner, when the latter put the bottle in the yard through some broken palings, and witness saw Daniel Keyte, the landlord, bring it from inside the yard into the house. Joseph Keyte, another brother saw the witness looking and nodded to Daniel, who then concealed the bottle. The witness stated that considerable effort was employed to prevent him seeing anything that occurred, and ultimately seven men, including the man who had fetched that ale and Daniel Keyte, left the house together, going along the Birmingham Road, the witness returning to inform Mr. Archer what he had observed.

Mr. Blackburn, cashier of the Walsall branch of the Birmingham Bank, proved that the note produced was a forgery, as well as two others which were in court. A forged note, bearing the same number as one of these, had recently been offered to him. The signature to £5 Bank of England notes was now lithographed, which, of course, rendered it more easy of imitation.

Mr. Cater, superintendent of police, applied for a remand for a week, which was granted, though opposed by Mr. Wilkinson on the part of the prisoner. Bail, however, in £20 each, two securities, was accepted.

Joseph Keyte, a younger brother of the prisoner, was then placed at the bar, on the charge of passing a forged note of a similar description to Mrs. Ellen Cooper, of Digbeth, butcher, on the same night.

Mr. Cater said he was prepared to complete this case; but Mr. Wilkinson, who said he was retained for the prisoner, said the latter had only been taken into custody that morning, and had had no time to prepare his defence.

The prisoner was remanded till Wednesday, remaining in custody meanwhile.”

AND

“Charge Of Uttering Forged Bank of England Note.

On Wednesday, before W. Thomas (Mayor), J. Shannon, W. Ward, and C. Greatrex, Esqrs., Joseph Keyte, remanded from Monday on this charge, was again brought up. Mrs. Ellen Cooper, butcher, of New Street, deposed that on Saturday night a man went to her shop and purchased some steak, tendering a £5 note, purporting to be a Bank of England note, in payment. After he left she discovered the note to be a forged one, and gave information to the police, which at once led them to conclude that the prisoner was the man. On being asked, however, if she could identify him, she looked at him, said he was very much like him, but thought the man was taller, and began to weep, saying she would not like to go against any man’s child. Her daughter was called, but she went further, and said she was pretty certain the prisoner was not the man, and accordingly Keyte was discharged.

The Mayor said the magistrates were unanimously of the opinion that the case had been tampered with.”

Staffordshire Sentinel 20/12/1856

“Edwin Keyte, a young man remanded from the previous Monday, on the charge of being concerned with passing a forged £5 Bank of England note to Mr. Joseph Archer, the GREEN MAN, Dudley Street, on the night of the 6th inst., surrendered to his bail on Monday last. The Superintendent of Police said that he had been unable to obtain any additional evidence to that given on the former occasion, and the Bench, not deeming that sufficiently conclusive, discharged the accused.”

Staffordshire Advertiser 2/5/1857

“George Reynolds, remanded last week, on the charge of passing a forged Bank of England note for £5 to Mr. William Bond [sic], publican, in Paddock Lane, in payment for ale, was charged with passing another forged note of the same bank and same amount on the night of 6th December last, at the OLD GREEN MAN, George Street, kept by Mr. Archer. Some suspicions were entertained as to the truth of his story, and he was followed and seen, on meeting with Edward Keyte, brother of the landlord of the PIGEON beerhouse, to hand the ale to him. Keyte was afterwards apprehended on it being found that the note was bad, but was discharged for want of evidence. The present prisoner was apprehended at the PIGEON beerhouse, on the 16th April, as previously stated, after being missing from the neighbourhood since December. Several witnesses positively identified him as the man who passed the forged note, the note itself having been marked on being found to be bad shortly after its receipt. The prisoner was remanded for a week to await communication with the authorities of the Bank of England.”

[At the Staffordshire Summer Assizes - George Reynolds was sentenced to 10 years’ penal servitude.]

AND

“Edward Keyte was brought up by sergeant Dackus, on the charge of being concerned with George Reynolds in passing a forged Bank of England note at the GREEN MAN, on the 6th December last; but it appearing that there was no further evidence against the prisoner than that adduced in December, that he took the bottle of ale which Reynolds had given the note in payment for from the prisoner, he was discharged.”

Walsall Free Press 16/3/1861

“Sarah Bradbury v. Cook and his wife.

The parties reside at the GREEN MAN, Dudley Street. Complainant stated that her charge against the defendants was for threatening her life. On Tuesday night she was asleep in bed, when Mr. and Mrs. Cook came to her bed-room door, and uttered the most horrible threats against her life, and abused her in language she would not like to repeat. She called a person in court as a witness, but he did not seem to know much of the matter. Mr. Cook denied the charge altogether. The Bench dismissed the case.”

1861 Census

5, Dudley Street

- [1] Joseph Archer (59), publican, born Walsall;
- [2] Mary Archer (48), wife, born Walsall;
- [3] Sarah Needham (17), house servant, born Ireland;
- [4] Susannah Nelson (59), lodger, widow, tailor, born Chippenham, Wiltshire;
- [5] John Ryan (28), lodger, boot maker, born London;
- [6] Lucy Ryan (28), lodger, silk winder, born Coventry;
- [7] Edward Ryan (2), lodger, born Walsall;
- [8] Mary I. Ryan (6 months), lodger, born Nottingham;
- [9] John Lee (49), lodger, tailor, born Rutland;
- [10] William Bradbury (23), lodger, fruiterer, born Birmingham;
- [11] Ellen Hill (37), lodger, cork cutter, born Dudley;

- [12] John Rawson (21), lodger, tailor, born Chichester, Sussex;
[13] Luke Dutton (35), lodger, travelling draper, born Ireland;
[14] Emma Dutton (28), lodger, travelling draper, born Leicester:

Walsall Free Press 18/6/1864

“John Galway was charged with having wilfully broken a pane of glass, value £2 15s, the property of Mr. Archer, GREEN MAN, Dudley Street. It appeared that, on Sunday afternoon, the defendant, who lodges at the above public house, requested to be supplied with ale, on being refused, he went into the street and threw stones at the window, and damaged it to the amount stated. The defendant when apprehended, had three stones in his pocket, and, on his way to the station offered to pay for the damage done. The Bench after hearing the evidence, sentenced the defendant to pay £2 10s for the damage done, and a fine of 20s and costs; or, in default, to be imprisoned for two months with hard labour.”

Birmingham Daily Post 10/2/1865

“At the Guildhall, yesterday, before Messrs. F. B. Oerton and H. Brace, Patrick Nugent, Thomas Brannon, and Bridget, his wife, were charged with having been concerned in a highway robbery, with violence, from the person of Thomas Henry Higgenson, for whom Mr. Glover appeared. On Monday night the prosecutor was at the GREEN MAN INN, Dudley Street, where he met the male prisoners. On leaving the inn he went to Brannon’s house, and there paid for a quart of ale. After drinking a small quantity he was about to leave the house, when the inmates endeavoured to prevent him. He got away from them, however, and had reached the end of a passage leading into the street, when Nugent and another man met him, and took away his watch, a pencil case, and two knives. They then threw him into the gutter, and brutally ill-treated him until he became unconscious. Subsequently one of the knives was found on a beam in Brannon’s house, and Mrs. Brannon was found dealing with the pencil case. The prisoners were committed for trial at the ensuing Borough Quarter Sessions.

[Patrick Nugent, Thomas Brannon, and Bridget Brannon were found not guilty at the Staffordshire Sessions in March 1865.]

Joseph Archer – see also DOG AND PARTRIDGE.

He issued tokens from here.

Walsall Free Press 30/6/1866 - Advert

“Preliminary announcement. Mr. Thomas Russell begs to announce that he has engaged the celebrated Champion Quoit Player ‘M’Gregor,’ to Play A Match, which will come off upon the Quoit and Bowling Green adjoining the GREEN MAN, Dudley Street, and of which particulars will appear in a future.”

Birmingham Daily Post 23/8/1866 - Advert

“To be Disposed Of, the Licenses and Possession of the excellent Old-Licensed Inn, known as the OLD GREEN MAN, situated in the best part of Dudley Street, and junction with the late improvements of George Street and Hall Lane, in the occupation of Mrs. Russell, who is leaving solely on account of having personally attended to her trade.

The House has been much improved, having a handsome Liquor Shop to the Front, with Entrance to Hall Lane, two Parlours, Tap Room, Cooking Kitchen, nine capital Parlours, excellent Cellars, and excellent supply of water for Brewing purposes, entire Yard, extensive Porter Stores, capital Lodge Room, Stabling for fifty Horses, Bowling Green, Quoit Ground, and other Appurtenances thereto.

The rent is low, and, with Premises which are let off, reduces the rent of the House to a nominal rent.

Fixtures, &c, to be taken to in the usual way.

Apply to H. Farrington, 1, St George’s Buildings, Walsall.”

Robert Crow = Robert Crown = Robert Crowe

Walsall Free Press 29/5/1869

“Robert Crow, landlord of the GREEN MAN, Dudley Street, was charged with having on Sunday last, had his house open during prohibited hours, namely, ten minutes past twelve midnight.

Police-constable Blewer said he saw a woman going into defendant’s house by the side door in Hall Lane, and come out by the front door in Dudley Street. He went to the woman and laid hold of the jug, and on his doing so she up-set the contents of it over his hands. He then went to Mrs. Crow and asked why she had supplied the woman with drink, and she replied ‘No one has been here for ale tonight.’

Witness was cross-examined at some length by Mr. Dale, who appeared for the defendant, and who contended that the evidence as to the keeping open was not conclusive. The Bench, however, considered that it was proved, and they sentenced defendant to pay a fine of 1s and costs.”

Walsall Free Press 19/11/1870 - Advert

“Wanted, a strong active Servant Girl, one from the country preferred; age from 20 to 25. Apply, Mr. R. Crow’s, GREEN MAN INN, Dudley Street.”

1871 Census

5, Dudley Street

- [1] Robert Crow (40), licensed victualler, born Little Brickhill, Berkshire;
- [2] Sarah J. Crow (35), wife, born Sedgley;
- [3] Hannah Hughes (66), mother, born Sedgley;
- [4] William Dawes (17), domestic servant, born Africa;
- [5] Leah Waring (22), domestic servant, born Long Compton, Warwickshire;
- [6] George Brown (45), boarder, musician, born Hull;
- [7] Mary Brown (29), lodger, musician, born Ale Walton, Northamptonshire;
- [8] Frederick Brown (15), lodger, musician, born Ale Walton, Northamptonshire;
- [9] Thomas O'Neill (28), lodger, hawkker, born Wolverhampton;
- [10] Maria O'Neill (30), lodger, born Manchester;
- [11] John Warrington (29), lodger, provision dealer, born Shoreditch. Middlesex;
- [12] Charles Jones (27), lodger, musician, born Bath:

Birmingham Daily Post 19/7/1871 - Advert

“Walsall. To be Let, that old-established House known as the GREEN MAN INN, Dudley Street. Beds and Let-offs more than pay the rent.
Apply on Premises.”

Staffordshire Advertiser 30/3/1872

“John Cope, a man against whom several convictions were on record was convicted of having, on Tuesday, stolen a meat jack, value 8s, the property of Robert Crowe, of the GREEN MAN INN, Dudley Street, and was sentenced to four months' imprisonment.”

Birmingham Daily Post 23/10/1874 - Died

“On the 19th inst, after a long illness, aged 43, Robert Crow, GREEN MAN INN, Dudley Street, Walsall; deeply regretted. Friends will please accept this intimation.”

Sarah Jane Crow, widow, married William Elliott.

Staffordshire Advertiser 22/3/1876

“Thomas Mincher, a young man, was indicted for setting fire to three mattresses, in the dwelling house of Sarah Jane Crow, on the 2nd January last, and with attempting to set fire to the house. The Hon. F. Parker was for the prosecution, and Mr. Darlington for the defence.

Prosecutrix, who has recently changed her name to Elliott, said she kept the GREEN MAN in Dudley Street, Walsall. The prisoner had been in her employ as a servant, for about five months. At half-past eleven on the night of 1st January last, he, being then perfectly sober, took a candle, and went up-stairs to bed. She remained in the bar until about 1.30am, when she noticed a smell of fire and smoke. She said to Mr. Elliott, ‘the house must be on fire,’ and with that she went upstairs, and discovered that the prisoner had set fire to three mattresses, which were then smouldering. She called to Mr. Elliott, who went upstairs, and helped her extinguish the fire. The prisoner was found sitting on the end of one of the mattresses.

Mr. Elliott deposed to asking the prisoner what he had set fire to the mattresses for, and said the prisoner made on reply. Witness then exclaimed, ‘Good God! Is there any more fire in the house?’ He said, ‘No; it is only in this room.’ A police officer was then sent for, and prisoner said, ‘I will go to bed now.’ He did so. When the officer came, he charged the prisoner with setting fire to the mattresses. Prisoner replied, ‘That if he did it wilfully, he was willing to pay for it.’ He also expressed his sorrow for what he had done.

For the defence, it was contended that the affair was a pure accident, caused by the prisoner smoking and drinking in his bedroom. The jury returned a verdict of Not Guilty, and the prisoner was acquitted.”

William Elliott – see also WAGGON AND HORSES, Wolverhampton.

1881 Census

5, Dudley Street

- [1] Arnold Lewis (26), licensed victualler, born Newport, Monmouthshire;
- [2] Elizabeth Lewis (24), wife, born Willenhall;
- [3] Elizabeth Lewis (1), daughter, born Walsall;
- [4] Jane Martin (16), general servant, born Willenhall:

Birmingham Daily Post 2/4/1890

“Yesterday, Mr. T. H. Stanley (borough coroner) held an inquest at the GREEN MAN INN, Dudley Street, Walsall, on the body of Edward Reay (37), bridle-cutter, whose death from an overdose of laudanum has already been reported in the Daily Post.

The evidence that the deceased was a soldier, serving in India for thirteen years prior to February, 1889, when he returned to his wife, who had been maintaining herself by keeping a grocer's shop in Dudley Street, her husband not having sent her any money for several years. For a time after his return he worked at his trade in Birmingham, but that ceased five or six months ago, and after he led an ideal life, though his wife would have been glad of his assistance in the business, and drank immoderately. After his bouts of drinking he often pressed his wife to get him laudanum to induce sleep, saying he had been accustomed to use it while abroad; and last Thursday, as a substitute, she got him a sleeping draught from a chemist's, but that only made her husband ill, and he then blamed her for not having given him laudanum, as he requested. To furnish means to gratify his depraved appetite, he last week took on different days a cake from the shop, his wife's boots, and a small clock, the latter being removed on Saturday. On the afternoon of that day, his wife, thinking that he was drinking, and fearing that if his wishes were not complied with he would disturb the business when he returned at night, sent his mother for a pennyworth of laudanum; and when he came and asked for half a pint of beer and some laudanum in it, she promised that he should have both when he was in bed. He then went upstairs, and she helped him to bed, and put four drops of laudanum into the beer; but he insisted having the entire pennyworth, and, in reply to his wife's remark that it was a very heavy dose, said he had often taken more whilst abroad and it would not hurt him. She then gave it to him, and when she went to bed an hour later he was sleeping comfortably. She awoke at five o'clock, and on noticing that his forehead seemed damp she called a neighbour named Corbett, who came and said her husband was only in heavy sleep, but to reassure her he said he would not go to bed again, but would be in readiness to fetch a doctor if she would desire one. She then endeavoured to arouse her husband by rubbing him, and by giving him first ginger beer, and afterwards strong coffee; and while she was putting some of the latter into his mouth, she noticed a change come over him like a shudder, and, at once she ran down and asked Mr. Corbett to go for Dr. Wood. When that gentleman arrived soon after death had taken place. He subsequently made a post mortem examination by the instructions of the coroner, and attributed death to poisoning by a narcotic, probably laudanum. If the pennyworth of laudanum (a drachm) was of the usual strength it would, he said, contain four grains of opium, which would be sufficient to cause death. A great deal depended upon whether a person had been accustomed to take it or had not for some time. A man enfeebled by intemperance, like the deceased, would be much more likely to fall a victim to it than a healthy man.

The jury returned a verdict of Accidental Poisoning, and exonerated that wife from all blame."

1891 Census

5, Dudley Street – Public House

[1] George Pearson (29), licensed victualler, born Macclesfield;

[2] Ellen Pearson (27), wife, born Willenhall;

[3] George Pearson (3), son, born Wolverhampton;

[4] James Connolly (20), servant, born Ireland;

[5] Samuel Pearson (1), son, born Walsall;

[6] Ellen Gregory (19), general servant, born Bloxwich;

[7] Mary Butwell (14), general servant, born Willenhall:

Walsall Advertiser 16/6/1894

"In the County Court, on Wednesday, before Judge Giffith, Herbert Tuckley, licensed victualler, the GREEN MAN, Dudley Street, Walsall, sued Isaiah Davies, baker and confectioner, High Street, Walsall, for the recovery of a collie dog, or £5 5s as damages. Mr. J. N. Cotterell appeared for the plaintiff, and Mr. H. B. Jackson for the defendant. Mr. Cotterell in opening the case, said that Mr. Tuckley wanted a collie pup, and on the information of a friend he went to see a one that was born on November 18, 1893. The purchase was completed on January 2, 1894, and the dog taken home and remained with plaintiff until April 16. On that day Sidney James, in Mr. Tuckley's employment, took the dog with him to the shop of Mr. Holloway, chemist, High Street, and while there the defendant, Davies, came and carried it off, and he had retained it since, refusing to permit Mr. Tuckley or anyone else to see it. He (Mr. Cotterell) would put into the box the man who sold the pup, and he also would produce the mother of the pup. Doubtless since April 16 the pup had been living on the fat of the land and had learned to like Mr. Davies better than the plaintiff (laughter). Mr. Davies had lost a dog and contended that this one was his, but Mr. Tuckley held that there was a difference of some months in age.

Mr. Tuckley was then called and deposed to the purchase of the dog from Richard Crumpton, Walsall.

Mr. Cotterell: I have the mother of the pup.

Mr. Jackson: So have I, sir (laughter).

The Judge: Are they the same mothers?

Mr. Jackson: I say mine is the mother.

The dog taken by Mr. Davies was produced and identified by Mr. Tuckley as his. He gave 5s for it, and was offered £1 for it when it was nine weeks old.

Mrs. Tuckley was called and identified the dog 'by its eyes.' Crumpton produced the mother of the pup he had sold to Mr. Tuckley. For the defence Mr. Jackson said defendant believed the dog was one he lost in September or October last. There was no doubt each party claimed the dog in the bona fide belief in the justice of the claim.

Mr. and Mrs. Davies were called, and deposed that the dog was the one they had lost last autumn. After hearing parties Judge Giffith said defendant had no right to take the dog from the peaceful possession of the plaintiff. If he believed the dog to be his he should have taken legal proceedings for its recovery. There was consequently wrongful possession, and he gave the verdict for the plaintiff for £5 5s damages and costs, or the return of the dog."

Birmingham Daily Post 11/8/1894

"George Pearson, the GREEN MAN INN, Dudley Street, was charged with permitting drunkenness on his premises, and with supplying a drunken person. The evidence of Detectives Harper and Williams was that just before closing time on Saturday night they found a man named David Evans and a woman named Ellen Gilmour in the 'snug' in a drunken condition, the man having a jug of ale by his side. The defence was that the man and woman had been refused drink, and that the landlord, his wife and assistant were under the impression that they had left the house. The magistrates came to the conclusion that the evidence did not warrant a conviction, and they dismissed that case, at the same time stating that the police had done quite right in bringing the matter to court. Gilmore and Evans were put on their good behaviour for a month.”

Walsall Advertiser 19/9/1896

“Dennis Gordon, landlord of the GREEN MAN INN, Dudley Street, was summoned for having supplied drink to drunken person on the 12th inst.

Police-sergeant Ballance said that he saw a man leave the defendant’s house in a drunken condition, carrying a bottle of ale. Police-constables Shipley, Barlow and Dicken considered the man was drunk when brought to the police office, but Mr. Jackson called several witnesses, including D. Hubbard, who stated that the man was not drunk, and the case was dismissed.”

Patrick Lyon = Patrick Lyons

1901 Census

5, Dudley Street

[1] Patrick Lyon (32), unmarried, licensed victualler’s manager, born Ireland;

[2] Samuel Clark (18), barman, born West Bromwich;

[3] Harriet Davis (28), domestic servant, born Wyrley, Staffordshire:

Walsall Advertiser 18/4/1903

“Thomas Burke, 42, labourer, 58, Moncrief Street, was charged with stealing a knife worth a shilling, the property of Patrick Lyons, of the GREEN MAN, Dudley Street, on the 14th inst.

Prosecutor identified the knife produced as his property. He said that on the previous day it was taken from his dining room to the kitchen by a servant, to be cleaned, from something said to him, however, he asked his servant to examine the knives, and she reported that one was missing. The prisoner had been in his house drinking, but had eventually been ordered out. He came back again, and witness sent for the police, acting on the information he had received.

Joseph Winston deposed that the prisoner asked him to sell the knife produced for threepence, but he refused and advised the man to take it to where he had had it from. The prisoner said he should not do, and he went away with the knife.

Police-constable Burdett said he was called to the GREEN MAN by prosecutor, who said he had been told that prisoner had one of his knives in his possession. Prisoner immediately replied ‘Yes, here it is,’ and pulled it out of his pocket. When charged with stealing it, prisoner said ‘No man saw me steal it; fetch the man who saw me steal it.’

Prisoner asked the constable if, when he was charged with stealing the knife, he did not say that the man Winston had given him the knife to sell?

Burdett replied that that was so.

Prisoner: Didn’t he say then that he would do all he could to put me away? – Burdett: Yes.

The Chief Constable immediately sharply told Burdett that he ought to have said so in his own evidence; not kept it back for cross-examination. When he had evidence to give, he must give it fully.

The Mayor said the Bench had decided to dismiss the case, and at the same time wished him to say that it was not satisfied with the way the constable had given his evidence. When a constable gave evidence he ought to give it verbatim, and not suppress any part of it, perhaps to get a case. The Bench had been pleased to see the Chief Constable remind Burdett of what his duty was.”

Eliza Powell = Elizabeth Powell

Walsall Advertiser 3/2/1906

“There was not nearly the intense public interest in the annual licensing meeting for the borough of Walsall on Thursday, at the Guildhall, as was the case during the past two or three years, for instead of the court room being densely crowded and a vast throng clamouring for admission in the entrance corridor and on the footpath outside, chiefly holders of licenses and others intimately connected with the trade, the court, though well filled, was evidently large enough to accommodate all who wished to attend.....

Mr. H. H. Jackson next applied on behalf of the Manchester Brewery Company, for the approval of plans for alteration of the OLD GREEN MAN, Dudley Street. He said it was proposed to cut off the angle of the building at the corner of Upper Hall Lane and Dudley Street and make an entrance there, and take away a bay window which projected on to the footpath, and also the stepping. There was a little increase in the size of the scullery, for domestic purposes.

Mr. Farmer produced the plans.....

Mr. Loxton said the magistrates had adjourned all the plans, and proposed to visit the houses next Wednesday. They would be glad if the architects would accompany them.”

Walsall Advertiser 24/2/1906

“Yesterday the adjourned licensing sessions were held at the Guildhall.....

Several applications for the approval of plans for alterations, had been deferred from the annual licensing meeting for the magistrates to visit the premises. The Bench decided as under.....

OLD GREEN MAN, Dudley Street, approved.”

Walsall Advertiser 7/9/1907

“William Wright, OLD GREEN MAN, Dudley Street, was summoned for using the smoke room at the OLD GREEN MAN for public music without a license between 1st and 9th August.

Mr. H. H. Jackson, who defended, said he had communicated with the owners pointing out that the licensee had nothing to do with putting the instrument in the house. It was a very beautiful instrument – a pianola – and he thought it would educate the customers as it played grand opera and other high class music. It was not necessary to discuss whether it was public music or not as the point would not be contested, though views differed very much as to what was public music. The Brewery Company had written a letter stating that they sent on the instrument quite innocently, not thinking there would be any objection to it, as they had these instruments broadcast in their own district, and if it was objected to they would have it removed from the house. Under these circumstances he asked for the case to be withdrawn.

The Chief Constable said he would be willing accede to that on payment of the costs.

Mr. Jackson: I only wish I had the instrument in my house it would be a great acquisition to any house.

The case was dismissed on payment of costs.”

Walsall Advertiser 19/10/1907

“Henry Croft (42), a labourer, of no fixed abode, was charged with stealing a bicycle, value 40s, the property of William Wright, GREEN MAN INN, Dudley Street, on the 14th inst.

Police-constable Marsden (42) deposed to seeing prisoner wheeling a bicycle at the Pleck in the direction of Darlaston, in a very awkward manner, so he stopped him and asked him questions about it. Prisoner said it was his own bicycle, and had honestly worked for it; and that he had given £7 10s for it, and had bought it at Coventry. The officer told him he was not satisfied with the explanation, and arrested him, and while officers were making enquiries as to his movements, prisoner admitted that he had stolen it from the GREEN MAN, Dudley Street. He charged him with the theft, and he replied ‘Yes.’

William Wright, son of the landlord of the GREEN MAN, said that the bicycle produced was his property, and he last saw it safe at 5.30 the previous afternoon, in a passage in the house.

Prisoner was not unknown in police courts, having two convictions for stealing and other convictions against him, and the Bench sentenced him to two months’ hard labour.

The officer was recalled to the witness box and Mr. Russell said the Bench wished to congratulate him upon the way he had dealt with the case. It was rather clever on his part to stop a man who was walking awkwardly with a bicycle, with the result that he detected a robbery, and they congratulated him upon the common sense he had used throughout the case.

Police-constable Marsden: Thank you, sir.”

Walsall Advertiser 11/1/1908

“John Green (41), rag and bone gatherer, pleaded guilty to having stole two rugs, value 10s, the property of Elizabeth Wright, GREEN MAN INN, Dudley Street. Prisoner also pleaded guilty to having been twice previously convicted of larceny at petty sessions.

Asked what he had to say in defence prisoner said that he could get no work, and stole the rugs to get locked up.

The Recorder: That is not consistent with the fact that you stole the things and did not give yourself up until you had sold them. In sentencing the prisoner, the Recorder said he was sorry to see a man who had worn the Queen’s uniform in the Navy, standing in the dock. He saw he left the service by deserting it twenty-three years ago, and it was four years afterwards that he commenced a career of criminality. It was not serious crime he committed on any occasion, and the heaviest sentence that had been passed upon him was three months’ hard labour. He (Mr. Owen) felt that unless prisoner had a longer term of imprisonment there was very little chance of winning him from drink and petty larcenies. Prisoner would be sentenced to six months’ imprisonment, and he hoped in future he would keep his hands from picking and stealing.”

Walsall Advertiser 26/6/1909

“Applications for transfer of license were heard in the Guildhall on Tuesday.....

Frank Midwinter sought a transfer from William Wright in respect of the OLD GREEN MAN, Dudley Street. There had been three transfers since 1900.

The Chief Constable said Mr. Midwinter was a respectable man who had held licenses in a number of houses.

The Chairman said Mr. Midwinter would have to be careful ‘up there,’ he would have to ‘keep his eyes on them’ laughter. Granted.”

1911 Census

5, Dudley Street – OLD GREEN MAN

[1] George W. W. Hey (43), publican, born Dodworth;

[2] Clara Hey (44), wife, married 13 years, assisting husband, born Barnsley;

[3] Eunice Matilda Foster (21), domestic servant, born Warwick:

Walsall Advertiser 14/12/1912

“The monthly meeting of the Walsall and District Licensed Victuallers’ and Beer Retailers’ Friendly and Protection Society was held on Thursday last at the house of the President, Mr. Richard Anson, MANOR ARMS, Daw End, Rushall.....

New member..... Mr. A. V. Murdoch, OLD GREEN MAN, Dudley Street.”

1939 Register

5, Dudley Street

[1] William Platt, date of birth 27/3/1913, manager, licensed house, married;

[2] Dora (Platt) Clinton, dob 14/3/1913, unpaid domestic duties, married;
[5] Thomas Kent, dob 17/5/1910, general labourer, married:

Walsall Observer 12/1/1918

“Walsall and District War Aid Committee. Collection By The Licensed Victuallers, December, 1917.....
OLD GREEN MAN, Dudley Street. £1 2s 10½d.”

Walsall Observer 29/11/1941

“The destruction caused by a man who ran amok in a public house was described to the Walsall Magistrates yesterday week, when Joseph Hodgetts (28), labourer, of 27, Bath Street, was charged with damaging two mirrors and 18 drinking glasses at the OLD GREEN MAN, Dudley Street, thereby doing damage to the extent of £12. Hodgetts admitted the offence. There were thirty-five previous convictions against him, including three years’ penal servitude. His downfall was said to be due to drink and association with women. He was fined 50s with £12 costs. He said he would accept the prison alternative of two months, but was given 21 days in which to pay.”

Walsall Observer 29/8/1942

“County Borough of Walsall. Mayor’s War Aid Fund. Nineteenth List of Subscriptions.....
Mrs. Pratt, the OLD GREEN MAN, Vicarage Place. £0 19s 3d.”

Walsall Observer 15/1/1944

“Walsall Licensed Victuallers’ Society.

Appeal on Behalf of the Merchant Navy Fund, The Duke of Gloucester’s Red Cross Fund and the Aid to China Fund. List of Subscriptions.....

OLD GREEN MAN, Dudley Street. £1 0s 6d.”

George Edward Morris – see also HOPE AND ANCHOR, PRESIDENT LINCOLN, STARTING GATE, SIR CHARLES NAPIER, and CROWN AND CUSHION.

Stanley Herbert Kirk – see also COTTAGE.

Closed

Delicensed

GREEN MAN

38, George Street / Upper Hall Lane, WALSALL

OWNERS

Mrs. M. Farmer (widow), Dudley Street, Walsall

George Brown, New Street, Walsall

William Cozens

Mary Ann Cousins

John Rogers, Windmill Tavern, Walsall [1915]

Samuel I. Holmes, Walsall

Sara Holmes

Sydney John Holmes

Ansells Ltd.

LICENSEES

Miles Errington [1818] – 1832);

Hannah Errington (1832 – [1835]

John Baker [1842]

George Baker [1845]

John Baker [1849] – [1850]

Thomas Richards [1851] – [1861]

Joseph Beebee [1862] – [1865]

Samuel Thornhill [1868] – [1873];

William Cousins [1879] – 1886);

Mrs. Mary Ann Cousins (1886 – 1904);
Arthur Cousins (1904 – 1905);
Elijah Powell [1905] manager?
Sidney Cousins (1905 – 1914);
William Swann (1914 – 1915);
John Rowley (1915 – 1920);
Sydney John ‘Syd’ Holmes (1920 – 1949);
Frederick Lineton (1949 – 1950);
Albert Ernest Thomas (1950 – 1954);
Arthur Edward Snell (1954 – 1957);
Gerald William Green (1957 – 1959);
Elsie Olive Paxton (1959 – 1960):

NOTES

ORIGINAL GREEN MAN [1832], [1849], [1850], [1857], [1858], [1859], [1861], [1865], [1872], [1879], [1915]
OLD GREEN MAN [1860], [1911], [1932], [1944]
ORIGINAL OLD GREEN MAN [1939]
OLDE GREEN MAN [1940]

It had a beerhouse license.

Wolverhampton Chronicle 15/2/1832 - Deaths

“On the 11th instant, in the 58th year of his age, Mr. Miles Errington, ORIGINAL GREEN MAN, Walsall.”

Wolverhampton Chronicle 1/8/1838 - Deaths

“On the 30th Ult, at Walsall, Hannah, widow of the late Mr. Miles Errington, victualler, of Dudley Street, in the town, aged 68.”

Bells Life in London and Sporting Chronicle 30/1/1842

“George Holden, of Walsall, will fight any 8½st man in Staffordshire, for from £5 to £20 a side. He can be seen at the GREEN MAN, George Street, Walsall, any Monday between seven and ten.”

Bells Life in London and Sporting Chronicle 20/2/1842

“James Holden, of Walsall, will run Thomas Wesley, of The Birchel’s, one mile for £5 or £10. If this is not acceptable, Holden will run any other man in Walsall. His money is ready at the GREEN MAN, George Street, Walsall.”

1851 Census

George Street

- [1] Thomas Richards (33), innkeeper, born Walsall;
- [2] Maria Richards (32), wife, born Walsall;
- [3] William Thomas Richards (6 months), son, born Walsall;
- [4] Ann Richards (19), niece, visitor, born Blakenall;
- [5] Sarah Allen (23), infant’s maid, born Wootton, Bedfordshire;
- [6] John Richardson (25), lodger, railway clerk, born Belfast:

London Gazette 8/7/1853

“Whereas a Petition of Thomas Richards, late of the GREEN MAN INN, George-street, Walsall, Staffordshire, Innkeeper, then, now, and since the twenty-first day of April last, occasionally lodging at the GREEN MAN INN aforesaid, and at Blackenall, near Bloxwich, Staffordshire, out of business, an insolvent debtor, having been filed in the County Court of Staffordshire, at Walsall, and an interim order for protection from process having been given to the said Thomas Richards, under the provisions of the Statutes in that case made and provided, the said Thomas Richards is hereby required to appear before the said Court, on the 22nd day of July instant, at half past nine o’clock in the forenoon precisely, for his first examination touching his debts, estate, and effects, and to be further dealt with according to the provisions of the said Statutes; and the choice of the creditors’ assignees is to take place at the time so appointed. All persons indebted to the said Thomas Richards, or that have any of his effects, are not to pay or deliver the same but to Mr. Frederic Fuhrmann Clarke, Clerk of the said Court, at his office, at Mountrath-street, in Walsall, the Official Assignee of the estate and effects of the said insolvent.”

Birmingham Journal 27/10/1855

“On Wednesday last a young girl named Theresa Betts appeared before the magistrates to support a complaint against a youth named Samuel Powell, for using obscene language. Mr. Wilkinson was engaged for the defence. The girl said she was at a quadrille party, at the GREEN MAN, George Street, on Monday evening, when the defendant began throwing out his insults at her; she left to return home, and when in the yard he used obscene language through the window, and spat at her. By Mr. Wilkinson: ‘I am not sixteen years of age; I am not in service, but live with my parents. There is music every Monday and Tuesday night at the GREEN MAN; there are generally more than thirty young women and a larger number of young men there. There is drinking there; we pay three-pence if we stand up to dance, but nothing is demanded at the door. My parents are not aware of my going there. The defendant had courted me, but we broke it off some time since.'

Mr. Wilkinson observed that he had put these questions to let the Bench see what sort of place it was. The Mayor remarked that in such a nest no end of mischief was done. Mr. Wilkinson then contended there was no charge against his client, as the language was stated to have been used from the window and not in the street; and cited a case heard in that Court some months ago where a summons was discharged because a party was proved to be standing on his door sill when he used obscene language. The Mayor said the complaint was dismissed; if the complainant chose to frequent such places she must put up with insults, and if she continued to do so she would some day regret it. It was a sink of iniquity, and he requested Mr. Darwall, the clerk, to look into the law, and see if the matter did not come within the cognisance of the police."

Walsall Free Press 7/2/1857 - Advert

"Victoria Legal Burial Society, Liverpool.

Wanted, Respectable Agents, in the Town of Walsall, Bilston and surrounding Districts.

Applications to be made immediately to Mr. Thomas Richards, ORIGINAL GREEN MAN, George Street, Walsall.
George Howe, Secretary."

Walsall Free Press 17/12/1859 - Advert

"ORIGINAL GREEN MAN INN, George Street, Walsall.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Richards, beg to inform the Ladies and Gentlemen of Walsall, and its vicinity, that their Annual Ball and Card Party, will take place on Monday the 26th day of December Instant, when the company of any Lady or Gentleman will be esteemed a favour.

Supper on Table at Seven o'clock.

Gentlemen's Tickets 2s. Ladies' Tickets 1s 6d each."

1861 Census

38, George Street

[1] Thomas Richards (42), widower, licensed victualler, born Bloxwich;

[2] William Thomas Richards (10), son, born Walsall;

[3] Samuel Richards (6), son, born Walsall;

[4] Elenor Augusta Richards (3), daughter, born Walsall;

[5] Anne Richards (26), niece, housekeeper, born Bloxwich;

[6] Bedeliah McDorman (20), servant, born Walsall:

Walsall Free Press 17/8/1861

"Martin Collins was charged with assaulting Mr. Henderson on Saturday last. Mr. Ebsworth opened the case with a speech of some length, in which there was a good deal about 'Picts and Celts,' and charged Collins with an assault under 4 sec. 14 Vic. The nature of his speech may be collected from the following evidence. Edward Henderson deposed that he was in the GREEN MAN, George Street, about ten o'clock on Saturday night. He had been there on business to the landlord. Mr. McCracken was with him. Collins and another Irishman were present. Mr. A. McCrimen came in and some conversation ensued relative to the Irish and Gallic languages. McCrimen and Collins got from words to blows, and fought till the latter was beaten. Witness and McCracken did not interfere. Police were called for and witness prepared to retire. As he was going out he was met by the defendant and received from him a violent blow on the side of the face with some sharp instrument, which cut his head and knocked him senseless. He had given Collins no offence whatever during the evening.

Mr. Glover cross-examined the witness: There was no one in the passage when he was struck. The dispute might have originated by McCrimen asking Murphy (the Irishman who was with Collins) to pronounce the English word duck in Irish. He told Collins when he was disputing with McCrimen to sit down and be quiet. Did not say to Bridgett McDermott, the servant at the GREEN DRAGON, in reply to her observation that they ought not to have beaten Collins in that way - 'Don't say who struck or who did not.' Could swear to that.

Mr. Richards the landlord of the GREEN MAN was sworn. He was in bed when the row began, and when he came down Collins complained of having been ill-used by the Scotchman. Shortly afterwards a large body of Irishmen rushed into the house, and (at the same time) as Henderson was going through the passage, some one struck him on the side of the head with what appeared to be a tube. Witness could not see who struck.

Cross-examined by Mr. Glover: Knew Collins for about eight or nine months, and always found him to be a quiet respectable man. The rush of Irishmen took place at the moment Collins' hand was raised to strike the blow. He could not tell who struck the blow. Collins had nothing in his hand, and 'if the blow received by the complainant was inflicted by an instrument or weapon it could not have been struck by Collins.'

Mr. Strickland, assistant to Mr. Day was sworn. He had attended Mr. Henderson, and found the wound on the side of his head was an incised wound done by a sharp instrument. It was an inch long and went to the bone.

Mr. Glover made an able, but brief speech for the defence. He contended that all the evidence went to show, in the most convincing manner, that Collins had not struck the complainant the blow which had cut his head. He called Bridgett McDermott who displayed some awkwardness upon being sworn, which she explained by saying she was never before in a court of justice. On Saturday night after the first row she told Mr. Henderson it was shame that to have used Collins in that way. Henderson replied 'Don't say who struck, or did not strike.' Just as he said that a lot of people rushed in, and Henderson was felled to the ground by a blow. His head fell on her foot, but it was not Collins who struck the blow as he was with Mr. Richards at the time. A long and uproarious cross-examination ensued between Mr. Ebsworth and this witness, which was strongly suggestive of the Old Bailey practice of former and less polished days.

Thomas Murphy deposed that he saw the blow struck which knocked complainant down. Collins was not the man who struck the blow. It was a dark complexioned man. The dispute with the Scotchmen arose about the right pronunciation of the Irish or Gallic word for duck. Cross-examined: The man who struck the complainant was taller than Collins, had black hair, wore (he thought) a cloth jacket and was (he believed) an Irishman. He could not tell who the man was. He had something in his hand but witness could not tell whether it was a poker or a stick.

Mrs. Jane Darlington (a respectable looking English woman) deposed to the row originating in a discussion as to the pronunciation of the Irish for duck. One of the Scotchmen struck Collins across the nose (Collins exhibited a badly bruised eye in court.) Henderson and three other Scotchmen then fell upon Collins and beat him. This concluded the case, Mr. Glover remarking that the evidence as to the innocence of Collins was overwhelming. Some discussion ensued as to whether Mr. Richards had used the exact words – ‘If the blow received by complainant was inflicted by an instrument or weapon it could not have been struck by Collins.’ The words had been put to Mr. Richards in the form of a question by Mr. Glover – ‘If the blow &c, could it have been struck by Collins?’ – And the answer given by Mr. Richards, was certainly ‘No.’ It was at last decided that Mr. Richards should be re-called, and he then said that if a piece of tube or such an instrument as a knife had been in Collins’ hand when he was about to strike complainant, he (Richards) must have seen it – an assertion equivalent to the former. After a long deliberation the Bench expressed its conviction of the guilt of Collins, and fined him 2s and costs, or one month’s imprisonment.”

Walsall Free Press 31/8/1861 - Advert

“Sale at the ORIGINAL GREEN MAN, corner of George Street, Walsall.

Geo. Bayley will Sell By Auction, on Tuesday Next, September 3rd, 1861, the entire Brewing Plant, Household Furniture, and other effects, on the above premises, under a bill of sale.

Catalogues of particulars may be had on application.

Sale to Commence at eleven o’clock punctually. The usual conditions will be observed.

Auctioneer’s Residence, 4, Lichfield Street, Walsall.”

London Gazette 4/10/1861

“Thomas Richards, late of No.2, Peal-street, Walsall, Staffordshire, in no business or occupation, previously thereto of the ORIGINAL GREEN MAN INN, George-street, Walsall aforesaid, Licensed Victualler, formerly of the same place and business, and also Parcels Agent to the Great Western Railway Company.”

Samuel Thornhill, beer retailer, 38, George Street. [1868]

1871 Census

38, George Street

[1] Samuel Thornhill (37), licensed victualler, born Walsall;

[2] Maria Thornhill (31), wife, born Walsall;

[3] Edgar Thornhill (9), son, scholar, born Walsall;

[4] Harry Thornhill (1), son, born Walsall;

[5] Lizzie Cartridge (18), general servant, born Walsall:

William Cousins = William Cozens

Walsall Advertiser 4/1/1879 - Advert

“William Cousins, Auctioneer, Valuer, &c, the ORIGINAL GREEN MAN, George Street, Walsall.

Cash to any amount immediately advanced on Household Furniture, farming Stock, &c, for positive sale.”

[This advert appears regularly throughout 1879 and into 1880.]

1881 Census

38, George Street

[1] William Cousins (42), licensed victualler, born Huntingdon, Huntingdonshire;

[2] Mary Ann Cousins (37), wife, born Walsall;

[3] Alice Ada Cousins (13), daughter, scholar, born Walsall;

[4] John William Cousins (11), son, scholar, born Walsall;

[5] Rose Cousins (9), daughter, scholar, born Walsall;

[6] Arthur Cousins (7), son, scholar, born Walsall;

[7] Jenny Cousins (5), daughter, scholar, born Walsall;

[8] Sidney Cousins (2), son, born Walsall:

Birmingham Daily Post 27/11/1883

“Yesterday Mr. Fletcher, coroner, held an inquest at the GREEN MAN INN, George Street, on the body of Elizabeth Bednall, aged sixty. The evidence bore out the statement published in yesterday’s Post, and showed, in addition, that after the man James had fallen against her and knocked her into the kitchen he crawled upstairs again and got into bed, too drunk to know that anything had happened. Her relatives, however, at once sent for surgeons, and everything possible was done for her. Verdict Accidental Death.”

1891 Census

38, George Street – GREEN MAN INN

- [1] Mary A. Cousins (46), widow, licensed victualler, born Walsall;
- [2] Alice A. Cousins (23), daughter, mother’s help, born Walsall;
- [3] Rose Cousins (20), daughter, mother’s help, born Walsall;
- [4] Arthur Cousins (17), son, saddle tree maker, born Walsall;
- [5] Jennie Cousins (15), daughter, day school teacher, born Walsall;
- [6] Sidney Cousins (12), son, errand boy, born Walsall;
- [7] Ernest Cousins (9), son, scholar, born Walsall;
- [8] Albert V. Cousins (7), son, scholar, born Walsall;

1901 Census

38, George Street – GREEN MAN

- [1] Mary A. Cousins (57), innkeeper, born Walsall;
- [2] Alice Ada Gee (33), daughter, widow, born Walsall;
- [3] John W. Cousins (31), son, cashier, born Walsall;
- [4] Arthur Cousins (27), son, riveter, born Walsall;
- [5] Jennie Cousins (25), daughter, born Walsall;
- [6] Sidney Cousins (22), son, bridle cutter, born Walsall;
- [7] Ernest Cousins (19), son, saddler’s ironmonger, born Walsall;
- [8] Albert V. Cousins (17), son, tailor, born Walsall;
- [9] Vera Mary Gee (7), granddaughter, born Walsall;

Walsall Advertiser 10/6/1905

“A labourer named William Caulfield (26) no fixed abode, was charged with stealing a bottle containing sweets, value 1s, the property of John Price, George Street, on the 8th inst.

Martha Price, wife of complainant stated that on Thursday night about 10.15, on looking on the counter, she missed a bottle of sweets, and gave information to the police.

Lawrence Ford stated that he lived at Herbert Salt’s, fishmonger, 60, George Street. Prisoner came into the house shortly after ten on Thursday, and wanted to sell a bottle of sweets he had for 7d. He (witness) then went out of the shop to Price’s to buy some cigarettes, when the prisoner shouted to him, ‘Don’t say anything.’

Elijah Powell, landlord of the GREEN MAN INN, George Street stated that about 10.20 on Thursday night the defendant came into the house carrying a bottle of sweets. He commenced to hand the sweets round to the customers, and said that he was going to start to sell them in the market, and then offered to sell the bottle for 6d. He asked witness to buy the sweets for 5d, and then commenced to empty the sweets on the table. He (witness) then said ‘Don’t waste them. I’ll give you 5d for them; but where have you had them from?’ He then bought them, and shortly afterwards the police came and arrested the prisoner.

Police-constable Fisher stated that he arrested the prisoner at the GREEN MAN, and when charged he replied, ‘I didn’t steal them. What have I got to say I’ll say in the morning.’

Defendant said he met a man as he was going through Freer’s yard, who offered him the sweets for 6d, but he had only got 5d, so he eventually gave him 4d for them. Fined 5s and costs, or ten days.”

Walsall Advertiser 18/3/1911

“The Walsall Magistrates had before them on Tuesday, a young man named Frank Cullum (22), polisher, of 12, Richmond Street, who was charged with stealing two postal orders value 36s and a cheque, the property of Elijah Stanley, on February 28.

Mr. Stanley, who is 81 years of age, and lives at 64, Caldmore Road, stated that he was auxiliary secretary to the London Missionary Society. On the evening of February 28th he enclosed in an envelope, addressed to the London Missionary Society, a postal order for 21s and one for 15s, and a crossed cheque for £5 10s 9d. The postal orders were blank. It happened to be a stormy night, and he went to the door to see if he could see anyone who would post the letter for him. A young man passed by and witness asked him if he would post the letter. He consented, and witness gave him the letter. Next day he was informed by Mrs. Cousins that the postal orders had been sold in a public house for 25s. Witness paid Mrs. Cousins that amount, but had since been repaid. Sidney Cousins, licensee of the OLD GREEN MAN, George Street, said that prisoner came into his house on February 28 and was served with refreshment. Subsequently witness found him reading some poetry to three other men in the bar. The poetry had evidently been written by Mr. Stanley, and there was an envelope lying on the counter addressed to Mr. Stanley. Afterwards he saw prisoner with two postal orders in his hand which he asked witness to cash. He wanted 30s for them, but being suspicious he refused and asked prisoner where he had got them from. Prisoner said an old gentleman had given him a letter to post and he had taken them from that. Witness treated this as a joke at first, but eventually gave the prisoner 25s for the orders. Becoming more suspicious, the next day he went to Mr. Stanley’s house and returned him the orders. On March 11th prisoner came into his house again, but witness did not say anything to him about the affair. He did not give information to the police because he wished to keep the boy out of trouble. In reply to the Chief Constable witness admitted that when the police called upon him he said he did not know the prisoner or his friends, but that was not correct.

The Clerk (Mr. C. A. Loxton): You have acted very foolishly and if you had been charged with receiving this money it would have been very awkward for you.

Recalled, Mr. Stanley explained that the reason his name happened to be on the envelope was that he had used an old envelope to put the money in.

Detective-sergeant Burrell deposed to arresting the prisoner. When charged he said, 'Yes, I had then. I cashed the postal orders and burned the cheque.' He added that he was the worse for beer at the time.

The prisoner, who was charged in 1908 with attempting to commit suicide had nothing to say. His mother told the Magistrates that drink and bad companions were responsible for his position. He was in the habit of going to the OLD GREEN MAN, and came home like a madman on the night of the theft.

Prisoner was sentenced to one months' hard labour.

The Magistrates called the landlord of the OLD GREEN MAN before them and told him that the case would be reported to the Licensing Justices as they did not consider his conduct at all satisfactory."

1911 Census

38, George Street

[1] Sidney Cousins (33), licensed victualler, born Walsall;

[2] Mary Beatrice Cousins (31), wife, married 3 years, born Walsall;

[3] Philip Sidney Cousins (9 months), son, born Walsall;

[4] Lillian Mary Cousins (2), daughter, born Walsall:

Walsall Advertiser 27/2/1915

"The adjourned Licensing Sessions for the Borough of Walsall were held yesterday (Friday) at the Guildhall.

Temporary authorities were granted to.

John Rowley, ORIGINAL GREEN MAN, George Street."

Birmingham Daily Post 12/6/1915 - Advert

"Sale Of Two Valuable Freehold Public-Houses.

Fox & Harrison, F.A.I., are favoured with instructions from Mr. John Rogers (who is retiring) to Offer for Sale by Public Auction, at the STORK HOTEL, Walsall, on Tuesday, June 29, 1915, at Seven o'clock in the Evening.

Lot 1. That Valuable Old-established Freehold, Full-Licensed Free Public-House, known as the ORIGINAL GREEN MAN, George Street (No.38), at the junction of Dudley Street and Upper Hall Lane, Walsall.

It is under the management of Mr. John Rowley for Mr. John Rogers, the Owner.

The Premises internally and externally, are in an excellent state of repair.

This well-known inn is situated in a densely-populated and manufacturing district, and fronts the main thoroughfare from Caldmore to the centre of the town, from which it is within one minute's walk.

There is an additional entrance from Dudley Street and Gateway entrance from George Street.

It will be offered Entirely Free from any Trading Tie whatever, and Possession can be had on Completion of Purchase.

The Valuable Goodwill of the Old-Established Business as a Going Concern is Included in the Sale."

[The other public-house in this auction is the WINDMILL TAVERN, Bath Street.]

Walsall Observer 12/1/1918

"Walsall and District War Aid Committee. Collection By The Licensed Victuallers, December, 1917.

GREEN MAN, George Street. £0 16s 0d."

Walsall Observer 7/1/1939 - Personal

"Mr. and Mrs. Syd Holmes, the GREEN MAN INN, George Street (Free House), wish to make it known that they are not in any way connected with recent police court proceedings, and that their house had been personally conducted by them for nearly 20 years."

1939 Register

38, George Street – ORIGINAL OLD GREEN MAN

[1] Sydney J. Holmes, date of birth 15/12/1890, licensed victualler, married;

[2] Florence Holmes, dob 6/6/1890, unpaid domestic duties, married;

[3] Elizabeth A. (Holmes) Ingram, dob 3/6/1927, at school, single:

Walsall Observer 15/1/1944

"Walsall Licensed Victuallers' Society.

Appeal on Behalf of the Merchant Navy Fund, The Duke of Gloucester's Red Cross Fund and the Aid to China Fund. List of Subscriptions.

OLD GREEN MAN, George Street. £1 17s 1d."

Arthur Edward Snell – see also GREEN ROCK TAVERN and LORD RAGLAN.

Gerald William Green – see also WHITE LION.

It closed on 2nd March 1960, and the license was transferred to the KNAVE OF HEARTS, Bloxwich.

GREEN ROCK TAVERN

Green Rock Lane, Blakenall, BLOXWICH

OWNERS

Holt Brewery Co. Ltd.
Mitchells and Butlers Ltd.

LICENSEES

George Humphries (1938 – 1940);
Albert Edwards (1940);
Bertram Albert Stone (1940 – 1943);
William Pratty (1943 – 1944);
Charles Peart (1944 – 1950);
Frank Wilson (1950 – 1954);
William Sydney Parkes (1954 – 1955);
Marshall Grahame Heeley (1955 – 1957);
Arthur Edward Snell (1957 – 1958);
James Frank Paxton (1958 – 1959);
Harry Dobson (1959 – 1960);
Job Coleman (1960 – 1964);
John Walker (1964 – 1965);
Caleb Davies (1965 – [1966])
Harbajan Singh Kang [2007]

NOTES

It was built on the site of Rock House.

It opened on 6th May 1938.

The license was transferred from the WHITE SWAN, Dudley Street, Walsall.

Walsall Observer 14/10/1939 - Advert

“Wanted, Pianist for Friday and Saturday evenings, 8 till 10; also Bar General; good references and trustworthy. Apply, Manager, GREEN ROCK TAVERN, Green Rock Road, Blakenall, Bloxwich.”

1939 Register

Green Rock Lane – GREEN ROCK TAVERN

- [1] George Humphries, date of birth 24/3/1896, licensee, (manager), married;
- [2] Annie M. Humphries, dob 9/5/1895, unpaid domestic duties, married;
- [3] Queenie E. (Humphries) Heath, dob 20/6/1919, packer, electric fittings, single;
- [4] Kathleen (Humphries) Hancox, dob 7/10/1923, electrical machinist, single;
- [5] Reginald T. Humphries, dob 6/11/1926, at school, single;

Walsall Observer 13/7/1940

“At the monthly meeting on Thursday of the Walsall Licensed Victuallers’ Society.....

Mr. Albert Evans (?), GREEN ROCK TAVERN, Green Rock Road, Blakenall, was elected a member of the Society.”

Walsall Observer 27/7/1940

“At Walsall Guildhall, on Wednesday..... the license of the GREEN ROCK TAVERN, Blakenall, was transferred to Mr. Stone from Albert Edwards, who was stated to be giving up the licensed trade in order to take up munitions work.”

Walsall Observer 29/8/1942

“County Borough of Walsall. Mayor’s War Aid Fund. Nineteenth List of Subscriptions.....

Mr. Stone, GREEN ROCK TAVERN, Blakenall. £0 17s 1d.”

Walsall Observer 13/10/1943

“After sitting until 6pm on Wednesday, hearing 164 summonses arising out of excessive deliveries of coal last winter, the Walsall magistrates (Messrs. Fred Evans, and H. Shemmans, and Mrs. Brockhurst) reserved their decisions in what were regarded as the more serious cases until Thursday morning.....

Mr. Gordon Hawley appeared for the Holt Brewery Co. Ltd., Birmingham, and the licensees of the COTTAGE INN, Harden Road; RED LION, Blue Lane; CROWN AND CUSHION, Bridgeman Street; PRESIDENT LINCOLN, Stafford Street; and GREEN ROCK TAVERN, Blakenall – John Cockbill, Howard Freeman, Sidney Canner, May Middleton (now of 39, Caledon Street), and Bertram Albert Stone (now of 80, Hollemeadow Avenue). Mr. Hawley said the purchase of coal at these houses had always been left to the licensees, and the brewery company would have no reason to be suspicious that the permitted amounts were being exceeded. Moreover, as far as the licensees were concerned, in all the cases except one the coal was delivered without being specifically ordered, and the trouble would have been avoided if the merchants had refused to deliver without the requisite permits, which the licensees could have obtained if they had applied for them.

Stone was fined £2, the other licensees £1 each, and the brewery company 10s in each case.”

Birmingham Daily Gazette 23/11/1943

“Police observation during several visits to a Walsall public-house led to John Francis Thomas, aged 57, of 9, Ford Street, Walsall, being fined £20 at Walsall yesterday for using licensed premises for the purpose of betting.

War reserve Constable Sparke said on one occasion when he went into the GREEN ROCK TAVERN, Thomas asked him if he were ‘a special.’ He replied: ‘No,’ and Thomas said: ‘Someone in here last week said you were. You put the breeze up us all. You see I do a bit of ‘taking’ in here.’

Two summonses under the Licensing Act against the licensee, William Pratty, aged 55, were dismissed.”

Walsall Observer 15/1/1944

“Walsall Licensed Victuallers’ Society.

Appeal on Behalf of the Merchant Navy Fund, The Duke of Gloucester’s Red Cross Fund and the Aid to China Fund. List of Subscriptions.....

GREEN ROCK TAVERN, Green Rock Lane, Blakenall. £0 11s 6d.”

Frank Wilson – see also WHITE LION.

Marshall Grahame Heeley – see also PRESIDENT LINCOLN.

Arthur Edward Snell – see also GREEN MAN, and LORD RAGLAN.

James Frank Paxton – see also BRADFORD ARMS.

Caleb Davies was fined £20 and £4 13s 0d costs, and £6 6s 0d advocates fees, on 15th June 1966, for four cases of allowing his premises to be used for betting.

Express & Star 3/1/2020

“A pub which has become a magnet for vandals could be transformed into 30 homes after plans were backed. Owners of Bloxwich’s GREEN ROCK TAVERN want to create 30 homes at the site, which will include social housing. The outline plans include building 10 three-bedroom houses, 12 one-bed flats and eight two-bed flats at the site. It comes after owners of the Green Rock Road business were forced to shut early in an attempt to curb anti-social behaviour.

A design and access statement read, ‘Over the past few years it has lost a certain amount of trade due to anti-social behaviour. The current owners have liaised and cooperated with the local police in trying to deal with the anti-social behaviour and as a result close early most evenings including the weekends, the result of which has been a loss of trade to what is now an unsustainable level. Whilst the loss of the public house could be seen as a loss of a local facility, the local police would support the application and consider it to be the removal of a trouble spot. There are and have been several housing and flat developments in the area of a similar size to the one proposed, all of which are fully occupied with a demand for more housing and flat developments. It is anticipated that properties would be available to either rent or purchase, or possible be made part of a shared ownership scheme with the developers. Whilst the site is currently used as a public house it has previously been granted outline planning permission for residential use.’

The scheme has been recommended for approval but councillors on Walsall Council’s planning committee will have the final say. If the outline planning permission is given, finer details will have to be approved in a reserved matters application at a later date.”

[2020]

GREYHOUND

New Street, WALSALL

OWNERS

LICENSEES

John Parker [1861]

GREYHOUND

55, Upper Rushall Street, WALSALL

OWNERS

Edward Matthews [1858]
W. Matthews, solicitor, Stafford
George Somers
Atkinsons Ltd.

LICENSEES

Edward Woollett [1801] – 1837)
John Clay [1834]
Joseph Woollett [1835]
William Wood [1841] – [1842]
Henry Harrison [1845]
Henry Amphlet [1849] – [1850]
John Elmer [1850] – [1851]
George Johnson [1851]
William Keyte [1856] – [1858]
John Johnson [1858] – [1861]
Joseph Gregory [1860] – [1861]
Daniel Partridge [1862] – [1872]
Titus Grove [1872] – 1873);
George Somers (1873 – [1896];
Thomas Edkins (189_ – 1897);
John Magaurson (1897 – 1899);
Michael Francis Roach (1899 – 1900);
Samuel Simkin (1900);
William Henry Haycock (1900 – 1901);

NOTES

Rushall Street [1822]

It was formerly the BULLS HEAD.

It was situated at the bottom of Bulls Head Yard.

It was known locally as “Walton’s” in the 18th century.

The town council met here.

The local hunt assembled here.

It was a staging house for coaches.

Excise office [1801]

Edward Woollett = Edward Woollatt

Wolverhampton Chronicle 4/8/1830

“The Lodge of Oddfellows, No.10, held at the BULLS HEAD INN, Rushall Street, Walsall, celebrated their anniversary on Monday last; a numerous company assembled, including several gentlemen of the town. The dinner was excellently served up, and on the removal of the cloth ‘the King’ was given from the chair, and the national anthem sung. Many of the gentlemen of the Walsall Harmonic Society were present, and the songs and glees were executed in a superior manner.”

Wolverhampton Chronicle 22/2/1832 - Deaths

“On the 18th instant, after a few days’ illness, Mary, the wife of Mr. Edward Woollatt, of the BULLS HEAD INN, Walsall, aged 70.”

Staffordshire Advertiser 25/2/1837 - Deaths

“Feb 19, at the age of 91, John Ridden, of the Pleck, near Walsall. The deceased was a member of the Lodge of Oddfellows, held at the BULLS HEAD INN, Rushall Street, and he been receiving pay from the funds of that society upwards of 30 years. It appears from the books that he has had upwards of £780.”

Wolverhampton Chronicle 2/10/1837 - Deaths

“On the 25th ult, aged 78, Mr. Edward Woollatt, upwards of forty years landlord of the BULLS HEAD INN, Upper Rushall Street, Walsall.”

1841 Census

Rushall Street

- [1] William Wood (50), publican, born Staffordshire;
- [2] Ellen Wood (45), wife;
- [3] John Wood (20), shoemaker, born Staffordshire;
- [4] Thomas Wood (20), brickmaker, born Staffordshire;
- [5] Ellen Wood (10), born Staffordshire;
- [6] Henry Wood (10), born Staffordshire:

Wolverhampton Chronicle 8/9/1841

“The general annual licensing meeting for the borough of Walsall was held at the Guildhall on Wednesday. The magistrates present were John Whitgreave, Esq, R. James, Esq, C. F. Cotterill Esq, and C. Greatrex, Esq. Several applications were made for new licenses, but only two were granted, one to John Boys, at the JUNCTION INN, Bridgeman Street, and the other to a person named Amos, at Bloxwich. The licenses of two old houses were withdrawn for misconduct, namely the BULLS HEAD, in Rushall Street, and the NELSON AND PEAL, Peal Street.”

Henry Harrison was also a stock, hat and gaiter buckle maker. [1845]

Henry Amphlet = Henry Amplett

Staffordshire Advertiser 21/12/1850

“John Elmer, of the BULLS HEAD, Rushall Street, was fined 5s and costs for suffering drunkenness and disorderly conduct in his house on Saturday night last. The defendant said as soon as he saw the men who were quarrelling were drunk, he endeavoured to get them out of the house. The police said the house had been better conducted lately, but being a bad neighbourhood it was very difficult to keep a quiet and respectable house.”

Staffordshire Advertiser 21/8/1852 - Advert

“Walsall. The BULLS HEAD INN, Upper Rushall Street.

By George Allin. To Be Disposed of By Private Treaty, the Licenses, Goodwill, and Immediate Possession of the above Old Licensed Inn, now doing a good ready money trade.

The Fixtures, Furniture, Brewing Utensils, Stock-in-Trade, &c, to be taken at a valuation.

The above house is situated near the Market-place, and the best part of Upper Rushall Street.

For particulars, and to treat, apply to Geo. Allin, Auctioneer, &c, Bridge Street, Walsall.”

Staffordshire Sentinel 13/9/1856

“Monday being the day for the renewal of old licenses and considering the application for new ones, there was a full attendance of magistrates.....

William Keyte, of the BULLS HEAD, Upper Rushall Street all of whom had been convicted during the past year, were admonished, and informed that unless a reform in the management took place, their licenses would be inevitably withheld.”

Walsall Free Press 8/8/1857

“William Keyte, landlord of the BULLS HEAD INN, Rushall Street, on the complaint of Police-constable Crombie, was fined 1s and costs for allowing his dog to be at large on Saturday night.”

Walsall Free Press 5/12/1857

“John Johnson, the keeper of a public house in Upper Rushall Street, was charged with refusing to admit the police to his dwelling, but as the case was not satisfactorily proved, the summons was dismissed.”

J. Johnson, beer retailer, Upper Rushall Street. [1858]

Wolverhampton Chronicle 1/9/1858

“At the licensing meeting on Monday last The Bench expressed their determination of depriving every licensed house that was badly conducted of its license. The license of William Keyte, of the BULLS HEAD, was withdrawn.”

Walsall Free Press 4/9/1858

“William Keyte, who had been convicted last week of harbouring prostitutes, now pleaded guilty to a similar offence and was sentenced to pay a fine of 40s and costs. The Magistrates also intimated their intention of depriving him of his license.”

AND

“Brewster Sessions..... The application of William Keyte, of the BULLS HEAD, Upper Rushall Street, who had been twice convicted of harbouring disorderly prostitutes – once on the 25th instant, when he was fined 40s and costs, and again this morning, when he was deprived of his license, was refused.”

Birmingham Daily Post 7/9/1858

“There was a full Bench of Magistrates at the adjourned Licensing Court, which was held in the Guildhall yesterday, for the purpose of considering those cases of licensed victuallers whose licenses were suspended at the former Court.....

In the case of Mr. William Keyte, landlord of the BULLS HEAD public-house, whose license was withdrawn last week, Mr. Duignan, solicitor, appeared in his behalf. The learned gentleman said that on the morning of last Court day his client had been charged with keeping a disorderly house, and had been convicted of the same offence the previous week, and fined for it. On the second occasion, namely, last Monday, he pleaded guilty to the charge, after some demur; but if the Bench had heard his statement they might have come to a different conclusion when his application for license was considered. The Bench not only convicted and fined his client, but took away his license [there is now a long discussion on points of law] Mr. Duignan considered that his client was not altogether responsible for unfortunate women seeking refreshment in his house. Within a period of 300 years, in the very borough of Walsall, brothels were licensed, and the license money paid to the king.

Mr. Oerton: This is in 1858 – a time of moral progress.

Mr. Duignan stated that he wanted for his client merely an opportunity of properly defending his case, and to have a further hearing.

The Mayor: He answered the charge against him, pleaded guilty, and his license was, therefore, very properly withdrawn.....

Mr. Barnett, sen., solicitor, next rose, and stated that having anticipated the result of the application, he had now to make an application to the Bench. It was that the license for the BULLS HEAD might be conferred upon its landlord, Mr. Edward Matthews, instead of the present tenant. It had been a source of extreme regret to Mr. Matthews to find that the house had been used for improper purposes (as alleged) by his tenant, Mr. Keyte. The tenant had been expostulated with again and again as to the management of the house; and Mr. Matthews had recently expended £50 in order to give it an improved appearance, and then cultivate a superior order of customers. Under these circumstances, Mr. Matthews wished the license for himself, and would hold it in his own hands until he got a respectable tenant, who would be subject to the choice and approval of both the Bench and landlord. Besides, the present tenant (Keyte) had signed a written statement to relinquish the house in a month. It was only necessary, therefore, to have the license transferred from tenant to landlord. After some consideration of the case, a majority of the Bench decided to refuse the application.”

Staffordshire Advertiser 2/7/1859

“Staffordshire Quarter Sessions.

Joseph Gregory, 22, blacksmith, was charged with having stolen a horse, the property of John Llewellyn, at Bloxwich. Mr. Breynton was retained for the prosecution.

Police-constable Jonathan Crowler, of Shrewsbury, deposed that on the 8th of June he saw the prisoner at Shrewsbury, and questioned him with reference to a horse which he had sold to Robert Etherell. He took the prisoner to the station-house, when he said that he had sold the horse for his father, who lived near Shiffnal. He had £3 14s in his pocket. Witness left the station, having been requested to take the prisoner to Shiffnal to ascertain if his story were correct. When they reached Wellington station, the prisoner struck him (witness) and ran away, but was apprehended at Bloxwich, on the 9th June. The prosecutor, a miner, deposed to having had a horse stolen from his field at Bloxwich early on the morning 7th June, and Robert Etherell, butcher, Shrewsbury, stated that he purchased the animal on the evening of the same day. The defence was that on the morning in question the prisoner met a tall man near Bentley with the horse, and was requested to sell it for him. The prisoner, on being found guilty, was sentenced to six months’ hard labour.”

Wolverhampton Chronicle 5/9/1860

“Wednesday last, being the annual licensing day, twenty applications were made by beer-house keepers for victualling licenses.....

Joseph Gregory, Upper Rushall Street. Refused. This application was for the renewal of the license to the BULLS HEAD, which was withdrawn at the annual licensing day in 1858, in consequence of the manner in which it was conducted by the late occupant.

After a few observations from Mr. H. Barnett, jun, who appeared for Gregory, Mr. Oerton said he felt bound, from the facts that had come to his knowledge, to make a few remarks relative to this application. In the first place, since the victualler's license had been withdrawn, crime and disorder, which had been so prevalent in Upper Rushall Street, had considerably decreased, and he quoted some statistics which bore out his observations; in the next place Gregory had been convicted of horse stealing at Stafford in June last year; so as a magistrate he (Mr. Oerton) could not consent to Gregory being entrusted with a victualler's license. This appeared to be the unanimous opinion of the Bench."

1861 Census

55, Uper Rushall Street

[1] John Johnson (39), publican, born Longton, Staffordshire;

[2] Bridget Johnson (30), wife, born Knutsford, Cheshire;

[3] Emily Johnson (15), daughter, born Walsall;

[4] John Johnson (12), son, scholar, born Walsall;

[5] Mary Pullan (?) (18), servant, born Ireland;

[6] Francis Simpson (20), apprentice, born Walsall;

[7] John Fisher (19), visitor, born Birmingham;

[8] Thomas Fisher (20), visitor, born Birmingham:

Wolverhampton Chronicle 30/10/1861

"At the County Court, John Johnson, beerhouse keeper, Rushall-street, applied under an insolvency petition to pass his first hearing. Mr. Ebsworth supported, and Mr. Glover opposed. The ground of opposition was simply a technical one. In cross-examination, Mr. Glover elicited from the insolvent that he had at his beershop sold tobacco; and upon this the learned advocate contended that as the insolvent had only described himself as a beerseller, and had not mentioned that he was also a dealer in tobacco, the description was not correct; that it was insufficient; and that the petition ought to be dismissed. Mr. Ebsworth ridiculed this objection, and although Mr. Glover's objection was not regarded as good by several of the bar present, his Honour was disposed to rule that it must be fatal to the petition. An arrangement was, however, come to with the opposing creditor, and the first hearing was passed."

Daniel Partridge, retailer of beer, 55, Upper Rushall Street. [1862]

Birmingham Daily Post 22/8/1864

"The Forthcoming Borough Licensing Day. The following is a list of persons who intend to apply for spirit licenses at the Special Sessions for that purpose, to be held on the 28th inst.....

Daniel Partridge, GREYHOUND INN, Upper Rushall Street."

Birmingham Daily Post 30/8/1864

"Annual Licensing Session.....

Mr. Lewis (Duignan Lewis and Lewis) applied for a license on behalf of Mr. Daniel Partridge, for the GREYHOUND INN (formerly known as the BULLS HEAD), in Upper Rushall Street. The house was formerly licensed, but, owing to the misconduct of a late tenant, the license was lost. In support of the application a memorial was handed in, signed by a large number of the applicant's neighbours, including the licensed victuallers. Refused by a majority of the Bench."

Daniel Partridge, beer retailer, 55, Upper Rushall Street. [1865]

Staffordshire Advertiser 24/9/1870

"John Ryan, a labourer, was charged with being drunk and disorderly and assaulting Acting-sergeant Lakin. At a little before midnight on Saturday Acting-sergeant Carter was called into the BULLS HEAD INN, Rushall Street, to eject the prisoner, who was drunk and creating a disturbance there. The prisoner at once threw himself upon the floor and seized between his teeth one of the fingers of Acting-sergeant Lakin, who entered the house at the time. He contrived to pull the officer with him, and was assisted by a young man and young woman assaulting him, the result being Lakin pretty freely used his handcuffs which he had in his hand when seized, and the prisoner got severely cut about the head. In consequence of these injuries he was discharged, the Mayor at the same time stating that the magistrates did not blame the police."

1871 Census

55, Rushall Street

[1] Daniel Partridge (50), widower, publican, born Walsall;

[2] William Adcock (42), boarder, shoemaker, born Walsall;

[3] Lizzie Roberts (15), visitor, born Walsall;

[4] Mary Rush (27), general servant, born Lane End:

Titus Grove = Titus Groves

George Somers = George Summers

Walsall Free Press 6/12/1873

“The license of the GREYHOUND public-house, Upper Rushall Street, was on the application of Mr. Glover, transferred temporarily from Titus Grove to George Summers, of Oldbury.”

1881 Census

55, Upper Rushall Street

- [1] George Somers (59), publican, born County Dublin;
- [2] Jane Somers (54), wife, born County Dublin;
- [3] John Somers (22), son, carpenter, born County Dublin;
- [4] Jane Somers (21), daughter, barmaid, born County Dublin;
- [5] James Somers (14), son, scholar, born Oldbury;
- [6] Mary Bessent (18), domestic servant, born Manton, Wiltshire;
- [7] Catherine Cochlin (28), visitor, dressmaker, born County Dublin:

London Gazette 22/4/1881

“The Bankruptcy Act, 1869.

In the County Court of Staffordshire, holden at Walsall. In the Matter of Proceedings for Liquidation by Arrangement or Composition with Creditors, instituted by George Somers, of the GREYHOUND INN, No.55, Upper Rushall-street, Walsall, in the county of Stafford, Licensed Victualler.

Notice is hereby given, that a First General Meeting of the creditors of the above-named person has been summoned to be held at No.21, Church-street, Oldbury, in the county of Worcester, on the 7th day of May, 1881, at twelve o'clock at noon precisely.

Dated this 20th day of April, 1881.

Samuel H. Forrest, 21, Church-street, Oldbury, Solicitor for the said Debtor.”

West Bromwich Weekly News 14/5/1881

“A meeting of Creditors of George Somers, of the GREYHOUND INN, No. 55, Upper Rushall Street, Walsall, late of Oldbury, Licensed Victualler, was held on Saturday, at the offices of Mr. S. H. Forrest, solicitor, 31, Church Street. The statement of affairs showed liabilities £417 9s 3d, and total assets £35 5s 0d. After some discussion it was resolved to accept a composition of 1s 4d in the £, secured and payable by three equal instalments, at Two, Four and Six months.”

1891 Census

55, Upper Rushall Street – BULLS HEAD INN

- [1] George Somers (67), born Ireland;
- [2] Jane Somers (64), wife, born Ireland;
- [3] Jesse Somers (14), grandson, born Walsall;
- [4] Charles Somers (8), grandson, scholar, born Walsall;
- [5] Agness Ross (24), general servant, born Walsall:

Walsall Advertiser 22/1/1898 - Advert

“To Licensed Victuallers And Others.

Unreserved Sale Of Two Good Brewing Plants Situate At The VAULTS, High Street, and The GREYHOUND, Upper Rushall Street, Walsall.

Messrs. Watkins, Powell & Wood are instructed by Messrs. Atkinsons Ltd., to Sell by Auction, absolutely without reserve, on Wednesday, February 2nd, 1898, Two Capital Brewing Plants, one of which is situated at the VAULTS, 37, High Street, Walsall, and comprises 160-gallon Copper Boiler with underwork, 60-gallon Iron Boiler, 18-bushel Oval Mash-tub, several good Coolers, Moreton's patent Refrigerator, Vats, Wort Spouts, Sieves, Tubs, Hop Press, Lead Piping, Fermenting Vessels, 120 and 100-gallon and other Casks, &c, &c.

The Sale of the above will commence at 11 o'clock, and at its conclusion the plant situate at the GREYHOUND, Upper Rushall Street, will be sold. This plant comprises large Copper Boiler, nearly-new Steel Boiler, large Mash-tub, Fermenting Vats, Copper Refrigerator, Cooling Vats, Lead-piping, Casks, and other useful trade effects.

Auctioneer's Offices, Bridge Street, Walsall.”

Samuel Simkin = Samuel Simpkins

Walsall Observer 31/3/1900

“Annie Devine, Bulls Head Yard, was charged with assaulting Samuel Simpkins, landlord of the GREYHOUND INN, Rushall Street on the 8th of March. Mr. H. H. Jackson prosecuted.

Samuel Simpkins said that prisoner came into his house on the night of the 8th of March. She created a disturbance, and when witness ordered her out she set upon him, and after tearing off his collar and tie, she threw several jugs and a water decanter at him, but he was not injured by the assault.

The defence was that prisoner was drunk and did not know what she was doing.

Fined 5s and costs or 7 days.”

William Henry Haycock was fined 20s and costs, on 10th April 1901, for permitting drunkenness.

1901 Census

55, Upper Rushall Street

- [1] William H. Haycock (35), public house manager, born Brereton, Staffordshire;
- [2] Annie Haycock (35), wife, born Brereton, Staffordshire;
- [3] Frederick W. Haycock (13), son, born Walsall;
- [4] Mabel Haycock (5), daughter, born Walsall;
- [5] Louie Haycock (3), daughter, born Walsall;
- [6] Mary Ann Bull (50), visitor, born Walsall;
- [7] Ada Bull (15), domestic servant, born Walsall:

Walsall Advertiser 31/8/1901

“The annual brewster sessions for the borough of Walsall was held at the Guildhall on Wednesday.....

The Black List..... The Chief Constable objected to the renewal of the license of the GREYHOUND INN, Upper Rushall Street, on the ground that on the 10th April the licensee (William Henry Haycock) was convicted and fined 20s and costs for permitting drunkenness on his licensed premises; that Haycock was not a fit and proper person to be entrusted with a license; that the license was not required by the neighbourhood; and that the licensed premises were not conducted in a proper manner.

Mr. Hazell appeared for the owners of the house, and for Haycock. Whilst admitting the conviction, he remarked that there were very exceptional circumstances connected with it. At the time, the licensee’s wife was very ill, and not expected to live, and those circumstances might have caused some relaxation in the vigilance with which the house had been conducted hitherto. The complaint was the only one ever made by the police or anyone else against the conduct of the house, which was not in a very high-class neighbourhood, and which was a house very difficult to conduct in a satisfactory manner. The licensee had a good character; he was for twelve years a member of the Walsall Police Force, and for three years he had been the holder of a full license – one year at the GREYHOUND, and two years at another house – and only on one occasion had there been any complaint against him, under the circumstances he trusted the magistrates would not consider the case serious.

The Chief Constable stated that he intended to urge his objection in this case; and the Bench intimated that they would first hear the evidence of the police.

Chief Inspector Ballance was called, and he stated that there were seven public house in Rushall Street – the GREYHOUND, the ROEBUCK, ROYAL EXCHANGE, HARE AND HOUNDS, the STORES, NAGS HEAD, and the STORES kept by Mrs. Morris. The people who frequented the GREYHOUND were of a very low class – Bridget Durkin, the Fahys, Mark Ryan, Mary Ryan, Ellen Gilmore, Mary Fahy, Mary Ann Connolly, John Wakelam, and others of the same class.

Mr. Loxton: What do you mean by the same class? – Witness: People that are very low class, always coming to the police court for drunkenness. Some of them are now in gaol.

In answer to further queries by the Chief Constable, Inspector Ballance said that he had visited the GREYHOUND frequently during the last 12 months, and he had cautioned him about being under the influence of drink on one occasion. Several times he had visited the house he had seen customers noisy and half drunk, and the landlord on many occasions called for the police to eject disorderly customers. The landlord had proceeded against some of them within the last few months. A short time ago a communication was addressed to the Watch Committee by the inhabitants of Rushall Street drawing attention to disorderly conduct in Rushall Street, and the police had had special instructions to look after that street. He did not consider that the GREYHOUND would be able to support itself if the disorderly element left it. He did not know of any respectable people who went there. There had been many convictions for drunkenness in Rushall Street during the last twelve months, and many of the people proceeded against were customers of the GREYHOUND,

In reply to Mr. Hazell, witness said that he visited Rushall Street six or seven times a week. There was not half the population in the street there was ten or twelve years ago, and a number of courts having been shut up. It was not now a country neighbourhood, and there were some works in the vicinity, but he didn’t know Mr. Leckie’s men used the GREYHOUND. He knew that Haycock had been in the police force twelve years, and that there was no conviction against him except that one mentioned. There were customers at the GREYHOUND they would not have at any other house. On the occasion that he had seen the landlord under the influence of drink he did not think fit to proceed against him because he thought he might go to the doctor and the doctor would say he was not drunk (laughter).

Mr. Hazell: Where do you draw the line of drunkenness? – Witness: Well, he was about three parts (laughter).

Responding to further interrogatories by Mr. Hazell, witness said that the GREYHOUND seemed to be doing a fair amount of business. His objection to the house was not that it was in a low neighbourhood, but some of the people who frequented the house never worked and they managed to get drunk somehow (laughter).

The Mayor: Do you wish the Bench to understand that this house is materially worse than any other house in the same street? – Witness: Yes, sir. There is more disorderly conduct at that house than at any other house in Rushall Street.

Detective-sergeant Jones said that he had served in the police force 8½ years. He knew the GREYHOUND INN well, and in his opinion it was not needed to meet the requirements of the locality. He did not know of any other house in the town where so many disreputable characters frequented. He had frequently gone to the GREYHOUND INN, but not so much to detect drunkenness as to arrest criminals on warrant, knowing that the men he wanted frequented the house. From January 1st. up to August 1st there had been 22 cases of drunkenness from Upper and Lower Rushall Street, and out of that there had been 21 convictions. In his opinion the drunkenness in these particular streets resulted from the excessive number of public-houses in them.

In answer to Mr. Hazell, Sergeant Jones said he should think the people who frequented the GREYHOUND were people who would call for ‘fourpenny’ (laughter), but he did not know that the landlord had been ordered not to supply ‘fourpenny’ in the house at all. The people of that neighbourhood, excepting tradesman, were low class, but of course they had a right to have refreshment.

The Mayor said that he had been requested to ask the witness whether he had not made a mistake, and said that the people who lived in that neighbourhood were low class. – Witness: No, sir; I said excepting tradesmen.

Alderman Holden: A member of the School Board resides in the street you know. – Witness: He is a tradesman.

Detective-constable Burrell was called, and he stated that in his opinion the GREYHOUND was the worst conducted house in Rushall Street.

Mr. Hazell said he would suggest that the evidence given by the police did not apply to the GREYHOUND more than any other in the neighbourhood. With regard to the conviction he did not think it was so serious as to justify the Bench in taking the license away, and as to the landlord not being a proper person to hold a license he did not think they could have a better man. During the time he had kept the house the conduct of it had improved immensely.

Haycock gave evidence, and he stated that he had cleared his house of all bad customers.

In answer to the Chief Constable, Haycock stated that the average receipts were about £10 per week.

Eliza Mills, of 56, Upper Rushall Street, stated that she kept a greengrocer's shop next door to the GREYHOUND INN. She had lived in Rushall Street all her life, and in her opinion the conduct of the GREYHOUND INN during the last few months had been better than at any other time. The house was certainly conducted as well as any other in Rushall Street.

Joseph Bolshaw, grocer, of Pleck Road, said that he visited the GREYHOUND once a week for orders. He thought the house was conducted very well indeed for the neighbourhood.

The Bench refused to renew the license, the recognisances in case of appeal £50.”

Staffordshire Advertiser 12/10/1901

“The general Quarter Sessions of the Peace for the County begin at Stafford on Tuesday.....

There is already a heavy list of appeals, the following having been entered for hearing.....

Atkinson's Brewery Limited v Justices of the Borough of Walsall, against refusal to renew the license of the GREYHOUND INN, Walsall.”

It closed in 1901.

Closed

Demolished

GRINDERS ARMS

Pleck, WALSALL

OWNERS

LICENSEES

William Wright [1851]

NOTES

1851 Census

Pleck

- [1] William Wright (30), grinder, born Birmingham;
- [2] Sarah Wright (26), wife, born Dudley;
- [3] John Wright (6), son, born Wednesbury;
- [4] Sarah Wright (5), daughter, born Darlston;
- [5] Louisa Wright (4), daughter, born Walsall;
- [6] Jane Wright (2), daughter, born Walsall;
- [7] Emma (?) Wright (5 months), daughter, born Walsall;
- [8] Joseph Heap (19), apprentice, born Walsall;
- [9] Benjamin Wright (21), lodger, grinder, born West Bromwich;
- [10] Mary Perkins (19), servant, born Walsall;

HALF MOON

Pleck, WALSALL

OWNERS

John Johnson

LICENSEES

George Johnson [1845] – [1856]

NOTES

George Johnson was also a coal merchant. [1845]

1851 Census

Pleck

- [1] George Johnson (32), victualler, birthplace unknown;
- [2] Elizabeth Johnson (32), wife, born Tipton;
- [3] Elizabeth Trimer (14), servant, born Darlaston;
- [4] Thomas Lowe (18), apprentice, born Inkly [Hinckley?];
- [5] Ann Elizabeth Rosser (19), servant, born Wellington, Shropshire;
- [6] Ellen Page (33), visitor, born Bilston;
- [7] Sarah Ann Page (8), visitor, born Tipton;
- [8] Ellen Page (3), visitor, born West Bromwich:

Staffordshire Sentinel 13/9/1856

“Monday being the day for the renewal of old licenses and considering the application for new ones, there was a full attendance of magistrates All the old licenses were renewed excepting those of.....

George Johnson, of the HALF MOON, The Pleck, which was refused in consequence of complaints from the clergy, gentry, and other inhabitants, of the disorderly conduct of the house.”

Staffordshire Sentinel 20/9/1856

“Monday being the adjourned licensing day.....

Mr. Barnett applied on behalf of James Baggott, the HALF MOON, the Pleck, for a renewal of his license, which had been refused on licensing day.

The Mayor: If Mr. John Johnson (owner of the house) is prepared with a respectable person as tenant, we are prepared to transfer the license; but we entirely repudiate Baggott. The license was then granted to Mr. Johnson on the condition that he should take immediate possession of the house, and keep it until he was provided with a respectable tenant.”

HAMEMAKERS ARMS

87, (85), (84), (84-85), Blue Lane West / Shaw Street, WALSALL

OWNERS

James Whittingham

John Morgan (acquired in 1876)

John Adams, hame maker, Blue Lane, Walsall

Chesters Brewery Co., Manchester

North Worcestershire Breweries Ltd.

Wolverhampton and Dudley Breweries Ltd. (acquired in 1909) [1997]

LICENSEES

John Adams [1851] – 1866;

John Dace (1866 – [1870])

Reece [1869]

William Molineux [1872] – [1873];
James Whittingham [];
John Morgan [1880] – 1881);
Enos Perrins (1881 - [1885];
Francis Adams [] – 189_);
William Cranwell [1891] – [1892] (1890 – 189_);
John Maddox (189_ – 1895);
Mrs. Catherine Elwell (1895 – 1898);
Alfred Barnes (1898);
Denis Gordon (1898);
Alfred Barnes (1898 – 1899);
Frank Roberts (1899 – 1909);
Thomas Young (1909 – 1911);
William Parker (1911 – 1914);
James Boaz Astley (1914 – 1923);
Mrs. Mary Astley (1923 – 1934);
William Edward Tonkinson (1934 – 1939);
Arthur Patrick ‘Pat’ Hopkins (1939 – 1940);
Thomas Joseph Oakley (1940 – 1941);
Hannah Bradley (1941 – 1942);
Arthur Abraham Canning (1942 – 1946); manager
Leonard John ‘Len’ Hunt (1946 – 1948);
Robert ‘Bob’ Preston (1948 – 1954);
John Thomas ‘Jack’ Smith (1954 – 1962);
John Clarence Somerfield (1962 – 1963);
Eric Francis Child (1963 – [1977]
Peter Fry [1987] – [1994] manager

NOTES

84, Blue Lane West [1870]

85, Blue Lane West [1858], [1861], [1862], [1864], [1865], [1872], [1891], [1892], [1896], [1901], [1904], [1908], [1912], [1916], [1932], [1939], [1940]

87, Blue Lane West [1993]

It was formerly the BAKERS ARMS. [1860]

Birmingham Weekly Mercury 5/4/1964

“In many parts of Britain the local factory has its complement in the local public house....

Local history can be read in many places through the sign at the local hostelry, but few towns flaunt their basic industry on their inn signs more fully than Walsall. Saddlery it is, so you might expect a SADDLERS ARMS, but several other parts of the trade occur in the SPUR MAKERS ARMS, the HAME MAKERS ARMS and the recently demolished BRIDLE CUTTERS ARMS.”

Staffordshire Advertiser 22/5/1852

“John Adams, of the HAME MAKERS ARMS, was fined 1s and costs, for having his house open at half-past twelve on Saturday night last.”

John Adams was also a manufacturer of hames and chains, polisher for lime, and steam mills, hay, straw, chaff and corn dealer. [1858]

He was also a cart horse dealer. [1861]

Staffordshire Advertiser 17/11/1860

“John Adams, of the HAMEMAKERS ARMS INN, Blue Lane, was charged with allowing disorderly conduct in his house, but the case was not clearly proved.”

1861 Census

85, Blue Lane

[1] John Adams (46), publican, cart hame maker employing 6 men, born Walsall;

[2] Harriett Adams (45), wife, born Walsall;

[3] George Blake (60), boarder, locksmith, born Walsall;

[4] Edwin Andrews (20), boarder, general labourer, born Walsall;

[5] Sarah Ann Mellows (13), house servant, born Walsall:

John Adams was also a hame maker. [1864]

Birmingham Daily Gazette 1/1/1869

“James Brown, Railway Street, Blue Lane, was charged with having, on the 10th December, passed a base florin to Mrs. Reece, landlady of the HAMEMAKERS ARMS. It appeared the prisoner about four o’clock on the day in question, sent his youngest daughter, a girl about five years of age, to Mrs. Reece’s house for a pint of beer and gave her a florin to pay for it. In a few minutes afterwards he went to Mrs. Reece’s house and called for a pint of beer and gave another florin to Mrs. Reece. After drinking the beer and receiving the change he left, and shortly after his departure his eldest daughter, a girl about eight years old, came for another pint of beer and tendered a third florin. This aroused the suspicion of Mrs. Reece, who tested the three florins and found they were all counterfeit coins, and had been cast in the same mould, and bore the date ‘1868.’ The Bench after hearing the evidence, remanded the prisoner until the authorities at the Mint could be communicated with.”

[At the Walsall Borough Quarter Sessions (January 1869), James Brown was sentenced to four months’ imprisonment.]

Staffordshire Advertiser 17/4/1869

“On Monday Mr. A. A. Fetcher, coroner, held an inquest at the HAMEMAKERS ARMS, Blue Lane, on the body of Frank Henry Jones, aged 4, who died on Saturday, from the effects of injuries he sustained on the 1st inst, owing to a cart on which he was playing near his mother’s house falling over upon him. Verdict, Accidental Death.”

The licensee was fined 10s and costs, on 16th April 1877, for permitting drunkenness.

1881 Census

84+85, Blue Lane West – HAME MAKERS ARMS

[1] John Morgan (30), licensed victualler, born Hereford;

[2] Ellen Morgan (36), wife, born Isle of Man:

Evening Express 14/12/1881

“A blind man, named Robert Littlewood (44), Blue Lane, was charged with stealing a goose, valued 1s, the property of Enos Perrins, landlord of the HAMEMAKERS ARMS.

It appeared that on Monday last his prosecutor left four geese in a stable adjoining the house, and subsequently the prisoner, who played the piano in Perrins’s house, was found in the SWAN public house with one of the geese in his possession.

The prisoner, who expressed sincere regret for what he had done, was sentenced to three days’ imprisonment in the borough gaol.”

Birmingham Daily Post 16/12/1885

“A petition was filed in the Walsall Bankruptcy Court, yesterday, on behalf of Enos Perrins, the HAMEMAKERS ARMS, Blue Lane West, Walsall, licensed victualler and hamemaker, and the public examination was fixed for the 14th January. Mr. R. Smith, Short Heath, is the solicitor acting in the matter.”

Birmingham Daily Post 27/11/1890

“At the Guildhall, a special session – the first under the new local Act – was held for the purpose of hearing applications for music, singing, and dancing licenses.....

The following applied in person William Cranwell, HAMEMAKERS ARMS, Blue Lane West. Refused.”

1891 Census

85, Blue Lane West – HAME MAKERS ARMS

[1] William Cranwell (47), public house manager, born Cork, Ireland;

[2] Kate Cranwell (34), wife, born Shibreen, Ireland;

[3] William Cranwell (14), son, clerk, born Dymchurch, Kent;

[4] Catherine Cranwell (13), daughter, scholar, born Shibreen, Ireland;

[5] John E. Cranwell (10), son, scholar, born Hastings;

[6] Mary Cranwell (4), daughter, scholar, born Stourbridge;

[7] Mary Gavin (18), general servant, born Walsall:

Walsall Advertiser 8/6/1895

“Mrs. Jane Elwell applied for the transfer of the license of the HAMEMAKERS ARMS, from John Maddocks to herself. The Chief Constable opposed the transfer on the ground that temporary authority had been three times given to her, but that she neglected to serve the notices for the proper transfer. The application was refused.”

Walsall Advertiser 15/6/1895

“It will be advisable for publicans, who wish to effect a transfer of their licenses, to take warning by the decision of the magistrates in the case of Mrs. Elwell, who last week applied for a transfer of the license of the HAMEMAKERS ARMS from John Maddocks to herself, but owing to having neglected to serve notices for the proper transfer her application was refused.

Mr. H. H. Jackson, on behalf of the owner of the public-house, again referred to the matter, and asked the Bench to grant a temporary authority, remarking he believed Mrs. Elwell had been sufficiently punished by the closure of the house for a week.

In reply to the magistrates the Chief Constable said he would leave the matter entirely in the hands of the Bench. The Chairman observed that their decision last week had been given for the purpose of teaching a lesson to the publicans generally. Mrs. Elwell's application would now be granted.”

Walsall Advertiser 2/9/1899

“The annual licensing sessions for this borough were held at the Guildhall on Wednesday.....

The Chief Constable submitted the following list showing houses where children under the age of 13 had been served since Aug., 1898. Alehouses.....

Alfred Barnes, HAMEMAKERS ARMS, served 12 children.....

He said he had a list of 118 other houses which he did not think worth while including in the report, where the number of children served had been under ten. The Mayor said he thought that the license holders should try and fall in with the magistrates views.....

On returning the magistrates announced their decisions as under....

In the cases where children under 13 years of age were reported to have been supplied, on the promise of the licensees to carry out the wishes of the magistrates in future the licenses would be renewed with a caution.”

1901 Census

85, Blue Lane West

[1] Frank Roberts (29), licensed victualler, born Walsall;

[2] Florence Roberts (26), wife, born Moxley;

[3] Girty Hayward (19), domestic servant, born Bradley, Staffordshire:

Frank Roberts – see also DUSTY MILLER.

Indenture dated 28/10/1909

“All those two (formerly three) messuages or dwelling houses one of which is used as a public-house known as The HAMEMAKERS ARMS with the yard gateway brewery-house privy and outbuildings thereto respectively belonging situate in or near a lane called Blue Lane West in Walsall aforesaid erected and built on the site of two former messuages.....”

1911 Census

85, Blue Lane West

[1] William Parker (32), manager of public business, born Walsall;

[2] Florence Annie Parker (30), wife, married 3 years, manageress of public business, born Deepfields;

[3] Beatrice Ellen Parker (3), daughter, born Walsall;

[4] William Sydney Parker (9 months), son, born Walsall;

[5] John Edward Murray (15), nephew, errand boy (for) cycle dealer, born Walsall:

Walsall Advertiser 3/8/1912

“George Ediss, 33, Dalkeith Street, and John Durkin, 3, Temple Street, were summoned for assaulting William Parker, landlord of the HAMEMAKERS ARMS, Green Lane, and for also damaging certain goods and wearing apparel to the value of 15/-.

Mr. Frank Cooper appeared for the complainant, and said that on June 29th, at about 9.40pm, the two defendants and a man named William Ediss, went into the HAMEMAKERS ARMS and were supplied with beer. Durkin began to sing, and when the landlord asked him to stop he ‘squared’ to complainant and attempted to strike him. Parker backed away, but received a blow from Ediss.

He was knocked over a stool, his mouth was cut and pandemonium reigned.

Defendants pleaded guilty to assault, but denied wilful damage.

Evidence in support of Mr. Cooper’s statement having been given by the landlord, a man named Frederick Harrison and Police-constable Kelly, Mr. Cooper intimated that he would not proceed with the second charge.

Ediss was fined 5s and costs, or seven days, and Durkin was ordered to pay 10s and costs, or 14 days.”

James Astley = James Ashley

Walsall Advertiser 30/1/1915

“Simeon Pitt, of Green Lane, Old Birchills, was summoned by James Ashley, of the HAMEMAKERS ARMS, Blue Lane West, who claimed £1 16s damages alleged to have been caused by neglect of work. Complainant said defendant, who was a boat steerer, threw up his job at a minutes’ notice on January 11th. The horse was, as a result, kept in a stable a week. Defendant was ordered to pay 30s.”

Walsall Advertiser 23/10/1915

“Joseph Brown, of 15, Birch Street, was summoned for being such a distance from his horse and cart in Blue Lane, as not to have control of the same, and for driving a horse and cart in Blue Lane without a light on October 8th.

Police-constable Ballance said that at 7-40pm on the day in question, he saw a horse and cart standing outside the HAMEMAKERS ARMS, Blue Lane, with no one in charge, and also with no light attached. After waiting twenty minutes, he went and fetched the defendant out of the public-house. When spoken to the defendant became very abusive. A fine of 10s was imposed.”

Walsall Observer 12/1/1918

“Walsall and District War Aid Committee. Collection By The Licensed Victuallers, December, 1917.....
HAME MAKERS ARMS, Blue Lane. £0 5s 6d.”

Demolished

It was rebuilt in 1937.

Walsall Observer 26/8/1939 - Advert

“Bar General, or one to learn.

Pat. Hopkins, HAMEMAKERS ARMS, Blue Lane West, Walsall.”

1939 Register

85, Blue Lane West

[1] Arthur P. Hopkins, date of birth 9/7/1892, publican, manager, married;

[2] Frances Hopkins, dob 14/4/1892, unpaid domestic duties, married:

Walsall Observer 7/12/1940

“Walsall Licensed Victuallers’ Society.

Motor Ambulance Effort on behalf of Walsall and District branch of the British Red Cross Society.

First List of Subscriptions.....

HAMEMAKERS ARMS, Blue Lane West, £3 5s 0d.”

Walsall Observer 24/12/1942

“Walsall Licensed Victuallers’ Society. The Duke of Gloucester’s Red Cross Fund. List of Subscriptions.....

HAMEMAKERS ARMS, Blue Lane West. £2 0s 0d.”

Walsall Observer 14/8/1943

“At the monthly meeting of the Walsall and District Licensed Victuallers’ Society held on Thursday....

Mr. Arthur Canning, of the HAMEMAKERS ARMS, Blue Lane West, was elected a member of the society.”

Walsall Observer 13/10/1943

“After sitting until 6pm on Wednesday, hearing 164 summonses arising out of excessive deliveries of coal last winter, the Walsall magistrates (Messrs. Fred Evans, and H. Shemmans, and Mrs. Brockhurst) reserved their decisions in what were regarded as the more serious cases until Thursday morning.....

There were six summons against the Wolverhampton and Dudley Breweries, Park Brewery, Wolverhampton, in respect of the FORGE INN, Pleck Road; RISING SUN, Green Lane; RED LION, Park Street; BLACK HORSE, Bloxwich Road; BUILDERS ARMS, Wisemore; and HAMEMAKERS ARMS, Blue Lane; and the managers of those houses, William Allport, Joseph Thomas Astbury, Thomas Purton Cole, Constance Mary Horton, Cyril Vernon Sleigh (now of Stafford Street), and Arthur Abraham Canning for aiding and abetting.

Mr. Cooper appeared for the brewery company and stated that it would be unfair and unjust if they were made to pay double the penalty imposed on the managers, as in the preceding cases, seeing that they had given specific instructions to all their managers that regulations must be strictly complied with and if they could not get sufficient coal for their purposes they should apply to the local Fuel Overseer for permits for extra supplies.

‘I regard it as somewhat ungenerous on the part of Mr. Cooper to try to throw the blame on the poor managers,’ said Mr. Hodgkinson, who pointed out that all the profits from the houses went to the brewery company and that the coal was not used for their own benefit but for the benefit of the public.

In these cases the brewery company was fined 10s in each case, and the other defendants £1 each except Horton who was ordered to pay £2.”

Walsall Observer 15/1/1944

“Walsall Licensed Victuallers’ Society.

Appeal on Behalf of the Merchant Navy Fund, The Duke of Gloucester’s Red Cross Fund and the Aid to China Fund. List of Subscriptions.....

HAMEMAKERS ARMS, Blue Lane West. £1 11s 6d.”

Leonard John Hunt was married to Edna (Vi).

See also RAILWAY, Bilston.

Black Country Bugle Annual 1989

“Back in the 1950s the present day lounge consisted of separate Blue and Brown Rooms, and in the latter waiter service was available by operating a bell-pull.”

Peter Fry was born in Birchills Street, Walsall.

He was an ex-restaurant manager.

It had a dominoes team. [1989]

Sandwell Evening Mail 23/7/1994

“Down Your Local. HAMEMAKERS, Walsall.

With a name like the HAMEMAKERS the pub could not have closer links with Walsall’s traditional industry. The town has long been renowned as a centre for the manufacture of equestrian commodities, including saddles, stirrups, spurs, bridle – and hames. A hame is one of the two curved brass bars around the collar of a draught horse and such collars were made in Walsall once upon a time. There is little doubt that some of the earliest customers of the pub were workers in the hamemaking and associated trades. Despite the gradual demise of the town’s leather industries and the fact that the old HAMEMAKERS ARMS vanished, to be replaced by a new version over 50 years ago, this popular pub remains a traditional local.

Landlord Peter Fry is a rover who returned to his roots. He moved here seven years ago but it seems as though he’s been at the pub most of his life, which isn’t surprising as he was born less than 100 yards away in Birchills Street and he has fond memories of the HAMEMAKERS. ‘I clearly remember the pub as a child and it had always been my ambition to run the HAMEMAKERS since I entered the pub trade,’ he says. ‘Unfortunately, you rarely get the opportunity to run the pub of your choice so it was obviously wonderful when the chance arose,’ adds Peter, aged 45. His parents lived nearby until recently and his dad, Jackie Fry, should be familiar to all old boxing fans who following the fight game during the 30s. He used to be a regular at the HAMEMAKERS and Peter makes a point of giving a warm welcome to old ring craftsmen.

Peter is a popular boss who is just as happy playing darts in the bar, chatting to businessmen and magistrates in the lounge or planning the next day’s menu. He and wife Veronica recently opened a 30-seater restaurant in the upstairs room of the pub. It has become so popular that it is best to book well in advance for a table. ‘I leave the cooking to Veronica,’ says Peter. ‘What she can’t do in the kitchen isn’t worth talking about.’

Unlike many public houses these days, anyone found using foul language at HAMEMAKERS is not welcome and is likely to find themselves out on the street. ‘I simply do not tolerate bad language,’ explains Peter. ‘Apart from anything, it would be totally inappropriate at a pub with such a mixed clientele.’

There are discos, barbecues and singers on Sunday evenings. Another popular event staged regularly at the pub is the Friday night trivia quiz and, with the frequent outings from the pub, organised by the social committee, there are few blanks on the HAMEMAKERS calendar.....”

Express and Star 24/11/1997 - Advert

“Bar, lounge and function room; good food potential.”

[1999]

Closed

Demolished [2004]

The site became part of a shopping complex.

HANSOM CAB

WALSALL

OWNERS

LICENSEES

HARDEN INN

Coalpool Lane / Harden Road, Coalpool, WALSALL

OWNERS

William Butler and Co. Ltd.

Mitchells and Butlers Ltd.

LICENSEES

Harold Draisey (1937 – 1938);
Leonard Charles Lampitt (1938 – 1945);
Albert James Morrall (1945 – 1955);
George Thomas Rathbone (1955);
William Gerald Wright (1955 – 1957);
Leslie Ketley (1957 – 1959);
Wilfred Thomas Pinches (1959 – 1962);
Dennis Gray (1962 – 1963);
Griffith Allan Steer (1963 – 1967);
Robert McMath (1967 – []

NOTES

It opened at 6pm on 16th November 1937.
The license was transferred from the GOATS HEAD, Newhall Street.

Harold Draisey – see also GOATS HEAD.

1939 Register

Coalpool Lane – HARDEN Public House

- [1] Leonard C. Lampitt, date of birth 20/5/1903, foreman, non-ferrous rolling mill (retired), married;
- [2] Jesse G. Lampitt, dob 16/11/1902, manageress public house, married;
- [3] David L. Lampitt, dob 26/8/1925, at school, single;
- [4] Sheila J. (Lampitt) Biddle, dob 15/12/1927, at school, single;
- [5] Lorna (D.) (Hoare) Osbourne, dob 28/10/1916, barmaid, single:

Walsall Observer 29/8/1942

“County Borough of Walsall. Mayor’s War Aid Fund. Nineteenth List of Subscriptions.....
Mr. Lampitt, the HARDEN, Coalpool. £0 17s 1d.”

Walsall Observer 13/10/1943

“After sitting until 6pm on Wednesday, hearing 164 summonses arising out of excessive deliveries of coal last winter, the Walsall magistrates (Messrs. Fred Evans, and H. Shemmans, and Mrs. Brockhurst) reserved their decisions in what were regarded as the more serious cases until Thursday morning.....

W. Butler and Co. Ltd., Springfield Brewery, were summoned in respect of the HORSE AND JOCKEY, Bloxwich Road; KING GEORGE V, Wallows Lane, DILKE ARMS, Aldridge; The HARDEN, Harden Road; and VINE INN, Lower Hall Street; and the managers, Thomas Henry Atkins, Kenneth Dawes, Harry Harvey, Leonard Charles Lampitt, and Edwin George White, for aiding and abetting. Mr. Cooper said this brewery company also had given specific instructions to their managers, and Mr. Hodgkinson emphasised that the managers’ offences were purely of a technical character and that if they had applied for permits for extra supplies they would have got them.

Dawes and Hawkes were fined £2 each, the other managers £1 each, and the brewery 10s in each case.”

Walsall Observer 15/1/1944

“Walsall Licensed Victuallers’ Society.

Appeal on Behalf of the Merchant Navy Fund, The Duke of Gloucester’s Red Cross Fund and the Aid to China Fund. List of Subscriptions.....

HARDEN, Coalpool. £0 14s 0d.”

Walsall Observer 7/10/1944 - Advert

“Bar General, one willing to learn would suit.
The HARDEN, Coalpool.”

Walsall Observer 24/8/1962 - Advert

“Attention! all Mild drinkers.

Highgate Mild is now available in the following Butlers and Atkinsons houses.....

HARDEN, Coalpool Lane, Walsall.”

Dennis Gray – see also HORSE AND JOCKEY, and CAMBRIDGE.

[1989]

Closed [2006]

It was damaged in an arson attack in December 2006.

Demolished [2009]
Housing was built on the site.

HARE AND HOUNDS

68, Upper Rushall Street, (High Street), WALSALL

OWNERS

Earl of Bradford
Peck and Kerrison (leased)
William Butler and Co. Ltd.

LICENSEES

Peter Cooper [1801]
Mrs. Cooper [1813]
Joseph Cooper [1818] – [1822]
Richard Lynex [1828] – [1851]
Henry Lynex [1858] – [1865]
Richard Lynex [1862] ?
William Shutt [1868] – [1870]
Henry Blakham [1869]
Thomas Vigrass [1872] – 1873;
Henry James Lynex (1873 – [1876];
William Griffiths [];
Thomas Arrowsmith [1881];
Samuel Willetts [];
Frank Blakemore [];
John Haines [] – 1887);
John Hurlstone (1887 – 1890);
Thomas Bates (1890 – 1898);
Ernest Earp (1898 – 1899);
John Collins (1899 – 1901);
Charles Lammas (1901 – 1903);
George Alexander (1903 – 1904);
Winifred Alexander (1904);

NOTES

Rushall Street [1822]
High Street [1858]
68, Upper Rushall Street [1862], [1868]

Richard Lynex = Richard Lynes

Wolverhampton Chronicle 23/5/1838 - Deaths

“On 20th instant, aged 41, Catherine, wife of Richard Lynex, of the HARE AND HOUNDS, Upper Rushall Street, Walsall.”

Wolverhampton Chronicle 24/3/1841

“On Thursday last a party of about sixty Conservative gentlemen met at the house of Mr. Richard Lynex, the HARE AND HOUNDS, Rushall Street, Walsall, where a most excellent dinner was provided, in commemoration of the late triumph of Conservatism in that borough. After the cloth was drawn, H. C. Windle, Esq., was called to the chair, and H. Box, Esq. filled the vice-chair. The usual loyal and constitutional toasts were given by the chairman, and warmly responded to by the company. Hilarity and good humour reigned throughout the day, and the party separated at a seasonable hour, fully satisfied with the provision made at so short a notice for their comfort and enjoyment.”

Henry Lynex = Henry Lynes

Walsall Free Press 15/12/1860 - Advert

“To Be Sold Cheap, a complete Lodge Regalia, in first-rate condition.
Apply H. Lynex, HARE AND HOUNDS, Rushall Street.”

1861 Census

68, Upper Rushall Street

- [1] Henry Lynex (54), victualler, born Walsall;
- [2] Maria Lynex (61), wife, born Walsall;
- [3] Henry Lynex (28), son, merchant's clerk, born Walsall;
- [4] Ann Slaney (17), servant, born Lichfield:

Staffordshire Advertiser 11/1/1862

“Patrick Griffin was charged with having on Tuesday night assaulted Henry Lynex. The complainant keeps the HARE AND HOUNDS INN, Rushall Street, and on the night in question the prisoner was there behaving in a disorderly manner. When Mr. Lynex expostulated with him he knocked him down. Fined 5s and costs, or seven days' imprisonment.”

Walsall Free Press 19/9/1863 - Notice

“Walsall Licensed Victuallers Friendly and Protection Society.

The Annual Dinner of the above Society will be held at Mr. Robert Leighton's, the DRAGON INN, on Thursday, October 1st, 1836, when the Company of any Gentleman will be esteemed a favour.

Mr. Councillor Thomas Hazledine has kindly consented to take the Chair.

Mr. George Bayley, Vice Chairman.

Dinner on the Table at Four o'clock precisely.

Tickets 2s 6d each may be had from Mr. Lynex, HARE AND HOUNDS.”

Birmingham Daily Post 1/1/1864

“Yesterday, Martin Finneran was brought up on remand at the Guildhall, charged with stealing a bottle of brandy, the property of Mr. Henry Lynex, of the HARE AND HOUNDS, Lower Rushall Street. It will be remembered that on Monday, when the prisoner was placed in the dock, some person in the body of the Court announced that the case was settled, whereupon Mr. Cater having shown that such arrangements were very frequent, the Bench directed that Mr. Lynex should be summoned to attend. Yesterday he appeared, and asked to be allowed to withdraw the charge, stating that he had known the prisoner for some time as an honest but somewhat thrifless man, and if he really stole the brandy, which witness was personally unable to assert, he must have done it while under the influence of drink. After a remark from the Mayor to the effect that the station house seemed to have been used merely as a 'sponging house,' to get the value of the brandy, the withdrawal was allowed, and the prisoner was discharged.”

Walsall Free Press 16/12/1865 - Adverts

“To Be Let, and may be entered upon immediately, that old-licensed, well-accustomed Inn, the HARE AND HOUNDS, situate at the top of Rushall Street, and fronting the Market-place. Has been in one family for upwards of forty years; and the proprietor is now leaving in consequence of other engagements.

For particulars, apply to John Osbourn, Auctioneer and Appraiser, 52, Lower Hall Street, Walsall.”

AND

“The Old And Well-Established Yearly Society, (Capital £100), Held at Mr. H. Lynex's, HARE AND HOUNDS, Upper Rushall Street, Walsall, will for a short time admit Men in good health up to Forty Years of Age.

Entrance Fee, 2s 6d; Contributions, 1s 2d per fortnight. Benefits: Sick Pay, 8s per week; on the Death of a Member, £10; Member's Wife, £4 (not deducted from the £10 payable at the death of a member). Every information will be given at the HARE AND HOUNDS, or at No.22, New Street.”

Walsall Free Press 19/9/1868

“William Shutt, landlord of the HARE AND HOUNDS, who failed to appear, was charged by Police-sergeant Childs with having had his house open during prohibited hours on Sunday afternoon last.

From the officer's evidence, it appeared that he went to the house at half-past three, and met a woman coming out with a small bottle of rum. On seeing him she went back into the house.

Mrs. Shutt said that she had given the woman the rum.

Fined 20s and costs.”

Walsall Free Press 10/4/1869

“Henry Blakham, landlord of the HARE AND HOUNDS, Upper Rushall Street, pleaded guilty to having, at twenty minutes to five o'clock on Sunday afternoon last, had his house open for the sale of beer, and was fined 2s 6d and costs.”

Staffordshire Advertiser 16/9/1876

“Adjourned Licensing Session. Mr. Glover applied for the renewal of the licences to Henry Lynex, the HARE AND HOUNDS, Upper Rushall Street, all the licenses were withheld on the licensing day on behalf of all the other applicants he made explanations with reference to the causes of the suspension of their licenses. The cases of Messrs. Lynex were further adjourned till the 9th of October The Mayor also stated that the Bench intended to take notice of all evidence that might come before them, and use it against the victuallers at the next licensing session.”

Staffordshire Advertiser 14/10/1876

“Adjourned Licensing Meeting. The suspended licenses of William Allen, the RODNEY, Park Street; Samuel Horton, the WATERLOO TAVERN, Marsh Lane; and Henry Lynex, the HARE AND HOUNDS, Upper Rushall Street, were renewed.”

Thomas Arrowsmith = Thomas Harrowsmith

1881 Census

68, Upper Rushall Street

- [1] Thomas Harrowsmith (38), publican, born Walsall;
- [2] Mary Ann Harrowsmith (37), wife, born Walsall;
- [3] Joseph Harrowsmith (9), son, scholar, born Walsall;
- [4] William Harrowsmith (7), son, scholar, born Walsall;
- [5] Alice Harrowsmith (4), daughter, born Walsall;
- [6] Harriet Harrowsmith (73), mother, widow, born Walsall;
- [7] Kate O'Brien (17), general servant, born Walsall:

London Gazette 17/2/1882

“The Bankruptcy Act, 1869.

In the County Court of Staffordshire, holden at Walsall. In the Matter of Proceedings for Liquidation by Arrangement or Composition with Creditors, instituted by Thomas Arrowsmith, of the HARE AND HOUNDS INN, Upper Rushall-street, and also of Field-gate, Walsall, in the county of Stafford, Victualler, Haulier, and Lock Maker.

Notice is hereby given, that a First General Meeting of the creditors of the above-named person has been summoned to be held at my offices, the Bridge, Walsall, in the county of Stafford, on the 2nd day of March, 1882, at twelve o'clock at noon precisely.

Dated this 14th day of February, 1882.

C. A. Loxton, the Bridge, Walsall, Solicitor for the said Debtor.”

Evening Star 3/3/1882

“A meeting of creditors of Thomas Arrowsmith, of the HARE AND HOUNDS INN, Upper Rushall Street, and of F _____, Walsall, licensed victualler and lock maker, was held on Thursday, at the offices of Mr. C. A. Loxton, when Mr. G. D. Laing presided.

A statement was presented showing liabilities of £739 7s 9d, assets £100, and it was resolved to accept a composition of 2s 6d in the pound, secured, payable in two equal installments of _____ four months.

Mr. J. Belcher, auctioneer, was appointed trustee, and Mr. Loxton with the registration of the resolutions.”

1891 Census

68, Upper Rushall Street – HARE AND HOUNDS

- [1] Thomas Bates (34), licensed victualler and bit maker, born Bloxwich;
- [2] Jane Bates (35), wife, born Walsall;
- [3] William S. Bates (9), son, scholar, born Bloxwich;
- [4] George T. Bates (5), son, scholar, born Bloxwich;
- [5] Lionel Bates (3), son, scholar, born Bloxwich;
- [6] Ernest Bates (9 months), son, born Bloxwich:

Walsall Advertiser 7/12/1895

“Richard Parsons, of the JOLLY BACCHUS INN, New Street, was charged with having been drunk on his licensed premises on Thursday week.

Police-sergeant Ballance stated that about 9.55pm on Tuesday, November 26th, he saw the defendant leave the HARE AND HOUNDS public-house in a drunken condition, and stagger up the Church Hill towards home. Witness subsequently visited his public-house and found him there.

In reply to Mr. Jackson, who defended Parsons, he denied that he had followed defendant home.

Police-constable Horton, corroborated, but at the conclusion of his evidence the Bench decided not to continue the case, and ordered the costs only to be paid.”

Walsall Advertiser 20/5/1899

“Messrs. Watkins, Powell, and Wood sold the following properties, which were offered by auction at the Property Sale Room, Bridge Street, Walsall, on Monday and Tuesday evenings.....

The full-licensed public house known as the HARE AND HOUNDS, together with the double-fronted shop and dwelling house, being numbered 66 and 67, in Upper Rushall Street, Walsall. The property, which is freehold, changed hands at a satisfactory price. Mr. G. G. Potter was the acting solicitor.”

Walsall Advertiser 10/11/1899

“Henry McGuinness (64), no fixed abode, was summoned for refusing to quit the HARE AND HOUNDS, Upper Rushall Street, on Nov. 16th, and with breaking nine panes of glass, the property of John Collins, the landlord, doing damage to the amount of 11s 3d. The evidence was to the effect that the defendant went to the HARE AND HOUNDS INN whilst drunk and disorderly, and when ejected he smashed the windows with a stick. Fined 10s and costs for refusing to quit, or 10 days in default; and seven days in default of paying the damages, 11s 3d and costs.”

1901 Census

68, Upper Rushall Street

[1] John Collins (36), tinsmith and public house manager, born Wolverhampton;

[2] Margaret E. Collins (36), wife, born Newcastle upon Tyne;

[3] John Collins (11), son, born Liverpool;

[4] Anne E. Collins (9), daughter, born Barl (?), Lancashire;

[5] Thomas D. Collins (7), son, born Wolverhampton;

[6] Margaret E. Collins (6), daughter, born Wolverhampton:

Walsall Advertiser 6/2/1904

“The annual licensing sessions for the Borough of Walsall were held on Thursday at the Guildhall, and aroused considerable interest. The court was crowded, and many license-holders were unable to obtain admission.....

Notice had been given to 76 license holders to show cause for the renewal of their licenses, evidently as a result of the visits of a sub-committee of magistrates to the licensed premises, the reasons why cause had to be shown being various....

George Alexander, HARE AND HOUNDS.”

Walsall Advertiser 20/2/1904

“The annual licensing meeting for the borough of Walsall was continued on Tuesday, and occupied the whole day.....

‘The Best House in Rushall Street.’ So said Mr. Jackson, of the HARE AND HOUNDS, to which objection had been taken by the Bench, though he added there was no complaint or objection by the police. Deferred.”

Walsall Advertiser 4/6/1904

“Transfer Day.

The following transfers were also granted....

HARE AND HOUNDS, Upper Rushall Street, from Winifred Alexander, executrix of George Alexander (deceased), to Winifred Alexander.”

It closed in 1904.

Walsall Advertiser 11/2/1905

“The annual Brewster Sessions for the Borough were held on Wednesday at the Guildhall.....

The following is the list of houses in respect of which the licensing justices have called the holders of the licenses to show cause why the licenses should be renewed.....

HARE AND HOUNDS, Upper Rushall Street.”

Walsall Advertiser 8/4/1905

“At the Stafford Quarter Sessions on Wednesday, before Lord Hatherton, Winifred Alexander and Messrs. Butler and Co. appealed against the refusal of the Walsall borough justices to renew the license of the HARE AND HOUNDS, Upper Rushall Street. Mr. Plumptre appeared for the appellants, and Mr. Disturnal for the respondents. The licensing justices refused to renew the license on the ground that the premises were structurally deficient and unsuitable.

After a long hearing the Court dismissed the appeal with costs.”

Walsall Observer 3/4/1943

“Mr. E. G. Franklin commenting on Mr. W. Meikle’s references in last week’s Observer to old Walsall inns, writes that he remembers the following public houses round about Church Hill: The BLACK BOY, FIELDGATE TAVERN, DUKE OF WELLINGTON, ROSE AND CROWN, JOLLY BACCHUS, BLUE PIG, PAUL PRY, MALT SHOVEL, PEEL AND NELSON, SHAKE-SPEARE, HARE AND HOUNDS, ROEBUCK, EXCHANGE, GREYHOUND, OLD ORIGINAL QUEENS HEAD, RING OF BELLS, PEAL OF BELLS, BARLEY MOW, LEATHERN BOTTLE, QUEENS HEAD. Of these only two remain.”

HATHERTON ARMS

63, Reeves Street / Nursery Road, BLOXWICH

OWNERS

Bloxwich Brewery Co. Ltd.
Charles Rowley, Broad Lane, Walsall
Messrs. Thompson, Burton on Trent [1904]
William Butler and Co. Ltd.

LICENSEES

John Bentley [1880]
George Bentley [1881] – [1884];
Henry Mellors [] – 1889);
Jabez Steele (1889 – 1924);
Frederick Victor Yates (1924 – 1932);
Horace Rednall Painter (1932 – 1956);
Eleanor May (Painter) Ferguson (1956 – 1964);
Horace Price (1964 – 1966);
Edward Charles Mayo (1966 – []
Ivan Athersmith [2006]
Paul Scott [2009]

NOTES

It had a beerhouse license.

It was known locally as ‘The Painters’.

1881 Census

63, Reeves Street – HATHERTON ARMS

- [1] George Bentley (42), house painter, born Princes End;
- [2] Albert Bentley (18), son, house painter, born Bilston;
- [3] Frank Bentley (16), son, house painter, born Bilston;
- [4] Joseph Bentley (14), son, house painter, born Bilston;
- [5] Thomas Bentley (11), son, scholar, born Bilston;
- [6] George Bentley (9), son, scholar, born Bilston;
- [7] Emma Bentley (7), daughter, scholar, born Bilston;
- [8] Lewis Bentley (5), son, scholar, born Bloxwich;
- [9] Fred Bentley (2), son, born Bloxwich;
- [10] Harry Bentley (4 months), son, born Bloxwich;
- [11] Emma Bentley (37), wife, born Bloxwich;
- [12] Anne Lees (17), domestic servant, born Bloxwich:

Birmingham Daily Post 14/8/1884

“At the Guildhall, Walsall, yesterday, George Bentley, HATHERTON ARMS INN, Bloxwich, was summoned, at the instance of the Excise authorities, for entering in his book that two bushels of malt was the quantity used in a certain brewing, the quantity really being three bushels.

Mr. W. H. Bennett, supervisor of the Walsall district, appeared in support of the charge, and said this was not the first complaint that had been made against the defendant, but in the previous case the officer omitted to take a sample of the wort, and in consequence the defendant was simply warned.

Daniel O’Brien, excise officer, proved the case, and the defendant was fined £5 and costs.”

Birmingham Daily Post 18/12/1890

“At the Walsall Guildhall, yesterday, before Messrs. J. Brewer, E. T. Holden, J. Thorpe, W. E. Blyther, and J. Lindop, and Captain Brooks, further applications for singing, and dancing licenses were heard....

Mr. F. Bill, on behalf of Jabez Steele, of the HATHERTON ARMS, Bloxwich, applied for a license for music and singing on Monday, Tuesday, and Saturday evenings. Refused.”

1891 Census

63, Reeve Street – HATHERTON ARMS

- [1] Jabez Steele (39), publican, born Bloxwich;
- [2] Emma Jane Steele (34), wife, born Staffordshire;
- [3] Thomas Scale (60), father in law, widower, coal miner, born Staffordshire;
- [4] Thomas Scale (22), brother in law, coal miner, born Staffordshire;
- [5] John Scale (20), brother in law, coal miner, born Staffordshire;

[6] Sarah Scale (17), sister in law, born Staffordshire;
[7] William Grice (35), boarder, coal miner, born Staffordshire:

Birmingham Daily Post 29/8/1892

“On Saturday night, at about five minutes past nine, some of the contents of a front bedroom at the HATHERTON ARMS INN, Reeves Street, Bloxwich, were found to be on fire, and, after some delay, information was despatched to Walsall police-station, the information not arriving there till twenty minutes to ten. The Chief Constable promptly attended with some members of the brigade and the reel, but the fire had by that time been extinguished. Bed-clothes, clothing, and other things in some quantities were destroyed. The origin of the fire is unknown.”

Jabez Steele, beer retailer, Reeve Street. [1896], [1904]

Walsall Advertiser 23/6/1900

“The monthly meeting of the Walsall and District Licensed Victuallers’ and Beer Retailers’ Friendly and Protection Society was held on Thursday.....

New Members..... Jabez Steel, HATHERTON ARMS, Reeve Street, Bloxwich.”

1901 Census

63, Reeve Street – HATHERTON ARMS

[1] Jabez Steele (48), public house manager, born Bloxwich;

[2] Emma J. Steele (42), wife, born Coseley:

Walsall Advertiser 6/2/1904

“The annual licensing sessions for the Borough of Walsall were held on Thursday at the Guildhall, and aroused considerable interest. The court was crowded, and many license-holders were unable to obtain admission.....

Notice had been given to 76 license holders to show cause for the renewal of their licenses, evidently as a result of the visits of a sub-committee of magistrates to the licensed premises, the reasons why cause had to be shown being various....

Jabez Steel, HATHERTON ARMS.”

1911 Census

63, Reeves Street

[1] Jabez Steele (59), innkeeper, born Bloxwich;

[2] Emma Jane Steele (50), wife, married 31 years, assisting in business, born Sedgley:

Jabez Steele, beer retailer, 63, Reeves Street. [1912]

Walsall Observer 12/1/1918

“Walsall and District War Aid Committee. Collection By The Licensed Victuallers, December, 1917.....

HATHERTON ARMS, Bloxwich. £1 8s 4½d.”

Plans for alterations were approved in 1928.

1939 Register

Reeves Street – HATHERTON ARMS

[1] Horace R. Painter, date of birth 31/7/1896, colliery mechanic, at present licensee, married;

[2] Eleanor M. (Painter) Ferguson, dob 30/1/1899, unpaid domestic duties, married:

Walsall Observer 13/9/1941

“Mr. and Mrs. Painter, HATHERTON ARMS, Reeves Street, Bloxwich wish to thank all Relatives, Friends, Customers, the Rev. C. J. Barry, of All Saints’ Church, Bloxwich, for their kindness and letters of condolence in their sad and sudden loss of their only son who died for his country; also for the floral wreath and flowers placed on Bloxwich Cenotaph.”

Walsall Observer 15/1/1944

“Walsall Licensed Victuallers’ Society.

Appeal on Behalf of the Merchant Navy Fund, The Duke of Gloucester’s Red Cross Fund and the Aid to China Fund. List of Subscriptions.....

HATHERTON ARMS, Reeves Street, Bloxwich. £1 5s 6d.”

A full license was granted on 8th February 1951.

Coventry Evening Telegraph 5/11/1955

“Our Darts Corner.....

In the final of the Midland Team Championship, at Birmingham, Maudslay Hotel, Coventry, lost by the odd game in nine against HATHERTON ARMS, Bloxwich....

Maudsley won through to the final by a 6-3 victory against the RAILWAY INN, Lye.....
HATHERTON ARMS beat SWAN INN (Cradley Heath) by 5-4.”

[2017]

HATHERTON ARMS

82, (80), Lichfield Street, Rushall, WALSALL

OWNERS

William Downing, maltster, Smethwick
Cannock Brewery Co. Ltd.
Highgate Walsall Brewery Co. Ltd.
Mitchells and Butlers Ltd. (acquired in 1939)

LICENSEES

Joseph Holmes [1849] – [1865]
William Mainwood [1868] – [1873];
Thomas Lawley [1881];
Charles Medlam [1885] – 1893);
Charles Thompson Marsh (1893 – 1902);
Mrs. Ada Mary Miller (1902 – 1910);
Adam Ward (1910 – 1930);
Albert Henry Johnson (1930 – 1936);
Stanley Welbourne Bryant (1936 – 1938);
George Edward Payne (1938 – 1943);
Edward Henry Sallory (1943 – 1945);
Ernest Hancox (1945 – 1956);
Joseph Clark (1956 – 1960);
John Thomas Jarvis (1960 – [1966])
Tom Reaney []
Collette Levy (2009 – [])

NOTES

It was situated opposite to Mellish Road.

82, Lichfield Street [1860], [1861], [1862], [1868], [1870], [1871], [1872], [1891], [1896], [1911], [1912], [1932], [1939], [1940]

80, Lichfield Street [1864], [1865]

HATHERTON ARMS HOTEL [1913]

Staffordshire Advertiser 8/9/1855

“On Thursday, an inquest was held at the HATHERTON ARMS, Rushall, on the body of a man unknown, found by some boatmen in the canal on the previous day. There was a bruise on the back of the head, and the body was in an advanced state of decomposition. The jury returned a verdict of Found Dead.”

Walsall Free Press 5/2/1859 - Advert

“Valuable Leasehold Old-Licensed Inn, the HATHERTON ARMS, and Adjoining Houses, Top of Lichfield Street, in the Parish of Rushall.

To be Sold by Auction, by H. Farrington, at the NEW INN, Walsall, on Tuesday, the 22nd day of February instant, at six for seven o'clock in the evening, subject to conditions then to be produced, all that old-established Public House, known as the HATHERTON ARMS, pleasantly situated at the top of Lichfield Street, in the occupation of Mr. Josh. Holmes.

The house contains bar, tap room, parlour, club room, three chambers, brewhouse and cellars, stables, good enclosed yard, and pump of excellent water.

Also, the House adjoining And also, the genteel Residence adjoining.....

The above Property contains 1,020 square yards, is leasehold for a term of ninety-nine years, eighteen years of which are expired at Lady-day last, at the very moderate ground rent of £6 5s per annum.”

1861 Census

82, Lichfield Street

[1] Elizabeth Holmes (15), publican's daughter, born Rushall;

[2] Elizabeth Holmes (23), niece, born Walsall;

[3] James Holmes (7), nephew, scholar, born Rushall:

Staffordshire Advertiser 30/4/1864

“An inquest was held before Mr. Hooper, coroner, on Monday, on the body of William Holmes, a man 63 years of age, who had been found drowned in the Hatherton Lake, on the east side of Lichfield Street. It appeared that on Thursday evening the deceased, who resided with his brother, the landlord of the HATHERTON ARMS public house, retired to rest, apparently in good spirits, about half-past nine o'clock, with his son, a boy about eleven years old, whom he told to make haste and go to sleep. The boy awoke before daybreak, and found that the deceased had left the room, but did not make any alarm. The deceased did not return, however, and a search having been instituted his body was found in the Hatherton Lake about four o'clock in the afternoon. His hat and stick were lying on the bank. The deceased, who was formerly a farmer, had lost his sight in 1851, in consequence of a severe beating which he then received from some burglars, who were afterwards sentenced to twenty-one years' imprisonment for the offence. Inspector Price expressed an opinion that the deceased's mind had been affected ever since he received the injuries alluded to. The jury returned a verdict of Found Drowned.”

Aris's Birmingham Gazette 15/7/1865 - Advert

“Grand Gala. Walsall Cottage Hospital, Monday, 31st of July, 1865.

Important To Victuallers, Temperance Hotel And Refreshment House Keepers, Confectioners, And Others.

Mr. H. Farrington has been instructed by the Committee of the Cottage Hospital, to Let by Auction, at the HATHERTON ARMS, Lichfield Street, at Seven pm, on Monday next, 17th instant, Sites, on the Gala Grounds for Two Victuallers' and Two Refreshment Tents (subject to conditions to be specified at the time of letting).

Last year there were upwards of six thousand people upon the Gala Grounds, which were only Five Acres in extent. As the Grounds will this year be upwards of 23 Acres, the Sports will be more extensive and varied; and as arrangements are being made for Special Trains, from several neighbouring towns, it may naturally be expected that the attendance will be much larger than last year.

Parties wishing to have sites for Photographic and Shooting Galleries, Fruit and other Stalls, to apply to Mr. John Booth, The Square.”

Birmingham Daily Gazette 15/6/1870

“Thomas Bomber, miner, Shire Oaks Hill, was charged with having, on the night of Tuesday, the 7th inst, stolen from the person of James Mullens, a purse containing 3s. It appeared the prosecutor, who had been drinking, had gone to sleep on the step of the HATHERTON ARMS public-house, Lichfield Street, and was aroused by the defendant and some others knocking him about. Afterwards he discovered his purse was gone, and complained to a policeman, who saw the defendant go into the yard behind the HATHERTON ARMS and throw something away. The officer searched the defendant, but found nothing on him. He then searched the yard, and found the purse, but there was no money in it. The Bench considered the evidence was not sufficient to support the charge, and therefore dismissed the case.”

Walsall Free Press 9/7/1870

“Serious Affray with Garden Robbers. About one o'clock on Sunday morning, as Police-constable Chill, of the County Constabulary, was going his rounds, he saw four men in a garden in Teddesley Street, and on going to ascertain what they were doing, they set about him, knocked him down, and kicked him. On recovering from the effects of this ill treatment, the officer procured the assistance of the landlord of the HATHERTON ARMS and went in pursuit of the men, whom they found in Mellish Road. A regular melee ensued, and ultimately two were captured, and conveyed to Rushall Police Station, where it was found that one of the prisoners, named Patrick Wincer, who resides in Green Lane, was so severely injured as to require surgical aid. Dr. Maclachlan was sent for, and he directed that the man should be removed to the Cottage Hospital, Walsall, which was accordingly done. The prisoner was removed back to the Police Station on Wednesday.”

Staffordshire Advertiser 16/7/1870

“Patrick Winter, miner, was charged with stealing lettuce from a garden at Ryecroft, belonging to Geo. Callindor, on the 3rd instant, and with assaulting on the same morning Police-constable Chell and Mr. W. Mainwood, of the HATHERTON ARMS INN, Lichfield Street, Rushall. The particulars of the case were given in last week's Advertiser. In addition, it transpired in the course of the case that the constable for several days after the assault spat blood and was unfit for duty, and that Mr. Mainwood had ever since had to pay someone to do his work. The prisoner was sentenced to six months' imprisonment – three for the assault on the constable, two for the assault on Mr. Mainwood, and one for the felony.”

1871 Census

82, Lichfield Street – HATHERTON ARMS

[1] William Mainwood (41), licensed victualler, born Wardington, Oxfordshire;

[2] Selina Mainwood (41), wife, born Eydon, Northamptonshire;

[3] Emma J. Mainwood (5), daughter, scholar, born Rushall:

Walsall Free Press 15/7/1871

“Michael Conroy was charged at the Rushall Petty Sessions, on Tuesday last, before J. E. Beasley and J. Harrison, Esqs, with having, on the 3rd of July, 1870, assaulted Police-constable Chill, from whose evidence it appeared that on the morning of the day in question the officer saw some men stealing vegetables from a garden near to the railway at Ryecroft and apprehended one of them, but through the interference of the prisoner and some others the party he apprehended escaped. The officer went pursuit, and having obtained the assistance of William Mainwood, landlord of the HATHERTON ARMS, Lichfield Street, attempted to apprehend some of the men in the Mellish Road, when the prisoner and other men who were with him commenced throwing stones at the officer and Mr. Mainwood, both of whom were severely injured, and the men escaped. The evidence of the officer was corroborated by Mr. Mainwood, who identified the prisoner as the man who cut him with a stone. Sentenced to three months’ imprisonment with hard labour.”

The licensee was fined £1 and costs, on 22nd December 1876, for permitting drunkenness.

Walsall Advertiser 2/3/1880 - Advert

“Sale At The HATHERTON ARMS, in Lichfield Street, By Messrs. Farrington and Son.

To Be Sold By Auction (by order of the Trustees).

On Thursday Next, the 4th day of March 1880. The capital Fittings of the Liquor Shop, including excellent Mahogany-top Counter, fitted with Beer and Spirit Fountain and Shelves, Stock-In-Trade, Household Furniture, fine-toned Pianoforte, capital Brewing Utensils, and other effects, upon the above premises.

Particulars in catalogues, to be had at the Office of the Auctioneers, Walsall; or Mr. F. M. Burton, Solicitor, Union Passage, Birmingham.”

1881 Census

82, Lichfield Road

[1] Thomas Lawley (36), licensed victualler, born Cleobury Mortimer, Shropshire;

[2] Sarah H. Lawley (38), wife, born Wolverhampton;

[3] Leonard S. Lawley (13), son, scholar, born Walsall;

[4] Elizabeth Lawley (12), daughter, scholar, born Kidderminster;

[5] Hellen Lawley (9), daughter, scholar, born Kidderminster;

[6] Elizabeth Ware (26), general servant, born Castleford, Yorkshire:

Lichfield Mercury 19/12/1884

“On Thursday week, Mr. Hooper, coroner, held an inquest at the HATHERTON ARMS, Lichfield Street, on the body of John Brawn (45), limemaster, North View, Mellish Road, Rushall, whose death was caused from injuries received through a trap accident.

Samuel Brawn, farmer, Lichfield, identified the body, and deposed that at about five o’clock on Friday evening he saw the deceased, his brother – who was then in his usual good health and perfectly sober – drive away in his gig from the Old Crown Hotel, Lichfield, the animal he drove being a horse cob, which he had had for three years, and which his father had driven for some time before. Witness shortly afterwards drove along the same road himself, and on reaching his gateway was told by some people who were there that his brother had been thrown from his gig, and was at the SPRING COTTAGE INN. He went there, and in the parlour found his brother, who said he did not think he was much hurt, and with his assistance walked to his (witness’s) gig, and was driven home by him. On the way he said that as he was leaving Lichfield some wagoners or market gardeners drove past him at a furious pace and shaved his wheel, and that afterwards – between Lichfield and Muckley Corner – a man named Martin, who had annoyed him and others in the same way on previous occasions, raced past him, the two vehicles very nearly coming into collision. Being over-cautious and desirous of avoiding an accident he walked the horse until past Martin’s horse and afterwards kept to a rate of six or seven miles an hour, with his wheel in the channel, until he reached Shelfield. There his wheel caught against the end of a pipe which had been laid in the channel to carry water under the margin of the footway into Mr. Beddows grounds. He himself and his horse were startled, but his horse at first had stopped in obedience to his call, and then dashed off at a rapid pace. He was tossed out of the gig, his leg getting entangled in the wheel, and locking it, and finding as he was being dragged along that his head was striking the ground he by a desperate effort grasped the spokes, and cried out loudly. He believed he was dragged as far as Mr. John Taylor’s, and witness on examining the road the next morning found that his clothes had swept up the mud for a distance of 250 or 300 yards. On reaching home, witness sent for a doctor (Mr. G. A. Phillips), but Mr. Tertius Taylor having preceded him, Mr. Phillips was in attendance before he returned. On Monday Mr. Phillips mentioned that the case was a serious one, and telegraphed for a physician (Dr. Bartlett), who came to Walsall, but death took place the same evening. Deceased’s horse with the gig ran on after the accident, to the Midland Railway Bridge in Rushall Road, and there ran into a baker’s cart.

Corroborative evidence was given by Rosannah White and William Swann, both of Lichfield, as to the help rendered after the accident; and it was mentioned by jurors that the pipe was 6in or 3in above the level of the kerbing.

The Coroner mentioned Mr. Phillips had certified that death was from severe injuries to the knee and joint.

The jury returned a verdict of Accidental Death; and the Coroner, at their request, undertook to communicate with the Brownhills Local Board, asking for the removal of the pipe, which was commended as highly dangerous. They also considered that Mr.

Martin should be communicated with, and Sergt. Arnold promised to arrange that their wishes in this respect should be carried out. A letter in reference to this inquest appears in another column.”

AND

“To the Editor of the Mercury.

Sir.

Will you allow me, through your columns, to deny the statement made about myself at an inquest on Mr. John Brawn, of Rushall, who died from the effect of a trap accident at Shelfield. I was driving home from Lichfield market on Friday the 5th inst, at an ordinary pace, and passed Mr. Brawn at Pipe Hill, saying ‘Good night’ to him. I turned in at the gate of my house as he passed by, and again said ‘Good night,’ to which he responded. This was all that passed between us, and I knew nothing of the accident to Mr. Brawn, which happened about three and a half miles from my house, until I saw a report of the inquest in the papers.

Kindly insert this in your next issue and oblige.

Your faithfully, Chas. Martin.

Muckley Corner, near Lichfield.”

Walsall Observer 31/1/1885

“On Tuesday evening a dinner and presentation in connection with No.1 Lodge of the Loyal Caledonian Corks Sick and Dividend Society, took place at the house of Mr. Charles Medlam, the HATHERTON ARMS, Lichfield Street. There was a large attendance, being about double the number of persons present as had been expected, and there is every credit due to Host Medlam for the manner in which he catered by placing an excellent dinner on the table for so numerous a company.

After dinner, Mr. C. Cooke, of Birmingham, and a member of the Executive of the Grand United Order, was called upon to preside.....”

1891 Census

82, Lichfield Street – HATHERTON ARMS HOTEL

[1] Charles Medlam (60), licensed victualler, born Handsworth, Staffordshire;

[2] Elizabeth Medlam (60), wife, born Harborne, Staffordshire;

[3] Alfred Medlam (24), son, assistant to victualler, born Birmingham;

[4] Florence Medlam (21), daughter, born Birmingham;

[5] Ada Medlam (18), daughter, born Birmingham;

[6] Sarah Jane Jarvis (19), servant, born Shropshire:

Walsall Advertiser 5/8/1893

“The Caledonian Corks. For some time past Lodge 200 have had in contemplation for presenting Bro. J. H. Allsop, late Chief Captain of the above Order, and past Captain of this Lodge, with a testimonial in recognition of his services to the Lodge and Order. This scheme was consummated last Tuesday evening, at the Lodge House, the HATHERTON ARMS, Lichfield Street, by a smoking concert, and the presentation of a handsome liquor stand to Bro. Allsop.....”

Charles Marsh = Charles March

Walsall Observer 20/1/1900

“On Wednesday evening the coachmen and gardeners of Mellish Road and district, together with a few friends, met together at the HATHERTON ARMS, Lichfield Street, to celebrate the first annual dinner, when about 37 sat down to a repast which was well served, and which gave satisfaction, reflecting great credit on the host (Mr. Charles Marsh).....”

Walsall Observer 24/3/1900

“The Caledonian Corks. There was a large muster of the above Order at the Lodge of No.200, HATHERTON ARMS, Lichfield Street.....”

Charles T. Marsh was elected as a member of the Walsall and District Licensed Victuallers’ and Beer Retailers’ Friendly and Protection Society in August 1900.

Walsall Advertiser 9/2/1901

“Edward Carroll (35), labourer, of 32 Ball’s Hill, was charged with having been drunk and disorderly in Lichfield Street, on February 4th, and with damaging the uniform of Police-constable Robinson, doing injury to the amount of 1s.

Police-constable Robinson had to arrest the prisoner in consequence of his disorderly conduct outside the HATHERTON ARMS, Lichfield Street. He was very violent, and witness had to obtain assistance and had to handcuff him. Prisoner continued to be very violent and tore witness’s uniform.

Charles Thomas Marsh, the landlord of the HATHERTON ARMS, stated that the prisoner came into his house drunk, and witness had to eject him.

There was a long record against prisoner, but the magistrates decided to give him another chance. He was ordered to come up for judgement in eight weeks.”

1901 Census

82, Lichfield Street

- [1] Charles T. Marsh (32), licensed victualler, born Walsall;
- [2] Rose Marsh (33), wife, born Islington, London;
- [3] Ivy L. Marsh (7), daughter, born Walsall;
- [4] Hilda R. Marsh (4 months), daughter, born Walsall;
- [5] Martha Smith (16), general servant, born Walsall Wood;
- [6] Elizabeth Hensor (15), general servant, born Walsall Wood:

Walsall Advertiser 11/5/1901

“On Tuesday morning a fire which caused considerable damage occurred at the HATHERTON ARMS, Lichfield Street, kept by Mr. C. T. Marsh. About four o’clock in the morning the fire was discovered by the servant girl. She woke to find the door of her bedroom, together with her dresses which hung upon it ablaze. She aroused the members of the family, and the Fire Brigade were summoned, the brigade attending, under the command of Chief Inspector Ballance, with the small steamer. The clubroom and kitchen were in flames, and the brigade successfully directed their efforts to prevent the fire spreading to other portions of the premises. A horse in the stable under the basement of the clubroom was only removed a few minutes before the roof fell in, and a piano which had been hired for a smoking concert was entirely destroyed. It is supposed that the fire originated through soot in the chimney having taken fire.”

Walsall Advertiser 31/8/1901

“The annual brewster sessions for the borough of Walsall was held at the Guildhall on Wednesday.....
Walford (Wilkinson, Mills, and Walford) applied for the sanction of the Bench to plans to reconstruct the HATHERTON ARMS, Lichfield Street; but as the requisite notices had not been served the application was refused.”

1911 Census

82, Lichfield Street

- [1] Adam Ward (42), commission agent, born Tundergarth, Dumfriesshire;
- [2] Elizabeth Ward (38), wife, born Walsall;
- [3] Mabel Ward (15), daughter, school, born Walsall;
- [4] Jessie Agnes Ward (14), daughter, school, born Walsall;
- [5] George A. Ward (9), son, born Walsall;
- [6] Jeffrey Ward (2), son, born Walsall;
- [7] Clara Carter (25), domestic servant, born Brownhills;
- [8] Gertrude Huskison (22), domestic servant, born Walsall:

Walsall Advertiser 18/11/1911

“The fifty-ninth annual meeting of the Walsall and District Licensed Victuallers’ and Beer Retailers’ Friendly and Protection Society was held on Thursday last.....
New members..... Mr. Adam Ward, HATHERTON ARMS, Lichfield Street.”

Walsall Observer 21/11/1914

“The following is a list of box collections to date made on behalf of the Prince of Wales’ National Relief Fund (Walsall Branch).....
HATHERTON ARMS, Lichfield Street, Walsall, £1 4s 9d.”

Walsall Observer 12/1/1918

“Walsall and District War Aid Committee. Collection By The Licensed Victuallers, December, 1917.....
HATHERTON ARMS, Lichfield Street. £1 17s 5½d.”

Lichfield Mercury 29/5/1925 - Advert

“Strong Smart general, about 20, to assist in bar; reference required.
HATHERTON ARMS, Lichfield Street, Walsall.”

Walsall Observer 29/7/1939

“More than fifty licensed premises in Walsall and neighbouring place become Mitchells and Butlers houses this week as a result of the well-known Cape Hill brewery company’s acquisition of the whole of the undertakings of the Highgate-Walsall Brewery Co. Ltd., and the Walsall Breweries Proprietary Ltd., and of all the licensed and certain un-licensed properties of Messrs. John Lord, brewers, of Short Acre.....

A list of the licensed premises that form part of the properties acquired by Mitchells and Butlers is as follows.....

Highgate houses.....

HATHERTON ARMS, Lichfield Street.”

1939 Register

82, Lichfield Street

- [1] George E. Payne, date of birth 9/1/1895, licensed victualler, married;
- [2] Bertha W. Payne, dob 1/7/1900, unpaid domestic duties, married;

[3] Stanley G. Payne, dob 16/11/1924, fancy leather worker, single:

Walsall Observer 24/12/1942

“Walsall Licensed Victuallers’ Society. The Duke of Gloucester’s Red Cross Fund. List of Subscriptions.....
HATHERTON ARMS, Lichfield Street. £2 0s 0d.”

Walsall Observer 7/10/1944 - Advert

“Bar-General, live in or our; also Night Help Wanted.
HATHERTON ARMS, 82, Lichfield Street.”

Joseph Clark – see also LEATHERN BOTTLE, Bloxwich.

Tom Reaney was married to Carole.

[2010]

Closed [2012]

It was converted into housing. [2017]

HAYMAKERS ARMS

BLOXWICH

OWNERS

LICENSEES

NOTES

Evening Express 4/5/1881

“An inquest was held at the HAYMAKERS ARMS, Bloxwich, this (Wednesday) forenoon, before A. A. Fletcher, Esq, borough coroner, touching the death of Edward Briscoe, bit filer, aged 62 years, who lately resided at 41, Birchills, and who committed suicide by cutting his throat the previous day.

It will be remembered from the brief report of the occurrence which appeared in one issue of yesterday that the deceased and his stepdaughter were sitting alone in the kitchen of deceased’s house, when, without the least warning, he inflicted a serious wound on his stepdaughter’s neck with a knife, and in all probability would have taken her life had not her sister, who was in the front room, come to her assistance. The woman left the house, and the deceased subsequently went into the front room and cut his own throat, from the effects of which he died. Mr. Joseph Evans was foreman of the jury, before whom the following evidence was given.

Emily Briscoe, Birchills Street, daughter of the deceased, deposed that he had always been a strong healthy man up till within the last two years. Twelve months ago when Dr. Garrett attended to him he was very low, and among other complaints he suffered very much from his head. Dr. Garrett then told the family to be very careful with the deceased, as he was in a low way, and he believed he would commit suicide if he were not strictly watched. Since that time the deceased had been very strange in his conversation. Deceased threatened to take their lives, but no medical advice was obtained since Dr. Garrett saw him twelve months ago. The deceased would not go to a doctor.

The Coroner: It was your duty to call in a doctor if he showed any symptoms of being dangerous to himself or others.

Witness, continuing, said that Dr. Garrett, so far as she knew, gave no instructions as to what to do if the deceased showed any signs of insanity. Dr. Garrett did not say that in that case he must be kept in confinement. The deceased never offered to do anything serious; he only talked about it. If the deceased had shown signs of doing anything dangerous to himself or others witness would have sent for a policeman. Witness never thought that the deceased would do anything, and if he threatened them one minute he was as kind as possible the next. Yesterday morning the deceased was very quiet, and as good as could be, though he seemed very strange since Sunday last. On Monday night the deceased refused to undress, and she got up about six o’clock the following morning. The deceased appeared all right that day up to the hour when the affair took place, when a desire seemed to come upon him all at once to attack her sister. About one o’clock the deceased asked witness to get him his razor, as he wanted to shave himself. Witness after giving the deceased his razor, went into the front room, and she was not long there before she heard the cry ‘Oh,’ and on going out she found that the deceased had inflicted a wound on the back of her sister’s neck. Witness pushed the deceased away from her sister, and when she asked him what he had done to her sister the deceased replied he was cutting her throat, that was all. Witness and her sister then left the deceased alone in the house, and when the policeman arrived a short time afterwards they found him lying on the floor in the front room with his throat cut, and quite dead. There was no one in the house except the deceased when he cut his throat.

In answer to the Coroner, witness said that the deceased had not had constant work for 12 months past, and the family were not in very comfortable circumstances.

The Coroner, in summing up, said he had no further evidence to offer. It was a great misfortune that greater care was not taken of the poor man. It was a great pity that Dr. Garrett's warning was not attended to, the family apparently not being aware to take any steps beyond what they could do themselves. There was no doubt from the evidence they had just heard, that the deceased committed suicide whilst in a state of Temporary Insanity.

A juror thought before they came to any conclusion they ought to have the evidence of the policeman who saw the deceased after he cut his throat.

Detective-sergeant Thomas Salt was accordingly called, and deposed that the last witness came to him about a quarter to one o'clock on Tuesday and asked him to go to the house, as her father was attempting to cut his daughter's head off. When witness got to the house he saw the deceased's stepdaughter with her neck cut, and having ordered her to be sent to the Hospital he went inside the house and found the deceased lying on the sofa, with Dr. Palmer attending to him. The deceased had a severe wound on the side of his neck, from which blood was flowing profusely. The deceased was not dead; but he died in about ten minutes afterwards. Witness did not know how the wound was inflicted. He went into the front room, and found a large quantity of blood on the floor, and in the firegrate he found the razor (produced), the blade of which was covered with blood.

The jury returned a verdict of Temporary Insanity."

HEN AND CHICKENS

17, Lower Rushall Street, WALSALL

OWNERS

LICENSEES

Thomas Padgett [1811]

Mary Padgett [1818] – [1822]

Thomas Taylor [1828] – [1830]

Charles Arrowsmith [1831]

George Cook [1834] – [1845]

George Johnson [1849] – [1861]

George Worrall [1881]

NOTES

Rushall Street [1822]

Mary Padgett = Mary Padgat

Edward Lester, a carrier to Wolverhampton and Lichfield, left from here every Wednesday and Saturday. [1822]

Aris's Birmingham Gazette 31/1/1831 - Deaths

"On the 23rd inst, after a lingering illness, in his seventy-first year, Mr. William Arrowsmith, of Northwood Street, formerly metal dealer, of this town; and on the day following, Hannah, his daughter-in-law, and wife of Mr. Charles Arrowsmith, of the HEN AND CHICKENS, Rushall Street, Walsall."

Staffordshire Advertiser 9/7/1831

"Walsall Sessions took place on Wednesday last, before N. G. Clarke, Esq, Recorder, John Heeley, Esq, Mayor, James Adams, Esq, and Samuel Sharratt, Esq, Magistrates. William Hunt and William Chester were charged, on the oath of John Smith and Samuel Mason, jun, with stealing from the person of the said John Smith, in the borough of Walsall, a silver watch, value 17s, on the 19th of April last. It appeared in evidence that prosecutor called at the HEN AND CHICKENS, Lower Rushall Street, at a late hour on the night mentioned, where he found the prisoners (whom he particularly noticed) and two other persons in company with them. The prosecutor remained in the house about half an hour, during which time one of the prisoners asked him to sing; this he declined to do. The prisoners, with the other two left the house before Smith, and on the latter reaching the junction of the streets, near the BRADFORD ARMS, he was accosted by Hunt, with the words, 'Now d—n you, keeper, we'll pay you off.' Hunt immediately commenced striking him in the face, and Chester came up apparently with the intention of fighting also, but he drew the watch from prosecutor's pocket and made off, exclaiming, 'I've drawn the fob – come along Bill.' On the 27th of April Hunt was apprehended in Birmingham, and on his examination before the magistrates of Walsall he confessed to the fact charged in the indictment, and stated that he had left the watch at the shop of Mr. White, in Church Street, Birmingham for repair; on enquiry, the watch was found at Mr. W.'s shop, and on being produced in Court at the trial, was sworn by the prosecutor as the one of which he had been robbed. Chester (apprehended in Birmingham on the 4th of May) was ingeniously defended and received a good character, but the evidence was too strong to admit either being of any avail. The Recorder summed up with much impartiality and perspicuity, after which the jury returned a verdict of guilty against both the prisoners, who were immediately sentenced to transportation for fourteen years, the Recorder observing that had they been indicted before a tribunal at Stafford, their lives would have been affected."

Aris's Birmingham Gazette 29/8/1831 - Advert

"To be Sold, the Good-will, Licenses, Brewing Utensils, with immediate Possession of that old established Public House, the HEN AND CHICKENS, Lower Rushall Street, Walsall.
Apply to Mr. J. Farrington, Auctioneer, Walsall; or to J. Best, Upholsterer, Bedstead, and Mattress-maker, 31, Great Hampton Street, Birmingham."

Staffordshire Advertiser 14/9/1833 - Deaths

"On Saturday last, Mr. Charles Arrowsmith, late of the HEN AND CHICKENS, Lower Rushall Street, aged 35."

George Cook = George Cooke

Staffordshire Advertiser 15/1/1853

"On Sunday evening last George Johnson, landlord of the HEN AND CHICKENS public-house, Lower Rushall Street, was attempting to expel from his house a professed pugilist, named Henry Baylis, alias the 'Dragon,' and Rachel Dainty, a woman of ill-repute, when a contest ensued, during which the woman held Johnson, whilst her companion beat him and bit his nose. The assault was proved before the magistrates on Wednesday last, when Baylis was fined £2 and Dainty 5s and expenses. Johnson's face was frightfully lacerated."

Birmingham Daily Post 5/9/1859

"On Friday last, about ten o'clock, a young man named Charles Jones, aged 20 years, in the service of Mr. Johnson, at the HEN AND CHICKENS, Lower Rushall Street, attempted to commit suicide by hanging himself. The poor fellow was found in one of the stables belonging to Mr. Johnson, lying on his face with a halter fastened round his neck. He was then in an insensible condition, but restoratives were applied and consciousness soon returned. He was watched the whole of the night, and was afterwards taken to the police station, where he now lies, and will be brought before the Magistrates this morning."

1861 Census

Uninhabited

1881 Census

17, Lower Rushall Street – HEN AND CHICKENS

- [1] George Worrall (43), innkeeper, born Oldbury, Shropshire;
- [2] Jane Worrall (33), wife, born Welshpool;
- [3] George Grey (11), nephew, scholar, born Lanfair, North Wales;
- [4] Arthur Smith (50), lodger, colliery engineer, born Walsall:

Check PEACOCK.

HOGS HEAD

9-19, Leicester Street, WALSALL

OWNERS

Laurel Pub Co. [2008]

LICENSEES

NOTES

[2002]

[2007]

It closed in 2008. [2017]

HOPE AND ANCHOR

246a, (246), (244), Wednesbury Road, (Pleck Road) / Oxford Street, Pleck, WALSALL

OWNERS

Henry Moseley, buckle maker, CaldmoreRoad, Walsall [1872]
Showells Brewery Co. Ltd. [1898], [1908]
Ind Coope and Allsopp Ltd. (leased from 29th June 1935)
Ansells Ltd. (acquired on 6th May 1960)

LICENSEES

John Edge [1846] – [1862]
Thomas Edge [1864] – [1872]
William Harper [1872] – [1873];
William Ray [];
Mrs. Louisa Ray [1880] – [1881];
John Cartmale Lester [] – 1889;
Arthur Grose (1889 – 1896);
John Thomas Hawkins (1896 – 1908);
John Dilks (1908 – 1913);
Thomas ‘Tom’ Lander (1913 – 1921);
Francis Joseph Ellis (1921 – 1923);
Frederick Gumbley (1923 – 1926);
John Mackenzie (1926 – 1927);
Thomas Gore (1927 – 1946);
Harold Cooper (1946 – 1961);
Harry Dobson (1961 – 1962);
George Edward Morris (1962);
Philip Brian Cross (1962 – 1963);
Pauline Olive Sylvia McAllister (1963);
Leslie Cyril Oliver (1963 – 1964);
Derrick Graham Burston (1964);
William Adshead (1964 – 1967);
Edwin Arthur Kerr (1967 – [])

NOTES

Oxford Street, Pleck [1860], [1865]
244, Wednesbury Road [1891], [1901]
246, Wednesbury Road [1896]
246a, Wednesbury Road [1904], [1908], [1912], [1932], [1939], [1940]

HOPE AND ANCHOR HOTEL [1900], [1911]

John Edge = John Hedge

The Era 15/2/1846

“The half-mile handicap foot steeple chase, at Mr. John Edge’s, the HOPE AND ANCHOR, at the Pleck Village, is to take place tomorrow (Monday), and will be an ‘out-and-out affair’. The following are the entries: Benjamin Badcock, the Birmingham Lurcher; William Allsop of Birmingham (to receive 15 yards start); Henry Heywood of Bilson (30 yards); John Rhodes of Gospel Oak (30 yards); John Taylor of West Bromwich (30 yards); Benjamin James of Walsall (35 yards); Samuel Burns of Darlaston (40 yards); George Taylor of the Potteries (40 yards); Thomas Clarke of Walsall (40 yards); the Leamington Cheroot (40 yards); John Edge’s Novice (50 yards); and the Wednesbury Unknown (50 yards). The ground is to be shown to the runners at eleven o’clock in the morning, and the race to come off at two o'clock precisely. There will also be a second race, and a quarter of a mile flat race."

[The result: 1st Benjamin James; 2nd Samuel Burns; 3rd The Leamington Cheroot.]

Bells Life in London and Sporting Chronicle 24/10/1847

"Samuel Burns of Darlaston informs Thomas Jones of Bloxwich that, not being satisfied with his late defeat, he will run him again 140 yards, for £25 or £50 a side, and toss for choice of ground, or run him 160 yards, and give him the choice of ground as before. To run in one month. The match can be made tomorrow (Monday) night, at the HOPE AND ANCHOR, Pleck near Walsall, between 7 and 9 o'clock, or a letter directed to Burns, KING'S HILL TAVERN, will be attended to. The editor of Bell's Life to be stakeholder."

Birmingham Journal 1/11/1856

"On Thursday afternoon, an inquest was held before A. A. Fletcher, Esq, at the house of Mr. John Edge, the HOPE AND ANCHOR, the Pleck, on the body of a young man named Samuel Belcher, who was killed on the previous Tuesday by the accidental explosion of a cannon. Deceased was in the employ of Messrs. Russell and Knowles, gas tube makers, at Wednesbury. On Wednesday last one member of the firm, Mr. Francis Henry Russell, came of age, and the workmen determined on having an entertainment to celebrate the event. By permission of their employers, they obtained three cannons of Mr. Russell, of Church Hill, Wednesbury, with which to fire a feu de joi, and also one from another person in the town. On Tuesday evening last, the friends of Mr. Russell assembled for the purpose of enjoyment at the house of a relative, at the Pleck, and several of the workmen, including deceased, went over with their cannons to fire a salute in the neighbourhood. About nine o'clock, having previously called at the HOPE AND ANCHOR, these men proceeded to carry out their design. One of them endeavoured to fire a cannon by means of a light attached to a long stick, but without effect. Deceased then took a lighted candle and placed it near the touch hole, causing an instantaneous explosion. Several pieces of the cannon struck deceased in his face and upon his head, and penetrated completely through his skull, carrying away a portion of the brain. His right arm was also broken, and he died immediately. The only witness examined by the Coroner was John Knowles, one of the deceased's employers, who stated that previous to the cannon being used, he had examined them all separately, and considered them perfectly safe, especially that which occasioned deceased's death, which had been used about three months before at a merry making at Wednesbury. He believed it had been manufactured full twenty years ago. He did not think the blame was attributable to any person, but that the explosion was entirely accidental. The Jury returned a verdict of Deceased died from the Accidental Explosion of a Cannon."

Walsall Free Press 17/4/1858

"As an old man, named Joseph Peat, who resides at the Pleck, was proceeding to his work on Monday morning last, he dropped down dead. At ten o'clock the following morning an inquest was held at Mr. Hedge's public house, the HOPE AND ANCHOR, upon the body, when the jury after hearing the evidence returned a verdict of Death from Natural Causes."

1861 Census

Wednesbury Road – HOPE AND ANCHOR Public House

- [1] John Edge (69), victualler, born Bloxwich;
- [2] Hannah Edge (70), wife, born Walsall;
- [3] Ellen Edge (16), granddaughter, born Birchills;
- [4] Hannah Baker (12), granddaughter, born Pleck;
- [5] Mary Reaston (?) (15), domestic servant, born Ireland:

Birmingham Daily Post 11/4/1863

"Yesterday afternoon an adjourned inquest was held at the house of Mr. John Edge, HOPE AND ANCHOR, 1, Pleck, before A. A. Fletcher, Esq, borough coroner, on the body of a male infant, found in the Meadow Brooks, near New Mills, on Tuesday morning last, by two persons, named John Fox and Frederick Stanley. The enquiry had been adjourned from Wednesday, for the purpose of giving time for a post mortem examination, and yesterday, Mr. D. Moore, surgeon, attended, and, after detailing the results of the examination, gave it was his opinion that the child, which was in every respect healthy and fully developed, was born alive, but that life only continued for a short period (probably less than a minute), and was then terminated by violent means, probably by pressure on the mouth to cause suffocation, or by loss of blood from the umbilical cord, which had been forcibly torn off close to the body. The Jury, after a short consultation, returned the open verdict of Found Dead."

Thomas Edge was also a bit maker. [1864]

Bells Life in London and Sporting Chronicle 17/2/1866

"R. Poxton of Wednesbury and J. Meek of the Pleck near, Walsall, have signed articles to run five score yards, for £10 a side, at the above grounds on March 5. Mr. T. Edge, HOPE AND ANCHOR INN, Pleck, final-stakeholder and referee, who has £2 10s a side in his hand, to be made £5 a side this (Saturday) evening, and the final deposit of £5 a side on March 3."

Birmingham Daily Gazette 21/8/1866

"Thomas Edge, landlord of the HOPE AND ANCHOR public-house, the Pleck, was charged with having permitted gambling. That there had been card playing was clearly established; but as there was some doubt as to whether or not it was with the defendant's knowledge, the case was dismissed."

1871 Census

Wednesbury Road

- [1] Thomas Edge (53), cutler and publican, born Walsall;
- [2] Sarah Edge (49), wife, born Walsall;
- [3] James Edge (22), son, cutler, born Walsall;
- [4] Mary A. Edge (20), daughter, scholar, born Walsall;
- [5] Susannah Edge (15), daughter, scholar, born Walsall;
- [6] Sarah Edge (13), daughter, scholar, born Walsall;
- [7] Hannah Edge (80), mother, widow, born Walsall:

Thomas Edge was described as a brush bit maker. [1872]

Birmingham Daily Post 27/1/1872 - Advert

“To be Sold by Auction, by Mr. William E. Davies, on Tuesday Next, January 30, upon the Premises, the HOPE AND ANCHOR, at the Pleck aforesaid, at Six o’clock in the evening punctually, subject to conditions then to be produced, in one lot. All that eligibly situated Old Licensed Public-House and Premises, the HOPE AND ANCHOR, aforesaid, at the junction of the Wednesbury Road with Oxford Street, at the Pleck near Walsall, having Tap Room, Bar, Parlour, Kitchen, Club Room (27ft long), three Cellars, two Bed Rooms; Brewhouse, with Maltroom over, two Workshops, Stabling, Piggeries, and all the usual Conveniences, in the occupation of Mr. Thomas Edge; together with the Six desirable well-letting Messuages adjoining, in the several occupations of Holroyd, Gibbons, Dunmore, Parker, Haddock, and Chambers, the whole estimated to produce an annual rental of £78 6s. For further particulars apply to Messrs. Cotterell and Oerton, Solicitors, Bridge Street, Walsall; J. Heath Stubbs, Esq, Solicitor, 21, Waterloo Street, Birmingham; or to the Auctioneer, Mr. William Edward Davies, Surveyor, Valuer, and Estate Agent, Horseley Heath, Tipton, and 107, Newhall Street, Birmingham.”

AND

“The Licenses, Goodwill, and Possession of the HOPE AND ANCHOR INN, at the Pleck, near Walsall.

To be Sold by Auction, By Mr. William E. Davies, upon the Premises as above, on Tuesday Next, January 30 (immediately after the sale of Property), under conditions then to be read. The Licenses, Goodwill, and Possession of that well-accustomed Tavern, the HOPE AND ANCHOR INN, at the Pleck, near Walsall, in the occupation of Mr. Thomas Edge. Valuation under £40; rent under £25.

Satisfactory reasons given for leaving.

For further particulars apply to J. Heath Stubbs, Esq, Solicitor, 21, Waterloo Street, Birmingham; or to the Auctioneer, Mr. William Edward Davies, Surveyor, Valuer, and Estate Agent, Horseley Heath, Tipton, and 107, Newhall Street, Birmingham.”

Staffordshire Advertiser 27/7/1872

“William Harper, innkeeper, HOPE AND ANCHOR, the Pleck, was charged with having allowed gambling on his premises. Mr. Glover appeared for the defence. The principal witness was Agnes Drewry, wife of Wm. Drewry, a bricklayer, who borrowed 20s upon his watch from the landlord, and lost 15s of the money at dominoes. Mrs. Drewry, in her visits to the house to get her husband home, also saw card playing going on. After she had reported the matter to the police the watch was returned to her. In consideration of the defendant being new to the business, and this being his first offence, he was merely fined 20s and costs.”

Walsall Free Press 1/11/1873

“Municipal Election. The Bridge Ward.....

The excitement in this ward seems rather to increase than diminish. On Friday a very enthusiastic meeting of Mr. Grant’s supporters was held at the HOPE AND ANCHOR, Pleck, at which Mr. Grant explained his views upon municipal matters. The meeting pledged itself to support Mr. Grant’s candidature.....”

William Ray was married to Louisa.

1881 Census

Darlaston Road – HOPE AND ANCHOR

- [1] Louisa Ray (53), widow, licensed victualler, born Wolverhampton;
- [2] Joseph Wilkes (28), son in law, brewer, born Tipton;
- [3] Emmila Wilkes (28), son in law’s wife, born Wednesbury;
- [4] Violetta Ray (12), daughter, scholar, born Walsall;
- [5] Samuel W. Byze (57), boarder, locksmith, born Walsall:

Arthur Grose = Arthur Grice

1891 Census

244, Wednesbury Road – HOPE AND ANCHOR

- [1] Arthur Grice (37), publican, born Birmingham;
- [2] Harriet Laura Grice (29), wife, born Nailsea, Somersetshire;
- [3] Blance Ada Eglington (21), sister, barmaid, born Nailsea, Somersetshire;

[4] Thomas Edward Eglington (21), brother, hairdresser, born Walsall;

[5] Mary Ann Curtis (19), domestic servant, born Wednesfield:

Walsall Advertiser 29/8/1896

“The adjourned licensing sessions for the borough of Walsall were held yesterday (Friday), at the Guildhall.....

Mr. J. W. Pearman-Smith applied for the sanction of the Bench to alterations in the HOPE AND ANCHOR, Pleck. He explained the nature of the proposed alterations, which he said comprised the taking in of the 12 yards covered by two rooms of an adjoining cottage, though this he thought, would be set off by the abandoning of 10 yards of land at the corner of Oxford Street and Wednesbury Road. The situation was an exceedingly important one, marking as it did the junction of the Wednesbury and Darlaston roads; and the improving character of the neighbourhood was evidenced by the fact that within the last six months no fewer than 30 shops had been erected in the immediate vicinity and all were tenanted as soon as completed. In the adjoining streets quite 500 houses of very respectable character had recently been erected, and the fact that two football grounds were about to be opened would constitute such a house a most desirable public convenience. The entrances to the house would not be increased. In answer to the Chief Constable, Mr. Smith said that it was certainly proposed to erect a nine foot wall between the public-house yard and the yard adjoining. Approved on the understanding that the nine feet wall suggested would be erected.”

Walsall Advertiser 15/1/1898

“The Widening of George Street. The following plans had been approved by the Streets Committee.....

Messrs. Showells Brewery Co. Limited, HOPE AND ANCHOR, Wednesbury Road, Pleck.”

Walsall Advertiser 22/7/1899

“The Walsall No.1 and 2 Branches of the Amalgamated Society of Railway Servants took their annual picnic on Sunday. Leaving the HOPE AND ANCHOR, Pleck, they travelled in brakes via Church Bridge and Gailey to Brewood, and on arriving at their destination made the Lion Hotel, kept by Mr. A. Medlam, formerly of YE OLDE WOOLPACK HOTEL, Walsall, their quarters. A splendid tea was served, and after the good things provided had been done ample justice to, a walk was taken round the village. Subsequently, at the hotel, a beautifully framed emblem was presented to the host on behalf of the branches, the gift being suitably acknowledged by Mr. Medlam. The journey home was made through Wolverhampton, and Walsall was reached about 10.30pm, the party having spent an enjoyable time.”

Walsall Advertiser 2/9/1899

“The annual licensing sessions for this borough were held at the Guildhall on Wednesday.....

The Chief Constable submitted the following list showing houses where children under the age of 13 had been served since Aug., 1898. Alehouses.....

John Hawkins, HOPE AND ANCHOR, served 65 children.....

He said he had a list of 118 other houses which he did not think worth while including in the report, where the number of children served had been under ten. The Mayor said he thought that the license holders should try and fall in with the magistrates views.....

On returning the magistrates announced their decisions as under.....

In the cases where children under 13 years of age were reported to have been supplied, on the promise of the licensees to carry out the wishes of the magistrates in future the licenses would be renewed with a caution.”

Demolished

Rebuilt

Walsall Observer 17/3/1900

“On Thursday evening last week, a most successful smoking concert was held in the large room at the HOPE AND ANCHOR HOTEL, Pleck, for the purpose of giving a send-off to Mr. Isaac Baker, of the L. and N. W. Permanent Way Department, who has been called to rejoin his regiment (2nd Worcestershire), for service at the front. Mr. G. Austin was elected to the chair, and he at once commenced the business of the evening by giving the usual loyal toasts.....”

Walsall Observer 27/10/1900

“On Monday afternoon Mr. T. H. Stanley (the borough coroner) held an inquest at the HOPE AND ANCHOR, Pleck, on the body of Ann Cartlidge (43), of 124, Wallows Lane, Pleck, who was found hanged in her bedroom on Sunday morning.

Albert Cartlidge, husband of the deceased, gave evidence of identification, and stated that he was an engine driver on the Midland Railway. His wife was in Burntwood Asylum for about two months, and came out at the end of February. Since then she had been much better. On Saturday mid-day he left home shortly before one o'clock, and she then seemed all right, asking as he went out if he would be late. Witness answered that he would not be later than he could help. He returned about twenty minutes after twelve, and on opening the kitchen door he found his wife hanging by a rope suspended by a beam. She might have reached to put the rope up by getting on to the sink or the mangle. She might also have fetched a pair of steps from the coal-house to reach it by. The cord she was hanging by was the clothes line, the noose being made by the hook on the end. Being unable to lift her down he cut the cord, and found that she was dead and quite cold. Dr. Sydenham, who had been attending her was afterwards fetched.

Gertrude Wootton, a niece of the deceased, stated that she lived at 124, Wallows Lane, with deceased. On Saturday night deceased was reading a newspaper to witness, and seemed quite well at the time, having been a great deal better for the last three weeks or a month. Witness saw her safely to bed at a quarter after ten. She heard nothing more until she was awakened by Mr. Cartlidge at the door. She went downstairs, but did not see deceased until she was carried into the sitting room.

Dr. Sydenham stated that he had attended the deceased for nervous trouble. He saw her on the 15th inst, when she had improved considerably. On Sunday morning he was called in, and found that she was dead. He made an outward examination, and found the mark of a rope round her neck, her face was pale, with the lips and ears blue. There was a mark under the right ear that corresponded to the hoop at the end of the rope. Death was due to suffocation.

A verdict of Suicide during Temporary Insanity was returned.

The Coroner and jury deeply sympathized with Mr. Cartlidge in his trouble.”

1901 Census

244, Wednesbury Road

- [1] John T. Hawkins (36), manager (hotel), born Wednesbury;
- [2] Harriet E. Hawkins (35), wife, born Walsall;
- [3] John T. Hawkins (12), son, born Smethwick;
- [4] Gerty Hawkins (7), daughter, born Walsall;
- [5] Richard Hawkins (3), son, born Walsall;
- [6] Richard Hawkins (27), brother, bootmaker, born Moxley, deaf and dumb;
- [7] Polly Lavander (15), general servant, born Wednesbury;
- [8] William C. Jones (20), servant, barman, born Crewe, Cheshire;
- [9] Robert Clark (20), servant, barman, born Douglas, IOM:

Walsall Advertiser 13/5/1905

“Mr. George Bird, of Hilary Street, died very suddenly last night week, in his 70th year. He had been conversing with a friend on the footway near the HOPE AND ANCHOR HOTEL at about 8.30, when he was seen to suddenly fall to the ground, and on examination it was found that he had expired. For some time he had suffered from heart disease and syncope was certified as the cause of death. Mr. Bird was the owner and for many years the occupier of the WHEAT SHEAF INN, Bloxwich, up to the time he retired from business, and in addition, for a considerable time he carried on business as a butcher and cattle dealer. He leaves a widow and three daughters and two sons. The interment took place at Bloxwich Cemetery on Tuesday.”

Walsall Advertiser 15/8/1908

“Josiah Smith, 26, Chapel Street, and William Hewlett, 23, Chapel Street, were summoned for being found drunk on licensed premises, the HOPE AND ANCHOR, Pleck, on the 1st ult. Police-constable Wooley (57) saw prisoners enter the house at 10.45pm and on following them in found the landlord had refused to serve them and was ordering them out. The Chief Constable said he understood the prisoners were a great nuisance to publicans in Pleck. Smith had served twelve months for manslaughter and had other convictions. Hewlett has also been before the court. Prisoners were fined 10s and costs each.”

1911 Census

Wednesbury Road, Pleck

- [1] John Dilks (50), licensed victualler, born Pelsall;
- [2] Eliza Dilks (48), wife, married 31 years, born Pelsall;
- [3] Horace Dilks (23), son, miner, born Pelsall;
- [4] Sally Dilks (20), daughter, barmaid, born Pelsall;
- [5] Minnie Dilks (14), daughter, servant, born Walsall Wood;
- [6] Frank Dilks (8), son, school, born Bloxwich;
- [7] Edward Bond (20), servant, barman, born Compton;
- [8] Ambrose Dilks (16), son, edge tool maker, born Walsall Wood:

Walsall Advertiser 28/6/1913

“The annual meeting of the Walsall Football Club was held on Monday evening at the headquarters, HOPE AND ANCHOR, Pleck. The President (Mr. R. A. Coope MP) presided over a good attendance.”

Walsall Advertiser 29/11/1913

“An application for the transfer of the license of the HOPE AND ANCHOR HOTEL, Pleck, from John Dilks to Thomas Lander was granted at the Police Court on Tuesday.

Applicant stated the he was going to act as a colliery manager. His attendance at the annual licensing sessions was therefore excused.”

Walsall Advertiser 12/9/1914

“In granting the application of Mr. Lander, the HOPE AND ANCHOR HOTEL, Pleck, for an occasional license for the Walsall Football Club for today's match with Willenhall Pickwick, Dr. G. A. Phillips, the Chairman of Magistrates at the Guildhall yesterday (Friday) morning, said that the bench had no wish to interfere with any legitimate sport, but they thought that at a time like the present a great deal of notice had been called to drunkenness in the town, especially due to treating young fellows who had joined the ranks, and they wanted to put that down as much as possible. At a time when money was wanted and there was so much distress, these fellows were being treated by their friends.”

Walsall Observer 21/11/1914

“The following is a list of box collections to date made on behalf of the Prince of Wales’ National Relief Fund (Walsall Branch).....
HOPE AND ANCHOR, Pleck, Walsall, 12s.”

Walsall Observer 24/3/1917 - Advert

“National Service. To All Men between 18 and 61 years of age.
If You Believe. That this war is not being run for your personal advantage; or That your ease and comfort are not of more importance than the winning of the War; or That the cause of Freedom is worthy of some sacrifice on your part, as well as on the part of men on the field. Then Enrol To-Day.
Public Meetings Will be held as follows, at Eight o’clock.
Monday, March 26th – WHITE LION, Little London. Chairman – Councillor Enoch Evans.
Tuesday, March 27th – HOPE AND ANCHOR, Pleck Road. Chairman – Councillor Joseph Thickett.
Wednesday, March 28th – Tantarra Street Schools. Chairman – Dr. F. Sydenham.
Thursday, March 29th – Mass Meeting In Town Hall.
Speakers – Sir S. A. Cooper, Bart, MP (Assistant Director of Enrolment), Mr. Barnett Kenyon, MP, Chesterfield Division, Mr. F. T. Cozens (Sub Commissioner of National Service). Chairman – His Worship the Mayor.
Musical Programme arranged by Councillor E. H. Ingram, and Organ Recital by Mr. T. W. North.
Questions are invited at each meeting. Come and ask. Everyone should Enrol.
Make the Voluntary System a Success This Time.”

Walsall Observer 12/1/1918

“Walsall and District War Aid Committee. Collection By The Licensed Victuallers, December, 1917.....
HOPE AND ANCHOR, Pleck. £3 6s 10d.”

Frederick Gumbley – see also SWAN WITH TWO NECKS.

‘Walsall Pubs: A History’ by John Cockayne

“The 1925 Survey indicated a stable with a loft and a public urinal opening onto Oxford Street, the Public Bar was 34’ by 13’3” by 11’ with three Smoke Rooms and a Billiard and Concert Room on the second floor.”

Birmingham Mail 26/1/1939

“Darts Teams Title. Fifth Round Draw for Lord Lonsdale Trophy.
The draw for some of the fifth round matches in the county section of The People National Darts Teams Championship has now take place. Matches must be played by February 11. The winning team in the county finals will take part in an area final, winners of which will play in the national contest at Earl’s Court, London, on May 27.....
Shropshire, Staffordshire and Derbyshire Section F.
HOPE AND ANCHOR HOTEL, Pleck, Walsall v Evereds Athletic and Social Club A, Smethwick.”

1939 Register

246a, Wednesbury Road

- [1] Thomas Gore, date of birth 9/2/1879, licensed victualler, married;
- [2] Sarah J. Gore, dob 16/9/1876, unpaid domestic duties, married;
- [3] Ethel (Tittley) (Brzozowski), dob 1/3/1921, bar general, single;
- [4] Clara W. Cattel, dob 26/3/1921, bar general, single;
- [5] Charles Smith, dob 6/6/1907, tile worker, married;
- [6] Evelyn Smith, dob 17/2/1911, unpaid domestic duties, married:

Walsall Observer 5/10/1940

“Mr. John ‘Jock’ Mackenzie, of Wednesbury Road, a popular member of the Walsall football team twenty years ago, died with tragic suddenness yesterday morning. He had been on Home Guard duty at the gas works during the night, and appeared to be quite all right when he left his post about 6am. He walked home and entered the living room, but then apparently collapsed. Mrs. Mackenzie, who was in bed, heard a noise and called out but received no reply, and on coming downstairs she found her husband lying dead on the floor.

A native of Douglas, Lanarkshire, Mr. Mackenzie, who was aged 55, joined the Walsall Football Club in 1920, having previously played for Heart of Midlothian, Carlisle United, and Norwich City.
In the last war he served in Egypt with the R.G.A. When football was resumed he returned to Norwich and afterwards was signed by Walsall for what was to prove their last season in the Birmingham League. He was a sound fullback, and played many good games that season, but he was, of course, getting past his best and his career came to an end the following season, when he made only a few appearances for Walsall in the northern section of the Third Division.
On relinquishing the game. Mr. Mackenzie became a licensed victualler, and held in turn the licenses of the NEW STATION, Park Street, the HOPE AND ANCHOR, Pleck, and the ROYAL EXCHANGE, Stafford Street. Then, about eight years ago, he joined the staff at the gas works, where he became very popular with his fellow employees and continued his sporting activities as a member of the bowling club. He is survived by Mrs. Mackenzie and one son (now serving with the Forces), with whom deep sympathy will be expressed in the bereavement which has so suddenly befallen them.”

Walsall Observer 24/12/1942

“Walsall Licensed Victuallers’ Society. The Duke of Gloucester’s Red Cross Fund. List of Subscriptions.....
HOPE AND ANCHOR, Wednesbury Road, Pleck. £8 0s 0d.”

Walsall Observer 15/1/1944

“Walsall Licensed Victuallers’ Society.

Appeal on Behalf of the Merchant Navy Fund, The Duke of Gloucester’s Red Cross Fund and the Aid to China Fund. List of Subscriptions.....

HOPE & ANCHOR, Wednesbury Road. £1 16s 10d.”

Walsall Observer 7/7/1945

“The Pleck and District Darts league is headed by the FORGE INN ‘A’ who have won all their seven matches. The next three positions are filled by the NEWPORT ARMS, HOPE AND ANCHOR ‘A’ and ROYAL OAK, Caldmore, with 12 points each, then come the DUKE OF WELLINGTON and ROYAL OAK, Pleck. Highest score and highest finish, 146, J. Bullock, HOPE AND ANCHOR ‘B’; highest start, 140, S. Hogan, WINDMILL TAVERN.”

Harold Cooper married Nancy Thomas.

See also PRETTY BRICKS.

Harry Dobson – see also SPREAD EAGLE.

George Edwarsd Morris – see also GREEN MAN, PRESIDENT LINCOLN, STARTING GATE, SIR CHARLES NAPIER, and CROWN AND CUSHION.

Philip Brian Cross – see also STARTING GATE.

Pauline Olive Sylvia McAllister – see also SIR CHARLES NAPIER.

It was refurbished internally in 1983.

[1983]

Closed

It was renamed RAFFLES. [1999]

[2007]

It was closed and converted into a restaurant, called Village Spice. [2010]

HORSE AND JOCKEY

84, Bloxwich Road / Leckie Road, (Stafford Road), WALSALL

OWNERS

John Holmes, The Stores, Stafford Street, Walsall

Andrew Holmes

William George Williams

John Williams

William Butler and Co. Ltd. [1920]

Mitchells and Butlers Ltd. [1982], [1984]

LICENSEES

George Chappell [1841] – [1842]

Thomas Tomkins [1849] – [1850]

William Plant [1851]

Francis Baynton (1856 – []
Henry Poyner [1858]
Francis Poyner [] – 1858);
George Shaw (1858 – []
Simeon Vaughan [1860] – [1861]
Mrs. Hannah Vann [1861] – [1873];
John Holmes [];
Simeon Nicholls [1876] – 1887);
John Williams (1887 – 1924);
William Lane [1891] – [1912] manager?
Annie Williams (1924 – 1929);
William Wilcox (1929 – 1933);
Thomas Henry Atkins (1933 – 1950);
Fred Willis (1950 – 1957);
William Thomas Ernest Gray (1957 – 1958);
Anthony Cyril Curtis (1958 – 1959);
Henry George Edward Mason (1959 – 1960);
Harold George Flewins (1960 – 1962);
Dennis Gray (1962);
George Henry Teale (1962 – 1964);
Evan Thomas Evans (1964 – 1965);
Thomas Arthur Coney (1965 – 1966);
Stanley John Silvester (1966);
Frederick John Wall (1966 – []
James Harold Gardiner [c.1980]

NOTES

Stafford Road [1849], [1858], [1862], [1881]

[1813]

Staffordshire Advertiser 12/7/1856

“On Thursday evening, a respectable and numerous party partook of an excellent dinner at the HORSE AND JOCKEY, Bloxwich Road, Walsall, which was recently taken by Mr. Francis Baynton, of the SHAKESPEARE INN, High Street. Mr. J. Smith, of Dudley presided; and Mr. H. Farrington, auctioneer, occupied the vice-chair. The dinner gave very good promise of the entertainment Mr. Baynton would afford to his patrons, and a very pleasant evening was spent.”

Birmingham Journal 7/2/1857

“About six o’clock on Saturday evening a fatal accident occurred to a butty collier named Isaac Thornton, aged fifty years, an inhabitant of Bloxwich, near the HORSE AND JOCKEY public house. Deceased’s wife had been to the office of his employer, Mr. Harrison, of Brownhills, to obtain money wherewith to pay his workmen their wages, and met her husband at the WATER-LOO TAVERN, in Marsh Lane. They afterwards visited other public houses, and were proceeding homewards when they went into the HORSE AND JOCKEY, Bloxwich Road. Deceased called for something to drink, but did not partake, and soon after he and his wife quitted the house. They had proceeded only a few yards when deceased’s foot accidentally slipped, and he fell from the causeway into the road. A butcher, named William Goodwin, was driving a heavily laden cart towards Bloxwich, and being unable, in consequence of the extreme darkness, to see far before him, he drove over deceased, injuring him very severely. In perceiving what had happened he stopped his cart, and conveyed Thornton back to the HORSE AND JOCKEY. He then went for a surgeon, but before such assistance could be obtained life was extinct. An inquest was subsequently held on the body before A. A. Fletcher, Esq, Coroner, when a verdict was returned of Accidental Death.”

Walsall Free Press 31/10/1857

“To Be Sold by Auction, By H. Farrington, at the house of Mr. Poyner, HORSE AND JOCKEY INN, Bloxwich Road, on Monday, the 2nd day of November, 1857.....

Wolverhampton Chronicle 20/1/1858

“An attempt at robbery of a most daring character was perpetrated at the house of Mr. Henry Poyner, the HORSE AND JOCKEY INN, Bloxwich Road, on Tuesday night. The landlord having closed his house earlier than usual, went to bed about nine o’clock. The rest of the household having retired also at the same time, about half an hour afterwards Poyner was suddenly aroused by a noise in his bed room, when he started up and discovered a man at the bottom of his bed, endeavouring to light a lantern. He made an alarm, when the burglar immediately leapt through the room window, a distance of 12 feet from the ground. After his departure, the landlord found his watch had been removed from its ordinary locality and placed at the bottom of the bed. There is no doubt the burglar was surprised to find the chamber occupied by anybody but himself at so early an hour in the evening. A ladder was afterwards discovered lying under the window.”

Staffordshire Advertiser 28/1/1858 - Advert

“To Be Let, and may be entered upon immediately, that old-established House, the HORSE AND JOCKEY INN, Bloxwich Road, Walsall, situated in the midst of mines and ironworks, now doing an excellent business. The proprietor is obligated to leave on account of other engagements.

For particulars apply on premises.”

Walsall Free Press 27/3/1858 - Advert

“Peremptory Sale at the HORSE AND JOCKEY, Bloxwich Road, Walsall.

By H. Farrington, of all the useful Household Furniture, and excellent 4-pull beer machine, liquor fountain, bagatelle board, tables, benches, excellent copper furnace (about 160 gallons), four ale vats and piping, mash tubs, twenty-six excellent ale casks, about 450 gallons of prime fresh ale, porter, and bitter beer, Kent hops, and a variety of other effects, the property of Mr. Poyner, who is leaving the above Inn, and will be sold by Auction, without reserve, on Wednesday Next, 31st day of March, 1858. Sale to commence at half-past ten, subject to the usual conditions.”

Bells Life in London and Sporting Chronicle 1/1/1860

“To be shot, at the house of Mr. S. Vaughan, HORSE AND JOCKEY INN, Bloxwich Road, two miles from Walsall, Staffordshire, on Monday, Jan 9, a superior dog trap, value £15, by 30 members at 10s each; the putter up to spend £3 and the winner £2. To shoot at 3 or 5 birds each; guns $\frac{3}{4}$ in bore, 1 $\frac{1}{2}$ oz shot, 21 yards rise; double gun 1 $\frac{1}{2}$ oz shot, 19 yard rise, 60 yards boundary. The best blue rocks provided by Mr. Badhams for this occasion. Shooting to commence at one o'clock, dinner after. Sweepstakes afterwards.”

Walsall Free Press 9/6/1860

“Phoebe Bullock, charged with having, on Saturday last, stolen eight towels, the property of her master, Simeon Vaughan, landlord of the HORSE AND JOCKEY public house, Bloxwich Road, was discharged, as the prosecutor failed to appear.”

1861 Census

Bloxwich Road – HORSE AND JOCKEY

- [1] Hannah Vann (53), victualler, born Gornall;
- [2] William Vann (24), son, forgerman, born Lanesfield;
- [3] Catherine Vann (22), daughter, born Lanesfield;
- [4] Sarah Vann (20), daughter, born Lanesfield;
- [5] James Vann (18), son, forgerman, born Lanesfield;
- [6] Benjamin Vann (13), son, born Lanesfield:

Birmingham Daily Post 27/12/1865

“On Sunday night, a fowl pen, belonging to Mrs. Vann, of the HORSE AND JOCKEY INN, Bloxwich Road, was broken into, and eight fowls stolen therefrom.”

Birmingham Daily Gazette 4/8/1869 - Notice

“Stolen or Strayed, from a Field opposite the HORSE AND JOCKEY Public-house, Bloxwich Road, Walsall, on Thursday night or Friday morning last, July 29th or 30th, a Black Mare, about 14 hands high, has four white feet and a star on forehead, also a collar mark on left shoulder, and walks rather lame. Any person giving such information as shall lead to the recovery of the same, shall be well rewarded; anyone found detaining her after this notice will be prosecuted.

Information to be given to Mr. Isaiah Embray, Coal Drawer, corner of James Street, Ryecroft.”

1871 Census

Bloxwich Road

- [1] Hannah Vann (65), widow, innkeeper, born Sedgley;
- [2] Catherine Vann (30), daughter, born Sedgley;
- [3] Sarah Vann (28), daughter, born Sedgley:

Midland Counties Evening Express 22/2/1875

“On Saturday night, John Corbett, alias ‘Hampton Jack’, a miner living in Vicarage Terrace, was killed under mysterious circumstances. It would seem that shortly before eleven o'clock, he left the HORSE AND JOCKEY INN, Bloxwich Road, where he had been drinking, to his lodgings, close by, to his supper. After the meal, he again left the house, and the landlord and landlady, Mr. and Mrs. Davis, being in bed, asked a fellow lodger, named Freeth, not to ‘make’ (or fasten) the door, as he should not be away five minutes. In less than that time, according to one account, or from ten to fifteen minutes, according to another, he rushed back into the house bleeding freely from a wound on the left side of the neck, and crying out ‘Oh, landlady, oh landlady, I am stabbed’. Mrs. Davis, who had been confined only about a week, at once jumped out of bed, hurried on some of her clothes, and ran downstairs, by which time the deceased had gone to the door of the next house, and returned into his own. Mrs. Davis supplied him with some rag, which he applied to the wound, and in answer to her repeated enquiries as to who had ‘done it’, he murmured something about ‘by the HORSE AND JOCKEY’. He also said, with some difficulty, ‘Send for a doctor – I am dying'; but before anything could be done to give effect to his wish, he gave a couple of gasps and expired, from loss of blood, which had been pouring from the wound in his neck all the time so copiously to have completely covered the floor of the room. The borough police were at once informed of the tragic occurrence, which naturally caused intense and painful excitement in the neighbourhood; and Acting-sergeant Salt and Detective-sergeant Drury immediately repaired to the spot, being soon afterwards followed by Chief Superintendent Cater. Nothing could be discovered, however, to indicate who gave the unfortunate deceased the death wound; or under what circumstances it had been inflicted. Traces of a scuffle were found close to the footpath on the side of the road farthest from the bye-road in which the Vicarage Terrace is situate, and a few yards further up the road, towards Bloxwich; but the residents on the other side of the road had heard no altercation or unusual noise. That this was the spot where the deceased was stabbed is, however, pretty certain, for, in addition to the traces of a scuffle, there was much blood on the ground there. Marks of blood were also traceable from this spot along the road to Pratt's Bridge, some considerable distance farther on, towards Bloxwich, which would seem to show that Corbett's assailant must have received some severe injury. If so, it may have been accidentally self-inflicted in using an edged weapon against the deceased himself, who is reported to have been given to interference with others; but it may have been caused by a third person, the deceased merely interfering in a quarrel not his own, and getting more of the proverbial ill-fortune of those who 'in quarrels interpose'. Whatever is the solution of this feature of the case, however, there is little doubt that where the scuffle took place there the deceased was stabbed. The wound, which, as already stated, is on the left side of the neck, is about an inch in length, cutting into the jugular vein, and having a downward direction. The deceased is believed to have been about 37 years of age, and to have come from Tipton, and it is stated that, at the time of this occurrence, he is sober. The spot where it is presumed he was stabbed was just within the municipal borough; but the dwelling where the body now lies is just within the parish of Rushall. Consequently, the enquiry will be held by the county coroner, Mr. Hooper. Sergeant Arnold and Police-constable Williams, of the county police, have joined the borough police in the search for the supposed assassin, but, up to last night, their efforts had not been attended with success."

AND

"At the Walsall petty sessions, this morning, John Stokes, boiler maker, of Goscote, was brought up before the Mayor and S. Stephens Esq, charged, on his own confession, with having stabbed John Corbett, miner, near the HORSE AND JOCKEY, on Stafford Road, on Saturday night.

The Chief Superintendent said that prisoner was charged 'on his voluntary confession, and surrendering himself to the police, that on the 20th February, he did cut and wound a man, unknown to him, near to the HORSE AND JOCKEY, on the Bloxwich road' Prisoner was then remanded."

Midland Counties Evening Express 2/3/1875

"Yesterday afternoon, the adjourned inquest upon the body of John Corbett, alias Bridgewater, was held in the Mission Room, Ryecroft, kindly lent for the purpose by the Rev. F. G. Liddlecote, vicar of Rushall. The Coroner in addressing the jury, said You are aware that this inquest was adjourned for the purpose of obtaining the medical and other evidence since their last meeting, as most of them were probably aware, a man had given himself up and he proposed, with the sanction of the gentleman who appeared for the accused – if it was agreeable to the jury – to read over to each witness the deposition taken before the magistrates, and then any of the jury or the gentleman who appeared for the accused might put any question they thought proper. By adopting this course the proceedings would be very much shortened. This course having been agreed to, the various witnesses had been called and their depositions read over, and sworn to as correct.

The Coroner then briefly summed up, and reminded the jury that it was their duty to find how and by what means the deceased came to his death.

Some of the jury having expressed a wish to hear the accused, John Stokes was called, and having been duly cautioned, said: I was going from Walsall to Goscote. As I was going past the HORSE AND JOCKEY four men attacked me. I did not know whether they were drunk or acting it. They came up and pushed against me. I said, 'What are you doing that for, mate? Drop that.' I was going a little further, when one of them said, 'What do you say?' and they rushed at me, and I ran away about a hundred yards towards Walsall, when they caught me, and three of them knocked me down, and either took or knocked my billycock off. I ran away, and they called out, 'Stop the —— and we will give him something.' I took out my knife, and said, 'If you stop me, I will give you this.' The man rushed at me, and I struck him with the knife. We had a struggle and I ran away.

The jury then retired, and after a consultation of about half an hour, returned a verdict of Homicide by Misadventure – namely, that the deceased died from the effects of a wound inflicted by John Stokes, and that the said John Stokes inflicted the wound in self defence."

1881 Census

94, Stafford Road – HORSE AND JOCKEY

- [1] Simeon Nicholls (43), licensed victualler, born Princes End;
- [2] Sarah Nicholls (37), wife, born Liverpool;
- [3] Ada Nicholls (15), daughter, barmaid, born Princes End;
- [4] Bertha Nicholls (14), daughter, teacher, born Princes End;
- [5] Ida Nicholls (12), daughter, scholar, born Princes End;
- [6] James Nicholls (10), son, scholar, born Princes End;
- [7] Lydia Nicholls (9), daughter, scholar, born Castle Bromwich;
- [8] Martha Nicholls (8), daughter, scholar, born Castle Bromwich;
- [9] Alice Nicholls (6), daughter, scholar, born Castle Bromwich;
- [10] Florence Nicholls (4), daughter, scholar, born Walsall;
- [11] Simeon Nicholls (7 weeks), son, born Walsall;

[12] Sarah Jones (27), domestic servant, born Tipton;

[13] Rebecca Round (13), nurse, born Bilston:

London Gazette 23/10/1883

“The Bankruptcy Act, 1869.

In the County Court of Staffordshire, holden at Walsall. In the Matter of Proceedings for Liquidation by Arrangement or Composition with Creditors, instituted by Simeon Nicholls, of the HORSE AND JOCKEY INN, Bloxwich-road, Walsall, in the county of Stafford, Licensed Victualler.

Notice is hereby given, that a First General Meeting of the creditors of the above-named person has been summoned to be held at the office of Messrs. Wilkinson, Gillespie, and Wilkinson, Solicitors, 63, Bridge-street, Walsall aforesaid, on the 6th day of November, 1883, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon precisely.

Dated this 20th day of October, 1883.

Wilkinson, Gillespie, and Wilkinson, 63, Bridge-street, Walsall, Solicitors for the said Debtor.”

Birmingham Daily Post 13/11/1886

“At the Guildhall, yesterday, Simeon Nicholls, the HORSE AND JOCKEY, Bloxwich Road, was on the evidence of Police-constables Skidmore and Cross, convicted with having his house open for the sale of liquors on the 7th inst, at half-past four in the afternoon, and was fined 10s and costs.

William Taylor and Robert Horsley, two men who were in the house, were fined 5s and costs each.”

Birmingham Daily Post 15/3/1887

“Bankruptcy Proceedings.

Re Simeon Nicholls, HORSE AND JOCKEY INN, Bloxwich Road, Walsall.

At the Walsall Bankruptcy Court, yesterday – before Mr. Deputy Registrar F. R. Clarke – this debtor appeared for his public examination, Mr. E. Evans attending on his behalf.

The statement of affairs showed liabilities £227 5s 7d, £132 4s 5d of which was expected to rank for dividend, and assets £81 18s 10d (after deducting preferential payments to the amount of £95 1s 2d), leaving a deficiency of £50 5s 7d. The bankrupt commenced business in 1870, at the Coach and Horses, Castle Bromwich, with a capital of £100, in partnership with his brother James, who withdrew in the same year, leaving £200 in the concern. Of that £50 had been repaid to him, and the other part had not been claimed. In December 1875, the bankrupt took the HORSE AND JOCKEY, and in April of the following year he gave up the Coach and Horses, afterwards keeping on the HORSE AND JOCKEY only. The landlord had distrained for £81 5s rent due, but the effects were not expected to realise that sum. For two years the bankrupt had been endeavouring to get rid of the business, but had not been able to find a customer for it. He gave bad trade, heavy rental, and large family as the causes of his failure.

The examination was adjourned till the 23rd inst to close.”

Walsall Observer 24/9/1887

“Walsall Licensing Sessions

The adjourned annual licensing meeting was held yesterday, at the Sessions Court.

Applications which had been adjourned owing to the tenants having been convicted during the past year.

The following were granted.

HORSE AND JOCKEY, Bloxwich Road.”

1891 Census

84, Bloxwich Road – HORSE AND JOCKEY

[1] William Lane (39), licensed victualler, born Ettingshall;

[2] Harriet S. Lane (41), wife, born Wednesfield;

[3] Mary Jane Lane (5), daughter, scholar, born Walsall;

[4] Sarah Lane (11), daughter, scholar, born Bloxwich;

[5] Mary Lane (75), mother in law, widow, born Bloxwich:

Walsall Advertiser 1/10/1898

“Application was made by Mr. F. Bill, on behalf of John Kane, beerhouse keeper, 135, Bloxwich Road, for sanction to the removal of a license from Church Hill to 135, Bloxwich Road, or, in the alternative, to sell beer, cider, and perry to be consumed off the premises at Bloxwich Road. Mr. W. H. Duignan opposed on behalf of John Williams, of the HORSE AND JOCKEY. A beer-off license on the new site was granted in place of the old license.”

Wednesbury Herald 16/12/1911

“William Lane, landlord of the HORSE AND JOCKEY INN, Bloxwich Road, Walsall, was charged with drunkenness.

Police-constable Grindley said that at 7.30 on Sunday night he saw three men carrying the defendant off the tram lines on to a piece of waste ground in the Walsall Road, Kings Hill. Witness went to them, and found that the defendant was drunk. They afterwards carried defendant to the Darlaston Police Station, where he was locked up.

Replying to the Bench, witness said the defendant was in danger of being run over at the time.

Mr. Powell (presiding magistrate) said they were surprised to find defendant, who held a license, in such a helpless condition.

Defendant (interrupting): I was helpless.

Mr. Powell: You will be fined 10s and costs, with the alternative of fourteen days. We certainly feel that it is a case that should be dealt with, when you ought to help people in order rather than set a bad example.”

Walsall Observer 21/11/1914

“The following is a list of box collections to date made on behalf of the Prince of Wales’ National Relief Fund (Walsall Branch).....

HORSE AND JOCKEY, Bloxwich, £1 7s 5d.”

Walsall Observer 27/1/1917 - Notice

“Walsall War Agricultural Committee.

A Public Meeting under the joint auspices of the North Walsall Allotments Society and the Walsall War Agricultural Committee, on Saturday, 27th January, at the HORSE AND JOCKEY HOTEL, Bloxwich Road, at 7.30.

Chairman: Alfred Ashwell, Esq, supported by members of the town Council and of the War Agricultural Committee.”

William Wilcox = William Wilson

Demolished

Rebuilt

Walsall Observer 13/10/1943

“After sitting until 6pm on Wednesday, hearing 164 summonses arising out of excessive deliveries of coal last winter, the Walsall magistrates (Messrs. Fred Evans, and H. Shemmans, and Mrs. Brockhurst) reserved their decisions in what were regarded as the more serious cases until Thursday morning.....

W. Butler and Co. Ltd., Springfield Brewery, were summoned in respect of the HORSE AND JOCKEY, Bloxwich Road; KING GEORGE V, Wallows Lane, DILKE ARMS, Aldridge; The HARDEN, Harden Road; and VINE INN, Lower Hall Street; and the managers, Thomas Henry Atkins, Kenneth Dawes, Harry Harvey, Leonard Charles Lampitt, and Edwin George White, for aiding and abetting. Mr. Cooper said this brewery company also had given specific instructions to their managers, and Mr. Hodgkinson emphasised that the managers’ offences were purely of a technical character and that if they had applied for permits for extra supplies they would have got them.

Dawes and Hawkes were fined £2 each, the other managers £1 each, and the brewery 10s in each case.”

Walsall Observer 15/1/1944

“Walsall Licensed Victuallers’ Society.

Appeal on Behalf of the Merchant Navy Fund, The Duke of Gloucester’s Red Cross Fund and the Aid to China Fund. List of Subscriptions.....

HORSE & JOCKEY, Bloxwich Road. £2 6s 8d.”

Henry George Edward Mason – see also LORD RAGLAN, and HORSE AND JOCKEY.

Dennis Gray – see also NEWPORT ARMS.

Stanley John Silvester – see also FOUNTAIN.

London Gazette 17/4/1980

“Gardiner, James Harold, Tool Setter formerly residing, and carrying on business as a Tenant Publican at the HORSE AND JOCKEY, Bloxwich Road Date fixed for Hearing 25th June 1980.....”

[1984]

[2017]

HORSE AND JOCKEY

76, (75), Green Lane, WALSALL

OWNERS

Edward Ashley

Ferdinand Eglington, Park Street, Walsall

Mrs. F. Eglington, 56, Lichfield Street, Walsall

Edward Egan, DUN COW, Walsall [1909]

LICENSEES

Edward Ashley [1858] – [1861]
Phineas Giles Clarke [1862] – 1866)
Joseph Letts [1868] – [1881];
Thomas Bowcutt [];
John Darby [1885] – 1891);
Thomas Connor (1891 – 1892);
John McGarry (1892 – 1897);
John McGarry (1897 – 1899);
Job Lytton (1899);
William Gough (1899 – 1901);
John ‘Jack’ Taggart (1901 – 1905);
Edward Egan (1905 – 1906);
John Littler (1906 – [1909])

NOTES

76, Green Lane [1861], [1871], [1891], [1901]
75, Green Lane [1881]

It was originally the BREWERS ARMS [1861]

It had a beerhouse license.

E. Ashley, beerhouse, 76, Green Lane. [1858]

Walsall Free Press 9/6/1860

“Edward Ashley, beerhouse keeper, Green Lane, was charged by police-constable Seys with having had his house open for the sale of beer during prohibited hours, on the morning of Monday last. The officer said, while on duty he saw three men go to defendant’s door, at twenty minutes to three on the morning in question, and knock at the door, which was opened to them, and on their being admitted the door was shut, and they were let out the back door. At five minutes to three he saw the same three men who each time had a large stone jar with them, go into the house a second time. At ten minutes past three he visited the house, and finding the door fast he got over the wall at the back, and opened the door to his brother officer, police-constable Barnes, who accompanied him into the house, where they found the men sitting in the kitchen, and the landlord in the cellar. Seys asked him to account for the men being in the house, whereupon he said they had got over the wall. Mr. Ebsworth addressed the Bench on behalf of the defendant, whom he said had been up all that morning brewing, and not for the purpose of selling beer. As no beer was seen by the police when they visited, the case was dismissed.”

1861 Census

76, Green Lane – BREWERS ARMS
[1] Edward Ashley (30), publican, born Birmingham;
[2] Mary Ashley (26), wife, born Walsall;
[3] Harry Ashley (5), son, born Walsall;
[4] Charles Ashley (3), son, born Walsall;
[5] Jane Falkner (16), general servant, born Walsall:

Phineas J. Clarke, retailer of beer, 76, Green Lane. [1862]

P. G. Clarke, beer retailer, 76, Green Lane. [1865]

It later became known as the CRICKET BALL. [1866]

Birmingham Journal 19/5/1866 - Advert

“A Capita Beerhouse at Walsall.
To be Disposed of, The CRICKET BALL TAVERN, in a good situation, and doing a good trade. Coming-in about £110. Rent £18.
Apply to T. Carter, 8, Union Street, Birmingham.”

London Gazette 17/7/1866

“Phineas Giles Clarke, for ten weeks last past lodging at the house of Luke Fletcher, in the parish of Linton, in the county of Derby, out of business, and for four years immediately previously residing and carrying on business at the CRICKET BALL, Green-lane, Walsall, in the county of Stafford, Retail Brewer, having been adjudged bankrupt under a Petition for adjudication of Bankruptcy, filed in the County Court of Staffordshire, holden at Walsall, on the 19th day of June, 1866, a public sitting, for the said bankrupt to pass his Last Examination, and make application for his Discharge, will he held at the said Court, at Goodall Street, Walsall, on the 28th day of July instant, at ten o'clock in the forenoon precisely, the day last aforesaid being the day limited for the said bankrupt to surrender. Frederick Clarke, of Walsall, is the Official Assignee, and Messrs. Powell and Son, of Birmingham, are the Solicitors acting in the bankruptcy.”

Wolverhampton Chronicle 28/11/1866

“At the County Court, on Saturday, A. M. Skinner, Esq, Judge, presiding, the following bankruptcy cases were dealt with..... Phineas Clarke, Publican, Walsall. This bankrupt failing to appear, his final examination was adjourned sine die.....”

Walsall Free Press 16/2/1867

“In re Phineas Giles Clark, formerly landlord of the CRICKET BALL beerhouse, Green Lane. The bankrupt’s petition was supported by Mr. Dale, and Mr. Mathews appeared for the assignees; but, as he had offered no opposition, the bankrupt passed his final examination.”

Joseph Letts, beer retailer, 76, Green Lane. [1868], [1870], [1872]

Staffordshire Advertiser 25/7/1868

“Joseph Letts, beerhouse keeper, Green Lane, was fined 2s 6d and costs, for keeping his house open during prohibited hours.”

1871 Census

76, Green Lane – HORSE AND JOCKEY

- [1] Joseph Letts (30), baker, born Alrewas;
- [2] Ann Letts (31), wife, born Walsall;
- [3] Sarah A. Letts (5), daughter, scholar, born Walsall;
- [4] Emma Letts (4), daughter, scholar, born Walsall;
- [5] Benjamin Letts (1), son, born Walsall;
- [6] Harriet Talbie (?) (14), domestic servant, born Brownhills:

Walsall Free Press 29/4/1873 - Advert

“Wanted, a Servant Girl, aged 15 to 16; one from the country preferred. Apply, Mr. Letts, HORSE AND JOCKEY, Green Lane.”

1881 Census

75, Green Lane – HORSE AND JOCKEY

- [1] Joseph Letts (41), baker, born Alrewas;
- [2] Ann Letts (41), wife, born Walsall;
- [3] Emma Letts (14), daughter, scholar, born Walsall;
- [4] Benjamin Letts (12), son, scholar, born Walsall;
- [5] Harry Letts (9), son, scholar, born Walsall;
- [6] Elizabeth Letts (6), daughter, scholar, born Walsall;
- [7] William Letts (3), son, born Walsall;
- [8] Joseph Letts (5 months), son, born Walsall;
- [9] Annie Hill (19), general servant, born Walsall:

Joseph Letts – see also BIRCHILLS TAVERN.

Midland Counties Evening Express 21/4/1884

“Daniel Loyden, Green Lane, was charged with having assaulted Sarah Durkin, Short Acre; and she and Jane Joyce, Green Lane, Mary Higgins, Long Acre, Anne Moreton, otherwise Lyons; and Sarah Durkin, Short Acre, were charged with being drunk and disorderly.

The evidence was to the effect that shortly before eleven o'clock on Tuesday night a quarrel began between some of the parties in the HORSE AND JOCKEY INN, and an adjournment to the street having taken place, Loyden beat and kicked Sarah Durkin most brutally. Sergeant Wright arrived at the scene and parted them, and whilst he was so engaged, Moreton and Higgins began to fight on one side of the road, and Durkin and Joyce on the other.

Loyden, against whom there were 13 previous convictions, was sentenced to two months imprisonment with hard labour, and Joyce against whom there were 4, Higgins against whom there was one, Moreton against whom there were 28, and Durkin against whom there were 12 convictions, were fined 20s and costs each.”

Walsall Observer 23/5/1885

“A New Cork Lodge. On Tuesday evening last a new lodge of this order, being No.322, was opened at Bro. J. Darby’s, the HORSE AND JOCKEY, Green Lane.

The ceremony was performed by Bro. J. H. Allsop, Dudley Street, and 14 members were initiated. Bro. Hanley, captain of the lodge, briefly addressed those present on the opening of the lodge and its provision of success.”

John Darby, was fined 40s and costs and his license was endorsed, on 27th July 1888, for opening on Sunday.

Birmingham Daily Post 1/9/1888

“A the annual licensing sessions, yesterday.....

The applications for renewal of licenses on the part of twenty persons whose names were on the black list were adjourned till the adjourned licensing day; and the applications of the following were also adjourned, the Chief Constable opposing on the ground of the unsuitability of the premises for licensed houses, bad management, or the house being unnecessary, viz John Darby, the HORSE AND JOCKEY.”

1891 Census

76, Green Lane

- [1] Thomas Connor (32), publican, born Walsall;
- [2] Ellen Connor (27), wife, born Walsall;
- [3] Ellen Connor (7), daughter, scholar, born Walsall;
- [4] Mary Connor (4), daughter, scholar, born Walsall;
- [5] Thomas Connor (2), son, scholar, born Walsall;
- [6] Cecily Connor (3 months), daughter, born Walsall:

John McGarry = John Magarry = John McGarvey

Walsall Advertiser 3/9/1892

“The annual Licensing Sessions for the Borough of Walsall took place on Wednesday at the Guildhall.....

The Chief-constable then gave formal notice that he intended to oppose the renewal of the following licenses.....

The HORSE AND JOCKEY, Green Lane, kept by John McGarvey, for the same reason [the licensee was not the real owner and occupier].”

Walsall Observer 1/10/1892

“The adjourned licensing sessions for the borough of Walsall were held on Wednesday.....

Mr. Gillespie applied for the renewal of the license of the HORSE AND JOCKEY, Green Lane, kept by John McGarry.

The Chief-constable said his objection in this case was raised in order to ensure that the holder of the license should be a bona-fide tenant, and not a manager. He was now perfectly satisfied on this point and did not press his opposition Renewed.”

Walsall Advertiser 19/8/1893

“A meeting of the Watch Committee followed that of the Town Council.....

Chief Constables Report. Gentlemen, In accordance with the instructions issued by you at the last monthly meeting, I beg to report with respect to the numbers of ex-police officers on the pension fund as follows.....

Ex-sergeant McGarry, who was pensioned at £54 12s per annum, is now the keeper of a beerhouse in this town known as the HORSE AND JOCKEY, Green Lane. He claimed his pensions under the Police Act 1880 having completed upwards of 26 years service.”

Walsall Advertiser 12/5/1894

“Conservative League Jottings.....

“Pratt Lodge. A meeting of this lodge was held at the HORSE AND JOCKEY, on Thursday night, Bro. Adkins, W.M., presiding. After routine business Mr. W. P. Banks delivered an interesting address on the ‘Policy of Government.’ The address was listened to with great attention, and a hearty vote of thanks accorded to Mr. Banks, on the motion of Bro. Millington. Bros. Brookes and Frankham (Sydney George Lodge) also made a few remarks. It is proposed that the next and future meetings be held at the WHITE LION, Birchills. Next meeting Monday, May 21st.”

John McGarry, beer retailer, 76, Green Lane. [1896]

Walsall Observer 12/5/1900

“Bridget Durkin, of Hollyhedge Lane, and Mary Gough, of Green Lane, were charged with being disorderly and refusing to quit (1) the HORSE AND JOCKEY, kept by William Gough, and (2) the VINE INN, kept by Martin Sweeney.

Mr. Wright (Messrs. Fowler, Langley, and Wright, Wolverhampton) appeared to prosecute, and the facts of the case were that on May 5th the women went into the VINE INN, Blue Lane, where they had 3 half pints of ale and 3 bottles of ginger beer. They were in for some time, and began to quarrel with another woman, and commenced setting about her. When the landlord interfered they refused to leave, and Durkin was scooping jugs and glasses off the tables and throwing them into the fireplace. Eventually they were ejected by Police-constable Reddick (45) [His station number?], who agreed that the women were not drunk.

The women then went to the HORSE AND JOCKEY, where they again made a disturbance.

Evidence having been given, they were each fined 5s and costs, or 10 days.”

Walsall Observer 15/9/1900

“Mary Gough, Green Lane, was summoned for being disorderly on licensed premises and with refusing to quit the HORSE AND JOCKEY. William Gough, of the HORSE AND JOCKEY, said that last Saturday, at about 9.20 o’clock, the defendant came into his house, and he told her to go out because she had too much to drink before. She refused to go, and used foul language, and he had to send for the police.

Police-constable Reddick (45) [His station number?] said that he was called to the HORSE AND JOCKEY, and found the defendant there quarrelling and bleeding from the nose. Witness ejected her.

Defendant pleaded guilty, and said that a man struck her and made her nose bleed, and after that she was naturally a bit disorderly. The magistrates dismissed the case.”

1901 Census

76, Green Lane

[1] William Gough (62), beerhouse keeper, born Walsall;

[2] Elizabeth Gough (71), wife, born Lane Head:

William Gough – see also BRITISH OAK, John Street and LORD RAGLAN.

John Taggart, beer retailer, 76, Green Lane. [1904]

Walsall Advertiser 6/2/1904

“The annual licensing sessions for the Borough of Walsall were held on Thursday at the Guildhall, and aroused considerable interest. The court was crowded, and many license-holders were unable to obtain admission.....

Notice had been given to 76 license holders to show cause for the renewal of their licenses, evidently as a result of the visits of a sub-committee of magistrates to the licensed premises, the reasons why cause had to be shown being various....

John Taggart, HORSE AND JOCKEY.....

HORSE AND JOCKEY, Green Lane. The reason for calling upon ‘Jack’ Taggart, as he is popularly known – a former prominent member of Walsall Football Club and an Irish International Association player – as host of the above house, was that the visiting magistrates found that painting, papering, &c, required to be done, and on behalf of the licensee Mr. Jackson undertook that what was required should be done before the adjourned licensing meeting.

On these conditions the license was renewed.”

Walsall Advertiser 3/2/1906

“There was not nearly the intense public interest in the annual licensing meeting for the borough of Walsall on Thursday, at the Guildhall, as was the case during the past two or three years, for instead of the court room being densely crowded and a vast throng clamouring for admission in the entrance corridor and on the footpath outside, chiefly holders of licenses and others intimately connected with the trade, the court, though well filled, was evidently large enough to accommodate all who wished to attend.....

On behalf of the owner (Mr. Egan) of the HORSE AND JOCKEY, Green Lane, Mr. J. F. Addison (Addison and Cooper) applied for leave for alterations which he said were somewhat extensive, but simple. At present on the ground floor were three rooms, a bar, a tap room with a passage between, and a smoke room at the back, as well as a sitting room. It was proposed to transpose the smoke room and the sitting room, so that the sitting room might communicate with the kitchen. Also to make such alteration so that the landlord could have proper supervision over the whole of the drinking area on the ground floor. The landlord intended to make it a home brewed house and erect a brewery in the yard, and he would take down a portion of a cottage in the yard to make an approach to the brewery. There would be actually a decrease of 15ft or 16ft in the drinking area. The object was to increase the means of supervision, and in every way improve the character of the house.

Mr. Hickton submitted the plans.

The Chief Constable said he saw no objection.

Mr. J. Moseley: Are you satisfied that this is a real resident tenant? – Chief Constable: I have made inquiry about that. There is no doubt about it.

In answer to Mr. Loxton, the Chief Constable said there was a home brewed house opposite the GOLDEN EAGLE.

After the Bench had adjourned to consider these applications, Mr. Loxton asked with regard to the HORSE AND JOCKEY whether the occupier was the real resident holder and occupier. The Chief Constable said he was.....

Mr. Loxton said the magistrates had adjourned all the plans, and proposed to visit the houses next Wednesday. They would be glad if the architects would accompany them.”

Walsall Advertiser 24/2/1906

“Yesterday the adjourned licensing sessions were held at the Guildhall.....

Several applications for the approval of plans for alterations, had been deferred from the annual licensing meeting for the magistrates to visit the premises. The Bench decided as under.....

HORSE AND JOCKEY, Green Lane, disapproved.”

The license renewal was referred to the Compensation Authority on 3rd February 1909.

Walsall Advertiser 22/5/1909

“The Licensing Act, 1904. Notice of Principal Meeting. County Borough of Walsall.

Notice is Hereby Given, that the Principal Meeting to be held pursuant to the Licensing Rules, 1904, by the Compensation Authority for the above area, will be held at the Guildhall, Walsall, on Tuesday, the 8th day of June, 1909, at 11 o’clock in the forenoon.....

List of Licensed Premises.....

The HORSE AND JOCKEY, Green Lane, Beerhouse. Licensee, John Littler.”

Walsall Advertiser 12/6/1909

“The principal meeting of the Walsall Compensation Authority was held at the Guildhall on Tuesday, when eight beer-houses and one ale-house, the licenses of which had been referred by the licensing justices, were dealt with, and in each instance the houses were referred for compensation, which means in due course the houses will close.....

In the case of the HORSE AND JOCKEY, in Green Lane, Mr. Jackson appeared for the owners, the trustees of Edward Egan – Rev. Father Delaney and Martin Egan – and also for the tenant (John Littler).

After the evidence of Inspector Ballance given at a previous court had been affirmed, Mr. Jackson said he could only point out to them that the only person interested in the property was Miss Egan, who received the house as a gift from her late father as part of her share under his will, and to her the renewal of the license was serious matter, inasmuch as she was now in receipt of rather more than £50 from it in the shape of rent, etc. As to the tenant, his weekly takings were about £18 or £19, so that he was doing a good trade, and, under the circumstances, if the bench did decide to take the license away, the compensation would be considerable.....

The Bench having heard each case separately retired to consider their decision. In returning, the Mayor intimated that the renewals authority report would be adopted, and all the houses referred for compensation.”

Walsall Advertiser 28/8/1909

“A meeting of the Walsall Compensation Authority was held at the Guildhall, on Thursday, Sir Edward T. Holden presiding over a full Bench of Magistrates.....

Other cases concerned the SARACENS HEAD, Stafford Street (Mr. H. H. Jackson appearing for Messrs. Trueman, Buxton, Hanbury and Co, the owners, and for the tenant, Mr. E. Egan), and the HORSE AND JOCKEY, Green Lane (in which Mr. H. H. Jackson represented the trustees of the late Edward Egan, the owners, and the tenant.....

The Magistrates decided to hold a further private sitting to go into the question of figures with the solicitors.

The decisions will be announced at a later date.”

It closed.

[1911]?

HORSE AND JOCKEY

Lichfield Road, (146, Walsall Road), Shelfield, Walsall Wood, WALSALL

OWNERS

City Brewery Company Ltd, Lichfield [1903], [1913]

LICENSEES

John Stokes [1813] – 1829)

Sarah Stokes []

John Cooper [1841] – 1849)

Ann Cooper [1857] – [1858]

Charles Taylor [1860] – 1872);

William Graves Clark (1872 – []

John Barnes Deakin [1891] – [1896]

Mrs. Cornforth [1896]

Benjamin Astbury [1896] – [1897]

Thomas Allen [1897] – 1911);

Joseph Gill (1911 – 1913);

Samuel Perry (1913 – []

Joseph Blakemore [1915] – [1940]

NOTES

Walsall Road [1891]
146, Walsall Road
Lichfield Road [1901]

OLD HORSE AND JOCKEY [1902]

John Stokes, victualler, HORSE AND JOCKEY, Walsall Wood. [1813]

Aris's Birmingham Gazette 5/7/1824 - Advert

“To be Sold by private Contract, all those two Freehold Pieces of Land (upon which is a good Mine of Clay, of excellent quality), called the Rush Benches, containing by admeasurement 6a 3r or thereabouts, in the occupation of Mr. John Stokes, as yearly tenant, situate in Woodridden Lane, in the parish of Aldridge, contiguous to the Essington and Wyrley Canal. Mr. John Stokes, of the HORSE AND JOCKEY, near the said premises, will shew the Land; and for further particulars apply at the office of Mr. Hawkes, Solicitor, Cannon Street, Birmingham, or to Mr. William Bullock, West Bromwich.”

Aris's Birmingham Gazette 13/7/1829 - Advert

“Valuable Freehold Meadow Land.

To be Sold by Auction, by J. Taylor, at the sign of the HORSE AND JOCKEY, Walsall Wood, on Monday, July 27, 1829, at four o'clock in the afternoon, all that Freehold Meadow, with the land-tax redeemed, called Ford Brook Meadow, adjoining the said Brook, leading from Shelfield to Pelsall, in the parish of Bloxwich, in the Foreign of Walsall, and county of Stafford, containing three Acres, be the same more or less.

This meadow may be floated at any time, being very near the Brook. The adjoining land having an excellent Mine of Coal, there is no doubt of a Mine being under the said meadow.

Mr. John Stokes, at the HORSE AND JOCKEY, Walsall Wood, will appoint a person to shew the land, and for further particulars apply to Mr. J. Taylor, Auctioneer, Peel Street, Walsall.”

Staffordshire Advertiser 5/9/1829 - Deaths

“On the 25th ult, Mr. John Stokes, farmer and publican, of the HORSE AND JOCKEY, Walsall Wood, aged 63.”

Aris's Birmingham Gazette 21/3/1836 - Advert

“Sale Of Farming Stock And Furniture, at Walsall Wood, in the Foreign of Walsall, and County of Stafford.

To be Sold by Auction, by John Taylor, on the premises of the late Sarah Stokes, Farmer and Publican, at the sign of the HORSE AND JOCKEY, on the Lichfield road side, three miles from Walsall on Monday the 28th day of March inst, two excellent waggon mares, 7 years old, and excellent hay mare, 5 years old, 18 hands high, steady in harness, a promising bay filly, rising 3 years, a young cow and calf, two cows near calving, four barren do in good condition, five porket pigs, and excellent two year old bull, waggon, two carts, ploughs, harrows, four winnowing machines, a variety of other implements, and a lot of potatoes.

The Furniture consists of bedsteads and hangings, with excellent feather beds, blankets and coverlets, and a variety of useful articles, and a large quantity of pewter.

The sale to commence at ten in the morning.

Printed particulars are in circulation, and may be had of the Auctioneer, Walsall.”

Staffordshire Advertiser 11/6/1836 - Married

“On Wednesday last, at Aldridge, Mr. John Cooper, maltster, of Walsall, to Ann, youngest daughter of the late Mr. John Stokes, of the HORSE AND JOCKEY INN, Walsall Wood.”

Staffordshire Advertiser 23/1/1841 - Advert

“To Be let, and may be entered upon at lady-day next, a Small Farm, of 33 Acres of Land, with House, Barn, and suitable Out-buildings, in the parish of Aldridge, in the county of Stafford, contiguous to the Brick and Tile Works of Messrs. Brawn's at Walsall Wood.

The Proprietor has laid out recently a considerable sum in under-drainage, hedging, ditching, &c, it is in a most complete state of repair for occupation.

There is a good Mine of Clay and Sand upon the Estate, and a Brick-kiln might be opened to great advantage, a Canal running near it.

Apply on the premises; at Mr. Cooper's, HORSE AND JOCKEY, Walsall Wood; at Mr. Barnett's Anchor Inn, Aldridge; or Mr. F. Cooper, Factor, Wolverhampton, the proprietor.”

Staffordshire Advertiser 28/7/1849 - Deaths

“On Saturday last, Mr. John Cooper, of the HORSE AND JOCKEY, Walsall Wood (formerly of Digbeth, Walsall), aged 56. A few weeks ago the deceased had the misfortune to fracture his thigh by a fall, which terminated fatally as above.”

Staffordshire Advertiser 2/11/1850 - Notice

“All Persons holding Cottages under the Right Honourable, the Earl of Bradford, at the following places within the Manor of

Walsall, in the county of Stafford, are requested to Pay their Rents as directed underneath:

Coal Heath, Shelfield, Green Lane, Iron Dish, Walsall Wood, Holly Bank, Shire Oaks, Pepper Alley, Paul's Coppice, Clayhanger, Catshill, Goblin's Pit, and High Heath, will be received at the HORSE AND JOCKEY, Walsall Wood, on Thursday, the 14th of November at ten o'clock.

Broadstone, Harden, Blakenall Heath, Bloxwich Lane, Little Bloxwich, Fistley, Wallington Heath, Short Heath, and Dead Man's Heath, will be received at the BULLS HEAD, Bloxwich, on Friday, the 15th day of November, at ten o'clock.

Fullbrook, Walsall Towns End, Flaxoven, Blue Lane, Birchills Lane, Bloxwich Lane, Birchills, Park Brook, Wednesbury Road, the Pleck, and Bescote, will be received at the HORSE SHOES, at the Pleck, on Saturday, the 16th of November, at ten o'clock.

John Potter, Stewart of Walsall Manor.

Cross Street, Walsall 23rd October, 1850.

N.B. Attendance will be given from ten to three o'clock. No arrears will be allowed to remain outstanding after rent days."

Wolverhampton Chronicle 14/1/1857

"Staffordshire Quarter Sessions.

John Mellard, aged 27, miner, was indicted for stealing one horsecloth, the property of Ann Cooper, at Walsall. The prosecutrix Mrs. Cooper, is landlady of the HORSE AND JOCKEY public house, Walsall Wood. On the 31st of August last, a horsecloth marked 'A. Cooper, W.W.' was missed from her stable. On the 16th of December, police constable William Price, acting on information received, went to prisoner's house at Walsall Wood Common (about a mile from Mrs. Cooper's), and upon a bed therein found the horsecloth in question. The prisoner's wife made an attempt to conceal it from him by rolling it in blankets on the bed and putting the bundle behind her. Price took possession of the cloth and asked her where they had had it from? The wife replied that she had found it near the spring in a neighbouring lane, and this statement was confirmed by her husband. Under the bed the officer discovered three of six straps which were attached to the cloth at the time of its being taken from Mrs. Cooper's. The prisoner was found guilty of receiving the cloth knowing it to have been stolen, and having been twice previously convicted of felony, he was sentenced to six months' imprisonment with hard labour."

Walsall Free Press 10/9/1859 - Advert

"Sale At The OLD HORSE AND JOCKEY, Walsall Wood.

George Bayley, had received instructions from Miss Sarah Taylor, who is discontinuing the Trade and leaving the Farm, to offer for sale on Monday, September 26th, 1859, the whole of the Live and Dead Farming Stock, Implements of Husbandry, Brewing Utensils, Fixtures and Household Furniture, on the premises as above.

Catalogues will appear."

Wolverhampton Chronicle 4/7/1860

"At the Petty Session, on Tuesday, before J. E. Bealey, Esq, and Rev. H. Chevasse, John Wenlock, shoemaker, Walsall Wood, was charged with passing counterfeit coin. In company with two females he visited the MINERS ARMS on the previous day, and in payment for three-penny worth of rum tendered a florin, which was at once seen to be counterfeit, was marked, and returned to him, and he paid for the spirits with a sixpence. Police-inspector Price was advised of the circumstances, and shortly afterwards, warning having been given in the direction that Wenlock took, the latter went into the HORSE AND JOCKEY, Walsall Wood, asked for a pint of ale, tendering another counterfeit florin in payment, when Price apprehended him, finding in his possession coppers and small change. He was very violent. The women decamped. The magistrates remanded the prisoner to admit consent of the Mint authorities to the prosecution being obtained."

Wolverhampton Chronicle 2/1/1861 - Notice

"County Of Stafford. Weights And Measures. District C. or South Staffordshire.

Notice is Hereby Given that William Tullett, the Inspector of Weights and Measures.....

Will attend at the undermentioned Times and Places for the purpose of Comparing and Examining all such Weights and Measures as shall be brought to him for that purpose, and Stamping such of them as shall be found correct, viz.....

At the HORSE AND JOCKEY, at Walsall Wood, on Tuesdays, January 15th, February 12th, and March 12th, at ten o'clock am.....

All persons residing in the said District, desirous of having their Weights and Measures Stamped, may bring or send them to any of the above places for adjustment, as shall be convenient; or to No.29, King-street, Wolverhampton, on any other than the days above appointed....."

1861 Census

Walsall Wood – HORSE AND JOCKEY

[1] Charles Taylor (42), inn keeper and farmer of 40 acres, born Rushall;

[2] Mary Ann Taylor (46), wife, born Longdon, Staffordshire;

[3] Harriet Vigrass (18), house servant, born Longdon, Staffordshire:

Staffordshire Advertiser 17/10/1863

"A young woman who gave her name as Mary Ann Smith, of King's Norton, on Thursday, was charged before the Mayor and Mr. Thorneloe with stealing a shilling, five pawn tickets, a comb, a thimble, and other articles, value 30s, belong to the wife of Henry Howard a labourer, from a lodging house, kept by Mrs. Derry, in Greenhill. Prisoner had slept in another bed in the same room as Howard and his wife on Sunday night, and on Monday morning the articles were missing from Mrs. Howard's pocket, and the prisoner had left the house. A pursuit took place, Smith was traced to several public-houses on the Walsall Road, and was ultimately found at the HORSE AND JOCKEY, Walsall Wood, and given into the custody of the police-constable Harley, with some stolen articles in her possession. Prisoner was sent to Stafford gaol for 21 days with hard labour.”

Aris's Birmingham Gazette 18/6/1864 - Advert

“For Sale, a Chestnut Welsh Pony, 13½ hands high, sound and quiet; a Roan Welsh Pony, 13½ hands high, sound and quiet. The above are four years old. Also a Black Gelding, well-bred and fast, 14 hands high, well used to harness. May be seen on Monday, at the HORSE AND JOCKEY, Lichfield Road, three minutes' walk from Wylde Green, Station.”

Walsall Free Press 12/11/1864

“Rushall Petty Sessions..... Charles Taylor, landlord of the HORSE AND JOCKEY, was charged, by Police-constable Astbury, with having, on Sunday, the 30th of October, had his house open at eleven o'clock for the sale of drink. Astbury said that when he visited the house he found seven men with a quart jug with ale in it, and he saw the girl with a pint jug with drink in it. Police-constable Hill having corroborated Astbury's evidence, the defendant was fined £1 and costs.”

Walsall Free Press 2/9/1865

“On Tuesday last, the annual licensing day for the district.....

Charles Taylor, HORSE AND JOCKEY, Shelfield, who had been once convicted of having had his house open for the sale of liquors during prohibited hours, was cautioned.”

Staffordshire Advertiser 19/9/1868

“Rushall, Tuesday. Adjourned Licensing Meeting.

Mr. Glover applied on behalf of Mr. S. Harrison, the HAWTHORNE TREE free beerhouse, Walsall Wood, for a spirit license. Mr. Dale (from the office of Duignan, Lewis and Lewis) opposed the application, on behalf of Mr. T. Jackson, the RED LION INN, and it was refused.

Of the holders of existing licenses, Alfred Stokes, RAILWAY INN, Pelsall; Thomas Jackson, RED LION INN, Walsall Wood; and James Parkes, Daw End, were cautioned.

The licenses of James Yates, the THREE HORSE SHOES, Rushall, was suspended, and the case of Charles Taylor, HORSE AND JOCKEY, Walsall Wood, was adjourned.”

Birmingham Daily Gazette 25/8/1869

“Samuel Webster, miner was fined 1s and costs for having been drunk and disorderly, and refused, when requested, to leave the HORSE AND JOCKEY public-house, Walsall Wood. It appeared the defendant had gone into the house in a state of intoxication, and went into the club room where a meeting was being held, and refused to leave when requested.”

1871 Census

Walsall Wood – HORSE AND JOCKEY

[1] Charles Taylor (51), farmer of 39 acres and publican, born Rushall;

[2] Mary Taylor (56), wife, born London;

[3] Joseph Gaskin (35), farm servant, born Shirley;

[4] Sarah A. Whittaker (15), general servant, born Wolverhampton:

Staffordshire Advertiser 13/11/1875

“Yesterday (Friday), Mr. Hooper, coroner, opened an inquiry at the HORSE AND JOCKEY, Walsall Wood, on the bodies of Charles Tusklow, 37, and Joseph Yates, 25, two sinkers who were killed in a new shaft at the Aldridge Colliery Company's Colliery, at Walsall Wood, on Tuesday, three other men named James Percival, Henry Cater, and Richard Amos being injured at the same time. In the absence of the Government Inspector, the Coroner merely had the bodies identified and then adjourned the inquiry for a fortnight. Mr. F. D. North was present on behalf of the Company. Although no evidence was taken it may be as well to state that the shaft in which the men were at work is 385 yards deep, and at the moment of the accident the two deceased, who were descending, were in a bowk about 25 yards from the bottom, a loaded tub which was being drawn up, being a like distance from the surface. Suddenly the handle of the tub broke, and the tub and its contents crashed down the shaft, falling full upon the hapless pair, and so crushing them that one of them (Yates) was killed on the spot, and Tusklow died soon afterwards. The four men who were at the bottom, warned by the noise of the descending tub, sprang to the sides of the shaft, and stood there, being to a slight extent sheltered, owing to the fact that the brickwork had not been carried quite down to where they stood, and that there was consequently a slight recess made under it. By a little less than a miracle, however, they escaped with their lives, and one of them, a man named Thomas Betteridge without any hurt whatever. The other three men were injured about the legs, but not seriously, by the contents of the tub flying about on reaching the bottom. Yesterday they were going on favourably.”

Staffordshire Advertiser 18/11/1876

“On Saturday, Mr. Hooper, coroner, held an inquest at the HORSE AND JOCKEY, Walsall Wood, on the body of Frederick Hardman, aged 22, a labourer, who, on the previous Thursday, while at work at the brickyard of Mr. Joberns, was drawn into the machinery, and was so badly injured that he died within a few minutes. A verdict of Accidental Death was returned.”

1891 Census

Walsall Road – HORSE AND JOCKEY

[1] John Barnes Deakin (58), farmer and publican, born Abbots Bromley, Staffordshire;

[2] Annie Deakin (55), wife, born Leigh, Staffordshire;

[3] Thomas W. Potts (16), grandson, farm servant, born Cannock;

[4] Ellen M. A. Deakin (2), granddaughter, born Cannock;

[5] Sarah Williams (17), domestic servant, born Old Hill:

Benjamin Astbury = Benjamin Astberry

Lichfield Mercury 17/7/1896

“At the Rushall Police Court on Monday.....

William Carter, Occupation Road, was summoned being disorderly at and refusing to quit the HORSE AND JOCKEY INN, on June 27th. Mr. Enoch Evans, solicitor appeared in support of the defendant.

Mrs. Astbury, the landlady, gave evidence that she refused to supply defendant, who would not leave until a policeman was sent for. Captain Brooks said there was a black list against defendant, who would be fined 2s 6d and 13s 6d costs or ten days.”

AND

“William Pinches and William Yardley, miners, Lichfield Road, were summoned for assaulting Benjamin Astbury, landlord of the HORSE AND JOCKEY INN, on the 17th ult. Mr. Enoch Evans, solicitor, prosecuted.

Evidence was given that Pinches struck another customer and was ordered to leave. He struggled with the complainant, who tried to eject him, and Yardley took the landlord by the arms and held him, whereupon Pinches bunted his head into the landlord’s stomach causing him to fall on his back. As he lay on the floor the same defendant kicked him in the mouth.

Pinches now pleaded that he was fighting for his life while Yardley urged that he was trying to act as peacemaker.

Pinches was fined 12s 6d or ten days, and Yardley 11s or seven days.”

Walsall Advertiser 18/7/1896

“Twas indeed a promise bordering on the impossible made at the Court by William Carter, of Occupation Road. He was summoned for having been drunk and disorderly on and refusing to quit the premises of the HORSE AND JOCKEY INN, Walsall Wood, on the 27th ult. Mr. E. Evans (Walsall) prosecuted. After the evidence of Mrs. Astbury as to the conduct of defendant, the magistrates informed him of the black list, which they said, was gradually growing. ‘Well it might,’ said Carter ‘on frivolous charges such as these. I was only in the house a few minutes.’ Then in a pleading attitude and with a promise he himself must have felt would be quickly broken he asked the Bench to forgive him, promising that he would keep out of them (the public-houses) all. Fined 2s 6d and costs.”

Lichfield Mercury 24/7/1896

“Bankruptcy. Re Benjamin Asbury, Lichfield Road, Walsall Wood, formerly of the LEATHERN BOTTLE, Church Hill, Walsall, licensed victualler; the ROUGH HILLS TAVERN, Wolverhampton, beerhouse keeper; and other places.

The public examination of this debtor took place at the Walsall Bankruptcy Court on Wednesday, before Mr. Registrar Clarke; Mr. E. Evans appearing on the bankrupt’s behalf.

The statement of affairs showed liabilities to the amount of £235 9s 6d, and a deficiency of £222 9s 6d. The bankrupt was an iron-worker until 1883, when he became a licensed victualler at the LEATHERN BOTTLE INN, and remained there until 1887, when he removed to the ROUGH HILL TAVERN, but returned to the other inn in 1891. He gave that up in September last, and afterwards filed his petition. In October he married Mrs. Cornforth, a widow, who in May took to the HORSE AND JOCKEY INN, Walsall Wood, on her own account, her husband going to live with her there. He attributed his failure to the illness of his first wife and bad trade.

The examination was adjourned until the 10th August.”

Walsall Advertiser 19/6/1897

“The Bench granted an application by Mr. Astberry, of the HORSE AND JOCKEY, Walsall Wood to sell in the rear of his premises from 2 to 10 on Jubilee day, the occasion being a Foresters’ fête.”

Walsall Advertiser 31/7/1897

“Thomas Allen, landlord of the HORSE AND JOCKEY INN, Walsall Wood, was charged at Rushall on Monday with permitting drunkenness on his licensed premises on the 9th July. Mr. J. S. Sharpe, of West Bromwich prosecuted on behalf of the police, and Mr. H. H. Jackson, of Walsall defended.

Mr. Sharpe said the evidence was simple, and he thought, conclusive, that there had been an offence against the Licensing Act. On the day in question Police-constable Trusswell was passing the HORSE AND JOCKEY at about four in the afternoon, and looking through the door he saw a man named Samuel Smith sitting in the house. Nothing called for any remark at that time. The constable was going past the house the same evening at 6.55 nearly three hours after. He then saw the same man there, and his attention was called to him as he was drunk. The constable came out for the purpose of getting another officer to see him. As he came out the landlady said to the man, ‘Now, Sammy, you’ll have to go.’ The man came out, made quite an exhibition of himself, was very disorderly, and wanted to fight. He had to be taken home, and three officers would speak as to the condition of the man – he was undoubtedly drunk. The landlady, when spoken to, said she did not fill the man anything; she thought he had had enough when he came, but he had had drink given to him. There was no answer in law. He did not care for the purpose of that summons whether the man had drink supplied to him or given to him there, so long as he was drunk and the landlady or anyone in charge of the house knew he was drunk. The landlady also remarked to the officer, ‘Is this the only house where they get drunk in the neighbourhood.'

Police-constable Trusswell corroborated this statement. He said the man Smith was nearly deaf and dumb, and was known as 'Dummy.' It was the peculiar noise he was making that attracted his attention at 6.55pm.

Police-constables Milner and Wood also gave evidence as to Smith's condition outside the house.

Thomas Allen, defendant, said he had previously kept the LEATHER CUTTERS ARMS, in Duncalfe Street, Walsall. On the day in question Smith left the house quietly and in a perfectly sober condition. He was asked to leave because it was a rule in Walsall Wood not to allow men with blackened faces to remain after seven o'clock on ordinary evenings, and five o'clock on Saturday. At or before that time they had to go home and wash.

Other evidence for the defence was also given.

The Bench imposed a fine of 20s and 15s costs.

Dr. Cooke said he hoped it would be a warning to licensed victuallers generally. He had no doubt there was a great deal of drunkenness going on, particularly in that neighbourhood.

Mr. Sharpe applied for the prosecuting solicitor's fees, and these were allowed."

Walsall Advertiser 11/9/1897

"The annual licensing meeting for the petty sessional division of Rushall was held on Monday morning at the Courthouse, Rushall.....

There were several matters in connection with the report which had been brought to the attention of the police authorities by district or parish councils of several places, particularly in Brownhills and Walsall Wood, of the public house urinals being not only disagreeable to the public, but on sanitary grounds also very bad. The police had called attention particularly to the BLACK COCK INN and the HORSE AND JOCKEY and the HAWTHORNE beerhouse, Walsall Wood....."

Walsall Advertiser 18/6/1898

"Thomas Allen, landlord of the HORSE AND JOCKEY, Walsall Wood, applied to the Rushall Bench on Monday for sanction of an occasional license to sell intoxicants in a shed at the back of the HORSE AND JOCKEY on the occasion of the Free Gardeners' Sports on Monday next."

Lichfield Mercury 30/6/1899

"Friendly Societies' Sports at Walsall Wood. The second annual sports took place on the HORSE AND JOCKEY Grounds, Walsall Wood, on Monday afternoon last.....

There was also two Duck-hunting Races, the ducks being given by Councillor Bates, of the RED LION INN, Walsall Wood."

Lichfield Mercury 28/7/1899

"The Bench granted a temporary authority to Thomas Allen, of the HORSE AND JOCKEY INN, Walsall Wood, to sell in the grounds near his house on the occasion of some sports to be held there on the 29th inst."

Sports and Sporting events were regularly held in the field adjacent to the public-house, for some years.

1901 Census

Lichfield Road

[1] Thomas Allen (38), publican, born Walsall;

[2] Mary Allen (34), wife, born Walsall;

[3] Louisa Berington (22), cook, born Norton Canes;

[4] Sarah Mosedale (11), housemaid, born Derby:

Lichfield Mercury 14/6/1901

"Thomas Allen of the HORSE AND JOCKEY INN, Walsall Wood, applied for and was granted occasional licenses to sell in a field adjoining his house, on June 24th and July 1st, on the occasion of some sports."

Lichfield Mercury 19/6/1903

"Brownhill Urban Council.....

The Clerk said that, as directed, he had called the attention of the City Brewery Company, Limited, Lichfield, to the serious nuisance which was caused by water being pumped from the cellar of the HORSE AND JOCKEY INN, Walsall Wood, and requesting that steps should be taken to remedy the matter, and the District Council would hold the Company responsible for the nuisance. The Managing Director of the Brewery Company replied that as the District Council prohibited them from using the sewer, the Directors did not see how they could make the arrangements suggested by the Surveyor. On receipt of this reply, said the Clerk, he wrote to Mr. Challenor, who said he had explained to the Brewery Company the impossibility of making a connection with the main sewer, as the cellar floor was lower than the sewer. The best way was to lay an iron pipe across the road and connect it with the storm-water drain, but the best way of all would be to concrete the floor and sides of the sewer, so as to prevent the water from getting in. Replying to these proposals, the Brewery Company said that unless the water could be turned into the main drain they would be unwilling to do anything.

The Surveyor said the drain was only about 3 feet deep there.

After some discussion, the Clerk was directed to write to the City Brewery and threaten an injunction unless the nuisance was abated."

Lichfield Mercury 15/7/1904

“At Rushall Police Court, Joseph Witton, who described himself as a hairdresser, and was said to have come from Birmingham, was charged with stealing a brooch and a bracelet, value 15s, belonging to Thomas Allen, of the HORSE AND JOCKEY INN, Walsall Wood, on the 29th ult. Whilst some sports were taking place at an athletic ground at the inn, prisoner gained access to the private apartment and ransacked a bedroom. The landlord having occasion to go upstairs, found him crouching by the bed-side. He then pleaded he had missed his way, but eventually produced the articles in question from his pocket. When handed over to the police he remarked he had found them something to do.

Prisoner was committed to the Assizes.”

[At the Stafford Assizes, in July 1904, Joseph Witton was sentenced to twelve months' imprisonment.]

Walsall Advertiser 12/2/1910

“There was a full Bench of Magistrates present at the Licensing Sessions for the Rushall Division, held on Tuesday, at the Rushall Police Court.....

With regard to the HORSE AND JOCKEY, Walsall Wood, the Chairman said it had been reported to the Magistrates that there had been a good bit of sport – they might call it sport – carried on: rabbit coursing and pigeon shooting. He thought it was desirable that the landlord should minimise it as much as possible. They were not going to take the license away, but the practice brought people together who were undesirable, and should be discontinued.

Mr. H. H. Jackson, on behalf of Mr. T. Allen, licensee of the HORSE AND JOCKEY, explained that during the year considerable curtailment had been made with regard to the sports carried on at the house as a result of the intimation from the Magistrates last year. What few sports had been held had been carried on in a particular manner. He appeared to watch the interest of a number of licensees in the district, who were members of the Walsall and District Licensed Victuallers' Association, and upon their behalf he expressed pleasure upon the nature of the report which had been presented.

Captain Brookes said it was a suggestion he had been asked to make, and which they hoped would be carried out.

Mr. F. J. Shaw: Coursing is still carried out at the HORSE AND JOCKEY.

Mr. Jackson said there had been no pigeon shooting, but a little coursing had been carried on.

In answer to Mr. Shaw, the landlord said there had only been eight or ten meetings, as against about forty the previous year.

Mr. Shaw said he thought it was understood coursing should cease altogether.

Mr. Jackson said the sport had decreased, and would continue to decrease. It was difficult to do away with it altogether.

Mr. Brookes: You see, we are decreasing the number of these houses: it might very seriously influence the Bench.

Mr. Shaw said it was known to the Magistrates that it was the resort of some of the worst characters of the Black Country. He had seen them himself, and if the landlord was wise he would discontinue it.”

1911 Census

Walsall Wood – HORSE AND JOCKEY INN

[1] Joseph Gill (44), licensed victualler and colliery foreman below ground, born Burntwood, Staffordshire;

[2] Alice Gill (44), wife, married 26 years, born Penkridge, Staffordshire;

[3] Myra Jane Gill (16), daughter, assisting in business, born Pelsall;

[4] Joseph Booth Gill (13), son, school, born Pelsall;

[5] Gertie May Gill (9), daughter, school, born Walsall Wood;

[6] William Booth Gill (28), son, timber drawer coal mine, born Bridgtown, Staffordshire;

[7] Elina Gill (28), daughter in law, born Walsall;

[8] Nancey Yardley (21), general servant, born Wednesbury:

Walsall Advertiser 27/5/1911

“Charges were heard at a special police court for the Rushall Division on Tuesday, against three men as a result of the sports day at Walsall Wood on the previous day.

Richard Radford and Frank Warrilow, both labourers of Walsall, were arrested at Shelfield for alleged drunkenness, and were also charged with stealing glasses, the property of Joseph Gill, the licensee of the HORSE AND JOCKEY, Walsall Wood; and John Melvin, labourer, Walsall, was charged with drunkenness at Shelfield.

Police-constable Patrick said he arrested the three prisoners at Shelfield. They were drunk. Radford and Warrilow were in possession of a drinking glass, which the landlord of the HORSE AND JOCKEY identified as his property.

Melvin was fined 5s and costs, and the other two prisoners were remanded until Monday.”

[Richard Radford and Frank Warrilow were fined 5s and costs each and placed on their good behaviour for three months.]

Lichfield Mercury 14/3/1913

The adjourned Licensing Sessions for the Rushall Division took place on Monday, when Sir E. T. Holden presided over a full Bench.....

Mr. H. H. Jackson applied for the renewal of the license of the HORSE AND JOCKEY INN, Walsall Wood, on behalf of the City Brewery Co. (Lichfield), and said notice of objection had been served because the present tenant, Joseph Gill, had been convicted of permitting drunkenness. The circumstances, however, were that Gill, who had been employed at the Aldridge Colliery for twenty years, had been at work all day, and had gone to bed. Consequently he had failed to exercise adequate supervision. As he had paid something like £315 to go into the public-house, he had decided to devote his whole time to it, and give up other employment. The record of the public-house, apart from this one conviction, was a splendid one. The Bench decided to renew the license.”

Walsall Advertiser 5/4/1913

“An application was made to the Rushall magistrates on Monday, by Mr. H. H. Jackson for the temporary transfer of a license of the HORSE AND JOCKEY, Walsall Wood, from Mr. Joseph Gill to Mr. Samuel Perry. Mr. Jackson stated that Mr. Perry had kept a licensed house in Chasetown for a period of twenty-two years. The application was granted.”

Walsall Advertiser 16/10/1915

“A meeting of the Walsall and District Licensed Victuallers’ and Beer Retailers’ Friendly and Protection Society was held on Thursday.....
New Member..... Mr. Joseph Blakemore, HORSE AND JOCKEY INN, Walsall Wood.”

Staffordshire Advertiser 19/2/1921

“The annual licensing sessions for the Rushall Division were held on Monday.....
All the licenses would be renewed with the exception of.....
HORSE AND JOCKEY, Walsall Wood.....
In these cases, alterations were necessary, and the Bench would defer consideration until they had visited the premises and inspected the plans.”

Lichfield Mercury 1/2/1935 - Advert

“For Sale. Sports pavilion in Sections, 29ft long, 9ft wide.
HORSE AND JOCKEY, Walsall Wood.”

Walsall Observer 7/1/1939

“Don’t try and tell the bench that you did not know that raffling was illegal,’ taunted Mr. Frank Cooper when one of the two young men, summoned for being concerned with the sale and distribution of raffle tickets, said he did not think they were doing any harm. Defendants were Joseph Morrison, 50, Ogley Road, Brownhills, and Joseph James, The Caravan, HORSE AND JOCKEY, Walsall Wood.
Police-constable Beswick said that he was in a Walsall shop on the evening of December 7, when a man, whom he now knew to be Morrison, entered and asked the lady of the shop if she would like a threepenny ticket for a raffle for a carpet. She made no reply and the man left the shop. Witness made inquiries and informed Police-constable Morrey of what he had discovered. Police-constable Morrey said that he interviewed both defendants on December 11 and James said, ‘We did not know it was wrong; we shan’t do it again. We had not made arrangements for the draw, but the carpet we intended to raffle was valued at 50s.’ Morrison agreed with this and produced a book of cloak room tickets of which eleven were missing.
It was Morrison who told the Bench that he did not think that they were doing any harm. James had nothing to say. Each was fined 25s, with 15s costs.”

1939 Register

Lichfield Road – HORSE AND JOCKEY INN

- [1] Joseph Blakemore, date of birth 2/3/1884, licensed holder, married;
- [2] Eliza Blakemore, dob 1/8/1886, unpaid domestic duties, married;
- [3] Vivian C. Blakemore, dob 17/8/1914, builder’s carpenter, single;
- [4] Dennis R. Blakemore, dob 18/11/1921, carpenter, single;
- [6] Eliza Casey, dob 2/8/1861, unpaid domestic duties, widowed:

Walsall Observer 23/12/1939

“The annual share-out in connection with the Women’s section of the Lichfield Road Working Men’s Death and Dividend Society, took place on Monday evening, when 186 members each received 15s. Officers elected included Mrs. J. Cowley, secretary; Mrs. A. Cross, treasurer; Mr. Kandle, auditor. On Tuesday evening the annual share-out of the ‘Live and Let Live’ Sick and Accident Society, held at the HORSE AND JOCKEY, Walsall Wood, took place, 180 members each receiving 10s and a voucher value 7d. Officers elected were: Mr. W. Hughes, secretary; Mr. J. Blakemore, treasurer.”

Walsall Observer 24/12/1942

“Walsall Licensed Victuallers’ Society. The Duke of Gloucester’s Red Cross Fund. List of Subscriptions.....
HORSE AND JOCKEY, Walsall Wood. £1 0s 0d.”

It was demolished.

It was rebuilt behind the original pub.

It opened as the POACHERS POCKET. [2005]

It was renamed HORSE AND JOCKEY. [2007]

Express & Star 22/3/2021

“Pubs group Marston’s has issued a list of pubs set to reopen in the Black Country on April 12th. In the Express & Star circulation area this takes in 93. Due to coronavirus restrictions they will only be able to accommodate customers in outdoor areas including beer gardens and seated areas. To accompany table service, Marston’s has introduced an online ordering system called ‘Marston’s Tap’. The online platform is available across the majority of Marston’s pubs for guests to use. Bookings are being accepted and guests can reserve a table via each pub’s website. Wolverhampton-based Marston’s has an estate of around 1,400 pubs across the UK and not all in England are able to reopen in April due to not having an outdoor space.....
HORSE AND JOCKEY TAVERNERS, Walsall Road.”

Express & Star 24/11/2023

“Supermarket giant Aldi has submitted proposals to take over a pub and create a new store in the area. If approved by Walsall Council, the ROYAL EXCHANGE on Lichfield Road, Walsall Wood, would be demolished to make way for the new supermarket along with 109 parking spaces. It would also see the demolition of a warehouse used for the distribution of eggs and cheese and three houses as part of the development. The company said it would ‘meet the needs’ of the local area and provide up to 50 new jobs in the process. If it did go ahead, the new store would be just yards from a new Lidl, who won approval from planners in March this year to take over the HORSE AND JOCKEY pub site on the adjoining Walsall Road.....”

[2023]

IMPERIAL

Darwall Street, WALSALL

OWNERS

J. D. Wetherspoon

LICENSEES

Karen Leach [1998] manager

Andrew Byers [2009] manager

NOTES

It was originally the Agricultural Hall.

It became the Imperial Cinema.

It later became a bingo hall. [1963]

It opened as a Wetherspoon’s pub in 1997.

Wetherspoon News March 1998

“Customers enjoying a drink or meal at the IMPERIAL in Walsall might be forgiven for thinking they’ve turned up on the set of Jurassic Park or The Land That Time Forgot. For the pub is home to numerous model dinosaurs and reptiles, like the one keeping an eye on manageress Karen Leach.

The IMPERIAL, which takes its name from the cinema that once stood on the site, was originally a public meeting hall. The models recall those that appeared on film at the Imperial, as well as the dinosaurs and reptiles which were discussed during debates on the Origin of the Species in the 19th century at the hall.

Karen, who used to run the MOON UNDER WATER in Wolverhampton, said, ‘The dinosaurs have certainly made an impression, especially the Diplodocus, which is 40 foot long and 30 foot high. The IMPERIAL is a well-known building in Walsall and people in the town are pleased that it is once again in use.’”

It closed in March 2016.

Express and Star 17/3/2016

“The IMPERIAL in Darwall Street, which was opened by the Wetherspoon chain in 1997, will serve customers one last time on Saturday evening and then cease trading immediately. The nearby former county court, which was also bought by Wetherspoon and turned into ST. MATTHEWS HALL, will remain open. None of the 40 staff will lose their jobs with all being transferred to other Wetherspoon’s pubs.

Wetherspoon spokesman Eddie Gershon said, ‘We can confirm that the IMPERIAL in Walsall is to close on Sunday with Saturday being its last day of trading. We understand the pub’s loyal customers will be annoyed and disappointed with the news but Wetherspoon has taken a commercial decision to close the pub.’”

Express & Star 4/4/2017

“The IMPERIAL, which had been an iconic presence in Walsall town centre, was closed in August and put on the market for almost £100,000 a year. JD Wetherspoon closed the site despite having a lease on the Darwall Street drinking hole until 2047. The historic building dates back to the 1860s and was rebuilt and reopened in 1887 as St. George’s Hall.”

Express & Star 4/8/2022

“Communities across Walsall have been forced to endure the depressing sight of once-thriving boozers calling time for good for a number of years. Factors such as high beer taxes, supermarkets selling cheaper alcohol and changing habits are among reasons cited why so many pubs are forced to close permanently. For those buildings not brought back into use as pubs, bars or restaurants, developers have seized the opportunity to re-imagine them as housing schemes which will change the landscape of the streets they sit in. Here are a few old pubs which are set to be converted into apartments or houses.....

The IMPERIAL, Darwall Street, Walsall, an iconic 19th century venue last stood as a Wetherspoon pub – complete with huge model dinosaurs – until it closed in 2016. Prior to that, the building was enjoyed as a picture house, theatre and a bingo hall amongst a number of different uses. It has stood empty for more than five years and, last year, Lodge Housing Ltd put forward an application to turn it into 21 new apartments. But the Cinema Theatre Association, Theatres Trust and regional branch of the Victorian Society have objected to the proposal and are urging the plans to be rejected.”

IRISH HARP

27, (37), Long Street / Short Street, WALSALL

OWNERS

John Young [1880]
Joseph Haynes
City Brewery (Lichfield) Co. Ltd. [1903], [1904]

LICENSEES

Joseph Taylor [1860] – [1867]
George Smith [1867] – [1873];
John Young [1880];
Joseph Haynes [1881] – 1889);
John Cole (1889);
Joseph Haynes (1889 – 1890);
Thomas Henry Iliffe (1890 – []);
Francis John ‘Frank’ Morgan [1894] – 1900);
Albert William Broster (1900 – 1903);
Josiah Burgess (1903 – 1906);
John Edward Moseley (1906 – 1915);
Ernest Wilton [1914] ?
William Jarvis (1915 – 1919);
Emma Ferris (1919 – 1923);
Ernest Harold Wilson (1923 – 1931);
David Davis (1931 – 1935);
Ernest Jackson (1935 – 1961);
Hilda Victoria Jackson (1961 – 1962);
Edward George Freeman (1962 – 1964);
George Ernest Holmes (1964 – 1965);
Frank James Bates (1965 – [1966])

NOTES

37, Long Street [1864], [1865]
27, Long Street [1868], [1870], [1871], [1872], [1881], [1891], [1896], [1901], [1904], [1908], [1911], [1912], [1932], [1939],

[1940]

It had a beerhouse license.

Wolverhampton Chronicle 5/9/1860

“Wednesday last, being the annual licensing day, twenty applications were made by beer-house keepers for victualling licenses. . . .
Joseph Taylor, Long Street. Granted.”

Walsall Free Press 6/10/1860 - Advert

“Notice!! A Sick Society will commence on Monday, September 17th, 1860, at the house of Mr. Joseph Taylor, sign of the IRISH HARP, Long Street, Walsall; known by the name of ‘A Gift.’

Payments 1s 2d per month. Allowance in sickness 6s per week. At death £5.

Any person wishing to become a Member will much oblige by apply as above.”

Walsall Free Press 30/11/1861

“Joseph Taylor, landlord of the IRISH HARP, Long Street, was summoned for having his house open at an improper hour. Defendant did not appear, and Mr. Brookes stated he had called upon him and requested him to apologise to the bench for his absence, as he was obliged to go to Manchester. He had also asserted that the persons found in his house were his friends, and they were obliged to be up in consequence of illness in his family. Acting-sergeant Darlington (Pleck) deposed that he entered defendant’s house at twenty minutes past two o’clock, on Sunday morning and found three men there, and some liquors on the table. Shortly afterwards the men went away. A fine of 2s 6d and costs, was inflicted.”

Birmingham Journal 27/6/1863

“On Wednesday morning an inquest was held at the IRISH HARP INN, Long Street, on the body of Emma Holland, the child who met with her death on Monday afternoon by being knocked down by a passing engine at Bodley’s Crossing. The evidence went to show that Mrs. Holland had her five children with her at the time of the accident, two of them in a perambulator and the others on foot; that she had taken the latter over the line, and was returning for the others, when the pointsman and gatekeeper, who had up to that time been engaged in his box, called out to her that an engine was approaching. She and a female who was with her, attempted to re-cross the line to the children whom she had left on the other side, but finding that it would be dangerous to do so, they contented themselves with making signs to them to remain where they were. The deceased, however, seemed to have got frightened, and started towards her mother, when she was struck by the engine and knocked down between the rails, but the wheels did not pass over her. From the effects of the injuries she received she died in about ten minutes afterwards. It was proved in evidence that the engine driver sounded his whistle twice when approaching the crossing, and no blame seemed to attach to any of the officers of the company. The Jury returned a verdict of Accidental Death.”

Joseph Taylor was also a bit maker. [1864]

Walsall Free Press 25/6/1864 - Advert

“Notice! Notice!! Notice!!!

The Good Samaritan Society will Commence on Monday, July 18th, at Mr. J. Taylor’s, the IRISH HARP, Long Street, Walsall, the Contributions will be 1s 2d per fortnight; the Pay Out in Sickness, 10s per Week; and at the Death of a Member, £10.

Any Friend wishing to join, will oblige by attending as above, at Seven o’clock p.m.

N.B. Miners and Engineers will be admitted Members.”

[This advert was repeated for several months.]

Birmingham Daily Gazette 22/8/1865 - Advert

“Found, near Wednesbury Tollgate, on Friday last, a Milch Cow. The owner can have her again by applying to Mr. Taylor, IRISH HARP, Long Street, Walsall.

If not claimed within 14 days, she will be sold to pay expenses.

Walsall, August 22nd, 1865.”

Walsall Free Press 2/9/1865 - Advert

“No.2 Permanent Money Society Commenced On Tuesday, August 1st, 1865, at the IRISH HARP, Long Street, Walsall.

Rates of payments: 1s 3d per week for £5; 2s 3d per week for £10; 3s 3d per week for £15; 4s 3d per week for £20.

Joseph Taylor, Trustee.”

[This advert was repeated for many months.]

Walsall Free Press 23/2/1867 - Notice

“Notice Of Removal.

Mr. J. Taylor, begs to inform the members of the No.2 Permanent Money Society (now held at the IRISH HARP, Long Street,) and the public generally, that the above Society will be held at the BELLEVUE HOTEL, Moat Street, Walsall, on or after Tuesday, March 5th, 1867.”

Joseph Taylor – see also BELLE VUE.

Walsall Free Press 6/4/1867 - Notice

“Royal Permanent Money Society, IRISH HARP, Long Street, Walsall.
Monday Evenings, from Eight till half-past Nine.
£5 – 1s 3d; £10 – 2s 3d; £15 – 3s 3d; £20 – 4s 3d.
G. Smith, Treasurer.”

[This advert was repeated for several months.]

Staffordshire Advertiser 5/10/1867

“On Monday Mr. A. A. Fletcher, borough coroner, held an inquest at the IRISH HARP INN, Long Lane, touching the death of Thomas Williams, a shunter employed at the railway station, whose back was broken on the preceding Saturday, either by his falling between the trucks of a train, or his being crushed by the trucks and one of the door posts. Death ensued within a few minutes after the accident. Deceased had only been married a fortnight. Verdict, Accidental Death.”

Walsall Free Press 5/3/1870 - Notice

“Royal Permanent Money Society, IRISH HARP, Long Street, Walsall.
The Committee begs to inform the Working Class that they are able to Advance Money any Monday Evening on Good Security.
For information apply to the Secretary, or to G. Smith, Treasurer.”

[This advert was repeated for several months.]

1871 Census

27, Long Street

- [1] George Smith (42), publican, born Chestock, Warwickshire;
- [2] Elizabeth Smith (38), wife, born Coleshill;
- [3] Sarah Ann Smith (17), daughter, born Coleshill;
- [4] Emma Smith (15), daughter, born Coleshill;
- [5] Mary Ann Smith (13), daughter, scholar, born Walsall;
- [6] Phoebe Jane Smith (11), daughter, scholar, born Walsall;
- [7] Samuel Smith (9), son, scholar, born Walsall;
- [8] Ellen Smith (7), daughter, scholar, born Walsall;
- [9] Martha Smith (5), daughter, scholar, born Walsall;
- [10] Clara Smith (4), daughter, scholar, born Walsall;
- [11] George Smith (1 month), son, born Walsall:

Staffordshire Advertiser 17/8/1878

“On Tuesday afternoon, William Bayley, aged 49, of 6, Short Street, died suddenly at the IRISH HARP INN, Long Street, whither he had gone to have his tea.”

Walsall Advertiser 13/4/1880 - Advert

“A capital House To Let, or Sold, with garden and Workshop attached. Rent £20.
Apply IRISH HARP, Long Street.”

1881 Census

27, Long Street

- [1] Joseph Haynes (44), beerhouse keeper, born Darlaston;
- [2] Ester Haynes (42), wife, born Walsall;
- [3] Clara Haynes (18), daughter, born Darlaston;
- [4] Emily Haynes (15), daughter, born Darlaston;
- [5] Percy Haynes (4), son, born Burntwood;
- [6] Maria Green (15), servant, born Burntwood:

Lichfield Mercury 8/6/1888

“Joseph Haynes, the IRISH HARP, Long Street, was summoned for having seven unstamped measures in his possession. Police-constable Reeves stated he warned defendant in September last to have his measures stamped. The Bench fined the defendant 20s and costs, and ordered the measures to be forfeited.”

Walsall Advertiser 31/5/1890 - Advert

“Notice To Builders, Contractors And Others.
Alfred Simms begs to inform them that he is in a position to accommodate them with Horses and Carts for the Removal of Material, &c.
Stables – The IRISH HARP, Long Street.
Private Address – No.2 Persehouse Street, Walsall.”
[This advert was repeated for several months.]

1891 Census

27, Long Street

- [1] Joseph Haynes (55), publican, born Darlaston;
 - [2] Esther Haynes (52), wife, born Birchills;
 - [3] Roland P. Haynes (14), son, scholar, born Burntwood, Staffordshire:
- [This was not due as he was already gone?]

Walsall Advertiser 10/3/1894

“Walsall And District Licensed Victuallers’ Society.

The monthly meeting of this society was held on Thursday last.....

Mr. Frank Morgan, IRISH HARP was elected a member of the committee in place of Mr. J. E. Hennessy who had resigned.”

Walsall Advertiser 16/11/1895

“Walsall and District Licensed Victuallers’ Society. The monthly meeting of this society was held on Thursday at the house of Mr. Frank J. Morgan, IRISH HARP INN, Long Street.....”

Walsall Advertiser 14/4/1900

“The monthly meeting of the Walsall and District Licensed Victuallers’ and Beer Retailers’ Friendly and Protection Society was held on Thursday at the DRAGON HOTEL, High Street.....

New Members... Mr. A. W. Broster, IRISH HARP INN, Long Street.”

1901 Census

27, Long Street – IRISH HARP INN

- [1] Albert W. Broster (33), publican, born Hereford;
- [2] Emily Broster (33), wife, born Hereford;
- [3] Gertie Broster (11), daughter, born Hereford;
- [4] Willie H. Broster (4), son, born Walsall;
- [5] Maud Broster (2), daughter, born Walsall;
- [6] Harriet Broster (56), mother, widow, born Withington, Herefordshire;
- [7] Rose Broster (27), sister, barmaid, born Stratford on Avon:

Staffordshire Advertiser 28/3/1903

“Albert William Broster, landlord of the IRISH HARP INN, was charged with causing the death of Thomas Smith, Green Lane, on the 12th inst. Mr. Addison defended. The evidence that was given at the inquest last week was repeated, and was that on the 12th inst, the prisoner and deceased were in the OAK INN and were ‘haggling’ about a pony. Afterwards the prisoner caught the deceased by the wrist, and they went out into the yard, where they wrestled together and the deceased was thrown heavily on the bricks. He went to work the next day, but on the 14th he was seized with fits, and his arm swelled so that he was ordered to the hospital, where he died on the 17th inst, from acute blood-poisoning. The medical evidence was that there were some scratches on the deceased’s elbow, but the arm was in such a very dirty and greasy state and it was impossible to tell how the scratches were caused.

The bench, after a short consultation, dismissed the charge, but the accused still stands committed on the Coroner’s warrant.”

Walsall Advertiser 1/9/1903

“Mr. S. S. Grundy Newman submitted a plan for alteration for making a better means of access to the smoke-room at the IRISH HARP, Long Street, the way at present being through the out-door department. Granted.”

Walsall Observer 16/1/1904

“The monthly meeting of the Walsall and District Licensed Victuallers’ and Beer Retailers’ Friendly and Protection Society was held on Thursday last at the house of Mr. Josiah Burgess, IRISH HARP, Long Street.....”

Josiah Burgess was from the STATION HOTEL, Pelsall.

Walsall Advertiser 6/2/1904

“The annual licensing sessions for the Borough of Walsall were held on Thursday at the Guildhall, and aroused considerable interest. The court was crowded, and many license-holders were unable to obtain admission.....

Notice had been given to 76 license holders to show cause for the renewal of their licenses, evidently as a result of the visits of a sub-committee of magistrates to the licensed premises, the reasons why cause had to be shown being various....

Josiah Burgess, IRISH HARP.”

Walsall Advertiser 20/2/1904

“The annual licensing meeting for the borough of Walsall was continued on Tuesday, and occupied the whole day.....

Mr. Plumptree (instructed by Messrs. Stanley and Jackson) was for the owners of the IRISH HARP, Long Street, the Lichfield Brewery Company, and the tenant Mr. J. Burgess. The police had been instructed by the magistrates to make a report. Chief Inspector Ballance, in reply to Mr. Loxton, said the house was a very good one and the yard well enclosed. He did not agree with the report of the visiting magistrates that supervision was impossible. Decision deferred.”

Walsall Advertiser 10/2/1906

“The monthly meeting of the meeting of the Walsall and District Licensed Victuallers’ and Beer Retailers’ Friendly and Protection Society was held on Thursday, at the house of Mr. Edwin James, RED LION INN, Navigation Street, Walsall.....
It was decided to hold the next monthly meeting of the Executive Committee at the house of Mr. Josiah Burgess, the IRISH HARP INN, Long Street, on Thursday, March 8th.”

Walsall Advertiser 14/4/1906

“The monthly meeting of the Walsall and District Licensed Victuallers’ and Beer Retailers’ Friendly and Protection Society was held on Thursday.....
New Members..... Mr. John Edward Moseley, IRISH HARP INN, Long Street.”

Walsall Advertiser 17/11/1906

“The monthly meeting of the Walsall and District Licensed Victuallers’ and Beer Retailers’ Friendly and Protection Society was held on Thursday week.....
New members..... Mr. John E. Moseley, IRISH HARP INN, Long Street.”

Walsall Advertiser 16/3/1907

“A smoking concert was held at the IRISH HARP HOTEL, Long Street, on Saturday last, for the benefit of Wm. Boulter, who has been unable to work for the last eighteen months. Councillor C. C. Walker acted as chairman. A letter of apology was read from Alderman Dean regretting his inability to attend. The Chairman, in a few remarks, said he was sorry that the Mayor was unable to be present, and he was proud to see a man like Mr. Dean in the high position he now holds, and he was sure nothing would have pleased the Mayor more than to have been amongst them that evening. The vice-chairman was Mr. John Boff. The programme included contributions from the following: Master Hardwick, Miss Walker, Messrs. I. Lord, J. Taylor, B. Newton, Len. Hall, F. Smith, Mat. Brown, and the Blakenall Heath Prize Quartet. Pianists, Messrs. Jennings and H. L. Chester. The proprietor, Mr. J. E. Moseley, moved a vote of thanks to the chairman for his presence. Mr. Sam Smith seconded.”

1911 Census

27, Long Street

- [1] John Edward Moseley (39), licensed victualler, born Bilston;
- [2] Edith Ellen Moseley (37), wife, married 15 years, born Bilston;
- [3] Edith Ellen Moseley (14), daughter, born Bloxwich;
- [4] Dorothy Irene Moseley (9), daughter, born Bloxwich;
- [5] Ernest Lovatt (29), servant, born Uttoxeter?;

Walsall Advertiser 27/12/1913

“The circumstances attending the death of George Thornhill (47), who lodged at 14, Upper Walhouse Street, and whose body was recovered from Park Lime Pits on Thursday morning of last week, was enquired into by Mr G. C. Lewis (County Coroner), at Rushall Police Court on Saturday.

George Thornhill, of the IRISH HARP, Long street, stated the deceased was his father, and he last saw him alive on the previous Saturday night. Witness had lost his mother twelve months ago, and his father had been worried for nearly a year through sickness. This had worried him very much, but witness had never heard him threaten to take his life.

Alfred Warwood said that he was a fellow-lodger with the deceased. They slept together, and when witness awoke at 5.30 on Tuesday morning he found Thornhill had disappeared. The deceased had complained of feeling ill on Monday, and he told witness he thought he had done wrong in coming off the ‘box.’ Witness added that he was very anxious to get back to work, and he worried over it very much.

Mark Booker, of 14, Upper Walhouse Street, gave evidence to the effect that deceased had lodged with him since June of this year. About 11 o’clock on Thursday morning he was taking a walk round Park Lime Pits when he observed two jackets lying on the bank near the water’s edge. He identified these as belonging to Thornhill, and he informed the police, who shortly afterwards recovered his body. Witness added that he had never heard the man threaten to take his life.

Inspector Needham: Why did you go round that way for a walk? – Booker: That is my usual walk.

Didn’t you tell me you expected to find him that way? – No, I never told you.

Did you not tell them at home you were going looking for him? – No.

Police-constable Reynolds deposed to recovering the body after dragging for an hour and a half. He added that there were no injuries or marks on the body.

The Coroner, in summing up, observed that people whose intention was to drown themselves invariably placed part of their clothes with a hat on top, on the bank. Why, goodness only knew. The deceased was undoubtedly worried very much through having lost his wife, and not being able to get work. He advised the jury not to say a man was insane because he drowned himself. The jury returned a verdict to the effect that Thornhill drowned himself, but there was not sufficient evidence to show the state of mind at the time.”

Walsall Advertiser 2/5/1914

“IRISH HARP Harmonic Club. The annual dinner in connection with this club took place at head-quarters, the IRISH HARP, Long Street, when 60 members and friend sat down to an excellent repast, supplied by the host (Mr. J. E. Moseley).....”

Walsall Observer 12/1/1918

“Walsall and District War Aid Committee. Collection By The Licensed Victuallers, December, 1917.....
IRISH HARP, Long Street. £0 13s 3d.”

Staffordshire Advertiser 22/8/1925

“A meeting of the Walsall and District Licensed Victuallers and Beer Retailers Friendly and Protection Society was held on the 13th inst at the house of Mr. Samuel Birch, OLD CROWN INN, New Invention.....
Mr. Ernest Harold Wilson, IRISH HARP INN, Long Street, elected member of the society.”

Ernest Harold Wilson – see also FOUR CROSSES.

1939 Register

27, Long Street

[1] Ernest Jackson, date of birth 26/10/1889, manager, full license house, married, ARP Service;

[2] Hilda V. Jackson, dob 2/11/1887, unpaid domestic duties, married:

Walsall Observer 7/12/1940

“Walsall Licensed Victuallers’ Society.

Motor Ambulance Effort on behalf of Walsall and District branch of the British Red Cross Society.

First List of Subscriptions.....

IRISH HARP INN, Long Street, £4 10s 0d.”

Walsall Observer 16/8/1941 - Notice

“Motor Ambulance Effort on behalf of Walsall and District Division of the British Red Cross Society.

Third List Of Subscriptions.....

IRISH HARP, Long Street (Second donation). £2 0s 0d.”

Walsall Observer 29/8/1942

“County Borough of Walsall. Mayor’s War Aid Fund. Nineteenth List of Subscriptions.....

Mr. Jackson, the IRISH HARP, Long Street. £0 12s 9d.”

Walsall Observer 24/12/1942

“Walsall Licensed Victuallers’ Society. The Duke of Gloucester’s Red Cross Fund. List of Subscriptions.....

IRISH HARP INN, Long Street. £2 0s 0d.”

Walsall Observer 15/1/1944

“Walsall Licensed Victuallers’ Society.

Appeal on Behalf of the Merchant Navy Fund, The Duke of Gloucester’s Red Cross Fund and the Aid to China Fund. List of Subscriptions.....

IRISH HARP INN, Long Street. £2 2s 9d.”

Walsall Observer 25/11/1944 - Notice

“Walsall Roller Canary Club.

New Headquarters: IRISH HARP HOTEL, Long Street, Walsall.

Host: E. Jackson, Esq.

Next Meeting, Sunday, December 3rd at 12 noon. Business: Annual Show.

All Fanciers Invited.

H. Mason - Secretary.”

George Ernest Holmes – see also BELL, Bloxwich, and FOUR HORSESHOES.

IVY HOUSE

Stafford Road, Newtown, BLOXWICH

OWNERS

Highgate Brewery

Mitchells and Butlers (acquired in 1939)

Union Pub Co. [2004]

LICENSEES

Edward Byatt Somerfield [1900]

Mrs. Alice Perry [1939] – [1940]

NOTES

Bells life in London and Sporting Chronicle 6/9/1846

“Fight between Mathew Beeby and Thomas Darby, for £10 a side.

The little mill between Mathew Beeby and Thomas Darby, two Walsall novices, for £10 a side, came off on Monday last, at the IVY HOUSE INN, near Bloxwich. Neither of the men, we understand, has appeared in a public ring before, but are well known in the Walsall locality for their frequent fistic broils, in which Darby had frequently displayed a fair show of science. Beeby being much larger made, and longer in the reach than Darby, was fully expected to come off triumphant, but the result proved that his younger and shorter antagonist was too strong and ‘downy’ for him. Beeby was seconded by Bill Sykes and Jack Holden (George Holden’s brother), and Darby was attended by Frazer Brown and Will Birch. The betting was even. The fight occupied 22 rounds. The battle was on the whole was a very good one, and lasted 48min. Darby, who is only nineteen years of age, and about five feet five inches in height, is certainly a good man for Beeby, although less in stature, and might, with care, turn out to advantage. Beeby towards the last did not like the work, or he might have punished his opponent severely several times while off his guard. He was very weak, having been thrown frequently with much force. The money was given up to Darby the same night at the DOG AND PARTRIDGE, Windmill Street, Walsall.”

Walsall Observer 29/7/1939

“More than fifty licensed premises in Walsall and neighbouring place become Mitchells and Butlers houses this week as a result of the well-known Cape Hill brewery company’s acquisition of the whole of the undertakings of the Highgate-Walsall Brewery Co. Ltd., and the Walsall Breweries Proprietary Ltd., and of all the licensed and certain un-licensed properties of Messrs. John Lord, brewers, of Short Acre.....

A list of the licensed premises that form part of the properties acquired by Mitchells and Butlers is as follows.....

Highgate houses.....

IVY HOUSE, Newtown, Bloxwich.”

1939 Register

Stafford Road

[1] Alice Perry, date of birth 25/2/1878, beerhouse keeper, widowed;

[2] Albert E. Motterham, dob 5/7/1869, currier, leather dresser, single:

IVY HOUSE

41, (25), Stafford Street, WALSALL

OWNERS

Mrs. R. Haynes

William Beech, 45, Stafford Street, Walsall

Mrs. Beech

Charles Bromhall, Lichfield

LICENSEES

William Beech [1858]

James Whittall [] – 1861)

William Cornelius Whittall [1862] – [1865]

Samuel White [1868] – [1870]

John Busst Jnr. [1871] – [1872];

Sampson Betteley [];

David Bird [];

Josiah Elton [1881] – [1882];

Kate Vann [] – 1897);
Gregory Harrison (1897 – 1907);

NOTES

41, Stafford Street [1861], [1871], [1891], [1901]
25, Stafford Street [1881]

It had a beerhouse license.

William Beech, beerhouse keeper, 41, Stafford Street. [1858]

1861 Census

41, Stafford Street – IVY HOUSE

- [1] James Whittall (27), beerhouse keeper, born Walsall;
- [2] Ann Whittall (28), wife, born Walsall;
- [3] Clara A. Whittall (2), daughter, born Walsall;
- [4] Lizzie Whittall (1), daughter, born Walsall;
- [5] Elizabeth Whittall (17), general servant, born Walsall;
- [6] Clara Whittall (19), general servant, born Walsall:

Walsall Free Press 30/11/1861

“Mr. Whittall, formerly keeper of the IVY HOUSE, Stafford Street, applied that the license of the FITTERS ARMS, Hatherton Street, should be transferred from William Reed, to him. The police gave the applicant a good character, and the transfer was granted.”

Walsall Free Press 4/1/1862

“Guildhall Police Court. Monday. The license of the FITTERS ARMS, Hatherton Street, was transferred from William Read to James Whittall. Some months ago a temporary permission to manage the FITTERS ARMS was granted by the magistrates to Mr. Whittall, and the transfer was formally made out on the present occasion. Mr. Whittall kept a beerhouse in Stafford Street for more than two years, and was well spoken of by the police.”

James Whittall – see also FITTERS ARMS and THREE CUPS.

James Whittall and William Cornelius Whittall were brothers.

Walsall Free Press 5/4/1862

“William Cornelius Whittall, landlord of the IVY HOUSE beerhouse, Stafford Street, was charged with having his house open after hours, on Monday last, for the sale of beer. From the evidence of Sergeant Mason it appeared that, about twenty minutes past twelve, he visited defendant’s house, and knocked, on his doing so some one inside asked who was there, and on his saying it was the police the party inside told him to wait; in about three or four minutes afterwards the landlord opened the door, and this officer in company with No.8, searched the house, but found no one in the house. On going into the yard they found one man in the privy, one in a corner, and a third walking up the garden. The landlord on being questioned admitted the men had been drinking in his house up to eleven o’clock. The Mayor said the case was a very suspicious one; but as there was a doubt they would dismiss the case.”

William Whittall, beer retailer and plater, 41, Stafford Street. [1864], [1865]

Samuel White, beer retailer, 41, Stafford Street. [1868], [1870]

1871 Census

41, Stafford Street

- [1] John Busst (26), black saddler, born Walsall;
- [2] Diannah Busst (22), wife, born Walsall;
- [3] Sarah Ann Busst (1), daughter, born Walsall;
- [4] Alice Horne (12), general servant, born Walsall:

John Busst, beer retailer, 41, Stafford Street. [1872]
See also CROWN, Lower Hall Lane.

1881 Census

25, Stafford Street

- [1] Josiah Elton (26), hairdresser, born Bloxwich;

[2] Emma Elton (28), wife, born Walsall:

Evening Star 31/5/1882

“Josiah Elton, keeper of the IVY HOUSE beerhouse, Stafford Street, was charged with assaulting his wife Emma, on Friday night. Mr. C. W. Williams (Messrs. Duignan and Co) appeared for the complainant, and Mr. Loxton for the defendant. The evidence showed that the parties had been on bad terms for some months, and had already been before the Bench under similar circumstances similar to these. On Friday night after they had retired to their bedroom the defendant quarrelled with his wife and struck her, the cause of the dispute being that she had been out that evening and that she had bought certain drugs of which he did not approve.
Fined 20s and costs or 14 days imprisonment.”

1891 Census

41, Stafford Street

[1] Gregory Harrison (40), widower, publican, born Walsall;

[2] Gregory Harrison (14), son, bit polisher, born Walsall;

[3] Sarah Ann Harrison (17), daughter, barmaid, born Walsall;

[4] Maud Harrison (12), daughter, scholar, born Walsall;

[5] Gertrude Harrison (10), daughter, scholar, born Walsall:

[According to the licensing registers GH did not acquire the license until 18th November 1897.]

Gregory Harrison, beer retailer, 41, Stafford Street. [1896], [1904]

Gregory Harrison was fined £5 and costs, on 4th January 1898, for permitting drunkenness.
See also VINE.

1901 Census

41, Stafford Street

[1] Gregory Harrison (50), widower, publican, born Runcorn, Cheshire;

[2] Gertrude Harrison (20), daughter, publican's assistant, born Walsall:

Walsall Advertiser 6/2/1904

“The annual licensing sessions for the Borough of Walsall were held on Thursday at the Guildhall, and aroused considerable interest. The court was crowded, and many license-holders were unable to obtain admission.....
Notice had been given to 76 license holders to show cause for the renewal of their licenses, evidently as a result of the visits of a sub-committee of magistrates to the licensed premises, the reasons why cause had to be shown being various....
Gregory Harrison, IVY HOUSE.”

Walsall Advertiser 13/2/1904

“The annual licensing meeting for the borough of Walsall was continued on Thursday.....

Mr. Harrison, of the IVY HOUSE, Stafford Street (for whom Mr. Jackson appeared), had objections on account of the condition of his house.

The case was put off to the adjourned licensing day, notices of objection to be served.”

Walsall Advertiser 17/9/1904

“On Tuesday afternoon, Mr. T. Howard Stanley (Borough Coroner) held an inquest at the ENGINE INN, Walsall, relative to the death of Gertrude Harrison, aged 23 years, single woman, lately residing at the IVY HOUSE, Stafford Street, who died on the previous Thursday.

It transpired that all arrangements had been made for the funeral when it was stopped for an inquiry to be held.

Sarah Ann Scott, wife of Frederick Scott, 61, Hospital Street, said the body was that of her sister. Her sister had been attending to the business of the IVY HOUSE (which was a beerhouse), owing to her father, Gregory Harrison, the licensee, having been ill in bed for eight months. Her sister had been in the worst of health for two years, and on the advice of Dr. Hawley, who said she was suffering from inward piles, witness took her to the Queen's Hospital, Birmingham, where she was treated. She paid five visits to the hospital and on September 1st witness made her take to her bed, and sent for Dr. P. A. Shore, who showed witness something, and witness did not believe him. She had never seen her sister in company with any young man, though her sister had joked, and said she had a young man, and intended to stick to him, as he was about the only young man she liked.

In reply to the coroner, witness said she did not know a woman named Mary Middlebrook.

Gregory Harrison, licensee of the IVY HOUSE, said he was not aware of any cause for his daughter's illness, witness directed that Dr. Shore should be called in because she was taken so much worse. He never saw her with a young man in his life, and had no idea of the condition the doctor suggested she was in.

Alice Jones, a married lady, also living in Stafford Street, said she had been on friendly terms with Miss Harrison. Witness asked her if she had a young man but she shrugged her shoulders and bounced off into the house, and made no answer. She said that if anything of the sort indicated happened she should poison herself.

Dr. P. A. Shore stated the condition in which he found the young woman. There was absolute proof of miscarriage, and he spoke to her about it. She was asked by him if she had been having medicine or drugs, or whether any instrument had been used, and she said she had used herbs, but beyond that he could not get her to say nothing. The doctor then described the result of a post-mortem-examination. He found extensive inflammation, and he also found an injury and two patches of ulceration. Replying to the Coroner, witness said that the injury which would be caused by the passage of an instrument or foreign body was inflicted before death. Death was due to blood-poisoning brought about by miscarriage. The post-mortem results showed that there had been a child.

Answering a juryman, Dr. Shore said it was possible the injuries might have been self-inflicted, but highly improbable. The jury returned a verdict of Death from Blood-poisoning, the result of an illegal operation. They also thanked the doctor for the way he gave his evidence, and expressed their sympathy with the relatives of the deceased.”

Walsall Advertiser 9/2/1907

“The general annual licensing sessions of the borough were held on Monday at the Guildhall.....

So also [referred to the Compensation Authority] was that as to the IVY HOUSE, Stafford Street, in the same area. Mr. Jackson represented the occupier, Geoffrey [?] Harrison, and pointed out that he had held the license 19 years without complaint; that he was subject to chronic rheumatism; but was just able to earn a living, with the aid of his daughter, whereas if he lost the license, being unable to work, there was nothing for him but the Workhouse.”

Walsall Advertiser 2/3/1907

“The adjourned annual licensing meeting for the borough was held on Wednesday at the Guildhall.....

The UNION INN, Bath Street, the IVY HOUSE, and the BARREL, Stafford Street, were referred to the Compensation Authority.”

Staffordshire Advertiser 18/5/1907

“The meeting of the Walsall Confirming Authority under the Licensing Act was held at the Guildhall on Wednesday. The houses recommended to the Compensation Authority were the UNION INN, Bath Street (for which Mr. Foster appeared), and the BARREL INN, Wolverhampton Street, the MINERS ARMS, High Street, and the IVY HOUSE, Stafford Street, for all of which Mr. Jackson appeared. The advocates objected to the reference in each case, but the magistrates confirmed the whole of the recommendations of the Licensing Authority.”

The license was extinguished.

JOLLY BACCHUS

11, New Street, WALSALL

OWNERS

Mrs. Elizabeth Greatrex, Lichfield Street, Walsall
Thomas Bates, victualler, Peel Street, Walsall
Edward Rose, pawnbroker
South Staffordshire Brewery Co. Ltd.
J. W. Brookes [1892], [1906]

LICENSEES

Samuel Barnett [1834]
William Cook [1841] – 1858);
John Mills (1858 – []
Thomas James [1860] – [1861]
Mrs. Ellen James [1871] – [1875];
Josiah Wedge [1880] – [1881];
Samuel Lynes [];
Arthur Bates [] – [1882];
Charles Tomkinson [1887] – 1890);
James Francis Aspinall (1890 – 1893);
Frank Dyoss (1893 – 1894);
Richard Parsons (1894 – 1895);
Edward Townsend [1895] ?
Benjamin Archibald Green (1895 – 1902);
James Scott (1902 – 1906);

NOTES

The stage coach from Birmingham stopped here.

William Cook = William Cooke

Wolverhampton Chronicle 13/7/1842 - Deaths

“On the 4th instant, at Walsall, Mr. Samuel Barnett, sen., formerly landlord of the JOLLY BACCHUS, New Street, in that borough, aged 64.”

Birmingham Journal 11/7/1846

“In inquest was held on Thursday afternoon last, at the JOLLY BACCHUS INN, New Street, Walsall, before William Cotterill, esq, Coroner, and a highly respected Jury, touching the death of a man named William Lovatt, of New Street, who was found suspended from a bar of the cellar window of his own house on the morning of Wednesday, the 8th instant. From the evidence of Mrs. Lovatt, wife of the unfortunate deceased, it appears that he rose about a quarter to five on the morning in question, for the purpose, she supposed, of going to his work, but on her going into the cellar about half an hour afterwards, she was horror-stricken at beholding him suspended as above described. She immediately cut him down, and sent for a surgeon (Dr. Burton) who was most promptly in attendance, but the unfortunate man had ceased to exist. It appears that the deceased had been for some days previous to his committing the fatal act in a very desponding state. He was 61 years of age, and has left no family. The Jury returned a verdict that the deceased Committed Suicide whilst in a state of Temporary Insanity.”

1851 Census

New Street

- [1] William Cook (60), victualer, born Ireland;
- [2] Mary Cook (55), wife, born Calfheath, Staffordshire;
- [3] Sarah Roberts (80), mother in law, widow, born Calfheath, Staffordshire;
- [4] Lucy Perry (23), niece, born Walsall;
- [5] Thomas Rollison (19), house servant:

Staffordshire Advertiser 28/2/1857 - Advert

“To Be Let, and may be entered upon immediately, the first-rate Old Licensed Public-House, the JOLLY BACCHUS, situate in New Street, Walsall, now doing a first-rate respectable business. The present proprietor, having realised a handsome independency, is retiring from business. The stock (which is low) and fixtures to be taken at a valuation, and the coming in will be about £200.

For particulars apply to John Osbourn, auctioneer, Dudley Street, Walsall.”

Birmingham Daily Post 23/8/1860

“The landlord of the JOLLY BACCHUS, New Street, Thomas James, was summoned before the sitting Magistrates, yesterday, for an assault on one Thomas Tonkinson, on Monday evening last. Complainant said, on the night in question, he was playing at cards in the defendant’s house, when after spending his money he asked for ‘credit,’ which defendant refused to give. Complainant then became violent and struck the landlord, who administered to defendant in return a severe blow in the eye. The Magistrates considered complainant had provoked the assault by his irritating language, and having given the first blow, they should dismiss the case.”

1861 Census

New Street

- [1] Thomas James (48), victualler, born Walsall;
- [2] Ellen James (32), wife, born Bednall, Staffordshire:

Walsall Free Press 6/6/1863

“John Tinegram was charged with assaulting Ann Jones. Complainant said she went into the JOLLY BACCHUS public house, New Street, on Wednesday last, and defendant called her foul names, and flung the contents of a glass in her face. Witnesses proved the facts, and defendant had to pay a fine of 1s and costs for his folly.”

1871 Census

11, New Street – JOLLY BACCHUS

- [1] Ellen James (42), widow, innkeeper, born Bednall, Staffordshire;
- [2] William T. James (8), son, scholar, born Walsall;
- [3] Alice Dean (13), niece, domestic servant, born Burntwood;
- [4] Ann Williams (17), niece, errand girl, born Hednesford:

Staffordshire Advertiser 28/8/1875

“Walsall Annual Licensing Business.....”

Ellen James, the JOLLY BACCHUS, New Street, was cautioned.”

The licensee was fined 40s and costs, on 12th June 1878, for Sunday trading.

Lichfield Mercury 17/9/1880

“The adjourned annual licensing session took place of Friday, at the Guildhall.....

Josiah Wedge, the JOLLY BACCHUS, New Street, whose license was withheld at the annual meeting, received it on promising that he would not again let any part of the premises for an exhibition of sparring such as had recently taken place there.”

1881 Census

11, New Street – JOLLY BACCHUS

- [1] Josiah Wedge (35), publican, born Walsall;
- [2] Priscilla Wedge (35), wife, born South Wales;
- [3] Ann Middleton (22), general servant, born Little Haywood:
[Little Haywood is about 5 miles E of Stafford.]

Arthur Bates was fined 20s and costs, on 8th December 1882, for Sunday trading.

Lichfield Mercury 14/10/1887

“On Monday, at the Guildhall, Charles Tomkinson, keeper of the JOLLY BACCHUS INN, New Street, was on the evidence of Police-constable Wilks, fined 20s and costs, for having, at mid-day on the 30th ult, supplied liquor to a drunken man; and W(illiam) Bird, 173, Sandwell Street, hamemaker, the man in question, was fined 2s 6d and costs for being found in a drunken state on the premises.”

1891 Census

11, New Street – JOLLY BACCHUS

- [1] James F. Aspinall (31), carriage hame forger, born Walsall;
- [2] Anne Aspinall (36), wife, born Walsall;
- [3] Winifred Aspinall (2), daughter, born Walsall;
- [4] Benjamin Aspinall (5 months), son, born Walsall;
- [5] Eliza Sly (19), domestic servant, born Walsall;
- [6] William Riley (39), visitor, chain maker, born Walsall:

Walsall Advertiser 3/9/1892

“The annual Licensing Sessions for the Borough of Walsall took place on Wednesday at the Guildhall.....

There were two applications on the list in the name of James Aspinall, of the JOLLY BACCHUS, New Street, by which he sought the removal of a license he at present holds at the JOLLY BACCHUS from that place to a new building to be constructed at the corner of Arundel Street and Cambridge Street.

Mr. Bill appeared in support of the application, which was opposed by Mr. Cotterell, on behalf of Mr. Stanley [the Gospel Temperance Union], and by the Chief-constable.

Mr. Bill having addressed the court and examined the applicant, The Mayor said that the magistrates were unanimous in refusing the application especially after hearing the last case [CROWN AND ANCHOR, West Bromwich Road].”

Walsall Observer 1/10/1892

“The adjourned licensing sessions for the borough of Walsall were held on Wednesday.....

Mr. Bill also applied on behalf of James Francis Aspinall for the removal of a license from the JOLLY BACCHUS, New Street, to land situate at the corner of Arundel Street and Cambridge Street, Palfrey, or premises to be erected at the corner of Windsor Street and Cambridge Street; in the alternative he applied for a provisional grant of a license to the last-named premises

Mr. J. N. Cotterell opposed for Mr. John Ricketts of the CROWN AND ANCHOR, West Bromwich Road; Mr. Gillespie, for Mr. Joseph Knight; and Mr. Checkley for Messrs. A. Stanley and J. Bunting.

Mr. Bill also made similar applications on behalf of J. W. Brooks, who, he explained, was the owner of the JOLLY BACCHUS, and of the land at Palfrey to which it was proposed to remove the license. Similar applications, he stated, were made at the annual licensing sessions, when Mr. Brooks intimated that he was willing to have the license removed from the JOLLY BACCHUS, in order that the number of licenses existing might not be increased. He was now prepared to sacrifice another license also, that of the THREE TUNS, Lower Rushall Street, so that the number of licenses in the town would actually be reduced. Mr. Bill laid great stress on the great growth of the Caldmore and Palfrey neighbourhoods, and the need of additional licensed accommodation. The applicants were sworn, and admitted in cross-examination that none of the residents in the locality supported the application. Subsequently Mr. Bill asked to be allowed to refer to the case, and said that Mr. Brooks was prepared to sacrifice not only the two full licenses named, but the license of an out-door as well.

Mr. Gillespie said this proved Mr. Brooks recognised he had no chance without throwing in this makeweight Refused.”

Frank Dyoss = Frank Dyars

Walsall Advertiser 30/11/1895

“The Chairman said the bench were pleased to hear that Edward Townsend, of the JOLLY BACCHUS, New Street, who was summoned for a similar offence [Sunday trading], had promised to close in future, and therefore the case would be withdrawn.”

Richard Parsons = Richard Parson

Walsall Advertiser 7/12/1895

“Richard Parsons, of the JOLLY BACCHUS INN, New Street, was charged with having been drunk on his licensed premises on Thursday week.

Police-sergeant Ballance stated that about 9.55pm on Tuesday, November 26th, he saw the defendant leave the HARE AND HOUNDS public-house in a drunken condition, and stagger up the Church Hill towards home. Witness subsequently visited his public-house and found him there.

In reply to Mr. Jackson, who defended Parsons, he denied that he had followed defendant home.

Police-constable Horton, corroborated, but at the conclusion of his evidence the Bench decided not to continue the case, and ordered the costs only to be paid.”

Walsall Advertiser 29/8/1896

“The annual general licensing sessions for the Borough of Walsall were held at the Guildhall yesterday.....

The return spoken of showed that the following had been proceeded against. Licensed Victuallers.....

Richard Parson, JOLLY BACCHUS, New Street, December 6th, 1895, drunk on his licensed premises, to pay costs.”

1901 Census

11, New Street

[1] Benjamin A. Green (44), beer retailer, born Walsall;

[2] Elizabeth Green (45), wife, born Longdon, Staffordshire;

[3] Mary J. Hickenbottom (13), domestic servant, born Cannock:

Walsall Advertiser 27/2/1904

“The annual licensing sessions were continued on Tuesday, for the fifth day.....

JOLLY BACCHUS. For the renewal of this license it was submitted by Mr. S. A. Grundy-Newman that the house was a very old one and conducted in a manner even above the average. The landlord had made it a point not only to supply his customers with drink but also with food. It was the only house as far as he knew in the town where Bass’s ale could be obtained on draught, and he thought that was a recommendation in itself.

Mr. J. W. Brooks (owner) gave evidence, and testimonials from the Revs. S. M. Jones and H. J. Johnson as to the manner in which business was carried on were read. Renewed.”

Walsall Advertiser 3/12/1904

“A puddler named John Hall (50), Gorton’s yard, was brought up on custody charged with stealing an overcoat, value 6s, the property of Ann Maria Westley, on November 26th.

Amy Turk said she carried on the business of a second-hand clothes dealer for her mother in Hall Lane. On Saturday she had a stall in the market, and at about a quarter to eight she missed an overcoat which she had seen safe an hour before. She at once reported her loss to the police, and subsequently identified the coat at the police station. Earlier in the evening prisoner had been examining some of the clothes at the stall.

Police-constable Thomas deposed to stopping prisoner on the Church Hill with the coat over his arm. He said that he had bought it in the market for his brother, and after obtaining his name and address he let him go. Subsequently after hearing that a coat had been stolen, he arrested the prisoner in the JOLLY BACCHUS, New Street, the coat being found at his home.

Hall was sent to prison for 21 days.”

The license renewal was referred to the Compensation Authority on 1st February 1906.

Walsall Advertiser 3/2/1906

“There was not nearly the intense public interest in the annual licensing meeting for the borough of Walsall on Thursday, at the Guildhall, as was the case during the past two or three years, for instead of the court room being densely crowded and a vast throng clamouring for admission in the entrance corridor and on the footpath outside, chiefly holders of licenses and others intimately connected with the trade, the court, though well filled, was evidently large enough to accommodate all who wished to attend.....

The Chief Constable had given notice of objection to the renewal of the following seven licenses; William Henry Lowe, ACORN, alehouse, Lower Rushall Street; James Scott, JOLLY BACCHUS, alehouse, New Street; George James Sambrook, KING WILLIAM, alehouse, Little Bloxwich; William Wright, OLD OAK, beerhouse, Upper Hall Lane; William Alfred Burton, STORES, beerhouse, Ablewell Street; George Carrington, STORES, beerhouse, Upper Rushall Street; John James Lawrence, STORES, beerhouse, High Street.

Mr. Loxton said these objections were by direction of the Bench, and he had also served notices on behalf of the magistrates, simply to comply with the section of the Act of Parliament, and without forming any opinion or prejudging cases. The justices directed him to state for the convenience of the advocates that the objections were mainly on the grounds of not required which would necessitate their being referred to the Compensatory Authority. But if during the hearing of the cases the grounds should be such as to justify the refusal of renewal on grounds without compensation, the advocate would be required to direct his attention to such grounds.

Mr. Pearman-Smith said he came there on the understanding that it was the intention to refer those licenses to the Compensatory Authority to report on.

Mr. Loxton said the magistrates had inspected a number of houses with a view to whether they should report to the Compensatory Authority. It might be that some houses were structurally unfit, and in such case they would refuse the license, and they would have to go the quarter sessions.....

The cases of the ACORN INN, JOLLY BACCHUS INN, and KING WILLIAM came on next for hearing. In cross-examination in respect of the JOLLY BACCHUS INN, Chief Inspector Ballance said that during the last seventeen or eighteen years at least thirteen houses had been closed in and about the neighbourhood in which this house was situated. The population had decreased in the locality, and houses pulled down, and Hill Street was practically empty. Mr. Newman who appeared for the owner of the JOLLY BACCHUS, Mr. Brookes, argued that this was the last house, from its management and history, its condition and situation that should be referred to the compensation authority. He laid emphasis on the fact that the magistrates attempted unsuccessfully to abolish the 'long pull,' but Mr. Brookes, who was the brewer, in deference to their worships, did abolish the 'long pull' at this particular house, although he lost money by it. It was not a tied house, and Bass in bottle and on draught could be obtained there.....

The JOLLY BACCHUS, KING WILLIAM; STORES, Upper Rushall Street; STORES, High Street, were referred to the compensation authority.”

It closed on 23rd February 1906.

It became a lodging house.

Walsall Observer 3/4/1943

“Mr. E. G. Franklin commenting on Mr. W. Meikle’s references in last week’s Observer to old Walsall inns, writes that he remembers the following public houses round about Church Hill: The BLACK BOY, FIELDGATE TAVERN, DUKE OF WELLINGTON, ROSE AND CROWN, JOLLY BACCHUS, BLUE PIG, PAUL PRY, MALT SHOVEL, PEEL AND NELSON, SHAKESPEARE, HARE AND HOUNDS, ROEBUCK, EXCHANGE, GREYHOUND, OLD ORIGINAL QUEENS HEAD, RING OF BELLS, PEAL OF BELLS, BARLEY MOW, LEATHERN BOTTLE, QUEENS HEAD. Of these only two remain.”

JOLLY COLLIER

George Street, WALSALL

OWNERS

LICENSEES

Sarah Darlington [1857]

NOTES

It had a beerhouse license.

Staffordshire Advertiser 10/10/1857

“The quarter sessions for this borough were held at the Guildhall, on Thursday.....

Charles Harrison and Joseph Smith were charged with uttering two counterfeit half-crowns to Sarah Darlington, of the JOLLY COLLIER beerhouse, George Street, one on the 5th and the other on the 7th September last. Harrison was found guilty and sentenced to six months’ imprisonment; Smith was acquitted.”

JOLLY COLLIER

Lichfield Road / Coppice Side, Pelsall, WALSALL

OWNERS

Mitchells and Butlers Ltd.

LICENSEES

NOTES

It was situated near JOLLY COLLIER Bridge on the Wyrley and Essington Canal.

[1981]

JOLLY COLLIER

Park Street, WALSALL

OWNERS

LICENSEES

Timothy Smith [1835]

JOLLY GARDENERS

(Lower) Rushall Street, (Dudley Street), WALSALL

OWNERS

LICENSEES

John Unitt [1818]

Joseph Holden [1822] – [1830]

NOTES

Dudley Street [1822], [1829]

JOLLY GARDENER [1818]

Staffordshire Advertiser 21/11/1829

“A man who states his name to be Joseph Cox, and that he comes from Solihull, in Warwickshire, was on Friday, 12th inst, apprehended in Walsall, on the charge of stealing a brown paper parcel containing a small quantity of rottenstone, from the shop of Mr. Yates, druggist in the borough. The prisoner had been into several shops on some trifling excuse, which caused a suspicion that his intentions were not good, and he was watched into the shop of Mr. Yates, no person being at the time therein; on coming out he was followed by a neighbour to the sign of the JOLLY GARDENERS, in Dudley Street, where he was taken into custody, and a woman in his company had the parcel in question in her possession, but she was not then apprehended. It is expected that other charges will be preferred against the prisoner.”

JUNCTION

94, (93), Bridgeman Street, WALSALL

OWNERS

John Boys, Pleck Road, Walsall
Thomas Russell, brewers, Wolverhampton [1881]
William Marsden (until 1906)
Frank Bullock (acquired 1906 for £200)
Thomas Russell Ltd., Great Western Brewery, Wolverhampton [1925]
William Butler and Co. Ltd. (acquired 1932)

LICENSEES

John Boys* [1841] – [1842]
John Boys Jnr.* [1845] – [1858]
F James [1858]
John Boys Jnr.* [1860] – [1865]
Thomas Boys [1868] – [1870]
Henry Kittridge [1872]
Herbert Preston [1872];
Samuel Poulton [1873];
Benjamin Astbury [];
Samuel Hutchinson [1881] – 1889);
Enoch Marston (1889 – 1902);
Annie Marston (1902);
William Marston (1902 – 1906);
Frank Bullock (1906 – 1923);
George Frederick Sunter (1923 – 1925);
Herbert George Swindells (1925 – 1930);
Benjamin Brookes (1930 – 1935);
Bernard Joseph Hordense (?) (1935 – 1936):

NOTES

93, Bridgeman Street [1862], [1864], [1865], [1868], [1870], [1891]
94, Bridgeman Street [1896], [1904], [1908], [1912], [1932]
94+93, Bridgeman Street [1901]

JUNCTION TAVERN [1841], [1842]

* possibly the same person

Wolverhampton Chronicle 8/9/1841

“The general annual licensing meeting for the borough of Walsall was held at the Guildhall on Wednesday. The magistrates present were John Whitgreave, Esq, R. James, Esq, C. F. Cotterill Esq, and C. Greatrex, Esq. Several applications were made for new licenses, but only two were granted, one to John Boys, at the JUNCTION INN, Bridgeman Street, and the other to a person named Amos, at Bloxwich.”

John Boys Jnr. was also a wheelwright. [1845]

John Boys junior was a contractor of the Birmingham Canal. [1850]

Wolverhampton Chronicle 12/10/1853 - Advert

“I Hereby give notice that William Paine has no authority to Receive Any Money On My Account from this date.
John Boys, jun., Bridgeman Street. Walsall. Ocotober 12, 1853.”

Walsall Free Press 19/12/1857

“Two men named Richards and Harper were charged upon the sheet with having misconducted themselves by using indecent language in a railway carriage on the previous Monday. The offence was proved by Mr. John Boys, of Bridgeman Street, and supported on behalf of the Railway Company by Mr. Neele, the company’s principal agent. Both prisoners were mulcted in a penalty of 40s and costs, and in default one month’s imprisonment each.”

John Boys junior, contractor for the South Staffordshire Water Works, Walsall and Lichfield Reservoirs, in 1858.

Walsall Free Press 30/10/1858

“Opening Of The South Staffordshire Waterworks.

The inauguration of those works took place on Tuesday last; but so far as Walsall was concerned, the ceremonies were of a very tame description, and consisted of the Directors and their friends, among whom were Lord Ward, Lord Hatherton, the Bishop of the diocese, the Mayor of the borough, and a number of gentlemen residing in or connected with the locality, walking in procession from the Railway Station round the Reservoir and back to the station, from which they took their departure by special train for Lichfield, where the grand inaugural services took place. Much disappointment was experienced by the assembled multitude, who had congregated on the margin of the Reservoir here, expecting to witness some kind of ceremony, such as turning on the water by some of the noblemen present; but the procession – in front of which was carried, by white smocked navvies, four of the poorest – to say the least – apologies for flags we have ever seen – scarcely ever halted till it got back to the main road. Such was the belief that there would be some kind of ceremony, that many of the spectators lingered on the margins of the Reservoir after the procession had begun to descend, expecting they would speedily return and finish what it was thought they had just commenced.

A grand inaugural fete was got up by Mr. John Boys, jun., contractor for the work, and landlord of the JUNCTION INN, Bridgeman Street, on a piece of vacant ground behind his residence. Immediately after the inspection of the Reservoir by the Directors, a number of balloons ascended from the pleasure ground, whither the Directors repaired on their way from the Reservoir to the Railway Station, and inspected the preparations made by Mr. Boys for the accommodation and entertainment of the workmen and others connected with the works, and who were admitted at a nominal charge. After the blessing had been pronounced by the Bishop of Lichfield, the navvies who had been engaged in the excavation and other works sat down to a substantial repast. After dinner the company were entertained with a variety of amusements, and in the evening there was grand display of fireworks, which were equal, if not superior, to anything of the kind witnessed in this locality for some time past. The whole affair was wound up by a ball, at which dancing was kept up till late. The arrangements of the fete were under the superintendence of Mr. Nichols, Director of the first Aston Hall, Dudley Castle, and other popular fetes; and we have heard upon good authority that another Fete upon a more extensive scale will come off on the evening of Friday next.”

Birmingham Daily Post 5/11/1858 - Advert

“Opening Of The South Staffordshire Water Works.

Mr. John Boys, Contractor, has great pleasure (in compliance with the numerously expressed requests of several of the most influential and respectable Residents in the town and neighbourhood) in announcing a Grand Gala and Pyrotechnic Fete, upon the spacious Grounds adjoining to and at the back of the JUNCTION INN, Bridgeman Street, Walsall.

This day, (Friday,) November the 5th, Being the anniversary of the Battle of Inkerman, which event it had now happily been customary to celebrate on this day by all desirous of obliterating and eradicating useless National and Sectarian prejudices which the annual recurrence of the Gun Powder Plot was wont to generate, foster and uphold.....

Birmingham Daily Post 30/3/1859

“An inquest was held before Mr. Fletcher, on Monday afternoon, at the JUNCTION INN, Walsall, on the body of John Hayward, who was found on Friday night dead in the canal, near Bridgeman Street. The circumstances as already stated in the Daily Post having been given in evidence, the Jury returned a verdict of Found Drowned.”

John Boys was also a timber merchant. [1860], [1861], [1864], [1865]

1861 Census

Bridgeman Street – JUNCTION INN

- [1] John Boys (49), timber merchant and publican, born Walsall;
- [2] Isabella Boys (50), wife, born Walsall;
- [3] Thomas Boys (25), son, engineer, born Walsall;
- [4] Mary Boys (23), daughter, born Walsall;
- [5] William Boys (21), son, clerk to his father, born Walsall;
- [6] Jane Boys (18), daughter, born Walsall;
- [7] Henry Boys (15), son, scholar, born Walsall;
- [8] Isabella Boys (14), daughter, born Walsall;
- [9] Arthur S. Boys (9), son, scholar, born Walsall;
- [10] Emma Boys (7), daughter, scholar, born Walsall;
- [11] John Atkins (30), general labourer, birthplace not known;
- [12] Youth(?) James (54), servant, labourer, born Sutton, Warwickshire:

Birmingham Daily Gazette 15/9/1863

“On Sunday afternoon, as two boys, named James Henry Jest, aged six years, and Henry Cowley, aged four years, were playing by the side of the canal near to the JUNCTION INN, Bridgeman Street, Jest dropped an apple into the canal, and in his endeavour to recover it fell in and was drowned. The body was recovered about six o’clock the same evening, and was conveyed to the residence of his father, James Jest, shoemaker, Bridgeman Street, where an inquest will be held upon it this day (Tuesday).”

Walsall Free Press 8/7/1865

“Yesterday afternoon, A. A. Fletcher, Esq, the borough coroner, held an inquest at the JUNCTION INN, Bridgeman Street, upon the body of John Hayes, aged 19, striker, who, between eight and nine o'clock yesterday morning, was drowned while bathing in the canal. Deceased was seen by some boys, who, on perceiving him sink, gave the alarm, and the body was recovered by a man, named Bird; but as three-quarters of an hour had elapsed before the body was recovered, life was quite extinct. The Jury returned a verdict of Accidentally Drowned."

Walsall Free Press 29/7/1865

"John Boys, JUNCTION INN, Bridgeman Street, was charged with having had his house open during prohibited hours on the 16th inst. Mrs. Boys admitted the charge, and said she and her husband had gone from home and left two little girls in charge of the house, who supplied one of their workmen with a pint of porter. The Bench ordered the defendant to pay a fine of 1s and costs."

Thomas Boys was also a contractor and timber merchant. [1868], [1870]

1871 Census

93, Bridgeman Street

- [1] John Boys (60), timber merchant, born Walsall;
- [2] Isabella Boys (60), wife, born Walsall;
- [3] Thomas Boys (35), son, born Walsall;
- [4] Isabella Boys (22), daughter, born Walsall;
- [5] Emma Boys (17), daughter, born Walsall;
- [6] Martha Boys (12), daughter, scholar, born Walsall;
- [7] Mary Salt (15), domestic servant, born Walsall;
- [8] Arthur Neal (19), boarder, waggoner, born Whittington, Staffordshire;
- [9] Edward Evans (30), boarder, waggoner, born Walsall:

Walsall Free Press 26/7/1873

"On Thursday last A. A. Fletcher, Esq, coroner for the borough, held an inquest at the JUNCTION INN, Bridgeman Street, upon the body of Joseph Frederick Deakin, aged 13 years, whose mother and stepfather reside in Day Street. From the evidence it appeared that on Tuesday afternoon deceased, while bathing in the canal near Bridgeman Street, was seized with cramp, and called for assistance, but before he could be reached he sank, and an hour and a half elapsed before the body was recovered. The jury returned a verdict of Accidentally Drowned."

1881 Census

Bridgeman Street – JUNCTION INN

- [1] Samuel Hutchinson (50), licensed victualler, born Whittick, Leicestershire;
- [2] Mary Hutchinson (47), wife, born Wednesbury;
- [3] Samuel Mallett (8), nephew, scholar, born Bolsover, Derbyshire;
- [4] Mary Jane Mallett (16), niece, domestic servant, born Wednesbury:

Birmingham Daily Post 10/4/1888

"Samuel Hutchinson, the JUNCTION INN, Bridgeman Street, was fined 5s and costs, for keeping his house open during prohibited hours on the 3rd inst."

1891 Census

93, Bridgeman Street – JUNCTION INN

- [1] Enoch Marston (52), publican, born Willenhall;
- [2] Ann Marston (53), wife, born Birmingham;
- [3] William Marston (17), son, tailor, born Walsall;
- [4] Annie Marston (13), daughter, tailoress, born Walsall;
- [5] Kate Marston (12), daughter, scholar, born Walsall;
- [6] Jenny Morris (26), daughter, born Walsall;
- [7] George Morris (28), son in law, currier, born Walsall:

Walsall Advertiser 17/6/1893

"A meeting will be held on Monday evening at the JUNCTION INN, Bridgeman Street, to take steps to form a branch of that part of Pleck Ward. Conservatives wishful to join the League should make a point of attending this meeting."

Walsall Advertiser 27/2/1897

"The monthly meeting of the Walsall and District Licensed Victuallers' and Beer Retailers' Friendly and Protection Society was held on Thursday at the house of Mr. Enoch Marston, JUNCTION INN, Bridgeman Street....."

Walsall Advertiser 30/3/1901

"A meeting of the Walsall and District Licensed Victuallers' and Beer Retailers' Friendly and Protection Society was held on Thursday week at the house of Mr. Enoch Marston, JUNCTION INN, Bridgeman Street....."

1901 Census

94+93, Bridgeman Street

- [1] Enoch Marston (62), publican, born Willenhall;
- [2] Ann Marston (64), wife, born Birmingham;
- [3] Annie Marston (24), daughter, born Walsall;
- [4] Kate Marston (21), daughter, born Walsall;
- [5] Willie Morris (8), grandson, born Walsall:

Enoch Marston was a committee member of Walsall and District Licensed Victuallers' Association. [1902]
He issued tokens from here.

London Gazette 4/7/1902

“Re Enoch Marston.

Notice is hereby given, that all creditors and other persons having any claims or demands against the estate of Enoch Marston, late of the JUNCTION INN, Bridgeman Street, Walsall, in the county of Stafford (who died on the 27th day of April, 1902, and whose will was proved in the Principal Probate Registry of His Majesty's High Court of Justice, on the 11th day of June, 1902, by Jennie Morris and Albert Minors, the executors as therein named), are required to send particulars, in writing, of their claims and demands to us, the undersigned, the Solicitors to the said executors, on or before the 11th day of August, 1902, after which date the said executors will proceed to distribute the assets of the deceased amongst the persons entitled thereto, having regard only to the claims of which they shall then have had notice; and that they will not be liable for the assets, or any part thereof, so distributed, to any person or persons of whose claim or demand they shall not then have had notice.

Dated this 5th day of July, 1902.

Stanley and Jackson, 35, Bridge Street, Walsall, Solicitors to the Executors.”

William Marston = William Marsden

Walsall Advertiser 11/10/1902

“The monthly meeting of the Walsall and District Licensed Victuallers' and Beer Retailers' Friendly and Protection Society was held on Thursday.....

Mr. Wm. Marston, JUNCTION INN, Bridgeman Street, was elected a member of the society.”

Walsall Advertiser 19/8/1905

“The 53rd annual general meeting of the members of the Walsall and District Licensed Victuallers' and Beer Retailers' Friendly and Protection Society, was held on Thursday last at the house of Mr. William Marston, JUNCTION INN, Bridgeman Street.....”

Staffordshire Advertiser 10/9/1910

“Two Pleck Boys, aged 13 and 11, were charged with stealing or receiving a bicycle, value £2 15s, the property of Arthur Adams, Tantarra Street, on Sunday. Prosecutor deposed to missing the bicycle from an opening in Digbeth where had had left it for a few minutes. When he saw it again the bell had been removed. Frank Bullock, landlord of the JUNCTION INN, Bridgeman Street, deposed to seeing one of the lads ride quickly into his yard and leave the bicycle there. The lad was caught and given into custody, and he then admitted that together with the other boy he stole the machine. Chief Inspector Ballance said there were other charges against the boy who rode the bicycle, and it was the fourth he had stolen. The Magistrates ordered him to be sent to an industrial school until he is 16, the other boy being put on his good behaviour for twelve months.”

1911 Census

Bridgeman Street – JUNCTION INN

- [1] Frank Bullock (35), licensed victualler, born Walsall;
- [2] Annie Bullock (32), wife, married 8 years, born Walsall;
- [3] Annie Bullock (3), daughter, born Walsall;
- [4] Frank Bullock (4), son, born Walsall;
- [5] Arthur Edes (24), barman, born Wednesbury;
- [6] Harriet Emery (34), servant, born Wednesbury:

Walsall Advertiser 27/12/1913

“The annual meeting in connection with the JUNCTION INN Sick and Dividend Society, Bridgeman Street, was held on Monday, Mr. A. Middlebrook (Chairman) presiding.

A dividend of 12/- and two nights on card was declared, and a balance of £4 10s 2d was carried forward to next year. The membership numbered 54.”

Walsall Observer 16/12/1916

“The fund raised at the JUNCTION INN, Bridgeman Street, to provide smokes, &c, for soldiers and sailors has amounted to the highly satisfactory total of £46 10s. Of this £25 10s was spent in purchasing 17,000 cigarettes; while 80 Christmas cards and postal orders for 5s each absorbed the balance of £21.”

Walsall Observer 12/1/1918

“Walsall and District War Aid Committee. Collection By The Licensed Victuallers, December, 1917.....
JUNCTION INN, Bridgeman Street. £1 1s 0d.”

George Frederick Sunter was fined 20s and costs, on 25th April 1925, for aiding and abetting Frederick Victor Brown to consume intoxicating liquor other than during permitted hours.
See also FOUNTAIN, Long Street.

‘Walsall Pubs: A History’ by John Cockayne

“The JUNCTION had a full alehouse license and there was stabling for 6 horses ‘an old property in good repair except the attics and stables.’ The Bar was 25’8” x 11’5” x 8’7” a large and small Smoke Room, outdoor and Club room on the second floor, a sizeable property with 3 bedrooms and 4 attics.”

Staffordshire Advertiser 20/7/1927

“At Walsall Adjourned Licensing Sessions on Tuesday, an application was made by Herbert G. Swindells, landlord of the JUNCTION INN, Bridgeman Street, for a music and singing license for wireless in the smokeroom, from 7 to 10pm every week-day. Mr. S. B. Wheway, chairman, said that wireless and other matters were receiving the attention of the authorities. A meeting had been held in Birmingham, and another would be held in October probably with a view of getting uniformity in the Midland area. The application would, therefore, be adjourned until after the meeting.”

Staffordshire Advertiser 15/2/1936

“Walsall Licensing sessions were held at the Guildhall on Tuesday.....
The removal of the license of the JUNCTION INN, Bridgman Street to the COACHMAKERS ARMS, Bridgman Street, was sanctioned. Mr. F. Cooper, who made the application, said the net result would be that one licensed house would be closed without compensation being paid.”

It closed on 19th May 1936.

The license was transferred to the new COACHMAKERS ARMS.

JUSTICE STORES

Victor Street, WALSALL

OWNERS

LICENSEES

Annie Holmes [] – 1911);
William Price (1911 – []

KING ARTHUR

Liskeard Road, Park Hall, WALSALL

OWNERS

Courage Ltd.
Kam Chohan [2023]

LICENSEES

Nigel Cumberbatch [1991] – 2015) 27 years

NOTES

A provisional license was granted in 1968.
It was confirmed in 1970.

Sandwell Evening Mail 30/9/1991

“A charity soccer match between stars from the past at Walsall’s Bescot Stadium raised about £2,500. The clash between former Walsall players and the KING ARTHUR All-stars ended 3-3 yesterday. Nigel Cumberbatch, licensee of the KING ARTHUR pub, Park Hall, Walsall, who organized and played in the match, said the cash would go to the Three Crowns Special School at Walsall.”

Express & Star 16/3/2023

“The owner of a pub in Walsall has donated £500 to charity after being gifted a signed football shirt by the mayor. The piece of kit features the signatures of the 2022/2023 West Bromwich Albion team. And it was gifted to the KING ARTHUR SPORTS BAR AND GRILL by The Mayor of Walsall, Councillor Rose Martin, with the owner deciding to donate the sum to her chosen charities as a thank you. The councillor, who previously served for the Paddock ward where the pub is located, said, ‘The KING ARTHUR is a very good local pub and is very popular with the residents and the West Bromwich Albion fans. It is very much at the heart of the community – I used to be a councillor there for many years so it was a natural place to put the shirt. I would like to thank the owner for his kind contribution towards Walsall charities.’

The donated sum will provide support for several charities, including Well Wishers which supports the work of Walsall Healthcare NHS Trust, Community First Responders who attend emergency calls in the area and the Walsall Community Network who support the wellbeing of residents. Kam Chohan, who is the owner of the Liskeard Road venue, added, ‘It’s a community pub, we have been there for about seven years now, all the locals use it for watching sporting events including West Bromwich Albion – it’s a nice, pleasant crowd. We’ve got other shirts there, I have one of Ronaldo and Messi that we bought at an action and this one will go right next to another Albion one. It’s an Albion pub, although we do get a lot of Aston Villa supporters as well, but the Albion fans will appreciate it. Mayor Rose does a lot of charity work and she is a regular at the pub, we are going to host a dinner evening with the mayor so we do tie-in work with her if we can, so whatever we can do to help we would love to do that and support charities in the community anyway we can.’”

[2023]

KING EDWARD

7, (7a), (7½), (6), (5), Ablewell Street, WALSALL

OWNERS

Benjamin Urwick, St. Pauls Close, Walsall and Henry Howard Fletcher, Hagley Road, Edgbaston

James Duppa Fletcher

James and Cyril Fletcher

H. Fletcher and Sons, Ablewell Street, Walsall [1899]

Arthur William Greatrex

William Butler and Co. Ltd. [1915]

Twist’s Brewery Ltd. (acquired on 8th June 1936)

Mitchells and Butlers Ltd. (acquired on 1st October 1959)

LICENSEES

Howard Fletcher and Son [1872];

Joseph Clarke [1881] (?)

James Duppa Fletcher [] – 1890);

Mrs. Martha Mills (1890 – 1900);

Edward Reginald Barrett (1900 – 1902);

James D Fletcher (1902 – []

John William Cox (1902 – 1909); manager

Mrs. Letitia Cox (1909 – 1912);

Archibald James Bromwich (1912 – 1915);

George Garratly (1915 – 1916);

Edith Eleanor Garratly (1916 – 1918);

George Garratly (1918 – 1923);

Thomas Samuel Smith (1923);
Frank Henry Godsell (1923 – 1924);
George John Watson (1924 – 1925);
Henry Curson (1925 – 1927);
Charles Joseph Tyler (1927 – 1928);
Ethel Eliza ‘Dot’ Stevens (1928 – 1930);
Leonard George Hastings (1930);
Thomas Osborne Ayre (1930 – 1936);
Thomas Beecham Broome (1936);
William James Waldron (1936 – 1937);
John Alfred Roberts (1937 – 1938);
Thomas Alfred Malpass (1938 – 1939);
Bernard John Ruddell (1939 – 1949);
Howard Edward Jackson (1949 – 1950);
Norman Nichols (1950 – 1951);
Frank Thomas Lacey (1951 – 1952);
William Samuel Richards (1952 – 1953);
William Chilton (1953 – 1954);
William Walter Hems (1954 – 1955);
Leonard Delves (1955 – 1956);
George Whitehouse (1956);
James Daniel Galbreath (1956 – 1958);
John Henry Davies (1958);
Norman Frederick Eley (1958 – 1960);
Samuel Roberts (1960);
Reginald Thomas Paget (1960 – 1961);
Raymond Richard Malthouse (1961 – 1963):

NOTES

6, Ablewell Street [1881]
7½, Ablewell Street [1903]
7, Ablewell Street [1901], [1939], [1940]
7a, Ablewell Street [1904], [1908], [1912], [1916], [1932]

It was formerly an unnamed alehouse.

1881 Census

6, Ablewell Street – Wine and Spirit Vaults
[1] Joseph Clarke (45), Wine Cellarman, born Claverley, Shropshire;
[2] Catherine Clarke (44), manages Vaults, born Wednesbury;
[3] Sarah Clarke (15), daughter, assists in Vaults, born Walsall;
[4] Joseph Clarke (11), son, scholar, born Walsall;
[5] John Clarke (5), son, scholar, born Walsall;
[6] Arthur Clarke (2), son, born Walsall;
[7] Howard Clarke (10 months), son, born Walsall;
[8] Georgina Brown (18), general servant, born Worcestershire:

1891 Census

5, Ablewell Street
[1] Martha Mills (61), widow, manageress of public house, born Walsall;
[2] Mary Jane Moss (33), niece, born Walsall;
[3] John Moss (40), husband of niece, moulder, born Walsall;
[4] Harry Moss (3), son, born Walsall;
[5] John A. Bowater (18), nephew, butcher, born Walsall;
[6] Mary Newman (24), servant, born Staffordshire:

Mrs. Martha Mills, wine and spirit vaults, 6, Ablewell Street. [1896]

Walsall Advertiser 2/9/1899

“The annual licensing sessions for this borough were held at the Guildhall on Wednesday.....

Mr. W. Walford (Messrs. Wilkinson, Mills, and Walford) made application on behalf of Martha Mills to remove a license from 6, Ablewell Street, to premises about to be erected at 7½ Ablewell Street.

The Chief Constable had no objection to the suggestion, but Mr. T. Harrison Evans opposed on behalf of the trustees and leaders of the Wesley Church, Ablewell Street, and Mr. C. A. Rutheroe for Mr. Stanley and the Temperance Federation.

Mr. Walford said that Messrs. Fletcher, the owners, had found it necessary to rebuild. They had been advised by their architect that the present buildings were not safe, in fact they had already had to stay them up. While they were rebuilding they wished to remove the license to the next house, which was really to give better living accommodation to the occupier of the present public-house. They would spend something like £1,000. He presented the plans of the suggested alterations, and said that whereas in the old public-house they had three entrances in Ablewell Street, they only now asked for one. The increase in area was in the living part of the house. As regarded the opposition, it was simply by Mr. Harrison Evans on behalf of the chapel in Ablewell Street; but the schools were nearer than the chapel, and they were 27 yards away. It would make practically no difference whatever to the chapel if the license was moved from the present building.

Mr. Fletcher gave evidence; and John S. Jarvis proved the measurements of the plans to be correct.

Mr. Evans, in opposing, said that the house to which it was proposed to transfer the license adjoined the schools, and they could easily tell how objectionable it would be to those attending the school and chapel to smell the fumes of ale and beer (laughter). He could not remember a single instance of a similar application having been granted in that Court; and he further remarked that the leaders and trustees of the church were most desirous that the application should not be granted, and they believed it would not be for the moral progress of either the children or the members of the society if the application was granted.

Mr. Rutheroe said that, although it seemed somewhat ungracious to oppose an application of that kind, he would suggest that, in view of a reduction in the number of licensed houses being an imperative necessity, as stated by the Licensing Commission, that the magistrates would not see their way to grant any increase in facilities for further drinking accommodation. Under such circumstances he thought it a very fair time for the magistrates to say, we will reduce that number by one, by refusing the application now before us; and it would save the proprietors from spending £1,000.

Mr. Walford pointed out that they were not asking for a new license, and that if the license was refused it would not reduce the number by one. The license in this case had already been granted, and they were simply asking to remove the license to new premises.

Application granted.”

[The Final Order was granted on 14th November 1900.]

Martha Mills – see also WATERING TROUGH.

1901 Census

7, Ablewell Street

[1] Edward R. Barrett (47), widower, licensed victualler, born Plymouth;

[2] Beatrice Barrett (20), daughter, born Plymouth;

[3] Benjamin Barrett (72), father, widower, born Liskeard, Cornwall;

[4] Annie Biggins (56), housekeeper, born Gloucester:

Walsall Advertiser 27/4/1901

“The Allegro Musical Society.

The closing meeting for this season was held on Thursday evening at the KING EDWARD, Ablewell Street. There was a splendid gathering of members and friends under the genial presidency of Mr. W. Somerfield. The following programme was capitally rendered: Pianoforte solo, ‘The Norwegian Bridal Procession,’ Mr. V. Mold; ‘Yes, let me like a soldier fall,’ Mr. Parkes; ‘The Flight of Ages,’ Mr. Leeming; song, ‘A Soldiers Song,’ Mr. J. Pearsall; banjo solo, ‘Gaiety Schottische,’ Mr. Dines; song, ‘Ailsa Mine,’ (encored), Mr. J. Lister; cornet solo, ‘Watch on the Rhine,’ (encored), Mr. W. Robinson; song, ‘The Windmill,’ Mr. J. Pearsall; song, ‘Alice, where art thou,’ Mr. Ellis; flute solo, Mr. F. Smith; song, ‘Maid of Matabar,’ Mr. J. Lister; song, ‘Come into the garden Maud,’ Mr. Aldridge; ‘The King,’ solo by Mr. F. Lester.”

[This society held regular meetings here for several years.]

Walsall Advertiser 15/2/1902

“Mr. Walford (Wilkinson, Mills, and Walford) applied for a temporary authority in respect of the KING EDWARD INN, Ablewell Street, from Edward R. Barrett to James D. Fletcher. There was no objection and this was granted.”

The KING EDWARD was built in 1903.

Walsall Advertiser 29/9/1906

“There was a coming of age celebration on Friday at the KING EDWARD, Ablewell Street, in honour of Mr. A. Mason, when some fifty employees of Messrs. A. Russell and Co, Bedford Works, were present. Mr. J. Ashwell occupied the chair, and proposed the toast of the evening, also that of the firm of Messrs. Russell and Co; and Mr. Mason senior made an able speech on behalf of his son. A most enjoyable programme of music was contributed by Mr. Aldridge and Messrs. R. Maddox, A. Mason, J. Ashwell, Bayliss, W. Aldridge, Wolverson, Grant, G. Lowbridge, G. Riley, Jemmy, &c.”

Walsall Advertiser 1/5/1909

“The transfer sessions were held.....

KING EDWARD, Ablewell Street, from Letitia Cox (administratrix of John William Cox) to Letitia Cox.”

Walsall Advertiser 17/7/1909

“Walsall Terriers Social Club.

An enjoyable evening was spent at the head quarters of the above club, the KING EDWARD, Ablewell Street, on Wednesday evening, the occasion being a special visit of Mr. Arthur Cotton and his troupe of pierrots, who provided the following excellent programme: Pianoforte solo, Mr. Morris; song, ‘L.S.D.,’ Mr. Tom Watkiss, and ‘Reliability’; song, ‘German Girl,’ and ‘Fatherland,’ Mr. Harry Mann; comic song, ‘I shall sleep well, to-night,’ ‘The 11.69 Express,’ and ‘No, no, no,’ Mr. Arthur Cotton. The Chairman (Colour-Sergeant F. S. Rigby), in proposing a vote of thanks to the artistes, said how pleased he was to be present, and remarked that he hoped this would not be the last occasion the members of this club would have an opportunity of hearing the same artistes again. Mr. Cotton briefly responded on behalf of the artistes, and the singing of ‘The King,’ by Sergeant Aldridge brought the evening to a close.”

1911 Census

Ablewell Street – KING EDWARD

[1] Letitia Cox (57), widow, manageress, public house, born Birmingham;

[2] Florina Jones (19), domestic servant, born Walsall;

[3] Alice Ross (28), domestic servant, born Bloxwich:

Walsall Advertiser 28/9/1912

“Prior to the ordinary business at yesterday’s (Friday) Police Court, the usual Licensing Sessions were held when the Magistrates were the Mayor (Councillor J. Venables, in the chair), and Messrs. R. Thomas, J. Clare, A. D. Cozens, and E. J. Shaw.

With reference to plans submitted for alterations, Mr. Hodgkinson, who appeared on behalf of the licensee of the KING EDWARD, Ablewell Street, said it had been decided to take out a wall in the passage and so continue the passage into the club room. This room was at present used as a billiard room, but as it was only 18ft long there was not sufficient room for a game to be properly played.

The Magistrates after having retired sanctioned the alterations to the KING EDWARD.”

George Garratly = George Garratley

Walsall Observer 21/11/1914

“The following is a list of box collections to date made on behalf of the Prince of Wales’ National Relief Fund (Walsall Branch).....

EDWARD VII, Ablewell Street, Walsall, 7s 9d.”

Walsall Advertiser 16/10/1915

“A meeting of the Walsall and District Licensed Victuallers’ and Beer Retailers’ Friendly and Protection Society was held on Thursday.....

New Member..... Mr. George Garratley, KING EDWARD INN, Ablewell Street, Walsall.”

Walsall Observer 12/1/1918

“Walsall and District War Aid Committee. Collection By The Licensed Victuallers, December, 1917.....

KING EDWARD, Ablewell Street. £1 10s 9½d.”

Ethel Eliza Stevens = Ethel Eliza Stephens

The Era 19/7/1929

“Theatrical Employers’ Registration Act, 1925.

Notice Is Hereby Given that Ethel Eliza Craggs, residing at the KING EDWARD HOTEL, Ablewell Street, Walsall, and carrying on business under the name of Dot Stephens, intends to apply to the Walsall Borough Council for registration under the above Act. Dated June 26, 1929.”

1939 Register

7, Ablewell Street

[1] Bernard J. Ruddell, date of birth 26/8/1889, licensed victualler, married;

[2] Beatrice E. Ruddell, dob 6/9/1889, helps in business, married;

[3] Edgar Stanistreet, dob 2/5/1902, painter, single;

[4] John Stanistreet, dob 19/2/1905, barman and cellarman, single:

Walsall Observer 7/12/1940

“Walsall Licensed Victuallers’ Society.

Motor Ambulance Effort on behalf of Walsall and District branch of the British Red Cross Society.

First List of Subscriptions.....

KING EDWARD INN, Ablewell Street, £5 2s 8d.”

Walsall Observer 12/4/1941 - Advert

“Malt for Strength & Energy. Hops for The Appetite. Yeast for The Blood.
Twists The Best Beer for You.
You can Drink and Enjoy Twists Ale at any the of the following Licensed Houses.....
KING EDWARD, Ablewell Street.....
And All The Best Clubs.
Proprietary Whiskies, Foreign Wines and Spirits, High-Class British Sherries and Ports.
Head Office & Brewery, Wolverhampton Street, Walsall.”

Walsall Observer 29/8/1942

“County Borough of Walsall. Mayor’s War Aid Fund. Nineteenth List of Subscriptions.....
Mr. Ruddell, KING EDWARD, Ablewell Street. £2 5s 7d.”

Walsall Observer 15/1/1944

“Walsall Licensed Victuallers’ Society.
Appeal on Behalf of the Merchant Navy Fund, The Duke of Gloucester’s Red Cross Fund and the Aid to China Fund. List of Subscriptions.....
KING EDWARD, Ablewell Street. £1 8s 7d.”

Walsall Observer 16/9/1944 - Advert

“Walsall Harmonic and Social Society, BRITISH OAK, Lichfield Street.
The Committee are contemplating Re-Opening The Society Shortly.
As the room at Headquarters is not available at present owing to repairs and re-decorating, the Annual General Meeting will be held at the KING EDWARD INN, Ablewell Street, Wednesday, September 27th. at 8-0 pm.
Members are requested to attend.
Geo. Kirby, Secretary.”

Norman Frederick Eley – see also NEW INN, Park Street.

It closed on 29th January 1963.

It was demolished in 1964.
A petrol station was built on the site.

KING EDWARD VII

38, (34), High Street, WALSALL

OWNERS

Chesters Brewery Co. Ltd, Manchester [1890]
North Worcestershire Breweries Ltd. [1907]
Wolverhampton and Dudley Breweries Ltd. (acquired in 1909)

LICENSEES

Samuel Faulconbridge [1861] – 1870);
Robert Beardmore (1870 – []
Alfred Beardmore [1871] – [1872]
Benjamin Hawkins [1881];
Rebecca Atkins [] – 1887);
David Baylis (1887 – 1889);
Joseph Woollatt (1889 – 1894); manager
Alexander Dalky Rogers (1894 – 1895);
William Joseph Russell (1895 – 1896);
William Swift (1896 – 1898);
Charles Bunyan (1898);
Alfred Barnes (1898 – []
William E Dutton [1904] – 1908);
Charles Bunyan (1908 – []
William Henry Starkey [1908] – 1911);

Daniel Dalton (1911 – 1912);
Davis Walker (1912 – []
John Henry Brotherton [1916]
Charles Dickinson [1921]
John Rogers [1929] – 1930);
James Platt (1930 – 1933);
George Gerald Stanfield (1933 – 1939):

NOTES

34, High Street [1861], [1871], [1881], [1891]
38, High Street [1911]

It started life as WINE VAULTS.

1861 Census

34, High Street
[1] Samuel Faulconbridge (39), victualler, born Birmingham;
[2] Maria Faulconbridge (47), wife, born Birmingham;
[3] Ann Maria Faulconbridge (8), daughter, scholar, born Walsall;
[4] Fanny Johnson (20), house servant, born Birmingham:

It was listed as the LETTERS in an 1862 directory.

S. Faulconbridge, spirit vaults, 34, High Street. [1865]
Samuel Faulconbridge, wine and spirit vaults, 34, High Street. [1868]

Is name was changed to COLLOSEUM.

Walsall Free Press 20/8/1870

“James Daft was charged with having on Wednesday morning, stolen a small bottle of gin, the property of Alfred Beardmore, licensed victualler, High Street. Charlotte Salt, barmaid said she had occasion to leave the bar for a few minutes, and on her return she missed two bottles, and called Mr. Beardmore, who charged the prisoner with stealing the two bottles. Prisoner returned one of the bottles to witness, and the other was found under the bench, where he had been sitting. Sergeant Ogden was sent for, and took the prisoner, who was the worse for drink, into custody, when he admitted the charge. Mr. Beardmore corroborated the Barmaid’s evidence, but recommended the prisoner to mercy. The Bench, after hearing the case and taking into consideration the recommendation of the prosecutor, sentenced the prisoner to six days’ imprisonment.”

1871 Census

34, High Street
[1] Alfred Beardmore (30), publican, born Wednesbury;
[2] Sarah Ann Beardmore (38), wife, born Wednesbury;
[3] Sarah Ann Beardmore (13), daughter, scholar, born Wednesbury;
[4] Joseph Beardmore (5), son, scholar, born Solihull;
[5] Selina Beardmore (2), daughter, born Sheffield;
[6] Florence Beardmore (6 months), daughter, born Walsall;
[7] Emily Vales (23), visitor, grocer’s daughter, born Bilston;
[8] Mary Welch (18), general servant, born Willenhall;
[9] Sarah Ann Stokes (22), nurse girl, born Wyrley;
[10] Louisa G. Warring (6), visitor, born Wednesbury:

Alfred Beardmore, wine and spirit vaults, 34, High Street. [1872]

1881 Census

34, High Street
[1] Benjamin Hawkins (39), licensed victualler, born Walsall;
[2] Henrietta Hawkins (40), wife, born Reading, Berkshire;
[3] Anne Hawkins (17), daughter, born Reading, Berkshire;
[4] Sarah Ann Foster (20), general servant, born Brownhills;
[5] John Loyden (26), boarder, clerk, born Walsall;
[6] William Churchill (35), lodger, negro comedian, born Wednesbury;
[7] William Bate (17), lodger, negro comedian, born Wednesbury:

Its name was changed to PEOPLE'S MUSIC HALL.

Birmingham Daily Post 1/9/1888

“At the annual licensing sessions, yesterday.....

The applications for renewal of licenses on the part of twenty persons whose names were on the black list were adjourned till the adjourned licensing day; and the applications of the following were also adjourned, the Chief Constable opposing on the ground of the unsuitability of the premises for licensed houses, bad management, or the house being unnecessary, viz David Bayliss, the PEOPLE'S MUSIC HALL, High Street.”

Joseph Woollatt was fined £5 and costs, on 1st April 1889, for permitting drunkenness.

Walsall Advertiser 1/10/1889

“The adjourned licensing day, which was held at the Guildhall, on Monday, had been looked forward to with considerable interest on account of the large number of objections to the renewal of licenses made by the Chief Constable. All the houses objected to, something like 162, had been visited by the Magistrates, and in the vast majority of cases the structural alterations required by the Chief Constable had been made, hence the objections were withdrawn. Others persisted in, however, with the result that the bench refused to renew the licenses of five houses, these being, the SHAKESPEARE, Peel Street; the UNION, Ryecroft; the BARLEY MOW, Church Hill; the PEOPLE'S MUSIC HALL, High Street; and the CROSS KEYS, Blue Lane. There is a very angry feeling on the part of the publicans at this result, and notice of appeal has been given in each case. As the matter will be brought for decision before the Staffordshire Quarter Sessions, I will refrain from commenting on it.”

Birmingham Daily Post 27/11/1890

“At the Guildhall, a special session – the first under the new local Act – was held for the purpose of hearing applications for music, singing, and dancing licenses Mr. A. Whitehouse applied for a license for music, singing, and dancing on behalf of Joseph Woollatt, the manager of the PEOPLE'S MUSIC HALL, High Street, belonging to Chester's Brewery Company. He adopted the general argument of Mr. H. Young in the first case, and said the owners paid £1,644 on entering into the property. Refused.”

Birmingham Daily Post 18/12/1890

“At the Walsall Guildhall, yesterday, before Messrs. J. Brewer, E. T. Holden, J. Thorpe, W. E. Blyther, and J. Lindop, and Captain Brooks, further applications for singing, and dancing licenses were heard....

Mr. A. Whitehouse, on behalf of Joseph Woollatt, the PEOPLE'S MUSIC HALL, High Street, reminded the Bench that the case was adjourned for the purpose of considering any proposed structural alterations; and he submitted three alternative plans. The concert hall, according to the plan that was favoured, would be 60ft long by 20ft wide, and 20ft high to the wall plate.....

The Bench retired for about half an hour, and on their return the Magistrates' Clerk read the decisions.....

Granted. The PEOPLE'S MUSIC HALL, on Mondays, Tuesdays, and Saturdays, from 7.30 till 10.30, the justices reserving further consideration as to the six days' license till alterations shown on No.5 plan were carried out.”

1891 Census

34, High Street – PEOPLES MUSIC HALL

[1] Joseph Woollatt (33), public house manager, born Scotland;

[2] Sarah Woollatt (33), wife, born Walsall;

[3] Hannah Wellings (14), boarder, born Walsall;

[4] Thomas Wellings (62), boarder, widower, puddler, born Walsall:

It became the TIVOLI MUSIC HALL. [1899], [1904]

Walsall Advertiser 9/2/1907

“The general annual licensing sessions of the borough were held on Monday at the Guildhall.....

Mr. Jackson applied for sanction for the alteration of the TIVOLI, High Street, owned by the North Worcester Brewery Co, and called Mr. H. E. Farmer, architect (Hickton and Farmer) to prove the plans. Mr. Farmer said there would be no increased facilities, and the alterations were a re-arrangement of the rooms by making three into two.

The Chief Constable said the house was originally built for a music hall, and the proposed alterations would make it into a proper public house. Application granted.”

Walsall Advertiser 15/6/1907

“Mr. H. H. Jackson applied for sanction to change the sign of the TIVOLI MUSIC HALL, High Street. When it was a music hall the named TIVOLI was all right, said Mr. Jackson, but now it had no music hall connected with it the owners wanted to call it KING EDWARD THE SEVENTH.

Alderman Holden asked if there was not another house in the town of the same name.

Mr. Jackson: There's the KING EDWARD; we are the first KING EDWARD THE SEVENTH (laughter).

The Mayor (after deliberating with the Bench): You can call it what you like (laughter).”

Walsall Advertiser 8/1/1908

“The TIVOLI PALACE. On Wednesday, at the Guildhall, a temporary transfer of the above house (late the PEOPLE'S MUSIC HALL) was granted to Mr. Charles Bunyan, the clever goalkeeper of Walsall Football Club, from Mr. W. E. Dutton.”

KING EDWARD VII [1908]

Walsall Advertiser 23/5/1908

“Henry Boyce, marine store dealer, 80, Lower Rushall Street, was summoned for (1) assaulting Samuel Freeth, (2) using obscene language, both on the 12th inst, and (3) for being drunk on the licensed premises of the KING EDWARD VII INN, High Street, and for refusing to quit, on the 13th inst. All the cases were proved, and defendant was sentenced to two months’ hard labour for the assault, fined 40s and costs or 10 days for the obscene language, and fined £5 and costs or one month on the third charge.”

Indenture dated 28/10/1909

“All Those messuage hereditaments and premises situate and Numbered 34 High Street Walsall in the County of Stafford used as a public-house formerly called The PEOPLE’S CONCERT HALL afterwards The TIVOLI but now called KING EDWARD VII. Together with the appurtenances thereto belonging. And Together with the use and enjoyment of a road or way at all times on foot or with horses or carriages from High Street aforesaid to the back of the said hereditaments and premises.”

Walsall Advertiser 4/3/1911

“The adjourned Licensing Sessions for the borough were held at the Guildhall on Wednesday morning.

An application was made by Mr. H. H. Jackson to reduce the licensed area of the KING EDWARD VII, High Street by cutting off from the house a music hall at the rear, and converting it into a lodging-house, subject to approval of the authorities. An up-to-date sanitary lodging-house, he said, would be an advantage to the town. There would be no connection whatever with the licensed premises, and he pointed out that if the house went on the compensation list the reduction of the licensed area would reduce the compensation.

The Bench subsequently visited the premises, and on returning announced that the application would be refused.”

1911 Census

38, High Street

[1] Daniel Dalton (33), licensed victualler, born Hallend, Warwickshire;

[2] Clara Hannah Dalton (33), wife, married 14 years, assisting in the business, born Measham, Leicestershire;

[3] Gladys May Dalton (13), daughter, school, born Fazeley, Staffordshire;

[4] William Ezra Dalton (9), son, school, born Mount Pleasant, nr. Tamworth, Warwickshire:

Walsall Observer 21/11/1914

“The following is a list of box collections to date made on behalf of the Prince of Wales’ National Relief Fund (Walsall Branch).....

KING EDWARD VII, High Street, Walsall, 7s 6d.”

James Platt was fined £5, on 14th November 1930, for selling intoxicating liquor other than during permitted hours.

Walsall Observer 11/3/1939

“Both the NEW INN, a Wednesbury Road beerhouse; and the KING EDWARD VII were also in the list opposed at the annual sessions, but Mr. Cooper now applied for the removal of the KING EDWARD license to the NEW INN.

The NEW INN, said Mr. Cooper, was very definitely in an area where a full license was required and if the application were granted the net result would be one beer ‘on’ beer license fewer in the borough. The brewery company did not pretend that the present NEW INN premises were suitable for a full license, but they undertook to submit to the next transfer sessions a scheme to rebuild the house. The plans also provided for a modern house in every respect and would do away with the present awkward corner of Milton Street and Wednesbury Road.

Evidence that there was a demand for wines and spirits by customers of the NEW INN was given by the licensee, Albert Leonard Coley; and by Alfred Pomlett, motor garage proprietor, 6, Milton Street.

The application was opposed by Robert Arnold Hildick, managing director of Whithalls Wines Ltd, who reminded the justices that at the opening sessions on February 9 they refused his company’s application for a wines and spirits off-license for their Wednesbury Road premises, after the Chief Constable and others had opposed on the ground that the district was already adequately served. ‘Although it would be permissible,’ he said, ‘for my company to have a spirits license on the premises, we are prepared to accept your worships’ opinion that the district is adequately served.’

After enumerating licensed premises in the neighbourhood of the Wednesbury Road, Mr. Hildick added: ‘And if we have any fastidious drinkers still not satisfied, it is considerably less than half a mile to the GEORGE HOTEL.’

Mr. Ledbury (justice): Have we any fastidious drinkers in Walsall? – Mr. Hildick: Well, we have sly drinkers.

Subject to the submission of plans for rebuilding the NEW INN, the justices granted the application and they renewed both licenses pending completion of the removal.”

It closed at 2pm on 4th May 1939.

The license was transferred to NEW INN, Wednesbury Road, on 4th May 1939.

The building later became an office for Walsall CID.

It was demolished.

KING GEORGE V

Wallows Lane, Pleck, WALSALL

OWNERS

William Butler and Co. Ltd.
Mitchells and Butlers Ltd.
Courage Ltd. (acquired in July 1980)
Black Country Traditional Inns [2006]
Admiral Taverns

LICENSEES

Kenneth Dawes (1937 – 1950);
Leslie Jackson Guest (1950 – 1956);
George Thomas Rathbone (1956 – 1962);
Cyril Bertram Davey (1962 – 1963);
Charles Frederick Faulkner (1963 – 1964);
Donald Geoffrey Birch (1964 – [1966]
Frank Robinson [1970s]
Nigel Barker []
Debbie Humphries [] – 2009)
[Raman Singh \[\] – 2021\)](#)

NOTES

It opened at 6pm on 8th May 1937.
The license was transferred from the NAGS HEAD, Upper Rushall Street.

1939 Register

Wallows Lane – KING GEORGE V HOTEL

- [1] Kenneth Dawes, date of birth 30/12/1900, licensed victualler, married;
- [2] Julia Nina Dawes, dob 31/8/1908, unpaid domestic duties, married;
- [3] Brenda A. Cakel, dob 7/12/1909, barmaid, married;
- [5] Violet \(Wilson\) Nicklin, dob 19/7/1912, bar general, single;
- [6] Herbert Knott, dob 5/12/1914, steel foundry painter and crane driver, single:

Kenneth Dawes – see also TIGER.

Walsall Observer 13/10/1943

“After sitting until 6pm on Wednesday, hearing 164 summonses arising out of excessive deliveries of coal last winter, the Walsall magistrates (Messrs. Fred Evans, and H. Shemmans, and Mrs. Brockhurst) reserved their decisions in what were regarded as the more serious cases until Thursday morning.....

W. Butler and Co. Ltd., Springfield Brewery, were summoned in respect of the HORSE AND JOCKEY, Bloxwich Road; KING GEORGE V, Wallows Lane, DILKE ARMS, Aldridge; The HARDEN, Harden Road; and VINE INN, Lower Hall Street; and the managers, Thomas Henry Atkins, Kenneth Dawes, Harry Harvey, Leonard Charles Lampitt, and Edwin George White, for aiding and abetting. Mr. Cooper said this brewery company also had given specific instructions to their managers, and Mr. Hodgkinson emphasised that the managers’ offences were purely of a technical character and that if they had applied for permits for extra supplies they would have got them.

Dawes and Hawkes were fined £2 each, the other managers £1 each, and the brewery 10s in each case.”

Walsall Observer 15/1/1944

“Walsall Licensed Victuallers’ Society.

Appeal on Behalf of the Merchant Navy Fund, The Duke of Gloucester’s Red Cross Fund and the Aid to China Fund. List of Subscriptions.....

KING GEORGE V, Wallows Lane. £1 16s 9d
KING GEORGE V (Darts Club), Wallows Lane. £28 10s 0d.”

Walsall Observer 5/5/1945 - Births

“On May, 2, 1945, at Bescot Nursing Home, to Mr. and Mrs. K. Dawes, of KING GEORGE V, Wallows Lane – the precious gift of a daughter.”

George Thomas Rathbone – see also NEWPORT ARMS.

Debbie Humphries – see also BLACK COUNTRY ARMS.

Express & Star 8/3/2021

“A Walsall hotel and pub could lose its licence over alleged Covid breaches – and complaints of trouble and anti-social behaviour. West Midlands Police have called for a review of the licence of KING GEORGE V, in Wallows Lane, following a string of reported incidents at the premises. These include fighting outside the premises, the venue operating outside of permitted hours through lock-ins and neighbours being disturbed by noise from customers leaving in the early hours of the morning. Pub bosses are also accused of committing Covid regulation breaches on a number of occasions during 2020 such as poor social distancing, a lack of face masks and a failure to abide by table service only rules. Police and Walsall Council licensing officers said they spoke with designated premises supervisor Raman Singh and Admiral Taverns, which owns the pub, a number of times to address issues. One of the incidents involved a Christmas Eve gathering where police found two members of staff and six customers – from five different households – in the bar breaching Covid rules. Mr. Singh was hit with a fixed penalty notice. Chief Superintendent Andy Parsons, of Walsall Police, said they had no confidence in the management of the pub and are calling for the licence to be revoked at a licensing sub-committee hearing on Monday (March 15). He said, ‘The grounds for this review repeated failures of the DPS to work within the confines of the premises licence, the boundaries of statutory nuisance together with his mismanagement of procedures throughout the Covid pandemic. This has been through the premises not following the regulation, which is a criminal offence, but also breaching the extensive guidance designed to help premises operate in a Covid secure manner. This has happened to a level that it is placing an increased risk of infection to the staff, customers attending, officers that need to enforce and the wider community. West Midlands Police can see this has only been done for the purpose of profit and financial gain at a time when other premises, both locally and nationally, have been abiding by the rules in spite of the financial hardship this has caused them.’ The police’s licence review has been backed by Walsall Council’s environmental health and community protection teams.”

Express & Star 16/3/2021

“A Walsall pub which became a hotbed of trouble and left nearby residents ‘living in fear’ has lost its licence despite the ‘difficult’ former boss being kicked out. Between October 2019 and December last year, KING GEORGE V in Wallows Lane was the scene of a raft incidents including a car ramming the front of the property, ‘horrific’ brawls in the street and drinking after hours. A series of breaches of Covid regulations were also committed, a meeting of Walsall Council’s licensing committee heard. Neil Barnes, of pub owners Admiral Taverns, said they had chosen not to renew tenancy agreements with former designated premises supervisor (DPS) Raman Singh and had taken sole possession of the pub with a view to sell it. West Midlands Police, who originally called for the licence to be revoked, said they were happy for it to continue now Mr. Singh was no longer in the picture. But committee members felt the company should have acted sooner and chose to revoke the licence. Walsall Police’s licensing officer Jennifer Mellor said they had originally tried to work with Mr. Singh to address issues and give him a chance but to no avail. Police data showed there had been 19 incidents of disorder between October 2019 and January 2020. Further reports of anti-social behaviour were received between March and December, before a prohibition notice was served on the venue.....”

Express & Star 21/3/2023

“Plans to create flats in place of a Walsall pub which was closed after it became a hotbed of trouble and Covid breaches have failed. Dharam 13 Properties had wanted to convert the old KING GEORGE V HOTEL in Wallows Lane into 11 apartments as hopes of keeping and maintaining it as a pub were deemed unviable. But planning officers at Walsall Council rejected the plan for a number of reasons, including a lack of information provided on the potential impact the development would have on the building. Officers also said the proposal failed to provide a satisfactory standard of amenity for future occupiers, planned extensions would have a detrimental impact on the character of the building as well as concerns over crime and anti-social behaviour.....”

KINGS ARMS

154, (36), High Street, (Little Bloxwich), BLOXWICH

OWNERS

Messrs. Leary

Richard Thomas. Coalmaster, Bloxwich [1872]
Manchester Brewery Co. Ltd.
Bloxwich Brewery Co. Ltd. [1906]
William Butler and Co. Ltd.
Mitchells and Butlers Ltd.

LICENSEES

Benjamin Bickley [1783]
Bickley [1808]
William Bickley [1813]
T Totty [1818]
William Totty [1828] – [1838]
Richard Thomas [1841] – 1861;
Richard Sherratt (1861 – [1862])
John Purdy [1864] – [1866]
Timothy Leary [1868] – [1870]
Timothy Leary & Sons [1872]
Timothy Leary [1872];
John Donnelly [];
Arthur Fallon [];
Thomas Power [];
Joseph Linforth [1881] ?
Alfred Leary [1881] – 1890;
Thomas Cunningham (1890 – 1895);
Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Cunningham (1895 – 1898);
John Walsh (1898 – 1904);
Frederick Charles Taylor (1904 – 1906);
David Waterfield (1906 – 1907);
George Robert Homeshaw (1907 – 1913);
George Edward Johnson (1913 – 1918);
Nellie Johnson (1918 – 1924);
Francis Thomas Acton (1924 – [1966])

NOTES

36, High Street [1871]
154, High Street [1901], [1932], [1939], [1940]

OLD KINGS ARMS [1805], [1838], [1849], [1850], [1852], [1858], [1860], [1861], [1868], [1872], [1881]
OLD KINGS HEAD [1870]
KINGS ARMS HOTEL [1924], [1929], [1940]

The Amicable Friendly Society was founded here in 1778.

Staffordshire Advertiser 7/12/1799 - Advert

“To Be Sold By Auction, by Mr. Henshaw, on Monday, the 23rd day of December, instant, at the House of Mr. Robthan, the KINGS ARMS INN, Bloxwich, in the County of Stafford, at Three o’Clock in the Afternoon.

All those Eight (now in Seven) Messuages or Dwelling Houses, with several Shops, Outbuildings, Gardens, and Appurtenances thereto belonging, situate, and being together, in Bloxwich, aforesaid, now in the occupation of Mr. Wm. Welch and others.

Further particulars will be given in next week’s paper, and in the mean time may be known by application to Mr. Bennett, Attorney, Great Saredon, near Wolverhampton.”

William Bickley, victualler, KINGS ARMS, Little Bloxwich. [1813]

Staffordshire Advertiser 18/5/1805 - Advert

“To be Peremptorily Sold by Auction, By Mr. Henshaw, at the OLD KINGS ARMS, Bloxwich, near Walsall, in the County of Stafford, on Monday, the 17th day of June next, between the hours of three and five in the afternoon, subject to such conditions as will then be produced, and all together or in such Lots as shall be then agreed upon:

All those seven Messuages or Dwelling-houses.....”

Aris’s Birmingham Gazette 8/8/1808 - Advert

“Whimsey Engine, &c.

To be Sold by auction, by F. and J. Pool, on the Friday the 12th day of August 1808, at Mr. Bickley's, the Sign of the KINGS ARMS, at Bloxwich at Four o'Clock in the Afternoon.

11 Plain Pipes, 9 Feet Long, 9 inches Diameter.

1 ditto, 6 Feet Long, ditto.

1 Bucket Door Piece, 9 Feet Long.

1 Working Barrel, 9 Feet Long, 8½ Inches Diameter.

1 Clack Door Piece, 6 Feet Long.

1 Shaft Hole Pipe, 9 Feet Long.

About 28 Yards of Iron Rods, 1¼ Inch Diameter, with Hoop Joints.

Two Wood Rods with Iron Joints.

Also a Whimsey Boiler and several other Articles.

N.B. The Whole of the Pipes are very good, and were cast at Coalbrook Dale. The Property lies in a Field near the lower End of Essington Wood.

Further information may be had by applying to Mr. Wilcox, at Essington Wood Colliery.”

William Totty = William Tottie

Staffordshire Advertiser 24/1/1829

“Sessions for the Borough and Foreign of Walsall.....

Charles Robotham, was indicted for stealing, on the 9th of December last, three fowls, the property of William Tottey, of the KINGS ARMS, Bloxwich, and Samuel Harvey, for receiving the same knowing them to have been stolen. Both prisoners were found guilty, and each sentenced to twelve months' imprisonment and hard labour.”

Aris's Birmingham Gazette 9/7/1838 - Advert

“KINGS ARMS INN, Bloxwich, near Walsall.

To be disposed of, the Licenses, Good-will, and immediate Possession of that old-established Inn, known by the sign of the KINGS ARMS, situated by the great roadside leading from Walsall to Stafford, and near to Bloxwich Chapel, with capital cellaring, large club-room, capital stable, entire yard, and every suitable out-office, with a large Garden behind the same, well planted with choice fruit and other trees, also a six-quarter malthouse adjoining the same.

The above Inn has been carried on with great success by Mr. W. Totty and his family for the last twenty years, who is leaving in consequence of other engagements.

The Stock, Fixtures, &c, to be taken to at a fair valuation.

The above is an opportunity which seldom offers as a permanent business.

For particulars apply to Mr. Totty on the Premises, or to Farrington and Son, Appraisers and General Agents, Walsall (if by letter, post paid).”

Wolverhampton Chronicle 23/3/1842

“Staffordshire Lent Assizes. Nisi Prius Court, Tuesday. (Before Mr. Justice Patterson.)

The Queen v. John Wray.

This was an indictment in which the defendant was charged with other persons with taking away a voter named Joseph Beech, in order to prevent his voting at the Walsall election in February, 1841.

From the evidence of the prosecutor, it appeared he went into the KINGS ARMS, Bloxwich, on the night before the Walsall election, which took place on the 2nd of February, 1841; that some persons gave him some brandy, and ale, which tasted sweet, and that Wray and another person afterwards took him by force in a chaise to Lichfield, where he was kept until the election was over on the next day. After some consultation the jury returned a verdict of guilty.

On Thursday the defendant was sentenced to a months' imprisonment.”

Richard Thomas was also a maltster and farmer. [1849], [1850]

He was also a maltster. [1851]

1851 Census

KINGS ARMS

[1] Richard Thomas (40), maltster and innkeeper, born Alrewas, Staffordshire;

[2] Ann Thomas (41), wife, born Lyston, Leicestershire;

[3] Frederick Thomas (15), son, scholar at home, born Alrewas, Staffordshire;

[4] Mary Ann Thomas (11), daughter, scholar at home, born Bloxwich;

[5] Richard Thomas (8), son, scholar, born Bloxwich;

[6] Henry Thomas (6), son, scholar, born Bloxwich;

[7] Charles Thomas (6), son, scholar, born Bloxwich;

[8] Edgar Thomas (2), son, born Bloxwich;

[9] Alfred Thomas (9 months), son, born Bloxwich;

[10] Jane Sharrat (29), house servant and waiter, born Withington, Staffordshire;

[11] Henry Hacker (19), house servant, born Alrewas, Staffordshire;

[12] Rosina Baker (14), house servant, born Bloxwich:

Staffordshire Advertiser 7/8/1852

“On Friday last the electors of Bloxwich, following the example of their neighbours at Walsall, invited Mr. Marshall to a public dinner previous to his return to London. The dinner took place at the OLD KINGS ARMS INN, Bloxwich, when upwards of 40 of the supporters of Mr. Marshall assembled to do honour to their respected guest.....

Wolverhampton Chronicle 2/9/1857 - Advert

“Freehold Houses, Malthouse, And Building Land At Bloxwich, Near Walsall, in the county of Stafford.

Mr. Joseph Dawes will Sell by Auction, on Friday, the 11th day of September, 1857, at six o'clock in the evening, at the KINGS ARMS INN.....”

Walsall Free Press 9/4/1859

“George Bagley was charged with having on the evening of Monday last, assaulted Sergeant Simpson and PC Smith, in the execution of their duty. It appeared that on the evening in question, the officer Smith went to the OLD KINGS ARMS, Bloxwich, to quell a disturbance, and was assaulted by the prisoner. Sergeant Simpson, who came to his assistance, was also assaulted and kicked by the prisoner, who was then seized and conveyed to the lockup. The prisoner was fined 40s and costs, or in default to be imprisoned for one month.”

Walsall Free Press 3/9/1859

“The Bench proceeded to the applications for the renewal of old, and the granting of new licenses.....

Mr. Duignan supported an application on behalf of Mr. Richard Thomas, landlord of the KINGS ARMS, Bloxwich, for a license for a house in the course of completion, near to the Railway Station. The Mayor intimated that the application was refused on the ground that the house was not completed.

Mr. Newman wished it to be understood that he did not concur in the opinion expressed by the Mayor, and he (Mr. Newman) was of opinion that the license should be granted.

The Mayor considered the observation of Mr. Newman quite uncalled for. He (the Mayor) did not say the Bench were unanimous in the opinion, but he might state it was the opinion of eight of the magistrates present, that the license should not be granted.

Mr. Oerton said it had always been the rule that the opinion of a majority of the Bench should be held decisive in such cases.

Mr. Duignan here addressed the Bench on behalf of his client, Mr. Thomas, whose application had been refused. He said from the remarks of his worship the Mayor, he understood the objection to his client's application was the fact that the house, for which the license was sought, being now in an unfinished state. With that understanding he would request that the consideration of the case should be allowed to stand over till the adjourned licensing day, which must be held next month, by which time the house would be finished.

The Mayor: Though that was one, it was not the only ground of objection. – Mr. Duignan: Such being the case, I bow to the decision of the Bench.”

Birmingham Journal 24/12/1859 - Advert

“900 Yards of Freehold Land, Public House, Dwelling Houses, &c, at Blakenall, in the Foreign of Walsall.

To Be Sold by Auction, by John Osbourn, on Friday, January 6, 1860, at Six o'clock in the evening at the house of Mr. Richard Thomas, the KINGS ARMS, Bloxwich. All that messuage now used as a Beerhouse, but erected for and intended to be used as a Public House, in the occupation of Joseph Beech, situated at the junction of Blakenall Street and Forster Street, in a thriving and rapidly improving district.

Also the Four Dwelling Houses adjoining, situate in Forster Street, in the several occupations of Walters, Fletcher, Ruskin, and one void. The whole estimated to produce an annual rental of £46 13s 3d.

Also the Five Dwelling Houses and the Out-buildings adjoining the above, situate on Blakenall Street, now in the course of erection, three of which Dwelling Houses are nearly complete.

There is a Well of excellent water attached, and some available vacant Land at the back.

The whole (including the site of the buildings) contains an area of 900 square yards.

The above offers a tempting opportunity to Builders and others desiring a profitable investment.

For further particulars, apply to Messrs. Duignan and Ebsworth, Solicitors; or to the Auctioneer, all of Walsall.”

Richard Thomas was also a farmer, maltster, coal and ironstone master, and brickmaker. [1860]

Walsall Free Press 17/3/1860

“John Hurley was charged by Sergeant Martin with having been drunk and disorderly, at Bloxwich, on Sunday afternoon. The prisoner pleaded guilty, and was sentenced to pay a fine of £1 and 6s 6d costs, or be imprisoned for fourteen days. From the evidence of Sergeant Martin and Mr. Thomas, landlord of the KINGS ARMS, Bloxwich, it appeared that the defendant and six others went to Mr. Thomas's house shortly after three o'clock on Sunday afternoon, in a state of intoxication, and on being refused, they became very unruly, whereupon Mr. Thomas went into the street to call a policeman, and on returning the men met him in the passage and turned him out of his own house.”

Richard Thomas was described as a coal and brick master and farmer. [1861]

Birmingham Daily Post 21/8/1862 - Advert

“To Parties Requiring An Old-Established, Respectable Inn, (held by the last Tenant upwards of Twenty years).

The KINGS ARMS INN, Bloxwich.

To be let, and immediate possession may be had. The present Proprietor having entered into other engagements, he is compelled to give it up. It is situated exactly opposite the Church, and is well known to all to be the best inn in the place.

To view and for terms, which are moderate, apply on the Premises, or to R. L. Courtney, Auctioneer, High Street, West Bromwich.”

Walsall Free Press 22/9/1866

“Ancient Order Of Foresters, (Walsall District).

Court Richard Cour-De-Lion, No.4941, a Branch of the above Order had been opened at the House of Mr. John Purdy, KINGS ARMS, Bloxwich. Any Person wishing to become a member may obtain every information at the Court House.”

Edinburgh Gazette 24/3/1868

“Bankrupts. John Purdy, of the ANCHOR INN, Bridgman Street, and formerly of the OLD KINGS ARMS, Bloxwich, both in Walsall, Stafford, licensed victualler and commission agent.”

Walsall Free Press 16/4/1870

“John Smith was summoned for threatening to murder John Donally, on Tuesday last.

Complainant is in the employ of Mr. O’Leary, landlord of the KINGS ARMS, Bloxwich. Defendant came in and was endeavouring to search a person’s pocket who was there, when complainant remonstrated and defendant used bad language and threatened to murder him. Bound over to keep the peace for six months – himself in £10 and one surety in £5.”

1871 Census

36, High Street – KINGS ARMS

[1] John Donnelly (25), unmarried, person in charge, barman, domestic servant, born Ireland;

[2] Sarah Farlner (?) (22), housekeeper, born Wilenhall:

Midland Examiner 22/5/1875

“William Mayner was charged by Joseph Leary, of Wolverhampton, with having wilfully damaged some glass at Bloxwich. It was shown that on Friday night the defendant went into the KINGS ARMS INN, Bloxwich. He was drunk and requested to leave the house, which he did. He again entered the house, and on being ejected broke four panes of glass with his hand. The panes were valued at 9d each. Fined 2s 6d, 2s 6d, and the costs; or in default of payment, 14, days’ imprisonment with hard labour.”

1881 Census

High Street – OLD KINGS ARMS

[1] Joseph Linforth (27), manager spirit vaults, born America;

[2] Anne Linforth (25), wife, born Wolverhampton;

[3] Mary Linforth (1), daughter, born Wednesfield:

Thomas Cunningham married Mary Elizabeth Baker, daughter of James Baker – see QUEENS HEAD, Commonside, Pensnett, Brierley Hill.

1891 Census

High Street – KINGS ARMS INN

[1] Thomas Cunningham (58), licensed victualler, born Ireland;

[2] Mary Elizabeth Cunningham (49), wife, born Kingswinford;

[3] James Patrick Cunningham (18), son, tailor’s apprentice, born Wolverhampton;

[4] John Ignatius Cunningham (17), son, assisting, born Wolverhampton;

[5] Mary Elizabeth Cunningham (15), daughter, scholar, born Wolverhampton;

[6] Margareta Cunningham (11), daughter, scholar, born Wolverhampton;

[7] Sarah Cicily Cunningham (9), daughter, scholar, born Wolverhampton;

[8] Ellen Cunningham (8), daughter, scholar, born Bloxwich;

[9] William Bernard Cunningham (4), son, scholar, born Bloxwich;

[10] Mary Jones (20), general servant, born Kingswinford;

[11] Alice Baughin (18), visitor, born Kingswinford;

[12] Selina Golden (18), visitor, born Staffordshire:

Walsall Advertiser 2/9/1899

“The annual licensing sessions for this borough were held at the Guildhall on Wednesday.....

The Chief Constable submitted the following list showing houses where children under the age of 13 had been served since Aug., 1898. Alehouses.....

John Walsh, KINGS ARMS, Bloxwich, served 94 children.....

He said he had a list of 118 other houses which he did not think worth while including in the report, where the number of children served had been under ten. The Mayor said he thought that the license holders should try and fall in with the magistrates views..... On returning the magistrates announced their decisions as under....

In the cases where children under 13 years of age were reported to have been supplied, on the promise of the licensees to carry out the wishes of the magistrates in future the licenses would be renewed with a caution.”

Walsall Observer 6/1/1900

“The Angling Club. The annual dinner of this club took place on Thursday, the 28th ult, at the KINGS ARMS.....”

Walsall Observer 14/7/1900

“A Social Gathering of a few friends of the Host was held at the KINGS ARMS on Tuesday, and after full justice had been done to the good things provided, Mr. Edward Walker was invited to the chair, and Mr. Stanley to the vice chair, and a most enjoyable evening was spent.....”

1901 Census

154, High Street

[1] John Walsh (28), licensed victualler, born Bilston;

[2] Florence Walsh (29), wife, born Willenhall;

[3] Mary B. Walsh (4), daughter, born Willenhall;

[4] Monica Walsh (3), daughter, born Willenhall;

[5] Cisila Walsh (1), daughter, born Bloxwich;

[6] Margaret Walsh (20), sister, barmaid, born Willenhall;

[7] Maria Myhall (13), domestic servant, born Bloxwich:

Walsall Advertiser 3/2/1906

“There was not nearly the intense public interest in the annual licensing meeting for the borough of Walsall on Thursday, at the Guildhall, as was the case during the past two or three years, for instead of the court room being densely crowded and a vast throng clamouring for admission in the entrance corridor and on the footpath outside, chiefly holders of licenses and others intimately connected with the trade, the court, though well filled, was evidently large enough to accommodate all who wished to attend.....

Mr. H. H. Jackson (Stanley and Jackson) applied on behalf of the Bloxwich Brewery Company for the approval of plans for the alteration of the KINGS ARMS, Bloxwich. The present licensed area was 2,450 square yards, and it was proposed to cut off about 400 square yards, and give up the land to the Corporation to widen the street. That would be a great public improvement, but based their application on its merits rather than on that. There would be a new smoke room, an alteration to the out-door department, and a new club-room less than the old one. The main benefit would be for the convenience of the landlord and public.

Mr. H. H. Farmer (Hickton and Farmer) put in the plans.

The Chief Constable said the effect of the alterations would be to make the place more compact. There would be some increase in the drinking area, but a reduction in the licensed area.....

Mr. Loxton said the magistrates had adjourned all the plans, and proposed to visit the houses next Wednesday. They would be glad if the architects would accompany them.”

Walsall Advertiser 24/2/1906

“Yesterday the adjourned licensing sessions were held at the Guildhall.....

Several applications for the approval of plans for alterations, had been deferred from the annual licensing meeting for the magistrates to visit the premises. The Bench decided as under.....

KINGS ARMS, Bloxwich, approved.”

Walsall Advertiser 4/5/1907

“I am very sorry,” said William Wilkes, a respectable looking young collier, of 122, Stafford Road, Bloxwich, in reply to a charge of being drunk on licensed premises. On April 22nd Inspector Marshall was called to the KINGS ARMS, Bloxwich, where he found the landlord struggling with defendant, who was drunk and would not leave the house. Fined 5s and costs.”

Walsall Advertiser 28/12/1907

“The monthly meeting of the Walsall and District Licensed Victuallers’ and Beer Retailers’ Friendly and Protection Society was held on Thursday week.....

New Members..... G. R. Homeshaw, KINGS ARMS, Bloxwich.”

Walsall Advertiser 20/3/1909

“On Thursday evening last, at the KINGS ARMS, Hotel, Bloxwich, Mr. A. C. Fraser, FAI, (Watkins, Powell, and Wood), conducted a very successful sale of the property of the late Mr. William Somerfield. There was a large and representative company present, and great interest was evinced in the sale. The property consists of a freehold house, known as Bellfield House, Stafford Road, Bloxwich, with the land adjoining, the whole containing an area of about 8,300 square yards, and being assessed for poor’s rates at £35. The first bid was one of £600, but spontaneous competition soon raised this to £1,250 at which satisfactory price the property was sold. Mr. Enoch Evans, of Bridge Street, Walsall, was the solicitor acting for the vendors.”

1911 Census

KINGS ARMS HOTEL

- [1] George Robert Homeshaw (36), licensed victualler, born Hatherton, Staffordshire;
- [2] Dora Homeshaw (31), wife, married 9 years, born Cannock, Staffordshire;
- [3] Herbert Homeshaw (8), son, born Cannock, Staffordshire;
- [4] Ernest James Homeshaw (1), son, born Bloxwich;
- [5] Julia Thornsby (25), servant, born Dudley:

Walsall Advertiser 20/5/1911

“Bowling. The KINGS ARMS club, Bloxwich, opened their green on Thursday afternoon, but there was no formal ceremony, the members having friendly games among themselves. The green is certainly in grand condition and gives evidence of much work having been bestowed upon it. In all, the club has arranged three home and away matches – Caldmore Conservatives, Paddock and North Walsall. The first match is with the Caldmore Club, at home, on June 10th. The membership now stands at 60, which shows the club is much appreciated.”

Walsall Observer 13/5/1916

“At the Borough Police Court, on Wednesday, before Messrs. W. Millerchip, A. Jagger, and E. C. Windle, another batch of offences against the Lighting Order appeared.....

In the case of George E. Johnson, KINGS ARMS, Bloxwich, evidence was given by Police-constable Gibbs that a beam of light was showing from the house sufficient for him to read his notebook.

Cross-examined by Mr. H. H. Jackson, who defended, witness said in his opinion the beam came from an incandescent light.

Mr. Jackson urged that there were forty windows in the house, and everything had been done to carry out the Order. In the previous instance a candle through the side of the blind, and it was only there for a few minutes. Fined 20s.”

Walsall Observer 29/11/1924

“A quarter of a century’s successful working was celebrated at the annual dinner of the Bloxwich Tradesmen’s Association, held at the KINGS ARMS HOTEL, Bloxwich, on Thursday evening. There was a company of about 50 members and their friends, who did full justice to the enjoyable repast provided, and proved keenly appreciative of the high class musical programme, interspersed with toasts, which followed.....”

Staffordshire Advertiser 16/3/1929

“Bloxwich Musical Society. This society had the last concert of the season at the KINGS ARMS HOTEL, Bloxwich, on Monday evening. Mr. Garnett Orton presided, and Mr. H. Davis, organist of Rushall Church, was the accompanist. The artistes were Messrs. Norman Archer (tenor), C. J. Earing (bass), J. Powell (baritone), J. Garbett (tenor), and J. Robinson (tenor), and J. Robinson (comedian).”

Walsall Observer 22/4/1933

“At a meeting of the Walsall Licensed Victuallers’ Society, held at the KINGS ARMS INN, High Street, Bloxwich, on Thursday week, Councillor Alfred Medlam presided over a very large attendance and Mr. Harry Langley was in the vice-chair. It was agreed that the question as to licensees following additional occupations should be considered at the next meeting.....”

1939 Register

154, High Street – KINGS ARMS

- [1] Francis T. Acton, date of birth 21/7/1885, manager (hotel), married;
- [2] Edith M. Acton, dob 11/11/1886, manageress (hotel), married;
- [3] Ernest F. Acton, dob 26/3/1907, motor mechanic, single;
- [4] Evelyn M. (Acton) Rowbotham, dob 21/3/1911, typist, single:

Walsall Observer 16/11/1940

“Lighting Orders. Francis Thomas Acton, licensee of the KINGS ARMS HOTEL, Bloxwich, where two yard lights were accidentally put on from an inside switch board on the night of October 9. Fined 20s.”

Walsall Observer 24/12/1942

“Walsall Licensed Victuallers’ Society. The Duke of Gloucester’s Red Cross Fund. List of Subscriptions.....
KINGS ARMS, Bloxwich. £6 0s 0d.”

Walsall Observer 15/1/1944

“Walsall Licensed Victuallers’ Society.

Appeal on Behalf of the Merchant Navy Fund, The Duke of Gloucester’s Red Cross Fund and the Aid to China Fund. List of Subscriptions.....

KINGS ARMS, Bloxwich. £7 7s 0d.”

Walsall Observer 24/8/1962 - Advert

“Attention! all Mild drinkers.

Highgate Mild is now available in the following Butlers and Atkinsons houses.....
KINGS ARMS, High Street, Bloxwich.”

It closed in 1984.

KINGS HEAD

Ingram Road, (Walker Road), (79, (113), Blakenall), Blakenall Heath, BLOXWICH

OWNERS

Thomas Emery, bit maker, Blakenall. [1860]
Lichfield Brewery Co. Ltd. (acquired on 7th January 1930)
Ind Coope and Allsopp Ltd. (leased from 23rd January 1936)
Ansells Ltd. (acquired on 16th May 1960)

LICENSEES

Sarah Horton [1841] – [1842]
Simeon Robotham [1851] – [1861]
Robert Badkin* [1863]
Robert Rathin* [1864]
Robert Batkin* [] – 1865);
Richard Tomlinson (1865 – []
George Ross [1868] – []
Thomas Ross [1870] – [1871]
George Ross [] – 1873);
Thomas Ross (1873 – [];
Benjamin George Evans [1876] – [1877];
Henry Corser [];
Job Daniels [1881]
C Mansfield [1902] ?
William Wooldridge [1891] – 1930);
Charles Henry Harper (1930 – 1943);
Lilian Harper (1943 – 1944);
John Henry Perkins (1944 – 1951);
Matilda Perkins (1951 – 1961);
Gerald William Green (1961 – 1964);
Ruby Webster (1964 – [1966]

NOTES

Blakenhall, Bloxwich [1864], [1868]
79, Blakenall [1881]
79, Blakenall Common [1891]
Blakenall Heath [1912], [1940]
KINGS ARMS [1851]
KINGS HEAD [1861], [1864], [1870], [1912], [1940]
Walker Road [1939]

Simeon Robotham = Simeon Rowbatham

* possibly the same person

Walsall Free Press 20/6/1863

“Robert Badkin, publican, Blakenall, pleaded guilty to having had his house open for the sale of liquor at twenty minutes to five, on the afternoon of Sunday, the 7th inst. As it appeared the house had been opened by the defendant’s brother, who had been left in charge, and who had opened the house under the mistaken impression that four o’clock was the hour for opening, the defendant was only fined 1s and costs.”

Staffordshire Advertiser 5/2/1870

“John Rowley, was fined 10s and costs, with the option of 14 days’ imprisonment for having refused to quit the house of Mr. T. Ross, Blakenall, on the previous Monday night.”

Thomas Ross was also a stirrup maker. [1871]

1871 Census

113, Blakenall – KINGS HEAD

- [1] Thomas Ross (48), stirrup maker, born Pelsall;
- [2] Ann Ross (45), wife, born Bloxwich;
- [3] Elizabeth Ross (9), daughter, scholar, born Bloxwich;
- [4] Agnes Ross (6), daughter, scholar, born Bloxwich;
- [5] George Ross (4) son, born Bloxwich;
- [6] John Sherwood (30), visitor, stone mason, born Darlaston;
- [7] Mary Sherwood (20), visitor, born Bloxwich:

Staffordshire Advertiser 25/11/1876

“Benjamin George Evans, of the KINGS HEAD INN, Blakenall, was summoned at the instance of the police, for having permitted drunkenness on his premises on the previous Sunday. Mr. Chidley (from the offices of Messrs. Duignan, Lewis and Lewis) appeared for the defendant.

The principal witness against the defendant was Lucy Oates, wife of an engine-tender, who deposed that she went to the defendant’s house on the afternoon of the day named just before closing time, and there found her husband and five other men, all of whom were ‘beastly drunk.’ She told the defendant that it was a shame to supply people with drink while in such a state, and immediately afterwards the defendant’s wife took another quart of beer into the room to the men. This statement was corroborated by a lad who was with Mrs. Oates at the time. For the defence, witnesses were called, who denied that the men were drunk. A fine of £5 and costs was imposed, the license not to be endorsed. Mr. Chidley gave notice of appeal.”

Birmingham Daily Post 2/2/1877

“Benjamin George Evans, of the KINGS HEAD public-house, Blakenall, appealed against a decision of the borough justices, convicting him of having, on Sunday afternoon, the 19th of November, permitted drunkenness. Mr. Underhill (instructed by Mr. Cartwright, jun.) appeared for the appellant, and Mr. Plumtre (instructed by Messrs. Wilkinson and Gillespie) for the respondents. At the close of the case which occupied between two and three hours, the Deputy Recorder said that beyond doubt the magistrates were right in convicting the appellant of the offence; and although he should have been as well of better pleased if the penalty had been less than £5; yet when he remembered that the offence was committed on a Sunday he did not feel disposed to alter the conviction, which would therefore be sustained with costs. Order accordingly.”

1881 Census

79, Blakenall – KINGS HEAD

- [1] Job Daniels (47), coal miner, born British Market, Shropshire;
- [2] Emily Daniels (53), wife, born Bloxwich;
- [3] Job Daniels (16), son, saddler, born Bloxwich;
- [4] Job Edwards (5), grandson, born Bloxwich;
- [5] William Stetton (55), visitor, miner, born Bloxwich;
- [6] Sarah Ann ____ (14), domestic servant, born Bloxwich:

1891 Census

79, Blakenall Common – KINGS HEAD

- [1] William Wooldridge (33), licensed victualler, born Bloxwich;
- [2] Althea Wooldridge (26), wife, born Willenhall;
- [3] Althea Wooldridge (3), daughter, born Blakenall;
- [4] Olive Wooldridge (1), daughter, born Blakenall;
- [5] Susannah Smith (19), domestic servant, born Bloxwich:

Walsall Observer 20/1/1900

“On Saturday evening last, January 13th, the players and members of the Blakenall Villa Football Club were entertained to dinner at the headquarters, KINGS HEAD INN, Blakenall Heath, by the host Mr. William Wooldridge. A splendid repast was catered for, to which all did justice. After the cloth was withdrawn Mr. P. Wootton was voted to the chair.....”

William Wooldridge was elected as a member of the Walsall and District Licensed Victuallers’ and Beer Retailers’ Friendly and Protection Society in June 1900.

1901 Census

Blakenall Heath – KINGS HEAD

- [1] William Wooldridge (42), widower, licensed victualler, born Bloxwich;
- [2] Althea Wooldridge (13), daughter, born Bloxwich;
- [3] Olive Wooldridge (11), daughter, born Blakenall;
- [4] Gladys Wooldridge (8), daughter, born Blakenall;
- [5] Gertrude Wootton (30), relative, housemaid, born Birchills, Walsall:

1911 Census

Blakenall – KINGS HEAD INN

- [1] William Wooldridge (52), licensed victualler, widower, born Bloxwich;
- [2] Laura Wooldridge (20), daughter, housekeeper, born Blakenall;
- [3] Gladys Wooldridge (18), daughter, barmaid, born Blakenall;
- [4] Edna Anne Wooldridge (14), daughter, dress maker's apprentice, born Blakenall:

Walsall Advertiser 17/6/1911

“Phoenix Football Club.

The chairman proposed a hearty vote of thanks be accorded Mr. Wooldridge, of the KINGS HEAD, Blakenall for the use of the ground last season. He was sure they would all agree with him that it was one of the best grounds they had ever had, and it was kept in a first-rate condition, while they were always treated with the utmost hospitality by Mr. Wooldridge, whose kindness they much appreciated. He would also like to thank Mr. And Mrs. Powell, the host and hostess of the VINE, for their kindness.....”

Walsall Observer 12/1/1918

“Walsall and District War Aid Committee. Collection By The Licensed Victuallers, December, 1917.....
KINGS HEAD, Blakenall. £0 8s 2d.”

Demolished

It was rebuilt in 1929.

Lichfield Mercury 21/2/1936

“Pelsall defeated Walsall Rising Sun at the KINGS HEAD ground Blakenall, on Saturday, by three goals to one, and thus qualified to meet Bloxwich Social in the final of the Bloxwich Combination Inter League Shield.”

Walsall Observer 16/9/1939

“Yesterday, twelve further prosecutions for alleged lighting offences were taken.....

‘The missus had been trying to buy some blinds,’ said Charles Harper (40), licensee of the KINGS HEAD, Blakenall Heath. He admitted that light could be seen from two windows on the night of September 9, but disagreed with the constable’s evidence that it could be seen from any point on Blakenall Heath. Some attempt, it was stated, had been made at screening. A fine of 10s was imposed.”

1939 Register

Walker Road – KINGS HEAD (2 of 5)

- [1] Charles Harper, date of birth 9/11/1890, licensed victualler, married;
- [2] Lily Harper, dob 7/1/1897, unpaid domestic duties, married;

1944 Probate

“Charles Henry Harper, of the KINGS HEAD INN, Blakenall, Walsall, Staffordshire, died 25 September 1943. Administration (limited) Birmingham 18 May to Lilian Harper, widow, and Harriett Stallard (wife of William Stallard). Effects £1,312 2s.”

[2017]

KINGS HEAD

Blakenall Green, BLOXWICH

OWNERS

LICENSEES

Thomas Emery [1859] – [1862]

NOTES

Walsall Free Press 3/9/1859

“The bench proceeded to the applications for the renewal of old, and the granting of new licenses.....

“Mr. Duignan made an unsuccessful application on behalf of Mr. Thomas Emery, beerhouse keeper, of Blakenall. The Bench, however, complimented Mr. Emery on the condition in which they found his house, and stated that if the locality became more populous, he would stand a good chance of obtaining a license.”

Wolverhampton Chronicle 5/9/1860

“Wednesday last, being the annual licensing day, twenty applications were made by beer-house keepers for victualling licenses.....
Thomas Emery, Blakenhall. Refused.”

Thomas Emery was also a bridle bit maker. [1860], [1861]

Walsall Free Press 18/5/1861

“Thomas Emery, Philip Emery, and William Nicholls, were charged by the police with being drunk and disorderly, at Blakenall, on the night of May 11th. Mr. Mathews (from the office of Mr. S. Wilkinson) appeared for the police, and Mr. Ebsworth for the defendant William Nichols. Police-constable Beebee (No.13) deposed that he was on duty near the KINGS HEAD, Blakenall Green, on Saturday night. About twelve o’clock he heard a noise and entered the KINGS HEAD, where he found the defendants about to fight, and laying down money on the event of the contest. He was requested to interfere by the people of the house, and ordered defendants out. Nicholls committed a very indecent act before doing so. Outside there was a row between him and defendants, and he was obliged to use a stick he had in his hand.

Cross-examined: He was obliged to strike Nicholls across the back, or he believed he would have been murdered. He was summoned by Nicholls for that assault. Harriet Brown, barmaid of the KINGS HEAD, deposed to the drunken and disorderly condition of defendant, and hinted at the indecent conduct of Nicholls. A conversation here ensued between the learned gentlemen and the Bench, relative to the advisability of hearing the evidence of two other summonses, arising out of the same circumstances, at once, and disposing of them altogether. It was decided, however, that the present case should be heard separately. Mr. Ebsworth, after an explanatory speech, called Abraham Wilkinson, waiter of the KINGS HEAD, who swore that Nicholls was not drunk, and that the officer went into the house and had some ale there. He afterwards came in again and ordered the three defendants out. They went out, and witness with them. Nicholls then made the remark that he would report Beebee to the ‘super,’ and Beebee then came up and pushed him violently for having said so. A dispute then arose, and Beebee knocked Nicholls down with a stick. In cross-examination, this witness denied that Nicholls had done anything indecent, or acted insulting towards the officer, except in asking him how his ‘grandmother’ was.

Both the Emerys questioned the witness, with a view to showing that they were not drunk. The Bench was of opinion that the testimony of either the barmaid, or the police-officer, was more that worthy of credence than that of Wilkinson, and fined each of the defendants in the sum of 2s 6d and costs.”

[The Bench dismissed the summons of Nicholls against Police-constable Beebee.]

Staffordshire Advertiser 15/6/1861

“Thomas Emery, beerhouse keeper, Blakenall, was charged with having kept his house open for the sale of beer during prohibited hours. Police-constable Beeby stated that the house was open till half-past eleven o’clock on the night of the 10th inst. The defendant had been previously convicted for a similar offence. Fined 10s and cost.”

[This is NOT the same as the one at Blakenall Heath.]

KING WILLIAM

17, Fishley Lane, (8, (6), (1), Little Bloxwich), BLOXWICH

OWNERS

Mrs. Martha Harrison, Field House, Bloxwich
Thomas Saunders, grocer, High Street, Bloxwich

LICENSEES

James Franklin [1849] – [1865]

John Hancox [1868] – 1890;

Joseph Hancox (1890 – 1901);

George James Sambrook (1901 – 1906);

George William Sambrooke [1904] ?

NOTES

8, Little Bloxwich [1861]
6, Little Bloxwich [1871]
1, Little Bloxwich [1881]
Fishley Lane

KING WILLIAM THE 4TH [1851]

It was a coaching inn.

1851 Census

Little Bloxwich – KING WILLIAM THE 4th

- [1] James Franklin (48), victualler, born Cradley, Staffordshire;
- [2] Emma Franklin (50), wife, born Bloxwich;
- [3] Sarah Franklin (18), daughter, born Bloxwich;
- [4] Emma Teece (11), general servant, born Bloxwich:

Wolverhampton Chronicle 20/1/1858

“On Tuesday evening an inquest was held before A. A. Fletcher, Esq, Borough Coroner, at the KING WILLIAM, Little Bloxwich, on the body of Martin Gibbons, aged 74, a pensioner. It appeared that the deceased went to Walsall on the 6th to draw his pension, accompanied by his son and some other person. Between 3 and 4 o’clock in the afternoon, the party being on their return home, came up with a waggon belonging to Mr. Freeth, containing lime, which was proceeding in the same direction. In spite of the opposition of the waggoner, the party placed the old man, who was blind, upon the shaft of the vehicle. Before, however, he had been there more than a few minutes, the hind horse became restive, and raised the shaft. The deceased called out that he was hurt, and was taken to the HORSE AND JOCKEY INN, and from thence removed in a car to his own residence. It was not until several days afterwards that medical assistance was called in, and it was then discovered that several of his ribs were broken. He died on Saturday.

The jury found that the deceased had been killed by riding on a waggon.”

1861 Census

8, Little Bloxwich

- [1] James Franklin (59), victualler, born Cradely [Cradley?], Worcestershire;
- [2] Emma Franklin (60), wife, born Bloxwich;
- [3] Henry Davis (18), grandson, scholar, born Bloxwich;
- [4] James Davis (6), grandson, scholar, born Bloxwich;
- [5] Betsey Smith (14), servant, home duties, born Bloxwich;
- [6] Thomas Stokes (20), servant, agricultural labourer, born Bloxwich:

John Hancox was also a shopkeeper. [1868], [1870], [1872]

1871 Census

6, Little Bloxwich – Public House

- [1] John Hancox (51), licensed victualler, born Essington;
- [2] Catherine Hancox (46), wife, born Wednesfield;
- [3] Mary Ann Hancox (19), daughter, domestic servant, born Bloxwich;
- [4] Joseph Hancox (16), son, fireman, born Bloxwich;
- [5] Emma Hancox (7), daughter, scholar, born Bloxwich;
- [6] Eliza Ann Hancox (5), daughter, scholar, born Bloxwich;
- [7] Richard Hancox (8 months), son, born Bloxwich:

1881 Census

1, Little Bloxwich – KING WILLIAM

- [1] John Hancox (61), licensed victualler, born Essington;
- [2] Catherine Hancox (57), wife, born Wednesfield;
- [3] Emma Hancox (18), daughter, born Bloxwich;
- [4] Richard Hancox (10), son, scholar, born Little Bloxwich:

Lichfield Mercury 25/11/1887

“On Monday night Eliza Hancox (21), died at the house of her parents, the KING WILLIAM INN, Little Bloxwich, from the effects of injuries to the head caused by a fall downstairs on the 28th ult. She appeared to be going favourably, under the care of Dr.

Somerville and his assistant (Mr. Jones), until Sunday, when she became worse, and gradually sank until the time of her death.”

1891 Census

Little Bloxwich – KING WILLIAM INN

- [1] Joseph Hancox (35), widower, publican, born Staffordshire;
- [2] Esther Hancox (20), daughter, housekeeper, born Staffordshire;
- [3] Florence Hancox (18), daughter, servant, born Staffordshire;
- [4] John Hancox (10), son, born Staffordshire:

Birmingham Daily Post 14/5/1891

“At the Walsall Guildhall yesterday, Joseph Hancox, the KING WILLIAM INN, Bloxwich, and Richard Hancox, his brother, New Town, were summoned for having assaulted Arthur Cartwright, the BELL INN, Bloxwich, and Cartwright and Joseph Beech jun, also of the BELL INN, were summoned for having assaulted Joseph Hancox. Mr. Cotterell appeared for Cartwright and Beech, and Mr. H. H. Jackson for the other parties.

Cartwright’s case was to the effect that he reached home at eleven o’clock on the night of the 5th inst, and went into the stable to put up his horse. His wife came and began to push him about, which was a very common thing with her, and the elder Hancox entered and also assaulted him, the younger one coming in later and behaving in like manner. Joseph Hancox forced his way into the house, but was put out by the complainant’s father-in-law, Mr. Beech, sen, the keeper of the house; and subsequently complainant found his wife and Hancox together, first in the stable, and afterwards some distance along the road. He was then assaulted again by his wife, a very powerful woman, holding him so that he could not strike back. She did not return to his home that night.

The case on the other side was that the brothers Hancox were driving past the BELL INN, when they heard Mrs. Cartwright screaming, and on the elder one going in to find out what was the matter he saw her on the floor, and her husband holding her down. He released her, and was assaulted by her husband, and also by her brother, Joseph Beech, who struck him on the head with a poker or bar of iron.

The magistrates, without hearing all the witnesses in court, dismissed the summonses against Cartwright and Beech, and fined the other two – Joseph Hancox 40s and costs, or twenty-one days’ imprisonment; and Richard Hancox 5s and costs, or ten days’ imprisonment.”

Walsall Advertiser 22/9/1894

“Walsall and District Licensed Victuallers’ Society. The monthly meeting of this society was held on Sep 13 at the house of Mr. George Maund, the VAULTS, High Street.

Mr. Joseph Hancox, KING WILLIAM INN, Little Bloxwich, was elected a member of the committee.”

Lichfield Mercury 29/11/1895 - Advert

“Wanted, Cowman (Single), to live in; able to Hedge and Thatch. Character required. Apply, Hancox, KING WILLIAM INN, Little Bloxwich.”

Joseph Hancox was also a shopkeeper. [1896]

Walsall Advertiser 28/8/1897

“Walsall Annual Licensing Sessions. These sessions were held at the Guildhall yesterday.

6th August, Joseph Hancox, KING WILLIAM, Little Bloxwich, fined 20s and costs for selling after the expiration of an occasional license.

Objection to renewal.

With regard to the KING WILLIAM, Little Bloxwich, Mr Jackson, who supported the application for renewal, said the offence was for selling after the expiration of the license on a field, and not on the ordinary licensed premises. He emphasised that point, and hoped the Bench would observe the distinction. Opposition withdrawn.”

1901 Census

17, Fishley Lane – KING WILLIAM INN

- [1] George J. Sambrook (32), public house manager, born Great Wyrley, Staffordshire;
- [2] Agnes Sambrook (21), wife, born Walsall;
- [3] William Sambrook (29), brother, barman, born Great Wyrley:

Walsall Advertiser 30/3/1901

“A meeting of the Walsall and District Licensed Victuallers’ and Beer Retailers’ Friendly and Protection Society was held on Thursday week.

New Members. George Sambrook, KING WILLIAM INN, Little Bloxwich.”

George William Sambrooke was also a shopkeeper. [1904]

Walsall Advertiser 6/2/1904

“The annual licensing sessions for the Borough of Walsall were held on Thursday at the Guildhall, and aroused considerable inter-

est. The court was crowded, and many license-holders were unable to obtain admission.....

Notice had been given to 76 license holders to show cause for the renewal of their licenses, evidently as a result of the visits of a sub-committee of magistrates to the licensed premises, the reasons why cause had to be shown being various....

George James Sambrook, KING WILLIAM.”

Walsall Advertiser 27/2/1904

“The annual licensing sessions were continued on Tuesday, for the fifth day.....

ROYAL OAK INN, Goscote; BARLEY MOW INN, NAGS HEAD, Little Bloxwich; and KING WILLIAM INN, Little Bloxwich, were renewed, with an intimation from the Magistrates that they considered the licenses in both districts were in excess of the requirements.”

Walsall Advertiser 18/6/1904

“Walsall & District Air-Gun League. Hospital Cup & Medals.

The concluding draw, to be shot on Tuesday next, the 21st inst, at the VINE HOTEL, Lower Hall Lane, is as under:

1. VOLUNTEER or KING WILLIAM v GOLDEN EAGLE.

2. NEWPORT No.1 or CRITERION v CROWN or Leamore.

Final. Winner of No.2 v Winner of No.1.

The first team to have choice of shooting. The first match to commence at 8pm sharp, the second at 8.45, final at 9.45. Individuals to immediately follow.”

Walsall Advertiser 9/7/1904 - Notice

“Walsall & District Air-Gun League.

Hospital Cup And Medals.

The Presentation of the above will take place on Tuesday next, the 12th inst, at the FORGE INN, Pleck Road, at 8.30pm. All interested in Air-Gun Shooting are invited to attend. The winners are NEWPORT No.1. Runner-up, KING WILLIAM, Bloxwich.”

Walsall Advertiser 6/1/1906

“At Walsall Guildhall on Tuesday, a miner named George Law, of 4, Bellfield Row, was charged with stealing by a trick 2s 6d, the money of George Herbert Jones, of 20, West Street, Leamore.

Prosecutor stated that he was crossing some fields when he met defendant who asked him to change a half-crown. He gave him the change not knowing it was a bad one. The following day he went into the KING WILLIAM where he was told he had a bad half-crown in his possession. In answer to questions prosecutor said he didn't know the defendant's name at the time but knew him by sight. He afterwards informed Inspector Marshall with whom he went to defendant's house.

Mr. Sambrook, licensee of the KING WILLIAM, gave evidence to the effect that defendant came to his house on the date named and asked for a pint of ale, for which he handed in a half a sovereign, and he gave him 9s 9d change. The following day defendant came again to his house and said that he (witness) had given him a bad half-crown among his change. He asked him why he did not bring it back before, and defendant said he had not found out till then.

Thomas Ward, of Pelsall Wood, said he was in company with defendant when he asked prosecutor to change the half-crown.

Asked why he (defendant) wanted it changed, witness said that it was because it was a bad one.

Defendant said that when he met the prosecutor they were just going to have a game of cards, and he wanted 2s 6d changing. He had two half-crowns in his pocket at the time and did not know until he got home that he had given the prosecutor the bad one.

He had meant to mention it to Inspector Marshall but had not have time.

Fined 20s and costs or 14 days.”

It closed on 1st February 1906.

Walsall Advertiser 3/2/1906

“There was not nearly the intense public interest in the annual licensing meeting for the borough of Walsall on Thursday, at the Guildhall, as was the case during the past two or three years, for instead of the court room being densely crowded and a vast throng clamouring for admission in the entrance corridor and on the footpath outside, chiefly holders of licenses and others intimately connected with the trade, the court, though well filled, was evidently large enough to accommodate all who wished to attend.....

The Chief Constable had given notice of objection to the renewal of the following seven licenses; William Henry Lowe, ACORN, alehouse, Lower Rushall Street; James Scott, JOLLY BACCHUS, alehouse, New Street; George James Sambrook, KING WILLIAM, alehouse, Little Bloxwich; William Wright, OLD OAK, beerhouse, Upper Hall Lane; William Alfred Burton, STORES, beerhouse, Ablewell Street; George Carrington, STORES, beerhouse, Upper Rushall Street; John James Lawrence, STORES, beerhouse, High Street.

Mr. Loxton said these objections were by direction of the Bench, and he had also served notices on behalf of the magistrates, simply to comply with the section of the Act of Parliament, and without forming any opinion or prejudging cases. The justices directed him to state for the convenience of the advocates that the objections were mainly on the grounds of not required which would necessitate their being referred to the Compensatory Authority. But if during the hearing of the cases the grounds should be such as to justify the refusal of renewal on grounds without compensation, the advocate would be required to direct his attention to such grounds.

Mr. Pearman-Smith said he came there on the understanding that it was the intention to refer those licenses to the Compensatory

Authority to report on.

Mr. Loxton said the magistrates had inspected a number of houses with a view to whether they should report to the Compensatory Authority. It might be that some houses were structurally unfit, and in such case they would refuse the license, and they would have to go the quarter sessions.....

With regard to the KING WILLIAM, of Little Bloxwich, it was stated that the trade was a passing trade to and from the collieries. Mr. H. H. Jackson said that the house was an ancient one, and a landmark in the neighbourhood, and was required to supply the wants of the neighbourhood.....

The JOLLY BACCHUS, KING WILLIAM; STORES, Upper Rushall Street; STORES, High Street, were referred to the compensation authority.”

Walsall Advertiser 26/5/1906

“On Tuesday before a full Bench, comprised of Messrs. W. H. Brooks (presiding), G. Gull, J. Moseley, A. D. Cozens, R. Thomas, S. B. Wheway, H. D. Clark, P. Bull, J. Clare, and (Dr.) J. Lynch, Mr. F. Bill (solicitor) appeared in support of the report made by the Licensing Committee in respect of the four following houses: KING WILLIAM, Little Bloxwich; OLD OAK, Hall Lane; STORES, Ablewell Street; and STORES, High Street.

Mr. Bill in explaining the mode of procedure, said that if the Licensing Committee thought a license should be dealt with on certain grounds they could deal with it, and could refuse the license, but if they considered that it should be dealt with in respect of grounds other than those particular grounds, the matter must be brought before a full bench of Magistrates to deal with. The grounds of the report in these cases were that the licenses were not required by the needs of the district. This was one of the grounds the Licensing Committee could not deal with, and they must send the licenses so reported to a full bench of magistrates, who could renew or refuse the license. In case the latter course was taken then the question of compensation arose. He was instructed that these four houses had been inspected by the magistrates, so that their condition and the neighbourhood must be within their own knowledge. Mr. Bill then proceeded to call evidence.....

KING WILLIAM. Inspector Marshall stated that the house was a very old one, and in a dilapidated condition. There were five rooms on the ground floor and a clubroom, which was entered by the back yard. There were four other licensed houses within a radius of 470 yards of this house, and in his opinion this was the house that could be best dispensed with.

In examination by Mr. H. H. Jackson (who appeared for the owner, Mr. T. Sanders, of High Street, and the licensee, Mr. G. J. Sambrook), the inspector said he thought the house the most unsuitable because it had not the accommodation that the other houses had, but admitted that it was the nearest house to the collieries, and the trade was chiefly done by colliers who passed the house. Mr. Jackson, in reply, stated that the house was rented at £38 gross and £25 net, and did a good trade. If they found that it should be referred to the Compensation Authority he hoped they would deal with it in such a manner that they should not have to go the Inland Revenue Authority.

The landlord stated that the rent was £40 per year. He had been a tenant for 6 years. He paid £120 altogether on going in, including stock, fixtures, and everything. His average takings at one time were £15 per week, but during the last 12 months they had only been £12 to £14 weekly. He paid to the brewery company a sum of over £1,300 during the last three years.

In answer to Mr. Moseley, the landlord stated that the rent of his house included four acres of land.....

After a private deliberation, the chairman (Mr. W. H. Brooks) said the Bench had unanimously confirmed the resolution of the Licensing Committee that the four houses were unnecessary, and the licenses would be refused.”

KNAVE OF HEARTS

Lichfield Road / Millfield Avenue, BLOXWICH

OWNERS

Grigg and Brettell Ltd.
Holt, Plant and Deakin [1995]
Punch Taverns

LICENSEES

Leo Alphonsus Culkin (1960);
William Raymond 'Bill' Bonham (1960 – 1961);
Samuel Ralph Ashforth (1961 – 1965);
Gordon Richard Harknett (1965);
Leonard Jones (1965 – [1966])

NOTES

It opened on 3rd March 1960.

The full license was transferred from the ORIGINAL GREEN MAN, George Street, Walsall.

William Raymond Bonham was married to Betty.

He was the father-in-law of Edward Levy of the NAGS HEAD (BEACON WAY), Little Bloxwich.

See also THREE MEN IN A BOAT.

It opened as a HPD pub in 1991.

Sandwell Evening Mail 1/11/1991 - Advert

“Early Evening Pint Savers. Holts Bitter 99p per pint. Holts Entire 105p per pint.

Special offer prices for the month of November only.

Available Mon-Sat evenings 5.30-8pm.

Only from these Holts pubs KNAVE OF HEARTS, Lichfield Road, Bloxwich, Walsall.”

Sandwell Evening Mail 6/7/1992

“They’re the pubs that YOU think are the best in the Midlands – and now they’re all in the running for our prestigious Midland Town and Country Pub of the Year.....

The Evening Mail has teamed up for the contest with the Midland Counties Brewers’ and Licensed Retailers’ Association, to raise a toast to the very best of our region’s pubs. Now it is up to the judges, who face a huge task choosing the two winners from the enormous entry. They’ll be looking for service and standards of comfort demanded by today’s discerning pub-goer. And they will be awarding marks for another important ingredient of a successful pub – the part it plays as a hub of social life in the community.....

KNAVE OF HEARTS, Bloxwich, Walsall.”

It closed in 2009.

Express and Star 20/8/2010

“.....It was given a £1 million transformation turning it into a 2,500 sq. ft. Co-op store.....”

LADY DIANA

80-82, Park Road, BLOXWICH

OWNERS

Kenny Wallace and Stuart Day

LICENSEES

Audrey Day (2011 – [2012] manager

NOTES

It was originally a wine bar.

It reopened as the CAROUSEL in the 1990s.

[2009]

Closed [2010], [2011]

It reopened after a refurbishment as LADY DIANA on 18th November 2011.

Audrey Day was married to Stuart.

[2017]

LAMB

Newhall Street, WALSALL

OWNERS

LICENSEES

Butler []

LAMB

17, South Street, Caldmore, WALSALL

OWNERS

Mrs. Eliza Busst
George Boulter, Shire Oak Brewery, Stonnall
Stephen Brown [1896]
Frederick Brown
Joshua Bloomer
Ernest Ramsey
John Joule and Sons Ltd., Stone [1931]
Mitchells and Butlers Ltd.

LICENSEES

David Busst [1869] – [1872]
Mrs. Eliza Busst [1872] – [1881];
Stephen Brown [1891] – 1898);
Frederick Brown (1898 – 1908);
Harriet Brown (1908 – 1911);
Sidney Brown (1911 – 1912);
James Jones Turner (1912 – 1919);
Edward Hughes (1919 – 1920);
Stephen Leonard Harrison (1920 – 1921);
John Albutt (1921 – 1922);
Ernest Ramsey (1922 – 1923);
John Gordon Piper (1923 – 1926);
Charles Walter Logan (1926 – 1927);
Edward Evans (1927 – 1928);
Robert Eric Miller (1928 – 1945);
Cyril James Turner (1945 – 1946);
Vincent William Fletcher (1946 – 1952);
Dennis Raymond Partridge (1952 – 1956);
Walter Samuel Rollin (1956 – 1957);
Mary Alice (Rollin) Mason (1957 – 1967);
Marjorie Shelley (1967 – [])

NOTES

It was an ante 1869 house.

Walsall Free Press 4/9/1869

“Walsall Annual Licensing Day, Wednesday applications for new licenses for the sale of spirits.....

Mr. Gillespie applied, on behalf of Mr. David Busst, landlord of the LAMB beerhouse, South Street. Mr. Gillespie, after setting forth the qualification of his client and the capabilities of the premises, showed that, in the locality in which his client's house is situated, a public house was much wanted.

The Mayor announced that the Bench had decided not to grant any new licenses this year."

Staffordshire Advertiser 10/9/1870

"Walsall Annual Licensing Sessions were held at the Guildhall yesterday week.....

There were eight applicants for new spirit licenses.....

David Busst, the LAMB INN, South Street.....

The magistrates retired to consider their decision, and after having been absent about half an hour they returned, and announced that they had decided to refuse all the applications, though they had come to this decision with much regret in some instances."

1871 Census

17, South Street – LAMB TAVERN

[1] David Busst (51), bit maker, born Walsall;

[2] Eliza Busst (50), wife, born Measham, Derbyshire;

[3] Sarah Nash (19), domestic servant, born Darlaston:

Walsall Free Press 2/12/1871

"On Tuesday afternoon last A. A. Fletcher, Esq., coroner for the borough, held an inquest at the LAMB INN, South Street, upon the body of Phoebe Davis, aged 13, who died under circumstances detailed in the following evidence.

Edwin Derby, bundler and stock taker, said the deceased had lived at his house in the capacity of domestic servant for five or six months. She appeared to be a very healthy girl, and never had any sickness till about eight o'clock on Monday morning. She then complained of a pain in her head and sickness and went outdoors and leaned her head against the window sill. Witness took her into the house and placed her upon a chair. At her request witness placed her upon a sofa, and shortly afterwards sent for Dr. Maclachlan. Deceased was perfectly sensible to the last, and did not struggle much, but foamed at the mouth and nostrils. When Dr. Maclachlan arrived deceased was dead, and that gentleman told witness he could not tell the cause of death merely by seeing the deceased. Deceased had not partaken of any food when she was taken ill. In reply to the foreman of the jury, witness said deceased spent Sunday with her friends. Nothing was given to deceased and nothing done for her, beyond placing a vinegar cloth upon her forehead. Emma Davis, wife of Edward Davis, said the deceased was her daughter and was thirteen years and six months old. The deceased had had only two illnesses since her birth. On one occasion she had inflammation of the lungs, and once she was sick. She was not subject to fits. When she had a cold she would complain of her head, but that was very seldom. Witness had a nephew who died of heart disease, but none of her own family had never shown any symptoms of being afflicted with it. Deceased spent Sunday with witness, and ate a little pork for dinner; she also partook of a little tea. Deceased left home for Walsall at 5-20pm, and was then quite well. The coroner said it was evident that there had been nothing done to deceased to cause her death, which he had no hesitation of saying was the result of an epileptic attack. The jury returned a verdict of Death from Natural Causes."

David Busst, beer retailer, 17 Smith Street. [1872]

Staffordshire Advertiser 30/8/1873

"The annual licensing sessions took place at the Guildhall yesterday applicants for old licences.....

Eliza Busst, the LAMB, South Street refused, the property not being of sufficient annual value."

Birmingham Daily Post 29/8/1874

"The annual Brewster Sessions for the borough of Walsall took place yesterday, at the Guildhall.....

Mr. Gillespie (of the firm Messrs. Wilkinson and Gillespie) applied for a victualling license for Eliza Busst, beerhouse keeper, South Street. He said the applicant's house was situated in the centre of a large and rapidly increasing district, to which no additional accommodation had been granted for many years, and had been kept for eight years by the applicant's husband and herself without the slightest complaint. Further, the premises were very commodious. Refused."

Staffordshire Advertiser 28/8/1875

"Walsall Annual Licensing Business.....

Mr. Gillespie (of the firm of Messrs. Wilkinson and Gillespie) applied for a victualling licence for Eliza Busst, beerhouse keeper, South Street.....

The magistrates retired, and on their return into court stated that the licensing justices would visit the houses of Eliza Busst and would give their decision at the Adjourned Licensing Session."

Birmingham Daily Post 1/9/1877

"The annual licensing session for the borough of Walsall took place yesterday, at the Guildhall.....

The applicant's for full licenses..... Eliza Busst, the LAMB beerhouse, Smith Street, supported by Mr. Gillespie. Refused."

Staffordshire Advertiser 31/8/1878

"The annual licensing session for the borough was held yesterday.....

Eliza Busst, of the LAMB INN, South Street, applied for a victuallers' license for her beerhouse. Mr. Gillespie appeared for the applicant, and there was no opposition. Refused.”

Lichfield Mercury 3/9/1880

“The usual licensing session took place at the Guildhall, Walsall, on Friday.....

Eliza Busst, the LAMB INN, South Street, applied for a victualler’s license, Mr. Gillespie appearing on her behalf, and reminding the Bench that the applicant and her late husband had made a similar application year after year for many years, and that no new license had been granted for a house in the district in which she lived, although it had increased greatly Adjourned.”

Lichfield Mercury 17/9/1880

“The adjourned annual licensing session took place on Friday, at the Guildhall.....

The adjourned application of Eliza Busst, of the LAMB beerhouse, was further adjourned.”

A wine license was granted pre 1881.

1881 Census

17, South Street

[1] Eliza Busst (60), widow, publican, born Measham, Derbyshire;

[2] Emma Wright (19), niece, assistant, born Walsall;

[3] Ann Howe (72), sister, widow, born Ticknall, Derbyshire:

1891 Census

South Street – LAMB INN

[1] Stephen Brown (61), widower, publican, born Walsall;

[2] Arthur Brown (27), son, brass caster, born Walsall;

[3] Stephen Brown (24), son, brass caster, born Walsall;

[4] Albert Brown (17), son, bridle cutter, born Walsall;

[5] Kate Rawley (19), domestic servant, born Walsall:

Walsall Advertiser 3/9/1892

“The annual Licensing Sessions for the Borough of Walsall took place on Wednesday at the Guildhall.....

Stephen Brown, the LAMB INN, South Street, beerhouse keeper, applied for a license to sell all intoxicating spirits to be consumed on or off the premises.

Mr. H. H. Jackson appeared in support of the application, which was opposed by Mr. F. Bill, on behalf of the proprietor of the NEW INN, and by Mr. Checkley on behalf of Mr. Alfred Stanley, of the Gospel Temperance Union, and the Chief-constable.

Mr. Jackson represented that the premises were most suitable for a full license, and that the applicant was a most proper person to hold it, having conducted a beerhouse in a most respectable manner for many years. In 1869 the justices considered that a beer license was required at this place, and the district had increased to such an extent that there could be no doubt that a full license was now required.

The applicant was sworn and substantiated Mr. Jackson’s statement.

In reply to Mr. Brewer he said that he had only three bedrooms, and if anyone asked for a bed he could not give it. He had only stalls for two horses.

Mr. Loxton: Then you only have drinking accommodation? – Applicant: That is all.

At this point the Mayor interposed with the announcement that the Bench had unanimously decided that the application should not be granted.”

Walsall Advertiser 28/9/1895

“The adjourned licensing Sessions for the Borough of Walsall was held at the Guildhall yesterday.....

Mr. Vachell, Birmingham, instructed by Mr. Enoch Evans, Walsall, applied on behalf of Stephen Brown beerhouse keeper, of the LAMB INN, South Street, for a full victuallers’ license. Brown, Mr. Vachell said, had had his license renewed on several occasions, and the house was admirably adapted for a full license. On the question of requirements of the neighbourhood, he was instructed that it was practically a new district. The applicant was himself the owner of the house nine years ago, and at that time he could stand at the door, and look over waving fields of corn. It was now, however, urban in the extreme, and building land was sought after eagerly.

The application was opposed by the Chief Constable and Mr. Addison, the latter on behalf of several gentlemen residing in the neighbourhood.

Mr. Vachell said he liked a little opposition, as it showed the genuineness of the application.

Neither the landlord nor any of his witnesses attended, and the Bench therefore refused the application. Immediately the decision had been announced Mr. Brown appeared in court, but the Bench refused to re-open the case.”

Stephen Brown, beer retailer, 17, South Street. [1896]

Walsall Advertiser 29/8/1896

“The adjourned licensing sessions for the borough of Walsall were held yesterday (Friday), at the Guildhall.....

Mr. Lawrence (instructed by Mr. Enoch Evans) applied on behalf of Stephen Brown, of the LAMB INN, South Street, for a full license for that house. Mr. Herbert opposed on behalf of the Temperance Federation, and also Mr. John Powis and Mr. John Page, who live in South Street.

Mr. Lawrence explained that much of the substance of Mr. Cotterell's remarks would apply in this case also. Mr. Brown had been the owner and occupier of these premises for ten years and his character would bear every investigation. During the past few years the population of the neighbourhoods had vastly increased, and Mr. Brown's house was in every way suited for a full license. Mr. Brown gave evidence in support of the application and the Chief Constable explained that the WHITE HART was 460 yards away, the KINGS ARMS 550 yards away, and the SIR CHARLES NAPIER 735 yards away.

Mr. Joseph Amphlett, 58, South Street; Mr. Benjamin Astbury, 59, South Street; Mr. William Thacker, 3, Milton Street; Mr. J. Harding, 63, South Street; Mr. Job Hanning, 5, Milton Street; Mr. Edward Gibbons, 57, South Street, spoke of the necessity for the license.

Mr. Herbert submitted that everything which had been said in favour of the application might with equal truth be said of every beerhouse. The only argument was that the house would, with the full license, be 'more handy,' and he did not think that that reason would appeal to their worships. Application refused."

Walsall Advertiser 28/8/1897

"Walsall Annual Licensing Sessions. These sessions were held at the Guildhall yesterday.....

Stephen Brown applied through Mr. Disturnal for a full license for the LAMB INN, South Street, and in support of the application pointed out the rapid growth of population in the neighbourhood in which the house in question is situate. It was stated by Mr. Owen, architect, that since 1885 there had been 470 houses erected in the vicinity.

Benjamin Astbury, of South Street was called in support of the application. In reply to Mr. Taylor witness said he did not keep spirits in the house. Then ensued the following amusing dialogue:

Mr. Taylor: You gave evidence last year? – Yes.

You had an old lady living in the house then? – Yes.

And she suffered from spasms? – Yes (much laughter).

You don't keep spirits in the house now? – It don't do to keep too much spirits in the house, or perhaps there would be too many spasms (loud laughter).

Mr. J. F. Addison opposed the application, which was refused."

Walsall Advertiser 26/2/1898 - Notice

"Stephen Brown, Deceased.

Notice Is Hereby Given that all Persons having any Claims or Demands upon or against the Estate of Stephen Brown, late to the LAMB INN, South Street, Walsall, Beerhouse Keeper, deceased, are hereby required to forthwith send in particulars thereof in writing to me, the undersigned.

Enoch Evans, Bank Buildings, 20, Bridge Street, Walsall, Solicitor for the Administrator."

Stephen Brown – see also ALMA.

Walsall Advertiser 23/4/1898

"The monthly meeting of the Walsall and District Licensed Victuallers' and Beer Retailers' Friendly and Protection Society was held on Thursday.....

New Members. Mr Frederick Brown, LAMB INN, South Street, Walsall."

1901 Census

17, South Street

[1] Frederick Brown (39), beerhouse keeper, born Walsall;

[2] Harriett Brown (40), wife, born Walsall;

[3] Sidney Brown (14), son, born Walsall;

[4] Charles Brown (11), son, born Walsall;

[5] Hannah Homer (38), sister in law, born Walsall;

[6] Winifred Stanton (18), general servant, born Brownhills:

Frederick Brown, beer retailer, 17, South Street. [1904]

Walsall Observer 14/11/1908

"The monthly meeting of the Walsall and District Licensed Victuallers' and Beer Retailers' Friendly and Protection Society was held on Thursday last at the house of the President, MANOR ARMS INN, Daw End, Rushall. Mr. R. Anson, Daw End (president), occupied the chair.....

The President referred to the deaths of two members – Mr. F. Brown, South Street, and Mr. Harmar Taylor, Pelsall – and motions were unanimously adopted, respectfully tendering sympathy and condolence to Mrs. Brown and Mrs. Taylor and their families in their bereavement.

Funeral donation of £6 was voted to be paid to the representatives of Mr. F. Brown, who joined the society on 21st April, 1898, and £3 10s to Mr. Harmar Taylor's representatives. He joined 18th February, 1904."

Walsall Advertiser 25/12/1909

“The various sick and dividend societies in the town have, during the last week, paid out the yearly dividends.....
LAMB INN, South Street. The general annual meeting of the sick and dividend society in connection with this house was held on Thursday evening. Mr. A. Homer (secretary) presented the report and balance sheet, and said that during the summer months they had much sickness, whereas it should have been their lightest period. The receipts were £33 16s 5d, and sick pay absorbed £14 5s 10d. After further payments a balance was shown of £13 16s 10d, which provided a dividend of 6s 7d per member.”

1911 Census

17, South Street – LAMB INN

- [1] Harriet Brown (50), widow, innkeeper, born Walsall;
- [2] Sidney Brown (24), son, at home, born Walsall;
- [3] Charles Frederick Brown (21), son, fancy leather worker, born Walsall;
- [4] Maude Harrison (23), general servant, born Brownhills:

Walsall Advertiser 4/11/1911 - Deaths

“On the 30th October, at the LAMB INN, South Street, Harriet, widow of the late Fredk. Brown, in her 52nd year. Interred at Rye-croft cemetery, November 2nd.

Messrs. Sidney and Charles Brown thank their many friends for the kind expression of sympathy”

Walsall Advertiser 23/12/1911

“At the STORK HOTEL on Monday evening Mr. Matt. F. Harrison, F.A.I. (Messrs Fox and Harrison) sold by auction two freehold beerhouses and freehold property.....

The first lot was a freehold (free) beerhouse known as the LAMB INN, South Street, with modern up-to-date brewery. Bidding commenced at £1,000 and after spirited competition rose to £2,750, at which price the hammer fell.”

Sidney Brown, beer retailer, 17, South Street. [1912]

Walsall Advertiser 20/1/1912 - Advert

“LAMB INN, South Street, Walsall.

Fox & Harrison, Mr. Harrison F.A.I. having Sold by Auction the Freehold (with possession) of the Property, will Sell by Public Auction, without any reserve, on the Premises of the above Inn, on Thursday, 8th February, 1912, in consequence of the possession having to be given up to the purchaser on the day following, the Whole of the Valuable Antique and Modern Household Furniture and Appointments.

On View from 9 o'clock on Morning of sale.

Sale at 10.30 am.

Descriptive Catalogues may be obtained at the place of sale or at the Offices of the Auctioneers.

Auctioneer's Offices, 51, Lower Hall Lane, Walsall. Tel. 198.”

Walsall Advertiser 23/3/1912

“The monthly meeting of the Walsall and District Licensed Victuallers' and Beer Retailers' Friendly and Protection Society was held on Thursday week.....

New Members..... James Jones Turner, LAMB INN, South Street.”

Lichfield Mercury 1/8/1913 - Advert

“Wanted, good strong General; one used to public business preferred.

Apply, Turner, LAMB INN, South Street, Walsall.”

Walsall Observer 21/11/1914

“The following is a list of box collections to date made on behalf of the Prince of Wales' National Relief Fund (Walsall Branch).....

LAMB, South Street, Walsall, 4s.”

Walsall Observer 12/1/1918

“Walsall and District War Aid Committee. Collection By The Licensed Victuallers, December, 1917.....

LAMB INN, South Street. £1 6s 3d.”

'Walsall Pubs: A History' by John Cockayne

“A 1925 survey described it as having an old brewery plant and a pig sty in the yard, the Public Bar was 10'6” x 15'2” x 9'4” with a Tap Room, Smoke Room and Club Room.”

Edward Evans – see also VICTORIA.

1939 Register

17, South Street – Public House (2 of 4)

- [1] Robert E. Miller, date of birth 11/7/1896, licensee, married;

[2] Dorothy Miller, dob 20/9/1896, unpaid domestic duties, married;

Walsall Observer 7/12/1940

“Walsall Licensed Victuallers’ Society.

Motor Ambulance Effort on behalf of Walsall and District branch of the British Red Cross Society.

First List of Subscriptions.....

LAMB INN, South Street, £5 3s 8d.”

Walsall Observer 24/12/1942

“Walsall Licensed Victuallers’ Society. The Duke of Gloucester’s Red Cross Fund. List of Subscriptions.....

LAMB, South Street. £2 15s 0d.”

Walsall Observer 15/1/1944

“Walsall Licensed Victuallers’ Society.

Appeal on Behalf of the Merchant Navy Fund, The Duke of Gloucester’s Red Cross Fund and the Aid to China Fund. List of Subscriptions.....

LAMB INN, South Street. £5 5s 0d.”

A full license was granted on 7th March 1957.

Closed

It became a private dwelling.

LAMB AND LARK

Pool Street, WALSALL

OWNERS

LICENSEES

Thomas Hill [1834]

NOTES

It had a beerhouse license. [1834]

LAMP TAVERN

34, (32), High Street, (61, Walsall Road), (Bloxwich Road), Short Heath, BLOXWICH

OWNERS

T. Foster Esq.

Mary Reeves, widow, Bloxwich

Mrs. Emma Goodall, Pinfold, Bloxwich

Bloxwich Brewery [1907]

Mrs. Marshall [1914]

Thomas Goodall [1925]

William Butler and Co. Ltd. (leased from 26th January 1914) [1925]

Holdens Brewery Ltd. (acquired in 1994)

LICENSEES

James Smith [1828] – [1830]

Joseph Cartwright [1849] – [1851]
Joseph Fisher [1871] – [1883];
Hannah Taylor [];
James Garner [];
Alice Ann Garner [] – 1887);
James Bruce (1887 – 1888);
Elijah Stackhouse (1888 – 1889);
Arthur Read (1889);
William James Wain (1889 – 1890);
William Booker (1890 – 1895);
Frank Dewsbury (1895 – 1896);
Thomas Goodall (1896 – 1907);
Matthew George Brown (1907 – 1913);
Levi Wilkes (1913 – 1914);
William Walkerdine (1914 – 1915);
Henry Goodall (1915 – 1925); manager
Charles Russell (1925 – 1941);
Thomas William Bethel (1941 – 1948); manager
Arthur Lang (1948 – 1957);
Maurice Cox (1957 – [1966])

NOTES

Bloxwich Road
61, Walsall Road [1871]
32, High Street [1881], [1896], [1901], [1911], [1912], [1940]
34, High Street

It had a beerhouse license.

It was originally part of a farm.

1851 Census

Short Heath

- [1] Joseph Cartwright (67), retail brewer, born Haywood, Staffordshire;
- [2] Elizabeth Cartwright (65), wife, born Essington, Staffordshire;
- [3] Ellen Cartwright (23), daughter, born Bloxwich;
- [4] Mary Cartwright (3 months), granddaughter, born Bloxwich;
- [5] Archasadalla Poice (12), house servant, born Lane Green:

1871 Census

61, Walsall Road – LAMP TAVERN – beer trade

- [1] Joseph Fisher (34), blacksmith and beerhouse keeper, born Lane Head, Staffordshire;
- [2] Hannah Fisher (33), wife, born Bloxwich;
- [3] William Fisher (15), son, butcher, born Bloxwich;
- [4] Ann Fisher (7), daughter, scholar, born Bloxwich;
- [5] Joseph Fisher (5), son, scholar, born Bloxwich;
- [6] Sarah Clark (16), domestic servant, born Dudley:

Joseph Fisher, beer retailer and smith, Walsall Road. [1872]

Walsall Advertiser 11/2/1879 - Notice

“S. Stackhouse, the LAMP TAVERN, Stafford Street, wishes to state that the Robbery from the Person, reported in the daily papers this week, did not take place upon his premises, but at the LAMP TAVERN, Bloxwich.”

1881 Census

32, High Street – LAMP TAVERN

- [1] Joseph Fisher (44), blacksmith, born Bloxwich;
- [2] Hannah Fisher (46), wife, born Bloxwich;
- [3] Anne Fisher (17), daughter, born Bloxwich;
- [4] Joseph Fisher (15), son, scholar, born Bloxwich:

Lichfield Mercury 2/9/1881

“The annual licensing sessions for this borough took place at the Guildhall, on Friday.....
Mr. Loxton (instructed by the Licensed Victuallers’ Association) opposed every one of the subsequent applications.....
Joseph Fisher, the LAMP TAVERN, High Street, Bloxwich, to sell wine on the premises (supported by Mr. Brookes). Refused.”

Birmingham Daily Post 20/10/1883 - Advert

“Housekeeper Wanted, accustomed to Public-house; not more than 40.
Joseph Fisher, LAMP TAVERN, Bloxwich.”

Elijah Stackhouse was granted a temporary license on 26th September 1888, which was confirmed 21st November 1888.
He was fined 20s and costs, on 12th October 1888, for permitting drunkenness.

Walsall Advertiser 16/11/1895

“Walsall and District Licensed Victuallers’ Society. The monthly meeting of this society was held on Thursday.....
Mr. Frank Dewsbury, LAMP TAVERN, High Street, Bloxwich was elected member of the society.”

William Booker, beer retailer, 32, High Street, Bloxwich. [1896]

Walsall Observer 17/3/1900

“On Monday evening last a supper was held at the LAMP TAVERN, the house of Mr. T. Goodall, when a goodly number did ample justice to the good things provided. The same was in connection with the Sick and Dividend Society, recently opened, of which Mr. T. Cockayne is secretary.....”

Walsall Observer 4/8/1900

“On Tuesday night last a supper was held at the LAMP TAVERN, Bloxwich Road, kept by Thomas Goodall, in connection with a money club held at that house. Over forty members enjoyed a good meal, which was nicely prepared by the hostess.....”

1901 Census

32, High Street – LAMP TAVERN

- [1] Thomas Goodall (42), public house keeper, born Bloxwich;
- [2] Emma Goodall (38), wife, born Bloxwich;
- [3] Henry Goodall (20), son, coal miner, born Bloxwich;
- [4] Jane Goodall (18), daughter, born Bloxwich;
- [5] James Goodall (16), public house barman, born Bloxwich:

Thomas Goodall, beer retailer, 32, High Street. [1904]

Walsall Advertiser 28/12/1907

“The monthly meeting of the Walsall and District Licensed Victuallers’ and Beer Retailers’ Friendly and Protection Society was held on Thursday week.....

New Members. Mathew Brown, LAMP TAVERN, High Street, Bloxwich.”

1911 Census

32, High Street

- [1] Matthew George Brown (33), publican, born Walsall;
- [2] Ada Brown (32), wife, married 13 years, publican, born Walsall;
- [3] Matthew George Brown (13), son, school, born Walsall;
- [4] Sidney Allen Brown (11), son, school, born Walsall;
- [5] Frank Horace Brown (10), son, school, born Walsall;
- [6] Edith May Brown (8), daughter, school, born Walsall;
- [7] Elsie May Brown (5), daughter, born Walsall;
- [8] Clifford Malcolm Brown (2), son, born Walsall;
- [9] Benard Brown (2 months), son, born Walsall;
- [10] James Tonks (26), boarder, coal miner, hewer, born Walsall:

Matthew George Brown, beer retailer, 32, High Street, Bloxwich. [1912]

He was fined £25 and costs, on 2nd April 1913, for running a betting house.

Walsall Advertiser 3/4/1913

“The story of a police raid on a Bloxwich public house and a big haul of football betting coupons, as well as money and betting slips for horse racing, was related at the Walsall Police Court on Wednesday morning, when George Brown, landlord of the LAMP TAVERN, High Street, Bloxwich, was summoned for using his premises for the purposes of betting on the 8th and 15th of March.....

Mr. Clark said the Bench considered the case a bad one. The maximum fine was £100, and they considered Brown was being let off very lightly in being fined £25 and costs or a month.”

Walsall Observer 7/2/1914

“The annual Brewster Sessions for the borough of Walsall were held at the Guildhall on Tuesday morning.....
In the case of the LAMP TAVERN, Bloxwich, which has been objected to by the Chief Constable owing to a conviction against the previous licensee, Mr. H. H. Jackson appeared for the owner, Mrs. Marshall, and the lessees, the Bloxwich Brewing Company. Mr. Jackson formerly applied for the renewal of the license.
The Chief Constable stated that in April last the then tenant was fined £25 and costs for keeping a gaming house. He had permitted people to resort to the house in connection with football betting, which took the place of horse-race betting during the winter months and in which an extensive business was done throughout the country. The tenant was got out of the house immediately after the conviction. The present tenant was a respectable man, and he (the Chief Constable) had no fault to find with the house since he had been in.
Mr. Jackson said that the man who was convicted had been tenant of the house for five years and during that period there had not been the slightest complaint prior to the case in question. The present tenant had been in for nearly twelve months, and he had conducted the house in every way satisfactory to the police. The lessees (the Bloxwich Brewery Co.) had done their best to get good tenants, but no one could tell what a man would do. To have the license taken away would be very hard on the company and the owner.
The application was adjourned.”

Walsall Advertiser 28/2/1914

“At the adjourned Licensing Sessions at the Guildhall yesterday.....
The Bench decided not to renew the license of the LAMP TAVERN, Bloxwich, objected to on the ground of a conviction for betting. The applications in both cases were made by Mr. H. H. Jackson.”

Walsall Observer 5/2/1916

“The general annual licensing sessions for the borough were held at the Guildhall on Wednesday morning.....
Application for billiards license were made by Henry Goodall, beerhouse keeper, of the LAMP TAVERN, Bloxwich.....
The Chief Constable pointed out that both the houses in question belonged to the same firm.
It was stated that in each case it was intended that a bagatelle table should be provided for customers, but it was necessary to have a billiard license.
The magistrates retired to consider these applications, and on their return Mr. Phillips announced that they had decided to grant licenses in both cases, but on condition that the houses were kept open for the full licensed hours, and that temperance refreshments should be provided. It was purely an experiment, and the justices wished to see how it worked.”

Walsall Observer 12/1/1918

“Walsall and District War Aid Committee. Collection By The Licensed Victuallers, December, 1917.....
LAMP TAVERN, Bloxwich. £0 12s 8½d.”

Birmingham Daily Gazette 15/10/1930

“Yesterday’s contributions to the relief fund organised by the Birmingham Gazette and Evening Despatch for the 14 victims of the Norton Canes colliery disaster were from many and varied sources.....
Licensed victuallers and their customers and social clubs continue to give splendid assistance, as today’s list shows.....
Customers and Host, LAMP TAVERN, Bloxwich, per A. Longdon and E. Kane, £1 1s 0d.”

1939 Register

High Street – LAMP TAVERN

- [1] Charles Russell, date of birth 20/6/1874, licensed victualler, widowed;
- [2] Samuel Timmins, dob 13/10/1902, steel tube examiner, married;
- [3] Violet W. Timmins, dob 3/2/1902, paid housekeeper, married;
- [4] Fanny Boot, dob 5/1/1901, unpaid domestic duties, married;
- [5] Margaret B. (Boot) Woodward, dob 30/11/1929, at school, single:

Walsall Observer 7/12/1940

“Walsall Licensed Victuallers’ Society.
Motor Ambulance Effort on behalf of Walsall and District branch of the British Red Cross Society.
First List of Subscriptions.....
LAMP TAVERN, High Street, Bloxwich, £7 0s 0d.”

Walsall Observer 24/12/1942

“Walsall Licensed Victuallers’ Society. The Duke of Gloucester’s Red Cross Fund. List of Subscriptions.....
LAMP TAVERN, High Street, Bloxwich. £5 10s 6d.”

An application for the Ordinary Removal of the full license from the MINERVA, Paddock Lane, Walsall, was granted on 6th February 1958, and was confirmed on 17th April 1958.

[2017]

LAMP

193, Stafford Street, WALSALL

OWNERS

Samuel Stackhouse
George Edward Elliott
James Bird, The Butts Inn, Walsall
Emma Bird
J. E. Hennessy
Samuel Holmes
Horace Holmes
Mitchells and Butlers Ltd. (acquired on 14th October 1937)

LICENSEES

George Forester [1835]
Sommerfield [1840]
William Middlemore [1841] – [1842]
John Griffiths [1845]
Mrs. Ann Archer [];
Nicholas Roper [1849] – [1851]
Samuel Stackhouse [1855] – [1879];
George Edward Elliott [];
Thomas Fidoe [1881];
James Bird [];
Henry Thomas Drake [] – 1886);
John Holland (1886 – 1893);
John Thomas (1893 – 1896);
Francis John ‘Frank’ Moore (1896 – 1897);
George Hackerness (1897 – 1898);
Joseph White (1898 – 1900);
John Edward Hennessy (1900 – 1904);
Robert Underwood [1904] ?
Ernest Arthur Hennessy (1904);
Thomas Joyce (1904 – 1906);
Samuel Holmes (1906 – 1924);
Horace Henry Holmes (1924 – 1939);
Harry Sydney Dutton (1939 – 1940);
Dorothy Violet Dutton (1940 – 1941);
William Lawrence (1941 – 1953);
Mrs. Emily Lawrence (1953 – 1957);
Arnold Dennis Hughes (1957 – 1958);
Sidney George Haycock (1958);
William Edward Simmonds (1958 – 1960);
Frank Harold Bryan (1960 – 1961);
Thomas George Buckley (1961 – 1963);

NOTES

It was known locally as “Sammy Holmes’s”

LAMP TAVERN [1861], [1872], [1881], [1882], [1891], [1900], [1908], [1932], [1940]
LAMB [1862] a misspelling

Aris’s Birmingham Gazette 18/3/1833 - Advert

“Valuable Freehold Property, in Stafford Street, Walsall.

To be Sold by Auction, by J. Farrington, at the LAMP TAVERN, in Stafford Street, on Tuesday the 26th day of March, 1833, at four o'clock in the afternoon, subject to conditions, all that substantially well-built House, with excellent Shopping for 20 pairs of hands, with Outbuildings, Yard, excellent garden, containing about 500 square yards, situate in and fronting Stafford Street, and late in the occupation of Mr. Isaac Newton.

For particulars apply at the office of the Auctioneer, Walsall.”

Staffordshire Advertiser 16/5/1835 - Deaths

“On the 22nd ult. aged 2 years, Edwin, only son of Mr. George Forester, of the LAMP TAVERN, Stafford Street, Walsall.”

Aris's Birmingham Gazette 23/12/1839 - Advert

“LAMP TAVERN, Stafford Street, Walsall.

To be Let, and entered upon immediately, the above named Inn, in a populous neighbourhood, and now in good business.

For further particulars apply (if by letter, post paid) to Messrs. Farrington and Son, Auctioneers, Walsall.”

Staffordshire Gazette 4/1/1840 - Advert

“LAMP TAVERN, Stafford Street, Walsall.

To be disposed of, the Goodwill, Licenses, and Possession of the above public-house, with excellent bar, tap-room, two parlours, good lodge-room, excellent sleeping rooms; with good yard, brewhouse, and shopping over; stable, and capital garden at the back; the whole in the occupation of Mr. Sommerfield.

The above is a desirable opportunity to persons about entering the public business, as the premises are well situated by the Turnpike road, and in a very populous and increasing neighbourhood. The coming in about £200.

For further particulars, apply to Farrington and Son, Appraisers and General Agents, High Street, Walsall.”

John Griffiths was also a harness and general plater and brass founder. [1845]

Ann Archer married Nicholas Roper in the 4th quarter of 1845.

Staffordshire Advertiser 29/5/1847

“Oddfellows. On Monday last, the members of three of the lodges in Walsall and Cannock district, walked in procession from the LAMP TAVERN, Stafford Street, Walsall, to the parish church, each lodge preceded by an excellent band of music and a banner, with suitable inscriptions. A sermon was preached on the occasion by the Rev. J. H. Sharwood, MA, vicar. After the service the members (in number about 300, with decorations and insignia pertaining to the order) returned to the LAMP TAVERN, where a dinner was provided; but the house not being sufficiently capacious for such a numerous company, a part continued their course to Bloxwich, and dined there.”

Staffordshire Advertiser 21/7/1849

“On Monday last, the members of the United Britons Loyal Lodge, No.1, of the Walsall Free and Independent Order of Odd Fellows, to the number of 150, assembled at the house of host Roper, LAMP TAVERN, Stafford Street, Walsall, and partook of a sumptuous and substantial dinner, provided with much liberty by the worthy host and hostess.....”

Nicholas Roper was also a saddler. [1849], [1850]

Staffordshire Advertiser 10/8/1850

“The Good Samaritan Lodge, No.43, of the Wolverhampton Reformed Order of Odd Women, held their annual festival on Monday last, at the house of Mr. Nicholas Roper, LAMP TAVERN, Stafford Street. A most excellent and substantial dinner was provided, of which eighty partook. F. H. Wymper, Esq, surgeon, occupied the chair. On the cloth being removed, the usual toasts were given and duly acknowledged, after which most of the members engaged in singing and dancing. The receipts for the year were stated by Mr. E. Ebb, the secretary, to be £76 7s; expenses, £61 17s 7d, leaving a balance of £14 6s 7d.”

1851 Census

Stafford Street

- [1] Nicholas Roper (27), saddler and publican, born Walsall;
- [2] Ann Roper (36), wife, born Walsall;
- [3] Emma Archer (17), daughter, barmaid at home, born Walsall;
- [4] Charles Archer (13), son, at home, born Walsall;
- [5] Edward Archer (9), son, at school, born Walsall;
- [6] Albert Archer (7), son, at school, born Walsall;
- [7] Ann Roper (4), daughter, at school, born Walsall;
- [8] Mary Brumall (18), servant, born Walsall:

Staffordshire Advertiser 17/3/1855 - Advert

“To Be Sold, a second-hand five-horse power portable Steam-Engine, with combined Thrashing Machine for thrashing, bolting, or loose tilling, with straw shaker and blower, to winnow first time, &c., &c.

Apply to Mr. S. Stackhouse, LAMP TAVERN, Stafford Street, Walsall.
The Thrashing Machine is nearly new.”

Walsall Free Press 31/10/1857

“Samuel Stackhouse, of the LAMP TAVERN, Stafford Street, appeared to a summons charging him with a brutal attack upon a young man named Philip Weaver. Mr. Wilkinson appeared for the defendant.

The complainant’s statement was as follows. That on Monday night he was doing business in the town, and in consequence of a person whom he wanted to see being out, he remained late, and was walking up Green Lane about twelve o’clock where he met a friend, when they went to Mr. Tonks’s public-house and had something to drink. They left there when the house was about to close, and adjourned to Mr. Stackhouse’s, whom they asked to fill them some drink. He refused to do so, when a few words ensued and the defendant came upon him like a Sepoy, kicked him unmercifully, and dragged him into the street by the hair of his head.

Edward Cooper corroborated the evidence of the last witness and said he had been sadly ill-used himself. When he got into the street after the affray, he heard his friend groaning, went up to him, and said, ‘My eye! What do you think of this?’ Mr. Wilkinson on cross-examination elicited that they were not sober, and would not leave when requested to do so. The case was dismissed.”

Samuel Stackhouse was also a machinist and farmer. [1861]

He was described as a thrashing machine owner.

Walsall Free Press 16/2/1861 - Notice

“A Sick Society will commence on Tuesday, February 26, 1861, at the house of Mr. S. Stackhouse, sign of the LAMP TAVERN, Stafford Street, Walsall, known by the name of the Gift.

Payments 1s 2d per month. Allowance in sickness 6s per week, at death £5.

Any person wishing to become a member will much oblige by applying as above.”

1861 Census

193, Stafford Street – LAMP TAVERN Public House

- [1] Samuel Stackhouse (51), victualler, machinist, and farmer of 23 acres 1 labourer, born Pelsall;
- [2] Ann Stackhouse (40), wife, born Walsall;
- [3] Susanna Stackhouse (20), daughter, born Walsall;
- [4] John Stackhouse (9), son, scholar, born Walsall;
- [5] Richard Stackhouse (7), son, scholar, born Walsall;
- [6] William Stackhouse (6), son, scholar, born Walsall;
- [7] Julia Stackhouse (4), daughter, scholar, born Walsall;
- [8] Alice Stackhouse (2), daughter, born Walsall;
- [9] Maria Cooper (22), general servant, born Aldridge;
- [10] William Peatchey (39), lodger, farmer’s servant, born Cambridge:

Birmingham Daily Post 3/2/1871

“Yesterday afternoon, Mr. A. A. Fletcher, Borough Coroner, held an inquest at the LAMP TAVERN, Stafford Street, on the body of David Hyde, a carter, aged 47. The deceased had been in the employ of Mr. S. Russell, Freer Street, and on Wednesday afternoon he complained of being unwell. A surgeon was sent for, and Mr. Harrison’s assistant attended, but Hyde expired in the course of a few minutes. Verdict: Death from Natural Causes.”

1871 Census

193, Stafford Street

- [1] Samuel Stackhouse (62), victualler and farmer, born Bloxwich;
- [2] Ann Stackhouse (50), wife, born Walsall;
- [3] Susannah Stackhouse (30), daughter, born Walsall;
- [4] Richard Stackhouse (17), son, born Walsall;
- [5] William Stackhouse (16), son, born Walsall;
- [6] Julia Stackhouse (14), daughter, pupil teacher, born Walsall;
- [7] Emily Stackhouse (7), daughter, scholar, born Walsall;
- [8] Harriet Vigross (26), domestic servant, born Brereton, Staffordshire:

Walsall Advertiser 11/2/1879 - Notice

“S. Stackhouse, the LAMP TAVERN, Stafford Street, wishes to state that the Robbery from the Person, reported in the daily papers this week, did not take place upon his premises, but at the LAMP TAVERN, Bloxwich.”

1881 Census

193, Stafford Street – LAMP TAVERN

- [1] Thomas Fidoe (44), victualler’s manager, born Newnham (?);
- [2] Sarah Fidoe (44), wife, born West Bromwich;
- [3] William Fidoe (14), son, scholar, born West Bromwich;

- [4] Anne Fidoe (10), daughter, scholar, born West Bromwich;
[5] Florence Fidoe (9), daughter, scholar, born Walsall;
[6] Betsy Fidoe (19), niece, barmaid, born West Bromwich:

Evening Star 20/3/1882

“This morning a mass meeting of ironworkers of the Walsall district, with delegates also from all parts of the South Staffordshire and East Worcestershire took place at the LAMP TAVERN, Stafford Street, for the purpose of considering the wages question and the scheme of the Employers’ Liability Assurance Corporation (Limited). Mr. Gibbs, district agent, attending to explain the latter.....”

Evening Star 1/4/1882

“On Thursday, the borough coroner (Mr. A. A. Fletcher) held an inquest at the LAMP TAVERN, Stafford Street, Walsall, upon the body of Phoebe Morrall, aged 6 weeks, the daughter of Charles and Mary Morrall, of 15, Chapel Street. From the evidence it appears that that the child had been prematurely born, and since its birth had been unable to take sufficient nourishment to sustain life, and it died on the 28th ult.

A verdict of Death from Natural Causes was returned.”

Walsall Observer 7/3/1885

“On Monday afternoon an inquest was held, at the LAMP TAVERN, by Mr. T. H. Stanley (borough coroner) on the body of William Sutton, aged nine weeks, whose parents reside in Day Street. The evidence showed that the deceased had been a healthy child until Sunday, when it was suddenly seized with a fit and died.

The jury returned a verdict of Death from Natural Causes.”

Birmingham Daily Post 4/2/1890

“At the Guildhall yesterday, John Holland, keeper of the LAMP TAVERN, Stafford Street, was summoned for having had his house open during prohibited hours on the night of Saturday, January 25. Mr. H. H. Jackson appeared for the defence.

The evidence of Police-constables Curtis and Marsden was to the effect that at eleven o’clock on the night named several persons left the defendant’s house, one of them being a man named Cleobury. At twenty-five minutes past eleven they saw Cleobury come out again, and having in his possession half a pint of rum, which he said he had just bought.

The defence was that Cleobury was courting one of the defendant’s daughters, and that he left the house with the rum at eleven o’clock, but returned a few minute later and stood talking with the defendant at the door. He asked defendant to drink, and handed him the rum, which was just being handed back when the constables came up, the defendant having refused to drink. The Bench dismissed that case.”

Birmingham Daily Post 18/12/1890

“At the Walsall Guildhall, yesterday, further applications for singing, and dancing licenses were heard....

Mr. Jackson applied on behalf of John Holland, of the LAMP TAVERN, Stafford Street, for a music, singing, and dancing license on Tuesday and Saturday evenings. Refused.”

1891 Census

193, Stafford Street – LAMP TAVERN

- [1] John Holland (51), publican and painter, born Pelsall;
[2] Emma Holland (45), wife, employed in public house, born Rushall;
[3] Emma Holland (20), daughter, dress maker, born Wednesbury;
[4] Lucy Holland (15), daughter, assistant at home, born Wednesbury;
[5] Lillian Holland (13), daughter, assistant at home, born Rushall;
[6] John Holland (10), son, scholar, born Rushall:

Emma Holland died in 1899.

John Holland died in 1904.

John Holland – see also JOLLY COLLIER, Brades, Oldbury.

Walsall Advertiser 17/4/1897

“Public singing and music licenses were granted as follows.....

Frank J. Moore, LAMP TAVERN, Stafford Street (every other Tuesday for Free Gardeners Lodge).”

Walsall Advertiser 22/7/1899

“It is with regret that we have to record the death of an old and esteemed Walsall townsman in the person of Alderman Nicholas Roper, which took place at his residence, Morningside, Lichfield Road, on Monday afternoon, at the age of 75. The deceased gentleman had enjoyed tolerably good health all his life, but a short time ago the weight of years began to tell heavily upon him, and he expired practically from old age after having been confined to his house for over a fortnight. Alderman Roper was practically a self-made man, and with his death there passes away one who has witnessed the growth and progress of the ancient borough from a time when things were very different from those existing today. When a lad Mr. Roper was apprenticed as a saddler to a

Mr. Huddleston, in Pool Street. He was twice married, his first wife being Mrs. Archer, who then kept the LAMP TAVERN in Stafford Street. By her he had his only child, Annie, who died some years ago. Mr. Roper subsequently removed to the WHITE HORSE in Park Street, where he resided many years, during which time he developed a considerable business as a maltster, his malting premises being in Hatherton Street, in a block of buildings now used as a saddlery works. After the death of his first wife Mr. Roper married Miss Day, of Barr Beacon, who also preceded him, and some five years ago he married Mrs. Beebee, the widow of the former proprietor of the STORK HOTEL, who had taken up her residence in Scarborough, she survives him. Alderman Roper was an ardent Liberal, and years ago took an active part in political matters. He was first elected a member of the Town Council as far back as 1866, and he was created alderman in 1890, being the returning officer for Pleck Ward. He has given very close attention to the works of the Corporation for a great many years, especially in connection with the Streets Committee; although as far as public meetings were concerned he was always of a retiring disposition, and displayed no special ambition for prominence. He had been retired from business for several years, and was generally respected in the town by people of all sections and parties.

The funeral took place at Rushall Churchyard.....”

Walsall Advertiser 20/1/1900

“In the Divorce Division, on Monday, Mr. Justice Barnes had before him the petition of John Thomas for a divorce by reason of the alleged misconduct of his wife with the co-respondent Mr. Bradley.

The petitioner deposed that he was a working brewer with his mother, who carried on the business of a licensed victualler. She kept the ALBION INN, Walsall. On the 3rd October, 1894, he married the respondent at Walsall, and afterwards lived with her at the LAMP TAVERN INN, Walsall. Differences arose between them, and they separated under a deed. After a time they lived together, but in 1895, after the birth of a child, there was another separation owing to differences between them, and he made her an allowance. In the summer of 1897 he heard that his wife had gone to live with Mr. Bradley, and she had lived with him since that time.

Charles Parker Roberts, clerk to petitioner’s solicitor, proved serving the divorce papers on the respondent and co-respondent, when they were living together at Ivy Cottage, New Street, Walsall.

A decree nisi with costs was granted.”

Walsall Observer 5/5/1900

“Free Gardeners Lodge. ‘Poor Man’s Friend’ of this Order, held a meeting last Monday evening, at the LAMP TAVERN, Stafford Street, where presentations were made to Councillor Shore and Mr. E. Howell, of emblems of the Order. There was a large number present.....”

A team from here took part in the Walsall and District Air Rifle League. [1906]

Walsall Advertiser 27/10/1906

“Just before six o’clock on Saturday night, Henry Jacob Jones (50), Lodging House, Rushall Street, went into the LAMP TAVERN, Stafford Street, in a drunken condition, hawking beads. The landlord, Samuel Holmes (an old Walsall footballer), requested him to go, but as he refused, he was perforce to carry him out. He detained him until Police-constable Robinson (23) came on the scene. The officer had received several complaints about prisoner hawking, and when persons refused to buy his articles he made use of bad language towards them. He had no certificate authorising him to hawk.

Prisoner now denied using bad language.

The Chief Constable stated that prisoner had 20 previous convictions, dating from 1877.

He was sentenced to two months’ hard labour.”

Walsall Advertiser 2/3/1907

“A fallen-looking woman named Annie Smith (36), no fixed abode, was charged with wilfully damaging a plate glass window at the LAMP TAVERN, Stafford Street, to the extent of £4 on the 22nd ult.

Sidney John Holmes, son of the prosecutor, stated that on the previous Friday at 9.45pm he was in the bar, when prisoner entered the house, and began to beg from customers. His mother told accused it was not allowed, and when she was ejected she made use of obscene language. He followed her out and she tried to force an entrance into the house again by another door. He stopped her, whereupon she picked up a brick and hurled it at the window. He then detained her until the arrival of a constable.

Mrs. Holmes said she ordered prisoner to go three times, and she refused, and had to be put out. She damaged the window to the extent of £4.

Police-constable Ashby said he noticed a crowd of people near the LAMP TAVERN and on proceeding there he found the first witness holding prisoner. On his arrival she was given into his custody and in answer to the charge she said, ‘I went in to beg for a copper and they started using me rough so I broke the window.’

The Chief Constable said the prisoner was there about a year ago under an assumed name. On that occasion she fainted in the dock and was allowed to go.

She was now sentenced to two months’ imprisonment.

On hearing the sentence prisoner became hysterical and had to be removed from the court.”

Walsall Advertiser 4/7/1908

“The monthly meeting of the Walsall and District Licensed Victuallers’ and Beer Retailers’ Friendly and Protection Society was held on Thursday week....”

New Members..... Samuel Holmes, LAMP TAVERN, Stafford Street.”

1911 Census

193, Stafford Street

- [1] Samuel Holmes (42), licensed victualler, born Walsall;
- [2] Ann Holmes (42), wife, married 21 years, assisting in business, born Much Wenlock, Shropshire;
- [3] Sydney John Holmes (20), son, manufacturer’s clerk, born Walsall;
- [4] Samuel Edwin Holmes (18), son, assisting in business, born Walsall;
- [5] Horace Henry Holmes (15), son, manufacturer’s clerk, born Walsall;
- [6] Elizabeth Holdcroft (26), domestic servant, born Rushall:

Samuel Holmes – see also PHEASANT.

Walsall Advertiser 21/12/1912

“In connection with the PRINCE BLUCHER Sick and Dividend Society, Stafford Street, a dividend of 8/- per member, two nights and card has been declared. The balance sheet showed receipts £145 15s 2d, and expenditure £71 3s 2d, and a balance was left in hand of £15 8s. The LAMP TAVERN Society, Stafford Street, paid a dividend of 10/-, two nights and a card. While at the Caledonian Corks, FOUNTAIN INN, Long Street, the amount was 3/9.”

Walsall Advertiser 20/12/1913

“LAMP TAVERN, Stafford Street. At the Female Thrift Society in connection with the above hotel, the secretary (Mr. W. Wilkes) presented a balance sheet which showed an income of £391 2s 3d, while the expenditure and dividend amounted to £368 1s 6d, leaving a balance of to be carried forward next year. The sharing amounted to 14s 3d and first night on card, making a total of 14s 11d. The membership of the society is 490.”

Walsall Observer 21/11/1914

“The following is a list of box collections to date made on behalf of the Prince of Wales’ National Relief Fund (Walsall Branch).....
LAMP TAVERN, Stafford Street, Walsall, 9s 2½d.”

Walsall Observer 12/1/1918

“Walsall and District War Aid Committee. Collection By The Licensed Victuallers, December, 1917.....
LAMP TAVERN, Stafford Street. £1 2s 4d.”

Samuel Holmes had the Windmill Brewery in Bath Street.
It ceased brewing around 1937.

‘Walsall Pubs: A History’ by John Cockayne

“[1925] an old property in good repair with a Public bar, Smoke room, Club room with two bedrooms and three attics.....”

Walsall Observer 26/8/1939 - Advert

“Charwoman Wanted.
LAMP, Stafford Street.”

1939 Register

193, Stafford Street (2 of 4)

- [1] Harry S. Dutton, date of birth 15/2/1909, publican, manager, married;
- [2] Dorothy V. Dutton, dob 11/11/1912, unpaid domestic duties, married;

Walsall Observer 4/4/1940 - Notice

“Journeyman Butchers’ Association.
All Meat Trade Workers are Invited to Attend the Walsall Branch Meeting, on Wednesday Next, 10th April, 1940, at the LAMP TAVERN, Stafford Street. Time 7-30.
Agenda: Business of great importance.”

Walsall Observer 5/4/1941

“Convicted at Walsall Police Court yesterday of an assault on Mrs. Dorothy Dutton, who is acting licensee of the LAMP TAVERN, Stafford Street, during the time that her husband is serving with the RAF, Howard Mansell, 80, Beeches Road, Leamore, was sent to prison for 21 days.
Appearing for the prosecution, Mr. C. L. Hodgkinson said the women who carried on licenses while her husbands were in the Forces must be protected.
The allegation was that having refused to leave when requested by a barman after closing time, and Mrs. Dutton spoke to him, Mansell, after abuse, punched her in the eyes. Customers then ejected him.
Mrs. Dutton, whose eye still shows traces of the injury, said that Mansell was not drunk but obstreperous.

Mansell who pleaded that the blow was accidental, had several previous convictions.”

Walsall Observer 29/8/1942

“County Borough of Walsall. Mayor’s War Aid Fund. Nineteenth List of Subscriptions.....
Mr. Lawrence, LAMP TAVERN, Stafford Street. £1 1s 10d.”

Walsall Observer 24/12/1942

“Walsall Licensed Victuallers’ Society. The Duke of Gloucester’s Red Cross Fund. List of Subscriptions.....
LAMP TAVERN, Stafford Street. £2 0s 4d.”

A team from here competed in the Shropshire, Staffordshire and Derby division of The People National Darts Teams Championship of England and Wales in 1952/3.

William Lawrence died in 1953.

Black Country Bugle 24/8/2000

‘Black Country Lads Who Trained At The Lamp’

“.....a quartet of local lads who served their fistic apprenticeship during the 1940s and early 1950s Chris Jenkins, Freddie Roatley, Teddy Blackham and Percy Bright The Old LAMP Gym was run by former Wednesbury heavyweight Fred Allen who held a BBC managers license, and Sid Roatley (Freddie’s father) who was similarly qualified.”

It closed on 7th April 1963.

LEATHERCUTTERS ARMS

Day Street, WALSALL

OWNERS

LICENSEES

Aaron Nicholls [1857]

NOTES

Walsall Free Press 25/7/1857

“Aaron Nicholls, LEATHER CUTTER’S ARMS, Day Street, was also fined five shillings and costs for the same offence [open after closing time].”

LEATHERCUTTERS ARMS

36, (34), Duncalfe Street, WALSALL

OWNERS

Joseph Archer and Henry Perkins, exors of the late Elizabeth Darby, New Street.
London and North Western Railway Co.
Mrs. E. Darby, Foster Street, Walsall
Edward Towe (acquired in 1894)
William Walkerdine
Edward Robotham, Church Street, Bloxwich

LICENSEES

Omer Stokes [1840] – [1846]

David Darby [1849] – [1872];
Mrs. Ellen Darby [];
Henry Nicholls [1881] – 1885);
John Prosser (1885 – 1888);
Joseph Lester (1888 – 1889);
Thomas Allen (1889 – 1894);
Frank Shaw (1894 – 1895);
Edward Towe (1895 – 1908);
Matthew Ernest Wilkes (1908 – 1915);
John Thomas Allcock (1915 – 1919);
Edward Towe (1919 – 1921);
William Walkerdine (1921 – 1923);
John Henry Walkerdine (1923 – 1924);
Thomas Ernest Blut (1924 – 1925);

NOTES

34, Duncalfe Street
36, Duncalfe Street [1861], [1871], [1901]

LEATHERCUTTERS ARMS [1840], [1841], [1846], [1851], [1871], [1891]
BRIDLE CUTTERS ARMS [1872], [1918]

It had a beerhouse license.

London Gazette 10/11/1840

“Omer Stokes, late of Wisemore, Walsall, Staffordshire, Bridle Cutter, at the same time keeping the LEATHER CUTTERS ARMS, at Wisemore aforesaid, Licenced Retailer of Beer and Tobacco.”

Wolverhampton Chronicle 29/9/1841

“At the Guildhall, on Wednesday, William Hampton, of the WHITE LION, Little London, and Omer Stokes, of the LEATHER CUTTERS ARMS, Duncalf Street, were each convicted in the mitigated penalty of £50 with forfeiture of brewing vessels, for using grains of paradise in the preparation of their beer. It was intimated to the defendants that they were at liberty of memorialize the bora of excise in London to obtain a further mitigation of the fine.”

Bells Life in London and Sporting Chronicle 19/10/1845

“George Holden of Walsall wishes to inform Massey of Manchester that he will make the match with him at 8st 7lb, for £25 a side, and fight in three months, as Holden’s bail will not expire till then. Holden’s money is ready at the LEATHER CUTTERS ARMS, or the RED LION, Abbeville [sic] Street, Walsall; or he will take reasonable expenses to go to Manchester to make the match.”

Bells Life in London and Sporting Chronicle 18/1/1846

“George Holden of Walsall is still open to fight Bob Smith of Stafford at 8st 8lb, for £25 or £50 a side. His money is ready at the LEATHERCUTTERS ARMS, Walsall.”

Bells Life in London and Sporting Chronicle 22/2/1846

“On Monday evening last George Holden of Walsall and Robert Smith of Stafford entered into articles at Mr. Omer Stokes’s, the LEATHERCUTTERS ARMS, Wisemoor, at the latter place, to fight on Monday, the 30th of March, for £100. £10 a side were placed in Mr. Stokes’s hands, and the remaining deposits are to be made as follows: Feb 23, £10 a side, at Mr. William Heath’s, the Prince Albert, Friars Street, Stafford; March 2, £10 a side at Wm. Ridding’s, the SPORTSMAN, Bloxwich Road, Walsall; March 9, £10 a side, at Wm. Winkles’s, the Castle, Hospital Street, Birmingham; and March 16, £10 a side, at Thomas Osbourne’s, the RING OF BELLS, Big Hill, Walsall. Neither man is to exceed 8st 9lb by eleven o’clock on the morning of fighting.”

[The ring was set up at various locations, but they were moved on. The fight took place two days later than planned and Holden won after 84 rounds.]

Bells Life in London and Sporting Chronicle 3/5/1846

“A match was made on Thursday last, at Mr. Howl’s, Brockhall, Darlaston, between Henry Martin, of that place, and Jack Holden (brother to George) of Walsall, to fight for £10 a side, on Wednesday, the 3rd of June, at 7st 13lb. 10s a side were posted, and they are to make it up £2 10s a side on Monday week at Omer Stokes’s, the LEATHER CUTTERS ARMS, Walsall, and sign articles.”

David Darby = David Danby = David Darley

David Darby, beer retailer and bridle cutter, Duncalfe Street. [1849]

1851 Census

Duncalf Street

- [1] David Darley (34), bridlecutter, born Walsall;
- [2] Eleanor Darley (28), wife, born Walsall;
- [3] Ann Darley (7), daughter, born Walsall;
- [4] Jane Darley (6), daughter, born Walsall;
- [5] Elizabeth Darley (5), daughter, born Walsall;
- [6] Edward Darley (3), son, born Walsall;
- [7] Ellen Darley (1), daughter, born Walsall;
- [8] Infant Darley (7 days), daughter, born Walsall;
- [9] Charlotte Partridge (14), servant, born Walsall:

Bells Life in London and Sporting Chronicle 9/11/1851

“T. Darby of Walsall will fight T. Middleton, of Birmingham, for £25 a side, weight 8st 3lb, half way between home and home, or Alf Walker, of London, at the same weight and for the same amount. The match can be made at David Darby’s LEATHERCUTTERS ARMS, Wisemore, Walsall.”

David Darby, beerhouse, 36, Duncalf Street. [1858]

David Darby, beer retailer, Duncalf Street. [1861]

1861 Census

36, Duncalf Street

- [1] David Darby (44), publican, born Walsall;
- [2] Eleanor Darby (38), wife, born Walsall;
- [3] Ann Darby (17), daughter, born Walsall;
- [4] Jane Darby (16), daughter, born Walsall;
- [5] Elizabeth Darby (15), daughter, born Walsall;
- [6] Edward Darby (12), son, scholar, born Walsall;
- [7] Ellen Darby (11), daughter, scholar, born Walsall;
- [8] Harriet Darby (10), daughter, scholar, born Walsall;
- [9] David Darby (7), son, scholar, born Walsall:

D. Darby, beer retailer, 36, Duncalfe Street. [1864], [1865]

David Darby, beer retailer, 34, Duncalfe Street. [1868], [1870], [1872]

1871 Census

36, Duncalf Street – LEATHER CUTTERS ARMS

- [1] David Darby (54), licensed brewer, born Lichfield;
- [2] Eleanor Darby (46), wife, born Lichfield;
- [3] Annie Shore (26), daughter, stitcher, born Lichfield;
- [4] Jane Darby (24), daughter, stitcher, born Lichfield;
- [5] Elizabeth Darby (23), daughter, dress maker, born Lichfield;
- [6] Edward Darby (22), son, plater, born Lichfield;
- [7] Ellen Darby (20), daughter, born Walsall;
- [8] David Darby (17), son, brush maker, born Walsall;
- [9] Arthur Brough (2), grandson, born Walsall:

Harry Nicholls = Henry Nicholls

1881 Census

36, Duncalfe Street

- [1] Harry Nicholls (32), beer seller (publican), born Walsall;
- [2] Hannah Nicholls (25), wife, born Leek;
- [3] William Nicholls (4), son, born Birmingham;
- [4] Mary Nicholls (2), daughter, born Tilstock, Shropshire;
- [5] Harru Nicholls (3 months), son, born Walsall:
[Tilstock is about 3 miles S of Whitchurch.]

Birmingham Daily Post 24/6/1890

“At Walsall Guildhall yesterday – before Messrs. S. Russell (Mayor), J. Brewer, E. T. Holden, B. Beebee, and E. Bliss – the adjourned application for the temporary transfer of the license of the LEATHER CUTTERS ARMS, Duncalfe Street, from Thomas Allen to William Garbett was heard. Mr. Plumtre (instructed by Mr. A. Whitehouse) appeared to support the application, on behalf of Messrs. Showell and Sons; Mr. Gillespie, for the owner of the freehold; Mr. R. Smith, for the out-going tenant, Allen; and Mr. Duignan, for the Chief Constable, who opposed the application.

Mr. Plumtre, in opening the case, said the application was made under Section 1, cap 44, of the 5th and 6th Vic., for the purpose of transferring the license of the house from Thomas Allen, who was recently committed for trial at the County Quarter Sessions, on a charge of stealing ducks, to one William Garbett. On the previous Monday, Mr. Whitehouse called witnesses as to Garbett's character, and called Garbett himself, but not a single question was put to any of them as to the character of the latter. Allen, too was only cross-examined as to his own character. If that course was followed that day he should have to submit that the question of Allen's character was quite immaterial, the real point being Garbett's character. Then it came out that the house was licensed before the year 1869, and that being so, the license could not be refused, except on one of the four grounds set forth in the Wine and Beer Act of 1869.

Upon that the Chief Constable for the first time intimated that he should oppose on all four grounds specified in the Act; but certainly one, if not two of those grounds had no application under the circumstances. He should, therefore, rest content with proving the character of Mr. Garbett. He called several witnesses for this purpose, and the applicant himself, who stated that he had been in the employ of only two firms in fourteen years. He was to be a weekly tenant of the LEATHER CUTTERS ARMS, at 16s per week rent, and he was to deposit £30 with Messrs. Showell as security, and to have his beer from that firm. He was to pay nothing to Allen for going in, and the trade fixtures – tables, benches, beer-machines, &c. – were to remain the property of Messrs. Showell.

Thomas Allen said he went into the house in September 1889, and now was willing for the license to be transferred to Garbett. When his recent trouble happened he had seven days' notice to leave, and for the last week the house had been closed. This completed Mr Plumtre's case so far.

Mr. Duignan submitted that upon this the application must fall, inasmuch as a license to keep a beerhouse could only be granted to a person who was the real resident holder and occupier of the dwelling-house when he applied to be licensed. Garbett was not the real resident holder and occupier of the house, which had been shut up since the previous Monday, and it was perfectly clear that a man who was not entitled to hold a license could not have one granted to him. The aim of the Legislature was that the tenant should be a man of substance, a responsible person having a stake in the business, and in society; but here Messrs. Showell attempted to evade the law by letting a furnished house, and there was an agreement to let the premises on a weekly tenancy, the tenant being likely to be removed, in fact, without any notice at all. Could it not be said that such a tenant was the real holder and occupier of the house within the meaning of the Act?

Mr. Plumtre, in reply, argued that Garbett was the real resident holder and occupier within the meaning of the Act, because there was an agreement signed by which he became the tenant, and the keys were in the hands of Messrs. Showell's representative waiting for him.

Mr. Gillespie added that the section upon which Mr. Duignan relied referred only to the granting of licenses, and not to cases of temporary transfer like that before the court.

Some discussion followed on this point, and the magistrates retired. They were absent for about twenty minutes, and on their return, the Mayor said they had decided to hear the whole of the case before coming to a decision.

Mr. Duignan next took the objection that the application should be refused because the house was of a disorderly character, adding, also, that such small premises, licensed in the first instance many years ago, would certainly not be licensed in the present day. He said that in the last two or three years repeated complaints had been made to the owners and occupiers of the house of the disorderly way in which it was carried on, and that in 1888 and again in 1889, the Chief Constable lodged an objection to the renewal of the license, which objection was withdrawn only on Messrs. Showell putting another person in, and promising that there should be no further cause of complaint.

He called Inspector Gore, Detective-officer Pritchard, Police-sergeant Marshall, Detective-sergeant Cliffe, and Detective-officer Smith to speak to their having seen disorderly characters and convicted thieves in the house at different times.

The Chief Constable spoke as to the action which he took upon these reports, and said there was not, in his opinion, a sufficient number of residents in the locality to enable the keeper of the house to do a legitimate trade with profit to himself.

Mr. Plumtre, in replying on the whole case, said in construing the Act it was not enough to show that there had on one occasion or more been persons of bad character in the house. Such persons were entitled to refreshment so long as they behaved properly in the house; and the word 'frequenting' must be understood as frequenting for an object – going to the house for the purpose of using it for a nefarious trade. But where was the evidence of any such frequenting? To show that he called Thomas Wilson, screwer, 196, Queen Street – a young man of twenty one, who said he spent three or four nights a week in the house – and Thomas Allen. The latter said he had had but one complaint from the police. They had spoken to him about a rapping match which was going on in a house opposite, and about the character of the people in his house. He replied that he had nothing to do with the match, and if the police could point out any drunken people in the house he would turn them out.

The Bench deliberated in private for twenty-five minutes, and on their return the Mayor said that they refused to transfer the license, on the ground that the house was of a disorderly character, frequented by thieves and persons of bad character."

Birmingham Daily Post 25/9/1890

"The adjourned licensing session was held at the Guildhall yesterday.....

Mr. Willcock appeared for the renewal of the license of the LEATHERCUTTERS ARMS, Duncalf Street, and Mr. Elliott opposed for the Chief Constable, on the grounds that the house had been conducted in a disorderly manner, and that it had been frequented by convicted thieves and persons of a disorderly character. In this case there was considerable contention as to the admissibility of statements as to conviction. In the end the license was renewed."

36, Duncalf Street – LEATHERCUTTERS ARMS

[1] Thomas Allen (27), beer retailer, born Walsall;

[2] Polly Allen (24), wife, born Walsall:

Birmingham Daily Post 26/1/1894

“At the County Court, yesterday, Daniel Darby, saddle-tree maker, Duncalf Street, sued George Thomas, saddler, 20, Portland Street, and Thomas Allen, keeper of the LEATHER CUTTERS ARMS, Duncalf Street, for the sum of £5, deposited with the former to abide the result of a bet, and by him handed to the latter. Mr. J. N. Cotterell appeared for the plaintiff, and Mr. H. H. Jackson for the defendants.

From the plaintiff’s evidence it seemed that one day he was sat the LEATHERCUTTERS ARMS, when the landlord returned from witnessing a boxing match in Wolverhampton, and a conversation arose about a match in Walsall twenty years ago between ‘Mouse’ Wilkins and a man named Hawkins. The plaintiff said the match was awarded by the referee against ‘Mouse’ on the ground that he had bitten Hawkins, and Allen declared that nothing of the sort took place; the result being that a bet of £5 was made, and plaintiff handed his money to Thomas. The latter handed the money to Allen, and all efforts to get it back, or to get the point of the dispute had failed, the answer to the parties being that they had got the money and meant to keep it. Plaintiff was quite sure about the point, because the match took place in his father’s kitchen, his father being the referee, and he himself being present.

Mr. Cotterell said it was a swindle, and his Honour said that might be, but it was one in which plaintiff acquiesced, and he did not see how the man was to get his money back again. He (the judge) could not in a court of law decide the right or wrong of the wager.

His Honour eventually non-suited the plaintiff, but without costs.”

Thomas Allen – see also HORSE AND JOCKEY INN, Walsall Wood.

Plans for alterations were approved on 3rd December 1894.

Walsall Advertiser 8/12/1894

“Monday was a day specially appointed by the Bough Justices for the transfer of public-house licenses, &c. The Mayor (Councillor Noake) and Mr. G. Gill constituted the Bench.....

Mr. A. Baker submitted for approval plans of alterations to be made at the LEATHER CUTTERS ARMS, Duncalf Street.

Mr. Loxton said that the decision of the Bench on these plans would not prejudice in any way the action of the Licensing Committee when the question of renewal came before them, and on this understanding the Bench approved the plans.”

Walsall Advertiser 31/8/1895

“The annual Licensing Sessions for the borough were held yesterday at the Guildhall.....

Edward Towe, of the LEATHER CUTTERS ARMS, Duncalf Street, applied for a wine license. Mr. J. N. Cotterell appeared for the applicant, and Mr. Jesse Herbert objected on behalf of the Temperance party. The Chief Constable also objected.

Mr. Cotterell said Mr. Towe had purchased the house some ten months ago, and was the freeholder as well as the occupier. It would doubtless be still fresh in the minds of the magistrates that the house previous to his client taking to it was in very bad repute. He believed there had been some rat pits and shedding at the rear, where pugilists and some low fellows had collected, causing the locality to be not of the best order. Everything of that description had been entirely done away with, the shedding and pits were no longer to be seen, and altogether his client had undoubtedly been a benefit to the neighbourhood. Mr. Towe had, in addition, spent some £350 on improvements in the house alone, and not for the extension of facilities for drinking. One reason for making the application was the constant demand for wines. There was not a public house with a wine license in the locality, and the workmen from Parkes, Chesterfields and other works came to his house and often wished to be supplied with that beverage. It was not applied for on mercenary grounds, for he did not suppose there would be much difference in the takings if the application were granted.

In reply to Mr. Herbert, Mr. Towe said the house was one of the old licensed houses previous to 1869. The Chief Constable asked Mr. Towe if he was aware of the fact that in the event of the application being granted he would forfeit certain privileges which he now held, being an old-licensed house, and was answered in the negative. That was his (Mr. Taylor’s) objection.

Mr. Herbert did not see the need for the application. The present license had satisfied the needs of the neighbourhood for many years. Mr. Cotterell had remarked that the demand was great, and yet he had also added that it would not bring in anything a week. He hardly understood that.

The Bench refused the application.”

Edward Towe, beer retailer, 36, Duncalf Street. [1896]

Walsall Advertiser 12/2/1898

“Walsall & District Minor Football League. A special meeting of the league took place on Monday evening at the LEATHER CUTTERS ARMS, Wismore, nearly all the clubs comprising the league being represented. The chief business of the evening was to elect players for the benefit match of the League, to be played on the Co-operative Ground, Wolverhampton Road on Saturday next, February 19th.....”

1901 Census

36, Duncalf Street

- [1] Edward Towe (48), publican, born Bloxwich;
- [2] Mary Ann Towe (47), wife, born Tipton;
- [3] Edward Towe (25), son, table cutler, born Bloxwich;
- [4] Lydia Towe (20), daughter, milliner, born Leamore;
- [5] Howard Towe (18), son, table cutler, born Leamore;
- [6] Alice Towe (15), daughter, born Leamore;
- [7] Florence Towe (12), daughter, born Leamore:

Walsall Advertiser 6/8/1904

“Walsall Air-Gun League.

The first annual meeting of the above was held at the CRITERION, Stafford Street, on Wednesday evening. Mr. H. Smallwood presided, and there was also present Messrs. Hicken (EAGLE), G. Smith (OLD KINGS ARMS), Powell (TANNERS ARMS), E. James (PLUMBERS ARMS), McDonald (CRITERION), Cliffe (GOLDEN EAGLE), Hunt, E. Towe (treasurer), and Mason (secretary).....

The undermentioned clubs with power to add to their number, were elected to the League for the forthcoming season: The WHITE HART (Walhouse Street), TANNERS ARMS, OLD KINGS ARMS, EAGLE, PLUMBERS ARMS, CRITERION, GOLDEN EAGLE, LEATHER CUTTERS ARMS, OAK, and DUKE OF YORK.

There was no other business of public interest.”

Walsall Advertiser 28/12/1907

“The monthly meeting of the Walsall and District Licensed Victuallers’ and Beer Retailers’ Friendly and Protection Society was held on Thursday week.....

New Members. Edward Towe, LEATHER CUTTERS ARMS, Duncalfe Street.”

Matthew E. Wilkes, beer retailer, 36, Duncalfe Street. [1912]

Walsall Advertiser 3/7/1915 - Advert

“Thursday next, July 8th, 1915.

LEATHER CUTTERS ARMS, Duncalfe Street, Walsall.

Mr. Arthur R. Wooton is instructed by Mr. E. Wilkes (who is leaving) to Sell by Auction, on the above date, the whole of his useful Household Furniture and Effects comprising Two Dining Room Suites, Mahogany Dining Table, Telescope Dining Table, walnut Overmantles, excellent mahogany framed Couch, Mahogany framed Easy and other Chairs, Barometer, Inlaid Walnut Whatnot, Excellent iron-frame Cottage Pianoforte in Walnut case by Steinhart, Brass-rail Bedsteads, Feather Bed, Bolster and Pillows, Mahogany Toilet Glasses, Chest of Five Drawers, Dressing Table, and Washstand, Night Chair, Carpets, Hearth Rugs, Ornaments, Timepieces, Fire Brasses, Dinner and Tea ware, wringing machine, Chaff Cutter and numerous other effects. No catalogues. Porters not admitted.

On view Morning of Sale. Sale at 12 o’clock.

Auctioneer’s Offices, Darwall Street, (opposite GPO) Walsall, and Bloxwich.”

Walsall Observer 18/9/1915

“Alice Cash (42), married woman, 32, Duncalfe Street, was charged with being drunk on licensed premises, the LEATHER CUTTERS ARMS, Duncalfe Street, on Monday.

Police-constable Wilkins stated that at 7.30 the previous night he was called to the LEATHER CUTTERS ARMS, where he saw the defendant in the tap-room holding a jug in both hands. She was drunk, and when he asked her to leave she refused, and he brought her to the station.

The licensee said the woman was hanging about the place for five hours, and he could do no good with her.

The Chief Constable: How long have you been at the house? – Nine weeks.

And you don’t know you should get them out in five minutes, and not five hours.

The landlord explained that the woman kept coming and going, but he would not serve her.

Mr. Wheway: Were you served in the house at all? – Yes, sir. I was served three times.

The woman added that her son was on the Amphion when it was sunk, and another was in the 1st South Staffords. It was driving her mad thinking about them.

The prisoner’s husband said he had had no trouble with her until just recently. She gets very excited and was subject to fits.

Mr. Wheway: That is a very good reason why she should keep away from public houses.

A fine of 5s was imposed.”

Walsall Observer 12/1/1918

“Walsall and District War Aid Committee. Collection By The Licensed Victuallers, December, 1917.....

LEATHER CUTTERS ARMS, Duncalfe Street. £0 15s 5½d.”

Thomas Ernest Blud – see also CAPE OF GOOD HOPE.

Staffordshire Advertiser 14/3/1925

“At the adjourned licensing sessions, on the 5th inst, the justices referred the following houses for compensation.....
LEATHER CUTTERS ARMS, Duncalfe Street.”

The license renewal was referred to the Compensation Authority.
Compensation was paid on 24th October 1925.
It closed on 31st October 1925.
Demolished.

LEATHERN BOTTLE

Cresswell Crescent / Margam Terrace, BLOXWICH

OWNERS

Mitchells and Butlers Ltd.
SEP Properties [2010]

LICENSEES

Herbert Thomas Postle (1959);
John Thomas Jarvis (1959 – 1960);
Joseph Clark (1960 – 1961);
Fred Preston (1961 – 1964);
John Plimmer (1964 – [1966]
Christopher Boffin []

NOTES

A Final Removal Order was granted in April 1959, for the transfer of the license of the OLD STILL, Digbeth, Walsall, to here.
It was opened on 2nd April 1959.

Herbert Thomas Postle – see also OLD STILL, and GLOBE.

John Thomas Jarvis – see also HATHERTON ARMS.

Joseph Clark – see also HATHERTON ARMS.

Fred Preston – see also BULLS HEAD, and BAKERS ARMS.

It was closed by the police in 2010.

Express & Star 20/8/2010

“A trouble-hit Black Country pub where drugs and an illegal pitbull dog were found has been saved, it emerged today.
The site of the LEATHERN BOTTLE, Cresswell Crescent, Bloxwich, was earmarked for shops and two-storey maisonettes. But Walsall Council officers rejected plans after the developer failed to demonstrate why the pub should be lost to the community. Class A drugs were found in December and a warrant served under the Dangerous Dogs Act in September. The pitbull was seized and later destroyed.

The 1970s pub belongs to SEP Properties Limited, and under plans they wanted it bulldozed to make way for new homes and shops. It had been planned for the buildings to be three-storeys high with the applicants stating the pub is currently disused and reached the end of its ‘useful life’.

Walsall Council confirmed today the planning application had been refused by officers under delegated powers. Today the decision was welcomed by the Walsall branch Campaign for Real Ale, which said too many pubs were being sold onto developers. Keith Watkins, pub preservation officer for CAMRA, said: ‘It is good news and a step to support the community pub. Each community should have a pub and I would like to see it revived now. It is a concern the amount of pubs that are being lost.’.....”

Express & Star 1/6/2012

“A new pub, shop and residential complex, which will create up to 10 new jobs in Bloxwich, has been passed by planning chiefs. The trouble-hit former LEATHERN BOTTLE pub will be pulled down to make way for a new three-storey L-shaped building in Cresswell Crescent.

Walsall Council's planning committee approved the ambitious scheme at a meeting last night. The former pub, which was hit with problems in 2009, will be replaced with a new pub, retail space and nine flats. There were two police raids and Class A drugs were recovered at the building three years ago.

Speaking in favour of the plans last night, Bloxwich Councillor Fred Westley said: 'There are a number of derelict properties in all our areas. Almost anything which improves the area, I would be in favour of.' He said the pub had been hit by anti-social behaviour and residents had campaigned to get it demolished."

Express & Star 10/2/2017

"A former Bloxwich pub licensee discovered with an illegal pitbull as police seized cannabis has been hit with a bill for more than £3,000. Christopher Boffin was found with the fighting breed dog after officers visited the LEATHERN BOTTLE pub in Cresswell Crescent on an unrelated matter last September. There they found cannabis being cultivated and the illegal animal in a kennel.

The 31-year-old, of Heather Road, Dudley Fields, Bloxwich, originally pleaded not guilty to an offence of possessing a fighting dog. He was due to face trial at Walsall Magistrates Court today, but altered his plea on the basis he did not know it was a pitbull. Magistrates ordered the destruction of the dog, fined Boffin £400 and ordered he pay kennel costs of £2,218 and £620 court costs. Mr Van French, prosecuting, said officers went to the pub in their investigation about a non-stop traffic accident. He added: 'During their inquiries they noticed a very bright light coming from the doorway of one of the rooms. It was used for the cultivation of cannabis. While continuing the drugs element they discovered the dog.'

Boffin was also given a community order for the cannabis offence at a previous hearing. The LEATHERN BOTTLE is currently shut for matters unrelated to today's court case."

Closed [2012]

It was demolished in 2015.

LEATHERN BOTTLE

29, Hill Street / Temple Street, (Church Hill), (Church Street), WALSALL

OWNERS

William Brown, BLUE PIG, New Street, Walsall

Mrs. Emma Brown [1925]

John Lord [1933]

LICENSEES

Joseph Bould [1818] – [1830]

James Bould [1834]

Joseph Bould [1835] – 1836)

John Adkins [1839]

Aaron Nicklin [1841] – [1842]

Joseph Butler [1845]

Thomas Derry [1849] – [1851]

Thomas Wood [1854]

William Earp [1856] – [1872]

Mrs. Lydia Earp [1873];

William Parker [1876];

Ann Parker [1880] ?

Mrs. Lydia Parker [1881];

Benjamin Harley [1882];

William Slater [1883] – [1884];

Benjamin Asbury [] – 1888);

Harry Nicklin (1888);

John William Elkin (1888 – 1890);

Richard Slater (1890);

John Priest (1890 – 1891);

George Towers (1891 – 1892);

Benjamin Asbury (1892 – 1895);

John Annakin (1895 – 1907);

Mrs. Paulina Annakin (1907 – 1915);
William Annakin (1915 – 1916);
Florence Ann Annakin (1916 – 1919);
William John Annakin (1919 – 1933);
Job Rees Griffiths (1933 – 1934);
William Sheldon Hutchinson (1934 – 1939):

NOTES

Church Street [1818], [1822], [1828], [1829], [1834], [1835], [1837], [1845], [1849], [1850]
Temple Street [1856]
29, Hill Street [1865], [1868], [1871], [1881], [1901], [1911], [1932]
Church Hill [1866], [1872]

LEATHER BOTTLE [1829], [1849], [1850], [1854], [1856], [1858], [1861], [1866], [1868], [1912], [1932]
BOTTLE [1862]

It had a beerhouse license.

It had its own brewery.

Joseph Bould = Joseph Bold = Joseph Bole

Staffordshire Advertiser 21/3/1829

“On Monday morning last, about five o’clock, a fire was discovered on the premises of Mr. Joseph Bould, of the LEATHER BOTTLE public house, Church Street, Walsall, which appeared to threaten serious consequences, but by the timely arrival of the engines, and the active exertions of the neighbours, it was happily got under without much damage. The fire was occasioned by some sparks, issuing from the brewhouse chimney, communicating to the out-houses.”

James Bould was also a maltster. [1834]

Staffordshire Advertiser 7/5/1836 - Died

“On Wednesday last, Joseph Bould, maltster and publican, of Church Street, Walsall, aged 50.”

Staffordshire Advertiser 30/9/1837 - Deaths

“On Saturday in his 20th year, Thomas, eldest son of the late Mr. Joseph Bould, of the LEATHER BOTTLE, Church Street, Walsall.”

Aris’s Birmingham Gazette 25/2/1839 - Advert

“To be let, and may be entered upon immediately, that old and good substantial Public House the sign of the LEATHER BOTTLE, with good Stables and back premises, all entire.

For further particulars apply John Adkins, LEATHER BOTTLE, Church Street, Walsall.”

Staffordshire Advertiser 16/3/1850 - Advert

“Freehold Premises In Walsall.

Mr. John Osbourn will Sell by auction, at Mr. R. Westwood’s, the OLD QUEEN’S HEAD, Church Street, Walsall, on Monday, the 25th day of March, 1850, at six o’clock in the evening, subject to conditions to be then produced.

Lot 1. All that old-established Public House, known by the name of the LEATHER BOTTLE, situate in Church Street, in the possession of Thomas Derry, with an excellent malthouse, recently built, capable of wetting eight quarters, Brewhouse, Stable, and two Shops, a Pump, well supplied with water, a spacious Yard, and other Appurtenances thereto belonging. Also, three other Dwelling-Houses, adjoining the said premises, one of which the said houses fronts Church Street, and the other two front Temple Street, and are in the several occupations of William Preston, John Pearson, and Widow Biddle.....”

Wolverhampton Chronicle 6/9/1854

“Elizabeth Mear was on Wednesday committed for stealing a jacket, the property of Mr. Thomas Wood, of the LEATHER BOTTLE, Church Street.”

Staffordshire Advertiser 17/2/1855 - Advert

“The LEATHER BOTTLE, Church Street, Walsall.

Messrs. Allen and Flanagan are instructed to dispose of by Private Treaty, in consequence of the ill health of the proprietor, the Licenses, Goodwill, and Possessions of the above old-established well accustomed Inn, now doing a good and improving in and out-door business; a portion of the Household Furniture, together with the Fixtures and Stock-In-Trade, to be taken to at a fair valuation. Coming-in about £100. There is an excellent malthouse attached to the premises, which may be let off.

For particulars and to treat, apply to the Auctioneers, Walsall and Wednesbury.”

Staffordshire Advertiser 5/1/1856

“Housebreaking appears to be on the increase in Walsall. On Friday evening the house of Mr. Earp, the LEATHER BOTTLE, Temple Street, was entered by a back window, and an old-fashioned silver watch, bearing the name of ‘Thomas Holmes, Cheadle, maker’ and ‘No.2,594’, £9 in gold and silver, and some trifling articles were stolen. On the same night the slaughter-house of Mr. Albert Denham, butcher, Green Lane, was entered by means of pick-locks, and 160 pounds of beef carried off; and three bushels of flour were stolen from the bakehouse of Mr. Joseph Poole, Long Acre.”

Staffordshire Sentinel 13/9/1856

“Monday being the day for the renewal of old licenses and considering the application for new ones, there was a full attendance of magistrates.....

William Earp, the LEATHER BOTTLE, Hill Street all of whom had been convicted during the past year, were admonished, and informed that unless a reform in the management took place, their licenses would be inevitably withheld.”

Staffordshire Advertiser 3/1/1857

“At the Guildhall, on Wednesday, William Earp, landlord of the LEATHER BOTTLE public-house Hill Street, was charged with threatening Police-constable Smith. Smith was sent to defendant’s house on the previous Friday night, the police having been informed that Earp was abusing his wife. He found Mrs. Earp in the passage, and she said her husband’s conduct was so violent that she could not live with him. The officer expostulated with the defendant, who treated him with contempt, and after telling him to leave the house, picked up the poker and threatened to knock out his brains, when Smith left. The defendant did not appear, and the magistrates ordered him to enter into his own recognizances to keep the peace for twelve months.”

Walsall Free Press 4/9/1858

“Brewster Sessions..... applications for renewal of old licenses, and the granting of new ones.....

In the following cases the applications were suspended for further consideration.....

On the application of the Chief-constable, Thomas Bates, of the PAUL PRY, New Street; Sarah Craddock, of the GEORGE AND DRAGON, Wolverhampton Lane, and William Earp, of the LEATHER BOTTLE, were added to the list of suspended applications.”

Walsall Free Press 29/8/1863

“Three Irishmen, named respectively Welsh, Brown, and Hickin, were charged with assaulting Mr. Lakin, a victualler residing at Walsall Wood, on the evening of Thursday. The complainant said the prisoners had obtained some drink from him on credit, they having been employed to reap in the neighbourhood. They left him without paying for the drink, and when he accidentally met them in Digbeth on the night in question, he said to them, ‘Halloa! You are the gentleman I wanted to see.’ Welch then struck him, and the others aided and abetted Welch, and in doing so they all struck him, where upon he ran into the OLD STILL, and was followed by the prisoners. Mr. Job Wilkes, landlord of the OLD STILL, and Edward Lord, corroborated complainant’s evidence. Mr. Isaac Webb, stone mason, said he saw Welch beating complainant, from whose nose blood was flowing. Welch struck witness on the arm with a pair of tongs. All the prisoners were engaged in creating riot. Welch was sent to prison for six weeks, Hickin one month, and Brown two weeks, each to undergo hard labour. Welch was further charged with having, on the same afternoon, wilfully and maliciously broken a table, the property of Mr. Earp, landlord of the LEATHER BOTTLE, Hill Street. Prisoner and his companions had been drinking at that house, in consequence of the landlady refusing to supply them with drink on credit, he kicked the table to pieces; damage 4s. Fined in the amount of damages and costs, or to be imprisoned for fourteen days, to commence at the expiration of his former sentence.”

Walsall Free Press 9/9/1865

“The Adjourned Licensing day.....

The following persons, whose license had been suspended, were cautioned and had their licenses renewed....

Mr. Earp, LEATHER BOTTLE, Hill Street.”

Staffordshire Advertiser 7/7/1866

“The Midsummer Quarter Sessions for the borough were held yesterday at the Guildhall.....

George Braidley (32), carter, Birmingham, was indicted for having passed off two counterfeit florins to Lydia Earp, LEATHER BOTTLE INN, Church Hill, on the 23rd of May. Guilty. Sentenced to three months’ imprisonment.”

1871 Census

29, Hill Street

[1] William Earp (46), publican, born Sutton, Warwickshire;

[2] Lydia Earp (48), wife, born Niton, born Leicestershire;

[3] Diana Earp (25), niece, dressmaker, born Walsall;

[4] Rebecca Handley (28), visitor, born Warwick;

[5] Elizabeth Slater (29), visitor, sewing machinist, born Handsworth;

[6] William Stone (45), boarder, plater, born Walsall;

[7] Wilmot Dunn (35), boarder, Labour Telegraph Company, born Crewe;

- [8] Edwin Hemms (25), boarder, Labour Telegraph Company, born Birmingham;
[9] John Matthews (24), boarder, carpenter, born Montgomery, Montgomeryshire:

Mrs. Lydia Earp married William Parker.

Staffordshire Advertiser 7/10/1876

“William Parker of the LEATHERN BOTTLE, Church Street, was fined 1s and costs for having in his possession a quart measure not of proper capacity.”

1881 Census

29, Hill Street

- [1] Lydia Parker (59), widow, licensed victualler, born Worcester;
[2] Kate Parker (21), daughter, born Walsall;
[3] Hannah Parker (20), daughter, born Walsall;
[4] Caroline Spink (50), visitor, born Walsall;
[5] Eliza Hopkins (43), visitor, born Walsall;
[6] Richard Smith (37), visitor, silver plater (electric), born Walsall:

Evening Star 1/2/1882

“Michael Fay, of Church Street, and Thomas Davis, of Temple Street, were charged with being in a stable at the LEATHERN BOTTLE beerhouse at 1.30 in the morning of the 1st of February. The evidence showed that the wife of Benjamin Harley, the keeper of the house, heard someone in the yard, and her husband went and found the prisoners in the stable. They had no light, and blew out one which he had. He detained them after a struggle and had them locked up.

The prisoners said they were there for a pigeon-pen which belonged to them, but which the complainant would not give them although they had asked him for it in the presence of a police officer. They called a witness who proved that the pen was theirs, and the officer who was with them when they asked the complainant for the pen.

The Mayor [J. Newman] informed them that they should have taken other steps to recover their property, but as there was some doubt in the case they would have the benefit of the doubt, and be discharged.”

William Slater was fined £2 and costs, on 25th June 1883, for permitting gaming.
He was fined 10s and costs, on 17th December 1884, for allowing drinking on Sunday.

1891 Census

29, Hill Street – LEATHER BOTTLE INN

- [1] John Priest (29), licensed victualler, born West Bromwich;
[2] Sarah E. Priest (30), wife, born Lichfield;
[3] Ernest J. Priest (10 months), son, born Bloxwich;
[4] Thomas Allerton (8), visitor, scholar, born Gravesend:

Benjamin Asbury's first wife, Jane, died in the 1st quarter of 1893.

Lichfield Mercury 24/7/1896

“Bankruptcy. Re Benjamin Asbury, Lichfield Road, Walsall Wood, formerly of the LEATHERN BOTTLE, Church Hill, Walsall, licensed victualler; the ROUGH HILLS TAVERN, Wolverhampton, beerhouse keeper; and other places.

The public examination of this debtor took place at the Walsall Bankruptcy Court on Wednesday, before Mr. Registrar Clarke; Mr. E. Evans appearing on the bankrupt's behalf.

The statement of affairs showed liabilities to the amount of £235 9s 6d, and a deficiency of £222 9s 6d. The bankrupt was an iron-worker until 1883, when he became a licensed victualler at the LEATHERN BOTTLE INN, and remained there until 1887, when he removed to the ROUGH HILL TAVERN, but returned to the other inn in 1891. He gave that up in September last, and afterwards filed his petition. In October he married Mrs. Cornforth, a widow, who in May took to the HORSE AND JOCKEY INN, Walsall Wood, on her own account, her husband going to live with her there. He attributed his failure to the illness of his first wife and bad trade.

The examination was adjourned until the 10th August.”

1901 Census

29, Hill Street

- [1] John Annakin (42), currier and beer retailer, born Walsall;
[2] Paulina Annakin (50), wife, born Walsall;
[3] Elsie Annakin (17), daughter, born Walsall;
[4] Ada Annakin (16), daughter, draper's assistant, born Walsall;
[5] Ann F. Annakin (10), daughter, born Walsall;
[6] William J. Annakin (8), son, born Walsall:

Walsall Advertiser 21/9/1901

“Paulina Annakin, landlady of the LEATHERN BOTTLE, Church Hill, charged Mary Flood, of 2, Corton’s Court, with having assaulted her on Monday last, a further charge being preferred against the defendant of having been drunk and disorderly the following day, and breaking panes at the LEATHERN BOTTLE, which it would cost 5s to replace.

Mr. H. H. Jackson appeared for the prosecutrix, and stated that Flood went to the LEATHERN BOTTLE on Monday and struck Mrs. Annakin severely on the face and nose immediately. The next day she had gone there again, repeated the assault and smashed a quantity of glass.

Complainant and her husband gave corroborative evidence, and Police-constable Hawkes deposed to having been fetched to the scene of the assault whilst the row was on.

Mr. Holden in passing sentence remarked that the defendant had appeared in that court 47 times, and that everything seemed to have been done to make her better. She would now have to go to Stafford for one month, with hard labour.”

It advertised ‘Home brewed ales’. [1911]

1911 Census

29, Hill Street

[1] Paulina Annakin (60), widow, publican, born Walsall;

[2] Elsie Annakin (27), daughter, barmaid assisting in the business, born Walsall;

[3] Annie Annakin (21), daughter, sewing machinist, tailoring, born Walsall;

[4] William Annakin (18), son, brewer, born Walsall;

[5] Jena Walters (15), general servant, born Walsall:

Walsall Observer 20/2/1915

“A meeting of the Walsall and District Licensed Victuallers’ and Beer Retailers’ Friendly and Protection Society was held on Thursday last week.....

Votes of condolence were passed with the family of the late Mrs. Paulina Annakin (Hill Street), who joined the society on the decease of her husband on January 10, 1907 The sum of £5 10s was voted as funeral donation to the relatives of the late Mrs. Annakin.”

Walsall Advertiser 27/2/1915

“The adjourned Licensing Sessions for the Borough of Walsall were held yesterday (Friday) at the Guildhall.....

The following transfers were granted.....

LEATHERN BOTTLE, Hill Street, from Paulina Annakin, deceased, to William Annakin.”

Birmingham Daily Gazette 26/5/1915 - Advert

“To Let, September 29th next, the Full-Licensed Public- House, the LEATHERN BOTTLE, Church Hill, Walsall; trade utensils and brewing plant belongs to present tenant.

Apply, Executors W. Brown, 59, New Street, Walsall.”

Walsall Observer 12/1/1918

“Walsall and District War Aid Committee. Collection By The Licensed Victuallers, December, 1917.....

LEATHERN BOTTLE, Hill Street. £3 7s 4½d.”

1926 – It had a self-contained yard, one water closet, without flushing apparatus, a urinal, brewing plant and a malt room.

Walsall Observer 11/2/1939

“The annual licensing day, held at the GUILDHALL, on Thursday.....

Another removal authorised was that of the full license of the LEATHERN BOTTLE, Church Hill, to the BRIDGE INN, Wolverhampton Road – hitherto only a beerhouse.

The BRIDGE INN, said Mr. Cooper, had been completely remodelled, and was in a populous neighbourhood, where for many years there had been a definite demand for a full license.”

It closed on 4th May 1939.

The license was transferred to the BRIDGE, Wolverhampton Road.

Walsall Observer 3/4/1943

“Mr. E. G. Franklin commenting on Mr. W. Meikle’s references in last week’s Observer to old Walsall inns, writes that he remembers the following public houses round about Church Hill: The BLACK BOY, FIELDGATE TAVERN, DUKE OF WELLINGTON, ROSE AND CROWN, JOLLY BACCHUS, BLUE PIG, PAUL PRY, MALT SHOVEL, PEEL AND NELSON, SHAKE-SPEARE, HARE AND HOUNDS, ROEBUCK, EXCHANGE, GREYHOUND, OLD ORIGINAL QUEENS HEAD, RING OF BELLS, PEAL OF BELLS, BARLEY MOW, LEATHERN BOTTLE, QUEENS HEAD. Of these only two remain.”

LEG OF MUTTON

New Street, WALSALL

OWNERS

LICENSEES

Benjamin Westley [1834] – [1835]

NOTES

It had a beerhouse license.

Benjamin Westley, retailer of beer, New Street. [1835]

LEOPARD

King Street, WALSALL

OWNERS

LICENSEES

Mrs. Mary Nicholls [] – 1857);

Thomas Nicholls (1857 – []

NOTES

Walsall Free Press 7/2/1857

“Transfers of Licenses.....

LEOPARD, King Street, from the executors of Mrs. Mary Nicholls to her son, Mr. Thomas Nicholls.”

LEOPARD

196, Stafford Street / Portland Street, WALSALL

OWNERS

Matthew Overton, Denmark Road, Walsall

Cannock Brewery Co. Ltd.

William Butler and Co. Ltd.

LICENSEES

William Smith [1871] – [1872];

Robert Anslow [];

Edward Egan [1880] – 189_); [1891]

Martin Egan (189_ – 1896); [1892]

Susan Egan [] – 1896);

Joseph Gibbs (1896 – 1899);

Martin Egan (1899 – 1909):

NOTES

It was located at a confectioner's shop.

It was listed as LEOPOLD in an 1892 Directory.

It had a beer, cider and wine license, and a refreshment house license.

1871 Census

196, Stafford Street

- [1] William Smith (41), confectioner employing 2 men and 1 apprentice, born Coleshill;
- [2] Elizabeth Smith (37), wife, born Birmingham;
- [3] Albert Thomas Smith (6), son, born Aston, Warwickshire;
- [4] Elizabeth Ann Smith (4), daughter, born Aston, Warwickshire;
- [5] Harry Smith (2), son, born Walsall;
- [6] Louisa Thompson (18), visitor, born Birmingham;
- [7] Elizabeth Wootton (18), domestic servant, born Bloxwich;
- [8] Samuel Thomas Willits (16), confectioner's apprentice, born Wolverhampton;
- [9] Daniel Woodman (33), journeyman, confectioner's assistant, born Linton, Bedfordshire;
- [10] Abraham Timmins (21), journeyman, confectioner's assistant, born Tipton:

1881 Census

196, Stafford Street

- [1] Edward Egan (36), beer and cider retailer, born Galway, Ireland;
- [2] Mary Egan (28), wife, born Walsall;
- [3] Martha Egan (2), daughter, born Walsall;
- [4] Mary Egan (66), mother, widow, born Galway, Ireland;
- [5] Johanna Brewer (10), visitor, scholar, born Walsall:

1891 Census

196, Stafford Street

- [1] Edward Egan (48), publican, born Ireland;
- [2] Mary Egan (38), wife, born Walsall;
- [3] Frank Mullins (18), servant, born Walsall;
- [4] Elizabeth Salt (33), domestic servant, born Walsall:

Walsall Advertiser 3/9/1892

"The annual Licensing Sessions for the Borough of Walsall took place on Wednesday at the Guildhall.....

The Chief-constable then gave formal notice that he intended to oppose the renewal of the following licenses.....

The LEOPARD INN, Stafford Street, kept by Martin Egan, the reason being that the licensee was not the real owner and occupier."

Walsall Observer 1/10/1892

"The adjourned licensing sessions for the borough of Walsall were held on Wednesday.....

Mr. Gillespie further applied for the renewal of the license of the LEOPARD INN, Stafford Street, kept by Martin Egan. He said it was a similar case to the last [that the holder of the license should be a bona-fide tenant, and not a manager], and he produced a signed agreement of tenancy Renewed."

Express and Star 1/1/1900

"At the Walsall Police Court today (Monday) Edward Carroll (33), of Bells Hill, labourer. Was charged with being drunk and refusing to quit the licensed premises of the LEOPARD INN, Stafford Street, and wilfully damaging a pane of glass value 15s, on the 21st ult, belonging to Martin Egan fined 20s and costs or 21 days for refusing to quit, and 10s and costs or 21 days for wilful damage."

1901 Census

196, Stafford Street

- [1] Martin Egan (23), single, wine and spirit retailer, born Walsall:

Walsall Advertiser 31/1/1903

"Peter King (17), boatman, of 9, Rosebury Street, Birmingham, was charged with maliciously breaking a plate glass window at the LEOPARD INN, Stafford Street, on January 23rd.

Martin Egan, landlord of the LEOPARD INN, deposed that on Friday midday he heard one of his front windows broken, and went outside. Prisoner was there in custody of the police.

Police-constable Robinson spoke to seeing prisoner take up a brick, and throw it through the window of the LEOPARD INN. Prisoner had a very bad record at Birmingham, and was committed to gaol for two months' hard labour."

The license renewal was referred to the Compensation Authority on 3rd February 1909.

Walsall Advertiser 22/5/1909

"The Licensing Act, 1904. Notice of Principal Meeting. County Borough of Walsall.

Notice is Hereby Given, that the Principal Meeting to be held pursuant to the Licensing Rules, 1904, by the Compensation Authority for the above area, will be held at the Guildhall, Walsall, on Tuesday, the 8th day of June, 1909, at 11 o'clock in the forenoon.....

List of Licensed Premises.....

The LEOPARD, Stafford Street, Beerhouse. Licensee, Martin Egan."

Walsall Advertiser 12/6/1909

"The principal meeting of the Walsall Compensation Authority was held at the Guildhall on Tuesday, when eight beer-houses and one ale-house, the licenses of which had been referred by the licensing justices, were dealt with, and in each instance the houses were referred for compensation, which means in due course the houses will close.....

The LEOPARD, Stafford Street. Messrs. Butler and Company are the owners, and Martin Egan, tenant, under agreement, at an annual rent of £30 10s.

Mr. Jackson, who represented the parties, said Egan had held the license for ten years and it had been in the family for over twenty years, his father, uncle, and grandfather having held the license in turn. During the past three years the house had been doing 198½ barrels a year, so that the house was a good one, and having regard to the family associations with the house the tenant naturally did not want to leave it, whereas the owners would be sorry to lose the house.....

The Bench having heard each case separately retired to consider their decision. In returning, the Mayor intimated that the renewals authority report would be adopted, and all the houses referred for compensation."

Closed

It was delicensed.

It was demolished in 1910.

LETTERS

BLOXWICH

OWNERS

LICENSEES

George Arms [1850] – [1862]

LETTERS

Church Street, WALSALL

OWNERS

LICENSEES

William Dutton [1818]

LION AND LAMB

1, Eldon Street, WALSALL

OWNERS

Manchester Brewery Co.
Arthur Beebee Ltd.

LICENSEES

Thomas Horton [1880]
Herbert Hawley [1891]
George Edward Lawton [1899]
Hannah Sly [] – 1903);
Alfred Power (1903 – 1904);
George Edwin Wentworth (1904 – []
G Lawton [1911]
Walter Blunn [] – 1911);
Thomas Perkins [1911] did not happen
David Hollyhead (1911 – 1912);
James Anson (1912 – []

NOTES

LION AND THE LAMB [1911]

It had a beerhouse license.
[Probably outdoor.]

1891 Census

1, Eldon Street

- [1] Herbert H. Hawley (31), brewer's agent, born Barmston, Southampton;
- [2] Sarah Hawley (25), wife, born Barford, Oxfordshire;
- [3] Alfred Hawley (3), son, born Walsall;
- [4] Mabel Hawley (7) daughter, born Walsall;
- [5] Hannah Burnett (14), servant, born Little Porton, Staffordshire;
- [6] Frances Thacker (14), servant, born Little Porton, Staffordshire;
- [7] Sydney Hawley (4 months), son, born Walsall:

Walsall Advertiser 2/9/1899

"The annual licensing sessions for this borough were held at the Guildhall on Wednesday.....

Mr. R. Willcock applied for George Edward Lawton, to sell wines and spirits at the LION AND LAMB, Eldon Street, to be consumed off the premises.

Application adjourned until the adjourned day."

Walsall Advertiser 30/9/1899

"The adjourned annual licensing meeting for the borough of Walsall was held yesterday at the Guildhall.....

On the application of Mr. Willcock, a license was granted to sell spirits and wine to be consumed off the premises to George E. Lawton, beer seller, the LION AND LAMB, Eldon Street."

Alfred Power, beer retailer and grocer, 1, Eldon Street. [1904]

Walsall Advertiser 4/6/1904

"A transfer of the license of the LION AND LAMB, Eldon Street, off beer license, was granted from Alfred Power to George Edwin Wentworth, the magistrates reserving the right to consider a renewal at the next Brewster Sessions."

Walsall Advertiser 25/5/1905 - Advert

"A. Beebee's Noted Home Brewed Ales.

Brewery – Sandwell St., Walsall.

Houses.....

LION AND LAMB, Eldon Street, Walsall."

1911 Census

1, Eldon Street

[1] Walter Blunn (46), sawyer and off license holder, born Stoke, Worcestershire;

[2] Margaret Blunn (47), wife, married 20 years, born Bromsgrove, Worcestershire:

David Hollyhead = David Hollhead

David Hollhead, beer retailer, 1, Eldon Street. [1912]

Walsall Advertiser 2/3/1912

“Mr. W. Bayliss presided at the adjourned Licensing session on Tuesday.....

There was a further application for the transfer of the license of the LION AND LAMB, Eldon Street, an off beerhouse, from David Hollyhead to James Anson.

No solicitor appeared in the case, and the Magistrates’ Clerk, after perusing the agreement said to Anson: Do you know you have undertaken to increase the business of the shop?

Anson: Yes, sir.

Mr. Loxton: The Magistrates won’t approve that clause of the agreement. They say so at once.....

The Magistrates retired and on their return into Court the Chairman said: the whole of the licenses are granted subject to the amendments being made.”

Walsall Observer 12/1/1918

“Walsall and District War Aid Committee. Collection By The Licensed Victuallers, December, 1917.....

LION AND LAMB, Eldon Street. £0 1s 2d.”

The license was surrendered.

It closed on 1st March 1933.

Walsall Observer 27/5/1933

“Messrs. Fox and Harrison, FAI, report the following recent private treaty transactions: Six leasehold houses, 10 to 20, Sandwell Street; the dis-licensed premises, LION AND LAMB, Eldon Street and workshops adjoining; two freehold houses in Wednesbury Road; six freehold houses in Dora Street; and a freehold property in Ablewell Street; the total purchase price being upwards of £3,500.”

LITTLE SWAN

8, (Lower) North Street, Ryecroft, WALSALL

OWNERS

J. C. Smith Esq., solicitor, Wolverhampton

William Utting

LICENSEES

James Baker [1858] – [1873]

Elizabeth Baker [1872];

Thomas Sykes [];

Samuel Smith [];

Henry Lewis [];

James Purvis [];

William Utting [];

Charles White [1884] – 1888);

Moses Lawton (1888 – 1889);

John Clarke (1889 – 1891):

NOTES

8, Lower North Street [1861]

North Street [1868]

8, North Street [1871]

James Baker = Joseph Baker

Birmingham Daily Post 4/10/1859

“A Special Petty Sessions was held at Brownhills on Friday last, before C. Forster, Esq, MP, and the Rev. G. H. Fisher, when the following persons were fined for having in their possession unjust weights and measures, on the information laid by Mr. Inspector Tullett, Inspector for the South Staffordshire district.....

Jos. Baker, LITTLE SWAN, Ryecroft, 14s and costs, for unjust measures.”

1861 Census

8, Lower North Street

[1] James Baker (51), bit maker and victualler, born Bloxwich;

[2] Elizabeth Baker (50), wife, born Barton under Needwood, Staffordshire;

[3] Thomas Smith (19), son, tailor, born Barton under Needwood, Staffordshire:

Walsall Free Press 7/3/1868

“On Wednesday afternoon, E. Hooper, Esq, coroner for the district, held an inquest at the LITTLE SWAN, North Street, Ryecroft, upon the body of Alice Calander, aged eleven weeks, daughter of Thomas Calander.

From the evidence it appeared deceased had been left in bed on Sunday morning by her parents, and when left apparently in good health. The parents heard a child crying, but thinking it was the child next door, paid no attention, but about half-past nine, when the mother went upstairs, she found the deceased quite dead. Mr. S. Moore was sent for, but before he arrived life was quite extinct. As the child had evidently died in a fit, the jury returned a verdict of Death from Natural Causes.”

County Express 5/11/1870

“On Monday morning considerable excitement was caused by a report that Mr. William Newman, son of Mr. J. W. Newman, one of the borough justices, and captain of the first company Walsall Rifle Volunteers, had been found dead upon the Lichfield branch of the South Staffordshire Railway. Unfortunately the report prove to be too true. As is usual in such cases various and conflicting statements were currently circulated. It was at first supposed that he had been murdered and afterwards placed upon the line..... The facts, so far as they have been ascertained are as follows. On Thursday deceased left his lodgings, and did not again return. On Friday night he slept at the STORK HOTEL, and, on Saturday morning, he went to the DRAGON HOTEL, where he partook of some coffee, and remained till nearly one o'clock. During his stay he wrote several letters. About seven o'clock in the evening he visited the GEORGE HOTEL, and afterwards the BRITISH OAK, Lichfield Street; from thence he proceeded to his club, in Ablewell Street, where he had a glass of brandy. He requested Mrs. Marsh, the housekeeper at the club, to take charge of his watch, a set of studs, and a letter. He left the club about ten o'clock, and nothing further was heard of him till six o'clock on Monday morning when Thomas Derbyshire, the engine-driver of one of the Midland trains coming from Burton to Walsall, discovered the body lying upon the down line.....Police-constable Chill, assisted by Mr. Marlow, pointsman, and Mr. Radford, platelayer, conveyed the body of the deceased to the LITTLE SWAN public-house, kept by Mr. Baker, where the body was examined by Mr. David Moore, surgeon, who found that in addition to a contused wound on the forehead there was extensive fracture of the back part of the skull.....

Deceased, who was a partner in the firm of Chawner and Newman, saddlers' ironmongers, &c, was highly respected. The melancholy catastrophe has cast a gloom over the town, and excited considerable sympathy for the bereaved. Deceased was in the prime of life.

The inquest was held on Monday before Mr. E. Hooper, coroner. From a letter which the deceased had left at his club there was no doubt that he had committed suicide by laying himself across the line till an engine passed over him. The evidence showed that he had been very unsettled recently, and the jury returned a verdict to the effect that, while in a state of unsound mind, he had been killed by a train passing over him.”

1871 Census

8, North Street

[1] James Baker (61), public house keeper, born Bloxwich;

[2] Elizabeth Baker (59), wife, born Barton, Staffordshire;

[3] Mary Ann Roberts (11), general servant, born Walsall:

Charles White was fined 2s 6d and costs, on 17th September 1884, for allowing Sunday drinking.

Moses Lawton – see also CROSS KEYS, and QUEENS HEAD.

Birmingham Daily Post 30/9/1890

“Adjourned Licensing Sessions. The business from the annual licensing session last week took place at the Guildhall yesterday.... Mr. Jesse Herbert (instructed by Mr. Gillespie) applied for the removal of the LITTLE SWAN INN, North Street, to other premises at the corner of North Street and Butts Road, or otherwise for a conditional license. The Chief Constable opposed, as did Mr. Cotterell, for the owners and occupiers of licensed premises in the locality, and for Mr. J. W. Harrington, the owner of a large works in the neighbourhood. Mr. Herbert said that plans drawn by Mr. S. Loxton showed that so far from being a gin palace the building would be more of the character of a respectable private house. The Chief Constable took the ground that the value of the license would be materially enhanced if it were allowed to be removed to the new premises, and asked Mr. S. Loxton if he did not think that in the event of the compensation clauses becoming law, and the license not being required, considerably more would be asked to do away with it than to do away with the old one. Mr. Loxton said he really could not give an opinion. Mr. Herbert subsequently said that the client, Mr. Utting, would resign the license of the WARWICK ARMS, a neighbouring house if the Bench would grant this application. The Chief Constable said that under those circumstances he would withdraw his opposition. The Bench after a long deliberation in private.....

Sanctioned the plans for the removal of LITTLE SWAN, subject to some minor alterations and to the licenses of the present licensed house and of the WARWICK ARMS being given up.”

The license was not renewed in 1891, on the granting of a license to the DUSTY MILLER.

LITTLETON ARMS

40, (89), (90), Littleton Street East / Hatherton Street, WALSALL

OWNERS

Richard Shutt [1858]
Thomas Inston, builder, Chester Road, Sutton Coldfield
William O. E. Utting [1881]
William Butler and Co. Ltd. (leased) [1904]
Highgate Brewery Ltd. (leased)
Mitchells and Butlers Ltd. (acquired 1939)
Enterprise Inns [2003]

LICENSEES

Richard Shutt [1853] – [1857]
Stephen Tippett [1858] – 1867)
Robert Green [1868] – 1869);
Samuel Gale (1869 – [1875];
Thomas Inston Jnr. [];
William O E Utting [1881] – 1898);
Sarah Ann Maund (1898 – 1900);
Priscilla Oakley (1900);
William Marston (1900);
Frederick Charles Williams (1900 – 1902);
Alfred Medlam (1902 – 1903);
John Woodward (1903 – 1904);
Thomas Young (1904 – 1906);
Robert Andrew Mackay (1906 – 1909);
Harry Saunders (1909 – 1910);
George Ernest James (1910 – 1912);
Edward James Beddows (1912 – 1914);
Edwin Foden D'Oyly (1914 – [];
Violet Foden Wylde D'Oyly [] – 1917);
John Mason (1917 – 1919);
William Jones (1919);
Albert William Hudson (1919 – 1922);
Samuel Tongue (1922 – 1936);
John Joseph Wardle (1936 – 1943);
John Blakeley (1943 – 1957);
George Eric Brough (1957 – 1960);
George Ostcliffe (1960 – 1962);
John William Perry (1962 – 1964);
John Harold Flavell (1964);
David George Howe (1964 – 1965);
Dennis Stokes Chapman (1965 – 1966);
Reginald Edward Stephens (1966 – 1967);
James O'Neill (1967 – []

Paul Fletcher [1994]

Mick Gull [2004] – 2006):

NOTES

89, Littleton Street [1871]

Hatherton Street [1872], [1881]

90, Littleton Street East [1891]

89, Littleton Street East

40, Littleton Street East [1993]

HATHERTON ARMS [1858], [1864]

It was a home brew pub.

It had a brewery adjoining the pub.

Staffordshire Advertiser 17/9/1853

“At the adjourned annual licensing meeting on Wednesday last, eight of the sixteen persons who applied for victuallers’ licenses on the Wednesday previously renewed their applications, and with success.....

Richard Shutt, Hatherton Street.”

Walsall Free Press 20/6/1857

“Ellen Flood, a woman of rather respectable exterior, was charged with putting off a base half-crown to Mr. Richard Shutt, of the LITTLETON ARMS, Hatherton Street. On the previous Thursday afternoon the prisoner went to the house of the prosecutor, and calling for half-a-pint of ale tendered the base coin in question. He discovered it to be counterfeit, but should not have taken her into custody, but that he was informed by a person in the house that she had been previously guilty of such delinquencies. This person was not in attendance to prove any former offence, and as the law requires that there should be two or more attempts to commit such fraud by the same person within ten days, the prisoner was remanded to Wednesday for the production of Mr. Shutt’s informant.”

Birmingham Journal 21/10/1857 - Died

“On the 19th inst, at Walsall, after a long and painful illness, Mary, wife of Mr. Richard Shutt, victualler, aged 45 years.”

Staffordshire Advertiser 17/4/1858

“Pursuant to the Act for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors in England to be heard at the Shire hall, Stafford, on Wednesday, the 5th day of May next at ten o’clock in the forenoon precisely.

Richard Shutt the elder (sued as Richard Shutt), formerly of High Street, Walsall, Staffordshire, and afterwards of Hatherton Street, Walsall, aforesaid, Licensed Victualler and Covered Harness Furniture Manufacturer; then of Hatherton Street, Walsall, aforesaid Covered Harness Furniture Manufacturer; a prisoner for debt in the gaol of Stafford, in the county of Stafford. Duignan and Ebsworth, Walsall, Attorneys for the Insolvent.”

Staffordshire Advertiser 8/5/1858

“Re Richard Shutt, Walsall. Mr. Ebsworth supported the petition, and Mr. Passman opposed on behalf of two creditors. Debts, £1,977; assets, £28. Grounds of opposition, reckless expenditure and contracting debts without a reasonable probability or expectation of paying them. His Honour, after hearing the evidence, sustained the grounds of objection taken by Mr. Passman, and, at the suit of the opposing creditors, remanded the insolvent for six months from the date of the vesting order.”

Staffordshire Advertiser 15/5/1858

“An inaccuracy crept into the report of ‘re Richard Shutt, Walsall’, insolvent debtor, who was examined at Stafford County Court, last week. His debts were stated at £1,977, and his assets at £28; but the former included a mortgage debt, which is secured upon property in Hatherton Street, Walsall, to the full value. The assets, including the property, will be near £1,400.”

London Gazette 15/6/1858

“Whereas a Petition of Richard Shutt the elder, formerly of High-street, Walsall, in Staffordshire, and afterwards of Hatherton-street, Walsall aforesaid, Licensed Victualler, and Covered Harness Furniture Manufacturer, and then and now of Hatherton-street, Walsall aforesaid, Covered Harness Furniture Manufacturer, an insolvent debtor, having been filed in the County Court of Staffordshire, at Walsall, and an interim order for protection from process having been given to the said Richard Shutt the elder, under the provisions of the Statutes in that case made and provided, the said Richard Shutt the elder is hereby required to appear before the said Court, on the 29th day of July next, at ten of the clock in the forenoon precisely, for his first examination touching his debts, estate and effects, and to be further dealt with according to the provisions of the said Statutes; and the choice of the creditors’ assignees is to take place at the time so appointed. All persons indebted to the said Richard Shutt the elder, or that have any of his effects, are not to pay or deliver the same but to Mr. Frederic Furmann Clarke, Registrar of the said Court, at his office, in Walsall, the Official Assignee of the estate and effects of the aid insolvent.”

Richard Shutt – see also BEAR AND RAGGED STAFF.

Stephen Tippett = Stephen Teppett = Stephen Tibbetts

Staffordshire Advertiser 5/6/1858 - Advert

“Valuable Public-House and Property on Hatherton Street and Littleton Street, Walsall.

To be Sold by Auction by John Osbourn, at the LITTLETON ARMS, Hatherton Street, Walsall, on Wednesday, June 9th, 1858, at six o'clock pm precisely, by direction of the Mortgagee, the well-built Public-House, called the LITTLETON ARMS, with the premises thereto belonging, fronting to Littleton Street and Hatherton Street, Walsall, now in the occupation of Mr. Stephen Tippett, at the annual rent of £32.

The House contains entrance hall, large bar, parlour 36 feet by 16, taproom 16 feet by 15 feet 5in, a large kitchen, five sleeping rooms, a maltroom, brewhouse, large wine and ale cellars, with excellent and extensive shopping, stable, piggeries, large yard, walled garden, pump of water, and soft water cistern.

Also four substantially-built Dwelling-Houses, adjoining and fronting Hatherton Street, with good brewhouse, shopping, and soft water cisterns at the back, in the occupations of John Parkes, Richard Shutt, John Pepper, and Henry Shutt, and producing at low rents £41 12s a year.

The property is leasehold for 99 years, from 5th March, 1852, at a ground rent of £5, and contains a frontage of 35 yards to Hatherton Street, 40 yards to Littleton Street, and in the whole 1,200 square yards.

For further particulars apply to the Auctioneer; or to Duignan and Ebsworth, Solicitors, Walsall.”

Walsall Free Press 4/9/1858

“Brewster Sessions..... The following parties were then called over, and as they came for their licenses, were duly cautioned individually.....

Stephen Tippett, of the HATHERTON ARMS, Hatherton Street, who, on the 9th of June, had also been fined 5s and costs for selling drink on a Sunday during prohibited hours.”

1861 Census

Hatherton Street

- [1] Stephen Tippett (31), victualler, born Southpith _____;
- [2] Mary Tippett (30), wife, born Leamington;
- [3] Mary Jane Tippett (4), daughter, born Birmingham;
- [4] Elizabeth Tippett (2), daughter, born Walsall;
- [5] William Tippett (1), son, born Walsall;
- [6] Mary Ann Masterton (14), servant, born Leamington;
- [7] Ann Rebecca Cloxton (30), servant, born Birmingham:

Birmingham Daily Post 9/2/1864

“Yesterday at the Petty Sessions, a man named Haynes was fined 2s 6d and costs for having assaulted Henry Eden at the house of Mr. Tibbetts, the HATHERTON ARMS, Hatherton Street, on the night of Saturday. It appeared that the two men quarrelled, and in the course of a fight which ensued the complainant's ankle was dislocated.”

Birmingham Journal 13/4/1867 - Deaths

“On the 4th inst., aged 37 years, Mr. S. Tippett, of the LITTLETON ARMS, Littleton Street, Walsall, deeply lamented.”

Walsall Free Press 29/1/1870

“County Court. Gale v. Powell.

In this case, the plaintiff, Samuel Gale, landlord of the CAPE OF GOOD HOPE and LITTLETON ARMS public-houses, Walsall, sought to recover from the defendant Edwin Powell, currier, Walsall, the sum of £5 for injuries resulting from an assault committed by defendant upon complainant. Mr. Young (instructed by Mr. Crump) appeared for the plaintiff, and Mr. Dale (from the office of Messrs. Duignan, Lewis, and Lewis) for the defendant.

Mr. Young applied to have the plaint amended, and the damages increased from £5 to £15. The grounds for the application being that the injuries had turned out more serious than they were thought to be at the time the summons was taken out.

Mr. Dale objected on the ground that if the application were granted, his client would be deprived of a statutory right to have a jury. His Honour adjourned the case till the 23rd of February – the question of costs being reserved.”

1871 Census

89, Littleton Street – LITTLETON ARMS

- [1] Samuel Gale (28), currier and victualler, born South Horton, Dorsetshire;
- [2] Ann Gale (39), wife, born Walsall:

Walsall Free Press 19/4/1873

“Caroline Sankey was charged with having, on Thursday last, assaulted Samuel Gale, landlord of the LITTLETON ARMS. Mr.

Glover appeared for the complainant. From the evidence of the complainant it appeared that on the day in question defendant sent a little girl to complainant and requested to have her husband turned out, and afterwards she came and made use of abusing language, and then broke a pane of glass, valued 3s 6d. She also threw a stone and cut complainant's head. In this case there was a cross-summons. Defendant's son said that Gale struck his mother twice and knocked her down. The case against Gale was discharged, and Mrs. Sankey was fined 5s and costs."

Midland Examiner 4/9/1875

"Samuel Gale, licensed victualler, of Littleton Street, Walsall, was charged on a warrant with having threatened to take the life of Joseph Perry, in the employ of Mr. Crapper. Mr. Crump defended.

Complainant stated that on Thursday morning last the defendant threatened to knock his b—— brains out with a hammer which he held in his hand. Witness was at work at the time, and was afraid he would do him some bodily harm. The defendant then asked witness to fight with him, and he (defendant) would twist his (witness) neck out.

George Morris deposed to having heard the defendant threaten to twist the complainant's neck.

Mr. Crump addressed the Bench at length for the defence, contending that the evidence adduced did not tend to show that the complainant was really afraid the defendant would carry out his threat into execution. It was, so he was instructed, a case which was concocted for the purpose of punishing defendant as the result of a family quarrel.

The defendant was bound over in his own recognizances of £10 to keep the peace for six months; and one surety of £10."

Samuel Gale – see also CAPE OF GOOD HOPE.

1881 Census

Hatherton Street – LITTLETON ARMS

- [1] William Utting (34), licensed victualler, born Fakenham, Norfolk;
- [2] Emily Utting (33), wife, born Walsall;
- [3] William Utting (9), son, scholar, born Walsall;
- [4] Emily Utting (7), daughter, scholar, born Walsall;
- [5] Florence Utting (6), daughter, scholar, born Walsall;
- [6] Mary Ann Utting (2), daughter, born Walsall:

1891 Census

90, Littleton Street East – LITTLETON ARMS

- [1] William Utting (44), brewer and victualler, born Fakenham, Norfolk;
 - [2] Emily Utting (43), wife, born Walsall;
 - [3] Emily Utting (17), daughter, born Walsall;
 - [4] Florence Utting (16), daughter, born Walsall;
- [Florence was described as a son in this Census.]

William Utting was described as a wine and spirit merchant and ale and porter brewer. [1892], [1896]

See also TEDDESLEY ARMS.

Walsall Advertiser 22/9/1894

"A.O.F. Walsall District Grand Court. On Wednesday evening there was an important meeting in connection with the local Forestry at the LITTLETON ARMS, Littleton Street, the headquarters of Court Lord Hatherton. The several courts comprising the Walsall district have formed themselves into a Grand Court for the friendly discussion of matter appertaining to Forestry, and for occasional concerts and entertainments....."

William Marston – see also DOLPHIN.

Frederick Charles Williams was elected as a member of the Walsall and District Licensed Victuallers' and Beer Retailers' Friendly and Protection Society in November 1900.

1901 Census

Littleton Street East – LITTLETON ARMS

- [1] Frederick C. Williams (29), licensed victualler, born Cheltenham;
- [2] Henrietta Williams (26), wife, born Natal, Cape Colony, South Africa;
- [3] Frederick Williams (3), son, born Natal, Cape Colony, South Africa;
- [4] Alice M. White (21), barmaid, born Walsall:

Alfred Medlam – see also DOLPHIN, George Street, and WHITE HORSE.

Walsall Advertiser 25/7/1903 - Notice

"Walsall And District Hospital.

List of Workpeople's Contributions received by the Treasurer from August, 1902, to July 24th, 1903.....

LITTLETON ARMS, Littleton Street (Ceiling Collection, per Mr. Medlam). £3 0s 11d."

Walsall Advertiser 13/8/1903

“A meeting of the Watch Committee followed that of the Council meeting, the Mayor presiding.
During the same period there were four calls of fire, viz.
8th July, LITTLETON ARMS, Littleton Street East.”

Walsall Advertiser 10/12/1904

“The twenty-fifth annual meeting of the Walsall Florist Society was held on Monday last at the LITTLETON ARMS HOTEL, Littleton Street.”

George Ernest James – see also DUSTY MILLER, and WHITE HORSE.

1911 Census

Littleton Street East – LITTLETON ARMS

- [1] George Ernest James (35), licensed victualler, born Walsall;
- [2] Forence James (34), wife, married 14 years, assisting in business, born Walsall;
- [3] Florence Mary James (10), daughter, born London;
- [4] Irene Elizabeth James (8), daughter, born London;
- [5] Ethel Doris James (7), daughter, born Walsall;
- [6] Edith Alice James (5), daughter, born Willenhall;
- [7] Edna May James (4), daughter, born Willenhall;
- [8] Eliza Emily Westfield (24), domestic servant, born Walsall;
- [9] Eliza Haywood (49), widow, domestic servant, born Hanley, Staffordshire:

Walsall Advertiser 23/9/1911

“At the general meeting of the Harriers Club it was unanimously agreed that the headquarters of the club should be removed from the WHITE HART, Caldmore, to the LITTLETON ARMS, Hatherton Street, of which Mr. George James is the host. Mr. James has been connected with several branches of sport a good many years. He is vice-president of the Walsall Football Club, and takes a big interest in cycling and shooting, and it is thought from all points of view that the club have done the right at last in coming back to the district where it made its name. The only thing wanting to make the club what it had been in past years is a little support from the sporting public of the town. The following officials were elected for the coming season: Captain, H. Blower; vice-captain, H. Lawton; treasurer, S. Dyde; hon. secretary, G. L. Lamb. The opening run will take place on September 30th and all novices will be heartily welcomed.”

Walsall Advertiser 9/10/1911

“Walsall Harriers. The opening run of the above club took place on Saturday, from the LITTLETON ARMS, Littleton Street, and a record pack turned out, as expected. A start was not made till 4 o'clock, owing to several members being late.”

Walsall Advertiser 6/4/1912

“We are requested to state that the Walsall Imperial Cycling Club have changed their headquarters from the WINDMILL TAV-ERN to the LITTLETON ARMS, Littleton Street. Their first run of the season is on Sunday next, when they will visit Lichfield, and if the weather is permitting an enjoyable time is expected. The Thursday team of the Imperial Cycling Club will pay a visit to the Horns of Queslet on Thursday next.”

Walsall Advertiser 20/12/1913

“The members of the LITTLETON ARMS Sick and Dividend Club held their annual general meeting at headquarters, in Hatherton Street on Thursday evening, when it was announced that the sharing this year would be 6s 3d per member. This is ninepence less than last year. The membership decreased, being 22 as against 36 last year. The total income amounted to £21 17s 3d, and expenditure £14 4s leaving a balance to carry forward to next year of £7 17s 3d. It was decided that the club should be reconstructed and adopt the name of the LITTLETON ARMS Death and Dividend Society, the officers of which will be elected at a later meeting.”

Birmingham Daily Gazette 9/10/1916

“The death has taken place at Fakenham, Norfolk, of Mr. William O. E. Utting, who for many years lived in Walsall, and formerly resided at the LITTLETON ARMS, Littleton Street, Walsall. He had a passion for collecting genuine old grandfather clocks, and possessed no fewer than 200 of them at the time of his death.”

John Mason – see also FOUNTAIN.

Walsall Observer 12/1/1918

“Walsall and District War Aid Committee. Collection By The Licensed Victuallers, December, 1917.
LITTLETON ARMS, Hatherton Street. £0 6s 6d.”

Walsall Observer 7/9/1918 - Advert

“Preliminary.

Fox & Harrison, F.A.I., are favoured with instruction to offer for Sale by auction, at the STORK HOTEL, Walsall, on Tuesday, 15th October, 1918 (unless previously disposed of privately), the undermentioned Four Licensed Houses.

The Full Licensed House, LITTLETON ARMS INN, Corner of Hatherton Street, and Littleton Street, Walsall.

The Full Licensed House, DUSTY MILLER INN, Corner of Butts Road (and facing down Hatherton Street, Walsall).

The Full Licensed House, TEDDESLEY ARMS INN, Corner of Warwick Street and Teddesley Street, Walsall.

The Ante '69 Beerhouse, Old Wilkin Inn, Corner of Wilkin Road and Hednesford Road, Norton Canes, Brownhills.

Full particulars will be announced later.

Auctioneers Offices, 51, Lower Hall Lane, Walsall. Telephone 198.”

Walsall Observer 5/4/1924

“W. O. E. Utting, Deceased. For Sale by Private Treaty, the well-known, fully licensed, Public houses, the LITTLETON ARMS (leasehold), Littleton Street; the TEDDESLEY ARMS (leasehold), Teddesley Street; the DUSTY MILLER (freehold), Butts Road, Walsall; and the freehold beerhouse Old Wilkin, Hednesford Road, Brownhills.

Apply: The Owners, namely W.O.E. Utting's Trustees, 117, Lichfield Street, Walsall.”

Staffordshire Advertiser 20/12/1924

“An unusual story was told at Walsall County Court, on Thursday, in a case in which the Highgate Brewery Co., Walsall, sued William Utting, electrical engineer, Lower Forster Street, for £5 damages, and also applied for an injunction to restrain the man from trespassing on the company's property.

Defendant did not appear, and was not represented, but it was stated that he had written to the Registrar intimating although he denied liability, he had paid the amount claimed into court.

Mr. A. J. Long (instructed by Mr. C. L. Hodkinson), who appeared for plaintiffs, said the allegation against Utting was that he had wrongfully entered on one of the company's houses, the LITTLETON ARMS, Hatherton Street, and had painted out the word 'Highgate' from the sign 'Highgate Ales and Stout.'

Replying to Judge Tebbs, counsel said he did not know what defendant's object was in doing this. His only conclusion was that he was one of the lessors of the property of the brewery company. The incident occurred on October 28, and on November 5 Utting painted out similar words on the front of the TEDDESLEY ARMS INN, Littleton [sic] Street, which was also one of plaintiff's houses.

Samuel Tongue, manager of the LITTLETON ARMS, spoke to seeing Utting climb a ladder and paint out the word 'Highgate.'

Judge Tebbs: Why didn't you – but I suppose you could not. I was going to ask you why you did not pull the ladder down (laughter).

Joseph Osbourne, manager of the TEDDESLEY ARMS, said at his house the word 'Highgate' was painted out by a workman, whilst Utting and his sister looked on. He did not know why it was done.

Counsel: It is a long story. It arises from an order made by Justice Russell seven years ago.

Judgement was eventually given for the amount claimed with costs and the injunction sought was granted.”

Walsall Observer 29/7/1939

“More than fifty licensed premises in Walsall and neighbouring place become Mitchells and Butlers houses this week as a result of the well-known Cape Hill brewery company's acquisition of the whole of the undertakings of the Highgate-Walsall Brewery Co. Ltd., and the Walsall Breweries Proprietary Ltd., and of all the licensed and certain un-licensed properties of Messrs. John Lord, brewers, of Short Acre.....

A list of the licensed premises that form part of the properties acquired by Mitchells and Butlers is as follows.....

Highgate houses.....

LITTLETON ARMS, Littleton Street.”

1939 Register

Littleton Street East – LITTLETON ARMS

[1] John J. Wardle, date of birth 24/6/1904, public house manager, married;

[2] Fanny Wardle, dob 21/6/1902, housekeeper, unpaid, married;

[4] Ruth (Babbs) Burns, dob 31/6/1911, barmaid, single;

[5] Percival Burns, dob 22/5/1910, press tool setter, single:

John Joseph Wardle – see also BELLE VUE.

Walsall Observer 15/1/1944

“Walsall Licensed Victuallers' Society.

Appeal on Behalf of the Merchant Navy Fund, The Duke of Gloucester's Red Cross Fund and the Aid to China Fund. List of Subscriptions.....

LITTLETON ARMS, Littleton Street. £3 2s 0d.”

J. Blakely died in 1957.

Dennis Stokes Chapman – see also NEW FULLBROOK.

Sandwell Evening Mail 6/8/1994

“Down Your Local. LITTLETON ARMS, Walsall.

The regulars at this popular street corner local are getting in a right old froth, and it's no wonder. Their beloved watering hole is under threat of demolition from a road modernisation scheme and the customers are working up a thirst for a ding-dong battle to save it The pub is on the route of Walsall's much-vaunted new Ring Road and unless the local authority has a rethink it is likely that a compulsory purchase order will be slapped on it. And that will come as a bitter blow to landlord Paul Fletcher and his partner Liz Chambers who have been at the pub less than 12 months This is Paul and Liz's first pub, although she is no stranger to such places, having been born and brought up in a pub 100 yards away! Her dad John Hayes used to run the now-demolished DUSTY MILLER in Littleton Street. Paul ran his own small engineering company in Walsall for 20 years, manufacturing keys, but, like so many others, fell victim to the recession.....”

Mick Gull was married to Sue.

See also PRETTY BRICKS.

It closed on 10th July 2006.

It was demolished in October 2006.

LONDON APPRENTICE

Rushall Street / High Street, WALSALL

OWNERS

LICENSEES

Siddons []

NOTES

Siddons died in 1750 in a wrestling match.

He was the great grandfather of Sarah Siddons, the actress.

LONDON BAR

19, High Street, WALSALL

OWNERS

Thomas Sneyd, chemist, High Street, Walsall

Cannock Brewery Co. Ltd.

James Allen, butcher, Upper Rushall Street, Walsall

James Allen, Bournemouth

LICENSEES

Robert James Adams [1871] – [1872];

William Diggett [];

Frank Blakemore [];

John Johnson [];

Thomas Donohue [];

Robert Anslow [];

Stephen Griffin [1880] ?

Henry James Hold []

Frank Blakemore [];

Frederick T Hybell [];
Sophia Archer [];
Thomas Reuben Preston [] – 188_);
William Dance (188_ – 1889);
Edward Perris (1889);
Frederick Stokes (1889 – [];
Ann Stokes [] – 1890);
William Keats (1890 – 1894);
Mrs. Martha Lees (1894 – 1897);
James Edward Pascall (1897 – []:

NOTES

It had a beerhouse license.
It also had a refreshment license.

1871 Census

19, High Street

[1] Robert J. Adams (24), beerhouse keeper, born Wolverhampton;

[2] Teresa Adams (24), wife, born Walsall:

Robert James Adams, beer retailer, 19 High Street. [1872]

Birmingham Daily Post 6/12/1886 - Advert

“Beerhouse (Attractive); long free lease; beds pay rent.

Apply on the premises, LONDON BAR, High Street, Walsall.”

William Keats = William Keate = William Keates

1891 Census

19, High Street – The LONDON BAR

[1] William Keats (60), bit maker, born Bloxwich;

[2] Elizabeth Keats (60), wife, born Berrington, Shropshire;

[3] Hubert Redford (39), visitor, tailor, born Brackensfield, Derbyshire;

[4] Walter Sutton (27), visitor, labourer, born Walsall;

[5] Henry Preston (48), boarder, saddler, born Walsall:

Walsall Advertiser 7/1/1893

“Edward Carrol, Fidge’s Yard, was summoned, charged with two assaults, the first on a woman named Clara Broadhurst, and the second on William Keates, keeper of the LONDON BAR, High Street, who also charged defendant with smashing eight jugs and nine glasses belonging to him.

The first complainant appeared in court with her head bandaged, but as defendant failed to appear, the cases were adjourned for a warrant to be executed.”

Birmingham Daily Post 19/1/1893

“At the Guildhall, yesterday, Edward Carroll, collier, Fidge’s Yard, was charged on a warrant with assaulting Clara Broadhurst and William Keates, and also with wilful damage.

On Boxing Day the accused went into Keates’ House, the LONDON BAR, High Street, and asked for a Christmas box. The application was refused, Carroll being unknown to the landlord, and the fellow then seized a jug and threw it at the barmaid, who sustained a severe cut under the eye. Then Carroll turned upon the landlord and seized him by the throat, but on getting a whack with a stick he relaxed his hold and ‘set about clearing the jugs and glasses,’ smashing about a dozen glasses and doing other damage. The Bench convicted him of aggravated assault upon Broadhurst, and sentenced him to one month’s imprisonment, with hard labour; and for the assault upon Keates he was sentenced to a further period of fourteen days’ imprisonment. In the case of wilful damage nothing was done.”

Walsall Advertiser 18/2/1893

“John Williams, alias Smith, sawyer, Green Lane, was charged on remand with unlawfully wounding Thomas Lee, miner, 44, New Street, Bloxwich.

Complainant stated that on the 9th inst, he was in the LONDON BAR, High Street, Walsall, and at closing time was getting up to go out when two jugs came flying at him, one narrowly missing his head and the second striking him with great force on the wrist, cutting him so badly that he had to be taken to the Cottage Hospital. He had remained there from then to the present time.

William Henry Pleby, Bloxwich, who was with complainant, said defendant threw the jugs at a man named Larry Carrigan, who, however, ducked, and avoided them, and complainant being in the rear received the full force of the one.

Prisoner here said he himself was struck on the head by a jug before this, but it was explained that complainant had done nothing with it.

Mr. Stearn, house surgeon, at the Cottage Hospital said complainant's injury was an incised wound over the right wrist and which divided the tendons, and the joint itself was open. It was quite possible the man might lose the use of the hand. Prisoner threw himself on the mercy of the Court, but the Magistrates said they had no power to deal with the case, and committed him to the Quarter Sessions for trial."

[At the Walsall Quarter Sessions (May 1893), John Williams pleaded guilty to common assault, and was bound over to come up when called upon.]

Walsall Advertiser 27/5/1893

"George Craddock, labourer, 35, Bott Lane, was summoned for stealing 6s 9d, the money of William Keates, the keeper of the LONDON BAR, High Street.

The prosecutor stated that defendant came to the house and was very quarrelsome, and ultimately was ordered to leave. He, however, went to the back of the bar, and helped himself at the beer tap. A police-constable was sent for, and defendant then snatched all the silver from the shelf in the bar, and ran out of the house.

Defendant denied the charge, but two witnesses swore to seeing him take the money.

As he had no rebutting evidence, and bore a bad character, the magistrates fined him 20s and costs, or 14 days."

Birmingham Daily Post 12/10/1893

"Yesterday, at the Guildhall, William Keates, keeper of the LONDON BAR, High Street, was charged with keeping open his house during prohibited hours, and with supplying drink to drunken persons. Mr. T. H. Stanley appeared on behalf of the accused.

It seemed that between ten and eleven o'clock on the night of the 5th inst, defendant sought the aid of Police-constable Morris, stating that his barmaid, Clara Broadhurst, had assaulted him. She was behind the bar, and her sister was sitting in the place with a man, both women were the worse of liquor. The defendant asked that the barmaid might be turned out, but she refused to go, declaring that she was his wife, and had as much right to be there as he has. The defendant, on being asked what he had to say about that, answered that she was not his wife, nor was she a servant; he did not pay her wages, but kept her 'like a lady.' At twenty past eleven, Police-constable Morris and Acting-sergeant Ballance found that he had been locked out of the house, and on getting the door open they saw the barmaid sitting at a table ill from the effects of drink and her sister still there.

The defence was that Clara was severely injured some months ago by a man who assaulted her in the house, and since that time a very little drink soon overcame her. Her sister had called with some things for her, and had been given some liquor.

The Bench fined Keates £5 and costs, without endorsement of license; and the women 10s each and costs for being upon the premises during prohibited hours."

Birmingham Daily Post 29/9/1894

"Walsall. The adjourned licensing sessions for this borough took place yesterday.....

The Chief Constable withdrew his opposition to the renewal of the license of the LONDON BAR, High Street, a respectable tenant having been put into place.....

The Bench deliberated in private for some time, and on their return into court announced that all the other applications would be granted."

Mrs. Martha Lees, beer retailer, 19, High Street. [1896]

Walsall Advertiser 25/7/1896

"John James Morrall, butcher, of 193, Bloxwich Road, was summoned under the Married Women's Maintenance Act for persistent cruelty to his wife, Nellie Gertrude Morrall, LONDON BAR public-house, High Street. Complainant applied for a separation order. Mr. N. J. Cotterell supported, and stated that the parties were married some three years ago, during the whole of which time his client's life had, he thought, been nothing less than a misery through the conduct of the defendant. He had kicked her in the stomach, struck her on her nose and on the temple, rendering her insensible for some time, threatened her with a razor, and run her with a 'stake' knife. His conduct had been so bad that she was obliged to go home, where she had lived for the past three months or so. Ever since that he had met her and struck her with a stick across her shoulders, but the whole matter culminated on Tuesday evening, when he blackened her eye, the effects of which were still visible.

Complainant gave evidence as to the accuracy of the statement, and then called Jemima Capewell (Birmingham) who stated in her presence the defendant had beaten thrashed, and threatened his wife.

Police-constable Cattermole said he was called to a row at the LONDON BAR on Tuesday, and noticed that Mrs. Morrall had received a blow on the eye. Defendant said to him, 'Leave her alone, she'll come round, she has come round before.'

In defence the husband denied several allegations, while his father, James Morrall, 213, North Walsall, contended that the parties had broken up their home and were living apart owing to business losses, and not because of alleged ill-treatment.

The magistrates granted a separation, and ordered defendant to contribute 6s per week towards the maintenance of his wife."

Walsall Advertiser 3/9/1898

"Mr. Disturnal (instructed by Messrs. Stanley and Jackson) applied to the magistrates, on behalf of Mrs. Martha Lees, for a temporary transfer to her of the LONDON BAR, High Street, to enable her to sell at those premises until the next transfer day, the present licensee having gone out of the premises. In making the application, Mr. Disturnal said that the circumstances were somewhat peculiar. The LONDON BAR belonged to Mr. James Allen, who resided at Bournemouth, but, unfortunately for him, the lease became vested in a Mr. Everett, an auctioneer, of Birmingham, and Mr. Everett, from time to time, sub-let the premises to various tenants. At the licensing sessions of 1897 the license was renewed to Mrs. Martha Lees, the present applicant, who had held the license previously. She was licensed by the way of renewal at the annual licensing meeting in 1897. Shortly afterwards, in the month of September, she transferred the license to a Mr. Pascall. It appeared that Mr. Everett's methods with reference to licensed houses was somewhat peculiar – so peculiar that, unfortunately, he (Mr. Everett) found himself in Winson Green Gaol, Birmingham. The tenant of the house, in consequence of his conduct in reference to this house in particular, quitted it, and the lease being unexpired, everything was removed from the premises, and the house was shut up. His client (Mr. Allen) was bound to resort to the law to give him possession, but was not able to do so as sufficient rent was not in arrear. Shortly after June 24th this year, Mr. Allen applied to the Bench under certain Acts of Parliament passed in the reign of King George III to give him possession, and to put an end to the lease. That was done, and now Mr. Allen had undisputed possession. Free from his lease he now came before the Bench to ask them to give him further assistance, with reference to the license of which he had temporally been deprived by Mr. Everett's methods. Under those circumstances Mr. Allen had gone to the old tenant, Mrs. Martha Lees, a respectable lady, and had got her to come back to the house. She was now residing in the house, and agreement of tenancy had been made between her and Mr. Allen. Under those circumstances he made an application for a temporary transfer to her.

Chief Constable Taylor said he was opposing the application.

Mrs. Martha Lees was called in support of this application. She stated she was residing at the LONDON BAR, and had previously resided in Birmingham. She had entered into an agreement of tenancy.

Mr. Disturnal here proposed to question Mrs. Lees upon the agreement she had signed.

The Chief Constable objected to this course being taken, and after a good deal of legal argument on the point, Mr. Disturnal said he would put in the agreement, having protested.

In cross-examination by Chief Constable Taylor, applicant denied that she was the holder of a license in Birmingham, and she said she had sold her business in New John Street, West Hockley. She did not say she would not leave Birmingham until she got the license of the LONDON BAR. She could not tell what time she entered the house, but she had stayed there all night, although there was no furniture there. That was for the purpose of 'occupying' the house.

Chief Constable Taylor asked if there was any provision in the agreement that if the license was not granted the agreement was not binding?

Mr. Disturnal objected, remarking that the document spoke for itself.

Chief Constable Taylor said his objection was exactly the same in the RING OF BELLS case, namely, that the license had become null and void, in consequence of its having been granted to a person other than the 'real resident and occupier,' but the person who held the temporary authority was nothing more or less than a paid servant. This was a Mr. Pascall, who had had a grant of the license. Mrs. Lees left in September last year, and before the expiration of her license she had transferred all her rights, he submitted, to another person, and no amount of argument would make the granting of a new license. The owner, he submitted, could not get the license vested in an old tenant, who had lost her interest in it.

In the end, the Bench refused the application."

The license was not renewed in 1898.

LONGHORN

Sutton Road, Wood End, WALSALL

OWNERS

John Roper

James Roper

John Marshall [1871]

George Whitehouse, 12, Mellish Road, Walsall [1909]

Lichfield Brewery Co. Ltd.

Ansells Ltd.

Allied Domecq [1998]

Ember Inns [2007]

LICENSEES

Thomas Hartopp [1856]

James Roper [1858] – 1894);

Edwin Roper (1894 – 1899);

George Porter (1899 – 1901);

Stephen Dawson (1901 – 1906);

William Perry (1906 – 1914);

Walter Howard Homer (1914 – 1916);
Walter Richard Taylor (1916 – 1925);
Frank Smith (1925 – 1926);
Charles Pedley (1926 – []
Thomas Pittaway [] – 1935);
Gilbert Broughton Brown (1935 – 1947);
Edward Cronin (1947 – 1949);
Leonard Rickerby (1949 – [1966]
Esther Bennett [2004]

NOTES

It was originally an unnamed beerhouse.

It was later known as the RED HOUSE.

It had a beerhouse license.

Staffordshire Advertiser 8/3/1856

“At the Guildhall, on Wednesday, Enoch Whitehouse, of the New Invention beerhouse, near Willenhall, was summoned on the information of Caleb H. Yewes, Secretary of the Animal Friends Society, for cockfighting. It appeared that the police, on receiving information, went to the RED HOUSE beershop, kept by Thomas Hartopp, which they found filled with people upstairs and in the back yard, into which people could see the house. After a good deal of difficulty they got up by a trap door, by which admission could only be obtained when those above allowed it to be opened. Here they found two men with gloves on, and a quantity of cocks feather’s lying on the floor. There were two rooms leading from this room but they were refused admission into them, but they heard cocks crowing there. They found the defendant in the yard with a cock in a bag, and upon taking him to the station they found spurs in his pocket. There were 200 people in the house. Mr. Highway said there was no moral doubt but that the defendant was guilty, but the evidence was scarcely sufficient to justify a conviction, and he was accordingly discharged.”

James Roper, beer retailer, Sutton Road. [1858]

1861 Census

Sutton Road – Beer House

- [1] James Roper (48), chainmaker and beerhouse keeper, born Walsall;
- [2] Amy Roper (46), wife, born Walsall;
- [3] Anna Roper (19), daughter, born Walsall;
- [4] Edwin Roper (17), son, scrap founder, born Walsall;
- [5] Eliza Roper (14), daughter, born Walsall;
- [6] Thomas Tittley (19), boarder, agricultural labourer, born Walsall:

Walsall Free Press 27/4/1867

“Yesterday afternoon, A. A. Fletcher, coroner for the borough, held an inquest at the house of James Roper, beer-house keeper, Wood End, upon the body of Thomas Jenks, aged 84, who died suddenly on the previous day. From the evidence it appeared deceased about 12 o’clock on Thursday, complained to a neighbour of being unwell and said he would lie down for a short time. Shortly after one o’clock Sarah Horobin, a girl who resides with her parents, next door to deceased and who has been in the habit of clearing-up the house for the old man, called and found him lying on the bed quite dead. The jury, after hearing the evidence, returned a verdict of Death from Natural Causes.”

James Roper, beer retailer, Wood End. [1868], [1870]

1871 Census

Sutton Road – RED HOUSE

- [1] James Roper (57), chainmaker and publican, born Walsall;
- [2] Amy Roper (55), wife, landlady, born Walsall;
- [3] Thomas Tittley (39), nephew, agricultural labourer, born Walsall:

John Marshall was an ironmaster, employing 130 men and 20 boys. [1871]

It was later called the WOOD END INN. [1881]

1881 Census

Sutton Road – WOOD END INN

- [1] James Roper (67), beer retailer, born Walsall;

[2] Ann Roper (65), wife, born Walsall;

[3] Thomas Tittley (49), nephew, agricultural labourer, born Walsall:

[Were Amy (1871) and Ann one and the same? If so which name was the right one?]

Its name was changed back to the RED HOUSE.

1891 Census

Sutton Road – REDHOUSE INN

[1] James Roper (77), widower, publican, born Walsall;

[2] Annie Roper (15), servant, general labourer, born Walsall:

Walsall Advertiser 11/5/1895

“On Monday, at Rushall, a charge of having trespassed in search of game was made against William Spriggs, Walsall, and Edward Roper, RED HOUSE INN. Spriggs did not put in an appearance.

William Fisher stated that on Friday, April 19th, he saw the two defendants at about twenty-past four in the afternoon with two dogs walking towards the land belonging to William Oram. He watched them go on to the land, and ‘knew they were in search of game.’

Defendant denied the charge.

Edwin Roper, the father, who was in company with Spriggs and Roper, said they were only in search of potatoes, and the Bench dismissed the case.”

Walsall Advertiser 27/7/1895

“Annadine Smith (57) is a hawker living at Bentley, and has earned a disgraceful reputation for herself. She now appeared in the dock on two charges of drunkenness and one of wilful damage. On the first, Police-constable Brennan said that on Monday, the 15th inst, at 8.50pm, he saw her in Ablewell Street, drunk and creating a great disturbance with a large crowd of children round her. She was very excited, and using bad language.

The other charges were of having been drunk and disorderly in the Sutton Road and done wilful damage to the amount of 2s 6d to a window, the property of Edwin Roper, landlord of the RED HOUSE INN. On Saturday night prisoner was seen by one of Mr. Roper’s family lying in the gutter in Sutton Road, drunk. As the RED HOUSE was known to be her last house of call on her way home, Mr. Roper was on the look out for her, and immediately she appeared in the passage he pushed her out. She at once took a ‘running blow’ at the window with her fist and knocked a pane out.

Police-sergeant Ballance was called and he found the woman so drunk and yet so violent that she had to be placed on a wheelbarrow and strapped down.

Prisoner admitted that she had had some beer, but could have managed all right if she had been allowed to walk. The officer and the landlord, she declared, ‘served me cruel, and I’m all over mortified where they struck me’. There were 27 previous convictions. She was now fined 5s and costs on each of the three charges, and ordered to pay the damage, or a month in default.

Prisoner, as she went below, declared she would make the landlord ‘pay for the two and six’ when she ‘came back’.”

Walsall Advertiser 3/6/1899

“Edwin Roper, junior, and William Roper, RED HOUSE, Sutton Road, were summoned for assaulting Samuel Trivett, of the Keeper’s Cottage, Great Barr Road, and with wilfully damaging one hat, one coat, and one pair of breeches, doing injury to the complainant to the amount of £1 10s on May 25th; and Edwin Roper, the father of the two defendants, was summoned for aiding and abetting his sons to assault complainant. Mr. H. H. Jackson (Messrs. Stanley and Jackson) was for the prosecution, and Mr. J. Armstrong for the defence.

Mr. Jackson said complainant was a gamekeeper in the employ of Lady Bateman and Scott. On Thursday, the 25th May, defendant visited a farm in the vicinity of the THREE CROWNS INN, kept by Mr. Downes, and after conversing in the yard for some time with Mr. Allen both went into the road. Edwin Roper, jun. came up and told Trivett to get his coat off, and he would make him (Trivett) remember the 15th May last year, a date on which complainant appeared in a case against the two younger defendants for trespass, and who were fined. Edwin, jun. then rushed at Trivett, and hit him several times in the face, knocking him down three or four times. Unfortunately Mr. Allen could not interfere, having charge of a restive horse, and as soon as Edwin Roper had given him a good hiding William commenced. Subsequently the father came up, and told his sons ‘to give the fat headed old —— a good hiding. We shall have to pay for it, make it worth paying for. The old —— ought to have been killed long ago.’

Samuel Trivett bore out the statement made by Mr. Jackson, and several other witnesses gave corroborative evidence.

Dr. Phillips spoke to having examined Trivett and found his face badly bruised. Both eyes had been discoloured, his lower lip was cut, and his left ear was also much swollen.

For the defence Mr. Armstrong contended that it was a fair fight. There had been a grievance between the two parties, and on being challenged by Edwin Roper complainant accepted and they fought.

Edwin Roper was sworn, and said that it was a fair fight. Trivett knocked him to the floor and attempted to strangle him, but his younger brother came to his assistance and struck Trivett.

The father was also sworn, but admitted that he incited them on to fight Trivett.

Edwin (jun.) and William were each fined £5 and costs, with the alternative of two months’ hard labour for the assault, and 1s and 30s damages, or seven days’ hard labour, and the father, for aiding and abetting, £2 and costs, or 21 days’ hard labour.”

Walsall Advertiser 17/6/1899

“John Cooper, 24, Lime Street, was summoned for being found drunk on licensed premises, the RED HOUSE, Sutton Road, on June 10th. Mr. J. R. Cooper (town clerk) prosecuted, and Mr. H. H. Jackson defended.

The Town Clerk said that at 10.35 on Saturday evening, the 10th inst, the beer-house known as the RED HOUSE, in Sutton Road, was visited by Inspector Williams and Detective-Sergeant Haycock. In a room near the entrance they found twelve or thirteen persons, among them the defendant, who in the opinion of the officers was drunk. Defendant was making an attempt to sing, but his words were incoherent. He had a jug before him, three-parts full of beer. The landlord was present, and on being appealed to by the inspector as to the condition of the man said he was ‘tipsy’ but not drunk, and suggested that they should take the defendant to a doctor. The inspector told the landlord that that was precisely what he intended doing. They walked with the defendant to the house of Dr. Phillips, who was out, so they proceeded to the next medical man, Dr. Layton, who said he had not the slightest doubt in the world that the man was drunk at the time. The examination of the defendant was made at 11.20, and they had started from the RED HOUSE at 10.25. On the way to the doctor’s the defendant was so drunk that he staggered and had to lean upon the officers for support. After Dr. Layton’s opinion had been given the landlord asked that he should be taken to his own doctor, Dr. Oliver. There was no objection to that course, and they visited Dr. Oliver’s, who said he was sober, and he (Dr. Oliver) thought a licensed person would not be doing any harm if he supplied him with a glass of beer. From there he was taken to Dr. Wilson’s, where they did not arrive till 11.50. Dr. Wilson did not then give an opinion, but Mr. Cooper contended that between 10.25 and 11.50, and the defendant having had such a long walk in the meantime, and been under the ‘freezing influence’ of the two constables for that distance, it might have had a beneficial effect upon the defendant.

Inspector Williams gave corroborative evidence. He said the defendant appeared half-dosed. On proceeding to the doctors the defendant tumbled against him several times and also leaned on him. When witness told defendant not to lean on him defendant said he was drunk but not ‘speechless’. Defendant said he expected someone would have to pay for that. He asked witness for a match to light a piece of a cigar. Witness gave him a match, but after a time witness remarked ‘I cannot light it without you stop marching!’ When they arrived at Dr. Oliver’s (where they went at the landlord’s request), the landlord asked Dr. Oliver’s opinion, and the doctor, without any examination whatever, simply said ‘the man is not so bad. I don’t think a publican would be doing any harm in supplying him with a glass of beer’. From the last mentioned place they went to Dr. Wilson’s. Dr. Wilson asked the man a few questions, but said he would give his opinion at the proper time. Witness visited the defendant on the following day, and he admitted that he was drunk on the previous night.

Cross-examined by Mr. Jackson: It was hot and close in the room of the public house where they first found defendant, and such a close atmosphere, he thought, would have a tendency to make one drowsy. Witness was perfectly satisfied that defendant was drunk, but it was according to his instructions that he should take him to a medical man.

Detective-sergeant Haycock corroborated.

Dr. Layton was sworn, and said that in his opinion the defendant was drunk.

Mr. Jackson for the defence contended that the man was not drunk, and no better proof of that could they have than the fact that the defendant, when told by the officers that he was drunk, requested to be taken to a doctor.

Edward [sic] Roper, the landlord, was called, and denied that the man was drunk.

Dr. Oliver said the man was not drunk, and was capable of taking care of himself.

Cross-examined: When the defendant came to his house he could tell he had beer, and he could not say that having walked from the public house would have had any beneficial effect upon him.

Dr. Lynch also said that the man was not drunk at the time he examined him. He knew the man well, and he could see no difference in his condition from ordinarily. He could not give a definite opinion as to what his condition would have been two hours previously, but he should not think he could have been drunk by his sobriety when witness saw him.

Cooper was fined 5s and costs, or seven days, and Edwin Roper, the landlord, was fined 20s and costs for permitting drunkenness. On Mr. Jackson’s application, recognisances in case of appeal were fixed at Roper in £40 and two sureties of £20 each.”

Walsall Advertiser 2/9/1899

“The annual licensing sessions for this borough were held at the Guildhall on Wednesday.....

Three beer retailers were also summoned, 2 of whom were convicted, viz.....

16th June, Edwin Roper, RED HOUSE, Sutton Road, fined 20s and costs for permitting drunkenness.....

The renewal of the license for the RED HOUSE, Sutton Road, was also objected to by the Chief Constable, who said that this was somewhat more than a formal objection. He opposed the license ‘outright,’ and he asked the magistrates to support him in his action. The house was situated a long way from any number of dwelling-houses, and there are only four or five in the immediate neighbourhood, and irrespective of the convictions that were recorded against it, it was a house of a very undesirable character, and one not properly under police supervision. His grounds for objection were that on the 2nd June, Edwin Roper was fined £2 and costs for aiding and abetting his sons to assault Samuel Travett (Lady Bate and Scott’s gamekeeper) on 25th May; and that on 16th June, Roper was fined 20s and costs for permitting drunkenness; also that the licensed premises were frequented by thieves and poachers, and bad characters; and that Roper was not a fit and proper person to hold a license. Both Roper’s sons, who had been subpoenaed to attend that day, had been convicted of poaching, with other persons he had subpoenaed to attend there, and who were well-known poachers. On those grounds he asked the magistrates to refuse to renew the license.

Mr. R. E. C. Plumtre, instructed by Mr. H. H. Jackson, appeared for Roper.

Mr. Plumtre said he admitted Roper was fined for aiding and abetting his sons in an assault, but contended the assault did not take place on the licensed premises; and though it was on a gamekeeper the gamekeeper was not in the execution of his duty.

Thomas Downes, farmer, of Wood End Farm, living in close proximity to the RED HOUSE INN, who had been subpoenaed by the Chief Constable, was called. Downes first protested against having been summoned to attend there and said it was very unfair. After having been sworn, he said he ‘believed’ he knew persons named Rough and Harriman, and he had seen them frequently at the RED HOUSE, and also in the garden there, but he (witness) had not been in the house for some years. Answering further questions by the Chief Constable witness said he believed William and Edwin Roper were the sons of the landlord of the RED HOUSE, and he also believed they resided at the RED HOUSE.

Mr. Loxton: When you say 'believe' have you any doubt about it? – No.

In answer to Mr. Plumptre, witness said it had been three or four years since he was in the house. Witness said his land adjoined the garden at the RED HOUSE. He could not say how long it was since he saw either of the persons named at the RED HOUSE.

The Chief Constable (to witness): have you made a statement to anyone within the last two years in reference to the RED HOUSE? – I think it a very 'un-english' way to go about getting evidence in the way they have.

As witness did not answer Mr. Taylor's question, the latter remarked: Of course, there is not the slightest doubt but that he (witness) is afraid of those people.

Mr. Plumptre: Oh, I don't know.

The Chief Constable: He will tell you so himself.

Mr. Plumptre characterised the observations of the Chief Constable as unfortunate. Mr. Taylor, he said, was partly speaking as advocate and partly as Chief Constable.

To witness: Are you afraid to give evidence? – Witness: I decline to answer that question.

Mr. Plumptre: Is he afraid of the police?

Mr. Loxton (to witness): Have you made any statement to Inspector Gore with regard to this matter? – I believe I did; but I consider it was under very unfair circumstances.

Mr. Loxton: Was that statement taken down in writing? – I believe it was, but I did not see it after it was taken down.

The whole of the witnesses had been called, and all stood in a line behind the solicitor's table.

John Rough was the next witness called, but before he gave evidence, Mr. Plumptre interposed: Might I ask about these witnesses – I don't much like their looks – might I ask if they be out of court (laughter).

The witnesses were then asked to leave the court, and the Chief Constable proceeded to interrogate Rough.

The Chief Constable: How long is it since you were in the RED HOUSE, Mr. Roper's? – I could not tell you. I call there sometimes when I have got three ha'pence (laughter).

The Chief Constable: How often do you call? – It is not very often that I have got some money to call (laughter).

The Chief Constable: How many times have you been there during the last three months? – I couldn't say.

The Chief Constable: You have been before the magistrates a lot of times for poaching.

Mr. Plumptre interposed, and told witness not to answer, but the latter being rather deaf, made some unintelligible remark.

Mr. Plumptre said the Chief Constable must know by that time that if he called a witness he had no right to treat him as a hostile witness or to cross-examine him, and when the Chief had heard him object he must say that his behaviour was not with proper consideration to him, or proper courtesy not to hold his tongue until he (Mr. Plumptre) had submitted a point to the Bench.

The Chief Constable said that as soon as Mr. Plumptre objected he immediately stopped, but it was witness who continued speaking.

Mr. Loxton said that he had not heard the question, and also several magistrates also making the same remark.

Mr. Plumptre said he was glad they had not, but he heard the Chief of Police, with the great respect to him, asking witness, more or less sotto voce, the whole time he (Mr. Plumptre) was speaking. But if the Bench had not heard it he must object.

Mr. Loxton: What is the objection, Mr. Plumptre? – That he is now attacking the credit of his own witness. He had subpoenaed this person, and before he obtained the permission of the Bench to treat him as a hostile witness, he proceeds to show that the witness is a person of bad character. That he cannot do without the express permission of the Bench.

The Chief Constable contended that he was perfectly justified in asking the question. He was not treating the witness as a hostile one, neither was he cross-examining him. One of his grounds for putting the question was to show that poachers and persons of disorderly character frequented the house. If witness said 'no' to his question, he should then put in a copy of convictions. He thought Mr. Plumptre was rather hasty, because as soon as he objected he stopped asking questions, but the witness went on answering and he could not prevent him from doing so.

Mr. Plumptre said he was very sorry if he had said more than he ought to, and he accepted Mr. Taylor's statement.

Mr. Loxton: What do you say to Mr. Taylor's answer, that he was asking that question not to discredit the witness, but asking him as the person who knew best about it?

Mr. Plumptre said he objected to the question in that form, and Mr. Loxton agreed it was not a fair way of putting it. He suggested that witness be asked as a matter of fact if he had been convicted of poaching, and on how many occasions.

Mr. Plumptre: That is a different thing.

The Chief Constable then asked witness the question, and also if he had had penal servitude for felony. – Yes, I had seven years.

The Chief Constable: The last time you were convicted for poaching were you fined 40s and costs at Rushall? – No, it was here the last time I was convicted, and I had ten days (laughter).

Cross-examined by Mr. Plumptre, witness said it was in 1869 that he was convicted for felony. He used to go to the RED HOUSE very often when the father of the present occupant was alive, but since then – six years ago – he had not called very often. He has not called a dozen times during the last six years, but witness added, in a confidential tone, I shall call anywhere if I've got three ha'pence (laughter).

James Hammond, of Bank Street, Walsall, said he visited the RED HOUSE about once a month. He was there last Saturday, but he had not been in the house for a month before. Any time he was travelling that way he thought it to his benefit to get half-a-pint of ale at Roper's he got it (laughter). But he protested against being advertised up and down the country; when he had only been guilty of a 'disdemeanour.'

Mr. Loxton: You mean 'misdemeanour.' – You can miss it how you like (laughter). It was for trespassing upon other people's land.

In answer to the Chief Constable, witness denied that he had been convicted on several occasions, except for taking some fish.

Sergeant Riley, of the Rushall police, was sworn, and put in a certified copy of convictions against witness at Rushall Police Court.

William Roper, son of the landlord, acknowledged having been convicted at Rushall for game trespass, and also for an assault upon a gamekeeper at Walsall.

Edwin Roper, jun., another son of the landlord, denied that he was ever convicted at Rushall, but acknowledged having been convicted for an assault with his brother.

The Chief Constable put in certified copy of alleged convictions, but, on perusing it, Mr. Loxton said it seemed peculiar that witness should have been convicted on the 7th for an offence committed on the 20th of the same month.

Mr. Plumptre: It only shows how easy it is to get wrong.

Sergeant Riley was called, but he was not at all sure that witness had been convicted at Rushall.

The Chief Constable withdrew it.

Mr. Plumptre then called evidence as to the character of the house, two witnesses who had previously lived close to the RED HOUSE, both expressing their opinions that it was conducted as well as any house in Walsall.

Mr. Plumptre said he understood from the Chief Constable that he very seriously fought this case, and he was quite sure the Chief Constable thought he was perfectly justified in taking that course, but he submitted, very strongly and strenuously, that in spite of the cross-examination and suggestions about all sorts of things, when they got to the bottom of the case there was not much in it. It was perfectly true that there were one or two convictions, but the only one concerning the house was when the landlord was fined 20s and costs for permitting drunkenness. As far as he knew there was nothing against the man. The property had been in the Roper family for 60 years, and there was no other conviction against the house at all during the whole time. The late owner of the property, the present landlord's father, kept the property something like 50 years, and never had a conviction. Then the new man came into it, and he had been in possession some six years, and it was only in the present year there came that unfortunate affair of permitting drunkenness. That in itself was not a very serious offence because the fine imposed was only 20s and costs, and was it to be said that on that ground the license was going to be taken away? He did not think anyone would say that would not be very harsh and very hard to let one conviction do away with 60 years of good conduct. As regard the case of Edwin Roper having aided and abetted his sons in an assault, that was the only offence that had been proved against him. For that he had been punished, and it was nothing whatever to do with the public-house, and then they heard the good character given Roper by his neighbours. It had been said that the house was one which was disorderly. Now they could not take away that license except on one of four specific grounds in the Act of Parliament; and accordingly one was that he had failed to produce satisfactory evidence of good character. He ventured to hope that having heard the evidence of the two witnesses he had called that there was nothing against the man's character. They must bear in mind he had been in possession of the house for six years, during which time no complaint had ever been made against his character, and his property was to be confiscated because he had been guilty of one offence under the licensing laws, and one assault not connected with the license. But it was also said, and which seemed to be the Chief Constable's strongest opposition, that the house was of a disorderly character, and frequented by persons who were poachers, and other persons of undesirable character. He contended that a person who kept a beerhouse in that neighbourhood could not afford to be very particular as to the character of persons who might come into the house. He understood that there was no evidence before the court at all to show that Roper was aware of the antecedents of those witnesses who had been called; there was nothing to show that he knew of those convictions for felony, for instance, against the man Rough. Rough's conviction was in 1869, and was it seriously going to be said that a man who was convicted so long ago for felony could not go into a house in which he was never proved to have made the slightest disturbance. Was a man so lost to the rights of citizenship that he must be treated outside the pale of human society because in the year 1869 he was convicted for felony; and as far as the evidence they had there that was all that could be said against that man. And then the word 'frequented' could not be applied to a man who only went into the house once in three weeks. That was not 'frequented,' which embraced that idea of something systematic about it. He asked them to bear in mind the evidence as to the good character of the house and then he thought they would not decline on this occasion to renew that license; but if for any reason they thought it would be desirable for Mr. Edwin Roper not to carry on that house, then he was prepared to find a new tenant, and one who should be agreeable and satisfactory in character to the police. He said there was no real foundation for the suggestion that the house was the resort of bad characters, and there was nothing there to suggest that crime was winked at there. He submitted that Roper was therefore entitled to have his license renewed, but if the Magistrates thought that there should be a new tenant he could assure them that their wishes in that respect would be complied with....

On returning the Magistrates announced their decisions as under....

RED HOUSE, the renewal was adjourned until the adjourned licensing day, but if Mr. Plumptre was prepared between then and the adjourned licensing day with a satisfactory tenant, the magistrates were prepared to further consider the question of renewal."

Walsall Advertiser 30/9/1899

"The adjourned annual licensing meeting for the borough of Walsall was held yesterday at the Guildhall....

RED HOUSE, Sutton Road. This was another old license which had been adjourned. Mr. H. H. Jackson said a new and a good tenant had been found in George Porter, of Sandwell Street, and Mr. Roper, the last tenant, had disposed of his property and left the premises.

The Chief Constable said he had now no objection to the license, and it was renewed."

Walsall Advertiser 7/4/1900 - Deaths

"On the 30th ult, John, son of George Porter, RED HOUSE, Sutton Road, aged 2 years."

Walsall Advertiser 30/3/1901

"A meeting of the Walsall and District Licensed Victuallers' and Beer Retailers' Friendly and Protection Society was held on Thursday week.....

New Members. Stephen Dawson, RED HOUSE INN, Sutton Road.”

1901 Census

Sutton Road – RED HOUSE INN

- [1] Stephen Dawson (34), publican, born Wednesbury;
- [2] Amelia A. L. Dawson (35), wife, born Bilston;
- [3] Ethel L. Dawson (9), daughter, born Walsall;
- [4] Emily M. Dawson (5), daughter, born Walsall;
- [5] Norman S. Dawson (3), son, born Walsall;
- [6] Clara Hawthorn (14), general servant, born Aldridge:

Walsall Advertiser 31/8/1901

“The annual brewster sessions for the borough of Walsall was held at the Guildhall on Wednesday.....

During the last the period since the last annual licensing sessions five beer retailers were also summoned, two of whom were convicted and fined.....

12th December, 1900, George Porter, RED HOUSE, Sutton Road, fined 10s and costs for keeping his licensed premises open during prohibited hours.....

Mr. H. H. Jackson appeared on behalf of the owner and licensee of the RED HOUSE, against which license the Chief Constable had given notice of objection. Renewed.”

Stephen Dawson, beer retailer, Wood End. [1904]

See also FOUNTAIN, Bott Lane.

Walsall Advertiser 28/1/1905

“There was a summons against Stephen Dawson, of the RED HOUSE, Sutton Road (for whom Mr. H. H. Jackson appeared) for allowing music and singing in the smoke room of his licensed premises without a license. The Chief Constable applied that it be adjourned for a week.

Adjourned accordingly.”

Walsall Advertiser 24/4/1909

“The monthly meeting of the Walsall and District Licensed Victuallers’ and Beer Retailers’ Friendly and Protection Society was held on Thursday last.....

New Members..... William Perry, RED HOUSE INN, Wood End, Sutton Road.”

1911 Census

Sutton Road – RED HOUSE INN

- [1] William Perry (53), innkeeper and brewer, born Lye;
- [2] Annie Perry (49), wife, born Walsall;
- [3] Henrietta Ingram (84), mother in law, widow, born Lichfield;
- [4] Edith Cooper (18), domestic servant, born Tipton:

William Perry, beer retailer, Sutton Road. [1912]

Walsall Observer 28/11/1914

“The meeting of the Walsall and District Licensed Victuallers’ and Beer Retailers’ Friendly and Protection Society was held at the CROWN INN, Lower Hall Lane.....

New members..... Walter Homer, RED HOUSE INN, Sutton Road.”

Walsall Observer 16/12/1916

“A meeting of the Walsall and District Licensed Victuallers’ and Beer Retailers’ Friendly and Protection Society was held on Thursday last at the MANOR ARMS INN, Daw End, Rushall.....

Mr. Walter Taylor, RED HOUSE INN, Sutton Road, Walsall, elected member of the society.”

Walsall Observer 12/1/1918

“Walsall and District War Aid Committee. Collection By The Licensed Victuallers, December, 1917.....

RED HOUSE, Sutton Road. £1 0s 0d.”

Walsall Observer 12/10/1918 - Advert

“Wednesday, 23rd October, 1918.

Under instructions from Messrs. W. Butler & Co. Ltd. Springfield Brewery, Wolverhampton, Leonard C. Philpot will Sell by Auction the Brewery Plant, Utensils and Effects, at the following Licensed Houses, viz:

RED HOUSE INN, Sutton Road, Walsall.....

Further particulars in Next Week’s Observer, from the Auctioneer’s Offices, Midland Bank Chambers, The Bridge, Walsall.”

Walsall Observer 8/11/1924

“A receiving order in bankruptcy was made on Tuesday, on the debtor’s own petition against Walter Richard Taylor, residing and carrying on business at the RED HOUSE, Sutton Road, Walsall, as a beerhouse keeper. The solicitors acting in the matter are Messrs. Lenton Lester and Co, Bridge Street, Walsall.”

Demolished

Rebuilt in 1933 at the rear of the RED HOUSE.

The full license was transferred from the FREEMASONS, Park Street, on 2nd March 1933.

It opened in March 1934.

Lichfield Mercury 2/3/1934 - Adverts

“The RED HOUSE INN, Sutton Road, Walsall.

Now Open.

Allsopps Ales.

The Lichfield Brewery Co. Ltd.”

AND

“The New RED HOUSE INN has been built by Deacon & Boardman, Building Contractors, Algernon Street, Walsall. ’Phone 3953 Walsall.”

AND

“The RED HOUSE INN Gardens

Designed & Made by P. & F. Smith, Ltd,

Garden Architects & Contractors, Stratford Road, Hall Green, Birmingham. ’Phone Springfield 2415.”

AND

“All Sanitary Fittings including Baths, Lavatory Basins, Cisterns, Urinal Stalls,

Supplied to the New RED HOUSE INN, Walsall, by Messrs. Baldwins (Birmingham) Limited,

6/12, Lancaster Street, Birmingham 14. (Near General Hospital).

We cordially invite you to visit our showrooms, where we have an unequalled display of sanitary ware, grates and ironmongery.”

AND

Lichfield Mercury 2/3/1934

“The Lichfield Brewery Company are to be congratulated on their enterprise in providing for the licensing needs of the public, as instanced by the re-building of the NEW RED HOUSE INN, on the main Sutton Road at Walsall. On Tuesday the Licensing Justices made an inspection of the premises, and expressed their satisfaction with the improvements effected.

The re-building of these premises was necessitated by the important road improvement scheme in which it was proposed to eliminate the blind corner where the Sutton Road circled the old inn, by creating an easy bend, and an 80ft wide road, with the new house set well back to give the maximum visibility.

The external elevation is of nicely toned brickwork with a half-timbered upper storey of English oak, left rough from the edge, and plain plaster panels, and tiled roof. The elevations are Tudor in style, and the internal decoration and fittings, whilst of the most modern in arrangement, have all been designed with the characteristics of this period.

The house itself has been planned on the lines of a modern road house, with bar lounge, buffet bar, ladies’ room, smoke room, and an assembly room of fine proportions. Bedroom accommodation has also been provided for the use of travellers.

There is a fine car park at the front of the house, capable of accommodating a large number of cars or charabancs, a special playground for children, with shelter and the latest type of swings, roundabouts, etc, for their enjoyment.

For the use of patrons in summer weather, a large stone-flagged open loggia has been laid down with stone steps leading down to sunk lawns and tastefully laid out gardens with flowers and flowering shrubs. It is also proposed at a future ate to add an open-air bathing pool beyond the lawns.

The house has been designed by Messrs. Farmer and Farmer, of Walsall and Birmingham, with Mr. R. J. Barnes, of Lichfield, as associated architect. It is one of the last of the houses of this class carried out by the late Mr. H. E. Farmer, who died on January 27th.

The general contractors for the erection of the house were Messrs. Deacon and Boardman, of Walsall and Lichfield. This eminent firm has built a number of houses for the Lichfield Brewery Co, and at the time have a large number of contracts on hand in the Walsall district, including two arcades and a big extension to Walsall Hospital.

The furnishing arrangements, including domestic furniture and glassware, were dealt with by Messrs. T. W. B. Cockayne, of Angel Street, Sheffield, and the sanitary ware by Messrs. Baldwin’s, of Birmingham. The latter are acknowledged the leading firm for sanitary fittings, grates and ironmongery, and have just secured contracts for the new Central Fire Station, Birmingham, and the CRITERION HOTEL, Wolverhampton. Contracts just completed include the Birmingham Municipal Bank, Regent Palace Annex, London, and the Regal Cinema, Purley.

The attractive layout of the gardens was the work of Messrs. P. and F. Smith, of Hall Green, a firm noted for this class of ornamentation.”

1939 Register

Sutton Road – RED HOUSE INN Public House

[1] Gilbert B. Brown, date of birth 2/6/1886, licensed victualler, married;

[2] Dorothy F. (Florence D.) Brown, dob 2/3/1882, unpaid domestic duties, married;

[3] Ena D. (Brown) Denning, dob 14/3/1917, shop assistant (ladies outfitter), single;
[4] Nancy (Broadhurst) Townsend, dob 16/4/1915, general servant, single:

Walsall Observer 7/12/1940

“Walsall Licensed Victuallers’ Society.

Motor Ambulance Effort on behalf of Walsall and District branch of the British Red Cross Society.

First List of Subscriptions.....

RED HOUSE, Sutton Road, £5 5s 7d.”

Walsall Observer 15/1/1944

“Walsall Licensed Victuallers’ Society.

Appeal on Behalf of the Merchant Navy Fund, The Duke of Gloucester’s Red Cross Fund and the Aid to China Fund. List of Subscriptions.....

RED HOUSE HOTEL, Sutton Road. £1 1s 3d.”

Walsall Observer 30/9/1944 - Advert

“Charwoman, mornings 3 hours only; also girl or young woman, live in, light housework, assist in Bar.

RED HOUSE INN, Sutton Road, Walsall.”

Staffordshire Advertiser 29/3/1947

“Licensee of the RED HOUSE, Sutton Road, Walsall, for the past 13 years, Mr. Gilbert Broughton Brown, died on Saturday at the age of 61. A native of Glasgow, he was formerly licensee of the New Inns, Birchfield Road, Birmingham.”

The name was changed to the LONGHORN. [1984]

Sandwell Evening Mail 6/7/1992

“They’re the pubs that YOU think are the best in the Midlands – and now they’re all in the running for our prestigious Midland Town and Country Pub of the Year.....

The Evening Mail has teamed up for the contest with the Midland Counties Brewers’ and Licensed Retailers’ Association, to raise a toast to the very best of our region’s pubs. Now it is up to the judges, who face a huge task choosing the two winners from the enormous entry. They’ll be looking for service and standards of comfort demanded by today’s discerning pub-goer. And they will be awarding marks for another important ingredient of a successful pub – the part it plays as a hub of social life in the community.....

LONGHORN, Sutton Road, Walsall.”

[2017]

LORD HILL

BLOXWICH

OWNERS

LICENSEES

Michael Partridge [1841] – [1842]

NOTES

Wolverhampton Chronicle 30/7/1845

“Odd Fellowship – Wolverhampton Unity.

On Monday week, the brethren belonging to the ‘Friendly Brothers Loyal Lodge,’ Walsall District, dined together at the LORD HILL INN, Bloxwich. The chair was occupied by G. Adams, Esq, Walsall, and the dinner, &c, were excellent. After dinner the usual loyal and appropriate toasts were given and responded to with much enthusiasm. The evening was spent with great hilarity, and several songs, glees, &c greatly promoted the pleasure of the company. The order has been founded about eight years, and already has formed six districts numbering 6,000 members.”

LORD NELSON

Birchills, WALSALL

OWNERS

LICENSEES

James H Walton [1908] – [1912]

LORD NELSON

Stafford Street, WALSALL

OWNERS

LICENSEES

Joseph Butler [1834] – [1835]

NOTES

It had a beerhouse license.

Joseph Butler, retailer of beer, Stafford Street. [1835]

LORD RAGLAN

38, Mill Street / Leckie Road, Ryecroft Hill, Rushall, WALSALL

OWNERS

Mrs. Jane Glover, Mill Street, Ryecroft, Walsall

Peter Aspinall, Shelfield

Manchester Brewery Co. Ltd. [1908]

Arthur Beebee [1905], [1910] (leased)

Edward Jeffries, Bell Street, Walsall

Samuel Allsopp and Sons Ltd.

Frank Myatt Ltd.

Holt Brewery Co. Ltd.

Ansells Ltd.

Wiltshire Brewery

LICENSEES

Mrs. Ann Glover [1858] – [1860]

John Glover [1861] – 1865)

Samuel Patten [1865]

Charles Starkey [1871] – 1872);

James Ankrett (1872 – [1873]

Emma Agnes Ankrett [] – 1875);

John Thomas Green (1875 – [1876];

Arthur Taylor [];

William Gough [1881] – 1889);
Arthur Gormley (1889 – 1894);
Hugh McCloskey (1894 – 1896);
Alfred Wilson (1896 – 1898);
Albert Hudson (1898);
Thomas Harrison Stretton (1898);
Henry French (1898 – 1900);
Clara Jordan (1900 – 1901);
Arthur Gormley (1901 – 1904);
Robert Woolley (1904 – 1906);
Francis Ephraim Flay (1906 – 1908);
John Henry ‘Harry’ Saunders (1908);
William Lee (1908 – 1910);
Arthur Hand (1910 – 1911);
Thomas Morris (1911 – 1912);
Frank Pitt (1912);
George Edward Evans (1912 – 1919);
Thomas Gay (1919 – 1921);
Sidney Hyde (1921 – 192_);
Thomas Henry Benton (192_ – 1928);
George Henry Dawkins (1928 – 1929);
William Cook (1929 – 1931);
Alfred Ernest Benton (1931 – 1940);
Thomas Enoch Rogers (1940 – 1946);
Arthur Lawton (1946 – 1949);
Wiliam Henry Chancellor (1949 – 1951);
Kenneth Horace Hawksworth (1951);
Harry Randall Gibbons (1951 – 1952);
Gerald Hubert Hopkins (1952 – 1954);
Ronald Cooling (1954);
George Humphries (1954 – 1955);
William Sydney Parker (1955);
Edwin Jones (1955 – 1958);
Arthur Edward Snell (1958 – 1959);
Kenneth Bird (1959 – 1960);
Henry George Edward Mason (1960 – 1961);
Derrick Neil Kenton (?) (1961 – 1962);
Michael Francis Smith (1962 – 1963);
Frank Austin (1963 – 1966);
Michael Finnegan (1966);
Maria Rose Ferguson (1966 – []
Parmajit Chatta [1984]

NOTES

121, Mill Street [1881]
38, Mill Street [1891], [1932]

Birmingham Daily Post 12/11/1858

“Charges against licensed victuallers and beerhouse keepers for using unjust measures.....

Ann Glover, landlady of the LORD RAGLAN, licensed victualler, Ryecroft Hill, was fined 5s and costs, for having three deficient measures.....

The costs in each case amounted to 11s. The Bench, in course of the trial of the several cases, administered severe rebukes to the offenders.”

1861 Census

Mill Street

[1] John Glover (34), victualler, born Polesworth, Warwickshire;

[2] Mary Glover (35), wife, born Harbury, Warwickshire;

[3] Sarah Ann Glover (11), daughter, scholar, born Rushall;

[4] Stephen Glover (10), son, scholar, born Rushall;

[5] Edath Glover (8), daughter, scholar, born Rushall;

[6] Mealieur Glover (7), daughter, scholar, born Rushall;

- [7] Thomas Glover (6), son, scholar, born Rushall;
[8] John Glover (4), son, scholar, born Rushall;
[9] Eliza Glover (2), daughter, born Rushall;
[10] Sarah Ann Glover (20), visitor, dressmaker, born Derden, Warwickshire:

Birmingham Daily Gazette 17/9/1862

“John Glover, landlord of the LORD RAGLAN public house, Rye Croft whose licenses had been suspended in consequence of their names appearing in the ‘black book,’ were cautioned and had their licenses renewed.”

Birmingham Daily Post 5/11/1863

“At Rushall Police Court, on Tuesday, John Glover, publican, of Ryecroft, appeared to a summons, charged with having kept his house open during unlawful hours, on the morning of the 25th ult. The charge was proved by Sergeant Swift and Police-constable Asbury, both of whom deposed to having found seven men drinking in the house at five minutes to twelve on the morning named, and to the attempts of the defendant’s wife to conceal them from the view of the officers. A witness was called for the defence, but the Bench, a previous conviction having been proved, imposed the full fine of £5 and costs, with the alternative of one month’s imprisonment.”

Birmingham Daily Post 1/9/1864

“At the annual special Sessions for licensing purposes yesterday
The license of John Glover, of the LORD RAGLAN INN, was suspended until the 13th of September, to which day the session was adjourned.”

Birmingham Daily Post 15/9/1864

“At the adjourned licensing session, on Tuesday, Mr. John Glover, of the LORD RAGLAN INN, Ryecroft, whose license had been suspended, was reprimanded and cautioned, and his license was then renewed.”

AND

“At the Police Court, on Tuesday, the persons named below were, on the information of Mr. William Fullett, Inspector of Weights and Measures for the South Staffordshire district, fined in the sums set against their names for having defective scales, weights, or measures in their possession, with 12s costs in each instance

John Glover, LORD RAGLAN INN, Ryecroft, five measures, 10s.”

Birmingham Daily Gazette 3/1/1865

“Yesterday morning John Glover, miner and publican, was killed by a fall of earth while at work in a pit at Reeves Wood, near Bentley. The body was recovered as speedily as possible and conveyed to his residence, the LORD RAGLAN public house, Ryecroft, where it now awaits a coroner’s inquest.”

Birmingham Daily Post 7/1/1865

“On Wednesday last, Mr. E. Hooper, Coroner, conducted an enquiry, at the house of Mrs. Miner, the MINERS ARMS, Ryecroft into the circumstances attending the death of John Glover, 39 years of age, the landlord of the LORD RAGLAN public-house, Mill Street. On Monday morning the deceased went to an open works at Reeveswood, of which he was lessee, under the Earl of Bradford, and had been at work about five minutes, when Job Hollis, one of his men, saw a large lump of coal loosening from the part of the wall situate at the spot where the deceased was ‘holing.’ Hollis called to him, and he attempted to run away, but had barely turned round when the coal struck him on the shoulders and knocked him down. He cried out for assistance, and his workmen at once went to his aid, and placed him in a wheelbarrow, but before they could remove him from the spot death took place. An examination of the face of the working showed that the slip had resulted from a hidden ‘fault’ in the coal. No neglect had taken place, nor was blame attributable to any person. Verdict, Accidental Death. The deceased was a married man, with a family of six children.”

Walsall Free Press 2/9/1865

“On Tuesday last, the annual licensing day for the district

Samuel Patten, LORD RAGLAN, Ryecroft, who had been once convicted of having had his house open for the sale of liquors during prohibited hours, was cautioned.”

Birmingham Gazette 20/9/1871

“Adjourned Licensing day. The following parties, who had their licenses suspended, were cautioned, and had their applications for renewal granted

Charles Starkey, landlord of the LORD RAGLAN, Rye Croft.”

James Ankrett = James Ankreet

Midland Examiner 3/4/1875

“An application was made for the transfer of the LORD RAGLAN INN, Ryecroft, from Emma Agnes Ankrett to John Thomas Green; but the matter was adjourned for further particulars.”

Staffordshire Advertiser 19/2/1876

“The undermentioned persons were summoned for the offences named, Mr. Glover appearing for the prosecution in each case, and Mr. Ebsworth for the defence.....

James Thomas Green, of the LORD RAGLAN INN, Ryecroft, appearing to two summonses, one charging him with having permitted gaming in his house, and the other having permitted drunkenness. Police-constables Wright and Blakeman gave evidence to the effect that on the night of the 29th ult, they went in plain clothes to the defendant’s house at about half-past five o’clock, and there found four men playing at cards for beer. When the first four had done, four others played, all the games being played in the presence of the landlord. The officers remained in the house about an hour and a half, and then went away until between nine and ten o’clock, when they returned and found other men playing. Some of the men who played were drunk, and the landlord supplied them with ale while they were in that condition. The defence was that the men were simply playing for pastime. The defendant was fined £2 10s and costs (including attorney’s fee of 10s 6d) for each offence.”

London Gazette 17/3/1876

“The Bankruptcy Act, 1869.

In the County Court of Staffordshire, holden at Walsall. In the Matter of Proceedings for Liquidation by Arrangement or Composition with Creditors, instituted by Charles Starkey, formerly of the LORD RAGLAN INN, Mill Street, Ryecroft, Walsall, in the county of Stafford, Beer-house Keeper, but now of No.96, Green Lane, Walsall aforesaid, Butty Miner.

Notice is hereby given, that a First General Meeting of the creditors of the above-named person has been summoned to be held at the offices of Mr. Jacob Rowlands, Solicitor, No.8, Ann Street, Birmingham, in the county of Warwick, on the 29th day of March, 1876, at eleven o’clock in the forenoon precisely.

Dated this 13th day of March, 1876.

Jacob Rowlands, Solicitor for the said Debtor.”

Staffordshire Advertiser 16/9/1876

“Adjourned Licensing Session..... The licenses of the undermentioned were renewed with cautions, viz.

John Thomas Green, beerhouse keeper, Ryecroft In the course of the proceeding the Mayor said the newly-added district of Ryecroft had occasioned the Bench a great deal of trouble, chiefly through the drinking propensities of the inhabitants of that locality, and the magistrates had therefore received special instructions as to looking up the licensed houses in the district.”

Evening Express 12/1/1881

“Elijah Appleby, Ann Street, Ryecroft, was charged with refusing to quit the LORD RAGLAN, public house, on Saturday night last.

The defendant, who failed to appear, was fined 10s and costs; in default, 14 days.”

1881 Census

121, Mill Street – LORD RAGLAN

[1] William Gough (43), publican, born Harden;

[2] Elizabeth Gough (51), wife, born Lane Head:

Birmingham Daily Post 23/9/1884

“At the Walsall Guildhall, yesterday, Isaac Bailey (53), miner, James Street, Ryecroft, was charged with causing the death of his wife, Mary Ann, Bailey, on the preceding Friday afternoon. The magistrates on the Bench were Messrs. J. H. Smith (Mayor), B. Beebee (ex-Mayor), W. H. Brookes, and E. T. Holden. Mr. Gillespie (Wilkinson, Gillespie, and Wilkinson) appeared to prosecute, and the prisoner was defended by Mr. E. T. Evans.

In opening the case, Mr. Gillespie referred to the law of murder, and asked the magistrates to commit the accused on that charge. The first witness called was Phoebe Brittain, wife of Benjamin Brittain, landlord of the UNION INN, James Street, Ryecroft. She deposed that about ten minutes past four on Friday afternoon deceased came to the house in a drunken condition and proceeded to the backyard. Shortly after prisoner came in and stood in the bar passage. When his wife came into the passage the prisoner called her a drunken cat, and deceased then used foul language to him and refused to go home when he told her. Prisoner then stepped forward and struck her a blow on the left side of the head, heedless of the witness’s request that he would not strike his wife. Deceased fell down heavily on her back and never stirred again. Witness called her husband, and he, with the assistance of a woman named Clara Saney, lifted deceased to a chair, but she was dead. Bailey did not attempt to strike his wife more than one blow, and when he was told his wife was dead he remarked ‘Oh, it’s only a drunken fit.’ Prisoner had always borne a good character and was quite sober.

Clara Saney, wife of Thomas Saney, bridle cutter, said she saw the deceased about half-past two on Friday afternoon. Deceased then said she had been to the LORD RAGLAN to fetch her husband and the landlord had turned her out. She also said she was going back to begin on the landlord. A few minutes after witness was fetched and induced deceased to go home. While at the shop deceased gave witness the key of the place and went away. About an hour after witness went to the UNION INN to take the key, and saw deceased, who was very drunk, there. Prisoner came in and asked his wife if she was not ashamed of herself. Deceased used bad language, and the prisoner then rushed forward, but witness did not see the blow, as she left the house at that moment. In a few minutes she returned and assisted to pick deceased up. Prisoner was very excited.

Benjamin Brittain, landlord of the UNION INN, said he picked deceased up, and remarked to prisoner, ‘Oh, Mr. Bailey, I believe she’s dead.’ Prisoner replied, ‘Her’ll come round directly. I have seen her like that before.’ Witness then sent for the police.

William Gough, landlord of the LORD RAGLAN INN, deposed to deceased quarrelling with her husband at his house, and said he ejected the deceased twice, in consequence of her drunken misconduct. Deceased wanted to fight witness and her husband, and the latter advised her to go home, as she had had too much beer. When deceased tried to strike her husband, the latter said, 'Keep away, or I'll strike you.'

Joseph Alfred Merritt, baker, 14, Bank Street, who was in the RAGLAN INN when deceased came in, said she was very quarrelsome, and when turned out took hold of the landlord's collar to pull him into the street. She was so drunk that while in the street she could not stand, and reeled over the kerbstone, falling heavily upon her head.

Dr. Maclachan said he had made a post mortem examination of the body on Saturday. The body was that of a stout woman, about 5ft 4in in height. There were no external marks of violence, but internally he found two marks, each about the size of a shilling, one on each side of the head. At the back of the head slightly to the left, there was mark about the size of a half-crown, and an immense effusion of blood between the membrane and the brain substance. The liver and kidneys were extensively diseased, and there was also fatty degeneration and valvular disease of the heart. The cause of death was the effusion of blood on the brain, the diseases of the organs being chronic and not likely to cause sudden death. The injury to the brain was the cause, and in his opinion this would be caused by a fall, and not by a blow. He could not say what time had elapsed between the blow and the effusion of blood, but after the effusion she could not live an instant.

Mr. Evans, for the defence, argued that the gravamen of a charge of murder was malice aforethought, which in this case was entirely absent. The prisoner tried to get into his house, and finding the door locked, followed her to get the key. She abused him, and in a passion he struck her. She being drunk, fell, and a fall caused the injury resulting in her death. The evidence did not show whether death resulted from that fall or the one previously, near the RAGLAN. If the prisoner had wished to injure his wife, he would have done so when she attempted to strike him at the RAGLAN.

The Bench, after a short deliberation in private, committed the prisoner to the next Staffordshire Assizes on the charge of wilful murder.

The inquest on the body of the deceased was held yesterday afternoon, at the MINERS ARMS INN, Ryecroft, before Mr. T. Howard Stanley (borough coroner). Mr. Gillespie and Chief-superintendent Cater appeared on behalf of the police, and Mr. T. Harrison-Evans appeared for the prisoner, who was present in the custody of Acting-sergeant Cliff.

The evidence taken at the magisterial enquiry was repeated, and Dr. Mclachlan, after detailing the result of the post mortem, added that the deceased suffered from a peculiar disease of the heart, which rendered her blood vessels weaker, and consequently more liable to rupture. In reply to a jurymen, witness stated that the death might have been caused either by a blow or a fall. If a blow, it would have to be a very strong one. He was more inclined to think death was caused by injuries received from falling as in that case there would be greater tendency of blood to the head.

In the course of the hearing a jurymen stated that he knew deceased had been fond of a 'running fuddle,' and prisoner volunteered the statement that he had often had to remonstrate with her for that.

In summing up the Coroner recapitulated the evidence, and said that there was no doubt the deceased was overcome by drink, and irritated her husband, who was sober, by using bad language. There could be no doubt that the fall in the passage produced death, and the blow given by the prisoner produced the fall. He then defined the difference between murder and manslaughter, and submitted the facts tended strongly to negate the preservice of malice, expressed or implied.

After a short deliberation the jury returned a verdict on Manslaughter, and added a rider recommending prisoner to mercy on account of the great provocation he suffered."

Lichfield Mercury 14/11/1884

"Staffordshire Assizes.

Isaac Bailey (53), miner, was charged with the manslaughter of his wife, Mary Ann Bailey, at Walsall, on September 19. Mr. Plowden and Mr. Gwynne James prosecuted; Mr. Darling and Mr. Whitehouse defended the prisoner.

The deceased, who was a woman of drunken habits went in to the RAGLAN public-house, Ryecroft Walsall, on the afternoon of the day named, and was very violent towards the prisoner. Being ejected, she fell, and knocked her head against some stones outside. Subsequently she and the prisoner quarrelled in the UNION INN about the key, which she refused to give him. He struck her, and she fell on the floor and died from effusion of blood on the brain.

The jury convicted the prisoner, with a recommendation to mercy.

The Judge, saying few could have resisted the provocation to which the prisoner was subjected, passed a sentence of two days' imprisonment. The prisoner was immediately released. The sentence was applauded."

William Gough – see also BRITISH OAK, John Street, and HORSE AND JOCKEY, Green Lane.

Walsall Observer 7/2/1885

"Yesterday afternoon Mr. T. H. Stanley (borough coroner) held an inquest at the LORD RAGLAN INN, on the body of Thomas Butler, aged seven weeks, child of Joseph Butler, of 28, Ann Street. Deceased was put to bed as usual on Thursday night, and yesterday morning was found dead. A verdict of Death from Natural Causes was returned."

Arthur Gormley = Arthur Cormley = Arthur Gornley

1891 Census

38, Mill Street – LORD RAGLAN

[1] Arthur Gormley (27), unmarried, licensed victualler, born Ireland;

[2] Rose Gormley (25), sister, born Ireland;

[3] James McNicholas (26), bar assistant, born Wolverhampton:

Walsall Advertiser 2/9/1893

“The annual Brewster Sessions for the Borough of Walsall were opened on Wednesday at the Guildhall, the Mayor in the chair. . . . The Magistrates granted the renewal of the LORD RAGLAN on the application of Arthur Gornley, who stated he was going to live on the premises.”

Walsall Advertiser 30/6/1894

“Joseph Robinson, better known perhaps as ‘Bonnie Spanks,’ appeared along with a companion named Charles Wilks, charged with refusing to quit the LORD RAGLAN INN, Mill Street, and Wilks with assaulting the landlord. Bonnie Spanks wanted drink, the landlady refused it because he had already had enough; Bonnie made a row, the landlord attempted to put him out, Bonnie objected, Wilks joined in and blackened the landlord’s eye – that was the publicans’ tale. But there are always two sides to a story, and the other side of this one as told by an exceeding cool, self-possessed witness for the accused was that ‘Wilks was the only man with pluck enough to try and stop the quarrel.’ ‘Wilks ought to be compensated for his act of bravery,’ added the advocate adventurously, considering that the publican bore unmistakable marks of Wilk’s peculiar way of assisting the maintenance of order.

Robinson was fined 20s and costs, or 21 days’ hard labour, and Wilks 10s and costs, or 14 days’ hard labour. The poor innocent lambs went to Stafford for a space.”

Walsall Advertiser 3/9/1898

“The annual licensing meeting for the county borough of Walsall was held in the Guildhall on Wednesday forenoon. . . .

The Chief Constable gave notice of objection to the following licenses. . . .

The LORD RAGLAN, Mill Street, Ryecroft, and the ROYAL OAK, the Pleck, on the ground that they were in such a condition as not to be under proper police supervision and were not needed by the neighbourhood.”

Walsall Advertiser 1/10/1898

“With regard to the LORD RAGLAN, the Chief Constable stated that he had given notice of objection on the ground that the premises were such that the premises could not have proper police supervision. He now withdrew his opposition on a promise of the licensee to build a wall so as to enclose the premises. License renewed.”

1901 Census

38, Mill Street – LORD RAGLAN

[1] Clara Jordan (47), widow, publican, born Birmingham;

[2] Walter Jordan (22), son, boot maker, born Birmingham;

[3] Rebecca Jordan (15), daughter, born Birmingham:

Arthur Gornley – see also DOG AND PARTRIDGE.

Walsall Advertiser 25/5/1905 - Advert

“A. Beebee’s Noted Home Brewed Ales.

Brewery – Sandwell St., Walsall.

Houses. . . .

LORD RAGLAN, Ryecroft, Walsall.”

Walsall Advertiser 15/6/1907

“Frederick Bickley, 1 court, James Street, was summoned for being disorderly on the premises of the LORD RAGLAN INN, and refusing to quit when requested on the 1st inst.

Francis E. Flay, landlord, stated that on the date named the defendant was in his house, and refused to leave when he asked him to do so. On account of his conduct they had refused to serve him for a fortnight previously, and on this occasion he again refused to move, and became quarrelsome, so he sent for a policeman.

Police-constable Reddick (45) stated that he was called to the house to eject prisoner. The landlord and witness asked defendant to move and he refused, but when witness was taking off his gloves to turn him out, defendant got up and went out.

The Bench said that although they thought it a proper case to bring before the court, there was not sufficient evidence of disorderly conduct, and discharged prisoner.”

Walsall Advertiser 8/2/1908

“The annual licensing meeting for the borough took place at the Guildhall on Wednesday. . . .

The Bench granted a temporary transfer of the LORD RAGLAN, Mill Street, from Francis Ephraim Flay to John Henry Sanders, a magistrates’ objection to the renewal of the license being postponed to the adjourned brewster sessions or some other convenient day.

Mr. H. H. Jackson (Stanley and Jackson) appeared for Sanders, and Mr. W. J. Pearman-Smith represented the lessee, Mr. A. Beebee.

Flay, the outgoing tenant, in reply to Mr. Loxton (magistrates’ clerk), said the reason he was leaving the house was that he had a large family, and could not make a living. The reason he could not make a living was because of the long pull at several neighbouring houses – where they served a pint of ale for 1½d.

In reply to further questions witness (who caused some merriment and seemed quite amused in spite of his failure to make the house pay) said he was leaving the house on his own account, having given three months' notice. Asked what he was going to do, Flay said he was going to live privately – he thought he should turn Socialist (laughter). 'May I say another word,' he added as he left the box; 'The house is alright now – I have tamed the lions, but they were very rough at first'."

The license renewal was referred to the Compensation Authority on 28th February 1908.

Walsall Advertiser 29/2/1908

"The adjourned licensing sessions for the borough of Walsall were held yesterday (Friday), at the Guildhall..... The Bench proceeded to hear notices of objection which had been taken by the licensing justices to the renewal of six licences..... For the owners (Manchester Brewery Co.) and the occupier, Mr. H. H. Jackson appeared; and Mr. W. J. Pearman-Smith for the lessee (Mr. A. Beebee). Chief-inspector Ballance repeated his evidence as to the number of other licenses in the neighbourhood, and the disorderly character of the district. Referred to the Compensation Authority."

Walsall Advertiser 23/5/1908 - Notice

"The Licensing Act, 1904, Notice Of Principal Meeting. County Borough Of Walsall. Notice Is Hereby Given that the Principal Meeting to be held pursuant to the Licensing Rules, 1904, by the Compensation Authority for the above Area, will be held at the Guildhall, Walsall, on Wednesday, the Third Day Of June, 1908..... List of Licensed Premises..... The LORD RAGLAN, Mill Street, Ryecroft. Alehouse. Licensee John Henry Saunders."

The license was renewed on 3rd June 1908.

Walsall Advertiser 6/6/1908

"A full bench of magistrates sat on Wednesday morning to hear applications for renewals and to fix compensation for closed houses.....

Mr. R. C. E. Plumptre (instructed by Mr. H. H. Jackson) applied for the renewal of the license of the LORD RAGLAN INN, Mill Street, on behalf of the owners, the Manchester Brewery Company, and the licensee, Mr. J. H. Sanders. Mr. W. J. Pearman-Smith appeared for the lessee, Mr. Arthur Beebee.

Mr. Plumptre, addressing the Bench, said the application had already been made to the ordinary licensing authority, and had been referred for consideration to the licensing bench in full, the Compensation Authority. He had a report made by the licensing justices with regard to the house which said, 'it was structurally bad – it had recently been painted and papered – there were three rooms on the ground floor, there were three licenses within 200 yards of it, the house gave the 'long' pull, and the house was represented as doing a home-brewed trade, whereas a witness stated that the lessee blended brewery beer with home brewed.'

Mr. Plumptre denied that the house was structurally bad, and said a considerable sum of money had been spent in doing up the house. He did not know why there should be any reference to the 'long' pull in the report. He did not think there was any case which laid down that a publican was not at liberty to give what measure he liked. It had been stated that the house was used by bad characters, but he thought that the customers were on the whole thoroughly respectable, and it was singular that the house had a good record of 26 years, without a conviction, which he thought showed the house had been well conducted. It was proposed in 1907 by the Manchester Brewery Company (owners) to sell the LORD RAGLAN and eight cottages to Messrs. Allsopp's Brewery for £4,000. The cottages were worth about £500, so that the LORD RAGLAN, which was now represented as being structurally bad, was worth £3,500. Messrs. Allsopp, however, had a clause in the contract that if the license was not renewed before the date fixed for completion of the contracts, the bargain was to be allowed alteration. He argued that if houses had got to be taken away, it was better that the smaller and cheaper houses should go, and he mentioned four houses in the district, which ought to go before the LORD RAGLAN. He could not say on what a witness founded his belief that at the LORD RAGLAN brewery beer was being blended with home-brewed, but he was instructed that such a statement was absolutely untrue.

Arthur Beebee, lessee of the LORD RAGLAN, said there was absolutely no truth in the statement that the Manchester Brewery beer was being blended with his own. The trade at the house had gone up very much under the present tenant. His arrangement was to take five barrels a week from the Manchester Company, or pay the profit on them. He had been paying the profit on them. No brewery beer was sold except a barrel now and then of fourpenny beer, which he did not brew himself.

Replying to Mr. Loxton (clerk), he said he was also under an agreement with Robinson's Brewery Company with respect to the WOOLPACK HOTEL.

Mr. Loxton: Is there any truth in the statement that your beers have been mixed with Robinson's? – Mr. Beebee: No, they are not. In answer to further questions by Mr. Loxton, witness said he did not know how much beer his tenant gave over the ordinary quantity. He did not know what his tenants did.

Mr. Loxton: Do you mean to say you run four or five houses and don't know what your tenants are doing? – I know what my managers are doing, but so long as they are tenants I don't trouble at all about it.

Mr. Loxton: The managers give the 'long pull'? – Witness: Most of them do for out-side trade; it's all through the trade.

Sir Edward Holden asked if it was expected that the court was to pay compensation for the large amount of beer given away.

They were told that not only was the 'long pull' given, but the very long pull.

Mr. Plumptre said that it mattered not whether a man sold for profit or gave the beer away. A man was just as good a customer to his wine merchant if he gave the wine he purchased to his friends, as if he sold wine. The amount of business at the house would be the same if some fanatic bought up all the beer and poured it into a river.

Sir Edward Holden said the principle acted on by the justices was that the value was to be assessed by trade done in barrels and yet they were told it made no difference if the beer was simply poured out. He could not believe that Parliament ever meant to make a Bill in that way.

The hearing was adjourned.”

Walsall Advertiser 1/8/1908

“John Henry Sanders, LORD RAGLAN INN, Mill Street, was summoned for failing to have his name affixed to his licensed premises. Police-sergeant Cook said he had occasion to get defendant’s name on the 19th ult., and when he visited the house defendant was not in, and on examining the front of the premises found that he had not got his name on. Defendant, who pleaded ignorance, said that there was no name up when he went there.

The Bench dismissed that case on payment of costs.”

Walsall Advertiser 10/9/1910 - Advert

“A. Beebee’s Noted Home-Brewed Ales.

Brewery – Sandwell Street, Walsall.

Houses.....

LORD RAGLAN, Ryecroft, Walsall.”

1911 Census

38, Mill Street

[1] Arthur Hand (41), licensed victualler, born Wolverhampton;

[2] Mary Ann Hand (40), wife, married 8 years, assisting in business, born Warwick;

[3] Beatrice Eccleston (18), general servant, born Willenhall:

Walsall Observer 12/1/1918

“Walsall and District War Aid Committee. Collection By The Licensed Victuallers, December, 1917.....

LORD RAGLAN, Mill Street. £0 6s 6d.”

George Henry Dawkins – see also BLACK HORSE, and ROYAL EXCHANGE.

The original pub closed on 5th May 1938.

It was rebuilt on the opposite side of the road, and opened on 6th May 1938.

The original building was demolished.

1939 Register

Mill Street – LORD RAGLAN (3 of 5)

[1] Alfred E. Benton, date of birth 18/2/1873, licensed house manager, widowed;

[2] Thomas E. Rodgers, dob 21/12/1887, bar potman, married;

[3] Bertha Rodgers, dob 21/4/1898, bar general, married;

London Gazette 16/8/1940

“Re Alfred Ernest Benton, Deceased. Pursuant to the Trustee Act, 1925.

Notice is hereby given that all creditors and other persons having any debts claims or demands against the estate of Alfred Ernest Benton late of LORD RAGLAN Mill Street Walsall in the county of Stafford retired Licensed Victualler deceased who died on the 14th day of July 1940 intestate and letters of administration to whose estate were granted out of the Birmingham District Probate Registry on the 2nd day of August 1940 to Herbert Benton are hereby required to send particulars thereof in writing to us the undersigned the Solicitors for the said administrator on or before the 21st day of October 1940 after which date the said administrator will proceed to distribute the assets of the said deceased amongst the persons entitled thereto having regard only to the claims and demands of which he shall then have had notice.

Dated this 13th day of August, 1940.

Enoch Evans and Sons, 19, Bridge Street, Walsall, Solicitors for the said Administrator.”

Walsall Observer 7/12/1940

“Walsall Licensed Victuallers’ Society.

Motor Ambulance Effort on behalf of Walsall and District branch of the British Red Cross Society.

First List of Subscriptions.....

LORD RAGLAN, Mill Street, £5 0s 0d.”

Walsall Observer 15/1/1944

“Walsall Licensed Victuallers’ Society.

Appeal on Behalf of the Merchant Navy Fund, The Duke of Gloucester’s Red Cross Fund and the Aid to China Fund. List of Subscriptions.....

LORD RAGLAN, Mill Street. £10 9s 2d.”

Thomas Enoch Rogers was convicted on 19th November 1945, and fined £10 for permitting betting, and 10s for permitting gaming.

Arthur Lawton – see also BRIDLECUTTERS ARMS.

Gerald Hubert Hopkins – see also CROWN AND CUSHION.

Arthur Edward Snell – see also GREEN MAN, and GREEN ROCK TAVERN.

Henry George Edward Mason – see also HORSE AND JOCKEY, CROWN AND ANCHOR, and WOOLPACK.

Closed

It reopened as the MANOR HOUSE.

[1995]

Closed [2006], [2007]

Demolished

Housing was built on the site. [2011]

LORD SMOKERS HALL

Ryecroft, WALSALL

OWNERS

LICENSEES

Stephen Glover [1850] – [1862]

LYNDON HOUSE

10, (9), (9+10), Upper Rushall Street, WALSALL

OWNERS

Thomas Brown, Stonnall

John Thomas, farmer, Stonnall

Thomas Lancaster

N. Pratt and Sons, maltsters, Nottingham

Mitchells and Butlers Ltd.

Enterprise Inns [1990s]

LICENSEES

Edward Jones [1818] – [1822]

John Brown [1828] – [1862]

Tonks [1863]

Henry Hill [1863]

W. Bellamy [] – 1865)

Andrew Tooth (1865 – []

Thomas Yates [] – 1866);

Robert Keay (1866 – []

Thomas Cartwright [1868] – [1873];

Collins [1868] – [1870] manager
Thomas Heap [];
George Carter [1881] – 1889);
Thomas Bird (1889 – 1891);
John Hodgkins (1891);
Samuel Grew (1891 – 1892);
Benjamin Walker (1892 – 1893);
Martin McTighe (1893 – 1900);
Martin McTighe Jnr. (1900 – 1903);
David Read (1903 – 1906);
Samuel Thomas (1906 – 1921);
Miss Clare Annie Thomas (1921 – 1961);
Eileen Dorothy Stopford (1961 – 1964);
James Edward Harris (1964 – [1966])

NOTES

Rushall Street [1822]
Upper Rushall Street [1842]
9, Upper Rushall Street
10, Upper Rushall Street [1860], [1861], [1862], [1870], [1892], [1896], [1908], [1916], [1921], [1932], [1940]
9+10, Upper Rushall Street [1891], [1911]
Lower Rushall Street [1914]

BRITANNIA [1827], [1842], [1860], [1861], [1862], [1863], [1865], [1866], [1868]
NEW ROYAL EXCHANGE. [1868], [1872], [1890], [1895], [1908], [1918], [1921], [1932], [1940], [1941], [1942]

Edward Jones was also a plater. [1818]

Aris's Birmingham Gazette 20/8/1827 - Advert

“A Small Desirable Public House, Walsall.

To be Let, and entered upon immediately, the BRITANNIA, in Lower Rushall Street, near the centre of the Butcher's Market.

The premises are very convenient, with an excellent pump of good water, stabling, &c.

The stock being low, the coming-in will be trifling. Rent and payments low.

The Brewing Vessels, with part of the Furniture, &c. to be taken to a fair valuation.

Immediate possession may be had; and for further information refer to Mr. J. Taylor, Auctioneer, &c, Peal Street, Walsall, if by letter, post paid.

PS This will not be repeated.”

Wolverhampton Chronicle 5/8/1846

“John Brown, the landlord of the BRITANNIA public house, Upper Rushall Street, appeared to an information charging him with having permitted drunkenness and other disorderly conduct in his house and premises, on the morning of Sunday last. From the evidence of the police constable Thornhill, it appeared that he visited the house of defendant about seven o'clock on the morning in question, when he found six men in the taproom, all of whom were quite drunk, and two of whom were fighting. In answer to a question from the Bench, the witness stated that the house was at all times exceedingly disorderly. This being the case, the Bench inflicted the full penalty of £5 and at the same time cautioned the defendant, informing him that for the next offence of a similar disgraceful character he would be deprived of his license.”

1861 Census

10, Upper Rushall Street – BRITANNIA

[1] John Brown (64), widower, victualler, born Bicknall, Warwickshire:

Walsall Free Press 3/1/1863 - Advert

“The BRITANNIA INN, Upper Rushall Street, Walsall.

To Be Let, in consequence of the serious illness of the Proprietor's wife, the above very excellent House of Business. The coming-in will made as easy as possible, in order that a speedy letting may take place.

Apply to Geo. Bayley, Auctioneer, or on the premises.”

Walsall Free Press 21/2/1863

“Burglars Preparing for Celebrating the Prince of Wales's Marriage.

Between the hours of half-past one and half-past six on the morning of Tuesday last, the dwelling house of Mr. Tonks, BRITANNIA INN, Upper Rushall Street, was broken into, and 30s, in silver and copper, one three gallon jar of British brandy, one three gallon bottle of peppermint, one quart bottle of gin, one quart bottle of rum, and a piece of bacon, stolen therefrom. The value of the property stolen, including the money, is estimated at £7. The entrance had been effected by the thieves forcing the side door in with a jemmy.”

Walsall Free Press 9/5/1863

“Henry Hill, landlord of the BRITANNIA public house, Upper Rushall Street, was sentenced to pay a fine of 2s 6d and costs, for having had his house open, for the sale of drink, at ten minutes past five o’clock, on Sunday morning.”

Walsall Free Press 28/1/1865 - Advert

“BRITANNIA INN, Upper Rushall Street, Walsall.

To be Sold by Auction, by Mr. Horobin, on Monday Next, January 30th, 1865, the Licenses and Possession of the above Old Licensed Inn, Stock-in-trade, 4-Pull Beer Machine, Fixtures, Brewing Plant, 14 Ale Casks, part of the useful Household Furniture, Gas and Water Fittings, 8 valuable Oil Paintings, fine toned Grand Pianoforte, capital Malt Crusher, Sow In-pig, 2 strong Store Pigs, and other effects, belonging to Mr. W. Bellamy, who is leaving.
Sale to commence at Eleven o’clock.”

Walsall Free Press 27/5/1865

“Andrew Tooth, landlord of the BRITANNIA public house, Upper Rushall Street, was summoned for having had his house open for the sale of liquor during prohibited hours. Police-sergeant Mason said he visited the defendant’s house at 5.25 on Sunday morning last, but for some time could not get admittance. He looked over the window blind, and saw four men in the room. While he was looking in at the window, he saw a female enter the room and remove a jug, and tap one of the men on the shoulder. The female then left the room, and was followed by the men, after which he and Police-constable Willitt were admitted, and found twelve men in the garden behind the house, most of whom were drunk, and among them was one man whom he saw in the room. Police-constable Willitt having corroborated Sergeant Mason’s evidence, the Bench sentenced the defendant to pay a fine of 20s and costs.”

Birmingham Daily Gazette 23/6/1865

“Andrew Tooth, landlord of the BRITANNIA public house, Upper Rushall Street, was fined 1s and costs, for having, between twelve and one o’clock on Sunday morning, had his house open for the sale of beer. Police-sergeant Giles, who had seen a girl coming out of the house with a jug containing malt liquor, proved the charge.”

Walsall Free Press 2/9/1865

“Licensing Day. There were 174 applications for the renewal of licenses, and 19 new applications.....

Andrew Tooth, BRITANNIA, Upper Rushall Street license suspended.”

Walsall Free Press 9/9/1865

“The Adjourned Licensing day.....

The following persons, whose license had been suspended, were cautioned and had their licenses renewed....

Andrew Tooth, BRITANNIA, Upper Rushall Street.”

Walsall Free Press 1/9/1866

“General Licensing Day. Yesterday a special session was held in the Guildhall Assembly Room.....

The Chief Constable handed in the following report.....

Mr. Thomas Yates, keeper of the BRITANNIA, Upper Rushall Street, was fined in the sum of £5 and costs for knowingly suffering common prostitutes to assemble at and continue upon his premises on the 7th inst. Mr. Yates is only the nominal manager of this house. His mother is an aged person, but takes the responsibility of its management, though not capable of maintaining good rule and order therein. From personal observation I am bound to say that, under existing circumstances, I do not consider the present keeper a fit and proper person to be entrusted with a victuallers’ license at the BRITANNIA, Upper Rushall Street.”

Wolverhampton Chronicle 5/9/1866

“The annual Sessions for the renewal of existing licenses, and the consideration of applications for new ones, was held at the Guildhall Assembly Room on Friday.....

The Bench refused to renew the licenses of.....

Thomas Yates, BRITANNIA INN, Rushall Street.....”

Birmingham Journal 15/9/1866

“Adjourned Licensing Session. At this Session which was held at the Free Library.....

Mr. Yates, the BRITANNIA INN, Rushall Street, also applied for the renewal of his license, which had been refused under similar circumstances to Mr. Cook’s [to keep his house in a cleaner state], but the application was not acceded to.”

Walsall Free Press 15/9/1866 - Advert

“To Let, that Old Licensed House, the BRITANNIA INN, Upper Rushall Street.

Apply on the premises.”

Birmingham Daily Post 6/10/1866

“The adjourned Licensing Session for the borough was held yesterday at the Free Library. The following transfers were made, viz.....

On the application of Mr. Duignan, the Bench consented to restore the license for the BRITANNIA INN, Rushall Street, Thomas Yates the late landlord, having parted with the house to Robert Keay.”

Birmingham Daily Gazette 22/10/1866

“On Friday afternoon Mr. Hooper, coroner for the district, held an inquest at the Rushall police station upon the body of Andrew Tooth, snaffle-bit maker, who resided at Coal Pool, and was formerly landlord of the BRITANNIA public house, Upper Rushall Street, Walsall. It appeared from the evidence that the deceased, who was twenty-seven years of age, and has recently been very eccentric in his habits, was locked up on Wednesday evening upon a charge of horse stealing, and at eight o’clock on Thursday morning he was found suspended from the ventilator of his cell, quite dead. Deceased had been visited about four o’clock in the morning, and there appeared nothing in his manner to excite suspicion. The jury after hearing the evidence found that the deceased Committed Suicide while in a state of Temporary Insanity.”

Walsall Free Press 30/5/1868

“Joseph Smith was charged with having, on Saturday last, unlawfully and maliciously broken a pane of glass in the window of the BRITANNIA public house, Upper Rushall Street, value 10s; and also a glass shade over the gas in the liquor shop.

From the evidence it appeared that, about three o’clock on the day in question, the prisoner went into the BRITANNIA with his clothes disarranged, and the manager (Mr. Collins) seeing the condition the man was in, turned him out, when the prisoner went across the street, picked up a piece of brick, and threw it through the window. Mr. Collins then came out, and took the prisoner into custody.

The Bench, after hearing the evidence, sentenced the prisoner to pay a fine of 5s and costs; or, in default, to be imprisoned for fourteen days.”

It was demolished.

The NEW ROYAL EXCHANGE was built on the site.

Birmingham Daily Gazette 3/7/1868

“A man, named Michael Divine, was charged with being drunk and disorderly, and refusing to quit a public house. It appeared that on Monday last at about half-past seven o’clock the defendant went to the NEW ROYAL EXCHANGE INN, Upper Rushall Street, and after creating a disturbance he went away, but returned shortly afterwards, and was then put out by the landlord, Mr. Collins. He was fined 20s and costs, or 21 days’ imprisonment.”

Walsall Free Press 19/12/1868

“Thomas Cartwright, landlord of the EXCHANGE public house, Upper Rushall Street, was charged with having had his house open for the sale of beer at 11.20 on Sunday night last. This being the first offence, the bench imposed the mitigated penalty of 1s and costs.”

Thomas Cartwright – see also OLD PARK, Wednesbury. [1870]

Walsall Free Press 15/1/1870

“Martin Mullens, for having, on the 8th inst, assaulted Mr. Collins, the manager of the NEW ROYAL EXCHANGE, Upper Rushall Street, was fined £1 and costs, or in default to be imprisoned for one month.”

1881 Census

9+10, Upper Rushall Street

- [1] George Carter (40), publican, born Stafford;
- [2] Eliza Carter (40), wife, born Stamford, Lincolnshire;
- [3] Alice Carter (19), daughter, publican’s assistant, born Stafford;
- [4] Charles Carter (16), son, scholar, born Wednesbury;
- [5] Hugh Carter (10), son, scholar, born Wednesbury;
- [6] Mary Carter (7), daughter, born Walsall:

George Carter was fined 20s and costs, on 5th July 1886, for permitting drunkenness.

Birmingham Daily Post 27/11/1890

“At the Guildhall, a special session – the first under the new local Act – was held for the purpose of hearing applications for music, singing, and dancing licenses Mr. Jackson applied on behalf of Thomas Bird, NEW ROYAL EXCHANGE, Upper Rushall Street. Refused.”

Staffordshire Advertiser 24/1/1891

“At the Bankruptcy Court, on Wednesday, before Mr. Registrar Clarke, Thomas Bird, of 42, Emery Street, Walsall, brown saddler, formerly of the NEW ROYAL EXCHANGE INN, Upper Rushall Street, came up for his public examination. Mr. F. Bill appeared for the debtor, whose financial statement showed a deficiency of £270 12s 1d on liabilities amounting to £312 18s 6d. The examination showed that the bankrupt began business as a beer and wine retailer in Goodall Street in 1886, but in 1889 removed to the NEW ROYAL EXCHANGE. He attributed his failure to losses at the last-named house, bad debts, and the expenses of a large family. The examination was adjourned till the 4th of February.”

1891 Census

9-10, Upper Rushall Street – ROYAL EXCHANGE

- [1] John Hodgkins (49), publican, born Portobello, Staffordshire;
- [2] Harriet Hodgkins (52), wife, born Walsall;
- [3] Thomas Peace (23), wife’s son, black saddler, born Walsall;
- [4] Mary Hodson (70), mother in law, widow, living on her own means, born Walsall;
- [5] Louisa Bird (48), sister, widow, assistant barmaid, born Walsall;
- [6] John Jarvis (24), lodger, iron stamper, born Walsall;
- [7] John Jarvis (4), son, born Walsall:

John Hodgkins was fined £5 and costs, on 16th March 1891, for permitting drunkenness.

Walsall Advertiser 17/8/1895

“At the Guildhall yesterday, before Alderman Holden and Mr. W. E. Blyth, several charges against Walsall publicans were heard.

Martin McTighe, NEW ROYAL EXCHANGE INN, Upper Rushall Street, was charged with having permitted drunkenness on his licensed premises, on July 20th.

Police-sergeant Ballance said he visited the NEW ROYAL EXCHANGE and there saw a man sitting at a table drunk. Witness called the attention of the defendant to him, and he said he had only jut come in. The man was rather obstinate when spoken to, and when he went out he had to lean against the wall for support.

Cross-examined by Mr. Jackson, witness said that the man’s appearance led him to believe he was drunk.

Police-constable Mason corroborated.

Mr. Jackson pointed out to the Bench that the man had kept the public house for two and a half years and had never on any previous occasion had any complaint made against him.

James Stanley, a young fellow, who was in the house at the time, stated that the man in question was quite sober.

Thomas McTighe, brother to defendant, gave similar evidence but the Bench fined defendant 2s 6d and costs.”

Walsall Advertiser 31/8/1895

“The annual Licensing Sessions for the borough were held yesterday at the Guildhall.

The following is a return of licensees who have been proceeded against during the year ending August 30th, 1895.

Martin McTighe, NEW ROYAL EXCHANGE INN, Upper Rushall Street, for having permitted drunkenness on August 16th, fined 2s 6d and costs. The license was renewed with a caution.”

1901 Census

Upper Rushall Street – ROYAL EXCHANGE

- [1] Martin McTighe (65), licensed victualler, born Ireland;
- [2] Ellen McTighe (67), wife, born Ireland;
- [3] Mary McTighe (40), daughter, born Walsall;
- [4] Kate Healey (36), daughter, widow, nurse, born Walsall:

Walsall Advertiser 1/9/1903

“Mr. S. S. Grundy Newman submitted a plan for alteration at the ROYAL EXCHANGE, Upper Rushall Street in order to use a certain portion of the premises as a cart-way. Granted.”

David Read – see also PAUL PRY.

1911 Census

9+10, Upper Rushall Street

- [1] Samuel Thomas (48), public house manager, born Redditch;
 - [2] Ruth Thomas (47), wife, married 26 years, born Redditch;
 - [3] Samuel Howard Thomas (24), son, butcher, born Redditch;
 - [4] Annie Clara Thomas (23), daughter, born Redditch;
 - [5] John Thomas (19), son, pattern making, born Walsall;
 - [6] William Thomas (17), son, pattern making, born Walsall;
 - [7] Richard Thomas (15), son, errand boy, born Walsall:
- [Was Annie Clara known as Clara Annie?]

Walsall Advertiser 7/3/1914

“Sarah Young, 24, Peal Street, was charged with stealing 15s in money from the person on Mark Sinnett, a groom, of Shenstone. The prosecutor said that at 3 o’clock on Saturday afternoon he went into the NEW ROYAL EXCHANGE, in Lower Rushall

Street, where he spoke to a man and enquired if he knew of respectable lodgings. The prisoner was present, and told him she could let him have a furnished room. He treated her to a drink, and afterwards went to her house. While there prisoner put her hand into his trousers pocket and took the money from him, afterwards running away. Later he pointed her out to a policeman in the public-house where he first met her.

Detective Ayres stated that he went with Sinnett to the NEW ROYAL EXCHANGE, and arrested prisoner, who denied the theft. He searched her house, and found 4½d mixed with some blacking in a tin. After she had been taken to the police station he received from Police-sergeant Robinson 2/0½ in an envelope which prisoner had been trying to conceal.

Police-sergeant Robinson said that while prisoner was in the charge-room at the police station he noticed that she was sitting on something. He found it to be 2½ in an envelope. While he was examining it she said, 'I had that off him' (meaning the prosecutor).

Prisoner was sentenced to 21 days' hard labour."

Walsall Observer 25/12/1915 - Marriages

"On December 20th, at St. Matthew's Church, by the Rev. R. S. Renfree, John, son of S. Thomas, ROYAL EXCHANGE, Upper Rushall Street, to Kathleen Jessie, daughter of W. T. Woodfield, of Emery Street, Walsall."

Walsall Observer 12/1/1918

"Walsall and District War Aid Committee. Collection By The Licensed Victuallers, December, 1917.....
NEW ROYAL EXCHANGE, Upper Rushall Street. £1 4s 5d."

1939 Register

Upper Rushall Street – NEW ROYAL EXCHANGE

[1] Clare Annie Thomas, date of birth 14/2/1888, licensed victualler, single;

[2] Edith F. Nicholls, dob 10/4/1909, bar general, single:

Walsall Observer 16/8/1941 - Notice

"Motor Ambulance Effort on behalf of Walsall and District Division of the British Red Cross Society.
Third List Of Subscriptions.....
NEW ROYAL EXCHANGE, Upper Rushall Street. £2 2s 0d."

Walsall Observer 29/8/1942

"County Borough of Walsall. Mayor's War Aid Fund. Nineteenth List of Subscriptions.....
Miss Thomas, NEW ROYAL EXCHANGE, Upper Rushall Street. £1 6s 5d."

Walsall Observer 15/1/1944

"Walsall Licensed Victuallers' Society.
Appeal on Behalf of the Merchant Navy Fund, The Duke of Gloucester's Red Cross Fund and the Aid to China Fund. List of Subscriptions.....
NEW ROYAL EXCHANGE, Upper Rushall Street. £1 13s 2d."

Miss Clara Thomas retired in 1961.

Closed

It became the LYNDON HOUSE HOTEL in the 1990s.

[2017]

MAGIC LANTERN

Cavendish Road / Bloxwich Lane, Beechdale, WALSALL

OWNERS

Bass, Mitchells and Butlers Ltd.

Voyager Pubs [2002]

Red Star Estates [2013], [2014]

LICENSEES

NOTES

Daily Mirror 4/6/1998

“Free Pint of Carling.

With just six days to go before the World Cup kick-off your soccer-loving Mirror is buying you a drink. We've a Free pint of Carling to get you into the mood for the great Vive Le Football pub opening parties across the nation. Our friends at Bass Leisure Retail are offering every reader over 18 a free pint of Carling to get things off to a flying start today.....

Where to get your Free pint.....

MAGIC LANTERN, Cavendish Road, Walsall.”

Express and Star 17/7/2013

“Almost 1,000 people have signed a petition to keep a Walsall pub, hailed as the heart of the community, from being replaced by shops. The MAGIC LANTERN, in Beechdale, has been earmarked for a retail development, sparking a campaign to save it. Residents claim the MAGIC LANTERN, in Cavendish Road, is the last on the estate and now plan to hand the petition to councillors before a decision is made by the Walsall Council's planning committee.

Councillor Tina Jukes, of Birchills-Leamore ward, said: ‘It's well known that local pubs are closing at a fantastic rate because of the decline in the trade but there's a public house that is thriving because it gives so much back to the community. It would be terrible if the LANTERN were to close.’

An over 60s group holds regular meetings there and it is home to the Magic Lantern Football Club which introduces youngsters to sport.

Owner Red Star Estates have submitted plans to convert the pub into a convenience store and other shops. It blames competition from other pubs and the financial downturn for the move.”

Express and Star 5/6/2014

“Residents had been fighting plans to turn The MAGIC LANTERN, in Beechdale, into a convenience store and four shop units. Pub owner Red Star Estates Limited has planning permission to re-develop the site, despite hundreds of objections and the action group's bid to rescue it for the community.

A successful application was made to Walsall Council to get the Cavendish Road pub recognised as an asset of community value, giving residents the chance to club together and buy the building should it come up for sale.

The developer then lodged an appeal against the move at Walsall County Court that was due to be heard May 29.

Birchills and Leamore representative Councillor Tina Jukes said: ‘There is no appeal they pulled out the morning it was due to be heard at court so the LANTERN at present stays as a pub which is fabulous for the community of Beechdale. We are over the moon that they have withdrawn the appeal. It's what the community and the residents want. The pub is still open for business and people are holding events there. The owner was taking Walsall Council to a tribunal over the decision to create a community asset management. Their objection was that because the building has been given this new status they can't now create the retail space. We don't know why they withdrew the appeal.’

She said the failure of the hearing to go ahead means that more entertainment nights can be planned for the venue situated at the junction with Bloxwich Lane and Bentley Lane.

The next event will be a Ska disco.

A Facebook page has also been set up to promote the campaign.

Competition in the drinks business and the financial downturn have been blamed for the decision to close the pub and convert it. Red Star Estates Limited had hoped to start the building work earlier this year and said it had tenants already lined up for the scheme that would create 16 jobs if it went ahead.

Walsall Council has confirmed that the appeal was withdrawn by Red Star and that the pub will remain on the community assets list. Red Star was not available for comment.”

[2017]

MALT SHOVEL

Birmingham Road, WALSALL

OWNERS

Thomas M. Humphries, Digeth, Walsall

John Lord

Mitchells and Butlers Ltd. (acquired on 11th August 1939)

Hunt, Edmunds and Co. Ltd. (leased from February 1962)

LICENSEES

George Hackett [1834] – [1851]
James Willner [1860] – [1865]
James Cooke [1865]
John Cook [1868] – [1870]
Edward Fletcher [1870]
Mark Fletcher Cookson [1871] – [1873];
Mrs. Rosanna Cookson [];
John Griffiths [1881];
Joseph Pagett [];
Thomas Henry Minors [] – 1887);
Isaiah Taylor (1887 – 1912);
Edgar Biddulph (1912 – 1919); manager
John Orgill (1919);
James Jones Turner (1919 – 1938);
Robert Denman (1938 – 1947);
Frederick Harold Hodges (1947 – 1963);
John Creswich (1963 – 1964);
Henry Bernard Smith (1964 – 1967);
William Laidler Edgar (1967 – []

NOTES

It had a beerhouse license.

Wolverhampton Chronicle 18/11/1846 - Advert

“Sale Of Growing Timber, Birmingham Road, and near the Windmill, Walsall.

To Be Sold By Auction by T. Franklin, at Mr. G. Hackett's, the MALT SHOVEL INN, Birmingham Road, near Walsall, at three o'clock in the afternoon, subject to conditions then to be produced.

One Hundred and Forty-Five Polar Trees, growing on the farm now in the occupation of W. William Partridge, Birmingham Road, near Walsall; and also about 60 Elm, Chestnut, Sycamore, Poplar, Fir, and other Trees growing on land in the occupation of John Whitgreave, Esq, near the Windmill, Walsall.

For further particulars apply at the office of the Auctioneer, Bradford Street, Walsall.”

Staffordshire Advertiser 19/9/1847 - Deaths

“On Sunday last, after a few days' illness, Maria, wife of Mr. George Hackett, of the MALT SHOVEL public-house, Birmingham Road, near Walsall, aged 67.”

George Hackett, beer retailer, Birmingham Road. [1850]

Birmingham Daily Post 16/7/1858

“About noon on Tuesday, a boatman named Charles Blakemore, who resided in Alison Street, Birmingham, was accidentally drowned in the canal, near Perry Barr. He had been engaged along with his brother in conducting a boat laden with coal from Rushall to Birmingham, and when near Perry Barr he went to fill a lock. Some ashes that were lying on the bank which slopes to the lock caused him to slip into the water on his return, his brother being at the time about a hundred yards away. The body was recovered twenty minutes afterwards by Thomas Sadler, the lock keeper, but his life was of course extinct. An inquest was held on the following afternoon at the MALT SHOVEL, on the Birmingham Road, before A. A. Fletcher, Esq, Borough Coroner, and a verdict of Accidental Death returned by the Jury.”

Wolverhampton Chronicle 6/6/1860

“On Tuesday afternoon, two boatmen, named George Smith and William Wilkins, saw a boy's cap in the canal, near the MALT SHOVEL INN, Birmingham Road, and on examining the water near the lock gates, they discovered the body of a boy, which proved to be that of a lad who had travelled with them from Birmingham. They did not know him, nor had his name at present been ascertained, but it is said he was coming to the fair to see his mother, who is supposed to have a stall there.”

James Willner = James Wilner

1861 Census

Birmingham Road – MALT SHOVEL

[1] James Willner (43), victualler and farmer of 26 acres employing 1 man, born Grendon, Warwickshire;

[2] Emma Willner (39), wife, born Bloxwich;

[3] Elizabeth Willner (4), daughter, born Walsall;

[4] John Willner (2), son, born Walsall;

[5] John Kirk (73), wife's father, widower, butcher, born Castle Donington, Leicestershire;

[6] John Burnal (20), servant, carter, born Silverstone, Northamptonshire:

Walsall Free Press 5/3/1864

“On Tuesday afternoon, A. A. Fletcher, Esq, borough coroner, held an inquest at the MALT SHOVEL, Birmingham Road, upon the body of Amelia Ann Emson, aged one year and seven months, daughter of George Emson, carpenter, Birmingham Road, who came to her death under the following circumstances. On Saturday, the 13th ult, the mother of the deceased went to the pump for some water, and, while there, heard her children screaming. On going into the house, she found the deceased enveloped in flames, and, before they could be extinguished, the deceased was so severely injured, that notwithstanding medical aid was immediately procured, the deceased, after lingering in great agony, expired on Sunday afternoon. It is supposed that the deceased ignited her clothes by lighting a piece of paper at the fire. The Jury, after hearing the evidence, returned a verdict of Accidental Death.”

Walsall Free Press 22/7/1865

“On Monday last, the children belonging to the Day and Sunday Schools connected with Wesley Chapel, Ablewell Street, had their usual annual treat in a field adjoining the MALT SHOVEL INN (on the Birmingham Road), where a large marquee was erected for their accommodation. At two o'clock in the afternoon, the children, numbering upwards of 700, assembled at the schools, and being marshalled in proper order, marched in procession, headed by the Temperance Band, to the field where each child was supplied with a paper bag containing a bun and about half-a-pound of plum cake, in addition to a liberal supply of tea.....”

Birmingham Gazette 22/12/1865

“James Cooke, landlord of the MALT SHOVEL public-house, on the Birmingham Road, charged with having had his house open for the sale of beer on Sunday last, between the hours of eleven and twelve (noon), was ordered to pay costs and discharged with a caution.”

Walsall Free Press 27/3/1869 - Advert

“To Be Let, and may be entered upon immediately, all that Old-Licensed Inn, known as the MALT SHOVEL, situated on the Birmingham Road, Walsall, and within half-a-mile of the Town; together with upwards of 11 Acres of excellent Meadow and Pasture Land, adjoining the same.

For particulars apply to Mr. S. J. Wood, Wood End House, Walsall.”

Birmingham Daily Gazette 18/5/1869

“William Merchant, who had been remanded from Thursday last upon a charge of uttering a counterfeit coin, was again brought up in custody. The depositions taken on Thursday having been read over, further evidence was adduced, from which it appeared that about an hour before passing the florin at the WOOLPACK, Digbeth, he passed one at the MALT SHOVEL on the Birmingham Road. The date of all the florins was 1858. The prisoner was remanded till Thursday. The Bench, on the application of Mr. Dale, who appeared for the prisoner, agreed to accept bail, himself in £50, and two sureties of £25 each.”

Birmingham Daily Gazette 20/7/1869

“Walsall Quarter Sessions. Grand Jury.

William Merchant was charged with having on the 10th of May last uttered a counterfeit florin to Mrs. Pitt, of the WOOLPACK public house, Digbeth. The prisoner, on being placed at the bar, pleaded guilty, and was sentenced to one month's imprisonment with hard labour.”

Staffordshire Advertiser 16/4/1870

“James Lee, a labourer, was charged with having wilfully and maliciously broken two panes of glass, value 5s, the property of Mr. Edward Fletcher, of the MALT SHOVEL INN, Birmingham Road. Mr. Glover appeared for the prosecutor. The prisoner entered the house while drunk and wanted liquor, which prosecutor refused to supply, and after much difficulty got the unwelcome visitor out of the house. Lee threw two stones through the window, and was about to throw a third, when he was secured and taken to the police station. He pleaded that he was so drunk he did not know what he was doing, but the magistrates declined to accept the excuse, and sentenced him to two months' imprisonment.”

1871 Census

Birmingham Road – MALT SHOVEL

[1] Mark H. Cookson (34), publican, born Stirchley, Shropshire;

[2] Rosannah Cookson (30), wife, born Stirchley, Shropshire;

[3] Mary J. Jones (19), general servant, born Malerster (?), Shropshire;

[4] Benjamin Blockside (23), waiter, born Stirchley:

Birmingham Daily Gazette 14/4/1871

“Cricket. Bradford Club, Walsall v United Eleven, Wolverhampton.

A match took place between these two clubs, on Monday last, on the ground of Mr. Cookson, at the MALT SHOVEL INN, who kindly lent the ground for the occasion, and resulted in a victory for the Walsall Club by 120 runs.....”

Walsall Free Press 28/6/1873 - Advert

“Cricket. The Hearts Of Oak Cricket Club will commence Playing for the Season, on Saturday, June 28th, 1873, anyone wishing to join must please apply to Mr. Cookson, MALT SHOVEL, Birmingham Road, or to Mr. Tulley, George Street, Walsall. Entrance 5s for the season.”

Cricket and football matches were played on the MALT SHOVEL ground for a number of years.

Walsall Free Press 27/12/1873 - Advert

“Wanted at once, a good General Servant.
Apply Mr. Cookson, MALT SHOVEL INN, Birmingham Road, Walsall.”

Staffordshire Advertiser 9/1/1875

“Three young men named William Sargeant, Prince Albert Square, David Hincks, Lower Rushall Street, and John Hincks, Bott Lane, were summoned at the instance of Thomas Mason, Hill Street, and charged with having assaulted him. Mr. Rhodes (from Mr. Glover’s office) appeared for the complainant. At twelve o’clock on the night of the 28th ult. the complainant and two companions left the MALT SHOVEL INN, Birmingham Road, as did also the defendants. A quarrel which had been commenced in the house was resumed in the road, and the complainant alleged that in the course of it he was assaulted by all three of the defendants. Before it was over he also lost his watch and chain, and a witness named Mark Atkins deposed to having seen it in Sargeant’s hands. John Hincks was dismissed; David Hincks was fined 10s and costs; and Sargeant was remanded with a view to his being committed for trial on a charge of assault and stealing a watch on the highway.”

Midland Counties Evening Express 10/1/1878

“Yesterday the Walsall Borough Coroner held an inquest at the MALT SHOVEL INN, on the body of the man who was found in the canal on Sunday evening. The body was identified as that of Michael Murray of Wolverhampton, a deserter from the 106th Regiment Found Drowned.”

Rosannah Cookson married John Griffiths in the 4th quarter of 1876.

1881 Census

Birmingham Road – MALT SHOVEL

- [1] John Griffiths (31), publican, born Walsall;
- [2] Rosannah Griffiths (40), wife, born Stirchley, Shropshire;
- [3] Martha Lorton (18), general servant, born Walsall:

Birmingham Daily Post 27/11/1890

“At the Guildhall, a special session – the first under the new local Act – was held for the purpose of hearing applications for music, singing, and dancing licenses Mr. Jackson applied on behalf of Isaiah Taylor, MALT SHOVEL, Birmingham Road. Granted on Thursday and Saturday evenings.”

1891 Census

Birmingham Road – MALT SHOVEL Public House

- [1] Isaiah Taylor (33), married, publican, born Repton, Derbyshire;
- [2] Agnes Taylor (21), sister, barmaid, born Repton, Derbyshire;
- [3] James Marshall (42), visitor, beading maker, born Walsall;
- [4] Elsie Parker (19), general servant, born Walsall;
- [5] John Lawden (15), farm servant, born Penkridge:

Walsall Advertiser 17/12/1892

“I mentioned a week or two back a benefit match arranged for H. Ringwood, who, through sickness, has been unable to follow his employment for a period of twelve months. This takes place today on the MALT SHOVEL ground, Birmingham Road, the contesting teams being Walsall Albion and Walsall Harriers. The Town Swifts being away from home will release a great many of their followers, and I trust that a large number will wend their way to the MALT SHOVEL ground to assist in swelling a fund for a deserving cause.”

Lichfield Mercury 3/11/1893 - Advert

“Wanted, strong lad, to live in; able to milk; good character; state wages.
Apply I. Taylor, MALT SHOVEL, Birmingham Road, Walsall.”

Walsall Advertiser 14/1/1899

“I am asked to mention that there will be a general meeting of the members of the Town Unity Cricket Club on Saturday, the 21st inst, at 7.30pm, at the MALT SHOVEL, Birmingham Road. Anyone wishing to become a member should communicate with the hon. secretary, Mr. A. G. Burton, 71, Brace Street.”

Walsall Advertiser 2/9/1899

“Charles Orme (19), polisher, of 62, Wilton Street, Birmingham, was brought up in custody charged with stealing apples from the orchard of Mr. Isaiah Taylor, of the MALT SHOVEL INN, Birmingham Road. On Monday morning from his bedroom, Mr. Leighton saw a man go into Mr. Taylor’s orchard on Sergeant’s Hill, Birmingham Road, and sent a boy to inform Mr. Taylor. Mr. Leighton subsequently saw the man go out, and join a soldier and a girl on the Birmingham Road. Mr. Taylor searched his orchard, but finding no one, he went to the BELL INN, where he found the man whom Mr. Leighton had seen in company with a soldier and a girl. Police-constable Shirley (Great Barr) was with Mr. Taylor, and was given the prisoner into custody. But on leaving the house a jug of beer was thrown over him, and the girl with the soldier struck him on the cheek with a glass, for which she will have to answer at the Rushall Court. Prisoner admitted having nine apples on him which he said he had purchased from a man on the road for 1d. But the constable produced 13 fine apples which he had taken from the prisoner, who told him he had bought them at a shop a little distance away (which does not exist). In reply to Dr. Lynch, prisoner said he did not usually get nine apples for a penny; he did not believe he had 13. Fined 5s and 6s 6d costs, or seven days. He was only possessed of 4d, so he went down.”

Walsall Advertiser 11/11/1899

“Henry Hodgkins (65), alias William Smith, of no fixed abode, was brought up on a charge of wilfully damaging a tree, by stripping the bark, doing damage to the amount of 6d, belonging to Isaiah Taylor, landlord of the MALT SHOVEL INN, Birmingham Road; also with obtaining 3d by false pretences, the property of Isaiah Taylor.

The Chief Constable said he did not propose to go on with the latter charge, inasmuch as the prisoner was wanted on a more serious one by the Hinckley police.

Mr. Isaiah Taylor said that on October 31st the prisoner, after selling to witness some wood which he had represented to be Indian wood for destroying moths, got into witness’s garden and stripped bark from a black poplar tree growing there.

It transpired that prisoner had undergone seventeen years’ penal servitude, and he was now fined 10s and costs, or in default 14 days’ imprisonment with hard labour.”

Walsall Observer 13/10/1900

“On Thursday night the fourth annual dinner of the Walsall Victoria Bowling Club was held at the club house, the MALT SHOVEL, Birmingham Road. The dinner was served in a tent, which had been erected on the green by Mr. S. Hawley (J. Hawley and Son), and a very beautiful dining room it made.....”

Walsall Observer 24/11/1900

“On Thursday night the Walsall Excelsior Cricket Club held its 14th annual dinner at the MALT SHOVEL, Birmingham Road, where about forty members and friends enjoyed the excellent spread.....”

1901 Census

Birmingham Road – farm – MALT SHOVEL HOTEL

[1] Isaiah Taylor (43), publican, born Repton, Derbyshire;

[2] Mary Taylor (43), wife, born Atherstone, Leicestershire;

[3] Leonard F. Taylor (10), son, born Walsall;

[4] Bertram J. Taylor (8), son, born Walsall;

[5] Lionel J. Taylor (5), son, born Walsall;

[6] Annie Heath (20), general servant, born Brownhills;

[7] Sarah Reynolds (14), general servant, born Ryton, Staffordshire;

[8] George Reynolds (18), servant, general labourer, born Codsall [Codsall?], Staffordshire:

Walsall Advertiser 6/7/1901

“Charles and Annie Taylor, of no fixed abode, were charged with sleeping out without having any visible means of subsistence. Police-constable Bates said that on Saturday morning he found the prisoners sleeping by the side of a hayrick at the rear of the MALT SHOVEL INN, Birmingham Road. Discharged with a caution.”

Lichfield Mercury 23/5/1902 - Advert

“Wanted to live in, All-round Farm Labourer; good milker. Also Strong Youth (to live in), to make himself generally useful. Address, I. Taylor, MALT SHOVEL, Birmingham Road, Walsall.”

Walsall Advertiser 21/6/1902

“Walsall Victoria Bowling Club v Rugeley Bowling Club. The members of these clubs met in friendly rivalry on Wednesday afternoon last at the MALT SHOVEL ground, Birmingham Road. After a very enjoyable game the Vic’s were conquerors by the aggregate score of 61 points.....”

Walsall Advertiser 5/9/1903

“Walsall Y.M.F. Cricket Club. On Saturday last, after the cricket match between the above club and Willenhall (played at the MALT SHOVEL grounds, Birmingham Road, for the benefit of J. Lees), a good muster of members of both clubs sat down to a substantial tea, provided by the hostess, Mrs. Taylor.....”

Walsall Advertiser 13/2/1904

“The annual licensing meeting for the borough of Walsall was continued on Thursday.....

Mr. Jackson (solicitor) put in plans for altering the well-known MALT SHOVEL INN, Birmingham Road. He explained that cricket, football, and bowling clubs, early closers, &c, met there, and all that was wanted was to make a dining room.

Dr. Lynch: Can you suggest that no drink will be served? – Mr. Jackson said he certainly could not. Suppose there was a dinner – they could not have a dinner without drink (laughter).

Dr. Lynch: On other occasions? – Mr. Jackson said the room would only be used on special occasions.

Mr. Thomson (Chief Constable) said what was proposed was to make a stable and loft into a dining room. He had occasion when the Corporation officials had a walking match to visit this house, and he then saw the difficulty there was, owing to there not being a proper assembly room.

Plans approved.”

Walsall Advertiser 6/6/1908

“We would draw the attention of our readers, especially owners of horses, &c, to the annual Horse Show and Parade, which is to be held on July 6th, on the MALT SHOVEL Grounds, Birmingham Road. A new departure this year is classes confined to local turnouts, so that local tradesmen will not now have to compete with outside prize-turnouts, and it is hoped that there will be a record number of entries.”

Walsall Advertiser 27/6/1908

“James Andrews, Frank’s Yard, Wolverhampton Street, was summoned for being such a distance away from a horse and wagon as not to have control of the horse. Police-constable Ashby (55) deposed to seeing a horse attached to a coal wagon outside the MALT SHOVEL INN, Birmingham Road, on the 13th inst. Defendant was away about twenty minutes, and during that time the horse twice started to go. It was a very dangerous part of the road, the tramway loop being there.

Defendant denied being away anything like the time stated by Ashby, but he was fined 10s and costs.”

Walsall Advertiser 6/2/1909

“There was a large attendance at the annual Brewster Sessions for the Borough of Walsall, on Wednesday, at the Guildhall.....

In the case of the MALT SHOVEL INN, Birmingham Road, Mr. F. Cooper, solicitor, referred to certain alterations which were proposed to be carried out, plans of which had been deposited. The present tenant had been licensee of this particular house for over 22 years, and he did not anticipate that the magistrates would have any objection to the proposed alterations.”

1911 Census

Birmingham Road – MALT SHOVEL

- [1] Isaiah Taylor (54), licensed victualler and farmer, born Repton, Derbyshire;
- [2] Mary Taylor (55), wife, married 24 years, assisting in business, born Sheepy, Atherstone;
- [3] Isaiah Best Taylor (19), son, assisting in business, born Walsall;
- [4] Lionel James Taylor (15), son, office boy, born Walsall;
- [5] Edward Tuck (27), servant, waggoner on farm, born Wolverhampton;
- [6] Victor Thomas Crawford (27), servant, general labourer, born Bromsgrove;
- [7] Elsie May Weal (18), general servant, born Pelsall;

Walsall Advertiser 13/5/1911

“Bowling. At the MALT SHOVEL, Birmingham Road the members of the Victoria Club mustered in good force, it being the first of the series of games for prizes competed for during the season. All the members were well repaid for their visit and the majority of ends afforded keen and close bowling.....”

Walsall Advertiser 21/9/1912

“The members of the Paddock Bowling Club assembled at the headquarters, the SPRING COTTAGE, on Friday evening of last week, with the object of making a presentation to the host, Mr. E. Biddulph, in recognition of his services to the club during the time he has been the landlord of the SPRING COTTAGE. The idea was prompted by the fact that Mr. Biddulph is leaving to take up the license of the MALT SHOVEL INN, Birmingham Road.....”

Walsall Observer 8/2/1913

“The annual Licensing Sessions for the borough were held at the Guildhall on Monday.....

In connection with the MALT SHOVEL, Birmingham Road, Mr. Frank Cooper applied for permission to add a storey to one-half of the house, construct a bay window and new fire-places in the dining room, new windows in the front of the house, strengthen the walls, and other alterations. He was not going to suggest that there would be no increase in drinking area, because he could not give an undertaking that the new part would not be used for drinking. There was an increase in drinking area, and he did not wish to badger the question. The whole of the alterations which he asked the Bench to sanction were to enable them to erect a second storey on half of the premises for a billiard room, and although there was considerable increase in the drinking area it could not be suggested that the drinking area of the billiard room was anything like so bad from a temperance point of view as the ordinary area of the house. The object of the alteration was not to create trade. They had the trade already, and they wanted to be able to deal with it better than they were at present. Connected with the house, having their headquarters there and going there week by week, were no fewer than three football clubs, four cricket clubs, a bowling club with a hundred members, a sick and dividend club, 49 allotments, an allotment society, and it was also headquarters to the Walsall Hockey Club. They could imagine the state of congestion that occurred there on Saturdays, or any other day when it happened to be wet. It was almost impossible for the licensee to properly attend to his customers, and the billiard room would help him to allow those people who went there to play football or cricket to have some reasonable enjoyment without going into ordinary drinking premises. The house was well known, and for the last thirty years, probably, had been looked upon as a model. The old tenant, Mr. Taylor, held it for no less a period than twenty-six years, and the present licensee, Mr. Biddulph, had held a license for the last eighteen years, and was well-known to the Bench. So far as the house and the locality and the past and present licensees were concerned, he thought if ever there was a case when they might allow the extension of the area, that was the case.

The Justices' Clerk pointed out that in 1904 and 1909 other alterations were made to the premises.

Mr. Cooper agreed.

Mr. Loxton: The dining room is one-storey high, and now you are proposing to make it two and put a billiard room in it? – Mr.

Cooper: That is so. If the application is granted we propose to convert another room into a private room for Mr. Biddulph, and cut it off as far as drinking is concerned.

Mr. Loxton: Will this one storey bear another over it? – Mr. Cooper: That is the object of the strengthening pillars shown on the plan.

Mr. Loxton: You are going to rebuild the bottom? – Mr. Cooper: We shall have to strengthen it considerably, but will not actually rebuild it.

The architect (Mr. R. Jefferies), who was in Court, remarked that the walls would not need strengthening to satisfy the requirements of the bye-laws, but he thought it was advisable from the standpoint of appearance.

Mr. Cooper, in answer to Mr. Loxton, said the alterations would be about £350.

The application was refused.”

Walsall Advertiser 30/8/1913 - Advert

“Flying To-Day.

At Spring Vale Farm opposite the MALT SHOVEL HOTEL, Birmingham Road, Walsall.

Flights Will Be made By Hicks, Hamel, & Prosser.

Gates Will Open at 3pm.

Applications for Reserved Seats or Passenger Flights should be made to the Promoters, The Walsall Garage, Wolverhampton Street, Walsall.”

Walsall Observer 7/2/1914

“The annual Brewster Sessions for the borough of Walsall were held at the Guildhall on Tuesday morning.....

With respect to the MALT SHOVEL INN, Birmingham Road, Mr. Frank Cooper applied for sanction to plans to enlarge the dining room by 186 square feet. He said that the application was really to extend the present dining room in order to make it square with the existing building. Permission to make that extension was asked for in July and it was then adjourned in consequence of there being a poor attendance of justices. The present application was discussed with them, and he (Mr. Cooper) did not think he was going too far when he said that the sub-committee felt the extension would be a very great improvement to the house and that it was a very necessary alteration.

Sir E. T. Holden: I think you ought to say that part of the sub-committee had left then. – Mr. Cooper: Oh, yes! One member.

Sir Edward: And someone else. – Mr. Cooper: I think not. Only yourself had gone, as the members will be able to bear me out.

Proceeding, Mr. Cooper said that an application was made at the last annual licensing sessions, but it was far more extensive alterations than at present suggested, and it was refused. The MALT SHOVEL was a house that was unique so far as the town was concerned. It had attached to it very extensive playing fields, and many cricket and football clubs had their headquarters there, including the Walsall Hockey Club, in addition there was a bowling club in connection with the house which was one of the largest and most important in the district. The MALT SHOVEL was an asset to the town, and ought to be encouraged. It was perfectly obvious that the present accommodation was inadequate.

The plans were sanctioned, the Clerk intimating that the justices required to be notified of the completion of the work so that they could visit the house.”

Walsall Observer 12/1/1918

“Walsall and District War Aid Committee. Collection By The Licensed Victuallers, December, 1917.....

MALT SHOVEL INN, Birmingham Road. £1 0s 5½d.”

James Jones Turner – see also LAMB.

Walsall Observer 18/10/1924

“On the ground that better living room and kitchen accommodation was needed, a Walsall Licensing Bench on Thursday, declined to sanction plans for alterations at the MALT SHOVEL, Birmingham Road, the chairman (Mr. G. A. Phillips) commenting that the justices considered the place should take on more of the nature of a large restaurant than an hotel. A large number of meals had to be served there at times, and the present kitchen was not sufficient.....”

It had a bowling green and tennis courts. [1925]

Walsall Observer 29/7/1939

“More than fifty licensed premises in Walsall and neighbouring place become Mitchells and Butlers houses this week as a result of the well-known Cape Hill brewery company's acquisition of the whole of the undertakings of the Highgate-Walsall Brewery Co. Ltd., and the Walsall Breweries Proprietary Ltd., and of all the licensed and certain un-licensed properties of Messrs. John Lord, brewers, of Short Acre.....

A list of the licensed premises that form part of the properties acquired by Mitchells and Butlers is as follows.....

John Lord's houses.....

MALT SHOVEL, Birmingham Road.”

Walsall Observer 16/9/1939

“We are going to assist the authorities in carrying out the lighting restrictions,” said Mr. H. Hucker, presiding magistrate at Walsall Guildhall on Monday, when the first local prosecutions under the blackout regulations were before the court.

Four of the five defendants in the five cases were publicans and three were each fined 20s, the fourth was ordered to pay 4s costs.....

Robert Denham (40), licensee of the MALT SHOVEL, Birmingham Road, also was represented by Mr. Hodgkinson.

Police-constable John Griffin stated that at 10.15pm on September 4 light was showing from three large windows across Birmingham Road and from a candle inside the front door (which illuminated the road every time anyone passed out) while two lights facing Birmingham were not sufficiently screened with black Italian cloth, which, however, was not thick enough for its purpose and defendant told witness he was waiting for more material.

Mr. Hodgkinson told the magistrates that defendant ordered 150 yards of black material a fortnight before the war, but was able to obtain only fifty yards. He then found it was not as impervious to light as he thought it would be and the material had to be put up double or treble, so that it went even a shorter distance. He then tried his utmost to get other materials and did everything he could to carry out his employers' instructions.

A fine of 20 was imposed.”

1939 Register

Birmingham Road – MALT SHOVEL INN

[1] Robert Denman, date of birth 14/5/1881, publican, married;

[2] Beatrice L. Denman, dob 30/6/1885, unpaid domestic duties, married;

[3] Robert H. Denman, dob 21/9/1912, furnisher's clerk, single;

[4] Sheila F. (Denman) Coombes, dob 29/4/1919, drapery assistant, single:

Walsall Observer 7/12/1940

“Walsall Licensed Victuallers' Society.

Motor Ambulance Effort on behalf of Walsall and District branch of the British Red Cross Society.

First List of Subscriptions.....

MALT SHOVEL, Birmingham Road, £3 10s 6d.”

Walsall Observer 26/4/1941

“The Walsall Hospital box at the MALT SHOVEL, Birmingham Road, has just produced £19.”

Walsall Observer 14/3/1942

“In acknowledgement of the fact that subscribers at the MALT SHOVEL INN, Birmingham Road, are contributing at least £50 for the maintenance of the Walsall General Hospital, an inscribed plaque has now been set above a bed in the children's ward. Most of the weekly contributions were sixpence a week, and the total of the first year amounted to nearly £60. About £35 has already been raised since January 1st for the second year's subscription.”

Walsall Observer 15/1/1944

“Walsall Licensed Victuallers' Society.

Appeal on Behalf of the Merchant Navy Fund, The Duke of Gloucester's Red Cross Fund and the Aid to China Fund. List of Subscriptions.....

MALT SHOVEL HOTEL, Birmingham Road. £3 17s 6d.”

Closed

It was demolished c.1970.

The Crest Motel was built on the site.

MALT SHOVEL

71, (71+72), (7), Lower Rushall Street, WALSALL

OWNERS

Harriet Sheldon, 23, Walsall Street, Wednesbury
Arthur Beebee [1905], [1907], [1910]
Walsall Breweries Proprietary Ltd. [1924]
Highgate Walsall Brewery Co. Ltd. (acquired in 1924)
Mitchells and Butlers Ltd. (acquired in 1939)

LICENSEES

Samuel Tonks [1818]
Thomas Wheeler (1820 – [1822])
Francis Thacker [1828] – [1830]
James Sheldon [1834] – [1845]
William Boden [1849] – [1851]
John Ricketts [1853]
James Lowbridge [1858] – [1860]
Randle [1860]
Sophia Randle [1861]
William Caulfield [1861] – [1862]
J Bednall [1862] – [1863]
John Steel [1864] – [1866]
Samuel Ricketts [1868] – [1870]
James Ricketts [1871] – 1891);
Mrs. Sarah Beebee (1891 – 1898);
Arthur Beebee (1898 – 1904);
Sydney Beebee (1904 – 1907);
Charles John Edwards (1907 – 1908); manager
Thomas Clow (1908 – 1909);
William John Baker (1909 – 1911);
Minnie Baker (1911);
George Edward Evans (1911);
Arthur George Saunders (1911 – 1918);
Anthony Oldfield (1918 – 1924);
Albert Richard Fencott (1924 – 1925);
George Farmer (1925 – 1926);
Charles William Swinnerton (1926 – 1931);
John Henry Brown (1931 – 1933);
George Yates (1933 – 1935);
Joseph William Davies (1935 – 1936);
Harriett Davies (1936 – 1956);
Arthur Middlebrook (1956 – 1957);
Stanley Clement Dutton (1957 – 1958);
Kathleen Peggy Stone (1958 – 1962);
Hilda Lena Swinburne (1962 – 1966);
Donald Rudge (1966 – 1967);
George Edward Franks (1967 – [])

NOTES

MALT AND SHOVEL [1940]

Rushall Street [1822]
71, Lower Rushall Street [1858], [1860], [1865], [1896], [1901], [1904], [1908], [1911], [1912], [1932], [1939], [1940]
71+72, Lower Rushall Street [1861], [1868], [1870], [1871], [1872], [1881], [1891]

Samuel Tonks was also a shopkeeper. [1818]

Aris's Birmingham Gazette 11/9/1820 - Advert

“Thomas Wheeler respectfully informs his Friends and the Public in general, that, owing to Sir Joseph Scott's Steward not giving Possession of the Scott's Arms, he was under the Necessity of taking another House, which is known by the Sign of the MALT SHOVEL, situated in Rushall Street, Walsall, where he solicits the Support of his Friends and the Public in general.
Walsall, September 6, 1820.”

Wolverhampton Chronicle 14/9/1831

“The Coronation. The bells commenced ringing at a very early hour, and in the more advanced part of the day the members of the different lodges assembled in their respective rooms preparatory to joining in procession, in honour of the occasion.....

The following is a list of the Lodges which formed the procession, and the house at which they are held. They had seven banners waving, and were accompanied by an excellent band.

Senior Lodge of Odd Fellows – BULLS HEAD.

Grand Lodge of Modern Druids – BLACK BOY AND DRUIDS HEAD.

Odd Fellows – ROYAL OAK.

Queer Fellows – WATERING TROUGH.

Two Lodges from the WATERLOO TAVERN.

Loyal Union Fellows – SPREAD EAGLE.

Fellows of Support – TURKS HEAD.

Social Fellows – TALBOT INN.

True Hearted Fellows – MALT SHOVEL.

The procession extended in length to about a quarter of a mile. The unfavourable state of the weather prevented the attendance being more numerous.”

James Sheldon was also a maltster. [1834]

1851 Census

Lower Rushall Street

- [1] William Boden (30), publican and pipe maker, born Walsall;
- [2] Jane Boden (29), wife, born Walsall;
- [3] Sarah Jane Boden (5), daughter, born Walsall;
- [4] William Henry Boden (2), son, born Walsall;
- [5] Martha Stackhouse (19), house servant, born Pelsall;
- [6] Betsey Reynolds (16), house servant, born Wolverhampton;
- [7] Thomas Wadsworth (24), house servant, born Macclesfield, Cheshire;
- [8] Michael Murry (27), house servant, born Ireland;
- [9] William Allen (24), visitor, carter, born Walsall;
- [10] Thomas Mason (25), visitor, chainmaker, born Walsall;
- [11] Joseph Tilley (31), visitor, shovel maker, born Wolverhampton;
- [12] Sarah Tilley (28), visitor, born Wolverhampton;
- [13] Richard Jukes (41), servant, labourer, born Wales:

Staffordshire Advertiser 6/9/1851

“At the Guildhall, Walsall, on Wednesday last, before the Mayor and Arthur Adams, Esq, Mr. Thomas Hill, landlord of the CROWN retail beerhouse in The Square, was summoned by the police for keeping his house open for the sale of beer after the hour of eleven on the night of the 12th ultimo. James Smith, police-sergeant, stated about twelve o’clock on the night in question he visited defendant’s house, where he saw four persons seated in the parlour, one of whom was smoking; a glass was also standing on the table containing ale. Defendant stated, in reply, that very shortly before the police entered his house, a person named Boden, landlord of the MALT SHOVEL public house in Rushall Street, knocked at his door, and asked if a friend of his, who was with him, could remain there. While he was speaking, four other persons came in and asked for a quart of porter, but which was refused them; at this moment Boden quitted the house. The defendant called two witnesses in support of his statement, and the Bench dismissed the information. Mr. Armishaw, the police superintendent, stated that he had always found the house well conducted, and that it was in consequence of a communication made to him at the police station by Mr. Boden, that he sent two police officers to the house.”

Staffordshire Advertiser 5/2/1853

“On Saturday last, A. A. Fletcher, Esq, coroner, held an inquest at the sign of the MALT SHOVEL, Lower Rushall Street, on the body of a young girl, named Sarah Ann Metcalf, who expired the same morning from the injuries sustained by her clothes taking fire, during the absence from home of her mother, on the previous day. Verdict, Accidental Death.”

Staffordshire Advertiser 9/7/1853

“The following three publicans were, on Wednesday last, fined, the first two 10s each, and the last 20s, for selling during prohibited hours on the Sabbath. Mr. James Fisher, the MINERVA, Ablewell Street; Mr. James Ashwell, the KINGS HEAD, Caldmore; and Mr. John Ricketts, of the MALT SHOVEL, Lower Rushall Street.”

London Gazette 27/4/1858

“In the Matter of the Petition of James Lowbridge, now and for upwards of nine months last past of Lower Rushall-street, Walsall, in the county of Stafford, Licensed Victualler and Bridle Bit Maker, and Caster, previously thereto and for two years and upwards, of Bridgman-street, Walsall aforesaid, Bridle Bit Maker and Caster, and previously thereto of Stafford-street, Walsall aforesaid, Bridle Bit Maker only, an Insolvent Debtor.

Notice is hereby given, that the County Court of Staffordshire, at Walsall, acting in the matter of this Petition, will proceed to make a Final Order thereon, at the said Court, on the 13th day of May next, at ten o'clock in the forenoon precisely, unless cause be then and there shewn to the contrary."

Staffordshire Advertiser 21/8/1858

"James Lowbridge, landlord of the MALT SHOVEL public-house, Lower Rushall Street, was fined 10s and costs for having on Sunday last kept his house open for the sale of drink during prohibited hours."

Walsall Free Press 4/9/1858

"Brewster Sessions..... In the following cases the applications were suspended for further consideration.....

James Lowbridge, of the MALT SHOVEL, Lower Rushall Street, who had been twice convicted of a breach of license, namely, on the 26th of May last, on which occasion he was fined 10s and costs for having kept his house open for the sale of drink during prohibited hours, and again, on the 18th instant, when he was fined in the same amount for a similar offence."

Walsall Free Press 16/6/1860 - Advert

"BALAKLAVA TAVERN, Blue Lane, Walsall.

To Be Let, with immediate possession, the above first class Beerhouse has been successfully carried on by Mr. Randle, for the last five years, who has now taken the MALT SHOVEL INN, Lower Rushall Street....."

1861 Census

71-2, Lower Rushall Street – MALT SHOVEL INN

- [1] William Caulfield (35), licensed victualler, born Walsall;
- [2] Caroline Caulfield (31), wife, born Walsall;
- [3] George Caulfield (12), son, lockmaker's boy, born Walsall;
- [4] William Caulfield (10), son, scholar, born Walsall;
- [5] James Caulfield (7), son, scholar, born Walsall:

Walsall Free Press 7/6/1862 - Advert

"Tea Party And Ball will be held on Whit Monday, at Mr. Bednall's, MALT SHOVEL, Lower Rushall Street.

Mr. C. Gay, of Birmingham will perform upon Wheatson's Patent English Concertina.

Tea at Five o'clock; Tickets, now ready, 1s each."

Walsall Free Press 19/9/1863

"Walsall Wake.

A Ball and Concert will be held at the MALT SHOVEL TAVERN, Lower Rushall Street, September 21st and 22nd.

Admission Free.

Proprietor J. Bednall."

John Steel = John Steal

Walsall Free Press 16/7/1864 - Notice

"Mr. J. Steel, MALT SHOVEL, Lower Rushall Street, Begg to inform his Friends that the Sixteenth Anniversary of the Old Established Lodge of the Walsall Free and Independent Order of Odd Fellows will be held on Monday, July 25th.

It has a good Floating Capital and a reasonable Stock in the Bank. Most of the Members are under thirty years; and any person wishing to become a Member may do so on that day, by paying 3s Entrance (Dinner included). Hours of Admission, from Eleven to One o'clock. No Miners admitted. Dinner at Two o'clock.

There will be a Tea Party the same Afternoon, at Five o'clock, for the Members Wives and Friends. Tickets 1s each.

A Money Club Supper, will take place at Seven o'clock on Tuesday, when the Landlord will be glad to see as many of his Friends as can make it convenient to attend."

John Steel was also a saddler and harness maker. [1864], [1865]

Walsall Free Press 30/12/1865

"The landlord of the MALT SHOVEL, Lower Rushall Street, who was going to have a tea meeting, applied for leave to keep open during prohibited hours. Two hours granted."

London Gazette 16/2/1866

"John Steel, of the MALT SHOVEL, Lower Rushall-street, in the borough of Walsall, in the, county of Stafford, Licensed Victualler and Brown Saddler, having been adjudged bankrupt under a Petition for adjudication of bankruptcy, filed in the County Court of Staffordshire, holden at Walsall, on the 13th day of February, 1866, is hereby required to surrender himself to the Registrar of the said Court, at the first meeting of creditors to be held before the said Registrar, on the 27th day of February instant, at twelve of the clock at noon precisely, at the Court-house, Lichfield-street, Walsall. Mr. F. F. Clarke, of Walsall, is the Official Assignee, and Mr. Thomas John Robinson, of Birmingham, is the Solicitor acting in the bankruptcy."

Walsall Free Press 23/6/1866

“Michael Melville was charged with having, on Monday, the 11th inst, made use of threatening and abusive language to Mary Sheldon, for whom Mr. Sheldon (complainant’s brother), of Wednesbury, appeared.

From the evidence it seemed that, on the day in question, complainant went into the MALT SHOVEL, Lower Rushall Street, to collect the rent, and the defendant, who was there, after making use of some obscene language threatened to kill her, and rushed at her to strike her, but was prevented by some parties who were present.

The defendant called Ellen Keller, a married woman, whose husband is not in this country, and who lodges with defendant, said the complainant pushed the defendant over the fender, and said that if she were a man instead of a woman she would give it him for the language he had used to her.

On cross-examination, defendant said that she left her husband about three weeks ago in Ireland, and that defendant got off his seat to hear what complainant was saying. On being pressed, she admitted that she and another woman prevented the defendant striking complainant.

The Bench, after hearing the evidence, bound the defendant over to keep the peace for six months – himself in £5, and one surety in £5.”

Samuel Ricketts was also a baker. [1868], [1870]

1871 Census

71+72, Lower Rushall Street – MALT SHOVEL INN

[1] James Ricketts (35), baker and publican, born Great Anle [Great Alne?], Warwickshire;

[2] Susannah Ricketts (32), wife, born Winchcombe, Gloucestershire;

[3] Sarah J. Ricketts (11), daughter, scholar, born Birmingham;

[4] Lucy Clara Ricketts (10), daughter, scholar, born Birmingham;

[5] James A. Ricketts (8), son, scholar, born Birmingham;

[6] Mary Ann Ricketts (5), daughter, scholar, born Walsall;

[7] Emily F. Ricketts (3), daughter, scholar, born Walsall;

[8] Ada A. Ricketts (1), daughter, born Walsall;

[9] Caroline Nicholds (17), general servant, born Walsall Wood;

[10] Walter Symes (26), boarder, baker, born Taunton;

[11] Ellen Symes (24), boarder’s wife, born Birmingham;

[12] Emily Symes (4), boarder’s daughter, scholar, born Walsall;

[13] William Symes (3), boarder’s son, scholar, born Walsall;

[14] Ada Symes (1), boarder’s daughter, born Walsall:

James Ricketts, beer retailer and baker, 71 & 72 Lower Rushall Street. [1872]

James Ricketts was fined £1 and costs, on 4th April 1877, for Sunday trading.

1881 Census

71+72, Lower Rushall Street

[1] James Ricketts (45), baker and licensed victualler, born Walsall;

[2] Lucy C. Ricketts (42), wife, born Walsall;

[3] James A. Ricketts (18), son, baker, born Walsall;

[4] Mary A. Ricketts (15), daughter, scholar, born Walsall;

[5] Emily F. Ricketts (13), daughter, scholar, born Walsall;

[6] Ada A. Ricketts (11), daughter, scholar, born Walsall;

[7] Priscilla C. Ricketts (5), daughter, scholar, born Walsall;

[8] Fanny Taylor (16), boarder, scholar, born Walsall:

1891 Census

71+72, Lower Rushall Street – MALT SHOVEL

[1] Arthur Beebee (40), harness manufacturer, born Walsall;

[2] Sarah Beebee (41), wife, licensed victualler, born Walsall;

[3] Harry Beebee (19), son, harness maker, born Walsall;

[4] Howard Beebee (18), son, currier, born Walsall;

[5] Sydney Beebee (16), son, butcher, born Walsall;

[6] Alice Beebee (14), daughter, scholar, born Walsall;

[7] Agnes Beebee (11), daughter, scholar, born Walsall;

[8] Arthur Beebee (7), son, scholar, born Walsall;

[9] Helen Bates (21), general domestic servant, born Walsall;

[10] Abraham Taylor (38), visitor, butcher, born Dudley:

Walsall Advertiser 22/5/1897

“At the Rushall Police Court on Monday, Agnes Beebee, of the MALT SHOVEL INN, Rushall Street, Walsall, was summoned for having allowed a dog to be at large without muzzle or collar.

Police-constable 242 (Bailey) said that on the 2nd inst. he saw the defendant with a dog in Bosty Lane, Aldridge. He drew her attention to the fact that the dog had neither collar nor muzzle, and she said she was very sorry. Ordered to pay 5s 6d costs.”

Walsall Advertiser 13/8/1898 - Deaths

“On the 10th inst, at the MALT SHOVEL, Lower Rushall Street, Sarah, beloved wife of Arthur Beebee, aged 48.”

Walsall Advertiser 31/12/1898

“Arthur Beebee, landlord of the MALT SHOVEL INN, Lower Rushall Street, was summoned for keeping open his house during prohibited hours on the 24th inst; and Thomas Russon, of the OLD DOG INN, Pool Street, was summoned for a like offence on the 21st December.

Chief Constable Taylor said he had brought the cases as a warning, as there was a growing habit amongst the licensed victuallers of the town of selling right up to closing time, the consequences being that they did not close their houses till after 11 o’clock. About a week ago a publican who was cautioned remarked that he did not think it was so late, as the policeman on the beat had not cautioned him. If publicans thought policemen were going to conduct publican’s business they were very much mistaken. Mr. H. H. Jackson, who appeared for the defence, instructed by the Licensed Victuallers’ Association, said with regard to Beebee’s case that on Christmas Eve the defendant had about 100 people in his house, and had a difficulty in getting the house cleared. The selling portion, however, was closed at 11 o’clock, but as it took him some time to clear the house, it was not cleared at 11 o’clock. He had pointed out to the defendant that the house must be cleared by the time mentioned, and defendant had promised to see that this was done in future.

The case was withdrawn.”

Lichfield Mercury 21/4/1899 - Marriage

“On the 17th inst, at Shenstone Parish Church, Agnes Fannie Harvey, daughter of Mrs. Berrisford Fox, Fox and Hounds Inn, to Arthur Beebee, of the MALT SHOVEL INN, Walsall.”

Arthur Beebee was elected as a member of the Walsall and District Licensed Victuallers’ and Beer Retailers’ Friendly and Protection Society in June 1900.

1901 Census

71, Lower Rushall Street

- [1] Arthur Beebee (50), licensed victualler, born Walsall;
- [2] Agnes Beebee (39), wife, born Barton, Staffordshire;
- [3] Arthur Beebee (17), son, iron caster, born Walsall;
- [4] Lizzie Jellings (22), cook, born Middleton, Warwickshire;
- [5] Lilian Walker (13), general servant, born Staffordshire:

Walsall Advertiser 11/6/1904 - Advert

“MALT SHOVEL INN, Lower Rushall Street, Walsall.

Important Sale Of A Fully Licensed Inn.

Messrs. Thomas Harford & Son are favoured with instructions to Sell by Public Auction, on Monday, June 20th, 1904, at the STORK INN, Walsall, at 7.30 in the evening prompt (subject to conditions then to be produced), the Fully Licensed Inn and Two Freehold Houses adjoining.

Lot 1. Two Freehold Dwelling-Houses, with Outbuildings thereto belonging, being Nos.69 and 70, Lower Rushall Street, Walsall, now in the occupation of Messrs. Downing and Warner, at rentals amounting to £28 16s per annum.

Lot 2. The Very important Fully-Licensed Inn, known as the MALT SHOVEL INN, No.71, Lower Rushall Street, Walsall, having a frontage of 13 yards, and containing four Bedrooms, Drawing Room, Bar Parlour, Kitchen, Scullery (with room over), three Cellars (with rolling way), a large enclosed Yard at the rear, and Cart Entrance from Rushall Street, now in the occupation of Mr. Arthur Beebee, on a lease which expires on the 24th of June, 1907, at a rental of £50 per annum.

Remarks. This fully-licensed Inn is situate in a thickly-populated district, and commands a good indoor and outdoor trade. The auctioneers have every confidence in recommending this noted licensed inn to Maltsters, Brewers, and others in search of a really good free house.

For further particulars, apply to Messrs. Rankin & Miller, Solicitors, 319, High Street, West Bromwich; to Messrs. Field & Mes-siter, Solicitors, Wednesbury; or to the Auctioneers, Junction Chambers, 33, Carters Green, West Bromwich.”

Walsall Advertiser 25/5/1905 - Advert

“A. Beebee’s Noted Home Brewed Ales.

Brewery – Sandwell St., Walsall.

Houses.....

MALT SHOVEL, Lower Rushall Street, Walsall.”

Walsall Advertiser 3/2/1906

“There was not nearly the intense public interest in the annual licensing meeting for the borough of Walsall on Thursday, at the Guildhall, as was the case during the past two or three years, for instead of the court room being densely crowded and a vast through clamouring for admission in the entrance corridor and on the footpath outside, chiefly holders of licenses and others intimately connected with the trade, the court, though well filled, was evidently large enough to accommodate all who wished to attend.....

Mr. W. J. Pearman-Smith next applied for the approval of the plans for the alteration of the MALT SHOVEL, Lower Rushall Street. These would result in the removal of three bay windows on the ground floor which projected on the footpath. Just at the spot the footpath was a narrow one. It was proposed to put in new windows which would be flat, and that would make the footpath some two feet wider at the spot. The plans met with the approval of the Streets Committee who were very thankful for the improvement and the concession which the owner made in giving up the sites of three bay windows without any cost to the town. The Chairman: What about the steps to the front door? – Mr. Pearman-Smith: One will be away.

Mr. Loxton said the magistrates had adjourned all the plans, and proposed to visit the houses next Wednesday. They would be glad if the architects would accompany them.”

Walsall Advertiser 24/2/1906

“Yesterday the adjourned licensing sessions were held at the Guildhall.....

Several applications for the approval of plans for alterations, had been deferred from the annual licensing meeting for the magistrates to visit the premises. The Bench decided as under.....

The application as to the MALT SHOVEL, Lower Rushall Street, was again adjourned.”

Walsall Advertiser 3/10/1908

“The following licenses were transferred.....

MALT SHOVEL, Lower Rushall Street, from Charles John Edwards to Thomas Clow.....

Regarding the transfers of the licenses of the MALT SHOVEL and the STORK HOTEL, Sir Edward Holden said there had been many changes recently, and the magistrates would like to have an explanation why these licenses had been transferred.

Mr. Pearman-Smith said that in the case of the MALT SHOVEL there were satisfactory reasons why the licenses had twice been transferred, but the reasons were of a private nature.

Mr. Richardson (representing Messrs. Showell and Sons) said that with respect to the STORK HOTEL the late manager, Mr. Hazellhurst, had left because he had obtained a better situation in Liverpool. Granted.”

Walsall Advertiser 5/2/1910

“The annual Brewster Sessions for the borough of Walsall were opened at the Guildhall, on Wednesday.....

Notice of objection (compensation clause or otherwise) had been served in respect to the following houses.....

The owners of the MALT SHOVEL, Lower Rushall Street, Mr. Arthur Beebee, and the licensee, William John Baker, were represented by Mr. Pearman-Smith.

Chief-inspector Ballance stated that in Lower Rushall Street there were six alehouses and two beer-houses, and the population was 360 persons over sixteen and 194 under sixteen.

Cross-examined: Structurally, the house was in good order, and there was no difficulty about police supervision.

Mr. Pearman-Smith said the average yearly trade for the past three years was 666 barrels, and W. John Baker, manager, stated in evidence that for the past ten weeks his takings had averaged from £28 to £30.

Mr. Loxton: Do you give the long pull? – Witness: I give imperial measures and allow a dash for the froth.

Mr. Loxton: It has been called a dash, and it has been called the froth.

Mr. Pearman-Smith pointed out that about three years ago £350 was spent on the house, which was renovated throughout and fitted with electric light. The trade was a legitimately good one, and it was being done under respectable circumstances.”

Walsall Advertiser 26/2/1910

“The adjourned Licensing Sessions were held on Friday, when Sir Edward Holden presided.....

The ACORN, MALT SHOVEL, and WHITE ROSE, Lower Rushall Street, MANDAMUS ARMS, Stafford Street, and the SHINGLERS ARMS, Birchills were referred for compensation.”

Walsall Advertiser 14/5/1910

“The Licensing Act, 1904.

Notice of Principal Meeting. County Borough of Walsall.

Notice is Hereby Given, that the Principal Meeting to be held pursuant to the Licensing Rules, 1904, by the Compensation Authority for the above area, will be held at the Guildhall, Walsall, on Tuesday, the 7th day of June, 1910, at 11 o'clock in the forenoon.....

List of Licensed Premises.....

MALT SHOVEL, Lower Rushall Street. Alehouse. Licensee William John Baker.”

Walsall Advertiser 10/9/1910 - Advert

“A. Beebee's Noted Home-Brewed Ales.

Brewery – Sandwell Street, Walsall.

Houses.....

MALT SHOVEL, Lower Rushall Street, Walsall.”

Walsall Advertiser 4/2/1911

“The annual general licensing sessions for the borough of Walsall was held at the Guildhall yesterday.....
Transfer Applications.....
MALT SHOVEL, Lower Rushall Street, to Minnie Baker (executrix of William John Baker.)”

1911 Census

71, Lower Rushall Street

- [1] George Edward Evans (39), manager, born Walsall;
- [2] Emily Jane Evans (40), wife, married 12 years, assisting in business, born Walsall;
- [3] Ellen Agnes Evans (11), daughter, school, born Walsall;
- [4] George Edward Evans (6), son, school, born Walsall;
- [5] Edith Monica Evans (3), daughter, home, born Walsall;
- [6] Lydia Davis (16), general servant, born Bloxwich:

Arthur George Saunders – see also WHITE HORSE.

Walsall Observer 21/11/1914

“The following is a list of box collections to date made on behalf of the Prince of Wales’ National Relief Fund (Walsall Branch).....
MALT SHOVEL, Lower Rushall Street, Walsall, 3s 7d.”

Walsall Observer 19/12/1914

“Private George Clow (22), of Teddesley Street, now invalided home, states that while he and other comrades of the 2nd South Staffords were in the trenches at Ypres preparing breakfast and opening tins of bully beef, shells began to drop all round. ‘They came over,’ he says, ‘six at a time from a German quick firing battery about 400 yards away, and a number of us, including myself, were wounded.’ But this was not the end of his exciting experiences, for when travelling with other wounded down to the hospital, the enemy shelled and demolished portions of the tram, killing five or six and further wounding many more. He confesses it is painful to recall many of the horrors he witnessed. Days and nights, he says, they marched on with very little rest during the retreat from Mons; he spent eighteen days in the trenches at Aisne, and took part in five bayonet charges. When he left the Belgium fighting area, the enemy’s artillery, he says, were blowing the beautiful old town of Ypres to pieces. Private Clow was a barman in Birmingham, before he enlisted, two years ago. His father, Sergeant Thomas Clow, served 27 years with the South Staffords, and saw active service in the Egyptian and South African Campaigns. Formerly the licensee of the MALT SHOVEL INN, Lower Rushall Street, he was employed at Messrs. Stokes’, Hatherton Street, when war broke out, and has since re-enlisted in the Staffords.”

Walsall Observer 12/1/1918

“Walsall and District War Aid Committee. Collection By The Licensed Victuallers, December, 1917.....
MALT SHOVEL, Lower Rushall Street. £0 14s 4d.”

Walsall Observer 5/4/1924

“As a result of recent negotiations, the freehold licensed properties belonging to Messrs. Arthur Beebee Ltd, which include the DURHAM OX, Park Street; OLD STILL, Digbeth; THREE CROWNS, Sutton Road; Red Lion, Aldridge; MALT SHOVEL, Lower Rushall Street; GOLDEN LION, Birchills Street; the off license, 6, Camden Street; the brewery in Sandwell Street; and the lease of the FOX INN, Stafford Street, have been sold to the Highgate Brewing Co. Ltd, through Messrs. Fox and Harrison, FAI, of Walsall.”

Walsall Observer 29/7/1939

“More than fifty licensed premises in Walsall and neighbouring place become Mitchells and Butlers houses this week as a result of the well-known Cape Hill brewery company’s acquisition of the whole of the undertakings of the Highgate-Walsall Brewery Co. Ltd., and the Walsall Breweries Proprietary Ltd., and of all the licensed and certain un-licensed properties of Messrs. John Lord, brewers, of Short Acre.....

A list of the licensed premises that form part of the properties acquired by Mitchells and Butlers is as follows.....

Highgate houses.....

MALT SHOVEL, Lower Rushall Street.”

1939 Register

71, Lower Rushall Street

- [1] Harriett Davies, date of birth 12/3/1884, licensee, widowed;
- [2] Joseph Davies, dob 14/5/1907, final inspector (aero), single;
- [3] Florrie Mason, dob 10/4/1909, tailor’s machinist, married;
- [4] Sydney Mason, dob 16/4/1907, motor driver, married:

Walsall Observer 19/10/1940

“‘In the opinion of the Housing Committee and the Public Works Committee, this is a very satisfactory arrangement for dealing with this area,’ said Councillor Whiston, on whose motion the Council approved an arrangement for the purchase, for £450 and costs, of the freehold premises known as the OLD KINGS ARMS, Lower Rushall Street, the conveyance of the premises known as the MALT SHOVEL, Lower Rushall Street, and the site of the OLD KINGS ARMS; and the conveyance by the Corporation to the Highgate (Walsall) Brewery Co, Ltd, of a site at the junction of Lower Rushall Street and Holtshill Lane, on which the brewery company will undertake to erect a new public house as soon as materials are available and a license to build has been obtained. The arrangement also provides for payment by the Corporation to the brewery company of £700 by way of compensation, plus thirty guineas towards the company's costs, payment to be deferred pending loan sanction and interest to be paid by the Corporation in the meantime at 4 per cent."

Walsall Observer 24/12/1942

"Walsall Licensed Victuallers' Society. The Duke of Gloucester's Red Cross Fund. List of Subscriptions.....
MALT SHOVEL, Lower Rushall Street. £1 4s 0d."

Walsall Observer 15/1/1944

"Walsall Licensed Victuallers' Society.

Appeal on Behalf of the Merchant Navy Fund, The Duke of Gloucester's Red Cross Fund and the Aid to China Fund. List of Subscriptions.....

MALT SHOVEL, Lower Rushall Street. £1 2s 0d."

Arthur Middlebrook – see also BAKERS ARMS.

Closed

Demolished

MANCHESTER ARMS

31, Stafford Street, WALSALL

OWNERS

Thomas Lancaster, butcher, 28, Stafford Street (later at Westbourne Road)

Thomas Lancaster Nelson, Terrace Green Lane, Walsall

Cheshire's Brewery Co. Ltd. (leased)

Miss Rosaline Lancaster, Lichfield Street, Walsall

LICENSEES

James Haywood [1868] – [1870]

Samuel Brown [1870] – 1872);

Joseph Fisher (1872 – [];

Stephen Griffin [];

William Stanton [1881] – 1895);

Herbert Tuckley (1895 – 1896);

Harry Taylor (1896 – 1901);

Eliza Taylor [1901] ?

Charles Edward Holmes (1901 – 1903);

George Henry Pilkington (1903 – 1904);

Mrs. Elizabeth Pilkington (1904 – 1908);

Edward Thomas Taylor (1908 – 1909);

William Mitchell (1909):

NOTES

MANCHESTER HOUSE [1872]

It had an ante 1869 beerhouse license.

James Haywood, beer retailer, 31 Stafford Street. [1868], [1870]

Birmingham Daily Gazette 8/7/1870

“Wm. Smith, baker, was charged with having wilfully broken a pane of glass, valued £4 10s, the property of Samuel Brown, beerhouse keeper, Stafford Street. Prisoner, it appeared, on being ejected from complainant’s beerhouse, smashed the window. Ordered to pay the amount of the damage, £4 10s, and fine of £2 and costs, or in default to be imprisoned for two months.”

1871 Census

31, Stafford Street

- [1] Samuel Brown (41), beerhouse keeper, born Bescot;
- [2] Elizabeth Brown (33), wife, born Boston, Lincolnshire;
- [3] Mary Jones (14), general servant, born West Bromwich:

Walsall Free Press 11/11/1871

“Charles Sleigh was summoned for being drunk and refusing to quit the MANCHESTER ARMS, Stafford Street, when requested to do so, on the 1st inst. Defendant was likewise charged with assaulting the landlord, Samuel Brown. Fined 5s and costs for each offence. Mr. Glover prosecuted.”

Samuel Brown, beer retailer, 31 Stafford Street. [1872]

1881 Census

31, Stafford Street

- [1] William Stanton (56), publican, born Birmingham;
 - [2] Jane Stanton (57), wife, born Needwood Forest;
 - [3] William Stanton (32), son, widower, tinner, born Walsall;
 - [4] Eliza Stanton (23), daughter, bridle stitcher, born Walsall;
 - [5] Ellen Stanton (19), daughter, bridle stitcher, born Walsall;
 - [6] Ephraim Stanton (16), son, silver plater, born Walsall;
 - [7] Harry Stanton (13), son, pupil teacher, born Walsall;
 - [8] Alice Stanton (11), daughter, scholar, born Walsall;
 - [9] Jerald Stanton (6), son, scholar, born Walsall:
- [Needwood Forest is a forest in Staffordshire.]

1891 Census

31, Stafford Street

- [1] William Stanton (66), beerhouse keeper, born Birmingham;
- [2] Jane Stanton (67), wife, born Burton, Staffordshire;
- [3] Ephraim Stanton (26), son, mechanical engineer, born Walsall;
- [4] Harry Stanton (23), son, time keeper, born Walsall;
- [5] Alice Stanton (21), daughter, tailoress, born Walsall:

Walsall Advertiser 7/9/1895

“Samuel Tottey (26), a bit filer, Old Birchills, was placed in the dock on two charges of larceny. The first one investigated was that in which he was charged with having stolen 7s 8d from a public house till.

Herbert Tuckley, landlord of the MANCHESTER ARMS, Stafford Street, said that on Tuesday, the 27th ult, he left the bar for about five minutes. He then heard a noise as of someone counting coppers, and on looking through a small window he saw prisoner leaning over the bar with his hand in the till. Witness went round to the front to meet him as he left, and asked him to turn out the money he had taken. He said, ‘I’ve only got a shilling,’ but witness’s wife, after looking in the drawer, said that he had taken all the silver, of which there had been about 10s worth. Witness again asked him for the rest, and he gave him a half-crown, a shilling, and a sixpence. Witness again asked him for the rest, and he gave him a florin and eightpence in coppers.

Detective Williams said at 6pm on August 27th he arrested prisoner on another charge, and took him down to the cell. He asked for a piece of paper and a pencil, and later in the evening handed the Chief Constable the paper, on which he had written a statement to the effect that after a day’s drinking with a friend the latter had taken the money from prosecutor’s till, and had then sent him back for a shilling which he said he had left. Prosecutor caught him, and he had to give all the money he had, which was 7s 8d more than he took.

The second charge against prisoner was then gone into – namely, breaking and entering a dwelling-house, and stealing therefrom a silver watch, value £2 5s, the property of Edward Tuft, engine fitter, 4, Birchills.

Prosecutor said that at four o’clock on the 26th August he left his house. On his return the watch, which he had placed in the kitchen was missing. Both the doors were locked as he left them. The keys produced were those of the prisoner’s house, but witness had tried them in his own lock, and found them to fit.

Prosecutor’s wife gave similar evidence.

Charles Haywood, 2, Somerville Place, Wolverhampton, manager to a Wolverhampton pawnbroker, said that the watch and chain produced were pledged with him on the morning of the 27th August. Prisoner was not the man who pawned them. He was advanced 15s on them.

Detective Williams stated that having received information of the robbery on the morning of the 27th August, he visited the premises but found no trace of forcible entry having been made. Prisoner was arrested on another charge, and he then cautioned him, and charged him with having stolen the watch and chain produced. He replied ‘Yes. But why don’t you fetch —— (mentioning another man). He's as bad as me. We went to Wolverhampton and pawned it.' Subsequently he wrote out a confession admitting that he and the other man had stolen and pawned the watch. He received the keys produced from prisoner's wife, and found they both unlocked and locked the prosecutor's front door. Prisoner had appeared anxious to give every information since his arrest. He was committed to the Sessions on both charges, bail being allowed himself in £10, with two sureties of £5 each. Prisoner's father was accepted as surety for the whole amount."

[At the Walsall Quarter Sessions, in October 1895, Samuel Totty, who had two previous convictions, was sentenced to six months' hard labour.]

Walsall Advertiser 23/1/1895

"Thomas Burns (26), a respectable looking labourer, who trembled in the dock as though on his trial for murder, was charged with having on the previous day solicited alms in Stafford Street. Police-constable Brennon said he was called to the MANCHESTER ARMS, where landlord (Herbert Tuckley) gave prisoner into custody for begging. Mr. Tuckley did not appear but Burns admitted the charge. He declared he had a job to go to that morning, and was only seeking the last copper towards his lodgings when arrested. He was discharged on promising not to offend again."

William Stanton, beer retailer, 31, Stafford Street. [1896]

1901 Census

31, Stafford Street

[1] Harry Taylor (37), born Walsall;
[2] Eliza Taylor (39), wife, publican, born Walsall;
[3] Annie Taylor (6), daughter, born Walsall;
[4] Elsie Mary Taylor (2), daughter, born Walsall:
[Harry Taylor held the license.]

George Henry Pilkington = Henry George Pilkington

George Henry Pilkington, beer retailer, 31, Stafford Street. [1904]

Walsall Advertiser 6/2/1904

"The annual licensing sessions for the Borough of Walsall were held on Thursday at the Guildhall, and aroused considerable interest. The court was crowded, and many license-holders were unable to obtain admission.... Notice had been given to 76 license holders to show cause for the renewal of their licenses, evidently as a result of the visits of a sub-committee of magistrates to the licensed premises, the reasons why cause had to be shown being various.... George Henry Pilkington, occupier of the MANCHESTER ARMS, Stafford Street, was represented by Mr. H. H. Jackson. The question was as to the condition of the premises, and Mr. Pilkington was cross-examined by Mr. Loxton on these points. Replying further to Mr. Loxton, Pilkington said there was a sick and dividend club at his house, the members paid 3d a week. The members paid the secretary, and he (Pilkington) was only treasurer. Mr. Loxton: I should think that's the best thing in a club, isn't it (laughter)? Mr. Jackson objected to the question as to clubs being introduced as it was not on the notice. Referred to the adjourned sessions, objections to be laid that the house was not required, not structurally adapted to the needs of the locality, and that the tenant did not occupy the premises of proper value."

Walsall Advertiser 5/3/1904

"The adjourned annual brewster session were held on Tuesday.... George Holden [see CROWN AND MALT SHOVEL], the well-known ex-pugilist, was called to prove that the MANCHESTER ARMS was an ante '69 license. He said he was reared in the next yard, and knew it as an 'on' license all his life. Mr. Jackson: And I hope it will never be off (laughter). License renewed."

Walsall Advertiser 6/8/1904

"On Tuesday, the Deputy Borough Coroner (Mr. H. H. Jackson) held an inquest respecting the death of Henry George Pilkington (40), currier, and landlord of the MANCHESTER ARMS beerhouse, Stafford Street, whose body was found on Sunday in the canal near the Aldridge Road. Evidence was given that during the last six months deceased had been drinking to excess, and frequently complained of pains in his head. He had never threatened to destroy his life. On Saturday he followed his employment as a currier up to midday, when he returned home, ate a hearty dinner and drank three pints of ale. He wanted more, but his wife, noticing he appeared strange, refused to supply him, and eventually he left home ostensibly to go to the North Walsall Bowling Club. He was not seen again alive. The body was found by a man who was trolling for pike in the canal. The water, it was stated, was not more than 5ft deep. A verdict of Suicide during Temporary Insanity was returned."

The license renewal was referred to the Compensation Authority on 3rd February 1909.

Walsall Advertiser 22/5/1909

“The Licensing Act, 1904.

Notice of Principal Meeting. County Borough of Walsall.

Notice is Hereby Given, that the Principal Meeting to be held pursuant to the Licensing Rules, 1904, by the Compensation Authority for the above area, will be held at the Guildhall, Walsall, on Tuesday, the 8th day of June, 1909, at 11 o'clock in the forenoon.....

List of Licensed Premises.....

MANCHESTER ARMS, Beerhouse. Licensees, Edward T. Taylor & William Mitchell.”

Walsall Advertiser 12/6/1909

“The principal meeting of the Walsall Compensation Authority was held at the Guildhall on Tuesday, when eight beer-houses and one ale-house, the licenses of which had been referred by the licensing justices, were dealt with, and in each instance the houses were referred for compensation, which means in due course the houses will close.....

MANCHESTER ARMS, Stafford Street. The parties interested in the beer-house, are Mrs. Rosanna Lancaster (owner), Messrs. Cheshire Brewery Company, Limited (lessees), Edward T. Taylor (tenant), and William Mitchell, previous (?) tenant. Mr. Enoch Evans represented Messrs. Lancaster and Mitchell, and Mr. Darby, West Bromwich, the brewery company and Taylor.

Mr. Evans said he could not see how Taylor was entitled to come in for compensation seeing the that license was referred when he went in. So far as the owner was concerned her loss would be a great one inasmuch as the house was let on a repairing lease, and she received £50 rental practically clear, and he asked the Bench to deal generously with the owner.

Mr. Darby had no objection to the justices dealing generously with the owner providing it was not at the expense of his client. His friends appeal seemed to be that the whole of the compensation should go to the owner.

Mr. Evans: I have never suggested anything of the kind.

Mr. Darby said the house was let on lease and there must be a fair division of the compensation money.....

The Bench having heard each case separately retired to consider their decision. In returning, the Mayor intimated that the renewals authority report would be adopted, and all the houses referred for compensation.”

Walsall Advertiser 28/8/1909

“A meeting of the Walsall Compensation Authority was held at the Guildhall, on Thursday, Sir Edward T. Holden presiding over a full Bench of Magistrates.....

In the case of the MANCHESTER ARMS, Stafford Street, Mr. F. Cooper, represented Miss R. Lancaster, and Mr. E. T. Taylor, the late tenant. An argument ensued in this case as to whether the late tenant was entitled to any compensation, it being contended by Mr. Taylor himself, on oath, that he had lost about £40 owing to the house being put on the compensation list.

Mr. Millerchip, of West Bromwich, who appeared for the Cheshires Brewery Co, contended that the late tenant was not entitled to any allowance, because he left on his own accord in April, whereas the house was not referred to compensation until June.....

The Magistrates decided to hold a further private sitting to go into the question of figures with the solicitors.

The decisions will be announced at a later date.”

Closed

The building was used by the Walsall Horse Collar Co. [1896]?

MANDAMUS

75, Stafford Street, WALSALL

OWNERS

Joseph Whitehouse

Charles James Whitehouse

Emily Whitehouse

George Whitehouse and Mrs. Hirst

Bloxwich Brewery Co. (leased)

LICENSEES

Joseph Whitehouse [1861] – [1872];

Charles James Whitehouse [];

Mrs. Emily Whitehouse [1881]

William Whitehouse [1889] – 1890;

Emily Whitehouse (1890);

William Ginder (1890 – 1891);

Charles Ernest Whitehouse (1891 – 1894);
John Patrick McNally (1894 – 1896);
Maynard Ball (1896 – 1899);
William Hugh Lawrence (1899 – 1903);
Mrs. Kate Lawrence (1903 – 1904);
John William Chapman (1904 – 1905);
Francis George Barnfield (1905 – 1908);
Alfred Kendrick (1908);
Charles Walton (1908 – 1909);
Patrick McTighe (1909 – 1910): manager

NOTES

It was originally an unnamed alehouse.

It was known as the STORES. [1892]

It was renamed the MANDAMUS [1894]

It had a six-day license.

1861 Census

75, Stafford Street

- [1] Joseph Whitehouse (45), wine merchant and maltster, born Walsall;
- [2] Mary B. Whitehouse (46), wife, born Darlaston;
- [3] Charles J. Whitehouse (19), son, clerk to Mrs. Marchant, born Walsall;
- [4] Frederick Whitehouse (18), son, apprentice to Saddlers' Company, born Walsall;
- [5] Clara Whitehouse (9), daughter, born Walsall;
- [6] George Whitehouse (7), son, born Walsall;
- [7] Agnes Pearson (24), general servant, born West Bromwich:

1871 Census

75, Stafford Street

- [1] Joseph Whitehouse (55), maltster, born Walsall;
- [2] Mary Whitehouse (56), wife, born Darlaston;
- [3] Frederick J. Whitehouse (28), saddlers' ironmonger, born Walsall;
- [4] Clara Whitehouse (19), daughter, born Walsall;
- [5] George Whitehouse (17), son, born Walsall;
- [6] Agnes Morrison (30), general servant, born West Bromwich:

Emily Whitehouse married William Whitehouse.

1881 Census

75, Stafford Street

- [1] Emily Whitehouse (35), married, wine merchant, born Walsall;
- [2] Florence Whitehouse (9), daughter, scholar, born Walsall;
- [3] Emily Whitehouse (7), daughter, scholar, born Walsall;
- [4] Sidney Whitehouse (5), son, scholar, born Walsall;
- [5] Eliza Tollett (27), barmaid, born Walsall;
- [6] Mary Round (29), domestic servant, born Walsall:

Emily Whitehouse was fined 20s and costs, on 13th June 1889, for permitting drunkenness.

William Ginder = William Ginders

1891 Census

75, Stafford Street

- [1] William Ginder (33), publican, born Walsall;
- [2] Leah Ginder (34), wife, born Hill Top, Staffordshire;
- [3] Florie Ginder (3), daughter, born Walsall;
- [4] William Ginder (12), son, scholar, born Walsall:

Walsall Advertiser 1/12/1894

“Edward Burns, of Farrington Street, and Ellen Mannion, of 5 court, Short Acre Street were summoned for having been disorderly and refusing to quit the STORES INN, Stafford Street. The landlord, John Patrick McNally, proved the case, but said he did not wish to press the charge if the defendants would give an undertaking not to enter his premises again. They did this, and were placed on their good behaviour for a month.”

Walsall Advertiser 22/12/1894

“The monthly meeting of the Walsall and District Licensed Victuallers’ Society was held on Thursday.....
New Members..... Mr. John Patrick McNally, MANDAMUS INN, Short Acre Street.”

Walsall Advertiser 3/12/1898

“Maynard Ball, landlord of the MANDAMUS INN, Stafford Street, and George Wyre, 42, Bloxwich Road, were summoned for assaulting William Degwell, of 2, Whitehouse Street; and Degwell also was summoned for assaulting Elizabeth Ball, wife of Maynard Ball. Mr. H. H. Jackson appeared for Ball and Wyre.

Complainant’s case was that a dispute occurred respecting the raffling of a watch, and that he was knocked down by the two defendants, and kicked till he was covered in blood, and he had a lump on his forehead a big as an egg.

The defence was that Ball received sufficient provocation to justify him striking William Degwell. Ball refused to supply Tom Degwell, William’s brother, with something to drink. William Degwell shortly afterwards assaulted Mrs. Ball by striking her in the face, and used the most disgusting language. Thereupon Ball knocked William Degwell down. As to Wyre he never struck a blow. In answer to Mr. Loxton (magistrates’ clerk) Ball admitted he struck William Degwell while the latter was on the floor. The Bench dismissed the case.”

1901 Census

75, Stafford Street – MANDAMUS INN

- [1] William Hugh Lawrence (37), licensed victualler and brewer, born Willenhall;
- [2] Kate Lawrence (38), wife, born Brierley Hill;
- [3] Clara Lawrence (11), daughter, born Willenhall;
- [4] Kathleen Lawrence (5), daughter, born Willenhall;
- [5] Sarah Ann Winfield (21), general servant, born Wood End, near Wolverhampton:

Walsall Advertiser 1/8/1903

“A number of applications were made for the transfer of licences, and as there were no objections all were granted.....
MANDAMUS INN, Stafford Street, Kate Lawrence (administratrix of the estate of William Hugh Lawrence, deceased) to Kate Lawrence.”

Walsall Advertiser 13/8/1904

“The fifty-second annual general meeting of the Walsall and District Licensed Victuallers’ and Beer Retailers’ Friendly and Protection Society was held on Thursday at the ROYAL EXCHANGE, Ablewell Street.....
New Members..... Mr. John William Chapman, MANDAMUS INN, Stafford Street.”

Walsall Advertiser 5/8/1905

“On Thursday morning Mr. H. H. Jackson (deputy coroner) held an inquest at the MANDAMUS INN, Stafford Street, on the body of Florence Elizabeth Edwards, aged 13 months, the daughter of Vincent Edwards, carter, 1 Short Acre.

The evidence showed the deceased was seized with diarrhoea and sickness at 2.30 Monday morning, and died before the services of a medical man could be procured. The deceased had been insured but owing to her father being out of work the policy had lapsed.

Dr. O’Meara said he was called to see the deceased about 5.45am, and found her dead, the cause of death being exhaustion following acute diarrhoea.

The coroner said the mother appeared to have done all she could, but might not have been able to give the child sufficient nourishment.

A verdict of Natural Causes was returned.”

Walsall Advertiser 19/8/1905 - Advert

“Unreserved Sale of Brewing Plants and Public-House Fixtures & Fittings removed from the NAGS HEAD, Ablewell Street, and the STORES, Rushall Street.

Messrs. Watkins, Powell, & Wood, will Sell by Auction, on Thursday Next, August 24th, 1905, in the Yard at the rear of the MANDAMUS INN, Stafford Street, Walsall, the Public-House Fixtures & Brewing Plant, comprising Mahogany Frame Upholstered Seating, Mahogany-case Beer Machine and Piping, Cross Leg, Deal and Mahogany-top Tables, Table Tops and Trestles, Benches, Counters, Mirrors, Bar Fittings, Match Boarding, Spirit Jars and Measures, Refrigerators, Coolers, Copper Boilers, Barrel Thralls, Gas Fittings, &c, &c, also a quantity of Household Furniture.

Sale to commence at 11 o’clock (entrance Short Acre Street).

Auctioneers’ Offices, Bridge Street, Walsall.”

Walsall Advertiser 5/2/1910

“The annual Brewster Sessions for the borough of Walsall were opened at the Guildhall, on Wednesday.....

Notice of objection (compensation clause or otherwise) had been served in respect to the following houses.....

Patrick McTighe, MANDAMUS, Stafford Street.....

Mr. H. H. Jackson said the owners were Mr. George Whitehouse and Mr. Hearn (Torquay), the Bloxwich Brewery Company were the tenants, and the manager was Patrick McTighe. The takings were about £15 a week, having doubled since the present tenant had been there. The Whitehouse family had held that house for over seventy years. It was only a six days' license."

Walsall Advertiser 26/2/1910

"The adjourned Licensing Sessions were held on Friday, when Sir Edward Holden presided.....

The ACORN, MALT SHOVEL, and WHITE ROSE, Lower Rushall Street, MANDAMUS ARMS, Stafford Street, and the SHINGLERS ARMS, Birchills were referred for compensation."

Lichfield Mercury 18/3/1910

"The adjourned licensing sessions for Walsall were continued on Friday.....

Mr. H. H. Jackson renewed an application for sanction for re-building of the WALSALL ARMS, Bank Street. He stated that the owner, Mr. Whitehouse, was now prepared not only to give up 1,600 feet of land for street improvement purposes, but surrender the license of the MANDAMUS INN, Stafford Street, in respect of which it was expected about £1,000 would be payable as compensation.

The Bench held that the case having been already disposed of, it could not be reopened except at another sessions."

Walsall Advertiser 14/5/1910

"The Licensing Act, 1904.

Notice of Principal Meeting. County Borough of Walsall.

Notice is Hereby Given, that the Principal Meeting to be held pursuant to the Licensing Rules, 1904, by the Compensation Authority for the above area, will be held at the Guildhall, Walsall, on Tuesday, the 7th day of June, 1910, at 11 o'clock in the forenoon.....

List of Licensed Premises.....

MANDAMUS, Stafford Street. Alehouse. Licensee Patrick McTighe."

Walsall Advertiser 11/6/1910

"A meeting of the Licensing Justices was held on Tuesday morning.....

Mr. H. H. Jackson applied for the renewal of the license of the MANDAMUS, Stafford Street, the owners of which are Mr. George Whitehouse and Mrs. Hirst, and the tenants the Bloxwich Brewery Company. The house he said, was an old and respectable one, and was only a six days' license.

The manager of the house, for the Brewery Company, said the takings were £15 per week.

The license was refused."

Walsall Advertiser 3/9/1910

"A supplementary meeting of the Licensing Justices to consider claims for compensation was held on Wednesday morning at the Guildhall. Mr. W. Bayliss presided, and there were present Messrs. W. E. Blyth, T. A. Smith, J. Clare, W. Halford, A. D. Cozens, J. J. Lynch, A. Jagger, and R. Thomas. The following houses came up for consideration.....

MANDAMUS, Stafford Street; owners, George Whitehouse and Clara Hearn; tenant, Bloxwich Brewery Company; manager and licensee for the Brewery Company, Patrick McTighe."

Patrick McTighe – see also NAGS HEAD.

The license renewal was referred to the Compensation Authority on 25th February 1910.

Compensation was paid, and the house closed on 30th September 1910.

MANOR ARMS

Park Road, Daw End, Rushall, WALSALL

OWNERS

Mr. Mellish [1894]

Mitchells and Butlers Ltd.

Wolverhampton and Dudley Breweries Ltd. (acquired in 1991)

LICENSEES

Richard Anson [1861] – [1872]
John Anson [1892] – 1897;
Richard Anson (1897 – [1918])
Mrs. Sarah Anson [1924]
Bernard C Anson [1932]
Mrs. Sarah Annette Ferguson [1939] – [1940]
Alfred William ‘Bill’ Harley [1941] – [1945]
Eileen Codd [1977] – 1985)
Neil Johnson (1993 – [1994])
Derek Hart [2009]

NOTES

MANOR ARMS HOTEL [1940]

Black Country Bugle 29/12/2021

Article by Steve James

“.....The oldest pub in the area, and perhaps one of the oldest in the country, is the MANOR ARMS at Daw End. Some believe the building dates back to 1106 when it was a milking parlour, and was first licensed in 1248, but most of today’s pub is of Victorian origin.”

It was formerly a farmhouse.

It had a beerhouse license.

Walsall Free Press 1/6/1861

“Several summonses were heard before the justices this day, for infringement of weights and measures regulation of the district ‘C’ of South Staffordshire. All the summonses were preferred in the name of William Tullett, inspector of weights and measures for the district.....

Richard Anson, Daw End, beerseller, two weights and one pair of scales. Fined 2s 6d for the weights, and 5s for the scales, with costs. In each of the above cases the costs amounted to 12s.”

Richard Anson, farmer and beer retailer, Daw End. [1868], [1872]

1871 Census

Daw End

[1] Richard Anson (67), farmer of 70 acres employing 2 labourers and 1 boy, born Ayburr, Staffordshire;

[2] Anne Anson (65), wife, born Trentham, Staffordshire;

[3] Mary Anson (29), daughter, born Rushall;

[4] Abram Hulme (15), general farm servant (indoor), born Rushall;

[5] Ann Rogers (21), general servant, born Aldridge:

John Anson = John Hanson

John Anson, farmer and beer retailer, Daw End. [1892]

He was described as also being a farmer. [1896]

Walsall Advertiser 1/9/1894

“The annual Licensing sessions for the Rushall division of the county were held on Monday at Rushall.....

Superintendent Salt’s report.....

The MINERS ARMS, at Daw End, which had been closed about four months had been let as a private dwelling, and he understood it was the intention to apply for the transfer of the license to the MANOR ARMS beerhouse, about a hundred yards away.....

John Hanson applied for the full license of the MINERS ARMS, Daw End, to be transferred to him at the MANOR ARMS, Daw End, which hitherto had been licensed as a beerhouse only. Mr. Gerald Lewis, barrister, said he appeared on behalf of the tenant, who was the applicant, and also the owner of the premises. The MANOR ARMS had been licensed as an off-beerhouse, and Mr. Mellish, the owner, was also the owner of the MINERS ARMS. Last year the MINERS ARMS license was renewed with an expression from the bench that the premises were not satisfactory, and in deference to that expression Mr. Mellish built a wall round the back of the premises, thereby making it more easily supervised by the police. The police, however, had made objections to the renewal of the license of the MINERS ARMS, and although there had been no conviction Mr. Mellish had thought it better (and the Vicar of the parish approved the proposal) to ask that the license should go to the other house. When, accordingly, application was made to the magistrates’ clerk to ascertain if he could transfer the license of the MINERS ARMS, the clerk, believing a mere transfer of tenants was meant, said, ‘Yes, if the proper notices are given.’ Notice was given, and the MINERS ARMS premises let to a private tenant, and when the misunderstanding was discovered it was not thought worth while to re-open the place for the few weeks the license had then to run. Mr. Hanson, in reply to questions, said a footpath ran past the house, but it was 100 yards from the highway. The accommodation provided was mainly for boatmen.

Mr. James: The application is granted on the distinct understanding that no renewed application is to be made for the MINERS ARMS, so that there is one house having a full license, instead of one with a full and another with an off-license."

A full license was granted c.1895.

Walsall Advertiser 23/4/1898

"The monthly meeting of the Walsall and District Licensed Victuallers' and Beer Retailers' Friendly and Protection Society was held on Thursday, at Mr. Joshua Bloomers', CROWN INN, Lower Hall Lane.....

New Members..... Mr. Richard Anson, MANOR ARMS, Rushall."

1901 Census

Daw End

[1] Richard Anson (37), farmer and licensed victualler, born Daw End;

[2] Sarah Asenath Anson (35), wife, born Walsall;

[3] Richard Meanley Anson (8), son, born Daw End;

[4] Edna Sarah Anson (5), daughter, born Daw End;

[5] Eric Garner Anson (2), son, born Daw End;

[6] Bernard Charles Anson (1), son, born Daw End;

[7] Zella Garner (33), aunt, housemaid, born Bog Mine, Shropshire;

[8] Ada Turner (16), general servant, born Daw End:

Lichfield Mercury 10/1/1902

"Ezekiel Fryer, of Clare's Buildings, Daw End, was summoned for refusing to quit the MANOR ARMS INN, Daw End, when requested by the landlord (Richard Anson).

Evidence was given by the complainant that Fryer was in his house at nine o'clock on the 28th of last month, and commenced to quarrel with the other customers. He was asked to leave, but refused to do so, and he was ultimately ejected. He returned afterwards, and was put out a second time.

A fine of 5s and 8s 6d costs was imposed, the imprisonment in default being 14 days."

Walsall Advertiser 18/7/1903

"On Wednesday morning, a man named Joseph Bradbury, whilst proceeding along a field footpath near the Park Lime Pits, Daw End, a secluded spot situate just outside Walsall, came across the lifeless body of a young man who lay on the ground with a revolver clasped in his right hand, and a bullet wound in his head just over the right eye. Death appeared to have taken place a very short time previously, as the body was still warm. Information of the discovery was given to Police-sergeant Heath, at Rushall, who removed the body to the MANOR ARMS, Daw End, to await an inquest. The revolver had five chambers, only one of which had been discharged, and the four others were still loaded. All the evidence pointed to suicide, deceased having a number of cartridges in his pockets. Two photographs were found in his possession, one being that of a young woman, and from the names on these it is surmised that deceased had lived at Walsall. Police-sergeant Heath accordingly made enquiries there, and as a result the body was identified as that of Walter Davis (19), saddle-tree maker, who resided with his parents at Wisemore Villa, Walsall. Deceased had been in the employ of Mr. W. Cox, Lichfield Street, and it is understood that he had been keeping company with a young woman who was employed at an adjoining factory. The couple appear to have had a slight disagreement, and it is stated that deceased subsequently told a fellow workman that he should blow his brains out. He was engaged at his employment during the morning, but left about 10 o'clock, and it is believed he went straight away and committed suicide.

The inquest was held on Thursday evening at the MANOR ARMS, before Mr. H. A. Pearson, county coroner.

Deceased's father, a porter, said his son had small-pox a short time ago, prior to which he had pneumonia. Since coming out the small-pox hospital he had appeared strange in his manner, but witness never heard him threaten to take his life.

A girl of 19 named Ada Owen, a stitcher, Hale's Yard, Stafford Street, said she had kept company with the deceased for over a year. They were in the small-pox hospital at the same time. Last Saturday deceased went on a gipsy party, and on Sunday he had dinner with her. She asked him if he had not been with some other girls at the party on the previous day, and he replied, 'Yes. I am going with them again.' Witness told him that he could, and did not say anything more about it. Before deceased left her home the same evening he asked her to put her hand on his head and feel how it burned, saying he 'thought he was going mad,' and that his brain was 'all of a whirl.' She felt his head, and it was very hot. She saw him on Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday morning he took her some strawberries and cake between 8.30 and nine, and asked her to forgive him, which she said she would. The deceased then took a watch out of his pocket and said 'take care of this, and don't let anyone have it,' also saying the watch had been in the family for some time. They parted on friendly terms.

Witness, replying to the coroner, said that when they came out of the small-pox hospital deceased took her to Sutton Park, where he said to her, 'Do you know what I have brought you here for? I am going to kill myself, and I don't want to leave you on earth.' He then pulled a revolver from his pocket, but after a struggle she got it from him. She then had a talk to him, and he eventually threw the revolver and a number of cartridges into a pool.

Frederick Tapper, of Whitehouse Street, a fellow workman of deceased's, said that on Tuesday they had a drink together, after which deceased asked him to buy a revolver for him, which he pointed out in a shop window, but he refused. The same evening, however, deceased showed witness a revolver and six loose cartridges, remarking 'I am going to do it.' He did not say what he meant. The next morning witness showed him the revolver again, which this time was loaded in each chamber; and pointing to one cartridge with a dent in it, said it had missed fire, but 'he would settle it once and for all.'

Joseph Bradbury spoke to finding the body, as detailed above, and Police-sergeant Heath, who removed the body, said deceased had ten loose cartridges in his pocket.

The Coroner said deceased was evidently weak minded, and the jury returned a verdict of Suicide whilst Temporarily Insane, several of the jurymen expressing the opinion that some restriction should be placed on the sale of cheap firearms.

The Coroner remarked that there was a Bill on this subject now before Parliament."

Richard Anson was also a farmer. [1904]

Walsall Advertiser 13/10/1906

"The monthly meeting of the Walsall and District Licensed Victuallers' and Beer Retailers' Friendly and Protection Society was held on Thursday at the MANOR ARMS INN, Daw End....."

Walsall Observer 14/11/1908

"The monthly meeting of the Walsall and District Licensed Victuallers' and Beer Retailers' Friendly and Protection Society was held on Thursday last at the house of the President, MANOR ARMS INN, Daw End, Rushall. Mr. R. Anson, Daw End (president), occupied the chair....."

The President and Vice-president were chosen to represent the society at the 84th Annual Banquet of the Birmingham Licensed Victuallers' Society to be held at the Grand Hotel, Birmingham, on Wednesday, November 25th, 1908."

Walsall Advertiser 7/12/1912

"The monthly meeting of the Executive Committee of the Walsall and District Licensed Victuallers' and Beer Retailers' Friendly and Protection Society will be held at the house of the President, Mr. Richard Anson, MANOR ARMS INN, Daw End, Rushall, on Thursday next at seven o'clock in the evening.

The attendance of the members of the society and licensed traders generally will be welcomed."

Walsall Advertiser 14/12/1912

"The monthly meeting of the Walsall and District Licensed Victuallers' and Beer Retailers' Friendly and Protection Society was held on Thursday last at the house of the President, Mr. Richard Anson, MANOR ARMS, Daw End, Rushall....."

Richard Anson was president of Walsall and District Licensed Victuallers' and Beer Retailers' Friendly and Protection Society, for many years.

Sarah Anson was also a farmer and pedigree pig breeder. [1924]

Lichfield Mercury 24/3/1933 - Advert

"To Let, MANOR ARMS, Daw End, Rushall, near Walsall, including Farm House and fully-licensed premises, and 175 acres of land.

Apply, Nightingale, 145, Lichfield Street, Walsall."

Walsall Observer 4/1/1941 - Advert

"What A Thing!! What A Thing!!

Here's That Man Again.

Bill Harley. Bill Harley.

(from Parson & Clerk) takes Over His Own House, The MANOR ARMS, Daw End, Rushall, On Monday, January 6th.

Free House.

Ansell's - M & B's - Smiths.

What A Combination - Billy Harley & 'Bert' and Free House.

4 Miles Parson & Clerk. 2 Miles Walsall.

Keep saying The MANOR ARMS Go To It!"

1939 Register

Park Road - MANOR ARMS

[1] Sarah A. Ferguson, date of birth 18/4/1882, licensee, widowed:

Evening Despatch 15/12/1941

"Mrs. Doris Gwendoline Harley, now living at Chester Road, New Oscott, today successfully petitioned at the Birmingham Assizes for divorce on the grounds of the adultery of her husband, Alfred William Harley, licensee of the MANOR ARMS HOTEL, Rushall.

It was stated that Mr. Harley was formerly licensee of the Parson and Clerk Hotel, Chester Road, Streetly.

The parties it was stated were married on 22 May, 1915 at St. James', Handworth.

The petition was undefended and a decree nisi granted to Mrs. Harley."

'I Remember Rushall' by Walsall Local History Centre

"Americans, that were stationed up at Lichfield, [during World War 2] who used to come boozing into Rushall, used to go up the MANOR ARMS, at Daw End a lot....."

Walsall Observer 11/7/1942 - Marriages

"On July 9th, 1942, by special license at Southend, Alfred W. Harley, of MANOR ARMS, Daw End, to Wendy Walton of South-end."

Walsall Observer 24/12/1942

"When at Aldridge Court on Monday John Collins (36), of 24, Blackroot Road, Sutton Coldfield was summoned for using motor fuel for a purpose other than that for which it was issued, he admitted driving 150 yards out of his way to have a drink at the MANOR ARMS HOTEL, Rushall.

War Reserve Constable Taylor said he was on duty in Rushall at 9pm on October 4, when he saw a car stationary on the car park outside the hotel. After waiting for some time defendant came out and said he had been for a drink. He was allowed petrol for his business as a haulage contractor. Collins told the Bench he had been on business at Bloxwich and was on the return journey to Sutton, when he branched 150 yards off the main road to go to the hotel. Since then he had always walked this distance. A fine of 40s was imposed."

Walsall Observer 24/2/1945 - Advert

"By direction of major Sir Charles Buchanan, Bart, and the Westminster Bank Trustee Department.
Walsall. Important Sale In 36 Lots of the Rushall Estate.
Fully-Licensed premises – The MANOR ARMS HOTEL, Daw End....."

Birmingham Daily Post 24/3/1945

"The Rushall Estate, situate on either side of the main road from Walsall to Lichfield, partly in Walsall and partly in the urban district of Aldridge, was sold by auction by Messrs. Edwards, Son, Bigwood and Mathews at Walsall Town Hall yesterday. All thirty-six lots were sold.....

The MANOR ARMS HOTEL, Daw End, fully licensed (freehold), £6,100."

Birmingham Daily Gazette 9/5/1945

"V Day celebrants in the MANOR ARMS HOTEL, Rushall, near Walsall, were carried off their feet by the impact of a thunder-bolt which crashed through the roof of the 700 year old building just before two o'clock yesterday.

Apart from shock and bruise no one was hurt, but the hotel was extensively damaged. Most of the roof was stripped of tiles, severed gas pipes were ignited, the chimney crashed to the ground floor, and windows were smashed.

'It's a miracle nobody was killed – but just the same we shall be open tonight, the proprietor (Mr. A. W. Harley) told a Birmingham Gazette reporter.

An eye-witness saw the 'ball of fire' first land in the yard of another licensed house near by and then leap several hundred yards to crash through the roof of the MANOR ARMS HOTEL. When it struck, a little girl was lifted of the saddle of her cycle and flung on the road."

Grade II listed building since 1951.

Staffordshire Advertiser 4/7/1952

"Twenty old inns and hotels in Staffordshire have been added to the Ministry of Housing and Local Government's 'preservation list' because of outstanding historical and architectural interest. The total number of Staffs. Inns now listed is 49.

The Brewers' Society is selecting a design for a plaque for marking the inns. Several designs have been submitted by a sculptor, an artist, an architect, and an expert on industrial design, but a final choice has yet to be made. The object of these plaques will be to enable tourists and other visitors readily to identify inns of outstanding interest.....

MANOR ARMS, Rushall."

Eileen Codd nee Lambe.

She married George Codd.

John McHugh, the Wolverhampton born tenor lived here from January 1980 to June 1985. He helped out behind the bar and in the cellar.

It was Walsall Branch Pub of the Year in 1982.

Evening Mail 21/11/1994

'Old Black Country Pubs'

".....believed to be first licensed in 1248 and the building dates back to the 11th century when it was a milking house privately owned until three years ago when brewers Banks' became the owners Neil and Julie Johnson have run the pub for the past 18 months Neil formerly a bricklayer....."

[Its age as a pub is disputed by local historians.]

It was listed in 'The CAMRA National Inventory' of pub interiors of outstanding historic interest.

It won British Waterways' Best Waterside Pub in the UK award in 2009.

[2017]

MARKET TAVERN

16, (15), Freer Street, WALSALL

OWNERS

Mrs. Mary Collins, Green Bank, Birchfields, near Birmingham
Cannock Brewery Co. Ltd.
Lichfield Brewery Co. [1903], [1911]
Ind Coope and Allsopp (leased) [1933]

LICENSEES

Thomas Errington [1841] – [1842]
Richard Boffey [1845] – 1863;
John Surman (1863 – [1865]
George Lakin [1866] – [1870]
Mrs. Emily Lakin [1871] – [1873];
Miss Clara Lakin [];
Charles Turner [];
Mrs. Clara Turner [1881];
Charles Spicer [1888] – 1900;
Clara Spicer (1900 – 1903);
Mrs. Sarah Louise Wilkins (1903 – 1906);
Henry Frederick Machin (1906 – 1908);
William Burton (1908 – 1911);
Mrs. Elizabeth Ann Burton (1911 – 1913);
Eli Walker (1913 – 1933);
George Henry Johnson (1933 – 1953); manager
Harry Dobson (1953 – 1955);
Catherine Kate Aldridge (1955 – 1956);

NOTES

16, Freer Street [1860], [1861], [1864], [1865], [1871], [1881], [1891], [1896], [1904], [1908], [1911], [1912], [1916], [1921], [1932], [1940]
15, Freer Street [1872]

1841 Census

Freer Street

- [1] Thomas Errington (40), bridle cutter, born Staffordshire;
- [2] Francis Errington (40), female;
- [3] Miles Errington (15), ironmonger's apprentice, born Staffordshire;
- [4] Thomas Errington Jnr. (10), born Staffordshire;
- [5] Eliza Lacy (20), fs:

Bells Life in London and Sporting Chronicle 23/10/1842

"In the advertisement last week, having reference to some timber left on the premises of Mr. T. Errington, MARKET TAVERN, Walsall, by Mr. Stephen Samuels, the name was incorrectly printed 'Samuch'."

Richard Boffey = Richard Buffey

Richard Boffey was also a horse breaker. [1849], [1850]

Aris's Birmingham Gazette 3/9/1849 - Advert

“Pointer Dog.

To be Sold, a well-broke steady Pointer, four years old; he is an excellent ranger, and is parted with not for any fault, but in consequence of the Owner having given up shooting.

May be seen on application to Mr. Richard Boffey, MARKET TAVERN, Walsall.”

1851 Census

Freer Street

[1] Richard Boffey (50), publican, born Birmingham;

[2] Rebecca Boffey (49), wife, born Birmingham;

[3] Rebecca A. Boffey (9), daughter, scholar, born Walsall;

[4] M. Ann Suman (36), visitor, born Birmingham;

[5] Jane Faulkner (17), house servant, born Monaghan, Ireland;

[6] Charles Parker (33), lodger, horse breaker, born Lincolnshire;

[7] Thomas Pratt (42), servant, brewer, born Walsall;

[8] John Hill (37), lodger, painter, born Burton, Staffordshire;

[9] Joshua Wiggan (43), lodger, tailor, born Knutsford, Cheshire:

Birmingham Journal 9/8/1856

“An inquest was held yesterday, by A. A. Fletcher, Esq, Borough Coroner, at house of Mr. Richard Boffey, the MARKET TAVERN, Freer Street, on the body of Isaac Marshall, a boy between nine and ten years of age, the son of Richard Marshall, chaser, Freer Street, who was drowned in the canal, near the basin, on Monday afternoon. Mr. Joseph Hodgkins, builder, the Birchills, stated that at four o'clock on Monday afternoon, he heard an alarm that a boy was drowning in the canal, near Wolverhampton Lane, and he ran to the spot, which is much frequented by boys for the purpose of bathing. A little boy on the opposite bank, at the witness's request, pointed out the spot where deceased had gone down, and the witness then plunged in, dived, and instantly discovered the body. The depth of the water was above six feet. Life was quite extinct when the body was recovered. Not more than one minute and a half had elapsed from the time of hearing the alarm and the witness finding the body. The father of the deceased was called in, and said he had repeatedly threatened to punish the deceased for going to the canal. The Coroner made a few observations to the Jury, who at once returned a verdict of Found Drowned.”

Birmingham Journal 7/4/1860 - Advert

“To Cover This Season, 1860, that Celebrated Horse Magician (late the property of Lord Strathmore, in whose hands he was regularly hunted, carrying upwards of twelve stone, and proved himself one of the stoutest horses of his day), now the property of Mr. John Cook, Little Sutton, at Five Guineas for thorough-bred mares, and Two Guineas for half-bred mares, and Five Shillings the groom. The groom's fee to be paid at the time of covering, and the remainder the last time round.....

Magician will attend the following places. Tuesday.....

MARKET TAVERN INN, Walsall, until Four o'clock, and home at night.”

1861 Census

16, Freer Street – MARKET TAVERN

[1] Richard Buffey (61), victualler, born Birmingham;

[2] Rebecca Buffey (57), wife, born Birmingham;

[3] Rebecca Ann Buffey (19), daughter, domestic, born Walsall;

[4] Ann Adkins (47), lodger, cook, born Rugeley;

[5] Bridget Mourtey (19), general servant, born Ireland;

[6] Benjain Edgerley (49), brewer, born Stockton, Shropshire;

[7] Edward Connely (24), lodger, labourer, born Ireland:

Staffordshire Advertiser 3/1/1863

“A male child was left on the door step of the MARKET TAVERN, Freer Street, on Friday evening, and has been sent to the work-house.”

Birmingham Daily Post 16/4/1864

“On Wednesday afternoon, Mr. A. Brooks, the recently appointed Borough Magistrates' Clerk, gave a dinner to the members of the police force, at the house of Mr. Surman, the MARKET TAVERN, Freer Street. Detective-sergeant Wood occupied the chair, and Sergeant Mason the vice-chair. The guests sat down in two divisions, as they could be spared from their duties, and during the afternoon several toasts were given, and suitably responded to, that of the newly-appointed clerk being enthusiastically received.”

Bells Life in London and Sporting Chronicle 5/11/1864

“Open To All England. To be shot for, at Mr. Surman's, the MARKET TAVERN, Freer Street, Walsall, on Monday, Nov 14, a 20 score pig; 20 members at 10s each. Conditions: Five birds each, guns $\frac{3}{4}$ in bore, single guns $1\frac{1}{2}$ oz of shot, 21 yards rise; double guns $1\frac{1}{4}$ oz of shot 19 yard rise, 80 boundary. The winner can either have the pig or money. Mr. Woodshaw will supply the best blue rocks. The house is within two minutes' walk of the railway station. Shooting to commence at one o'clock."

Walsall Free Press 7/10/1865

"John Surman, landlord of the MARKET TAVERN, Freer Street, pleaded guilty to having had his house open on the morning of the 29th ult, between the hours of one and four, but stated in extenuation that he had some friends from the country staying with him, and he also had some parties who had been at the concert, and the time rolled on more quickly than they thought. Cautioned and ordered to pay costs."

Staffordshire Advertiser 3/11/1866

"Lakin v. Surman. This case was heard before a jury. Mr. Wilson appeared for the plaintiff, Mr. George Lakin, the present occupier of the MARKET TAVERN, Freer Street, and Mr. Glover for the defendant, Mr. John Surman, the late occupier of the MARKET TAVERN. The claim was for £16 9s, being the value of a stable, rack, manger, gig-house, and other structures, for which the plaintiff paid as tenant's fixtures when he took possession of the house but which had subsequently been claimed by Mr. Gilbert, auctioneer, of Birmingham, as agent of the owner. Mr. R. Boffey, the defendant's predecessor in the occupation of the MARKET TAVERN, deposed that he put up the structures in question upwards of twenty years ago, the then agent of the owner promising him in the presence of two witnesses, both of whom had since died, that he should be at liberty to take down or dispose of whatever erections he might put up. Some evidence being adduced to rebut his testimony, his Honour put the case to the jury, who found for the defendant."

Birmingham Daily Post 7/9/1869

"At the Guildhall, yesterday, before Messrs. F. B. Oerton, J. W. Newman, and J. Brewer, George Lakin, landlord of the MARKET TAVERN, and David Harvey were charged, the former with having assaulted, and the latter with having threatened, Frederick Augustus Harvey, agent for Messrs. Fletcher and Co, wine and spirit merchants. Mr. Dale (from the office of Messrs. Duignan, Lewis and Lewis) appeared for the complainant. On Tuesday night last, the parties were at the OLD STILL, Digbeth, when Harvey used opprobrious language and threats to complainant, and was urged on by Lakin, who said 'Give it to the ——; he's a bad one.' Lakin then endeavoured to push complainant out of his seat; but Mr. Beebee, the landlord, restrained him, and he sat down. He rose again, however, soon afterwards, and in addition to shaking complainant by the collar, struck him in the face. Trade differences seemed to have originated the affair. Lakin was fined 5s and costs; and a warrant was ordered to go for Harvey, who was not present when the case was heard, but subsequently attended, and was bound over to appear on Thursday next."

1871 Census

16, Freer Street

- [1] Emily Lakin (35), widow, publican, born Little Aston, Staffordshire;
- [2] Clara Lakin (17), daughter, born Sandhills, Staffordshire;
- [3] Robert Lakin (16), son, joiner, born Sandhills, Staffordshire;
- [4] Mary A. Lakin (11), daughter, scholar, born Sandhills, Staffordshire;
- [5] Joseph Milner (36), ostler, born Shenston, Staffordshire;
- [6] Charles Clark (46), lodger, licensed hawkier, born Hinkley [Hinckley?], Leicestershire:

Birmingham Daily Post 28/8/1871

"A distressing accident, resulting in the death of an old and respected inhabitant of the town – Mr. J. Surman, at one time landlord of the MARKET TAVERN, Freer Street, but more recently a resident of Church Hill – and the narrow escape of Mr. Charles Hathaway, of Upper Forster Street, occurred on Hatherton Lake, on Saturday afternoon. At about three o'clock Mr. Surman, who spent much of his time in fishing, was engaged in his favourite pursuit from one of the banks, but wishing to get to the opposite bank he asked Mr. Hathaway, who was in one of the flat-bottomed boats used on the lake, to take him across. Mr. Hathaway took him into the boat, and made for the desired point, but they had scarcely reached midway when they found the boat was filling rapidly with water, and, as it seemed going down. In the panic of the moment they sprang out, and made for the bank, which Mr. Hathaway contrived, with great difficulty to reach, but Mr. Surman, who was in his 71st year, after desperate struggles for a few moments, went down in water probably 30 yards deep, before the slightest assistance could be rendered him. As soon as possible drags were procured, and were used by Sergeants Wood and Williams, of the borough force, Police-constable Chell, of the county force, and others, at the same time, two or three expert divers from out of the large number of persons who gathered in the neighbourhood, stripped and went into the water, diving again and again but failing to reach the body, which was brought up by one of the drags about two hours after the accident, and was removed to the BUTTS INN. How the water got into the boat is at present unexplained, but certain it is that the prevailing rumour that the bottom of the boat came out is not correct. It may be as well to add, as indicating a point worthy of investigation, that complaints were very prevalent among the crowd as to the condition of the boats used on the lake."

Walsall Free Press 31/5/1873 - Advert

Two Shillings Reward.

Lost, on Thursday night, between the Square and Freer Street, a Scarlet and White Damask Curtain, and a Sheet. The finder bringing them to the MARKET TAVERN, Freer Street, will be rewarded."

Clara Lakin married Charles Turner in the 1st quarter of 1877.

1881 Census

16, Freer Street – MARKET INN

- [1] Clara Turner (27), widow, victualler, born Stonnall, Staffordshire;
- [2] Alfred C. Turner (16 months), son, born Walsall;
- [3] Robert Lakin (25), brother, brewer, born Stonnall, Staffordshire;
- [4] Mary A. Lakin (21), sister, barmaid, born Stonnall, Staffordshire:

Clara Turner married Charles Spicer in the 3rd quarter of 1883.

Walsall Advertiser 26/1/1884 - Advert

“Charles Spicer, Practical and General Wood Turner (late with A. Hewlitt, of Goodall Street, Walsall).

Begs to inform the Contractors, Builders, and Cabinet makers of Walsall, that he has commenced business on his own account, and hopes by strict attention to business and first-class workmanship at a reasonable charge, to merit their Orders.

Note The Address: Workshop, Back of the MARKET TAVERN, Freer Street, Walsall.”

Walsall Observer 14/3/1885

“Royal Antediluvian Order of Buffaloes (Garrick Lodge). On Monday evening last the above lodge having been removed from the PRIORY HOTEL, was reopened at Bro. Charles Spicer's, the MARKET TAVERN, Freer Street, by Prime Donellan, PGP of Walsall, with a numerous and excellent gathering of primes and brothers of the Order, after which the evening was spent in conviviality.....”

Lichfield Mercury 21/9/1888

“On Saturday a meeting of the miners' representatives of South Staffordshire, and Cannock Chase Districts was held at the MARKET TAVERN, Freer Street, Walsall, to consider the best means to secure an advance of 10 per cent during the early autumn. The chair was occupied by Mr. H. Barnes. After considerable discussion, it was decided to hold a pit-set conference in Wednesbury on Monday, 24th inst, and the representatives were impressed with the importance of each pit in the district sending representative. It was also thought desirable that a representative from each district should be sent to the conference on this subject to be held in Manchester on Tuesday, the 25th inst.”

Charles Spicer was also a cabinet maker. [1888], [1892], [1896]

He was vice-president of the Walsall and District Licensed Victuallers' and Beer Retailers' Friendly and Protection Society. He resigned in 1891.

He died in 1900.

Staffordshire Advertiser 24/1/1891

“There were 31 applications for dancing, singing and music licenses under the provisions of the new Corporation Act. The Bench heard all the applications and then retired to consider their decisions, which turned out to be in accordance with the principle which was laid down at a former Court, viz, that licenses should not be granted to vaults or public rooms, but should be confined to regular and existing clubs and class meetings in club rooms. Licenses were granted to.....

The MARKET TAVERN, Freer Street.”

1891 Census

16, Freer Street – MARKET TAVERN

- [1] Charles Spicer (32), victualler, born Worcester;
- [2] Clara Spicer (37), wife, born Lichfield;
- [3] Fred T. Spicer (11), son, scholar, born Walsall;
- [4] Gertrude Spicer (6), daughter, scholar, born Walsall;
- [5] Sarah Wright (26), general servant, born Walsall;
- [6] John Wood (17), general servant, born Shenstone;

Walsall Advertiser 29/9/1891 - Notice

“Bridle Cutters Union.

A General Meeting will be held at the MARKET TAVERN, Freer Street, on Wednesday, October 7th, 1891, at 8-0pm, when all members of the trade are urgently desired to attend.

E. H. Archer, Secretary, pro tem.”

Birmingham Daily Post 9/4/1895 - Advert

“Girl about 20, and young Man; both from country, and latter used to horses.

Wanted for public-house; to live in; good characters indispensable.

Apply MARKET TAVERN, Freer Street, Walsall.”

1901 Census

Freer Street – MARKET TAVERN

- [1] Clara Spicer (48), widow, licensed victualler, born Sandhill, Staffordshire;

[2] Alfred C. Spicer (21), son, brewer, born Walsall;

[3] Gertrude C. Spicer (16), daughter, barmaid, born Walsall:

Walsall Advertiser 24/1/1903

“On Wednesday the Borough Coroner (Mr. T. H. Stanley) held an inquest at the Guildhall, Walsall, touching the death of Clara Spicer (49), of the MARKET TAVERN, Freer Street. Mr. J. N. Cotterell represented the relatives.

Clara Gertrude Spicer, daughter of deceased, stated that her mother was the widow of Charles Spicer, licensed victualler, who died three years ago in April. Deceased had been in failing health for some time, but witness did not know what she suffered from. On December 30th, about 4.30 in the afternoon, deceased went into the living kitchen from the bar, and attempted to lift, with her left hand, a kettle from the fire. Her right hand she placed upon the fireguard, which upset, and deceased fell upon the floor with her right leg under her. She was helped up, and then walked a few yards into the bar. Deceased said she would attend to the bar and tried to get up, but fell, and witness called a young man, who was in the house at the time, to assist her to carry deceased to a couch in the kitchen.

Dr. Martland said he had attended Mrs. Spicer for eight or nine years off and on. He attended her on December 30th, and found that both bones of her right leg were broken above the ankle. He visited her regularly until the time of her death, which occurred on Sunday. Death was due to delirium tremens, brought on as the result of the accident. It was a common occurrence for delirium tremens to come on as a result of an accident of that kind.

The jury returned a verdict in accordance with the medical evidence.”

Walsall Advertiser 25/4/1903 - Notice

“I.O.O.F. M.U. Notice!

The Registered Office of the ‘Loyal Era’ Lodge No.2244 of the Bescot Bridge District has been Removed from the WHITE HART INN, Walhouse Street, Walsall, to the MARKET TAVERN, Freer Street, Walsall, as from April 7th.

All Business of the Lodge will, therefore, be transacted at the above-mentioned house.”

Walsall Advertiser 25/4/1903

“The Bench sanctioned the transfer of the following licenses.....

MARKET TAVERN, Freer Street, from Edward Wyatt (executor of the will of Clara Spicer, deceased), to Sarah Wilkins.”

Walsall Advertiser 9/5/1903 - Advert

“Important To Licensed Victuallers And Others.

Unreserved Sale Of Useful Brewing Plant & Utensils at the MARKET TAVERN, Freer Street, Walsall.

Messrs Watkins, Powell, & Wood FAI, are instructed by the Lichfield Brewery Company Limited to Sell by Auction, as above, on Wednesday Next, May 13th, a Quantity of Useful Brewing Utensils, comprising large copper and iron Boilers, excellent Cooling Vats, capital Mash Tubs, two Refrigerators, Pumps, Sieves, a number of stock Casks, Avery’s Weighing Machine, Collecting Vats, Under Tubs, and numerous other utensils.

Sale to commence at 11 o’clock sharp.

Auctioneer’s Offices, Bridge Street, Walsall.”

Walsall Advertiser 1/8/1903

“Mr. H. H. Jackson (Stanley and Jackson) made an application on behalf of the licensee of the MARKET TAVERN for the extension of the club room. In this case Mr. Thomson (Chief Constable) stated to the magistrates that alterations had recently been made at the rear of the premises, and although a plan was now put in the alterations were completed without consulting the magistrates.

Mr. Jackson said he must apologise for his clients, but he assumed that what had been done had been done in ignorance, and were notwithstanding a great improvement.

Mr. Thomson admitted that there had been a great improvement, but the magistrates ought to know when alterations were being made.

Refused, but without prejudice to make an application at the next transfer day.”

A team from here took part in the Walsall and District Air-Gun League. [1903/4]

Walsall Advertiser 4/6/1904

“Plans were submitted for an enlargement of a clubroom at the MARKET TAVERN, Freer Street. Granted.”

Walsall Advertiser 25/5/1905

“The annual general meeting of the Walsall Excelsior Cycling Club was held on Monday at the headquarters, MARKET TAVERN, Freer Street. The balance sheet showed that the club will start the season with £16 in hand. There was a loss of £16 on last year’s sports, which the committee and officers will endeavour to wipe out this year.....”

Henry Frederick Machin – see also BLACK SWAN.

Walsall Advertiser 6/10/1906

“Very suddenly indeed there passed away on Wednesday evening Mrs. Wilkins, landlady of the MARKET TAVERN, Freer Street.

The deceased lady had been a widow some five or six years, and only appeared to be suffering from a slight cold when she went to lie down for a brief rest in the early evening, but a short time afterwards she was found to be quite dead. For many years she had been highly esteemed in licensing circles, and also amongst friendly societies, for which she acted as hostess for a long period.”

Walsall Advertiser 5/2/1910

“Royal Oak Friendly Society. The annual meeting of the above society was held at the MARKET TAVERN, Freer Street, on Wednesday evening week, Mr. H. J. Robinson occupied the chair, and there was a large attendance.....”

1911 Census

16, Freer Street

- [1] William Burton (41), licensed victualler, born Leicester;
- [2] Elizabeth Ann Burton (35), wife, married 19 years, assisting in business, born Leicester;
- [3] William Charles Burton (16), son, grocer’s assistant, born Leicester;
- [4] Reginald Cecil Burton (10), son, school, born Leicester;
- [5] Gwendoline Phillis Burton (2), daughter, at home, born Walsall;
- [6] Ernest Arthurs (24), servant, ostler, born USA;
- [7] Mabel Laura Hawkin (22), domestic servant, born Pelsall:

Walsall Advertiser 12/8/1911

“An unusual request was made by Mr. Frank Cooper, who asked that the license of the MARKET TAVERN, Freer Street, should be transferred from William Burton to Elizabeth Ann Burton, the licensee’s wife. He said that Burton went away from his wife in July and had not been seen since. A letter had been received from him written at a post office in Derbyshire, in which he declared that he should not return again at any time.

Mrs. Burton informed the Bench that she made arrangements with the owners of the house to continue the business. The application was granted.”

Walsall Advertiser 20/12/1913

“In connection with the ‘Forest of Arden’ Lodge, Sheffield Equalised Order of Druids, a successful whist drive was held at the MARKET TAVERN, Freer Street. Between fifty and sixty members and friends spent an enjoyable evening. The prize-winners were: two 1sts (presented by Dr. Layton and the Secretary, Mr. T. H. Stanton), Messrs H. Thomas and White respectively; two seconds (Messrs. Frank Rigby’s and McCalister’s prizes), Messrs. Jones and Fereday respectively. The donors of the prizes were cordially thanked.”

Walsall Observer 19/12/1914 - The Roll of Honour

“Corporal Arthur Walker (22) is now in a Leeds Hospital with a fractured thigh, sustained during the fighting round Ypres, from a bullet which he thinks came from a German sniper. Reared among soldiers, he joined the Army nearly eight years ago in India, where his father, a well-known local soldier, Quartermaster Sergeant Walker, the present licensee of the MARKET TAVERN, Freer Street, was at the time serving. Quartermaster Sergeant Walker served 26 years with the Staffords, and, returning from India seven years ago, was appointed a military instructor at Wednesbury, and later transferred to Bloxwich. He left the army some twelve months ago, and is now serving at Grantham. A second son, Ernest, aged 16, imbued with the same military spirit, is now a drummer at Plymouth.”

Walsall Observer 12/1/1918

“Walsall and District War Aid Committee. Collection By The Licensed Victuallers, December, 1917.....
MARKET TAVERN, Freer Street. £0 10s 9½d.”

Walsall Observer 22/11/1924

“Members of the Sheffield Order of Druids, held an enjoyable smoking concert at the MARKET TAVERN, Freer Street, on Monday evening, when an address was given by Mr. G. B. Spray (Edgbaston) the general president.....”

Lichfield Mercury 29/11/1924 - Correspondence

“7th Battalion South Staffordshire Regiment.

Sir. I should be deeply indebted to you if you could again allow me a little space in your esteemed newspaper. I wish to bring to the notice of the above battalion that as a result of the deep interest taken in my last letter about the Battalion’s History, Captain Walker and I have arranged a reunion dinner to be held at 7.30pm on Friday, January 9th, in the Drill Hall, Walsall (kindly lent for the occasion by Lieut.-Colonel E. A. Wilson, M.C., commanding 5th Battalion South Staffordshire Regiment). The main cost of the dinner is being defrayed by a friend of the battalion, and only a nominal charge of one shilling is being made. Application for tickets, without which admission cannot be granted, should be made either personally or in writing to Captain E. Walker, D.C.M., MARKET TAVERN, Freer Street, Walsall, who has kindly undertaken to make all arrangements. Applications should be made with 1/- enclosed, if possible before January 2nd. I only need to add that Colonel Seckham D.S.O, has promised to be present and to take the chair.”

Staffordshire Advertiser 13/2/1926

“At Walsall, Stephen Wigmore, Goodall Street, a constable in the local police force; Harold Brookes, clerk, 102 Borneo Street, and John George Andrews, of Shelfield farm, were summoned for consuming intoxicating liquor on the premises of the MARKET TAVERN, Freer Street, at a time other than during permitted hours; and Eli Walker, the licensee, was summoned for aiding and abetting. Mr. F. Cooper, who defended, said Wigmore was friendly with Walker's children, and Mrs. Walker asked him to have some supper. He ordered the beer for consumption with the supper, and under the Act he was entitled to stay there for half-an-hour after the usual closing time. Brookes was a friend of Andrews, who was friendly with Walker. The licensee asked Andrews to stop and talk about his wireless set, which had gone wrong, and afterwards he asked them to have a drink with him. He was perfectly entitled to do that. The Chairman (E. J. Shaw, Esq.) said the Bench had grave doubts about some of the evidence given, and all the cases would be dismissed on payment of costs.”

Walsall Observer 11/3/1939

“.....while the licenses of two Freer Street houses – MARKET TAVERN and STORES – were renewed subject to plans for alterations and renovations.”

1939 Register

Freer Street – MARKET TAVERN

[1] George H. Johnson, date of birth 10/3/1887, manager licensed premises, married;

[2] Hannah Johnson, dob 24/5/1889, unpaid domestic duties, married:

Walsall Observer 7/12/1940

“Walsall Licensed Victuallers’ Society.

Motor Ambulance Effort on behalf of Walsall and District branch of the British Red Cross Society.

First List of Subscriptions.....

MARKET TAVERN, Freer Street, £2 1s 4d.”

Walsall Observer 24/12/1942

“Walsall Licensed Victuallers’ Society. The Duke of Gloucester’s Red Cross Fund. List of Subscriptions.....

MARKET TAVERN, Freer Street. £0 14s 11d.”

Walsall Observer 15/1/1944

“Walsall Licensed Victuallers’ Society.

Appeal on Behalf of the Merchant Navy Fund, The Duke of Gloucester’s Red Cross Fund and the Aid to China Fund. List of Subscriptions.....

MARKET TAVERN, Freer Street. £1 8s 8d.”

Harry Dobson – see also BRIDLECUTTERS ARMS, and WHITE LION.

The license renewal was referred to the Compensation Authority on 1st March 1956.

Compensation of £3,149 8s 4d was paid on 24th December 1956.

The house closed on 31st December 1956.

MASONS ARMS

Ablewell Street, WALSALL

OWNERS

LICENSEES

William Ward [1828] – [1830]

Thomas Croasdell [1834]

NOTES

It had a beerhouse license.

MAW GREEN TAVERN

West Bromwich Road, WALSALL

OWNERS

LICENSEES

Robert Hays [1868] – [1872]

NOTES

It was originally a farmhouse.

Robert Hays = Robert Hayes

Walsall Free Press 22/2/1868

“Robert Hayes, beerhouse-keeper, Maw Green, for having had his house open at a quarter past ten on Sunday morning last for the sale of beer, was fined 10s and costs.

Acting-sergeant Ogden and Police-constable Elms said that they visited the house at the time in question, and found a man and a lad with a jug of ale, which the lad tried to conceal under the sink. Defendant called Harry Peppett, who said that he had his meals in the house and was present at the time. Acting-sergeant Ogden said the witness was not the man who was in the house when he visited it. Witness was in the yard when he went.”

Robert Hays, beer retailer, Moor Green. [1872]

Closed

It was demolished in the 1930s.

MAY POLE

Daw End, Rushall, WALSALL

OWNERS

LICENSEES

Thomas Rowley [1771]

Samuel Meanley [1818]

NOTES

‘The Folklore of the Black Country’ by Roy Palmer (2007)

“An advertisement of February 1771 reads as follows. ‘A main of cocks will be fought at the house of Thomas Rowley, known by the sign of the MAYPOLE in Pelsall on Midlent Monday, 11th March, between the Gentlemen of Walsall and the Gentlemen of Lichfield and Burntwood, to weigh 11 cocks of each side, two five pounds, two odd size ones; to begin to weigh at 8am and no-one to interfere in the Pit but the two Players. Gentlemen desired to attend by 11am. Dinner will be ready at one. The main will be for Ten Guineas.’”

MINERS

Wolverhampton Road, WALSALL

OWNERS

LICENSEES

Samuel Hodgkins [1835]
Samuel Cleobury [1841] – [1842]

NOTES

Aris's Birmingham Gazette 8/7/1839 - Advert

“MINERS ARMS TAVERN, Wolverhampton Road, Walsall.

I. Allen is instructed to Sell by Private Treaty, the above valuable Licenses, Goodwill, and Possession, of the above old-licensed Public House, in one of the best mining districts in Staffordshire, left in consequence of indisposition of the Proprietor. The Premises are in every way suited for the business, and are held at the low rent of £22. Coming-in about £200 including Fixtures, Furniture, Stock, and Brewing Utensils, to be taken at a fair valuation. The above is a valuable opportunity to any industrious couple about to commence business.

For further particulars apply on the premises, or at the offices of I. Allen, Auctioneer, Appraiser, and General Agent, Smithfield, where may be seen on or after Wednesday next samples of choice and extensive variety of British and Foreign Cigars, for which I. A. invites the attention of Dealers, Innkeepers, and Consumers. They will be on sale in quantities of from a single box or any quantity, at prices that will call forth astonishment.”

MINERS ARMS

134, (132-134), High Street, Cunneries, BLOXWICH

OWNERS

Robert Trussler, Walsall Wood
William Goodwin, Bloxwich [1905]
Bloxwich Brewery Ltd. (leased) [1905], [1907]
Walsall Corporation [1907]
J. and J. Yardley and Co. Ltd. (leased)

LICENSEES

John Brumhall [1858]
Samuel Beech [1860] – [1861]
John Darrall [1866]
James Somerfield [1868] – [1872];
Adam Harper [];
Miss Maria Hartill [1881];
George Ball [] – 1889);
James Hinks (1889 – 1890);
Joseph Hooper (1890 – 1891);
John Owen (1891);
Thomas Edmund Goodwin (1891 – 1895);
Thomas Goodall (1895 – 1896);
Eli Wootton (1896 – 1903);
William Tolley (1903 – 1907):

NOTES

132-134, High Street [1891]
134, High Street [1904]

It had a beerhouse license.

Walsall Free Press 17/3/1860 - Notice

“MINERS ARMS, Bloxwich.

Mr. Samuel Beech, intends Opening a Lodge, under the Nottingham Ancient Imperial United Order of Odd Fellows Friendly

Society.”

Walsall Free Press 29/7/1860 - Notice

“Nottingham Ancient Imperial United Order Of Oddfellows.

Mr. S. Beech, MINERS ARMS, New Street, Bloxwich begs most respectfully to inform the inhabitants of Bloxwich and Neighbourhood, that a New Lodge in connection with the above Order will be Opened, at his house, on Monday, August 13th, 1860, when parties wishing to become members will oblige by making application at the Bar.”

1861 Census

Cunneries – MINERS ARMS

[1] Samuel Beech (54), bricklayer and publican, born Bloxwich;

[2] Elizabeth Beech (54), wife, born Brewood, Staffordshire;

[3] William Rose (18), bricklayer’s apprentice, born Lichfield;

[4] Samuel Beech (7), grandson, born Bloxwich:

Walsall Free Press 15/12/1866

“John Darrall, landlord of the MINERS ARMS beerhouse, Bloxwich, for having had his house open during prohibited hours, on Saturday last, was fined 2s 6d and costs.”

Walsall Free Press 15/2/1868

“James Sommerfeld, beerhouse-keeper, Bloxwich, was charged with having had his house open for the sale of beer at 11,40am on Sunday last.

As it appeared that the man who was seen in the house had been ill for some time Mr. Sommerfeld had in pity given him some beer, the case was dismissed.”

1881 Census

132+134, High Street

[1] Maria Hartill (28), unmarried, beerhouse keeper, born Willenhall;

[2] Sarah Gee (32), sister, born Willenhall;

[3] Sarah Johnson (18), domestic servant, born Wednesfield:

1891 Census

134 and 132, High Street – MINERS ARMS

[1] John Owen (50), publican, born Bilston;

[2] Rebecca Owen (52), wife, born Madeley, Shropshire;

[3] Roland Owen (17), son, miner, born Bilston;

[4] Mary Ann Owen (15), daughter, scholar, born Bilston;

[5] Pemplar Owen (10), daughter, scholar, born New Invention;

[6] Ishmael Owen (5), grandson, born Moxley:

Thomas E. Goodwin, beer retailer, 134, High Street, Bloxwich. [1896]

Walsall Advertiser 14/4/1900

“The Borough Surveyor had been instructed not to take proceedings against Messrs. Hickton and Farmer for non-compliance with the bye-laws in relation to the recent alterations made at the MINERS ARMS, Bloxwich, in consideration of their undertaking that the alteration shall not prejudice the Corporation when they desire to widen High Street, Bloxwich.”

Eli Wootton was elected as a member of the Walsall and District Licensed Victuallers’ and Beer Retailers’ Friendly and Protection Society in June 1900.

William Tolley, beer retailer, 134, High Street. [1904]

Walsall Advertiser 6/2/1904

“The annual licensing sessions for the Borough of Walsall were held on Thursday at the Guildhall, and aroused considerable interest. The court was crowded, and many license-holders were unable to obtain admission.....

Notice had been given to 76 license holders to show cause for the renewal of their licenses, evidently as a result of the visits of a sub-committee of magistrates to the licensed premises, the reasons why cause had to be shown being various....

William Tolley, MINERS ARMS.”

Walsall Advertiser 14/10/1905 - Advert

“Sale Of Freehold Properties.

Fox and Harrison (M. F. Harrison, FAI), Are instructed to Sell by Auction on Monday, October 30th, 1905, at the SPREAD EAGLE HOTEL, Bloxwich, at Seven o’clock in the evening precisely (subject to conditions of the Birmingham Law Society) the following Properties.

Estate of William Goodwin, deceased.

Lot 2. The Valuable Freehold Beerhouse, well known as the MINERS ARMS INN, numbered 134 in High Street, Bloxwich, leased to the Bloxwich Brewery Company Limited, for a term of 14 years from 25th December, 1899, at a rental of £26 per annum, the lessees paying rates. The house is in the occupation of Mr. William Tolley and has always done a good trade. The accommodation includes – Bar, Tap Room, Smoke Room, Good Cellarage, Kitchen, and 3 Bedrooms, and outside there is a roomy Wash House and Stable with a well-lighted Store Room over measuring 24ft by 12ft, and there are the usual out-offices.....”

Walsall Advertiser 4/11/1905

“Mr. M. F. Harrison, FAI, (Fox and Harrison) offered for public auction on Monday at the SPREAD EAGLE HOTEL, Bloxwich, before a very large and representative gathering, several properties.....

Lot 2 Comprised of the freehold beerhouse, the MINERS ARMS, High Street, Bloxwich, and lot 3, the old-established butcher’s shop and premises, 126, High Street, Bloxwich. Lots 2 and 3 were first submitted as a whole, and biddings commenced for it at £1,000, and rose to £1,910, at which price the property was withdrawn. Subsequently the lots were divided, and £1,450 was offered for lot 2 and £450 for lot 3, and each of these lots was withdrawn.”

Walsall Advertiser 9/12/1905

“At the Town Council meeting on Monday the Streets Committee will submit the following recommendation. That the council purchase from the trustees of the late Mr. Goodwin the freehold beerhouse, known as the MINERS ARMS, and numbered 134, High Street, Bloxwich, the adjoining messuages Nos.130, 136, and 188, High Street, Bloxwich, and the messuage of No.128, High Street, Bloxwich, for the sum of £1,950, for the purpose of widening and improving the street, and that the Town Clerk be instructed to make application to the Local Government Board for their sanction to the Council borrowing a loan for that amount and for the repayment thereof being spread over a period of 60 years.”

Walsall Advertiser 9/2/1907

“The general annual licensing sessions of the borough were held on Monday at the Guildhall.....

The other objection was as to the MINERS ARMS, Bloxwich, Mr. Jackson appearing for the tenant. It transpired that the Corporation were the owners, and Mr. Moseley asked if it was too much trouble for the Town Council to appear; it was too much trouble for them to come to court last year.”

Walsall Advertiser 2/3/1907

“The adjourned annual licensing meeting for the borough was held on Wednesday at the Guildhall.....

In regard to the MINERS ARMS, Bloxwich, owned by the Corporation, objection had been taken as to it not being required and being structurally unfit. Mr. J. R. Cooper (Town Clerk) said the Corporation had purchased the house for street improvements, and he left the matter in the hands of the Bench. Mr. H. H. Jackson, for the lessees, urged that the license was necessary.”

Staffordshire Advertiser 18/5/1907

“The meeting of the Walsall Confirming Authority under the Licensing Act was held at the Guildhall on Wednesday. The houses recommended to the Compensation Authority were the UNION INN, Bath Street (for which Mr. Foster appeared), and the BARREL INN, Wolverhampton Street, the MINERS ARMS, High Street, and the IVY HOUSE, Stafford Street, for all of which Mr. Jackson appeared. The advocates objected to the reference in each case, but the magistrates confirmed the whole of the recommendations of the Licensing Authority.”

Walsall Advertiser 6/7/1907

“John Herbert Russell, Huntingdon Terrace, Chadsmoor, was charged with being drunk on the licensed premises of the MINERS ARMS, Bloxwich, on June 22nd. Police-sergeant Cattermole saw the defendant come from the inn on the date named, but the landlady did not know he was on the premises, and he had not been served.”

Walsall Advertiser 19/10/1907

“Walsall Town Council.....

Instructions have been given for so much of the property in High Street, Bloxwich, purchased from Goodwin’s Trustees, as may have to be demolished for widening the street as soon as possible, now that compensation to be paid for the non-renewal of the MINERS ARMS license had been arranged, and the Town Clerk has been directed to give the tenants notice to quit forthwith, and to advertise the old building materials for sale. When the buildings are pulled down, the Borough Surveyor has been instructed to complete the improvements and to fence off the land remaining.

The Town Clerk has reported that the compensation to be paid for the non-renewal of the MINERS ARMS, Bloxwich, has been settled at £900, £650 being paid to the Corporation in respect of their interest as owners, and £250 to the Bloxwich Brewery Company Ltd, as lessees, such latter sum to include also their tenant’s interest.”

Walsall Observer 16/10/1915

“Streets Committee.....

The Junior Imperial League has been allowed to give up possession of the old MINERS ARMS property in High Street, Bloxwich, on the 25th December next.”

MINERS ARMS

Leamore Lane, BLOXWICH

OWNERS

LICENSEES

Joseph Hadley [pre 1869]

NOTES

It had a beerhouse license.

MINERS HOME [1869]

Walsall Free Press 9/1/1869 - Advert

“To Be Let, the MINERS HOME INN, Leamore Lane, Bloxwich.

Apply to Sidney Arnold on the premises.”

[This advert was published several times in 1867, 1868 and 1869.]

London Gazette 24/12/1869

“Joseph Hadley, of No.61, James-street, Walsall, in the county of Stafford, Bridle Bit Maker, previously thereto of the FOREST-ERS ARMS, No.4, Proffit-street, Walsall, Retailer of Beer and Bridle Bit Maker, previously thereto of the MINERS ARMS, Leamore-lane, Bloxwich, in the said county of Stafford, Retailer of Beer and Bridle Bit Maker, and previously thereto of the UNION INN, Bloxwich aforesaid, Retailer of Beer and Bridle Bit Maker, having been adjudged bankrupt under a Petition for adjudication of bankruptcy, filed in the County Court of Staffordshire, holden at Walsall, on the 23rd of November, 1869, a public sitting, for the said bankrupt to pass his Last Examination and make application for his Discharge, will be held at the said Court, at the Court-house, Lichfield-street, Walsall, on the 25th day of January next, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon precisely, the day last aforesaid being the day limited for the said bankrupt to surrender. Frederic F. Clarke, of Walsall, is the Official Assignee, and Abraham Baker, of Walsall, is the Solicitor acting in the bankruptcy.”

MINERS ARMS

Goscote, BLOXWICH

OWNERS

LICENSEES

John Bickley [1858]

NOTES

Worcestershire Chronicle 26/6/1872

“On Thursday an inquest was held at the MINERS ARMS, Goscote, on the bodies of Sarah Ann Heskett and Alice Armstrong, aged six, her daughter by a former husband, who were killed on Tuesday by lightning. William Heskett, wagoner, deposed that soon after two o'clock on Tuesday he was standing at the back door of his house at Mouse Hill, with his wife and child watching the storm, when his wife asked him to take a pancheon and place it beneath the spout in the entry. He took up the vessel and was stepping out, when he was struck down insensible, and when he came to himself he found that his wife and child were dead, but an infant which she had in her arms was unhurt. Charles Bickley, a neighbour, spoke to helping remove the bodies. The Jury found that the deceased were accidentally Killed by Lightning.”

MINERS ARMS

Allens Lane, Pelsall, WALSALL

OWNERS

LICENSEES

Charles Beckley [1858] – [1859]
Joseph Jones [1861] – [1862]
Anne Jones [1864]
Abraham Birch [1868]
Thomas Holder [] – 1872);
David Williams (1872 – []
Charles Starkey [] – 1881)
Elizabeth Waltho (1881 – 1885);
John Bill (1885 – []
Edward Cope Clarke [1891]
John William Reaves [] – 1895);
Robert Greaves (1895 – []

NOTES

Charles Beckley = Charles Bickley

Walsall Free Press 3/7/1858 - Advert

“To Publicans And Others.

To Be Let, with immediate possession, the MINERS ARMS, an old-licensed Public House, situate at Pelsall, in the parish of Wolverhampton, and now in the occupation of Mr. C. Bickley. Stock and Fixtures taken at a valuation. Rent Moderate. For further particulars apply to the landlord.”

Birmingham Daily Post 4/10/1859

“A Special Petty Sessions was held at Brownhills on Friday last, before C. Forster, Esq, MP, and the Rev. G. H. Fisher, when the following persons were fined for having in their possession unjust weights and measures, on the information laid by Mr. Inspector Tullett, Inspector for the South Staffordshire district.....

Charles Beckley, MINERS ARMS, Pelsall, unjust measures 1s and costs.”

Walsall Free Press 29/10/1859

“To Be Disposed of that Old Licensed Public House, known as the MINERS ARMS, Pelsall. For particulars apply to Mr. Charles Bickley, or on the premises.”

1861 Census

Allens Lane – MINERS ARMS

- [1] Joseph Jones (68), victualler, born Bilston;
- [2] Anne Jones (55), wife, born Bilston;
- [3] Thomas Jones (16), son, bricklayer, born Bilston;
- [4] Francis Otway (32), son in law, roll turner, born Pelsall;
- [5] Elizabeth M. Pearson (17), visitor, born Bilston;
- [6] Amelia Maulin (46), servant, born Bilston:

Staffordshire Advertiser 23/1/1864

“Ann Jones, landlady of the MINERS ARMS, Pelsall, for having, on the night of the 26th October, permitted disorderly conduct in her house, was sentenced to pay a fine of 10s and costs. Defendant said she had kept a public-house for thirty years, and never had a charge preferred against her before, and on the night in question she was from home, having gone to Bilston, and had been taken ill there, and confined to her bed for sixteen weeks. Had she been at home the conduct complained of would not have been permitted.”

Evening Express 7/6/1881

“A petition has been filed in the Walsall County Court, on behalf of Charles Starkey, of the MINERS ARMS, Pelsall, licensed victualler. The liabilities are estimated at £200, assets not yet declared. Messrs. Huggins and Mallard, Birmingham, are the solicitors to the debtor.”

Elizabeth Waltho = Elizabeth Walthowe

Birmingham Daily Post 30/8/1884 - Advert

“Sale At The MINERS ARMS INN, Pelsall, close to Pelsall Station.

To Publicans, Brokers, and Others.

Unreserved Sale of Capital Brewing Plant, quantity of Household Furniture, Fat and Store Pigs, Two Weighing Machines, Two Pockets of Worcester Hops, 50 Barrels, and a quantity of useful Effects.

Messrs. Bill Brothers have been favoured with instructions from the Landlady (who is making extensive alteration) to Offer by Public Auction the whole of the above useful effects, on Monday Next, September 1, without reserve. Sale to commence at 11.30 punctually. Catalogues on application.

Auctioneers Offices, 44, Temple Street, Birmingham.”

Walsall Observer 14/3/1885

“Samuel Sheargold, ironworker, was charged with having assaulted William Yates, carpenter.

Mr. E. Evans (Walsall) appeared for the defendant.

Complainant stated that on the 21st of last month he was in the MINERS ARMS public house, in company with defendant and his two sons, and after he had been there some time defendant followed him into the back kitchen of the house, and struck him in the face, blackening his eye and breaking his nose.

Samuel Southey, pianist at the above house, stated that after the complainant had been in the room with him about three minutes, defendant followed complainant in, and deliberately struck him in the face.

In reply to the Bench, witness said that he left off playing at 9.45pm in order to get the house cleared by 9.55, but what took place between defendant and complainant before that time he could not tell, there being a great many people in the house at the time.

Mr. Evans contended that defendant did strike complainant, but was aggravated to do so in consequence of complainant vilifying defendant’s father, and used very disrespectful language towards defendant’s mother.

A youth named William Gorman, horse driver, was called for the defence, and stated that when complainant came into the house he hit defendant several times, but he did not take any notice of it. After that he used abusive language towards defendant, which he could not put up with, and he struck complainant.

Mr. Holden asked witness what he was doing in the house, as he was rather young to be in a public house drinking.

Witness said he was 20 years of age. He went into the house about 8.30, and he had one half pint of ale.

Mr. Holden said that the Bench fully believed that bad language had been used, but the defendant had no right to take the law into his own hands, and fined him 10s, or fourteen days’ imprisonment – the costs to be divided.”

1891 Census

The Town, Pelsall – MINERS ARMS

[1] Edward C. Clarke (35), innkeeper, born Armitage;

[2] Mary Clarke (33), wife, born Burntwood;

[3] Samuel Clarke (10), son, scholar, born Burntwood;

[4] Annie Clarke (5), daughter, scholar, born Burntwood;

[5] Lucy Cartwright (12), niece, born Hednesford:

Edward Clarke – see also SPRING COTTAGE, Shelfield.

Walsall Advertiser 12/10/1895

“Mr. A. B. Smith (deputy county coroner) resumed the inquiry on Monday, at the MINERS ARMS, Pelsall, on the body of Benjamin Watson (14), Old Town, Pelsall, who was killed at new Plant Colliery, Pelsall, on the 27th ult. Mr. W. B. Scott, inspector of mines, attended the inquest.

Arthur Rowley, Chapel Street, stated that about 8.30 on the date named he was in the working of the colliery, and was at the top of an incline, in charge of a loaded tub. It was his duty to detach the horse from the tub on reaching the incline, and fasten the wheels. Deceased went down the incline with the horse, and when at the bottom whistled, which was a signal that all was right. Witness removed the blocks from the wheels, and released the tub. He afterwards proceeded to the bottom of the incline, and found that the tub had turned off the proper set of rails and gone into a siding where empties were generally kept. He found deceased apparently in a great pain, and he told witness that the tub had struck him in the stomach. Assistance was obtained, but the boy soon expired.

Other evidence having been tendered, the jury returned a verdict of Accidental Death.”

Lichfield Mercury 11/12/1896 - Advert

“Wanted, a good strong general Servant, about 18 or 20; one to assist in the bar.

Apply, MINERS ARMS, Pelsall.”

Walsall Advertiser 11/9/1897

“The annual licensing meeting for the petty sessional division of Rushall was held on Monday morning at the Courthouse, Rushall.....

Since the last licensing day one license had been given up voluntarily, he presumed, the MINERS ARMS, Pelsall. This was no longer a licensed house, and was converted into a private house.”

MINERS ARMS

Blue Lane, WALSALL

OWNERS

LICENSEES

NOTES

Walsall Free Press 31/8/1867

“To Be Let, the MINERS ARMS, Blue Lane, Walsall, comprising bar, parlour, tap-room, club-room, two chambers, large attic, brewhouse, large workshop, entire yard, hard and soft water. This is a good opportunity for an industrious couple as there are no fixtures to be taken to.

Apply to Mr. Fox, Grocer, Rushall Street.”

Walsall Free Press 9/5/1868

“William Dowlan was charged with having on Saturday night, the 25th ult, assaulted Acting-sergeant Rawls; and John Dowlan with having at the same time and place assaulted Police-constable McGarry. It appeared that on the night in question the prisoners were turned out of the MINERS ARMS, Blue Lane, and the officers on getting them outside advised them to go home; but after using some threatening language William Dowlan struck Rawls with a tin can, and cut his cheek, and on McGarry going to Rawl’s assistance he was struck by John Dowlan. The prisoners who denied the charge called Sarah Morris, who said the police struck the men twice with their staves before the prisoners struck them. Police-constable McGarry struck John Dowlan with his staff and knocked him down for dead, and they carried him in, William Dowlan then went to his brother’s assistance, and was struck by Police-constable Rawls, and on being struck William Dowlan struck Rawls with a can.

Margaret Clark, the prisoner’s sister, said on the night in question she heard a noise, and on going out saw the prisoners and the police, and requested the police to let them alone and she would take them in, and as she did so Police-constable McGarry struck John Dowlan a blow which caused him to reel and fall.

Mary Clark said she saw Police-constable Rawls strike William Dowlan.

The Bench after hearing the evidence on both sides, sentenced the prisoners, who had been previously convicted, to a pay a fine of 40s and costs each, or in default to be imprisoned for one month.”

MINERS ARMS

101, (103), Lichfield Road, Rushall, WALSALL

OWNERS

Shire Oak Brewery [1923]

John Joule and Son Ltd.

Mitchells and Butlers Ltd. [1993]

Totally Fair Pub Group [1998]

LICENSEES

Samuel Kendrick [1845] – [1849]

Samuel Nuttall Snr [1858] – [1881]

Samuel Nuttall [1891] – [1901]

Elizabeth Nuttall [] – 1902;

John Alma Nuttall (1902 – 1905);

Charles Ernest Whitehouse (1905 – 1915);

Elizabeth Whitehouse (1915 – []

George Benjamin Clayton [1915] – [1918]

George Edwards [1932]
Frank Rufford [1939] – [1940]
Mrs. Sarah Ann Rufford [1943]
Cooper [1944] – [1945]
Mrs. Sarah Ann Cooper [1959]

NOTES

103, Lichfield Road
101, Lichfield Road [1939], [1940]

MINERS ARMS HOTEL [1911]

It was situated opposite to the common.

Rushall Olympic FC changed here.

1851 Census

Rushall

[1] Samuel Nuttall (40), widower, miner of limestone, born Rushall;
[2] Frances Nuttall (16), daughter, housekeeper, born Rushall;
[3] Samuel Nuttall (14), son, miner of limestone, born Rushall;
[4] Joseph Nuttall (12), son, errand boy, born Rushall;
[5] Ann Nuttall (10), daughter, scholar, born Rushall;
[6] Eliza Nuttall (7), daughter, scholar, born Rushall;
[7] Emma Nuttall (5), daughter, scholar, born Rushall:
[This has been included to establish the family members.]

Birmingham Daily Post 12/11/1858

“Charges against licensed victuallers and beerhouse keepers for using unjust measures.....

Samuel Nuttall, sen, licensed victualler, the MINERS ARMS, Rushall, was fined 20s and costs, for having sixteen unjust measures.....

The costs in each case amounted to 11s. The Bench, in course of the trial of the several cases, administered severe rebukes to the offenders.”

Staffordshire Advertiser 3/11/1860 - Married

“On the 22nd ultimo, at St. George’s Church, Wolverhampton, by the Rev. J. H. Asman. Mr. Joseph Cooke, of the former place, to Ann, second daughter of Samuel Nuttall, MINERS ARMS, Rushall.”

1861 Census

Lichfield Road

[1] Samuel Nuttall (49), victualler and miner limestone, born Rushall;
[2] Mary Nuttall (39), wife, born Bloxwich;
[3] Joseph Nuttall (22), son, miner limestone, born Rushall;
[4] Eliza Nuttall (17), daughter, born Rushall;
[5] Emma Nuttall (15), daughter, born Rushall;
[6] Elizabeth Nuttall (3), daughter, born Rushall;
[7] Florence Nuttall (10 months), daughter, born Rushall:

Walsall Free Press 31/12/1864 - Deaths

“On the 22nd inst, of diphtheria, aged four years and seven months, Florence, the beloved child of Samuel and Mary Nuttall, of the MINERS ARMS, Rushall.”

Walsall Free Press 4/5/1867 - Deaths

“On the 29th ult, at West Bromwich, after a lingering illness, in the 33rd year of her age, Fanny, the beloved wife of Mr. Daniel Jones, and the eldest daughter of Mr. Samuel Nuttall, MINERS ARMS, Rushall; beloved by all who knew her.”

1871 Census

Lichfield Road, Rushall – MINERS ARMS

[1] Samuel Nuttall (60), limestone miner and victualler, born Walsall;
[2] Mary Nuttall (49), wife, born Bloxwich;
[3] Elizabeth Nuttall (13), daughter, scholar, born Rushall;
[4] Mary A. Nuttall (8), daughter, scholar, born Rushall;

[5] Sarah Smart (24), general servant, born Walsall:

1881 Census

Lichfield Road, Rushall

[1] Samuel Nuttall (70), widower, licensed victualler, born Rushall;

[2] Emma Ann Boot (21), general servant, born Rushall;

[3] Hannah Meeke (18), visitor, dressmaker, born Rushall;

[4] Florence N. Garbett (11), granddaughter, scholar, born Rushall:

Lichfield Mercury 18/11/1887

“An extension of four hour’s duration was granted to Samuel Nuttall, landlord of the MINERS ARMS, Rushall, on the occasion of an entertainment being given, the funds realised from which are to be given to the widow of Charles Holmes, who recently committed suicide.”

Lichfield Mercury 3/10/1890

“The following publicans from Rushall were granted one hour’s extension on Monday, October 13th, the occasion being the wakes Samuel Nuttall.”

1891 Census

Lichfield Road – MINERS ARMS

[1] Samuel Nuttall (54), licensed victualler, born Rushall;

[2] Elizabeth Nuttall (52), wife, born Birmingham;

[3] Lilly Nuttall (19), daughter, born Dudley Port;

[4] Harry Nuttall (17), son, plumber’s apprentice, born Dudley Port;

[5] Ernest Nuttall (15), son, apprentice labourer, born Dudley Port;

[6] Ada Nuttall (13), daughter, born Dudley Port;

[7] Joseph Nuttall (11), son, scholar, born Dudley Port;

[8] Samuel Nuttall (23), son, joiner, born Rushall;

[9] Elizabeth Nuttall (22), daughter in law, born Banbury, Oxfordshire;

[10] Eliza Price (17), general servant, born Dover;

[11] Harry Price (39), widower, agricultural labourer, born Bilston:

Walsall Advertiser 3/9/1892

“Licensing Sessions. These sessions were held on Monday at the Court-house, Rushall.....

Mr. John N. Cotterell (Walsall) applied for an out-door beer license for premises at Rushall in the occupation of George Bakewell, but the license was opposed by the police and Mr. Jackson (Walsall) for Mr. S. Nuttall, of the MINERS ARMS, and Mrs. McLean, of the GEORGE AND DRAGON. Refused.”

Walsall Advertiser 2/9/1893

“The annual Licensing Sessions for this district took place at the Rushall Police Court on Monday morning. The magistrates present were Messrs. F. James, W. H. Brookes and J. Naylor.

Superintendent Barnett opposed the renewal of the licenses of the following houses.....

MINERS ARMS, Daw End, Rushall, on the ground that the premises were difficult to supervise on account of insufficient fencing at the back the police required certain alterations deferred until the Adjourned Sessions, and then, if the alterations had been effected, the license would be renewed.”

Walsall Advertiser 22/6/1895

“Before Mr. Frank James, Mr. T. A. Hill, Dr. Cooke, and Mr. J. Clare, at the Rushall Police Court, on Monday, Albert Henry (?) Nuttall, MINERS ARMS Rushall, pleaded guilty to a charge of having driven furiously along Lichfield Road on Sunday evening about 8.25 on June 19th.

A fine of 2s 6d and 7s costs ordered to be paid.

Mr. James said it was a serious matter for defendant to be fined, as he was a license holder, and the occurrence would doubtless influence the Bench when he applied for the renewal of his license.”

Walsall Advertiser 28/9/1895

“On Monday, at the Police Court, before Mr. F. James, Dr. Cooke, and Mr. W. H. Brookes, Thomas Reaves, Floyds Lane, miner, was fined 9s and 14s costs, or 14 days, for having stolen potatoes, value 6d, the property of Samuel Nuttall, MINERS ARMS, Rushall.”

Lichfield Mercury 11/10/1895

“At the Petty Sessions on Monday, before Messrs. J. Naylor, W. H. Cooke, MD, W. H. Brookes, and J. Clare, Samuel Nuttall, licensed victualler, applied for an hour’s extension at Rushall wakes, on Monday the 14th inst. PS Riley informed the magistrates that there was no objection on the part of the police, and Mr. Naylor stated that the magistrates would follow their usual custom and grant the application.”

Walsall Advertiser 26/2/1898

“The Bench at Rushall on Monday (Dr. Cook and Mr. R. H. Holden) granted an hour’s extension for Mrs. Nuttall, of the MINERS ARMS, on the occasion of a concert in connection with the Olympic Football Club.”

Walsall Advertiser 17/2/1900

“Walsall and District Reservists Fund. Eighteenth List of Subscriptions.....
Mrs. S. Nuttall, MINERS ARMS, Rushall 20s.”

Walsall Observer 17/2/1900

“On Monday afternoon the County Coroner (Mr. H. A. Pearson) held an inquest at the MINERS ARMS, Rushall, in reference to to the death of Sarah Lily Clarke, a child of eight years of age, the illegitimate daughter of Amelia Clarke, living at Barnes Lane, Rushall, who died suddenly on Saturday last.

William Henry Devine, a miner, of Barnes Lane, Rushall, identified the body of the deceased child as the illegitimate daughter of Amelia Clarke, a married woman, who had lived with witness previously. The deceased had always been a sickly child and was taken to Dr. Dallas two years ago. On Thursday last the deceased complained of a headache and pains in the stomach. She was given milk and whisky, but would have nothing to eat. Witness returned from work at 6.20am on Saturday, and the child, getting no better, was put to bed. Shortly after eleven o’clock they found the child dead, and Dr. Hawley was sent for.

Lucy Devine, wife of the last witness, gave similar evidence.

Martha Bird, a neighbour of the Devines, stated that she had known the child for about twelve months. She was always a small child, but had recieved the same treatment as Devine’s other children, and as far as witness knew had also been very well treated. Dr. Hawley, of Walsall, gave evidence that he saw the dead body of the child on Saturday afternoon. She had been dead about six hours. He had since, made a post mortem examination of the deceased. There were no external marks of violence. It was a badly-nourished child, and looked like a child of five or six years of age. All the organs were bloodless, and the stomach and intestines were empty. The lungs and bowels were in a consumptive condition, and the brain presented signs of tubercular meningitis, or wasting of the membranes of the brain. The immediate cause of death was cardiac failure, resulting from general tuberculosis. The physical condition of the child was such that, although it had been well nourished, it would present signs of neglect. The Coroner having summed up, the jury returned a verdict of Death from Natural Causes.”

1901 Census

Lichfield Road, Rushall – MINERS ARMS

- [1] Samuel Nuttall (64), licensed victualler, born Rushall;
- [2] Elizabeth Nuttall (62), wife, born Birmingham;
- [3] Lydia Nuttall (28), daughter, born Dudley Port;
- [4] Ada Nuttall (23), daughter, born Dudley Port;
- [5] Joseph L. Nuttall (21), son, barman, born Dudley Port;
- [6] Martha Millard (16), general servant, born Pelsall:

Walsall Advertiser 12/7/1902 - Advert

“Preliminary Notice.

MINERS ARMS, Rushall, Walsall.

Messrs. Watkins, Powell & Wood are instructed by Mrs. Nuttall to Sell by Auction on Monday, July 28th, the Household Furniture, Brewing Plant, Horse, Pigs, &c.”

Walsall Advertiser 23/8/1902

“At the Police Court, on Monday, Mr. H. H. Jackson applied for a temporary transfer of authority in respect of the MINERS ARMS, from Elizabeth Nuttall to John Alma Nuttall. This was granted.”

Walsall Advertiser 29/11/1902

“At the Police Court, on Monday, an application was made to the transfer of the license of the MINERS ARMS, Rushall, from Elizabeth Nuttall to her son, John Nuttall. This was granted.”

Walsall Advertiser 12/11/1904

“The monthly meeting of the Walsall and District Licensed Victuallers’ and Beer Retailers’ Friendly and Protection Society was held on Thursday at the house of Mr. Edwin James, the RED LION INN, Navigation street, and there was a good attendance.....
New Members..... J. Nuttall, MINERS ARMS INN, Rushall.”

Walsall Advertiser 19/8/1905

“The 53rd annual general meeting of the members of the Walsall and District Licensed Victuallers’ and Beer Retailers’ Friendly and Protection Society, was held on Thursday last.....
New Members..... Charles Ernest Whitehouse, MINERS’ ARMS, Rushall.”

Walsall Advertiser 8/8/1908 - Advert

“T. Boulter & Son, Shire Oak (Near Walsall), Brewers, Maltsters, Spirit & Hop Merchants.

Noted Home-Brewed Ales and Stouts. Guaranteed Pure Malt and Hops Only.

The SHIRE OAK INN, which is within ten minutes' walk of Walsall Tramway terminus at Walsall Wood, has been thoroughly renovated, and an excellent Bowling Green put down.

An Entirely New And Up-To-Date Brewing Plant has been installed, ensuring that our Ales and Stouts are of the finest quality possible. All Orders Promptly Executed. Our Ales are to be obtained at the MINERS ARMS, Rushall.

FOUR CROSSES, Sheffield.

The RESTAURANT, Bridge St., Walsall (Mr. P. Claridges).

The STORES, Freer Street, Walsall.

The Swan, Stonall."

1911 Census

Rushall – MINERS ARMS

[1] Charles Ernest Whitehouse (40), licensed victualler, born Walsall;

[2] Elizabeth Whitehouse (41), wife, married 20 years, housekeeper, born Bilston;

[3] Frederick Whitehouse (18), son, electrical engineer, born Walsall;

[4] Charles Arthur Whitehouse (17), son, pianist, born Walsall;

[5] Annie Rigby (18), domestic servant, born Cannock:

Walsall Advertiser 5/8/1911

"At the Police Court on Monday, before Messrs. W. H. Brooks (presiding), W. F. Clark, and J. Smith, a Walsall man, named Thomas Holdcroft (24), who lives at the Pleck, was summoned for assaulting Frank Hathaway, of Rushall.

Complainant stated that on Monday, July 24th, he went to have a drink at the MINERS ARMS, Rushall, and while there quarrelled with the defendant. When they went outside Holdcroft struck him, knocking him down, and then kicked him behind the ear.

As the defendant did not put in an appearance, the Magistrates issued a warrant for his arrest."

Walsall Advertiser 24/8/1912

"The second annual Church parade of Rushall Friendly Societies took place at Rushall on Sunday. The procession was headed by the Walsall Wood Brass Band, and consisted of members of the Manchester Unity of Oddfellows, Ancient Order of Foresters, United Order of Free Gardeners, MINERS ARMS Sick and Draw Society, Rushall and Daw End Liberal Club....."

Walsall Observer 18/7/1914 - Advert

"3½ T.T. Triumph, late 1911; complete with lamp, horns and tools; in splendid condition. Bargain £24.

Whitehouse, the MINERS ARMS, Rushall."

London Gazette 26/2/1915

"Charles Ernest Whitehouse, Deceased.

Notice is hereby given, that all creditors and other persons having any debts, claims or demands against the estate of Charles Ernest Whitehouse, late of The MINERS ARMS, Lichfield Road, Rushall, near Walsall, in the county of Stafford, Licensed Victualler (who died on the fourth day of February, one thousand nine hundred and fifteen, and to whose estate letters of administration were on the 22nd day of February, 1915, granted by the Lichfield District Registry of the Probate Division of the High Court of Justice to Elizabeth Whitehouse, the lawful Widow and relict of the deceased), are hereby required to send particulars of their claims or demands to me, the undersigned, as Solicitor to the said administratrix, on or before the twenty-seventh day of March next, after which day the said administratrix will proceed to distribute the assets of the said Deceased amongst the parties entitled thereto, having regard only to the claims of which she shall then have had notice; and the said administratrix will not be liable for the assets, or any part thereof, so distributed, to any person of whose debt or claim she shall not then have had notice.

Dated this 24th day of February, one thousand nine hundred and fifteen.

E. Irwin Miller, Imperial Buildings, Bridge Street, Walsall, Solicitor to the said Administratrix."

Walsall Observer 13/3/1915

"At the same court, the license of the MINERS ARMS, Rushall, was transferred to the widow of the late Charles Ernest Whitehouse."

Walsall Advertiser 16/10/1915

"A meeting of the Walsall and District Licensed Victuallers' and Beer Retailers' Friendly and Protection Society was held on Thursday.....

New Member..... Mr. George Benjamin Clayton, MINERS ARMS INN, Rushall."

Walsall Observer 29/7/1916

"At Rushall Police Court on Monday, George Benjamin Clayton, licensee of the MINERS ARMS, Rushall, was summoned for supplying less than a reputed pint of ale in an unsealed vessel to a girl named Emma Poxon, aged 13 years, and also for supplying less than a reputed pint of ale in an unsealed vessel to a girl named Florrie Yates, aged 12 years.

Evidence was given by Police-sergeant Lewis and Police-constable Reynolds, who met the girls coming away with ale from the public house, and the former cross-examined by Mr. H. H. Jackson, who defended, denied that there was a notice posted in the public house that girls under 14 years of age would not be served with less than a reputed pint.

Mr. Jackson addressing the Court, pointed out that Mr. Clayton, who served the girls had been the tenant of the house for about nine years, and had excellent credentials. The onus was on the prosecutor to prove that the landlord knew the girls were under 14 years of age.

Mr. Precey (magistrate) said the appearance of the girls was quite sufficient.

Mr. Jackson pointed out that Poxon was thirteen years and five months old, and the landlord, who was busy at the time, thought they were over fourteen years old, and he put a notice up in the house that girls under fourteen would not be served.

Mr. Precey: A child could not read that.

A fine of 40s was imposed in one case, and 10s in the other.”

Staffordshire Advertiser 17/2/1923

“The annual licensing sessions for the Rushall Division were held on Monday.....

Complaints had been made regarding the inadequate living accommodation provided for licensees at public houses, and the justices felt that the necessary steps should be taken to remedy this. There was also a need for better sanitary accommodation. The justices had considered the question of an alteration in the hours of opening on Sundays, but had decided that there should be no change.

Supt. Sault formally objected to the renewal of the licence of the MINERS ARMS, Rushall, owing to unsatisfactory living accommodation, and it was announced that if the owner, Mr. Boulter, of the Shire Oak Brewery, submitted plans for alterations, they would be considered at the adjourned licensing sessions. The Chairman intimated that it was their desire to make the licensees as comfortable as possible.”

Staffordshire Advertiser 16/2/1924

“The annual licensing sessions for the Rushall Division were held on Monday.....

Notice of objection to the renewal of the license of the MINERS ARMS, Rushall, had been served on the ground that the premises were structurally unsuitable.....

Mr. G. Hawley applied for approval of plan for alterations at the MINERS ARMS, and said that the improvements related entirely to the living accommodation, and the drinking area would remain practically the same.

The Chairman announced that the Bench would pass the plans, but if the work was not put into operation shortly they would refuse the renewal of the license, for which the owner has already had twelve months in which to do the work.”

Walsall Observer 18/3/1939

“The Justices also announced that the licenses of the GEORGE AND DRAGON, Rushall, and the MINERS ARMS, Rushall, consideration of which was adjourned from the General Sessions, would be renewed subject to undertakings which the owners had given the bench.”

1939 Register

101, Lichfield Road – MINERS ARMS

[1] Frank Rufford, date of birth 10/5/1874, publican, incapacitated, married;

[2] Sarah A. (Rufford) Cooper, dob 19/10/1876, unpaid domestic duties, married;

[3] William J. Cooper, dob 1/2/1895, barman, single:

1941 Probate

“Frank Rufford, of MINERS ARMS, Lichfield Road, Rushall, near Walsall, Staffordshire, died 26 June 1941 at the General Hospital, Walsall. Probate Birmingham 12 September to Sarah Ann Rufford, widow. Effects £1,224 2s 3d.”

Walsall Observer 13/2/1943

“No plans were submitted for alterations to licensed premises, and no work had been done to the premises of the MINERS ARMS, Rushall, for which plans were approved in 1939.”

Walsall Observer 11/12/1943

“There was a good attendance at the monthly meeting of the Walsall and District Licensed Victuallers’ Society, held on Thursday.....

Mrs. Sarah Ann Rufford, MINERS ARMS, Lichfield Road, was elected a member of the society.”

Walsall Observer 15/4/1944 - Acknowledgments

“Mrs. Noble and Family, GEORGE AND DRAGON, Rushall, sincerely thank all kind friends for floral tributes and sympathy: Mr. and Mrs. Smith, RED COW, Heath End, Mrs. Rufford, Mr. Cooper, MINERS ARMS, Mr. and Mrs. Martin and Family, Mrs. Duffy and Nora, and Customers of GEORGE AND DRAGON.”

Sarah Ann Rufford married William J. Cooper in the 3rd quarter of 1945.

Walsall Observer 15/9/1945 - Personal

“Mr. and Mrs. Cooper, of the MINERS ARMS, Lichfield Road, wish to thank Mrs. Hill, Mrs. Gibson, Mrs. Yates and all Friends who helped make their Wedding Day a happy one; also Mr. and Mrs. Pritchard, Mr. and Mrs. Pincher, Mr. and Mrs. George Hodson, for the lovey presents received.”

Walsall Observer 22/9/1945

“Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Cooper, MINERS ARMS, Rushall, wish to extend their thanks to Mrs. Amy King, Mr. and Mrs. Mowbray for generous help and good wishes, also Friends and Customers for congratulations and good wishes received on their wedding, September 11, 1945.”

1956 Probate

“William John Cooper, of the MINERS ARMS, 103 Lichfield Road, Rushall, Staffordshire, died 11 February 1956 at the Manor Hospital, Walsall, Staffordshire. Administration Birmingham 28 April to Sarah Ann Cooper, widow. Effects £597 5s.”

Walsall Observer 27/2/1959

“The claim of Mrs. Gertrude Hanman, aged 79, of the Swan Inn, Brownhills, to be the oldest licensee in the district has been challenged by Mrs. Sarah Ann Cooper of the MINERS ARMS, Rushall, who is in her 82nd year. Mrs. Cooper also claims to have been in the licensed trade much longer, her experience of it extending over a period of 40 years. Before she and her first husband, the late Mr. Frank Rufford, took over the Bowling Green, Holloway Head, Birmingham, she worked for eight years as a waitress in Birmingham. It was 21 years ago that they became tenants of the MINERS ARMS after serving as managers of several houses in the Birmingham district. Mr. Rufford died shortly after they had taken over the MINERS ARMS and she took on the tenancy. She later married her barman, Mr. Jack Cooper, who died three years ago, and now she once more holds the tenancy. Her sojourn in the MINERS ARMS falls seven years short of Mrs. Hanman’s 28 years’ residence at the Swan Inn, but this is the only record which Mrs. Cooper is unable to match. She says she is too old to bother with hobbies, but she finds time to carry out her duties as president of the Licensed Victuallers’ Association.”

Birmingham Daily Post 5/3/1959

“When 89-year-old Mrs. Annie Southam was granted the license of her first public house, the BRIDGE INN, at Willenhall, yesterday, she also took over the distinction of being the district’s oldest woman licensee from Mrs. Sarah Ann Cooper, of the MINERS ARMS, Rushall, who is a mere 82 Mrs. Cooper has held her license for nearly 21 years; she took over on the death of her first husband, Mr. Frank Rufford.....”

Walsall Observer 3/2/1967

“The Staffordshire finals of the News of the World Individual Darts Championship of England and Wales will be held at Bloxwich Memorial Club, Harrison Street, Bloxwich, at 7.30pm on Monday next, February 6.....

The eight players taking part are.....

John Taylor (MINERS ARMS, Rushall).....

The winner will receive a Philips Twin Turbo fan heater, the runner up a Sunbeam pop-up toaster, the semi-finalists will get Kodak Instamatic cameras and all the finalists will get a set of News of the World darts.”

A team from here took part in the Sports Argus Inn Quiz. [1974/5], [1978], [1979]

It closed in 2011.

It was severely damaged by fire on 18th October 2011.

Demolished [2012]

MINERS ARMS

Daw End, Rushall, WALSALL

OWNERS

Mr. Mellish

LICENSEES

Isaac Evans [1850]

John Bromhall [1851] – [1872]

Elizabeth Bromhall [1881]

Benjamin Walker [1890] – [1893]

NOTES

John Bromhall = John Broomhall

1851 Census

Daw End

[1] John Broomhall (24), victualler, born Rushall;

[2] Elizabeth Broomhall (25), wife, born Erdington, Warwickshire:

Birmingham Journal 24/1/1857

“On Tuesday last, Mary Grady, aged twelve years, was charged before the Magistrates with having stolen money for the till of Mr. John Broomhall, landlord of the MINERS ARMS. She had been employed as nurse about three days, and was detected in the commission of the offence. From enquiries made by Inspector Price, of Rushall, and Superintendent Cater, of Walsall, it appeared that the accused had only lately returned from Stafford Gaol, where she had been confined for six weeks for felony. She was committed for trial at the next Sessions.”

Wolverhampton Chronicle 11/8/1858

“On Saturday, an inquest was held before G. H. Hinchcliffe, Esq, coroner, at the MINERS ARMS, on the body of George Ingley, aged 7 years. It appeared from the evidence that on the previous Thursday the deceased went with two other boys to the canal to bathe. They all went into the water, and, after being there a short time, the deceased went to the middle of the canal, which was nearly six feet in depth, he was unable to swim, and immediately sank. A quarter of an hour elapsed before he could be taken out, and when found he was quite dead. The jury returned a verdict of Accidental Death.”

Birmingham Daily Post 12/11/1858

“Charges against licensed victuallers and beerhouse keepers for using unjust measures.....

John Broomhall, licensed victualler, MINERS ARMS, Daw End, was fined 20s and costs, for having ten unjust measures.....

The costs in each case amounted to 11s. The Bench, in course of the trial of the several cases, administered severe rebukes to the offenders.”

1861 Census

Daw End – MINERS ARMS

[1] John Bromhall (34), victualler, born Daw End;

[2] Elizabeth Bromhall (35), wife, born Edington, Warwickshire;

[3] Elizabeth Bromhall (9), daughter, scholar, born Rushall;

[4] John Bromhall (8), son, scholar, born Rushall;

[5] Maria Bromhall (6), daughter, scholar, born Rushall;

[6] William H. Bromhall (5), son, scholar, born Rushall;

[7] Margaret Bromhall (3), daughter, born Rushall;

[8] Charles Bromhall (5 months), son, born Rushall:

Walsall Free Press 3/10/1863

“At the Rushall Petty Sessions on Tuesday last.....

John Bromhall, Publican, Daw End, was fined 5s and costs for having had his house open for the sale of beer at five minutes to twelve on Sunday, the 20th inst.”

Walsall Free Press 26/12/1863 - Advert

“To Be Seen alive, at Mr. Broomhall's, The MINERS ARMS, Daw End, The Largest Young Pig In Staffordshire.

Not to be seen before 1 o'clock on Sundays.”

Walsall Free Press 1/10/1864

“On Tuesday afternoon, E. Hooper, Esq, coroner for the district, held an inquest at the MINERS ARMS, Daw End, on the body of William Greenwell, who came by his death under the following circumstance. The deceased who was employed at the brick-yard at Daw End, went, about four o'clock on Saturday afternoon last, to Mr. Brewer's pit, at Pelsall, for a load of 'slack,' and while he was filling his waggon, a quantity of material slipped, and, falling upon him, inflicted such serious injuries that the unfortunate man died about two o'clock the next morning. The jury, after hearing the evidence, returned a verdict of Accidental Death, but censured the man in charge of the 'slack' heaps, and requested the coroner write to Mr. Brewer to appoint a competent person to attend at the pit. Deceased who was 36 years of age, left a wife and eight children, the youngest of whom is only five weeks old.”

1871 Census

Daw End – MINERS ARMS

[1] John Bromhall (44), licensed victualler, born Rushall;

[2] Elizabeth Bromhall (38), wife, born Erdington, Warwickshire;

[3] Elizabeth Bromhall (19), daughter, dressmaker, born Rushall;

[4] Mary A. Bromhall (16), daughter, born Rushall;

[5] Margaret Bromhall (13), daughter, scholar, born Rushall;

- [6] Charles Bromhall (10), son, scholar, born Rushall;
- [7] Frederick Bromhall (8), son, scholar, born Rushall;
- [8] Fanny Bromhall (6), daughter, born Rushall;
- [9] Jane Bromhall (5), daughter, born Rushall;
- [10] Ernest Bromhall (2), son, born Rushall:

1881 Census

Daw End

- [1] Elizabeth Bromhall (54), widow, licensed victualler, born Erdington, Warwickshire;
- [2] Mary A. Bromhall (26), daughter, employed in housework, born Daw End;
- [3] Margaret Bromhall (23), daughter, certificated assistant governess, born Daw End;
- [4] Frederick G. Bromhall (18), son, pupil teacher, born Daw End;
- [5] Ernest Bromhall (13), son, scholar, born Daw End:

Lichfield Mercury 3/10/1890

“The following publicans from Rushall were granted one hour’s extension on Monday, October 13th, the occasion being the wakes
..... Benjamin Walker.”

1891 Census

Daw End, Rushall – MINERS ARMS

- [1] Benjamin Walker (54), licensed victualler, born Daw End;
- [2] Jane Walker (52), wife, born Daw End;
- [3] Benjamin Walker (18), son, brown saddler’s apprentice, born Rushall;
- [4] John Walker (15), son, currier’s apprentice, born Rushall;
- [5] Jonah Walker (13), son, rope spinner’s apprentice, born Rushall;
- [6] George Walker (9), son, scholar, born Rushall:

Lichfield Mercury 12/5/1893

“.....There were like summonses against Benjamin Walker, of the MINERS ARMS, Daw End, and Agnes McLean, of the GEORGE AND DRAGON, Rushall. The constable who gave evidence in this case admitted that he took part in the gaming, and that he had no corroborative evidence, and Mr. Loxton, who defended, at once took the objection that the uncorroborated evidence of an accomplice was insufficient to warrant a conviction. The objection was allowed and the cases dismissed, Mr. Naylor advising that in future the chief constable should see that corroborative evidence was given in such cases.”

Walsall Advertiser 1/9/1894

“The annual Licensing sessions for the Rushall division of the county were held on Monday at Rushall.....

Superintendent Salt’s report.....

The MINERS ARMS, at Daw End, which had been closed about four months had been let as a private dwelling, and he understood it was the intention to apply for the transfer of the license to the MANOR ARMS beerhouse, about a hundred yards away..... John Hanson applied for the full license of the MINERS ARMS, Daw End, to be transferred to him at the MANOR ARMS, Daw End, which hitherto had been licensed as a beerhouse only. Mr. Gerald Lewis, barrister, said he appeared on behalf of the tenant, who was the applicant, and also the owner of the premises. The MANOR ARMS had been licensed as an off-beerhouse, and Mr. Mellish, the owner, was also the owner of the MINERS ARMS. Last year the MINERS ARMS license was renewed with an expression from the bench that the premises were not satisfactory, and in deference to that expression Mr. Mellish built a wall round the back of the premises, thereby making it more easily supervised by the police. The police, however, had made objections to the renewal of the license of the MINERS ARMS, and although there had been no conviction Mr. Mellish had thought it better (and the Vicar of the parish approved the proposal) to ask that the license should go to the other house. When, accordingly, application was made to the magistrates’ clerk to ascertain if he could transfer the license of the MINERS ARMS, the clerk, believing a mere transfer of tenants was meant, said, ‘Yes, if the proper notices are given.’ Notice was given, and the MINERS ARMS premises let to a private tenant, and when the misunderstanding was discovered it was not thought worth while to re-open the place for the few weeks the license had then to run. Mr. Hanson, in reply to questions, said a footpath ran past the house, but it was 100 yards from the highway. The accommodation provided was mainly for boatmen.

Mr. James: The application is granted on the distinct understanding that no renewed application is to be made for the MINERS ARMS, so that there is one house having a full license, instead of one with a full and another with an off-license.”

Walsall Advertiser 27/7/1901

“Harry Baker and John Riley, miners, of Daw End, Rushall, were summoned at the Rushall Police Court on Monday for trespassing in pursuit of game on land at Daw End, belonging to Edward Myatt.

Rose Ellen Tyre, of Lindley Cottages, Rushall, deposed to having heard the report of a gun whilst she was coming down Myatt’s fields at Daw End, and on turning to look in the direction from which the report came she saw the two defendants. She saw Riley run along and pick up a rabbit, and then both defendants left the field.

Henry Laley, of Daw End, said that he heard the report of a gun in Myatt’s fields, and on proceeding there he saw two men running away. He followed them for a time, but was not able to overtake them.

Mr. C. H. Darby (Sharpe and Darby) West Bromwich, represented the defendants, and contended that the witness who had sworn she saw the defendants in Myatt's fields was mistaken. He asserted that at the time the defendants were alleged to be in the field they were both together at the MINERS ARMS public-house at Daw End. The magistrates considered the case proved, and ordered defendants to pay 10s and costs."

MINERVA

10, Paddock Lane, (10, Paddock Street) / Union Street, (Ablewell Street), WALSALL

OWNERS

James Whitehouse

Frederick Birch, maltster, Great Barr
Ann Fox
William Fox
James Fox
Bloxwich Brewery
William Butler and Co. Ltd.

LICENSEES

Mary Eld [1835]
John Eld [1835]
Edward James [1841] – [1842]
John Ankrett []
George Smith [1849] – [1852]
James Fisher [1852] – [1854]
Aaron Stokes [1856] – 1861;
Samuel King (1861 – [1862]
Frederick Birch [1864] – [1865]
J Evans [1865]
William Lloyd [1868] – [1870]
Thomas Millington [] – 1870;
William Shelton (1870 – [1880]);
James Fox [1881] – 189_);
Mrs. Ann Fox [1891] – [1892] (189_ – 1900);
William Fox (1900 – 1911);
Albert Edward Wood (1911 – 1922);
John Thomas Alcock (1922 – 1926);
John Rogers (1926 – 1929);
Robert Woolley (1929 – 1930);
Achille Leo Williams (1930 – 1946);
Frank Henry Daniels (1946 – 1958):

NOTES

Ablewell Street [1835], [1840], [1844], [1846], [1850], [1851], [1852], [1853], [1854]
10, Paddock Lane [1862], [1881], [1891], [1896], [1901], [1908], [1932], [1939], [1940]
10, Paddock Street [1864]

Staffordshire Advertiser 28/3/1835 - Advert

"To be Sold by Auction, at the GREEN MAN INN, Walsall, in the county of Stafford, on Wednesday the 15th day of April, 1835, at six o'clock in the evening, subject to conditions as will be then and there produced, and in the following or other lots as may be agreed upon at the time of sale.....

Lot 4. All that very valuable Messuage or Public House, known by the sign of the MINERVA, situate in Ablewell Street, Walsall, and fronting the road leading from Walsall to Birmingham, with convenient brew-house and garden at the back of same, and appurtenances thereto belonging, and now in the occupation of Mr. John Eld, and producing a clear annual rental of £38....."

Wolverhampton Chronicle 29/11/1839 - Advert

"MINERVA INN, Walsall.

To Be Let, with immediate possession, that good accustomed and old-established House, known by the sign of the MINERVA INN, in Ablewell Street, with stabling for twelve horses and lock-up gig house. It is situated in a very populous district, fitted up with every convenience, and capable of doing a very extensive business. The fixtures and stock, which is very low, will be required to be taken at a fair valuation.

For further particulars apply to Mr. C. Marklew, solicitor, or S. Whitehouse, auctioneer and land agent, both of Walsall.”

Aris's Birmingham Gazette 23/3/1840 - Advert

“To be Sold or Let, with immediate possession, that old-established and highly advantageously situated Public House, known by the sign of the MINERVA, in Ablewell Street, in the borough of Walsall, with extensive and convenient Cellaring, capital Stabling and Coach-house, a very spacious Yard, and every requisite for carrying on a first-rate business.

There is no Stock to be taken to, and but very few Fixtures, therefore it is an opportunity for any person wishing to embark in the Public Business of placing himself at a very trifling expense in a first-rate situation.

The House is fitted up with every convenience, and is in the most complete repair; it is situated in a very populous and highly respectable neighbourhood, and does really possess advantages which are seldom offered to the public.

For further particulars apply to J. Whitehouse, Land Surveyor and Auctioneer, Bradford Street, Walsall.”

Bells Life in London and Sporting Chronicle 10/3/1844

“James Gifford, of Walsall, will match his dog Spring against Fox's dog, of Darlaston, for £5 or £10 a side, 33lb; if declined, any other dog within 15 miles of Walsall can be accommodated on the same terms. The money is ready at the MINERVA, Ablewell Street, Walsall.”

London Gazette 7/8/1846

“Whereas a Petition of John Ankrett, at present and for six months last past, residing in Lodgings at Church-hill, Wednesbury, Journeyman Carpenter, and for six months previous thereto residing at the MINERVA Public-house, Ablewell-street, Walsall, Publican, and for twelve months previous thereto residing in Rushall-street, Walsall aforesaid, Baker and Provision Dealer, and for nine months previous thereto residing in Birmingham-street, Walsall aforesaid, Baker and Provision Dealer, an insolvent debtor, having been filed in the Birmingham District Court of Bankruptcy, and the interim order for protection from process having been given to the said John Ankrett, under the provisions of the Statutes in that case made and provided, the said John Ankrett is hereby required to appear in Court before John Balmay, Esq, the Commissioner acting in the matter of the said Petition, on the 14th day of August instant, at ten of the clock in the forenoon precisely, at the Birmingham District Court of Bankruptcy, at Birmingham, for his first examination touching his debts, estate, and effects, and to be further dealt with according to the provisions of the said Statutes; and the choice of the creditors' assignees is to take place at the time so appointed. All persons indebted to the said John Ankrett, or that have any of his effects, are not to pay or deliver the same but to Mr. James Christie, Waterloo-street, Birmingham, the Official Assignee, nominated in that behalf by the Commissioner acting in the matter of the said Petition.”

London Gazette 13/4/1849

“Whereas a Petition of Edward James, at present, and for fourteen days now last past, residing in Lodgings, in Rushall-street, Walsall, in the county of Stafford, and being out of business and employment, and for four years and upwards previously thereto, residing at a house called or known by the name or sign of the QUEENS HEAD, in Hill-street, in Walsall aforesaid, there carrying on the trade or business of a Licensed Victualler, and for three years previously thereto at a house in Ablewell-street, Walsall aforesaid, called or known by the sign of the MINERVA, there also carrying on the trade or business of a Licensed Victualler, an insolvent debtor, having been filed in the County Court of Staffordshire, at Walsall, and an interim order for protection from process having been given to the said Edward James, under the provisions of the Statutes in that case made and provided, the said Edward James is hereby required to appear before the said Court, on the 30th of April instant, at twelve of the clock at noon precisely, for his first examination touching his debts, estate, and effects, and to be further dealt with according to the provisions of the said Statutes; and the choice of the creditors' assignees is to take place at the time so appointed. All persons indebted to the said Edward James, or that have any of his effects, are not to pay or deliver the same but to Mr. William Cotterill, Clerk of the said Court, at his offices, in Bridge-street, Walsall, the Official Assignee of the estate and effects of the said insolvent.”

1851 Census

Ablewell Street

- [1] George Smith (27), innkeeper, born Sutton Coldfield;
- [2] Marianne Smith (32), wife, born Birmingham;
- [3] Henry G. Smith (7 months), son, born Walsall;
- [4] Jane Bailey (18), servant, born Kings Bromley, Staffordshire;
- [5] John Davis (48), lodger, labourer, born Shrewsbury;
- [6] Richard Felton (26), lodger, labourer, born Albrighton, Shropshire:

Staffordshire Advertiser 13/3/1852 - Advert

“To be Sold by Auction, by Mr. Henry Farrington, by direction of the Trustees of the will of the late Mr. James Whitehouse, deceased, at the NEW INN, Park Street, Walsall, on Tuesday, the 16th day of March, 1852, at five o'clock in the afternoon.....

Lot 38. All that old-established Inn, called the MINERVA, well situated in Ablewell Street, being one of the leading thoroughfares of Walsall, and now occupied by Mr. George Smith.

The above contains capital Bar, Parlour, Tap-room, Kitchen, Brewhouse, excellent Cellars, capital Lodge-room, four Chambers, large Yard, Pump of excellent water, large Stabling for 20 horses, and other conveniences. Together with the small House adjoining, occupied by Mrs. Thornhill. And also the House, Stable, and Out-Offices, fronting to the Ditch, occupied by Mr. John Longmore.”

Staffordshire Advertiser 14/8/1852 - Advert

“Sale at the MINERVA INN, Ablewell Street, (under a Bill of Sale). George Allin will sell by auction, on Monday next, August 16th, all the clean and useful Household Furniture, Brewing Utensils, and other Effects; comprising four-post and other bedsteads, three prime feather beds, handsome mahogany chest of drawers, painted wash stands, dressing tables and chairs; capital eight-day clock, in oak case; oak and deal dining and other tables; capital four-pull Beer Machine, and piping complete; gas meter, pendants, and piping; two iron furnaces and fittings; capital large cooking grate, nearly new; two mash tubs, three coolers, quantity of tubs; quality ale casks, various sizes; quantity of timber and plank-ing, and a variety of other effects; which will appear in catalogues, to be had at the Auctioneer’s Offices, Bridge Street, Walsall. Sale to commence at ten o’clock in the morning, under the usual conditions.”

Staffordshire Advertiser 14/8/1852

“Samuel Nightingale, Mark Maley, and James Fisher were charged by the police with having their respective public-houses open at improper hours, and were severally fined 5s each and costs.”

Staffordshire Advertiser 9/7/1853

“The following three publicans were, on Wednesday last, fined, the first two 10s each, and the last 20s, for selling during prohibited hours on the Sabbath. Mr. James Fisher, the MINERVA, Ablewell Street; Mr. James Ashwell, the KINGS HEAD, Caldmore; and Mr. John Ricketts, of the MALT SHOVEL, Lower Rushall Street.”

Staffordshire Advertiser 14/1/1854 - Advert

“Sale at the MINERVA INN, Ablewell Street. George Allin will Sell by Auction, on premises as above, on Monday, January 23rd, 1854, part of the clean and useful Household Furniture, Brewing Vessels, well-seasoned Casks, &c, comprising mahogany and deal tables, Windsor chairs, benches, excellent eight-day clock and timepiece, capital four-pull beer machine, and piping tap, counter, shelving, and other bar fittings; six-light gas meter and fittings, fourteen prime ale casks, from 30 to 150 gallons; excellent 18-bushel mash tub, pair capital vats, working and other tubs, capital 140-gallon iron furnace and fittings, brewing utensils, skittle frame and pegs, and numerous other effects, belonging to Mr. James Fisher, who is declining the public business. Sale to commence at 11 precisely. Conditions as usual. Catalogues may be had at the Auctioneer’s Office, Bridge Street Walsall, and High Street, Wednesbury.”

Staffordshire Sentinel 13/9/1856

“Monday being the day appointed for the renewal of old licenses, and considering the application for new ones, there was a rather full attendance of magistrates. There were no less than twenty-eight applications for new licenses, all of which were refused with the exception of Aaron Stokes, beerhouse keeper, Paddock Lane. The applications were for the most part refused, in consequence of the number of houses already licensed in the respective localities, and in a few instances from the want of sufficient accommodation.”

Walsall Free Press 31/7/1858 - Advert

“Mr. Aaron Stokes, MINERVA INN, Paddock Lane, will hold his annual Gipsy Party, on Monday, August 9th, in a field adjoining the Walsall Cricket Ground, Chuckery. Tea on the table at five o’clock, pm. Tickets 1s 6d each, Music included.”

Wolverhampton Chronicle 1/9/1858

“Foreign Publicans at Darlaston Wake. Mr. Harper; Mr. William Coates, Bulls Head, Kidderminster; Mr. William Ashcroft, of Bilston; Mr. Aaron Stokes, of Walsall; Mr. Francis Jones, of West Bromwich; Mr. William Grattage, of Wolverhampton; and Mr. Joseph Archer, of Wolverhampton, were severally charged at Wednesbury Petty Sessions, on Tuesday, with having, on Sunday, the 22nd current, the opening day of Darlaston wake, unlawfully sold, by retail, quantities of exciseable liquors (spirits or ale) to be drunk and consumed on their premises there situate, the said parties not being then and there licensed so to do, and not being then and there the heirs, executors, administrators, or assignees, of the parties duly licensed so to do. Mr. Bartlett, solicitor, of Wolverhampton, appeared for the defendants, and Inspector Blaney conducted the case for the prosecution. The charge against Harper was first taken, when Serjeant Went proved that he saw exciseable liquors sold in the defendant’s booth on the day in question. Mr. Bartlett, on the part of his client, said that for a good number of years it had been customary for persons like his client to fix booths for the sale of their liquors at such places of pleasure and pastime. Mr. Leigh: I must decide according to law. Mr. Bartlett: I speak merely as to mitigation of fine. Mr. Leigh: In the case of a village festival, which may occur only once a year, I would consider it very hard that certain tradesmen should come from a distance and endeavour to deprive the local publicans of the chance of reaping a good trade. There may have been licensed victuallers from Kidderminster at Darlaston wake. Just at the very moment when the publicans of Darlaston, who are subject to pay rates and all other legal taxes, expected to command a good business, they were suddenly pounced upon and put in competition with ten or twenty licensed victuallers from a distance. This is not allowed by the spirit of the law.

Mr. Bartlett stated that his client had acted under misapprehension of the law, and he considered supplying refreshments at wakes similar to erecting booths at race-courses. Mr. Bartlett also quoted notices, intimating that on each day of the wake there would be a pony race for a purse of money.

After a patient consideration of the case, Mr. Leigh decided that the law had been infringed; and, as Mr. Bartlett gave notice of appeal to the Quarter Sessions, he would impose a penalty of £20.

In the course of the other six cases being tried – for they were all similar – Mr. Bartlett, on consulting his clients, withdrew his notice of appeal, when the whole defendants were fined each in the mitigated penalty of £5.”

Walsall Free Press 19/2/1859 - Advert

“Capital Old-Licensed Public House, in Walsall.

To Be Sold By Auction, by Mr. Farrington, at the OLD STILL INN, Digbeth, Walsall, on Monday, the 7th day of March, 1859, at seven o'clock in the evening, subject to conditions.

All the capital well accustomed old-licensed Public-House, known as the MINERVA INN, comprising front and back parlours, bar, tap-room, large club-room, sleeping rooms, spacious cellars &c, with brewhouse thereto belonging, situate in front of Union Street and Paddock Lane, in Walsall, and now or lately occupied by Mr. Aaron Stokes.

The house and buildings were erected about four years ago, in a very substantial manner, are situate in the most improving street in Walsall, and are well adapted for carrying on an extensive business. The site contains 850 square yards, and is held under a lease for 99 years from the 25th day of March, 1855, at a yearly ground rent of £4 8s 6d.

For further particulars apply to the Auctioneer, or to Mr. Wilkinson, Solicitor, both of Walsall.”

Walsall Free Press 29/2/1859 - Advert

“Notice Is Hereby Given, that the intended Sale of the MINERVA INN, Walsall, advertised to be held at the OLD STILL INN, Walsall, on Monday, the 7th day of March next, Will Not Take Place.

Saml. Wilkinson, Jun, Walsall, 24th February, 1859.”

Walsall Free Press 30/7/1859 - Advert

“Mr. & Mrs. Stokes, of the MINERVA INN, Paddock, Walsall, take leave to announce that their annual Tea And Dancing Party will take place on Monday, the 8th day of August, 1859, in the Marquee on the ground adjoining the house.

Tea on the table 5.30pm. Tickets 1s 6d each. Music included.

Ladies and Gentlemen will meet with every attention to their comfort, and their attendance will be esteemed a favour.”

London Gazette 16/4/1861

“Aaron Stokes, late of the MINERVA INN, Paddock-lane, in the Foreign of Walsall, in the county of Stafford, Licensed Victualler, and Licensed Retail Dealer in Wines, Spirituous Liquors, Ale, Beer, and Tobacco, at the same time carrying on the trade of Builder, and occasionally working as a bricklayer.”

Walsall Free Press 14/9/1861

“Aaron Stokes, keeper of the MINERVA, Paddock Lane, was charged by Sergeant Mason with having had his house open at ten minutes to one on Sunday, the 1st of September. The sergeant entered the house at that hour, and found a man drunk on the premises. Defendant denied having sold anything, but admitted the house was open. The Bench gave him the benefit of the doubt, and dismissed the summons.”

Walsall Free Press 12/10/1861 - Advert

“To parties in search of a respectable Public House.

The MINERVA INN, Paddock Street, Walsall.

To Be Disposed Of By H. Farrington, the Licenses, Good-will and Possession, of that excellent Old Licensed Public House, known as the MINERVA INN, pleasantly situated in a very populous and improving neighbourhood, and near to the entrance from Ablewell Street, to Paddock Street.”

Walsall Free Press 16/11/1861

“Application was made for the transfer of the MINERVA, Paddock, from Aaron Stokes to Samuel King.

.....The police gave all applicants good characters, and the transfers were permitted.”

Walsall Free Press 12/3/1864 - Advert

“Wanted a General Servant.

Apply at the MINERVA INN, Paddock.”

Walsall Free Press 15/4/1865 - Advert

“A Tea Party will take place on Easter Monday, April 17, 1865, at Mr. J. Evans's, MINERVA INN, Paddock. Tea on the Table at 5 o'clock. Tickets 1s each, music included.”

1871 Census

10, Paddock – MINERVA INN

[1] William Shelton (54), licensed victualler, born Shiffnall [Shifnal], Shropshire;

[2] Mary A. Shelton (55), wife, born Shiffnall, Shropshire;

[3] Eliza Shelton (18), daughter, born West Bromwich;

[4] Mary A. Russell (6), granddaughter, scholar, born West Bromwich:

Staffordshire Advertiser 13/7/1878

“On Thursday Mr. Fletcher, coroner, held an inquest at the MINERVA INN, Paddock, on the body of Mary Ann Shelton, aged 48, wife of the keeper of the house. It was shown that on Wednesday night the deceased and her husband were returning from Sutton races in a light trap, and when near Mr. James’s residence in Aldridge Mr. Shelton, who was driving, made an attempt to pass a heavily-laden brake, which was proceeding in the same direction. At the moment the horse shied, and caused one of the wheels of the trap to rise against the roadside bank, the result being that Mrs. Shelton was thrown out, and one of the hind wheels of the brake passed over her body, killing her instantly. Dr. Cooke was summoned, however, and was on the spot in about five minutes. Verdict, Accidental Death.”

Staffordshire Advertiser 14/12/1878

“On Monday Mr. Fletcher, coroner, held an adjourned inquest at the MINERVA INN, Paddock, on the body of Henry Saunders, aged 79. Dr. Maclachan, who made the post-mortem examination in the case, referred to the great want of a public mortuary and dissecting room in the town, mentioning that there being no furniture in the house in which the body lay, and the neighbours refusing to lend a table, the body had to be placed upon an old door propped upon the backs of two chairs. Such cases as this were not infrequent, and they pressed very hard upon the medical practitioners, to say nothing of the want of proper respect to the dead. The coroner expressed his sympathy with these remarks, and he hoped some arrangement would be made by the Council for the use of the new rooms in the Cottage Hospital. A verdict of Death from Natural Causes was returned.”

1881 Census

10, Paddock Lane – MINERVA INN

[1] James Fox (43), saddler, born Walsall;

[2] Ann Fox (43), wife, born Walsall;

[3] Maria Fox (18), daughter, barmaid, born Walsall;

[4] James Fox (15), son, born Walsall;

[5] Agnes Fox (11), daughter, scholar, born Walsall;

[6] Nelly Fox (9), daughter, scholar, born Walsall;

[7] Frank Fox (6), son, scholar, born Walsall;

[8] Sarah Fox (4), daughter, scholar, born Walsall;

[9] Kate Fox (2), daughter, born Walsall;

[10] Thomas Fox (1), son, born Walsall;

[11] Annie Massey (20), domestic servant, born Walsall;

[12] Elizabeth Leake (16), domestic servant, born Walsall:

Evening Express 22/7/1881

“This day (Friday) A. A. Fletcher, Esq, coroner for Walsall, held an inquest at the MINERVA public house, Paddock Lane, Walsall, upon the body of Eliza Whittaker, aged 67.

From the evidence it appeared deceased had been suffering from diarrhea, but had not had any medical assistance. On Tuesday night she went to bed, and about half past seven next morning, when her son went downstairs, he found deceased lying on the sofa quite dead.

The jury returned a verdict of Death from Natural Causes.”

Evening Express 1/12/1881

“On Monday evening the members of Court Garibaldi, AOF, celebrated their 21st anniversary by a dinner in the MINERVA public house, Paddock Lane, Walsall. The chair was occupied by the Mayor, and among those present were Alderman Evans, Councillors Humphries and Lester, and Dr. Kelly.

The Mayor in proposing the toast of the evening, ‘Success to Court Garibaldi,’ pointed out the great advantages of such societies, and urged upon all the members who did not now subscribe to the widows’ and orphans’ fund to do so. The Toast was acknowledged by Mr. James Frates, DCR, who gave an interesting account of the development of Forestry in this district from the year 1865 up to the present.

Mr. Hyslop, the secretary, also replied to the toast, and gave a history of the court, which he said was at present in a very flourishing condition.

Several other toasts were given and responded to, and altogether a very pleasant evening was spent.”

Walsall Observer 11/4/1885

“The Paddock Money Club. On Wednesday a supper was provided for the members of the above club at Mr. J. Fox’s MINERVA INN, Paddock Lane, at which about 35 sat down. After the cloth had been withdrawn Mr. J. Marlow was voted to the chair, and a very enjoyable evening was spent, and the host must surely be congratulated on providing such an admirable repast. It was mentioned that upwards of £300 had passed through the hands of the secretary (Mr. S. Davis) during the last club, and the present club was a more flourishing one.”

1891 Census

10, Paddock Lane – MINERVA

- [1] Ann Fox (53), widow, licensed victualler, born France;
- [2] Agnes Fox (21), daughter, barmaid, born Walsall;
- [3] Nellie Fox (18), daughter, machinist, born Walsall;
- [4] Frank Fox (16), son, harness maker, born Walsall;
- [5] Sarah Fox (13), daughter, scholar, born Walsall;
- [6] Kate Fox (12), daughter, scholar, born Walsall;
- [7] Thomas Fox (11), son, scholar, born Walsall;
- [8] Mary A. Law (17), general servant, born Bloxwich:

Walsall Advertiser 13/2/1892

“A most successful dinner in connection with the Paddock Ward Liberal Association took place in the MINERVA TAVERN, Paddock, on Thursday last.....”

Walsall Observer 6/5/1893

“The annual dinner in connection with the Walsall Strollers Football Club was held on Monday evening last, at the MINERVA INN, Paddock Lane, and proved of a very interesting character. Upwards of forty members and friends sat down to a capital repast, which was excellently served, and to which full justice was done by those present. The cloths having been removed, the President of the club (Mr. J. Moseley) took the chair.....”

Agnes Fox (27), spinster, 10, Paddock Lane, Walsall, married William Fox (27), bachelor, licensed victualler, Stone Cross, West Bromwich, on 28th April 1897.

Walsall Observer 3/2/1900

“Ann Fox, Deceased. Notice is hereby given, that all Creditors and other Persons having any Claims against or upon the Estate of Ann Fox, late of the MINERVA INN, Paddock Lane, Walsall Publican, deceased, who died on the 23rd day of October 1899, and whose Will was proved in the Lichfield District Registry of the Probate Division.....”

Walsall Advertiser 14/7/1900

“The monthly meeting of the Walsall and District Licensed Victuallers’ and Beer Retailers’ Friendly and Protection Society was held on Thursday.....

New Members..... William Fox, MINERVA INN.”

1901 Census

10, Paddock Lane

- [1] William Fox (30), licensed victualler, born Walsall;
- [2] Agnes Fox (30), wife, born Walsall;
- [3] Norman Fox (2), son, born West Bromwich;
- [4] Kate Fox (10 months), daughter, born West Bromwich;
- [5] Kate Fox (23), sister in law, living on own means, born Walsall;
- [6] Ellen Fox (27), sister in law, living on own means, born Walsall;
- [7] Lucy Hill (64), visitor, living on own means, born Malvern, Worcestershire:

Walsall Advertiser 13/9/1902

“The first meeting of the newly-elected Executive Committee of the Walsall and District Licensed Victuallers’ and Beer Retailers’ Friendly and Protection Society was held on Thursday last at the house of the president, RED LION INN, Navigation Street..... Mr. Wm. Fox, MINERVA INN, Paddock was unanimously elected as a licensed victualler to the vacant seat on the executive.”

1911 Census

10, Paddock Lane

- [1] William Fox (40), licensed victualler, born Walsall;
- [2] Florence Fox (35), wife, assisting in business, born Rushall;
- [3] Norman Fox (13), son, born Stone Cross, near Wednesbury;
- [4] Kate Mary Ann Fox (9), daughter, born Walsall;
- [5] Violet Allen (19), domestic servant, born Walsall:

William Fox – see also STONE CROSS, West Bromwich.

Walsall Observer 2/5/1914 - Advert

“Wanted, strong General; character essential.

The MINERVA, Paddock.”

Walsall Observer 21/11/1914

“The following is a list of box collections to date made on behalf of the Prince of Wales’ National Relief Fund (Walsall Branch).....

MINERVA, Paddock, Walsall, 11s 8d.”

Walsall Observer 12/1/1918

“Walsall and District War Aid Committee. Collection By The Licensed Victuallers, December, 1917.....
The MINERVA, Paddock Lane. £1 10s 6d.”

John Rogers – see also PEACOCK.

1939 Register

10, Paddock Lane

[1] Achille Leo Williams, date of birth 7/2/1879, licensed victualler, married;

[2] Sarah Williams, dob 25/8/1876, housewife, helps in business, married;

[3] Elsie Teresa (Williams) Cooper, dob 20/3/1921, domestic servant, single:

Walsall Observer 3/2/1940

“Both members of old Walsall families, well-known, especially in the Paddock district, Mr. and Mrs. James Fox, of 4, Burleigh Street, celebrated their golden wedding on Monday, having been married fifty years ago at St. George’s Church by the Rev. Colin Barrett, who was then vicar of the parish.

Mr. Fox’s father, whose Christian name was also James, was at different times licensee of two Lower Rushall Street public-houses – the KINGS ARMS and the ACORN (now demolished) – and also the MINERVA, Paddock Lane.....”

Walsall Observer 15/1/1944

“Walsall Licensed Victuallers’ Society.

Appeal on Behalf of the Merchant Navy Fund, The Duke of Gloucester’s Red Cross Fund and the Aid to China Fund. List of Subscriptions.....

MINERVA INN, Paddock Lane. £0 12s 0d.”

It closed on 17th April 1958.

The license was transferred to the LAMP, Bloxwich.

Demolished

MITRE TAVERN

8, Orlando Street, WALSALL

OWNERS

William Henry Newman

Henry Hickman

Joseph Yardey, maltster, Darlaston

Old Wolverhampton Breweries Ltd.

Frank Myatt Ltd. (leased)

LICENSEES

William Henry Newman [1858] – [1872];

Henry Hickman [1873] – [1883]

Mrs. Hannah Hickman [] – 1889);

William Henry Hickman (1889 – 1894);

Mrs. Ellen (Hickman) Wightman (1894 – 1904);

Andrew Wightman [1901] ?

Henry ‘Harry’ Purchase (1904 – 1912);

William Mallinson (1912 – 1913);

Ernest William Wilkes (1913 – 1920);

Charles Edward Naylor (1920 – 1923):
George Jukes [1921] ?

NOTES

William Henry Newman = Henry Newman

1871 Census

8, Orlando Street – MITRE TAVERN

- [1] William H. Newman (64), victualler, born Walsall;
- [2] Matilda Newman (60), wife, born Walsall;
- [3] Ann Welsh (17), general servant, born Walsall Wood:

Midland Examiner 7/8/1875

“Henry Hickman, licensed victualler, of Orlando Street, was summoned for having on the 29th ult, had in his possession six pint cups as measures, the same being defective, and unjust towards the purchaser. The defendant pleaded guilty to the charge, stated that the measures were not used for any purpose at all, and added that he purchased them when he took the house. The Mayor said the defendant ought to have taken care that the jugs in his possession were correct. Fined 20s and costs.”

1881 Census

8, Orlando Street

- [1] Henry Hickman (59), victualler, born Walsall;
- [2] Hannah Hickman (60), wife, born Weeford, Staffordshire;
- [3] Emma Baker (23), general servant, born London:
[Weeford is about 5 miles W of Tamworth.]

Walsall Advertiser 17/2/1883 - Advert

“Wanted, a respectable girl, about 18 to 20, as General Servant.
Apply, Henry Hickman, MITRE TAVERN, Orlando Street.”

Walsall Advertiser 11/4/1885 - Advert

“Wanted, a good General Servant, about 18 or 20.
Apply, MITRE TAVERN, Orlando Street.”

1891 Census

8, Orlando Street

- [1] William Henry Hickman (44), licensed victualler and brown saddler, born Walsall;
- [2] Ellen Hickman (42), wife, born Walsall;
- [3] Charles H. Hickman (11), son, born Walsall;
- [4] William J. Hickman (9), son, born Walsall;
- [5] Mary Williams (21), domestic servant, born Wednesbury:

Walsall Advertiser 9/6/1894 - Deaths

“On the 28th ult, after a long illness, William Henry Hickman, MITRE TAVERN, Orlando Street, aged 47.
Interred in family vault, St. Mathew’s Churchyard, May 31st. Deeply regretted.”

Ellen Hickman married Andrew Wightman in the 4th quarter of 1895.

1901 Census

8, Orlando Street – MITRE TAVERN

- [1] Andrew Wightman (54), publican, born Dumfriesshire, Scotland;
- [2] Ellen Wightman (52), wife, born West Bromwich;
- [3] Charles Hickman (21), stepson, pattern maker (buckle), born Walsall;
- [4] William Hickman (18), stepson, chemist’s assistant, born Walsall;
- [5] Annie Jenkinson (28), domestic servant, born Durham:

Walsall Advertiser 14/5/1904

“On the application of Mr. Wyllie a temporary transfer of authority with respect to the MITRE TAVERN, Orland Street, was granted from Ellen Wightman to Henry Purchase.”

Walsall Advertiser 13/3/1909

“The monthly meeting of the Walsall and District Licensed Victuallers’ and Beer Retailers’ Friendly and Protection Society, was held on Thursday last.....

New Members..... Mr. Harry Purchase, MITRE TAVERN, Orlando Street.”

1911 Census

8, Orlando Street

- [1] Harry Purchase (35), publican, born Walsall;
- [2] Patience Purchase (34), wife, married 12 years, born Walsall;
- [3] Dora Purchase (5), daughter, school, born Walsall;
- [4] May Purchase (3), daughter, born Walsall:

Walsall Advertiser 13/4/1912

“John Jackson (32), a vice-cutter, of 53, Long Street, was charged with stealing a clock, valued at 5s, the property of Harry Purchase, on April 1st.

The evidence of Mrs. Patience Purchase showed that the clock was taken from the MITRE INN, Orlando Street, prisoner having entered the house to have a drink in company with a woman. The clock was on smoke room shelf. Later she saw the prisoner in the entry carrying a brown paper parcel. She at once missed the clock and gave information to the police. She had since been shown the clock, and had identified it as her property.

Detective Ayres said when he arrested prisoner he immediately admitted taking the clock, and took witness to the house of the woman in Bridgeman Street where he was given the clock. When charged the prisoner said: ‘Yes, I took it. I am sorry for it.’ Prisoner pleaded guilty and expressed his regret saying he had no intention of stealing the clock. Prisoner was placed on his good behaviour for three months.”

Walsall Advertiser 16/8/1913

“The monthly meeting of the Walsall and District Licensed Victuallers’ and Beer Retailers’ Friendly and Protection Society, was held on Thursday.....

New Members..... Mr. E. Wilkes, MITRE TAVERN, Orlando Street.”

Walsall Observer 12/1/1918

“Walsall and District War Aid Committee. Collection By The Licensed Victuallers, December, 1917..... MITRE TAVERN, Orlando Street. £0 15s 1d.”

George Jukes = George Dukes

South Staffordshire Times 22/10/1921

“At Walsall on Monday, George Jukes, MITRE INN, Orlando Street, was summoned for supplying intoxicating liquors during prohibited hours; and Joseph and Ellen Walker, West Bromwich Street, for consuming intoxicants on licensed premises during prohibited hours.

Evidence was given that Police-Inspector Lloyd and PC Mason, at 10.45pm, on 17th ult, climbed a wall and entered the public-house by a back door. In the bar they found the two Walkers. The landlord and his wife were near the beer machine. Mrs. Walker was drinking from a glass of stout, and her husband was crossing the room with two half-pints of beer. Walker admitted having been on the licensed premises before closing time, but the landlord’s explanation was the Walker was an old friend whom he had met at a football match that afternoon and to whom he had given an invitation to bring his wife to supper. Lloyd admitted there was bread and cheese about.

For the defence it was stated that the bar was the only living room of which the landlord had the use, as although the license had been transferred from a man named Naylor the latter was protected by the Rent Act, and was still living on the premises with his wife and six children. Mrs. Jukes, on her part, had nowhere even to cook, and the brewery company recently put her a stove in the cellar.

The Bench dismissed all the summonses, but said it was a proper case to bring into court.”

It was referred to the Compensation Authority.

Compensation was paid on 8th October 1923.

It closed on 13th October 1923.

Walsall Observer 15/3/1924

“Messrs. Fox and Harrison, FAI, have privately disposed of the Orlando Street leasehold business premises, formerly known as the MITRE TAVERN but now delicensed with vacant possession, together with the two private household dwellings.”

NAGS HEAD

Goscote, BLOXWICH

OWNERS

LICENSEES

John Banks [1828] – [1830]

NAGS HEAD

Bank Street, WALSALL

OWNERS

LICENSEES

Mary Heath [1834] – [1835]

NOTES

It had a beerhouse license.

Mary Heath, retailer of beer, Bank Street. [1835]

NAGS HEAD

Park Street, WALSALL

OWNERS

LICENSEES

Richard Hickin [1818]

NAGS HEAD

28, (28+29), (25), Upper Rushall Street, (Bridge Street), WALSALL

OWNERS

William Jackson, 71, Lichfield Street, Walsall

Abel Rogers Grove

Mr. Hobson, Clifton Road, Sutton Coldfield

R. A. Harper Ltd, Bilston (acquired in 1898 for £3,000) [1904]

Eleys Stafford Brewery Ltd.

Butler & Co, Wolverhampton [1936]

LICENSEES

John Jackson [1801]

Sarah Jackson [1822] – [1830]

William Clarkson Smith* [1834] – [1835]

William C Smith* [1841] – [1842]
Joseph Mountford [1845] – [1851]
John Matthews [1851]
Joseph Matthews [1858] – [1862]
Joshua Matthews [1864] – [1865]
Joseph Matthews [] – 1868)
Abel Rogers Grove [1871] – [1881]
James Morris [] – 1891);
Thomas Green Cleobury (1891 – 1898);
Amos Whitehead (1898);
Thomas Arrowsmith (1898 – 1904);
Richard Andrew Harper (1904);
Thomas Edge (1904);
Thomas Edward Russell (1904 – 1907);
Patrick McTighe (1907 – 1909);
John Richard Rodgers (1909 – 1911);
John Savage (1911 – 1912);
Daniel Dalton (1912 – 1913);
William Joseph Braid (1913 – 1923);
Thomas Henry Smallman (1923 – 1928);
George Astbury (1928 – 1929);
Ronald Thomas Alcock (1929 – 1933);
Thomas Henry Baker (1933 – 1937);
Kenneth Dawes (1937):

NOTES

Bridge Street [1801]
Rushall Street [1822]
28, Upper Rushall Street [1860], [1861], [1862], [1901], [1908]
25, Upper Rushall Street [1871]
28+29, Upper Rushall Street [1881], [1891], [1932]

* possibly the same person

Aris's Birmingham Gazette 23/1/1837 - Advert

“To Maltsters.

Wanted immediately a man as above.

Apply to Mr. W. C. Smith, NAGS HEAD, Rushall Street, Walsall.”

Joseph Mountford was also a boot and shoe maker. [1845]

1851 Census

Upper Rusall Street

- [1] Joseph Mountford (36), victualler and maltster, born Walsall;
- [2] Mary Mountford (36), wife, born Walsall;
- [3] Joseph Mountford (74), father, widower, lodger, born Walsall;
- [4] Ann Wall (17), house servant, born Willenhall:

Walsall Free Press 11/9/1858

“Isaac Deacon, a person of apparently rather weak intellect, and who described himself as a miner, had on the night of Saturday last gone to the NAGS HEAD, Rushall Street, and after partaking of some ale commenced to smash the jugs and glasses, the value of which Mr. Mathews retained out of the money tendered in payment of the ale. On leaving the house Deacon broke several panes of glass to the amount of 4s 6d, which sum together with 1s and costs, he was now ordered to pay, or in default to be imprisoned for fourteen days. Mr. Mathews said defendant had never been in his house but once before, and on that occasion he smashed some jugs.”

Walsall Free Press 27/11/1858

“About ten o'clock, on the morning of Tuesday week, James Pearce, spur-fitter in the employment of Mr. Eglington, Park Street, went in company with several of his shop-mates to the RED LION, Public-house, Park Street, and remained there drinking till five o'clock in the afternoon, at which time Pearce, who was very tipsy, requested to be supplied with Port wine, which however the landlady, seeing the state he was in, refused to fill; but she having occasion to leave the tap-room, Pearce seized the opportunity and helped himself to half-a-pint of rum, and then to three half-quarters of gin; but while in the act of drinking the gin he fell insensible upon the floor and was conveyed home, and remained in that state till Wednesday morning, when he expired. Mr. Pitt, surgeon, who made a post-mortem of the body, found the brain had been so injured by excessive drinking as to cause death. On the Friday following, A. A. Fletcher, Esq, Coroner of the Borough, held an inquest upon the body of the deceased at the NAGS HEAD public-house, Rushall Street, at which the jury, after hearing the evidence, returned a verdict of Death from Excessive Drinking.”

Walsall Free Press 27/10/1860

“Edward Gaunt was charged with being drunk and disorderly in the NAGS HEAD Rushall Street. Police-constable No.16 stated the circumstances of the case, which were confirmed by Mrs. Mathews, the landlady. Both witnesses deposed to the prisoner being a very quiet man under ordinary circumstances, and not much given to drink. Cautioned and discharged.”

1861 Census

28, Upper Rushall Street

- [1] Joseph Matthews (53), victualler, born Walsall;
- [2] Mary Ann Matthews (52), wife, born Walsall;
- [3] Elizabeth Matthews (12), daughter, scholar, born Walsall;
- [4] Ann Barrons (31), daughter, saddler's wife, born Walsall;
- [5] Kate Miat (18), servant, born Hanley, Staffordshire;
- [6] Jane Matin (23), servant, born Aldridge:

Walsall Free Press 20/4/1861

“William Bishop v. John Collins. Defendant did not appear, and police-constable Hudson deposed to having served a copy of the summons he produced, upon him, on Saturday last. Complainant stated that he was in the NAGS HEAD, Rushall Street, taking some refreshment, when defendant entered, and commenced speaking to him about some work he (witness) had promised to endeavour to procure for him. Suddenly defendant attacked and struck him several times, without any cause. In answer to the Bench, complainant said he could assign no reason for the assault committed upon him; and as defendant did not choose to attend and contradict complainant, it was to be presumed that his absence was equivalent to an admission of the offence. He was accordingly fined 5s and costs.”

Walsall Free Press 8/6/1861

“Police-constable Twigger, charged Mary Ann Wooden (a woman of gigantic proportions) under the Wine and Refreshments Room Act, with being disorderly in the NAGS HEAD, Upper Rushall Street, and refusing to leave when ordered to do so by the officer. The constable deposed that prisoner was in a disorderly condition, and that he told her repeatedly to leave the house, but she refused to do so. Cross-examined by the prisoner, the officer said he had taken prisoner into custody in the street. Mr. Mathews, the landlord of the NAGS HEAD, whose testimony was said to be of some importance, was not in attendance, and as, according to the officers' own admission, prisoner was arrested in the street, and must consequently have left the house, the case was dismissed.”

Walsall Free Press 6/6/1863

“Samuel Cope and Richard Jones were charged with assaulting John Butler. It appeared from the evidence that all the parties are inhabitants of Darlaston, and that, on Tuesday afternoon, they visited the fair, and, after feasting their eyes upon the rare and wonderful sights, they betook themselves to the NAGS HEAD public house, Upper Rushall Street, to replenish the inner man; but they had not long been there when a dispute arose about a ‘single young man lodger’ who had left Cope's house and taken up his abode with Butler. From words they came to blows, and, in course of the melée, Butler got rather roughly handled. Witnesses were called who, in some measure, corroborated complainant's statement as to the conduct of Jones, but could not speak satisfactorily as to Cope striking complainant. The bench considered the assault committed by Jones to be proved, and fined him 2s 6d and costs, and dismissed the charge against Cope.”

Wolverhampton Chronicle 18/4/1866

“On Wednesday morning Mr. A. A. Fletcher, Borough Coroner, resumed an inquiry at the NAGS HEAD INN, Upper Rushall-street, on the body of a child, which was found on Friday, in the brook in the towns meadows. The mother of the child was present in custody. Mary Price, the wife of a lodging house keeper in Bull's Head-yard, deposed that about seven weeks ago the prisoner, who had been lodging at her house, left, and witness saw nothing more of her until the night of Thursday previous to the inquest, when she came back again. The elder child only was with her then. Witness had seen the body of the deceased at the Police station, and could positively identify it as that of the prisoner's youngest child. Mary Bagnall, the wife of a collier, living at Wednesbury, said the prisoner, her two children, and a man who passed as her husband, came to lodge with witness about five weeks ago, but the man, whose name witness did not know, went away at the end of the first week, without leaving the prisoner any money, or paying the first week's lodgings. On Thursday she seemed very low-spirited and desponding, and about seven o'clock she went away. She then had two children with her. Thomas Rawson, puddler, deposed to having found the body of a child in the town brook, in the meadow, on Friday morning. Police-constable Dobbins said he apprehended the prisoner on Friday morning, and charged her with being concerned in the murder of the child found in the brook. He cautioned her in the usual manner. She said, ‘It is not mine. I had a child, but it is dead and buried.’ He said, ‘Where did you bury it?’ and she replied, ‘In Wednesbury, last week.’ He asked at what church or chapel, or cemetery she had buried it? She answered, 'I cannot tell you the name of the place.'

Mr. F. P. Palmer gave a detailed account of the result of a post mortem examination of the body, which went to show that the body was that of a fine and healthy child, but that the several organs presented such appearances as would be produced by drowning. The Jury found that 'The child came to its death by violent means, and that at the hands of its mother'; in other means a verdict of wilful murder against the prisoner, who was forthwith committed for trial on the Coroner's warrant. On Thursday, the prisoner was brought up at the Walsall Free Library, before J. Brewer, jun. (Mayor), W. Ward, H. Highway, and J. B. Anderson, Esqs, charged with the wilful murder of her child. The evidence tendered was substantially the same as that given at the inquest, and the prisoner, who was much affected by her position, was committed for trial at the assizes."

Walsall Free Press 28/7/1866

"Stafford Assizes. Elizabeth Burford was yesterday charged with the wilful murder of her child. Mr. Motteram prosecuted and Mr. Brown, at the request of Mr. Justice Shee, defended....

The evidence went to show that deceased was in perfect health when the prisoner took her from Wednesbury on the evening previous to the day on which she was found in the brook at Walsall; but as Mr. Palmer, surgeon, said that it was impossible to say whether the deceased had been suffocated before being placed in the water, Mr. Brown pointed out the probability of the prisoner having accidentally smothered the child on her way from Wednesbury, and having in her despair placed it where it was afterwards found. The jury, adopting this view of the case, returned a verdict of not guilty, and the prisoner was accordingly acquitted. The hearing of this case occupied the court three hours.

Mr. Cater, chief of police, took charge of the poor woman and brought her to Walsall. When in the railway carriage, Mr. Matthews, Mr. Palmer, and Mr. Tibbits handed to Mr. Cater 2s 6d each, and another gentleman who was travelling in the carriage 1s, for the purpose of assisting her. Any lady or gentleman desirous of rendering further assistance, which will be thankfully received and duly acknowledged, may forward the same to Mr. Cater."

Staffordshire Advertiser 3/10/1868

"On Saturday Mr. E. Hooper, district coroner, held an inquest at the ROYAL OAK INN, Daw End, Rushall, touching the death of Joseph Matthews, aged 61, landlord of the NAGS HEAD INN, Upper Rushall Street, the finding of whose lifeless body was recorded in last week's Advertiser. It was shown that he left home on the preceding Wednesday, at two o'clock, with his son-in-law and some other persons to go to the races, but he turned back on the plea that he wanted a greatcoat, and after sitting down at home for a few moments he went off in another direction. He was next seen about two o'clock going towards the canal bridge at Daw End, and at one o'clock his body was found floating in the water close to the bridge by a young man named David Watson. In the deceased's pockets were found a half sovereign, a half crown, two shillings, and two pairs of spectacles. It was given in evidence that he had been very unwell for some time, and that his friends, in consequence of noticing something peculiar in his manner, had kept a watch upon him. A verdict of Found Drowned was returned."

Birmingham Daily Gazette 24/2/1870 - Advert

"For Sale, Three Barrels, from 300 to 500 gallons in good condition.
Apply, NAGS HEAD, Rushall Street, Walsall."

Walsall Free Press 1/10/1870

"Walsall Races. In consequence of the Agricultural Meeting taking place the week before the usual time of holding the Races, it has been decided they shall be held on the Monday and Tuesday following, viz, the 3rd and 4th October. Parties wishing to secure Sites for Booths must apply this day (Saturday) to Mr. Grove, NAGS HEAD, Upper Rushall Street."

1871 Census

25, Upper Rushall Street

- [1] Abel Rogers Grove (47), licensed victualler, born Birmingham;
- [2] Caroline Grove (33), wife, born Stourbridge;
- [3] Kate H. Grove (11), daughter, born Birmingham;
- [4] Ellen B. Grove (8), daughter, born Birmingham;
- [5] Charles F. Grove (6), son, born Birmingham;
- [6] William Grove (4), son, born Birmingham;
- [7] Frank Grove (1), son, born Walsall;
- [8] Caroline Griffiths (20), general servant, born Wolverhampton;
- [9] Rhoda Bourne (15), nurse, born Kidderminster;

Walsall Free Press 24/5/1873

"Michael Sweeney, who failed to appear, was sentenced to pay a fine of £2 and costs, or in default to be imprisoned for 21 days, for having refused to quit the NAGS HEAD public house, Upper Rushall Street, on the 12th inst."

Walsall Free Press 16/8/1873 - Advert

"To Farmers And Others.

To Be Sold, about Two Hundred gallons of Fresh Ale, at 9d per gallon.
Apply, NAGS HEAD Rushall Street."

Walsall Free Press 10/5/1873 - Advert

“Wanted, a respectable Servant, about 20; also a nurse Girl about 14.
Apply, NAGS HEAD, Upper Rushall Street.”

Black Country Bugle 7/4/2005

‘When Walsall was On To A Winner.....’

“.....As the [19th] century wore on, the races gradually became detached from the Michaelmas Fair they has accompanied for so long, being held instead in August, and the driving force of Abel Grove, the landlord of the NAGS HEAD in Upper Rushall Street, ensured that they continued. However, as Grove and fellow members of the Race Committee discussed the plans for the next race meeting through the autumn and winter of 1876, they were not to know that the end was in sight for the Walsall Races. The death sentence was finally passed in February 1877, when the Long Meadow was sold to the Midland Railway Company.”

1881 Census

28-29, Upper Rushall Street – NAGS HEAD

- [1] Abel R. Grove (57), licensed victualler, born Birmingham;
- [2] Caroline Grove (43), wife, birthplace not known;
- [3] Kate H. Grove (21), daughter, born Birmingham;
- [4] Ellen B. Grove (18), daughter, born Birmingham;
- [5] William H. Grove (15), son, engraver, born Birmingham;
- [6] Frank Grove (11), son, scholar, born Walsall;
- [7] Gertrude F. Grove (8), daughter, scholar, born Walsall;
- [8] Harold E. Grove (5), son, scholar, born Walsall;
- [9] Blanch E. Grove (3), daughter, born Walsall;
- [10] Martha Wilcox (17), general servant, born Bloxwich;
- [11] Catherine L. Dewsbury (38), visitor, born Birmingham:

Walsall Observer 11/4/1885

“The NAGS HEAD, Rushall Street. Mr. H. Nicholls (from the office of Messrs. Marlow, Potter and Morton) made an application on behalf of the above public house. He stated that when Mr. Grove died an application was made for the license to be transferred to Mrs. Grove, which was granted; but she died suddenly before the transfer was completed. He now applied for permission for a daughter of deceased to have the privilege of a temporary authority. The Bench said there was no objection, and the application was acceded to.”

Birmingham Daily Post 18/11/1890

“At the guildhall, yesterday – before Messrs. S. Russel (Mayor), J. Brewer, E. T. Holden, E. Bliss, and Captain Brookes – James Morris, of the NAGS HEAD INN, Upper Rushall Street, was summoned for having sold liquors during prohibited hours. Mr. Duignan (borough solicitor) appeared in support of the complaint, and Mr. Jesse Herbert (instructed by Mr. Cotterell) for the defence.

The evidence of Police-constables Curtis and Cattermole, and Police-sergeant Marshall, was to the effect that at twenty minutes past eleven on the night of the 28th October they saw a man named Thomas Aston standing outside the defendant’s house, and saw the door open and some vessel handed out from which Aston drank. He handed it back, and on Marshall and Curtis looking in the doorway they saw two men named Jefferson and Hunt there, the former in the act of wiping his mouth with the back of his hand. Hunt gave them the name of Cleveland. The landlord told them that the men had been working for him in fighting for the removal of a club from the WINDMILL TAVERN, and that Jefferson had actually been fetched from a sick bed to vote on his behalf. They had called as they were taking Jefferson home, and he had given them a glass of whisky each. Mr. Herbert said this was the literal truth, and after he had called witnesses the Bench dismissed the summons.”

James Morris was fined 40s and costs, for selling during prohibited hours.

Staffordshire Advertiser 24/1/1891

“There were 31 applications for dancing, singing and music licenses under the provisions of the new Corporation Act. The Bench heard all the applications and then retired to consider their decisions, which turned out to be in accordance with the principle which was laid down at a former Court, viz, that licenses should not be granted to vaults or public rooms, but should be confined to regular and existing clubs and class meetings in club rooms. Licenses were granted to.....
The NAGS HEAD INN, Upper Rushall Street.”

1891 Census

28-29, Upper Rushall Street – NAGS HEAD

- [1] James Morris (54), widower, licensed victualler, born Kingswinford;
- [2] Elsie D. Morris (15), daughter, born Walsall;
- [3] Arthur P. Morris (14), son, tailor, born Walsall;
- [4] Walter J. Morris (12), son, scholar, born Walsall;
- [5] Harry C. Morris (10), son, scholar, born Walsall;
- [6] Mary A. Parker (28), barmaid, born Birmingham;

[7] Hannah M. Walter (23), domestic servant, born Wolverhampton;

[8] John Potter (82), father in law, widower, retired farmer, born Fairley, Worcestershire:

Walsall Advertiser 2/7/1892

“Joseph Hughes (17), Regent Street, Pleck, was put forward on remand to answer five different charges (1) obtaining by false pretences 2s from Emily Mold, (2) obtaining by false pretences 2s from Peter Vickers, (3) obtaining by false pretences 2s from John Reynolds, (4) obtaining by false pretences 2s from John Hennessy, (5) obtaining by false pretences 2s from Thomas Green Cleobury.

Emily Mold, landlady of the GLOBE INN, Bridgeman Street, said that on the 25th the prisoner came to her house and obtained 2s from her, stating that it was for Mr. Lawson of the Conservative Club. He also said he was working for him in the committee room, and Mr. Lawson had gone to Birmingham without leaving him any money, and he was out of stationary. She gave him the money.

Ada Wadsworth corroborated.

Walter Lawson, secretary to the Walsall Conservative Association, said that he did not know the prisoner. He was not employed by the Association, and he had not authorised the prisoner or anyone else to borrow money on his account.

Detective Smith deposed to the arrest of the prisoner.

Peter Vickers, 48, Goodall Street, deposed that on Saturday last the prisoner came and asked him for 2s for Mr. Lawson, on the same representation as in the previous case.

John Reynolds, barman at the DUN COW, Wolverhampton Street, stated that the prisoner came to the house and asked for Mr. Egan, the landlord. Mr. Egan was out, and the prisoner said that he was employed in the Liberal Committee Rooms. He said Mr. Hughes had gone to Birmingham without leaving him any money, and he wanted 2s for stationary. Witness knew Mr. Hughes was secretary to the Liberal Association, and he gave prisoner the money.

Richard Harry Hughes, hon. sec. Liberal Association, said he did not know prisoner, and he had not authorised him or any other person to borrow money in his name.

Thomas Cleobury, landlord of the NAGS HEAD INN, Upper Rushall Street, deposed to the prisoner asking him for 2s for Mr. Lawson. He did not lend him the money. He told him to go about his business, as he did not believe him.

John Hennessy, landlord of the BRADFORD ARMS, Lower Rushall Street, deposed to a similar attempt on the part of the prisoner, and his refusing to lend him the money.

The prisoner was returned for trial to the sessions on the several cases.”

[At the Walsall Quarter Session (July 1892), Joseph Hughes was sentenced to three months' imprisonment.]

Walsall Advertiser 23/7/1892 - Advert

“Public-House to Let. The NAGS HEAD, Upper Rushall Street; old licensed; home-brewed ale, and doing a good business. Apply to the Proprietor.”

Walsall Advertiser 20/5/1893

“Ann Maria Grant, of the NAGS HEAD, Rushall Street, was also summoned for the same offence [unjust weights and measures] in respect of two unstamped measures of a quarter gill and half gill, and two unjust measures of half a gill each. Inspector Whitworth proved the case, and called his assistant, Clement Newton, to prove that a notice had been served at the NAGS HEAD. Defendant denied the receipt of a notice, and said the measures were ‘for ornament more than for use.’

A fine of 40s and costs was imposed in the case of the measures which were found to be deficient, and 10s and costs for the two unstamped measures.”

Walsall Advertiser 16/12/1893

“Walsall And District Licensed Victuallers' Society.

The monthly meeting of this society was held on Thursday last, at the house of Mr. Thomas G. Cleobury, the NAGS HEAD, Upper Rushall Street.....”

Walsall Advertiser 2/3/1895

“Early yesterday morning a fire broke out behind the bar at the NAGS HEAD, Rushall Street, but, with the aid of a hand pump, the flames were subdued. The flooring was damaged, and an eighty gallon barrel of beer was spoiled by the water.”

Walsall Advertiser 12/9/1896

“The monthly meeting of the Walsall and District Licensed Victuallers' and Beer Retailers' Friendly and Protection Society was held on Thursday last.....

Mr. Thomas G. Cleobury, NAGS HEAD INN, Upper Rushall Street, was unanimously elected a member of the executive committee.”

Walsall Advertiser 12/1/1901

“The monthly meeting of the Walsall and District Licensed Victuallers' and Beer Retailers' Friendly and Protection Society was held at the house of Mr. Thomas Arrowsmith, NAGS HEAD, Upper Rushall Street.....”

1901 Census

28, Upper Rushall Street – NAGS HEAD

- [1] Thomas Arrowsmith (58), hotel keeper, born Walsall;
- [2] Kate Arrowsmith (36), wife, born Walsall;
- [3] Thomas Arrowsmith (17), son, barman, born Walsall;
- [4] Arthur Arrowsmith (15), son, born Walsall;
- [5] Kate Arrowsmith (12), daughter, born Walsall;
- [6] Edna Arrowsmith (7), daughter, born Walsall;
- [7] May Arrowsmith (5), daughter, born Walsall;
- [8] Harriet Smith (71), cook, born Walsall:

Walsall Advertiser 18/5/1901

“Bernard Durkin, The Ditch, was summoned for being disorderly on licensed premises, and with refusing to quit on May 9th. Mr. H. H. Jackson appeared to prosecute.

Kate Arrowsmith, wife of Thomas Arrowsmith, of the NAGS HEAD, Upper Rushall Street, stated that on Thursday afternoon last the defendant and another man entered the house and tried to get up a fight with an old man, and witness ordered him out. He refused to go, and used most filthy language towards witness, and eventually threatened to strike her. Her son warded off the blow and defendant was ejected.

Defendant stated that he went out as soon as he was ordered to.

There were 70 previous convictions against the defendant, and the magistrate imposed a fine of 20s and costs, or 21 days.”

Walsall Advertiser 28/12/1901

“Mr. T. H. Stanley, the Borough Coroner, held an inquest on Thursday afternoon at the NAGS HEAD INN, Upper Rushall Street, touching the death of Catherine Arrowsmith, aged 38, wife of Thomas Arrowsmith, the landlord of that house. It seemed that on Tuesday the deceased was very busily engaged in the bar, being Christmas Eve, until eleven o’clock, and retired to rest about midnight, her husband having previously gone to bed, in a different room. Mrs. Arrowsmith slept with a daughter, aged 12, and did not undress further than taking off her boots. On the child awakening on Christmas morning she found her mother dead. Dr. Martland was sent for, and he gave the opinion that she had been dead some six hours, the body being perfectly rigid. There was a discharge from the nose and mouth, and discolouration about the chest and face. The general appearances indicated that she had had a convulsive fit, which might have been produced by the excitement on account of the business, or a little stimulation. Verdict, Died from Natural Causes.”

T. Arrowsmith was a committee member of Walsall and District Licensed Victuallers’ Association. [1902]

Walsall Advertiser 6/2/1904

“The annual licensing sessions for the Borough of Walsall were held on Thursday at the Guildhall, and aroused considerable interest. The court was crowded, and many license-holders were unable to obtain admission.....

Notice had been given to 76 license holders to show cause for the renewal of their licenses, evidently as a result of the visits of a sub-committee of magistrates to the licensed premises, the reasons why cause had to be shown being various....

Mr. Wilcock (Wolverhampton) appeared on behalf of Mr. R. A. Harper, owner of the NAGS HEAD, Upper Rushall Street, who desired a permanent transfer from Thomas Arrowsmith. Mr. Wilcock said this house had been before the court since last September, when an application was made for a transfer to Mr. Deakin. There was no objection to Mr. Deakin, there was no objection by the police, and there had been nothing said as to what was the objection to the transfer. Mr. Harper bought the house six years ago for £3,000; he had since, with the permission of the Bench, expended £500 on alterations. During the time he had the house he had no intimation given to him to any cause of complaint against the tenant or in respect of the house. In regard to the notice of objection, he did not think he had ever met with a similar notice. When an objection was taken it was customary to state openly what had been done in order that the person who came for a renewal of the license might know what was alleged against him.

One objection was that the premises were not structurally suitable; but they had never heard anything being wrong with them.

They were on the eve of having the questions dealt with in Parliament; and if there was an excess of licenses it was a difficult matter to say which should be removed. If the house had not been conducted according to law the police would have intervened; as to the question of the telephone, that was taken out immediately the interim transfer was granted. Another objection was that a bona-fide licensing business was not carried on. He asked what was alleged to have been done that was not in conformity of the license. Was there a man who alleged that the licensee had done wrong? If so, let him stand forward, and they would answer it!

Mr. Loxton: Are you questioning the magistrates?

Mr. Wilcock said he had never known that the premises had been used for purposes for which they were not licensed.

Mr. Loxton said Mr. Wilcock was called upon to satisfy the magistrates as to the way in which the house had been conducted. In compliance with the Act of Parliament they had had notice requiring them to satisfy the magistrates as to the conduct of the house.

Mr. Wilcock said he had not got the grounds of objection.

Mr. Loxton said the license holder was asked to go into the box to satisfy the Bench.

Mr. Wilcock said there was no offence alleged and asked why they were there?

Mr. Loxton: Because the magistrates require proof. Is it an illegal course? – Mr. Wilcock: I say it is unfair.

Mr. Thomas Arrowsmith, the license holder, was then put into the box. He said the house had only been used for public business. He had had a home-brewed house for eight years for a dozen customers, and he had the telephone for his business.

Cross-examined by Mr. Loxton, witness said he had carried on the business of a coal haulier whilst he was at the house, but he had not carried on the business of a bookmaker and he had never made a bet through the telephone. He ‘never laid a bet in his life through the telephone.’

Dr. Lynch: Has the Chief Constable obtained the evidence we required? – The Chief Constable: Yes, I have obtained evidence as to the accommodation of the house, the number of licensed houses in the vicinity, and the population of the district.

Mr. Wilcock: You can oppose every house in the district on the same lines.

Dr. Lynch: Has any member of your family carried on betting in the house within five years? – Arrowsmith: Not to my knowledge.

Is it possible it was carried on without your knowledge? – Certainly not.

Is it impossible? – I think not.

Do you know a man named Barbury? – Yes.

Did he come to your house? – He came when he liked.

What is his occupation? – He has one arm, and was a clerk.

Is he a bookmaker? – I have nothing to do with him.

Who superintended your business? – I have sons, and had a wife.

Did they make a book in your house? – No; not to my knowledge.

Dr. Lynch: If you swear to that I have nothing more.

The Bench renewed the license.”

Patrick McTighe – see also MANDAMUS.

Walsall Advertiser 1/5/1909

“The transfer sessions were held before Mr. W. Bayliss (presiding), Sir R. T. Holden, and Mr. A. D. Cozens.....

In the case where Mr. Harper appeared in connection with plans submitted for alterations at the NAGS HEAD, Upper Rushall Street, the Chief Constable said that the alterations had been stopped.

Mr. Harper said that the alterations were such that he did not think plans were necessary, and the drinking area was reduced.

Mr. Bayliss said the Bench would adjourn the matter until the next transfer day, and they wished it to be clearly understood that licensees in the town must not carry out any alterations without laying plans before the magistrates. In the meantime the Bench would inspect the premises.”

Walsall Advertiser 5/2/1910

“The annual Brewster Sessions for the borough of Walsall were opened at the Guildhall, on Wednesday.....

Mr. Jackson appeared in support of an application for consent to alterations to the NAGS HEAD, Upper Rushall Street, but the Magistrates’ Clerk gave notice of objection to the renewal of the license on the grounds that it was not required and that unauthorised alterations had been carried out, and Mr. Jackson’s application was adjourned.”

Walsall Advertiser 26/2/1910

“The adjourned Licensing Sessions were held on Friday, when Sir Edward Holden presided.....

Permission was given for alterations at the NAGS HEAD, Upper Rushall Street, and the license renewed.”

1911 Census

Upper Rushall Street

[1] John Richard Rodgers (24), licensed victualler, born Langley;

[2] Frederic Arthur Laurie (36), caretaker, born Dudley;

[3] Ada Louisa Laurie (31), wife, married 9 years, housewife, born West Bromwich;

[4] Frederic Wilkinson Laurie (6), son, school, born West Bromwich:

Walsall Observer 13/6/1914

“Edwin Blackmore (47), baker, Upper Rushall Street, was charged with being drunk on licensed premises, the NAGS HEAD, Upper Rushall Street, on Wednesday.

Chief Inspector Ballance stated that at 9.20 on Wednesday morning he was called into Upper Rushall Street, where he was told that a man had threatened to smash a tradesman’s head in with a bottle. As he went towards this public house he saw the man being ejected. He was drunk, and had in his possession a bottle half full of beer. Witness ascertained that he had not been served. Police-sergeant Jones gave corroborative evidence, and a fine of £5 and costs was imposed.”

Walsall Observer 12/1/1918

“Walsall and District War Aid Committee. Collection By The Licensed Victuallers, December, 1917.....

NAGS HEAD, Upper Rushall Street. £1 1s 2½d.”

Staffordshire Advertiser 15/2/1936

“Walsall Licensing sessions were held at the Guildhall on Tuesday.....

Mr. Cooper applied on behalf of Messrs. Butler & Co, Wolverhampton, for the removal of the license of the NAGS HEAD, Upper Rushall Street, to premises proposed to be erected at Wallows Lane, Bescot. Mr. Cooper said there was no other house within a quarter of a mile of the proposed site. A canvass of the adult population of the area showed that out of 1,200, 1,106 favoured the application, 53 were against it, and 48 neutral. The brewery company were also prepared to surrender another license, the name of which he handed in. He added that the approximate cost of the new house would be £5,000, excluding the purchase of the ground. Mr. A. V. Haden, on behalf of the Temperance Society and other bodies opposed.”

Kenneth Dawes – see also TIGER.

It closed at 2pm on 16th November 1937.
The license was transferred to the KING GEORGE V.

NAVIGATION

Marsh Lane, Park Street, WALSALL

OWNERS

LICENSEES

Elizabeth Powell [1818]
Henry Thornhill [1822]

NOTES

Marsh Lane [1822]

It was situated on the right hand side of the street.
[from Wolverhampton St. ?]

[1812]

NELSON

82, (56), (54), Church Street, BLOXWICH

OWNERS

Mr. Keay, Wednesbury
Mrs. Keay
Henry Beech, Bloxwich (acquired in February 1885)
William Walker
J. and J. Yardley and Co. Ltd.
Old Wolverhampton Brewery Ltd. [1913]

LICENSEES

Joseph Fisher [c.1866]
Thomas Lester [1867] – [1885];
William Walker [1886] – 1894);
Sarah Walker (1894 – 1896);
Frederick William Johnson (1896 – 1901);
Eliza Johnson (1901);
Mrs. Sarah Walker (1901 – 1904);
David Lawrence (1904 – 1908);
Joseph Wall (1908 – 1914):

NOTES

56+54, Church Street [1881]

54, Church Street [1891]
82, Church Street [1901], [1911]

It was originally an unnamed beerhouse.

London Gazette 28/7/1868

“Joseph Fisher, at present residing in lodgings at Mr. George Perry’s, in Church-street, Bloxwich, in the county of Stafford, out of business, and lately residing at and keeping a Beerhouse called the NELSON, in Church-street, Bloxwich aforesaid, Beerhouse Keeper, Butcher, and Blacksmith, adjudicated bankrupt on the 9th day of April, 1868. An Order of Discharge was granted by the County Court of Staffordshire, holden at Walsall, on the 22nd day of July, 1868.”

1871 Census

69, Church Street – The NELSON

- [1] Thomas Lester (27), butcher, born Bloxwich;
 - [2] Sarah Anne Lester (24), wife, born Bloxwich;
 - [3] Ann M. Lester (3), daughter, born Bloxwich;
 - [4] Henry T. Lester (1), son, born Bloxwich;
 - [5] Ann M. Molton (15), domestic servant, born Bloxwich:
- [This is included to show that he was a butcher.]

Birmingham Daily Post 29/8/1874

“The annual Brewster Sessions for the borough of Walsall took place yesterday, at the Guildhall.....
The undermentioned persons applied for wine licenses.....
Thomas Lester, beerhouse keeper, Bloxwich. Refused”

1881 Census

56+54, Church Street – Public House and Butcher’s Shop

- [1] Thomas Lester (40), publican and butcher, born Bloxwich;
- [2] Sarah A. Lester (34), wife, born Bloxwich;
- [3] Ann M. Lester (13), daughter, scholar, born Bloxwich:

Walsall Advertiser 9/8/1881 - Notice

“To the Overseers of the Poor and the Chief Constable of the Borough of Walsall, in the County of Stafford; and to all it may concern.

I, Thomas Lester, of 54, Church Street, Bloxwich, in the Borough of Walsall, Beer Retailer, Do Hereby Give Notice, that it is my intention to apply at the General Annual Licensing Meeting for the said Borough of Walsall, to be holden at the Guildhall, in the Borough aforesaid, on the 26th day of August, next ensuing, for a License to Sell by Retail Wines, at the house, shop, and premises situate at 54, Church Street, Bloxwich, in the said Borough, and known as the NELSON INN, to be drunk in the said house, shop, and on the said premises.

Given under my hand this 30th day of July, 1881.

Thomas Lester.”

Lichfield Mercury 2/9/1881

“The annual licensing sessions for this borough took place at the Guildhall, on Friday.....

Mr. Loxton (instructed by the Licensed Victuallers’ Association) opposed every one of the subsequent applications.....

Thomas Lester, the NELSON INN, Church Street, Bloxwich, to sell wine on the premises (supported by Mr. Brookes). Refused.”

Walsall Observer 17/1/1885

“Mr. Thomas H. Farrington is favoured with instructions from the Executors of the late Mrs. Keay to Sell by Auction on Monday, the 2nd day of February, 1885.....

The Freehold Public House, known as the NELSON INN, and the Butcher’s Shop adjoining, situate in Church Street (at the corner of the Flats), in Bloxwich; together with the Slaughterhouse, Stable, and Outbuildings thereto belonging, all being now in the occupation of Mr. Thomas Lester. The Premises comprise Corner Retail Shop, large Tap Room, Bar, Kitchen, 2 Brewhouses, Malt Room, Slaughterhouse, entire Yard, with gateway entrance, large Cellar, and 5 Bedrooms.

And also the Four Freehold Dwelling-Houses or Cottages.....

The property produces together, at low rents, £61 8s 0d per annum in the gross.....”

Walsall Observer 7/2/1885

“On Monday Mr. T. H. Farrington offered for sale by auction, at the SPOTTED COW INN, Bloxwich, a freehold property consisting of the NELSON INN, a butcher’s shop and four dwelling houses. The total annual value of the property was £61 3s.

There was a large company present; and the property, which started at £500, was knocked down to Mr. H. Beech at £750.....”

William Walker was fined 10s and costs, on 7th April 1886, for permitting drunkenness.

Lichfield Mercury 6/6/1890 - Advert

“Important Sale of Two Freehold Beerhouses at Bloxwich.

To Be Sold By Auction by Messrs Watkins and Powell, at the SPREAD EAGLE INN, Bloxwich, on Monday, June 9th, 1890, at Six o'clock pm precisely.....

Lot 2. The Capital free Beerhouse known as the NELSON INN, situate in Church Street, Bloxwich, in the occupation of Mr. William Walker, at an annual rent of £25. The house contains bar, tap-room, sitting-room, kitchen, corner shop, malt-room, four bed-rooms, and three cellars, with convenient yard and stabling at the rear. Lot 2 is freehold, and is well situate for doing a good trade.....”

Walsall Advertiser 14/6/1890

“On Monday evening last at the SPREAD EAGLE INN, Bloxwich, before a large and representative gathering Mr. H. C. Powell (Messrs. Watkins and Powell) offered by auction two freehold beerhouses situate at Bloxwich.....”

Lot 2, the free beerhouse known as NELSON INN, situate in Church Street Bloxwich, in the occupation of Mr. W. Walker at an annual rent of £25. This lot is freehold. Biddings again started at £200, but after some spirited competition was sold for £650.....”

1891 Census

54, Church Street

- [1] William Walker (45), butcher, born Bilston;
- [2] Sarah Walker (45), wife, born Bilston;
- [3] Richard Walker (23), son, butcher, born Pensnett;
- [4] Keaty Walker (11), daughter, born Eastwood, Nottinghamshire;
- [5] Thomas Walker (4), son, born Bloxwich;
- [6] Sarah Walker (2), daughter, born Bloxwich;
- [7] William Walker (8 months), son, born Bloxwich;
- [8] Elizabeth Allen (23), daughter, married, domestic servant, born Oldbury;
- [9] Frances Allen (5 months), granddaughter, born Bloxwich:

David Lawrence was fined 5s and costs, on 3rd January 1901, for permitting drunkenness.

Walsall Advertiser 20/4/1901

“This being transfer day, the following licenses changed hands.....

NELSON, Church Street, Bloxwich, from the executors of Fredk. Wm. Johnson to Eliza Johnson.”

1901 Census

82, Church Street

- [1] Eliza Johnson (40), widow, publican, born Walsall;
- [2] Frederick Johnson (16), son, born Walsall;
- [3] Eliza Johnson (15), daughter, dressmaker, born Walsall;
- [4] Lydia Johnson (13), daughter, born Walsall;
- [5] Gerty Johnson (12), daughter, born Walsall;
- [6] Daniel Johnson (8), son, born Walsall;
- [7] Walter Johnson (2), son, born Bloxwich;
- [8] Elizabeth Colman (19), domestic servant, born Cannock:

Walsall Advertiser 1/8/1903

“Anthony Boden (28), a hawker, was charged with stealing a horse, the property of Sarah Walker, at Bloxwich, between the 21st and 22nd of May, 1903. Mr. G. Lewis prosecuted and Mr. R. Thomas defended.

Prosecutrix keeps the NELSON INN, at Bloxwich. On May 19th the prisoner went to the house, and bargained for her pony for £7 10s, and he paid a deposit of 10s, and then asked that he might have the pony and he would pay the remainder in a few days. Prosecutrix refused as prisoner was unknown to her. The same night, however, prisoner was found by Thomas Dolan, in whose field the animal was, trying to catch it, and he refused to allow prisoner to take it. On the morning of May 22nd, the pony was missed from the field, and information was given to the police. On June 6th prisoner was arrested at Fenton, where he was living, and the pony recovered. When charged with the theft, prisoner said, ‘It’s not stealing; it’s a County Court job.’

Prisoner was convicted, and sentenced to three months’ imprisonment with hard labour.

Thomas Gray (30), baker, was then charged with being an accessory after the fact, and with assisting Boden to elude the pursuit of justice. Mr. B. C. Brough defended.

It appeared that both Gray and Boden had been living at Fenton together. On the evening of June 6th Gray went to Mrs. Walker and asked her if she got her money or the pony back to take no further steps in the matter. She declined, and sent for the police, and prisoner was arrested. On this he gave information with the result that Boden was arrested. Mr. Brough submitted that there was no guilty knowledge shown on the part of Gray of the theft, and the learned Commissioner concurring, the prisoner was discharged.”

Walsall Advertiser 6/2/1904

“The annual licensing sessions for the Borough of Walsall were held on Thursday at the Guildhall, and aroused considerable inter-

est. The court was crowded, and many license-holders were unable to obtain admission.....

Notice had been given to 76 license holders to show cause for the renewal of their licenses, evidently as a result of the visits of a sub-committee of magistrates to the licensed premises, the reasons why cause had to be shown being various....

Sarah Walker, NELSON INN.”

Walsall Advertiser 6/1/1906

“At the Guildhall, on Wednesday, David Lawrence, NELSON INN, was summoned for permitting drunkenness on his licensed premises; and John Silvery, 54, Revival Street, was summoned for being drunk on licensed premises, on the 26th inst. Mr. H. H. Jackson defended Lawrence.

Inspector Marshall stated the on the date named, in company with Detective Wilcox, of the county police, stationed at Lichfield, he went to the NELSON INN, making enquiries in a robbery case. They stood outside the house for about five minutes, and during that time he did not notice anyone either leave or enter the house. When he entered he saw Silvery sitting on a form by the front window, and he was very drunk. He called to him, and it took the defendant Silvery all his time to stand up and walk. He pointed out the defendant’s condition to the landlord, who replied, ‘Yes, he is drunk. I did not know he was in; I have just come from my dinner.’ There was a number of jugs containing beer on the tables, and about eleven men in the house. He could not say the man had been served at the house.

In cross-examination, Inspector Marshall admitted that after enquiring of the men if defendant had been served with anything, he said he was satisfied that the man had not had any beer there. The men in the house were all eating something.

Mr. Jackson pointed out that at Christmas time it was the custom at some houses to give beef sandwiches to their customers.

(To the Inspector): Bloxwich is notorious for its hospitality on these festive days isn’t it? – Inspector Marshall: I don’t know that it is, more than any other place.

Detective Wilcox (county police) corroborated.

Mr. Jackson pointed out that the landlord had no idea that Silvery was in the house; he must have gone in while the landlord was having his dinner. Inspector Marshall was quite satisfied that Silvery had not been served with anything, after questioning the other men, and he submitted that there was no charge that could be substantiated to register a conviction.

The landlord stated that he had kept the NELSON for about a year and eight months, and before he went there he kept the KINGS ARMS at Pelsall for four years without complaint. He did not see Silvery enter his premises, and when his attention was called to him, he could see that he was the worse for beer. He had just been to have his dinner, and the man was not in the house when he left it.

Job Welsh said that he was in the house when Inspector Marshall came in, and the defendant Silvery had been in the house about two minutes.

After a private deliberation, Dr. Lynch said the Bench were satisfied that a technical offence had been committed. Silvery would be fined 20s and costs, and Lawrence 5s and costs.”

Walsall Advertiser 3/2/1906

“There was not nearly the intense public interest in the annual licensing meeting for the borough of Walsall on Thursday, at the Guildhall, as was the case during the past two or three years, for instead of the court room being densely crowded and a vast throng clamouring for admission in the entrance corridor and on the footpath outside, chiefly holders of licenses and others intimately connected with the trade, the court, though well filled, was evidently large enough to accommodate all who wished to attend.....

The Black List From Bloxwich. The Chief Constable reported that three license holders had been fined, viz, W. C. Athersmith, VINE INN, Bloxwich, under the Child Messenger Act, and Sarah Waterfield, VICTORIA STORES, Bloxwich, and David Lawrence, NELSON INN, Bloxwich, for permitting drunkenness.

These licenses were renewed, with a caution.”

1911 Census

82, Church Street

- [1] Joseph Wall (36), publican, born Bloxwich;
- [2] Harriett Wall (36), wife, married 10 years, born Bloxwich;
- [3] Joseph Ralph Wall (9), son, born Bloxwich;
- [4] Alice May Wall (7), daughter, born Bloxwich;
- [5] Grace Evelyn Wall (6 weeks), daughter, born Bloxwich;
- [6] Emanuel Lawrence (23), servant, brewer, born Bloxwich;
- [7] Violet Almark (15), servant, born Bloxwich:

Joseph Wall, beer retailer, 82, Church Street. [1912]

Walsall Observer 8/2/1913

“The annual Licensing Sessions for the borough were held at the Guildhall on Monday.....

The following were the notices of objection (Compensation Clause).....

NEW INN, Pinfold, Bloxwich. (Hy. Mellor).

SPORTSMAN, Pinfold, Bloxwich. (Jacob Williams).

NELSON, Church Street, Bloxwich. (Jos. Wall).

STAG, Field Street, Bloxwich. (Jane Tolley).

PLOUGH, Cemetery Road, (Charles Mansfield).
RISING SUN, Park Road, Bloxwich, (Charles Orgill).
STORES, High Street, Bloxwich, (Charles Ernest Perry).
BEEHIVE, New Street, Bloxwich, (Benjamin Hughes).”
AND

“In the case of the NELSON, Church Street, Bloxwich, Mr. Pritchard again appeared for the landlord and the owners, the Old Wolverhampton Brewery Co. Ltd.

Inspector Pritchard said that the street contained, in addition to the NELSON, one fully-licensed house and an off-licensed house. The population of the street was 354 persons over sixteen, 240 under sixteen, 100 occupying houses, and two boys. He had visited the house on nineteen occasions in ten weeks and found 145 persons there, or on average 13 customers per visit. The landlord had one front room apart, in which he carried on the business of butcher and grocer, and he had an entrance to this room from the licensed premises.

In reply to Mr. Pritchard, witness said that if the NELSON was taken away there would be no on-licensed house between the QUEENS HEAD and the VICTORIA STORES, a distance of 350 yards. The house had a very fair trade and was more convenient to the people in that particular street than either of the two houses mentioned.

The landlord, Mr. Joseph Wall, said he was tied to the brewery company, but did some brewing on the premises himself. The trade he did was perfectly satisfactory and he could live on it, but he tried to make more from the business of butcher and grocer which he carried on.

The Bench again reserved their decision, and the Court adjourned till Friday.”

AND

“The Court re-assembled yesterday (Friday) morning.....

Having retired, the Bench announced that the licenses of the STAG and the STORES would be renewed for this year, but might be considered at some future date. The remaining six houses would be referred to the compensation authorities.”

The license renewal was referred to the Compensation Authority on 7th February 1913.

Walsall Advertiser 31/5/1913

“The principal meeting of the Compensation Authority for the Borough of Walsall was held on Tuesday morning at the Guildhall.....

The NELSON, beerhouse, Church street, Bloxwich, the owners being Old Wolverhampton Breweries Ltd, and the tenant Mr. Joseph Wall, was next considered. Mr. Pritchard (Wolverhampton) appeared for the parties. The rent was £30 and the average annual trade in barrels was 355. The licensee carried on a small business as a butcher and grocer, but could live on his licensed trade. The license was refused.”

Compensation was paid.

It closed on 2nd January 1914.

NEW FULLBROOK

246, West Bromwich Road / Broadway, WALSALL

OWNERS

Mitchells and Butlers Ltd.

Soho Tavern Group [2021]

LICENSEES

Harold Ernest Alger (1926 – 1928);

Albert Thomas Sherwood (1928 – 1931);

Herbert Guest (1931 – 1949);

Bernard John Williams (1949 – 1964);

Gordon Alfred George Turley (1964 – 1966);

Dennis Stokes Chapman (1966 – []

Sam Wilkes [1989]

NOTES

Staffordshire Advertiser 16/5/1925

“The adjourned licensing sessions for Walsall were held at the Guildhall on Monday, before a full Bench.....

The justices also confirmed the removal of the ROEBUCK INN, Upper Rushall Street, to premises about to be erected at the junction of the new ring road and Westbromwich Road. The Hon. Sir Reginald Coventry, who made the application, pointed out that Messrs. Mitchells and Butlers were giving up the ROEBUCK INN without compensation, and were also giving up the FULLBROOK INN in West Bromwich Road, which would enable the road widening to be carried out.”

It was opened on 13th October 1926.

Harold Ernest Algar – see also BULLS HEAD, Bloxwich, and SWAN WITH TWO NECKS.

1939 Register

246, West Bromwich Road – NEW FULLBROOK INN

[1] Herbert Guest, date of birth 23/10/1893, public house manager, married;

[2] Sarah A. Guest, dob 31/8/1900, unpaid domestic duties, married;

[3] Herbert F. Guest, dob 14/4/1922, joiner and carpenter, single;

[4] Jessie B. Guest, dob 6/2/1925, at school, single:

Walsall Observer 7/12/1940

“Walsall Licensed Victuallers’ Society.

Motor Ambulance Effort on behalf of Walsall and District branch of the British Red Cross Society.

First List of Subscriptions.....

NEW FULLBROOK HOTEL, West Bromwich Road, £5 0s 0d.”

Walsall Observer 15/1/1944

“Walsall Licensed Victuallers’ Society.

Appeal on Behalf of the Merchant Navy Fund, The Duke of Gloucester’s Red Cross Fund and the Aid to China Fund. List of Subscriptions.....

NEW FULLBROOK, West Bromwich Road. £0 19s 3d.”

Dennis Stokes Chapman – see also LITTLETON ARMS.

[2009]

FULLBROOK LOUNGE & SPORTS BAR [2011], [2019]

Express & Star 14/10/2021

“A prominent Walsall venue will have a brand new identity for the first time in decades if plans to convert it into an Indian Gastro-pub are given the go-ahead. Plans have been put forward to transform the NEW FULLBROOK on West Bromwich Road and the Broadway into the SOHO TAVERN, creating more than 30 jobs in the process. Mikey Singh, director of the Soho Tavern Group, said the first phase of investment in refurbishing the bar will be in the region of £200,000 and they hope to be open within weeks of getting planning permission. The pub, which is currently shut and closed off by hoardings, will be extended on the ground floor while five apartments will be created on the first floor, should the proposal get the go-ahead. The FULLBROOK had been a favourite for football fans for years and is located on one of the main routes to Walsall FC’s Banks’s Stadium. One of its darkest days came back in April 1995, when Crystal Palace fan Paul Nixon was killed outside the pub during a violent clash with rival supporters. The 35-year-old was one of many who travelled from London to Walsall ahead of his team’s FA Cup semi-final clash with Manchester United at Villa Park. A floral and football shirt tribute at the rear of the FULLBROOK is maintained to this day. But the pub is now set for a major overhaul complete with a name change and new look bar and dining area with Mr Singh keen to point out it will be much more than a ‘desi pub’. He said, ‘Customers can expect to see a Indian Gastropub which is family friendly. Our look will be one of that a pub in Walsall is yet to deliver. We will have an open state-of-the-art open kitchen which will cook vegan/vegetarian food separate to meat, with a 150 seater dining area. In addition to this we are set to have a private dining area which will be available to book for up to 40 people. In doing all of this we will also be keeping a small modern pub area separate to our dining side. Although our branches have won awards for best desi pubs in the Midlands we would not describe ourselves as ‘desi pubs.’ We are more of a Indian Gastropub group. By this we mean we specialise in more than just food. We have used locally sourced ingredients in all our food and we sell locally sourced ales – a part of our group is a multi-award winning local ale pub, ‘The Black Eagle.’ We have a sports bar aspect were we will have all live events showing. Furthermore, our ranges of beer range from places all over the continent. In terms of this side of Walsall, we believe it has been crying out for a family friendly place and we can see this in all the positive feedback we have been getting from the local and wider communities. Subject to planning we look create up 25 part time jobs along with around 10 full-time jobs. We will be employing locally with an opportunity for young people to get their first insights into the world of work. Within six weeks of obtaining planning we should be open. The level of investment for phase one the refurbishment and extension of the ground floor will be approximately £200,000.’

Planning officers at Walsall Council are anticipated to make a decision on the proposal towards the end of November.”

Express & Star 6/4/2022

“A transformation of a prominent Walsall venue into an Indian gastropub has been given the green light. The NEW FULL-BROOK, at West Bromwich Road and the Broadway, will be turned into the SOHO TAVERN, creating more than 30 jobs once work is complete. The project will see the ground floor extended, along with a further double-storey side extension. The first floor will be converted to create five apartments.....

Architects Bharya Design said the building has suffered from vandalism but added they were delighted the revamp can now go ahead. Director Daljit Bharya said, ‘Bharya Design successfully secured planning permission with submission of detailed meticulous plans and provided full support by addressing all issues raised by the council throughout the project. The FULLBROOK had recently become derelict attracting vandals and concerns for local residents. Now that planning has been approved it won’t be long before a new lease of life is breathed into the FULLBROOK as an Indian gastropub, also creating around 30 jobs in the process. Once known as a favourite for football fans, the proud new owners, Soho Tavern Group now hope to create a new community hub providing a family-friendly dining and events venue and a host for charitable community projects/events.....”

NEW INN

148, (246), (17), (7), Blakenall Lane (54, Blakenall) / Chapel Street, Blakenall Heath, BLOXWICH

OWNERS

Charles Whitehouse
S. Cox Esq.
Lichfield Brewery Co. Ltd.
Ind Coope and Allsopp Ltd. (leased from 23rd January 1932)
Ansells Ltd. (acquired on 16th May 1960)
Pubmaster

LICENSEES

Charles Whitehouse [1856] – [1881] – 188_);
Thomas William Vale (188_ – 189_); [1893]
Joseph Whitehead [1896] (189_ – 1913);
Harry Westwood (1913 – 1922);
Ernest Raymond Westwood (1922 – 1924);
Mrs. Helen Westwood (1924 – 1933);
Mrs. Dora Mary Westwood (1933 – 1941);
William Kent (1941 – 1951);
Norman Edward Jeffery (1951 – 1954);
Joshua Jackson (1954 – 1960);
Jack Spruce (1960 – 1963);
Mabel Brown (1963 – 1964);
George Albert Hudson (1964 – 1965);
Bernard Charles Carney (1965);
Henry Leonard Gulliver (1965 – 1967);
Ronald Harry Cox (1967 – []

NOTES

7, Blakenall Lane [1861]
54, Blakenall [1871]
17, Blakenall Lane [1881], [1891], [1901]
246, Blakenall Lane [1911]
148, Blakenall Lane [1939]

It had a beerhouse license.

Staffordshire Sentinel 13/9/1856

“Monday being the day appointed for the renewal of old licenses, and considering the application for new ones, there was a rather full attendance of magistrates.....

There were no less than twenty-eight applications for new licenses, all of which were refused with the exception of Charles Whitehouse, beerhouse keeper, Blakenall.....

The applications were for the most part refused, in consequence of the number of houses already licensed in the respective localities, and in a few instances from the want of sufficient accommodation.”

Birmingham Journal 2/9/1857

“Annual Licensing Day..... There were twenty-two applications for spirit licenses.....
Charles Whitehouse, Blakenhall. Refused.”

C. Whitehouse, beerhouse, Blakenhall. [1858]

Staffordshire Advertiser 4/9/1858

“Annual Licensing Day..... The following beerhouse keepers applied for victuallers’ licenses.....
Charles Whitehouse, Blakenhall. Refused.”

Wolverhampton Chronicle 5/9/1860

“Wednesday last, being the annual licensing day, twenty applications were made by beer-house keepers for victualling licenses.....
Charles Whitehouse, Blakenhall. Refused.”

Charles Whitehouse, beer retailer and iron chain maker, Blakenhall. [1861]

1861 Census

7, Blakenall Lane

- [1] Charles Whitehouse (37), beerhouse keeper, born Blakenall;
- [2] Alice Whitehouse (34), wife, born Blakenall;
- [3] Eliza Whitehouse (13), daughter, scholar, born Blakenall;
- [4] Sarah Whitehouse (4), daughter, scholar, born Blakenall:

Bells Life in London and Sporting Chronicle 16/6/1861

“G. Wootton of Bloxwich will run E. Lees of the same place 100 yards, if he will give him three yards start, or 120 yards with four yards start, for from £5 to £25 a side. Money ready any night next week at C. Whitehouse’s, NEW INN, Blakenhall.”

Walsall Free Press 31/8/1861

“The business of the general licensing day then commenced. There were seventeen applications.....

Mr. Charles Whitehouse, Blakenall, applied through Mr. Wilkinson, who referred to the many applications made by Mr. Whitehouse, and to the hopes which he (Mr. Whitehouse) at least imagined had been held out to him that his application might be successful if a new house were built. Mr. Whitehouse has at an expense of between £500 and £600 built a new and spacious house, and the great reason for refusing the licence of former occasions – that his house was old and incommodious – was now removed. Application refused.”

Charles Whitehouse, retailer of beer, Blakenall. [1862]

Bell’s Life in London and Sporting Chronicle 11/2/1865

“I. Goodreid of Bloxwich is surprised that Bateman of Wolverhampton should challenge him to run 140 or 200 yards level. If Bateman really means business Goodreid will run him if he will give four yards in 110, for £20 a side; to come off in seven weeks from signing articles; or he will take three yards of Mills of Wednesbury in the like distance, for the same sum. Money ready at Mr. Whitehouse’s, NEW INN, Blakenall.”

Bells Life in London and Sporting Chronicle 22/7/1867

“ROYAL OAK Grounds, Burnt Tree, near Dudley. Tipton Wake, Monday and Tuesday, July 22 and 23.

Mr. Nuttall will give £10 to be run for in an All England Handicap Foot Race, distance 140 yards; first prize £8, second 30s, third 10s. Entrance 1s 6d each, no acceptances. Entries to be made no later than July 15 at the grounds, or to C. Whitehouse, NEW INN, Blakenhall; M. Whitehouse, BELL AND CUCKOO, Stafford Street, Walsall; Mr. Boston, Wolverhampton; or Welsh, HORSE AND JOCKEY, Oldbury. Anyone entering falsely will be disqualified. Stamps as cash. Runners admitted free.”

Bells Life in London and Sporting Chronicle 21/12/1867

“Vale, W. Purslow, and J. Taylor of Bloxwich have made their money good (£5 each) to run 120 yards, the winner to take the £15. To be on the mark at half-past twelve o’clock on Thursday, Dec 26. Mr. C. Whitehouse of the NEW INN, Blakenall, is stakeholder and referee.”

Charles Whitehouse was also a shopkeeper. [1868], [1870], [1872]

1871 Census

54, Blakenall – NEW INN

- [1] Charles Whitehouse (46), publican and bit maker, born Bloxwich;
- [2] Alice Whitehouse (44), wife, born Bloxwich;

- [3] Sarah A. Whitehouse, (14), daughter, born Bloxwich;
- [4] Elizabeth Whitehouse (6) granddaughter, born Bloxwich;
- [5] Carrie Edwards (20), visitor, born Bloxwich:

Bells Life in London and Sporting Chronicle 15/6/1872

“Emery’s bitch Crow of Brownhills and Cotton’s bitch Silk of Blakenall are matched to run 200 yards, for £10 a side, Silk to receive three yards and a half to the pound, and a dog to be slipped in front. £5 a side is down in the hands of Mr. Whitehouse, of the NEW INN, Blakenall, who is stakeholder and referee. To run on June 24.”

1881 Census

17, Blakenhall Lane – NEW INN

- [1] Charles Whitehouse (57), widower, licensed victualler, born Blakenhall;
- [2] Thomas Vale (32), son in law, butcher, born Bloxwich;
- [3] Elizabeth Vale (32), daughter, house keeper, born Bloxwich;
- [4] Sarah Ann Vale (5), granddaughter, scholar, born Bloxwich;
- [5] William Vale (10), grandson, scholar, born Bloxwich;
- [6] Elizabeth Stokes (16), granddaughter, born Bloxwich;
- [7] Harriet Masklew (19), domestic servant, born Bloxwich:

Walsall Advertiser 16/6/1885 - Advert

“Walsall Conservative Association.

Mr. Frank Fearnley (of Kidderminster) Will Address Conservative Meetings, to be held on Tuesday Evening, June 16th at the ROYAL EXCHANGE, Ryecroft, and on Wednesday Evening, June 17th, at the NEW INN, Ryecroft, Blakenall Heath.

The Conservatives of the Pleck Division also hold a meeting at the NEWPORT ARMS, Pleck Road, on Wednesday, June 17th.

Chairs to be taken each Evening at 8pm.

Working Men Are Invited to Attend.

H. H. Cannell, Secretary.”

Lichfield Mercury 4/2/1887

“On Friday Mr. T. H. Stanley, borough coroner, held an inquest at the NEW INN, Blakenall, on the body of Arthur Reginald Davenport, 17, who was injured by an explosion of gas at the Fishley Colliery, on the 14th of November. Mr. R. Thomas, jun. attended on behalf of the overseers of the colliery. The evidence was the same as that adduced as that of the body of deceased’s father, the late Mr. Richard Savage Davenport, mining engineer, who was also injured by the explosion, and who died of the following day, with the addition that Dr. Somerville testified that the deceased was going favourably until Monday, when he was taken with epileptic fits, which resulted in his death. A verdict of Death from Natural Causes was returned.”

1891 Census

17, Blakenall Lane

- [1] Thomas Vale (43), licensed victualler, born Bloxwich;
- [2] Elizabeth Vale (43), wife, born Blakenall;
- [3] Sarah Vale (16), daughter, born Blakenall;
- [4] Ernest Vale (10), son, scholar, born Blakenall;
- [5] Frank Vale (8), son, scholar, born Blakenall;
- [6] Elizabeth Clarke (20), domestic servant, born Bilston:

Birmingham Daily Post 29/12/1891

“Yesterday Mr. T. H. Stanley (coroner) held an inquest at the NEW INN, Blakenall, on the body of Joseph Peace (30), a widower, of 23, Blakenall Lane, who cut his throat with a razor on Saturday night. The evidence bore out the statement already published as to the determined manner in which deceased gashed his throat, and as to the depressed state of mind in which he had been through in want of work. Verdict, Temporary Insanity.”

Walsall Advertiser 17/11/1894

“On Wednesday evening last, at the NEW INN, Blakenall, Mr. Walter Hughes satisfactorily disposed of three blocks of property by auction. There was a large company present, and unusual interest manifested in the sale. Lot 1 comprised four freehold houses producing a rental of £41 3s 4d. For this the first bidding was £300, and after a very keen competition the lot realised £527 10s. For Lot 2, a freehold double-fronted house and workshop, the first bidding was £100 and this lot realised £250. Lot 3 comprised six newly-built houses fronting Providence Lane, Leamore, producing £74 8s a year, which are leasehold for 99 years from 24th June, 1894, at a ground rent of £5 6s 3d. £400 was the first bid for this lot, and it was eventually sold for £700, making a total for the evening’s sale of £1, 477. The solicitors acting for the vendors were Messrs. Wilkinson, Mills, and Walford, of Walsall.”

Joseph Whitehead = Joseph Whitehouse

Walsall Advertiser 17/4/1897

“Public singing and music licenses were granted as follows.....

Joseph Whitehouse, NEW INN, Blakenall (7 to 10.30pm every Saturday).”

Walsall Observer 6/1/1900

“Sick and Dividend Club. A supper in connection with the above club was held at Mr. J Whitehead’s NEW INN, Blakenall on the 18th ult. After the cloth had been withdrawn Mr. J. Moseley was voted to the chair, and Mr. G. Yardley to the vice chair.....”

Walsall Observer 21/4/1900

“A grand smoking concert was held at the NEW INN, Blakenall, the house of Mr. J. Whitehead, for the benefit of the juveniles of the Free Gardeners branch annual trip, on Saturday the 7th inst. The chair was occupied by Mr. J. Moseley, the vice chair by Mr. H. Degwell.....”

Walsall Observer 2/6/1900

“A supper was held at Mr. J. Whitehead’s , NEW INN, Blakenall, on Saturday night last, to celebrate the Queen’s birthday and the relief of Mafeking. Between 30 and 40 sat down to a splendid repast out on the table by the host and hostess in their usual style. After the cloth was drawn, the evening was filled up with harmony.....”

Walsall Observer 10/11/1900

“The annual supper in connection with the Lodge No.1733, of the National United Order of Free Gardeners was held on October 27th, at Mr. J. Whitehead’s, NEW INN, Blakenall Heath, when over forty sat down to a grand spread.....”

1901 Census

17, Blakenall Lane – NEW INNS

[1] Joseph Whitehead (44), licensed victualler, born Bedworth, Warwickshire;

[2] Annie E. Whitehead (39), wife, born Lichfield;

[3] Martha Bradford (24), domestic servant, born Blakenall;

[4] Ernest W. Whitehead (14), son, solicitor’s joint clerk, born Lichfield:

Joseph Whitehead was a committee member of Walsall and District Licensed Victuallers’ Association. [1902]

Walsall Advertiser 1/3/1902

“National United Order Of Free Gardeners. A smoking concert was held on Saturday, at Mr. J. Whitehead’s, NEW INNS, Blakenall, for the benefit of Brother Samuel Holyman, a member of the above lodge, who has been unable to follow his employment for some considerable time. Councillor John Williams presided, and Councillor C. C. Walker was in the vice-chair. Afterwards the following programme was gone through in excellent style: Pianoforte solo, ‘Come Back to Erin,’ Miss Jones; song, ‘Dolly Grey’ (encore, ‘Honeysuckle and the Bee’), Miss Jones; song, ‘Marguerite’ Mr. J. Wright; song, ‘Rocked in the Cradle of the Deep,’ Mr. D. Owen; comic song, ‘Trying it on’ (encore, ‘Nice night this evening’), Mr. Harry Lawrence; song, ‘Soldier and a Man,’ Mr. H. Degwell; song, ‘Granny’s Counsel,’ Miss Jones; song, ‘Portrait of my wife,’ Mr. D. Owen; ‘Queen of the Earth,’ Mr. J. Wright; song, ‘Must You,’ Mr. Nicholls; song, ‘Sons of the Motherland’ (encore, ‘Ha’porth of Gold’), Mr. Harry Lawrence; song, ‘Framed in oak,’ Mr. H. Selvey; song, ‘England’s Prize,’ Mr. J. Dutson. A few remarks by the Chairman and Vice-chairman, and the singing of the National Anthem brought the very pleasant evening to a close.”

Walsall Advertiser 17/5/1902

“The monthly meeting of the Walsall and District Licensed Victuallers’ and Beer Retailers’ Friendly and Protection Society was held on Thursday last at the house of Mr. Joseph Whitehead, NEW INN, Blakenall.....”

Walsall Advertiser 4/4/1903

“Blakenall Free Gardeners. A large gathering of Pride of Blakenall members and friends took place at the NEW INN, Blakenall, on Monday evening, the occasion being a smoking concert in connection with the Juvenile Outing Fund.....”

Walsall Advertiser 23/5/1903

“The monthly meeting of the Walsall and District Licensed Victuallers’ and Beer Retailers’ Friendly and Protection Society was held on Thursday evening at the house of Mr. Joseph Whitehead, NEW INN, Blakenall.....”

Walsall Advertiser 4/7/1908

“The monthly meeting of the Walsall and District Licensed Victuallers’ and Beer Retailers’ Friendly and Protection Society was held on Thursday week, at the NEW INN, Blakenall.....”

Walsall Advertiser 3/7/1909

“Mr. R. A. Cooper, prospective Unionist Candidate for the borough of Walsall, was initiated a member of the Grand Independent Order of Loyal Caledonian Corks at the ordinary meeting of Lodge 65, of the Walsall District, held in the NEW INNS, Blakenall, Bloxwich, on Monday evening.....”

Walsall Observer 23/1/1915

“At the Walsall county Court on Thursday, Mr. Frank Cooper made an application, under the Workmen’s Compensation Act, on behalf of Henry Mills, a professional footballer, of Balls Hill, Walsall, for an award against Messrs. Charles Ross, Bloxwich Road, Leamore; E. Westwood, NEW INNS, Blakenall; E. Perry, The STORES, High Street, Bloxwich; and W. H. Bratt, RED LION, Leamore (secretary), as representing the Bloxwich Strollers Football Club. Mr. H. H. Jackson appeared on behalf of the club.

The applicant, who is a well-known footballer in Walsall, and was previously connected with one of the Manchester clubs, met with an injury on February 14 whilst playing for Bloxwich Strollers, sustaining a broken leg. He was paid £1 weekly from the date of the accident to August 1st, 1914, when the payment was stopped.

Mr. Cooper said there was a request for arbitration on the file, and he (Mr. Cooper) agreed to an award of £40 in full settlement of all claims.

Mr. Jackson said the man has commenced work again.

An award by consent of £40 was made.”

Walsall Observer 28/10/1916 - Roll of Honour

“Sergeant Isaiah Brookes, who was wounded in April last, had been back in France with his battalion of the Grenadier Guards, only fifteen days, when he lost his right arm in a charge, the second time he had been ‘over the top’ since he returned. A single man, 32 years of age, he was employed, up to September 2, 1914, when he enlisted, at Messrs. Hawley’s, Lichfield Road, and resided with his aunt Mrs. Westwood, at the NEW INNS, Blakenall. The wound he received in April had made him deaf in the right ear, and he could scarcely see with his left eye. He is now in hospital in Sheffield, and, describing his experiences to his cousin says that they were charging over No Mans Land when a private soldier yelled to him, ‘Look at your arm, sergeant.’ In the excitement of the charge he had not noticed that he had been hit, but looking down, saw his arm hanging limp by his side. Then comes a gruesome part in the narrative. Seizing hold of the injured limb with his sound arm, Sergeant Brookes pulled it down his sleeve from the elbow, where it had been badly smashed by a piece of shell, and was almost severed, and threw it away! He had been at the Front about twelve months when he was first wounded.”

Walsall Observer 12/1/1918

“Walsall and District War Aid Committee. Collection By The Licensed Victuallers, December, 1917.....
NEW INN, Blakenall. £2 14s 10½d.”

1911 Census

246, Blakenall Lane

[1] Joseph Whitehead (54), licensed victualler, born Bedworth, Warwickshire;

[2] Annie Elizabeth Whitehead (50), wife, born Swinfen, Lichfield;

[3] Ernest William Whitehead (24), son, insurance inspector, born Lichfield;

[4] Elizabeth Farnell (23), domestic servant, born Blakenall:

Joseph Whitehead – see also TRAVELLERS REST, Walsall Wood.

A Provisional Grant for the license removal to new premises erected partly on land forming part of the existing premises and partly on land forming the site of an existing cottage, was made on 9th March 1937.

The new premises opened at 2pm on 5th March 1938.

1939 Register

148, Blakenall Lane (3 of 4)

[1] Ernest Westwood, date of birth 9/3/1887, victualler, married;

[2] Dora M. Westwood, dob 21/2/1893, unpaid domestic duties, married;

[3] Harry Westwood, dob 10/9/1917, assistant, licensed trade at home, single;

Walsall Observer 7/12/1940

“Walsall Licensed Victuallers’ Society.

Motor Ambulance Effort on behalf of Walsall and District branch of the British Red Cross Society.

First List of Subscriptions.....

NEW INN, Blakenall, £5 0s 0d.”

Walsall Observer 7/12/1940

“We gather from Mrs. Drabble, of the W.V.S., that 209 Walsall lads in the fighting forces applied directly to her for winter comforts. These will be sent. Where possible individual application should be made with full addresses to which parcels can be despatched. In appreciation of this work Mrs. Westwood, of the NEW INN, Blakenall, has sent to Mrs. Drabble £3 11s 6d subscribed by her customers.”

Walsall Observer 6/11/1943 - In Memoriam

“Sweet memories of a dear mother, Helen Westwood, late of the NEW INNS, Blakenall. A real good mother, ever true, a loving gran, a dear friend too. Never forgotten. Dora, Ernie and Harry.”

Walsall Observer 15/1/1944

“Walsall Licensed Victuallers’ Society.

Appeal on Behalf of the Merchant Navy Fund, The Duke of Gloucester’s Red Cross Fund and the Aid to China Fund. List of Subscriptions.....

NEW INNS, Blakenall. £0 5s 0d.”

Walsall Observer 17/2/1945

“Members of ‘B’ and ‘C’ Companies of the Walsall Home Guard have formed an Old Comrades Club, which is to hold social gatherings on the first Wednesday of each month. If the attendance of 120 at the first of them, which took place at the NEW INNS, Blakenall, may be taken as an indication, the club is destined to be a great success. During the evening a number of certificates were presented and an enjoyable musical programme was provided by Messrs. Walter Heeley, Alex Kirk, Charles King, Eddie Dibbs and Ted Leadbeater.”

Mabel Brown – see also GREEN MAN, and ALMA.

George Albert Hudson – see also GREEN MAN.

Ronald Harry Cox – see also STARTING GATE.

[2017]

NEW INN

23, Pinfold, (New Street), (23, The Indies), (17, Pinfold Bank), BLOXWICH

OWNERS

James Beard, bricklayer, Reeves Street, Bloxwich

Job Yardley, chemist, Bloxwich

Old Wolverhampton Breweries Co. Ltd. [1913]

LICENSEES

Edward Deacon [1859]

John Beard [1861] – [1862]

Mrs. Ebenezer Deakin [1865]

Edward Davis [1868]

James Smart [1871]

George Ball [1872];

Thomas Lloyd [];

Rosannah Constable [];

John Heal [];

John Gough [1891] – 1912;

Henry ‘Harry’ Mellor (1912 – 1913):

NOTES

17, Pinfold Bank [1871]

23, Pinfold [1891]

It had a beerhouse license,

1861 Census

Pinfold Bank – NEW INN

[1] John Beard (30), unmarried, publican, born Walsall;

[2] John Thomas (19), visitor, bitt maker, born Hamstall Ridware, Staffordshire:

Bells Life in London and Sporting Chronicle 2/2/1862

“J. Stokes of Bloxwich will take five yards start in 200 of Fowler, for £5 or £19 a side. Money ready any time next week, at Mr. J. Beard’s, NEW INN, Bloxwich.”

Bells Life in London and Sporting Chronicle 18/5/1862

“J. Stokes of Bloxwich will run Elwell of Brierley Hill, or Price of Tipton 120 yards if allowed two yards start; or will run B. Acland of Dudley the same distance level. Either of the matches, for £5 or £10 a side, can be made any evening next week at J. Beard's, NEW INN, Pinfold Bank, Bloxwich; or at J. Holden's, Town End Bank, Walsall.”

Walsall Free Press 29/7/1865

“Mrs. Ebenezer Deakin pleaded guilty to having had her house open during prohibited hours on the 16th inst, and stated in extenuating circumstances, that the party supplied represented that they came from Cannock. The Bench ordered the defendant to pay a fine of 1s and costs.”

Birmingham Journal 26/12/1868

“At the Walsall Police Court, on Thursday, Edward Davis, the NEW INN beerhouse, Pinfold, appeared to a summons charging him with having had his house open at half-past nine o'clock on Sunday morning. The case was proved by Sergeant Martin, and a prior conviction of recent date having been proved against the defendant, he was fined 10s and costs, and told that if he made his appearance before the Bench again he would be fined £5.”

1871 Census

17, Pinfold Bank, NEW INN

- [1] James Smart (45), publican, born Bilston;
- [2] Sarah Smart (48), wife, born Bilston;
- [3] John Smart (21), son, miner, born Wolverhampton;
- [4] James Smart (11), son, born Wolverhampton;
- [5] Sarah Finland (20), domestic servant, born Stone:

Walsall Advertiser 24/4/1880 - Advert

“Bloxwich. Beerhouse To Let, the NEW INNS, Pinfold Bank; Rent £16, In-coming £30. For particulars, apply on the premises.”

A wine license was granted pre 1881.

1891 Census

23, Pinfold

- [1] John Gough (49), widower, bridle bit maker, born Bloxwich;
- [2] Agnes A. Gough (22), daughter, born Bloxwich;
- [3] Cecilia M. Gough (19), daughter, born Bloxwich;
- [4] James Gough (16), son, bridle bit filer, born Bloxwich;
- [5] William Gough (14), son, labourer, born Bloxwich:

1901 Census

23, The Indies – NEW INNS TAVERN

- [1] John Gough (59), widower, beerhouse keeper, born Bloxwich;
- [2] Annie Gough (38), daughter, born Bloxwich;
- [3] Cecilia Gough (29), daughter, born Bloxwich;
- [4] James Gough (26), brewery storekeeper, born Bloxwich;
- [5] William Gough (24), brewer, born Bloxwich:

Walsall Advertiser 6/2/1904

“The annual licensing sessions for the Borough of Walsall were held on Thursday at the Guildhall, and aroused considerable interest. The court was crowded, and many license-holders were unable to obtain admission.....

Notice had been given to 76 license holders to show cause for the renewal of their licenses, evidently as a result of the visits of a sub-committee of magistrates to the licensed premises, the reasons why cause had to be shown being various....

John Gough, NEW INN.”

Walsall Advertiser 11/2/1905

“The annual Brewster Sessions for the Borough were held on Wednesday at the Guildhall.....

Mr. Jackson applied to make alterations to the drinking area of the NEW INN, Bloxwich, on the ground of domestic convenience.”

1911 Census

23, Pinfold

- [1] John Gough (68), widower, beerhouse keeper, born Bloxwich;
- [2] Cecilia Mary Gough (34), daughter, housekeeper, born Bloxwich;
- [3] James Gough (36), son, store keeper, born Bloxwich;
- [4] William Gough (34), son, assistant brewer, born Bloxwich;

[5] Josephine Mary Teague (1), granddaughter, born Walsall:

Walsall Advertiser 27/1/1912

“The little child of John Gough, the landlord of the NEW INN, The Pinfold, Bloxwich, had a narrow escape from death on Tuesday night. The little one was asleep in a room in which the chimney-place was stopped up with rags. These were evidently set alight by a spark from the chimney, and the flames quickly spread to the bed hangings, and everything in the room was soon ablaze. Fortunately, Miss Gough, who was in a lower room, noticed the smoke, and was able to rush into the room and rescue the child. The bed and mattresses were burnt all round. Information was sent to Bloxwich Branch Fire Station and the men were quickly on the scene, under Inspector N. Pritchard. Their work with a hand-pump proved so effective that the fire was practically extinguished before the arrival of the Walsall Fire Brigade under Chief-inspector Ballance.”

Walsall Observer 8/2/1913

“The annual Licensing Sessions for the borough were held at the Guildhall on Monday.....

The following were the notices of objection (Compensation Clause).....

NEW INN, Pinfold, Bloxwich. (Hy. Mellor).

SPORTSMAN, Pinfold, Bloxwich. (Jacob Williams).

NELSON, Church Street, Bloxwich. (Jos. Wall).

STAG, Field Street, Bloxwich. (Jane Tolley).

PLOUGH, Cemetery Road, (Charles Mansfield).

RISING SUN, Park Road, Bloxwich, (Charles Orgill).

STORES, High Street, Bloxwich, (Charles Ernest Perry).

BEEHIVE, New Street, Bloxwich, (Benjamin Hughes).”

AND

“The first house taken was the NEW INN, Pinfold, Bloxwich, tenanted by Henry Mellor. Mr. Pritchard (Wolverhampton) appeared for the Old Wolverhampton Brewery Co. Ltd, and the landlord.

Inspector Pritchard, of Bloxwich, stated that in Pinfold there were two beerhouses and one fully-licensed house – the NEW INN, the SPORTSMAN, and the WHEAT SHEAF, the last being the fully-licensed house. The population of the streets and courts in the vicinity was 135 persons over sixteen, 131 under sixteen, and one boy. He had visited the NEW INN on nineteen occasions in ten weeks, varying the times, but chiefly in the evening, and the total number of customers which he found was 193, averaging about 10 persons per visit. It was 15 paces from the NEW INN to the SPORTSMAN and 54 to the WHEAT SHEAF.

In reply to Mr. Pritchard, witness said that the house was quite large enough for the street and the position, and was practically at the junction of the main road. The living accommodation was also satisfactory, and there was nothing against the house as far as its past history was concerned.

Mr. Mellor, the landlord, gave evidence, and said that he paid 18/- per week rent, including license duties, and he paid all outgoings in the shape of rents and taxes. The weekly trade averaged about 2½ to 3 barrels, gross of bottled beer, 4 dozen minerals, and tobacco.

Mr. Pritchard submitted that after the very favourable reports which the Chief Constable presented to their Worships year by year in Walsall it was not necessary to refer all those cases for compensation, and little discrimination might be exercised.

The Bench reserved their decision.

In the case of the SPORTSMAN, Pinfold, Bloxwich.....

He knew it was very difficult for the Bench to discriminate between the house and its neighbour the NEW INN, but both being in many respects very much alike, he did not see how one could be kept without the other, or how one could be done away with and the other allowed to remain, and he asked the bench, if they spared one, they would spare the other as well.

The decision in this case was also reserved.”

AND

“The Court re-assembled yesterday (Friday) morning.....

Having retired, the Bench announced that the licenses of the STAG and the STORES would be renewed for this year, but might be considered at some future date. The remaining six houses would be referred to the compensation authorities.”

The license renewal was referred to the Compensation Authority on 7th February 1913.

Walsall Advertiser 31/5/1913

“The principal meeting of the Compensation Authority for the Borough of Walsall was held on Tuesday morning at the Guildhall.....

The first to be considered was that of the NEW INN, beerhouse, Pinfold, Bloxwich, for which the owners were the Old Wolverhampton Breweries Ltd, and the tenant Mr. Henry Meller. Mr. Pritchard, of Wolverhampton, appeared for the owners and licensee. The rent, it was stated, was 18/- per week, and the weekly trade was from 2½ to 3 barrels of beer, and a gross of bottled beer. The renewal of this license was refused.”

Compensation was paid.

The license was extinguished on 6th September 1913.

Walsall Advertiser 9/1/1915

“Mrs. Mellor, of Church Street, Bloxwich, has three sons and two grandsons serving their country, viz. Harry Mellor, aged 36, of the Royal Field Artillery, late of the NEW INNS, Bloxwich. His home is in Little London. He was in the Army when the Boer war was on and was drafted out to India with the R.F.A, where he spent six years. He had finished his service some two years ago, but re-joined his regiment when the present war broke out and is now stationed at Dundalk Ireland.....”

NEW INN

123, Stafford Street, BLOXWICH

OWNERS

LICENSEES

Ebenezer Deakin [1860] – [1861]

NOTES

1861 Census

123, Stafford Street

- [1] Ebenezer Deakin (38), brewer, born Birmingham;
- [2] Emma Deakin (28), wife, born Bloxwich;
- [3] Harriet Deakin (4), daughter, born Walsall;
- [4] Emma Deakin (4), daughter, born Walsall;
- [5] William Deakin (2), son, born Bloxwich;
- [6] Henry T. Deakin (1 month), son, born Bloxwich;
- [7] Ann Deakin (15), general servant, born Rugeley;

Ebenezer Deakin – see also SPORTSMAN.

NEW INNS

144, (145), (143+144), (143), Blue Lane West, WALSALL

OWNERS

Samuel Cox, Holtshill Lane, Walsall
Henry Hateley
Thomas Gameson
Mrs. J. Fairfield
Messrs. Thompson, malaters, Oldbury
Emma Bird
Bird's Brewery Ltd. [1902]
Ansell's Ltd. (acquired on 1st May 1967)

LICENSEES

Enoch Scott [1858] – [1881];
Thomas Bradbury [] – 1890);
Alfred Jones (1890 – 1893);
William Henry Manson (1893 – 1902);
Charles Jones (1902 – 1910);
Mrs. Sarah Jones (1910 – 1926);
Miss Alice Elizabeth Jones (1926 – 1931);
Robert Frederick Charles Hartin (1931 – 1933);
John Gilbert (1933 – 1937);
Philip Skelton (1937);

Norman William Walker (1937 – 1940);
Harry Albert Beresford (1940);
Enoch Antill (1940 – 1946);
Claude Wilson (1946 – 1947);
Thomas Smith (1947 – 1949);
Isaac John Fletcher (1949 – 1961);
Alfred Coleman (1961 – 1962);
Harry Simpson (1962 – 1963);
Harry Sydney Dutton (1963 – [1966])

NOTES

143, Blue Lane [1861]
143, Blue Lane West [1881]
143+144, Blue Lane West [1891], [1939]
145, Blue Lane West [1896]
144, Blue Lane West [1901], [1904], [1911], [1940]

It had a beerhouse license.

Enoch Scott, beerhouse, 144, Blue Lane. [1858]

Walsall Free Press 9/1/1858 - Advert

“To Be Sold By Auction, (By Order of the Assignees of Mr. H. Farrington)....

Lot 2. The Equity Of Redemption Of And In All Those Twenty-Six Leasehold Houses, With the Shopping, Outbuildings, Gardens, and Premises, thereto respectively belonging, situate in the several places hereinafter mentioned....

Six fronting to Blue Lane, Walsall, occupied, one as a Public House (called the NEW INN), by Enoch Scott....”

Enoch Scott, beer retailer, Blue Lane West. [1861]

1861 Census

143, Blue Lane

- [1] Enoch Scott (44), shoemaker, born Walsall;
- [2] Henry Arthur Scott (20), son, shoemaker, born Walsall;
- [3] Mary Ann Scott (43), wife, born Aston, Warwickshire;
- [4] Samuel Scott (17), son, shoemaker, born Walsall;
- [5] Ellen Scott (15), daughter, born Walsall;
- [6] Emanuel Scott (12), son, closer, born Walsall;
- [7] Walter Scott (7), son, scholar, born Walsall;
- [8] Emma Scott (2), daughter, born Walsall:

Enoch Scott, retailer of beer, 144, Blue Lane West. [1862]

Enoch Scott, beer retailer and shoemaker, 144, Blue Lane West. [1864], [1868]

Birmingham Daily Post 22/8/1864

“The Forthcoming Borough Licensing Day. The following is a list of persons who intend to apply for spirit licenses at the Special Sessions for that purpose, to be held on the 28th inst....

Enoch Scott, NEW INN, Blue Lane.” [This application was not followed up.]

Birmingham Daily Gazette 28/8/1866

“Enoch Scott, beerhouse keeper, Blue Lane, charged with having a number of pigs on his premises so as to be a nuisance, was ordered to remove them within seven days.”

1871 Census

143+144, Blue Lane

- [1] Enoch Scott (54), boot and shoe maker, born Walsall;
- [2] Mary Ann Scott (54), wife, born Walsall;
- [3] Samuel Scott (27), son, born Walsall;
- [4] Ellen Scott (25), daughter, general servant, born Walsall;
- [5] Emanuel Scott (22), son, malleable iron caster, born Walsall;
- [6] Walter Scott (17), son, boot and shoe maker, born Walsall;
- [7] Emma Scott (12), daughter, scholar, born Walsall;
- [8] Eliza Ann Wilkinson (9), granddaughter, scholar, born Walsall:

1881 Census

143, Blue Lane West

- [1] Enoch Scott (64), publican and shoe maker, born Walsall;
 - [2] Mary A. Scott (64), wife, born Walsall;
 - [3] Walter Scott (27), son, boot maker, born Walsall;
 - [4] Emma Scott (22), general servant, born Walsall;
 - [5] Eliza A. Wilkinson (19), granddaughter, bridle stitcher, born Walsall;
- 144, Blue Lane West
NEW INN – uninhabited:

Walsall Observer 23/5/1885

“Yesterday, Mr. T. H. Stanley, borough coroner, held an inquest at the NEW INN, on the body of Sarah Rickaby (63) a widow, who had been residing with a daughter at Red Lion Street. Deceased retired to bed apparently in good health on Wednesday night, but on Thursday morning she was found lying on the bed partially clothed, and quite dead. A verdict of Death from Natural Causes was returned.”

1891 Census

143-144, Blue Lane West

- [1] Alfred Jones (30), publican, born Walsall;
- [2] Rosa Jones (30), wife, born Kidderminster;
- [3] Rosa B. Jones (2), daughter, born Walsall;
- [4] Alfred J. Jones (8 months), son, born Walsall;
- [5] Elizabeth Boon (16), general servant, born Willenhall:

Walsall Advertiser 3/9/1892 - Advert

“Wanted, a Girl about 18; character required. Apply Mrs. Jones, NEW INN, Blue Lane.”

Walsall Advertiser 26/8/1893 - Advert

“The Bankruptcy Acts, 1883-90.

Re Alfred Jones, NEW INN, Blue Lane West, Walsall.

To Be Sold By Auction, By Messrs. Watkins, Powell & Wood, on Monday Next, August 28, 1893, entirely without reserve (by order of E. Pritchard Esq., Official Receiver) the whole of the useful Brewing Plant, comprising capital 120 gallon Copper Boiler, Steal Boiler, 8 bushel Mash Tub, Vats and Frame, Refrigerator, Wort Spout, Casks, Weighing Machine, quantity of Sussex Hops, &c, &c; and also a quantity of Household Furniture.

Sale to commence at 11 o'clock sharp.

Auctioneers' Offices. Bridge Street, Walsall.”

Walsall Advertiser 9/9/1893

“Alfred Jones, beerhouse keeper, NEW INN, Blue Lane West, formerly a well-known football player, appeared for his public examination, and was represented by Mr. H. H. Jackson, solicitor. His statement showed liabilities £311 10s 2d and assets £50 10s 3d. The following were the Official Receiver's observations: prior to 1887 he took the ALMA INN, Paddock Lane, Walsall. He had no capital, but borrowed £14 from a friend. In April, 1889, he removed to the STORES INN, High Street, Walsall, and in 1890, to the NEW INN, Blue Lane West, Walsall. He agreed to pay £250 for goodwill, fixtures, brewing plant and unexpired portion of the lease, and to take stock at a valuation which amounted to £22. He borrowed £300 from a friend to pay these sums. He gave no security for the £300, and still owes £165 of that sum. The lease expired on the 25th March last. The bankrupt remained in possession and carried on business up to the time he filed the petition. He states the cause of his insolvency to be ‘paying an excessive amount upon taking to the NEW INN, loses upon brewing, supplying beer on credit, and illness of my child.’ He kept no books of account. He accounts for his deficiency as follows: Excess of liabilities over assets 12 months ago, £120 19s 11d; bad debts (for beer drunk upon the premises), £19; household expenses for the past 12 months, £75; loss upon forced realisation of effects, which he has estimated at a breaking up price, £50; doctor's bills and illness, £5; total £260 19s 11d. The examination was adjourned to the 27th inst. for closing.”

Birmingham Daily Post 20/9/1893

“The adjourned licensing session for Walsall borough took place yesterday..... Plans for alterations at the NEW INN, Blue Lane, were submitted. Granted.”

London Gazette 11/5/1894

“Notices Of Release Of Trustees.....

Jones, Alfred, NEW INN, Blue-lane West, Walsall, Staffordshire, Beerhouse Keeper.”

William H. Manson, beer retailer, 145, Blue Lane West. [1896]

Walsall Advertiser 11/7/1896

“An inquest was held by Mr. T. H. Stanley, at the NEW INN, Blue Lane, on Thursday, touching the death of Edgar Hawkins, seventeen months, son of David Hawkins, puddler, 7 house 5 court, Blue Lane.
Annie Hawkins, mother of deceased, proved identification, and said her child had not been healthy from its birth. The baby had a fall about six or seven weeks ago, while being nursed by her little daughter, and Dr. McKinstry had since been attending him. The child died on Tuesday. He was insured.
Dr. McKinstry stated that the child was brought to him suffering from diarrhoea, and a severe bruise and two small wounds to the left side of the head. He got well from diarrhoea within a week, but soon symptoms of inflammation of the brain showed themselves, and continued till death. Four days before this the diarrhoea reset in. The primary cause of death was diarrhoea, the secondary cause being inflammation of the brain.
In reply to a juror, witness said the wounds seemed to have been properly cared for. Death was undoubtedly accelerated by the fall.
Maria Somerfield, wife of Joseph Somerfield, bit filer, 16, Railway Row, spoke to seeing the child directly after the accident. She did not think he was hurt as there only seemed to be two little scratches on his forehead.
A verdict was returned in accordance with the medical testimony.”

Walsall Advertiser 28/8/1897

“Walsall Annual Licensing Sessions. These sessions were held at the Guildhall yesterday.....
Billiard licenses were applied for by the following....
William Henry Manson, beerhouse keeper, NEW INN, Blue Lane. Refused.”

Walsall Advertiser 2/9/1899

“The annual licensing sessions for this borough were held at the Guildhall on Wednesday.....
The Chief Constable submitted the following list showing houses where children under the age of 13 had been served since Aug., 1898. Beerhouses.....
Wm. Henry Manson, NEW INN, Blue Lane, served 10 children.....
He said he had a list of 118 other houses which he did not think worth while including in the report, where the number of children served had been under ten. The Mayor said he thought that the license holders should try and fall in with the magistrates views.....
On returning the magistrates announced their decisions as under....
In the cases where children under 13 years of age were reported to have been supplied, on the promise of the licensees to carry out the wishes of the magistrates in future the licenses would be renewed with a caution.”

Walsall Observer 6/1/1900

“NEW INN Sick and Dividend Society. The annual supper in connection with the above club was held on Friday, December 29th, when upwards of 30 members sat down to an excellent repast, served in the well known style of the host and hostess (Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Manson). After full justice had been done to the good things provided, Mr. J. Bird was voted to the chair, and Mr. G. Bird to the vice chair.....”

Walsall Observer 15/9/1900 - Advert

“Wanted, a good Girl; one from the country preferred.
Apply Mrs. Manson, NEW INN, Blue Lane West.”

1901 Census

144, Blue Lane West

- [1] William H. Manson (36), brass caster and beer retailer, born Walsall;
- [2] Harriet Manson (36), wife, born Walsall;
- [3] Nelly Manson (11), daughter, born Walsall;
- [4] Dora Manson (8), daughter, born Walsall;
- [5] Minnie Manson (4), daughter, born Walsall;
- [6] John W. Manson (3), son, born Walsall;
- [7] Mary Dickinson (19), general servant, born Brownhills:

Walsall Advertiser 11/4/1903

“The monthly meeting of the Walsall and District Licensed Victuallers’ and Beer Retailers’ Friendly and Protection Society was held on Thursday last.....
Mr. Charles Jones, NEW INN, Blue Lane West, was elected a member of the society.”

Charles Jones, beer retailer, 144, Blue Lane West. [1904]
He was married to Sarah.

1911 Census

144, Blue Lane West

- [1] Sarah Jones (58), widow, publican, born Walsall;

- [2] Edith Robinson (26), daughter, married, assisting in the business, born Walsall;
- [3] Alice Jones (23), daughter, unmarried, assisting in the business, born Walsall;
- [4] Gladys Skinner (11), grandchild, school, born Walsall;
- [5] Beryl Skinner (10), grandchild, school, born Walsall;
- [6] Alonso Skinner (5), grandchild, born Walsall;
- [7] Edith Robinson (2), grandchild, born Walsall:

Mrs. Sarah Jones, beer retailer, 144, Blue Lane West. [1912]

Walsall Observer 12/1/1918

“Walsall and District War Aid Committee. Collection By The Licensed Victuallers, December, 1917.....
NEW INN, Blue Lane West. £1 8s 8d.”

Walsall Observer 9/2/1924

“.....The NEW INN, said Chief Inspector Cooke [at the annual licensing sessions] also only had one living room, but four bedrooms, the premises being generally very clean and in good repair Mr. Harrison told the Bench that the average trade at the NEW INN during the past three years was 436 barrels and 290 dozen bottles.”

Staffordshire Advertiser 20/8/1927

“A meeting of the Walsall and District Licensed Victuallers and Beer Retailers’ Society was held at the house of Mr. Samuel Birch, OLD CROWN INN, New Invention, on the 11th inst. Mr. P. B. Cooke (president) occupied the chair. Miss Alice Jones, NEW INN, Blue Lane West, and Mr. Harry Male, DUN COW HOTEL, Wolverhampton Street, were elected members of the Society.....”

1939 Register

143+144, Blue Lane West – NEW INN Public House (2 of 4)

[1] Norman W. Walker, date of birth 5/10/1908, licensed victualler, married;

[2] Helen Walker, dob 5/6/1908, unpaid domestic duties, married;

Walsall Advertiser 13/1/1940

“The monthly meeting of the Walsall and District Licensed Victuallers’ Society was held on Thursday last.....
Mr. Albert Edward(?) Beresford, NEW INN, Blue Lane, was elected a member of the Society.”

Walsall Observer 21/9/1940

“At the September meeting of the Walsall Licensed Victuallers’ Society.....
Enoch Antill, NEW INN, Blue Lane was elected a member of the society.”

Walsall Observer 17/5/1941

“That fire watchers on duty in premises do relieve the owners of responsibility for black-out observance was ruled by Judge A. C. Caporn and Mr. D. W. Jones when, at Walsall Police Court on Monday in which Leslie Antill, NEW INNS, Blue Lane West, was summoned for displaying a light at the Walsall Co-operative Society branch shop at Blakenall Lane, and the Society for permitting the light to be displayed. Mr. J. H. S. Addison appeared for the society, and pleaded not guilty, Antill admitting the offence. It was stated by Police-constable Grundy that he found a light burning at the rear of the premises on a Sunday evening and there was nobody in the building. Antill explained to him that he had been there as a fire watcher throughout the day, from 7am until 7pm; had switched on the electric light and had forgotten to turn it off. The people who should have relieved him did not turn up and that was why the black-out had not been attended to. Witness saw Mr. H. Busill Jones, the Secretary of the Society, and his explanation was that there had been a general misunderstanding, because other people had not taken over from Antill. Mr. Addison said that the Society had been careful in the arrangements that were made for blacking-out the various premises, but added that in consequence of the need for fire watchers strangers were allowed on some of the premises. Antill had had occasion to switch on the light because it went dark in the afternoon and he did not notice that it was left burning. He should have been relieved by two women but they did not put in an appearance. If they had done they would have seen to the black-out and nothing would have been wrong. Regarding the black-out, the Society made the branch managers responsible, but in this case the manager left the premises on Saturday night and was not due there again until the Monday morning. ‘It seems,’ added Mr. Addison ‘that the owners of the property can only rely on the common sense of people who go onto the premises for fire watching purposes.’
When Judge Caporn pointed out that the Society seemed to have taken no precaution to see the black-out regulations were complied with, Mr. Addison replied that all they could do in addition to what they had done would be to have ‘watchers to watch the watchers.’
Mr. Busill Jones told the Bench of the arrangements that the Society had made for securing black-out of their premises and the branch manager said that for the week-end the blacking-out was left in the fire-watchers hands. He agreed in reply to Police-superintendent Raybould, that he would not have gone to the shop himself again on the Sunday afternoon, leaving things in order on the Saturday night.
Announcing a fine of 40s against the Society and the payment of costs of 4s by Antill, Judge Caporn said the Society had failed to satisfy them that they took reasonable precautions to prevent the offence being committed.”

Walsall Observer 25/7/1942 - Forthcoming Marriage

“The Wedding arranged between Alfred Dickenson, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Gnosill, of 45, Blue Lane, and Gladys, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Antill, NEW INN, Blue Lane, will take place at St. Peter’s Church, Stafford Street, Walsall, on Wednesday, August 5, 1942, at 1 o’clock.”

Walsall Observer 29/8/1942

“County Borough of Walsall. Mayor’s War Aid Fund. Nineteenth List of Subscriptions.....
Mr. Antill, NEW INNS, Blue Lane. £0 12s 2d.”

Walsall Observer 24/12/1942

“Walsall Licensed Victuallers’ Society. The Duke of Gloucester’s Red Cross Fund. List of Subscriptions.....
NEW INN, Blue Lane. £1 0s 0d.”

A full license was granted on 3rd March 1960.

London Gazette 15/1/2013

“Final Meetings In the Walsall County Court.

Armand Edward Snow In Bankruptcy.

Current Address: C/o The NEW INN, Blue Lane West, Walsall, West Midlands WS2 8NU. Occupation: Publican. Date of Birth: 16 August 1946. Trading Name: The ROYAL HOTEL. Trading Address: 54 Castle Street, Coseley, WV14 9DP.

Notice is hereby given, pursuant to Rule 6.137 of the Insolvency Rules 1986, that a Meeting of the Bankrupt’s Creditors will be held at 3 Havyat Business Park, Wrington, Bristol, BS40 5PA on 13 March 2013 at 2 pm for the purpose of considering the Trustee in Bankruptcy’s final report and granting his release. To be entitled to vote at the Meeting, a Creditor must give written details of his debt (including the amount) and lodge any necessary form of proxy and/or postal Resolution at David Exell Associates, PO Box 1601, Wrington, Bristol, BS40 5WA no later than 12.00 noon on 12 March 2013 (or deliver them to the Chairman at the Meeting). Date of Appointment: 6 September 2010.

David Exell, Trustee.

09 January 2013.”

Claude Wilson – see also BUTTS INN.

[2017]

NEW INN

The Green, (Little Common), Pelsall, WALSALL

OWNERS

Lichfield Brewery Co. Ltd. [1915]

LICENSEES

Charles Beckley [1861]

Charles Watson [1890] – 1904;

William Ernest Norris (1904 – 1913);

George H Moore (1913 – []

John Francis Peabody [1917]

Mrs. Elizabeth Betteley [1924]

NOTES

Charles Beckley = Charles Bickley

Staffordshire Advertiser 26/10/1861 - Advert

“To Be Let, that well-frequented Beerhouse known as the NEW INN, Pelsall, and now doing an excellent business. Immediate possession may be had.

Apply to Mr. Charles Beckley, on the premises.”

Birmingham Daily Gazette 18/8/1864

“An inquest was held by Mr. Hughes, coroner for the county, at the NEW INN, Pelsall, on Tuesday, on the body of Emanuel Price, 19, who was killed at the beginning of last week whilst following his occupation as a miner. Deceased was employed in the Peel House Colliery, Pelsall, belonging to Mr. James Moillet, Abberley Hall, and on Monday last week, about two o’clock in the afternoon he was working at a depth of seventy yards from the mouth of the pit, when a huge piece of soil, weighing six or seven hundred weight, suddenly gave way, and struck him on the head, killing him in a few minutes. A verdict of Accidental Death was returned. Mr. J. P. Baker, Inspector of Mines for South Staffordshire and Worcestershire, was in attendance, and made several inquiries of the witnesses as to the mode of working in the time.”

Lichfield Mercury 3/10/1890

“The following publicans were granted one hour’s extension on Monday, October 6th, on the occasion of Pelsall wakes
Charles Watson.”

1891 Census

Little Common – NEW INNS

- [1] Charles Watson (42), publican, born Pelsall;
- [2] Sarah Watson (35), wife, born Pelsall;
- [3] Samuel Watson (22), son, blacksmith, born Pelsall;
- [4] Lucy Fanny Watson (15), daughter, scholar, born Pelsall;
- [5] Sarah Alice Watson (11), daughter, scholar, born Pelsall;
- [6] Annie Watson (9), daughter, scholar, born Pelsall;
- [7] Florrie Watson (3), daughter, born Pelsall;
- [8] Archibald Watson (2), son, born Pelsall:

Lichfield Mercury 11/10/1895

“At the Petty Sessions on Monday, Charles Watson, licensed victualler, applied for an extension of one hour the same evening, the occasion being Pelsall wake. The application was granted.”

1901 Census

Little Common

- [1] Charles Watson (53), publican, born Pelsall;
- [2] Sarah Watson (46), wife, born Pelsall;
- [3] Sarah Ann Watson (21), daughter, waitress in public house, born Pelsall;
- [4] Annie Watson (18), daughter, domestic servant, born Pelsall;
- [5] Florrie Watson (13), daughter, school teacher [pupil teacher?], born Pelsall;
- [6] Archibald Watson (11), son, scholar, born Pelsall;
- [7] Charlie Watson (9), son, scholar, born Pelsall;
- [8] Lily Gertrude Watson (7), daughter, scholar, born Pelsall;
- [9] George Fox Watson (4), son, scholar, born Pelsall;
- [10] Evelina May Watson (1), daughter, born Pelsall:

Walsall Observer 23/7/1904

“The Rushall magistrates on Monday (Alderman Holden, and Messrs. A. W. Greatrex, and J. F. Crump) granted a temporary transfer of the license of the NEW INN, Pelsall, from Charles Watson to Ernest Norris.”

Walsall Advertiser 19/8/1905

“The 53rd annual general meeting of the members of the Walsall and District Licensed Victuallers’ and Beer Retailers’ Friendly and Protection Society, was held on Thursday
New Members William Ernest Norris, The NEW INN, Pelsall.”

1911 Census

Pelsall – NEW INN

- [1] William Ernest Norris (39), license holder and coal miner, born Chasetown, Staffordshire;
- [2] Sarah Rebecca Norris (38), wife, married 10 years, assisting in business, born Brownhills;
- [3] William Frank Norris (9), son, born Brownhills;
- [4] Annie Frances Watson (19), general servant, born Pelsall:

Lichfield Mercury 29/11/1912

“William Ernest Norris, licensee of the NEW INN, Pelsall, was granted the temporary transfer of the license of the Queen’s Head Inn, Watling Street, Brownhills, from the present licensee.”

Walsall Advertiser 15/2/1913

“At the Rushall Police Court, on Monday, William E. Norris, licensee of the NEW INNS, Pelsall, applied to the Magistrates for the transfer of the license to George H. Moore. This was granted.”

Walsall Advertiser 29/5/1915 - Advert

“NEW INN, Pelsall, to be Let at Mid-summer.
Apply, The Lichfield Brewery Co. Ltd., Lichfield.”

Walsall Observer 21/7/1917

“Sgt. John Francis Peabody, of the NEW INN, Pelsall, has been awarded the Distinguished Conduct Medal. A single man, 27 years of age, he enlisted in the West Yorks Regiment in September, 1914, being then employed as a miner in Yorkshire, was made lance-corporal in April, 1916, became a corporal in the July following, and in January this year, attained his present rank of sergeant. The following is the official description of the deeds which gained him the honour.
‘Batt. West Yorks, Regt. No.14767. Sgt John Francis Peabody. Throughout the attack on Hill 60, June 7, 1917, this NCO displayed the greatest gallantry. After the capture of the objective, in the absence of any officer, on his own initiative he organised the consolidation of part of the new line. Later, when a counter attack was threatened, and the new line was heavily shelled, he set an excellent example to his men by his cheerfulness and devotion to duty. He was also instrumental in digging out six men who were buried. The officers of three different companies testified to the coolness and ability he displayed throughout the action. Subsequently on June 10, when the company was in reserve trenches, he himself dug out five men who were buried, thus saving their lives, although the trench was being heavily shelled at the time.’
He was educated at Pelsall Wesleyan School, and was a member of the Pelsall Wesleyan Bible Class.”

Staffordshire Advertiser 19/2/1921

“The annual licensing sessions for the Rushall Division were held on Monday.....
All the beerhouse licenses would be renewed, with the exception of the NEW INN, and the OLD HOUSE AT HOME, Pelsall, neither of which it seemed to the justices, was needed, but, at any rate, the premises should have more accommodation.”

Staffordshire Advertiser 12/2/1927

“At the Rushall Licensing Sessions, on Tuesday.....
Objection was taken to the renewal of the following licenses.....
For repairs and alterations of structure.....
NEW INNS, Pelsall.”

NEW INNS

176, (175+176), Green Lane / Hospital Street, WALSALL

OWNERS

Edward Nevill, butty miner, Rowleys Buildings, Leamore, Bloxwich
William Nevill, butcher
William Butler and Co. Ltd. [1933]
Mitchells and Butlers Ltd.

LICENSEES

William Nevill [1868] – [1870]
Thomas Dolphin [1871]
William Nevill [1880] – [1881];
Joseph Bromwich [] – 1889);
George Walker (1889 – 1892);
Benjamin Meek (1892 – 1893);
David Noake (1893 – 1895);
Samuel Bird (1895 – 1901);
Thomas Edward Stanley (1901 – 1926);
Edward Mills (1926 – 1931);
Mrs. Miriam (Mills) Hanstock (1931 – 1959);
George William Victor Byworth (1959 – 1960);
Dennis Alfred Smith (1960);
William Wood (1960 – [1966])

NOTES

176, Green Lane [1901], [1911], [1939]

175+176, Green Lane [1904], [1912], [1940]

NEW INN VAULTS [1909]

It was situated on the opposite corner to the WHITE LION.

It had a beerhouse license.

William Nevill = William Neville

William Nevill, butcher and beer retailer, Green Lane. [1868], [1870]

[In the 1871 Census he was a butcher living next door to the NEW INN, at 175.]

1871 Census

176, Green Lane – NEW INN

[1] Thomas Dolphin (50), siviter and publican, born The Middle, Shropshire;

[2] Eliza Dolphin (67), wife, born Eccleser [Eccleshall?], Shropshire;

[3] Henry Dolphin (21), son, miner, born Wolverhampton;

[4] Joseph Dolphin (18), son, puddler, born Dudley;

[5] Edward Dolphin (11), son, born Walsall;

[6] David Clark (15), boarder, puddler, born Stourport;

[7] James Huberry (30), boarder, miner, born Eccleshall, Staffordshire;

[8] Sarah A. Hodson (15), domestic servant, born Walsall:

A wine license was granted pre 1881.

Walsall Advertiser 3/7/1880 - Notice

“Birchills Explosion Fund.

Messrs. Cook & Son, the well-known firm of Tourist Agents, having offered to hand over the total profits of one of their Excursions to this Fund, it has been decided that it shall be made to Matlock (Switzerland in Miniature), and Rowley (for Chatsworth and Haddon Hall), on Monday, July 12th, 1880, from North Walsall 7.50am, Walsall 8am, Aldridge 8.10am, and Sutton Coldfield 8.20am.

Tickets may be had at ‘The Observer’ Office, The Bridge, ‘Advertiser’ Office, The Bridge, ‘Free Press’ Office, High Street; Mr. John Fletcher, manager, Birchills Iron Works; Mr. Joseph Pittaway, manager, at Messrs. Bunch & Son’s Iron Works; Mr. Millard, at Messrs. Bissell’s, Mr. Capper, Stafford Street; Mr. Nevill, NEW INN, Green Lane, at Cook’s Excursion Offices, The Bridge, Walsall; and 27, Queen Street, Wolverhampton; and at all Stations.

For full particulars see small bills.”

William Nevill = William Neville

1881 Census

NEW INN

[1] William Nevill (44), beer retailer, born Longdon, Staffordshire;

[2] Maria Nevill (43), wife, born Walsall;

[3] Jane Nevill (18), daughter, barmaid, born Walsall;

[4] Maria Nevill (14), daughter, scholar, born Walsall;

[5] William Nevill (12), son, scholar, born Walsall;

[6] Harry Nevill (10), son, scholar, born Walsall;

[7] Ellen Nevill (8), daughter, scholar, born Walsall;

[8] Sarah Nevill (6), daughter, scholar, born Walsall;

[9] Frank Nevill (4), son, born Walsall:

Birmingham Daily Post 12/4/1882

“Yesterday, Mr. Fletcher, coroner, held an inquest at the NEW INN, Hospital Street, on the body of Charles Smith (43), wheelwright, of the same street. The evidence bore out the statement already published that the deceased had been of very drunken habits; that when the worse for liquor he never entered the house at which he lodged to sleep, but made his way into a loft about forty yards away; and that on Sunday morning his lifeless body, terribly injured about the face and head, was found in a stable which is used as a pigsty, and which is situate under the loft, the supposition being that he had fallen through a hole in the floor of the loft, and alighted head foremost in the pig’s trough. He was last seen alive at ten o’clock on Saturday night, when he was in a drunken state.

A verdict of Accidental Death was returned.”

Walsall Advertiser 20/10/1883 - Advert

“To Let, good Corner Shop, with two large windows; suit energetic man, either Butcher or Grocer. Apply, NEW INN, Green Lane, Walsall.”

Evening Star 10/4/1884

“A painfully suggestive text for the addresses of the promoters of the Gospel Temperance Mission at Walsall has been furnished by the death of Charles Smith (45), wheelwright, Hospital Street, in that town.

The deceased it appears had been addicted to drinking for a long period, and when in a drunken state has been in the habit of sleeping in a loft over a stable at the back of his lodgings. At ten o'clock on Saturday night he was seen in the NEW INN beerhouse, Hospital Street, the worse for liquor, but his movements after that time have not been traced. It is supposed, however, that on his return to his lodgings he went into the loft to sleep, as was his custom under such circumstances, and fell through a hole in the flooring into a pigstye below. At all events, a girl named Frances Amelia Craddock, a daughter of the woman with whom he lodged, found his dead body in the pigstye at about 10.30 yesterday morning, with the head and face terribly knocked about, he having apparently fallen head foremost through the hole and alighted on the trough.”

[The inquest was held at the NEW INN.]

1891 Census

176, Green Lane

- [1] George Walker (27), publican, born Willenhall;
- [2] Sarah Ann Walker (35), wife, born Walsall;
- [3] John Walker (5), son, born Walsall;
- [4] Samuel Walker (1), son, born Walsall;
- [5] Clara Dolphin (17), general servant, born Walsall:

George Walker – see also TIGER.

Walsall Advertiser 19/8/1893

“A man named John Bayliss, whose home is in Blue Lane, was charged with stealing 5s 6d from the till of David Noake, the landlord of the NEW INN beerhouse, Green Lane.

Prosecutor left the money in the till about nine o'clock in the morning, and went to get his breakfast, and the servant girl saw the prisoner with his hand in it. He went into the vaults afterwards, and from there to the street. She went and told her master, and he went after him. The whole of the silver, with the exception of one threepenny bit, was gone from the till. It appears that Davis [?] went to his lodgings after, and was seen upstairs counting his money.

A sentence of six weeks' hard labour was imposed.”

Walsall Advertiser 9/11/1895

“At the County Court on Thursday, before a jury, Samuel Bird, of the NEW INN, Green Lane, sued William Abbott, coal dealer, Whitehouse Street, for £32 8s 6d, the value of a mare.

The facts appeared to be that the mare was hired to Abbott from time to time on the stipulation that it was only driven by him, and that it was returned each night. On the 15th July it was being driven with three others in a brake to Bromsgrove by a young man in the defendant's employ, and turning a corner the pole was driven into its body, injuring it terribly. It was taken to Birmingham by the driver, who went to a veterinary surgeon about it, but the surgeon would not see it on his authority, its injury was simply dressed. The driver left it in Birmingham, and on returning to Walsall said it was done up. On the following day plaintiff went to Birmingham and learned the details. For the defence the injury was denied, and it was alleged that the animal was really broken down, and was useless.

A verdict was given for the plaintiff for £26, and the veterinary surgeon's charges, with costs.”

Samuel Bird, beer retailer, 175 and 176, Green Lane. [1896]

1901 Census

176, Green Lane – NEW INNS TAVERN

- [1] Samuel Bird (51), licensed victualler, born Walsall;
- [2] Sarah Bird (50), wife, born Somersetshire;
- [3] Sarah Nickless (17), domestic servant, born Walsall;
- [4] Charles Smith (22), nephew, commercial clerk, born Walsall;
- [5] May Collins (7), niece, born Walsall:

Walsall Advertiser 11/1/1902

“Licensed Victuallers' Society. The monthly meeting of the above society was held on Thursday..... New Members..... Mr. Thomas Stanley, NEW INNS, Green Lane.”

Walsall Advertiser 18/10/1902

“The Caledonian Corks. On Saturday evening a large gathering of officials and members of the above progressive order assembled at the NEW INNS, Green Lane, at which house a new lodge was opened.....”

Thomas Edward Stanley, beer retailer, 175 and 176, Green Lane. [1904], [1912]

Walsall Advertiser 25/12/1909

“The various sick and dividend societies in the town have, during the last week, paid out the yearly dividends.....
NEW INN VAULTS, Green Lane. This lodge of the Loyal Caledonian Corks Friendly Sick and Dividend Society has experienced the worst year since its formation. The contributions amounted to £54, but owing to the extraordinary sickness among the members – on some occasions there were six members drawing on the funds – no less that £56 was expended in sick pay. The committee decided to take £8 from the benevolent fund, and after the accounts had been put straight, a dividend of 2s 11d per member was paid.”

Alterations were sanctioned in 1910.

1911 Census

176, Green Lane

- [1] Thomas Edward Stanley (40), publican, born Walsall;
- [2] Sarah Stanley (31), wife, married 9 years, assisting in business, born Walsall;
- [3] May Elizabeth Stanley (17), daughter, assisting in business, born Walsall;
- [4] Sarah Stanley (13), daughter, born Walsall;
- [5] Thomas Edward Stanley (8), son, born Walsall;
- [6] Louisia Stanley (5), daughter, born Walsall:

Walsall Observer 12/1/1918

“Walsall and District War Aid Committee. Collection By The Licensed Victuallers, December, 1917.....
NEW INN, Green Lane. £1 6s 9d.”

Staffordshire Advertiser 26/6/1926

“At Walsall, on the 18th inst., Harry Ledbrook (25), stamper, Ann Street, and Charles Elwell (23), caster, James Street, were charged with being drunk and disorderly; and Ledbrook was further charged with wilfully damaging a plate-glass window at the NEW INNS, Green Lane, and Elwell with assaulting Edward Mills, the licensee.
The evidence showed that Ledbrook smashed the window with his fist, and when the licensee appeared on the scene Elwell struck him in the mouth, knocking out four teeth.
Ledbrook was fined £2 and ordered to pay the damage, with the alternative of 42 days’ imprisonment, and Elwell was fined £4 or 28 days.”

It was described in 1933 as having stabling for three horses, and had a trade of 3½ barrels per week.

Miriam Mills married Emanuel Hanstock on 4th February 1933.

1939 Register

176, Green Lane (3 of 5)

- [1] Emanuel Hanstock, date of birth 29/12/1888, barman, married;
- [2] Miriam Hanstock, dob 7/2/1893, licensed victualler, married;
- [3] Jean (Hanstock) Taylor, dob 8/2/1929, at school, single;

Walsall Observer 16/8/1941 - Notice

“Motor Ambulance Effort on behalf of Walsall and District Division of the British Red Cross Society.
Third List Of Subscriptions.....
NEW INN, Green Lane. £0 16s 0d.”

A full license was granted on 3rd March 1960.

Dennis Alfred Smith – see also SIR ROBERT PEEL, Bloxwich.

Walsall Observer 24/8/1962 - Advert

“Attention! all Mild drinkers.
Highgate Mild is now available in the following Butlers and Atkinsons houses.....
NEW INN, Green Lane, Walsall.”

It closed in June 1981.

It was demolished in 1981.

It was re-erected at Blists Hill Museum, Telford in 1985.

NEW INN

Mutton Street, WALSALL

OWNERS

Wolverhampton and Dudley Breweries Ltd.

LICENSEES

NEW INN

11, (5), Park Street, WALSALL

OWNERS

Hart [1774]

Charles Perks

John Crowther Smith, solicitor, Wolverhampton [1872]

Smith and Barton, brewers, Tipton

Peter Walker and Co. Ltd, Tipton

Atkinsons Ltd. [1919]

Mitchells and Butlers Ltd. (acquired on 1st October 1959)

LICENSEES

George Fox [1813] – [1818]

Thomas Croxall [1822]

Charles Adams [] – 1827)

Francis Adams [1828]

E Jukes [1831]

Ann Jukes [1834]

Bassett Charles Edwards [1835]

Francis Davenport [] – 1839)

James Kilner [1841] – 1843)

Mrs. Clarinda Kilner [1845]

Mrs. Sarah Kilner [1849]

Mrs. Clarinda Kilner [1850] – [1851]

Robert Hodson [1858] – 1889);

John Donellan (1889 – 1893);

Mrs. Margaret Ann Donnellan (1893 – 1904);

Josiah Mortiboys (1904 – 1905);

John Harry Brown (1905 – 1907);

Harry Gilbert (1907 – 1915);

Francis Joseph 'Joe' Zeller (1915 – 1918);

James Howard Biddulph (1918 – 1920);

James Loynes (1920 – 1924);

George Alfred Morrell (1924 – 1928);

William Thomas Mears (1928 – 1930);

Samuel Hollies (1930 – 1933);

John Henry Loynes (1933 – 1934);

Charles Victor Mycock (1934 – 1960);

Norman Frederick Eley (1960 – 1962);

John Plimmer (1962 – 1964);

John Alexander Hiley (1964 – 1966);

Horace Jobber (1966 – [])

NOTES

5, Park Street [1858], [1861], [1862], [1864], [1865], [1868], [1870], [1871], [1873], [1881], [1911]
11, Park Street [1891], [1892], [1896], [1901], [1904], [1908], [1912], [1916], [1932], [1939], [1940]

NEW INN AND COMMERCIAL HOUSE [1834]

Commercial house [1834], [1841], [1851]

NEW INN HOTEL [1862]

NEW INNS HOTEL [1893], [1894], [1897], [1911], [1914], [1931]

Aris's Gazette (1774)

"Newly erected and complete, convenient for the occupation of noblemen and gentlemen traveling through Walsall."

'The History and Directory of Walsall' by Thomas Pearce 1813

"Walsall mail, from the NEW INN, Park Street, every evening at half past three o'clock, which takes all letters for Birmingham and its delivery. This mail arrives every day at two o'clock, with letters for the town and its delivery. Overcharges allowed from nine in the morning to half past ten in the forenoon, and from four to eight in the evening."

AND

"An Account of the Various Coaches, with their Departures and Arrivals.....

From the NEW INN, Park Street. Perks's coach, every morning (except Sundays) at nine o'clock, to Birmingham, and returns the same day from Birmingham, during the summer season at six o'clock, and during the winter season at five o'clock, in the evening. This is a very useful coach to the respective towns of Birmingham and Walsall, for the conveyance of passengers and parcels."

AND

"Number of Lodges, Clubs, and Benefit Societies, at Walsall Clubs.....

Friendly Society, male, held at NEW INN, Park Street, supposed number 90 or 100, instituted 1804, surgeon Mr. Adams, secretary Thomas Hoply."

Coaches left from here. [1818]

George Fox was also a butcher. [1818]

The Royal Mail coach to Birmingham, left from here every afternoon at 20 minutes past 2. [1822]

Staffordshire Advertiser 24/9/1825 - Advert

"Walsall Races.....

Ordinary on Wednesday at the GEORGE HOTEL; on Thursday at the DRAGON; and Ball at the GEORGE HOTEL.

Cocking in the Cock Pit, at the NEW INN, Park Street.

Performances at the Theatre every night as usual."

Aris's Birmingham Gazette 1/10/1827 - Advert

"To be Sold by Auction (pursuant to a Decree and subsequent Order of the High Court of Chancery made in the cause of Woolley and others versus Gordon Perk and others, with the approbation of William Wingfield, Esq, one of the Masters of the said Court), at the house of Richard Moore Fletcher, the GEORGE INN, Walsall, in the county of Stafford, on Wednesday next, the 3rd day of October, at twelve o'clock noon. Freehold and Leasehold Tenements and Building land, Commercial Inn, extensive Manufactory, and Premises, situate in the town of Walsall; also upwards of 110 Acres of Accommodation Land, with the Mines and Minerals thereunder, and the Houses and Farm Buildings thereon, near Walsall aforesaid, and in Rushall and Bloxwich; also Houses and Garden Ground at Bescot, and Houses and Building land at Wednesbury, all in the county of Stafford, late the property of Charles Perks, deceased.....

Lot 11. All that Freehold Commercial Inn and Extensive Premises, called the NEW INN, in the centre of the town of Walsall, with Stabling, Lofts, Granary, Corn Warehouse, small Dwelling, Cockpit, Piggeries, Yard and Gateway Entrance from Park Street, and large Garden extending to the brook and the race ground, which premises were formerly in the occupation of the late George Fox, as a Travellers' Coach, and Waggon Inn.

The Inn and part of the stabling and premises are in the possession of Mr. Charles Adams, and the corn warehouse and part of the stabling by Mr. Samuel Perks...."

Birmingham Journal 27/10/1827 - Deaths

"On Sunday, Mr. Charles Adams, of the NEW INN, WALSALL, in his 47th year."

Staffordshire Advertiser 10/5/1828 - Notice

"Notice Is Hereby Given, That the Assignees of the Estate and Effects of George Fox, late of Walsall, in the county of Stafford, Victualler, who was lately discharged from his Majesties gaol in and for the county of Stafford, under and by virtue of an Act of Parliament made and passed in the first year of the reign of his present Majesty, entitled 'An Act for the Relief of Insolvent

Debtors in England, will, on Tuesday the third day of June next, at twelve of the clock at noon precisely, attend at the NEW INN, situate in Park Street, Walsall, in the county of Stafford, to declare the amount of balance in hand, and make a dividend out of the same amount amongst the Creditors of the said Insolvent, whose debts are admitted in the Schedule sworn to by the said Insolvent, and if the Insolvent, or any of his Creditors object to any debt or debts mentioned in the said Schedule, such objections are at the same time and place to be made.

C. Marklew, Solicitor to the Assignees.”

Aris's Birmingham Gazette 19/9/1831 - Advert

“Extensive Sale At The NEW INN, Park Street, Walsall.

Five very superior Horses, new Patent Coach, called the Greyhound, Sets of Four-horse Harness, Saddle, &c, Household Furniture, Fixtures, Brewing Utensils, excellent Ale Barrels, Stock of very choice Port and Sherry Wine, Ale, Porter, and other Effects, and valuable Land and Licenses of the above old established Inn.

By E. Jukes. To be Sold by Auction, on the premises, on Thursday, Friday, and Saturday next, the 22nd, 23rd, and 24th days of September (under an execution from the Sheriff), the Lease and Licenses of the above old-established Inn, also the whole of the Household Furniture, Fixtures, and Stock-in-Trade, and other effects, comprising mahogany four-post and tent bedsteads, capital feather beds, mattresses, blankets, linen, mahogany chests, drawers, book-case, swing-glasses, wash-hand stands and tables, neat chamber chairs, mahogany night chest, carpets, elegant set of mahogany dining-tables, mahogany circular table, card and two-leaf dining tables, several sets of mahogany chairs, sofas, pier and chimney glasses, Brussels carpets, glass-ware, glazed and panelled partitions, oven and other grates, copper boilers, excellent brewing utensils and kitchen requisites, very capital ale casks, stable fixtures, stock of very choice port and sherry wines, in the wood and in bottle, prime ale, porter, and liquors, and other numerous effects; also a patent Coach, called the Greyhound, five well known very superior horses, steady in harness and sound, set of four-horse harness, two sets of four-horse reins, saddles, &c. &c.

Eleven years in the Lease will be unexpired at Lady-day next.

N.B. The Horses, Harness, and Coach will be offered for sale at one o'clock on Thursday morning.

Sale to commence each day at ten o'clock, conditions as usual.

Catalogues will be distributed and may be had of E. Jukes, Land Surveyor and Auctioneer, Walsall.”

This was a very popular venue for auctions from the 1830s to 1890s.

Staffordshire Advertiser 10/8/1839 - Deaths

“On Wednesday last, in the 64th year of his age, Mr. Francis Davenport, of the NEW INN, Park Street, Walsall.”

Wolverhampton Chronicle 11/1/1843 - Died

“On the 3rd instant, by a fall from his horse, aged 42, Mr. James Kilner, of the NEW INN, Walsall.”

1851 Census

Park Street

- [1] Clarinda Kilner (50), widow, victualler, born Birmingham;
- [2] Mary Ann Kilner (22), daughter, born Birmingham;
- [3] Clara Jane Kilner (21), daughter, born Birmingham;
- [4] Claranda Wood (23), niece, born Birmingham;
- [5] Edward Males (9), nephew, born Birmingham;
- [6] Walter Woods (23), hostler, born Beley [Beoley?], Worcestershire;
- [7] Charles Penn (17), boots, born Bloxwich;
- [8] Ann Snape (20), house servant, born Wolverhampton;
- [9] Susan Llewelyn (17), house servant, born Walsall;
- [10] John McQuhee (28), visitor, commercial traveller, born Scotland;
- [11] Robert Millegan (24), visitor, commercial traveller, born Scotland;
- [12] David Ronald (29), visitor, commercial traveller, born Saltcoats, Scotland;
- [13] Elizabeth Adams (41), house servant, born Walsall:

Wolverhampton Chronicle 29/8/1855

“Birmingham Bankruptcy Court. In re Clarinda Kilner, of Walsall, innkeeper.

This was a meeting for last examination. The balance sheet, prepared by Mr. Free, accountant, showed the following statement: Dr. To creditors, £1,168 11s 3d. Cr.: By good debts, £58 18s 11d; property, £254 7s 10d; excepted articles, £20; total £333 6s 9d. Deficiency, £835 4s 6d. Mr. Hodgson appeared for the assignees, and offered no opposition. The bankrupt passed, and the 8th of October next was fixed for the certificate meeting. Official assignee, Mr. Christie.”

In 1857 members of the Bridge Street Chapel, due to a breach between members, some led by Mr. Jerome Clap Jerome (deacon), father of the author Jerome K. Jerome, and the Rev. Alex Gordon, split away and worshipped in the club room of the NEW INN, Park Street, and eventually built the Wednesbury Road Congregationalist Church.

Robert Hodson had the contract to drive the Walsall lunatics to Burntwood.

Birmingham Daily Post 10/2/1858

“Mr. Bowes, a preacher of the Society of Christian Brethren, delivered a discourse on this system of Yankee Mahomedanism in the large room of the NEW INN, Park Street, on Monday evening last. Mr. Bowes exposed the vices of Mormonism in a most effective manner. The audience expressed their satisfaction by repeated applause, and at the close the speaker called upon the Mormons present to defend themselves from the heavy charges he had brought against the sect. It was understood that there were several present – it was even said by one who professed to have been raised from the dead – but all of them declined the challenge. Mr. Moses, who was stated to be a converted Jew, was called to the chair, and an intellectual man, in the dress of a labourer, who professed himself wholly uneducated, and indebted to twenty years’ close study of the Bible for all that he knew, in a very few and sensible and neatly expressed remarks, proposed the thanks of the audience to Mr. Bowes, entreating his hearers to search the Scriptures in order to find arguments against the errors that had that night been exposed. The motion was carried by acclamation.”

Walsall Free Press 25/9/1858

“William Jones was charged with stealing two watches – one silver, the property of John Cox jun., valued at £1 5s, and the other a german silver one, valued at 7s 6d, the property of John Hoblins. It appeared that the prisoner, who pleaded guilty and requested to have his case disposed of by the Bench, had for three months past lodged with Cox’s father, who keeps a beerhouse in Ablewell Street, had about a fortnight ago got on the spree and taken the watches and sold them to raise the wind. The silver watch he had given to a person named Weeby to pledge, but as the pawnbroker refused to advance anything on it, he gave it a person named Heatley to sell, and he disposed of it to David Evans, ostler at the NEW INN, Park Street, for eighteen shillings. The german silver watch he had disposed of to a market gardener from Lichfield, named Richard Blaknell for six shillings. On being apprehended at Willenhall on Thursday last by Police-constable Fugle, the prisoner admitted the charge. Cox, the owner of the silver watch, interceded on behalf of the prisoner, whom he had never known to be guilty of such an act before; and in consequence of this intercession the Bench sentenced the prisoner to two months’ imprisonment for stealing the silver watch, and one months’ imprisonment for stealing the german watch.”

Walsall Free Press 7/5/1859

“On Saturday last, Augustus Davenport, aged fifteen, son of Mr. James Davenport, tailor, the Bridge, went bird’s nesting, and in about four hours afterwards was found suspended from a tree, on the farm of Mr. J. Frost, Wood End. At the inquest held upon the body at the NEW INN, Park Street, on Monday last, before A. A. Fletcher, Esq, coroner, the jury, after hearing the evidence, returned a verdict of Death from Congestion of the Brain.”

1861 Census

5, Park Street

- [1] Robert Hodson (40), victualler, born Longdon, Staffordshire;
- [2] Sarah Hodson (36), wife, born Walsall;
- [3] Edward Lord (26), visitor, commercial traveller, born Walsall;
- [4] Thomas Johnson (24), visitor, needle manufacturer, born Redditch;
- [5] Martha Smith (19), waitress and house servant, born Lichfield;
- [6] Selina Lowe (22), waitress and house servant, born Bilston;
- [7] John Spare (27), ostler and boots, born Hogs Norton, Leicestershire;
- [8] James Mackel (20), ostler and boots, born Fulletby, Lincolnshire;

Birmingham Daily Post 29/8/1862

“Wiliam Stewart, a servant in the employ of J. W. Newman, Esq, was summoned by Mr. Robert Hodson, of the NEW INN, Park Street, charged with having assaulted him on Tuesday evening last. The defendant, it appeared, was in the yard attached to Mr. Hodson’s premises on the evening named, and as he had no business there, complainant ordered him away. He refused to go, and complainant pushed him, when a scuffle ensued, and a policeman was sent for. Mr. Matthews (from the office of Mr. Wilkin-son) appeared for the defendant, and called Mr. Newman, who testified to Stewart being sober just prior to the alleged assault, of which, however, he knew nothing. The charge was dismissed.”

Staffordshire Advertiser 28/12/1867

“At about five o’clock on Tuesday morning a fire was discovered to have broken out in the bar at the house of Mr. Hodson, the NEW INN, Park Street, but with a timely application of a few buckets of water the flames were extinguished, not, however, until a cupboard, a sofa, and some other articles in the room were consumed. The Norwich Brigade with their engine, and a party of police with reel and hose attended, but their services were not required.”

1871 Census

5, Park Street

- [1] Robert Hodson (48), hotel keeper, born Walsall;
- [2] Sarah Hodson (42), wife, born Walsall;
- [3] Sarah Hodson (9), daughter, born Walsall;
- [4] Annie Hodson (8), daughter, born Walsall;
- [5] Clara Hodson (6), daughter, born Walsall;
- [6] Alice Hodson (4), daughter, born Walsall;

- [7] Robert Hodson (3), son, born Walsall;
- [8] Elizabeth Sampson (25), barmaid, born Walsall;
- [9] Mary Mantle (16), nursemaid, born Walsall;
- [10] Rosana Bell (19), general servant, born Staffordshire;
- [11] Charles Haskill (37), ostler, born Dorsetshire:

Midland Examiner 14/8/1875

“Robert Hodson, of the NEW INN, Park Street, for having in his possession seven unjust measures which were unjust towards the purchaser, was discharged on paying costs, as the quantity which was deficient was exceedingly small.”

Walsall Advertiser 4/1/1879 - Advert

“General Servant Wanted.
Apply, NEW INN, Park Street.”

1881 Census

5, Park Street

- [1] Robert Hodson (60), licensed victualler, born Walsall;
- [2] Sarah Hodson (54), wife, born Walsall;
- [3] Sarah Hodson (19), daughter, born Walsall;
- [4] Annie Hodson (18), daughter, born Walsall;
- [5] Clara E. Hodson (16), daughter, born Walsall;
- [6] Alice Hodson (14), daughter, scholar, born Walsall;
- [7] Robert Hodson (13), son, scholar, born Walsall;
- [8] Charlotte Hodson (8), daughter, scholar, born Walsall;
- [9] John Hilditch (42), visitor, gentleman, born Walsall;
- [10] Llewelyn Price (21), hostler, born Walsall;
- [11] Frank Taylor (20), hostler, born Pleck:

Walsall Advertiser 20/8/1881 - Advert

“For sale, a grey Horse, 5 years old, 16 hands high, suitable for cart or van.
Apply, NEW INN, Park Street, Walsall.”

Walsall Advertiser 2/12/1882 - Advert

“Wanted, a young man to attend Horses; one used to driving.
Apply, NEW INN, Park Street.”

Walsall Advertiser 21/4/1883 - Advert

“For Sale, a handsome Dog Cart (light) cheap.
Apply, Mr. Hodson, NEW INN, Park Street.”

John Donellan = John Donnellan

Walsall Advertiser 17/5/1890

“On Wednesday night a meeting was held at the NEW INNS, Park Street, for the formation of a Cycling Club for Walsall. Mr. F. W. Willmore presided. It was explained that the objects of the new club were to form a more intelligent appreciation of cycling than at present obtains, in opposition to the present ‘ruching,’ ‘scorching,’ and unobservant running through the country, and to promote the interests of wheelmen through the N.C.U. and the C.T.C. Sir Charles Forster, M.P., and Mr. James, C.C., were elected patrons, Dr. Willmore, president, Messrs. W. Bayliss, J.P., W. H. Duignan, W. H. Robinson, M. H. Highway, F. Smith, E. H. Eglington, and Councillor Noake were invited to become vice-presidents.”

Staffordshire Advertiser 24/1/1891

“There were 31 applications for dancing, singing and music licenses under the provisions of the new Corporation Act. The Bench heard all the applications and then retired to consider their decisions, which turned out to be in accordance with the principle which was laid down at a former Court, viz, that licenses should not be granted to vaults or public rooms, but should be confined to regular and existing clubs and class meetings in club rooms. Licenses were granted to.....
NEW INN, Park Street.”

1891 Census

11, Park Street – NEW INN

- [1] John Donnellan (43), licensed victualler, born Clare, Ireland;
- [2] Margaret A. Donnellan (41), wife, born Darlaston;
- [3] James A. Donnellan (1), son, born Walsall;
- [4] Nancy Lowe (45), visitor, retired governess, born Darlaston;
- [5] Henry Welsh (23), barman, born Aldridge;

- [6] Daniel Kendrick (25), barman, born Walsall;
[7] Clara Webb (20), general servant, born Birmingham;
[8] Rebecca Parker (14), visitor, scholar, born Willenhall:

Walsall Advertiser 19/8/1893

“Great surprise was occasioned on Wednesday by the announcement of the death, with painful suddenness, of Mr. John Donnellan, keeper of the NEW INNS HOTEL, Park Street, and a well-known licensed victualler. Mr. Donnellan, who had been connected with the trade for a considerable number of years, has recently been somewhat out of health, but no immediately serious results were anticipated, and on Tuesday he was able to go about his business in the ordinary course, and was about town a good deal during the day. In the evening he was still cheerful and conversed freely before going to bed. He was seen by Dr. Richards, his medical attendant, at 11.40, but about three o’clock in the morning he was taken with a seizure and death took place in a very short time. The deceased leaves a widow and family, and his death will be regretted by a large circle of friends, with whom his genial disposition had made him very popular.

Amid genuine expressions of regret, the funeral took place yesterday afternoon at the Mount. There was a very large gathering at the burial ground and chapel – in fact the concourse of people was so great that the mourners could not all obtain seats.....”

Walsall Advertiser 4/8/1894

“Walsall And District Licensed Victuallers’ Society. The forty second annual meeting of the members of this society was held on Thursday We have to report with regret that by death we have lost five members Mr. John Donnellan, NEW INNS HOTEL, Park Street.”

Walsall Advertiser 3/4/1897

“The annual smoking concert, in connection with the Walsall Branch of the Postmen’s Federation, was held on Monday evening, at the NEW INNS HOTEL, Park Street. Mr. J. Stanton (president of the local branch) was in the chair, Mr. A. Russell (Wolverhampton) being his viz-à-viz. There was a large attendance, and representatives were present from various places, including Dudley, Wednesbury, Darlaston, Wolverhampton, and Birmingham.

The Chairman, having offered a hearty welcome to all, went on to refer to the recent prohibition against postmen asking for Christmas boxes, and he held that the sum equivalent ought to be given.

Songs, toast, and sentiment, filled the rest of the evening, and among those who took part in the programme were Messrs. F. Evans, J. Dearne, G. Ellis, A. Shevyn, B. Hunt, W. Wyneberg, J. Pearsell, Bros. Blakemore, and Bros. Garvin.”

Walsall Advertiser 19/6/1897 - Notice

“K.G.H. & R.A.O.B.

By special desire of the Knight Commander and Grand Primo, all Members of the above are respectfully invited to assemble at the NEW INNS HOTEL Park Street, at 10.30am prompt, for the purpose of joining the Jubilee Procession.

L. I. Aulton, K.C.,
Sir H. S. Bentley, G.P.,
Jeff. C. Crooke, Scribe,
E. H. Allen, G. Sec.”

Walsall Advertiser 25/3/1899

“K.G.H. No.7 Pioneer Encampment. The annual invitation smoking concert in connection with the above took place on Thursday evening, in the NEW INNS Assembly Rooms, Park Street. There was a large attendance.....”

Walsall Advertiser 2/9/1899

“The annual licensing sessions for this borough were held at the Guildhall on Wednesday.....

Then the magistrates also want to know if you can report to them during the sitting of this meeting as to the accommodation provided by the GEORGE HOTEL, the STORK, the DRAGON, the PRIORY, NEW INNS, the WOOLPACK, and the QUEENS?

.....the Chief Constable said he was then in possession of the information asked by the Magistrates with reference to the bedroom accommodation at the hotels. At the GEORGE HOTEL there were nineteen beds for commercials. The two large rooms at that hotel, formerly used for balls, &c, had been converted into eight bedrooms and a bathroom, and no plans had been submitted for the alterations. At the PRIORY there were six bedrooms for accommodation, five at the DRAGON, three at the QUEENS, but there was no bedroom accommodation at the STORK, NEW INNS, and the WOOLPACK Hotels.....

Mr. Loxton announced that the hotel licenses would be renewed with the exception of the GEORGE.”

Walsall Advertiser 30/9/1899

“On Sunday night a crowded meeting in connection with the Walsall Nos.1 and 2 Branches of the Amalgamated Society of Railway Servants was held at the NEW INNS, Park Street.....”

Walsall Observer 14/4/1900

“The annual smoking concert in connection with the No.7 Pioneer Encampment of the KGH was held at the NEW INN, Park Street.....”

1901 Census

11, Park Street

[1] Margaret A. Donellan (51), widow, licensed victualler, born Darlaston;

[2] John T. Donellan (13), son, born Walsall;

[3] James A. Donellan (11), son, born Walsall;

[4] Rhoda Lowe (22), niece, barmaid, born Darlaston;

[5] Ann M. Hunstone (23), housemaid, born Great Bridge;

[6] William Gale (32), barman, born Walsall:

Walsall Advertiser 22/4/1902

“The annual smoking concert promoted by the No.7 Pioneer Encampment of the Knight of the Golden Horn, at the headquarters, the NEW INNS, Park Street, took place on Thursday, and was a huge success.....”

John Harry Brown – see also PRINCE, RED LION, NEW STATION, THREE CUPS.

Walsall Advertiser 19/11/1910

“The fifty-eighth annual general meeting of members of the Walsall and District Licensed Victuallers’ and Beer Retailers’ Friendly and Protection Society was held on Thursday week at the NEW INNS HOTEL, Park Street, Walsall.....”

1911 Census

Park Street – NEW INNS

[1] Harry Gilbert (58), publican, born Northamptonshire;

[2] Eliza Gilbert (50), wife, born Sutton in Ashfield, Nottinghamshire;

[3] Hannah Bates (69), widow, born Sutton in Ashfield, Nottinghamshire;

[4] Charlotte Wallerson (29), barmaid, born Chase Terrace, Staffordshire;

[5] Eliza Alport (21), servant, born Brownhills, Staffordshire;

[6] Alice Yarrold (14), visitor, born London:

Walsall Advertiser 18/11/1911

“The fifty-ninth annual meeting of the Walsall and District Licensed Victuallers’ and Beer Retailers’ Friendly and Protection Society was held on Thursday last at the NEW INNS HOTEL, Park Street, Walsall.....”

Walsall Advertiser 24/8/1912

“A mass meeting arranged by the Walsall and District Branch of the National Federation of Hairdressers was held at the NEW INNS, Park Street, on Thursday, to consider the new minimum price list arranged by the Central Council of the Federation.....”

Walsall Observer 21/11/1914

“The following is a list of box collections to date made on behalf of the Prince of Wales’ National Relief Fund (Walsall Branch).....

NEW INNS, Park Street, Walsall, 7s.”

Walsall Advertiser 26/6/1915

“A warning that certain drinking scenes described as a disgrace to the town, must cease, was given by the Walsall Magistrates yesterday (Friday) when an application was made for the transfer of the license of the NEW INN, Park Street, from Harry Gilbert to Francis Joseph Zeller. The Magistrates were Dr. G. A. Phillips (presiding), Messrs. E. J. Shaw, S. M. Slater and A. D. Cozens. Mr. F. S. Wilson Smith made the application.

After a private consultation Dr. Phillips said the application would be granted, but the justices wished to point out to the incoming tenant that there had been scenes going on in the gateway and yard with regard to drinking which they hoped would be altered.

Mr. Wilson Smith said that on behalf of the incoming tenant he would promise that the suggestion would be carried out. The times had been abnormal, and it had been very difficult to keep the yard clear. However, Mr. Zeller was prepared to do his utmost to improve matters.

Dr Phillips: The number of women, and even children who have been drinking there in the past was a great disgrace to the house and the town.

Mr. Wilson Smith: You must blame the Act of Parliament that makes it an offence for a woman to take a child into a public house.

Dr. Phillips: We have nothing more to say in the matter, except that we hope the incoming tenant will give careful attention to what we have said.”

Walsall Observer 5/2/1916

“The general annual licensing sessions for the borough were held at the Guildhall on Wednesday morning.....

The justices view with increasing displeasure the practice on the part of some license holders of permitting drinking in the passages, entries and gateways attached to their licensed houses. They call particular attention to four houses visited by them, namely, the NEW INNS, Park Street (in which case an undertaking had previously been given that the practice should be discontinued); the DURHAM OX, the TALBOT, and the TURKS HEAD.

In addition, the sanitary arrangements of these houses was most unsatisfactory. Objection is taken in open court on behalf of the Licensing Committee to the renewal of these four houses, and will be put back until the adjourned general annual licensing meeting, at which the personal attendance of the licensees will be required.

Mr. Pearman-Smith said that as representing the owner of the NEW INNS he would be glad to know whether it was the intention of the justices to serve any formal notice of objection on the owners of the house, so as they might know precisely what was required.

The Clerk: The statute provides for that doesn't it? – Mr. Pearman-Smith: I should imagine so, but it seems that if notice is given to the parties concerned they would not have been put to the expense of coming here, and possibly the requirements would have been complied with.

Mr. Phillips: But the requirements have not been complied with. It has been mentioned before; special attention had been drawn to it and an undertaking was given at the time the license was transferred to Mr. Zeller that this matter should be remedied. They were spoken of very strongly at the time.

Mr. Pearman-Smith: I can assure you that every precaution, every possible means, have been taken to prevent people drinking in the passages of the NEW INNS. Special men have been employed to prevent drink being carried out of the house. A customer comes in and is served with drink in the house, and sometimes – and this cannot be prevented – a man takes drink out of the house to drink if he wishes. That is a very difficult situation, I can assure you now that every precaution has been taken to prevent such a state of things existing. It is equally the desire of the license holder that it should be prevented. The trade is good enough, and there is no need to stoop to that, or anything the magistrates do not wish.

The Clerk said it was perfectly clear that objection might be taken by anyone in open court, and if it were proceeded with notice would be given requiring the license holder to appear at the adjourned licensing meeting.

Mr. Pearman-Smith said that when notice was given the grounds should be stated.

The Clerk: You can't object to a license without stating the grounds.

It was then announced that all remaining licenses would be renewed, and that the compensation authority had decided to make no levy this year for the purpose of compensation."

Walsall Observer 26/2/1916

"The adjourned licensing sessions were held at the Guildhall yesterday.....

NEW INN, Park Street. The license holder (Francis Joseph Zeller) was represented by Mr. W. J. Pearman-Smith.

Chief Inspector Ballance stated that he had frequently seen large numbers of people drinking in the gateway, but since he had cautioned Mr. Zeller there had been some improvement. At one time there were seats in the entry, but these had since been removed, and under the present management no drink had been served in the gateway. The yard was used for certain purposes by people who did not go into the house.

Adjourned for a month for plans of the licensed area to be deposited.

It was intimated that the licensees would be responsible for any drinking taking place in the entries."

Evening Despatch 24/3/1916

"A further sitting of the Walsall Licensing justices was held today.....

The plans of the NEW INN were sanctioned, and the license renewed, on condition that steps be taken to prevent the public using the yard at the rear of the house."

Walsall Observer 1/7/1916 - Roll of Honour

"Another Walsall officer who had been awarded the Military Cross is Major Walter Zeller, the only son of Mr. Joseph Zeller, of the NEW INNS, Park Street. Born at West Bromwich, Major Zeller, who is thirty-two years of age, came to Walsall when quite young, and his early school days were spent at Queen Mary's Grammar School. Leaving there in 1899 he proceeded to Shrewsbury, where he continued his education. Soon after leaving he joined the local Volunteers, and rose to be Captain. While serving the Stockport Brewery Company as head brewer, he was for a time a lieutenant in the Cheshire Regiment. He then joined his father in his wine and spirit business. Later he obtained a commission in the R.F.A, and in 1912 obtained his captain's certificate with honours at Aldershot. The day following the declaration of war he applied for a commission in the Royal Engineers, and four months later he went to France as Captain, being made a temporary Major four months later. Soon afterwards he was confirmed in the rank of Major, and for a time acted as Brigadier-General.

Major Zeller was a prominent member of the Walsall Swimming Club, with which he gained several certificates. He was an enthusiastic player in the Hockey Club."

Birmingham Mail 10/1/1917

"Joseph Tranter (38), cooper, Windsor Street, Birmingham, was fined 20s at Walsall today, on charges of being drunk and incapable, and stealing a bottle of port wine and glass, value 6s. The evidence showed that prisoner had been employed by Mitchells and Butlers, Ltd, and was sent to the NEW INNS, Park Street, Walsall, to repair a barrel. He was apparently sober when he left the premises, but was afterwards found lying helpless in the street with a smashed bottle which had contained port wine, in his pocket. He had been working near a cask of port wine.

Mr. W. J. Pearman-Smith, solicitor, said prisoner had been employed by the firm for two years, and they had never known him to give way to intemperance before."

South Staffordshire Times 13/12/1919

"Because he had no house to go to, Mr. James H. Biddulph, licensee of the NEW INNS, Park Street, Walsall, objected to the transfer of the license to Mr. James Loynes, of the NEW INNS, King Street, Darlaston. The objection was made to the magistrates on Monday, when an application for the transfer of the license was made by Mr. W. J. Pearman-Smith on behalf of Atkinson's Brewery Co. Biddulph admitted that he had three months notice, and said he refused to give up the license until suitable accommodation was found for him elsewhere. 'I want somewhere to go, and not to be turned out into the street,' Biddulph added, Mr. Pearman-Smith said Messrs. Atkinsons were satisfied with Biddulph, and would not have given him notice but for certain facts which came to their notice, and which he (Mr. Pearman-Smith) did not want to go into. Messrs. Atkinsons appreciated the difficulty Biddulph might be placed in, and offered to store his furniture free of cost. The magistrates granted temporary authority."

Samuel Hollies – see also STAG, Bloxwich, and THREE TUNS.

Dudley Herald 25/4/1931

"An enjoyable gathering of officials and employees of the Birmingham Canal Navigations took place in the assembly room of the NEW INNS HOTEL, Park Street, Walsall, on Saturday evening last, to make a presentation to Mr. Samuel Price, of Bloxwich, late Inspector for the Walsall district, on the occasion of his retirement, he having reached the age limit.

A letter, expressing his good wishes and regretting being unable to attend was read from the manager (Mr. P. Nadin).

The presentation took the form of a leather wallet containing Treasury notes, with the inscription: 'Mr. Samuel Price, for 48 years' service, from the officials and staff, B.C.N.'

Mr. A. Muir White (the company's engineer) occupied the chair, and in making the presentation said how pleased he was to be present at the gathering, in order to meet their old inspector, Mr. Price, and other canal workers. He referred to the position Mr. Price had occupied for a number of years in keeping the canal banks, subsiding areas, etc, in order, and said it was up to all to do their best in the interests of the canal.

On Behalf of the officials and employees of the B.C.N he asked Mr. Price to accept the wallet with every good wish in his retirement.

Mr. Price on rising to reply, was received with musical honours, and said he hardly knew what to say to them for the kindness which had been shown to him. He would feel more at home if he was building a bridge or putting a 'lock' in. During his inspectorship he had always had good workmen who had been at the back of him all the time, and he had to thank them for being always loyal. He hoped they would continue in the same way for his successor.

Mr. Price entered the B.C.N service at Ocker Hill works in the years 1883, and in 1896 was promoted to the position of foreman, he occupying this post in the Birmingham, Tipton and Netherton districts until 1900, when he was appointed district inspector for the Netherton area.

In 1909 he was transferred to the Walsall district, Bloxwich depot, and remained there until his retirement at the end of last year. He had been succeeded by Mr. V. Allsop, who belongs to an old Bloxwich family, and lately of Birmingham district.

Mr. Price is an old Tiptonian, he having resided at Ocker Hill until the time of his removal to Netherton in 1905. He was one of the founders of the Ocker Hill Early Morning Adult School, and held the position of Treasurer of that body until the time of his leaving the district.

In proposing a vote of thanks to Mr. A. Muir White for presiding, Mr. T. Banner said he was sure he was voicing the feeling of all present in saying how pleased they were in having his company that evening, and hoped to have the pleasure of doing so on many future occasions.

Mr. V. Allsop, in seconding, paid a tribute to Mr. Price in the way the men had been trained under him, and said he had no doubt they would all do for him as they had done for Mr. Price.

The chairman suitably replied, and he was given musical honours.

A musical programme was provided by the Ocker Hill Works' Quartette Party, Messrs. E. Hill (tenor), B. Crockett (baritone), J. Palmer (humourist), A. Holt (banjo), H. Wellings (monologues), and Mr. H. Cartwright (accompanist).

A vote of thanks to the artistes was proposed by Inspector T. Price, Birmingham."

John Henry Loynes – see also BARREL.

Demolished

Rebuilt

1939 Register

11, Park Street

[1] Charles V. Mycock, date of birth 7/12/1898, manager licensed house, married, ARP;

[2] Phoebe Mycock, dob 31/5/1895, unpaid domestic duties, married;

[3] Dorothy (Dennis) Porter, dob 19/5/1918, bar general, single;

[4] Eleanor May Rose (Joiner) Reddington, dob 12/7/1922, bar general, single:

Walsall Observer 14/10/1939

"Concert for Wardens and Wives. Organised by the Social Committee of 'J' area, a concert was held at the NEW INNS, Park Street, on Thursday evening, and provided an enjoyable time for about fifty wardens and their wives and friends. The attendance was limited to a hundred in accordance with the regulations. Mr. C. Bardell presided and in addition to songs by Mrs. N. Ball, Miss D. Nicholls and Messrs. Garnett Orton and J. Parsons, there were community singing and a spirited rendering of the 'Warden's Swing-Song' to the tune of the 'Lambeth Walk.' Mr. Watts was the accompanist. It is proposed to arrange further concerts if possible, for the remainder of the 150 wardens in the area."

Bakers' and Confectioners' Amalgamated Union, (Henry Harrison, sec.), NEW INNS, Park Street. [1940]

Walsall Observer 10/5/1941

“Well-known for many years as a licensee in Walsall and Birmingham, Mr. John Harry Brown died on Sunday at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Cronin, of the FOUNTAIN INN, Bott Lane, with whom he had resided since he retired about eight years ago. He was in his 79th year, and had been ill for about a month.

Eldest son of John Brown, a well-known Walsall cricketer, who for twelve years headed the town club’s batting averages (and who had at times played with or against some of the most famous men of his time, including the Graces, Parr, Minn and Daft), the late Mr. Brown himself, like several of his brothers, took an active part in the game and assisted the town club.

He left the currying trade to take his first licensed house, the PRINCE BLUCHER, Stafford Street, and among other Walsall licenses he held were those of the NEW INNS and the CUPS HOTEL, Park Street. He had been at the latter before his retirement and it was while he was there that his wife died eleven years ago. He had been a member of both the Walsall and Birmingham licensed victuallers’ societies. He leaves six sons and a daughter. The funeral took place at Ryecroft Cemetery on Thursday.”

Walsall Observer 16/8/1941 - Notice

“Motor Ambulance Effort on behalf of Walsall and District Division of the British Red Cross Society.

Third List Of Subscriptions.....

NEW INNS, Park Street. £4 0s 0d.”

Walsall Observer 24/12/1942

“Walsall Licensed Victuallers’ Society. The Duke of Gloucester’s Red Cross Fund. List of Subscriptions.....

NEW INNS, Park Street. £7 7s 0d.”

Walsall Observer 15/1/1944

“Walsall Licensed Victuallers’ Society.

Appeal on Behalf of the Merchant Navy Fund, The Duke of Gloucester’s Red Cross Fund and the Aid to China Fund. List of Subscriptions.....

NEW INNS, Park Street. £3 12s 0d.”

Walsall Observer 9/9/1944 - Notice

“To All Members.

Amalgamated Engineering Union (Walsall Branch).

A Special Meeting will be held at the NEW INNS, Park Street, on Wednesday, 13th September, 1944, at 7-30pm, to discuss the opening of a new branch in Walsall.

F. Clapham (District Secretary) will be in attendance.”

Charles Victor Mycock died in the 1st quarter of 1960.

Norman Frederick Eley – see also KING EDWARD.

John Plimmer – see also OAK.

John Alexander Hiley – see also BOROUGH ARMS.

Horace Jobber – see also BOROUGH ARMS.

Birmingham Canal Navigation Society held its inaugural meeting here, upstairs, on 25th July 1968.

Closed

Demolished

NEW INN

Rolling Mill Street, WALSALL

OWNERS

George Farley, Pleck Road, Walsall

James Lavender

John Russell and Co, Pleck Road, Walsall

LICENSEES

Joseph Rigby [1872];
James Lavender [];
Stephen Griffin [];
John West [] – 1896);
Edward Johnson (1896 – []

NOTES

It had a beerhouse license.

The license was cancelled after Sergeant Ballard reported that there was no place in existence.

NEW INN

Stank Lane, Caldmore, WALSALL

OWNERS

North Worcestershire Breweries Ltd.
Wolverhampton and Dudley Breweries Ltd. (acquired in 1909)

LICENSEES

NOTES

Birmingham Daily Post 26/2/1879

“Yesterday afternoon, Mr. Fletcher, coroner, held an inquest at the NEW INN, Stank Lane, on the body of William Taylor (68), shoemaker, Caldmore, who, as, stated in Yesterday’s Post, was found drowned in a pool at the back of the New Mills, on Monday morning. An open verdict was returned, there being nothing to show how he got into the water.”

Indenture dated 28/10/1909

“First All That piece of land situate near to Caldmoor in Walsall aforesaid fronting to the turnpike road leading from Walsall to Wednesbury and containing in the whole 462 square yards or thereabouts.
And Secondly All That piece of land situate near to Caldmoor aforesaid fronting to the said turnpike road from Walsall called Stank Lane being of triangular shape situate at the junction of the said turnpike road and on the other side to Stank Lane aforesaid and abutting backwards upon the first described piece of land and which said piece of land secondly described contains in the whole 199 square yards or thereabouts. And also that messuage or dwelling-house with the outbuildings thereto belonging erected on the said secondly described piece of land now occupied as a public-house and called The NEW INN. And also the bakehouse fronting Stank Lane aforesaid erected on the said secondly described piece of land.”

Check Wednesbury Road.

NEW INNS

113, (117), Wednesbury Road / Milton Street, WALSALL

OWNERS

John Webster
Mrs. Lucy Webster
John Beech
Henry Moseley
Chesters Brewery Co.

North Worcestershire Breweries Ltd.
Wolverhampton and Dudley Breweries Ltd. (acquired in 1909)

LICENSEES

John Webster [1866] – [1872];
Mrs. Lucy Webster [1880] – [1882];
John Beech [1883];
Amos Whitehead [1885] – 1906;
Albert George Holden (1906 – 1910);
Mrs. Ruth Elizabeth Littler (1910 – 1913);
R. Anson [1913] (?)
George William Freeman (1913 – 1922);
Harriet Elizabeth (Freeman) Smith (1922 – [1924])
Albert Coley* [1930]
Albert Leonard Coley* [1939] – 1963;
Joseph James Hill (1963 – 1966);
Frank Frederick Eden (1966 – 1967);
Stanley Charles Freeman (1967 – [])
John Thomas Chance (1994 – 1996):

NOTES

117, Wednesbury Road [1881]
113, Wednesbury Road [1891], [1901], [1911], [1939], [1940]

It had a beerhouse license.

Walsall Free Press 1/9/1866

“General Licensing Day. Yesterday a special session was held in the Guildhall Assembly Room.....

Mr. Mathews also applied on behalf of John Webster, beerhouse keeper, Wednesbury Road, and Mr. John Warley, beerhouse keeper, Rollingmill Street, The Pleck. In both instances the applications were refused.”

John Webster, beer retailer, Wednesbury Road. [1868], [1870]

Walsall Free Press 4/9/1869

“Walsall Annual Licensing Day, Wednesday applications for new licenses for the sale of spirits.....

Mr. Gillespie applied on behalf of John Webster, beerhouse keeper, Wednesbury Road.

The Mayor announced that the Bench had decided not to grant any new licenses this year.”

Staffordshire Advertiser 10/9/1870

“Walsall Annual Licensing Sessions were held at the Guildhall yesterday week.....

There were eight applicants for new spirit licenses.....

John Webster, the NEW INN, Wednesbury Road.....

The magistrates retired to consider their decision, and after having been absent about half an hour they returned, and announced that they had decided to refuse all the applications, though they had come to this decision with much regret in some instances.”

1871 Census

NEW INN – Wednesbury Road

[1] John Webster (49), beerseller, born Kings Norton;

[2] Lucy Webster (43), wife, born Coventry;

[3] Ellen Evans (14), general servant, born Tipton:

Lichfield Mercury 3/9/1880

“The usual licensing session took place at the Guildhall, Walsall, on Friday.....

Lucy Webster, the NEW INN beerhouse, Wednesbury Road, applied for a victualler’s license Refused.”

1881 Census

117, Wednesbury Road

[1] Lucy Webster (48), widow, beer retailer, born Coventry;

[2] John Bush (27), nephew, brewer, born Walsall;

[3] Eugenia Bush (25), niece, born Coventry;

- [4] Eda Emma Beech (2), great niece, born Walsall;
- [5] Elizabeth Webster (12), great niece, scholar, born Walsall;
- [6] Emma Beech (25), visitor, general servant, born Walsall;
- [7] Emma Beech (1 month), niece, born Walsall:

Birmingham Daily Post 26/8/1882

“The annual Licensing Sessions for Walsall borough took place yesterday, at the Guildhall.
Lucy Webster, the NEW INN beerhouse, Wednesbury Road, applied for a victualler’s license Refused.”

Staffordshire Advertiser 1/9/1883

“Applications were made with the following results.
That of John Beech, of the NEW INN, Wednesbury Road, to sell wines, was refused.”

Walsall Observer 27/6/1885

“Grand Independent Order of Caledonian Corks. On Wednesday last the officers and members of lodge 488, held at Bro. Burton’s the PHEASANT INN, Windmill Street, opened a new lodge at Bro. Whitehead’s NEW INN, Wednesbury Road. A large number of members from the different lodges of the town were present, and assisted in the ceremony. Some new members were also initiated.”

Staffordshire Advertiser 24/1/1891

“There were 31 applications for dancing, singing and music licenses under the provisions of the new Corporation Act. The Bench heard all the applications and then retired to consider their decisions, which turned out to be in accordance with the principle which was laid down at a former Court, viz, that licenses should not be granted to vaults or public rooms, but should be confined to regular and existing clubs and class meetings in club rooms. Licenses were granted to.
The NEW INN, Wednesbury Road.”

1891 Census

113, Wednesbury Road – Public House – NEW INN

- [1] Amos Whitehead (36), publican and baker, born Bedworth, Warwickshire;
- [2] Jane Whitehead (38), wife, born Wednesfield;
- [3] Clara Pallen (23), general servant, born Willenhall:

Walsall Advertiser 29/9/1894

“On Monday the members of the NEW INNS Angling Society, of Wednesbury Road, held their first angling competition. The club rent about a mile and a half of the River Trent at Carwarden Spring, near Rugeley, and this was the scene of the contest. The threatening appearance of clouds and the early rain was sufficient to deter the less enthusiastic disciples of ‘Izaak,’ and the list of competitors was reduced to nine. The first prize fell to the rod of Mr. R. B. Sutton, who just managed to defeat the second prizeman, Mr. R. Price, by a turn of the scales; Mr. Cleaving being third. A fine chub of about 3lbs fell a victim to the rod of Mr. J. Bird. Mr. Sutton brought back a nice catch of roach, out of thirteen fish only one being under a quarter of a pound. The meetings of the society are held weekly, and the members will gladly greet any followers of the sport. It is pleasing to record that the committee disqualified all fish under a quarter of a pound from being weighed in the competition.”

Amos Whitehead, baker and beer retailer, 113, Wednesbury Road. [1896], [1904]

Walsall Advertiser 1/4/1899

“Mr. T. H. Stanley, borough coroner, held an inquest on Monday afternoon at the NEW INN, Wednesbury Road, on the body of Frederick Young, aged six months, son of Walter Young, of 88, Milton Street.
The mother of deceased said she took the child out on the previous Friday, at about 12 noon. She was not out with him for more than one or two minutes, and he then appeared quite well. When she came back, she gave the child to her mother, who shortly afterwards called her, and said that the baby had been taken ill.
Mrs. Clarke, mother of last witness, said that shortly after she had received the child she found out that it was unwell.
Dr. Layton said he was called in to see the child, but when he saw it, it was dead. He made an outward examination of the body, and apparently the child died from the effects of wind in the intestines, which produced syncope.
A verdict in accordance with the medical evidence was returned.”

1901 Census

113, Wednesbury Road

- [1] Amos Whitehead (46), beerhouse keeper, born Bedworth;
- [2] Jane Whitehead (48), wife, born Wednesfield;
- [3] May Deighton (15), general servant, born Walsall;
- [4] Lettie Banks (23), general servant, born Wednesfield:

Walsall Advertiser 6/2/1904

“The annual licensing sessions for the Borough of Walsall were held on Thursday at the Guildhall, and aroused considerable inter-

est. The court was crowded, and many license-holders were unable to obtain admission.....

Notice had been given to 76 license holders to show cause for the renewal of their licenses, evidently as a result of the visits of a sub-committee of magistrates to the licensed premises, the reasons why cause had to be shown being various....

Amos Whitehead, NEW INN (for whom Mr. Walford appeared) was questioned as to the approaches to his premises at the corner of Milton street. The yard was entirely enclosed; he had a bakehouse; and the gates he had were necessary. License renewed.”

Walsall Advertiser 16/2/1907

“The monthly meeting of the Walsall and District Licensed Victuallers’ and Beer Retailers’ Friendly and Protection Society was held on Thursday last.....

New Members..... Mr. Albert G. Holden, NEW INN, Wednesbury Road.”

Walsall Advertiser 16/11/1907

“Mr. J. J. Thompson of the Pleck Branch of the Imperial Tariff Committee, presided over a meeting held under its auspices at the NEW INN, Wednesbury Road, on Monday night, when an address was delivered by Mr. J. R. Rooke (gun-worker), of Birmingham. In the course of his remarks the speaker referred to the progress made in other countries where Tariff Reform was in operation. Dealing with the Colonial aspect of Tariff Reform, he said they ought to give their support to their brothers across the seas, instead of encouraging the foreigners they were making them rich at our expense, and some day they would use those riches against us.”

1911 Census

113, Wednesbury Road – NEW INNS

[1] Ruth Elizabeth Littler (47), widow, licensed victualler, born West Bromwich;

[2] Fannie Haycock (34), barmaid, born Darlaston;

[3] Lydia Maud Bullock (15), niece, visitor, born Bloxwich;

[4] Sarah Jane Astbury (23), maid of work, born West Bromwich:

Mrs. Ruth Elizabeth Littler, beer retailer, 113, Wednesbury Road. [1912]

Walsall Advertiser 2/3/1912

“Mr. W. Bayliss presided at the adjourned Licensing Sessions on Tuesday.....

Mrs Ruth Elizabeth Littler, licensee of the NEW INN beerhouse, Wednesbury Road applied for a full license.

Mr. S. A. Newman appeared in support of the application and Mr. H. H. Jackson entered formal opposition on behalf of the licensee and owners of the HOPE AND ANCHOR, Wednesbury Road.

Mr. Newman submitted that there was ample accommodation to warrant the granting of the license as there were three rooms downstairs and five bedrooms. There was plenty of stabling and a coach-house, in fact, he thought there was better accommodation at this beer-house than there was at any fully-licensed house. The nearest house in the Wednesbury direction was the HOPE AND ANCHOR, and on the other side the TURF TAVERN in Bradford Street, and on the Caldmore side the WHITE HART. There was no fully-licensed house within a radius of half-a-mile. He submitted that the license was a public necessity for the residents in the neighbourhood, who, when illness or other necessity arose to obtain spirits, would have to go a very great distance to get them. Further, since the last application was made the houses and population in the district had enormously increased. He had a memorial signed by a great number of residents in the neighbourhood urging on the Bench the necessity of granting a license for the sale of spirits.

The Magistrates’ Clerk enquired what Mr. Newman was going to give for the license; that was the point.

Mr. Newman said he had no instructions to submit the Justices to the indignity of bargaining with him.

Eventually the Bench refused to grant the license.”

Walsall Advertiser 11/10/1913

“The monthly meeting of the Walsall and District Licensed Victuallers’ and Beer Retailers’ Friendly and Protection Society was held on Thursday.....

New Members..... Mr. R. Anson, NEW INNS, Wednesbury Road.”

Walsall Observer 11/9/1915 - Advert

“Bakehouse, good with stabling, to Let.

Apply G. Freeman, NEW INNS, Wednesbury Road.”

Walsall Observer 12/1/1918

“Walsall and District War Aid Committee. Collection By The Licensed Victuallers, December, 1917.....

NEW INNS, Wednesbury Road. £1 17s 8½d.”

Harriet Elizabeth Freeman married a Mr. Smith on 7th February 1924.

* possibly the same person

Walsall Observer 11/3/1939

“Both the NEW INN, a Wednesbury Road beerhouse; and the KING EDWARD VII were also in the list opposed at the annual sessions, but Mr. Cooper now applied for the removal of the KING EDWARD license to the NEW INN.

The NEW INN, said Mr. Cooper, was very definitely in an area where a full license was required and if the application were granted the net result would be one beer ‘on’ beer license fewer in the borough. The brewery company did not pretend that the present NEW INN premises were suitable for a full license, but they undertook to submit to the next transfer sessions a scheme to rebuild the house. The plans also provided for a modern house in every respect and would do away with the present awkward corner of Milton Street and Wednesbury Road.

Evidence that there was a demand for wines and spirits by customers of the NEW INN was given by the licensee, Albert Leonard Coley; and by Alfred Pomlett, motor garage proprietor, 6, Milton Street.

The application was opposed by Robert Arnold Hildick, managing director of Whithalls Wines Ltd, who reminded the justices that at the opening sessions on February 9 they refused his company’s application for a wines and spirits off-license for their Wednesbury Road premises, after the Chief Constable and others had opposed on the ground that the district was already adequately served. ‘Although it would be permissible,’ he said, ‘for my company to have a spirits license on the premises, we are prepared to accept your worships’ opinion that the district is adequately served.’

After enumerating licensed premises in the neighbourhood of the Wednesbury Road, Mr. Hildick added: ‘And if we have any fastidious drinkers still not satisfied, it is considerably less than half a mile to the GEORGE HOTEL.’

Mr. Ledbury (justice): Have we any fastidious drinkers in Walsall? – Mr. Hildick: Well, we have sly drinkers.

Subject to the submission of plans for rebuilding the NEW INN, the justices granted the application and they renewed both licenses pending completion of the removal.”

It reopened with a full license at 2pm on 4th May 1939.

The new license was removed from the KING EDWARD VII, High Street.

1939 Register

113, Wednesbury Road – Public House

[1] Albert L. Coley, date of birth 16/8/1883, licensee, married;

[2] Phoebe Coley, dob 5/2/1890, unpaid domestic duties, married;

[3] France George R. Coley, dob 9/10/1919, electrician, single;

[4] Henry W. A. Stevens, dob 25/6/1903, ?????, married:

Walsall Observer 7/12/1940 - Marriages

“On December 3, 1940, at St Paul’s Church, Wood Green, Wednesbury (by license), George Robert Francis Coley (R.A.C.), only son of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Coley, of NEW INNS, Wednesbury Road, Walsall, to Pearl, younger daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Osborne, of Myvod Road, Wood Green, Wednesbury.”

Walsall Observer 24/12/1942

“Walsall Licensed Victuallers’ Society. The Duke of Gloucester’s Red Cross Fund. List of Subscriptions.
NEW INNS, Wednesbury Road. £2 0s 0d.”

Walsall Observer 15/1/1944

“Walsall Licensed Victuallers’ Society.

Appeal on Behalf of the Merchant Navy Fund, The Duke of Gloucester’s Red Cross Fund and the Aid to China Fund. List of Subscriptions.

NEW INNS, Wednesbury Road. £0 17s 8d.”

1963 Probate

“Albert Leonard Coley, of the NEW INN, 113 Wednesbury Road, Walsall, Staffordshire, died 9 April 1963. Administration London 22 August to Phoebe Coley, widow. Effects £1,023 4s.”

Frank Frederick Eden – see also FOUR CROSSES.

John Thomas Chance married Susan.

It closed in 1996.

It was converted into a private residence. [2001]

NEW MARKET TAVERN

63, (64), (62), (62+63), Lower Hall Lane, WALSALL

OWNERS

Jesse Moore, Lichfield Street, Walsall
D. J. Moore, surgeon
W. S. Moore Esq., Hastings
E. S. Hold Esq., Walsall

LICENSEES

George Pitt [1872];
George Thomas Pitt [1881];
Richard Arrowsmith [1891] – 1900;
Hugh Charles Godby (1900);
Georgina Godby (1900 – 1901);
Frederick Westwood (1901);
Mrs. Alice Arrowsmith (1901 – 1905);
George Frederick Sunter (1905 – 1913):

NOTES

62, Lower Hall Lane [1881]
62+63, Lower Hall Lane [1901]
63, Lower Hall Lane [1901]
64, Lower Hall Lane [1911]

It had a beerhouse license.

George Pitt, beer retailer, 62, Lower Hall Lane. [1872]

1881 Census

62, Lower Hall Lane
[1] George Pitt (58), widower, beer retailer, born Ludlow;
[2] George Pitt (28), son, engine driver, born Birmingham;
[3] Enoch Pitt (25), son, boat riveter, born Birmingham;
[4] Martha Cross (40), house keeper, born Derby;
[5] Samuel Sims (25), boarder, hame filer, born Birmingham;
[6] John Heydan (24), boarder, gardner, born Shifnal;
[7] Thomas Little (19), boarder, painter, born Birmingham:

Walsall Advertiser 20/4/1889 - Advert

“Fred. Davies, Aerated Water Manufacturer, Birmingham Road, Begg to Announce that for the convenience of his many Customers in the centre of the Town, he has Opened a Store for the Supply of his well-known high-class Waters at the NEW MARKET TAVERN, Lower Hall Lane (Near Digbeth).
Any Orders left at this Establishment will receive prompt and careful attention.”

1891 Census

62+63, Lower Hall Lane – OLD MARKET TAVERN
[1] Richard Arrowsmith (58), widower, publican, born Walsall;
[2] Harriet Arrowsmith (87), mother, living on her means, born Wolverhampton;
[3] Clara Arrowsmith (18), daughter, born Walsall;
[4] Charles Arrowsmith (21), son, labourer, born Walsall:

Walsall Advertiser 10/3/1894

“Walsall And District Licensed Victuallers’ Society. The monthly meeting of this society was held on Thursday last, at the house of Mr. Arrowsmith, NEW MARKET TAVERN, Lower Hall Lane.....”

Walsall Advertiser 13/7/1895

“Walsall And District Licensed Victuallers’ Society. The monthly meeting of this friendly and protection society was held on Thursday at the house of Mr. Arrowsmith, NEW MARKET TAVERN, Lower Hall Lane.....”

Richard Arrowsmith, beer retailer, 62, Lower Hall Lane. [1896]

Walsall Advertiser 1/10/1898

“Mr. Disturnal, instructed by Mr. Enoch Evans, made an application on behalf of Richard Arrowsmith, beerhouse keeper, NEW MARKET TAVERN, Lower Hall Lane, for the removal of his license to premises in the Arcade, Bradford Street, owned by Alderman E. T. Holden; and there was a second application for a full license to sell all intoxicating liquors on or off the premises in Bradford Street.....”

[There was a very long and involved argument, the application being heavily opposed, it appeared that Alderman Holden’s new ‘Hotel’ was a very speculative venture, and the application was eventually granted ‘subject to the usual confirmation’.]

Walsall Advertiser 19/5/1900

“Mr. E. Evans made an application for the temporary transfer of the license of the MARKET TAVERN, Hall Lane, from Mr. Charles Godby to Georgina Godby. In answer to the Bench, he explained that the present licensee (Charles Godby) had mysteriously disappeared, and the owners of the house were prepared to accept Godby’s wife as a tenant. The magistrates consented to the transfer.”

1901 Census

63, Lower Hall Lane – NEW MARKET TAVERN

[1] Frederick Westwood (35), beer retailer, born Birmingham;

[2] Miriam Westwood (23), wife, born Dudley:

Mrs. Alice Arrowsmith, beer retailer, 62, Lower Hall Lane. [1904]

A team from here took part in the Walsall and District Air Rifle League. [1906]

1911 Census

64, Lower Hall Lane

[1] George Frederick Sunter (58), publican, born Walsall;

[2] Sarah Ann Sunter (56), wife, married 37 years, assistant, born Walsall;

[3] Harry Sunter (35), son, labourer, born Walsall;

[4] Sidney Sunter (30), son, brass dresser, born Walsall;

[5] Beatrice Sunter (28), daughter, servant, born Walsall;

[6] Ethel Sunter (24), daughter, bridle stitcher, born Walsall;

[7] Florence Sunter (21), daughter, machinist, born Walsall;

[8] Dorothy Sunter (16), daughter, tailoress, born Walsall;

[9] Minnie Sunter (14), daughter, turner, born Walsall:

George Frederick Sunter, beer retailer, 62, Lower Hall Lane. [1912]

Walsall Advertiser 14/9/1912 - Advert

“NEWMARKET TAVERN, Lower Hall Lane, Walsall.

Absolutely Unreserved Sale of Public House Fittings, and a quantity of useful Household Furniture, in consequence of the forthcoming demolition of the Premises.

Mr. A. C. Fraser, FAI (Watkins, Powell & Wood; and Walter Hughes) will Sell by Auction, entirely without reserve, on Thursday, 26th September, 1912, the whole of the useful Public-House Fixtures And Trade Effects on the above premises, comprising: Excellent 4-Pull Beer Engine, expensive ‘National’ cash Register, 17ft Counter, strong Mahogany and other Tables and Benches, Cork-drawing machine, Smokeroom Chairs, Glazed Window Screens, Partitioning and Matchboarding, Seating, Jugs, Glasses, Measures, large Framed Sign, etc, and also the superior Household Furniture, including, Overmantles and Pier Glasses, Grandfather Clock, Pianoforte, Walnut Suite, fine Vienna Regulator, Mahogany Loo and other Tables, ‘Bradbury’ Treadle Sewing Machine, handsome Walnut Bedroom Suite, Bedsteads, Bedding, 18th Century Oak Chest of Drawers, Kitchen Dresser and Chairs, large Lean-to Shed and many other effects.

Sale to commence at 11 o’clock.

On View Morning of Sale from 9am.

Detailed catalogues from the Auctioneer’s Offices, 28, Bridgeman Street, Walsall. (telephone 186).”

The license lapsed in 1913.

NEW NAVIGATION

109, Old Birchills / Green Street, (100, Birchills (Street)), WALSALL

OWNERS

Thomas Allen
Sarah Allen
William Butler and Co. Ltd.
Mitchells and Butlers Ltd. [1982]

LICENSEES

Thomas Allen [1866] – [1873];
Mrs. Sarah Allen [1881] – 1890);
Joseph Allen (1890 – 189_);
Enoch Astley (189_ – 189_) [1891] – [1898]
Edwin Edward Edgerton (189_ – 1913);
George Stanley (1913 – 1916);
Harry Jones (1916 – 1924);
Samuel Smith (1924 – 1940);
Mrs. Ellen Smith (1940 – 1955);
Leonard Marriott (1955 – 1959);
Samuel Brotherton (1959 – 1960);
Joseph Highfield (1960 – 1961);
Joseph Heeley (1961 – [1966]
Mrs. Janet Davies [1987]
Mick Till [1999]
Frederick Leonard Willis [2007]
Shaun Simcox (2009 – []

NOTES

NAVIGATION [1866], [1868], [1870], [1881], [1891], [1897], [1901], [1911], [1916], [1964]

It was an ante 1869 beerhouse.

It was reputedly haunted.

Staffordshire Advertiser 10/2/1866

“Thomas Evans, carpenter, Bentley, was charged on a warrant with assaulting a man named Joseph Letts, blacksmith, Blue Lane, by striking him on the head with a hammer. It appeared that both men were in the NAVIGATION INN, Old Birchills, on the 25th ult, when a disturbance took place, in the midst of which the prisoner, without any provocation, as was proved by different witnesses, struck the prosecutor violently above the eye with a hammer which he was carrying. The blow rendered Letts insensible, and he had been unable to work since the occurrence. Taking into view the aggravated nature of the assault, the Bench fined Evans £5 and costs, or in default two months’ imprisonment. The fine was paid.”

Walsall Free Press 10/2/1866

“On Friday morning, as a boy, named Thomas Allen, son of Mr. Thomas Allen, NEW NAVIGATION INN, Birchills, was riding along the canal bank on a pony, the animal from some cause or other leapt into the canal, and at the same time threw off the lad, who, before assistance could be procured, was drowned.”

Thomas Allen, beer retailer, Old Birchills. [1868], [1870]

Birmingham Daily Gazette 15/12/1868

“Yesterday afternoon, Mr. A. A. Fletcher, Coroner for the borough of Walsall, held an inquest at the NAVIGATION INN, upon the body of Walter Moore, aged 12 years. From the evidence it appeared that the deceased, whose parents reside in Great Tindal Street, Ladywood, was in the employment of a boatman named Edward Sheldon, Ledsam Street, and about four o’clock on Saturday morning, as the boat was lying at Birchills, deceased was sent to an engine house to fetch some fire, but as he did not return, search was made, and the body found in the canal. The jury, after hearing the evidence, returned a verdict of Found Drowned.”

Walsall Free Press 4/9/1869

“Walsall Annual Licensing Day, Wednesday applications for new licenses for the sale of spirits.....

Thomas Allen, landlord of the NEW NAVIGATION INN beerhouse, Bloxwich.

Mr. Glover, who appeared for the applicant, showed the fitness of the premises for the business of a licensed victualler, also the qualifications of his client, and dwelt at some length upon the increase of population which had recently taken place in the locality. The Mayor announced that the Bench had decided not to grant any new licenses this year.”

Walsall Free Press 6/8/1870

“Thomas Allen, landlord of the NAVIGATION INN, Birchills, was charged with having had his house open for the sale of beer during prohibited hours; but as the house had hitherto been well conducted, the charges were withdrawn upon the defendant paying costs.”

Staffordshire Advertiser 10/9/1870

“Walsall Annual Licensing Sessions were held at the Guildhall yesterday week.....

There were eight applicants for new spirit licenses.....

Thomas Allen, the NEW NAVIGATION, Birchills.....

The magistrates retired to consider their decision, and after having been absent about half an hour they returned, and announced that they had decided to refuse all the applications, though they had come to this decision with much regret in some instances.”

1871 Census

Birchills

- [1] Thomas Allen (39), publican, born Gornal;
- [2] Sarah Allen (39), wife, born Northwich, Cheshire;
- [3] Elizabeth Allen (16), daughter, born West Bromwich;
- [4] Sarah Allen (11), daughter, scholar, born West Bromwich;
- [5] Joseph Allen (8), son, scholar, born West Bromwich;
- [6] Rosetta Allen (5), daughter, scholar, born Walsall;
- [7] Catherine Allen (3), daughter, born Walsall;
- [8] Jane Allen (2), daughter, born Walsall;
- [9] Alice Allen (3 weeks), daughter, born Walsall:

Birmingham Daily Post 23/5/1873

“Shortly after midnight on Tuesday, a young woman, named Elizabeth Allen, daughter of the keeper of the NAVIGATION beerhouse, Birchills, while drunk, attempted self-destruction by jumping into the canal near her father’s house. Her mother went to her rescue, and was dragged into the water. Then Mr. Thomas, chartermaster, hearing cries, went to the assistance of the pair, and ran some danger of losing his own life; but eventually he got both mother and daughter out of the water, and they were taken home and put to bed, both being in a very exhausted state. The daughter made a like attempt a short time ago, and was taken before the Magistrates, who handed her over to her father upon his promising to look after her.”

1881 Census

Old Birchills – NAVIGATION INN

- [1] Sarah Allen (47), widow, beerhouse keeper, born Cheshire;
- [2] Elizabeth Allen (26), daughter, general servant, born Spon Lane;
- [3] Sarah Allen (21), daughter, bridle stitcher, born Spon Lane;
- [4] Joseph Allen (18), son, canal boatman, born Spon Lane;
- [5] Rosetta Allen (16), daughter, bridle stitcher, born Walsall;
- [6] Catherine Allen (13), daughter, bridle stitcher, born Walsall;
- [7] Jane Allen (12), daughter, scholar, born Walsall;
- [8] Phoebe Allen (9), daughter, scholar, born Walsall;
- [9] Samuel Boaz (60), boarder, engineer, born Walsall;
- [10] Edward Done (45), boarder, general labourer, born Shrewsbury:

Walsall Advertiser 24/3/1885 - Advert

“If the Horse that was left last Tuesday Night, at the NAVIGATION Stable, Birchills, be not claimed in 3 days, it will be sold for expenses.

Apply, Walsall Police Station.”

Birmingham Daily Post 25/2/1890

“Yesterday morning Mrs. Sarah Allen (58), of the NEW NAVIGATION, near Birchills, died very suddenly.”

Walsall Observer 1/3/1890

“The following inquests have been held during the week by Mr. T. H. Stanley, the borough coroner.....

On Wednesday, at the NEW NAVIGATION INN, Birchills, on the body of Sarah Allen (57), the landlady of that house. The evidence was that deceased had suffered from bad legs for a long time, and had been attended by Mr. Hubbard about two months ago. Since then, though ill, she had been able to go about her business. On Monday morning she called her daughter to get breakfast, and an hour later the daughter found her dead in bed.

A verdict of Death from Natural Causes was returned.”

Walsall Advertiser 8/3/1890 - Advert

“Valuable And Well Secured Ground Rents And Freehold Beerhouse And Other property At The Birchills, Walsall.

To Be Sold by Auction, By Messrs. Watkins & Powell, at the GEORGE HOTEL, Walsall, on Tuesday, the 25th day of March, 1890, at Six for Seven o'clock in the evening precisely.....

Lot 6. (By order of the Trustee of the Will of Thomas Allen, deceased.)

The Valuable Freehold Beerhouse known as the NEW NAVIGATION INN, Birchills, Walsall, occupied until lately by Mrs. Sarah Allen, and now by Mr. Joseph Allen, together with the House adjoining, being No.107, Birchills.

The Beerhouse contains large Tap Room, Bar, Back Kitchen, two Cellars, two large Bedrooms and Clubroom, and the Outbuildings include stable room for 16 horses.

The property adjoins the top lock of the Birmingham Canal at the Birchills, and is admirably situated for a very extensive trade. It has the advantage of a side entrance from the canal towing path for which a small acknowledgement is paid to the Canal Company. Immediate possession may be had.

The whole property occupies an area of 989 square yards, and is estimated to produce a rental of £60 per annum.

The mines are reserved subject to liability to make compensation for any damage to buildings.”

Walsall Advertiser 3/5/1890 - Advert

“NEW NAVIGATION, Birchills, Walsall.

Sale Of Household Furniture and Effects.

To Be Sold By Auction, by Messrs. Watkins & Powell, on Monday next, May 5th (by instructions from the representatives of the late Mrs. Allen) – the Useful Household Furniture, comprising Chimney Glass, in inlaid frame; birch Sofa, Centre Table, Windsor Chairs, 8-day Clocks, deal tables; 4-pull Beer Machine, with brass taps; sets of French Iron Bedsteads, pair of Paillasses, Feather Bed, Child's Cot, mahogany Night Chair, Toilet Tables, Swing Glass, Kitchen Utensils, and other Effects.

Sale to commence at 11 o'clock.

Auctioneers' Offices, Bridge Street, Walsall.”

Enoch Astley = Enoch Ashley

1891 Census

109, Old Birchills – NAVIGATION INN

- [1] Enoch Ashley (46), licensed victualler, born Tipton;
- [2] Julia J. Ashley (44), wife, born Tipton;
- [3] Enoch Ashley (21), son, labourer, born Great Bridge;
- [4] James Ashley (19), son, boatman, born Moxley;
- [5] Florence Ashley (14), daughter, born Walsall;
- [6] David Ashley (13), son, scholar, born Walsall;
- [7] Eliza Ashley (10), daughter, scholar, born Walsall;
- [8] Isaac Ashley (8), son, scholar, born Walsall;
- [9] William Ashley (3), son, born Walsall;
- [10] Emma Andrews (18), visitor, born Walsall;
- [11] William Tonks (45), boarder, born Gloucester;
- [12] Ernest Sauldry (21), boarder, born Oldbury;

Walsall Advertiser 11/6/1892

“At the Walsall Police Court, yesterday, a woman named Harriet Martin was charged with having stolen a sovereign and half a sovereign, the monies of Enoch Astley, landlord of the NAVIGATION INN. It appeared from the evidence that the defendant was employed in the prosecutor's house as charwoman when the money was missed.

The defendant pleaded guilty, and the magistrates taking a very lenient view of the case, and remembering that the prosecutor had no desire to press the charge, adjourned the case for a month.”

Enoch Astley, beer retailer, 100, Birchills. [1896]

Staffordshire Advertiser 13/3/1897

“On Monday, at the NAVIGATION INN, Old Birchills, Mr. T. H. Stanley held an inquest on the body of Mary Emma Mears, aged seven months. The mother deposited the child on the floor in front of the fire whilst she went on an errand on the 1st of February, and when she returned she found the little one's clothes were smouldering. She extinguished the fire and took the child to the hospital, but refused to leave it there. She took it, however, to be treated as an out patient, until the 24th, and after that she had the assistance of Dr. O'Meara at her own home until Friday, when death took place. The jury found that death was caused by Bronchitis, accelerated by the burns.”

Walsall Advertiser 24/12/1898

“Enoch Astley (29), boatman, Wolverhampton Street; Henry Bullingham (21), boatman, 49, Old Birchills; and John Dyoss (48), boatman, Upper Rushall Street, were charged with stealing a gold watch, a silver watch, and a gold locket and chain, value £11 10s, and also half-a-sovereign, the whole the property of Thomas Davies, carter, of 105, Old Birchills, between the 8th and 9th of December. Mr. H. H. Jackson defended Astley.

Emma Davies, wife of prosecutor, identified the goods named in the charge (produced) as her husband's property. At 3.30 on Thursday afternoon, the 8th inst, she left them safe on the dressing table in the front bedroom. During that same afternoon she went to the NAVIGATION beer-house, which Astley's mother kept, but did not leave the house for more than ten minutes. Next morning she went into the bedroom and found the articles missing, together with half-a-sovereign.

Hannah Maria Bickley, Cannock Road, Hednesford, assistant to Mr. Thomas Vaughan, pawnbroker of Hednesford, said that the prisoner Astley came to her shop and offered in pledge the silver watch and gold chain and locket (produced). He said they were his own and that he wanted the money to pay for a boatload of coal. She lent him 29s on the articles. He gave the name of 'Fred Smith, Queen Street, Smethwick.' He said that he had given 28s second-hand for the watch, and that he had paid £4 for the chain. On Saturday, the 10th inst, Detective Sergeant Harper came to her shop and she handed the articles named to him. Later in the day she came to Walsall and identified Astley as the man who pledged the goods.

Lewis Jackson, manager for Mr, Thomas Vaughan, pawnbroker, High Street, Brownhills, said that on the afternoon of the 9th December, Dyoss came to the house and offered a gold watch in pledge, which he said was his own property. Dyoss said that he had been waiting a week for a boat load of coal, but could not get it, so was a little short and had to pledge the watch. Defendant gave the name of 'John Wood. Oldbury.' Witness had subsequently handed that watch over to Detective Harper, and on Wednesday identified Dyoss from a number of men at the Police Station.

Detective-sergeant Harper deposed to going to the NAVIGATION INN, Birchills, on Saturday the 10th inst, and seeing Bullingham and Dyoss together in the front kitchen. He arrested Astley at the back of the house, who was identified by Mrs. Bickley. He then arrested Bullingham, but did not know at the time that Dyoss was incriminated. He charged Astley and Bullingham together, and the latter replied, 'There was no half-sovereign there; I am guilty of the rest.' Astley said, 'I pawned the watch and chain but did not steal them.' On Monday he arrested Dyoss, and when cautioned and charged together, Dyoss said he knew nothing about it. Astley said, 'Tell the truth; he knows all about it.' Bullingham said, 'Ah! Go on.'

Defendants pleaded guilty.

Mr. Jackson said that with regard to Astley he could not plead 'not guilty' after the evidence that had been brought before the court, but Astley did not steal the goods at all. Bullingham came to him and asked him to pledge the watch and chain. Astley asked if it was 'all right' and the reply was 'yes.' Of course the fact that the goods were pawned in an assumed name was quite sufficient to make anyone suppose he knew there was something wrong, but he urged that it had rather a different meaning with Astley, who had never appeared before a court before. He had been a companion no doubt of the other men, but whether they had led him into trouble or not he would leave the magistrates to decide.

There were three previous convictions against Bullingham, but none against the other two. Prisoners were each sentenced to three calendar months' imprisonment, with hard labour."

1901 Census

Old Birchills – NAVIGATION INN

[1] Edwin Edward Edgerton (40), unmarried, publican, born West Bromwich;

[2] William Edward Hinton (17), nephew, carpenter, born Walsall;

[3] Nellie Hinton (12), sister, born Pelsall;

[4] Matilda Hinton (10), sister, born Pelsall;

[5] Amos Hinton (7), brother, born Pelsall;

[6] Ernest Hinton (5), brother, born Pelsall;

[7] Mary Ann Devey (18), domestic servant, born Walsall:

Edward Edmund Edgerton, beer retailer, 100, Birchills Street. [1904]

Walsall Advertiser 24/6/1905

"Amos Hinton, Birchills, was charged with non-payment of maintenance arrears and costs due to his wife, Elizabeth Hinton, NAVIGATION INN, Birchills. Complainant said her husband had not paid anything for several months, but could find money for beer as he was drunk when arrested. Defendant said he could not pay as he had got no work, but was willing to pay when he had. Sentenced to a months' hard labour."

Walsall Observer 12/1/1918

"Walsall and District War Aid Committee. Collection By The Licensed Victuallers, December, 1917..... NEW NAVIGATION INN, Old Birchills. £1 12s 2½d."

Samuel Smith was president of Walsall and District Licensed Victuallers' and Beer Retailers' Friendly and Provident Society. [1934], [1935]

Staffordshire Advertiser 1/12/1934

"The 82nd annual meeting of Walsall and District Licensed Victuallers' Association was held on the 22nd ult at the NEW NAVIGATION INN, Old Birchills, Mr. Samuel Smith presiding. Mr. M. F. Harrison, the secretary, reported that the membership was 195. The retiring officers were heartily thanked for their services, and were re-elected, with the addition on the committee of Messrs. H. W. Mellor, W. H. Nicholls, Joseph Page, and Frank Wilson."

Walsall Observer 18/2/1939

"Birchills A.R.P. men lead the way with the first actual area test in full equipment of the efficiency of wardens in discovering and reporting the effects of an 'enemy air raid.' On Monday night they assembled at the clubroom of the NAVIGATION INN, Birchills, where the licensee, Mr. S. Smith, had placed at their disposal not only the clubroom but an adjoining building which serves admirably for cleansing and changing, the test having been arranged by and carried out under the instruction of Mr. J. P.

Llewellyn, with the assistance of Mr. H. Tisdale (area warden) and Mr. H. Broughton (sector warden). When the zooming of the raiding aircraft (reproduced by a gramophone record) has ceased, and the 'All clear' signal had been given, six patrols, each comprising a warden, trainee and messenger, were despatched to various clearly-defined beats in the neighbourhood to discover the spots at which high explosive, gas and incendiary bombs were supposed to have been dropped, as indicated by certain distinctive markings. A maximum of twenty minutes was allowed for investigations. As a whole the plan worked out very successfully. Less than four minutes after going out the first messenger clattered up the stairs and pantingly reported on the pumping station, but that no serious damage had been done. The messengers on this occasion were on foot, and possibly the provision of cycles would be in the breath of the boys engaged on this important duty. The second messenger came in hard on the heels of the first, and the next two ten minutes later. There were more difficulty in locating a house, with shattered windows, which was supposed to have been struck; and the patrol in quest of gas had to admit defeat. To unmasked people there was a distinct smell of gas from a whitewashed drum, but it may have not been strong enough for those with respirators. Moreover, the drum was some yards from the path to which the patrol had been told to stick. The A.R.P. Officer (Captain D. C. Chisholm) dropped in to wish the men luck before they went out, but could not stay as he had to go to Northampton to take part in a black-out there the same night. No doubt as a result of recent events the volunteers took advantage of the opportunity to pass a vote of complete confidence in him, this being backed by several personal tributes. Captain Chisholm, in reply, said that the knowledge of their feelings and the splendid way they all worked made his job a happy one."

Walsall Observer 11/11/1939 - Deaths

"On Nov 7, 1939, at the NEW NAVIGATION INN, Walsall, Samuel, deeply-loved husband of Ellen Smith, aged 61 years. Deeply mourned by Wife and son Ray."

Walsall Observer 2/12/1939

"Walsall Magistrates on Wednesday transferred the license of the NEW NAVIGATION INN, Birchills, from the name of the late Samuel Smith to his widow, Ellen Smith."

1939 Probate

"Samuel Smith, of NEW NAVIGATION INN, Old Birchills, Walsall, Staffordshire, died 7 November 1939. Administration London 9 December to Ellen Smith, widow. Effects £394 1s 8d."

1939 Register

Old Birchills – NEW NAVIGATION INN

- [1] Ellen Smith, date of birth 19/2/1883, unpaid domestic duties, married;
- [2] Raymond Smith, dob 7/1/1917, telephone wireman, single;
- [3] Margaret (Rudd) (Scott) Davies, dob 5/4/1918, bar general, single:

Walsall Observer 7/12/1940

"Walsall Licensed Victuallers' Society.

Motor Ambulance Effort on behalf of Walsall and District branch of the British Red Cross Society.

First List of Subscriptions.....

NEW NAVIGATION INN, Old Birchills, £5 0s 0d."

Walsall Observer 24/12/1942

"Walsall Licensed Victuallers' Society. The Duke of Gloucester's Red Cross Fund. List of Subscriptions.....

NEW NAVIGATION, Old Birchills. £2 0s 0d."

Walsall Observer 13/11/1943

"Remarkable success attended a concert recently organised by Mr. and Mrs. A. Sergeant and Mr. C. Bradley, held at the NEW NAVIGATION INN, Birchills, on behalf of the Merchant Navy Fund, for it produced no less that £50. This sum, with a bouquet of chrysanthemums, was handed to Councillor Mrs. A. McShane by Miss H. Brooks. The artists were Messrs J. Beach, S. Bridgetts, 'the Great Lorenzo,' Billy Bull, Bobby Thwaites, Ronnie Higgins, Mrs. Burton, Mrs. Pearson, with Mrs. F. Brevitt. Mrs. F. Garbett and Mrs. Bridgetts sharing the accompaniments and Mr. Ernest Thomas as compere."

Walsall Observer 15/1/1944

"Walsall Licensed Victuallers' Society.

Appeal on Behalf of the Merchant Navy Fund, The Duke of Gloucester's Red Cross Fund and the Aid to China Fund. List of Subscriptions.....

NEW NAVIGATION, Old Birchills. £67 0s 0d."

A full license was granted on 8th February 1951.

Walsall Observer 24/8/1962 - Advert

"Attention! all Mild drinkers.

Higgate Mild is now available in the following Butlers and Atkinsons houses.....

NEW NAVIGATION, Birchills, Walsall.”

Walsall Observer 10/1/1964

“The quarter finals, semi-finals and final of the Walsall, Wolverhampton and district sub area competition of the News of the World individual darts championship of England and Wales, will be held in Pelsall Social Club, Norton Road, Pelsall, on Thursday next, January 16, all players to be on the mark at 8pm prompt. The eight finalists are.....
Georgie Merrick (NAVIGATION INN, Old Birchills, Walsall).”

A team from here took part in the Sports Argus Inn Quiz competition. [1974/5]

[2023]

NEWPORT ARMS

153, (155), Pleck Road / Wharf Street, WALSALL

OWNERS

Edward Russell, Victoria Terrace, Lichfield Street, Walsall [1872]
William Downing, maltster, The Hollies, Smethwick
Messrs. Mills, Pleck, Walsall
William Roberts, Station Brewery, Brownhills [1893], [1910]
William Butler and Co. Ltd.
Mitchells and Butlers Ltd.

LICENSEES

John Cozens [] – 1866;
Mrs. Emma Cozens (1866 – []
Thomas Bowater [1868] – [1870]
John Humphries [1871] – [1873];
John K Northall [] – 1881;
Mrs. Rebecca Northall (1881)
Isaiah Edwin Northall [];
Sarah Jane Northall [];
John Savage [] – 1889;
Julia Savage (1889);
John Penton (1889 – 1893);
Henry Bateman (1893 – 1898);
Thomas Sadler (1898 – 1910);
Alfred Kendrick (1910 – 1914);
Albert Richard Reeves (1914 – 1923);
Comfort Walliss Reeves (1923 – 1926);
Sydney Noake (1926 – 1927);
Frederick Sidney Walmsley (1927 – 1928);
Ronald Arthur Simes (1928 – 1931);
Mrs. Sarah Ann Benton (1931 – 1941);
Arthur Lane (1941 – 1948);
Frederick Boucher (1948 – 1951);
Henry George Edward Mason (1951 – 1956);
George Thomas Rathbone (1956);
Frederick Lawton (1956 – 1958);
Desmond Thomas Hughes (1958 – 1959);
Frederick Kitchener Wells (1959 – 1961);
Dennis Gray (1961 – 1962);
Patrick Arthur Swain (1962);
James Arthur Dobson (1962 – 1964);
George William Beeley (1964 – 1965);
Joseph Parker (1965);
Alan Fletcher (1965 – 1966);

Wilfred Raymond Morgan (1966);
David James Kennedy (1966 – []

NOTES

153, Pleck Road [1881], [1908], [1911], [1932], [1939], [1940]
155, Pleck Road [1891]

Walsall Free Press 1/9/1866

“General Licensing Day. Yesterday a special session was held in the Guildhall Assembly Room.....

Mr. Mathews applied on behalf of John Cozens, beerhouse keeper, The Pleck.

Mr. Dale opposed on behalf of Mr. Cox, landlord of the FORGE public-house, on the ground that there was no necessity for any additional accommodation, and stated that between Bridgeman Street and The Pleck Church there were only 50 houses, and only one new dwelling house had been erected since last year.

Mr. Oerton said Mr. Cox’s house was the filthiest in the place – indeed a memorial had been presented by the coroner, stating that Mr. Cox’s house was unfit to hold an inquest in. Application granted.”

Birmingham Daily Post 6/10/1866

“The adjourned Licensing Session for the borough was held yesterday at the Free Library. The following transfers were made, viz.....

The NEWPORT ARMS INN, The Pleck, from John Cozens to Emma Cozens, his widow.”

Birmingham Daily Post 29/4/1869 - Advert

“Found, April 20, a White Bull Dog. Anyone owning the same can have it by paying expenses.

Apply NEWPORT ARMS, Pleck Road, Walsall. Unless owned in three days will be sold.”

Walsall Free Press 29/5/1869

“Thomas Bowater, for whom Mr. J. Glover appeared, was charged with having, on Sunday last, had his house – the NEWPORT ARMS public house, The Pleck – open during prohibited hours, namely, at a quarter to twelve o’clock noon, on Sunday last. Acting-sergeant Bevan said that at a quarter past twelve o’clock on this day he visited the house kept by defendant, with another officer, and found two men in the back yard, one of them sitting down upon a door step smoking his pipe, the other man had a jug in his hand which contained malt liquor. The officer asked defendant whether those persons were his servants. He said no, but they were there to help the landlord.

This evidence was corroborated by Police-constable Sharp.

Mr. Glover, objected to a conviction on two points; first the police had not proved the men found in the house were not travellers, and there had been no proof of sale of beer. The Bench dismissed the case.”

Walsall Free Press 22/4/1871 - Advert

“NEWPORT ARMS INN, Pleck Road, Walsall.

To Be Let, the above commodious Old Licensed House & Premises, at Midsummer Next. The Inn is in the vicinity of several Iron Works, and is on the Main Road from Walsall to Wednesbury. It is now doing a first-class business, but an energetic man with sufficient capital might nearly double the amount of trade. The premises are suitable for a Small Brewery, and the arrangements in the department are very complete.

For particulars apply to the Cyclops Iron Works, Walsall. Incoming is nominal.”

Walsall Free Press 9/9/1871

“Mary Ann Casey was charged with having, on Wednesday evening, broke a pane of glass and a water filter in the house of Mr. John Humphries, NEWPORT ARMS, Pleck Road. It appeared the prisoner, in company with some other parties visited the prosecutor’s house, and created a disturbance, and in the course of the row the prisoner broke the filter and a pane of glass. Sentenced to pay a fine of 1s and costs, in addition 18s, the value of the filter; or, in default to be imprisoned for 21 days. In this case Mr. Barnett prosecuted.”

Walsall Free Press 1/11/1873

“Municipal Election. The Bridge Ward.....

On Tuesday evening the supporters of Messrs. Cotterell and Evans held a meeting at the NEWPORT ARMS.....”

Midland Counties Evening Express 28/1/1875

“On Tuesday evening a meeting was held at the NEWPORT ARMS, The Pleck, Walsall, to take into consideration the present position in affairs. [In the Tube trade]. There was a large assembly, and the chair was occupied by Mr. George Bullman, who at some length reviewed the proceedings in connection with the movement, and encouraged the men to resist the attempted encroachment to put an extra hour per day upon the workmen. Three years ago the employers said nine hours were quite long enough for the men to work, but now they thought the men ought to work ten hours Mr. Hawkins (Walsall) proposed the next resolution ‘That this meeting pledges itself to use every legitimate means in its power to prevent a return to the old ten hours a day system.’ – Mr. Knight seconded a resolution, which was carried.”

1881 Census

153, Pleck Road – NEWPORT ARMS

- [1] John K. Northall (51), publican, born Cradeley (sic), Worcestershire; [Cradley]
- [2] Rebecca Northall (52), wife, born Halesowen;
- [3] Isaiah Edwin Northall (28), son, engine fitter, born Cradeley, Worcestershire;
- [4] Annie R. Northall (26), daughter, housekeeper, born Cradeley, Worcestershire;
- [5] Sarah Jane Northall (23), daughter, barmaid, born Netherton;
- [6] John Knight Northall (14), son, born Netherton:

Evening Express 5/9/1881

“On Friday night, Rebecca Northall, widow, landlady of the NEWPORT ARMS INN, Pleck Road, Walsall, retired to bed apparently in her usual health. Shortly afterwards she was followed by her daughter, whom she asked for some water. The daughter left the room to obtain it, and on her return she found her mother was dead.”

Walsall Advertiser 16/6/1885 - Advert

“Walsall Conservative Association.

Mr. Frank Fearnley (of Kidderminster) Will Address Conservative Meetings, to be held on Tuesday Evening, June 16th at the ROYAL EXCHANGE, Ryecroft, and on Wednesday Evening, June 17th, at the NEW INN, Ryecroft, Blakenall Heath.

The Conservatives of the Pleck Division also hold a meeting at the NEWPORT ARMS, Pleck Road, on Wednesday, June 17th.

Chairs to be taken each Evening at 8pm.

Working Men Are Invited to Attend.

H. H. Cannell, Secretary.”

John Savage was fined 10s and costs, on 14th June 1889, for keeping open during prohibited hours.

John Penton = John Pinton

Walsall Advertiser 1/3/1890 - Advert

“Monday, 10th March, at Eleven o’clock, at the NEWPORT ARMS INN, Pleck Road, Walsall.

Unreserved Clearance Sale of the costly and extensive Brewing Plant and Utensils; and also Cottage Pianoforte.

Sold by order of W. Roberts, Esq, prior to alterations being made.”

Birmingham Daily Post 27/11/1890

“At the Guildhall, a special session – the first under the new local Act – was held for the purpose of hearing applications for music, singing, and dancing licenses Mr. Jackson applied on behalf of John Pinton, NEWPORT ARMS, Pleck Road. Refused.”

1891 Census

155, Pleck Road

- [1] John Penton (30), licensed victualler’s manager, born Pelsall;
- [2] Eliza Ann Penton (26), wife, born Pelsall;
- [3] Florence S. Penton (6), daughter, scholar, born Pelsall;
- [4] Anne Maria Penton (4), daughter, scholar, born Pelsall;
- [5] Harold Wilfred Penton (2), son, born Pelsall;
- [6] William Edwin Penton (2 months), son, born Pelsall;
- [7] Mary Wall (16), general servant, born Pelsall;
- [8] Mary Ann Hill (41), nurse, born Walsall;
- [9] William Edwin Clark (21), boarder, tube maker, born Bloxwich:

Birmingham Daily Post 17/8/1893

“At the Guildhall, yesterday, Henry Bateman was summoned for selling without a license at the NEWPORT ARMS, The Pleck. Mr. H. H. Jackson appeared for the defendant, and pleaded not guilty.

The Chief Constable said that under these circumstances he should not ask the Bench to hear evidence, nor did he press for a heavy penalty. The defendant was the keeper of the BOAT INN, Walsall Wood, as manager for Mr. Roberts, and he exchanged houses with the manager of the NEWPORT ARMS, which was also one of Mr. Robert’s houses, and sold a couple of days before getting authority. A mistake had probably been made through the way in which business was done in the county, where the justices met less frequently than in the borough, and the people sold for a few days before formal authority had been obtained.

A fine of 1s and costs was imposed, and a temporary authority granted.”

Walsall Advertiser 27/4/1895

“On Monday, at the Borough Court, the Chief Constable objected to the granting of a singing and dancing license to Mr. Henry Bateman, NEWPORT ARMS, Pleck Road, who through Mr. H. H. Jackson, solicitor, applied for the license for Wednesday evenings from 7.30 to 10.30pm, for the accommodation of the recently-formed ‘Excelsior’ Minstrel Troupe.

The Chief Constable said that every opportunity had been taken to obtain music licenses for public-houses, and this application on behalf of a so-called minstrel troupe was only a mean of getting in the thin end of the wedge on those premises.

Mr. Jackson objected to this ex parte statement.

The Chief Constable: I know what is going on.

Mr. Jackson: If we get the license and anything goes wrong it will be for the Chief to lay an objection. Only members of the troupe will be admitted.

The Chief Constable said that the Bench must either grant a license or not. They could not make conditions, and if it were granted, there would be nothing to prevent the general public from taking advantage of it. There were plenty of coffee-houses at which the troupe might meet, where no intoxicating liquors would be sold.

The Bench, which consisted of the Mayor, Mr. S. Russell, and Mr. J. Scott, 'by a majority' decided to grant the license."

Walsall Advertiser 29/8/1896

"On Saturday evening a very pleasant gathering took place at the NEWPORT ARMS, Pleck Road, when the men of the Cyclops Ironworks – winners of the tug-of-war championship cup and medals at the recent Police Sports – met to celebrate the victory. Mr. N. Grainger presided, and a very capital dinner was served up by Host Bateman and his wife. The Chairman congratulated the Cyclops men upon being the first to carry away the trophy and medals. He believed that next year they would be able to place as good a team on the field as had won it this year (a Voice: 'First team next time,' and laughter). During the evening various songs were contributed, and a vote of thanks was passed to the gentlemen who had subscribed towards the gathering. A vote of thanks was also passed to host and hostess."

Walsall Advertiser 14/11/1896

"The monthly meeting of the Walsall and District Licensed Victuallers' and Beer Retailers' Friendly and Protection Society was held on Thursday last....

Mr. Henry Bateman, NEWPORT ARMS INN, Pleck Road was elected a member as from 1st January, 1897."

Thomas Sadler = Thomas Saddler

Walsall Advertiser 13/5/1899

"Walsall & District Licensed Victuallers' Society. The monthly meeting was held on Thursday.....

New Members..... Mr. Thomas Saddler, NEWPORT ARMS INN, Pleck Road, Walsall."

T. Sadler was a committee member of Walsall and District Licensed Victuallers' Association. [1902]

Walsall Advertiser 26/7/1902

"Mary Ann Cooper (46), charwoman, no fixed abode, was brought up on a charge of wilfully breaking a plate-glass window at the NEWPORT ARMS, Pleck, doing damage to the extent of £3. Mr. H. H. Jackson prosecuted.

From the evidence given by Thomas Sadler, licensee of the NEWPORT ARMS, and other witnesses named William Richards and Gertrude Williams, it seemed that defendant went into the NEWPORT ARMS to sell some wire articles she carried. She was told nothing was wanted, and she replied, 'Then here goes for the window.' She went outside, picked up a stone, and threw it through the plate-glass window.

Defendant now said that she went into the NEWPORT ARMS for something to drink, and was immediately pushed outside.

There was a bad record against defendant. As the chief constable remarked, she seemed to have a mania for smashing windows. She had been convicted of that offence six times, once at the Sessions. She was now sent to Stafford for two months. On going 'under' she objected that it was very likely she would do the same again when she came out."

A team from here took part in the Walsall and District Air-Gun League. [1903/4], [1905]

Walsall Advertiser 25/7/1903 - Notice

"Walsall And District Hospital.

List of Workpeople's Contributions received by the Treasurer from August, 1902, to July 24th, 1903.....

NEWPORT ARMS, Pleck Road (per Mr. Saddler). 4s 6d."

Walsall Advertiser 14/11/1903

"Birmingham & District Air-Gun Association.....

A few weeks ago the NEWPORT ARMS Club journeyed to Birmingham to shoot against one of its best teams, namely the Spread Eagle, Sherborne Street, and the return visit took place last Saturday night at the NEWPORT ARMS, when upwards of 40 visitors turned up, some coming by an old-time coach, the 'Tantivity', which is one of the best coaches in the Midlands, four splendid greys forming the motive power; and the remainder journeyed by train It was a splendid contest, the official score reading NEWPORT ARMS 230, Spread Eagle 229. After the match refreshments went round, full justice being done. Then the president of the Spread Eagle, being voted to the chair, ventured on a few remarks, speaking generally of the great good air-gun shooting had done for the working man in particular, in finding something to occupy his mind in a legitimate manner, as well as introducing a pastime which tended to influence him in a sober direction; for everyone knew that a hard drinker was no good for shooting. Therefore, he claimed that air-gun shooting was beneficial to the masses, and had it been introduced ten years ago he had no hesitation in saying that the late disastrous Boer war would have been over in twelve months....."

Walsall Advertiser 18/6/1904

“Walsall & District Air-Gun League. Hospital Cup & Medals.

The concluding draw, to be shot on Tuesday next, the 21st inst, at the VINE HOTEL, Lower Hall Lane, is as under:

1. VOLUNTEER or KING WILLIAM v GOLDEN EAGLE.
2. NEWPORT No.1 or CRITERION v CROWN or Leamore.

Final. Winner of No.2 v Winner of No.1.

The first team to have choice of shooting. The first match to commence at 8pm sharp, the second at 8.45, final at 9.45. Individuals to immediately follow.”

Walsall Advertiser 9/7/1904 - Notice

“Walsall & District Air-Gun League.

Hospital Cup And Medals.

The Presentation of the above will take place on Tuesday next, the 12th inst., at the FORGE INN, Pleck Road, at 8.30pm. All interested in Air-Gun Shooting are invited to attend. The winners are NEWPORT No.1. Runner-up, KING WILLIAM, Bloxwich.”

Walsall Advertiser 14/7/1906

“On Tuesday at the NEWPORT ARMS, a meeting of the Walsall and District Air Rifle League was held for the purpose of electing teams. The following teams applied for admission into the league and were elected: TANNERS ARMS, LAMP TAVERN, NEW-MARKET TAVERN, GOATS HEAD, COMMERCIAL INN, FITTERS ARMS.

Last season the league consisted of the following teams, none of which have withdrawn: NEWPORT ARMS, VOLUNTEER INN, ELEPHANT AND CASTLE, CROWN AND CUSHION, ORANGE TREE, and CROWN (Leamore). It was decided that the last day for the election of teams to the league should be postponed until the 17th inst. It was also decided that the league again affiliate with the National Air-Rifle Association. Several prizes having been offered for competition at 20 yards, arrangements have been made at the NEWPORT ARMS for practice for any member affiliated with league or association.”

Walsall Advertiser 17/8/1907 - Advert

“Walsall And District Air-Rifle League. Season 1907-8.

A Special Meeting of Above will be held on Tuesday Next, the 20th, at 8pm, at the NEWPORT ARMS, Pleck Road, to inaugurate the League for 1907-8.

Mr. M. Hirst, and Mr. Stratford, S.M.R.C. (Specialists in Air-Rifle Shooting), will address the meeting.

Chairman – Capt. J. S. Robinson.”

Walsall Advertiser 28/12/1907

“The monthly meeting of the Walsall and District Licensed Victuallers’ and Beer Retailers’ Friendly and Protection Society was held on Thursday week.

New Members..... Thomas Saddler, NEWPORT ARMS, Pleck Road.”

Walsall Advertiser 22/8/1908

“Walsall And District Air-Rifle League (Affiliated to the S.M.R.C.).

The above meeting took place on Tuesday last at headquarters (NEWPORT ARMS), Mr. J. Laker presiding. The Secretary (Mr. T. Sadler) gave his report, which stated that the season had been a most successful one and that the WALSALL ARMS had again won the League Championship, having shot 22 matches, won 18, lost 3, drawn 1, with an average of 271 (H.P. 300) per match.....”

Walsall Advertiser 26/9/1908

“Societies Of Miniature Rifle Clubs. Birmingham And District League.....

The beautiful trophy presented by the Walsall Advertiser for Miniature Rifle shooting is a fine specimen of art work, and can be seen at headquarters (NEWPORT ARMS). The trophy will shortly be presented to the winner for the season (Mr. T. Hykin).”

Walsall Advertiser 26/6/1909

“There was a large attendance of those interested in air-gun shooting at the CRITERION HOTEL, Stafford Street, on Monday evening, when the final shoot for the ‘Hospital’ and ‘R. A. Cooper’ Cups took place. With the formation of the Walsall Air-Gun League it was felt that through it some benefit could be conferred upon the Walsall Hospital, and eventually a handsome cup was offered for competition, and the proceeds derived from the meetings of the respective clubs given to the Hospital. So far £29 had been handed over to the treasurer of the institution by the Air-Gun Executive, which should be largely augmented this year. The final was between those old rivals, NEWPORT ARMS and WALSALL ARMS, and, as expected, the shooting was of a high-class order. In the end the cup went to the WALSALL ARMS team for the second time. It will be remembered that the WALSALL ARMS won the Cup outright but returned it to the Executive of the League, and it now forms the basis of an annual competition for the benefit of the Hospital.

Mr. F. J. Cotterell, chairman of the Hospital was in the chair, and supporting him were Mr. E. Hall (president), Mr. T. A. Sadler (honorary secretary), Mr. R. E. Ledbury, &c.”

1911 Census

153, Pleck Road – NEWPORT ARMS

- [1] Alfred Kendrick (33), manager, brewer, born Walsall;
- [2] Lucy Kendrick (31), wife, married 8 years, manager, born Walsall;
- [3] Edith Kendrick (4), daughter, born Walsall;
- [4] Ethel Kendrick (2), daughter, born Fazeley, Warwickshire;
- [5] Patience Mosedale (20), servant, born Walsall;
- [6] Gomer Kendrick (5 months), son, no birthplace given:

Lichfield Mercury 31/1/1913

“Albert Edward Day (19), court, Long Acre Street, was charged at Walsall on Monday with stealing a bicycle, valued at £7, belonging to Harry Holmes, Sun Street, Palfrey. It transpired that on Friday night prosecutor left his bicycle outside the NEWPORT ARMS INN, Pleck Road, and missed it a few minutes later.

On Saturday morning Pc. G. Bailey (Lichfield), whilst on duty in Bird Street, Lichfield, saw prisoner riding a bicycle, and noticed that he appeared very awkward, as if unaccustomed to cycling. The constable accordingly followed him into Walsall Road, where Day fell off the machine. He attempted to remount, but was unable to do so, and eventually ran off. Bailey chased and caught him, whereupon prisoner said a ‘pal’ at Walsall had lent him the bicycle. He was taken to the Police Station, and when subsequently charged with stealing the bicycle he replied that he ‘watched it for three hours before he pinched it.’ He, however, told Detective-sergeant Burrell (Walsall), who received him in custody, that he took the machine through a sudden temptation. Burrell now told the Bench that prisoner had been discharged from the Army as physically unfit, and had recent been out of employment. Mr. Orchard (probation officer) said that when in work prisoner had been the main support of his mother. Under the circumstances, the Bench placed the accused on probation for six months.”

Walsall Observer 21/11/1914

“The following is a list of box collections to date made on behalf of the Prince of Wales’ National Relief Fund (Walsall Branch).....

NEWPORT ARMS, Pleck Road, Walsall, 15s 2d.”

1939 Register

153, Pleck Road

- [1] Thomas H. Benton, date of birth 20/9/1873, licensed victualler, married;
- [2] Sarah A. Benton, dob 9/12/1876, licensed victualler, married;
- [3] Gertrude (Hayward) Huddleton, dob 11/3/1921, barmaid, single:

Walsall Observer 4/5/1940

“A fine of £10, with £2 9s 6d costs, was imposed, at Walsall Police Court, on a Darlaston licensee, Hugh Morrison (45), of the THREE HORSE SHOES, Bull Stake, Darlaston, who pleaded guilty to being in charge of a motor car whilst under the influence of drink to such an extent as to be incapable of proper control.

Police-constable Grundy told the Court that he and Police-constable Lee were called to the NEWPORT ARMS, Pleck Road, on the night of April 24, and outside saw a saloon car, the only occupant of which was defendant, who was at the driving wheel. The engine was running, but Police-constable Lee removed the ignition key. Getting out of the car at their request, accused had to hold on to the side to prevent himself falling down.

‘When I told defendant I considered he was under the influence of drink and should take him to the police station’ added Police-constable Grundy, he said, ‘I’ll take you down in my car,’ but I refused the offer.’

Dr. Baker (deputy police surgeon), who examined Morgan at the police station at 9.58 on the night in question, described the reasons that led him to certify defendant as being under the influence of drink.

On behalf of Morgan Mr. C. L. Hodgkinson told the magistrates that defendant lost his wife some time ago and became on bad terms with her family. April 24 was the anniversary of his wife’s death and he went to the NEWPORT ARMS to try and affect a reconciliation with the family. He was not successful and it was because he was not allowed to stay in the house that he went outside and was found in the car by the police.

In addition to the monetary penalty, the magistrates suspended the defendant’s driving license for twelve months.”

Walsall Observer 7/12/1940

“Walsall Licensed Victuallers’ Society.

Motor Ambulance Effort on behalf of Walsall and District branch of the British Red Cross Society.

First List of Subscriptions.....

NEWPORT ARMS, Pleck Road, £5 9s 0d.”

Walsall Observer 24/12/1942

“Walsall Licensed Victuallers’ Society. The Duke of Gloucester’s Red Cross Fund. List of Subscriptions.....

NEWPORT ARMS, Pleck Road. £3 0s 0d.”

Walsall Observer 15/1/1944

“Walsall Licensed Victuallers’ Society.

Appeal on Behalf of the Merchant Navy Fund, The Duke of Gloucester’s Red Cross Fund and the Aid to China Fund. List of Subscriptions.....

NEWPORT ARMS, Pleck Road. £2 3s 9d.”

Birmingham Daily Post 24/2/1945 - Advert

“By Direction of the Rt. Hon. the Earl of Bradford. Third Sale of Valuable Freehold Ground Rents.....
Nine Licensed Houses..... NEWPORT ARMS HOTEL, Pleck Road.”

Walsall Observer 7/7/1945

“The Pleck and District Darts league is headed by the FORGE INN ‘A’ who have won all their seven matches. The next three positions are filled by the NEWPORT ARMS, HOPE AND ANCHOR ‘A’ and ROYAL OAK, Caldmore, with 12 points each, then come the DUKE OF WELLINGTON and ROYAL OAK, Pleck. Highest score and highest finish, 146, J. Bullock, HOPE AND ANCHOR ‘B’; highest start, 140, S. Hogan, WINDMILL TAVERN.”

Henry George Edward Mason – see also DELVES, HORSE AND JOCKEY, LORD RAGLAN, and WOOLPACK.

Frederick Kitchener Wells – see also DELVES.

Dennis Gray – see also HORSE AND JOCKEY.

Walsall Observer 24/8/1962 - Advert

“Attention! all Mild drinkers.

Highgate Mild is now available in the following Butlers and Atkinsons houses.....
NEWPORT ARMS, Pleck Road, Walsall.”

George William Beeley – see also DOLPHIN.

Wilfred Rayond Morgan – see also ROYAL OAK.

It closed in July 1977.

NEW STATION

30, (85), (55), Park Street, Town End Bank, WALSALL

OWNERS

Samuel Meanley, Park Street, Walsall
William Cotterell, tailor, Park Street, Walsall
Showells Brewery Co. Ltd. [1890]
Atkinsons Ltd.

LICENSEES

Mrs. Mary Ann Wilkins [1872]
Thomas Russell [1872] – 1873);
Joseph Hayes (1873 – []
Thomas Miller [];
Ruben Willetts [];
Mrs. Mary A Willetts [];
John Shirley [] – 1880);
Aaron Frankham (1880 – [1881];
Samuel Whitehouse [1883];
Elizabeth Eagan [];
William Cullerne [];
George Bailey Cullerne [1886] – 1888);
Francis Job Zeller (1888 – 1889);
Richard Harper (1889 – 1890);
James Faulkner (1890);
William Holloway (1890 – 1891); manager
William Snook (1891);

Harry Wood (1891 – 1892);
Alfred Walters (1892 – 1895);
James Haynes (1895 – 1896);
Frederick Winkle (1896 – 1897);
Mrs. Mary Winkle (1897 – 1904);
William Slater (1904 – 1908);
Edgar Victor Booth (1908 – 1909);
John Harry Brown (1909 – 1911);
John Thomas Hawkins (1911 – 1912);
Joseph Berwick (1912 – 1913);
Joseph Kelly (1913 – 1914);
Alfred Edwards (1914);
George Frederick Hands (1914 – 1919);
John Mason (1919 – 1920);
Harry Hampton (1920 – 1921);
John McKenzie (1921 – 1926);
Harry Hill (1926 – 1927);
Arthur Henry Hill (1927 – 1929):

NOTES

85, Park Street [1873]
55, Park Street [1881]
30, Park Street [1891], [1901]

It was originally the CROSS KEYS.

It was renamed the STATION HOTEL.

NEW STATION HOTEL [1890], [1904], [1911]

Walsall Free Press 1/2/1873 - Advert

“Wanted, a General Servant; also a strong girl as Nurse.
Apply, CROSS KEYS, Park Street.”

Walsall Free Press 18/10/1873

“The license of the CROSS KEYS, Park Street, was transferred from Thomas Russell to Joseph Hayes. Mr. Hayes promised not to allow any betting in the house.”

The licensee was fined £5 and costs, on 20th February 1880, for permitting drunkenness, violent, quarrelsome and riotous conduct in his house.

The licensee was fined £5 and costs, on 3rd July 1880, for permitting drunkenness, violent, quarrelsome and riotous conduct in his house.

Lichfield Mercury 17/9/1880

“The adjourned annual licensing session took place on Friday, at the Guildhall.....

The license of the CROSS KEYS INN, Park Street, which was withheld from John Shirley, at the annual meeting was transferred from him to Aaron Frankham, on the application of Mr. Carter (from Mr. Cotterill’s offices).”

1881 Census

55, Park Street

- [1] Aaron Frankham (49), licensed victualler, born Walsall;
 - [2] Mary Frankham (29), wife, born Walsall;
 - [3] Eleanor Frankham (19), daughter, inn servant, born Cefnely, Radnorshire;
 - [4] Harrie Frankham (15), son, scholar, born Walsall;
 - [5] Clara Frankham (12), daughter, scholar, born Walsall;
 - [6] Collin G. Frankham (3), son, born Walsall;
 - [7] Alice York (20), general servant, born Dudley;
 - [8] Emma Morgan (19), barmaid, born Abbey Cwmlin, Radnorshire:
- [Mary was obviously not Aaron’s first wife.]

Aaron Frankham – check also STORES.

London Gazette 29/6/1883

“The Bankruptcy Act, 1869.

In the County Court of Staffordshire, holden at Walsall. In the Matter of Proceedings for Liquidation by Arrangement or Composition with Creditors, instituted by Samuel Whitehouse, of the CROSS KEYS INN, Park-street, Walsall, in the county of Stafford, and of No.2, Lower Rushall-street, Walsall aforesaid, Licensed Victualler, Newsagent, and Engine Fitter.

Notice is hereby given, that a First General Meeting of the creditors of the above-named person has been summoned to be held at the offices of Mr. T. H. Stanley, Solicitor, 4, Bridge-street, Walsall, in the said county of Stafford, on the 12th day of July, 1883, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon precisely.

Dated this 26th day of June, 1883.

T. Howard Stanley, Solicitor for the Debtor.”

Walsall Free Press 11/8/1883

“At Walsall County Court on Saturday, Mr. T. H. Stanley (Walsall) applied to Mr. Registrar Clarke to register a resolution in the matter of Samuel Whitehouse, CROSS KEYS INN, Park Street, Walsall. The application was opposed by Mr. Thompson (of the firm of Warmington and Thompson, Dudley), on the ground that there were no assets, and the resolution was for the good of the debtor and not the creditors. The application was refused.”

The Era 27/11/1886 - Advert

“Pianist and Vocalist Wanted, Lady or Gentleman, for Vaults.

Must be able to vamp.

To commence Dec. 6th, One Month.

Lowest Term to George Cullerne, NEW STATION HOTEL, Walsall.”

Birmingham Daily Post 27/11/1890

“At the Guildhall, a special session – the first under the new local Act – was held for the purpose of hearing applications for music, singing, and dancing licenses Mr. Jesse Herbert (instructed by Mr. Cotterell) applied for a license for music and singing at the NEW STATION HOTEL, Park Street, for Monday, Tuesday, Saturday, and Sunday evenings, the last-named being in respect of a Buffalo lodge meeting on that evening and using an American organ. The house, it transpired, belongs to Messrs. Showell, and is managed by Mr. W. Holloway. Granted for the club-room on alternate Monday evenings.”

1891 Census

30, Park Street – NEW STATION INN

[1] William Snook (30), innkeeper, born Shrewsbury;

[2] Ann Keeman (23), barmaid, born Boston, Lincolnshire;

[3] Phoebe Allen (20), general servant, born Walsall:

Walsall Advertiser 28/9/1895

“Midlands Counties Trade Federation. A special meeting of the Council of this Federation took place at the NEW STATION HOTEL, Walsall, On Wednesday night. . . .”

Walsall Advertiser 27/2/1897

“The following transfers were granted. . . .

NEW STATION HOTEL, Park Street, from Frederick Winkle (deceased) to Mary Winkle.”

1901 Census

30, Park Street – Public House

[1] Mary Winkle (49), widow, publican, born Willenhall;

[2] Sidney E. Winkle (16), son, chartered accountant's clerk, born Willenhall;

[3] Emma Marshall (32), barmaid, born Willenhall;

[4] Annie Neal (17), domestic servant, born Dudley Port:

Mary Winkle – see also WHEATSHEAF, Birmingham Road.

Walsall Advertiser 6/2/1904

“The annual licensing sessions for the Borough of Walsall were held on Thursday at the Guildhall, and aroused considerable interest. The court was crowded, and many license-holders were unable to obtain admission. . . .

Notice had been given to 76 license holders to show cause for the renewal of their licenses, evidently as a result of the visits of a sub-committee of magistrates to the licensed premises, the reasons why cause had to be shown being various. . . .

Mary Winkle, NEW STATION HOTEL.”

Walsall Advertiser 29/7/1906

“The monthly meeting of the Walsall and District Licensed Victuallers' and Beer Retailers' Friendly and Protection Society was held on Thursday week. . . .

New Member. W. Slater, NEW STATION HOTEL, Park Street.”

Walsall Advertiser 3/10/1908 - Advert

“YE OLDE WHITE HARTE, Caldmore.

William Slater (for some years of the NEW STATION HOTEL, Park Street), has taken over the above Ancient Rendezvous. Everything of the best.

Allsopp’s Stout, Allsopp’s Lager.

All the Noted Brands of Wines, Brandies and Whiskies.”

Walsall Observer 14/11/1908

“The monthly meeting of the Walsall and District Licensed Victuallers’ and Beer Retailers’ Friendly and Protection Society was held on Thursday last at the house of the President, MANOR ARMS INN, Daw End, Rushall. Mr. R. Anson, Daw End (president), occupied the chair.

New Members..... E. V. Booth, NEW STATION HOTEL, Park Street.”

Walsall Advertiser 26/6/1909

“Applications for transfer of licenses were heard in the Walsall Guildhall on Tuesday.

The bench unanimously granted a transfer of the license of the NEW STATION HOTEL, Park Street, from Edgar Victor Booth to John Harry Brown, the Chief Constable stating that Mr. Brown had held licenses in that town for a number of years.”

Edgar Victor Booth – see also GRAND THEATRE VAULTS.

Walsall Advertiser 26/2/1910

“The adjourned Licensing Sessions were held on Friday, when Sir Edward Holden presided.

Permission to make alterations to the NEW STATION HOTEL, Park Street, was asked by Mr. Grundy Newman, and the Bench adjourned the decision until they had inspected the premises.”

1911 Census

Park Street – NEW STATION HOTEL

[1] John Harry Brown (45), licensed victualler, born Walsall;

[2] Fanny Brown (46), wife, married 28 years, born Walsall;

[3] Frank Brown (24), son, taxi driver, born Walsall;

[4] Howard Brown (19), son, news agent, born Walsall;

[5] Herbert Brown (17), son, booking clerk, born Walsall;

[6] Claude Brown (14), son, born Walsall;

[7] Arthur Brown (11), son, born Walsall;

[8] Laura Price (23), domestic servant, born Walsall:

John Harry Brown – see also PRINCE, NEW INN, RED LION, THREE CUPS.

Walsall Advertiser 23/8/1913

“On Tuesday the Walsall and District Football league held a special meeting at the NEW STATION HOTEL, Walsall, Mr. J. T. Lippett presided.”

Walsall Advertiser 13/6/1914

“The following transfer of licenses were granted.

NEW STATION HOTEL, Park Street, from Henry Richard Page (executor of Joseph Kelly deceased), to Alfred Edwards.”

Birmingham Daily Gazette 29/12/1914

“An inquest was held at Walsall Guildhall yesterday by Mr. F. Cooper (Deputy Coroner) on Alfred Edwards, aged 38, a married man, of 28, Milton Street, Walsall. The deceased, until about a week ago, kept the NEW STATION HOTEL, Walsall. He had complained of pains in the stomach, and remained in bed Christmas Day.

John James, of Pleck Road, a friend, who visited the house on Christmas night, found him dead in bed. In evidence, he said that when deceased went to bed early on Christmas morning he had a sleeping draught, which witness fetched for him from Shelley’s chemist shop.

Dr. J. J. Lynch, who attended the deceased, stated that he was an alcoholic subject, and had dropsy and liver and kidney trouble. He regarded the case as hopeless at first. Death might have been accelerated by the sleeping draught, but the man’s condition was such that he might have died at any time without it.

Miss Shelley (daughter of Mr. E. Shelley, chemist) was called to prove having served the sleeping draught according to her father’s instructions by telephone. She was not informed as to the man’s condition, except that he was restless and could not sleep. She was told that he had been dangerously ill. Replying to a further question she said she did not put a label on the bottle.

In answer to Dr. Lynch, witness said she was aware that opium was a scheduled poison, but she was busy at the time she served it. Dr. Lynch also wanted to know whether the father was a qualified dispenser. Miss Shelley said her father kept a qualified dispenser on the premises.

Dr. Lynch said that under no circumstances should opium have been prescribed in this case, as it was incompatible with the man's disease. He was of opinion that the opium accelerated his death.

The case was adjourned to a date to be fixed, so that the Home Office might be communicated with respecting the desirability of an analysis of the contents of the stomach."

[In January 1915 a coroner's jury found that the deceased's death was due to syncope, and added a rider that every chemist's shop should have a qualified dispenser in charge of it.]

Birmingham Daily Gazette 30/11/1915

"A summons for permitting drunkenness against George Frederick Hands, of the NEW STATION HOTEL, Walsall, was dismissed by Walsall magistrates yesterday."

Harry Hill – see also WHITE HORSE.

It closed on 5th April 1929.

The license was surrendered and transferred to CROWN AND ANCHOR, West Bromwich Street.

Walsall Observer 5/10/1940

"Mr. John 'Jock' Mackenzie, of Wednesbury Road, a popular member of the Walsall football team twenty years ago, died with tragic suddenness yesterday morning. He had been on Home Guard duty at the gas works during the night, and appeared to be quite all right when he left his post about 6am. He walked home and entered the living room, but then apparently collapsed. Mrs. Mackenzie, who was in bed, heard a noise and called out but received no reply, and on coming downstairs she found her husband lying dead on the floor.

A native of Douglas, Lanarkshire, Mr. Mackenzie, who was aged 55, joined the Walsall Football Club in 1920, having previously played for Heart of Midlothian, Carlisle United, and Norwich City.

In the last war he served in Egypt with the R.G.A. When football was resumed he returned to Norwich and afterwards was signed by Walsall for what was to prove their last season in the Birmingham League. He was a sound fullback, and played many good games that season, but he was, of course, getting past his best and his career came to an end the following season, when he made only a few appearances for Walsall in the northern section of the Third Division.

On relinquishing the game Mr. Mackenzie became a licensed victualler, and held in turn the licenses of the NEW STATION, Park Street, the HOPE AND ANCHOR, Pleck, and the ROYAL EXCHANGE, Stafford Street. Then, about eight years ago, he joined the staff at the gas works, where he became very popular with his fellow employees and continued his sporting activities as a member of the bowling club. He is survived by Mrs. Mackenzie and one son (now serving with the Forces), with whom deep sympathy will be expressed in the bereavement which has so suddenly befallen them."

Walsall Observer 10/5/1941

"Well-known for many years as a licensee in Walsall and Birmingham, Mr. John Harry Brown died on Sunday at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Cronin, of the FOUNTAIN INN, Bott Lane, with whom he had resided since he retired about eight years ago. He was in his 79th year, and had been ill for about a month.

Eldest son of John Brown, a well-known Walsall cricketer, who for twelve years headed the town club's batting averages (and who had at times played with or against some of the most famous men of his time, including the Graces, Parr, Minn and Daft), the late Mr. Brown himself, like several of his brothers, took an active part in the game and assisted the town club.

He left the currying trade to take his first licensed house, the PRINCE BLUCHER, Stafford Street, and among other Walsall licenses he held were those of the NEW INNS and the CUPS HOTEL, Park Street. He had been at the latter before his retirement and it was while he was there that his wife died eleven years ago. He had been a member of both the Walsall and Birmingham licensed victuallers' societies. He leaves six sons and a daughter. The funeral took place at Ryecroft Cemetery on Thursday."

NOAHS ARK

Walsall Wood, WALSALL

OWNERS

LICENSEES

NOTES

Wolverhampton Chronicle 31/5/1848

"Yesterday (Tuesday) an inquest was held at the NOAHS ARK, Walsall Wood, in this parish, before T. M. Phillips, Esq, coroner, on the body of Ann Wood, about thirteen years of age, who, whilst riding upon a reel connected to a steam engine at Anson's colliery, in this parish, was thrown off against a pole, and thence to the ground. She was killed on the spot, a dreadful cut being found upon the side of the head.

The jury returned a verdict of Accidental Death.”

NOAHS ARK

The Meadows, WALSALL

OWNERS

LICENSEES

James Bodley [1871]

NOTES

It had a beerhouse license.

Walsall Free Press 5/11/1870 - Advert

“To Be Sold Cheap, a Strong One-Horse Cart.
Apply to James Bodley, NOAHS ARK.”

1871 Census

The Meadows – NOAHS ARK

- [1] James Bodley (39), publican, born Walsall;
- [2] Louisa Bodley (38), wife, born Pelsall;
- [3] William T. Bodley (9), son, scholar, born Walsall;
- [4] Hannah Bodley (7), daughter, born Walsall;

NORTH WESTERN

20, (21), Duncalfe Street, Wisemore, WALSALL

OWNERS

London and North Western Railway Co.
Wolverhampton and Dudley Breweries Ltd. (leased)

LICENSEES

John Beebee [1857] – [1870]

Thomas Russell [1871] – [1873]

John Russell [1875]

Richard Tomlinson [1881]

Stephen Wilson [];

William Lawrence [];

William Edward Banner [];

Alfred Yerrell [];

William Williams [] – 1887);

John Sargent (1887 – 1896);

Enoch Hodgkins (1896);

Ellen Hodgkins (1896 – 1898);

Henry Russell (1898 – 1899);

Ann Bradley (1899 – 1903);

Samuel Westwood (1903 – 1904);

Jane Westwood (1904 – 1905);
William Dixon (1905);
William Thomas Lowbridge (1905 – 1909);
Edwin Dawes [1909] ?

NOTES

21, Duncalfe Street [1871], [1909]
20, Duncalfe Street

It had an ante 1869 beerhouse license.

It was previously the RAILWAY TAVERN. [1869], [1871], [1875]

Bells Life in London and Sporting Chronicle 25/1/1857

“John Jones of Walsall will run Reuben Craddock of Arden 120 yards, for £5 or £10 a side, in one month from the first deposit. Money ready any night next week at Mr. John Beebee’s, the RAILWAY TAVERN, Duncalf Street. Walsall.”

Birmingham Journal 26/12/1857

“John Beebee, a Walsall publican, was charged at the Guildhall, on Monday, with assaulting Phoebe Beebee. The defendant did not appear; but his wife stated that he was confined to the house with a badly sprained knee. Mr. S. Wilkinson, jun., who appeared for the complainant, hinted a doubt as to the truth of the excuse. He said, too, that the evidence for the prosecution would in all likelihood disclose that card playing for money had been carried on to an enormous extent in the defendant’s house. A very gross assault had been committed upon his client, who was nearly related to the defendant, to whose house she had gone to bring home her husband, who was there, gambling away his means; and if the case was adjourned for any length of time, there was strong possibility that it might be made up, and the ends of justice thus frustrated. Mr. Wilkinson then offered to send a car for the defendant at his own expense. Police-sergeant Martin was accordingly despatched for the defendant with a vehicle, but returned, reporting that he refused to accompany him. The case was then adjourned till Wednesday, with the understanding that if Beebee does not then appear, the charge will be gone into in his absence. However, on Wednesday the parties did not appear.”

John Beebee, beerhouse keeper, 21, Duncalf Street. [1858]

1861 Census

20+21, Duncalf Street

- [1] John Beebee (49), chainmaker, born Walsall;
- [2] Sarah Beebee (49), wife, born Walsall;
- [3] John Beebee (19), son, chainmaker, born Walsall;
- [4] Susan Beebee (17), daughter, sticker, born Walsall;
- [5] Sarah Beebee (15), daughter, born Walsall;
- [6] William Beebee (10), son, born Walsall;
- [7] Frank Beebee (10), son, born Walsall:

Bells Life in London and Sporting Chronicle 10/11/1861

“John Beebey of Walsall will fight Crump of Stourbridge at catch weight, for £25 to £20 in two months from signing articles. Man and money ready any time next week at Mr. John Beebee’s, RAILWAY TAVERN, Duncalf Street, Walsall. Or if this won’t suit, Beebey will fight Fisher of Birmingham, if Fisher will stake £15 to £10. Man and money ready as above, and the Editor of Bells Life to be stakeholder.”

Bells Life in London and Sporting Chronicle 2/11/1862

“W. Colley of Walsall will fight A. Baggot of Darlaston at 9st 4lb or 6lb, or any man in Walsall on the same terms, for £10 a side. Money ready at J. Beeby’s, RAILWAY TAVERN, Duncalf Street, Walsall, or G. Holden’s, New Street, Walsall.”

John Beebee, beer retailer, 21, Duncalfe Street. [1864], [1868], [1870]

He was also a shopkeeper.
Check CURRIERS ARMS.

Walsall Free Press 4/9/1869

“Yesterday being the day appointed for granting beerhouse licenses the following magistrates were present: J. Hildick (Mayor), S. Stephens, F. B. Oerton, J. W. Newman, H. Brace, and J. Brewer, Esqs. There were 133 applications; and all except the following had their licenses granted.....

John Beebee, RAILWAY TAVERN, Duncalf Street, who had been convicted of permitting cock fighting in his house, and of obstructing the police.”

Walsall Free Press 18/9/1869

“This being the adjourned licensing day, those parties whose licenses had been either suspended or refused, again put in applications.....

Mr. Dale applied on behalf of Mr. John Beebee, landlord of the RAILWAY TAVERN beer-house, Duncalfe Street, whose license had been refused in consequence of his having been convicted of permitting cock-fighting, and also with having refused admission to the police. Mr. Dale said, although his client had been twice convicted, yet, in point of fact, both offences were one offence, as the one arose out of the other. His client was convicted of permitting cock-fighting, and with refusing to admit the police, and he thought it only right to inform their worships that the affair was no a premeditated one. The facts of the case were simply these. A cock-fight had been arranged to take place at another house; but the police, having got scent of the affair, the parties came to his client's house, and he, unfortunately, allowed them to fight the cocks in his house. While the fight was going on the police arrived, and, not being immediately admitted, the second charge arose; but, as their worships would see, both the offences took place at the same time, and were virtually one offence. He could assure them his client would be more careful in future; and, he would remind their worships, if they refused the application they would be taking his client's bread from him. Mr. Dale put in a certificate signed by a number of Mr. Beebee's neighbours. Application refused.”

1871 Census

21, Duncalfe Street – RAILWAY TAVERN

- [1] Thomas Russell (30), bit filer, born Walsall;
- [2] Sarah Russell (28), wife, born Walsall;
- [3] Thomas Russell (2), son, born Walsall;
- [4] Sarah A. Russell (11 months), daughter, born Walsall;
- [5] John Beebee (59), boarder, cart gear maker, born Walsall;
- [6] Sarah Beebee (59), boarder, born Walsall;
- [7] Francis Beebee (19), boarder, saddle tree maker, born Walsall:

Thomas Russell, beer retailer, Duncalf Street. [1872]

Staffordshire Advertiser 28/8/1875

“Walsall Annual Licensing Business.....

The cases of John Russell, the RAILWAY TAVERN, Duncalf Street were adjourned.”

1881 Census

21, Duncalfe Street

- [1] Richard Tomlinson (37), beer seller, born Stone;
 - [2] Fanny Tomlinson (37), wife, born Hopton, Staffordshire;
 - [3] Fanny E. Tomlinson (14), daughter, born Stafford;
 - [4] William R. Tomlinson (12), son, scholar, born Stafford;
 - [5] Alfred H. Tomlinson (4), son, scholar, born Manchester:
- [Hopton is about 3 miles ENE of Stafford.]

1891 Census

21, Duncalf Street – KINGS HEAD

[KINGS HEAD seems to have been added to the Census later.]

- [1] John Sargent (44), beerhouse keeper, born Walsall;
- [2] Eliza Sargent (42), wife, born Walsall;
- [3] Florence A. Sargent (21), daughter, mother's help, born Walsall;
- [4] Lily A. Sargent (14), daughter, scholar, born Walsall;
- [5] John H. Sargent (8), son, scholar, born Walsall;
- [6] Frank Sargent (5), son, scholar, born Walsall;
- [7] Alice M. Sargent (1), daughter, born Walsall:

Walsall Advertiser 16/9/1893

“Walsall Licensed Victuallers' Society. The monthly meeting of this society was held on Thursday.....

New Members..... Mr. John Sergeant, NORTH WESTERN INN, Duncalf Street, Walsall.”

Walsall Advertiser 10/2/1894

“Walsall Licensed Victuallers' Society. The monthly meeting of this society was held on Thursday at the house of Mr. Thomas Deakin, ELEPHANT AND CASTLE, Wolverhampton Street.....

Mr. John Sergeant, beerhouse keeper, of the NORTH WESTERN INN, Duncalf Street, Walsall, and Mr. Alfred Stockley, licensed victualler, of the FOUR HORSE SHOES INN, Wellington Street, The Pleck, were unanimously elected to fill vacancies on the committee.”

Walsall Advertiser 23/2/1895

“An inquest was held by Mr. Thomas Howard Stanley (Borough Coroner) on Monday afternoon, at the L&NW RAILWAY INN,

Duncalfe Street, touching the death of George Andrew Bird (1), son of John Bird, buckle roller, 13, Duncalfe Street, who died on Friday evening.

Agnes Bird, mother, identified the body, and deposed that about mid-day on Thursday morning week she placed a saucepan containing stew upon the fire, and continued her work. Deceased and another child were playing on the hearth, and after she had been at work for some few minutes she heard one of them cry, and on turning round she saw that George Andrew was scalded, and that though the saucepan still remained on the fire, part of the stew was on the floor. She could not tell how that had happened. One of the children might have touched the saucepan, or the coal might have given way, and over-balanced it. She immediately sent for Dr. Oliver, who advised removal to the hospital. This advice was not followed, as the father was not agreeable, linseed oil was put on the child's arm while at home. The father sent for Dr. Oliver the next morning, and he renewed the linseed oil dressing, but the child died the same evening. Deceased had not been insured. Witness believed the child had a fit previous to his collapse.

By a Juror: The child could reach the saucepan, because the grate was so low.

Dr. O'Meara said he attended deceased on Friday morning, and found him to be suffering from a very severe scald on the right arm extending almost from shoulder to wrist. There was also a slight scald upon the left shoulder. He dressed the wound with linseed oil and flannel. The child was in a low condition, and witness went to the house again just before six the same day, at which time the child was in a dying state. The cause of death was shock consequent to the scalds.

The jury returned a verdict of Accidental Death."

John Sargent, beer retailer, 21, Duncalfe Street. [1896]

Walsall Advertiser 15/4/1899 - Advert

"Monday Next, 17th April, 1899, At Eleven O'clock.

NORTH WESTERN INN, Duncalf Street, Walsall.

Unreserved Sale By Auction Of The Brewing Plant & Utensils, consisting of equal-to-new 160-gallon Copper Boiler, 5-gallon Iron Boiler and Settings, pair Cooling Vats on Stand, capital Copper Refrigerator with piping, Copper Refrigerator, 7-bushel Mash Tub, four ½ Tubs, 3 Barm Tubs with handles, excellent Circular Fermenting Vat with massive brass tap, eight 60-gallon Stock Casks, one 100-gallon Cask, two 18-gallon Casks, Underback, Wort Spout, Mash Rule Ladle, Tun Pail, Saccharometer, Thermometer, &c.

Walter Hughes is instructed by Mr. Henry Russell, who is leaving, to Sell by Auction, upon the premises as above.

On view two hours prior to sale.

No Catalogues.

Auction Offices, the Bridge, Walsall."

Walsall Advertiser 3/6/1899

"On Wednesday afternoon Mr. T. H. Stanley (borough coroner) held an inquest at the NORTH WESTERN INN, Duncalfe Street, respecting the death of Wm. Bradley, the landlord of the NORTH WESTERN INN, who died suddenly on Sunday.

Ann Bradley, wife of deceased, said her husband had been in delicate health for some time. On Sunday he went down the cellar with her to clean two of the beer pipes, and shortly afterwards went up to draw the beer through the pipes. As he did not draw any through witness called up to her daughter asking where her father was, and the girl replied that he was in the yard coughing. Witness ascended from the cellar, and found deceased in the yard vomiting blood. Deceased had a similar attack about eight months ago.

Dr. Lynch said he had attended deceased occasionally during the last eight years. About six or eight months ago deceased had an attack of blood-spitting, and witness then attended him. There was always a risk of the illness recurring if violent exercise were indulged in. Death was due to the bursting of a blood vessel in the lungs.

A verdict on accordance with the medical evidence was returned."

A team from here took part in the Walsall and District Air-Gun League. [1903/4]

Samuel Westwood, beer retailer, 21, Duncalfe Street. [1904]

Walsall Advertiser 6/2/1904

"The annual licensing sessions for the Borough of Walsall were held on Thursday at the Guildhall, and aroused considerable interest. The court was crowded, and many license-holders were unable to obtain admission.....

Notice had been given to 76 license holders to show cause for the renewal of their licenses, evidently as a result of the visits of a sub-committee of magistrates to the licensed premises, the reasons why cause had to be shown being various....

Samuel Westwood, NORTH WESTERN."

Walsall Advertiser 20/2/1904

"The annual licensing meeting for the borough of Walsall was continued on Tuesday, and occupied the whole day.....

The license of the NORTH WESTERN INN, Wisemore, held by Samuel Westwood, was the first case taken on the unfinished list of 78 objections.

Mr. J. F. Addison appeared for the licensee, and Mr. Donnollan appeared for the owners, the L&NW Railway Co.

For the defence it was contended that the license was ante'69, and Mr. Loxton (magistrates' clerk) said an important question arose as to whether the premises licensed in '69 were not different to the present premises.

It was shown in evidence that only a portion of the premises had been cut off by the railway company. Consideration deferred."

Walsall Advertiser 9/4/1904

“In connection with the recent Walsall Brewster Sessions, there were this week six appeals at the Staffordshire Quarter Sessions against the decisions of the borough magistrates in refusing the renewal of licenses.....

Samuel Westwood, tenant of the NORTH WESTERN INN, Walsall, appealed against the decision of the borough justices not to renew the license of the house. Mr. Plumptre and Mr. Hazel were for the appellant, and Mr. Disturnal for the justices.

Mr. Disturnal said the house existed before 1869, and the ground upon which the respondents relied was that the house was not of the value required by law, which in Walsall was £15 a year.

Mr. J. W. Hickton, architect and surveyor, Walsall, who was appointed to value the house by the justices, said the district in which the public house was situated was rather poor. He estimated that as an ordinary house it would let at £13 16s 4d a year.

For the appellant, Mr. Stannard, estate agent for the London and North-Western Railway Company, said the house belonged to the company, and was let on a quarterly tenancy to a brewery company for £20 a year. On the statutory basis he thought the house could be let at from 7s to 7s 6d a week. The house was not let at its full value, and he had advised that the rent should be increased.

Mr. Hughes, auctioneer, said that on the statutory basis he could let the house at 7s a week; and a similar opinion was expressed by Mr. Bewlay, surveyor, Birmingham.

After Mr. Plumptre had addressed the Court, Mr. Disturnal said it appeared to him that there was some inaccuracy in the figures, and he thought he ought not to contest the appeal any further.

The appeal was allowed.”

A team from here was to have taken part in the Walsall and District Air-Gun League. [1905]

The license renewal was refused on 3rd February 1909.

Walsall Advertiser 22/5/1909

“The Licensing Act, 1904.

Notice of Principal Meeting. County Borough of Walsall.

Notice is Hereby Given, that the Principal Meeting to be held pursuant to the Licensing Rules, 1904, by the Compensation Authority for the above area, will be held at the Guildhall, Walsall, on Tuesday, the 8th day of June, 1909, at 11 o’clock in the forenoon.....

List of Licensed Premises.....

The NORTH WESTERN, 21, Duncalf Street, Beerhouse. Licensee, Edwin Dawes.”

Walsall Advertiser 12/6/1909

“The principal meeting of the Walsall Compensation Authority was held at the Guildhall on Tuesday, when eight beer-houses and one ale-house, the licenses of which had been referred by the licensing justices, were dealt with, and in each instance the houses were referred for compensation, which means in due course the houses will close.....

The NORTHWESTERN, Duncalf Street. The owner of this beer-house are the L&NW. Railway Company, and the lessees Messrs. Wolverhampton and Dudley Brewery Company, and Edwin Dawes was the licensee. The rental was £30, and the tenant paid £20, being a quarterly tenant.

Dawes said he was tied for all bottle stuffs and malt.

Mr. Turner represented the parties concerned and offered no objection.

The Bench having heard each case separately retired to consider their decision. In returning, the Mayor intimated that the renewals authority report would be adopted, and all the houses referred for compensation.”

It closed in 1909.

OAK

336, (337), Green Lane, Townend Bank, WALSALL

OWNERS

Edward Paddock [1861]

Matthew Fox, grocer, Upper Rushall Street, Walsall

Thomas Toon

Mrs. Stanley [1904]

Highgate Walsall Brewery Co. Ltd. (acquired in 1904) [1939]

Mitchells and Butlers Ltd. (acquired in 1939)

Premier Midland Ales (acquired in 1990)

United Breweries

Admiral Taverns [2007]

LICENSEES

Edward Paddock [1855]
Thomas Humphries [1857]
Edward Paddock [1858] – [1865]
John Holden (1865 – [1870])
Edward Holden [] – 1869);
John Arblaster (1869 – []
Edwin Green [1872];
Mrs. Selina (Green) Taylor [];
Thomas Taylor [];
Thomas Owen [1881] ?
Thomas Toon [1880] – 1896);
Isaiah Lees (1896 – 1904);
William Challinor [1904] manager
James Parsons (1904 – 1906);
Frederick ‘Fred’ Marshall (1906 – 1913);
Isaiah Lees [1908] tenant
Lilian Marshall (1913 – 1919);
William Frederick Wood (1919 – 1934);
Ernest Wellings (1934 – 1946);
Eric Vaughan (1946 – 1952);
George Hugh O’Neill (1952 – 1954);
Harry Buttery (1954 – 1957);
James Laing (1957 – 1960);
William James Yates (1960);
Maurice Henry Woodward (1960 – 1961);
John Plimmer (1961 – 1962);
Eugene Derek Campbell (1962 – 1963);
Alan Robert Evans (1963 – 1964);
Robert Walter Hoar (1964 – 1965);
Patrick John Dunne (1965 – 1966);
Thomas William Goodhead (1966 – 1967);
Leslie Westwood (1967);
Barrie Wright (1967 – []
Andrew Burton* [1993]
Andy Button* [1994]
Alan Jones [2014]

NOTES

337, Green Lane [1861], [1870], [1872], [1881], [1891], [1901], [1909], [1912], [1939], [1940]
336, Green Lane [2005], [2007]

HEART OF OAK [1855], [1857], [1865], [1867]

It had a beerhouse license.

Birmingham Journal 26/5/1855

“John Whittyears, landlord of the SEVEN STARS, Dudley Street, was summoned on Monday before the Magistrates, on the charge of knowingly permitting gambling on his premises. Mr. Sill was retained for the defence. In the Journal of last week it was stated that three Irishmen, named McGuire, McCarthy, and O’Hara, had been convicted for causing a affray in the public streets. It was stated by them that the quarrel had originated through card playing at the house of defendant, and that of a beerhouse keeper named Paddock, in Green Lane. The Irishmen were called and distinctly testified to the gaming, with the knowledge of the landlady. A penalty of 20s and costs was then inflicted. In the case of Paddock, a similar fine was imposed.”

AND

“Mrs. Paddock, of the HEART OF OAK, Green Lane, requests us to state that there was no truth in the allegation that a party of Irish labourers played at cards in her house, as one of them told the Magistrates when brought up at the Public Office. He stated that her husband stood by at the time, but it can be proved that Mr. Paddock was from home during the whole day in question.”

Walsall Free Press 17/1/1857

“About eight o’clock on Tuesday morning it was discovered that a fire had broken out on the premises of Mr. Edward Paddock, retail-brewer, Green Lane. The fire was fortunately subdued before the engines arrived. Damages, however, to the amount of £3, had been sustained. It appears to have been caused by a spark flying, which ignited some clothes hanging near the fire to dry.”

Birmingham Journal 3/10/1857

“On Saturday last the workmen of Messrs. Brayford and Lancaster, Birchills Iron Works, were treated with a dinner at Mr. Thomas Humphries’ HEART OF OAK, Green Lane, as a reward for having worked during the races. The masters were present, and the usual toasts given.”

E. Paddock, beerhouse, 337, Green Lane. [1858]

Staffordshire Advertiser 4/9/1858

“Annual Licensing Day..... The following beerhouse keepers applied for victuallers’ licenses.....
Edward Paddock, Green Lane. Refused.”

Walsall Free Press 3/9/1859

“The Bench proceeded to the applications for the renewal of old, and the granting of new licenses.....
The application of Mr. Edward Paddock, beerhouse keeper, Green Lane, supported by Mr. Crump, was refused on the ground of it not being necessary to increase to increase the number of public-houses in that locality.”

Edward Paddock, beer retailer, 337, Green Lane. [1860], [1861]

Wolverhampton Chronicle 5/9/1860

“Wednesday last, being the annual licensing day, twenty applications were made by beer-house keepers for victualling licenses.....
Edward Paddock, Green Lane. Refused.”

1861 Census

337, Green Lane

- [1] Edward Paddock (61), bricklayer, born Harding for Wal ____ (?);
- [2] Sarah Paddock (56), wife, born Walsall;
- [3] Lucy Humphries (23) daughter, born Walsall;
- [4] Thomas Humphries (3), grandson, born Walsall;
- [5] John Paddock (23), son, journeyman bricklayer, born Walsall:

Edward Paddock, beer retailer and builder, 337, Green Lane. [1864], [1865]

Walsall Free Press 2/9/1865

“Licensing Day. There were 174 applications for the renewal of licenses, and 19 new applications.....
Edward Paddock, Green Lane applied personally for licenses, but their applications were refused.”

Bell’s Life in London and Sporting Chronicle 21/10/1865

“Mr. John Holden, in returning his grateful thanks to his numerous friends and the sporting public generally for the liberal patronage so kindly conferred for the last 15 years, begs most respectfully to inform them that he had removed from the TOWNS END TAVERN to the HEARTS OF OAK INN, Town’s End Bank, Walsall (a few doors above his late residence) at which place he respectfully solicits a continuance of past favours. Sparring, rattng, &c, still carried on as usual, for which his large and commodious room is well fitted up.”

Bells Life in London and Sporting Chronicle 3/8/1867

“Young Skeyte of Walsall, hearing that Munro is not satisfied with his late defeat, will make another match to fight on the same conditions – namely, at catch weight, for £25 or £50 a side; to fight in the midlands district. A deposit sent to Bell’s Life (stakeholder), and articles to Skeyte, at Mr. J. Holden’s, HEARTS OF OAK INN, Walsall, will meet with prompt attention.”

AND

“T. Whitehouse (alias Heenan) of Walsall will fight J. Beebee at catch weight, for £10. A deposit sent to Bell’s Life (stakeholder), and articles to Heenan, at Mr. J. Holden’s, HEARTS OF OAK INN, Green Lane, will meet with prompt attention.”

John Holden, beer retailer, 337 Green Lane. [1868], [1870]

Walsall Free Press 12/2/1870 - Advert

“To Be Let, the HEART OF OAK, Green Lane. Doing a good Trade. Fixtures to be taken at a valuation. Satisfactory reasons given for leaving.
Apply on the Premises.”

Mrs. Selina Green (37), widow, married Thomas Taylor (36), widower, chain maker, on 11th June 1874.

Lichfield Mercury 3/9/1880

“The usual licensing session took place at the Guildhall, Walsall, on Friday.....

Thomas Toon, the OAK INN beerhouse, Green Lane, applied for a license to sell wines Granted.”

A wine license was granted pre 1881.

1881 Census

337, Green Lane

- [1] Thomas Toon (39), case hame maker, beerhouse keeper, born Atherstone, Warwickshire;
- [2] Elizabeth Toon (37), wife, born Walsall;
- [3] Maria Toon (20), daughter, born Walsall;
- [4] Elizabeth Toon (17), daughter, born Walsall;
- [5] Frances Toon (13), daughter, scholar, born Walsall;
- [6] Job Toon (10), son, scholar, born Walsall;
- [7] Sarah Toon (8), daughter, scholar, born Walsall;
- [8] Rosa Toon (6), daughter, scholar, born Walsall;
- [9] Sidney Toon (5), son, scholar, born Walsall;
- [10] Louisa Toon (4), daughter, scholar, born Walsall;
- [11] Thomas Toon (3), son, scholar, born Walsall;
- [12] Frederic Toon (2), son, born Walsall;
- [13] John Toon (6 months), son, born Walsall;
- [14] Mary Lennard (17), domestic servant, born Walsall:

In 1884 the premises were enlarged, by the consent of the Justices, who visited the house on 29th September 1884.

Birmingham Daily Post 11/6/1887

“Yesterday morning, as Job Toon, son of the keeper of the OAK INN, Green Lane, was engaged in brewing at his father’s house, he slipped and fell into a vat of boiling liquor. He was rescued, and taken as speedily as possible to the Cottage Hospital, where his injuries were found to be of so serious a character as to place his life in jeopardy.”

Walsall Advertiser 17/1/1891

“Political. Conservative.....

On Monday next a meeting to elect a committee and officers for Birchills Ward will be held at Mr. Toon’s, the ROYAL OAK, Green Lane, when Mr. S. B. Wheway will occupy the chair.....”

1891 Census

337, Green Lane – ROYAL OAK INN

- [1] Thomas Toon (49), hame and chain manufacturer, born Hatherton, Warwickshire;
- [2] Elizabeth Toon (48), wife, born Walsall;
- [3] Sarah Toon (20), daughter, born Walsall;
- [4] Rose Toon (17), daughter, dressmaker, born Walsall;
- [5] Sidney Toon (16), son, hame and chain manufacturer, born Walsall;
- [6] Louisa Toon (14), daughter, scholar, born Walsall;
- [7] Thomas Toon (13), son, scholar, born Walsall;
- [8] Frederick Toon (11), son, scholar, born Walsall;
- [9] Edward Toon (9), son, scholar, born Walsall;
- [10] Louisa Hill (21), domestic servant, born Walsall:

Thomas Toon, beer retailer and hame maker, 337, Green Lane. [1896], [1904] ??

1901 Census

337, Green Lane

- [1] Isaiah Lees (35), licensed victualler, born Walsall;
- [2] Sarah Lees (30), wife, born Walsall;
- [3] Sidney Lees (4), son, born Walsall;
- [4] Myra Z. Lees (5 months), daughter, born Walsall;
- [5] Annie Brien (20), general servant, born Bloxwich:

Walsall Advertiser 3/1/1903

“A friendly football match took place on the MALT SHOVEL ground on Monday, between Mr. Lees’ team, from the OAK INN, Green Lane, and Mr. T. Whittaker’s team, DUKE OF YORK INN, Dudley Street, for the benefit of Charles Eadis, a collar maker, who had been ill for the past twelve months. Mr. Lees’ team won by 2-1 after a most enjoyable encounter, and the handsome sum of about £16 was realised for the beneficiare.”

Staffordshire Advertiser 28/3/1903

“Albert William Broster, landlord of the IRISH HARP INN, was charged with causing the death of Thomas Smith, Green Lane, on the 12th inst. Mr. Addison defended. The evidence that was given at the inquest last week was repeated, and was that on the 12th inst, the prisoner and deceased were in the OAK INN and were ‘haggling’ about a pony. Afterwards the prisoner caught the deceased by the wrist, and they went out into the yard, where they wrestled together and the deceased was thrown heavily on the bricks. He went to work the next day, but on the 14th he was seized with fits, and his arm swelled so that he was ordered to the hospital, where he died on the 17th inst, from acute blood-poisoning. The medical evidence was that there were some scratches on the deceased’s elbow, but the arm was in such a very dirty and greasy state and it was impossible to tell how the scratches were caused.

The bench, after a short consultation, dismissed the charge, but the accused still stands committed on the Coroner’s warrant.”
[Thomas Smith was employed as a carter by Isaiah Lees, landlord of the OAK INN, Green Lane.]

A team from here took part in the Walsall and District Air-Gun League. [1903/4]

Isaiah Lees – see also ROYAL OAK, Lord Street.

Walsall Advertiser 6/2/1904

“The annual licensing sessions for the Borough of Walsall were held on Thursday at the Guildhall, and aroused considerable interest. The court was crowded, and many license-holders were unable to obtain admission.....

Notice had been given to 76 license holders to show cause for the renewal of their licenses, evidently as a result of the visits of a sub-committee of magistrates to the licensed premises, the reasons why cause had to be shown being various....

The OAK, Green Lane. Isaiah Lees, tenant of this house, was questioned as to its conveniences, one of which was approached from the smoke-room. Mr. Walford was for the owners, and Mr. Jackson for the licensee. Mr. Walford promising to have done what improvements were required, the license was renewed.”

Walsall Advertiser 5/3/1904

“The adjourned annual brewster session were held on Tuesday.....

Mr. S. Grundy-Newman and Mrs. F. Bill appeared in the case of the STORES INN, and Holden [see CROWN AND MALT SHOVEL] was called to prove that this also was an ante-’69 license. He said he used to live in Peal Street, and the STORES was the same then as now. A man named Frankham kept it, and he (witness) had often had a drink there.

Mr. Armstrong (solicitor) thought that Holden might also be asked if he remembered the OLD OAK in Blue Lane – whether that was not an ante-’69 license?

Mr. Loxton: George, do you remember the OLD OAK? – Witness: Why, my uncle kept that over fifty years ago (laughter).

Mr. Loxton: I should think Mr. Loxton will give you a fee (laughter).”

The license renewal was refused in 1904, on the grounds of it being in poor repair.

It was renewed.

Walsall Advertiser 6/8/1904

“Walsall Air-Gun League.

The first annual meeting of the above was held at the CRITERION, Stafford Street, on Wednesday evening. Mr. H. Smallwood presided, and there was also present Messrs. Hicken (EAGLE), G. Smith (OLD KINGS ARMS), Powell (TANNERS ARMS), E. James (PLUMBERS ARMS), McDonald (CRITERION), Cliffe (GOLDEN EAGLE), Hunt, E. Towe (treasurer), and Mason (secretary).....

The undermentioned clubs with power to add to their number, were elected to the League for the forthcoming season: The WHITE HART (Walhouse Street), TANNERS ARMS, OLD KINGS ARMS, EAGLE, PLUMBERS ARMS, CRITERION, GOLDEN EAGLE, LEATHER CUTTERS ARMS, OAK, and DUKE OF YORK.

There was no other business of public interest.”

Walsall Advertiser 4/7/1908

“The monthly meeting of the Walsall and District Licensed Victuallers’ and Beer Retailers’ Friendly and Protection Society was held on Thursday week....

New Members..... Frederick Marshall, OAK INN, Green Lane.”

Frederick Marshall, beer retailer, 337, Green Lane. [1912]

Walsall Advertiser 28/6/1913

“A well-known local licensed victualler passed away at his residence, the OAK INN, Green Lane, on Tuesday night in the person of Mr. Frederick Marshall. Deceased who was only 33 years of age, succumbed to a long and painful illness. He leaves a widow and four children to mourn his loss. Mr. Marshall was the second son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Marshall, of the PRINCE OF WALES, Queen Street, and has been closely associated with the Walsall Licensed Victuallers’ Association for some considerable time. He had always given a helping hand in needy cases, and was greatly respected in the licensed trade. The funeral took place at Ryecroft Cemetery yesterday (Friday) and among the numerous wreaths received were those from the Walsall Licensed Victuallers' and the Highgate Brewery Company.”

Walsall Advertiser 2/8/1913

“The late Mr. Fred Marshall, of the OAK INN, Green Lane, Walsall, has left an estate valued at £1,448 gross.”

Walsall Advertiser 18/10/1913

“On Thursday morning the death occurred of a highly-respected resident in the person of Mr. Thomas Toon, of ‘Ivydene’, Lichfield Street, Walsall, a former licensed victualler, who passed away at the age of 73. The late Mr. Toon lived for practically the whole of his life in the borough, and about forty years ago he took charge of the OAK INN, Green Lane, a charge which he relinquished fourteen or fifteen years ago. During his occupancy of the OAK INN he carried on successfully the business of hame and chain manufacturer associated with the house. For forty odd years he had been a much respected member of the Walsall Licensed Victuallers’ Association, and though, being of a retiring disposition, he did not occupy prominent office, he rendered yeoman service on the committee. Married fifty-three years ago, the deceased gentleman leaves a widow and six children, four daughters and two sons. Both as host at the OAK INN, and later in private life, he made a large number of friends, who sincerely regret his demise, and the members of the bereaved family will be the recipients of general sympathy. The funeral will take place on Monday at Ryecroft Cemetery.”

Walsall Observer 21/11/1914

“The following is a list of box collections to date made on behalf of the Prince of Wales’ National Relief Fund (Walsall Branch).....

OAK, Green Lane, Walsall, 5s 2½d.”

Walsall Observer 12/1/1918

“Walsall and District War Aid Committee. Collection By The Licensed Victuallers, December, 1917.....

OAK INN, Green Lane. £2 4s 7d.”

William Wood was the manager in 1919.

He was the tenant in 1925.

It was referred to the Compensation Authority in 1933.

The license was renewed.

Walsall Observer 29/7/1939

“More than fifty licensed premises in Walsall and neighbouring place become Mitchells and Butlers houses this week as a result of the well-known Cape Hill brewery company’s acquisition of the whole of the undertakings of the Highgate-Walsall Brewery Co. Ltd., and the Walsall Breweries Proprietary Ltd., and of all the licensed and certain un-licensed properties of Messrs. John Lord, brewers, of Short Acre.....

A list of the licensed premises that form part of the properties acquired by Mitchells and Butlers is as follows.....

Highgate houses.....

OAK INN, Green Lane.”

1939 Register

337, Green Lane (2 of 3)

[1] Ernest Wellings, date of birth 3/12/1892, public house manager, married;

[2] Agnes R. Wellings, dob 6/11/1892, unpaid domestic duties, married;

Walsall Observer 7/12/1940

“Walsall Licensed Victuallers’ Society.

Motor Ambulance Effort on behalf of Walsall and District branch of the British Red Cross Society.

First List of Subscriptions.....

OAK INN, Green Lane, £2 5s 0d.”

Walsall Observer 28/6/1941

“Walsall Magical Society. Next meeting will be held Wednesday, July 2nd, at 8pm, the OAK INN, Green Lane, Walsall.”

Walsall Observer 15/1/1944

“Walsall Licensed Victuallers’ Society.

Appeal on Behalf of the Merchant Navy Fund, The Duke of Gloucester’s Red Cross Fund and the Aid to China Fund. List of Subscriptions.....

OAK INN, Green Lane. £1 11s 10d.”

Walsall Observer 10/2/1945 - Marriages

“On Feb 6, 1945, at St. Paul’s Church, Walsall, by the Rev. K. A. Saunders, Pte Enrico Musatti (U.S. Army), to Doris May (W.R.N.S.), eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. Wellings, OAK INN, Green Lane, Walsall.”

A full license was confirmed on 6th May 1948.

*probably the same person

Sandwell Evening Mail 11/6/1994

“Down Your Local. OAK, Walsall.

Running the OAK in Green Lane is a family affair. Behind the bar is daughter Louise Button; in the cellar can be found dad Andy – and in the kitchen is mum Sally. And let’s not forget the family pet Boxers, all eleven of them! Between them, the Buttons keep customers satisfied at this popular town-centre pub.....

The OAK was a Mitchells and Butlers pub until 1989. It closed for a couple of months for refurbishment before being re-opened by Premier Brewery selling mainly Wiltshire and Pitfield ales. It’s now part of United Breweries of Calcutta following a series of corporate changes of identity.....

Price of a Pint: Stonehenge bitter £1.28; Pitfield mild £1.52; McEwans lager £1.44; Becks lager £1.74.

Food: Sausage, egg and chips £1.40; Steak and kidney pie and chips £1.80; Scampi, chips and salad £2.60.

Parking: 15-space car park at side.

Transport: Buses to Walsall town centre.

Opening Hours: Noon to 2.30pm and 7pm to 11pm (Monday to Friday); noon to 3pm and 7pm to 11pm (Saturday); 7pm to 10.30pm (Sunday).”

Closed

It reopened in 2008 after months of closure.

Alan Jones had served in the army in the Falklands conflict in 1982.

He was given a 12 month prison sentence, suspended for 2 years, a 12 month supervision order, and fined £535, for the production of a class B drug, in November 2015.

[2017]

O’CONNELL

Freer Street, WALSALL

OWNERS

LICENSEES

NOTES

Staffordshire Advertiser 27/3/1841 - Advert

“Valuable Freehold Property, in Freer Street, Walsall.

To Be Sold By Auction, by T. Franklin, at the STORK TAVERN, Bridge Street, Walsall on Monday, the 5th day of April next, subject to conditions to be produced, in one lot.

All that well-built Freehold Public House, called the O’CONNELL, situate in Freer Street, Walsall, with an entire spacious yard, brewhouse, extensive pig sheds, stabling, cow-houses, and other out-offices.

The above mentioned property is well and eligibly situated, being opposite the Pig market, and contains ample room and conveniences for carrying on an extensive and lucrative business.

Further particulars may be had at the office of J. Forster, Esq, or of the Auctioneer, Walsall.”

[This was repeated in January 1842.]

ODDFELLOWS ARMS

1, Townend Bank (1, Stafford Street) / Park Street, WALSALL

OWNERS

William Edwards, blacksmith, Blue Lane, Walsall

LICENSEES

Omer Stokes [1849] – 1851)

Mrs. Susan Bird [1860] – [1861]

Richard Pagett [1862]

S Machin [1864] – [1865]

George Holden Jr. [1868] – [1880]

NOTES

Town End Bank, Stafford Street [1860], [1865]

1, Stafford Street [1871]

It was originally the FARRIERS ARMS.

Omer Stokes = Omar Stokes = Homer Stokes

Omer Stokes was also a bridle cutter. [1849], [1850], [1851]

Wolverhampton Chronicle 21/3/1849

“Staffordshire Assizes.

John Neary and Anthony Ware (on bail) were indicted of cutting and wounding Joseph Scott, a police officer, on the 4th of December, at Walsall, with intent to murder him. The indictment contained three counts, varying the charge.

It appeared from the evidence of the part of the prosecutor, that about one o'clock in the morning of the 4th of December last, the prosecutor, in the discharge of his duty, called at the FARRIER'S ARMS, Walsall, where there were a number of Irishmen. After requesting them to go home, the prisoner Neary became very violent, and threatened prosecutor, who, seeing there was likely to be a disturbance, went to the police station for assistance. As he returned with some constables, part of whom walked on one side of the street and the prosecutor on the other, the latter met the prisoner and nine or ten other men. As soon as he had passed them, Neary said, 'That's Scott', to which he replied, 'Good night Jack; go home, there are good lads.' Neary then seized hold of the prosecutor, assisted by others, and threw him down, when the other officers crossed the road to his assistance, one of them (Reay) was immediately attacked by Neary, who pulled his staff so violently from his hand as to break the string by which it was attached to his wrist, and then struck the prosecutor violently across the head with it, making him fall upon his knees. Whilst the prisoners were fighting with the officers Reay and Smith, the prosecutor again got up, when Neary struck him again, but he warded the blow from his head with his cutlass, the violence of the blow against which cut off part of the staff. At the time Ware urged Neary to murder the ——; when the prosecutor gave Neary a blow on the side of the head with his cutlass, and the whole of them ran away, but were pursued and apprehended by the officers, Neary having at the time the staff, with blood on it from the prosecutor's head and face, which were cut in a frightful manner. The whole of the evidence was corroborated by Reay, Smith, and partly by serjeant Welch; and person named Yates stated that when he was conveying Neary to gaol in April last year, for an assault, the prisoner said, 'Two months will not be long, and when I come back I will make Scott's head bounce.'

Mr. George Hughes Whipper, surgeon, who examined Scott, stated that he found several lacerated wounds upon his forehead, and several bruises upon his body. He was afraid of inflammation ensuing from the severity of the blow. (By Mr. Vaughan – He examined the prisoner Neary; they were both badly wounded. Neary's was an incised wound.)

Mr. Vaughan then addressed the jury on behalf of the prisoners, and after his lordship had summed up, the jury returned a verdict of guilty on the third count – intent to maim – when Neary was sentenced to be transported for the term of ten years; and Ware to be imprisoned for six months.”

It was renamed ODDFELLOWS ARMS.

Staffordshire Advertiser 29/3/1851 - Died

“On Monday last, aged 42, Mr. Omer Stokes, of the ODD FELLOWS ARMS, Park Street, Walsall.”

Walsall Free Press 4/9/1869

“Walsall. Annual Licensing Day.

The following parties had their licences refused.....

George Holden, jun., landlord of the ODD FELLOWS ARMS, Townsend Bank were refused their licenses in consequence of having brothels in the houses adjoining their premises.”

Walsall Free Press 18/9/1869

“This being the adjourned licensing day, those parties whose licenses had been either suspended or refused, again put in applications.....

Mr. Glover appeared on behalf of Mr. George Holden, jun., landlord of the ODD FELLOWS ARMS, Townend Bank. Mr. Glover said he believed the ground upon which his client's application had been refused was that behind his house were some houses of a disorderly character; but he could assure them that with the exception of having collected the rents, Mr. Holden had no connection with those houses, which are some 60 yards away from his house, and do not belong to the same landlord.

In reply to Mr. Cater, Mr. Glover said his client at one time had lent some money upon the houses in question; but that money had been repaid, and consequently Mr. Holden had no connection with those houses.

Mr. Cater said he was very glad to hear Mr. Glover make the explanation he had made, as it was only right the Bench should be in possession of the whole of the facts.

Mr. Glover then reminded the Bench that his client had kept the house 2½ years without the slightest complaint having been made against him.

Application granted."

1871 Census

1, Stafford Street – ODDFELLOWS ARMS

[1] George Holden (29), licensed victualler, born Walsall;

[2] C. Holden (28), wife, born Walsall;

[3] George Holden (5), son, born Walsall;

[4] Florence Holden (5 months), daughter, born Walsall;

[5] Alice Stanton (15), general servant, born Walsall:

Midland Counties Evening Express 1/2/1875

"George Holden, of the ODDFELLOWS ARMS, Stafford Street, was summoned for allowing liquor to be consumed on his premises after 11 o'clock on the 26th January fined £5 and costs."

London Gazette 26/10/1875

"The Bankruptcy Act, 1869. In the County Court of Staffordshire, holden at Walsall.

In the Matter of Proceedings for Liquidation by Arrangement or Composition with Creditors, instituted by George Holden the younger, of the ODD FELLOWS ARMS, Towns End Bank, Walsall, in the county of Stafford, Licensed Victualler.

Notice is hereby given, that a First General Meeting of the creditors of the above-named person has been summoned to be held at the offices of Mr. John Glover, No.66, Park-street, Walsall, in the county of Stafford, on the 5th day of November, 1875, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon precisely.

Dated this 21st day of October, 1875.

John Glover, No.66, Park-street, Walsall aforesaid, Attorney for the said Debtor."

Staffordshire Advertiser 20/2/1875 - Advert

"Defensio, Non Provocatio. Caution.

The Licensed Victuallers' Tea Association, Southwark Street, Borough, London.

This association, having prosecuted and convicted a Grocer, at Bradford, at the Leeds Assizes, under the Merchandize Marks Act, 1862, and also prosecuted a man at Chester Assizes, who was sentenced to six months' imprisonment for fraudulently counterfeiting and imitating their Trade Mark, and having obtained a decree for a perpetual injunction against a Tea Company (Limited), restricting the said Company from selling or exposing for sale Tea packed in covers or wrappers made in imitation of those used by the Licensed Victuallers' Tea Association, or not materially differing therefrom, or in any cover or wrappers which by their shape, size, colour, labels, writings, figures, inscriptions, trade mark, or general character should make it appear that the packets sold or exposed for sale were those of the Licensed Victuallers' Tea Association, and which decree on appeal was confirmed by the Lord Chancellor, notice is hereby given that all persons Counterfeiting or Imitating the Trade Mark of the Licensed Victuallers' Tea Association will be forthwith Proceeded Against; and Licensed Victuallers, Grocers, Bakers, Confectioners and others are hereby warned from selling or exposing for sale Tea packed in covers or wrappers made in imitation of those used by said Association.

Thompson and Son, 60, Cornhill, Solicitors for the Licensed Victuallers' Tea Association.

Agents For Staffordshire.....

Walsall: S. Tonks, ROYAL OAK INN, 28, Ablewell Street; F. Weston, BRITISH OAK INN, Lichfield Street; G. Holden, ODD FELLOWS ARMS, 1, Stafford Street; G. Smith, WHITE HORSE INN, Park Street; J. Whittall, THREE CUPS INN, Park Street; J. H. Newell, ROYAL OAK Brewery, Pleck."

Closed

It was demolished c.1880.

Staffordshire Advertiser 11/2/1882

"Walsall Town Council.

Report of the General Purposes Committee.....

On the motion of Alderman Brewer, seconded by Councillor Kirkpatrick, it was further resolved, on the recommendation of the same committee, 'That the Council allow the licenses of the five alehouses, viz, the ODD FELLOWS ARMS, the ROYAL GEORGE, the SPREAD EAGLE, the GEORGE AND DRAGON, and the WATERLOO TAVERN, and the beerhouse, the BOAT INN, purchased for the purposes of the Artisans' Dwelling Scheme, to lapse, it being considered that there is in the neighbourhood an ample number of licensed houses to meet the requirements of the district.' This was unanimously agreed to."

OLD ANCHOR

Rushall Street, WALSALL

OWNERS

LICENSEES

Thomas Male [1818]

NOTES

Thomas Male was also a brush maker. [1818]

OLD BOOT

Walsall Road / Boatmans Lane, Walsall Wood, WALSALL

OWNERS

Rock and Saunders [1856]
William Roberts, Station Brewery, Brownhills [1893]
William Butler and Co. Ltd.

LICENSEES

Thomas Bates [1823] – 1829)
Mrs. Mary Rock [1849]
Isaiah Saunders [1856]
Stokes and Davis [1858]
Solomon Whitehouse [1860] – 1861);
Aaron Stokes (1861 – []
Robert Batkin [1863] – [1868]
Thomas Thacker [] – 1870);
William Brown (1870 – []
David Ward [1882]
Henry Bateman [1891] – 1893);
John Penton (1893 – 1897);
Henry Bateman (1897 – [1912]
John Brown (1922 – []
Percy Jacques [1927] – [1932]
William Lowe [1938]
Alfred Charles Mason [1939]

NOTES

OLD BOAT [1861], [1864], [1865]
BOAT [1856], [1870], [1899]
BOOT [1823], [1829], [1849], [1860], [1861], [1863], [1870], [1895], [1897], [1899], [1900], [1901], [1906], [1908], [1921], [1927], [1938], [1939], [1940]

Staffordshire Advertiser 11/10/1823

“On Tuesday afternoon last, Thomas Bates, a young man only 18 years of age, son of Mr. Bates, of the BOOT INN, Walsall

Wood, near Lichfield, on going into his father's field, suddenly fell down and almost immediately expired. He had previously eaten a very hearty dinner, and appeared in perfect health."

Birmingham Journal 24/1/1829 - Deaths

"On Monday, the 12th instant, Mr. Thomas Bates, of the BOOT public-house, Walsall Wood, in the foreign of Walsall, aged 85."

1851 Census

Turnpike Road, Walsall Wood

[1] Thomas Rock (47), unmarried, farmer of 28 acres employing 1 man, born Walsall Wood;

[2] Isaiah Sanders (23), partner with the above, born Walsall Wood;

[3] Mary Rock (77), mother, retired victualler, born Walsall Wood:

Staffordshire Sentinel 20/9/1856

"Wednesbury. At the police-court on Tuesday, Mr. Isaiah Saunders, of the OLD BOOT INN, Walsall Wood, was brought up in custody before James Bagnall and Edward Elwell, jun., Esqs, on the charge of uttering certain forged receipts with intention to defraud.

Mr. Bayley appeared to prosecute, and was about stating his case, when he was interrupted by Mr. Sill, from the offices of Messrs. Duignan and Hemmant, who, retained by the prisoner, objected that as Mr. Bayley, he understood, was to give evidence in the case, he could not combine the characters of advocate and witness.

The bench held the objection to be valid, and Mr. Bayley was then sworn. He deposed, as attorney for Mr. Thomas Styring, wine and spirit merchant, of Huddersfield. I attended the prisoner at my office, respecting an arrangement as to withdrawing the bailiffs under a bill of sale. I had been concerned as attorney for the prosecutor, preparing, executing, and putting into force a bill of sale for £63, which is now in the hands of the bailiffs. An offer had been made by Mr. Stryring to withdraw the bailiffs, at the request of the prisoner, if he would pay £50 and the expenses, or £25, and find security for the remaining £25. On Tuesday, the prisoner handed me the three receipts purporting to be for the respective amounts of £22, £5, and £15, and which were signed 'G. Atkinson, for Thomas Styring.' The prisoner said he had no credit given him for these amounts, and that he owed nothing like £63 to Mr. Styring. This interview took place in the presence of a friend of the prisoner's named, I believe, Proffitt. I told the prisoner that he had signed the bill of sale for £63, and that I would send for Mr. Atkinson, Mr. Styring's agent, who had instructed me in the matter. Mr. Atkinson was sent, for and came. I asked him in the presence of the prisoner whether he had received, or given receipts for, the three sums named, and he replied that he had not. He denied having received the respective sums of £22 and £15. I then said, it is a very serious matter; either there is a case of embezzlement against Mr. Atkinson or of forgery against you (the prisoner). I further said, it is my impression that it is a forgery, and that I thought the date had been altered – that the figure two in the twenty-two had been altered from a one, that is the sum of £12 had been changed to £22. Mr. Atkinson admitted having received the several sums of £5, £5, and £12. I then said I felt it to be my duty to detain the receipts, which were written on the back of an invoice, and that it was a question whether I should not advise the prisoner be given into custody. I showed the paper to his friend (Proffitt) and the prisoner made a grasp, and tried to take it, but I retained, and have kept it in my possession ever since.

Mr. Dawes, an auctioneer, came into the room and I now apply for a remand, in order to obtain his evidence.

By Mr. Sill: I want Mr. Dawes to state his observations to the prisoner, and reply to the latter. I also apply for a remand to obtain evidence from Mr. Proffitt, or Pitt (Mr. Henry Pitt, who was in Court, the witness believed to be the friend of the prisoner, whom he had previously called Proffitt, but Mr. Bayley would not positively identify him) I wasn't to go to Walsall Wood for more evidence.

Mr. George Atkinson said: I am agent for Mr. Styring, and dealt with the prisoner and his partner, Mr. Rock, and sold them goods. The invoice produced is one for goods I sold them. The handwriting of the receipt is mine, but one of the figures is not; the first figure is altered from a one to a two, and the receipt for £5 is as I wrote it. The third receipt is altered by placing the figure of one before the five, and thus making £5 £15. I have not received more money than stated in my own receipts from the prisoner.

By Mr. Sill: I have a distinct recollection of the transactions between myself and the prisoner as to the receipt for £12. I have an account of transactions between myself and the prisoner and now produce it. I have a clear recollection of having received £12 on the 15th of March. I only gave the prisoner credit for £7 on that day, because I lent him £5 to take up a bill, which sum I deducted from the £12. I have no other cash-book other than the one produced, in which all payments are entered, and which I call my ledger.

By the Bench: I enter payments in my memorandum-book, and then in the ledger when I reach home.

Mr. Bayley here applied that the case should be adjourned for a couple of hours, to enable him to instruct an attorney, which after some discussion was granted; and at two o'clock Mr. Burbury was instructed, the case was re-opened and the witness re-examined.

After a brief deliberation, Mr. Bagnall said the bench were of the opinion that the case was not one to send to a jury. They came to this conclusion solely through the loose way in which Mr. Atkinson kept his books, the memorandum-book not corresponding with the ledger.

Mr. Burbury said it would be his duty to report to Mr. Styring, that it was open to him to prefer a bill of indictment against Saunders, for the impression might go abroad that Mr. Atkinson had been guilty of a felony.

Mr. Bagnall observed that the magistrates had no such impression; it was simply through the loose manner in which the books had been kept that the charge had been dismissed; there was not the slightest imputation on Mr. Atkinson's character, but the bench could not understand his books, and the questioned if he could do so himself.

Mr. Bayley trusted the magistrates did not deem that he had brought a case forward on insufficient grounds.

Mr. Bagnall replied that the bench considered it a very fit one for investigation.

The proceedings occupied the court for several hours, and were listened to with intense interest by a large audience.”

Staffordshire Sentinel 11/10/1856

“The Recent Burglaries At Walsall Wood. On Friday the accused men, John Sturme y and Wm. Shorter, were brought before J. E. Bealey, Esq, at the office of the magistrates’ clerk, Walsall, charged with burglary at Walsall Wood, as reported in our last and John Holden and William Smith alias Biddle, were also charged with receiving, with a guilty knowledge, a watch, a portion of the proceeds of one of the robberies. Mr. W. H. Duignan appeared for the alleged receivers. The first case gone into was the burglary at the house of Messrs. Rock and Saunders, the BOAT INN, Walsall Wood.

Isaiah Saunders deposed that on Saturday morning the 27th ult, he rose about two o’clock, found the doors open, and on looking round missed a silver watch, from three to four pound ten shillings in money, and a guard attached to the watch. Some brandy and gin were also taken away. It appeared the ingress had been obtained by some one passing their arm through a window where there was a pane of glass wanting, and undoing the fastenings. The watch then produced he believed to be the stolen one.

The evidence was such to induce the magistrates to commit Shorter and Sturme y for trial in this case also [another burglary]. Smith alias Biddle, was admitted to bail. Holden was discharged without any imputation on his character on the charge of ‘receiving’.”

Walsall Free Press 15/12/1860 - Advert

“Rare Opportunity.

To Be Disposed of, on account of the ill-health of the Landlady, that Old Licensed Public House, known as the BOOT INN, situated at Walsall Wood. Doing an excellent business.

Apply to Mr. W. S. Dorsett, Aldridge.”

1861 Census

BOOT INN

[1] Solomon Whitehouse (28), publican and brickmaker, born Oldbury;

[2] Mary Whitehouse (25), wife, born Walsall;

[3] Stephen J. Whitehouse (1), son, born Walsall Wood;

[4] Jane Hawkins (18), house seevant, born Bloxwich;

[5] Samuel Reed (20), lodger, labourer, born Aldridge:

Walsall Free Press 31/8/1861 - Advert

“Walsall Wood. To Be Disposed of, the License and Possession of that old-established Public-house known as the BOOT, well situated, fronting the turnpike road to Lichfield, and near extensive blue brick yards, and in the occupation of Mr. Whitehouse, who is leaving on account of other engagements.

For particulars apply to H. Farrington, No.1, St. George’s Buildings, Walsall.”

Walsall Free Press 9/11/1861

“Solomon Whitehouse, of the BOOT INN, Walsall Wood, applied for permission to transfer his license to Aaron Stokes, late of the MINERVA INN, Paddock, Walsall. Everything being found satisfactory, the permission was granted.”

Robert Batkin = Robert Badkin

Birmingham Daily Gazette 2/9/1863

“Yesterday was the annual licensing day for the Rushall division of the county. The magistrates on the Bench were Messrs. J. E. Bealey, W. Harrison, and D. Bloomer. Before hearing the applications for new licenses and those for the renewal of old ones, the Bench called those publicans whose names were down on the black list.

The license of Robert Badkin, BOOT INN, Rushall, who had been summoned for permitting fighting on his premises, but who escaped punishment because the field in which the fight took place, though in the possession and occupation of Badkin, was not within the curtilage of the house.”

Walsall Free Press 3/10/1863

“At the Rushall Petty Sessions on Tuesday last It being adjourned licensing day.

Robert Badkin, landlord of the BOOT INN, Walsall Wood, whose license was suspended last licensing day, was duly cautioned, and there being no further complaint against him, had his license renewed.”

Birmingham Daily Gazette 21/1/1864

“Rushall Petty Sessions. Robert Batkin, publican, Walsall Wood, was fined 2s 6d and costs, for furiously driving along the Lichfield high road, near to Lady Pool, between Walsall and Rushall, on the 22nd ult.”

Walsall Free Press 12/11/1864

“Rushall Petty Sessions. Robert Batkin, landlord of the OLD BOAT INN, was charged with having his house open for the sale of beer on Sunday, the 30th of October. Police-constable Astbury said that he visited the house at twenty five minutes to twelve on the day in question, and found two men with a pint of ale before them. Mr. Batkin said that the men seen in the house were travellers – one, a Mr. Smith, from Walton-on-Trent, and the other was a man belonging to Brownhills, who had walked from Darlston.

As neither of the men were present to give evidence, the defendant was sentenced to pay a fine of 10s and costs.”

Walsall Free Press 27/5/1865

“Rushall Petty Sessions. Robert Batkin, landlord of the BOAT INN, was charged with having had his house open on Sunday, the 14th instant, during prohibited hours. Police-constable Rumney, who visited the house, and found three men drinking porter, proved the charge. The defendant, who had been previously convicted, was sentenced to pay a fine of 40s and costs.”

Walsall Free Press 2/9/1865

“On Tuesday last, the annual licensing day for the district.

Robert Batkin, the BOAT, Walsall Wood, who had been three times convicted of having had his house open for the sale of liquors during prohibited hours, had his license suspended.”

Birmingham Daily Post 27/9/1865

“At the Rushall adjourned Licensing Session, yesterday, Robert Batkin, of the BOAT INN, Walsall Wood, received his license, which had been suspended; but was cautioned as to the future management of his house.”

Staffordshire Advertiser 12/2/1870

“Thomas Thacker, the BOOT INN, Walsall Wood, was fined 10s and costs, with the option of fourteen days’ imprisonment, for having his house open at eleven o’clock on the morning of the 30th ult.”

Birmingham Daily Gazette 31/8/1870

“Rushall Annual Licensing Day. The Inspector presented the Bench a list of licensed victuallers and beerhouse keepers who had been fined for breach of license in the course of the past three years.

Thomas Thacker, the BOAT, Walsall Wood.”

Birmingham Daily Gazette 7/9/1870

“Adjourned Licensing Meeting. Yesterday John Lloyd, beerhouse keeper, Rushall; Richard Owen, landlord of the ROYAL GEORGE beerhouse, Walsall Wood; Thomas Thacker of the BOOT public house, Walsall Wood; and William Milner of the ROYAL OAK public house, Pelsall, who, in consequence of having been convicted of breach of license in the course of the last year, had had their licenses suspended, were cautioned, and had their licenses renewed.”

Staffordshire Advertiser 25/3/1882

“David Ward, of the OLD BOOT INN, Walsall Wood, pleaded guilty to selling ale before half-past twelve o’clock on Sunday, the 26th ult. and was fined 20s and 10s 6d costs.”

Lichfield Mercury 20/2/1891

“Samuel Bateman, miner, Walsall Wood, was charged with deserting his wife, Mary Ann Bateman, on the 14th Dec. Mr. Evans (Walsall), was for the prosecution, and Mr. H. Jackson was for the defence. Complainant said she was married to the defendant on November 30th last, who lived with his father at the BOOT INN, Walsall Wood. She had also lived there as servant, but after they were married she told her mother-in-law that she would not act as servant any longer. She lived at the house for a fortnight afterwards, but during the time she had been married to defendant had not been allowed any money. She went to her own home to see her mother, and when she returned defendant refused to see her, and she (witness) had been living with her mother ever since. On the 1st February she again saw defendant who came out of the public house with her at 10 o’clock and took her to her mother’s, and promised to find her a home. Four days afterwards she again went to see defendant, but she was turned out by defendant’s father and mother, the latter striking her several times.

By Mr. Jackson: She told him she would not live with him at the public house, but would live with him if he found a proper home for her.

Susannah Lakin said on the 14th Dec. her daughter visited her, and she accompanied her back to the BOOT INN, where she saw defendant. In answer to a question he replied that he should do nothing for her, and he had entirely done with her.

By Mr. Jackson: Witness fetched her daughter’s clothes away after she saw defendant who would do nothing for her daughter. Samuel Bateman, the defendant, sworn, said a fortnight after he was married his wife left him without any cause. In the evening she returned, but he did not see her. His wife had never asked for any money, but he had offered her some which she refused. She had never complained of being ill-treated, or asked him to find her a home.

Martha Bateman, mother of defendant, swore that the complainant asked her to let her stop at the house as servant. She knew no reason why her daughter-in-law left the house.

By Mr. Evans: Complainant was to keep on as servant after she was married. She admitted turning complainant out of the house. Mr. James said this was a sad case, and if the parties could come to terms and agree to live together it would be much better than if the court were to adjudicate on the case.

The defendant, his mother and solicitor then left the court, and on returning Mr. Jackson announced that defendant had offered to find a home for his wife in one month. The case was accordingly adjourned.”

1891 Census

Walsall Road – OLD BOOT INN

[1] Henry Bateman (41), coal miner and publican, born Leicester;

- [2] Martha Bateman (58), wife, born Dunstone Heath;
- [3] Harry Bateman (15), son, labourer, born Walsall Wood;
- [4] Charles Jackson (21), lodger, labour master, born Walsall Wood;
- [5] Ellen Hood (20), domestic servant, born Walsall Wood:

Henry Bateman – see also NEWPORT ARMS.

Birmingham Daily Post 17/8/1893

“At the Guildhall, yesterday, Henry Bateman was summoned for selling without a license at the NEWPORT ARMS, The Pleck. Mr. H. H. Jackson appeared for the defendant, and pleaded not guilty.

The Chief Constable said that under these circumstances he should not ask the Bench to hear evidence, nor did he press for a heavy penalty. The defendant was the keeper of the BOAT INN, Walsall Wood, as manager for Mr. Roberts, and he exchanged houses with the manager of the NEWPORT ARMS, which was also one of Mr. Robert’s houses, and sold a couple of days before getting authority. A mistake had probably been made through the way in which business was done in the county, where the justices met less frequently than in the borough, and the people sold for a few days before formal authority had been obtained. A fine of 1s and costs was imposed, and a temporary authority granted.”

Walsall Advertiser 2/9/1893

“The annual Licensing Sessions for this district took place at the Rushall Police Court on Monday morning. The magistrates present were Messrs. F. James, W. H. Brookes and J. Naylor.

Superintendent Barnett opposed the renewal of the licenses of the following houses.....

BOOT INN, Walsall Wood, on the ground that the premises were difficult to supervise on account of insufficient fencing at the back. Renewed.”

Walsall Advertiser 15/6/1895

“The monthly meeting of the Walsall and District Licensed Victuallers’ and Beer Retailers’ Friendly and Protection Society was held on Thursday, at the house of Mr. John Penton, the BOOT INN, Walsall Wood.....”

John Penton – see also NEWPORT ARMS.

Lichfield Mercury 24/3/1899

“Henry Bateman, of the BOAT INN, Walsall Wood, applied for authority to sell at the Grange Farm from 11 till 6pm on the 29th inst, the occasion being a sale. Granted.”

Staffordshire Advertiser 9/12/1899

“In Walsall County Court, on Thursday, before his Honour Judge Young, an action came on for hearing in which Edward Sale of Coppice Road, Walsall, claimed of Henry Bateman, of the BOOT INN, Walsall Wood, the sum of £12 10s damages in lieu of the delivery of a bicycle alleged to be won by the plaintiff in a five-mile race at the Friendly Society Sports, Walsall Wood, on June 25. Evidence was given by the judge Mr. Breese, who stated that he decided that Sale won the race, and a programme was put in on which it was stated that the judge’s decision was to be final. On this his Honour found for the plaintiff for the amount claimed unless the bicycle was delivered up.”

Walsall Observer 27/1/1900

“On Friday evening, the 12th inst, a farewell supper was given by Mr. Bateman and a few friends at the BOOT INN, in honour of Messrs. James and William Baker and Robert Higgins, who were leaving for the front.....”

1901 Census

Lichfield Road – BOOT HOTEL

- [1] Henry Bateman (50), licensed victualler, born Walsall;
- [2] Mary J. Bateman (33), wife, born Walsall Wood;
- [3] Daisey Bateman (7), daughter, born Walsall;
- [4] Sidney Bateman (4), son, born Walsall;
- [5] Elizabeth Newall (24), general servant, born Newham Bridge, Staffordshire;
- [6] Elizabeth Astbury (23), general servant, born Pelsall;
- [7] Ann Blakemore (10), niece, born Walsall Wood:

Walsall Advertiser 29/7/1906

“The monthly meeting of the Walsall and District Licensed Victuallers’ and Beer Retailers’ Friendly and Protection Society was held on Thursday week at the house of Mr. Henry Bateman, the BOOT HOTEL, Walsall Wood.....”

Walsall Advertiser 22/6/1907

“The monthly meeting of the Walsall and District Licensed Victuallers’ and Beer Retailers’ Friendly and Protection Society was held on Thursday (13th) at the house of Mr. Henry Bateman, BOOT HOTEL, Walsall Wood.....”

Walsall Advertiser 23/3/1912

“The monthly meeting of the Walsall and District Licensed Victuallers’ and Beer Retailers’ Friendly and Protection Society was held on Thursday week.....

Mr. Arthur Cresswell, STAND TAVERN, Newport Road, was unanimously elected to fill the vacancy on the executive committee caused by the resignation of Mr. Henry Bateman, Walsall Wood.”

Walsall Observer 10/5/1913

“Scenes of an exciting character were witnessed on Wednesday night as the result of a mad gallop of a horse which bolted at Walsall Wood and continued its flight into Lichfield Street, a distance of over three miles. The horse was attached to a trap, belonging to Mr. Morgan, wholesale grocer, of Vicarage Place, and was left outside the BOAT INN, Walsall Wood, about seven o’clock. A traveller named Samuel Allen, of Arundel Street, and a boy named William Murphy, of Duncalfe Street, had been in the vehicle, but Allen had to make a call and the boy got out afterwards. Soon after the horse took fright, and galloped madly away, but although in the course of its journey it passed several tram cars and numerous other vehicles the animal did not collide with anything. Several attempts were made to stop the horse, one of the pluckiest being by Police-constable Cross, at Rushall. The officer, although being unable to hold the animal, scrambled into the trap, only, however, to find himself helpless as there were no reins. In jumping out again the constable fell but fortunately escaped injury. In Lichfield Street the horse slackened its pace somewhat, and it was eventually stopped by a man named Arthur Bebb, of Butts Street.”

Lichfield Mercury 18/2/1921

“At the annual Licensing Sessions for the Rushall Division on Monday.....

The whole of the licenses would be renewed with the exception of a number of houses which would be visited, and where alterations were needed, chiefly for living accommodation and better sanitary conditions. The houses to be visited were.....

BOOT INN, Walsall Wood.”

Staffordshire Advertiser 19/2/1921

“The annual licensing sessions for the Rushall Division were held on Monday.....

All the licenses would be renewed with the exception of.....

BOOT INN, Walsall Wood.....

In these cases, alterations were necessary, and the Bench would defer consideration until they had visited the premises and inspected the plans.”

Staffordshire Advertiser 12/2/1927

“At the Rushall Licensing Sessions, on Tuesday.....

Objection was taken to the renewal of the following licenses.....

On the ground of redundancy.....

BOOT INN, Walsall Wood.”

Lichfield Mercury 1/4/1927

“At Rushall Police Court, on Monday, Percy Jacques, BOOT INN, Walsall Road, Walsall Wood, was summoned for failing to send his child Vera regularly to school.”

Staffordshire Advertiser 21/5/1938

“Sixteen applications, granted earlier in the year by the local justices, remained to be dealt with when an adjourned meeting of the Staffordshire County Licensing Confirmation Committee was held at the Shirehall, Stafford, on Tuesday.....

William Lowe applied successfully for the removal of the full license of the BOOT INN, Walsall Wood, to premises to be erected in Salters Road, Walsall Wood. Mr. Brown explained that the license would be moved from a district well served to one where there were no facilities. If the application were granted, the owners were prepared to surrender the license of an off-license known as the Vigo Stores.”

Walsall Observer 4/3/1939 - Advert

“P. Plested, Car Dismantler, Boatman Lane (back of BOOT INN), Walsall Wood, Breaking Austin 16 and 7; Palatine; Morris Isis; Oxford, Cowley and Minor; Hillman, and others. Good, used Spares for Sale.”

Closed

Walsall Observer 17/2/1940

“The Bench granted Mr. S. L. Edwards a music, singing and dancing license in respect of a room at the de-licensed premises formerly known as the BOOT INN, Walsall Wood, from 7.30 until 10.30, one of the stipulations being that there should be no admissions after ten o’clock.”

Walsall Observer 15/9/1945

“At a meeting of the Council in Committee a letter had been read from Mr. James Homer, of Walsall, enquiring whether there were any restrictions upon the OLD BOOT INN, Walsall Wood, to prevent its use as a leather goods factory. He was informed that no restrictions would be imposed and the proposed change of use was approved.”

Demolished

Check BOAT and BOOT.

OLD CHURCH AND BELL

9, (2), Church Street, WALSALL

OWNERS

LICENSEES

Richard Lee [1811] – [1818]

Mary Lee [1822] – [1834]

James Flinders [1841] – 1844)

George Flinders [1845]

Mrs. Hannah Flinders [1849] – [1851]

Charles Welch [1851] – [1870]

NOTES

2, Church Street [1851]

9, Church Street

CHURCH [1818], [1822], [1828], [1830]

BELL [1834], [1837], [1857]

OLD CHURCH [1842], [1845], [1849], [1850], [1854], [1858]

OLD CHURCH AND BELL [1858], [1861]

CHURCH AND BELL [1862]

It had a beerhouse license.

Aris's Birmingham Gazette 18/12/1837 - Advert

“The BELL Public House, Church Street, Walsall.

To be disposed of by Private Contract, the Good-will, Licenses, &c, with immediate possession of the above old-established house, with Shopping, Stabling, Gig-house, Piggery, Bowling-alley, and other conveniences thereunto attached.

The Fixtures, Brewing Utensils, &c, which are excellent, to be taken at a fair valuation. Rent under £20, coming-in from £60 upwards.

The present occupier is leaving on account of other engagements.

For particulars apply on the premises.”

1841 Census

Church Street

[1] James Flinders (30), publican;

[2] Mary Flinders (25);

[3] George Flinders (10);

[4] Hannah Flinders (65);

[5] Mary Walker (35);

[6] James Swift (30), born Staffordshire;

[7] Letticha Nickles (25):

Staffordshire Advertiser 4/5/1844 - Deaths

“On the 15th ult, at Walsall, aged 42 years, Mr. James Flinders, of the BELL public-house, Newport Street, formerly of Nottingham.”

1851 Census

2, Church Street

[1] Charles Welch (43), plumber and glazier, born Walsall;

- [2] Hannah Welch (42), wife, born Nottingham;
[3] Hannah Flinders (74), mother, widow, born Nottingham;
[4] Cary Kilrey (36), visitor, born Nottingham;
[5] William Kilrey (8), son, born Walsall:

Staffordshire Advertiser 2/9/1854

“Between twelve and one o’clock on Tuesday night, the 22nd August, seven or eight young men of dissolute habits were boxing with gloves in the OLD CHURCH TAVERN, a low public-house, in Church Street when two of them, named respectively John Nicholls and James Barber, quarrelled, and Nicholls produced a poker with which to strike Barber, but was prevented by the landlord, who expelled him from the house. In about half an hour Nicholls returned, and desired to be readmitted, but was not. In a short time Barber and his companions, five in number went out, and the quarrel between Barber and Nicholls was resumed. Blows were exchanged, and Barber knocked his antagonist down with the back of his head upon the curbstone of the footpath. In about an hour afterwards he was found by a man named Waldron, who took him into the OLD CHURCH TAVERN, and gave him some brandy. He was afterwards removed to the house of his mother, in Goston’s yard where medical assistance was obtained, and it was found that a portion of the skull had been forced in. He spoke only once, viz, on Wednesday night, when he said ‘Barber did it; Barber struck me,’ and died on Saturday night last. Barber absconded on the Wednesday before, but was apprehended last Monday evening by Inspector Price, of Rushall, in a corn field, about two miles from the town, in company with a girl of loose character, who had supplied him with food in his hiding place ever since he had absconded. On Tuesday an inquest was held upon the body of the deceased Nicholls, before A. A. Fletcher, Esq, coroner, at the QUEENS HEAD, in Church Street, and after a lengthened investigation, and twenty minutes’ deliberation, the jury returned a verdict of Manslaughter against James Barber, who was forthwith committed by the Coroner for trial at the Assizes. Barber is only 18 years of age, a plater, and like the deceased, was a constant associate of females of disrepute. It is a melancholy coincidence, that just twenty years ago, Barber’s father killed a man named Starling, in a fight in Delves Green, and was tried for the offence.”

[At the Staffordshire Assizes in March 1855, the case against James Barber was dismissed, it was thought his lengthy remand waiting for trial was punishment enough.]

Staffordshire Advertiser 18/11/1854

“On Wednesday Thomas Holman, landlord of the WHITE LION, Little London, was fined 30s and costs for keeping his house open on Sunday week during prohibited hours by the recent Act. It was the second offence, and the Bench warned him that its repetition would lead to the suspension of his license. Charles Welch and Samuel Cooper, were each fined 10s for a similar offence.”

Walsall Free Press 7/2/1857

“Town Council, Quarterly Meeting.....

The Clerk stated a letter had been received from Mr. Duignan, clerk to the Union representing the great increase of a certain degrading disease, and its natural consequence of poverty; mention the bad character of the BELL, in Church Street, and the PIGEON in the Ditch, and calling their attention to the suppression of these nuisances. Mr. Cater was called in, and explained the difficulty connected with the interference of these house, they, generally taking care to keep within the limits of the law.”

Wolverhampton Chronicle 1/9/1858

“On Wednesday afternoon an inquest was opened at the QUEENS HEAD, Church Street, Walsall, before Mr. A. A. Fletcher, on the body of John Springthorpe, who came to his death on the previous Tuesday, after fighting with Richard Garbett, as detailed in the evidence before the Magistrates. Mr. Wilkinson appeared to watch the case behalf of Welsh, who keeps the OLD CHURCH AND BELL, and who is charged with aiding and abetting Garbett in the attack upon the deceased. Maria Scully repeated the evidence she had given on the Wednesday before the Magistrates, firmly adhering to her statement that Welsh was the instigator of the attack. A number of witnesses were called – Hannah Cooper, William Thomson, William Bird, Joseph Bartholomew, and Isaac Whitlick – whose evidence generally corroborated that of Maria Scully, except in regard to Garbett having taken hold of the deceased’s handkerchief. All agreed that Welsh ‘squared’ at the deceased, who was peaceable and quiet, the only one who cast any doubt upon this point being Bartholomew, who said that when Welsh was stated to be running about the street stripped, the deceased said, ‘I’ll have some fun now, and soon make Welsh go into his house.’ All agreed that Welsh made the first demonstrations against the deceased; that he afterwards entered the house, some hearing him call ‘Dick’, after which Garbett rushed from the entry and attacked the deceased. It appeared plain that Garbett compelled the deceased to fight. When attacked the latter said he was an old man when compared with Garbett, and did not wish to fight. Welsh encouraged Garbett to attack the deceased, urging him to ‘have another round at him’ after the poor fellow had received the death blow. Bird, who saw the fight, said that in the last round Garbett seized the deceased by his collar and brace with his left hand and dealt him a violent blow on the throat with his right hand, on which the deceased fell. He complained of his throat, and died soon afterwards. Mr. E. J. Marshall, surgeon, who had made a post mortem examination, deposed to the effect that the throat of the deceased, of which he complained before death, was seriously injured. The bone and cartilage of the throat was injured, and there was a good deal of congestion about the larynx and the muscles of the glottis. His opinion was that the injuries were the result of a blow when the head was thrown backwards. The witness opened the larynx to relieve the breathing, with the concurrence of Mr. Edwards, surgeon, and in his presence. The injuries in the throat were the only means of accounting for death. The inquest was adjourned to Thursday evening, when some further witnesses were called, and the jury, after five hours’ deliberation, terminating at nearly half past eleven, returned a verdict of ‘Wilful Murder’ against Garbett as the direct perpetrator of the fatal act, and against Welsh as aiding and abetting, and the Coroner issued his warrant for their committal.

On Friday they were brought up before C. Eyland Mayor, F. B. Oerton, W. Ward. C. Greatrex, and H. Highway, Esqs, and were committed for trial at Stafford assizes.

It is remarkable that the last inquest held at the OLD QUEENS ARMS was to inquire into the death of a man killed in a somewhat similar manner at the house of Welsh four years ago.”

Wolverhampton Chronicle 1/9/1858

“The name of Charles Welch of the OLD CHURCH AND BELL INN, Church Street, was erased from the list of licensed victualers. Welch, it will be recollected, has been committed in company with Richard Garbett, for wilful murder. The house has been conducted in a disreputable manner. The Bench [Walsall Licensing] expressed their determination of depriving every licensed house that was badly conducted of its license.....”

Walsall Free Press 4/9/1858

“Brewster Sessions..... applications for renewal of old licenses, and the granting of new ones.

The Mayor, at the commencement of the business, intimated that it was the intention of the Bench to withdraw the license from the OLD CHURCH AND BELL Public-house kept by Charles Welsh.

Mr. Oerton said it was not only intended to withhold the license from the present landlord, but from the house, as it would be a mere farce to refuse it to one landlord and grant it to another. Here two houses (the BULLS HEAD and the OLD CHURCH AND BELL) had been a disgrace to the town; and he hoped that the example made by the Bench would serve as a warning to other publicans.”

AND

“The application on behalf of Charles Welsh, landlord of the OLD CHURCH AND BELL, Church Street, and who was last week committed to Stafford Gaol by a Coroner’s warrant on a charge of murder, was likewise refused.”

Staffordshire Advertiser 23/10/1858

“The quarter sessions for the borough of Walsall were held on Tuesday morning last at the Guildhall.....

Charles Welch, who was some time ago committed for trial on a charge of wilful murder, has been admitted to bail by a Judge at Chambers.”

Walsall Free Press 30/10/1858 - Notice

“In The Matter Of Charles Welch, upon the occasion of the death of Mr. Springthorpe.

Some months ago, Charles Welch, of the public house called the BELL, in Church Street, Walsall, was accused of Manslaughter upon the body of Mr. Springthorpe.

Mr. Welch can afford to the generous public, upon any trial that may take place, sufficient grounds of his conduct for some years past; and in furtherance of such conduct can produce the most undeniable references to his character, both in social and public life.”

Wolverhampton Chronicle 1/12/1858

“The business of the Winter Assizes for the county of Stafford.....

Two of the prisoners, Richard Garbett and Charles Welch, were charged with wilful murder at Walsall, for which crime the Grand Jury returned a true bill. The offence, however, as will be seen from our report, resolved itself in the course of the trial into that of manslaughter, and the prisoners having been found guilty, were sentenced to three months’ imprisonment with hard labour, the previous good character of Garbett, by whose immediate act the death of the deceased man Springthorpe was caused, being taken into account by Mr. Baron Bramwell, the Judge who presided.”

1861 Census

9, Church Street

[1] Charles Welch (53), publican, born Bloxwich;

[2] Hannah Welch (53), wife, born Nottingham;

[3] David Welch (21), son, painter, born Bloxwich:

Walsall Free Press 29/6/1861

“The Church Street Brothels. Johanna Rollason, a resident at the back of the CHURCH AND BELL beerhouse, Church Street, was charged with stealing 18s from the person of John Lyons, on Saturday last. She too had the benefit of the prosecutor’s absence, and was discharged.”

Charles Welch, beer retailer, 9, Church Street. [1864], [1865], [1868], [1870]

Walsall Free Press 4/9/1869

“Yesterday being the day appointed for granting beerhouse licenses the following magistrates were present: J. Hildick (Mayor), S. Stephens, F. B. Oerton, J. W. Newman, H. Brace, and J. Brewer, Esqs. There were 133 applications; and all except the following had their licenses granted.....

Charles Welch, landlord of the OLD CHURCH AND BELL, Church Street, in the yard behind whose house are a number of brothels, and who had his license taken from him some years ago.”

Charles Welch was the uncle of Ann Whittall of the GLOBE, Bridgeman Street.

OLD DOG

20, (24), (22), Pool Street, (Lime Pit Bank), WALSALL

OWNERS

Samuel Perks, Preswlfed, Rhyl
Lichfield Brewery Co. Ltd.

LICENSEES

Charles Startin [1834] – [1851]
Henry Shaw [1855]
Samuel Johns [1857] – [1870]
Charles James [1869] – [1875];
Mrs. Elizabeth James [];
Edward Roberts [1881] – 1890);
John Darby [1892] ?
Joseph Henry Jeffries (1890 – 1893);
John Price (1893 – 1894);
Joseph Eden (1894 – 1896);
Thomas Russon (1896 – 1900);
Thomas V Hawley (1900 – 1914);
Mrs. Kate Hawley (1914 – 1923):

NOTES

24, Pool Street [1864], [1865]
22, Pool Street [1872]
20, Pool Street [1858], [1860], [1881], [1896], [1901]
20+21, Pool Street [1911]

DOG [1835], [1842], [1845], [1851], [1853], [1871], [1872], [1885]
OLD DOG [1860], [1861], [1865], [1868], [1875], [1881], [1891], [1892], [1893], [1901], [1903], [1908], [1914]
SPOTTED DOG [1888]

Charles Startin was also a brass founder and coach and harness plater. [1834], [1845]

1841 Census

Pool Street

- [1] Charles Startin (60), plater, born Staffordshire;
- [2] Susan Startin (50), born Staffordshire;
- [3] Charles Startin (10), born Staffordshire;
- [4] Hannah Startin (12), born Staffordshire;
- [5] Jane Brown (15), fs, born Staffordshire;
- [6] Edward Bates (15), ms;
- [7] Richard Buckler (15), apprentice, born Staffordshire;
- [8] George James (15), apprentice, born Staffordshire;
- [9] John Bevington (40), cl(?), born Staffordshire:

London Gazette 8/6/1849

“Whereas a Petition of Charles Startin, at present and for one year and three months now last past lodging with James Startin and Charles Startin, of Pool-street, in Walsall, in the county of Stafford, and for twenty years theretofore living in Pool-street, in Walsall aforesaid, Brass and Silver Coach-harness Manufacturer, and Publican, but now out of business, an insolvent debtor, having been filed in the County Court of Staffordshire, at Walsall, and an interim order for protection from process having been given to the said Charles Startin, under the provisions of the Statutes in that case made and provided, the said Charles Startin is hereby required to appear before the said Court, on the 19th day of June instant, at twelve of the clock at noon precisely, for his first examination touching his debts, estate, and effects, and to be further dealt with according to the provisions of the said Statutes; and the choice of the creditors' assignees is to take place at the time so appointed. All persons indebted to the said Charles Startin, or that have any of his effects, are not to pay or deliver the same but to Mr. William Cotterill, Clerk of the said Court, at his office, in Bridge-street, Walsall, the Official Assignee of the estate and effects of the said insolvent."

1851 Census

Pool Street

- [1] Charles Startin (73), brass founder, born Lichfield;
- [2] Susan Startin (58), wife, born Trysull;
- [3] Charles Startin (20), son, plater, born Walsall;
- [4] William Caddick (30), lodger, plater, born Worley [Wyrley?], Staffordshire;
- [5] John Smith (18), apprentice to plater, born Walsall;
- [6] Alfred Woolley (14), apprentice to plater caster, born Walsall;
- [7] Tertius Green (12), apprentice to plater, born Walsall;
- [8] Margaret Coffee (18), house servant, born Ireland:

Staffordshire Advertiser 3/4/1852

"Geo. Allin will Sell by Auction, at the DOG INN, Lime-Pit Bank, on Monday, the 12th day of April 1852, and following day if necessary, all the valuable Household Furniture, Brewing Utensils, Public-House Fixtures, and other Effects, belonging to Mr. Charles Startin, who is giving up business, consisting of four-post and other bedsteads, feather beds, oak dining and other tables, deal table and tressels, deal bench, screens, &c, 12 extra large-size ale casks, excellent coolers and other tubs, 2 capital wash tubs, 100 gallon copper furnace, 2 iron furnaces, 2 beer machines, 5 light gas meter, &c; also a capital shaking machine, turning lathes, polishing ditto, casting pots, about 2 tons of malleable castings, bellows, tools, and other stock, upon the above premises.

Sale to commence at ten o'clock.

Catalogues may be had at the Auctioneer's Offices, Bridge Street."

Staffordshire Advertiser 16/7/1853 - Advert

"To Publicans.

By George Allin. To be Disposed of by Private Treaty, the Licenses, Goodwill, and Immediate Possession of that old-established Public-house, known by the sign of the DOG INN, Pool Street, Walsall, situate in a populous and improving part of the town, and now doing twelve bushels a week.

The Household Furniture, Brewing Vessels, &c, may be taken to at a fair valuation.

For particulars apply to Geo. Allin, Auctioneer and Public-house agent, Walsall."

Staffordshire Advertiser 9/9/1854 - Advert

"Walsall, Staffordshire. Capital old-licensed Public-House.

To Be Sold By Private Treaty, by Messrs. Allin and Flanagan, the License, Goodwill, and valuable Possession of the DOG INN, Pool Street, Walsall, now doing a good ready-money in and out-door business. A portion of the Household Furniture, Fixtures, &c, may be taken to at a fair valuation. Coming-in about £80. Satisfactory reasons will be given for the present proprietor declining the business.

For particulars, and to treat, apply to the Auctioneers, at their Offices, Bridge Street, Walsall, and High Street, Wednesbury."

Birmingham Journal 6/1/1855

"Henry Shaw, the DOG INN, Pool Street, was fined 5s and costs, for an offence against his license."

Walsall Free Press 17/1/1857

"An inquest was held at the OLD DOG INN, Pool Street, on Thursday last, before A. A. Fletcher, Esq, on the body of William Holt, aged twenty-four, who had cut his throat with a pen-knife on the previous Monday. Mr. Pitt, surgeon, had been attending the deceased for some days for a severe complaint, from which he could not have recovered, neither could he have lived many hours, which the result of the post mortem examination had proved. The wound made in the throat would not have resulted fatally to a person in good health. There was no doubt he was temporarily insane from the influence of the disease under which he was suffering. Mary Holt, wife of deceased, said her husband had been subject to melancholy, but had never threatened to take his life till a few days previous to his death, when, under the influence of pain, he attempted to throw himself from the window. The jury returned a verdict of Temporary Insanity."

Walsall Free Press 4/4/1857

"Samuel Johns, landlord of the DOG INN, Pool Street, was charged with having on Monday night, the 30th instant, allowed card playing in his house contrary to the tenor of his license. Mr. Sill was retained for the defence. Police-constable Harris said he went to the defendant's house, and found four persons playing at cards. He heard one of them remark 'We shall lose this quart.' Mr. Sill examined the informant, and elicited that he went in and called for a glass of ale, he had a pipe in his mouth at the time, but he was not on duty. Mr. Sill, after commenting rather strongly on the conduct of the officer, stating that it was against the regulations of the service for an officer to be drinking in a public-house, called several witnesses, who distinctly averred that the game was only being played for pastime. The information was dismissed."

1861 Census

20, Poole Street – OLD DOG INN

- [1] Samuel Johns (51), licensed victualler, born Walsall;
- [2] Mary Johns (57), wife, born Walsall;
- [3] George Johns (27), son, caster dresser, born Walsall;
- [4] Mary Delamore (29), house servant, born Walsall:

Walsall Free Press 26/6/1869

“Charles James, landlord of the DOG public-house, Pool Street, was charged with having had his house open for the sale of beer on Sunday last. Defendant admitted the charge, and was fined 1s and costs.”

Walsall Free Press 9/10/1869

“About half-past nine o’clock yesterday morning, Benjamin Wesley, aged 64, a silver-plater, residing at Paddock, was found dead at the bottom of a stair case leading to his brother’s workshop, in a yard in Paddock Lane. Deceased was at the DOG public-house, Pool Street, and left shortly before one o’clock, and at the time appeared quite well. While at the DOG he had three pints of ale and some bread and cheese. It is supposed deceased had gone to sleep in the workshop and had fallen down stairs and fractured his skull. When found he was lying with his face downward, his face being covered by his cap, which was full of blood. Mr. Palmer, surgeon, who was called by Sergeant Mason, gave it as his opinion that deceased had died from fracture of the skull.”

1871 Census

20, Pool Street – DOG

- [1] Charles James (38), victualler and silver plater, born Walsall;
- [2] Ann Maria James (38), wife, born Leicester;
- [3] David Brodes (?) (23), born Walsall:

Birmingham Daily Post 19/10/1874

“At the Guildhall, on Friday, Charles James, of the DOG INN, Pool Street, was charged with having his house open at ten minutes past twelve on Saturday night. Police-constable Wright said he saw a man leave the house with a bottle containing whisky at the time named, and the landlord offered him money to say nothing about it.

Evidence was produced that the whisky was required for a sick woman named Westley.

The Bench said but for the attempt to bribe a constable the summons would have been dismissed; as it was the defendant would be fined 2s 6d and costs.

The defendant said he never attempted to bribe the constable, and he would proceed against him for saying that he did.”

Midland Counties Evening Express 21/5/1875

“A summons against Charles James, OLD DOG INN, Pool Street, for having his house open in prohibited hours, was dismissed for want of evidence.

On hearing the decision, the defendant, who appeared to be greatly excited, handed over a sovereign for the Cottage Hospital.”

Staffordshire Advertiser 28/8/1875

“Walsall Annual Licensing Business.....

Charles James, the OLD DOG, Pool Street, was cautioned.”

1881 Census

20, Pool Street – OLD DOG INN

- [1] Edward Roberts (39), saddle tree maker and publican, born Wednesbury;
- [2] Sarah Roberts (38), wife, born Wednesbury;
- [3] Sarah Roberts (14), daughter, scholar, born Wednesbury;
- [4] William Roberts (12), son, scholar, born Wednesbury;
- [5] Edward Roberts (10), son, scholar, born Wednesbury;
- [6] Elizabeth Roberts (7), daughter, scholar, born Walsall;
- [7] Emily Roberts (5), daughter, scholar, born Walsall;
- [8] Ada Roberts (3), daughter, born Walsall;
- [9] Thomas Roberts (1), son, born Walsall;
- [10] Charlotte Reeves (69), mother in law, widow, born Walsall:

Walsall Observer 3/1/1885

“Inquests in Walsall. On Saturday, at the DOG INN, Pool Street, on the body of George Sanders (34), a filer, who had lived at No.80, Walsingham Street, who died on Christmas Day. The evidence showed that deceased fell downstairs on Monday, the 22nd December, and received some injury, but was able to go to work on Wednesday. He was left in bed on Christmas Morning, apparently asleep; but when a cup of tea was taken up to him shortly afterwards, he was found dead in bed. The jury returned a verdict of Accidental Death.”

Birmingham Daily Post 25/12/1886

“At the Guildhall, yesterday, Edward Roberts, the DOG INN, Pool Street, was summoned for having permitted drunkenness on his premises. Mr. Duignan appeared for the defence, and in the end the summons was dismissed.”

Birmingham Daily Post 2/1/1888

“On Saturday, Mr. T. H. Stanley, borough coroner, held an inquest at the SPOTTED DOG, Pool Street, on the body of Mary Frankham (47), wife of Charles Frankham, Selborne Street. It seemed that she had been of intemperate habits, particularly during the last three months. On Friday morning her husband took her a cup of tea, and found her sitting up in bed talking to herself. Being unable to understand what she said he sent for a doctor, but death took place before aid arrived. Verdict, Death from Natural Causes.”

Edward Roberts was fined £5 and costs and his license was endorsed, on 2nd May 1890, for opening on a Sunday morning.

1891 Census

20 and 21, Pool Street – OLD DOG INN

- [1] Joseph H. Jeffries (41), publican, born Walsall;
- [2] Annie E. Jeffries (44), wife, born Nottingham;
- [3] Thomas Pennistone (38), boarder, brewer, born Leicester;
- [4] Kate Flynn (20), general servant, born Walsall:

Birmingham Daily Post 24/8/1893

“Mr. M. W. Pearman-Smith applied for a temporary authority to John Price at the OLD DOG INN, Pool Street. It seemed that on the 10th inst. Price was granted a temporary authority, which lasted until Tuesday, when he ought to have applied for further powers. He did not do so, however, neither he nor the outgoing tenant putting in an appearance, and when too late he found that he could not legally continue selling. A second temporary authority was now applied for. The Chief Constable objected, on the ground that the Bench had no authority to grant a second temporary authority; but it was explained that the men had acted in ignorance, especially the in-coming tenant, who had previously been a farmer, and the Bench decided to grant the application, at the same time stating that the decision must not be taken as a precedent.”

Walsall Advertiser 23/6/1894

“The first meeting of the creditors of Price, John, of the OLD DOG, Pool-street, Walsall, and the Conduit Farm, Watling-street-road, Norton, and trading as a licensed victualler and farmer, was held at the office of the Official Receiver (Mr. E. Pritchard), on Thursday. The deficiency, as shown in the statement, was £244 18s 6d, which included household expenses of self, wife, and two children, £78; law costs, £20; and £1 18s 6d unaccounted for. In his observations the Official Receiver says: the bankrupt assisted his father at his farm at the Conduit Farm, Norton Canes, until March, 1890, when the latter gave up the farm to him. He had no capital. He continued his occupancy of the farm up to the date of his petition. In August, 1893, he took the OLD DOG, Public House, Pool Street, Walsall. He paid £92 8s 7d as incoming tenant. He borrowed £100 from a money lender, to whom he and his wife and father gave a promissory note for £150 payable £8 6s 8d per month. He has paid £72 13s 4d. He managed the inn and employed a labourer to look after his land. Having been sued by several creditors he filed this petition. He states the causes of his insolvency as to be ‘sickness, law costs, interest on loans, and bad debts.’ He has not kept any books. His assets will not realise anything near the amount at which he estimates them.

Mr. Price’s public examination was afterwards taken before Mr. Registrar Clarke, and adjourned.”

Joseph Eden = Joseph Eaden

Walsall Advertiser 12/1/1895

“A young woman named Emma Salt (19), domestic servant, Talbot Yard, was charged with having stolen a bottle of sherry, value 1s 6d, the property of Joseph Eaden, landlord of the OLD DOG INN, Pool Street. Mrs. Eaden said the prisoner had been in her employ as domestic servant. Just before Christmas she missed a bottle of sherry from the club room, and on prisoner’s return from her holiday she accused her of having taken it and she answered ‘Yes.’ On Saturday she came for her clothes, but witness refused to let her have them until she paid for the wine. In reply to the Clerk (Mr. Newman), Mrs. Eaden said that if the prisoner had paid for the wine she would not have been prosecuted.

The Bench thereupon dismissed the case.”

Walsall Advertiser 24/4/1897

“John (?) Eden, of 64, Eldon Street, was summoned for assaulting Clara Eden, his wife. Mr. H. H. Jackson, who appeared for the complainant, said the parties had previously kept the DOG INN, Pool Street, but for certain reasons they had removed to a private house, the public-house now being kept by complainant’s parents. On the 12th inst, she had occasion to assist her mother, and on returning home she found that the door was locked. She got the assistance of a policeman, and defendant admitted her, but subsequently when she retired to rest he struck her a violent blow and kicked her out of bed.

Complainant having given evidence in support, defendant alleged his wife was in the habit of going drinking at her mother’s house, and was also very violent. In answer to this complainant denied the allegations, and said she simply went to her mother’s to assist.

The Bench did not consider the evidence sufficient to convict, and dismissed the case.”

Walsall Advertiser 31/12/1898

“Arthur Beebee, landlord of the MALT SHOVEL INN, Lower Rushall Street, was summoned for keeping open his house during prohibited hours on the 24th inst; and Thomas Russon, of the OLD DOG INN, Pool Street, was summoned for a like offence on the 21st December.

Chief Constable Taylor said he had brought the cases as a warning, as there was a growing habit amongst the licensed victuallers of the town of selling right up to closing time, the consequences being that they did not close their houses till after 11 o'clock.

About a week ago a publican who was cautioned remarked that he did not think it was so late, as the policeman on the beat had not cautioned him. If publicans thought policemen were going to conduct publican's business they were very much mistaken.

Mr. H. H. Jackson, who appeared for the defence, instructed by the Licensed Victuallers' Association, said with regard to Russon's case, this case was different to the other one. Here the house was closed at 11 o'clock. There, however, had been a leakage in a pipe, and Mrs. Russon had sent for a workman named Turton to repair it. The man came with a soldering iron, and was working down the cellar, and did not finish till five minutes past 11 o'clock.

Mr. Taylor (Chief Constable) said that was not how the matter was reported to him. According to the report he had, two men left the house. Perhaps Mr. Jackson would explain that.

Mr. Jackson: I want the officer to explain. I only know of one.

Police-constable 22 (Burdett) gave evidence as to visiting the defendant's house, the OLD DOG, on December 21st, and said that there were two men, their names being Mason and Horton. He called the landlord's attention to the matter, and he said, 'We have only been having a friendly chat. Give the officer your names.'

Mr. Jackson: The second man is a myth.

The officer was cross-examined by Mr. Jackson with a view to show that the name given the officer was Turton not Horton.

Turton was here asked to stand up in court and did so.

Police-constable Burdett: That is not one of the men.

Mr. Jackson: Then there were three men?

Mr. Newman (deputy magistrates' clerk): Apparently. And you will have to explain the other two men.

Mr. Jackson: It must be different men and a different house (laughter).

The Chief Constable: I say nothing about Turton. It's the other two I want you to explain away.

Mrs. Russon then gave evidence bearing out the statement of Mr. Jackson for the defence. Her husband was fastening the door when she called his attention to Mr. Turton mending the pipe. Turton had a hammer in his hand as he went out. Mason had left at 11 o'clock, and when he saw the door open for Turton to come out, Mason came to the door and wanted to come in. The house was closed at 11 o'clock, and the only person who went out was Mr. Turton.

Cross-examined by Mr. Taylor: He said 'You know me. My name is Turton, and I live by John Horton's.'

The case was dismissed.”

1901 Census

20, Pool Street – Tavern – The OLD DOG

[1] Thomas V. Hawley (35), licensed victualler, born Walsall;

[2] Kate Hawley (39), wife, born Walsall;

[3] Thomas W. Hawley (11), son, born Walsall;

[4] Maud Hawley (10), daughter, born Walsall;

[5] Bernard Hawley (6), son, born Walsall:

Walsall Advertiser 12/10/1901

“The monthly meeting of the Walsall and District Licensed Victuallers' and Beer Retailers' Friendly and Protection Society was held on Thursday.....

Mr. Thomas Hawley, OLD DOG INN, Pool Street (licensed victualler) was elected a member of the Executive Committee.”

Walsall Advertiser 12/9/1903

“George Lyons (39), labourer, Box Street, was charged with stealing a fowl from the OLD DOG INN, Pool Street, on Saturday.

A witness named Williams stated that while he was at work in a room overlooking the back premises of the OLD DOG he saw the prisoner seize a fowl which was walking about, and take it into an outhouse. Witness immediately informed Wm. Walton, the brewer of the public-house. The latter deposed that he accused prisoner of stealing the fowl, but Lyons denied any knowledge of the bird. On being searched, however, the fowl was discovered dead tied to his waist by a cord and wire.

Thomas Hawley, landlord of the OLD DOG, also gave evidence, adding that he did not wish to press the case.

Prisoner was fined 10s and costs, or 14 days' hard labour.”

A team from here took part in the Walsall and District Air-Gun League. [1903/4]

Walsall Advertiser 6/2/1904

“The annual licensing sessions for the Borough of Walsall were held on Thursday at the Guildhall, and aroused considerable interest. The court was crowded, and many license-holders were unable to obtain admission.....

Notice had been given to 76 license holders to show cause for the renewal of their licenses, evidently as a result of the visits of a sub-committee of magistrates to the licensed premises, the reasons why cause had to be shown being various....

Thomas Hawley, The DOG.”

Walsall Advertiser 22/6/1907

“Dora Bridget Green, 42, Pool Street, was summoned for knowingly sending her son, Richard, aged 9, to the OLD DOG INN, Pool Street, for the purpose of obtaining whisky, which was not sold in a corked and sealed vessel. Thomas Hawley, landlord of the public house, was summoned for knowingly selling whisky to the boy, in an unsealed vessel.

Police-constable Stopford (59) stated that at 10.40pm on Saturday, the 1st inst, he was in Pool Street, when he saw a boy come out of the OLD DOG INN. When he saw the policeman the boy ran across the road into a house. The boy was carrying the cup (produced) which he ascertained contained twopennyworth of whisky. Witness followed the boy into the house, but he could not find him, and the mother said it was her son Richard. He went to the OLD DOG INN and saw Mr. Hawley, the landlord, and told him what he had seen, and he said he had not knowingly served the boy, and said his daughter had previously refused to serve the boy. The Chief Constable said he had really taken the case to summon the mother, as advantage had been taken to send the boy on a busy Saturday night.

Mr. H. H. Jackson, who defended, said Mr. Hawley was serving in the out-door department, and the cup and 2d was put in the trap door and when asked what it was for a woman answered two-pennyworth of whisky. He put the whisky and handed it to the woman and he never saw a boy at all. It was his custom to refuse to serve young boys.

The woman admitted sending the boy, and she was fined 1s and costs (4s), and the Bench expressed the hope that it would be a warning to her. The case against the publican was dismissed.”

Walsall Advertiser 18/2/1911

“John Kennedy, of 3 house, 13 House-row, was summoned by Wm. Henry Walton, of 11, Union Street, for assault, on Feb. 11th. Complainant alleged defendant was one of a gang who had been turned out of the OLD DOG public-house, Pool Street. He waylaid witness and struck him in the eye. The Chief Constable stated that complaints had been received about the gang mentioned by the complainant. Defendant admitted assaulting the complainant, but denied he blacked his eye. Fined 10s and costs or fourteen days.”

1911 Census

20+21, Pool Street

- [1] Thomas V. Hawley (45), publican, born Walsall;
- [2] Kate Hawley (50), wife, married 25 years, born Sedgley;
- [3] Thomas W. Hawley (21), son, draper's assistant, born Walsall;
- [4] Maud Hawley (20), daughter, born Walsall;
- [5] Bernard J. S. Hawley (16), son, born Walsall:

Walsall Observer 24/10/1914

“The annual dinner in connection with the OLD DOG Musical Society was held at the OLD DOG INN, Pool Street, on Tuesday night. After a capital repast, provided by the hostess, Mrs. Hawley, there was an excellent concert, the programme of which included: Pianoforte solo, Mr. Auliffe; songs, Messrs. C. Meeson, B. Hawley, A. Allbut, and E. Coley, and a recitation by Mr. H. Hawley. During the interval, the President (Mr. F. Wood) made a presentation of a ladies hand-bag to Miss Maud Hawley, Miss Hawley suitably responding. Mr. J. Cooper (vice-president) proposed a vote of thanks to the Hostess and the pianist (Mr. Auliffe), which was carried with applause.”

Walsall Observer 12/1/1918

“Walsall and District War Aid Committee. Collection By The Licensed Victuallers, December, 1917.....
OLD DOG, Pool Street. £0 13s 2d.”

It had a full size bagatelle table. [1923]

The license renewal was referred to the Compensation Authority in 1923.

It closed on 15th October 1923.

OLD GOLDEN CUP

Park Street, WALSALL

OWNERS

LICENSEES

Smith [1798]

Henry Lycett [1813]

Jonathan Smith [1818]
Joseph Smith [1822]

NOTES

GOLDEN CUP [1798], [1813], [1820]

Aris's Birmingham Gazette 1/10/1798 - Advert

“Freehold.

To be Sold by Auction, by Randle Walker, on Monday the 8th day of October, 1798, between the hours of Two and Four o'clock in the Afternoon, at Mr. Smith's, the GOLDEN CUP, on Park Street, Walsall, subject to Conditions then to be produced.

Lot I. All the Messuage or Tenement, consisting of a Cellar, Kitchen, Shop, and three Lodging Rooms, situate in Park Street, in Walsall, in the Occupation of Mr. Joseph Platt, at a yearly rent of £5 6s.

Lot II. All the Messuage or Tenement, adjoining the above Premises, known by the RED LION, consisting of three exceeding good Vaults, Kitchen, Parlour, and back Kitchen, five Lodging Rooms a Pump of excellent Water, Brewhouse, and Chamber over the same, with an entire Yard, in the Occupation of Mr. John Sheldon; also a small tenement adjoining, in the Occupation of Mr. Thomas Ketland, together at a yearly rent of £18.

The Premises are under Lease, herein, four years are unexpired at lady Day next.....”

'The History and Directory of Walsall' by Thomas Pearce 1813

“A list of Waggons, &c....

Ling's Manchester, Liverpool, Edinburgh, Glasgow, Leeds, Durham, Newcastle-upon-Tyne, and all parts of the North, from his warehouse, Henry Lycett's, GOLDEN CUP, Park Street, every Sunday and Thursday night, returns every Tuesday and Saturday morning, for Birmingham and all parts of the kingdom.

Solloway carrier loads at Henry Lycett's, GOLDEN CUP, Park Street, for Lichfield and all parts of the North.

Richard Harris, carrier, loads at Henry Lycett's, GOLDEN CUP, Park Street, for Wolverhampton, every Tuesday, Thursday, and Saturday.

Ashmore loads at Henry Lycett's, GOLDEN CUP, every Tuesday for Sheffield.”

Staffordshire Advertiser 28/2/1818 - Notice

“By Order of the Court for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors.....

Henry Lycett, late of Walsall, in the county of Stafford, Publican now prisoners in his Majesty's Gaol of Stafford, for Debt, will be examined before his Majesty's Justices of the Peace at an adjournment of the General Session of the Peace, which will be holden at Stafford, on Saturday the 21st day of March.....”

Staffordshire Advertiser 8/4/1820

“To Serve Mares This Season.....

Cesario, sire of Eccleston, Donna Clara, Fourth of June, &c, &c. See Racing Calendar.

He will be at GOLDEN CUP, Walsall. See hand Bills.”

OLD GRAND

Station Street / Park Street, WALSALL

OWNERS

Grigg and Brettell Ltd.

Ansells Ltd. [1960s]

LICENSEES

George Edwin Morrell (1941 – 1942);

William Alfred Little (1942 – 1943);

Albert Turner (1943 – 1946);

William Platt (1946 – [1966])

NOTES

It was originally ALEXANDRA CONCERT HALL, built on the site of Charles Cooke's beer and wine shop. [1893]

ALEXANDRA THEATRE

It became a cinema. [1930s]

It was destroyed by fire in 1939.

The OLD GRAND opened at 6pm on 1st May 1941.

Walsall Observer 24/12/1942

“Walsall Licensed Victuallers’ Society. The Duke of Gloucester’s Red Cross Fund. List of Subscriptions.....
OLD GRAND VAULTS, Park Street. £2 16s 0d.”

Walsall Observer 15/1/1944

“Walsall Licensed Victuallers’ Society.

Appeal on Behalf of the Merchant Navy Fund, The Duke of Gloucester’s Red Cross Fund and the Aid to China Fund. List of Subscriptions.....

OLD GRAND, Park Street. £9 1s 9d.”

[1960s]

OLD HOUSE AT HOME

29, Portsea Street, (29, Leamore), (Leamore Lane), (31, (29), (10), Portland Street), (Providence Street), Leamore, (Cockshots), BLOXWICH

OWNERS

William Collins

Abraham Collins

Mrs. Ruth Daniels

William Butler and Co. Ltd. (leased)

LICENSEES

William Collins [1858] – [1876];

Abraham Collins [1881] – [1888];

Job Daniels [];

Mrs. Ruth Daniels [1891] – 1894);

John Frederick Bunney (1894 – 1905);

Ruth Bunney (1905 – 1906);

John Howard (1906 – 1910);

William James Howard (1910 – 1912);

Henry ‘Harry’ Tolley (1912 – 1934);

Harold Oakes (1934 – 1943);

Reginald Esketh Oakes (1943 – 1957);

Daniel Smith (1957 – 1960);

Trevor Joseph Charles Green (1960 – [1966])

NOTES

10, Portland Street [1871]

29, Leamore

Providence Street [1881]

29, Portsea Street [1881], [1932], [1939], [1940]

29, Portland Street [1891]

31, Portland Street [1901]

It had a beerhouse license.

Staffordshire Advertiser 4/9/1858

“Annual Licensing Day..... The following beerhouse keepers applied for victuallers’ licenses.....
William Collins, Leamore Lane, Bloxwich. Refused.”

Wolverhampton Chronicle 5/9/1860

“Wednesday last, being the annual licensing day, twenty applications were made by beer-house keepers for victualling licenses.....
William Collins, Bloxwich. Refused.”

1861 Census

Cockshots – OLD HOUSE HOME

- [1] William Collins (54), snaffle bit maker, master, born Walsall;
- [2] Rebecca Collins (44), wife, born Oakengates, Shropshire;
- [3] Abraham Collins (16), son, snaffle bit filer, born Walsall;
- [4] Joseph Greenwood (17), apprentice snaffle bit filer, born Faisley [Fazeley?], Staffordshire;
- [5] Edward Cole (16), apprentice snaffle bit filer, born Staffordshire:

Walsall Free Press 31/8/1861

“The business of the general licensing day then commenced. There were seventeen applications.....
Mr. Wilkinson then applied on behalf of Mr. William Collins, Portland Street, Leamore Lane, whose house was situated (he stated) in a new district. License refused.”

William Collins, retailer of beer, Bloxwich. [1862]

William Collins, beer retailer and bit maker, Leamore Lane. [1865]

William Collins, beer retailer and bridle bit maker, Leamore Lane. [1868], [1870]

1871 Census

10, Portland Street

- [1] William Collins (68), bit maker, born Bloxwich;
- [2] Rebecca Collins (60), wife, born Oakengates, Shropshire;
- [3] Charles William Collins (8), general servant, born Blakenall;
- [4] John Olex ____ (21), general servant, born Aston, Warwickshire:

The licensee was fined 20s and costs, on 19th January 1874, for suffering gaming in his house.

Staffordshire Advertiser 16/9/1876

“Adjourned Licensing Session..... The licenses of the undermentioned were renewed with cautions.....
William Collins, beerhouse keeper, Leamore, Bloxwich In the course of the proceeding the Mayor said the newly-added district of Ryecroft had occasioned the Bench a great deal of trouble, chiefly through the drinking propensities of the inhabitants of that locality, and the magistrates had therefore received special instructions as to looking up the licensed houses in the district.”

Abraham Collins was the son of William.

1881 Census

29, Portsea Street

- [1] Abraham Collins (37), bridle bit maker and licensed victualler, born Bloxwich;
- [2] Mary A. Collins (36), wife, born Willenhall;
- [3] Alfred Collins (7), son, scholar, born Bloxwich;
- [4] Thomas Collins (6), son, scholar, born Bloxwich;
- [5] Joseph Collins (1 day), son, born Bloxwich;
- [6] Jane Wright (66), domestic servant, born Willenhall;
- [7] Edward Pardow (21), boarder, bridle bit maker, born Wolverhampton;
- [8] Charles Wilks (17), boarder, bridle bit maker, born Bloxwich;
- [9] Henry Wilks (16), boarder, bridle bit maker, born Bloxwich;
- [10] Elizabeth Rogers (14), barmaid, born Bloxwich:

Wednesbury Herald 6/5/1882 - Advert

“The OLD HOUSE AT HOME, Bloxwich. To be Sold by Auction, by Messrs. Hawkins and Son, (under a Bill of Sale), on Wednesday, the 10th day of May, 1882, the whole of the Public House Fixtures, Copper, Furnace, Wood Vats, Brewing Utensils, Malt Crusher, Hop Press, Beer Machine, Piping and Taps, Tap, Table, Drinking Tables, Screens, Chairs, Sofa, Washing Stands, Dressing Tables, Feather Beds, Bedsteads, Anvils, Hammers, Vices, Files, Burnishing Tools, Bellows, Finished and Unfinished Stock, and Effects in and upon the above Premises.....”

The licensee was fined 20s and costs, on 30th March 1885, for Sunday trading.

Walsall Observer 24/9/1887

“Walsall Licensing Sessions

The adjourned annual licensing meeting was held yesterday, at the Sessions Court.....

Applications which had been adjourned owing to the tenants having been convicted during the past year.

The following were granted.....

OLD HOUSE AT HOME, Bloxwich.”

Birmingham Daily Post 10/4/1888

“Abraham Collins, keeper of the OLD HOUSE AT HOME, Leamore was summoned for being drunk on his own premises on the night of the 2nd inst, he was ordered to pay costs.”

1891 Census

29, Portland Street

[1] Ruth Daniels (48), widow, beerseller, born Austrey, Warwickshire;

[2] Hannah Law (18), domestic servant, born Bloxwich:

J. Bunney = J. Bunny

Walsall Advertiser 12/10/1895

“National Order Of Free Gardeners. On Saturday night a new Lodge, under the Walsall New District of the above friendly society, was opened at the HOUSE AT HOME, Portland Street, Leamore. After the formal opening by the D.M. (Bro. A. J. Hulse), assisted by the D.D.M (Bro. Thos. Wilson), a good number of young men were introduced and initiated into the mysteries of the Order, and the newly-made members were briefly addressed by the district officers, who explained to them the advantages of membership of the Order. The new members then proceeded to elect their officers, with the following result: L.M., Bro. W. Morris; D.L.M., Bro. A. Morris; S.W., Bro. T. Collins; J.W., Bro. T. Dawson; secretary, Bro. E. Davis; and treasurer, Bro. J. F. Bunny. After the officers had been installed in their respective positions, the host (Bro. Bunny) promised to do all that lay in his power to make the ‘Rise of Leamore’ Lodge second to none in the district. In addition to the above district officers, there were present also Bros. T. Murphy, D.S., E. Davis, E.D., B. Baugh, J. Jones, G. Arms, W. Campbell, W. Clay, &c. This lodge will hold its meetings on alternate Saturdays, from 7 to 9 o’clock.”

Walsall Advertiser 22/10/1898

“On Monday evening the members and committee of the Leamore and District Floral and Horticultural Society, together with a few friends, held their third annual dinner in the clubroom of the OLD HOUSE AT HOME, Portland Street. A capital spread was put on the table by Host J. Bunny, and full justice was done to the good things provided. After the cloths were drawn, a smoking concert was held, at which Councillor Cope took the chair. In the course of a few remarks, he (the chairman) urged the desirability of extending the radius for exhibitors, for, at present, the shortness of the radius prevented a few well-known growers from exhibiting. By increasing the radius they would be increasing the interest in their show, and in time would be able to have a very large one. They must take into account that the majority of the subscriptions came from outside the radius, and unless the radius were increased the subscriptions might fall off. During the remaining portion of the evening, songs, etc. were well rendered by ‘local talent.’ Votes of thanks to the Chairman, the Host, and the entertainers concluded a most enjoyable evening.”

1901 Census

31, Portland Street

[1] John F. Bunney (48), bricklayer and beerhouse keeper, born Bloxwich;

[2] Ruth Bunney (51), wife, born Austrey, Warwickshire;

[3] Phoebe Bunney (14), daughter, born Bloxwich;

[4] Agnes Edwards (18), general servant, born Boxwich;

[5] Martha Barton (59), servant, born Darlaston:

[John F. must have married Ruth Daniels.]

Walsall Advertiser 28/12/1901

“John Arnold (22) alias William Darney, otherwise Thomas Jackson, was in custody at Willenhall Police Court on Monday charged with breaking into the bakehouse of Shadrach Edwards, baker and grocer, Walsall Road, Willenhall, on the 14th inst. The prosecutor said the bakehouse was alright at 6pm but at 6am he found that 14 flour sacks and two pieces of hurden, value 24s, had gone. The sacks were afterwards found sold at Bloxwich. Police-constable Quinn arrested the prisoner in the same street as the OLD HOUSE AT HOME was in at Bloxwich. ‘A man named Joseph Tew got in through the window, and I got in afterwards.’

The officer went to Bloxwich and recovered four of the bags from a Mrs. Reeves.

The prisoner said as he had been coaxed by the police to plead guilty he should plead guilty, although another fellow stole them. Prisoner was committed to the Adjourned Staffordshire Quarter Sessions to be held on the 31st inst, bail was allowed, himself in £10 and one surety of £10.”

[At the Staffordshire Quarter Sessions on 31st December, 1901, John Arnold was found guilty, and was committed for twelve months with hard labour.]

1911 Census

Leamore

- [1] William James Howard (26), licensed victualler, born Leamore, near Walsall;
- [2] Sarah Howard (54), mother, widow, born West Bromwich;
- [3] Nellie Cockayne (15), visitor, bridle stretcher, born Leamore, near Walsall:

Walsall Advertiser 11/3/1911

“The monthly meeting of the Walsall and District Licensed Victuallers’ and Beer Retailers’ Friendly and Protection Society was held on Thursday last.....

Mr. William James Howard, OLD HOUSE AT HOME INN, Portland Street, Leamore was unanimously elected a member of the Society.”

William Howard, beer retailer, Portland Street, Leamore. [1912]

Walsall Observer 21/11/1914

“The following is a list of box collections to date made on behalf of the Prince of Wales’ National Relief Fund (Walsall Branch).....

OLD HOUSE AT HOME, Leamore, 2s 9d.”

Walsall Observer 28/11/1914

“The meeting of the Walsall and District Licensed Victuallers’ and Beer Retailers’ Friendly and Protection Society was held at the CROWN INN, Lower Hall Lane.....

New members..... Harry Tolley, OLD HOUSE AT HOME, Leamore.”

Staffordshire Advertiser 16/1/1915

“Benjamin Oliver, of 43, Portland Street, was summoned for being drunk on the licensed premises of the OLD HOUSE AT HOME, Leamore, and with being drunk and disorderly in the street on Jan. 9. Mr H. H. Jackson prosecuted. The evidence showed that defendant was not served with drink at the house, and, as he refused to leave, had to be ejected. Fines of 20s and costs on the first charge and 10s and costs on the second were imposed.”

Walsall Observer 12/1/1918

“Walsall and District War Aid Committee. Collection By The Licensed Victuallers, December, 1917.....

OLD HOUSE AT HOME, Leamore. £1 8s 2d.”

1939 Register

29, Portsea Street – OLD HOUSE AT HOME (2 of 3)

- [1] Harold Oakes, date of birth 24/8/1884, licensee, married;
- [2] Jessie E. Oakes, dob 15/1/1885, unpaid domestic duties, married;

Walsall Observer 7/12/1940

“Walsall Licensed Victuallers’ Society.

Motor Ambulance Effort on behalf of Walsall and District branch of the British Red Cross Society.

First List of Subscriptions.....

OLD HOUSE AT HOME, Leamore, £3 0s 0d.”

Walsall Observer 29/8/1942

“County Borough of Walsall. Mayor’s War Aid Fund. Nineteenth List of Subscriptions.....

Mr. Oakes, the OLD HOUSE AT HOME, Leamore. £0 16s 5d.”

Walsall Observer 24/12/1942

“Walsall Licensed Victuallers’ Society. The Duke of Gloucester’s Red Cross Fund. List of Subscriptions.....

OLD HOUSE AT HOME, Leamore. £3 15s 7d.”

Walsall Observer 15/1/1944

“Walsall Licensed Victuallers’ Society.

Appeal on Behalf of the Merchant Navy Fund, The Duke of Gloucester’s Red Cross Fund and the Aid to China Fund. List of Subscriptions.....

OLD HOUSE AT HOME, Portsea Street, Leamore. £4 10s 0d.”

A full license was granted on 2nd February 1950.

The license was surrendered on 11th February 1971.

OLD HOUSE AT HOME

73, Norton Road, Little Common, Pelsall, WALSALL

OWNERS

Wolverhampton and Dudley Breweries Ltd.

LICENSEES

William Bowen [1890] – 1900);
Mrs. Hannah Bowen (1900 – 1904);
John Benton (1904 – [1925]
Sidney Cooper [1939] – [1940]
Allan Price [2023] manager

NOTES

It had an ante 1869 beerhouse license.

The original pub stood some 30 yards away.

Lichfield Mercury 3/10/1890

“The following publicans were granted one hour’s extension on Monday, October 6th, on the occasion of Pelsall wakes William Bowen.”

1891 Census

Little Common – OLD HOUSE AT HOME

- [1] William Bowen (57), publican, born Rodinton, Shropshire;
- [2] Hannah Bowen (51), wife, born Pelsall;
- [3] Martha Bowen (23), daughter, born Wednesfield;
- [4] Isaac Taylor (22), stepson, butcher, born Wednesfield:

William Bowen died in 1900.

1901 Census

Norton Road

- [1] Hannah Bowen (61), widow, public house keeper, born Essington;
- [2] William Taylor (38), son, widower, coal miner below ground, born Spring Bank, Willenhall;
- [3] Phoebe Taylor (33), daughter, born March End, Willenhall;
- [4] Isaac Taylor (32), son, butcher, born Willenhall;
- [5] Isaac Taylor (10), grandson, born Pelsall:

Walsall Advertiser 12/11/1904

“Temporary transfers were granted by the Rushall Bench, on Monday, with respect to.....
OLD HOUSE AT HOME, Pelsall, from Hannah Bowen to John Benton.”

Walsall Advertiser 19/8/1905

“The 53rd annual general meeting of the members of the Walsall and District Licensed Victuallers’ and Beer Retailers’ Friendly and Protection Society, was held on Thursday last.....
New Members..... John Benton, OLD HOUSE AT HOME, Pelsall.”

1911 Census

Norton Road – OLD HOUSE AT HOME INN

- [1] John Benton (49), coal miner hewer, beerhouse keeper, born Pelsall;
- [2] Ruth Benton (45), wife, married 27 years, assist in business, born Wolverhampton;
- [3] Harriet Benton (24), daughter, assist in business, born Pelsall;
- [4] Job Benton (19), son, coal miner, horse driver below ground, born Pelsall;
- [5] Ellen Benton (16), daughter, born Pelsall;

[6] John William Benton (14), son, colliery screen labourer, above ground, born Pelsall;

[7] Lily Benton (11), daughter, school, born Pelsall;

[8] David Benton (9), son, school, born Pelsall:

Lichfield Mercury 13/4/1914

“The Rushall adjourned Licensing Sessions.....

Mr. Jackson applied for the renewal of the OLD HOUSE AT HOME, Pelsall, which was opposed on the ground of redundancy. The Bench renewed the license.”

Walsall Observer 13/2/1915

“Rushall Brewster Sessions.....

Applying for sanction to alterations to the OLD HOUSE AT HOME, Pelsall, Mr. H. H. Jackson (Walsall) said these entailed no re-arrangement in the drinking area, but were purely to provide better accommodation for the licensee.

After examining the plans Sir Edward Holden announced that the matter would be held over for further consideration on the adjourned day.”

Walsall Advertiser 13/3/1915

“The adjourned licensing sessions for the Rushall Division were held at the local Police Court on Monday.....

Respecting alterations made to the OLD HOUSE AT HOME, Pelsall, Mr. Jackson said the magistrates assembled at the annual sessions had inspected them. There was no increase in the licensing or drinking area, but the alterations had been done purely for the living accommodation of the licensee.

The Chairman said the licensing justices saw the desirability of such an improvement and his (Mr. Jackson’s) application for approval of plans would be granted.”

Staffordshire Advertiser 19/2/1921

“The annual licensing sessions for the Rushall Division were held on Monday.....

All the beerhouse licenses would be renewed, with the exception of the NEW INN, and the OLD HOUSE AT HOME, Pelsall, neither of which it seemed to the justices, was needed, but, at any rate, the premises should have more accommodation.”

Lichfield Mercury 13/3/1925

“Rushall Licensing Sessions.....

The renewal of the OLD HOUSE AT HOME, Norton Road, Pelsall, was objected to by the police on the ground of redundancy. Inspector Skerratt stated that the licensee, John Benton, had been in the house since November, 1904, without complaint or conviction. The property was very old and badly constructed as a licensed house.

Mr. Jackson, for the owners, the Wolverhampton and Dudley Brewery Company, Ltd., said the house was probably the oldest one in Pelsall. He would be sorry to see it taken away and replaced probably by some staring place. He thought it was admitted that a diminution of licenses did not mean a diminution of drinking, but a concentration of drinking. As he had said before, the death of a pub meant the birth of a club. He had heard a lot said about the evils of drinking in public houses, but he had never heard any diatribe against clubs.

Would they, he asked, rather have a public house under the strict supervision of the police, or a club that had no supervision? If there was such a thing as evil in drinking, they had it ten times worse in a club than in a public house.

The house was referred to compensation on the ground of redundancy.”

Staffordshire Advertiser 20/6/1925

“The Principal Meeting of the County Compensation authority, under the Licensing (Consolidation) Act, 1910, was held at the Shirehall, Stafford, on Thursday.....

In the case of the OLD HOUSE AT HOME, Norton Road, Pelsall, an ante ’69 beerhouse, referred from the Rushall Division, Inspector Scarratt stated that there were 20 licensed houses in the parish, giving one to every 196 inhabitants.

Mr. H. H. Jackson, of Walsall, who appeared for the owners and licensee, John Benton, said that the latter had held the license 20 years without any complaint. Mr. and Mrs. Benton were both elderly people, and what they would do if the license were taken away he (Mr. Jackson) did not know. He thought they deserved reasonable consideration.

Benton was then called, and was asked by Mr. Jackson how he was going to get a living if deprived of his license.

Witness: I don’t know. Go on the dole I suppose.

The Chairman: Is there any dole for licensees? (Laughter).

Mr. Jackson: I think there ought to be. When a license is taken away the licensee ought to be superannuated and have a pension out of county funds. He added that the house in question was an old-fashioned one, and had been well conducted.

The committee decided to renew the license.”

Lichfield Mercury 23/10/1925

“Brownhills And District Air-Gun League.....

Pelsall OLD HOUSE AT HOME (away) defeated Pelsall QUEENS HOTEL (home) by 215 to 194.”

Lichfield Mercury 11/12/1925

“Brownhills & District Air-Gun League.....

Station Hotel, Brownhills (away), defeated OLD HOUSE AT HOME, Pelsall, by 211 points to 202.”

1939 Register

Norton Road – OLD HOUSE AT HOME

[1] Sidney Cooper, date of birth 14/6/1894, coal miner, stallman, married;

[2] Lily Cooper, dob 9/1/1900, unpaid domestic duties, duties in connection with Public House, married;

[3] David Chambers, dob 10/11/1895, coal miner, stallman, single;

[4] Violet (Blakemore) Cope, dob 16/2/1924, maid, house and bar, single:

Walsall Observer 14/9/1940

“An A.R.P warden gave evidence in the case against Sidney Cooper (46), OLD HOUSE AT HOME, Norton Road, Pelsall, who was also fined 30s with 9s special costs for a blackout offence. The warden said that at 11.30pm on August 18 a light was showing from a living room window of the public house and he told the licensee to black the window out properly. This Cooper agreed to do, but at midnight the faulty screening was unchanged and the police were informed. While the constable was examining the window another light from an upstairs window came on for about a minute.”

Closed

Rebuilt [1950s]

It was reputedly built on the site of an abbatoir.

[2023]

OLD KINGS ARMS

Wallington Heath, BLOXWICH

OWNERS

LICENSEES

NOTES

It had become a private dwelling called Wallington House by 1814.

OLD KINGS ARMS

78, (79), Lower Rushall Street, WALSALL

OWNERS

Cannock Brewery Co. Ltd. [1880]

Mrs. Spurrier, Acocks Green

Samuel Allsopp and Co. Ltd.

Ind Coope and Allsopp (acquired on 23rd January 1936)

Grigg and Brettell Ltd. (acquired on 24th April 1937)

LICENSEES

Thomas Male [1813]

William Derry [1818]

Thomas Male [1822] – [1845]

James Sheldon [1849] – [1861]

Charles Cooper [1861] – 1866;

Henry Nevill (1866 – [1870])

Thomas Hickson [1871]

Spurrier [1872]
Mrs. Mary Spurrier [1872] – 1873);
James Fox (1873 – [1875];
John Archibald [];
Henry Franklin [1880];
Joseph Willson []
William Mahon [];
Henry Phibbs [];
Josiah Wedge [] – 1890)
John Nicklin [] – 188_);
Richard Thomas (188_ – 1894);
Harriet Bassett (1894);
Thomas Bassett (1894) temporary
William Slater (1894 – 1900);
Elizabeth Ross (1900 – 1901);
Thomas William Taylor (1901 – 1902);
George Edmund Knight (1902 – 1904);
Harry Langley (1904 – 1936);
James Anson (1936);
David Abraham Warman (1936 – 1938):

NOTES

It was situated opposite to Whittimore Street.

Rushall Street [1822]

78, Lower Rushall Street [1858], [1860], [1861], [1862], [1865], [1871], [1872], [1901], [1908], [1911], [1932]

79, Lower Rushall Street [1868], [1870], [1872]

KINGS ARMS [1818], [1835], [1836], [1841], [1848], [1861], [1866], [1872], [1881], [1892], [1896], [1908], [1912], [1916], [1932]

OLD KINGS ARMS [1845], [1865], [1868], [1879], [1892], [1911], [1934]

KINGS HEAD [1850]

Staffordshire Advertiser 13/8/1836 - Deaths

“On the 29th ult. Rebecca, wife of Mr. Thomas Male, of the KINGS ARMS, Lower Rushall Street, Walsall, aged 62.”

1841 Census

Rushall Street

[1] Thomas Male (65), victualler, born Staffordshire:

Staffordshire Advertiser 25/11/1848

“On Saturday last, an inquest was held at the KINGS ARMS INN, Lower Rushall Street, before W. Cotterill, Esq, coroner, upon the body of James Martin, a lad, whose death was occasioned under the following circumstance. He was going along High Street, Walsall, when another lad put his foot out which occasioned the deceased to fall, and he sustained such injuries as to cause his death a few days after the accident. The jury returned a verdict of Accidental Death.”

1851 Census

Lower Rushall Steet

[1] James Sheldon (55), publican, born Great Barr;

[2] Phoeby Sheldon (46), wife, born Darlaston;

[3] Selina Bonehill (20), house servant, born Walsall:

James Sheldon and Charles Cooper appeared in the same 1861 Directory.

1861 Census

78, Lower Rushall Street – KINGS ARMS

[1] Charles Cooper (41), licensed victualler, born Southwick, Surrey;

[2] Maria Cooper (41), wife, born Walsall;

[3] Harriett Cooper (13), daughter, scholar, born St. Lukes, London;

[4] Emma Cooper (10), daughter, scholar, born Walsall;

[5] Harry Cooper (8), son, scholar, born Walsall;

[6] Mary O'Marrow (18), general servant, born Ireland:

London Gazette 29/4/1862

“James Sheldon, Deceased.

Notice is hereby given that all creditors and other persons having any claims against the estate of James Sheldon, late of Lower Rushall-street, Walsall, in the county of Stafford, Gentleman, formerly a Licensed Victualler, deceased (who died on the 11th day of February, 1861, and whose will and codicil were proved in the District Registry of Her Majesty’s Court of Probate at Lichfield, on the 12th day of April following), are hereby required to send in the particulars of such claims to James Beddoe, Draper, and Edwin Sheldon, Bridle Cutter, both of Walsall aforesaid, the executors of the said deceased, or to their Solicitor, William Thomas, of Walsall aforesaid, on or before the 10th day of June next, at the expiration of which time the said executors will proceed to distribute the assets of the said James Sheldon, deceased, having regard to those claims only of which they shall then have had notice, and that they will not be liable for the assets so distributed to any person of whose claim they shall not then have had notice.

Dated the 25th day of April, 1862.

William Thomas, Walsall, Staffordshire, Solicitor to the said Executors.”

Charles Cooper was also a gig saddler. [1864], [1865]

He issued tokens from here.

Birmingham Daily Post 1/8/1865 - Advert

“The OLD KINGS ARMS TAVERN, Lower Rushall Street, Walsall.

By Roderick & Son. To be Sold by Private Contract, the Lease, Licenses, and Goodwill of the above capital house of business, now doing an excellent tavern and out-door trade. Coming-in about £400.

Apply, 36, Cherry Street, Birmingham.”

Wolverhampton Chronicle 24/10/1866

“On Friday last, the usual Michaelmas Quarter Sessions of the Peace for the borough were held in the Guildhall Assembly Room, before W. J. Neale, Esq, Recorder. There were also on the Bench Messrs. J. Brewer, jun. (Mayor), and J. Shannon.

Sarah Ann Worley, 16, domestic servant, was indicted for having on the 13th of July last stolen a silk mantle, of the value of 25s, the property of her master, Charles Cooper, a licensed victualler, at the time living in Rushall-street, but now residing in Birmingham. Mr. Jelf prosecuted. The Jury returned a verdict of not guilty and the prisoner was discharged.”

1871 Census

78, Lower Rushall Street – OLD KINGS ARMS

[1] Thomas Hickson (?) (37), publican and engineer, born Coppice Hall, Staffordshire;

[2] Sarah A. Hickson (36), wife, born Stratford le Bow;

[3] Alice M. Hickson (1), daughter, born Walsall:

Birmingham Daily Post 6/6/1872

“On Saturday, thirty-four members of the 1st and 2nd Companies of Walsall Volunteers competed at 200, 500, and 600 yards, five shots at each, for a silver tea service, presented by Mr. Spurrier, of the KINGS ARMS INN, Lower Rushall Street, and to become the absolute property of the man winning it three times, Corporal Gee won with a score of 43, Sergeant Patrick being second best with a score of 42.”

Wolverhampton Express and Star 1/10/1875

“At Walsall, Donald McKenzie was brought up in custody under remand charged with having embezzled various sums of money belonging to his employer, Mr. Emil Behncke, wine and cigar merchant, New Street, Birmingham. Mr. Gillespie (Messrs. Wilkin-son and Gillespie) appeared for the prosecutor, and the prisoner was defended by Mr. Rhodes, of Wolverhampton.

James Fox, Lower Rushall, publican, said that since the 10th of August last, he had paid the prisoner £3 1s on the prosecutor’s account, for which he produced a receipt signed by the prisoner.

Simeon Lunn, beerhouse keeper, Darlaston, produced a receipt of £3 3s, which he had paid to the prisoner for Mr. Behncke.

The prosecutor said he received neither of the above sums from the prisoner nor others, the payment of which was proved at a previous hearing of the case. He had, however, received two £5 notes on account of those sums. He did not owe prisoner anything, but had overpaid him £13 19s 4d on his commission account.

Mr. Rhodes contended that, owing to the nature of the relations between the parties, the prisoner was not criminally liable, although he had, perhaps, acted morally wrong. The Bench, however, expressed their belief that there was a prima facie case warranting a committal.

Mr. Rhodes said that, looking at the time that must elapse before the sessions, his client would plead guilty.

Prisoner was thereupon sentenced to four months’ hard labour.”

Birmingham Daily Post 16/1/1879

“Yesterday afternoon Mr. Fletcher, coroner, held an inquest at the OLD KINGS ARMS, Upper Rushall Street, on the body of Leah Norah Manning, aged 14 months, illegitimate daughter of Caroline Manning, a lodger at the house of Wm. Parkes, Intown Row. The evidence showed that, about seven o’clock on Saturday evening, a small bottle of laudanum was taken into the lodging house for the use of the landlord, a bed ridden man, and the child being fretful at the time and crying for the bottle, Mrs. Parkes, not knowing the deleterious nature of the drug, with the consent and approval of the mother, poured a small quantity into the child’s mouth. Soon afterwards the child fell asleep, and at half-past eleven the mother, becoming alarmed, took her to Dr. Ketty, who directed hot coffee to be administered, and every effort was made to keep the child awake. His orders were obeyed, but the child died at about half-past one. Dr. Maclachan, who made the post mortem examination, attributed death to opium poisoning. The jury returned a verdict of Homicide by Misadventure, and at their request the mother of the child, Mrs. Parkes were censured.”

Walsall Advertiser 8/6/1880 - Advert

“Cannock Brewery Co. Limited require Tenders for Woodwork on the outside
OLD KINGS ARMS, Rushall Street.....
Inside with Papering, &c, of the
OLD KINGS ARMS.....
All the above are situate in the town of Walsall.
Particulars as to class of work may be obtained at, and Tenders received by Cannock Brewery Co. Limited, Cannock.”

Walsall Advertiser 24/5/1890 - Advert

“Summary of Sales by Walter Hughes
Wednesday, 4th June, at Two o’clock, at the OLD KINGS ARMS, Rushall Street, Walsall.
Unreserved Clearance Sale of the whole of the Capital Brewing Plant and Utensils, by order of the out-going tenant Mr. Josiah Wedge.”

Walsall Advertiser 11/6/1892 - Advert

“To Let. The OLD KINGS ARMS, Lower Rushall Street, Walsall; full license may be taken to at valuation; well fitted house, doing good trade; free for wines and spirits, and tied to Allsopp & Co. for ales.
Apply, Walter Hughes, Hotel Valuer, Walsall.”

Walsall Advertiser 1/9/1894

“The following temporary authorities were granted.....
OLD KINGS ARMS, from the administrators of Harriet Bassett to Thomas Bassett.”

Walsall Advertiser 25/5/1895 - Advert

“R.A.O.B. ‘Prince Of Wales’ Lodge is held at the OLD KINGS ARMS, Lower Rushall Street, Tonight, 8.30.
Host Bro. William Slater.”

Lichfield Mercury 16/8/1895 - Advert

“Wanted, a thorough respectable Girl as General Servant; aged about 19; country preferred.
Apply Slater, OLD KINGS ARMS, Lower Rushall Street, Walsall.”

Walsall Advertiser 14/9/1895

“Walsall And District Licensed Victuallers’ Society.
The monthly meeting of this society was held on Thursday last.....
New Members..... Mr. William Slater, OLD KINGS ARMS.”

Walsall Advertiser 27/2/1896 - Advert

“Conservative League Jottings.
‘Greatrex Lodge’. A meeting of above lodge will be held on Wednesday next, at 8 o’clock prompt at the OLD KINGS ARMS, Lower Rushall Street.”

Walsall Advertiser 16/1/1897

“Greatrex Lodge. A most successful smoking concert in connection with the above lodge was held at the OLD KINGS ARMS, Lower Rushall Street, on Wednesday evening. The W.M. (Bro. A. Y. Brookes) presided over a good company of members and friends, and a very enjoyable evening was spent. Apologies were received from Bro. A. W. Greatrex, who was unable to be present, being away from town, and Bro. T. H. Greatrex, who was also unable to attend. The programme was as follows: Song, ‘Mona,’ Mr. Cash; song, ‘True till death,’ Mr. Johnson; song, ‘Erin,’ Mr. Sealey; recitation, ‘Seven ages,’ Mr. Jameson; song, ‘My sweetheart,’ Mr. Bowen; song, ‘The Midshipmite,’ Mr. Johnson; song, ‘In friendship’s name’ (encore ‘There is a flower that bloometh’), Mr. Cash; recitation, ‘The fate of Nancy Brig’ (encore ‘Barbara Fritch’), Mr. Jameson; song, ‘Ora pro nobis,’ Mr. Powis; song, ‘The old story,’ Mr. Johnson; song, ‘Rather,’ Mr. Southall; ‘God save the Queen.’ Mr. J. Lowbridge acted as accompanist.”

1901 Census

78, Lower Rushall Street

- [1] Elizabeth Ross (46), widow, publican, born Walsall;
- [2] Lily Ross (23), daughter, born Walsall;
- [3] Maude Ross (22), daughter, costumier, born Walsall;

- [4] Marion Ross (20), daughter, tailoress, born Walsall;
- [5] Ada Ross (19), daughter, barmaid, born Walsall;
- [6] Tom Ross (15), son, saddler's ironmonger, born Walsall;
- [7] Alfred Ross (13), son, butcher, born Walsall;
- [8] Andy Ross (11), son, born Walsall;
- [9] May Ross (10), daughter, born Walsall:

1911 Census

78, Lower Rushall Street

- [1] Harry Langley (45), publican, born Walsall;
- [2] Alice Langley (44), wife, married 24 years, assist in business, born Walsall;
- [3] Florrie Langley (23), daughter, tailoress, machine, born Walsall;
- [4] Ethel Langley (20), daughter, clerk, buckle manufacturer, born Walsall;
- [5] Jessie Langley (18), daughter, clerk, clothier, born Walsall;
- [6] Harry Langley (14), son, errand boy, born Walsall;
- [7] Irene Langley (10), daughter, school, born Walsall:

Walsall Advertiser 23/12/1911 - Letter

"Robins' Xmas Breakfast And Old Folks Dinner.

To the Editor of the Walsall Advertiser.

Sir. In forwarding you a further list of subscriptions paid and promised on account of the above fund, we beg to thank your readers for their generosity already extended to us. Upwards of 3,000 children and 1,000 old folk will be fed on Christmas morning next, at the Town Hall, and to do this will involve an expenditure of about £200. Donations may be paid to the Hon. Treasurer, London City and Midland Bank, or to the Secretary, 30, Lumley Road, by whom they will be gratefully acknowledged.

Thanking you in anticipation, Yours faithfully, John Venables (Mayor), President, R. B. Sutton, Chairman, A. H. Anstey, Secretary.....

Collected per. Mr. Langley, OLD KINGS ARMS, Rushall Street, 4s 6d....."

Walsall Advertiser 23/3/1912

"The monthly meeting of the Walsall and District Licensed Victuallers' and Beer Retailers' Friendly and Protection Society was held on Thursday week.....

New Members..... Harry Langley, KINGS ARMS INN, Lower Rushall Street."

Walsall Observer 12/1/1918

"Walsall and District War Aid Committee. Collection By The Licensed Victuallers, December, 1917.....

OLD KINGS ARMS, Lower Rushall Street. £0 8s 7d."

Harry Langley was vice president of Walsall and District Licensed Victuallers' and Beer Retailers' Friendly and Provident Society. [1934], [1935]

Staffordshire Advertiser 14/8/1937

"At the Walsall Licensing Transfer Sessions on Tuesday.....

The license of the OLD KINGS ARMS, Lower Rushall Street, was renewed subject to it being surrendered later, when new premises were erected in Coalpool Lane."

It closed on 7th March 1938.

The license was surrendered.

Walsall Observer 3/2/1940

"Both members of old Walsall families, well-known, especially in the Paddock district, Mr. and Mrs. James Fox, of 4, Burleigh Street, celebrated their golden wedding on Monday, having been married fifty years ago at St. George's Church by the Rev. Colin Barrett, who was then vicar of the parish.

Mr. Fox's father, whose Christian name was also James, was at different times licensee of two Lower Rushall Street public-houses – the KINGS ARMS and the ACORN (now demolished) – and also the MINERVA, Paddock Lane....."

Walsall Observer 19/10/1940

"In the opinion of the Housing Committee and the Public Works Committee, this is a very satisfactory arrangement for dealing with this area,' said Councillor Whiston, on whose motion the Council approved an arrangement for the purchase, for £450 and costs, of the freehold premises known as the OLD KINGS ARMS, Lower Rushall Street, the conveyance of the premises known as the MALT SHOVEL, Lower Rushall Street, and the site of the OLD KINGS ARMS; and the conveyance by the Corporation to the Highgate (Walsall) Brewery Co, Ltd, of a site at the junction of Lower Rushall Street and Holtshill Lane, on which the brewery company will undertake to erect a new public house as soon as materials are available and a license to build has been obtained. The arrangement also provides for payment by the Corporation to the brewery company of £700 by way of compensation, plus thirty guineas towards the company's costs, payment to be deferred pending loan sanction and interest to be paid by the Corporation in the meantime at 4 per cent.”

Demolished

OLD KINGS ARMS

2, West Bromwich Street / 1, Spout Lane, Caldmore, WALSALL

OWNERS

John Thorpe, Bradford Street, Walsall
Job Wheway
Thomas Robinson and Co. Ltd, Burton on Trent
Arthur Beebee Ltd. [1905], [1910]
Ind Coope and Allsopp Ltd. (acquired on 31st July 1934)
Ansells Ltd. (acquired on 16th May 1960)

LICENSEES

Daniel Gould [1834] – [1842]
Mrs. Eliza Gould [1845] – [1850]
Richard Wheeler [1849] – [1850]
James Ashwell [1851] – 1855)
William Gould [] – 1857);
John Mason (1857 – [1859]
George Holden [1860] – [1861]
John Hall [1865] – 1866);
George Muggleton (1866 – [1868]
Joseph Thorpe [] – 1869);
Henry Bunn (1869 – []
William Cornfield [1871] – [1873];
George Wheway [1881] – 1890);
James Mason (1890 – 1891);
Walter Ross (1891 – 1893);
William Hawley [1892] ?
Phoebe Adeline Ross (1893 – 1894);
Joe Fawcett (1894 – 1895);
John Sprawson Iliffe (1895 – 1896);
Arthur Trott (1896);
Richard Turner (1896 – 1898);
Charlotte Turner (1898 – 1901);
George Edward Pritchett (1901 – 1902);
Henry Gossage (1902 – 1903);
Harry Beebee (1903 – 1904);
Arthur Beebee (1904 – 1906);
William Dukes (1906 – 1912);
George Armishaw Thornton (1912 – 1915);
Robert Ratcliffe (1915 – 1928);
Sidney Cooper (1928 – 1932);
Edward Jones [1929] ?
Mrs. Louisa Bradbury (1932 – 1940);
Abel Belmore Shenton (1940);
William Alton (1940 – 1942);
Harry Lowe (1942 – 1944);
John Henry Pearce (1944 – 1950);
Leslie Ernest Allaway (1950 – 1951);
Albert Edward Meadows (1951 – 1953);
George Dennis Weaver (1953 – 1957);
Elizaberth Rose Weaver (1957 – 1958);
William Samuel Packham Jones (1958);

William Smith (1958 – 1959);
George Crump (1959 – 1960);
Derrick Neil Renton (1960 – 1961);
Roy Miller (1961);
Leonard Jones (1961 – 1962);
Derek Edward Alexander (1962 – 1963);
Edward Levy (1963 – 1964);
John Walker (1964);
Iris May Lea (1964 – 1965);
William Henry Lea (1965 – [1966])

NOTES

Caldmore [1860]

1, Spout Lane [1871], [1872], [1881], [1892]

2, West Bromwich Street [1904],[1908], [1911], [1912], [1932]

KINGS HEAD [1834], [1853]

KINGS ARMS [1842], [1849], [1851], [1855], [1869], [1871], [1891], [1895], [1896], [1904], [1908], [1909], [1912], [1916], [1921], [1929], [1932], [1942]

OLD KINGS ARMS [1880], [1881], [1995]

Birmingham Journal 13/7/1850 - Advert

“Staffordshire. Freehold Dwelling Houses, Public House, and Building Land, at Caldmore, and the Birchills, in the Foreign of Walsall.

To Be Sold By Auction, By George Allin at the OLD KINGS ARMS, Caldmore, near Walsall, on Monday, the 29th July, 1850, at Six o’clock in the evening, in the following or other such lots as shall be agreed upon at the time of sale, and subject to conditions then to be produced.

Lot 2. The old-established Inn, called the OLD KINGS ARMS, situate at Caldmore aforesaid, fronting the road leading from Walsall to West Bromwich, in the occupation of Mr. Richard Wheeler; with Brewhouse, Workshop, Malt Room, two-stalled Stable, entire Yard, Pump of excellent water, and a large productive Garden and Premises thereto belonging.

The House contains Bar, Smoke Room, Tap Room, Parlour, good Cellars, and three Bed Rooms. Also the Dwelling House adjoining, with two Workshops at the back, suitable for Twenty pairs of hands, in the occupation of Mr. Craddock, Snaffle Bit Maker.”

Staffordshire Advertiser 9/7/1853

“The following three publicans were, on Wednesday last, fined, the first two 10s each, and the last 20s, for selling during prohibited hours on the Sabbath. Mr. James Fisher, the MINERVA, Ablewell Street; Mr. James Ashwell, the KINGS HEAD, Caldmore; and Mr. John Ricketts, of the MALT SHOVEL, Lower Rushall Street.”

Birmingham Journal 12/5/1855

“About half-past three o’clock on Tuesday morning, Police-constable Childs, in going his rounds, discovered a man weltering in his blood in Dudley Street. The unfortunate man was partially insensible, but the officer succeeded in obtaining his address, and at once removed him thither, where medical aid was promptly called in. The name of the injured man was John Jennings, and he had three incised wounds on the head, and one on the arm. A report of the transaction was made to Mr. Bilson, Superintendent of Police, and the active officer instantly instituted inquiries which led to the following information. Jennings, with a soldier and other persons, was drinking till near three o’clock on Tuesday morning, at the KINGS ARMS, Caldmore, when they left. One of the party, a returned convict and a notorious ruffian, named Holland, wanted to pick a quarrel with a collier, and Jennings interfered to prevent a fight. The collier ran away, and the man Holland then turned upon the peacemaker, and exclaimed, ‘If I can’t have my revenge upon him, I will upon you.’ Holland put his hand in his pocket, drew something out, and directly Jennings found himself wounded, and fell down insensible. The ruffian had absconded, but the most strenuous efforts are being made by the police for his apprehension. The wounded man is going favourably.”

Staffordshire Advertiser 1/9/1855

“Monday was the day appointed for the renewal of, and hearing of applications for fresh licenses.

The license of W.(?) Ashwell, KINGS ARMS, Caldmore, which was in abeyance, was renewed on a promise that the house should be regularly conducted in future.”

Birmingham Journal 13/10/1855

“F. B. Oerton, Esq, (Mayor), and H. Highway and J. Shannon, Esqs, were on the Bench on Wednesday last, when Mr. William Gould applied for the transfer of the license of the KINGS ARMS, Caldmore, from James Ashwell to himself. The applicant some time ago took the house and fixtures from the present landlord, made repeated applications for a transfer of the license, and they were invariably refused. The Mayor remarked that he would not undo a resolution formed by the Bench of Magistrates. The applicant said the license expired that day, and he wished to know what he was to do. The Mayor replied that the license had been granted at the last licensing day to Mr. Ashwell, and they (the Magistrates,) had nothing to do with Mr. Gould, who well knew why the transfer had been refused. Card playing to a great extent had been carried on, and continued within the last nine or ten days. The application was refused.”

Wolverhampton Chronicle 5/12/1855

“At the Magistrates’ meeting on Wednesday, applications for the transfer of licenses were heard.....

A person named Gould applied for the transfer of the KINGS ARMS, Caldmore, from James Ashwell. The applicant had been refused the transfer on several previous occasions, and his application was again refused, in consequence of the disorderly manner in which the house had been conducted.”

Walsall Free Press 30/1/1858 - Advert

“To Be Let, and may be entered upon immediately, that good old-licensed house, the OLD KINGS ARMS, situate at Caldmore, and brewing twelve bushels per week.

Apply to Mr. John Mason, the landlord, who is leaving on account of ill health.”

Walsall Free Press 19/2/1859 - Advert

“Sale At The OLD KINGS ARMS, Caldmore, Walsall.

To be Sold By Auction, by John Osbourn, upon the premises of that old-established Inn, as above, on Wednesday Next, February 23rd, 1859, the Licenses, Goodwill and Possession, with all the Household Furniture, Brewing Vessels, Ale Barrels, and effects, belonging to Mr. John Mason, who is declining the public business; comprising Windsor and other chairs, mahogany dining and other tables, sofas, screen, handsome 4-Pull Beer Machine, chest of drawers, bedsteads, mattresses, feather beds, bed linen, 120-gallon iron boiler, 14-bushel mash tub, coolers, ten ale barrels (from 60 to 100 gallons), ale measures, cups and jugs, gas meter and fittings, grates, signs, kitchen requisites, &c, &c.

Sale to commence at ten o’clock, under the usual conditions.”

Walsall Free Press 4/7/1863 - Advert

“To be Let, the OLD KINGS ARMS, with Shopping and Garden, situated at Caldmore.

Apply at No.26, Bradford Street.”

Birmingham Daily Post 11/10/1865 - Advert

“OLD KINGS ARMS INN, Caldmore, Walsall Foreign.

To Be Sold By Auction, By H. Farrington, at the NEW INN, Park Street, Walsall, on Tuesday Next, October 17, at Six o’clock in the Evening, subject to conditions, in one or more lots as may be agreed upon – all that Old-established Public-House and Premises, known as the OLD KINGS ARMS, at Caldmore, Walsall, in the occupation of John Hall, comprising Bar, Tap Room, good Parlour, and Cellars, four Bed Rooms, Brewhouse, large yard, Stable Piggery, Pump, and other conveniences. Also the House adjoining, occupied by Mr. Wilson, and Shopping for Seven pairs of Hands, with Garden Ground, Brewhouse, and other conveniences.

The above Property has an excellent frontage of 54 feet to Spout Lane, and of 61 feet to a main road to West Bromwich, through Doveridge, and is situated in an improving locality.

For further particulars, apply to Messrs. Bourne and Owen, Solicitors, Dudley; or to the Auctioneer, St. George’s Buildings, Walsall.”

Walsall Free Press 3/2/1866

“John Hall, OLD KINGS ARMS, Caldmore, was charged with having permitted gaming in his house. Police-constable Lakin said that, at five minutes to twelve o’clock on the night in question, he visited the house, and saw some men play for a quart of ale, which was supplied by the landlord. Fined 10s and costs.”

London Gazette 18/2/1868

“George Muggleton, formerly of 33, Caldmore, Walsall, Stafford, grocer and carter, and now of the OLD KINGS ARMS INN, 1, Caldmore aforesaid, licensed victualler, grocer, and carter.”

Staffordshire Advertiser 18/12/1869

“Henry Bunn, the KINGS ARMS, Caldmore, pleaded guilty to having had his house open during prohibited hours on the 5th December, and was fined 2s 6d and costs.”

1871 Census

1, Spout Lane

[1] William Cornfield (45), victualler KINGS ARMS, born Bilston;

[2] Sarah Cornfield (34), wife, born Bilston;

[3] Frederick William Cornfield (6), son, scholar, born Moxley;

[4] John B. Cornfield (3), son, scholar, born Moxley;

[5] Mary Jane Gough (16), domestic servant, born Coseley:

Walsall Advertiser 28/12/1880 - Advert

“Wanted, a good General Servant, not under 20 years of age.
Apply, OLD KINGS ARMS, Caldmore, Walsall.”

1881 Census

1, Spout Lane – OLD KINGS ARMS

- [1] George Wheway (65), licensed victualler, born Nuneaton, Warwickshire;
- [2] Elizabeth Wheway (51), wife, born Bilston;
- [3] James Mason (19), servant and brewer, born Willenhall;
- [4] Jane Lewis (21), general servant, born Rushall:

Evening Star 8/3/1882

“On Tuesday afternoon, the borough coroner (Mr. A. A. Fletcher) held an inquiry at the OLD KINGS ARMS INN, Walsall, upon the body of Charles Lakin (44), late of Spout Lane, whose death was announced in Saturday’s Star.

Emily Lakin, wife of the deceased, said that on the 5th inst (?) her husband, who was a carter, rose about six in the morning to attend to his horses. In going down the stairs, which were very inconvenient ones, he fell and severely hurt his back. When she went to him she found he could not move his legs. He was attended by Dr. Kelly, and on the following day removed to the hospital, where he remained till the 24th ult, when at his and her request he was brought home. He did not get any better, but gradually wasted away, and died on Friday last. He became completely paralysed before his death and could not take any food.

The jury returned a verdict of Accidental Death.”

Walsall Advertiser 12/3/1887

“Conservatism. A very successful smoking concert took place at the OLD KINGS ARMS, Caldmore, on Wednesday evening. Mr. Edmonds presided and during the evening addresses were given by Councillors Wheway and Parsons, Mr. T. F. Ferrier and others.....”

Walsall Advertiser 27/5/1890

“On Tuesday evening following a representative gathering of brewers and brewers’ agents were present at the STORK HOTEL, Walsall, when Mr. Powell offered for competition the OLD KINGS ARMS, Caldmore, and great interest was manifested in the sale. The house is situated at the junction of Spout Lane and West Bromwich Road, and is occupied by Mr. George Wheway, with the plot of freehold land adjoining, containing 345 square yards, and fronting 17 yards to West Bromwich Road. The first bid was £3,300 and some spirited competition raised the amount to £5,250, at which sum the lot was sold. Messrs. Loxton and Newman acted as solicitors for the vendors.”

Birmingham Daily Post 18/12/1890

“At the Walsall Guildhall, yesterday, before Messrs. J. Brewer, E. T. Holden, J. Thorpe, W. E. Blyther, and J. Lindop, and Captain Brooks, further applications for singing, and dancing licenses were heard....

Mr. Cotterell asked that the application by James Mason, of the OLD KINGS ARMS, Caldmore might stand over till January; and being refused he withdrew the application.”

Staffordshire Advertiser 24/1/1891

“There were 31 applications for dancing, singing and music licenses under the provisions of the new Corporation Act. The Bench heard all the applications and then retired to consider their decisions, which turned out to be in accordance with the principle which was laid down at a former Court, viz, that licenses should not be granted to vaults or public rooms, but should be confined to regular and existing clubs and class meetings in club rooms. Licenses were granted to.....

The OLD KINGS ARMS, Caldmore.”

1891 Census

Spout Lane – KINGS ARMS

- [1] James Mason (28), manager, born Wolverhampton;
- [2] Eliza Mason (27), wife, born Wolverhampton;
- [3] Minnie E. Mason (3 months), daughter, born Walsall;
- [4] Mary A. Hastings (29), boarder, widow, born West Bromwich;
- [5] William Powell (33), barman, born Bradley, Herefordshire;
- [6] Eliza A. Powell (30), boarder, born West Bromwich;
- [7] William A. Powell (4), boarder, born West Bromwich;
- [8] Clara Powell (2 months), boarder, born Birmingham:

Walsall Advertiser 26/8/1893

“The inauguration ceremony in connection with the newly formed Staffordshire Conservative League was performed at the OLD KINGS ARMS, Caldmore, on Saturday.....”

Phoebe Adeline Ross = Phoebe Ann Ross

Joe Fawcett = John Fawcett

Birmingham Daily Post 29/9/1894

“Walsall. The adjourned licensing sessions for this borough took place yesterday.....

John Fawcett, the OLD KINGS ARMS, applied for a music and dancing license for certain nights, and music and singing licences for other nights for the meetings of friendly societies and political lodges.....

The Bench deliberated in private for some time, and on their return into court announced that all the other applications would be granted.”

Walsall Advertiser 6/4/1895

“Walsall Conservative Association.

On Monday evening a meeting of No.23 Polling District (Caldmore) was held at the OLD KINGS ARMS, Caldmore, Mr. John Moseley, JP, presiding. Mr. W. Coleman was unanimously elected vice-chairman. Several new members were also added to the committee.”

Walsall Advertiser 15/6/1895

“The monthly meeting of the Walsall and District Licensed Victuallers’ and Beer Retailers’ Friendly and Protection Society was held on Thursday.....

Mr. John S. Iliffe, of the OLD KINGS ARMS INN, Caldmore, was elected a member of the society.”

Walsall Advertiser 14/12/1895

“The Borough coroner (Mr. T. Howard Stanley) held an inquest at the KINGS ARMS, Caldmore, on Thursday, touching the death of Lucy Ann Sharratt (13), of 558 Bloxwich Road. The evidence was to the effect that deceased was a servant with Miss A. Bettelstone, 41, Spout Lane, and on November 29th she complained of pains in her bowels, which continued intermittently until Monday morning last, when she expired. The jury returned a verdict of Death from Rupture.”

Walsall Advertiser 10/10/1896

“Mr. J. Armstrong applied on behalf of Richard Turner, landlord of the OLD KINGS ARMS, Caldmore, for an hour’s extension for Thursday last, the occasion of the annual supper of the ‘Brace’ Lodge of the Staffordshire Conservative League. He explaining that there would probably be about seventy working men present, and as the function did not commence until 7.30, there would be little time for harmony in the absence of an extension.

Mr. Dean: Is it a trade society? (laughter). – Mr. Armstrong: No, sir, it is a political and social club.

Mr. Loxton asked if Mr. Armstrong were correct in stating that the license had been granted before.

The Chief Constable said that an extension was granted once, but next time it was applied for he opposed it because he had ascertained that persons were admitted who were not members of the lodge, and it was refused. He had no objection now, because there was a new landlord, but he should have opposed if that had not been the case.

The Bench, after some consideration, said that even though the Chief Constable did not object, they did, and refused the application.”

Walsall Advertiser 2/9/1899

“The annual licensing sessions for this borough were held at the Guildhall on Wednesday.....

The Chief Constable submitted the following list showing houses where children under the age of 13 had been served since Aug., 1898. Alehouses.....

Charlotte Turner, OLD KINGS ARMS, served 60 children.....

He said he had a list of 118 other houses which he did not think worth while including in the report, where the number of children served had been under ten. The Mayor said he thought that the license holders should try and fall in with the magistrates views.....

On returning the magistrates announced their decisions as under.....

In the cases where children under 13 years of age were reported to have been supplied, on the promise of the licensees to carry out the wishes of the magistrates in future the licenses would be renewed with a caution.”

Walsall Observer 17/2/1900

“An inquest was held yesterday afternoon, at the OLD KINGS ARMS, Caldmore, by Mr. T. H. Stanley (borough coroner), respecting the death of Adeline Dorothea Dines (1½), whose parents reside at 162, Dale Street.

Walter Henry Dines, an insurance agent, of 162, Dale Street, stated that he was the father of the deceased child. On the morning of the 14th inst Mrs. Dines brought the baby downstairs, and she was given some milk and a piece of bread and butter. About twenty five minutes after that she seemed as if something caught her in the throat and she could not get her breath. Witness saw the child changing colour, and she died in a few moments afterwards. From the time he noticed something catch her in the throat she never breathed again. A doctor was sent for immediately.

Dr. Hogan spoke to seeing the body of the child. He came to the conclusion that the child was suffocated through food getting into the air passage.

The jury returned a verdict of Accidental Death.”

Walsall Observer 9/6/1900

“An inquest was held on Tuesday afternoon at the OLD KINGS ARMS, Caldmore, by the Borough Coroner (Mr. T. H. Stanley), on the body of John Butler (50), brass dresser, of 12, Spout Lane, Walsall, who died suddenly on Sunday night last. Alice Butler, the widow of the deceased, stated that her husband had been ill for two years with a nervous complaint. On Sunday, the 3rd of June, he was out in the morning at his daughter's, in Windsor Street. He came home, had dinner, and appeared to be about the same. At about five minutes after eleven deceased was about to go to bed and got up from his chair but reeled round and fell, witness catching him in her arms. She called her son, and told him to get some water and then sent him off for the doctor. She bathed his forehead and wet his mouth with the water, but he died in a few minutes after the seizure. Dr. Dearden stated that he had known the deceased for about 2 years, having attended him last about 11 months ago. He was suffering from general paralysis. Witness saw him on Sunday night shortly after death had taken place. He made an outward examination but found nothing to attract attention. He was of opinion that death was due to heart failure, consequent upon the nature of the illness from which he suffered. The jury returned a verdict of Death from Natural Causes."

1901 Census

West Bromwich Street – OLD KINGS ARMS

- [1] Charlotte Turner (36), widow, licensed victualler, born Bromyard, Herefordshire;
- [2] Louisa Turner (17), daughter, barmaid, born Great Bridge;
- [3] Gertrude Turner (16), daughter, dressmaker, born Great Bridge;
- [4] Lottie Turner (5), daughter, born Dudley Port;
- [5] Lydia Davies (21), cook, born Brownhills;
- [6] Mary Cowley (23), barmaid, born Brownhills:

Walsall Advertiser 14/12/1901

"Mr. J. A. Armstrong applied for the temporary transference of authority from Mrs. Keeling of the RED LION INN to George Edward Pritchett. Mr. F. Bill, who appeared for the brewery company, and Pritchett, explained that Mrs. Keeling was the widow of the man to whom the original license was granted, and as she was anxious to leave the house immediately and they could not find a tenant to suit them, this application was made. Mr. Pritchett had held the license of the OLD KINGS ARMS, Caldmore, to the satisfaction of the police.

Acting Chief Constable Ballance said he had no objection to Mr. Pritchett on the ground of character, but when he had the OLD KINGS ARMS, the license had already been refused to another man, named Richards, who, however, he allowed to remain in the house when he left it.

Mr. Holden observed that Mrs. Keeling had already been given two temporary authorities, and surely she could stay a little longer until a new tenant arrived. The authority would only be granted for a week.

A few minutes later, however, Mr. Bill and Mr. Armstrong returned, and stated that they had obtained an actual tenant for the house, in Mr. Ernest Hennessy.

The application was granted."

Walsall Advertiser 8/8/1903

"Harry Thorpe, 59, Victor Street, was summoned for being drunk on the licensed premises of the OLD KINGS ARMS, Caldmore; for refusing to quit when requested to do so by the landlord, Henry Beebee; and for damaging a jug and beer-pull machine to the extent of 5s. Mr. H. H. Jackson (Stanley and Jackson) prosecuted.

Complainant stated the defendant came to his house in a drunken condition and called for beer, but he refused to supply him, and defendant went away. He came back, however, shortly afterwards, and went into another room, and asked the barman to supply him with drink, but he was also refused. Defendant then picked up a jug and threw it at the barman, but it missed him and struck and damaged a beer-pull machine.

Henry Moore, barman, gave corroborative evidence.

John Lester said he was in the house when Thorpe came in, and saw him throw the jug.

For the defence, Benjamin Webster stated that he was in the room with defendant when Mr. Beebee asked him to leave, and they both went out together. He did not see him go back again.

Kate Thorpe, defendant's wife, said she was in the public-house with her husband, and he did not throw the jug, but banged it on the counter.

Fined 40s and costs, or two months' hard labour."

Harry Beebee was fined 40s and costs, on 25th March 1904, for permitting drunkenness.

Walsall Advertiser 6/8/1904

"Walsall Air-Gun League.

The first annual meeting of the above was held at the CRITERION, Stafford Street, on Wednesday evening. Mr. H. Smallwood presided, and there was also present Messrs. Hicken (EAGLE), G. Smith (OLD KINGS ARMS), Powell (TANNERS ARMS), E. James (PLUMBERS ARMS), McDonald (CRITERION), Cliffe (GOLDEN EAGLE), Hunt, E. Towe (treasurer), and Mason (secretary).....

The undermentioned clubs with power to add to their number, were elected to the League for the forthcoming season: The WHITE HART (Walhouse Street), TANNERS ARMS, OLD KINGS ARMS, EAGLE, PLUMBERS ARMS, CRITERION, GOLDEN EAGLE, LEATHER CUTTERS ARMS, OAK, and DUKE OF YORK.

There was no other business of public interest."

Walsall Advertiser 11/2/1905

“The annual Brewster Sessions for the Borough were held on Wednesday at the Guildhall.....

The Chief Constable (Mr. A. Thomson) objected to the renewal of the license to Arthur Beebee, OLD KINGS ARMS, Caldmore, on the ground that Harry Beebee, son of the present tenant, who then kept the house, had been convicted for permitting drunkenness on his premises on the 9th March, 1904, when he was fined 40s and costs. The transfer of the license from the son to his father was on the 22nd of April, 1904, and the house had been conducted satisfactorily ever since.

Mr. Pearman-Smith appeared for the tenant. He said that nothing was proved, as the man was only seen leaving the premises just at eleven o'clock in a drunken condition. It was not proved that he obtained the beer or liquor there. Under the circumstances he asked for a renewal to be granted, as the father had taken the sole responsibility of the house, and there had been no conviction of any kind since.”

Walsall Advertiser 25/5/1905 - Advert

“A. Beebee's Noted Home Brewed Ales.

Brewery – Sandwell St., Walsall.

Houses.....

OLD KINGS ARMS, Caldmore, Walsall.”

Walsall Advertiser 23/2/1907

“A tea party and social in connection with the OLD KINGS ARMS (Caldmore) Women's Sick and Dividend Club was held on Wednesday night. About 60 members and friends sat down to a capital tea, provided by the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. Dukes. After tea Mr. W. J. Wells took the chair. A good programme was provided, which included contribution by Master Bob Davey, Mr. I. Lord, Mr. Harry Lawrence, Master H. Davey, Mrs. Cheadle, Mrs. Binnion, and Mr. Davey. Mr. Davey accompanied, and selections on the harp and violin by Messrs Dixon and Edwards were given during the evening. Votes of thanks were given to the chairman, Mr. and Mrs. Davey, for their kind assistance, and to the artistes, and a very enjoyable evening was brought to a close with a hearty vote of thanks to Mr. and Mrs. Dukes.”

Walsall Advertiser 19/9/1908

“There was a very crowded assembly in the club room of the OLD KINGS ARMS, Caldmore, on Tuesday evening, when a smoking concert took place, and presentations were made to Mr. and Mrs. F. Davey, recently host and hostess of the OLD WHITE HART, Caldmore, on their removal to take over an important position at Lancaster. Councillor E. Shelley occupied the chair, and was supported by Councillor J. N. Cotterell, Dr. Riordan, &c. An excellent musical programme was rendered during the evening, and practical expressions of appreciation were tendered by Mr. and Mrs. Davey. Dr. Riordan presented them a beautifully illuminated address, the work of Mr. W. A. Dunham, the text of which was as under.

To Mr. and Mrs. Davey.

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Davey. On behalf of your numerous friends and well-wishers, we beg your acceptance of this address of our affection and esteem. We have felt that we could not let you depart Walsall without expressing in some tangible form the high respect we feel for you, and our sincere appreciation of your geniality and hospitality as host and hostess while at YE OLDE WHITE HARTE. You may rest confidently assured that you take with you our united wishes for your future health and prosperity. Signed on behalf of the subscribers, James Neville (chairman), William Dukes, Wm. Boulter, John Neville, Samuel E. Hodgkins, Geo. Hilton, W. J. Rattenbury, W. Henry Swift (secretary).

Dr. Riordan also presented Mrs Davey a gold brooch, and also on behalf of Mrs. Dukes, a bouquet. Councillor, on behalf of the Imperial Cycling Club, presented to Mr. Davey, a finely framed photograph of the members, and another presentation was made by Mr. Rattenbury on behalf of the Caledonian Corks.

Mr. Davey suitably acknowledged the kind things said of his wife and himself.”

Walsall Advertiser 25/12/1909

“The various sick and dividend societies in the town have, during the last week, paid out the yearly dividends.....

KINGS ARMS, Caldmore, Sick and Dividend Society (men and women) paid out a dividend of 7s 6d to the men and 9s to the women, and at the annual meeting all last year's officers were re-elected.”

Walsall Advertiser 10/9/1910 - Advert

“A. Beebee's Noted Home-Brewed Ales.

Brewery – Sandwell Street, Walsall.

Houses.....

OLD KINGS ARMS, Caldmore, Walsall.”

“Home brewed ales” [1911]

1911 Census

2, West Bromwich Street

[1] William Dukes (44), publican, born Amblecote;

[2] Clara Dukes (44), wife, married 12 years 9 months, born James Bridge;

[3] Ethel Dukes (4), daughter, born Whittington, Staffordshire;

[4] Alice Maud Smith (22), servant, born Bloxwich:

Walsall Advertiser 15/2/1913

“The offence of permitting drunkenness on licensed premises was alleged against George A. Thornton, landlord of the OLD KINGS ARMS, Spout Lane, Caldmore. Mr. W. J. Pearman Smith appeared for the defendant and pleaded not guilty. Evidence was given by police-constable Betteley to the effect that at 9.15pm on Saturday, Jan 25th, in consequence of something said to him, he went to the OLD KINGS ARMS. There was a crowd outside the house and witness noticed that the glass panel in the door was smashed. On going into the smoke room he saw a woman named Annie Bennett sitting there in a drunken condition and the landlord was trying to persuade her to go. She had blood over her face and clothes, and when witness requested her to leave she walked into the passage, her gait being very unsteady. When in the passage she said, ‘It’s my fault.’ The woman’s husband then entered the house, and the landlord gave him into custody for wilfully damaging the plate glass panel. Witness then arrested the man, whereupon Mrs. Bennett put her arms around her husband’s neck and clung to him, trying to prevent him being taken into custody. The woman was taken to the police station by another officer, and witness and Police-constable Smith took the man, who was under the influence of drink and who did not go quietly.

Cross-examined by Mr. Pearman Smith witness said he had frequently seen the woman drunk and he believed she had been many times convicted.

Arising out of other questions by Mr. Pearman Smith, the Chief Constable explained that on the Monday following the occurrence the woman was sentenced without the option on a charge of being drunk and disorderly, and the man was also convicted.

Police-constable Smith, a recruit who was patrolling the Caldmore district with Police-constable Raybould, also deposed to being called to the house. The woman was drunk.

Police-constable Raybould, who was also of the same opinion, added that she accompanied him to the police station, where he charged her with being drunk and disorderly.

Joseph Raynes, of Port Street, spoke to being in the house at the time, when the landlord told Bennett and his wife to ‘drink up and clear out.’ They were ejected by the landlord and another man, but suddenly the woman rushed into the house and commenced to throw glasses about, and her husband deliberately broke the glass panel with a bottle. He thought both were excited because they had been ejected from the house.

Answering Mr. Pearman Smith witness said everything was quiet and orderly until the landlord told the man and woman to go out. The woman did not walk unsteadily.

Inspector Haycock deposed to seeing Bennett and his wife in the police office soon after they were brought in. The man was in the dock using very bad language, and frothing at the mouth, and witness formed the opinion that he was wild drunk. He had to be forcibly restrained from kicking a police constable. The woman was calling at the top of her voice for the release of her husband. She was drunk and afterwards became hysterical, and her shrieks and screams caused a large crowd to gather outside the police office.

For the defence, Mr. Pearman Smith said it was a case which showed the great difficulties with which a licensed victualler had to contend. He submitted that the woman was mad with passion – more mad than drunk.

Giving evidence the defendant said as soon as he saw the man and woman he decided from their appearance they were not desirable people for the smoke room and he ordered them out. He had not the slightest idea they were drunk. As they refused to go they were ejected and the disturbance followed. Evidence was also given by Ernest Baker, of 37, Upper Forster Street, who helps at the OLD KINGS ARMS, and who served the man and woman; William Gascoigne, 9, Spout Lane, who was in the smoke room at the time; Laura Morris, married woman of Spout Lane; all of whom were of the opinion that the woman was sober. The case was dismissed, Mr. Scott stating that the Bench considered it was a proper case to bring before them, but at the same time they were not satisfied with the evidence.”

Walsall Advertiser 12/7/1913

“The monthly meeting of the Walsall and District Licensed Victuallers’ and Beer Retailers’ Friendly and Protection Society was held on Thursday.....

Mr. G. A. Thornton, OLD KINGS ARMS INN, West Bromwich Street, Caldmore was unanimously elected member of the society.”

Walsall Observer 21/11/1914

“The following is a list of box collections to date made on behalf of the Prince of Wales’ National Relief Fund (Walsall Branch).....

OLD KINGS ARMS, Caldmore, Walsall, 7s 3d.”

Walsall Observer 12/1/1918

“Walsall and District War Aid Committee. Collection By The Licensed Victuallers, December, 1917.....

OLD KINGS ARMS, Caldmore. £1 0s 0d.”

Birmingham Journal 5/12/1929 - Deaths

“On Saturday last, aged 23, Miss Ellen Jones, daughter of Mr. Edward Jones, of the KINGS ARMS, Caldmore, near Walsall.”

Walsall Observer 24/12/1942

“Walsall Licensed Victuallers’ Society. The Duke of Gloucester’s Red Cross Fund. List of Subscriptions.....

KINGS ARMS, Caldmore. £10 0s 0d.”

Walsall Observer 15/1/1944

“Walsall Licensed Victuallers’ Society.

Appeal on Behalf of the Merchant Navy Fund, The Duke of Gloucester’s Red Cross Fund and the Aid to China Fund. List of Subscriptions.....

OLD KINGS ARMS, Caldmore. £0 1s 8d.”

Walsall Observer 17/3/1951

“At the monthly meeting of Walsall and District Licensed Victuallers Society.....

New members elected were Mr. A. E. Meadows, OLD KINGS ARMS, Caldmore.”

[1995]

Closed

It was converted into an office. [2007]

OLD KINGS ARMS

Church Road, (Norton Road), Upper Common, Pelsall, WALSALL

OWNERS

Richard A Harper (acquired in 1903)

LICENSEES

Mrs. Catherine Lycett [1849] – [1860]

William Lycett [1861] – [1871]

Lucy Lycett [1881] – [1891]

John Lycett (1891 – []

James Francis Aspinall [1896] – 1899);

Ann ‘Annie’ Aspinall (1899);

George Willetts (1899 – 1900);

David Lawrence (1900 – 1904);

Henry Farrow (1904 – 1907);

Robert Woolley (1907 – [1908]

William Morgan (1908 – [1910]

NOTES

Norton Road [1861]

Church Road [1891]

It was close to St. Michael’s and All Angels Parish Church

KINGS ARMS [1858], [1870], [1896], [1900], [1904]

Birmingham Daily Post 12/11/1858

“Charges against licensed victuallers and beerhouse keepers for using unjust measures.....

Catherine Lycett, licensed victualler, KINGS ARMS, Pelsall, was fined 15s and costs, for having seven unjust measures.....

The costs in each case amounted to 11s. The Bench, in course of the trial of the several cases, administered severe rebukes to the offenders.”

1861 Census

Norton Road – OLD KINGS ARMS

[1] William Lycett (46), victualler and cordwainer, born Pelsall;

[2] Lucy Lycett (46), wife, born Pelsall;

[3] John Lycett (24), son, platelayer railroad, born Pelsall;

[4] Levi Lycett (22), son, cordwainer, born Pelsall;

- [5] Job Lycett (20), son, cordwainer, born Pelsall;
- [6] Enoch Lycett (18), son, puddler, born Pelsall;
- [7] Sarah Lycett (15), daughter, born Pelsall;
- [8] Lucy Lycett (12), daughter, born Pelsall;
- [9] William Lycett (9), son, born Pelsall;
- [10] Emily Lycett (6), daughter, born Pelsall;
- [11] William Kent (17), boarder, apprentice, born Pelsall;
- [12] George Jackson (15), boarder, apprentice, born Pelsall:

Walsall Free Press 19/4/1864

“On Thursday afternoon, T. M. Phillips, Esq, coroner for the district, held an inquest of the OLD KINGS ARMS, Pelsall, upon the body of a new-born infant. It appears that, about three weeks before Christmas, Eliza White, wife of Daniel White, was confined; and, on the night of the day following the confinement, the child was interred as a still-born infant. About three weeks ago, a Mrs. Bullock, who had been at the confinement, having quarrelled with Mrs. White, circulated a report that the child had been killed. In consequence of this report having reached Mr. Phillips, the coroner, he caused the body of the child to be exhumed, and a post-mortem examination was made. Mr. Whympster, surgeon, Walsall, who made the examination, gave it as his opinion that deceased had been still-born. A verdict, in accordance with the evidence, was returned.”

Birmingham Daily Post 7/9/1870

“At the Rushall adjourned licensing session, yesterday, the following licenses, the applications for which had stood over from the previous Tuesday, were granted, the licensees in each case being cautioned.....
Wm. Lycett, KINGS ARMS, Pelsall.”

1871 Census

Upper Common – OLD KINGS ARMS

- [1] William Lycett (56), licensed victualler, born Pelsall;
- [2] Lucy Lycett (56), wife, born Pelsall;
- [3] John Lycett (33), son, cordwainer, born Pelsall;
- [4] Levi Lycett (32), son, cordwainer, born Pelsall;
- [5] Sarah Lycett (25), daughter, born Pelsall;
- [6] Lucy Lycett (22), daughter, born Pelsall;
- [7] William Lycett (19), son, puddler, iron works, born Pelsall;
- [8] Arthur Lycett (4), grandson, born Pelsall;
- [9] James Birch (91), father in law, widower, born Pelsall:

1881 Census

near Church

- [1] Lucy Lycett (66), publican, born Pelsall;
- [2] John Lycett (43), son, boot maker, born Pelsall;
- [3] Job Lycett (40), son, iron moulder, born Pelsall;
- [4] Sarah Lycett (35), daughter, dressmaker, born Pelsall;
- [5] William Lycett (28), son, plate layer, born Pelsall;
- [6] Asher Lycett (14), son, scholar, born Pelsall;
- [7] Lucy Ann Wiggins (7), granddaughter, scholar, born Pelsall;
- [8] Sarah Wiggins (5), granddaughter, scholar, born Pelsall;
- [9] Mary Wiggins (4), granddaughter, born Pelsall;
- [10] Elizabeth Price (13), domestic servant, born Pelsall:

1891 Census

Church Road – OLD KINGS ARMS

- [1] Lucy Lycett (76), innkeeper, born Pelsall;
- [2] John Lycett (53), son, shoemaker, born Pelsall;
- [3] William Lycett (36), plate layer, born Pelsall;
- [4] Emily Lycett (14), granddaughter, servant, born Pelsall:

Birmingham Daily Post 1/9/1891

“Licensing Meeting. Rushall.

The license of the OLD KINGS HEAD, Pelsall, was transferred from Lucy Lycett, deceased, to John Lycett.”

Walsall Advertiser 19/11/1892 - Register Of Sales

“Monday, December 5th. By Mr. Thos. H. Farrington. Freehold Old-licensed Public-house, the OLD KINGS ARMS, Pelsall, at 7.”

James Francis Aspinall = James Francis Aspinall

Lichfield Mercury 17/7/1896

“Rushall Petty Session. These sessions were held on Monday, before Messrs. W. H. Brookes, R. H. Holden, and J. Clare. For contravening the muzzling of dogs order, James Francis Aspinall, KINGS ARMS, Pelsall was fined 5s 6d costs.”

Walsall Advertiser 19/11/1898

“At the Rushall Police Court on Monday, James Francis Aspinall, OLD KINGS ARMS, Pelsall, pleaded guilty to a charge of being drunk whilst driving a horse and cart in the Walsall Road, Pelsall.

Police-constable Dixon said he had to drive defendants home in consequence of him being totally unfit to be in charge of a horse and cart. Defendant had not lit the lamps of the cart, although it was full time that he should have done so.

Financed 20s and the costs for being drunk in charge, and 1s and 8s costs for driving without a light.”

Walsall Advertiser 5/8/1899 - Deaths

“On the 30th ult, James Aspinall, OLD KINGS ARMS, Pelsall, aged 39 years.”

London Gazette 22/8/1899

“Re James Francis Aspinall, Deceased.....

Notice is hereby given that all creditors and other persons having any claims or demands against the estate of James Francis Aspinall late of The OLD KINGS ARMS Pelsall in the county of Stafford, Licensed Victualler deceased (who died on the 30th day of July 1899 and whose will was proved in the Lichfield Registry of the Probate Division of Her Majesty's High Court on the 18th day of August 1899 by Ann Aspinall of the OLD KINGS ARMS INN Pelsall aforesaid Widow and Mary Ann Theresa Taylor Wife of Thomas Taylor, of Norton-road Pelsall aforesaid Baker the executors therein named) are hereby required to send particulars in writing of their claims or demands to the said executors or to me the undersigned on or before the 30th day of September 1899 after which date the said executors will proceed to distribute the assets of the said deceased amongst the persons entitled thereto having regard only to the claims and demands of which they shall then have had notice and they will not be liable for the assets of the said deceased or any part thereof so distributed to any person or persons of whose claims or demands they shall not then have had notice.

Dated this 18th day of August, 1899.

Enoch Evans, 20, Bridge-street, Walsall, Solicitor for the said Executors.”

James Francis ASPINALL – see also JOLLY BACCHUS.

Lichfield Mercury 8/9/1899

“Rushall Licensing Sessions. These annual sessions were held on Monday.....

On the application of Mr. Enoch Evans, a temporary transfer of the KINGS ARMS, Pelsall, was granted from Ann Aspinall to George Willetts.”

AND “Rushall Petty Sessions.

Annie Aspinall, KINGS ARMS, Church Road, Pelsall, was charged with assaulting Charles Ruane, commission agent, also of Church Road. Mr. Enoch Evans defended.

Complainant stated that on the 29th ult, about 11.30am, the defendant came to his premises and she said she had come for some potatoes, and used the most disgusting language. She also threatened to cut his head off with a spade. He took the spade off her and she went into his house and took his cap.

He admitted that when he went to take out a summons he told the Clerk that there was a dispute about the ownership of the potatoes.

The case was dismissed, the Chairman remarking that there was evidently some dispute about the ownership of the potatoes, and they had better settle their dispute in the County Court.”

Lichfield mercury 22/9/1899

“On the application of Mr. Enoch Evans (Walsall) a temporary transfer of the KINGS ARMS, Pelsall, was granted to George Willetts from the executors of the late James Francis Aspinall.”

Walsall Observer 24/3/1900

“On Tuesday night at the KINGS ARMS INN, a supper was held in connection of one of Mr. Joseph Thomas's clothing clubs, when upwards of 30 sat down to a capital spread, which reflected the greatest credit on the worthy host and hostess (Mr. and Mrs. Richards).....”

Daniel Lawrence was elected as a member of the Walsall and District Licensed Victuallers' and Beer Retailers' Friendly and Protection Society in November 1900.

Walsall Advertiser 10/11/1900

“Licensed Victuallers' Society. The monthly meeting of this society was held on Thursday.....

Mr. David Lawrence, OLD KINGS ARMS, Pelsall..... elected members of the society.”

1901 Census

Church Road

- [1] David Lawrence (54), coal miner and hewer below ground, born Wednesbury;
- [2] Emma Lawrence (54), wife, born Momber Lane;
- [3] Phoebe A. Lawrence (21), daughter, born Bloxwich;
- [4] Arthur E. Lawrence (17), son, coal miner and hewer below ground, born Bloxwich;
- [5] Emanuel Lawrence (13), son, born Bloxwich;
- [6] Samuel Lawrence (7), son, born Bloxwich;
- [7] Edith E. Athersmith (16), niece, born Bloxwich;

Walsall Advertiser 14/5/1904

“On Monday the magistrates at Rushall Police Court (Messrs. H. Holden and E. Wilkes) granted a temporary transfer of the license of the KINGS ARMS, Pelsall, from David Lawrence to Henry Farrow.”

David Lawrence – see also NELSON INN.

Walsall Advertiser 20/4/1907 - Deaths

“On the 11th inst, Kate Farrow, OLD KINGS ARMS, Pelsall, aged 28 years.”

Walsall Advertiser 29/6/1907

“At the Petty Sessions, Rushall, on Monday, the license of the OLD KINGS ARMS, Pelsall, was temporarily transferred from Henry Farrow to Robert Wooley.”

Robert Woolley = Robert Wooley

Lichfield Mercury 16/10/1908

“At the Rushall Petty Sessions on Monday, before Messrs. R. H. Holden, E. Wilkes, E. J. Shaw, and W. M. Lester, Robert Wooley, landlord of the OLD KINGS ARMS, Pelsall, was summoned for permitting drunkenness on his premises, also for keeping open during prohibited hours on September 22nd, and further with bribing the constable on September 24th.

George Crook (hawker), Heath End, Pelsall, was summoned for being drunk on licensed premises, and also with being on licensed premises during prohibited hours on September 22nd.

Mr. H. H. Jackson was for the defence, and pleaded not guilty.

Pc Rushton gave evidence to the effect that at 10pm (closing time) he saw three men leave the OLD KINGS ARMS, and about twenty minutes later he heard someone talking in the sitting room. On looking through the window he saw the landlord, his wife, and defendant Crook, sitting at the table. Witness heard Crook say ‘I am going to pay for — shilling’s worth of brandy for you; you have been a — good ‘un to me.’ The officer, after hearing further conversation, walked inside, and saw Crook leaning on the landlord’s shoulders. When Crook saw him (witness) he staggered towards him, and fell on a bicycle leaning against the table. He called the landlord’s attention to Crook’s condition, and he replied that he and his son had asked him to stay and have supper. There were four glasses on the table. On September 24th the officer saw Mr. Wooley, who after trying to persuade the office not to report the case, gave him 10½d and walked away.

Questioned by Mr. Jackson, witness said the public door was fastened, but the door which admitted to the private part of the house was only on the latch.

Further cross-examined, the officer said he went to the house in consequence of what he was told by Mrs. Crook, who was not on the best terms with her husband.

Evidence was given by Mary Ann Crook and Hannah Crook, who said that Crook was drunk at 7-30pm and 8pm.

For the defence it was urged that Crook was perfectly sober, and walked home, a distance of about five hundred yards, unassisted, and the landlord stated that all the man had to drink in the house was two half-pints.

The charge of keeping open during prohibited hours was dismissed. For permitting drunkenness Wooley was fined £3 and costs £2 2s 6d, and Crook for drunkenness was fined 2s 6d and costs. The bribery charge was withdrawn.”

Walsall Advertiser 21/11/1908

“George Crook, a hawker, of Pelsall, was summoned before the Rushall magistrates, Messrs. W. H. Brookes (presiding) and J. S. Lloyd, on Monday, for deserting his wife, Mary Ann Crook, who applied for a separation order.

It will be remembered that a short time ago Mrs. Crook informed the police that her husband was at the OLD KINGS ARMS, Pelsall, drunk, with the result that Robert Wooley, the then landlord, was fined £5 2s 6d for permitting drunkenness.

Complainant stated that she married defendant in 1882. Her husband left her on November 2nd, when he went up to Wooley’s, saying that she (complainant) had ruined them, and that he was going to stick to them. She has had no money from him since the case (referred to above) was heard. She went to Wooley’s the day after her husband left her and gave him a smack in the face, and would have given Mrs. Wooley one also only she ran away. Mrs. Crook complained of her husband’s misconduct with Mrs. Wooley, and in answer to Mr. Lewis (magistrates’ clerk) said that the only reason she had for suggesting impropriety was that she saw them sitting alone in Wooley’s sitting room.

In answer to her husband’s complaint admitted that she had thrown three jugs of water, three lumps of coal and a saucer of jam at him, and also that she had punched him on the nose and told him to clear out. She also admitted that she had locked up the house at night and that defendant had had to creep through the window, but she denied that she told him that if he went away she would not trouble him. Addressing the Bench defendant said ‘She told me to —— off, so I thought I’d have a fortnight on my own.’ The Bench adjourned the case for three weeks and advised the parties to get together again.

Defendant: I’ll give her another chance, I’ll go home tonight, but I expect that the first thing I shall get will be a jug of water, and be told to —— off again.”

AND

“On the application of Mr. H. H. Jackson, the Rushall bench on Monday granted the transfer of the license for the OLD KINGS ARMS, Pelsall, from Robert Wooley to William Morgan.”

Lichfield Mercury 12/3/1909

“The Rushall adjourned licensing sessions took place on Monday. Mr. R. H. Holden, presiding.

On the application of Mr. H. H. Jackson the Bench also renewed the license of the OLD KINGS ARMS, Pelsall, the opposition in this case having been based on a conviction for selling during prohibited hours. The Bench said more care would have to be exercised in future.”

Walsall Advertiser 12/2/1910

“There was a full Bench of Magistrates present at the Licensing Sessions for the Rushall Division, held on Tuesday, at the Rushall Police Court.

OLD KINGS ARMS, Pelsall. This house is fully-licensed, the registered owner being Mr. Richard A. Harper, who bought the house seven years ago. The house was ‘tied’ to Mr. Harper for beer, wines and spirits, and the agreement of tenancy was a quarterly one. The population had increased, and in answer to Mr. H. H. Jackson, who appeared for the owner, and tenant, Superintendent Salt said the gardens were not well kept.

Mr. H. H. Jackson said that as the FORGE INN had been taken away he thought that one license in a village in one year was enough. It was a quiet old-fashioned house, such as were desirable, and there was a good steady trade done.

The Bench decided to refer this house for compensation.

In answer to a question by Mr. H. H. Jackson, the Chairman remarked that the houses would be referred to the County Authority, and licenses would, of course be renewed provisionally.”

Lichfield Mercury 1/7/1910

“On Friday the principal meeting of the Staffordshire Licensing Compensation Authority was held at the Shirehall, Stafford. Licenses refused.

OLD KINGS ARMS INN, Pelsall, full license.”

Lichfield Mercury 6/1/1911

“The annual report of the County Licensing Committee stated that at the principal meeting the committee refused to renew 27 licenses. At the supplemental meetings the committee went in great detail into all the figures submitted to them upon which the persons interested claimed compensation, and heard, upon oath, evidence put forward by the claimants. The committee considered that the amounts of compensation agreed upon were satisfactory, both from the point of view of the parties interested and the compensation fund.

OLD KINGS ARMS, Pelsall, full license, £950.”

Walsall Advertiser 11/2/1911

“The annual general licensing sessions for the Rushall Division of Staffordshire were held at Rushall Police Court on Monday. ... Superintendent T. Salt read his report.

The reduction in the numbers has been brought about by means of the Compensation Clauses of the Licensing Act, 1904.

OLD KINGS ARMS (full license), Pelsall, having been referred for compensation at the general annual licensing meeting last year, and compensation being paid, the house closed on the 28th ultimo.”

OLD NAGS HEAD

100, (98), (98+99), Ablewell Street, WALSALL

OWNERS

John Whitehouse, wine and spirit merchant, Stafford Street, Walsall
R. A. Harper Ltd.

LICENSEES

Sarah Jackson [1818]
James Baker [1835]

Mrs. Peggy Allen [1841] – [1842]
Thomas Allen [1849] – 1850
Mrs. Peggy Allen [1851]
William Allen [1857] – [1865]
William Grant [1868] – [1873];
Mrs. Ann Maria Grant [1881] – 1897);
Clara Kearsley (1897 – 1900);
Joseph Stackhouse (1900 – 1901);
Ada Blakemore (1901 – 1902);
Edwin Corbett Walker (1902 – [1904]
Joseph Beebee [1908]

NOTES

98, Ablewell Street [1860], [1861], [1871], [1872], [1881], [1896], [1901], [1904]
98+99, Ablewell Street [1864], [1865]
100, Ablewell Street [1908]

NAGS HEAD [1818], [1835], [1841], [1842], [1845], [1850], [1857], [1861], [1862]
OLD NAGS HEAD [1850], [1858], [1860], [1868], [1871], [1911]

Birmingham Journal 27/4/1850 - Died

“On the 22nd inst, aged 47 years, Mr. Thomas Allen of the OLD NAGS HEAD, Ablewell Street, Walsall.”

1851 Census

Ablewell Street

- [1] Peggy Allen (85), widow, victualler, born Walsall;
[2] Lucy Cox (14), servant, born Bloxwich:

Walsall Free Press 5/9/1857 - Advert

“Valuable Leasehold Property In The Foreign Of Walsall.

To Be Sold By Auction, By Mr. H. Farrington, at the house of Mr. Allen, NAGS HEAD, Ablewell Street, Walsall, on Monday the 21st day of September, 1857, at Six o'clock in the Evening, subject to conditions; all that well-built Licensed Retail Public House, called the FOUNTAIN INN, situate in Bank Street, as above, in the occupation of Mr. Henry Hinds, with Two Houses adjoining, in the occupation of George Leadbetter, and one void, the whole of which have been lately erected, regardless of expense.....”

Walsall Free Press 24/12/1859

“About nine o'clock on Monday morning, a man named John Johnson, about seventy years of age, was found dead in his bed, in a cottage in Taylor's Yard, Ablewell Street. The man, who had been ailing for some time, had been seen at ten o'clock on the previous evening, in his usual delicate health, by Mrs. Price, but no suspicion was entertained of his being seriously ill. On Wednesday afternoon A. A. Fletcher, Esq, coroner for the borough, held an inquest at the NAGS HEAD, Ablewell Street, at which the jury, after hearing the evidence, returned a verdict of Death from Natural Causes.”

1861 Census

98, Ablewell Street – Public House – NAGS HEAD INN

- [1] William Allen (56), brush maker and publican, born Walsall;
[2] Jane Allen (48), wife, born Walsall;
[3] Arthur Adkins (20), apprentice brush maker, born Walsall;
[4] Reuben Lusan (16), apprentice brush maker, born Southwell, Nottinghamshire;
[5] Helen Palmer (16), house servant, born Walsall:

William Allen was also a brush maker. [1864], [1865]

See also OLD RODNEY.

Staffordshire Advertiser 3/2/1866

“A respectably dressed young man named John Welsh, who was stated to have come from the neighbourhood of Stafford, was charged with stealing on Tuesday last in the DURHAM OX public house, Park Street, £27 and a silver watch belonging to a greengrocer named Roberts, living in Stafford Street. Mr. Mathews appeared in support of the charge, and as the prosecutor on being robbed had gone to Stafford in search of the prisoner and had not yet returned, he simply asked that sufficient evidence might be taken to justify a remand, and called Detective Kates, who deposed to apprehending the prisoner at the DURHAM OX. On searching him at the police station he found upon him a silver hunting watch, £12 in gold, and £1 15s 3d in silver. Witness charged him with stealing the money, when he replied that it was his own; he added that he had been employed for five months as an usher in the household of Lord Hatherton. Another witness named James Partridge, buckle maker, Lower Rushall Street, also gave evidence that he had seen the accused on Tuesday in the NAGS HEAD, Ablewell Street, with two watches and a quantity of gold in a leather bag, which was produced and said to belong the prosecutor. The prisoner was then remanded until Monday.”

Staffordshire Advertiser 10/2/1866

“John Walsh, who stood remanded from last week on a charge of robbing Francis W. Roberts, greengrocer, Stafford Street, on the 30th ult, of the sum of £27 and a silver watch, in the DURHAM OX, Park Street, was again brought up. The prosecutor, it appeared, was unable to identify the property found on the prisoner as part of that which had been stolen from him, and as no further inculpatory evidence was adduced he was discharged.”

Walsall Free Press 30/7/1870 - Advert

“Wanted, a strong active Girl for a public house, from 20 to 25.
Apply at NAGS HEAD, Ablewell Street, Walsall.”

1871 Census

98, Ablewell Street – OLD NAGS HEAD

- [1] William Grant (44), licensed victualler, born Northampton;
- [2] Ann M. Grant (40), wife, born Dudley;
- [3] Sarah A. Grant (14), daughter, scholar, born Dudley;
- [4] William Grant (8), son, scholar, born Dudley;
- [5] Edward Grant (2), son, born Walsall;
- [6] Daniel Grant (8 months), son, born Walsall;
- [7] Elizabeth Smith (22), general servant, born Bloxwich:

Walsall Free Press 10/5/1873

“Wanted, a good General Servant, from 20 to 25, one from the country preferred.
Apply at the NAGS HEAD, Ablewell Street.”

1881 Census

98, Ablewell Street – NAGS HEAD

- [1] Ann M. Grant (50), widow, licensed victualler, born Dudley;
- [2] William J. Grant (18), son, carpenter, born Dudley;
- [3] Edward Grant (12), son, scholar, born Walsall;
- [4] Ann M. Belcher (4), granddaughter, scholar, born Walsall;
- [5] David Dutton (37), brewer, born Walsall;
- [6] Mary Hales (17), general servant, born Darlaston:

1891 Census

Ablewell Street – OLD NAGS HEAD

- [1] Ann Maria Grant (60), widow, licensed victualler, born Dudley;
- [2] Edward Grant (22), son, brewer, born Walsall;
- [3] Ann Maria Belcher (14), granddaughter, born Walsall;
- [4] Howard Belcher (9), grandson, born Birmingham;
- [5] Ruth Mary George (16), domestic servant, born Blakenhall, Walsall:

Ann Maria Grant was fined 10s and costs for permitting drunkenness, and also 10s and costs for attempting to bribe a police officer.

1901 Census

98, Ablewell Street

- [1] Ada Blakemore (52), widow, publican, born Wednesbury;
- [2] John Blakemore (26), son, brewer, born Sheffield;
- [3] George Blakemore (21), son, plumber, born Wednesbury;
- [4] Joseph Blakemore (15), son, engine fitter, born Wednesbury;
- [5] Ada Blakemore (13), daughter, born Wednesbury;
- [6] Rowland Blakemore (7), son, born Wednesbury;
- [7] Agnes Chambers (14), domestic servant, born Wednesbury:

Walsall Advertiser 10/8/1901

“Mark Ryan (32), labourer, 51, Ball Street, was charged with breaking a plate glass window at the OLD NAGS HEAD, Ablewell Street, the property of Ada Blakemore, doing damage to the amount of £5, on August 4th. John Blakemore stated that on the night in question prisoner was in the NAGS HEAD. Witness heard a crash, and found the window broken. He went to the prisoner, who said that he had done it accidentally. He had done it with a bottle with which he had meant to hit his wife. Henry Blakemore stated that he saw the prisoner pick up a bottle and throw it. Witness could not swear whether it was thrown at prisoner’s wife or at the window. Police-constable Pilsbury (54), said he heard the window smashed, and when he went into the house Blakemore gave the prisoner into custody. Prisoner said he was throwing water at his wife, and the bottle slipped. The Magistrates dismissed the case on the ground that there was no evidence that the damage was wilful.”

Walsall Advertiser 7/6/1902

“Jennie Morris, landlady of the STORES INN, Upper Rushall Street, was charged with keeping her house open during prohibited hours, and also selling; Ada Blakemore, landlady of the NAGS HEAD, Ablewell Street, and her son, John Charles, were summoned for being on the premises of the STORES during prohibited hours – Mr. H. H. Jackson defended. Police-constable Ashby found Mrs. Blakemore and her son on the premises of the STORES at 1.45am on May 22nd. It seemed that the parties are neighbours and friends, and the Bench gave the defendant the benefit of the doubt.”

Edwin Corbett Walker = Edwin Corbet Walker

Walsall Advertiser 2/5/1903

“A young soldier, Michael Rooney (20) of the Royal Welsh Fusiliers, was brought up charged with assaulting the police, and being drunk on the premises of the NAGS HEAD, Ablewell Street, on Saturday last. Police-constable Sheppard said that about 9.35 on Saturday he was called to the NAGS HEAD, where defendant was creating a disturbance, and without provocation the latter picked up a glass of ale and threw the contents in witness’s face, at the same time using very bad language. He also said it was with difficulty they got him to the police-station.

Police-constable Gaunt said he was called to the assistance of Police-constable Sheppard, and whilst in the house, received a severe blow on the jaw from defendant, who also bit his hand drawing blood.

Prisoner, who said he was absent from his regiment, without leave, and said that he remembered nothing of the occurrence, was sentenced to two months’ hard labour for assaulting the police and fined 10s and costs or 14 days’ hard labour for being drunk on licensed premises.”

Walsall Advertiser 16/5/1903

“Edwin Corbett Walker, NAGS HEAD, Ablewell Street, was charged with permitting drunkenness on his premises on April 25th. Mr. S. A. Grundy-Newman defended.

Police-constable Sheppard deposed that on the 25th ult, he visited the NAGS HEAD INN, and found the smoke room at the back filled with a number of disorderly young men and women, among them being a young soldier, who took up a glass of beer and threw it in his (witness’s) face. He was also very violent and struck Police-constable Gaunt on the jaw.

Police-constable Gaunt said he accompanied Police-sergeant Sheppard on the day in question, and he saw the man Rooney throw the beer.

Questioned by Mr. Newman, witness said Mr. Walker did not call attention to this room as they were going out.

Mr. Newman said that the defendant was in no way cognisant of the fact that Rooney was on the premises. On this occasion Mr. Walker was going about from room to room, and his wife was serving at the bar. The officers came in, and looked into some of the rooms, and were going when Mr. Walker told them there was another room at the rear if they cared to look in it. He showed them in, and as they were coming out Rooney threw the beer at them. They were about to arrest a civilian for it, when the landlord said, ‘No, that’s the man’ pointing at Rooney, ‘help me put him out.’ Rooney could not have been in more than a few minutes, because he was not there a few minutes earlier when Mr. Walker visited the room. He further said that Mr. Walker had held licenses for the last twelve years, and had had no complaints before.

Mr. Walker said the officers came and visited his house, and would have left without looking in the smoke-room, had he not told them of it. He showed the way, and they were about to come out again when the soldier threw the beer, for which they would have arrested another man had he not shown them the right one.

John Charles Hobson said he was in the house at the time, and saw the landlord come in followed by two officers, who looked round, and were about to depart when Rooney threw the beer over them. He corroborated the evidence as to the officers being about to arrest another man until Mr. Walker showed them the right one.

Arthur Bolton and Charles Payne gave similar evidence, both stating that the man had been in less than five minutes.

The magistrates retired to consider the case, and on returning dismissed it, Dr. Lynch remarking that he entirely disagreed with the decision.

Mr. Newman: I expect you would sir.”

Walsall Advertiser 10/10/1903

“Air-Gun Shooting. NAGS HEAD, Ablewell Street, 187; STORES, Upper Rushall Street, 237.”

Walsall Advertiser 6/2/1904

“The annual licensing sessions for the Borough of Walsall were held on Thursday at the Guildhall, and aroused considerable interest. The court was crowded, and many license-holders were unable to obtain admission.....

Notice had been given to 76 license holders to show cause for the renewal of their licenses, evidently as a result of the visits of a sub-committee of magistrates to the licensed premises, the reasons why cause had to be shown being various....

Edwin Corbett Walker, NAGS HEAD.”

Walsall Advertiser 27/2/1904

“The annual licensing sessions were continued on Tuesday, for the fifth day.....

OLD WINE STORES and NAGS HEAD. Inspector Ballance explained that the backs of these house adjoined, the yard being also common to the other property.

Mrs. Morris (tenant of the OLD WINE STORES) said they brewed their own beer and did a good trade. Her late husband paid £200 for entry to the premises. In answer to Dr. Lynch, witness admitted there was only one urinal for the use of both houses. Mr. W. J. Pearman-Smith, appearing for all parties, said that negotiations had been proceeding for some time for the abandonment of one of these licenses, and if the magistrates would grant both renewals he would give an undertaking that plans should be submitted before the next Brewster Sessions for alterations to one of the houses, and that the renewal for that license only should be applied for. Both renewals were granted, on the this understanding.”

Walsall Advertiser 27/8/1904

“A bricklayer’s labourer of no fixed abode named William Davis (38) was brought up in custody charged with stealing a pair of boots, value 10s, the property of Edwin Corbett Walker, landlord of the NAGS HEAD, Ablewell Street, on Monday. Prosecutor identified the boots and said he saw them on a chair in the passage yesterday afternoon. A little later he missed them and notified the police and next saw them at Rose’s pawnshop, where he was sent by Detective Burrell. The latter now deposed to making enquiries, and finding the boots at the pawnshop. Subsequently he arrested the prisoner, who, when cautioned and charged, replied, ‘I pinched ’em.’

Inspector Ballance said that the prisoner was an ex-convict and had already served three months’ imprisonment for failing to report himself.

He now pleaded guilty and was sent to prison for a further three months.”

Walsall Advertiser 11/2/1905

“The annual Brewster Sessions for the Borough were held on Wednesday at the Guildhall.....

The following is the list of houses in respect of which the licensing justices have called the holders of the licenses to show cause why the licenses should be renewed.....

OLD NAGS HEAD, Ablewell Street, Walsall.”

Walsall Advertiser 19/8/1905 - Advert

“Unreserved Sale of Brewing Plants and Public-House Fixtures & Fittings removed from the NAGS HEAD, Ablewell Street, and the STORES, Rushall Street.

Messrs. Watkins, Powell, & Wood, will Sell by Auction, on Thursday Next, August 24th, 1905, in the Yard at the rear of the MANDAMUS INN, Stafford Street, Walsall, the Public-House Fixtures & Brewing Plant, comprising Mahogany Frame Upholstered Seating, Mahogany-case Beer Machine and Piping, Cross Leg, Deal and Mahogany-top Tables, Table Tops and Trestles, Benches, Counters, Mirrors, Bar Fittings, Match Boarding, Spirit Jars and Measures, Refrigerators, Coolers, Copper Boilers, Barrel Thralls, Gas Fittings, &c, &c, also a quantity of Household Furniture.

Sale to commence at 11 o’clock (entrance Short Acre Street).

Auctioneers’ Offices, Bridge Street, Walsall.”

[1911]

It was demolished.

Part of the BOROUGH ARMS was built on the site.

OLD OAK

21, (22), Upper Hall Lane (22, (21), Hall Lane) / George Street, WALSALL

OWNERS

B. N. Weaver, Park Street, Walsall and others

Edward Smith

Thomas Gameson

James Drew, butcher, Hall Lane, Walsall

Frank Myatt Ltd. [1906]

LICENSEES

Robert Arch* [1858] – [1861]

Robert Arch* [1864] – [1865]

James Robatham [1868] – [1873];

Henry Walter Taylor [1881] – [1882];

Catherine Taylor [];

Edward Smith [1884];
Thomas Gilliver [];
Frank Blakeman [] – 1886);
Theodore Grice (1886 – 1890);
Mrs. Sarah Ann Barr (1890);
James Barr (1890 – 1894);
Mrs. Sarah Ann Barr (1894 – 1898);
Maria Grove (1898 – 1901);
Caesar Augustus Llewelyn Jenkyns (1901 – 1902);
Mark Knight (1902 – 1903);
Herbert Tuckley (1903);
George Ford (1903 – 1906):

NOTES

21, Upper Hall Lane [1861], [1862], [1881]
22, Hall Lane [1872]
21+22, Upper Hall Lane [1891], [1901]

It had a beerhouse license.

* probably the same person

Robert Arch, beerhouse, 21, Hall Lane. [1858]

Walsall Free Press 3/9/1859

“To Let, with Immediate entry, two large and commodious Dwelling Houses, pleasantly situated in the immediate vicinity of the Vicarage. The houses are fitted up with all the requisites for a respectable family, and each have a large garden attached. Rent moderate.

For particulars apply to Mr. R. Arch, OLD OAK, Hall Lane.”

Robert Arch, beer retailer, Upper Hall Lane. [1861]

Robert Arch, retailer of beer, 21, Upper Hall Lane. [1862]

1861 Census

21, Upper Hall Lane – OLD OAK INN

[1] Robert Arch (70), victualler, born Walsall;

[2] Phoebe Arch (63), wife, born Walsall;

[3] Sarah Stratton (14) general servant, born Walsall Wood:

Robert Arch, beer retailer, 21, Upper Hall Lane. [1864], [1865]

Walsall Free Press 3/2/1866 - Notice

“Mr. Robert Arch, Deceased.

All Persons who stand indebted to the Estate of the late Mr. Robert Arch, late of the OLD OAK INN, Upper Hall Lane, Innkeeper, deceased, are requested to Pay the same forthwith to William Arch, VINE INN, Lower Hall Lane; and any persons who have any claims against the said Estate are requested to send the same with the particulars thereof to the said William Arch, on or before the 1st day of March next, in order that the same may be examined and paid.

By order of the Executors.

Dated this 1st day of February, 1866.”

James Robatham, beer retailer, 21, Upper Hall Lane. [1868], [1870], [1872]

Walsall Free Press 12/3/1870 - Birth

“On the 24th ult, at the OLD OAK INN, Hall Lane, Walsall, Mrs. Fanny Weaver, of a son.”

1871 Census

21, Upper Hall Lane – OLD OAK INN

[1] James Robatham (49), bedstead fitter, born Walsall;

[2] Harriet Robatham (45), wife, born Walsall;

[3] George Robatham (13), son, scholar, born Walsall;

[4] Benjamin N. Weaver (25), lodger, collar maker, born Walsall;

[5] Mary Weaver (19), lodger, born Walsall;

[6] Benjamin S. W. Weaver (1), lodger, born Walsall:

1881 Census

21, Upper Hall Lane

- [1] Henry W. Taylor (28), beerhouse keeper, born Walsall;
- [2] Catherine Taylor (27), wife, born Walsall;
- [3] Henry Taylor (6), son, scholar, born Walsall;
- [4] Joseph Taylor (4), son, scholar, born Walsall;
- [5] Anne Taylor (2), daughter, born Walsall
- [6] Mary Ann Johnson (21), general servant, born Walsall;
- [7] Anne Hill (14), general servant, born Walsall;
- [8] Agnes M. Taylor (7 months), daughter, born Walsall:

Evening Star 24/2/1882

“Henry W. Taylor, of the OLD OAK INN, Upper Hall Lane, was charged with opening his licensed premises before half past twelve on Sunday morning last.

Police-sergeant Mason stated that at twelve noon on Sunday last, he went into the defendant’s house, and there found two men in the parlour and three in the kitchen.

Mrs. Taylor swore that the two men in the parlour were friends of Mr. Taylor’s who had come to see him, he being ill in bed. One of three in the kitchen was the father of the servant. Of the remaining two, one was a friend of the servant’s and the other a traveller, who was the only one who paid for the beer he had. Mr. Loxton appeared for Taylor, and called other witnesses to support what Mrs. Taylor had stated. The case was dismissed.”

Edward Smith was fined 5s and costs, on 5th November 1884, for selling before 12.30.

Birmingham Daily Post 5/10/1886

“Walsall. OLD OAK Beerhouse, Hall Lane; long lease; good brewing plant. Rent low, £70. Apply on Premises.”

Theodore Grice was fined 20s and costs, on 15th June 1888, for opening before lawful hours on Sunday.

1891 Census

21+22, Upper Hall Lane – OLD OAK

- [1] James Barr (48), currier, born Scotland;
- [2] Sarah A. Barr (48), wife, born Walsall;
- [3] William Barr (20), son, organ builder, born Walsall;
- [4] James Barr (18), son, bridle cutter, born Walsall;
- [5] Sidney Jones (17), son, presser, born Walsall;
- [6] Sarah A. Jones (15), daughter, born Walsall;
- [7] Eliza Williams (14), domestic servant, born Walsall:

Walsall Advertiser 16/3/1895

“Walsall And District Licensed Victuallers’ Society. The monthly meeting of this society was held on Thursday at the house of Mr. Joseph Butler, FITTERS’ ARMS INN, Hatherton Street.....

Mrs. Sarah Ann Barr, of the OLD OAK INN, Upper Hall Lane, was unanimously elected a member of the society.”

Walsall Advertiser 31/8/1895

“The annual Licensing Sessions for the borough were held yesterday at the Guildhall.....

The following is a return of licensees who have been proceeded against during the year ending August 30th, 1895.....

Theodore D. Grice, PRINCE OF WALES, Portland Street, for having kept his licensed premises open during prohibited hours on January 4th, fined 1s and costs.....

Objections were also lodged against Theodore Grice, PRINCE OF WALES INN, Portland Street on the grounds (1) that Grice was fined 10s and costs on June 15th, 1888, for keeping open during prohibited hours, (2) that he was on January 4th, 1895, further fined 1s and costs for a like offence, (3) that he was not a fit and proper person to hold a license, and (4) that the license was not demanded by the requirements of the neighbourhood.....

In the case of Grice which was taken first, Mr. H. H. Jackson appeared in support of the landlord. Mr. J. N. Cotterell represented Mr. Downing, who is the owner of the house. Mr. Jackson, referring to the objections raised by the Chief, stated that the first conviction in 1888 was when his client held the license of the OAK INN, Hall Lane, so that he considered it most unfair now that the magistrates had granted Grice a transfer of another license that that offence should again be brought up against him The license was renewed with a caution.”

Mrs. Sarah Ann Barr, beer retailer, 21, Upper Hall Lane. [1896]

Caesar A. L. Jenkyns = Caesar A. L. Jenkins

1901 Census

21+22, Upper Hall Lane

- [1] Caesar A. L. Jenkins (34), beerhouse keeper, born Broughwood, Brecknockshire;
- [2] Elizabeth Jenkins (31), wife, born Birmingham;
- [3] Ruth Jenkins (12), daughter, born Birmingham;
- [4] Dorothy Jenkins (5), daughter, born Birmingham;
- [5] Henry Jenkins (4), son, born Manchester;
- [6] Violet Jenkins (5 months), daughter, born Walsall:

Walsall Advertiser 25/1/1902

“Mr. T. H. Stanley applied for the transfer of the license of the ROYAL [sic] OAK beerhouse, Upper Hall Lane, from Caesar Jenkyns to Mark Knight. The Acting Chief Constable (Inspector Ballance) said he had no objection on the ground of character, but Jenkyns left the house on Wednesday last, since when Knight had been managing it.

Mr. R. J. Cooper (Town Clerk) said he had instructed the Acting Chief Constable to issue a summons against Knight, who had been receiving the profits of the house for five days without having a license.

The house was ordered to be closed for the day, and a further application to be made next day.”

AND

“Mark Knight, of the OLD OAK INN, Upper Hall Lane, was summoned for selling beer without a license on January 15th and four following days.

The Town Clerk (Mr. J. R. Cooper) appeared on behalf of the police, explaining that the license of the OLD OAK INN was at present held by a man named Jenkyns. Some arrangement had been come to between the defendant and Jenkyns by which the defendant was to have possession of the house on Wednesday last week, but difficulties arose, and, notwithstanding that no authority was obtained from the magistrates to empower defendant to sell, he entered into possession, keeping Jenkyns on the premises, although Jenkyns had removed his goods and gone to reside in another part of the town. However, after hearing the explanation which would no doubt be made to the Bench, he did not propose to proceed further with the summonses, with the permission of the Bench. It appeared to him the defendant thought he was satisfying the law by arranging for the last tenant to remain on the premises until he obtained a temporary authority. The object of issuing the summonses was to show to the public that there must not be trafficking in those licenses, and that before any person could sell on licensed premises it was absolutely necessary that the authority of a bench of magistrates should be obtained.

Mr. H. H. Jackson (who represented Knight) said that Knight's tenancy was a bona fide one; he paid the owner £35 on deposit to go into the house, and had to pay a further £30. On Wednesday last he was instructed to apply for a temporary authority, but owing to the owner of the premises not turning up they could not proceed. A wire was sent to Wolverhampton for the owner, but unfortunately he did not arrive until the court was over. Jenkyns who was the licensee, remained on the premises, and under those circumstances Knight thought he was perfectly justified in selling. Strictly speaking he supposed a technical offence had been committed, but everything had been fair and above board. The house had been closed on the previous day and was closed that morning, so he thought the defendant had been punished for his negligence or want of care in not having a temporary authority. Everything was all in order now, and he asked the Bench to accede to the suggestion of the Town Clerk and allow the case to be withdrawn.

The Town Clerk mentioned that Mr. Jackson was willing to pay the costs of the summons.

The magistrates consented to this course, and subsequently granted a transfer of the license from Jenkyns to the defendant.”

Walsall Advertiser 15/3/1902 - Advert

“James Drew, Deceased.

Valuable Freehold Beerhouse and Other Properties in Upper Hall Lane and High Street, Walsall. To be Sold by Auction, by Messrs. Fox & Harrison at the STORK HOTEL, Walsall, on Tuesday Next, the 18th day of March, 1902, at Seven o'clock in the evening precisely.....

Lot 2. The Well-known Freehold Beerhouse, known as the OLD OAK INN, situate in Upper Hall Lane, Walsall, now in the occupation of Mark Knight; together with the Cottage in the rear thereof, in the occupation of Michael Bannon.

And also the Five Adjoining Houses, Numbered 19, 20, 20A, 23, and 24, in the occupation of O'Brien, Coleman, Burke, and Whittick, at weekly rents producing £55 18s per annum.

The OLD OAK INN and the Cottage in the rear thereof are let on lease to Mr. Matthew Rhodes, brewer, Ettingshall, near Wolverhampton, for a term of seven years commencing 1st September, 1899, at the yearly rent of £60.

The accommodation of the Licensed House comprises, on upper floors, five Chambers; on ground floor, Smoke Room, Tap Room, Bar, a second Smoke Room, Sitting Room, and Pantries; on basement, two excellent Cellars; Yard, Brewhouse (with room over), and Washhouse.

The Lessee has the option of purchasing the whole of the property comprising Lot 2 for £2,500, at any time before the 1st day of September, 1906, on giving three calendar months previous notice. The property is sold subject to the said Lease and to the option of purchase. The counterpart Lease can be seen at any time on application to either of the undermentioned solicitors.

NB. This Freehold Licensed House is well worth the attention of Brewers and Publicans, as well of Investors.

For further particulars and plans apply to the Auctioneers, 51, Lower Hall Lane, Walsall; to Mr. James Armstrong, Solicitor, 20, Bridge Street, Walsall; or to Mr. T. Harrison Evans, Solicitor, 45, Bridge Street, Walsall.”

Walsall Advertiser 26/7/1902

“The petition in bankruptcy has been filed at the office of the Wolverhampton Official Receiver (Mr. Sam Wells Page), of Mark Knight, beerhouse keeper and commercial traveller. The statement of the debtor’s affairs shows gross liabilities amounting to £106 8s 6d, the deficiency being £92 2s 6d. Bankrupt gives the cause of insolvency ‘want of capital, bad debts, and bad trade.’ In his observations the Official Receiver states: The bankrupt is 37 years of age. Prior to January, 1902, he was a public house manager. In November, 1901, he purchased the stock, license, and effects of a beerhouse, known as the OLD OAK INN, Walsall, for £35, but did not have possession until the 25th January, 1902. He had capital of £30, and the balance of the purchase money he borrowed. He traded at the OLD OAK INN up to the time of his bankruptcy. Shortly after going into the house he was unable to pay his debts as they became due. On 27th June, 1902, a distress was levied for half-year’s rent, £12 10s; and on 30th June an execution was levied for £14. The bankrupt then consulted his solicitor, and the petition was filed on 4th July, 1902. The same day the landlord sold all the distrainable effects at the inn. The sale only realised £10 16s 5d. The unsecured creditors consist of £15 10s money borrowed, £78 0s 1d trade debts, and £8 12s 5d miscellaneous items. The debts have been contracted since December last. The bankrupt kept no cash book or ledger. He states his present deficiency had arisen from loss upon carrying on business since taking to the inn, and household expenses since then. The first meeting of creditors takes place at Wolverhampton on the 29th inst, and the public examination of the debtor at Walsall on the 31st.”

Walsall Advertiser 2/8/1902

“Walsall Bankruptcy Court.....

Mark Knight, beerhouse keeper, of the OLD OAK INN, Upper Hall Lane, Walsall, appeared for public examination. The statement of affairs showed liabilities expected to rank £102 2s 6d. In reply to the Official Receiver (Mr. Sam Wells Page) debtor stated that for four years prior to December, 1900, he lived in Lower Hall Lane, and was employed by Messrs. Shannon. From December, 1900, to January, 1902, he was at the ROLLING MILL INN, Bradley, and since that time he had been at the OLD OAK INN, where he purchased the stock, license and fixtures for £35. He did not have a previous valuation, however. Shortly after going into the OLD OAK debtor found that he was unable to pay his debts as they became due. He had been disappointed in the house. He attributed his insolvency to want of capital, bad debts, and bad trade. The examination was adjourned to August 27th. Mr. J. Armstrong appeared for the debtor.”

Walsall Advertiser 30/8/1902

“Mr. J. A. Armstrong called attention to the case of the OLD OAK INN, of Upper Hall Lane. The license holder, Mr. Mark Knight, recently became bankrupt, but the license had not lapsed. The Official Receiver was prepared to accept Mr. Knight to continue to keep the house. The magistrates granted permission for Mr. Knight to remain landlord of the inn.”

Walsall Advertiser 10/1/1903

“Today was the adjourned transfer day. Transfers of full licenses were granted in the case of.....

Mr. J. N. Cotterell renewed his application for the granting of a transfer of the OLD OAK, Upper Hall Lane, from Mark Knight to Herbert Tuckley, who had been temporarily in authority for the last few weeks. He said that Tuckley had been a license holder upwards of twelve years, during which time no complaint or conviction had been registered against him. In September 1901, he left the FOUR WAYS, Birchills, and became steward of the Birchills Working Men’s Club, at 35s a week. Not liking club work, however, he applied, or intended to apply to be granted the license of a house in Ablewell Street, but was given to understand that he could not hold a license while steward of a club. He therefore gave up his appointment at the club, which he had had absolutely nothing to do with since. In July he was granted a temporary authority in respect of the THATCHED HOUSE TAVERN, but he gave up that house very quickly, through a misunderstanding as to takings. Though a man of some means Tuckley had to earn his living, and for that reason he was applying for this transfer.

The Bench intimated that they wished to know Tuckley’s connection with the working men’s club.

Who paid him his wages while he was steward? – Applicant: The club.

Mr. Beebee asked how far the house at which the club was held was distant from the FOUR WAYS? – Mr. Cotterell said he did not know, but Dr. Lynch said that the two places were on opposite sides of the road.

Mr. Dean suggested that the club was really an opposition shop.

The next question was as to whose the house was which the club occupied? – The reply was it belonged to Mr. Tuckley, who, however, had granted a lease of it to the Butler’s Brewery Co, for 14 years.

Mr. Beebee said the justices were informed that Tuckley was well off, and had no necessity to keep a club or anything else.

Mr. Cotterell assured the Bench that his client had to earn his living, having a large family to keep, and further submitted that even if he had been a rich man that would not have been a ground for refusing the transfer.

Replying again applicant said that since his wife had leased the club house in Pargeter Street, he had had nothing to do with the club, and was in no way interested in the affair, except as regarded the lease.

Mr. Dean: Have you anything to do with another club in Hollyhedge Lane? – Applicant: No, sir.

Has your wife? – No, sir.

To whom does the property on which the club is held belong? – Mr. Maiden.

Is that your brother-in-law? – Yes.

Dr. Lynch: As a matter of fact, is not your wife financing that club? – No, sir.

Mr. Beebee said he did not know whether applicant could answer for his wife. It was not everyone that could (laughter).

Dr. Lynch asked if Butler’s had not spent £650 in renovating the club premises? – Applicant did not know.

Mr. Dean said that when the law dealt as it did with licensed houses, they did not want to have people opening clubs, and then turning them over to brewery companies at big rents.

Applicant repeated that he had nothing to do with any club now. He added that he had not been on friendly terms with his brother-in-law for a long time who was concerned with the Hollyhedge Lane club.

The Chief Constable said he had no objection to Tuckley as licensee of the OLD OAK.

When the Town Clerk contemplated opposing Tuckley's application for a license, it was while he was steward of the Working Men's Club.

In reply to further questions applicant said the club in Pargeter Street was started in January, and he received notice to leave the FOUR WAYS in March, though he did not actually leave until September.

The justices after a short retirement, decided to grant the transfer."

Walsall Advertiser 6/2/1904

"The annual licensing sessions for the Borough of Walsall were held on Thursday at the Guildhall, and aroused considerable interest. The court was crowded, and many license-holders were unable to obtain admission.....

Notice had been given to 76 license holders to show cause for the renewal of their licenses, evidently as a result of the visits of a sub-committee of magistrates to the licensed premises, the reasons why cause had to be shown being various....

George Ford, landlord of the OLD OAK, Upper Hall Lane, was called on to show whether his house was necessary, was in a proper state of repair, and of sufficient value. Mr. Armstrong representing the owners. Ford said his rent was £25. Asked how long he had paid that, he replied, 'I am not in arrears yet' (laughter). Questioned as to whether he knew 'there are two GREEN MANS at the corner of the street,' he answered, 'Well I have been away since morning (loud laughter, in which the magistrates joined).

The case was adjourned to March 1st, the magistrates laying an objection to the renewal."

The license renewal was refused on 1st February 1906.

Walsall Advertiser 3/2/1906

"There was not nearly the intense public interest in the annual licensing meeting for the borough of Walsall on Thursday, at the Guildhall, as was the case during the past two or three years, for instead of the court room being densely crowded and a vast throng clamouring for admission in the entrance corridor and on the footpath outside, chiefly holders of licenses and others intimately connected with the trade, the court, though well filled, was evidently large enough to accommodate all who wished to attend.....

The Chief Constable had given notice of objection to the renewal of the following seven licenses; William Henry Lowe, ACORN, alehouse, Lower Rushall Street; James Scott, JOLLY BACCCHUS, alehouse, New Street; George James Sambrook, KING WILLIAM, alehouse, Little Bloxwich; William Wright, OLD OAK, beerhouse, Upper Hall Lane; William Alfred Burton, STORES, beerhouse, Ablewell Street; George Carrington, STORES, beerhouse, Upper Rushall Street; John James Lawrence, STORES, beerhouse, High Street.

Mr. Loxton said these objections were by direction of the Bench, and he had also served notices on behalf of the magistrates, simply to comply with the section of the Act of Parliament, and without forming any opinion or prejudging cases. The justices directed him to state for the convenience of the advocates that the objections were mainly on the grounds of not required which would necessitate their being referred to the Compensatory Authority. But if during the hearing of the cases the grounds should be such as to justify the refusal of renewal on grounds without compensation, the advocate would be required to direct his attention to such grounds.

Mr. Pearman-Smith said he came there on the understanding that it was the intention to refer those licenses to the Compensatory Authority to report on.

Mr. Loxton said the magistrates had inspected a number of houses with a view to whether they should report to the Compensatory Authority. It might be that some houses were structurally unfit, and in such case they would refuse the license, and they would have to go the quarter sessions.....

The first case taken was that of the OLD OAK, Upper Hall Lane. Mr. R. J. Lawrence, instructed by Messrs. Stanley and Jackson, appeared for the owners, Frank Myatt and Co, Wolverhampton, and the tenant William Wright.

Chief-inspector Ballance said there were five licenses within 120 paces of the OLD OAK INN. There was a deficiency in sanitary accommodation, and the ceilings were rather low, and in parts dilapidated, and the stairs were dark and dangerous.

By Mr. Lawrence: The house was in an improved condition to what it was. In all the business parts of the house it was in a clean and good condition. The population of the neighbourhood was decreasing.

Mr. Lawrence contended that the district was a more important one now than it ever had been. If the requirement was less it was no reason why this particular house should be taken away; it was only fair that those which had come into existence since should go first. There was no complaint about the house, it was in good condition, and the owners and tenant strongly hoped that the Bench would not report the house for compensation. They were doing a good trade, and did not wish to be scheduled, as no doubt some would.

Mr. H. E. Framer and Mr. T. A. Lowry (Wolverhampton), architects gave evidence that the house was in a tenantable condition.

Mr. Lawrence to Mr. Lowry: Is it not one of the latest fads among architects that there is better ventilation in a low room than in a high one (laughter). – Mr. Lowry: I won't go into that.

Answering a further question, witness said he knew the DUKE OF YORK INN, and the outside of that was in a bad state.

Mr. Loxton: If the OLD OAK ought to be taken away, the DUKE OF YORK more so? – Witness: Yes.

Mr. Loxton (to the Chief Constable): Perhaps you will make note of that for next year.

Mr. Lawrence said the fact that the owner did not want to come on the compensation and was satisfied with the trade ought to be considered by the Bench.....

The justices were not prepared to renew this license, but would refer it to a full bench as the compensation authority.”

Walsall Advertiser 26/5/1906

“On Tuesday before a full Bench, comprised of Messrs. W. H. Brooks (presiding), G. Gull, J. Moseley, A. D. Cozens, R. Thomas, S. B. Wheway, H. D. Clark, P. Bull, J. Clare, and (Dr.) J. Lynch, Mr. F. Bill (solicitor) appeared in support of the report made by the Licensing Committee in respect of the four following houses: KING WILLIAM, Little Bloxwich; OLD OAK, Hall Lane; STORES, Ablewell Street; and STORES, High Street.

Mr. Bill in explaining the mode of procedure, said that if the Licensing Committee thought a license should be dealt with on certain grounds they could deal with it, and could refuse the license, but if they considered that it should be dealt with in respect of grounds other than those particular grounds, the matter must be brought before a full bench of Magistrates to deal with. The grounds of the report in these cases were that the licenses were not required by the needs of the district. This was one of the grounds the Licensing Committee could not deal with, and they must send the licenses so reported to a full bench of magistrates, who could renew or refuse the license. In case the latter course was taken then the question of compensation arose. He was instructed that these four houses had been inspected by the magistrates, so that their condition and the neighbourhood must be within their own knowledge. Mr. Bill then proceeded to call evidence.....

OLD OAK. Chief-inspector Ballance said that the house was difficult to police-supervision, structurally bad, old, and in parts dilapidated. He knew the district well and in his opinion there were too many public-houses, of which this was the least suitable of those in close proximity.

Mr. H. H. Jackson appeared for the owners F. Myatt, Ltd, and for the licensee W. Wright (?).

After a private deliberation, the chairman (Mr. W. H. Brooks) said the Bench had unanimously confirmed the resolution of the Licensing Committee that the four houses were unnecessary, and the licenses would be refused.”

OLD PEAL AND NELSON

6, (5), (2), Peal Street, WALSALL

OWNERS

Joseph Freeman, Paddock, Walsall

Mrs. J. Freeman, widow

Edgbaston Brewery Co. Ltd, Five Ways, Birmingham

William Henry Anderson, Dudley Street, Wolverhampton (acquired in 1892)

LICENSEES

Thomas Chillingworth [1813]

Ann Chillingsworth [1818] – [1822]

George Boulton [1828] – [1830]

James Hayes [1834] – [1835]

Robert Parsons [1841] – [1842]

Isaac Webb [1843]

Joseph Freeman [1845] – [1870]

Henry Smith [1871] – [1872]

Joseph Beebee [1872] – 1873;

Levi Evans (1873 – [];

James Childs [];

Charles Pinder [];

John George Robotham [];

Charles Matthew Anderson [];

Edward Wainwright [1880] – [1881];

John Heaton [];

Albert Lovett [];

Henry Edwards [] – 1888;

William Cramwell (1888);

Richard Shazell (1888);

James Dyer (1888 – 1893);

James O’Hanlon (1893 – 1894);

William Henry Tonks (1894) ?

Ebenezer Cooper (1894):

NOTES

5, Peal Street
6, Peal Street [1860], [1871], [1891]
5+6, Peal Street [1861]
2, Peal Street [1881]

OLD PEAL [1818], [1822], [1828], [1830], [1834], [1835], [1841], [1842], [1865]
NELSON AND PEAL [1841], [1872], [1891], [1893], [1894]
OLD PEAL AND NELSON [1843], [1851], [1860], [1868], [1874]
PEAL AND NELSON [1845], [1849], [1850], [1858], [1864], [1865], [1893], [1894]
OLD NELSON AND PEAL [1873]

Aris's Birmingham Gazette 31/3/1828 - Advert

“To be Sold by Auction, on the premises, on Tuesday the 8th day of April, 1828, at four o'clock in the afternoon (unless in the meantime a suitable offer should be made by private contract), the Licences, Goodwill, and Possession of that old established and well frequented Market House known by the sign of the OLD PEAL, most eligibly situated in Peal Street, close to the Market Place, with capital Cellars and Stabling for twelve horses.

The present tenant leaves on account of entering into the farming business.

N.B. The Stock (which is kept reduced), Fixtures, Household Furniture, &c to be taken to at a fair valuation.

To treat apply to E. Jukes, Land Surveyor and Auctioneer, Park Street, Walsall.”

1841 Census

Peal Street

[1] Robert Parsons (40), farmer;
[2] Ann Parsons (35);
[3] Joseph Parsons (6), born Staffordshire;
[4] Thomas Parsons (9), born Staffordshire;
[5] Selina Parsons (4), born Staffordshire;
[6] Roseanna Parsons (1), born Staffordshire;
[7] Eliza Jones (20);
[8] Sarah Baylis (1), born Staffordshire;
[9] Julia Dunn (45):

Wolverhampton Chronicle 8/9/1841

“The general annual licensing meeting for the borough of Walsall was held at the Guildhall on Wednesday. The magistrates present were John Whitgreave, Esq, R. James, Esq, C. F. Cotterill Esq, and C. Greatrex, Esq. Several applications were made for new licenses, but only two were granted, one to John Boys, at the JUNCTION INN, Bridgeman Street, and the other to a person named Amos, at Bloxwich. The licenses of two old houses were withdrawn for misconduct, namely the BULLS HEAD, in Rushall Street, and the NELSON AND PEAL, Peal Street.”

London Gazette 23/6/1843

“I, Isaac Webb, at present, and for four months past, residing at a house known by the sign of the OLD PEAL AND NELSON, in Peal-street, in the parish of Walsall, and county of Stafford, and being a Stone Mason and Licenced Victualler, and for six months previously thereto residing in Freer-street, in the said parish, and being then a Stone Mason, and for eighteen months previously thereto residing in Stafford-street, in the said parish, and being then a Stone Mason, and for eighteen months previously thereto residing in Portland-street, in the said parish, and being then a Stone Mason and Beer Retailer, do hereby give notice, that I intend to present a Petition to the Birmingham District Court of Bankruptcy, at Birmingham, praying to be examined touching my debts, estate, and effects, and to be protected from all process, upon making a full disclosure and surrender of such estate and effects, for payment of my just and lawful debts; and I hereby further give notice, that the time when the matter of the said Petition shall be heard, is to be advertized in the London Gazette and in the Staffordshire Advertiser Newspaper, one month at the least after the date hereof.

As witness my hand, this 15th day of June in the year of our Lord, 1843

Isaac Webb.”

Joseph Freeman was also a horse dealer. [1845], [1849], [1850], [1861]

1861 Census

5+6, Peal Street

[1] Joseph Freeman (56), publican and horse dealer, born Walsall;
[2] Frances Freeman (63), wife, born Compton;
[3] Mary Freeman (21), daughter, born Walsall;
[4] Mary Fox (18), servant, born Ireland;

- [5] Jane Jackson (48), lodger, born Northampton;
[6] Robert Jackson (38), lodger, labourer, born Henford, Bedfordshire:

Walsall Free Press 24/6/1865 - Advert

“Mr. J. Challoner & Company begs to inform the public that a Meeting will be held at the OLD PEAL, Peal Street, at Eight o'clock, on Monday Night, for the ‘Beef, Pork and Milk Company.’
By Order, J. Challoner, Chairman.”

1871 Census

6, Peal Street

- [1] Henry Smith (59), publican, born Norton Canes;
[2] Eliza Smith (50), wife, born Walsall;
[3] Emily H. Smith (19), daughter, born Walsall;
[4] Clara E. Smith (17), daughter, born Walsall;
[5] Alice M. Smith (14), daughter, scholar, born Walsall;
[6] Richard H. Smith (11), son, scholar, born Walsall;
[7] William N. Smith (8), grandson, scholar, born Walsall;
[8] Sidney H. Smith (12), son, scholar, born Walsall:

Staffordshire Advertiser 19/10/1872

“Bridget Jordan, wife of a shoemaker living in Dudley Street, was charged with stealing a bottle of whisky, value 5s 6d, the property of Mr. Joseph Beebee, of the NELSON AND PEAL, Peal Street. On Wednesday morning the prisoner went to the prosecutor's house, and soon after the bottle of liquor in question was missed. Sergeant Drury was communicated with, and he went to the prisoner, who denied knowing anything about the missing property. The officer, however, found it under her dress. A previous conviction having been proved against her, she was sentenced to one months' imprisonment.”

Walsall Free Press 30/8/1873

“Harriet Baynton and Jeremiah Trysull were charged with having stolen a silver watch, valued £7, the property of William Lowe. It appeared that on Saturday, the 9th inst, all the parties were in the SWAN AND PEAL public-house, Peal Street, and prosecutor went to the bar and requested the girl who was there lend him a needle and thread to sew a brace button on, and the female prisoner offered to sew it on for him. She did so, and in about ten minutes afterwards he missed his watch, and accused Baynton of taking it, but she denied all knowledge of it. Elizabeth Gabbes, sister of the female prisoner, said that on Sunday, the 10th inst, the female prisoner told her that she (prisoner) had stolen the watch, and that the male prisoner had sold it. Levi Evans, landlord of OLD NELSON AND PEAL, said the male prisoner came to his house and said, ‘I have something here I can sell cheap – it came cheap;’ but as someone came to the bar window the prisoner went away and came back in about half-an-hour and produced the watch, which was a silver one, with a silver dial and gold letters. Prisoner offered to sell the watch for £4 and said it cost £7 10s. Detective-sergeant Drury proved the apprehension of the female prisoner, who denied all knowledge of the watch. The male prisoner, who had been apprehended at Oldbury, also denied, when taken into custody, all knowledge of the watch. The prisoners, who pleaded not guilty, were remanded for a week.”

[At the Borough Quarter Sessions at the Guildhall, on 19th September, Harriet Baynton, who had previously been convicted, was sentenced to four months' imprisonment, including two weeks' solitary confinement, and Jeremiah Trysull to three months' imprisonment, including one week's solitary confinement.]

London Gazette 10/3/1874

“The Bankruptcy Act, 1869.

In the County Court of Staffordshire, holden at Walsall. In the Matter of Proceedings for Liquidation by Arrangement or Composition with Creditors, instituted by Levi Evans, of the OLD PEAL AND NELSON INN, Peal Street, Walsall, in the county of Stafford, Innkeeper and Press Tool Maker.

Notice is hereby given, that a First General Meeting of the creditors of the above-named person has been summoned to be held at the offices of Mr. Fredrick Bill, at No.5, Bridge-street, Walsall, in the county of Stafford, on the 24th day of March, 1874, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon precisely.

Dated this 6th day of March, 1874.

Frederick Bill, 5, Bridge-street, Walsall, Attorney for the said Debtor.”

1881 Census

2, Peal Street

- [1] Edward Wainwright (69), publican, born Atherston, Staffordshire;
[2] Hannah Wainwright (60), wife, born Wilnecoate [Wilnecote?];
[3] Thomas Heaton (39), son in law, jeweler, born Birmingham;
[4] Eliza Heaton (30), daughter, born Birmingham;
[5] Joseph Clark (28), boarder, painter, born Birmingham;
[6] Emily Meek (17), servant, born Aston:

1891 Census

6, Peal Street – NELSON AND PEAL INN

[1] James Dyer (39), manager of public house, born Kidderminster;

[2] Mary Dyer (37), wife, born Warrington;

[3] Maggie Dyer (11), daughter, scholar, born London;

[4] Harriet Dyer (9), daughter, scholar, born Brownhills;

[5] Lilly Dyer (7), daughter, scholar, born Warrington;

[6] Minner Dyer (5), daughter, scholar, born Warrington;

[7] Etty Dyer (1), daughter, born Walsall:

Birmingham Daily Post 24/8/1893

“At the Guildhall, yesterday, James O’Hanlon, the NELSON AND PEAL, Peal Street, was summoned for selling without a license. It seemed he omitted to get a temporary authority on Monday, when he entered into possession of the house, and a couple of days was selling illegally. He was ordered to pay the costs of the Court 19s 6d.”

Birmingham Daily Post 20/9/1893

“The adjourned licensing session for Walsall borough took place yesterday.....

An application for the transfer of the PEAL AND NELSON, Peal Street, from James Dyer to James O’Hanlan, was opposed by the Chief Constable, on the ground that the house was the resort of disorderly persons, and that the license was not required. Mr. Jesse Herbert (instructed by Mr. Jackson) appeared for the owner, Mr. Anderson, and said that gentleman proposed to make the house his central stores for Walsall. Mr. Anderson was called, and he said that when he bought the house last year he saw the Chief Constable, who gave him to understand that it had been well conducted. Granted.”

James O’Hanlon was fined £5 and costs for permitting drunkenness, 10s and costs for selling intoxicating liquor to a drunken person, and 40s and costs for being drunk on his own premises, on 8th November 1893.

Walsall Advertiser 3/2/1894

“At the Guildhall, on Monday, James Dyer, keeper of the STORES INN, High Street, applied for the transfer of the license of that house to himself from John Henry Tully, who supported the application. The case was before the court on the previous Friday, the special transfer day, when Tully failed to appear. The Chief Constable (Mr. Taylor) now intimated that he had given notice of objection.

Dyer was sworn and admitted that his wife kept a coffee house and lodging-house in Peal Street, but said he left the PEAL AND NELSON INN because of this, as the Chief Constable told him if he got any other house than this he would have no opposition. Mr. Taylor: I told him I would not agree to his keeping a license if he had a common lodging house a few yards away.

The applicant denied it was a common lodging house, but the Chief Constable explained it was formerly the THREE SWANS AND PEAL, and although not a registered lodging-house was frequented by people on the road who were not of a particularly good character. Proceeding Mr. Taylor said his present objection was that he was not satisfied as to the applicant’s present character. Since Dyer had left the PEAL AND NELSON there had been continual uproar in that part of town between his wife and people of the name of Fahy, and something would have to be done about it.

The applicant said he was afraid there was something under the surface as regards this opposition besides what had come out. It was not much good his doing anything against what the Chief Constable was able to do.

Mr. Loxton said there was no ground for such a statement as this. The magistrates would give him every consideration.

Mr. Brewer asked what he meant by something under the surface? – Dyer: Well, I will tell you; as it may well come out. In Mr. Holden’s last election the Chief Constable sent Police-constable Bentley to my house, and he brought me up to his office. He said I hear you are taking an active part in this election, and if such is the case I shall have to oppose your license.

Mr. Moseley: On whose behalf was it? – Dyer: On behalf of Mr. Holden.

Mr. Brewer: Do you want to insinuate that because you were working for Mr. Holden the Chief Constable turned against you and warned you? – Dyer: I give you this statement, and you can take it for what it is worth.

Mr. Taylor asked to be allowed to meet this charge. It was perfectly true that he sent for this man and another man as well. It was at the last election, and he heard Dyer was getting a party of roughs together on behalf of Sir Arthur Holden, and that a man named Hunter, who was well known to the magistrates, was alleged to be getting another party of roughs together for Mr. Ritchie. He sent for both and warned each separately that if they had anything to do with any such thing he should have them bound over to keep the peace. This he did in the interests of the peace of the town.

Mr. Loxton: Certainly, that is obvious.

The applicant here said it was in Mr. Holden’s not Sir Arthur Hayter’s election.

Mr. Loxton said it was obvious that the Chief Constable acted in the interest of preserving peace.

The Chief Constable added that to show the absence of any personal feeling when the license of the PEAL AND NELSON was opposed he gave Dyer the character of having done his best whilst in charge there.

The Magistrates adjourned the application for a week for evidence in support of the opposition.”

Walsall Advertiser 24/2/1894

“Ebenezer Cooper, keeper of the PEAL AND NELSON INN, Peal Street, was summoned for permitting drunkenness on Saturday, the 27th ult. Mr. H. H. Jackson appeared for the defence.

The Chief Constable, who conducted the prosecution, stated that the case was the sequel to proceedings taken against a man named Lawrence Farrol, who was sentenced to twenty-one days’ imprisonment for being drunk and disorderly and assaulting the police. It then transpired that Farrol had been at the PEAL AND NELSON INN, that he was sober on going there, but afterwards got into such a state the he commenced to use a razor, and the police had to be called in.

Farrol was now called, and said he had a share of four pints of beer while in the house. He had also had five pints previously, but it took more than this to affect him, and he was perfectly sober all the time. He was not drunk when he was locked up.

In reply to the Chief Constable, he admitted he pleaded guilty before the magistrates.

Police-constables Reynolds, Bell, and Ballance each gave evidence as to prisoner being drunk, and Benjamin Hawkins, potman, in defendant's employ, was examined as to admissions he made when Farrol's case was being heard.

Mr. Jackson for the defence, said the whole case arose in consequence of Farrol using a razor; but for that nothing would have been heard of the matter. He denied altogether that Farrol was drunk.

Defendant was sworn and said he managed the house for Anderson & Co. He had 20 years' character from Birmingham. Farrol when seen by him was certainly not drunk, but was very much excited; in fact, for the time being he was like a maniac.

Defendant was questioned as to not attending the court when Farrol was charged, and said some goods came unexpectedly which he had to stay and get in. Asked by the Chief Constable what these were, he said it was irrelevant, and after considerable pressure said he meant he had barrels to tap &c, and this delayed him.

Several witnesses spoke as to Farrol's sobriety. Their evidence, however, being somewhat contradictory. Ultimately the magistrates dismissed the case, Mr. Brewer, however telling defendant that the considered he had given his evidence in a very disgraceful and untruthful manner. After the statements he had made they could not believe him again.

Mr. Russell said he quite endorsed Mr. Brewer's remarks. He himself could not place the slightest reliance on the evidence if the defendant after he had fenced with a plain question and told such different stories. Mr. Gill said he quite concurred in the remarks made. Defendant had a very narrow escape."

Walsall Advertiser 24/3/1894

"On the application of Mr. H. H. Jackson, the license of the PEAL AND NELSON INN, Peal Street was transferred to Wm. Henry Tonks. Mr. Jackson said the proposed tenant bore an excellent character, and it was hoped would be proved to be the right man at last. Mr. Brewer said the magistrates hoped this would be the case, and they would have less trouble with the house in future."

Birmingham Daily Post 29/3/1894

"At the Guildhall, yesterday, Margaret Kelly, Church Street, was charged, on remand, with having, on the 19th inst, at the PEAL AND NELSON INN, stabbed William Rowan. Dr. Stearn having deposed that the injured man was still in hospital in a somewhat critical condition, the accused was remanded for a week."

Birmingham Daily Post 12/4/1894

"At Walsall, yesterday, Margaret Kelly (23) was charged on remand with having, on the 19th March, stabbed William Rowan with intent to murder. Mr. H. H. Jackson watched the proceedings on behalf of the owners of the house where the alleged attempt was made.

Rowan stated that on the day named he and the prisoner were at the PEAL AND NELSON INN, Peal Street, the greater part of the day, a new tenant having entered into possession that day, and there being free drinks about. Some words arose over witness speaking to another young woman, and he made a slight kick at defendant, but did not touch her. She drew a knife from her pocket, and stabbed him in the breast. (The knife was an ordinary table-knife, worn to a dagger-like point by use.)

Henry Jones, at whose house the couple lodged, said the woman fetched the knife from his house, and after some time came back crying, and threw herself on the squab, saying, 'What shall I do? I have stabbed my Bill.'

Kate Dyer, 4, Park Place, Aston, said that whilst she was in the house Rowan asked her to pay for a drink for him, and she did so. In the yard she asked prisoner if she was jealous, and the reply was 'no.' When prisoner struck the blow she said to Rowan 'I'll kill you.'

James Fitzgerald said they were all getting jolly, but were not drunk. After Rowan had received the wound he called out 'I'm done for,' and staggered out of the house.

Police-constable Morris deposed that the woman came to the police station immediately after the occurrence, and gave herself up, saying, 'I've stabled my husband with a knife in the PEAL AND NELSON. We had been quarrelling, and I was in a temper.'

Dr. Stearn deposed that Rowan had a wound 1½in long, passing into the chest cavity. The man was nearly dead when admitted, and it was thought desirable to have his deposition taken at once. He was in dangerous state for some days.

Accused was committed for trial at the assizes, the Bench consenting to accept bail, herself in £50, and two sureties in £25 each." [At the Staffordshire Assizes, on July 24th, 1894, Margaret Kelly was indicted for unlawfully and maliciously wounding William Rowan, she was found guilty of unlawful wounding, and the sentence was deferred.]

William Tonks, who had left the house after remaining there only forty-eight hours had, on 18th April 1894, his license endorsed, for permitting drunkenness.

Walsall Advertiser 1/9/1894

"The annual Licensing Sessions for the borough were held yesterday at the Guildhall.....

The Chief Constable said the objections he had to make to the renewals of licenses were those of the NELSON AND PEEL, Peal Street, and the ROYAL EXCHANGE, Mill Street, Ryecroft. In the case of the NELSON AND PEEL he opposed the renewal on the ground (1), that on November 8 James O'Hanlon was fined £5 and costs for permitting drunkenness, 10s and costs for selling to a drunken person, and 40s and costs for being drunk on his own licensed premises; and that on April 18, 1894, Henry Wm. Tonks was fined £4 and costs for permitting drunkenness on the premises; (2), that the house was of a disorderly character; and (3), that the sale of intoxicating drinks was not demanded by the needs of the locality.....”

The license renewal was refused at the adjourned Licensing Meeting on 28th September 1894.

Birmingham Daily Post 29/9/1894

“Walsall. The adjourned licensing sessions for this borough took place yesterday.....

The case of the NELSON AND PEAL, Peal Street, was next taken, Mr. Plumptre (instructed by Mr. H. H. Jackson) appearing in support. The Chief Constable objected to the renewal on grounds of convictions of one manager for permitting drunkenness, selling to drunken persons, that the house was of a disorderly character, selling to drunken persons, and being drunk on the premises, one conviction of another manager for permitting drunkenness, that the house was of a disorderly character, and the house was not required to meet the wants of the locality. Detective-inspector Cliff deposed as to the disorderly character of the house and neighbourhood, and evidence of similar character was given by other officers. Mr. Plumptre contended that this was an exceptional case, and ought to be treated in an exceptional way. Peal Street was a low neighbourhood, but public-houses, he supposed, must exist in low neighbourhoods, and all the evidence went to show that Mr. Anderson had done his utmost to procure good tenants and to have the house conducted properly, and had consulted with the Chief Constable from time to time with regard to the people to be put in. Mr. Anderson gave £2,000 for the freehold and fixtures of the NELSON AND PEAL about fifteen months ago, and he submitted that to inflict Mr. Anderson the tremendous punishment of confiscating his property because he was more sinned against than sinning, would drive respectable men out of the trade, and would be an injustice and harshness committed in the name of justice and law, and would be likely to cause a great reaction. The real wrongdoers were the tenants, who had been merely punished with penalties of not more than £5 and costs in any case. Mr. Anderson was then called, in support of their statement. Ebenezer Cooper, the present manager of the house, was called to speak of the measures taken to keep disorderly persons out of the place; and James Rowley, builder, deposed that he had made alterations to fit the place for a bottling establishment..... The Bench deliberated in private for some time, and on their return into court announced that the license of the NELSON AND PEAL was refused.....

Mr. Plumptre gave notice of appeal in the matter of the NELSON AND PEAL.”

Walsall Advertiser 27/10/1894 - Advert

“13th November, at Seven pm At the DRAGON HOTEL, Walsall.

Sale of important Block of Freehold Property, comprising the Extensive-fronted Premises hitherto known as the NELSON AND PEAL INN, Peal Street, and Adjoining Property.

Solicitor, A. T. Ashwell, Esq, Nottingham.”

Walsall Observer 3/4/1943

“Mr. E. G. Franklin commenting on Mr. W. Meikle’s references in last week’s Observer to old Walsall inns, writes that he remembers the following public houses round about Church Hill: The BLACK BOY, FIELDGATE TAVERN, DUKE OF WELLINGTON, ROSE AND CROWN, JOLLY BACCHUS, BLUE PIG, PAUL PRY, MALT SHOVEL, PEEL AND NELSON, SHAKE-SPEARE, HARE AND HOUNDS, ROEBUCK, EXCHANGE, GREYHOUND, OLD ORIGINAL QUEENS HEAD, RING OF BELLS, PEAL OF BELLS, BARLEY MOW, LEATHERN BOTTLE, QUEENS HEAD. Of these only two remain.”

OLD QUEENS HEAD

22, Temple Street / Hill Street, (Church Hill), (Church Street), WALSALL

OWNERS

Benjamin Hancox, New Street, Walsall
Cannock Brewery Co. Ltd.

LICENSEES

Robert Westwood [1845] – [1851]
William Westley [1858] – [1861]
Joseph Gostlow (1860 – 1861)
Joseph Marlow [1861]
Martin Kennedy [1861]
Matthew Kennedy [1862]
Thomas Chidlow [1863] – [1872]
Edward Taylor [1872];
Benjamin Hancox [1873];
James Garner [1880]

NOTES

OLD QUEENS ARMS [1849]

QUEENS HEAD [1850], [1854], [1858], [1861], [1886]

OLD QUEENS HEAD [1860], [1864], [1868]

1851 Census

Temple Street

[1] Robert Westwood (55), licensed victualler, born Burntwood, Staffordshire;

[2] Hannah Westwood (69), wife, born London;

[3] Ann Dix (25), servant, born Hopton, Staffordshire;

[4] Emma Mason (20), servant, born Walsall:

William Westley = William Wesley

Walsall Free Press 27/10/1860 - Advert

“To Be Let, and may be entered upon immediately, that Old Licensed Public house, the OLD QUEENS HEAD, Temple Street, Walsall. The stock is low, and fixtures may be taken at a valuation.

For particulars apply to John Osbourn, Auctioneer, &c, 28, Lower Hall Street, Walsall.

N.B. the proprietor is leaving solely on account of other engagements.”

Birmingham Journal 7/9/1861

“Insolvent Debtors. Joseph Gostlow, now and for six months last past renting furnished apartments at No.53, Bagot Street, Birmingham, in the county of Warwick, occasionally employed as a Porter and Keeper in Stables, my Wife having for a portion of the period occasionally employment in needlework, and being now employed as an out-door servant, previously thereto and since the 10th day of January last past lodging at the house known by the sign of the Duke of York, in Duke Street, Birmingham aforesaid, in no way of employment for about two months previously thereto residing at the house known by the sign of the OLD QUEENS HEAD, Temple Street, in the township of the borough of Walsall in the county of Stafford, for about eighteen months previously thereto residing at the house known by the sign of the CROWN, in the Square, in the township of the borough of Walsall aforesaid, and during the whole period of my residence at the said two last named places, carrying on business as a Licensed Victualler and Dealer in Tobacco, for about two years and one month previously thereto residing at the house known by the sign of the SLATERS ARMS, at the Pleck, in the foreign of Walsall, in the said county of Stafford, carrying on business as a Licensed Brewer, Retailer of Beer, and Dealer in Tobacco, and for about two months previously thereto lodging at Bridgeman Street, in the township of the borough of Walsall aforesaid, in no way of business.”

1861 Census

22, Temple Street

[1] Joseph Marlow (36), publican, born Walsall;

[2] Sarah Marlow (32), wife, born Walsall;

[3] Joseph Marlow (13), son, scholar, born Walsall;

[4] Thomas Marlow (9), son, scholar, born Walsall:

Walsall Free Press 14/12/1861

“Martin Kennedy, landlord of the QUEENS HEAD, Temple Street, was charged with keeping a disorderly house, on the 4th instant. Police-constable No.11 deposed that on Wednesday morning, about ten minutes past four o’clock, he heard a great disturbance in defendant’s house. He secured an entrance, and found twelve drunken men in the tap room, and two prostitutes in the bar. It would appear as two men had been fighting. Defendant said that he had not permitted the disorderly conduct in his house. He could not get the men out. Two of them set about him, and it was as much as he could do to protect himself. Fined 5s and costs.”

Bells Life in London and Sporting Chronicle 7/11/1863

“J. Allen of Wednesbury will walk J. Miles of Bilston seven miles for £25 a side and the Champion’s Belt, on the Strawberry Gardens, Liverpool, handicap terms. If the deposit of £5 in our hands is covered, and articles are sent to Allen at Mr. Chidlow’s the OLD QUEENS HEAD, Temple Street, Walsall, a match can be on (we have not received the £5 mentioned above).”

Walsall Free Press 16/7/1864

“Eliza Butler was charged with having, on Thursday last, stolen a purse containing 15s, the property of Lewis Thacker, miner, Brownhills. From the evidence, it appeared that the prosecutor called at the OLD QUEENS HEAD, Hill Street, and there saw the prisoner, who gave him a glass of something to drink, and kept ‘bothering’ him to drink. He was perfectly sober, only having drank part of a pint of ale. In taking the glass of drink which the prisoner partly poured down his throat by force, he became quite helpless; but he recollected the prisoner taking the purse from his pocket, and endeavoured to prevent her but could not. She emptied the money out of the purse into her basket. He asked her for his money but she refused to give it him. He then attempted to take it from her, but the people in the house prevented him. She then left the house.

On cross-examination he admitted that he had previously been drinking at the OLD CHURCH public house.

Ann Chidlow, landlady of the OLD QUEENS HEAD, said the prosecutor and the prisoner had been drinking together at her house. They had two or three quarters of gin. The last glass of gin the prosecutor drank was dark coloured like beer. Both parties refused to pay for the last quarter called for, and, on the prosecutor refusing, the prisoner paid for it; and she took a purse from the prosecutor and went into the bar, where she picked up a jacket and put it into her basket. Witness took the jacket from her. Prisoner then went into the back yard.

Police-constable Frost said that he was sent for on the night in question to Mr. Chidlow's, and on examining the water closet found the purse now produced, and which was identified by the prosecutor as his property.

The prisoner, who pleaded guilty, was sentenced to two months' imprisonment with hard labour."

Staffordshire Advertiser 2/9/1865

"A young man named Joseph Ratcliff was charged by his father, James Ratcliff, a shoemaker, with stealing three pairs of boots out of his workshop in Rushall Street on the 25th ult. The prosecutor stated that from something he had heard he suspected the prisoner had been robbing him, and gave information to the police. Police-constable Kates deposed to apprehending the prisoner at the QUEENS HEAD, Temple Street; and Ann Chidlow, wife of the landlord, deposed to receiving the boots from prisoner in pledge for some refreshments in the shape of beer and bread and cheese, which he had on the day of the robbery. The prisoner was sentenced to 21 days' imprisonment with hard labour."

Bells Life in London and Sporting Chronicle 29/2/1868

"Messrs Chidlow and Richardson will give £15 to be run for in an all England Handicap, distance 125 yards, to come off at the Bellevue Grounds, on Easter Monday and Tuesday, April 13 and 14; entries 1s each, and 1s 6d to accept; entries not later than March 20, and acceptance on or before March 27, to be made at the ground, or to Mr. Chidlow, OLD QUEENS HEAD, Hill Street, Walsall. The usual handicap law will be strictly abided by."

Bells Life in London and Sporting Chronicle 12/9/1868

"Bellevue Grounds, Moat Road, Walsall. Mr. Noake, the proprietor of the above grounds, will give £6 10s to be run for in an All England Handicap race of 125 yards, to take place on Walsall wake Monday and Tuesday, Sept 21 and 22. Entries 1s each no acceptances made to Mr. Middlebrook, TEDDESLEY ARMS, Walsall; Chidlow, OLD QUEENS HEAD, Hill Street; Russell, Bloxwich; or at the grounds. Any one entering falsely disqualified."

1871 Census

22, Temple Street

- [1] Thomas Chidlow (43), publican, born Walsall;
- [2] Ann Chidlow (44), wife, born Walsall;
- [3] Thomas Chidlow (20), son, labourer, born Walsall;
- [4] George Chidlow (16), son, sailor, born Walsall;
- [5] Selina Chidlow (18), daughter, general servant, born Walsall;
- [6] Sarah Ann Chidlow (14), daughter, scholar, born Walsall;
- [7] John Lowbridge (20), boarder, born Walsall:

Benjamin Hancox = Benjamin Hancock

Walsall Advertiser 13/7/1886 - Advert

"To Builders And Contractors.

Tenders required for taking down the QUEENS HEAD at the corner of Temple Street in connection with the Parish Church, Walsall.

Plans and Specifications may be seen at Mr. J. Davis's, Architect, Westbourne Road, on and after, July 16th, 1886.

Tenders to be sent to the Rev. the Vicar, Walsall, not later than Friday, July 23rd."

Closed

Demolished

St. Matthews Church Institute (opened 1903) was built on the site.

Staffordshire Advertiser 11/2/1922

"Annual Licensing Sessions.....

There were also objections, to the renewal of the licenses chiefly on the ground of redundancy of the ORIGINAL QUEENS HEAD, Hill Street; RAILWAY INN, Bloxwich; ROYAL OAK, Ablewell Street; FLITCH OF BACON, Wolverhampton Street; VINE, Blue Lane; WOODMAN, Blue Lane; and VOLUNTEER, Bridgeman Street; and it was announced that the applications in respect of these houses would be considered at the adjourned sessions on March 2nd."

Walsall Observer 3/4/1943

"Mr. E. G. Franklin commenting on Mr. W. Meikle's references in last week's Observer to old Walsall inns, writes that he remembers the following public houses round about Church Hill: The BLACK BOY, FIELDGATE TAVERN, DUKE OF WELLING-TON, ROSE AND CROWN, JOLLY BACCHUS, BLUE PIG, PAUL PRY, MALT SHOVEL, PEEL AND NELSON, SHAKESPEARE, HARE AND HOUNDS, ROEBUCK, EXCHANGE, GREYHOUND, OLD ORIGINAL QUEENS HEAD, RING OF BELLS, PEAL OF BELLS, BARLEY MOW, LEATHERN BOTTLE, QUEENS HEAD. Of these only two remain.”

OLD RING OF BELLS

Ablewell Street, WALSALL

OWNERS

LICENSEES

John Eld [1834]

OLD RODNEY

25, Park Street / Pig Lane, WALSALL

OWNERS

LICENSEES

Joseph Whitehouse [1818] – [1822]

Mrs. Elizabeth Whitehouse [1828] – 1831)

John Male [1834] – 1864)

William Allen [1868] – [1876];

William John Baker []:

NOTES

OLD RODNEY [1822], [1831], [1849], [1858], [1865], [1868], [1870]

RODNEY [1835], [1841], [1842], [1845], [1850], [1857], [1862], [1864], [1865], [1870], [1872], [1875], [1876]

Joseph Whitehouse was also a maltster and buckle plater. [1818]19/10/18

Wolverhampton Chronicle 16/2/1831 - Died

“On the 10th instant, Mrs. Elizabeth Whitehouse, of the OLD RODNEY public-house, Park Street, Walsall, aged 80.”

1841 Census

Park Street

[1] John Male (35), victualler, born Staffordshire;

[2] Jane Male (24), fs, born Staffordshire:

1851 Census

Park Street

[1] John Male (47), unmarried, innkeeper, born Walsall;

[2] Maria Sanders (31), house keeper, born Walsall;

[3] Sarah Ingleby (13), servant, born Sutton [Coldfield?], Warwickshire:

Birmingham Journal 28/1/1857

“On Monday, at the Police Court, before J. Whitgreave and S. Stevens, Esqs, Thomas Brown alias William Upton, and George Edwards were charged with having on Tuesday night broken into the house of Mr. Jones, contractor, situate in Blue Lane, and stolen coats, trousers, waistcoats, gloves, and innumerable other items of wearing apparel. Mr. Samuel Jones, son of the prosecutor, who lives in Blue Lane gave evidence to having seen the house properly secured when he went to bed about ten o'clock. About six o'clock on Wednesday morning, when he went down stairs, he found that a window had been broken, the fastening undone, and an entrance effected. He afterwards missed his clothes. Police-sergeant Dackus deposed to having received Brown into custody on Saturday night at Dudley, and also having on Sunday morning apprehended Edwards. Having cautioned the prisoners in the usual manner, he asked them, when both were present, if either of them had anything to say. Brown said, 'About eight o'clock on Tuesday night, I met Edwards at the RODNEY, in Park Street, and he told me he would find some money if I would go with him. We walked together until about five o'clock in the evening, when he took me down a street, and told me to 'stand.' He afterwards brought me up a bundle of clothes, and said we should go and pawn them in Dudley. Accordingly, we went to Dudley, to three different shops, and pawned the clothes. We came back to Wednesbury and remained until Saturday morning. On Saturday night we went again to Dudley, and Edwards told me to go and pawn the jacket, and he would stop at the COACH AND HORSES public house till I returned. I did go to the pawn shop, where I was detained until the police came.' Edwards said nothing. Police-constable Smith, of Dudley, deposed to having apprehended Brown at Kenrick's pawnshop, in that town, on Saturday. He at first denied the robbery, and said the clothes were given him, but he afterwards admitted that some wearing apparel found upon him belonged to Mr. Jones. The prisoner had been detained by Mr. Kenrick. A whole host of articles, almost covering the justice table, were exhibited by the constables as the proceeds of the robbery. Superintendent Cater applied for a remand, that the case might be more fully investigated. The magistrates granted an adjournment until Monday next week."

Walsall Free Press 19/6/1858

"Richard Shaw, according to his own statement, had been fifty years in the world, and four of these he had spent in Walsall; but never in the course of all that time had he had the honour of being presented to a bench of magistrates, and believed he would not have had that honour had it not been that some friend (?) had induced him on Friday last to visit the OLD RODNEY in Park Street, where finding the drink to be to his liking, he partook rather freely of it. Sergeant Broadhurst, by whom the prisoner had been apprehended in Goodall Street, proved that when taken into custody the prisoner was drunk and disorderly. Richard admitted, though it was unpleasant to make a confession, that the statement of the officer was correct. As this was Richard's first offence, and he appeared to be truly penitent, he was discharged with a reprimand."

1861 Census

25, Park Street

- [1] John Male (58), unmarried, victualler, born Walsall;
- [2] Ann Allsop (26), general servant, born Walsall;
- [3] Ann Carry (22), general servant, born Ireland;
- [4] John Askins (14), nephew, cabinet maker, born Walsall:

Walsall Free Press 22/10/1864 - Deaths

"On the 19th inst, aged sixty-three years, Mr. John Male, of the RODNEY INN, Park Street, Walsall, much regretted by all who knew him."

Walsall Free Press 5/11/1864 - Advert

"Walsall. Sale At The Assembly Room, GREEN DRAGON INN, Goodall Street.

H. Farrington is instructed by the Executors of the late Mr. John Male, of the RODNEY INN, Park Street, Walsall, to offer by Auction, as above, on Thursday next, November 10th, 1864, at Eleven o'clock, subject to conditions.

The License and Possession of the Old-established Inn called the RODNEY, situate in Park Street, Walsall, for many years successfully carried on by the late Mr. John Male.

Also a variety of Genteel and useful Household Furniture, Plate, and other effects, comprising elegant half-tester and 4-post bedsteads, paillasses, fine goose feather beds, mahogany and oak chests of drawers, elegant time-pieces, 8-day clocks, mahogany glazed bookcase, set of telescope dining tables, mahogany chairs, couches, sofa, mahogany washstands, toilet glasses, carpets, oil paintings, engravings, plated cruets, decanters, &c, belonging to the late Mr. John Male, and removed for convenience of sale to the above room."

Birmingham Daily Post 13/12/1865

"The Cottage Hospital. The committee of this institution announce the receipt of the following legacies, viz, £10 under the will of the late Mr. D. Butler, Goodall Street; and £5 under the will of the late Mr. J. Male, of the RODNEY, public house."

Staffordshire Advertiser 8/5/1870

"John Shaw, filer, George Street, was convicted of having stolen an umbrella, value 2s 6d, the property of Joseph Price, dealer, and was sentenced to one months' imprisonment. The prosecutor was selling an umbrella in the RODNEY public-house, Park Street, on Saturday night, when the prisoner picked up a second umbrella, which the prosecutor had placed on a seat in the room, and went off with it. After some time prosecutor went in search of him, and finding him in Digbeth with the umbrella in his hand, gave him into custody."

1871 Census

25, Park Street

- [1] William Allen (66), publican, born Walsall;
- [2] Jane Allen (57), wife, born Walsall;
- [3] Elizabeth Nicklin (26), general servant, born Walsall;
- [4] Mary Saunders (40), general servant, born Walsall;

[5] Agnes Nicklin (3), lodger, born Walsall:

William Allen – see also OLD NAGS HEAD.

Midland Counties Evening Express 10/3/1875

“George Henry Dickenson, of St. Pauls Row, was charged with stabbing William Preston, in the wrist, on Monday night. The evidence of the witnesses was that on the night in question the parties named and some others were in the RODNEY public house, where prisoner and a friend were sparring. They knocked against the table, and prosecutor’s jug of ale fell to the floor. He asked prisoner to pay for them, and as he did not, prosecutor struck him, and he ran away. About an hour afterwards prisoner returned to the house, and when prosecutor left some more words passed between them, ending in prisoner striking prosecutor with a knife. Prosecutor put up his hand and received a cut upon his wrist, although not a very serious one Prisoner was committed for trial at the Sessions; bail was refused It may be stated that all the parties are young men of apparently 18 or 20 years.”

Staffordshire Advertiser 15/1/1876

“William Allen, of the RODNEY INN, Park Street, was summoned for having permitted drunkenness in his house. The evidence showed that on Saturday night a drunken man went into Mr. Plant’s spirit vaults, Park Street, and asked for a drink, which was refused him, and he was turned out. He then made his way to the defendant’s house, and Police-constable Hickman followed in a few minutes, and found him sitting in the kitchen with a pint of ale before him. It was said, however, that the servant girl had supplied the ale without the knowledge of the defendant. A fine of 20s and costs was imposed, the defendant’s license not to be endorsed.”

Staffordshire Advertiser 16/9/1876

“Adjourned Licensing Session. . . .

The applications of William Allen, the OLD RODNEY INN, Park Street were further adjourned till the 9th of October. In the course of the proceeding the Mayor said the newly-added district of Ryecroft had occasioned the Bench a great deal of trouble, chiefly through the drinking propensities of the inhabitants of that locality, and the magistrates had therefore received special instructions as to looking up the licensed houses in the district.”

Staffordshire Advertiser 14/10/1876

“Adjourned Licensing Meeting. The suspended licenses of William Allen, the RODNEY, Park Street; Samuel Horton, the WATERLOO TAVERN, Marsh Lane; and Henry Lynex, the HARE AND HOUNDS, Upper Rushall Street, were renewed.”

‘Walsall Pubs: A History’ by John Cockayne

“The premises were acquired and demolished by the railway company to enlarge their station entrance.”

OLD STILL

34, (3), Digbeth, (High Street), (Adams Row), WALSALL

OWNERS

Joseph Beebee
Mrs. Elizabeth (Beebee) Payne
William Seedhouse
Thomas Hanbury
M. Hanbury
Arthur Beebee Ltd.
Highgate Walsall Brewery Co. Ltd. (acquired in 1924) [1939]
Mitchells and Butlers Ltd. (acquired in 1939)

LICENSEES

Thomas Horton [1818]
Joseph Shaw [1822]
John Cooper [1828] – [1834]
John Bowater [1835] – [1836]
Richard Evans [1841] – [1845]
Mrs. Evans [1844]
Job Wilkes [1849] – 1865)
Joseph Beebee [1866] – [1873];

Mrs. Elizabeth Beebee [];
William Seedhouse [1881];
William Dixon [1885] – 188_);
Thomas Hanbury (188_ – 1914);
Elijah Ford (1914 – 1917);
John Bayley Robinson (1917 – 1924);
Walter Edwards (1924 – 1934);
Richard Nicholls (1934 – 1937);
Cyril Vernon Sleigh (1937 – 1939);
William Sheldon Hutchinson (1939 – 1942);
John Mulloy (1942 – 1947);
Herbert Thomas Postle (1947 – 1959):

NOTES

Adams Row [1841]
34, Digbeth [1860], [1861], [1862], [1881], [1891], [1908], [1932], [1939], [1940]
3, Digbeth [1871]

STILL [1822]
OLD MILL [1861] [probably a typographical error]
OLD STILL HOTEL
OLD STILL VAULTS [1911]

Racehorses were stabled here before Walsall Races.

'Black Country Pubs' by Robin Pearson and Jean Wade

"Part of the interior was called Dr. Johnson's Corner, who rested between coaches on his visits back to Lichfield."

Thomas Horton was also a hairdresser. [1818]

Aris's Birmingham Gazette 31/3/1828 - Advert

"To be Sold by Auction (by direction of Executors).....

Lot II. All that very desirable and well frequented Freehold Public House, eligibly situated in Digbeth, known by the sign of the OLD STILL, with Brewhouse, Stabling for ten horses, Piggeries, large party Yard, Pump, and Out-offices, now in the occupation of John Cooper, with right of carriage-road out of Hall Lane, including an excellent eight-quarter Malthouse, fronting Hall Lane, occupied by Mr. Hawkins, also spacious Shopping and Yard at the back, in the possession of Mr. Hobbins....."

Aris's Birmingham Gazette 24/12/1832 - Advert

"The Attwood.

New light fast four-horse day Coach will start from the OLD STILL, Digbeth, Walsall, on Monday the 24th inst, at half past nine in the morning, and arrive at the Rose and Punch Bowl, Bull Street, Birmingham, at a quarter before eleven, and return the same evening at half past five.

The proprietor respectfully solicits the support of his Friends and the Public to this Conveyance. Performed by the public's obedient servant, William Hilton.

Walsall, Dec. 21, 1832."

Staffordshire Advertiser 19/7/1834

"On Monday last, the Lodge of Friendly and Benevolent Sisters held their annual feast, at the sign of the OLD STILL. The bells commenced ringing at six o'clock in the morning; about noon a procession was formed to the parish; each female being respectably attired, and wearing a blue scarf, proceeded by a band, and accompanied by the Vicar and the Rev. John Gwyther, the former of whom delivered an exhortation from the pulpit. At the conclusion of the service, where the members again formed and returned to the lodge-house, where members of the lodge partook of an excellent dinner, and afterwards enjoyed each other's company till a late hour."

Aris's Birmingham Gazette 17/8/1835 - Advert

"Valuable Freehold Public House and other Property in Walsall, in the County of Stafford, by order of the Assignees of Mrs. Gary. By Farrington and Son.

To be Sold by Auction, at the house of Mr. Bowater, at the sign of the OLD STILL, in Walsall, on Friday next, the 21st day of August, at six o'clock in the evening subject to conditions to be produced – four seventh undivided shares of and in the interest of all that old established Freehold House known by the sign of the OLD STILL, situate in Digbeth, Walsall, with Malthouse and Outbuildings, and three Houses adjoining the same.

For particulars apply to Mr. John Heeley, Solicitor, or the Auctioneers, Walsall."

Staffordshire Advertiser 10/9/1836 - Married

“On the 1st instant, at the Collegiate Church, Wolverhampton, Mr. James Archer, to Mary, eldest daughter of Mr. John Bowater, of the OLD STILL, Digbeth, Walsall.”

Birmingham Journal 16/9/1837 - Deaths

“On the 11th inst, Mary Ann, wife of Mr. John Bowater, of the OLD STILL INN, Digbeth, Walsall, aged 48.”

The Lodge of the Benevolent Sisters met here. [1838]

1841 Census

Adams Row

- [1] Richard Evans (50), publican;
- [2] Ellen Evans (30), born Staffordshire;
- [3] Jane Daniel (16), fs, born Staffordshire:

Birmingham Journal 6/7/1844

“Mrs. Evans, the landlady of the OLD STILL, in Digbeth, charged Thomas Wilcox, of Marsh Lane with an assault. It appeared that the defendant, with some others, had been playing at skittles, and on Mrs. Evans applying to him for payment of some ale, he became very abusive, and on remonstrating with him, he struck her on the side of the head, and knocked her down. The defendant endeavoured to justify his conduct in some degree, by stating that the complainant had thrown a brick at him, and that he was ‘half seas over’ at the time, which caused him to be so violent. The Bench fined him 5s and costs, or in default fourteen days in the borough gaol. The fine was paid at night, and the defendant was set at liberty.”

Birmingham Journal 14/9/1850

“At the Guildhall, on Wednesday last, before John Day and R. James, Esqs, an information was preferred against Mr. Job Wilkes, landlord of the OLD STILL INN, Digbeth, for having on Friday last ‘knowingly’ permitted disorderly conduct in his house. Mr. Superintendent Burton stated that about half-past one o’clock on the morning of Saturday last, whilst standing in the street near Mr. Wilkes’s house, his attention was attracted to it by Sergeant Smith and Police-constable Reay entering the premises. There was a great noise and disturbance inside, and the officers having ejected one or two persons, came out, but subsequently the disturbance was renewed, and on going in Mr. Burton found five or six drunken persons in the house, whom he persuaded to disperse. Mr. and Mrs. Wilkes were out, and the house, usually very orderly, had been kept open later, waiting for their return, and the Bench, after an attentive hearing of the case, dismissed the information considering that Mr. Wilkes had not, being from home, ‘knowingly permitted disorderly conduct in his house’.”

1851 Census

Digbeth

- [1] Job Wilkes (31), married, innkeeper, born Darlaston;
- [2] Ann Smith (22), house servant, born Great Bridge;
- [3] Sarah Bullock (21), house servant, born Darlaston:

Walsall Free Press 4/6/1859 - Advert

“James Bird, BRADFORD ARMS INN, Walsall, Licensed To Let Post Horses, Saddle Horses, Cars, Cabs, Gigs, & Breaks For Hire, Begg most respectfully to acquaint the Gentry and Inhabitants of the town and district, that having supplied himself with every article necessary for carrying on the business as Postmaster, he is desirous of receiving their patronage and support. Cars for Weddings with Greys. Gipsy parties can be accommodated on the shortest notice, and on very reasonable terms. Steady and obliging Servants attendant on same.

N.B. A Fashionable Break will run during the Summer months to and from Sutton, on Sunday afternoons, leaving Mr. Job Wilkes’s, OLD STILL, Digbeth at Two o’clock, and return from the Old Sun, Sutton, at Seven p.m.”

Walsall Free Press 17/11/1860 - Advert

“To Be Sold by private contract, at the OLD STILL INN, Digbeth, Walsall, Two Useful Horses, a covered Van with Pole and Shafts, and Double Harness, also a Heavy Cart and Harness.”

1861 Census

34, Digbeth

- [1] Job Wilkes (41), widower, licensed victualler, born Darlaston;
- [2] Ann Croxall (14), house servant, born Bloxwich;
- [3] Mary Ann Williams (15), barmaid, born Madeley, Shropshire;
- [4] Sarah Week (19), house servant, born Moxley;
- [5] Mary Ann Wattton (23), housekeeper, born Birmingham:

Walsall Free Press 29/8/1863

“Three Irishmen, named respectively Welsh, Brown, and Hickin, were charged with assaulting Mr. Lakin, a victualler residing at Walsall Wood, on the evening of Thursday. The complainant said the prisoners had obtained some drink from him on credit, they having been employed to reap in the neighbourhood. They left him without paying for the drink, and when he accidentally met them in Digbeth on the night in question, he said to them, 'Halloa! You are the gentlemen I wanted to see.' Welch then struck him, and the others aided and abetted Welch, and in doing so they all struck him, where upon he ran into the OLD STILL, and was followed by the prisoners. Mr. Job Wilkes, landlord of the OLD STILL, and Edward Lord, corroborated complainant's evidence. Mr. Isaac Webb, stone mason, said he saw Welch beating complainant, from whose nose blood was flowing. Welch struck witness on the arm with a pair of tongs. All the prisoners were engaged in creating riot. Welch was sent to prison for six weeks, Hickin one month, and Brown two weeks, each to undergo hard labour. Welch was further charged with having, on the same afternoon, wilfully and maliciously broken a table, the property of Mr. Earp, landlord of the LEATHERN BOTTLE, Hill Street. Prisoner and his companions had been drinking at that house, in consequence of the landlady refusing to supply them with drink on credit, he kicked the table to pieces; damage 4s. Fined in the amount of damages and costs, or to be imprisoned for fourteen days, to commence at the expiration of his former sentence."

Walsall Free Press 16/9/1865

"On Thursday evening, a telegram, brief but emphatic, was received announcing the melancholy fact that Mr. Job Wilkes, proprietor of the OLD STILL, Digbeth, who, a few days ago, had gone to Alford in Lincolnshire, had been drowned while bathing at that place. The news quickly spread, and created, wherever that intelligence was conveyed, a melancholy gloom. The deceased gentleman possessed a kind and benevolent disposition, and was universally respected. Immediately in receipt of the intelligence, his brother and Mr. John Osbourn – an intimate friend of the deceased – started off by rail to the scene of the lamentable occurrence, which, it was expected, they would reach about mid-day yesterday; but up to the time of our going to press, no particulars of the sad disaster had been received."

Walsall Free Press 28/10/1865 - Advert

"Very Valuable Freehold Inn & Retail Shop, In Digbeth, and Houses in Hall Lane, Walsall.

To Be Sold By Auction, by Mr. John Osbourn, at the OLD STILL INN, Digbeth, Walsall, on Thursday, the 23rd November, 1865, at Six o'clock in the Evening, subject to conditions, the following Property.

Lot 1. All the Freehold, and the Licenses, Good-will, and Possession of that well accustomed Inn, called the OLD STILL, fronting to the Market Place in Digbeth, in the very best business locality in Walsall, with the large Private Yard, spacious Stabling, affording standing for 30 horses, Carriage-house, and Outbuildings thereto belonging. The house comprises tap-room, large bar, parlour, sitting room, excellent club-room, 43ft by 12ft 4in; five sleeping rooms, water closet, three cellars, pantry, brewhouse and other conveniences. There is also a malt room, and hay loft over one stable, and a store room 53ft long by 14ft 2in wide, over the other. The stabling is lofty, nearly new, and the fittings are excellent. There is a carriage road into the yard from Hall Lane, a few yards from Digbeth. And also those three newly and very substantially erected Houses, adjoining the yard of the OLD STILL, being Nos. 2, 3, and 4 in Lower Hall Lane, in the occupation of Messrs Robinson, Brown and Lyon, and producing the annual income of £23 17s.

Lot 1 is a most valuable and important property, the inn being unquestionably one of the best accustomed houses in the Town of Walsall, and much frequented as a market tavern, the late proprietor having, as is well known, accumulated a handsome fortune within a comparatively few years, and without much effort or trouble....."

London Gazette 9/3/1866

"In the Matter of Job Wilkes, Deceased.

The creditors and others having claims upon the estate of Job Wilkes, late of the OLD STILL INN, Digbeth, Walsall, in the county of Stafford, Licensed Victualler, deceased (who died in the month of September, 1865, and whose will was proved in the Lichfield District Registry, on the 10th day of October, 1865, by Samuel Wilkes, of Tame Bridge, in the parish of Wednesbury, in the said county, Licensed Victualler, and James Gray, late of Hednesford, but now of Wolverhampton, respectively, in the county of Stafford, Farmer, the executors of the said will), are on or before the 24th day of June, 1866, to send in the particulars of their debts or claims to the said executors, at the office of their Solicitor, Mr. Samuel Wilkinson, jun., No. 7, Bridge-street, Walsall, or in default thereof the said executors will, after the said 24th day of June, 1866, proceed to distribute the assets of the deceased among the persons entitled thereto, having regard only to those claims of which they shall then have notice.

Dated this 8th day of March, 1866.

Saml. Wilkinson, jun., Walsall, Solicitor to the Executors."

Walsall Free Press 2/6/1866 - Advert

"Wanted, a few healthy Men, not more than 35 years of age, to join the old-established Benefit Society (duly enrolled), lately removed from the CASTLE INN to Mr. Joseph Beebee's, the OLD STILL, Digbeth, where any further information may be obtained. Amount of funds, £330. Proposition fee, 2s 6d."

Birmingham Daily Post 7/9/1869

"At the Guildhall, yesterday, before Messrs. F. B. Oerton, J. W. Newman, and J. Brewer, George Lakin, landlord of the MARKET TAVERN, and David Harvey were charged, the former with having assaulted, and the latter with having threatened, Frederick Augustus Harvey, agent for Messrs. Fletcher and Co, wine and spirit merchants. Mr. Dale (from the office of Messrs. Duignan, Lewis and Lewis) appeared for the complainant. On Tuesday night last, the parties were at the OLD STILL, Digbeth, when Harvey used opprobrious language and threats to complainant, and was urged on by Lakin, who said 'Give it to the ——; he's a bad one.' Lakin then endeavoured to push complainant out of his seat; but Mr. Beebee, the landlord, restrained him, and he sat down.

He rose again, however, soon afterwards, and in addition to shaking complainant by the collar, struck him in the face. Trade differences seemed to have originated the affair. Lakin was fined 5s and costs; and a warrant was ordered to go for Harvey, who was not present when the case was heard, but subsequently attended, and was bound over to appear on Thursday next.”

Birmingham Daily Gazette 13/5/1870

“Thomas Gadsbey, beerhouse keeper, Hall Lane, was charged with having stolen about two gallons of water from a tap in the OLD STILL yard, Digbeth, belonging to the Waterworks Company. He admitted the charge, and was fined 10s and costs.”

1871 Census

3, Digbeth

- [1] Joseph Beebee (43), victualler, born Walsall;
- [2] Caroline Beebee (39), wife, born Halesowen;
- [3] Alice Ann Beebee (17), daughter, barmaid, born Walsall;
- [4] Joseph Beebee (14), son, scholar, born Walsall;
- [5] Emily Beebee (11), daughter, scholar, born Walsall;
- [6] Harry Beebee (1 month), son, born Walsall;
- [7] Sarah Barnsley (25), general servant, born Netherton;
- [8] Ellen Donny (17), cook, born Bilston;
- [9] John Robinson (17), stable lad, born Blythe Marsh, Staffordshire:

Walsall Free Press 1/2/1873 - Advert

“Wanted immediately, a good General Servant about 25, from the country preferred. Apply, Mrs. Beebee, OLD STILL, Digbeth.”

1881 Census

34, Digbeth

- [1] William Seedhouse (49), licensed victualler, born Brownhills;
- [2] Thirza Seedhouse (41), wife, born Birmingham;
- [3] Elizabeth Wilson (26), barmaid, born Birmingham;
- [4] Matilda Lawson (19), general servant, born Cannock;
- [5] Charlotte Hampson (16), general servant, born Cannock:

William Dixon issued tokens from here.

He was fined 20s and costs for opening during prohibited hours.

Lichfield Mercury 10/10/1890

“At the Guildhall, on Monday. John Linsay, Birchills, was sentenced to one months’ hard labour for having, on the 20th ult, assaulted Thomas Hanbury, landlord of the OLD STILL, Digbeth.

The defendant created a disturbance in the house, and when asked to leave assaulted the landlord and his ostler, the former in a very cruel manner. He was got out of the house, and becoming disorderly outside was proceeded against by the police. For this offence he was sentenced to seven days’ imprisonment.”

1891 Census

34, Digbeth – OLD STILL INN

- [1] Thomas Hanbury (35), unmarried, licensed victualler, born Birmingham;
- [2] Sarah E. Price (28), barmaid, born Walsall;
- [3] Kate Baxter (22), domestic servant, born Wednesbury;
- [4] Oscar Smith (15), ostler and general servant, born Clifton, Worcestershire:

Birmingham Daily Post 19/1/1894

“Re William Dixon and Thomas Dixon (trading as William Dixon and Son), Lower Hall Lane, Walsall, saddlers’ tool manufacturers.

The public examination of these debtors took place at the Walsall Bankruptcy Court yesterday – before Mr. Registrar Clarke – Mr. H. H. Jackson appearing for the bankrupt Thomas, and Mr. E. Evans for the bankrupt William Dixon.

The statement of affairs showed liabilities £847 14s 8d, of which £775 0s 1d was expected to rank for dividend, and a deficiency of £336 3s 1s. The business belonged to the late Thomas Dixon, who left it to his sons, the bankrupts William and Thomas Dixon, on certain conditions. Thomas retired in 1887, and the bankrupt William traded alone until October last, when he took into partnership Thomas, who brought in £300, which had been given to him by his wife, whom he married in the same month. In November the elder bankrupt was convicted at Leicester of a criminal offence with a girl under thirteen years of age. Then creditors pressed the firm, and in the end a petition was filed. The bankrupt William attributed the failure to the loss of a large Government order, bad trade, costs and imprisonment consequent on his conviction, and costs in connection with patents. The younger bankrupt attributed it to interference with the business in consequence of the conviction of his father and pressure of creditors. The bankrupt William took the OLD STILL INN, Digbeth, paying £400, and in 1885 assigned the lease to a purchaser, who paid him £1,200 for stock, fixture, license and lease. The examination was adjourned till the 8th February.”

Walsall Advertiser 23/3/1895

“Together with three ‘pals,’ Charles Hall, bricklayer, New Road, Rushall, went into the OLD STILL, Digbeth, on Saturday evening at a quarter to eleven to have a drink. He ordered four glasses of ale, and soon after they had entered the house, the barmaid asked a man who was in the bar if one of the men in the room was intoxicated. One of Hall’s pals considered she meant him, and Hall, according to Thomas Hanbury, the landlord, who charged Hall with having been quarrelsome and disorderly and refusing to quit, became very abusive, and although he (Hanbury) asked him to quit declared he would not. Mr. H. H. Jackson defended Hall, and took objection to the wording of the summons as his client could not be ordered out unless he was drunken and violent. Witnesses were called by defendant, and they stated that defendant had not been asked to quit, and had only retaliated on offensive words being used towards him by the landlord. A fine of 5s and costs was imposed.”

Walsall Advertiser 13/6/1896

“Bertha Smith (20), domestic servant, was charged with having stolen 5s 6d, the property of her employer, Mr. Thomas Hanbury, landlord of the OLD STILL INN, Digbeth. Mr. Hanbury said that prisoner came into his service on Monday, the 1st inst. On Saturday, noticing that some money which he had put away in a drawer behind the counter was missing, he marked, at midnight, ten half-crowns, seven florins, and eleven six-pences. In the morning he found that one marked half-crown and two unmarked sixpences were missing, and after communicating with Detective-inspector Cliffe and Detective Clarke he missed a marked florin also. During Sunday afternoon, when prisoner went out, the officers met her on Park Street, and brought her back. Witness accused her of stealing the money, and though she denied the offence, stating that she had not even enough money to pay her fare to Bloxwich, she afterwards commenced to cry, and produced a half-crown and florin which were stitched in the hem of her dress. Cliffe stated that when he apprehended the prisoner she confessed to taking the two coins, and asked Mr. Hanbury to forgive her. Prisoner now asked to be forgiven, as that was her first offence. Asked if her father would be bound over for her behaviour, she said she was not at present on good terms with him, and did not think he would risk his furniture for her. She was put back for a time, and ultimately the case was adjourned for two months to enable her to go to the home provided for her by the Church of England Court Missionary (Mr. Davis).”

Walsall Advertiser 8/10/1898

“William Stoker (34), a miner, of no fixed abode, appeared in the dock on a charge of begging for alms at the OLD STILL, Digbeth. Evidence was given by Mr. Hanbury, the landlord, that the prisoner came in about five minutes to ten o’clock at night, and solicited alms. When told to go he took no notice, but commenced an oration, which he continued till about ten minutes past ten. Witness sent for the police and gave the man in charge. A fine of 5s and costs, or seven days’ imprisonment, was imposed.”

Walsall Observer 8/9/1900

“Edward Hughes, 15, Long Acre Street, was summoned for being disorderly on licensed premises, and with refusing to quit, on Saturday September 1st. Thomas Hanbury, OLD STILL, Digbeth, said that at 10.25 on Saturday night, the defendant was using bad language in the vaults. The waiter rebuked him, and defendant took off his coat and wanted to fight him. The man used obscene language. Percy Davis, the waiter, and Police-constable Robinson (23) also gave evidence. Defendant pleaded not guilty, and the magistrates inflicted a fine of 10s and costs, or 14 days.”

1901 Census

Digbeth – OLD STILL

- [1] Thomas Hanbury (45), unmarried, licensed victualler, born Birmingham;
- [2] Sarah E. Price (38), manageress, born Walsall;
- [3] William Worrall (18), ostler, born Walsall;
- [4] Matilda Healey (20), domestic servant, born Bloxwich:

Lichfield Mercury 26/8/1904

“William Roberts, of Rushall, employed at the OLD STILL HOTEL, Digbeth, Walsall, on Monday fell to the ground and began bleeding from the nostrils. He was at once sent to the hospital, but expired on the way. It is believed he burst a blood vessel while laughing.”

Walsall Advertiser 17/12/1904

“At the Walsall Police Court on Wednesday, a miner named Martin Lyons (44), 1, Bellfield Row, was brought up on a charge of being drunk and incapable in Lower Hall Lane on December 13th. Police-constable Jones (66) deposed to finding prisoner on the premises at the rear of the OLD STILL, Digbeth, in a drunken condition. Prisoner said he had only just come out of hospital, and said he had ‘a spot of beer to warm him.’ Prisoner was discharged with a caution.”

Walsall Advertiser 4/4/1908

“Andrew Baron (32), a sailor, was fined 40s and costs for refusing to quit the OLD STILL HOTEL, Digbeth, and assaulting the landlord Mr. Thomas Hanbury. On Tuesday evening the prisoner went into the smoke room of the OLD STILL hawking flowers. He was ordered out but would not go. Mr. Hanbury put him out, but in the passage the man kicked him.”

Walsall Advertiser 4/12/1909 - Advert

“Youth about 19; live in; make himself generally useful; substantial references required.
Apply, OLD STILL, Digbeth, Walsall.”

1911 Census

34, Digbeth

- [1] Thomas Hanbury (55), publican, born Birmingham;
- [2] Martha Hanbury (39), wife, married 8 years, assisting, born Walsall;
- [3] Albert Mottram (21), servant, oddwork, born Willenhall;
- [4] Polly Pratt (21), general servant, born Bromwich, Staffordshire;
- [5] Sarah Elizabeth Price (48), barmaid, born Walsall:

Walsall Advertiser 28/12/1912

“Samuel Deeley (29), potman, OLD STILL, Digbeth, was charged with being drunk and disorderly, in Digbeth on Christmas night, and he failed to appear. It was decided to issue a fresh summons.”

Walsall Observer 21/11/1914

“The following is a list of box collections to date made on behalf of the Prince of Wales’ National Relief Fund (Walsall Branch).....
OLD STILL, Digbeth, Walsall, 1s 3d.”

Walsall Observer 16/1/1915 - Advert

“To Horse Keepers and Farmers.
Several large cast-iron Roll Top Corner Mangers for Sale.
Apply, OLD STILL HOTEL, Digbeth, Walsall.”

Walsall Observer 12/1/1918

“Walsall and District War Aid Committee. Collection By The Licensed Victuallers, December, 1917.....
OLD STILL, Digbeth. £0 10s 2d.”

Walsall Observer 5/4/1924

“As a result of recent negotiations, the freehold licensed properties belonging to Messrs. Arthur Beebee Ltd, which include the DURHAM OX, Park Street; OLD STILL, Digbeth; THREE CROWNS, Sutton Road; Red Lion, Aldridge; MALT SHOVEL, Lower Rushall Street; GOLDEN LION, Birchills Street; the off license, 6, Camden Street; the brewery in Sandwell Street; and the lease of the FOX INN, Stafford Street, have been sold to the Highgate Brewing Co. Ltd, through Messrs. Fox and Harrison, FAI, of Walsall.”

‘Walsall Pubs: A History’ by John Cockayne

“.....it was an Alehouse with stabling for four horses, described in the survey of 1925 as a very old property in fairly good repair, except the bathroom (adjacent to the Club House) the bath is worn out, and this room is quite unfit for use in its present condition, and water laid on. Living accommodation on the ground floor poor.”

Walsall Observer 29/7/1939

“More than fifty licensed premises in Walsall and neighbouring place become Mitchells and Butlers houses this week as a result of the well-known Cape Hill brewery company’s acquisition of the whole of the undertakings of the Highgate-Walsall Brewery Co. Ltd., and the Walsall Breweries Proprietary Ltd., and of all the licensed and certain un-licensed properties of Messrs. John Lord, brewers, of Short Acre.....

A list of the licensed premises that form part of the properties acquired by Mitchells and Butlers is as follows.....

Highgate houses.....

OLD STILL, Digbeth.”

Cyril Vernon Sleigh – see also TANNERS ARMS.

Walsall Observer 4/11/1939

“‘We have given so many warnings that we have been instructed not to give any more, but to inform the police,’ was the statement made to the magistrates (Messrs. D. E. Parry and D. Jones and Mrs. Cresswell) by a warden giving evidence in one of a number of cases relating to breaches of the lighting regulations.....

Other defendants, each fined 10s, were.....

William Hutchinson (46), licensee of the OLD STILL, Digbeth.”

1939 Register

34, Digbeth

- [1] William Hutchinson, date of birth 28/12/1892, manager licensed house, married;
- [2] Ellen Hutchinson, dob 18/11/1892, manageress licensed house, unpaid domestic duties, married;

[3] Freda D. (Hutchinson) Hollyman, dob 17/7/1925, not previously employed, single:

William Sheldon Hutchinson – see also GOLDEN LION.

Walsall Observer 24/12/1942

“Walsall Licensed Victuallers’ Society. The Duke of Gloucester’s Red Cross Fund. List of Subscriptions.....
OLD STILL HOTEL, Digbeth. £7 4s 0d.”

Walsall Observer 15/1/1944

“Walsall Licensed Victuallers’ Society.

Appeal on Behalf of the Merchant Navy Fund, The Duke of Gloucester’s Red Cross Fund and the Aid to China Fund. List of Subscriptions.....

OLD STILL, Digbeth. £7 15s 0d.”

Herbert Thomas Postle – see also LEATHERN BOTTLE, Bloxwich.

It closed on 2nd April 1959.

It was demolished in April 1959.

The license was removed to the LEATHERN BOTTLE, Bloxwich.

OLD STORES

BLOXWICH

OWNERS

LICENSEES

NOTES

The license was transferred to the ROYAL OAK.

OLD TROOPER

120, Harden Road, (22, Bloxwich Road), (22, (4), Harden), Leamore, BLOXWICH

OWNERS

William Hinks Badger, Lyerscote Manor, near Tamworth

Andrew Birch

Arthur Whitehouse, 17, Lichfield Street, Walsall

William Edgerton [1894]

Mitchells and Butlers Ltd. (acquired on 4th October 1963)

LICENSEES

Joseph Lea [18th century]

Samuel Barker [1813]

Charles James [1818]

James Beardsmore [1824]

Samuel Birch [1834] – [1842]

Joseph Mellor [1849] – [1878];

William Sharman [1881];

Andrew Birch [1881];

Samuel Ross [1891] – 1894;

William Edgerton (1894 – 1932);
William Edward Edgerton (1932 – 1963);
Lilian Rebecca Edgerton (1963);
Alec Henry Snow (1963 – [1966])
Robert James Walker [1983]
Derek Henry Heighton [1987]

NOTES

4, Harden [1871]
22, Harden [1881], [1891]
120, Harden Road [1939]

OLD TROOPER [1824], [1860], [1868], [1871], [1894], [1908], [1911]
TROOPER [1813], [1830], [1841], [1842], [1851], [1856], [1858], [1860], [1861], [1877], [1895], [1897], [1902], [1909], [1923], [1942], [1944]
YE OLD TROOPER [1932], [1940]

Samuel Barker, victualler, TROOPER, Harden. [1813]

‘The History and Directory of Walsall’ by Thomas Pearce 1813

“Number of Lodges, Clubs, and Benefit Societies, at Walsall Clubs..... Friendly Society, male, held at TROOPER, Harden, surgeon Mr. Adams.”

Aris’s Birmingham Gazette 14/6/1824 - Advert

“To Publicans and Others.

To be Sold by Auction, on the premises by Mr. Fairbanks, on Wednesday the 16th of June inst, the Licenses, Good-will, and immediate Possession of the House, Huckster’s Shop, part of the Household Furniture, all the very excellent Brewing Vessels, two capital Copper Furnaces, large Mashing tubs, sixteen very excellent iron-bound Barrels, Cooling Backs, and other Effects, belonging to Mr. James Beardsmore, of the OLD TROOPER, of Harden, near Walsall, who is changing his residence; particulars of which will appear in catalogues, to be distributed.

The License, &c will be offered for sale precisely at ten o’clock in the morning, and, whether sold or not, the sale of the Household Furniture, capital Brewing Vessels, and other effects, will, without reserve, immediately take place.”

Bells Life in London and Sporting Chronicle 21/7/1844

“Thomas Wootton, of Walsall, is open to fight Thomas Butler, of the same place, or Isaac Russell, for £5 or £10 a side. His money is ready at the OLD TROOPER, Harden, near Bloxwich.”

Joseph Mellor = Joseph Mellors

Staffordshire Advertiser 6/9/1851

“Joseph Mellor, of the TROOPER, at Harden, was fined 2s 6d and costs for having had his house open at half-past twelve o’clock on Saturday night.”

Bells Life in London and Sporting Chronicle 17/1/1853

“The mile race between Thomas Pearce of Bloxwich and Thomas Lawrence of Harden, for £5 a side, came off last Monday, when, after a good race Lawrence won by about one yard. Lawrence says if Pearce is not satisfied he will run him again, the same distance, and for the same sum. He also says he will give George Lewis of Bloxwich 50 yards start in one mile, for £5 or £10 a side; or Thomas Perry of the same place, 40 yards start, like sum, same distance; or Thos. Kendrick of Rushall 25 yards start; or he will run any man in Walsall level for £5 or £10. Lawrence will be at Joseph Mellor’s the OLD TROOPER, Harden, tomorrow (Monday) night, from seven till nine o’clock, prepared to make any of the above matches.”

Birmingham Journal 5/7/1856

“An inquest was held on Tuesday, before A. A. Fletcher, Esq, and a respectable jury, at the house of Mr. Mellors, the TROOPER INN, at Harden, near Bloxwich on the body of a young man named John Hall. It appeared from the evidence adduced, that deceased had been employed as a labourer at the ironworks of Messrs. Jones and Co, at Birchills; but on Saturday last he took a new occupation, that of fireman. During the night he had occasion to grease some parts of the engine. On going out of the engine house he trod on a cobble, which caused his foot to slip, in consequence of which he was precipitated down a flight of steps and fell head foremost on a cast-iron plate near the furnace hole, his right temple being severely lacerated. He was immediately removed to his father’s house at Harden, and medical assistance procured. This was of no avail; he shortly died.”

Walsall Free Press 7/4/1860

“About four o’clock on Saturday afternoon a man named William Evans, a collier, aged about 55, was found dead in a hovel, at the Crimean Works, Coalpool, belonging to Mr. Stubbs, by the engineman of the works, who gave information to the police by whom the body was removed to the OLD TROOPER public house, Harden, where an inquest was held upon the body by A. A. Fletcher, Esq, on Tuesday last, at which the jury returned a verdict of Found Dead. It is supposed the deceased, who had been leading a life of vagrancy for some time past, and has been in delicate health, had gone into the hovel to shelter for the night, and that overcome by fatigue and disease, his death had been accelerated by the cold. He had been in his usual health the previous evening.”

1861 Census

Harden – The TROOPER

- [1] Joseph Mellor (44), licensed victualler, born Ashbourne, Derbyshire;
- [2] Patience Mellor (50), wife, born Cubley, Derbyshire;
- [3] Joseph Mellor (13), son, scholar, born Cubley, Derbyshire;
- [4] Daniel Mellor (12), son, scholar, born Harden;
- [5] Joseph Mellor (10), daughter, scholar, born Harden;
- [6] Ann Snape (38), sister, born Ashbourne, Derbyshire;
- [7] Emma Harrison (18), general servant, born Pelsall;

Walsall Free Press 12/7/1862 - Advert

“To Be Let, the Genteel Residence, Leamore House, Bloxwich, with garden and three acres of land. For further particulars apply to Mr. Mellor, OLD TROOPER INN Harden.”

Birmingham Daily Gazette 9/10/1863

“Scarcely had the fire at the Workhouse been subdued, when three wheat ricks belonging to Mr. Mellor, landlord of the TROOPER INN, Harden, were discovered to be on fire. Information was given to the police, some of whom were promptly on the spot, as was also the Norwich fire engine, under the superintendence of Mr. Newman; but owing to the scarcity of water the fire could not be got under till the whole of the property of the rick yard – with the exception of the clover rick, which was removed – was destroyed. The ricks, which were insured in the Norwich Union Fire Office, are valued at £200. The fire is supposed to have been the work of an incendiary.”

Walsall Free Press 24/8/1864 - Advert

“To Be Let, (entry at Michaelmas) the Family Residence, called ‘Leamore House,’ Bloxwich, containing Dining and Drawing Rooms, Four Bed Rooms, Attics, Domestic Offices, capital Stabling, Coach House, Garden, Paddock, &c. For particulars apply to Mr. Mellor, OLD TROOPER INN, Harden near Walsall.”

Staffordshire Advertiser 5/9/1868

“On Monday Absolon Law, aged 58, a miner, living at Coal Pool, was killed at Mr. Stubbs’ Crimean Colliery by the fall upon him of part of the wall of an engine-house. On Wednesday Mr. Fletcher held an inquest at the OLD TROOPER, Harden, when a verdict of Accidental Death was returned.”

Birmingham Daily Gazette 23/4/1869

“John (?) Mellor, landlord of the TROOPER public-house Harden, pleaded guilty to having, on Sunday last, had his house open for the sale of beer during prohibited hours, and was fined 2s 6d and costs.”

Walsall Free Press 7/1/1871 - Deaths

“On the 1st inst, aged 63, Patience, the beloved wife of Mr. Joseph Mellor, of the OLD TROOPER INN, Harden, near Walsall; formerly of the Carr Farm, Cubley, Derbyshire; deeply regretted by family and friends.”

1871 Census

4, Harden – INN – OLD TROOPER

- [1] Joseph Mellor (55), widower, licensed victualler and farmer of 170 acres, born Ashbourne, Derbyshire;
- [2] William Mellor (26), son, born Ashbourne, Derbyshire;
- [3] Joseph Mellor (24), son, born Ashbourne, Derbyshire;
- [4] Joseph Mellor (20), daughter, born Bloxwich;
- [5] Daniel Mellor (22), son, born Bloxwich;
- [6] Hannah Toone (17), servant, born Bloxwich;

Staffordshire Advertiser 24/3/1877

“George Tanner, labourer, Blakenall, was brought up on a warrant, charged with having in December 1875, stolen a bridle, and pair of hames and a pair of swingle-trees, of the value 13s, the property of Mr. Joseph Mellor, of the TROOPER INN, Harden. Mr. Chidley (from the offices of Messrs. Duignan and Co.) appeared for the prisoner. The articles were missed in the month named, and a search warrant having been obtained, articles which were identified as those stolen were found on the prisoner’s premises, on Thursday evening, by Sergt. Martin. The prisoner told the officer that he bought the articles from Mr. J. Hawkins, of Coal Pool, three or four years ago, but Mr. Hawkins, who was called as a witness, declared that he had never sold such things to the prisoner.

The prisoner, through Mr. Chidley, represented that the charge had been brought in consequence of a dispute between the parties as to the ley of a horse.

Eventually the Bench gave the prisoner the benefit of the doubt in the case, and discharged him.”

Staffordshire Advertiser 10/8/1878

“Daniel Mellor, son of the keeper of the TROOPER INN, Harden, was fined 10s and costs, or 14 days’ imprisonment in default, for having assaulted Charlotte Jones, the servant of his father. The defence was that he had merely put her out of the house by his father’s orders because she stayed out late.”

1881 Census

22, Harden – OLD TROOPER INN

[1] William Sharman (50), farmer (12 acres) and innkeeper, born Kidderminster;

[2] Sarah Sharman (40), wife, born Shropshire;

[3] Elizabeth Plowson (25), domestic servant, born Bloxwich:

London Gazette 18/11/1881

“The Bankruptcy Act, 1869.

In the County Court of Staffordshire, holden at Wolverhampton.

In the Matter of Proceedings for Liquidation by Arrangement or Composition with Creditors, instituted by William Sharman, formerly of the OLD TROOPERS INN, Harden, Bloxwich, in the county of Stafford, Licensed Victualler and Farmer, but now of the ROYAL ARTILLERY INN, Lower Lichfield-street, Willenhall, in the said county of Stafford, Licensed Victualler.

Notice is hereby given, that a First General Meeting of the creditors of the above-named person has been summoned to be held at the offices of Mr. William Waldron, Solicitor, No.17, High-street, Brierley Hill, in the county of Stafford, on the 1st day of December, 1881, at three o’clock in the afternoon precisely.

Dated this 16th day of November, 1881.

William Waldron, 17, High-street, Brierley Hill, Solicitor for the said Debtor.”

Walsall Observer 3/1/1885

“Inquests in Walsall by T. H. Stanley, borough coroner. On Saturday, at the OLD TROOPER, Harden, on the body of Charles Smith, two years old, whose parents reside at Coal Pool. The evidence showed that on Christmas Day deceased was missed from home about four o’clock in the afternoon, and a search which was made for him. About eight o’clock his dead body was found in the canal at Coal Pool. A verdict of Found Drowned was returned by the jury.”

Walsall Observer 31/1/1885

“On Monday, Mr. T. H. Stanley, Borough Coroner, held an inquest at the OLD TROOPER INN, Harden, on the body of George White, aged about three years, whose parents reside at Harden. Deceased was standing on Saturday afternoon, against a wall on the roadside, while a horse and cart were being turned round by it. The cart struck a portion of the wall, and it fell on the boy, who was so injured that he died a few minutes afterwards. A verdict of Accidental Death was returned.”

1891 Census

22, Bloxwich Road – OLD TROOPER

[1] Samuel Ross (44), unmarried, licensed victualler, born Bloxwich;

[2] Henry Edwards (45), brother in law, bridle bit maker, born Blakenall;

[3] Sarah Edwards (45), wife, born Bloxwich;

[4] Mary Edwards (15), daughter, general servant, born Blakenall;

[5] George Edwards (12), son, scholar, born Blakenall:

William Edgerton = William Egerton

Birmingham Daily Post 29/9/1894

“Walsall. The adjourned licensing sessions for this borough took place yesterday.....

Mr. Craddock submitted plans for the rebuilding of the OLD TROOPER, Harden, stating that owing to colliery operations that old house had suffered, and it was thought desirable to rebuild the place in connection with street improvements in the locality. The Chief Constable raised the point whether the house was needed. The decision was deferred.....

The Bench deliberated in private for some time, and on their return into court announced that the sanction of plans of the OLD TROOPER INN, Harden, was refused.”

Walsall Advertiser 8/12/1894

“Monday was a day specially appointed by the Bough Justices for the transfer of public-house licenses, &c. The Mayor (Councillor Noake) and Mr. G. Gill constituted the Bench.....

Mr. Elliot made an application for the sanction of certain alterations which it was proposed to execute on the licensed premises of the OLD TROOPER INN, Harden. The house, he said, had been injured by mining subsidences, and in repairing the defects it was proposed to effect certain structural improvements.

The Chief Constable, in opposing, said that the plans came before the annual licensing meeting in another form, and were then rejected. As he then told the Bench, the simple fact was that it was really proposed to take the house down to the foundations and entirely rebuild it. The house was a very old one and had been falling down for many years before the mining operations commenced to affect it prejudicially. There were not more than 20 houses within a radius of 150 yards, and if the application made to the annual meeting had not then been brought forward he should have opposed the renewal of the license on the ground that it was not required. He asked the Bench to decline to the applicants a valuable property in place of the present worthless one. Mr. Elliot said he was entirely unaware from whom the Chief Constable obtained his information, which was entirely incorrect. The Chief Constable: I have it from the owners themselves, and I could not have it from a better authority. Mr. Elliot: It is intended to build as much as is necessary, and in the course of the operations to make these alterations. The Bench said the matter had been decided by the annual meeting, and they must decline to interfere.”

Walsall Advertiser 31/8/1895

“The annual Licensing Sessions for the borough were held yesterday at the Guildhall.....

The Chief Constable afterwards took objection to the license of the TROOPER INN, Harden, on the ground (1) that it was not required in the neighbourhood, (2) that plans not sanctioned by the magistrates had actually been carried out contrary to the wishes of the Bench, (3) that it was structurally altered so as not to be the same premises as were actually licensed in the first instance.”

Walsall Advertiser 28/9/1895

“The adjourned licensing Sessions for the Borough of Walsall was held at the Guildhall yesterday.....

Mr. Jesse Herbert said that he had been instructed by Mr. H. H. Jackson to apply for the renewal of the license of the TROOPER INN, at Harden. The objection on the part of the Chief Constable was that plans for alterations to the premises, which had been carried out without having been sanctioned by the Bench, were of such a character that the nature of the house had been altered. The Chief Constable gave evidence as to certain applications which the Bench had refused to sanction, and put in plans showing that the front of the house had been completely altered, and that a building had been erected outside the licensed area.

Mr. Herbert, in support of the application, said that in 1893 Mr. Egerton, the landlord and freeholder, paid £1,350 for the premises, and altered the position of the porch for the purpose of having better control over his business. On September 28th, 1894, application was made to the Bench to enable him to make alterations in consequence of the dilapidations caused by Messrs. Starkey’s pits, a circumstance which was proved by the firm having paid for the rebuilding of the whole of the front of the house to keep the roof on – (laughter). The plans referred to by the Chief Constable were rejected by the Bench, and there were then two alternatives for Mr. Egerton. He must either allow the house to go to ruin, and thus forfeit his livelihood, or submit further plans. This course was adopted in December last, and although the plans did not change the character of the premises or enlarge the area of the licensed premises, but only kept the roof up, the magistrates would neither approve or reject them. There was no legal compulsion on any owner of a licensed area, but his client had done so in order to show the Bench what he intended doing. After some little discussion the Bench granted the application on condition that a block plan of the whole licensed premises be supplied to them showing that a pantry which had been objected to by the Chief Constable had been removed.”

Walsall Advertiser 6/2/1897

“Last Saturday a smoking concert was held at the TROOPER INN, Harden, for the benefit of Mr. W. Fenton. Mr. Fenton was a member of Blakenall Brass Band. About ten months ago he had the misfortune to fracture his elbow and has been in the General Hospital, Birmingham, for nine months. He is now going to a Convalescent Home, and the returns of the concert were to aid him in going. Songs and solos (euphonium and cornet) were given, and a substantial amount was collected. The evening was closed with an earnest wish on the part of every one present for the speedy recovery of Mr. Fenton.”

Walsall Advertiser 7/10/1899

“On Monday evening at the annual dinner of the committee and friends of the Leamore and district Floral and Horticultural Society was partaken at the OLD TROOPER INN, Harden. The company numbered about 40, and after full justice had been done to the excellent repast placed on the tables by Host Edgerton, a very enjoyable smoking concert was given. Over this latter Councillor Cop presided, and the musical programme was contributed to by Messrs. W. Martin, J. Brown, S. Beebee, W. Hartle, D. Hedges, whilst the accompaniments were given by Mr. W. Martin.”

Walsall Advertiser 11/11/1899

“A capital company assembled on Saturday afternoon at the Jubilee Grounds, Harden, to witness the concluding stages of Mr. William Edgerton’s 135 Yards £7 10s pedestrian handicap. The twenty successful pedestrians left in from the preceding Saturday were re-drawn into four heats.....”

1901 Census

Harden Road – Tavern – OLD TROOPER

[1] William Edgerton (40), widower, licensed victualler, born Rushall;

[2] William Edgerton (7), son, born Pelsall;

[3] Thomas Edgerton (45), brother, coal miner, born Rushall;

[4] Thomas Hinton (15), visitor, born Walsall:

Walsall Advertiser 13/4/1901

“William Edgerton, landlord of the OLD TROOPER INN, Harden, was summoned for unlawfully withholding certain property belonging to the Loyal Old Trooper Lodge No.7394 of the Independent Order of Oddfellows Manchester Unity Friendly Society, to wit £3 16s 5d, a dispensation book, treasurer's book, box, minute book, and lecture board. Mr. A. J. Glover, of Wednesbury prosecuted on behalf of Herbert Thomas, one of the trustees of the society, and Mr. H. H. Jackson defended.

Mr. Glover said that formerly the Loyal Old Trooper Lodge had its registered office at the house of the defendant, the OLD TROOPER INN, Harden. The summons was taken out under the Friendly Societies Act, 1896, and he wanted an order for the defendant to return the money and goods he held. Defendant was appointed treasurer of the lodge in 1896, and in 1898 he entered into a bond, which he was required to do so by the Friendly Society Act, in which he undertook to pay over all monies remaining in his hands and to assign and transfer all property belonging to the society to such person or persons as the said society or the trustees should appoint. The lodge was held at the defendant's house for two years, and it then became very badly managed. Instead of the meetings taking place in the club room they sometimes took place in the kitchen, and for 18 months there were only five meetings held at all. It seemed the defendant had a coursing ground in connection with his public house, and when there was any coursing on the society was practically ousted from its quarters, the people who attended the coursing using all the rooms of the house. Ultimately the district officers took the matter in hand, and they decided to remove the defendant as treasurer, and move the lodge to the BLACK HORSE INN, Leamore. It seemed that the defendant did not like the removal, and he became very awkward indeed. He was properly authorised by the district officers to deliver up any cash and books that belonged to the society, but he refused to do so, and when he (Mr. Glover) wrote to him upon the matter defendant did not answer his letters. He did not suggest there was anything fraudulent about what the defendant had done.

Mr. Jackson argued that if there were no fraudulent intent alleged the case was not of the court. That court was a criminal court and had no jurisdiction. He quoted the case of Barrett v. Markham, decided before Mr. Justice Wills. He (Mr. Jackson) explained that the lodge was held at the OLD TROOPER for a considerable time, and then, by a certain section of members it was removed to another public house. It was not removed in accordance with the rules of the society, and the majority of the members still wished for it to continue at the OLD TROOPER; and he had two of the trustees out of three to say that the removal was not made with their consent. Defendant would have been prepared to hand over everything belonging to the society if the removal had been made according to the rules of the society.

The magistrates concurred with Mr. Jackson that they had no jurisdiction, and therefore dismissed the case.

The Clerk (Mr. Newman) intimated to Mr. Glover that the magistrates were willing to state a case if he wished."

[At Walsall County Court in November, 1901, judgement was given for the defendant, William Edgerton, with costs.]

Walsall Advertiser 31/8/1901

"The annual brewster sessions for the borough of Walsall was held at the Guildhall on Wednesday.....

Mr. Bill produced plans of certain alterations proposed to be done to the OLD TROOPER, and they were approved."

Walsall Advertiser 23/4/1904

"At Walsall Police Court, yesterday, William Pinson (33), bridle cutter, Bloxwich Road, was fined 20s and costs, with the alternative of going to gaol for two weeks, for stealing 3d from the till at the OLD TROOPER INN, Harden, on April 21st. Defendant leaned over the counter and abstracted the money when he thought no one was looking."

Walsall Advertiser 16/1/1909

"The Streets Committee. Your committee recommends that the offer of Mr. Edgerton of the TROOPER INN, Harden, to give up 366 square yards of land required for widening the portion of Harden Lane lying between Forest Lane and the TROOPER INN, and that opposite the inn at the corner of the road leading to Rushall, be accepted, and that the Borough Surveyor to be instructed to have the improvement carried out by men recommended by the Distress Committee, at an estimated cost of £60."

1911 Census

Harden – OLD TROOPER INN

[1] William Edgerton (51), widower, licensed victualler, born Rushall;

[2] William Edward Edgerton (17), son, barman, born Pelsall;

[3] Thomas Edgerton (55), brother, collier, hewer, born Rushall:

Walsall Observer 3/10/1914 - Deaths

"On July 26th, 1914, at Carterton N.Z., Josepha, wife of W. J. Lindop, of Bloxwich, and only daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Mellor, the OLD TROOPER, Harden."

Walsall Observer 12/1/1918

"Walsall and District War Aid Committee. Collection By The Licensed Victuallers, December, 1917.....

OLD TROOPER INN, Bloxwich. £2 17s 8½d."

Walsall Observer 6/7/1918 - Missing

"Private William Edgerton, who formerly assisted his father at the OLD TROOPER INN, Harden, is posted as missing since May 27, when he was in action in France with the Yorkshire Regiment. A single man, now 25 years of age, he joined the Colours in April 1916, and after serving with a labour battalion was transferred to the Durham Light Infantry, and later to the Yorkshires. He went to France last autumn, was wounded, and a few weeks afterwards came to England. He returned to France last April."

Lichfield Mercury 17/8/1923

"Three miners, named George Herbert Harrison (19), Joseph Edwards (19), and Moses Harper (16), all of Heath End, Pelsall, were, at Rushall, on Monday, committed to the Quarter Sessions for trial charged on remand with burglariously breaking and entering the dwelling-house of Herbert Harold Turner, timber merchant, Peolsford House, Pelsall, on the night of August 6th and stealing jewellery, money, and other property, total value £61 12s.

Evidence was given that Mr. and Mrs. Turner had been away from home for the week-end, and on returning on the morning of the 7th inst. Mrs. Turner noticed that the catch had been forced off the front window. She communicated with the police, who found the premises in a state of confusion, the drawers having been ransacked and the contents strewn about the floor. Jewellery and other property was missing, and also £6 in money. The latter included three gold coins, and one of the prisoners was alleged to have afterwards got change for two sovereigns off William Edgerton, landlord of the TROOPER INN, Harden, Bloxwich. The only clue which the police obtained was a button which was found in the house, and when Pc Bourne visited Harper's house he noticed that a jacket belonging to Harper had a button missing similar to the one in the possession of the police. Harper at first denied the charge, but subsequently he and Harrison pleaded guilty, and Edwards when told he helped to raise the window remarked: 'If you have chucked a sponge up I might as well give in'.

PCs Bourne and Rushton afterwards accompanied Harrison to a plantation near Peolsford House, and when some bracken was removed some of the stolen property was discovered. Other articles were found at Harper's house.

Mr. H. H. Jackson, who defended Harper and Harrison, urged that the prisoners had respectable homes and it seemed to be a case of 'silly bravado.' He suggested that prisoners had not realised the seriousness of their conduct, and that it was in their favour that they had made a clean breast of it.

Harper and Harrison were admitted to bail. Harrison was further charged with breaking into the Church Schools, Pelsall, in November last, and stealing articles of value 25s. He was sent to trial on this charge also."

Lichfield Mercury 19/10/1923

"Staffordshire Quarter Sessions. Moses Harper (16), George Herbert Harrison (19), and Joseph Edwards (19), all miners, pleaded guilty to burglariously breaking and entering the dwelling house of Herbert Harold Turner, at Pelsall, and stealing jewellery, etc, of the value of £61 12s. Harrison also admitted breaking into the Church of England School at Pelsall between November 3rd and 5th, 1922, and stealing a quantity of articles, the property of the Staffordshire County Council.

Harper, who admitted a previous conviction for larceny at Walsall on December 23rd, 1921, promised to turn over a new leaf, and he was placed on probation.

Harrison, who also admitted breaking into the Grove Colliery Company offices at Norton Canes on November 25th, 1922, also promised amendment, and he was placed on probation.

Edwards, who admitted a previous conviction at Walsall on May 27th, 1920, for shop-breaking, when he was sent to a Borstal Institution for three years and released on license last year, was ordered to remain in custody pending arrangements being made for his return to a Borstal Institution for 12 calendar months."

thebloxwichtelegraph.com

"The TROOPER public house was licensed to Joseph Lea in the 18th century and in 1774 the Amicable Friendly Society had 110 male members at this inn. Early in the 20th century it was described as having a fine Georgian fireplace and grate, this was removed at Christmas 1925 and the old TROOPER closed in March 1930. A new inn of the same name opened the next day, but has since been demolished."

It closed on 26th March 1930.

YE OLDE TROOPER opened the following day.

William Edgerton died on 8th December 1931.

Walsall Observer 7/10/1939

"'It's a funny thing that A.R.P. wardens had been round for six nights before and not one of them had complained,' said William Edgerton (47), licensee of the OLDE TROOPER INN, Harden, against whom it was alleged by Police-constable Davies that lights were showing through three large windows at the rear on the night of September 9.

Edgerton was fined 10s."

1939 Register

120, Harden Road

[1] William E. Edgerton, date of birth 23/6/1893, licensed victualler, married;

[2] Lilian R. Edgerton, dob 17/5/1895, unpaid domestic duties, married;

[4] Amy Smith, dob 10/8/1864, retired, widowed;

[5] Amy E. (Roe) Morris, dob 8/5/1915, bar general, single:

Walsall Observer 7/12/1940

"Walsall Licensed Victuallers' Society.

Motor Ambulance Effort on behalf of Walsall and District branch of the British Red Cross Society.

First List of Subscriptions.....

OLD TROOPER INN, Harden, £6 16s 9d."

Walsall Observer 4/10/1941

“For their annual outing, a party from YE OLDE TROOPER INN, Harden, accompanied by the licensee Mr. W. Edgerton, had an enjoyable trip to Bridgnorth on Sunday.”

Walsall Observer 29/8/1942

“County Borough of Walsall. Mayor’s War Aid Fund. Nineteenth List of Subscriptions.....
Mr. Edgerton, the TROOPER, Harden. £0 16s 9d.”

Walsall Observer 24/12/1942

“Walsall Licensed Victuallers’ Society. The Duke of Gloucester’s Red Cross Fund. List of Subscriptions.....
TROOPER, Harden. £11 10s 0d.”

Walsall Observer 15/1/1944

“Walsall Licensed Victuallers’ Society.
Appeal on Behalf of the Merchant Navy Fund, The Duke of Gloucester’s Red Cross Fund and the Aid to China Fund. List of Subscriptions.....
TROOPER INN, Harden, Bloxwich. £7 18s 0d.”

London Gazette 18/10/1983

“Walker, Robert James, residing at and carrying on business from YE OLDE TROOPER, Harden Road, Leamore, Bloxwich, Walsall, in the metropolitan county of West Midlands, as a Tenant Publican, lately residing at 46 Oak Crescent, Leamore, aforesaid, formerly residing at The RED LION, 2 Green Lane, Leamore, aforesaid, previously residing at 14 Green Lane, Leamore aforesaid and previously residing and carrying on business as a Plastering Contractor from 12 Twyford Grove, Oaklands Estate, Wednesfield, Wolverhampton, in the aforesaid metropolitan county.

Court - Walsall.

Date of Filing Petition - 10th October 1983.

Whether Debtor’s or Creditor’s Petition—Debtor’s.”

London Gazette 14/5/1987

“Heighon, Derek Henry, unemployed, residing and lately carrying on business at YE OLDE TROOPER, Harden Road, Leamore, Walsall, in the metropolitan county of West Midlands, as a Tenant Publican.

Court - Walsall.

Date of Order - 10th February 1987.

Nature of Order made - Bankrupt discharged.”

OLD VINE

Bradford Street, WALSALL

OWNERS

LICENSEES

NOTES

Black Country Bugle 25/2/1999

‘Fur Fanciers Link With Old Walsall Pub’ – letter from Carol and Dave Bishop

“We are trying to complete the history of a local rabbit club known as Walsall Fur Fanciers, but in the past was for some time known as Walsall Domestic Rabbit Club.

We have managed to establish that the club was in existence in 1924, we believe that some of the shows were then held in an upstairs room in a public house in Walsall called the OLD VINE in Bradford Street.”

OLD WHEATSHEAF

28, (18), (22), (21), Birmingham Street, WALSALL

OWNERS

William Henry Brooks, factor, The Terrace, Walsall
Mr. Sherriff, Brace Street, Walsall
Misses Lovatt

LICENSEES

Thomas Woodward [1858] – [1865]
John Glover [1868] – [1870]
William Palmer [1871] – 1873);
John Bolt (1873 – [1876];
William Smith Dutton [1881] – 1897);
Mary Jane Dutton (1897 – 1899);
James Townsend (1899 – 1904):

NOTES

21, Birmingham Street [1858], [1861], [1868], [1870], [1871], [1881], [1891]
22, Birmingham Street [1897]
18, Birmingham Street [1903]
28, Birmingham Street [1901]

OLD WHEATSHEAF [1869], [1902]
WHEATSHEAF [1871], [1876], [1884]

It was an ante 1869 beerhouse.

Thomas Woodward, beerhouse, 21, Birmingham Street. [1858]
Thomas Woodward, beer retailer, Birmingham Street. [1861]

Walsall Free Press 22/9/1860

“Several parties were summoned by Mr. Clarke, the town surveyor, for not having complied with the regulations, directing the fixing of down spouts. Prosecutor stated that notices had been served on the parties thirteen or fourteen months ago.
Thomas Woodward, Birmingham Street. all similarly dealt with, a week being allowed them to have their spouts fixed, and in the meantime the parties paying the costs of the present proceedings, 5s 6d each.”

1861 Census

21, Birmingham Street
[1] Thomas Woodward (45), iron founder employing 5 men, born Walsall;
[2] Sarah Woodward (43), wife, born Walsall;
[3] James Glover (22), son, saddler, born Walsall;
[4] Eliza H. Hirs (?), (19), house servant, born Tipton:

T. Woodward, beer retailer, 1, Birmingham Street. [1864], [1865]

John Glover, beer retailer, 21, Birmingham Street. [1868], [1870]

London Gazette 19/3/1869

“John Glover, of the OLD WHEAT SHEAF INN, Birmingham-street, Walsall, in the county of Stafford, Beerhouse Keeper and Saddle Maker, having been adjudged bankrupt under a Petition for adjudication of Bankruptcy, filed in the County Court of Staffordshire, holden at Walsall, on the 16th day of March, 1869, is hereby required to surrender himself to the Registrar of the said Court, at the first meeting of creditors to be held before the said Registrar, on the 14th day of April next, at twelve o'clock at noon precisely, at the Court-house, Lichfield-street, Walsall. Mr. F. F. Clarke, of Walsall, is the Official Assignee, and Messrs. Dinguin, Lewis, and Lewis, of Walsall, are the Solicitors acting in the bankruptcy.”

London Gazette 14/5/1869

“John Glover, of the OLD WHEATSHEAF INN, Birmingham-street, Walsall, in the county of Stafford, Beerhouse Keeper and Saddle Maker, adjudicated bankrupt on the 16th day of March, 1869. An Order of Discharge was granted by the County Court of Staffordshire, holden at Walsall, on the 5th day of May, 1869.”

1871 Census

21, Birmingham Street – WHEAT SHEAF

- [1] William Palmer (41), publican and brass dresser employing 2 boys, born Walsall;
- [2] Maria Palmer (39), wife, born Walsall;
- [3] William Palmer (17), son, brass dresser, born Walsall;
- [4] Ellen Palmer (13), daughter, born Walsall;
- [5] Jane Palmer (11), daughter, scholar, born Walsall;
- [6] Clara Palmer (9), daughter, scholar, born Walsall;
- [7] Harry Palmer (6), son, scholar, born Walsall;
- [8] Frank Palmer (4), son, scholar, born Walsall:

Staffordshire Advertiser 23/9/1876

“John Bolt, of the WHEAT SHEAF INN, Birmingham Street, was fined 20s and costs for having supplied beer to men in his house at twenty minutes past eleven o’clock on Sunday morning.”

1881 Census

21, Birmingham Street

- [1] William Dutton (44), fitter, born Walsall;
- [2] Harriett Dutton (40), wife, born Walsall;
- [3] Harry Dutton (18), son, brass castor, born Walsall;
- [4] Harriett Dutton (16), daughter, born Walsall;
- [5] Sarah Jane Dutton (11), daughter, scholar, born Walsall;
- [6] Arthur Dutton (6), son, scholar, born Walsall;
- [7] Ellener Dutton (5), daughter, born Walsall;
- [8] Minnie Adie Dutton (1), daughter, born Walsall:

Birmingham Daily Post 1/4/1884

“At the Police Court, yesterday, James Nend, painter, Peal Street, and Sarah Cooper, New Street, were sentenced to three months’ imprisonment each with hard labour for having stolen two watches and chains, the property of William Dutton, keeper of the WHEAT SHEAF INN, Birmingham Street. The evidence showed that the male prisoner stole the articles from a bed room whilst engaged in painting the house, and that the female prisoner afterwards sold the watches to the prosecutor’s brother.”

1891 Census

21, Birmingham Street – OLD WHEAT SHEAF

- [1] William Dutton (54), fitter, born Walsall;
- [2] Mary J. Dutton (44), wife, born Walsall;
- [3] Arthur Dutton (16), son, filer, born Walsall;
- [4] Eleanor Dutton (13), daughter, born Walsall;
- [5] Minnie A. Dutton (11), daughter, born Walsall;
- [6] Harold E. Dutton (9), son, born Walsall:

Evening Star 31/1/1882

“On the 21st inst, Henry Hill (49), of Peel Street, left his house to go to a club at the OLD WHEAT SHEAF INN. At 11.15pm he came home and complained of having fallen down and hurt his ribs. He was seen by Dr. Hubbard who ordered him to bed. On Saturday last, his wife helped him out of bed and he fell down and never spoke again, but died shortly afterwards. On the 21st he had a quarrel with a man named Millett, and was seen on the ground with Millett.”

Walsall Advertiser 17/4/1897

“Wednesday was a special transfer day at Walsall and the following licenses were transferred.....

OLD WHEAT SHEAF, Birmingham Street, Executrix and co-Executrix of William Smith Dutton (deceased), to Mary Jane Dutton.”

Walsall Observer 6/1/1900

“The OLD WHEATSHEAF Sick and Dividend Society held their annual general meeting at the OLD WHEATSHEAF, Birmingham Street, on Tuesday. A goodly muster of members turned up.....”

1901 Census

28, Birmingham Street

- [1] James Townsend (64), publican, born Walsall;
- [2] Mary J. Townsend (53), wife, born West Bromwich;
- [3] Ellen Woodward (18), domestic servant, born Willenhall:

Walsall Advertiser 19/7/1902 - Advert

“To be Sold by Auction on Monday, July 28th.....

The whole of the Valuable Freehold Property, in one Lot, comprising the very Old-Established Home-Brewing Beerhouse, known as the OLD WHEAT SHEAF INN, Birmingham Street, Walsall, in the occupation of Mr. James Townsend on an annual tenancy, at a yearly rental of £32.

The House contains four Rooms on the Upper Floors, and on the Ground Floor, Tap Room and Bar Parlour, with good Cellarage, together with spacious Brewhouse with Tap Water laid on.

The House does a good trade all the year round, and whether to Brewers or Persons wanting to brew on their own account this Sale affords a genuine opportunity to acquire a thoroughly good Freehold Home Brewing Beerhouse.

Together with the Six Dwelling Houses adjoining.....

Also two Sets of Two-Storey Workshops and a One-Storey Shop.....

The S. S. Water is laid on, and there are the usual out-offices.

The Property comprises a very extensive area.....”

[Biddings commenced at £400, and eventually they rose to £1,250, at which figure the lot was withdrawn.]

Walsall Advertiser 6/2/1904

“The annual licensing sessions for the Borough of Walsall were held on Thursday at the Guildhall, and aroused considerable interest. The court was crowded, and many license-holders were unable to obtain admission.....

Notice had been given to 76 license holders to show cause for the renewal of their licenses, evidently as a result of the visits of a sub-committee of magistrates to the licensed premises, the reasons why cause had to be shown being various....

Whilst James Townsend, the elderly landlord of the OLD WHEAT SHEAF, Birmingham Street, was in the box, the Court was provided with rare fun. Asked if he held the license, he said, ‘I hold the license, but my wife her’s the landlady. It was her license first, and then it was put into my name.’

Mr. Loxton: What rent do you pay? – £32.

The rent was risen twice last year. How was that? – Her (the landlady) wanted to sell the house (laughter).

Has she always dropped the rent back again? – No.

How many rooms are there – two down and four up (laughter).

What do you call two down? – Well the kitchen and the smoke room; will that do you? (laughter).

If there was not a license, would they be a parlour and a kitchen? – Yes.

The rent was raised on purpose to sell the house? – On purpose to make it better; she had never spent a penny on the house the six years I have been there, nor the previous owner for 24 years (laughter).

Have you any other business? – I have some property of my own, and I have an outdoor license, but I’ve got no money there (roars of laughter).

As far as you are concerned you do not attach much value to the license? – Not a great deal (still more laughter).

The renewal of the license was adjourned. The Bench giving notice of objection in open court on the ground that the license was not required, that the premises were not structurally adapted, and the tenant to be required to satisfy the Bench as to its value.”

The license was refused at the Brewsters’ Session in 1904.

Walsall Advertiser 5/3/1904

“The adjourned annual brewster session were held on Tuesday.....

OLD WHEATSHEAF Closed. Mr. Bill who appeared for the owners (Misses Lovatt) complained of the action of the tenant, James Townsend, in appearing before the magistrates on licensing day without any warning to the owners, and making wild statements likely to convince the Bench that the house was no longer required. Among other things he said the rent had been raised twice in one year, which was utterly false. The house was worth £32, and was the only means of subsistence its owners had. Miss Lovatt had been to see Townsend with reference to his statements to the magistrates, and he had told her that he would do all he could to do her a bad turn. The magistrates refused to renew that license.”

Walsall Advertiser 9/4/1904

“In connection with the recent Walsall Brewster Sessions, there were this week six appeals at the Staffordshire Quarter Sessions against the decisions of the borough magistrates in refusing the renewal of licenses.....

James Townsend, tenant of the OLD WHEAT SHEAF INN, Walsall, appealed against the decision of the Walsall borough justices not to renew the license, the ground of objection being that the house was not of sufficient annual value.

Mr. Plumptre and Mr. Lewis were for the appellants, and Mr. Disturnal appeared for the respondents.

Mr. Hickton estimated the value of the house at £13 3s, on the basis of the landlord paying the rates. The gross estimated rental was £20, and the rateable value was £16.

Mr. Powell, for the appellants, assessed the value of the house at £18 4s, and Mr. Bewlay placed the value of the premises at £15 12s, the tenant paying the rates.

Miss Lovatt, the owner of the house, stated that the rent was raised a short time before the property was offered for sale.

The Court dismissed the appeal, with costs.”

Walsall Advertiser 2/7/1904

“An application was made by Mr. F. Bill for the issue of a distress warrant against James Townsend. Mr. Bill explained that Townsend formerly held the license of the OLD WHEAT SHEAF, Birmingham Street, which had now been taken away, and at the Brewster Sessions an order was made by the magistrates for Messrs Hickton and Farmer to make a valuation of the premises. The Act required that the cost of such valuation should be paid by the licensee, but Townsend had so far refused to pay the amount, which was £3 3s.

Townsend now said he thought it was most unfair that they should take his living away and then make him pay for what he had not ordered to be done.

The warrant was made, but Townsend paid the amount before leaving the court.”

ONE MAN AND HIS DOG

7, Turnberry Road, BLOXWICH

OWNERS

LICENSEES

Tiffany Louise Bartlett [2023] manager

NOTES

[2000]

It was refurbished c.2009.

Express & Star 22/3/2021

“Pubs group Marston’s has issued a list of pubs set to reopen in the Black Country on April 12th. In the Express & Star circulation area this takes in 93. Due to coronavirus restrictions they will only be able to accommodate customers in outdoor areas including beer gardens and seated areas. To accompany table service, Marston’s has introduced an online ordering system called ‘Marston’s Tap’. The online platform is available across the majority of Marston’s pubs for guests to use. Bookings are being accepted and guests can reserve a table via each pub’s website. Wolverhampton-based Marston’s has an estate of around 1,400 pubs across the UK and not all in England are able to reopen in April due to not having an outdoor space.....

ONE MAN AND HIS DOG, Bloxwich.”

[2023]

ORANGE TREE

20, Wolverhampton Road (71, Wolverhampton Street), (Wolverhampton Row) / Hollyhedge Lane, WALSALL

OWNERS

James Nightingale

Richard Sherratt (acquired in April 1885 for £750 with adjoining cottage)

Emma Sherratt

City Brewery Co. (Lichfield) Ltd.

Ind Coope and Allsopp (leased)

Ansells Ltd. (acquired on 16th May 1960)

Mitchells and Butlers Ltd.

Sycamore Taverns (acquired in 1992)

Punch Taverns

LICENSEES

Edward Comins [1836]

Thomas Hidges [1848]

Horatio Hefford [1860] – [1861]

John Davis [1864] – [1866]

James Nightingale [1868] – [1881];

John Davis [];

Richard Sherratt [] – 1889;

Mrs. Emma Sherratt (1889 – [1896]);
Miss Mary Cornfield [1897] – 1902);
Charles Thompson Marsh (1902);
Mrs. Rose (Marsh) Turner (1902 – 1910);
Alfred Benton (1910 – 1911);
Frederick Sidney Walmsley (1911 – 1924);
George Stanley (1924 – []
James Vaughan (1930 – 1953);
Joseph Nash (1953 – 1958);
Edward Albert Kimberley (1958);
Leslie Spinks (1958 – 1959);
John Scott (1959 – [1966]
Arthur Hurley []

NOTES

71, Wolverhampton Street [1871]
20, Wolverhampton Road [1891], [1901], [1940]

It had a beerhouse license.

It had a refreshment license.

Staffordshire Advertiser 21/5/1836

“Edward Comins, of the ORANGE TREE, Wolverhampton Lane, was fined 40s and costs, for keeping open his house on Sunday, and permitting tipping therein during divine service.”

Staffordshire Advertiser 11/3/1848

“Joseph Newman was arraigned on a charge of stealing from the person of Ann Millard a sixpence, her property. The prosecutrix stated that she lived as servant with her brother-in-law, Thomas Hidges, keeper of the ORANGE TREE public-house, on the Wolverhampton road from Walsall, and was returning along the highway from Bilston to Walsall, between two and three o’clock on the afternoon of the 3rd of January last. She passed three other men on the footpath, and was then overtaken by the prisoner, the other two remaining behind. He laid his hand on her shoulder, and asked for some money. She said she had none; and he replied that he would have some whether she had or not. She gave him sixpence, so that she might be allowed to pass, and then ran home. The prisoner and his companions called at her relation’s house soon afterwards begging, and he was then taken into custody.

In her cross-examination by Mr. Meteyard, who defended the prisoner, the witness stated that Newman did not ask for alms, and say he had had nothing to eat during the day. She gave him the sixpence because she was frightened, and he would not let her pass without money.

The brother-in-law of the prosecutrix apprehended the prisoner and asked him why he had stopped his relation. He said he had only done so to ask her for a penny, having had nothing to eat for four days. Witness handed him over to the police, to whom he at once gave up the money. On being searched nothing was found on the prisoner, but on one of his companions, who was discharged by order of the magistrates, between 20s and 30s were found.

Mr. Meteyard urged that the indictment must fall, as there was not sufficient violence or threatened violence to substantiate the charge of highway robbery, and the offence, if anything, only amounted to assault.

The Chairman left it to the jury to determine whether they were satisfied, under the circumstances of the case, that the woman, stopped by one of the three men, was really and truly put into such a state of fear that she had in consequence parted with her money against her inclination, and under the impression of further violence.

The jury, after some deliberation, acquitted the prisoner.”

Staffordshire Advertiser 29/7/1848 - Advert

“Public House At Walsall.

To be Sold, and entered upon immediately, the Licenses and Possession of, and also the Brewing Utensils and Stock of Ale, in that excellent well-accustomed roadside Public-House, called the ORANGE TREE, in Wolverhampton Road, close to the town of Walsall. The house has a large Club Room, and good Stabling, and there is also an ample supply of hard and soft water. Apply to Mr. Wilkinson, Solicitor, Walsall.”

Walsall Free Press 12/11/1859 - Advert

“Walsall. To Be Let, and may be entered upon immediately, that excellently arranged Retail Public House, called the ORANGE TREE. The premises are replete with every convenience for carrying on an extensive business, and from its contiguity to the roads leading to Wolverhampton, the Pleck, Wednesbury, and the Birchills, an opportunity like the present rarely occurs, the stock, brewing vessels, (which are all new) and fixtures, to be taken at a valuation which will not exceed one hundred pounds. For particulars apply to John Osbourn, Auctioneer, 52, Lower Hall Lane, Walsall.

N.B. the proprietor having other engagements is the sole cause of leaving.”

Horatio Hefford = Horatio Heffrid

Wolverhampton Chronicle 5/9/1860

“Wednesday last, being the annual licensing day, twenty applications were made by beer-house keepers for victualling licenses.....

Horatio Hefford, Wolverhampton Lane. Refused.”

Horatio Hefford, beer retailer, Wolverhampton Road. [1861]

1861 Census

Wolverhampton Road – ORANGE TREE INN

[1] Horatio Hefford (48), brewer, born Derbyshire;

[2] Sarah Hefford (48), wife, born Walsall;

[3] Martha Clements (86), mother in law, widow, born Shropshire;

[4] Mary Roden (52), nurse, born Staffordshire;

[5] Elizabeth Tubb (19), house servant, born Wyrley, Staffordshire:

Walsall Free Press 31/8/1861

“The business of the general licensing day then commenced. There were seventeen applications.....

Horatio Hefford, ORANGE TREE, Wolverhampton Road, applied for a license. Mr. Wilkinson supported the application, and pointed out that although the ORANGE TREE was within 150 yards of the ELEPHANT AND CASTLE, the landlord of the latter (Mr. Nightingale) had signed a memorial in favour of granting a license, because the additional business which would be brought to the house by the license would not be of a local character, and would not interfere with the trade of the locality. Refused.”

John Davis = John Davies

Walsall Free Press 13/8/1864

“Amelia Buffet was charged with having wilfully and maliciously broken five panes of glass, the property of John Davis, landlord of the ORANGE TREE beerhouse, Wolverhampton Road. It appeared that she had, on Sunday afternoon, visited the house in question in search of a man with whom she cohabited, and, having found him there, she made use of some abusive language, where upon she was turned out, and, on getting into the street, she broke the windows.

The Bench ordered the defendant to pay 2s 6d, the cost of the glass, and 2s 6d fine and costs.

Defendant showed a wound on her right arm, which she said had been caused by the landlady stabbing her with a fork. On her left arm were several bruises and an abrasion of the skin, which she stated were caused by the landlord throwing her down.”

Walsall Free Press 29/10/1864

“On Thursday afternoon, the borough coroner, A. A. Fletcher, held an inquest, at the ORANGE TREE public-house, upon the body of Robert Taylor, butty miner, aged 43. It appeared, from the evidence, that deceased returned from his work in his usual health, about half-past ten, telling Mrs. Taylor to call him for dinner. Shortly after he lay down, Mrs. Taylor had occasion to go upstairs, and, hearing her husband making a peculiar noise, she went to his bedside and found him in a dying state, and before medical aid could be procured, life was extinct.

The Jury, after hearing the evidence, returned a verdict of Death from Natural Causes.”

Walsall Free Press 2/9/1865

“Licensing Day. There were 174 applications for the renewal of licenses, and 19 new applications.....

Mr. Matthews, from the office of Mr. Wilkinson, applied on behalf of the following parties.....

John Davies, ORANGE TREE, Wolverhampton Road Refused.”

Wolverhampton Chronicle 25/7/1866

“On Monday last, Mr. A. A. Fletcher, Borough Coroner, held an inquiry at the ORANGE TREE beerhouse, Wolverhampton-row, touching the death of Enoch Smith, 13 years of age, a son of parents living at Parkfield-terrace. On Saturday afternoon, the deceased, who was employed at the establishment of Mr. Stanley, saddler, Mountrath-street, left work early, and went with a companion, named Thomas Yates, to bathe in the canal at Bentley. He had been in the water but a few minutes when he showed symptoms of distress, and accordingly his companion endeavoured to draw him to the bank, but failed, nearly losing his own life in the attempt; and before other assistance could be obtained the unfortunate lad was drowned. The body was not recovered until about half-an-hour afterwards. Verdict Accidental Death.”

Walsall Free Press 1/9/1866

“General Licensing Day. Yesterday a special session was held in the Guildhall Assembly Room.....

Mr. Glover appeared to support the application of Mr. John Davis, landlord of the ORANGE TREE beerhouse, Wolverhampton Road.

Mr. Glover contended that the house, which was called a ‘model beerhouse,’ was in every way suitable for a victuallers’ house, and as it was on the high road between Walsall and Wolverhampton, should be licensed. Refused.”

James Nightingale = James Nightingall

Staffordshire Advertiser 8/10/1870

“A young man, who described himself as Thomas Davis, hawker, Dudley, was charged with having stolen two coats, value £2, the property of Mr. B. Benjamin, clothier, Digbeth, and one coat, value £1, the property of Mr. J. L. Stevenson, clothier, High Street. The evidence went to show that on Saturday afternoon the prisoner, accompanied by a woman, entered Mr. Benjamin’s shop, and after looking at several coats, selected one, which he directed to be put aside for him, and paying 1s as a deposit, promised to call again between 6 and 7 o’clock. Soon after they had left two coats were missed, and the police having been communicated with, Acting-sergeant Proffit traced the prisoner and his companion to the ORANGE TREE public house, Wolverhampton Lane, and as he entered saw Davis hand a shawl and a bundle to the woman, who endeavoured to conceal the latter. The officer seized it, however, and found it contained the two missing coats and a third, which had been stolen from the shop of Mr. J. Stevenson, under precisely similar circumstances, the same afternoon. The woman escaped while the bundle was being examined. The prisoner was sentenced to six months’ imprisonment for each offence, making twelve months’ in all, and Proffit was commended by the Mayor for his prompt detection of the prisoner.”

1871 Census

71, Wolverhampton Street – ORANGE TREE

- [1] James Nightingale (36), innkeeper, born Walsall;
- [2] Phoebe Nightingale (32), wife, born Lichfield;
- [3] Patience Nightingale (67), mother, born Biddulph, Warwickshire;
- [4] Georgina Jones (9), niece, scholar, born Walsall;
- [5] William Mayo (61), boarder, labourer, born Wednesfield:

James Nightingale, beer retailer, Wolverhampton Road. [1872]

Staffordshire Advertiser 11/3/1876

“James Nightingale, ORANGE TREE, public house, was fined 10s and costs for having permitted drunkenness in his house. The defence was that the defendant had been called away from home suddenly, and had been obliged to leave the house in the charge of an inexperienced person.”

1881 Census

Wolverhampton Street

- [1] James Nightingale (46), widower, beerhouse keeper, born Walsall;
- [2] Patience Nightingale (80), mother, annuitant, born Bedworth, Warwickshire;
- [3] Patience Jones (10), niece, scholar, born Walsall;
- [4] Alfred Hogan (12), nephew, scholar, born Walsall;
- [5] Sarah Sanders (20), domestic servant, born Norton, Staffordshire:

James Nightingale – see also ELEPHANT AND CASTLE.

1891 Census

20, Wolverhampton Road

- [1] Emma Sherratt (60), widow, beerhouse keeper, born Wingham, Kent;
- [2] Sarah Sherratt (24), daughter, born Pelsall;
- [3] Mary Emma Ganderton (18), general servant, born Birmingham:

Walsall Advertiser 23/1/1895

“Edward Eason (32), painter, of no fixed abode, was charged with begging in the public streets. Police-sergeant 5 (Curtis) said that on Tuesday he watched prisoner enter several shops begging. He ultimately went into the ORANGE TREE public-house and asked for a half-pint of fourpenny ale. He was ordered out, but refused to leave, and witness accordingly arrested him. He then became so violent that it took three policemen to get him to the police station. Prisoner denied that he was begging, and he was discharged on promising to leave the town forthwith.”

Mrs. Emma Sherratt, beer retailer, 20, Wolverhampton Street. [1896]

Walsall Advertiser 16/10/1897

“The monthly meeting of the Walsall and District Licensed Victuallers’ and Beer Retailers’ Friendly and Protection Society was held on Thursday.....
New Members..... Miss Mary Cornfield, ORANGE TREE INN, Wolverhampton Street.”

1901 Census

20, Wolverhampton Street

- [1] Mary Cornfield (35), unmarried, beer retailer, born Walsall;

- [2] Daniel Cornfield (32), brother, born Walsall;
- [3] Samuel Cornfield (28), brother, iron worker, born Walsall;
- [4] Sarah J. Brown (26), sister, born Walsall;
- [5] Hannah Rogers (25), sister, born Walsall;
- [6] Herbert Cornfield (20), brother, born Walsall;
- [7] William Marlow (21), lodger, labourer in iron works, born Darlaston;
- [8] Tom Brown (7), nephew, born Willenhall;
- [9] Philip Rogers (25), brother in law, iron works, born Walsall;
- [10] Evelyn M. Rogers (2 months), niece, born Walsall:

Walsall Advertiser 7/2/1903

“A young man named Alfred Ayers, 109, Wolverhampton Street, was charged on a warrant with stealing a bicycle worth £4 10s, the property of Thomas Mumford, of 85, Raleigh Street, on July 10th last. Prosecutor gave evidence to the effect that on July 10th he went into the ORANGE TREE INN, Wolverhampton Road, and left the bicycle in the passage. Prisoner was in the house, and after a time asked him to lend him his machine. Prosecutor refused to do so, and went into another room. When he came back his bicycle had disappeared, and the prisoner was not found.

Ernest Gore said that on July 10th he met prisoner near the FULLBROOK TAVERN in West Bromwich Road. He had the bicycle in his possession, and offered to sell it to witness for a sovereign. Witness offered him 15s, and eventually gave him 10s on account, taking a receipt for it. The next day witness’s father handed the machine over to the police.

Detective Smith said that prisoner had left the town after selling the bicycle, but had returned the previous day and given himself up.

Prisoner pleaded guilty, and was sent to gaol for a months’ hard labour.”

Mrs. Rose Marsh, beer retailer, 20, Wolverhampton Road. [1904]

A team from here took part in the Walsall and District Air-Gun League. [1905], [1906]

Walsall Advertiser 26/9/1908

“Societies Of Miniature Rifle Clubs, Birmingham And District League.....

The first delegate meeting will take place on Thursday next, the 1st inst, at the club house of the chairman, the ORANGE TREE, Wolverhampton Road.”

Walsall Advertiser 24/4/1909

“The friends of Mr. ‘Teddy’ Green assembled at the ORANGE TREE, Wolverhampton Street, on Tuesday evening, to wish him good luck on his return to Canada, after a holiday over here. There was a goodly muster, and refreshments were supplied, whilst an enjoyable musical programme was gone through.”

Rose Marsh married a Mr. Turner in 1909.

1911 Census

20, Wolverhampton Road

- [1] Alfred Benton (50), boiler smith, born Blakenall Heath;
- [2] Mary Ann Benton (51), wife, married 26 years, born Blakenall Heath;
- [3] Harold Benton (25), son, boiler smith, born Blakenall Heath;
- [4] Nellie Wilmore (22), daughter, married, housewife, born Blakenall Heath;
- [5] Benjamin Wilmore (23), son in law, clerk, LNWR, born Bloxwich;
- [6] Colin Harrold Benton Wilmore (4 months), grandson, born Rolling Mill Street, Walsall;
- [7] Jane Ellen Hough (15), domestic servant, born Blakenall Heath:

Walsall Advertiser 10/1/1912

“The monthly meeting of the Walsall and District Licensed Victuallers’ and Beer Retailers’ Friendly and Protection Society was held last Thursday.....

Mr. Frederick S. Walmsley, ORANGE TREE INN, Wolverhampton Road, was elected member of the Society.”

Walsall Observer 13/10/1917

“The monthly meeting of the Walsall and District Licensed Victuallers’ and Beer Retailers’ Friendly and Protection Society was held on Thursday last at the house of Mr. F. S. Walmsley, ORANGE TREE INN, Wolverhampton Road.....”

Walsall Observer 20/10/1917

“Friendly rivalry, the outcome of a vegetable show at a neighbouring house, accounted for the magnificent sum of £3 15s being obtained at the ORANGE TREE INN, Wolverhampton Road, this week by a similar effort. Thanks are due to Mr. J. Bastard, hon. secretary of the Reeds Wood Allotments, and many customers for the zeal displayed. All through the war parcels and cash have been despatched to the men at the Front, and from this amount many more will be sent at intervals.”

Walsall Observer 12/1/1918

“Walsall and District War Aid Committee. Collection By The Licensed Victuallers, December, 1917.....
ORANGE TREE, Wolverhampton Street. £0 17s 3½d.”

Walsall Observer 17/5/1924

“When, at Walsall Police Court on Monday, the license of the ORANGE TREE, Wolverhampton Road, was transferred from Frederick Sidney Walmsley to George Stanley, the Chief Constable (Mr. G. H. Ballance) reminded the magistrates that a year ago he objected to Stanley holding a license owing to ‘certain reports’ made to him (the Chief Constable). He now thought that having been kept out of business for fourteen months, Stanley had been sufficiently punished for any indiscretion he had committed and he, therefore, offered no objection to the present transfer. ‘It is a very severe punishment’ agreed the presiding magistrate (Mr. W. Abbotts).....”

Lichfield Mercury 8/9/1933

“Falling from some scaffolding at the Goodyear factory, Bushbury, Frank Owen (30), of the ORANGE TREE INN, Walsall, broke both his forearms, cut his chin and bruised his face.”

A full license was transferred from the COMMERCIAL, Station Street, in May 1937.

1939 Register

Wolverhampton Road

[1] James Vaughan, date of birth 3/11/1868, licensed victualler, married;
[2] Ada M. Vaughan, dob 27/5/1881, unpaid domestic duties, married:

Walsall Observer 7/12/1940

“Walsall Licensed Victuallers’ Society.
Motor Ambulance Effort on behalf of Walsall and District branch of the British Red Cross Society.
First List of Subscriptions.....
ORANGE TREE, Wolverhampton Road, £5 5s 0d.”

Walsall Observer 24/12/1942

“Walsall Licensed Victuallers’ Society. The Duke of Gloucester’s Red Cross Fund. List of Subscriptions.....
ORANGE TREE INN, Wolverhampton Road. £5 0s 0d.”

Walsall Observer 15/1/1944

“Walsall Licensed Victuallers’ Society.
Appeal on Behalf of the Merchant Navy Fund, The Duke of Gloucester’s Red Cross Fund and the Aid to China Fund. List of Subscriptions.....
ORANGE TREE INN, Wolverhampton Road. £4 10s 9d.”

Arthur Hurley was married to Ivy.

[2007]

Express & Star 6/5/2017

“More than 25 calls were made to West Midlands Fire Service about the blaze at the ORANGE TREE in Walsall earlier today. Firefighters from Walsall Central, Bloxwich and Willenhall attended. It is believed the pub, which stands on the ring road and closed in 2009, is regularly used as a shelter by the homeless.
A fire service spokesman said: ‘We attended a fire in a derelict public house – which was in the first floor and roof space.’
Crews were called at 11.45am. They left the scene around two hours later. Fire crews are set to revisit the pub this afternoon as they investigate how the blaze started.”

PARK TAVERN

43, Broadway North, WALSALL

OWNERS

Ansells Ltd. [1992]
Allied Domecq

LICENSEES

Miss Sue Yardley [2009] manager

NOTES

It was originally a tennis club.
It became a night club.

It opened as a pub in the 1970s.

Sandwell Evening Mail 6/7/1992

“They’re the pubs that YOU think are the best in the Midlands – and now they’re all in the running for our prestigious Midland Town and Country Pub of the Year.....

The Evening Mail has teamed up for the contest with the Midland Counties Brewers’ and Licensed Retailers’ Association, to raise a toast to the very best of our region’s pubs. Now it is up to the judges, who face a huge task choosing the two winners from the enormous entry. They’ll be looking for service and standards of comfort demanded by today’s discerning pub-goer. And they will be awarding marks for another important ingredient of a successful pub – the part it plays as a hub of social life in the community.....

PARK TAVERN, Broadway North, Walsall.”

Sandwell Evening Mail 2/10/1992 - Advert

“Cheers! Have a free drink on us.

Cheers! Here’s your chance to have Another drink Free on the Evening Mail. We’ve got thousands more Free pints to give away and the toast of the Midlands is once again Ansell’s! Yes, it’s Free Beer time again at over 100 selected Ansell’s houses throughout the Midlands. Thousands of Evening Mail readers toasted the August Bank Holiday with our last two-pints-for-the-price-of-one opportunity. Now, for the next seven days, we are delighted to repeat the chance. You can enjoy a sparkling glass of beer or lager – or a generous measure of wine – Absolutely Free – when you buy an equivalent drink. Simply cut out the coupon below, fill in your name and address and take it along to any of the listed venues.....

Walsall: PARK TAVERN.”

Sue Yardley’s partner was Steve.

[2012]

Closed [2013], [2014]

Demolished.

Housing was built on the site. [2016]

PARKBROOK

434, Wolverhampton Road, (434, Park Brook), Park Brook, WALSALL

OWNERS

George Harper
Thomas Meddings
John Hand
Messrs. Cooper and Sons, solicitors, Uttoxeter
Brewers’ Investment Corporation Ltd.
Edwin Jones
Mary Ann Fox
John Lord, The Brewery, Short Acre, Walsall (acquired in 1925)
Mitchells and Butlers Ltd. (acquired in 1939)

LICENSEES

David Matthews [1865]
Joseph Russell [1868]
Walter Bowring [] – (1869)
George Harper [1871] – 1873);
Thomas Meddings (1873 – [];
John Hand [1878];
Thomas Hands [1882]
Joseph Lowe [1887] – 1896);
Harriet Lowe (1896 – 1898);
George Leverton (1898 – 1899);
Mrs. Mary Ann Fox (1899 – 1912);
Walter Sanders (1912 – 1919);
Hannah Sanders (1919 – 1920);
Amos Burrows (1920 – [] manager
Caroline Burrows (1933 – 1938)
Douglas Morton Critchley [1939] – 1941);
James Watson (1941 – 1947);
Ernest Thickett (1947 – [1958]
John Henry Tolley (1982 – [2011]

NOTES

434, Wolverhampton Road [1891], [1940]
434, Park Brook [1901]

It was originally the BRIDGE. [1865], [1868], [1869], [1872], [1900], [1901], [1911], [1912], [1918], [1920], [1938], [1940], [1944], [1975]

JOLLY COLLIER. [1873], [1882]

It had a beerhouse license.

Birmingham Gazette 22/12/1865

“David Mathews, landlord of the BRIDGE beerhouse, Park Brook, was fined 20s and costs, for having had his house open for the sale of beer on Sunday last, between the hours of eleven and twelve (noon), at which time Police-constable Keats found thirteen men and women with six cups of beer in them.”

Walsall Free Press 22/2/1868

“Joseph Russell, landlord of the BRIDGE INN, Park Brook, pleaded guilty to having had his house open for the sale of beer during prohibited hours on Sunday last, and was fined 5s and costs.”

Walter Bowring = Walter Bowering

Birmingham Daily Post 25/6/1869 - Advert

“Found at Parkbrook, a Brown Cart Mare, from 15 to 16 hands high. White scar on forehead, two dark fore legs, and two white hind legs.

Apply W. Bowering, BRIDGE INN, Parkbrook.”

Walsall Free Press 24/7/1869

“On the night of Tuesday, or morning of Wednesday last, the dwelling-house of Mr. Walter Bowring, landlord of the BRIDGE INN public-house, Park Brook, was broken into, and a cash-box containing £17 in gold and £3 in silver, stolen therefrom. An entrance was effected by breaking open the cellar door. There are certain circumstances connected with the robbery which lead to the hope that the whole affair will be speedily disclosed. Mr. Bowering has offered a reward for the apprehension and conviction of the offender or offenders.”

London Gazette 21/9/1869

“Walter Bowring, at present lodging at the NELSON INN, Dudley-street, Birmingham, Labourer, previously of the BRIDGE INN, at Park Brook, in the borough of Walsall, Beer-house Keeper and Dealer in Scrap Iron, and formerly of Bloxwich, in the said borough of Walsall, Dealer in Earthenware and Scrap Iron, having been adjudged bankrupt under a Petition for adjudication of Bankruptcy, filed in the County Court of Staffordshire, holden at Walsall, on the 14th day of September, 1869, is hereby required to surrender himself to the Registrar of the said Court, at the first meeting of creditors to be held before the said Registrar, on the 7th day of October next, at twelve of the clock at noon precisely, at the said Court. Mr. F. F. Clarke, of Walsall, is the Official Assignee, and Messrs. Duignan, Lewis, and Lewis, of Walsall, are the Solicitors acting as the bankruptcy.”

1871 Census

Park Brook

- [1] George Harper (59), beerhouse keeper, born Codsall;
- [2] Elizabeth Harper (37), wife, born Newcastle on Tyne;
- [3] George H. Harper (1), son, born Walsall;
- [4] Mary A. Hanby (40), servant, born Lizard, Shropshire:

Staffordshire Advertiser 31/8/1878

“John Hand, the BRIDGE INN, Park Brook, applied for a license to sell wine on the premises of his beerhouse. Granted.”

Birmingham Daily Post 17/4/1882

“Thomas Hands, the JOLLY COLLIER, Parkbrook, was fined 20s and costs for having his house open before 12.30 on Sunday, twenty-three persons having been found there at an earlier hour.”

London Gazette 1/6/1883

“The Bankruptcy Act, 1869.

In the County Court of Staffordshire, holden at Walsall. In the Matter of a Bankruptcy Petition against John Hands, of the BRIDGE INN, Parkbrook, Walsall, in the county of Stafford, Beer Retailer and Grocer and Provision Dealer, and lately of the BLACK COCK INN, Guns-lane, West Bromwich, in the said county of Stafford, Beerhouse Keeper.

Upon the hearing of this Petition this day, and upon proof satisfactory to the Court of the debt of the Petitioner, and of the trading, and of the act or acts of the Bankruptcy alleged to have been committed by the said John Hands having been given, it is ordered that the said John Hands be, and he is hereby, adjudged bankrupt.

Given under the Seal of the Court this 28th day of May, 1883. By the Court, F. F. Clarke, Registrar.

The First General Meeting of the creditors of the said John Hands is hereby summoned to be held at the Court-house, Lichfield-street, Walsall, in the county of Stafford, on the 18th day of June, 1883, at two o'clock in the afternoon, and that the Court has ordered the bankrupt to attend thereat for examination, and to produce thereat a statement of his affairs, as required by the statute.

Until the appointment of a Trustee, all persons having in their possession any of the effects of the bankrupt must deliver them, and all debts due to the bankrupt must be paid, to the Registrar. Creditors must forward their Proofs of Debts to the Registrar.”

Joseph Lowe was fined 10s and costs, on 25th January 1887, for Sunday trading.

1891 Census

434, Wolverhampton Road

- [1] Joseph Lowe (34), shopkeeper, born Bilston;
- [2] Harriett Lowe (34), wife, born Nuneaton;
- [3] Mary Ann Lowe (9), daughter, born West Bromwich;
- [4] Selena Lowe (4), daughter, born Walsall;
- [5] John Thomas Lowe (15 months), son, born Walsall;
- [6] Charles Lowe (3), son, born Walsall;
- [7] Thomas James (55), lodger, waggoner, born Ironbridge, Shropshire:

Joseph Lowe, beer retailer and shopkeeper, 434, Wolverhampton Road. [1896]

Harriet Lowe was charged costs, on 21st January 1896, for being open during prohibited hours.

Walsall Advertiser 29/8/1896

“The annual general licensing sessions for the Borough of Walsall were held at the Guildhall yesterday.....

The return spoken of showed that the following had been proceeded against. Beer Retailers.....

Harriet Lowe, BRIDGE INN, Parkbrook, February 21st, 1896, keeping her licensed premises open during prohibited hours, to pay costs.”

Walsall Advertiser 2/10/1896

“About 10.30 on Sunday morning information reached the Bentley Police Station that a young woman had been found in the canal. Police-constable Slater went to the spot indicated and found that a girl named Lucy Rowlinson (19), of 35, Regent Street, Walsall, was lying exhausted upon the towpath. The officer, being a member of the St. John Ambulance Association, at once took the necessary steps to assist her resuscitation, and with the assistance of some persons living near the spot he succeeded in his efforts. It seems that a man named Thomas Lunn, who lives at Five Ways, Cannock, was walking alongside the canal towards James Bridge to visit friends when he heard screams. He went in the direction from whence they came, and there found the girl on the water. He quickly divested himself of the major portion of his garments and jumped in to the rescue. He succeeded in clutching her just in time to prevent drowning, and brought her to the bank. Meanwhile another person ran to the police station, and Police-constable Slater, after bringing the girl round, took her to the BRIDGE TAVERN, Parkbrook, where she had a change of clothing. Her explanation of the affair was that she caught her foot and slipped into the canal; but she refused to state what had brought her at Bentley so early in the day, though she declared that at the time of the accident she was walking in the direction of her house.”

Walsall Advertiser 24/7/1897

“There was a very satisfactory sale of property held at the STORK HOTEL, and conducted by Messrs Watkins, Powell, and Wood, last Tuesday evening. The properties submitted for auction were as follows.....

The freehold public-house, known as the BRIDGE INN, Park Brook, Wolverhampton Road. The house which is fully licensed, is let at an annual rental of £25. Also the freehold cottage adjoining, producing £9 2s per annum. The land contains an area of 822 square yards. Bidding commenced at £600, but with competition the lot was sold for £1,160.”

Mary Ann Fox was elected as a member of the Walsall and District Licensed Victuallers’ and Beer Retailers’ Friendly and Protection Society in June 1900.

1901 Census

434, Park Brook – Public House – BRIDGE INN

[1] Mary A. Fox (30), innkeeper, born Walsall;

[2] Florence Jackson (25), cousin, assistant in bar, born Rushall:

Mrs. Mary Ann Fox, beer retailer, 434, Wolverhampton Road. [1912]

Walsall Observer 21/11/1914

“The following is a list of box collections to date made on behalf of the Prince of Wales’ National Relief Fund (Walsall Branch).....

BRIDGE INN, Wolverhampton Road, Walsall, 6s 6d.”

Walsall Observer 12/1/1918

“Walsall and District War Aid Committee. Collection By The Licensed Victuallers, December, 1917.....

BRIDGE INN, Parkbrook. £2 14s 1d.”

It was rebuilt in 1939.

The full license from the LEATHERN BOTTLE, Church Hill, was transferred to here on 4th May 1939.

Walsall Observer 29/7/1939

“More than fifty licensed premises in Walsall and neighbouring place become Mitchells and Butlers houses this week as a result of the well-known Cape Hill brewery company’s acquisition of the whole of the undertakings of the Highgate-Walsall Brewery Co. Ltd., and the Walsall Breweries Proprietary Ltd., and of all the licensed and certain un-licensed properties of Messrs. John Lord, brewers, of Short Acre.....

A list of the licensed premises that form part of the properties acquired by Mitchells and Butlers is as follows.....

John Lord’s houses.....

BRIDGE INN, Wolverhampton Road.”

1939 Register

Wolverhampton Road – BRIDGE INN (2 of 3)

[1] Douglas Morton Critchley, date of birth 17/7/1880, licensed victualler, married;

[2] Sybil Walker (Critchley) Martin, dob 7/3/1909, unpaid domestic duties, married;

Walsall Observer 29/8/1942

“County Borough of Walsall. Mayor’s War Aid Fund. Nineteenth List of Subscriptions.....

Mr. Watson, BRIDGE INN, Parkbrook. £0 16s 4d.”

Walsall Observer 24/12/1942

“Walsall Licensed Victuallers’ Society. The Duke of Gloucester’s Red Cross Fund. List of Subscriptions.....

BRIDGE INN, Parkbrook. £3 14s 6d.”

Walsall Observer 15/1/1944

“Walsall Licensed Victuallers’ Society.

Appeal on Behalf of the Merchant Navy Fund, The Duke of Gloucester’s Red Cross Fund and the Aid to China Fund. List of Subscriptions.....

BRIDGE INN, Parkbrook. £1 11s 0d.”

It was renamed PARKBROOK. [1999]

Express & Star 16/6/2007

“Green-fingered publican John Tolley, whose pub was once as well known for its vegetable shows as its pints is celebrating 25 years behind the bar at the watering hole. He took over the PARKBROOK, Wolverhampton Road, Walsall, in 1982 and has become a popular figure. In its early days the pub branched out from food and drink and became a meeting place for vegetable growers across the borough to swap ideas and show produce. The pub held frequent vegetable shows and items such as onions, potatoes and turnips were sold off for charity. The last show was in 1989 after numbers dwindled following the deaths of several of the regulars but Mr. Tolley is hopeful it could be relaunched in the future. He said, 'I am a keen vegetable grower and if I am not in the pub pulling pints then I am in my allotment at the back of the pub. The Parkbrook used to hold regular shows until 1989. Many of the older people have died now but there is a resurgence in popularity of vegetable growing and it would certainly be great to bring the shows back.'

This evening the pub will be packed with family and friends throwing a party for the landlord to celebrate his 25 years in charge and his 65th birthday, which fell on Tuesday. He became landlord at the old BOROUGH ARMS, Ablewell Street, in 1975 and then took over at the PARKBROOK in 1982. He lives with his second wife Margaret and has two children, two grandchildren and stepchildren."

[2017]

PARKFIELD TAVERN

26, (37), Pleck Road, (Parkfield Terrace), (Pleck Lane), (Union Road), WALSALL

OWNERS

Mills and Son, chain makers, Pleck, Walsall [1880]

Benjamin Thickett

Lord Bradford (ground landlord)

John Boys

Mrs. Marshall, 19, Elwood Street, Walsall

Henry Kirby

William Butler and Co. Ltd. (leased) [1933]

LICENSEES

William Boden [1861] – [1870]

Mrs. Jane Boden [1869] – 1891;

Henry 'Harry' Kirby (1891 – 1911);

Phoebe Jane Kirby [1911] ?

Edward Chatwin (1911 – 1921);

Ernest Smith (1921 – 1923);

Robert William Skeldon McGill (1923 – 1924);

Thomas Leeson (1924 – 1925);

Annie Leeson (1925 – []

William Arthur Cox (1926 – 1927);

Benjamin Thickett (1927 – []

NOTES

Pleck Lane [1861], [1873]

Union Road [1868]

37, Pleck Road [1871]

26, Pleck Road [1881], [1891], [1901], [1911]

PARKFIELD HOUSE [1865]

It was an ante 1882 beerhouse.

County Advertiser 23/10/1858 - Advert

"Economy in Brewing.

Thomas Mees, Boiler Maker, Bell Works, Brierley Hill, begs to call attention to the superiority of his Wrought-iron Brewing Boilers, over those of either copper or cast-iron; being one-third less the cost of copper, and more durable than either. Cast-iron boilers are made hot-blast, cinder iron, are very liable to burst from expansion and contraction, or from having cold water put into them when hot, and also by frosty weather. The wrought-iron boilers are made of the best charcoal iron, from 20 to 200 gallons each, or larger if required, are worked at 25 per cent less cost in fuel and labour; and if erected by an experienced mason will last for twenty years.

These Boilers may be seen in use at.....

PARKFIELD INN, Walsall.....”

William Boden = William Bowden

1861 Census

Pleck Road – PARKFIELD INN

- [1] William Boden (40), publican, born Walsall;
- [2] Jane Boden (38), wife, born Walsall;
- [3] John M. Boden (7), son, scholar, born Walsall;
- [4] Seamor Bird (25), boarder, labourer, birthplace unknown;
- [5] Sarah Marigold (15), servant, born Lichfield:

Walsall Free Press 31/8/1861 - Advert

“Important Sale. Walsall Foreign. Long Leaseholds, Producing at low rents £424 per annum.

Capital Public House, PARK FIELD INN, and 40 Houses and Retail Shops adjoining, well situated, fronting to the Pleck-road, called Park Field Terrace; also 7 Houses and Pipe Manufactory, in Bridgeman Street.....

Lot 1. All that substantial and well-arranged Inn or Public House, known as the PARK FIELD INN, in the occupation of Mr. Boden, pleasantly and most eligibly situated on the Pleck-road, near the junction of the Wolverhampton turnpike road and the Birmingham canal, and in the midst of numerous iron works and manufactories; the house contains entrance hall, capital tap room, with handsome bow windows, bar, parlours, excellent smoke room, a capital lodge room, and suitable bed rooms, capital brewery and malt room over, 4 excellent cellars, stabling for 4 horses, entire yard, and other conveniences for carrying on a large trade; water is laid on from the South Staffordshire Water Works.....

Mr. Boden, of the PARK FIELD INN, will show the various lots.”

Walsall Free Press 31/8/1861

“The business of the general licensing day then commenced. There were seventeen applications.....

Mr. John Potter appeared in support of Mr. Boden, proprietor of the PARK HILL TAVERN,[sic] Pleck Lane. The necessity of a victualler’s license in that quarter was urged by Mr. Potter, but the Bench was of opinion that the accommodation in that respect was ample, and refused the license. The Bench had been informed by Mr. Cater that 116 cases of drunkenness had occurred in the borough during the year, and expressed its opinion that no license ought to be granted except under most absolute necessity.”

Birmingham Daily Post 22/8/1864

“The Forthcoming Borough Licensing Day. The following is a list of persons who intend to apply for spirit licenses at the Special Sessions for that purpose, to be held on the 28th inst.....

William Boden, PARKFIELD INN, Pleck Road.” [Refused]

W. Boden, beer retailer and pipe maker, Pleck Lane. [1865]

Walsall Free Press 29/8/1865 - Notice

“If Edward Handley, the Younger, Hinge Filer, of James’ Foundry, does not redeem the Duplicates left at Mr. Boden’s, PARK-FIELD INN, in three days, they will be redeemed, and sold to defray expenses.”

Walsall Free Press 2/9/1865

“Licensing Day. There were 174 applications for the renewal of licenses, and 19 new applications.....

William Bowden, PARKFIELD HOUSE, Pleck Lane applied personally for licenses, but their applications were refused.”

Walsall Free Press 9/9/1865

“The Adjourned Licensing day. Before T. Hazledine (Mayor), H. Highway, J. Shannon, W. Ward, S. Stokes, P. Potter, and J. B. Anderson, Esqs.....

Mr. Glover renewed the application on behalf of Mr. Boden, of the PARKFIELD TAVERN beer-house, Pleck Lane. Mr. Glover in making the application said he did not request the bench to abandon the principle they had hitherto adopted, because he considered that not only was his client a fit and proper person, and the house a suitable one for a public-house, but the locality was one requiring a public-house. The application was refused.”

Walsall Free Press 21/10/1865 - Advert

“To Coal Merchants, Manufacturers, and Others.

To Be Sold By Private Contract, Seven valuable Leasehold Houses, situate in the best part of Wolverhampton Street, being Nos.50 to 57 inclusive, with all the Wharfs, Stabling, Offices, and Sheds. Very centrally situated for business of any description.

For particulars, and to treat, apply to John Boys, Bridgeman Street; or William Boden, PARKFIELD INN, Pleck Road, Walsall.”

Walsall Free Press 1/9/1866

“General Licensing Day. Yesterday a special session was held in the Guildhall Assembly Room.....
Mr. Boden, beerhouse keeper, Pleck road, did not appear.”

AND

Birmingham Daily Post 1/9/1866

“The annual Special Sessions for the consideration of applications for victualling licenses took place yesterday at the Guildhall.....
In all there were sixteen applications for new licenses, three of which were acceded to.....
William Boden, Parkfield Terrace, Pleck Road, had given notice of his intention to apply, but did not do so.”

Aris's Birmingham Gazette 31/8/1867

“Yesterday being the day for granting publican's licenses, the magistrates met at ten o'clock.....
Mr. Mathews applied on behalf of William Boden, beerhouse-keeper, Parkfield Terrace, Pleck Lane. Application refused.”

William Boden, beer retailer, Pleck Lane. [1868], [1870]

Walsall Free Press 29/5/1869

“Jane Boden, landlady of the PARKFIELD INN, Pleck Lane, was charged with having her house open during prohibited hours on Sunday last. As the license had not been transferred to the defendant the case was dismissed.”

Walsall Free Press 4/9/1869

“Walsall Annual Licensing Day, Wednesday applications for new licenses for the sale of spirits.....
Jane Boden, landlady of the PARKFIELD INN beerhouse, Pleck Lane, applied in person for a license for her house, which she and her late husband have occupied for nine years.
The Mayor announced that the Bench had decided not to grant any new licenses this year.”

Staffordshire Advertiser 10/9/1870

“Walsall Annual Licensing Sessions were held at the Guildhall yesterday week.....
There were eight applicants for new spirit licenses.....
Jane Boden, the PARKFIELD INN, Pleck Road, did not appear.....
The magistrates retired to consider their decision, and after having been absent about half an hour they returned, and announced that they had decided to refuse all the applications, though they had come to this decision with much regret in some instances.”

1871 Census

37, Pleck Road – PARKFIELD INN

- [1] Jane Boden (49), widow, publican, born Walsall;
- [2] John M. Boden (18), son, born Walsall;
- [3] Henry Boden (8), son, scholar, born Walsall;
- [4] John Ball (52), visitor, publican, born Lane Hall, Staffordshire;
- [5] William Pickering (32), visitor, collier, born Shropshire;
- [6] Lucy Pickering (15), domestic servant, born Shropshire;
- [7] Charles Clarke (14), ostler, born Walsall:

Mrs. Jane Boden, beer retailer, Pleck Road. [1872]

Walsall Free Press 30/8/1873

“At the annual licensing meeting, held at the Guildhall, yesterday.....
Jane Boden, beerhouse keeper, Pleck Lane, applied for a victualler's license; but, as she had neglected to advertise, her application could not be entertained.”

Birmingham Daily Post 29/8/1874

“The annual Brewster Sessions for the borough of Walsall took place yesterday, at the Guildhall.....
Mr. Gillespie applied for a license on behalf of Mrs. Boden, beerhouse keeper, Pleck Road. He said the house was largely frequented by boatmen and others who required spirits, and had been kept by the applicant and her late husband for fourteen years without complaint. Attached to it was stabling for fourteen horses. An influentially signed memorial in favour of the application was put in. Refused.”

Walsall Advertiser 10/8/1880 - Notice

“To the overseers of the Poor and the Chief Constable of the Borough of Walsall, in the County of Stafford; and to all whom it may concern.
I, Jane Boden, Widow, Retail Brewer, now residing at the Pleck Road, in the County of Stafford, and for six months last past having resided at the same place, Do Hereby Give Notice that it is my intention to apply at the General Annual Licensing Meeting, to be holden at the Guildhall, in the said Borough, on the Twenty-seventh day of August next ensuing, for a license to sell exciseable Liquors by retail, to be drunk or consumed in the House or Premises thereto unto belonging, situate at the Pleck Road aforesaid, in a certain Street or Place there, called Pleck Road, and now rented by me of Messrs. Mills, and now in my occupation and which hath not been kept or used as an Inn, Alehouse, or Victualling House, within three years preceding the day of the date thereof, and which I intend to keep as an Inn or Alehouse, or Victualling House.

Given under my hand this 14th day of July, 1880.

Jane Boden.”

Lichfield Mercury 3/9/1880

“The usual licensing session took place at the Guildhall, Walsall, on Friday.....

Jane Boden, PARKFIELD INN, The Pleck, applied for a victualler’s license Refused.”

1881 Census

26, Pleck Road

- [1] Jane Boden (56), widow, beer retailer, born Walsall;
- [2] John Boden (27), son, traveller, born Walsall;
- [3] Henry Boden (18), son, clerk in office, born Walsall;
- [4] Hannah Boden (11), daughter, born Walsall;
- [5] John Ball (58), widower, brewer, born Lane Head;
- [6] William Boys (60), brother, labourer, born Wednesbury;
- [7] Elizabeth Boys (60), wife, born Bilston;
- [8] Frederick Barnall (22), boarder, labourer, born Tewkesbury;
- [9] Kate Wootton (23), servant, born Bloxwich:

Evening Star 30/3/1882

“On Tuesday afternoon the borough coroner (Mr. A. A. Fletcher) held an inquest at the PARKFIELD TAVERN, Walsall, upon the body of Hannah Mutt (56), whose death has been reported in the Star.

A verdict of Natural Causes was returned.”

Evening Star 24/5/1882

“On Tuesday an inquest was held at the PARKFIELD TAVERN, Walsall, upon the body of Margaret Burgin (64), widow, late of 50, Pleck Road, Walsall, who died suddenly at about two o’clock in the morning of Monday last. From the evidence it appeared that the deceased had been suffering from rheumatism, and up to about a month ago was attended by Dr. Willmore’s assistant. For the last few days she had been confined to her bed, and died on Monday morning. A verdict of Death from Natural Causes was returned.”

Walsall Advertiser 8/3/1890

“On Monday evening at the GEORGE HOTEL, Mr. H. C. Powell, of the firm of Watkins & Powell, sold 11 lots of property.

Lot 1 was the free beerhouse known as the PARKFIELD TAVERN, Pleck Road, Walsall, occupied by Mrs. Boden, at a rental of £35. The property is leasehold for a term of 99 years from 25th March, 1857, and is subject to an annual ground rent of £5. The first bid was £500, which was eventually raised to £1,150.....”

1891 Census

26, Pleck Road – PARKFIELD TAVERN

- [1] Henry Kirby (30), publican, born Walsall;
- [2] Phoebe Kirby (30), wife, born Walsall;
- [3] Lilly Kirby (3), daughter, born Walsall;
- [4] Alice Malcolm (18), domestic servant, born Walsall:

Henry Kirby, beer retailer, 26, Pleck Road. [1896], [1904], [1912]

Walsall Advertiser 5/9/1896

“The Borough Coroner (Mr. T. Howard Stanley) held an inquest on Tuesday afternoon at the ENGINE INN, relative to the death of Frederick Rammell (37), key filer, of 21, Wolverhampton Road, who died suddenly on Sunday evening. The evidence was to the effect that deceased went to the PARKFIELD TAVERN, Pleck Road, shortly before seven o’clock on Sunday evening. He had a pint of ale there and was afterwards taken ill. He appeared to be in a fit, and efforts were made to bring him round by the landlord, Harry Kirby, and others. As deceased did not recover he was taken into the yard, but was by that time dead. Dr. Hubbard was sent for and he saw deceased, and it was the doctor’s opinion, judging from the appearance of the body, that death was due to the rupture of a vessel in the brain.

The jury returned a verdict of Death from Natural Causes.”

Walsall Observer 23/6/1900

“The monthly meeting of the Walsall and District Licensed Victuallers’ and Beer Retailers’ Friendly and Protection Society was held on Thursday last, at the house of Mr. Henry Kirby, PARKFIELD TAVERN, Pleck Road, Walsall.....”

1901 Census

26, Pleck Road

- [1] Henry Kirby (40), beerhouse keeper, born Walsall;
- [2] Phoebe J. Kirby (40), wife, born Walsall;
- [3] Lily Kirby (13), daughter, born Cirencester, Gloucestershire;
- [4] Hilda Whitehouse (6), niece, born Heath Town;
- [5] Lizzie O'Neal (21), domestic servant, born Brierley Hill:

Walsall Advertiser 16/11/1901

“On Saturday evening there was a large gathering of employees of the firm of John Russell and Co., Alma Tube Works, at the PARKFIELD TAVERN Pleck Road, when a wedding present of a handsome oak sideboard was made to Mr. H. H. Murray (the foreman of the Lapweld Department). Mr. Joshua Richards and Mr. J. Spencer spoke of Mr. Murray's long connection with the firm, and the high esteem in which he was held by all. Mr. Murray suitably replied. A long programme of music was gone through afterwards, to the evident enjoyment of all present.”

Henry Kirby was a committee member of Walsall and District Licensed Victuallers' Association. [1902]

Walsall Advertiser 15/3/1902

“An interesting event took place on Saturday last at the PARKFIELD TAVERN, Pleck Road, where a large number of workmen employed at the Cyclops Ironworks met for the purpose of presenting Mr. A. Gretton a token of respect and esteem in which he was held, on the occasion of his marriage. Previous to the presentation those present sat down to a splendid repast provided in fine style by Mr. and Mrs. Kirby, to which full justice was done. Mr. H. Wilkes was voted to the chair, and in very eloquent terms explained the object of the gathering, which he was pleased to note had had such satisfactory results. He detailed at some length the connection of Mr. Gretton with those present, and in asking Mr. R. Edwards, manager of the works to make the presentation, wished Mr. and Mrs. Gretton long life and prosperity. Mr. Edwards, in making the presentation, said it afforded him much pleasure, as he knew what had been subscribed had been given to show the esteem in which Mr. Gretton was held, and so successful had been the result that he was proud to ask Mr. Gretton to accept a magnificent sideboard which bore the following inscription: ‘Presented to Mr. A. Gretton by the officials and workmen of the Cyclops Ironworks on the occasion of his marriage.’ As a further token of the esteem in which he was held he asked his acceptance of a set of vases and a parcel of cutlery for his good wife, and hoped they would both long be spared to enjoy the blessings which he hoped would be showered upon them. Mr. A. Gretton in response, said it was the happiest day he had ever spent when he realised that they had honoured him by such a practical appreciation of their esteem, and he heartily thanked all on behalf of his wife and himself for their kind consideration. He should ever look upon those gifts as the most valued treasures he possessed. A vote of thanks was accorded to Mr. R. Edwards for making the presentation, and an enjoyable evening was brought to a close with the singing of Auld Lang Syne.”

A team from here took part in the Walsall and District Air-Gun League. [1903/4]

Walsall Advertiser 5/5/1906 - Advert

“Important Sale By Auction of Valuable Beerhouse, The PARKFIELD TAVERN, Pleck Road, and Two Blocks of Houses, in Queen Street, Walsall.

Walter Hughes F.A.I. is instructed to offer for Sale by Auction at his Property Mart, The Bridge, Walsall, on Tuesday, the 29th May, 1906, at Seven pm, By Order of the Executors of the late Julie Marshall.

Lot 1. The valuable Free Home-Brewing Public House, known as the PARKFIELD TAVERN, now and for many years in the occupation of Mr. Henry Kirby, and held by him under a quarterly tenancy at the very low rental of £70 a year.

Leasehold for 99 years from 25th March, 1857, at an apportioned ground rent of £5 5s 10d.

Possession, 29th September next.....”

Walsall Advertiser 11/2/1911

“The monthly meeting of the Walsall and District Licensed Victuallers' and Beer Retailers' Friendly and Protection Society was held on Thursday last at the house of Mr. Henry Kirby, PARKFIELD TAVERN, Pleck Road, Walsall.....”

1911 Census

26, Pleck Road

- [1] Henry Kirby (50), born Walsall;
- [2] Phoebe Jane Kirby (50), wife, married 25 years, license holder, born Walsall;
- [3] Lucy Selby (23), niece, born Cirencester, Gloucestershire;
- [4] May Flynn (16), niece, drapery assistant, born Walsall:

Walsall Observer 12/9/1914

“The monthly meeting of the Walsall and District Licensed Victuallers' and Beer Retailers' Friendly and Protection Society was held on Thursday last....

It was decided to hold the next Monthly Meeting of the Executive Committee at the house of Mr. Henry Kirby, PARKFIELD TAVERN, Pleck Road, on Thursday, 8th October.”

Walsall Observer 21/11/1914

“The following is a list of box collections to date made on behalf of the Prince of Wales' National Relief Fund (Walsall Branch).....

PARKFIELD TAVERN, Pleck Road, Walsall, 19s 9d.”

Walsall Observer 12/1/1918

“Walsall and District War Aid Committee. Collection By The Licensed Victuallers, December, 1917.....

PARKFIELD TAVERN, Pleck Road. £1 4s 3½d.”

Staffordshire Advertiser 18/8/1934

“The Licensing Justices, sitting as the Compensation Authority, confirmed the decision of the Licensing Committee, and scheduled the licenses of the PARKFIELD TAVERN, Pleck Road, and the VINE INN, Blue Lane West, for compensation. The renewals of the licenses were opposed by the police on the grounds of redundancy.”

It closed after compensation of £2,400 was paid in 1934.

PAUL PRY

14, Church Street / Peel Street / New Street, WALSALL

OWNERS

John Westwood, spring hook maker, Oxford Street

Highgate (Walsall) Brewery Co. Ltd. [1910]

LICENSEES

Elizabeth Read [1834] – [1835]

Thomas Brown [1841] – [1842]

James Dixon [1845] – [1850]

William Oakley [1851]

Thomas Bates [1858] – [1881];

Charles Jones [] – 1887);

David Read (1887 – 1900);

Walter Bertram Denham (1900 – [1901];

Ada May Ford [] – 1902);

William Horton (1902 – 1906);

James Scott (1906 – 1908);

Francis George Barnfield (1908 – 1909);

William Joseph Owen (1909 – 1912);

Robert Ratcliffe (1912 – 1915);

George Whitbrook (1915 – 1923);

Frank Trawford (1923 – 1925);

James Harris (1925 – 1926);

NOTES

Staffordshire Advertiser 24/12/1841 - Advert

“PAUL PRY, Walsall.

To Be Let, and the Stock and Fixtures to be taken to at a fair valuation, (coming in will not exceed £250).

The excellent and well-accustomed Public House and Liquor Shop, situated in Church Street, Walsall, now in full business, and may be entered upon immediately. It has been successfully carried on by the present proprietor and his family for upwards of twenty years, and is now being disposed of in consequence of the proprietor retiring from the public business.

For particulars apply to John Wood, Auctioneer and General Agent, Darlington Street, Wolverhampton; or on the premises.”

London Gazette 26/4/1850

“Notice is hereby given, that the County Court of Lancashire, at Liverpool, acting in the matter of this Petition, will proceed to make a Final Order thereon, at the said Court, on the 6th day of May next, at ten o'clock in the forenoon precisely, unless cause be then and there shewn to the contrary.

In the Matter of the Petition of James Dixon, formerly of High Street, Walsall, Staffordshire, Licensed Victualler, Wine and Spirit Merchant, and Cattle Dealer, then of the same place, Licensed Victualler, Wine and Spirit Merchant, Cattle Dealer, Toll Collector, and Butcher, then of Upper Rushall-street, Walsall aforesaid, Butcher, Cow keeper, and Toll Collector, afterwards of the PAUL PRY, Church-street, Walsall aforesaid, Licensed Victualler, Retailer of Wines and Spirits, Cowkeeper, Milkman, Cattle Dealer, and Collector and Contractor of Tolls, then of Upper Rushall-street aforesaid, Pork Butcher, Provision Dealer, Cowkeeper, Milkman, Cattle Dealer, and Collector and Contractor of Tolls, then of the same place, Pork Butcher, Provision Dealer, Cattle Dealer, and Collector and Contractor of Tolls, and now of the same place, out of business.

Notice is hereby given, that the County Court of Staffordshire, at Walsall, acting in the matter of this Petition, will proceed to make a Final Order thereon, at the said Court, on the 10th day of May next, at twelve of the clock at noon precisely, unless cause be then and there shewn to the contrary.”

1851 Census

Church Street

[1] William Oakley (45), victualler, born Wyrley, Staffordshire;

[2] Mary Oakley (54), wife, born Bentley:

Walsall Free Press 4/9/1858

“Brewster Sessions..... applications for renewal of old licenses, and the granting of new ones.....

In the following cases the applications were suspended for further consideration.....

On the application of the Chief-constable, Thomas Bates, of the PAUL PRY, New Street; Sarah Craddock, of the GEORGE AND DRAGON, Wolverhampton Lane, and William Earp, of the LEATHERN BOTTLE, were added to the list of suspended applications.”

1861 Census

14, Church Street

[1] Thomas Bates (54), publican, born Shenstone, Staffordshire;

[2] Eliza Bates (50), wife, born Burntwood, Staffordshire;

[3] William Bates (27), son, brewer, born Lichfield;

[4] Henry Bates (17), son, plater, born Lichfield;

[5] Arthur Bates (15), son, scholar, born Lichfield:

Walsall Free Press 5/5/1866 - Advert

“For Sale, a new first-class Engine, Boiler, Shafting, Pulleys, &c, &c.

Apply, next door to the PAUL PRY, New Street, Walsall.”

Bells Life in London and Sporting Chronicle 1/2/1868

“Slater of Walsall will run Sergeant of the same place 100 yards, with three yards start, for £5 a side. Money ready at Bates’s, PAUL PRY, Walsall.”

1871 Census

14, Church Street

[1] Thomas Bates (64), publican, born Sandon, Staffordshire;

[2] Eliza Bates (56), wife, born Ingestrie [Ingestre], Staffordshire;

[3] Arthur Bates (25), son, gas fitter, born Lichfield;

[4] Ann M. Bates (13), niece, scholar, born Whittington, Staffordshire;

[5] Eliza A. Bates (5), boarder, scholar, born Brittlehampton, Worcestershire:

Walsall Free Press 9/9/1871

“John Scully was charged with having, on the 24th of June last, assaulted Mr. Thomas Bates, landlord of the PAUL PRY public-house, Church Street. The prisoner and another man named Millony – who was sentenced to one months’ imprisonment for assaulting complainant – came to the PAUL PRY in company with two women, and the latter having commenced to quarrel complainant ejected them, and on his doing so Millony and prisoner struck him and kicked him, and so injured him that he was compelled to keep to his bed for some time, and was attended by Mr. John Burton, surgeon. The Bench sentenced the prisoner to pay a fine of 40 and costs; or, in default, to be imprisoned for one month with hard labour. In this case Mr. Bill appeared for the prosecution.”

Staffordshire Advertiser 1/7/1876

“On Thursday, at the PAUL PRY INN, Church Hill, Mr. Fletcher, coroner, concluded an inquiry into the circumstances connected with the death of Patrick Murty, one of the two men who were killed at the Forest Colliery last week. The evidence, and also a statement made by Mr. J. P. Baker, Government Inspector, who was present, showed that the fall of coal which killed the men was due to a fault which could not have been discovered by the workmen. A verdict of Accidental Death was returned. Mr. Hemmings, the manager of the colliery, represented the proprietor Mr. T. Checkley.”

1881 Census

14, Church Street – PAUL PRY

[1] Thomas Bates (74), publican, born Hixon, Staffordshire;

- [2] Eliza Bates (69), wife, born Ingestry [Ingestre], Staffordshire;
[3] Lucy Wooton (17), domestic servant, born Bloxwich:

Blackcountryman (Spring 1971)

'Old Walsall Pubs' by Alan Brockhurst

“The first time I was conscious of pubs as such was when I was taken as a very small toddler, to visit a relative who had fallen on hard times and kept the PAUL PRY in Peel Street. This was a dreadful pub in what was probably Walsall’s slummiest area, where the blankets on the lodging-house back yard washing lines bore such legends as “Stolen from Mary O’ Bryan’s”. The women brought all sorts of containers for their men’s Sunday beer and I remember asking my mother: “Why does that lady fetch the beer in a tea-pot?””

David Read = David Reay

Birmingham Daily Post 27/11/1890

“At the Guildhall, a special session – the first under the new local Act – was held for the purpose of hearing applications for music, singing, and dancing licenses Mr. Jackson applied on behalf of David Reay, the PAUL PRY, Church Street. Refused.”

1891 Census

14, Church Street – PAUL PRY INN

- [1] David Read (41), licensed victualler, born Wednesbury;
[2] Emily Read (41), wife, born Wales;
[3] Elizabeth Read (20), daughter, barmaid, born Wednesbury;
[4] Gertrude Read (18), daughter, barmaid, born Wednesbury;
[5] David Read (14), son, harness maker’s apprentice, born Wednesbury;
[6] Albert Read (12), son, scholar, born Wednesbury;
[7] Florence Read (9), daughter, scholar, born Wednesbury;
[8] Pamela Read (7), daughter, scholar, born Wednesbury;
[9] William Read (4), son, born Wednesbury:

David Read – see also LYNDON HOUSE.

1901 Census

14, Church Street

- [1] Walter B. Denham (31), saddle manufacturer and beer retailer, born Walsall;
[2] Annie K. Denham (29), wife, pub, born Walsall;
[3] Edwin B. Denham (0), son, born Walsall;
[4] Annie Burrowes (19), general domestic servant, born Wednesbury:

Walsall Advertiser 28/3/1903

“Frank Horton (11), of the PAUL PRY INN, Church Street, Arthur Bolton (11), 7-court, Dudley Street, and William Taylor (8), 29, Dudley Street, were brought up on a charge of sealing seven pigeons, worth 5s 3s, belonging to William Tipper, hairdresser, of 15, Peal Street, on 21st March.

Complainant identified the bird produced as his property. He last saw them safe with a number of others in his pen. On Sunday he discovered that the pen-door had been forced and the pigeons stolen. To reach this the thieves would have to climb a high wall. Detective Burrell said that he saw Horton and Bolton offering a pigeon for sale at Mr. Everiss’s shop in Stafford Street. He asked them where they had obtained it, and they said they had found it in Dudley Street. He made enquiries, and in consequence arrested Horton at Bath Street Schools.

The Chief Constable stated the Bolton had been to truant school.

Taylor was discharged, and the other prisoners were sentenced to receive six strokes with the birch rod.”

Walsall Advertiser 5/2/1910

“The annual Brewster Sessions for the borough of Walsall were opened at the Guildhall, on Wednesday.....

Notice of objection (compensation clause or otherwise) had been served in respect to the following houses.....

William Joseph Owen, PAUL PRY, Church Street....

The owners, the Highgate (Walsall) Brewery Company, and the licensee, W. J. Owen, were represented by Mr. Hodgkinson.

Inspector Ballance said that the population in the vicinity was rapidly decreasing, and there were four other licensed houses close to the PAUL PRY.

Answering Mr. Hodgkinson, Inspector Ballance said the house was in good condition, and well conducted. Proceeding Mr. Hodgkinson said that the house was licensed before 1872, and it was being surrounded by a dense population.

Mr. J. A. Fletcher (director of the Brewery Company), said the average takings were about £12 per week. They sold about 261½ barrels of draught ale alone in a year, but there was very little spirits sold, about £1 worth per week. They were not giving double measure at the house, but they were giving a good measure. They were surrounded by home-brewing houses, and they were obliged to give more than they liked. They had spent £120 in putting the house in a thorough state of repair.”

Walsall Advertiser 14/5/1910

“The Licensing Act, 1904.

Notice of Principal Meeting. County Borough of Walsall.

Notice is Hereby Given, that the Principal Meeting to be held pursuant to the Licensing Rules, 1904, by the Compensation Authority for the above area, will be held at the Guildhall, Walsall, on Tuesday, the 7th day of June, 1910, at 11 o'clock in the forenoon.....

List of Licensed Premises.....

PAUL PRY, Church Street. Alehouse. Licensee William Joseph Owen.”

Walsall Advertiser 11/6/1910

“A meeting of the Licensing Justices was held on Tuesday morning.....

Mr. R. J. Lawrence applied for the renewal of the license of the Walsall Brewery Company's house, PAUL PRY, Church Street. In this case he said the question was one of differentiation. There were three other houses close to, the BLUE PIG, the DUKE OF YORK and the WHITE SWAN, and the PAUL PRY compared very favourably with the other houses.

Henry Farmer, architect (of Messrs. Hickton and Farmer), said he had examined the premises. It was a fully licensed house, and the three rooms used for drinking purposes were good ones. The house was in good order, and it was the best house of the four in structure, size, and rateable value. The whole of the four houses were within a radius of 130 yards.

Mr. W. J. Fletcher, manager of the Walsall Brewery Co., said the takings for last year were £593 10s. The trade was on the upgrade. They gave extra measure, but did not give the ‘long pull’ as was given in some cases.

Henry Joseph Owen, licensee and manager, spoke to the increase in trade, and the house being well conducted.

The decision will be announced later.”

1911 Census

14, Church Street – PAUL PRY

[1] William Joseph Owen (37), licensed victualler, born Willenhall;

[2] Ellen Owen (38), wife, married 6 years, assisting in business, born Aston, Warwickshire;

[3] Marrison Owen (2), daughter, born Walsall;

[4] William Bernard Joseph Owen (1), son, born Walsall;

[5] Francis Louisa Starky (15), general servant, born Willenhall:

Walsall Advertiser 8/7/1911

“Geo. Houghton (32), of no occupation, 32, Dudley Street, was charged with breaking a plate-glass window, the property of William Owen, the landlord of the PAUL PRY, Church Street, thereby doing damage amounting to £2, on Saturday.

Prosecutor stated that at 6.30pm on the date named prisoner entered the bar and asked for some beer but as he was drunk he refused to serve him. Prisoner then went outside and smashed a window with his crutch.

Prisoner who pleaded guilty, said it was the first time he had ever done such a thing in his life.

The Chief Constable said the prisoner had been for some time in the town with a card in front of him saying he was a miner and had been injured. He had been begging and depended on charity.

Prisoner, who said he was a native of Nottingham, offered to pay the damage at so much a week.

The Chairman said it was serious offence and prisoner would have to go to gaol for a month.

Before being removed to the cells prisoner asked what would become of his wife and two children was informed that the police would see to them.”

Walsall Advertiser 24/10/1914

“Thomas Smith (40), labourer, of 18, Watery Lane, was charged with obstructing the footway in New Street by standing thereon, on October 12th; also with having been quarrelsome and disorderly on the licensed premises, the PAUL PRY, in Church Street, with having assaulted the landlord, Robert Ratcliffe, and with having wilfully damaged two plate glass windows, to the extent of £5, the property of Robert Ratcliffe.

Mr. Ratcliffe said he ordered the defendant out on account of his quarrelsome conduct, and the defendant then assaulted him, bruising his arm and leg.

Smith: Did you strike me first? – Prosecutor: No.

Did you strike me afterwards? – Yes; I have to look after myself.

Defendant: I should not have interfered with him if he had not interfered with me. He started kicking me like a horse, and now has charged me with beating him! I would have beaten him could I have got at him.

Asked if he were guilty or not guilty of the charge of doing wilful damage, defendant said ‘Yes. He would not come out. He was like the Germans, so I tried to shell him out.’ (laughter).

The Chief Constable said there were seventy previous convictions against defendant, chiefly for drunkenness, assault, and bad language. At Glamorgan in January this year he was sentenced to three months’, and in 1913 had two months for assaulting the police. On another occasion he received a heavy sentence for assault on the police, and had been convicted of aggravated assault and theft.

The Bench sentenced Smith to four months’ hard labour in all.”

Walsall Observer 12/1/1918

“Walsall and District War Aid Committee. Collection By The Licensed Victuallers, December, 1917.....

PAUL PRY, Church Street. £1 1s 9½d.”

Walsall Observer 10/5/1924

“Sitting at Walsall Guildhall on Wednesday, Messrs. A. Jagger, H. Hands, A. Brockhurst, and S. Sanders were occupied for a considerable time with a case in which Frank Trawford, licensee of the PAUL PRY public house, Church Street, was summoned for permitting drunkenness on his licensed premises on April 17th. Mr. C. L. Hodgkinson appeared for defendant, who pleaded not guilty.

Police-sergeant Baker gave evidence that at 9.10pm on Thursday, April 17th, he and Police-constable Jones visited the PAUL PRY. On entering the front bar they saw a man named Morris sitting with his back to the counter, on which he had a pint glass, half filled with ale. Morris was drunk, and witness asked defendant: ‘How long has this man been here?’ Defendant replied, ‘Oh, about two hours,’ and witness called his attention to Morris’s condition, and told him he had better not serve the man with any more beer. Defendant, however, did not ask Morris to leave and made no attempt to remove him, and as he was ‘properly drunk’ and incapable of taking care of himself, witness took him to the police station. Afterwards he returned to the PAUL PRY, and saw defendant, who said, ‘I have not served this man, but my wife has, and I don’t think he was drunk.’

In cross-examination by Mr. Hodgkinson, witness admitted that when he first saw Morris he did not say anything to the landlord, but went to the back of the premises. As he was returning to the front bar, he heard Morris making ‘nasty remarks’ about the police, saying, ‘There are the men we have to find money for, to go into public houses.’

Mr. Hodgkinson: If he had not made this unfortunate remark about the police, you would not have realised that anything was wrong?

Witness: Oh, yes. I intended to report it, but I should not have locked him up, but for his nasty remarks. Morris, he added, had a difficulty in standing on his legs, and would have fallen down the steps outside if witness had not held him.

How did you judge the man was drunk?

He did not want any judging. You could see it perfectly well. In fact, he was drunk in the afternoon, at twenty minutes to five, when I saw him in Park Street.

Why didn’t you interfere then?

Because I had no authority. He was simply drunk, not helpless, and not interfering with anyone.

Police-constable Jones, giving corroborative evidence, said Morris could not walk straight, and looked drunk and drowsy.

Further evidence that Morris was drunk when he arrived at the police station was given by Police-constable Marston and Chief Inspector Cooke.

Defendant, in the witness box, denied that Morris was drunk. The man entered the house between 7 and 7.30 on the night in question, being then quite sober, and all he was served with amounted to three pints of ale. At 8.45, Police-sergeant Jones and a constable entered and inspected the premises. Morris was in the bar then, and they saw nothing wrong. When Sergeant Baker called twenty-five minutes later he said nothing until after Morris had passed the remark already mentioned, and then he said, ‘Landlord, if I were in your place, I would not fill this man any more beer.’ Witness replied, ‘Right you are, sir’, while Morris stood up, and said, ‘Sergeant, if I have done anything wrong I will drink up my beer and go.’ Morris thereupon drained his glass, and the sergeant remarked to witness ‘Do you know this man was drunk in Park Street at three o’clock?’ Witness answered, ‘That’s nothing to do with me; he’s not drunk now,’ and Morris also declared that he was sober. He then left, followed by the police officers and went down five steep steps without any assistance.

Questioned by Mr. Hodgkinson, witness added that Morris was a peculiar man, being talkative, and having a loud voice.

Charles Welton, miner, 2, Hollyheadge Lane, who was in the PAUL PRY on the night in question, said Morris was not drunk, although ‘he had a tongue that ran away with him.’

Asked by the Chief Constable what he himself had had to drink, witness said he did not know.

The Chief: You don’t keep count?

Witness: No, sir, never. Further pressed, he said he had six or seven half pints. ‘I never drink a pint at a time,’ he added.

William Henry Moore, 1, New Street, another customer at the PAUL PRY, also gave evidence that Morris was sober.

Addressing the magistrates, Mr. Hodgkinson pointed out that for the landlord and his wife it was a serious case, on which their livelihood depended. He emphasised that when Sergeant Jones and a constable called at the house they saw nothing wrong, and asked how the landlord could be expected to see what two police officers could not see. Regarding Sergeant Baker’s evidence, he suggested that the only conclusion the Bench could draw was that he at first intended that the licensee should get rid of the man, after which nothing would have been heard of the matter. Overhearing Morris’s reflections on the police, however, he was ‘drawn into thinking the man was drunk.’

After a private consultation, the Bench decided on a conviction, and fined Trawford £5.

Mr. Hodgkinson thereupon asked the Bench to intimate that, if the police did not object, there would be no objection to defendant continuing to hold the license.

The Clerk: It is a rather delicate thing to request the magistrates. It is a matter for the discretion of the Chief Constable entirely.

The Chief Constable: Yes; I think it will make him doubly careful in future.

Pleading not guilty, John Morris (54), labourer, 1, New Street, was afterwards tried on the charge of being drunk on licensed premises, and after Sergeant Baker and Police-constable Jones had repeated their evidence, the Bench imposed a fine of 5s.”

Staffordshire Advertiser 19/6/1926

“The Licensing Justices on Wednesday refused to renew the licenses of the PAUL PRY, Church Street and scheduled the houses for compensation.....

With regard to the PAUL PRY, Mr. C. L. Hodgkinson urged that the increase in trade justified its existence.”

The license renewal was referred to the Compensation Authority in 1926.
It closed on 30th October 1926.

PEACOCK

17a, (18), (17), (15), Lower Rushall Street, WALSALL

OWNERS

John Storer Beveridge, The Mill, Milna___, Kinross
George Worrell
Thomas Smith, corn dealer, Lower Rushall Street, Walsall
William Butler and Co. Ltd.

LICENSEES

Thomas Whittaker [1862]
Thomas Vass [1864] – [1865]
Charles Ingram [1867] – 1869);
George Ingram (1869 – [1870]
Thomas Brough [1871]
Thomas Smith [1872] – [1880];
George Worrell [];
William Price [1883];
John Lockley [];
John Parkes [];
James Dickens [1886] – 1890);
Robert Drury (1890 – 1893);
Edgar Evans (1893 – 1898);
William Henry Lowe (1898 – 1900);
George Harry Share (1900);
Thomas Pedley (1900 – 1902);
Isaac Genders (1902 – 1925); manager
William Turley (1925 – 1929);
John Rogers (1929 – 1939);
Harry Harvey (1939);

NOTES

15, Lower Rushall Street
17, Lower Rushall Street [1868], [1870], [1871], [1892], [1896], [1904]
18, Lower Rushall Street [1891], [1901], [1908]
17a, Lower Rushall Street [1911], [1912], [1916], [1921], [1932]

Walsall Free Press 21/12/1867

“George Ingram, landlord of the PEACOCK public house, was charged with having, on Sunday last, had his house open for the sale of drink during prohibited hours, namely between nine and twelve o’clock.
Martin Finneron and John Hoy, who had been convicted on Monday last for being drunk and disorderly on the day in question, proved that they procured the drink from the defendant’s house.
Mr. Glover, who appeared for the defendant, called Charles Glover, case-harness maker, who said, before nine o’clock on Sunday morning, he saw the two last witnesses in the street. They were both drunk and disorderly. About twelve o’clock, or soon after, he saw them fighting in Lower Rushall Street.
Mary Gately, servant to defendant, said she saw Hoy and Finneron in the entry leading to the house; but she did not see them in the house, and they could not have been in without her seeing them. They asked her to let them in, but she refused. No drink was filled that day before one o’clock.
Finneron was here re-called, and said it was the mistress who filled the ale to him.
Hoy was next re-called, and said Mr. Ingram let him in and filled one pint of ale, and Mrs. Ingram the other. He was in the house before Finneron went in. He saw the servant girl, Mary Gately, cleaning up the house when he went in.
The Bench considered the case proved, and sentenced the defendant to pay a fine of 10s and costs.”

1871 Census

17, Lower Rushall Street

[1] Thomas Brough (43), contactor and victualler, born Gnosnell, Staffordshire;

[2] Sarah Brough (45), wife, born Walsall;

[3] Ann Morgan (20), servant, born Cannock Chase, Staffordshire:

Walsall Free Press 29/11/1873

“Mary Williams, for having been drunk and disorderly on Tuesday last, and having broken a pane of glass, valued 6d, the property of Ann Smith, landlady of the PEACOCK public house, Lower Rushall Street, was ordered to pay a fine of 5s and costs, in addition to 6d, the value of the glass, or in default to be imprisoned for 14 days.”

Staffordshire Advertiser 24/12/1875

“Thomas Smith, the PEACOCK, Lower Rushall Street, was summoned for having permitted drunkenness in his house on Sunday, the 19th inst, but the majority of the Bench thinking there was a doubt in the case it was dismissed, the police being at the same time commended for having brought it forward.”

Thomas Smith was also a corn dealer. [1880]

Evening Express 3/1/1881

“John Kelly, Bott Lane, who had been drunk and refused to quit the PEACOCK public house, Lower Rushall Street, on the 28th ult, when requested, and who failed to answer to the charge, was fined 40s and costs, or in default to be imprisoned for one month.”

Lichfield Mercury 9/11/1883

“At the Guildhall, on Wednesday, William Price, of the PEACOCK INN, Lower Rushall Street, was summoned for having had his house open during prohibited hours on Sunday last. Mr. C. A. Loxton defended.

The charge was proved by Acting-sergeant Mercer, whose evidence was to the effect that between eight o'clock and twelve he saw twenty-seven persons go to the side door of the defendant's house, and be supplied with liquor. The defence was that the defendant was not aware of what was going on.

A conviction for a similar offence in November having been put in against the defendant, he was fined £5 and costs. The Bench also giving him to understand that they considered it the worst case of the kind ever to come before them, and if he appeared again on a like charge his license would be endorsed.”

Birmingham Daily Post 25/12/1886

“At the Guildhall, yesterday, James Dickens, the PEACOCK INN, Lower Rushall Street, was charged with permitting drunkenness on his premises, on the night the 18th. Mr. J. N. Cotterell appeared for the defence, police-constables Skidmore and Cross proved the case, and stated that a man whom they found in the house was so drunk that he fell down whilst leaving the premises. This was denied by the defendant and his wife. The Bench imposed a fine of 40s and costs, Mr. Holden remarking that there had been very heavy perjury somewhere.”

James Dickens was fined £5 and costs, on 14th January 1887, for permitting drunkenness.

Walsall Advertiser 16/6/1888 - Advert

“Preliminary Advertisement.

Freehold Properties in Richmond Street, George Street, and Lower Rushall Street.

Messrs. Watkins & Powell are instructed to Sell by Auction, in July (by order of the Mortgagees).....

Lot 3. The Old-Licensed Public House, known as the PEACOCK INN, Lower Rushall Street, with the Three Houses adjoining, being Nos. 14, 15, and 16 Lower Rushall Street, and Cottages, Workshops, and a large piece of Land at the rear of the whole estimated to produce £76 18s per annum.....”

Walsall Advertiser 13/9/1890 - Advert

“PEACOCK INN, Lower Rushall Street.

Robert Drury, late Police Inspector.

Begs to inform his numerous friends that he has taken to the above house, which is undergoing alterations for the convenience of customers.

John Jamieson & Sons' Irish Whisky; And Roderick Dhu Scotch Whisky Supplied in either Cask or Bottle.

Ales, Wines, Spirits Guaranteed of the Best Quality.”

Lichfield Mercury 26/9/1890

“While three men were engaged in moving a large brake out of the PEACOCK HOTEL yard into Bell Street they were overpowered by the vehicle, which ran with considerable force across the street. The pole of the vehicle, which came into contact with the door of the house opposite, was broken off, and the door was smashed in. Two children who were sitting on the doorstep had a narrow escape, as had a man and woman who were passing at the time.”

1891 Census

18, Lower Rushall Street – PEACOCK INN

- [1] Robert Drury (61), victualler, born Loysweedon, Northamptonshire;
- [2] Alice Drury (36), wife, born Burghill, Herefordshire;
- [3] Frederick Drury (18), son, tailor, born Walsall;
- [4] Emily Drury (17), daughter, machinist, born Walsall;
- [5] Edith Drury (13), daughter, born Walsall;
- [6] John Drury (6), son, scholar, born Walsall;
- [7] Nellie Drury (3), daughter, born Walsall;
- [8] Edwin Drury (1), son, born Walsall;
- [9] Albert E. Fasey (17), boarder, tailor, born Kingswinford:

Walsall Advertiser 31/12/1892

“.....before the magistrates on Wednesday as a result of the Christmas festivities. George Careless, Church Street, and Mary Ann Connolly, Freers Yard, were charged with being drunk and disorderly outside the PEACOCK INN, Rushall Street, on Tuesday night. Careless had been convicted eleven times previously, and Connolly nineteen times, and Mr. Taylor (Chief-constable) said that the latter was one of the worst characters in the town. The man was fined 10s and costs or 14 days, and the woman 20s and costs or 21 days.”

Walsall Advertiser 24/6/1893 - Advert

“To Let, PEACOCK INN, Lower Rushall Street; Free Old-licensed House; immediate possession.
Apply, Watkins, Powell & Wood, Auctioneers, 28, Bridge Street, Walsall.”

Dudley Herald 15/1/1898 - Advert

“To Brewers, Licensed Victuallers, Capitalists & others.

Important Sale of Fully-licensed Properties in Walsall, Bilston, Moxley, and Tipton.

To be Sold by Auction by Messrs. Bill & Son, on Monday the 24th day of January, 1898 at the Grand Hotel, Birmingham, at Six for Seven o'clock in the evening.....

Lot 4. All that well-accustomed Freehold Fully-licensed Public House known as the PEACOCK INN, situate in Lower Russell Street, Walsall, now let to Mr. Edgar Evans, at the very inadequate rental of £30, together with Four Retail Shops adjoining, being numbered 14, 15, 16, and 17, in Russell Street, and producing together a gross annual rental of £48 2s, and also the large yard, with stabling and blacksmith's shop at the rear, producing a further rental of £11 per annum, the whole property thus producing a gross annua rental of £89 2s. There is sufficient land at the rear to build 15 to 20 houses thereon.”

Thomas Pedley was elected as a member of the Walsall and District Licensed Victuallers' and Beer Retailers' Friendly and Protection Society in November 1900.

1901 Census

18, Lower Rushall Steet – PEACOCK INN

- [1] Thomas Pedley (28), licensed victualler, born Staffordshire;
- [2] Mary J. Pedley (26), wife, born Staffordshire;
- [3] Alice M. Pedley (2), daughter, born Staffordshire:

A team from here took part in the Walsall and District Air-Gun League. [1903/4]

Walsall Advertiser 10/9/1910

“The pretty village of Alrewas was made the rendezvous of a party which went from the PEACOCK INN, Lower Rushall Street, on Sunday, for their annual outing. The journey was made by break, Alrewas being reached via Blake Street, Shenstone, and Lichfield. Arrangements had been made by Mr. Isaac Genders, manager of the PEACOCK, and an excellent dinner was served at the Crown, to which the party did full justice. At the conclusion of the repast several toasts were proposed, after which the party broke up and amused themselves in various ways until tea time. After tea the journey back was undertaken, and Walsall reached about 9.30, after a most enjoyable day.”

1911 Census

17a, Lower Rushall Street

- [1] Isaac Genders (47), manager of ale house, born Wolverhampton;
- [2] Emily Ann Genders (44), wife, married 26 years, born Wolverhampton;
- [3] Laura May Genders (19), daughter, general servant, born Walsall;
- [4] Jane Gertrude Genders (16), daughter, purse preparer, born Walsall;
- [5] Gladis Ida Genders (12), daughter, school, born Walsall;
- [6] Ethel Emily Genders (5), daughter, school, born Walsall:

Walsall Advertiser 9/11/1912

“A meeting with the object of forming a Walsall detachment of the National Reserve was held at the PEACOCK INN, Lower Rushall Street, on Thursday evening. Mr. Genders (host) presided over a good attendance and urged those present to become members and also get others to join.....”

Walsall Advertiser 28/12/1912

“John Hammerton (29), caster, 4, Penkridge Street, was charged with doing damage to a plate glass panel in the door of the PEACOCK INN, Lower Rushall Street, on Christmas Day. Isaac Genders, landlord of the PEACOCK INN, stated that on Christmas night, a few minutes to 10 o’clock, he was at the front door, when prisoner and several others came up. Prisoner entered the house, and asked for a bottle of stout. Witness would not serve him and asked him to leave, but he refused, and witness, with the help of several customers, ejected him. A minute later a window in the door was smashed, and witness saw prisoner’s fist come through, a piece of glass striking witness and cutting his cheek.

Kate Cockayne gave similar evidence and Police-constable Donlan spoke to arresting prisoner who made no reply to the charge. Prisoner now pleaded guilty, but said it was an accident. He was fined 5/- including costs and ordered to pay the damage.”

Walsall Observer 12/1/1918

“Walsall and District War Aid Committee. Collection By The Licensed Victuallers, December, 1917..... PEACOCK INN, Lower Rushall Street. £0 17s 6d.”

It closed at 2pm on 9th February 1939.

The license was transferred to the DILKE ARMS.

Walsall Observer 11/2/1939

“The annual licensing day, held at the GUILDHALL, on Thursday.....

In connection with the opening of the DILKE ARMS, a new house in Aldridge Road, the magistrates made a final order transferring thereto the full license of the PEACOCK, Lower Rushall Street, the license being taken over from John Rogers by Harry Harvey, who was also granted a music and singing license for the use of gramophone and wireless.”

Check HEN AND CHICKENS.

PEACOCK

Peal Street, WALSALL

OWNERS

LICENSEES

William Smith [1835] – [1845]

NOTES

William Smith, retailer of beer, Peal Street. [1835]

PHAETON

Lower Rushall Street, WALSALL

OWNERS

LICENSEES

Joseph Flewitt [] – 1833)

NOTES

Staffordshire Advertiser 14/9/1833 - Deaths

“On the 7th instant, after three days’ illness, of fever, Mr. Joseph Flewitt, of the PHAETON public house, Lower Rushall Street, Walsall, aged 42; on the same evening, Mary, his wife, also aged 42, leaving five orphans to lament their loss. It is a remarkable fact that this is the third case at Walsall, within twelve months, of a man and his wife dying on the same day. The two former cases occurred in September last, during the prevalence of cholera.”

PHEASANT

7, Windmill Street, WALSALL

OWNERS

Henry Moseley, Caldmore Road, Walsall
G. Whitehouse, 12, Mellish Road, Walsall
Nicholas Roper, Lichfield Street, Walsall
Lichfield Brewery Co. Ltd.
William Butler and Co. Ltd. [1918]
Ind Coope and Allsopp (leased from 12th January 1936)
Ansells Ltd. (acquired on 16th May 1960)

LICENSEES

Benjamin Stokes [1841] – [1845]
Mrs. Sarah Stokes [1849] – 1853);
Joseph Beebee (1853 – [1861]
William Burton [1862] – [1865]
Mrs. Julia Burton [1868] – [1881];
William Henry Burton [1885] – 1887);
Harry Glover (1887 – 1889);
Frank Barber (1889 – 1894);
Thomas William Taylor (1894 – 1900);
Stephen Dawson (1900 – 1901);
Samuel ‘Sam’ Holmes (1901 – 1906);
Thomas Smith Poppleton (1906 – 1907);
Mrs. Jessie Poppleton (1907 – 1908);
Edward Pynor (1908 – 1913);
Thomas Burdett Lowe (1913 – 1917);
Eliza Lowe (1917 – 1918);
Thomas Burdett Lowe (1918 – 1920);
Reginald Henry Hill (1920 – 1925);
Arthur Tinsley (1925 – 1927);
Mrs. Frances Ford (1927 – 1965):

NOTES

Tokens were issued from here.

1841 Census

Windmill Street

- [1] Benjamin Stokes (45), victualler and plater, born Staffordshire;
- [2] Sarah Stokes (40), born Staffordshire;
- [3] William Stokes (16), born Staffordshire;
- [4] Henry Stokes (13), born Staffordshire;
- [5] Juley Stokes (5), born Staffordshire:

1851 Census

Windmill Street

- [1] Sarah Stokes (50), victualler, born Walsall;

- [2] Mary Stokes (30), daughter, dressmaker, born Walsall;
- [3] William Stokes (24), son, journeyman miner, born Walsall;
- [4] Julie Stokes (15), daughter, at home, born Walsall;
- [5] Thomas Brook (9), grandson, scholar, born Walsall:

Wolverhampton Chronicle 5/1/1853

“On Wednesday, the license of the PHEASANT, in Wind Mill Street, was transferred from Sarah Stokes, widow, to Mr. Joseph Beebee.”

Joseph Beebee was also a harness maker. [1861]

1861 Census

7, Windmill Street – PHEASANT INN

- [1] Joseph Beebee (33), publican, and harness maker, born Walsall;
- [2] Elizabeth Beebee (31), wife, born Walsall;
- [3] Alice Beebee (7), daughter, scholar, born Walsall;
- [4] Joseph Beebee (4), son, scholar, born Walsall;
- [5] Ann Stokes (18), house servant, born Wyrley:

Birmingham Daily Post 29/12/1864 - Advert

“Valuable Freehold and Copyhold Properties, in the Borough and Foreign of Walsall, in the County of Stafford. To Be Sold By Auction by John Osbourn (by direction of the Trustees of the Will of the late Mr. Joseph Beebee, deceased).....
 Lot 6. All that Freehold Old-Licensed, well-built, and good accustomed Public-House, being No.7, known by the sign of the PHEASANT, containing good Tap Room, Parlour, Bar, back Kitchen, large Club Room, two Sleeping Rooms, two Cellars, Brewhouse, Malt Room, Pump, Cistern of Soft Water, with Piggeries, and other Out-buildings, large Yard, Marble and Skittle Alley thereto belonging, situate in Windmill Street, Windmill, in the Foreign of Walsall, and containing, including the site of the building 396 square yards or thereabouts, together with Right of Way and Passage for all purposes whatsoever, upon over and along the Entry belonging to Lot 7, which leads to Windmill Street to the back of the said Premises, and which said premises are now in the occupation of William Burton, at the yearly rent of £19.....”

Birmingham Daily Gazette 9/12/1867

“On Saturday afternoon Mr. A. A. Fletcher, Coroner for the borough, held an inquest at the PHEASANT INN, Windmill, on the body of Henry Clinton, aged 73, labourer, who on Thursday night went to bed in his usual health, and the next day, about eleven o'clock, was found dead in bed. The jury after hearing the evidence, returned a verdict of Death from Old Age and Infirmary.”

1871 Census

7, Windmill Street – PHEASANT INN

- [1] Julia Burton (55), widow, licensed victualler, born Walsall;
- [2] Zillahan Bates (24), daughter, married, born Walsall;
- [3] Edith N. Burton (18), daughter, dressmaker, born Walsall;
- [4] Ada B. Burton (16), daughter, pupil teacher, born Walsall;
- [5] Henry Bates (28), son in law, silver plater, born Walsall;
- [6] Thomas Bates (4), grandchild, born Walsall;
- [7] Edithe Bates (2), grandchild, born Walsall:

Walsall Free Press 1/11/1873

“Municipal Election.....

On Thursday evening two meetings, in favour of Mr. Grant's candidature, were held – one at the DOLPHIN, George Street, and one at the PHEASANT, Windmill Street. On arriving at the PHEASANT Mr. Grant and his friends found not only the club-room densely packed but the street in front of the house crowded.....”

1881 Census

7, Windmill Street

- [1] Julia Burton (62), widow, publican, born Walsall;
- [2] Charles Perry (45), son in law, agricultural labourer, born Gaily [Gailey?], Staffordshire;
- [3] Jane E. Perry (38), wife, born Walsall;
- [4] Edward Perry (16), son, clerk in iron warehouse, born Walsall;
- [5] Zillah Perry (14), daughter, born Walsall;
- [6] Julia Perry (12), daughter, scholar, born Walsall;
- [7] George H. Perry (9), son, scholar, born Walsall:

Walsall Observer 27/6/1885

“Grand Independent Order of Caledonian Corks. On Wednesday last the officers and members of lodge 488, held at Bro. Burton's the PHEASANT INN, Windmill Street, opened a new lodge at Bro. Whitehead's NEW INN, Wednesbury Road. A large number of members from the different lodges of the town were present, and assisted in the ceremony. Some new members were also initiated.....”

Frank Barber was fined 20s and costs, on 29th September 1889, for permitting drunkenness.

Birmingham Daily Post 10/4/1890

“At the Guildhall, yesterday, Henry Grosvenor, West Bromwich Road, was brought up on remand charged with having assaulted Police-sergeant Marshall and Police-constable Brough. The evidence was to the effect that the officers heard a smashing of glass at the UNION INN, Windmill, and on going towards the house they met the prisoner who furiously attacked them. They got Mr. Barber, of the PHEASANT INN, to put his horse in the trap and take Grosvenor to the police station, and when he arrived there he was so violent that he had to be strapped down on the ambulance stretcher.

The Bench imposed a sentence of fourteen days’ imprisonment, without hard labour.

‘All right, sir,’ said the prisoner, as he went below.”

1891 Census

7, Windmill Street – PHEASANT INN

[1] Frank Barber (35), publican, born Walsall;

[2] Ann M. Barber (28), wife, born Walsall;

[3] Emily Rushton (13), servant, born Walsall;

[4] Albert Kirk (36), boarder, born Walsall:

Staffordshire Advertiser 16/9/1893

“Yesterday Mr. Stanley, coroner, held an inquest at the PHEASANT INN, The Windmill, on the body of Elizabeth Murray, 37, warehousewoman, of the same locality, the wife of Hugh Murray. It seemed that on Saturday night the woman’s husband went home very drunk and demanded sixpence from his wife, who had gone to bed ill. In consequence of his behaviour she left the house, wearing only a skirt and a cloak, carrying her other garments under her arm, but returned about two o’clock. Then her husband became very wild and abused her, also continuing his abuse and ill-treatment throughout the following day. On Monday the woman died, and Dr. Lynch, who had for some time attended her for bronchitis and palpitation of the heart, refused a certificate. It transpired that the deceased earned 12s a week, and her daughter, aged 12, 3s per week. The husband and father, though able-bodied, had not worked for two years, and it was said that he was almost always drunk, the money being obtained from charitably-disposed people on the representation that his wife and children were starving. The couple had been separated eight times, and on one occasion the man was away for 15 months. Asked why he had deserted his family since his wife’s death, he said it was because the neighbours had drummed him out of the neighbourhood. Dr. Lynch said death had resulted from a combination of shock and pneumonia.

The jury expressed a wish to return a verdict of Manslaughter, but the Coroner advised them that the evidence would not legally sustain such a verdict, and in the end a verdict of Death from Natural Causes was returned, coupled with a strong censure of the husband.

The Coroner in conveying it, told him that he was morally responsible for the death of his wife.”

Walsall Advertiser 1/9/1894

“Thomas William Taylor, PHEASANT INN, Windmill Street, appeared for a music and singing license for Mondays and Tuesdays. The license was granted.”

Walsall Advertiser 2/2/1895

“On Friday evening week the annual dinner of the employés of Mr. W. Winstance, builder and contractor, was held at the PHEASANT INN, Windmill Street. The number that sat down (132 workmen and friends) did ample justice to the good things provided, and after the cloths were removed, and the usual loyal toasts observed, Mr. Winstance, in a few well-chosen words, proposed the health of ‘Those who had subscribed towards the dinner.’ In the course of his remarks Mr. Winstance reminded those present that this was their 21st annual dinner, and that the firm had therefore attained its majority. He complimented the men on the assiduity they had displayed in their work during the last twelve months, and read them a letter from a Walsall gentleman for whom they had done considerable work during the year. This gentleman, he was proud to say, had not been approached, or in any way asked to contribute towards the dinner, and yet he had sent a cheque for three guineas, and in his letter expressed himself that he had never seen a more punctual, or steadier lot of men than those who had worked so honestly and so well on his premises. Needless to say, that this toast was received in a most enthusiastic manner and drunk heartily with musical honours. During the evening, many capital songs were given and received in a most hearty manner, Mr. J. W. Lord ably officiating at the piano, and the proceedings closed with a hearty vote of thanks to the host and hostess (Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Taylor) for the splendid manner in which they had in every way catered for the comfort and enjoyment of the company assembled there that evening. The next day (Saturday) about 70 workmen assembled at midday to regale themselves upon the soup and cold meats left from the previous night. Again harmony was indulged in, and a comfortable and enjoyable afternoon spent by everyone present.”

Walsall Advertiser 16/10/1897

“The monthly meeting of the Walsall and District Licensed Victuallers’ and Beer Retailers’ Friendly and Protection Society was held on Thursday.....

New Members..... Mr. T. W. Taylor, PHEASANT INN, Windmill Street.”

Walsall Observer 10/3/1900

“The Loyal Caledonian Corks (lodge 488) held their annual super on Tuesday night, st Bro. T. W. Taylor’s PHEASANT INN, Windmill Street.....”

Walsall Advertiser 30/3/1901

“A meeting of the Walsall and District Licensed Victuallers’ and Beer Retailers’ Friendly and Protection Society was held on Thursday week.....

New Members..... Samuel Holmes, PHEASANT INN, Windmill Street.”

1901 Census

Windmill Street – The PHEASANT INN

- [1] Samuel Holmes (32), licensed victualler, born Walsall;
- [2] Ann Holmes (32), wife, born Wellington, Shropshire;
- [3] Sydney J. Holmes (10), son, born Walsall;
- [4] Samuel E. Holmes (8), son, born Walsall;
- [5] Horace H. Holmes (5), son, born Walsall:

Walsall Advertiser 3/10/1903

“On Thursday a most enjoyable evening was spent at the PHEASANT INN, Windmill Street, when over 80 sat down to a capital spread provided by the genial host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Holmes. Mr. W. Rushton was afterwards voted to the chair, with Mr. Stanton in the vice-chair. Some capital songs were rendered, and the singing of the some of the artistes evoked great applause. Before the meeting was brought to a close, the Chairman in very suitable terms, proposed, ‘The heath of the Host and Hostess,’ which was most enthusiastically received. Mr. Holmes suitably replied. Mr. Kendrick ably officiated as accompanist.”

Walsall Advertiser 27/2/1904

“On Monday afternoon last a football match for the benefit of William Hicken (who has been ill for a long time and unable to follow his employment) took place between teams representing the PRINCE OF WALES, Portland Street, and the PHEASANT INN, Windmill Street. The match was played at Weston Road, on the ground of L. and N.W. Football Club, who had kindly lent the field for the occasion and resulted in a win for the PHEASANT by 7 goals to 2. The versatile Sam Holmes officiated as referee. For the winners Edkins and the brothers Smith played well in their respective positions, and at the back Baker and Chapman were a tower of strength to their side, the latter in particular frustrating many promising attacks of the opponents. After the match both teams adjourned to the PHEASANT, where a most enjoyable evening was spent. It is expected that a substantial sum will be handed over as there was a good gate.”

Samuel Holmes – see also LAMP.

Walsall Advertiser 16/2/1907

“The monthly meeting of the Walsall and District Licensed Victuallers’ and Beer Retailers’ Friendly and Protection Society was held on Thursday last.....

New Members..... Mr. Thomas Poppleton, PHEASANT INN, Windmill Street.”

1911 Census

7, Windmill Street

- [1] Edward William Pynor (36), publican, born Wednesbury;
- [2] Matilda Pynor (26), wife, assisting in business, born Tipton;
- [3] Lottie Ingram (19), sister in law, assisting in business, born Tipton;
- [4] Louisa Maria Phillips (21), domestic servant, born Tipton;
- [5] Florence Maud Walters (13), visitor, born Walsall;
- [6] Beatrice Annie Pynor (6), daughter, born Walsall;
- [7] Freda Pynor (1), daughter, born Walsall:

Walsall Advertiser 22/11/1913

“The sixty-first annual general meeting of the Walsall and District Licensed Victuallers’ and Beer Retailers’ Friendly and Protection Society was held on Thursday of last week.....

New Members..... Thomas Lowe, PHEASANT INN, Windmill Street.”

Walsall Observer 23/1/1915 - Advert

“9 Strong Store Pigs for sale.

Apply, PHEASANT INN, Windmill Street.”

Staffordshire Advertiser 17/6/1916

“Thomas Lowe, licensee of the PHEASANT INN, Windmill Street, was charged with assaulting James Ryan, 2 Court, Birmingham Street on June 3. The complainant alleged that on the date named, he went into the defendant’s house and had half a pint of ale. He wanted to sing a song, and the landlord threw him out and punched him 'like a madman.' He fell on the pavement and became unconscious. Since then he had been under the doctor. The defence was that the man was told to go, but he did not do so and tried to 'cadge' drinks from customers. The landlord put him out of the house, and in the street Ryan took a running kick at him and he pushed him to one side defending himself. Ryan fell, and whatever injury he suffered was the result of the fall. The case was dismissed."

Walsall Observer 12/1/1918

"Walsall and District War Aid Committee. Collection By The Licensed Victuallers, December, 1917.....
PHEASANT INN, Windmill Street. £0 19s 0d."

Walsall Observer 19/10/1918 - Advert

"Wednesday and Thursday Next, 23rd and 24th, October, 1918.

Under instruction from Messrs. W. Butler & Co., Ltd., Springfield Brewery, Wolverhampton, Leonard C. Philpot will Sell by Auction the Brewing Plants and Utensils at the following Licensed House, viz.:

EAGLE INN, Lower Rushall Street, Walsall.

FOUNTAIN INN, Bott Lane, Walsall.

WALSALL ARMS, Bank Street, Walsall.

WISEMORE TAVERN, Wisemore, Walsall.

PHEASANT INN, Windmill Street, Walsall.

Comprising 11 Steel and Iron Boilers, various sizes from 100 to 250 gallons, 7 large Oak Mash Tuns, 6 Mash Rules, Malt, Shovels, Copper, Lead and Iron Piping, Brass and other taps, Wooden Platforms, 6 large Cooling Vats, 6 Copper Refrigerators (by Potterton and Keyte), 6 Troughs, 2 Copper Sparges, 2 Copper Attemperators, 6 Hop Backs, 50 casks (various sizes from 36 to 120 gallons), 8 Barm Tubs, 6 Large Fermenting Vats, 2 Underbacks, Rotary Pump and Piping, 2 Avery's Weighing Machines (4cwt and 3cwt), Pulley Rope, and Sundry Utensils.

Order Of Sale

Wednesday, October 23rd

EAGLE INN, 10.30 prompt.

FOUNTAIN INN, 12 prompt.

WALSALL ARMS, 1.30 prompt.

Thursday, October 24th

WISEMORE TAVERN, 10.30 prompt.

PHEASANT INN, 12 prompt.

On View, 9 o'clock, Morning of Sale. No catalogues.

Further particulars from the Auction and Valuation Offices, Midland Bank Chambers, The Bridge, Walsall."

Reginald Henry Hill – see also PRINCE OF WALES.

Walsall Observer 11/3/1939

"Asking for the renewal of the licenses of the VILLAGE INN, Windmill Street; and the WHITE LION, Portland Street, Mr. Frank Cooper stated that both houses were owned by Ansell's or one of their subsidiary companies and if the licenses were renewed he would give an undertaking that within the current licensing year a scheme would be submitted for dealing with the licenses by way of removal of one and the surrender of the other. If that undertaking were fulfilled, the justices would be able to merge two licenses into one, but if the undertaking were not carried out, no opposition would be raised to both licenses being on the 'object-ed' list next year.

The two licenses were renewed on this undertaking, as were the licenses of the PHEASANT, Windmill Street; and the FOUNTAIN, Bott Lane; subject to somewhat similar undertakings.

Mr. Cooper, for the owners attached considerable importance to the PHEASANT and if the VILLAGE went there could be no question about the PHEASANT being necessary. If the justices preferred it, however, the brewery company would deal with the PHEASANT and the FOUNTAIN in the same way as the VILLAGE and the WHITE LION, all being in the same ownership."

Walsall Observer 13/5/1939

"At the PHEASANT INN, Windmill Street, on Tuesday evening, Mr. W. Preston presented the members of the PHEASANT team the cup and gold medals won by them as champions of the Walsall and District Bagatelle League, and an extra medal, hung on a gold pin, to Mrs. Ford, the hostess, in recognition of her services to the team and the league. Mr. Hill, the Secretary of the League presided, and congratulated the team on winning sixteen of the twenty games played. The recipients of the medals were Messrs. A. Dawes, S. Bond, G. Aulton, W. Tiezise, S. Williams, A. Adams, and L. Smith. Mr. Preston was thanked by Councillor Kavanagh, and a vote of thanks accorded to Mrs. Ford for her hospitality, on the proposition of Mr. Aulton. Most of the teams in the League were represented and there are good prospects for the success of next season."

1939 Register

7, Windmill Street

[1] Frances Ford, date of birth 19/6/1892, licensed victualler, widowed;

[2] Albert E. Ford, dob 13/5/1918, assembler, aero work, single:

Walsall Observer 15/1/1944

“Walsall Licensed Victuallers’ Society.

Appeal on Behalf of the Merchant Navy Fund, The Duke of Gloucester’s Red Cross Fund and the Aid to China Fund. List of Subscriptions.....

PHEASANT INN, Windmill Street. £0 17s 6d.”

The license was referred to the Compensation Authority on 18th March 1965.

PIGEON

Bullocks Row, WALSALL

OWNERS

LICENSEES

Daniel Keyte [1856] – [1857]

Skyte [1864]

NOTES

[1851]

Staffordshire Advertiser 13/12/1856

“Charge Of Uttering Forged Bank of England Notes.

At the Guildhall a young man named Edwin Keyte, brother to Daniel Keyte, who keeps the PIGEON beerhouse in Bullock’s Row, was charged with the above offence. Mr. Joseph Archer, the landlord of the GREEN MAN, prosecutor, deposed that about half-past seven on the Saturday night a man, who is not in custody, went to his house and asked for five pipes, six papers of tobacco, and six quarts of ale. He said the ale was for the workmen of Mr. Murray, cabinet maker, Digbeth, and that it was foot-ale, or what is paid for by a man newly employed. In payment he presented a note, purporting to be a £5 Bank of England note. He left, taking the change, but the prosecutor feeling doubts as to the genuineness of the note, sent William Horton, locksmith, who was sitting in the kitchen, to follow the man and see where he took the ale to. Horton saw him pass up Dudley Street, where he was joined by the prisoner, to whom, on meeting a policeman, he handed the bottle. They proceeded at a rapid pace to the PIGEON, kept by the brother of the prisoner, when the latter put the bottle in the yard through some broken palings, and witness saw Daniel Keyte, the landlord, bring it from inside the yard into the house. Joseph Keyte, another brother saw the witness looking and nodded to Daniel, who then concealed the bottle. The witness stated that considerable effort was employed to prevent him seeing anything that occurred, and ultimately seven men, including the man who had fetched that ale and Daniel Keyte, left the house together, going along the Birmingham Road, the witness returning to inform Mr. Archer what he had observed.

Mr. Blackburn, cashier of the Walsall branch of the Birmingham Bank, proved that the note produced was a forgery, as well as two others which were in court. A forged note, bearing the same number as one of these, had recently been offered to him. The signature to £5 Bank of England notes was now lithographed, which, of course, rendered it more easy of imitation.

Mr. Cater, superintendent of police, applied for a remand for a week, which was granted, though opposed by Mr. Wilkinson on the part of the prisoner. Bail, however, in £20 each, two securities, was accepted.

Joseph Keyte, a younger brother of the prisoner, was then placed at the bar, on the charge of passing a forged note of a similar description to Mrs. Ellen Cooper, of Digbeth, butcher, on the same night.

Mr. Cater said he was prepared to complete this case; but Mr. Wilkinson, who said he was retained for the prisoner, said the latter had only been taken into custody that morning, and had had no time to prepare his defence.

The prisoner was remanded till Wednesday, remaining in custody meanwhile.”

AND

“Charge Of Uttering Forged Bank of England Note.

On Wednesday, before W. Thomas (Mayor), J. Shannon, W. Ward, and C. Greatrex, Esqrs., Joseph Keyte, remanded from Monday on this charge, was again brought up. Mrs. Ellen Cooper, butcher, of New Street, deposed that on Saturday night a man went to her shop and purchased some steak, tendering a £5 note, purporting to be a Bank of England note, in payment. After he left she discovered the note to be a forged one, and gave information to the police, which at once led them to conclude that the prisoner was the man. On being asked, however, if she could identify him, she looked at him, said he was very much like him, but thought the man was taller, and began to weep, saying she would not like to go against any man’s child. Her daughter was called, but she went further, and said she was pretty certain the prisoner was not the man, and accordingly Keyte was discharged.

The Mayor said the magistrates were unanimously of the opinion that the case had been tampered with.”

Staffordshire Sentinel 20/12/1856

“Edwin Keyte, a young man remanded from the previous Monday, on the charge of being concerned with passing a forged £5 Bank of England note to Mr. Joseph Archer, the GREEN MAN, Dudley Street, on the night of the 6th inst., surrendered to his bail on Monday last. The Superintendent of Police said that he had been unable to obtain any additional evidence to that given on the former occasion, and the Bench, not deeming that sufficiently conclusive, discharged the accused.”

Walsall Free Press 7/2/1857

“Town Council, Quarterly Meeting

The Clerk stated a letter had been received from Mr. Duignan, clerk to the Union representing the great increase of a certain degrading disease, and its natural consequence of poverty; mention the bad character of the BELL, in Church Street, and the PIGEON in the Ditch, and calling their attention to the suppression of these nuisances. Mr. Cater was called in, and explained the difficulty connected with the interference of these house, they, generally taking care to keep within the limits of the law.”

Birmingham Journal 22/4/1857

“At the Guildhall, on Monday last, before the Mayor, and W. Ward, J. Shannon, F. B. Oerton, and H. Highway, Esqs., a man named George Reynolds was charged with passing a counterfeit £5 Bank of England note at the ALMA TAVERN, Paddock Lane, on the 29th of last November. Mr. Blackburn having proved that the note was counterfeit, Agnes and Mary Ann Bird, and their father, the proprietor of the tavern, spoke to the uttering, and the two formers positively identified the prisoner. Police-sergeant Dackus stated he took the prisoner into custody on Thursday morning last in the PIGEON beer-house. Mr. Sill for the defence, denied the identity of Reynolds had been satisfactorily shown; adding, that at all events there was not the slightest proof of a guilty knowledge in the transaction on his part. The Bench, however, decided that a case had been made out for a jury, and the prisoner was remanded for a week, that the Bank authorities might be corresponded with on the subject of a prosecution. Sergeant Dackus, who took Reynolds so cleverly, has another case against him, which will be tried today (Wednesday.)”

Staffordshire Advertiser 25/4/1857

“In November last, a man named Keyte were charged with being concerned in passing a forged Bank of England note, but discharged, the evidence against him being insufficient. At about the same time a forged note was passed at the ALMA public-house, Paddock Lane, under a similar excuse, that of getting some ale for some workmen. The man who passed it gave his name as John Lloyd. The man could not be found at the time, but Sergeant Dackus having received information went on the previous Thursday to the PIGEON beerhouse, kept by Daniel Keyte, brother of the accused in the former case, and found the prisoner asleep in bed. The witness awoke him, told him he was a police-officer, and charged him with being concerned, some three or four months before, in passing forged notes in Walsall. The prisoner replied that the officer must be mistaken, and when at the police station he averred that he had not been in Walsall for eight months, and added, ‘You’ll have to find out the date when the notes were passed.’ Two of the daughters of the prosecutor positively identified the prisoner as the man who uttered the forged notes, as did a man named Morton, who wrote the name then given by the prisoner upon the back of the note.

Mr. Sill having cross-examined the several witnesses, addressed bench, and argued that, even supposing there was no mistake as to the identity of his client, no other spurious notes had been traced to his possession, and there was, therefore, no proof of uttering with a guilty knowledge.

The bench remanded the prisoner for a week, to enable the police to communicate with the authorities of the Bank of England.”

Staffordshire Advertiser 2/5/1857

“George Reynolds, remanded last week, on the charge of passing a forged Bank of England note for £5 to Mr. William Bond [sic], publican, in Paddock Lane, in payment for ale, was charged with passing another forged note of the same bank and same amount on the night of 6th December last, at the OLD GREEN MAN, George Street, kept by Mr. Archer. Some suspicions were entertained as to the truth of his story, and he was followed and seen, on meeting with Edward Keyte, brother of the landlord of the PIGEON beerhouse, to hand the ale to him. Keyte was afterwards apprehended on it being found that the note was bad, but was discharged for want of evidence. The present prisoner was apprehended at the PIGEON beerhouse, on the 16th April, as previously stated, after being missing from the neighbourhood since December. Several witnesses positively identified him as the man who passed the forged note, the note itself having been marked on being found to be bad shortly after its receipt. The prisoner was remanded for a week to await communication with the authorities of the Bank of England.”

[At the Staffordshire Summer Assizes - George Reynolds was sentenced to 10 years’ penal servitude.]

AND

“Edward Keyte was brought up by sergeant Dackus, on the charge of being concerned with George Reynolds in passing a forged Bank of England note at the GREEN MAN, on the 6th December last; but it appearing that there was no further evidence against the prisoner than that adduced in December, that he took the bottle of ale which Reynolds had given the note in payment for from the prisoner, he was discharged.”

Staffordshire Advertiser 10/10/1857

“The quarter sessions for this borough were held at the Guildhall, on Thursday

Daniel Keyte, landlord of the PIGEON beerhouse, and Ann Keyte, his aunt, were indicted for keeping a brothel. The prisoners pleaded not guilty. The evidence, however, was considered conclusive, and a verdict of guilty was returned. The learned Recorder deferred passing sentence till next sessions, and the prisoners were bound over to appear at that time.”

Wolverhampton Chronicle 14/10/1857

“Daniel Keyte, landlord of the PIGEON beer-house, and Ann Keyte, his aunt, were charged with keeping a brothel. The defendants pleaded not guilty. Mr. Hill prosecuted, and Mr. Motteram was retained for the defence. Mr. Hill, in opening the case, observed that whatever accusation might be brought against the laws of England, that of hypocrisy as regarded the sin of fornication could not, as there was no punishment inflicted for that infraction of the moral code by the laws of the country. But there must be moderation in all things, Mr. Hill continued, and notwithstanding the state of the law, people must not be allowed to keep such houses as the prisoners were charged with keeping, to the annoyance of the public, and the detriment of the public morality. He then called Elizabeth Rawlings, Mrs. Keyte’s niece, who deposed that she was a prostitute, and had exercised her profession in the PIGEON for six years, paying Mrs. Keyte in the proportion of one fourth of her earnings. Ellen Haywood gave similar evidence. Both women lived in houses belonging to Mrs. Keyte, and were especially retained by the defendants for the purpose of prostitution. Police-constable Darling spoke as to the character of the PIGEON. Mr. Motteram and the Recorder having addressed the Jury, a verdict of guilty was returned against both defendants, who were called upon to enter into their own recognisances to appear at the next Sessions to receive sentence.”

Bells Life in London and Sporting Chronicle 27/2/1864

“W. Skyte of Walsall will fight F. Evans of Willenhall, at catch weight, for £25 or £50 a side. Money ready at Skyte’s PIGEON INN, Walsall.”

PLASTERERS ARMS

Upper Rushall Street, WALSALL

OWNERS

LICENSEES

Mark Maley [1851] – [1852]

NOTES

1851 Census

Rushall Street

- [1] Mark Maley (28), plaisterer, born Ireland;
- [2] Elizabeth Maley (20), wife, born Walsall;
- [3] James Carsley (12), nephew, errand boy, born Walsall;
- [4] Ann Butler (21), servant, born Ireland:

Staffordshire Advertiser 6/9/1851

“Mark Maley, of the PLASTERERS ARMS, Upper Rushall Street, was fined 10s and costs for suffering disorderly conduct and drunkenness in his house on the 27th August last.”

Staffordshire Advertiser 14/8/1852

“Samuel Nightingale, Mark Maley, and James Fisher were charged by the police with having their respective public-houses open at improper hours, and were severally fined 5s each and costs.”

London Gazette 8/5/1855

“Whereas a Petition of Mark Maley, formerly of Upper Rushall-street, Walsall, Staffordshire, Licensed Victualler and Plasterer, then of Saint Paul’s-row, Walsall aforesaid, then of Bissell-street, then of Lancaster-street, then of Tower-street, then of Old Cross-street, and then of John-street West, all in Birmingham, Warwickshire, and afterwards and now of James-street, Ryecroft, Rushall, Staffordshire, Plasterer, an insolvent debtor, having been filed in the County Court of Staffordshire, at Walsall, and an interim order for protection from process having been given to the said Mark Maley, under the provisions of the Statutes in that case made and provided, the said Mark Maley is hereby required to appear before the said Court, on the 18th day of May instant, at ten of the clock in the forenoon precisely, for his first examination touching his debts, estate, and effects, and to be further dealt with according to the provisions of the said Statutes; and the choice of the creditors assignees is to take place at the time so appointed. All persons indebted to the said Mark Maley, or that have any of his effects, are not to pay or deliver the same but to Mr. Frederic Fuhrmann Clarke, Clerk of the said Court, at his office, in Walsall, the Official Assignee of the estate and effects of the said insolvent.”

PLOUGH

47, Cemetery Road, (58, Field Street), Summer Row, BLOXWICH

OWNERS

John Cornfield, farmer, Bloxwich
John Timmins
Mrs. Mary Somerfield, Cemetery Road, Bloxwich [1910]
Lichfield City Brewery Co. (leased)
Ellen Brookes (acquired in 1912)

LICENSEES

Arms [1846]
[G Arm \[1849\]](#)
Ann [1856]
J Green [1867]
William Wootton [1871]
Mrs. Ann Wootton [1872];
James Taylor [];
Henry Smith [1881]
John Timmins [] – 1887;
Philip Wootton (1887 – 1898);
William Thomas Hooker (1898 – 1900);
John T Smith (1900 – 1907);
William Bernard Street (1907 – 1912);
Charles Mansfield (1912 – 1913);

NOTES

It had a beerhouse license.

Wolverhampton Chronicle 19/8/1846

“The Oddfellows Wolverhampton Unity. On Monday, the 3rd instant, the brothers belonging to the ‘Good Design Loyal Lodge,’ No.18, Walsall district, held their first feast day at the house of host Arms, the PLOUGH INN, Bloxwich, great credit being due to the host for the good and substantial dinner provided. Brother Luke Head, V.G. and honorary member, presided, and his unassuming and courteous conduct as chairman elicited the greatest approbation from every brother present. This society only commenced on Monday, December 8, 1845, and its rapid advance in so short a time, numbering upwards of seventy members, has surprised even the most sanguine of its founders. Its success is to be attributed to the judicious appointment made by brother Richard Lyney, Grand Master, at the opening of the lodge, brother Luty, P.G. to preside over the lodge for six months. The hilarity of the evening was kept up with many appropriate speeches and loyal toasts and songs, until a late hour, when the brothers separated, all wishing to meet each other on their next feast day, in 1847.”

Wolverhampton Chronicle 6/1/1847

“On Monday, the 28th December, 1846, the brothers belonging to the Good Design Loyal Lodge, No.18, of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows (W.U.), celebrated their first anniversary, and partook of a good and substantial dinner, at the PLOUGH INN, Bloxwich, the same being a free gift of the worthy host. Upwards of eighty of the brethren partook of the repast, the chair being ably filled by brother William Smith, V.G. and the vice-chair by brother Brewster, P.G and secretary. After the usual loyal toasts of ‘The Queen,’ ‘His Royal Highness Prince Albert,’ and ‘His Royal Highness Albert Prince of Wales’ were drunk, the health of many of the brothers were drunk with due honours, and ably replied to in appropriate speeches, and several of the brothers favoured the company with some excellent songs. The hilarity of the evening was kept up until ten o’clock, when the brothers retired to their homes with expressions of cordiality and satisfaction at the day’s doings. It is somewhat worthy of remark that this society can boast of greater progress made in so short a time than any other society in the parish of Bloxwich, having more than doubled its numbers in the course of a year.”

Staffordshire Advertiser 11/8/1849

“On Monday last, the members belonging to the Good Design Loyal Lodge, No.18 (Walsall District), eighty in number, and twenty-five visiting friends, sat down to a sumptuous entertainment, consisting of the roast beef of Old England and numberless dainties, provided by their much respected host, Mr. G. Arm, at the PLOUGH INN, Bloxwich.....”

Staffordshire Advertiser 27/1/1855

“The members of No.18 Lodge, Wolverhampton Unity, held at the PLOUGH INN, Bloxwich, have presented a subscription of £1 12s to the Patriotic Fund.”

Birmingham Journal 9/8/1856

“On Monday the members of the Good Design Lodge, No.18, held their eleventh annual anniversary at the PLOUGH INN, Bloxwich. At twelve o'clock a procession was formed, headed by the officers, and a banner, provided for the occasion by P.G. Goldsby. They walked round the village, accompanied by the Bloxwich Brass Band, under the direction of Mr. J. Gee. When the procession reached the National School, they were joined by the members of the Church of England Female Friendly Society, who led the way the remaining portion of the journey to the Parish Church. The service at the church was performed by the Rev. Mr. Williams. The procession returned to the lodge house, where a sumptuous dinner was provided by the respected host and hostess. After dinner the usual loyal toasts were given with enthusiasm, and also the health of the Rev. Mr. Williams and Mr. C. Somerville, M.D., and Titus Somerville, Esq., who had kindly favoured them with his company. The health of the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. Ann, was drank with loud cheers. A vote of thanks was given to the worthy secretary, P.G.M. Hayward, for his exertions on this and other occasions. A number of choruses from Handel, Haydn, and others were performed. Also a choice selection of songs, &c.”

Bells Life in London and Sporting Chronicle 26/1/1867

“W. Morris of Bloxwich will take eight yards start of Goodried of Goscote in 130 yards, for £10 a side. The match can be made on Monday night, at J. Green's, PLOUGH AND HARROW, Bloxwich.”

William Wootton was also an awl blade maker. [1871]

1871 Census

58, Field Street – PLOW INN

- [1] William Wootton (34), awl blade maker, born Bloxwich;
- [2] Ann Wootton (35), wife, born Bloxwich;
- [3] Jane Wootton (16), daughter, scholar, born Bloxwich;
- [4] Lucy P. Wootton (7), daughter, scholar, born Bloxwich;
- [5] Eliza Wootton (4), daughter, scholar, born Bloxwich:

Mrs. Ann Wootton, beer retailer, Summer Row, Bloxwich. [1872]

1881 Census

47, Cemetery Road – PLOUGH

- [1] Henry Smith (37), brewer, born Shustoke, Warwickshire;
- [2] Jane Smith (36), wife, born Hill Top, Staffordshire;
- [3] Henry F. Smith (16), son, coal miner, born Walsall;
- [4] Frank Smith (14), son, born Walsall;
- [5] Ellen Smith (11), daughter, born Walsall;
- [6] George Smith (7), son, born Walsall;
- [7] Samuel T. Smith (5), son, born Walsall;
- [8] Julia Smith (3), daughter, born Walsall;
- [9] Rose Smith (1), daughter, born Coal Pool:

1891 Census

47, Cemetery Road

- [1] Philip Wootton (38), bit filer and publican, born Bloxwich;
- [2] Sarah Wootton (32), wife, born Bloxwich;
- [3] Harry Wootton (22), brother, stone mason, born Bloxwich;
- [4] Rebecca Clewley (18), sister in law, born Bloxwich:

Philip Wootton, beer retailer, Summer Row. [1896]

John T. Smith was elected as a member of the Walsall and District Licensed Victuallers' and Beer Retailers' Friendly and Protection Society in June 1900.

1901 Census

47, Cemetery Road – PLOUGH INN

- [1] John Smith (46), beerhouse keeper, born Pelsall;
- [2] Martha Smith (42), wife, born Walsall;
- [3] Lizzie Smith (18), daughter, draper's assistant, born Pelsall;
- [4] Floris Smith (15), daughter, born Pelsall;
- [5] Martha Smith (13), daughter, born Pelsall;

- [6] John Smith (12), son, born Pelsall;
[7] Minnie Smith (10), daughter, born Pelsall:

Walsall Advertiser 6/2/1904

“The annual licensing sessions for the Borough of Walsall were held on Thursday at the Guildhall, and aroused considerable interest. The court was crowded, and many license-holders were unable to obtain admission.....

Notice had been given to 76 license holders to show cause for the renewal of their licenses, evidently as a result of the visits of a sub-committee of magistrates to the licensed premises, the reasons why cause had to be shown being various....

John Smith, PLOUGH INN.”

Walsall Advertiser 24/11/1906

“To the strong wind John Smith (17), PLOUGH INN, Bloxwich, attributed the fact that his cycle lamp had gone out on the night of the 14th inst. He was ordered to pay costs.”

Walsall Advertiser 5/2/1910

“The annual Brewster Sessions for the borough of Walsall were opened at the Guildhall, on Wednesday.....

Notice of objection (compensation clause or otherwise) had been served in respect to the following houses.....

In the case of the PLOUGH, Bloxwich, Mr. H. H. Jackson appeared for the lessees (the Lichfield City Brewery Co.) and the tenant (Mr. Bernard Street), and Mr. Enoch Evans for the owner (Mrs. Mary Somerfield).

Mr. Walter Hughes said the property comprised four bedrooms, tap room, living room, outer kitchen, cellar, coal-house, and out-buildings, and was in good average condition. He valued it at 6s 6d a week, the tenant paying rates.

Mr. Tomlins estimated the net annual value at £16 net, and added that there was a garden at the rear. He also mentioned that there was a small grocer’s shop near to, considerably inferior as a property to the PLOUGH, let at £14 10s net per annum.....

Adjourned, plans to be deposited”

1911 Census

47, Cemetery Road

- [1] William Bernard Street (39), coal miner (hewer), born Cannock;
[2] Rosannah Street (34), wife, married 14 years, born Rugeley;
[3] John Charles Street (12), son, school, born Rugeley;
[4] Doris Street (9), daughter, school, born Rugeley;
[5] Winnifred Street (5), daughter, school, born Rugeley:

Charles Mansfield, beer retailer, 47, Cemetery Road. [1912]

Walsall Observer 8/2/1913

“The annual Licensing Sessions for the borough were held at the Guildhall on Monday.....

The following were the notices of objection (Compensation Clause).....

NEW INN, Pinfold, Bloxwich. (Hy. Mellor).

SPORTSMAN, Pinfold, Bloxwich. (Jacob Williams).

NELSON, Church Street, Bloxwich. (Jos. Wall).

STAG, Field Street, Bloxwich. (Jane Tolley).

PLOUGH, Cemetery Road, (Charles Mansfield).

RISING SUN, Park Road, Bloxwich, (Charles Orgill).

STORES, High Street, Bloxwich, (Charles Ernest Perry).

BEEHIVE, New Street, Bloxwich, (Benjamin Hughes).”

AND

“The Court re-assembled yesterday (Friday) morning.....

In the case of the PLOUGH, Bloxwich, Mr. H. H. Jackson represented the owners, the executors of the late J. W. Brooks, and the tenant Mr. C. Mansfield.

Inspector Pritchard again gave evidence and said that the landlord was a miner and worked regularly. Witness had visited he house fifteen times in ten weeks chiefly in the evening, and found a total number of customers of 88, or an average of about six per visit.

Charles Mansfield, the tenant, said he had occupied the house only 14 months, but had not had a single complaint against him. He worked regularly as a miner, but if he wished he thought he could make a good living on the house alone.

Mrs. Mansfield said they had a lot of travellers during the day, and people who went to the Cemetery called for their meals.

Mr. Loxton: Where do the travellers go to, the Cemetery? (Laughter.) – Witness: It is a very long way from our house to the next licensed house.

Mr. Joseph Stokes said he had lived in Bloxwich all his life and he thought the PLOUGH was a very useful and well-conducted house.

Mr. Jackson pointed out that the house was the last one in Bloxwich when leaving the town. The neighbourhood was not congested and the class of trade was good. He thought that if the house was retained it could not possibly do any harm, and for a certain class of trade it was very necessary.....

Having retired, the Bench announced that the licenses of the STAG and the STORES would be renewed for this year, but might be considered at some future date. The remaining six houses would be referred to the compensation authorities.”

The license renewal was referred to the Compensation Authority on 7th February 1913.

Walsall Advertiser 31/5/1913

“The principal meeting of the Compensation Authority for the Borough of Walsall was held on Tuesday morning at the Guild-hall.....

The PLOUGH, Cemetery Road, Bloxwich, has been also referred to the Compensation Authority. Mr. H. H. Jackson appeared for the owners, the executors of Mr. J. W. Brookes deceased, and the licensee, Mr. Charles Mansfield. This was a ‘free’ house, let at £26 a year. In 1912 the barrelage was 126.

Mr. Farmer, architect, in the witness box, said the house was on the road from Bloxwich to Pelsall, and Blakenall, and on the road to the Cemetery.

The Chairman: There is not much traffic on that road. – Witness: People don’t go beyond the Cemetery (laughter).

The Chairman: They don’t need any licensed houses beyond it at any rate (laughter). – Witness: The Cemetery is quite a rendez-vous. People like to visit the dead (laughter). People like to live near cemeteries. The license was refused.”

Compensation was paid.

It closed on 6th September 1913.

PLOUGH

Blue Lane, WALSALL

OWNERS

LICENSEES

Thomas Bates [1834] – [1835]

NOTES

It had a beerhouse license.

Thomas Bates, retailer of beer, Blue Lane. [1835]

PLOUGH AND HARROW

Ablewell Street, WALSALL

OWNERS

LICENSEES

John Lynex [1818]

PLUMBERS ARMS

31, (14), Littleton Street West, (14, Upper Lyttleton Street West), (14, (Upper) Littleton Street) / Garden Street, WALSALL

OWNERS

Matthew Allen, saddler's ironmonger, Station Street, Walsall
Mrs. Allen, Vicarage Place, Walsall (later at Adam Road)
William Butler and Co. Ltd. (leased)

LICENSEES

James Jordan Potter [1852]
Simcox [1852]
William Davis [1856]
Thomas Glover [1857] – [1859]
William H Griffiths [1861]
John Hayward [1864] – [1883];
Benjamin Hayward [];
William Utting [] – 1886;
George Evans (1886 – 1893);
Samuel Westwood (1893 – 1904);
Charles John James (1904 – 1906);
Mrs. Emma (James) Evans (1906 – [1932])
Cyril James []

NOTES

14, Upper Littleton Street [1861]
14, Upper Lyttleton Street West [1864]
14, Littleton Street [1871], [1881], [1891]
14, Littleton Street West [1872], [1896], [1901]
31, Littleton Street West [1904], [1908], [1932]

It was originally the SLATERS ARMS.

It had an ante 1869 beerhouse license.

Staffordshire Advertiser 3/1/1852 - Advert

“To be Sold by Auction, by H. Farrington, at the house of Mr. Job Wilkes, the OLD STILL, Digbeth, on Wednesday, the 14th day of January, 1852, at five o'clock in the evening, subject to conditions.

Lot 1. All that substantially built Public House called the SLATERS ARMS, well situated in Upper Littleton Street. The House contains entrance hall, bar parlour 14ft 6in by 11ft 6in, tap room, or kitchen, 15ft by 12ft 6in, four good bed rooms, cooking kitchen and brewhouse, good cellaring 40ft by 12ft, piggeries and out-offices, excellent pump of water, and walled yard 50ft by 30ft, in the occupation of Mr. James Potter; estimated rental £20 a year.....”

Staffordshire Advertiser 13/3/1852 - Advert

“To be Peremptorily Sold by Auction, by Mr. Farrington, at the house of Mr. William Payne, the TURKS HEAD INN, Digbeth, Walsall, on Monday, the 15th day of March, 1852, at six o'clock in the evening, subject to such conditions as will be then and there produced, all that well and substantially new built Public House, called the SLATERS ARMS, well situated in Upper Littleton Street, Stafford Street, Walsall, with entrance hall, large bar parlour, good tap room, a kitchen and four bed rooms, cooking kitchen, brewhouse and good sized cellaring, excellent pump of water, piggeries, out-buildings, and appurtenances thereto adjoining and belonging, and now in the occupation of Mr. Simcox.

The above Premises are very desirable, being situated in the very best part of Littleton Street, where the road has been made, at a great cost, by the proprietor to the satisfaction of the Commissioners, and the gas introduced to the extent of the property, and are Leasehold for a term of 99 years from the 25th of March, 1847, subject to an apportioned ground rent of £1 17s 6d per annum. Applications to treat by Private Contract may be made to Messrs. Smith and Son, Solicitors, or Mr. Farrington, Surveyor, all of Walsall.”

Birmingham Journal 4/6/1853 - Notice

“In the County Court of Staffordshire, holden at Walsall.

In the Matter of the Petition of James Jordan Potter, formerly of the Wolverhampton Lane, Walsall, Staffordshire, Slater, then of Upper Littleton Street, Walsall aforesaid, Slater and Beer House Keeper, afterwards and now of Upper Littleton Street aforesaid, Slater, an Insolvent Debtor. Notice is hereby given, that the Court will proceed to make a Final Order thereon, on Friday, the 17th day of June, 1853, at half-past nine o'clock in the forenoon precisely, unless cause be then and there shown to the contrary.”

Birmingham Journal 9/8/1856 - Advert

“To be Sold by Auction, by John Osbourn, on Thursday next the 14th of August, at six o'clock in the evening, at the BUILDERS

ARMS, Wisemore, Walsall, subject to conditions then to be read, all that very desirable and well-built Retail Public House, called the SLATERS ARMS, now in the occupation of William Davis.....”

Birmingham Journal 2/9/1857

“Annual Licensing Day..... There were twenty-two applications for spirit licenses.....
Thomas Glover, Littleton Street. Refused.”

Staffordshire Advertiser 4/9/1858

“Annual Licensing Day..... The following beerhouse keepers applied for victuallers’ licenses.....
Thomas Glover, Littleton Street, Walsall. Refused.”

Walsall Free Press 25/6/1859

“A somewhat complicated case came before the attention of their worships. Caroline Bradley charged Ann Fitch with having assaulted her on Saturday last; Thomas Glover charged Caroline Bradley with wilfully breaking a pane of glass; and Elizabeth Glover charged Caroline Bradley with an assault. Mr. Ebsworth appeared for the defence. The two women were well dressed and tolerably good looking; but it appeared from the evidence that their tempers and conduct were far from being amiable. Bradley stated that on Saturday night she went to the house of Glover, who keeps the SLATERS ARMS, in Littleton Street, and there saw John Brough, who was playing at cards. She asked him to come out, and this seemed to annoy Ann Fitch, who thereupon struck her (Bradley), and used some very improper language. Bradley, however, admitted that she was at the time very much disposed to inflict chastisement upon Fitch. The young man Brough gave some brief testimony of a confirmatory nature, substantiating to some extent the evidence of complainant. In support of the other charge, Elizabeth Glover was called and sworn. She stated that Bradley was requested to leave the SLATERS ARMS on the night in question; that she refused to do so, used some very violent and filthy language, and finally committed an assault upon her and Fitch. A man named Haitley confirmed this statement, and added that he saw Bradley wilfully break a pane of glass in one of Glover’s windows. Bradley said that she broke the window by accident, she having aimed a blow at the head of her sweetheart, who dexterously ducked his head, and her fist consequently went through the window. The magistrates dismissed the charge against Fitch, and ordered Bradley to pay 20s and costs, or in default one month’s imprisonment with hard labour.”

Walsall Free Press 29/12/1860 - Advert

“To Be Let, that first-class Beer House, the SLATERS ARMS, situated in Upper Littleton Street, Walsall, brewing nine bushels per week. Stock and fixtures to be taken at a valuation. The present proprietor is leaving in consequence of having taken an old-licensed house. For further particulars apply to W. Horobin, Auctioneer and Valuer, 33, Stafford Street, Walsall.”

1861 Census

14, Upper Littleton Street – SLATERS ARMS

- [1] William H. Griffiths (42), publican, born Oswestry;
- [2] Sophia Griffiths (34), wife, born Bath;
- [3] John Griffiths (2), son, born Hill Top, West Bromwich;
- [4] Ellen Griffiths (9 months), daughter, born Birmingham;
- [5] George Reeves (40), lodger, born Bristol:

John Hayward = John Haywood = John Heywood

John Hayward, beer retailer, 14, Upper Lytleton Street West. [1864]

Walsall Free Press 2/9/1865

“Licensing Day. There were 174 applications for the renewal of licenses, and 19 new applications.....
Mr. Matthews, from the office of Mr. Wilkinson, applied on behalf of the following parties.....
John Hayward, PLUMBERS ARMS, Littleton Street Refused.”

Birmingham Daily Gazette 21/12/1866

“John Haywood, landlord of the PLUMBERS ARMS, Littleton Street, and his son James were charged with having assaulted John Upton. In this case the father and the complainant were playing at cards for ale and cigars, when a dispute arose and complainant left, and as he was leaving he said to the landlord, ‘It is the first time I have been in your house, and it will be the last for the manner in which you have insulted me.’ On his making this observation the landlord knocked him down. Complainant drew his knife, and threatened to defend himself with it. Thereupon he was knocked down and kicked by the landlord and his son. The Bench, after hearing the evidence, ordered the defendant, John Haywood, to pay a fine of £5, including costs, or in default to be imprisoned for two months. The charge against James Haywood was dismissed.”

John Hayward, beer retailer, 14, Littleton Street West. [1868], [1872]

1871 Census

14, Littleton Street – PLUMBERS ARMS

- [1] John Hayward (49), bootmaker, born Cheltenham;

- [2] Helen Haywood (48), wife, birthplace not known;
[3] James Haywood (26), son, bootmaker, born Cheltenham;
[4] Harry Haywood (24), son, plumber, born Cheltenham;
[5] Richard Haywood (22), son, bootmaker, born Cheltenham:

London Gazette 22/3/1881

“The Bankruptcy Act, 1869. In the County Court of Staffordshire, holden at Walsall. In the Matter of Proceedings for Liquidation by Arrangement or Composition with Creditors, instituted by John Haywood, of the PLUMBERS ARMS, Walsall, in the county of Stafford, Beer Retailer and Boot and Shoe Manufacturer.

Notice is hereby given, that a First General Meeting of the creditors of the above-named person has been summoned to be held at the offices of Mr. Charles Adshead Loxton, of the Bridge, Walsall, Solicitor, on the 1st day of April 1881, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon precisely.....

C. A. Loxton, the Bridge, Walsall, Solicitor for the said Debtor.”

1881 Census

14, Littleton Street – Beerhouse

- [1] John Hayward (59), married, bootmaker and publican, born Cheltenham;
[2] William Riley (26), bootmaker, born Birmingham:

Walsall Advertiser 12/10/1883 - Deaths

“On the 4th inst. John Heywood, of the PLUMBERS ARMS, Littleton Street, Walsall.”

Birmingham Daily Post 22/2/1884 - Advert

“Beerhouse (good). To Let, PLUMBERS ARMS, Littleton Street, Walsall. Respectable neighbourhood; near large works. Rent £25. Seven years' lease. Doing a brewing a week. In the same hands 20 years. Death of proprietor cause of leaving. In-coming about £200.

Apply on premises.”

1891 Census

14, Littleton Street

- [1] George Evans (39), brown saddler and publican manager, born Walsall;
[2] Florence Evans (34), wife, born Walsall;
[3] Eliza Bradley (13), domestic servant, born Walsall:

Walsall Observer 16/6/1900 - Advert

“Wanted, a respectable Girl, about 16, to sleep out.
Apply PLUMBERS ARMS, Littleton Street.”

Walsall Advertiser 10/11/1900

Licensed Victuallers' Society. The monthly meeting of this society was held on Thursday.....

Mr. Charles John James, PLUMBERS ARMS, Littleton Street West..... elected members of the society.”

1901 Census

14, Littleton Street West

- [1] Samuel Westwood (60);
[2] Eliza Jane Westwood (66), wife;
[3] Joseph Bebb (31), son in law;
[4] Mary Bebb (29), daughter;
[5] Arthur Bebb (4), son;
[6] Agnes Bebb (10), niece;
[7] Matilda Rounds (10), granddaughter:
[No other details are given.]

Walsall Advertiser 29/8/1903

“Last night week the employees of Messrs. Nicklin and Schoefield, Station Street, were entertained at the PLUMBERS ARMS, Littleton Street, by Mr. Charles Nicklin in celebration of his marriage. An ample repast was served by the host and hostess, and the remainder of the evening was spent in social harmony.....”

Walsall Advertiser 6/8/1904

“Walsall Air-Gun League.

The first annual meeting of the above was held at the CRITERION, Stafford Street, on Wednesday evening. Mr. H. Smallwood presided, and there was also present Messrs. Hicken (EAGLE), G. Smith (OLD KINGS ARMS), Powell (TANNERS ARMS), E. James (PLUMBERS ARMS), McDonald (CRITERION), Cliffe (GOLDEN EAGLE), Hunt, E. Towe (treasurer), and Mason (secretary).....

The undermentioned clubs with power to add to their number, were elected to the League for the forthcoming season: The WHITE HART (Walhouse Street), TANNERS ARMS, OLD KINGS ARMS, EAGLE, PLUMBERS ARMS, CRITERION, GOLDEN EAGLE, LEATHER CUTTERS ARMS, OAK, and DUKE OF YORK.
There was no other business of public interest.”

1911 Census

Littleton Street – PLUMBERS ARMS

- [1] Emma James (38), widow, beerhouse keeper, born Bloxwich;
- [2] Cyril Charles James (10), son, school, born Walsall;
- [3] Elias John Martin (39), brother in law, saddler, born Bloxwich;
- [4] Polly Martin (40), wife, married 13 years, assit in business, born Bloxwich:

Emma James married a Mr. Evans on 18th August 1914.

The license was surrendered on 8th February 1939.

PRESIDENT LINCOLN

147, (146), (144+145), Stafford Street, WALSALL

OWNERS

Charles Ridding
Mrs. C. Ridding
Thomas Jeffries
Edgar Evans, brewer, Perry Barr
C. C. Walker
Frank Myatt and Co. [1924]
Grigg and Brettell Ltd.

LICENSEES

Charles Ridding [1858] – [1872];
Thomas Jeffries [1881] – 1889);
William Banks (1889 – 1894);
George Walker (1894 – 1897);
Cornelius Cox (1897 – 1899);
Alfred Stephen Holland (1899 – 1900);
Joseph Stackhouse Snr. (1900 – 1903);
Samuel Cattell (1903 – 1904);
Enoch Hodgkins (1904 – 1906);
Charles Timmins (1906 – 1907);
Harry Brannidge (1907 – 1908);
Enoch Evans (1908 – 1909);
Henry William Glaise (1909 – 1911);
Henry Wood (1911 – 1914);
Martin Egan (1914 – 1916);
Mary Egan (1916 – 1920);
James Blower (1920 – 1922);
Thomas Walter Richards (1922 – 1924); manager
George Henry Dawkins (1924 – 1927);
Charles Henry Wellings (1927 – 1929);
George Henry McDivitt (1929 – 1930);
Dorothy McDivitt (1930 – 1931);
Herbert Spooner (1931 – 1939);
Stanley Lewis Clark (1939 – 1940);
Frank Wilson (1940 – 1941);
Arthur Gwilt Middleton (1941);
May Middleton (1941 – 1943);
Florence Leah (McGrath) Mole (1943 – 1952);

Stanley Evans (1952);
Marshall Grahame Heeley (1952 – 1955);
Norman William Mansell (1955 – 1956);
William Henry Chancellor (1956 – 1957);
William Small (1957 – 1958);
Mildred Georgina Holloway (1958 – 1959);
George Edward Morris (1959 – 1960);
Albert Henry Cook (1960 – 1964);
Albert Daniel Peace (1964);
Gwendoline Alice Perry (1964 – [1966])
Albert Grazier (1969 – [] manager

NOTES

It had a beerhouse license.

Charles Ridding = Charles Redding

C. Ridding, beerhouse, 146, Stafford Street. [1858]

Charles Ridding, beer retailer, 146, Stafford Street. [1860]

Staffordshire Advertiser 4/9/1858

“Annual Licensing Day..... The following beerhouse keepers applied for victuallers’ licenses.....

Charles Ridding, Stafford Street, Walsall. Refused.”

Wolverhampton Chronicle 5/9/1860

“Wednesday last, being the annual licensing day, twenty applications were made by beer-house keepers for victualling licenses.....

Charles Ridding, Stafford Street. Refused.”

1861 Census

146, Stafford Street – Public House, No Sign

[1] Charles Ridding (58), chain burnisher and maker (3 men + 2 boys), and retail brewer, born Bloxwich;

[2] Ann Ridding (40), wife, housewife, born Walsall;

[3] Charles Ridding (21), son, chain burnisher and maker, born Bloxwich;

[4] Ann Maria Ridding (17), daughter, apprentice to dress making, born Bloxwich;

[5] Mary Ridding (12), daughter, scholar, born Bloxwich;

[6] Charlotte Ridding (10), daughter, scholar, born Bloxwich;

[7] Emma Ridding (6), daughter, scholar, born Bloxwich;

[8] Henrietta Ridding (1), daughter, born Bloxwich;

[9] Charles Starkey (20), apprentice chain maker, born Stonnal, Staffordshire;

[10] John Breviton (10), apprentice chain maker, born Birmingham:

Staffordshire Advertiser 30/8/1862

“This was the day for granting the annual licenses to victuallers, and for hearing applications from beerhouse keepers for victuallers licenses.....

The application of Charles Ridding, Stafford Street was refused.”

Charles Ridding, beer retailer, 146, Stafford Street. [1864], [1865]

Birmingham Daily Post 22/8/1864

“The Forthcoming Borough Licensing Day. The following is a list of persons who intend to apply for spirit licenses at the Special Sessions for that purpose, to be held on the 28th inst.....

Charles Ridding, PRESIDENT LINCOLN INN, Stafford Street.” [Refused]

Walsall Free Press 2/9/1865

“Licensing day. There were 174 applications for the renewal of licenses, and 19 new applications.....

Charles Ridding, PRESIDENT LINCOLN, Stafford Street applied personally for licenses, but their applications were refused.”

Walsall Free Press 1/9/1866

“General Licensing Day. Yesterday a special session was held in the Guildhall Assembly Room.....

Mr. Mathews applied in behalf of Mr. Charles Ridding, landlord of the PRESIDENT LINCOLN beerhouse, Stafford Street. Application refused.”

Walsall Free Press 4/9/1869

“Walsall Annual Licensing Day, Wednesday applications for new licenses for the sale of spirits.....

Charles Redding, beerhouse keeper, Stafford Street, applied for a license personally, and presented a written document, in which he stated that he and his ancestors had been resident in Walsall for upwards of 100 years, and none of them had ever been bankrupts, paupers, or felons, and he had been soliciting the bench either personally or through professional gentlemen for a license for some time.

The Mayor announced that the Bench had decided not to grant any new licenses this year.”

Staffordshire Advertiser 10/9/1870

“Walsall Annual Licensing Sessions were held at the Guildhall yesterday week.....

There were eight applicants for new spirit licenses.....

Charles Ridding, the PRESIDENT LINCOLN, Stafford Street.....

The magistrates retired to consider their decision, and after having been absent about half an hour they returned, and announced that they had decided to refuse all the applications, though they had come to this decision with much regret in some instances.”

1871 Census

146, Stafford Street

[1] Charles Ridding (67), chainmaker employing 2 men and 2 boys, and beer seller, born Bloxwich;

[2] Ann Ridding (51), wife, born Walsall;

[3] Emma Ridding (15), daughter, general servant, born Walsall;

[4] Henrietta Ridding (12), daughter, born Walsall;

[5] Amy Ridding (7), daughter, born Walsall;

[6] Edward Brazier (15), apprentice to chain making, born Walsall;

[7] Henry Davis (12), general servant, born Walsall:

Charles Ridding, grocer and beer retailer, 144+145, Stafford Street. [1872]

See also SPORTSMAN.

Birmingham Daily Post 18/7/1873

“Yesterday afternoon, at the PRESIDENT LINCOLN beerhouse, Stafford Street, Mr. Fletcher, Coroner, held an inquest on the body of Mrs. Jane Mercer, aged 52, who died on Tuesday evening from the effects of a fight sustained by her while endeavouring to make peace between a drunken couple named Brannon. At the outset of the proceedings the Coroner read the following letter: ‘St. Peter’s Vicarage, Walsall, July 17, 1873.

Dear Sir. If I had not had cemetery duty this afternoon, I should have endeavoured to have seen you this afternoon at the inquest. It ought to be clearly understood what really hastened the poor woman’s death. There is no doubt that it was the disgusting and abominable conduct of the drunken couple living opposite. The infamous behaviour of the persons referred to was witnessed by crowds of persons, and was a public scandal. The next door neighbour is at present confined to her bed in consequence of what occurred on Tuesday evening, and another neighbour came to me this morning utterly distracted by the event and by the continued drunkenness and annoyance of these evil persons; and I should be thankful if, in the course of your official duties, you could find a proper opportunity of giving due prominence to the circumstances I have put before you.

I am, dear sir, your faithfully. James Bradley.’

The Coroner said that from the enquiries he had himself made, he had ascertained that it was indeed a most disgusting and abominable case. If it could be shown that, as Mr. Bradley had stated, the conduct of these parties had hastened the death of this poor woman, he could deal with them himself, but that, he feared, could not be done. They deserved severe punishment, however, and he would transfer Mr. Bradley’s letter to the chief superintendent, for him to lay before the magistrates.

Two witnesses were examined, namely, Mary Jane, wife of John Brotherton, and Sarah Jones, niece of deceased. Their evidence bore out the statement already published in the Post, showing that between five and six o’clock, a Mrs. Smith, living on the other side of the street, fetched Mrs. Mercer to her aid in putting a stop to a quarrel which was going on between a married couple named Brannon, stating that if the man could be got out of the house the woman might be induced to go to bed. The deceased crossed the road directly, and on going to the door of Brannon’s house, said to the man, ‘Come out.’ The man was the on the sofa, and the woman was at the foot of the stairs nearly naked, with a lock of her hair in her hand which she was endeavouring to throw at her husband, but Mrs. Smith was standing before her, and preventing her. Both the man and the woman were drunk. Directly Mrs. Mercer had spoken to the man, she uttered an exclamation of surprise or pain, and turned back to her own house, leaving her niece, who had accompanied her, and who had got Brannon out of the house. Before reaching her home she was gasping for breath, and holding her hand to her side, and directly she got in-doors she asked to have her clothes loosened and the widow opened, and called for water, at the same time exclaiming, ‘I shall die.’ Everything which could be done for her under the circumstances was done, but in less than an hour she expired. It was stated that she had been called to the Brannons several times before, and she had acted the part of a mother to the children of the intemperate pair.

The Coroner expressed a wish to have Mrs. Smith before him, but was told that she was keeping to her bed in consequence of the scenes of Friday night; and moreover, that she could give no further evidence than had already been laid before the Jury. He then stated that the evidence would not implicate the Brannons, who, there could be little doubt had been the cause of the poor woman’s death, and said that Mrs. Mercer had for some time been suffering from heart disease, and that consequently a little excitement was likely to bring on an attack of that from which she had died, viz, apoplexy. Under these circumstance, he thought the only course open to the Jury was to return a verdict of Death from Natural Causes. The Jury returned a verdict accordingly.”

1881 Census

146, Stafford Street – PRESIDENT LINCOLN

- [1] Thomas Jeffries (39), beer retailer and bridle cutter, born Walsall;
- [2] Ann M. Jeffries (38), wife, born Walsall;
- [3] Thomas Jeffries (10), son, scholar, born Walsall;
- [4] Anne Jeffries (8), daughter, scholar, born Walsall;
- [5] Jane Jeffries (6), daughter, scholar, born Walsall;
- [6] Beatrice Jeffries (3), daughter, born Walsall:

Walsall Advertiser 26/1/1889 - Advert

“Valuable Public House Property, Stafford Street, Walsall.

To Be Sold by Auction, by Messrs. Watkins & Powell, at the STORK HOTEL, Walsall, by Order of the Executors of the late Charles Ridding, on Tuesday, the 19th day of February, 1889, at Seven o’clock in the evening precisely, and incorporating the common form conditions of the Birmingham Law Society.

All that well established Beerhouse situate in Stafford Street, Walsall, known at the PRESIDENT LINCOLN, now in the occupation of Mr. Thomas Jeffries, as yearly tenant, at the rental of £17 per annum. And also the Three Messuages adjoining, being Nos.143, 144, and 135 Stafford Street, Walsall, occupied by Mr. Charles Ridding, photographer; Mrs. Mary Harris, provision dealer; and Mr. William Bird respectively, at rentals producing £31 4s per annum. Also the Shopping (including Casting Shop) in the rear of the premises, estimated to produce an annual rental of £10; or a total rental for the whole Property of £58 4s.

The above Property is Freehold, and contains 3,101 square yards or thereabouts, is walled in and has a gateway approach to the back.

There is a considerable quantity of Land unbuilt upon, which will be suitable for the erection of Shopping, or for the enlargement of the premises in connection with the PRESIDENT LINCOLN.

The Land immediately in front of the Property extending therefrom 8ft 6in is sold with the Property, and the Public House may be materially improved by extending it over the same.

The property is supplied with the South Staffordshire Water.

For further particulars apply to the Auctioneers, Bridge Street, Walsall; or to Mr. J. W. Phillips, Solicitor, 13, Old Square, Birmingham.”

Birmingham Daily Post 18/12/1890

“At the Walsall Guildhall, yesterday, before Messrs. J. Brewer, E. T. Holden, J. Thorpe, W. E. Blyther, and J. Lindop, and Captain Brooks, further applications for singing, and dancing licenses were heard....

William Banks, the PRESIDENT LINCOLN, Stafford Street, asked for a license for music and singing on Saturday and Monday evenings. Refused.”

1891 Census

145, Stafford Street – PRESIDENT LINCOLN

- [1] William Banks (56), boot maker and inn keeper, born Bilston;
- [2] Sarah Ann Banks (51), wife, born South Brent, Somersetshire;
- [3] Sarah Ann Banks (18), daughter, born Walsall:

George Walker, beer retailer, 146, Stafford Street. [1896]

Walsall Advertiser 28/8/1897

“Walsall Annual Licensing Sessions. These sessions were held at the Guildhall yesterday....

Plans were submitted by Mr. Pearman-Smith for re-building and extending the PRESIDENT LINCOLN beerhouse, Stafford Street. It was proposed, it was stated, to re-construct the house, but there would be no increased drinking compartments.

Mr. McCardle (instructed by Mr. J. F. Addison) and the Chief Constable opposed. Mr. H. E. Lavender, architect, in answer to a question said he thought the licensed area would be slightly increased.

Mr. Loxton: It would be a new building.

The Bench did not sanction the plans in this case, but intimated that if applicant applied for a new ‘on’ beer license on the plans, and surrendered the present license, the justices would be prepared to consider the application.”

The license was surrendered on 24th September 1897 at the adjourned licensing day, and a new license, not to carry the privileges of the old license, was granted.

Walsall Advertiser 12/11/1898

“Joseph Robinson alias Spink (24), miner, 66, James Street, was charged with stealing a silver watch and chain, value 25s, the property of Ed. Stokes, of 38, Stafford Street. Complainant said that he had a quarrel with a man outside the PRESIDENT LINCOLN, Stafford Street on Saturday night. He fetched his coat and waist coat off. After the disturbance he missed the watch and chain. In consequence of what he had been told he asked defendant if he had got the watch. Prisoner replied that if he had he would not give it to him.

Elizabeth Yates, 138, Marlow Street, said that there was a large crowd of people outside the PRESIDENT LINCOLN on the date named. She picked up a watch from the ground, and asked several men if it belonged to them. One man she asked snatched it from her. She could not swear prisoner was the man.

Alfred Coley, carter, of Stafford Street, said that he saw the last witness pick up the watch, and ask several persons if it belonged to them. She also asked defendant if it was his property, and he took it from her.

The Chief Constable applied for a remand for a week which was granted.

Prisoner was allowed bail, himself in £20 and two sureties of £10 each.”

1901 Census

146, Stafford Street

[1] Joseph Stackhouse (54), innkeeper and haulier and cab proprietor, born Pelsall;

[2] Ruth Stackhouse (52), wife, born Tipton;

[3] Fanny L. Stackhouse (23), daughter, born Brownhills;

[4] Mary E. Stackhouse (22), daughter, machinist, born Pelsall;

[5] James E. Stackhouse (19), son, haulier, born Brownhills;

[6] Alice M. Stackhouse (18), daughter, born Brownhills;

[7] George E. Stackhouse (13), son, born Brownhills:

Walsall Advertiser 12/7/1902

“John Duffy (17), stableman, 20, James Street, was charged with being found on enclosed premises, to wit, 38, Portland Street, for an unlawful purpose. George Perry, 39, Portland Street, said that on Sunday he saw the prisoner down Mr. Stackhouse’s stable yard, but though he followed him he was unable to find him. He afterwards saw him return, carrying a bag, and informed Mr. Stackhouse (the owner of the stables) what he had seen.

Joseph Stackhouse, of the PRESIDENT LINCOLN INN, Stafford Street, and owner of the stables in question, said that the prisoner had been in his employ as a horse driver, but had been discharged by him. Supposing him to be on the premises, as Mr. Perry (the last witness) had told the magistrates, he had no right whatever to be there.

Police-constable Thomas Williams said he was called to 38, Portland Street, by Mr. Stackhouse, and he went in search of the prisoner and arrested him in James Street. Prisoner when charged with being on Mr. Stackhouse’s premises, said, ‘I only had some grass.’ Sentenced to 14 days’ imprisonment.”

Walsall Advertiser 3/10/1903

“Joseph Stackhouse, PRESIDENT LINCOLN, Stafford Street, was summoned for allowing a horse to stray in High Street, Bloxwich, on September 18th. Police-constable Donlan gave evidence, but it was proved that under the circumstances defendant was not responsible and the case was dismissed.”

Joseph Stackhouse – see also SPORTSMAN.

Samuel Cattell, beer retailer, 146, Stafford Street. [1904]

Walsall Advertiser 18/6/1904

“Mr. W. J. Pearman-Smith made an application for the temporary transfer of the license of the PRESIDENT LINCOLN INN, Stafford Street, from Samuel Cattell to Enoch Hodgkins. Hodgkins said he was going in as manager, but if he found the business was satisfactory he would become a tenant. Answering Dr. Lynch, the outgoing tenant said he had been receiving 25s a week wages, and he was leaving because he found it did not pay.

Dr. Lynch: Then you do not think the house is needed in the neighbourhood?

Mr. Pearman-Smith said he did not consider it fair to put those questions.

Dr. Lynch: I have a perfect right, under the Licensing Act to ask such questions.

Mr. Pearman-Smith said that there was another question – he was not at liberty to state what – why the present tenant was leaving the house.

Alderman Dean: I don’t doubt that there will be another change. It was to be expected when tenants were paid 25s a week.

The application was granted, subject to the applicant becoming a tenant when the transfer was confirmed at the Brewster Sessions.”

Walsall Advertiser 22/12/1906

“Charles Henry Walker, described as a bricklayer, aged 33, of Lewis Street, pleaded guilty to stealing twopence, the money of Charles Timmins, landlord of the PRESIDENT LINCOLN INN, Stafford Street. On Saturday afternoon at about 4.30 defendant went into the bar of the Inn and called for half-a-pint of ale. For over an hour he stood over this, and meanwhile the landlady, Mrs. Timmins, had served other customers, one of whom had only given her a new penny, which was the only one in the till. Shortly afterwards the landlady, returning to the bar, saw the defendant with his hand in the till, and calling her husband, he found that he had a new penny, and two half-pennies in his hand. Fined 10s and costs or 14 days.”

Walsall Advertiser 12/12/1908

“Thomas Russon (23), caster, Penkridge Street; John Peach (26), bricklayer, Little Street; Edward Dutton (26), tube welder, Barrack’s Lane, Bloxwich, were charged with stealing 14 fowls belonging to John Chamberlain, farmer, Blakenall. The men were together at Dutton's house on Saturday night when the fowls were missed. Mrs. Dutton said that she heard one of them say they had got some fowls. On the night of the 28th November it seemed prisoners went into the PRESIDENT LINCOLN public-house, Stafford Street, and asked the landlord if he could do with a couple of fowls. He at first said 'No,' but after consulting his wife bought a couple for 2s. The heads and legs identified as of fowls belonging to Mr. Chamberlain. Detective Lloyd had found a trail of feathers from Mr. Chamberlain's farm to Dutton's house, and said Peach's trousers were covered in blood. In all 30 fowls had been stolen from this farm. Peach was sent to gaol for 14 days, and the other two prisoners for a month each."

1911 Census

Stafford Street – PRESIDENT LINCOLN

[1] Henry Wood (66), coal miner, hewer, born Uttoxeter, Staffordshire;

[2] Maria Wood (53), married 2 years, born Walsall;

[3] Lily Heeley (19), servant, born Bloxwich:

Henry Wood, beer retailer, 145, Stafford Street. [1912]

Walsall Observer 12/1/1918

"Walsall and District War Aid Committee. Collection By The Licensed Victuallers, December, 1917.... PRESIDENT LINCOLN, Stafford Street. £0 12s 3½d."

Walsall Observer 31/5/1924

"On a legal point, the magistrates at the Walsall Guildhall, on Tuesday, declined to grant a temporary transfer of the license of the PRESIDENT LINCOLN INN, Stafford Street, from Thomas Walter Richards to George Henry Dawkins.

Mr. Frank Cooper, who made the application on behalf of the owners, Messrs. Frank Myatt Ltd, brewers, Wolverhampton, said Richards had been manager of the PRESIDENT LINCOLN from October 1922, and since Christmas there had been complaints of shortage in the stocks. No deductions would be made in his wages, but Richards voluntarily put money in the till to make up the shortage. When the stocks were taken on Tuesday of last week, a certain barrel was pointed out as being full of beer. The stock-taker, on making tests, was not satisfied with the beer on tap, and on indicating that he was going down the cellar to tap the barrel, the licensee left him, and the wife then admitted that the barrel only contained water.

The wife, from the body of the Court, remarked, 'We were obliged to do it.'

'That was a thing which no brewery could stand,' added Mr. Cooper. 'They have not only their own property to consider, but have to protect the public, and Messrs. Myatt took the risk of immediately stopping this man and telling him he would no longer be allowed to sell. Another man was then put in charge of the house.'

Mr. T. A. Smith (presiding magistrate) asked whether it was intended to prosecute Richards.

Mr. Cooper said the point was being considered, but for the moment they were concerned purely with the transfer. Richards still had his furniture in the house and had been living there as well as the substitute.

Richards' wife continued to interrupt, and was warned to desist. She, however, made several other interjections and was ultimately turned out of Court.

Harold Whitehouse, of Newhampton Road East, Wolverhampton, stocktaker for the firm, told how he drained the barrel and found it contained nothing but water. Previously the barrel did not seem to have been tapped, and was apparently in the same condition as when delivered. Richards was £4 16s short in his stocks after reasonable allowances had been made for 'tops and bottoms.'

John Francis Myatt, managing director of the firm said Richards admitted in the office of the house manager Mr. Goldby, that he had put water in the barrel, and that he had done it before. In order to protect the public, witness gave instructions that someone else should be put in charge, and that if necessary the house should be closed. 'We cannot tolerate people robbing us,' added witness, 'and we cannot tolerate people who are disloyal. We get enough attacks on the trade generally without this sort of thing. One of the difficulties in preserving discipline in Walsall is that we have to give three months' notice, but we have always totally observed it.' He added that there had been no complaints about the quality of their beer. Richards pleaded with him to overlook the matter, and said he had been a fool, but would behave himself in the future. 'But I had a duty to do,' added witness, 'and walked out of the room in disgust.'

Mr. A. V. Haden (for the defence): Did you say to your house manager, 'Take immediate possession, turn this man and his belongings into the street and take proceedings against him?'

Witness: No I did not say that. That was one of our difficulties. We do not throw people into the street. We have to tolerate them, and are very lenient, but there are limits.

Asked if the company made any allowance for waste from tops and bottoms, witness said they were always taken into account. Pressed to give details of percentages etc, witness said he was unable to do so, but these could be obtained from the house manager.

In reply to further questions, witness said, 'We are out to do our duty, and I am not here to be attacked.'

The Magistrates' Clerk: Please answer the questions and don't make long speeches. You ought to be used to that sort of thing by now.

Witness admitted that two or three years ago a circular was sent out stating that no allowance would be made to tenants off their accounts. These did not apply to managers because they had only the goods to sell. He added that the company made allowances to tenants.

Mr. Haden said Richards complained that owing to receiving no allowance for wastages he was unable to make both ends meet. He went into the house at a wage of £2 10s per week.

The Clerk: And rates, taxes, gas and coal, would make another £1. With a wage of £3 10s a week, is there any justification for him robbing his employer?

Mr. Haden, replying, said that the point of the case that owing to no allowances being made for wastages, Richards had had to contribute substantial sums out of his own wages. The time arrived when he could not find the money, and with the object of gaining time, he admitted, he filled the cask with water.

Mr. T. A. Smith said it appeared the case must be tried on the point of whether the man was a thief or not.

The Magistrates' Clerk said the real point was whether Richards should be turned out without notice. The justices had laid it down previously that there should be either three months' notice or three months' wages, and the brewery company in this case desired to get rid of the man at once.

Mr. Smith (to Mr. Haden): Your case is that when Richards could not find the money he found the water?

Mr. Haden said he would like the Court to be definitely satisfied that an allowance was made for wastage. Richards was smarting under a grievance, and had only been able to keep the place going with a struggle.

The Magistrates' Clerk said that whenever transfers were applied for he always asked the ingoing licensee if he was satisfied with the agreement. One clause in Richards's agreement was that he should sell the goods in exactly the same strength, quality, and condition as they were supplied.

Mr. Haden submitted that in spite of the foolish way in which Richards acted, he was entitled to have been treated differently by the brewery company having regard to the whole of the circumstances, and should have received reasonable notice or money in lieu of notice.

Mr. Cooper: In other words, you do not hesitate at blackmail?

Mr. Haden: It is far removed from blackmail. Although Richards was engaged at 50s a week, he had only been in the house ten months when his wage was reduced to 40s.

Mr. Loxton: He agreed to it. Why did he not come to me if he was not satisfied?

Mr. Haden said the brewery company had suggested that in order to improve the trade a longer pull should be given. As recently as a fortnight ago, the house manager, Mr. Goldby, saw Richards, and his wife, and in the course of conversation the remark was made, 'We hear nothing about stocks these days,' and the answer was, 'No, and we don't want to.' The manager then said the house was satisfactorily conducted. Richards had no desire to deceive the public. 'You cannot sell water for beer,' he added, 'not even in Walsall.'

Mr. F. T. Cozens (magistrate): He has admitted selling watered beer already.

Mr. Haden denied that Richards had admitted watering the beer. He simply filled a cask with water in order to gain time to obtain £4 short in the stock.

Richards in evidence, said that on the day he took the house over a 'pack of hooligans' broke in and stole stout, etc, for which the brewery company called upon him to pay £8 7s 6d or quit. Later, the secretary, Mr. Taylor, apologised, after hearing the circumstances under which the charge was made. He agreed to accept the 10s reduction in wages because he was told that otherwise he would have to go.

Asked if he had any other circular authorising him to give the long pull Richards said 'All the papers were destroyed by Mr. Goldby and Mr. Whitehouse while I was away last Wednesday.'

The Chief Constable (Mr. G. H. Ballance) said it was an offence to give the long pull, and he would like to see any circular authorizing it.

The Clerk: I should think that a firm of brewers would be sufficiently wide awake not to put that in print.

Mr. Cooper: You may take it there was no such instruction. It was the reverse.

Mr. Smith (to witness): Why did you agree to give the long pull? Why did you not say 'It is an offence and I dare not do it'?

Witness: I was their servant.

Continuing witness said that he lost 15s a week on the waste.

Mr. Smith: One would have thought you would have said 'I cannot stand this. I will chuck the job.'

Witness: It was the housing question that caused me to hang on.

Mr. Smith: Had Mr. Myatt power to throw you into the street?

Mr. Haden: He has pretty well done it.

Continuing, witness said the new people took over the house on Wednesday, and he kept away because he was upset and feared that if Mr. Myatt carried out his threat he (Richards) would lose his reason. He afterwards returned to his wife at the house.

Cross-examined by Mr. Cooper, Richards admitted that he had received a circular definitely telling him not to give the long pull. A verbal instruction was given before the circular was issued.

The Magistrates' Clerk (Mr. R. E. Loxton) said the real point of the case was what right had the owners to apply for temporary authority without giving Richards proper notice. Section 87 of the Licensing Act gave them that right in certain circumstances, such as a man having been convicted or committed a felony. Richards had never been convicted, therefore the brewery company had no power under that section. The only other point on which they could apply was as to whether the premises had been given up by the holder of the license. If a man had done wrong between himself and his employers, that was not ground for getting him out of the house under the terms of the agreement, but only by an action for ejection. It was purely a question of the transfer of the license with which the Bench that morning were concerned, as governed by the Licensing Act. Possession of the house was entirely another matter, and did not occur within the jurisdiction of that Court.

Mr. Cooper submitted that Richards had admitted he had deserted the premises, and the brewery company had no alternative to put a substitute in. Because they allowed Richards to keep his furniture there he had not given up possession and now wanted money to get out.

The Clerk: It is a wrong thing to tamper with the beer, but I can't find anything in the Licensing Act that gives power to grant a transfer purely on that question.

Mr. Cooper argued that the Bench could grant a transfer owing to the incapacity of the person who held the license arising from illness or other infirmity. It had been held that the words 'or other infirmity' might include cases of misconduct.

Mr. Haden, on the other hand, denied that the man had voluntarily given up the license. He was told to clear out and being upset, went to some friends at Birmingham. His wife and belongings were left in the public house, and he afterwards returned to find that somebody else had taken possession. The brewery company had tried to wrest the premises from him, but he had declined to go.

Mr. Cooper: Under the terms of the agreement we might have thrown him into the street if we had desired to act harshly.

The magistrates retired to consider their decision, and on returning, Mr. Smith said the case had been boiled down to purely a question of law. The Bench had decided they had no jurisdiction as to possession, and they were compelled to object to this transfer.

Mr. Cooper then recalled that some time ago the same Bench had a case before them in respect of the GLOBE INN and Mr. Tench then appeared for the Managers' Association. Although there was no question of misconduct, the transfer was granted.

Mr. Smith said they could not hear anything further in the matter and added, 'I suppose the brewery company have their own remedy some other way'."

Walsall Observer 12/7/1924

"Judge Grants Ejectment Order. 'I have never heard of such a thing. The man had been dismissed. What right does he consider he has to stay there?', asked Judge Tebbs, when, at Walsall County Court, on Thursday, Messrs. Myatt's Brewery Ltd, applied for an ejectment order against Thomas Walter Richards at present residing at the PRESIDENT LINCOLN, Stafford Street, Walsall, of which he was formerly manager. The case was a sequel to proceedings which were recently heard before the Walsall magistrates, who were of opinion that the law would not permit them to grant a temporary transfer of the license to the new manager. In consequence of this difficulty, it was stated on Thursday, the house had been closed. Mr. F. Cooper appeared for the applicants, and Mr. A. V. Haden for the respondent.

Mr. Cooper explained that Richards was appointed manager of the PRESIDENT LINCOLN in 1922 at a wage of 50s a week, in addition to coal, gas and rent. In October last year the amount of defendant's remuneration was by mutual agreement reduced to £2. On May 20 this year the company's stocktaker visited the house and was shown in the cellar a barrel which apparently had been interfered with and which was included in the stock. In taking samples of beer the stocktaker was not satisfied with one of the qualities, and decided to tap the barrel referred to, which was supposed to contain the same quality as the unsatisfactory sample he had taken. Defendant went to fetch a tap, but did not return, and his wife went to the stocktaker and informed him that the barrel was filled with water.

Defendant later admitted this, and at the brewery the next morning expressed his regret and asked for it to be overlooked. The house manager, however, was instructed to dismiss defendant and obtain possession of the premises; and a new licensee found. Unfortunately for the brewers, under the Licensing Act, 1910, no license should be transferred without the application of the present licensee except in case of death, incapacity through illness, or through the licensee giving up possession. An application was made at the Walsall Police Court on May 27, but the Bench could not see their way clear to accede to it. The company had another manager in the house, which had had to be closed because they were not in a position to sell.

Mr. Haden said the defendant had never been made any allowances for wastages in his beer, and the result was that every week he got slightly behind with his stock.

His Honour: He has been discharged; what right does he consider he has to stay?

Mr. Haden: If your Honour considers his conduct has been corrupt _____.

His Honour: I shan't consider his conduct at all. He has been dismissed, and if you have any right of action you can take proceedings.

Tom Bentley Golby, 63, Walsall Road, Willenhall, house manager for the company, gave evidence as to dismissing defendant.

Mr. Cooper asked for an order to take effect by Monday so that he could apply for the transfer on Tuesday.

His Honour announced that the order would be made to take effect on Monday, and that a warrant would be enforceable immediately if it were not complied with."

Walsall Observer 19/7/1924

"Walsall magistrates (Mr. F. T. Cozens presiding) on Tuesday granted a protection order in respect of the PRESIDENT LINCOLN, Stafford Street, which had been closed for some time because the license could not be transferred on account of the licensee's objections.

Making the application on behalf of Messrs. Myatt's Brewery Ltd, Mr. F. Cooper reminded the Bench that when he made a previous application, on May 27, they held that they could not legally grant an order because the sitting licensee was still in possession of the premises. The case was before Judge Yebbs in the County Court last week, however, and an ejectment order was granted to take effect by midnight on Monday. The tenant, Thomas Walter Richards, had made no attempt to move and his goods and chattels had been ejected that (Tuesday) morning, so that he no longer had possession. In these circumstances Mr. Cooper asked for a protection order to be granted to George Henry Dawkins, the in-going tenant.

Dawkins stated that he had lived on the premises since May 21 and was going in as manager.

Contending that the Brewery Company had not complied with their agreement, Richards opposed the application.

Answering the clerk, he said he did not have a chance to state the facts concerning his dismissal at the County Court, and Mr.

A. V. Haden, who had previously acted for him, explained that His Honour Judge Tebbs took the view that if Richards had been wrongfully dismissed that was a subject for separate action.

Mr. Cooper pointed out that although Richards had been given 40 days notice of the County Court proceedings, he had not made any counter-claim of any kind and had taken no steps in regard to any right he might have.

Richards: I had no money to take proceedings; they beggared me.

Mr. Cooper said he objected to such a statement. Richards was not a tenant or he might have understood it. He was a manager, in receipt of a regular weekly wage, and was not beggared.

As stated, the magistrates granted the application.”

Staffordshire Advertiser 14/3/1925

“At the adjourned licensing sessions, on the 5th inst, the justices referred the following houses for compensation.....
PRESIDENT LINCOLN, Stafford Street.”

Rugeley Times 22/7/1939

“At the monthly meeting of the Walsall Licensed Victuallers Society, held on Thursday, at ROUGH HAY TAVERN, Darlaston, there was a good attendance of members.....

Stanley Lewis Clark, PRESIDENT LINCOLN, Stafford Street were elected members of the society.”

1939 Register

147, Stafford Street

[1] Stanley L. Clark, date of birth 18/2/1912, licensed victualler, manager, married;

[2] Joan E. Clark, dob 19/9/1918, unpaid domestic duties, married:

Walsall Observer 13/4/1940

“Bound over for six months and ordered to pay 11s 6d costs for committing a breach of the peace by fighting in Stafford Street, April 6, Frederick James Thurstance (32), lorry driver, 13, Gower Street, was stated to have created, with two companions, a disturbance in the PRESIDENT LINCOLN, Stafford Street, because the licensee refused to serve them after ‘time’ had been called. Ejected with the assistance of Police-constable Cunningham, Thurstance began fighting with another man and became still more violent when arrested. Accused denied that he was one of the two men engaged in the fight.”

Walsall Observer 2/11/1940

“‘There seems to be a growing custom among women of this town to take a shoe off and use it as a small club,’ declared Mr. C. L. Hodgkinson, at Walsall Police Court on Wednesday, appearing for two of the parties concerned in cross-summonses relating to trouble between a number of Rycroft relatives.

Lucy Tapper, 7, Farm Street, and her uncle Harry Jones, were summoned for assaulting Thomas Dunn, 14, Proffitt Street; Lucy Tapper and her sister, Joan Hilda Dunn, also of 7, Farm Street, were summoned for wilfully damaging seven panes of glass in the windows at Thomas Dunn’s home, Joan Hilda Dunn and her mother-in-law, Elsie Dunn (wife of Thomas Dunn) cross-summoned each other for assault; and Thomas Dunn was summoned for assaulting Lucy Dunn. Mr. Hodgkinson appeared for Thomas and Elsie Dunn.

Occurring on the night of October 19, the trouble began in the PRESIDENT LINCOLN public house, Stafford Street, where (said Mrs. Elsie Dunn) Mrs. Tapper referred to her sister wanting the address of her (Mrs. Elsie Dunn’s) son. Witness did not reply and Mrs. Joan Dunn then ran out of the smoke room and struck her a blow that knocked her to the floor. In Leckie Road, as she was going home, Joan Dunn again knocked her down, and struck her with the heel of her shoe about her back. Later the same night Mrs. Tapper and Joan Dunn, accompanied by their uncle (Harry Jones) went to witness’s house, where seven panes were broken by the women. Witness also alleged that Mrs. Tapper struck her (Mrs. Elsie Dunn’s) husband with the heel of her shoe and that Joan kicked her husband while he was on the floor.

Thomas Dunn corroborated this latter part of his wife’s evidence.

Joan Dunn stated that she only pushed her mother-in-law in the PRESIDENT LINCOLN after her mother-in-law had called her an offensive name. As she and her sister were going home, Mrs. Dunn attempted to strike her. She avoided the blow, but her mother-in-law then hit her, after which ‘they had a fight but fought fair.’

Mrs. Tapper corroborated this story and said Thomas Dunn jumped at her and knocked her to the ground.

The magistrates (Mrs. Hutchins, Mr. F. W. Evans and Dr. F. G. Layton) dismissed the summonses against Thomas Dunn and his wife, and fined Jones, Mrs. Tapper and her sister 10s each. In addition, Mrs. Tapper and Joan Dunn were ordered each to pay 4s for the damage to the windows.”

Walsall Observer 13/10/1943

“After sitting until 6pm on Wednesday, hearing 164 summonses arising out of excessive deliveries of coal last winter, the Walsall magistrates (Messrs. Fred Evans, and H. Shemmans, and Mrs. Brockhurst) reserved their decisions in what were regarded as the more serious cases until Thursday morning.....

Mr. Gordon Hawley appeared for the Holt Brewery Co. Ltd., Birmingham, and the licensees of the COTTAGE INN, Harden Road; RED LION, Blue Lane; CROWN AND CUSHION, Bridgeman Street; PRESIDENT LINCOLN, Stafford Street; and GREEN ROCK TAVERN, Blakenall – John Cockbill, Howard Freeman, Sidney Canner, May Middleton (now of 39, Caledon Street), and Bertram Albert Stone (now of 80, Hollemeadow Avenue). Mr. Hawley said the purchase of coal at these houses had always been left to the licensees, and the brewery company would have no reason to be suspicious that the permitted amounts were being exceeded. Moreover, as far as the licensees were concerned, in all the cases except one the coal was delivered without being specifically ordered, and the trouble would have been avoided if the merchants had refused to deliver without the requisite permits, which the licensees could have obtained if they had applied for them.

Stone was fined £2, the other licensees £1 each, and the brewery company 10s in each case.”

Walsall Observer 15/1/1944

“Walsall Licensed Victuallers’ Society.

Appeal on Behalf of the Merchant Navy Fund, The Duke of Gloucester’s Red Cross Fund and the Aid to China Fund. List of Subscriptions.....

PRESIDENT LINCOLN, Stafford Street. £10 18s 4d.”

Florence Leah McGrath married a Mr. Mole in 1950.

A full license was granted on 4th February 1960.

George Edward Morris – see also HOPE AND ANCHOR, GREEN MAN, STARTING GATE, SIR CHARLES NAPIER, and CROWN AND CUSHION.

Walsall Observer 11/7/1969

“The new manager at the PRESIDENT LINCOLN, Stafford Street, Walsall, is Mr. Albert Grazier, who was previously at the WAGON AND HORSES, Church Street, Oldbury.”

Closed

It became a shop. [2006]

PRETTY BRICKS

5, (6), John Street, (St. John Street), WALSALL

OWNERS

Thomas Bramhall, Bentley, near Walsall

George Holden, Ryecroft Street, Walsall

Mrs. Fanny Nicklin

Showells Brewery Ltd. [1902]

Ind Coope and Allsopp (leased from 29th June 1935)

Ansells Ltd. (acquired on 16th May 1960)

Tap and Spile (acquired in 1993)

Black Country Traditional Inns (acquired in 2011)

LICENSEES

David Stanley [1838] – [1845]

Joseph Noake* [1849] – [1850]

John Noake* [1851] – [1857]

Joseph Noake* [1853] – [1861]

Mrs. Emma (Noake) Sartain [1859] – [1865]

William Sartain [1865] – [1870]

James Nicklin (1870 – [1880];

Mrs. Fanny Nicklin [1881] – 1895);

Job Toon (1895 – 1896);

Rosannah Toon (1896 – 1898);

Fanny Nicklin (1898);

Caesar Augustus Llewelyn Jenkyns (1898 – 1899);

Robert Brownlee Hayes (1899);

Samuel Holmes (1899 – 1901);

Joseph White (1901);

Arthur Edward Cliffe (1901 – 1902);

Sarah Hollyhead (1902 – 1903); manager

Thomas Higgins (1903 – 1905);

Charles Mills (1905 – 1909);

James Howard Biddulph (1909 – 1910);

Edward Egan (1910 – 1922);

David Walker (1922 – 1929);

Percy Machin Meeke (1929 – 1935);
John Walker (1935 – 1936);
Harry Thomas Brooks (1936 – 1937);
Frederick Charles Jacques (1937 – 1938);
Ernest Frederick Draper (1938 – 1939);
Albert Edward Winkles (1939);
Harold Cooper (1939 – 1946);
Edward Brown (1946 – 1947);
Frederick Davies Boydell (1947);
Frank Mayo (1947 – 1948);
William Fletcher (1948 – 1951);
John Bernard Crump (1951 – 1952);
John Leslie Edgerton (1952 – 1955);
Mary Ann Mason (1955 – 1956);
Audrey Evelyn Preece (1956 – 1962);
Frederick Archibald Bent (1962 – 1966);
Leslie Archibald Bent (1966 – []
Cyril Whittingham [1983]
David J C Davies* [1993]
John Davies* [1994] – [2003]
Anthony Inns [] – 2006);
Mick Gull (2006 – []
Susan Ann Gull [2007]
John Horton []
Kim Langford []
Lucy Rushton [2012] – [2014]

NOTES

St. John Street [1841], [1851]
5, St. John Street [1858]
6, John Street [1860]
5, John Street [1864], [1865], [1896], [1908], [1912], [1940]

It was originally the NEW INN.

It was known locally as the “Pretty Bricks”.

Aris’s Birmingham Gazette 9/7/1838 - Advert

“Eleven Lots of valuable Freehold Building Land, near Stafford Street, Walsall, in the county of Stafford.

By Farrington and Son.

To be Sold by Auction, on Monday next the 16th day of July inst. at the house of Mr. Stanley, the NEW INN, John Street, Walsall, at six o’clock in the evening, subject to conditions then to be produced – the remaining Lots of very eligible Freehold Building land, situate in John Street, near Stafford Street, pleasantly and conveniently situated in a healthy and increasing part of Walsall, being Lots 1, 2, 3, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21, having excellent frontages of eleven yards each to St. John Street and Hambridge Lane, leading to Lichfield, and containing about 300 yards each.

The above lots are staked out, and will be entitle each purchaser to a Vote for the Southern Division of the County.

For further particulars apply to the Auctioneers, Walsall.”

Bells Life in London and Sporting Chronicle 11/2/1841

“Thomas Sergeant, of Walsall, and Thomas Forster of Darlaston, are to run six score yards tomorrow, at 11 o’clock, for £5 a side, at the NEW INN, St. John Street, Walsall.”

David Stanley = David Standley

1841 Census

St. John Street

- [1] David Standley (40), publican, born Staffordshire;
- [2] Henrietta Standley (35), born Staffordshire;
- [3] Joseph Standley (13), born Staffordshire;
- [4] Ann Standley (11), born Staffordshire;
- [5] David Standley (9), born Staffordshire;
- [6] Terasa Standley (7), born Staffordshire;

[7] Ellen Standley (4), born Staffordshire;
[8] William Read (15), ms, born Staffordshire:

Bells Life in London and Sporting Chronicle 27/12/1842

“Joseph Webb, the Gornal antelope, is, we are informed, willing to run any man two miles, for from £25 to £100. He can be heard anytime at David Stanley’s, NEW INN, St. John Street, Walsall, where the first deposit will be made. No offer will be accepted for a less sum than £25, nor less distance than two miles. (Why did not Webb accept some challenges which have recently appeared in our paper? – Ed.)”

Staffordshire Advertiser 13/5/1848 - Advert

“To Be Sold By Auction, by T. Franklin. On Wednesday, the 17th day of May, 1848, at the THREE CUPS INN, Park Street, Walsall, at 7 o’clock in the evening, subject to conditions then to be produced.

Lot 1. All that newly-erected Freehold old-licensed road side Public House, known by the sign of the SPORTSMAN, with good sleeping rooms, capital club room, dry cellaring, stable, shopping, private yard, and convenient out-offices, situate in Stafford Street, and now in the occupation of Mr. Wm. Ridding; also the house adjoining, situate in Stafford Street, and now in the occupation of Mr. S. Durnal.

Lot 2. All those six Freehold Messuages or Dwelling-Houses, situate in Stafford Street, now in the occupation of Messrs. Childlow, Baker, Ramsell, Deeley, and Littlely.

Lot 3. All that well-arranged old licensed Public House called the NEW INN, situate in St. John Street, Walsall, with two excellent club rooms, good sleeping rooms, extensive cellaring, brewhouse, stabling, shopping, piggeries, soft water cistern, with lead pumps, and convenient out-offices, now in the occupation of Mr. D. Stanley.....”

* possibly the same person

John Noake was married to Emma.

Staffordshire Advertiser 10/12/1853

“Walsall Petty Sessions.

Joseph Noake, of the NEW INN, John Street, was fined £1 and costs, for having their houses open after twelve o’clock on Saturday night.”

Staffordshire Advertiser 25/3/1854

“On Wednesday, Joseph Noakes, landlord of the NEW INN, John Street, was fined 10s and costs for resisting the police in entering his house when there were customers in it after licensed hours.”

The license of Joseph Noakes was suspended on 31st August 1854, having been convicted three times.

Walsall Free Press 5/12/1857

“The attention of the court was occupied a considerable time today in investigating charges brought against publicans for allowing gaming in their houses, contrary to the tenor of their licenses, the information in each case was laid by Police-constable Batchelor.

John Noakes of the NEW INN, John Street was the first defendant. The officer deposed that on Monday, the 23rd instant, he went to the house of the defendant, where he found four men playing at cards. He remained and saw two games played for two quarts of ale, which was brought in by the landlord, who was told by the losing parties to put it down to them. Mr. Duignan, who defended, cross-examined the witness, who said that he was not dressed in his police uniform, but had on a jacket, a cap, and an apron, and looked very much like an honest workman. Mr. Noakes was in the room all the time they were playing, but he could not swear the he (defendant) knew they were playing for ale. Mr. Duignan submitted that from the officer’s own statement there was no evidence to convict. The charge, as stated in the summons, was that the defendant had knowingly suffered gaming in his house by permitting card playing for ale, but they must prove that the landlord knew that they were playing for a stake, for if this was not the case, card playing was allowed. The evidence of the officer was conflictive, and not such as his client should be convicted upon. Moreover, he could call witnesses to prove that no stake whatever was played for. The defendant was called and denied the correctness of the officer’s statement, as also did the two men whom it was alleged were engaged in the game. The mayor said the evidence of the officer was certainly very contradictory, and the case must be dismissed, but so far as he was concerned, he should do all he could do to put a stop to the practice of card playing for money, as many families in the town no doubt had to suffer severely from such evil practices.”

Walsall Free Press 9/7/1859

“Francis Morris, a man of about forty years of age, was charged with having on the 23rd April, unlawfully uttered a counterfeit half-crown. Mr. Hill Prosecuted. Emma Noakes, who lives at the NEW INN, John Street, stated that the prisoner came to her house at ten o’clock on the night in question and called for a pint of beer and some tobacco, and paid for it with a sixpence, which she took and put by in a place by itself. He went again in about half an hour afterwards, called for some more beer, and tendered a half-crown in payment, which she took, and gave him the change. In few minutes, she sent for him back and told him he had given her a bad sixpence and a bad half-crown. He asked her to give him the money back; but she sent for a policeman and gave him in charge. After hearing the evidence of police-constable Ferris, by whom the prisoner was apprehended, police-sergeant Martin, by whom the prisoner had been searched, and Charles Sheppard, jeweller, who proved that the coins produced, viz, two sixpences and a half-crown, were bad. The learned Recorder having summed up, the jury, after a brief deliberation, returned a verdict of guilty, and the prisoner, who was undefended, was sentenced to twelve months' imprisonment with hard labour."

1861 Census

5, John Street – NEW INN Public House

[1] Emma Noake (39), widow, victualler, harness maker, born Coaremore, Shropshire;

[2] Joseph Noake (18), son, harness maker, born Walsall;

[3] George Noake (16), son, harness maker, born Walsall;

[4] Ellen Noake (11), daughter, scholar, born Walsall;

[5] David Noake (8), son, scholar, born Walsall;

[6] Clara Noake (1), daughter, born Walsall:

Emma Noake was also a harness maker. [1864], [1865]

Emma Noake married William Sartain in the 1st quarter of 1864.

Walsall Free Press 24/12/1864

"Samuel Mason was charged with having, on Tuesday last, stolen a canary bird, value 30s, the property of William Cooper, landlord of the WHITE LION public-house, Portland Street. From the evidence it appeared that the prisoner and some others came to prosecutor's house on Tuesday morning, and after having something to drink, the prisoner went into the back premises, and returned a few minutes later and stated that there had been an accident at Mr. Brewer's pit. Mr. Cooper and all the other parties in the house, with the exception of a little girl, ran out to see what had occurred. On returning, Mr. Cooper was met by the girl, who told him that the prisoner had stolen one of the best of the canaries. Mr. Cooper thereupon seized the prisoner, who was endeavouring to pass the girl, and took him back to the house, and on searching him found the bird in his right hand pocket. The bench after hearing the evidence sentenced prisoner to one months' imprisonment.

The prisoner was further charged with having stolen two candlesticks, the property of Emma Noake, of the NEW INN, John Street. Mrs. Noake identified the candlesticks, after which Ann Robert, servant at the NEW INN, said that on Tuesday forenoon, between eleven and twelve o'clock, the prisoner called and had a pint of ale. The candlesticks were in the room when he was there, and were missed after he left.

Police-constable Smallwood said that about three o'clock on Tuesday afternoon, he found the prisoner in Mr. Cooper's house, in Portland Street, with the candlesticks in his possession. Prisoner said he had made them about nine months' ago. Mr. Cooper, landlord of the WHITE LION, said the prisoner came to his house and offered the candlesticks for sale. Afterwards, when searching the prisoner for his (witness's) bird, he found the candlesticks in his pockets. The bench after hearing the evidence, sentenced the prisoner to two months' imprisonment."

William Sartain = William Sartin

Walsall Free Press 15/7/1865

"Thomas Bird, NEW TOWN TAVERN; John Perry, WHITE LION, High Street; Joseph Phillips, The ALBION, Wolverhampton Lane; Thomas Hall, WALSALL ARMS, Dudley Street; William Sartin, NEW INN, John Street; and John Holder, CROSS GUNS, Birchills, were charged with having had their houses open during prohibited hours on Sunday last. Holder was fined 10s and costs, Sartin 6d and costs, Hall 6d and costs, and Perry 1s and costs. The cases against Messrs. Bird and Phillips were dismissed."

Walsall Free Press 9/10/1869

"William Sartin, landlord of the NEW INN, John Street, was charged with having assaulted his wife, Emma Sartin. On the application of the complainant, the case was adjourned till the 17th instant."

Birmingham Daily Gazette 6/12/1869

"On Saturday afternoon, Mr. A. A. Fletcher, Coroner, for the borough, held an inquest at the NEW INN Public-house, John Street, upon the body of Thomas Jackson, aged 63, a miner. It appeared that while deceased was at work, on Tuesday last, in a pit at Green Lane Colliery, a brick from the side of the pit shaft fell upon his head and killed him.

The jury returned a verdict of Accidentally Killed; but as the 'butty', when informed of the state of the shaft, had set a man to repair it, instead of informing Mr. Baker, the owner, the jury told Mr. Baker, who was in attendance, that in their opinion the 'butty' was not qualified for the situation he held."

William Sartain was also a currier. [1870]

Walsall Free Press 4/6/1870

"On Wednesday afternoon, A. A. Fletcher, Coroner for the Borough, held an inquest at the NEW INN, John Street, upon the body of John Cordell, aged 51, a miner, who resided in Portland Street. It appeared from the evidence that deceased was at work all day on Tuesday, and returned home about 6-30pm, apparently in his usual health; but, he had scarcely finished his supper, when he fell from his chair and expired before medical aid could be procured. The only witness examined was Mr. Sophia Cordell, the widow of the deceased, and the jury, after hearing her statement, and the summing up of the Coroner, returned a verdict of Death from Natural Causes.”

The present building was erected in 1871.

1871 Census

5, John Street

- [1] James Nicklin (31), collar maker, born Walsall;
- [2] Ellen Nicklin (28), wife, born Walsall;
- [3] Emma Jane Nicklin (7 months), daughter, born Walsall;
- [4] Emma Swinbourn (17), domestic servant, born Walsall:

1881 Census

5, John Street – NEW INN

- [1] Fanny Nicklin (40), widow, victualler, born Walsall;
- [2] James Nicklin (4), son, scholar, born Walsall;
- [3] Emma J. Nicklin (10), daughter, scholar, born Walsall;
- [4] Mary Evenson (71), mother, former greengrocer, born Aldridge:

1891 Census

John Street – NEW INN

- [1] Fanny Nicklin (51), widow, publican, born Walsall;
- [2] Emma J. Nicklin (20), daughter, born Walsall;
- [3] James Nicklin (14), son, born Walsall;
- [4] Mary Evenson (81), mother, widow, born Aldridge;
- [5] Charles Evenson (46), brother, collar maker, born Walsall;
- [6] Phoebe Bennett (19), domestic servant, born Lancashire;
- [7] George H. Webb (24), brewer, born Cambridgeshire:

Staffordshire Advertiser 22/2/1896

“Harper v. Toon. In this case, which was heard before a jury, Joseph Harper, horse-clipper and salesman, Fourteen House Row, Orlando Street, sued Job Toon, licensed victualler, of the NEW INN, John Street, for £50 for personal injuries sustained, as was alleged, through the defendant having negligently left a load of coal in the yard of his licensed premises on a dark night. Mr. J. N. Cotterill appeared for the plaintiff, and Mr. Vachell (instructed by Mr. E. Evans) for the defendant. The plaintiff’s case was that as he was crossing the yard at the defendant’s house on the 21st of November, about six o’clock at night, he fell over a load of coal, fracturing a rib and receiving other injuries which had kept him from following his occupation during the most profitable period of the year, and which would probably keep him idle for another six weeks. For the defendant, it was denied that there was any negligence on his part. A verdict for the plaintiff for £15 and costs was given.”

Walsall Advertiser 26/2/1898 - Notice

“Re Rosannah Toon, Deceased.

Notice Is Hereby Given that all persons having any Claims or Demands upon or against the Estate of Rosannah Toon, late of the NEW INN, John Street, Walsall, Licensed Victualler, deceased, are hereby required to forthwith send in particulars thereof to the undersigned.

Dated this 26th day of February, 1898.

Stanley and Jackson, 35, Bridge Street, Walsall, Solicitors to the Administrator.”

Walsall Advertiser 7/1/1899

“An application was made by Mr. W. Joel Cooke for sanction to alterations to the NEW INNS, John Street. The suggested alterations were to remove existing bay windows, which were an obstruction, and to put in flat windows. The entrance hall would be removed from the centre to the side. the two rooms would also be converted into one, which would be easier of supervision by the licensee.

Application granted.”

Walsall Advertiser 2/9/1899

“The annual licensing sessions for this borough were held at the Guildhall on Wednesday.....

The Chief Constable submitted the following list showing houses where children under the age of 13 had been served since Aug., 1898. Alehouses.....

Samuel Holmes, NEW INN, served 11 children.

He said he had a list of 118 other houses which he did not think worth while including in the report, where the number of children served had been under ten. The Mayor said he thought that the license holders should try and fall in with the magistrates views....

On returning the magistrates announced their decisions as under....

In the cases where children under 13 years of age were reported to have been supplied, on the promise of the licensees to carry out the wishes of the magistrates in future the licenses would be renewed with a caution.”

Walsall Observer 22/12/1900

“An inquest was held on Monday afternoon, at the NEW INN, John Street, by Mr. T. H. Stanley, in reference to the death of Minnie Violet Degville, an infant, whose parents live in Portland Street, and who died from the effects of a pin scratch. Mary Louisa Degville, the wife of Thomas Degville, of Railway Row, Portland Stret, deposed that on Tuesday morning her child was taken with sickness and diarrhea, and in the evening she took it to Dr. O’Meara, who prescribed. On Friday morning a neighbour, Mrs. Phillips, drew her attention to a mark under the deceased’s chin, which looked like the scratch of a pin. On Friday night Mrs. Phillips took the child to Dr. McKinsty, whom ordered the place to be poulticed. Next day she noticed that the mark had gone black, and she sent for Dr. O’Meara, who first saw the child. He came at eleven o’clock on the Saturday morning, but the child died the same afternoon at a quarter to three. She did not remember scratching the child, but on the Monday she fastened a wrap on deceased with an ordinary pin, as she could not find a safety pin. Mrs. Phillips, the neighbour, also gave evidence. Dr. O’Meara stated that on the Tuesday he prescribed for sickness and diarrhea. On Saturday morning, when he again saw the child, his attention was drawn to what was apparently a pin scratch. The front of the neck was inflamed, and in the centre there was a patch of gangrene as large as a shilling. The glands were also swollen. He was of opinion that the child was suffering from blood poisoning, the result of the scratch, and that death was due to syncope, resulting upon the blood poisoning. A verdict of Accidental Death was returned.”

Walsall Advertiser 23/2/1901

“On Thursday evening Mr. and Mrs. Joseph White, of the NEW INNS, John Street, late steward and stewardess of the Walsall Conservative Club, were presented with a splendid timepiece, with suitably engraved plate, subscribed for by the members of the club (and supplied by Messrs Sheppard Bros.), as a mark of the appreciation in which their services were held. Mr. T. Hawker (the chairman of the club), in making the presentation, eulogised very highly the services of Mr. and Mrs. White to the club, especially commenting upon the remarkable cleanliness in which the club had been kept by them, and the efficient way in which they had discharged their various duties. He also expressed regret of the members that Mr. and Mrs. White had left them, and said he was sure he was only voicing the feelings of all when he wished them success in their new undertaking. Added testimony to the excellent services of Mr. and Mrs. White were also given by Mr. W. Bailey and Mr. R. B. Sutton; and subsequently a smoking concert took place, the company being hospitably entertained by Mr. Hawker.”

Walsall Advertiser 30/3/1901

“A meeting of the Walsall and District Licensed Victuallers’ and Beer Retailers’ Friendly and Protection Society was held on Thursday week.....
New Members..... Joseph White, NEW INN, John Street.”

1901 Census

5, John Street

- [1] Joseph White (29), public house manager, born Coalpool;
- [2] Emma White (28), wife, born Brownhills, Staffordshire;
- [3] Edward N. White (5), son, born Walsall;
- [4] Vincent H. White (3), son, born Walsall;
- [5] Phyllis E. White (6 months), daughter, born Walsall;
- [6] Polly Turner (14), visitor, born Banbury;
- [7] Fred Turner (17), visitor, born Banbury;
- [8] Alice Turner (13), visitor, born Banbury;
- [9] Walter Turner (15), visitor, born Banbury;

Sarah Hollyhead = Sarah Hollingshead

Walsall Advertiser 26/4/1902

“A respectable looking young man named John Galliar, 52, North Street, was summoned for assaulting Jane Connor, 58, Long Acre Street, on April 14th.
Complainant said she went into the NEW INN, John Street, when the defendant, who was in the house, insulted her and used bad language. When she turned to go away, he struck her several times in the face, and blackened her eye.
The defendant’s case was that because he would not pay for a drink for the woman, she struck at him with a jug and that he only knocked up the jug.
Mr. Ballance (Acting Chief Constable) said that this woman was the wife of the man Connor, who was charged (in another case) with breaking the man Haywood’s jaw. A boy named Alfred Cozens, was next called to prove he was passing the NEW INN, when he saw the defendant strike the woman Connor several times.
Mr. Loxton (magistrates’ clerk) here asked whether there were no more witnesses. Where was the landlady? Here there was a big row and the only witness was a boy. The magistrates adjourned the case for a week for further witnesses to be called.”

Staffordshire Advertiser 26/4/1902

“William Connor, 37, miner, of 66, Long Acre Street, was charged with inflicting grievous bodily harm on John Haywood, of 247, Pleck Road, on April 14. The evidence was that whilst the prosecutor was sitting in the NEW INN, John Street, the prisoner came into the room, walked up to him, and struck him a blow on the jaw which smashed the bone and left him unconscious for nearly an hour. The prosecutor did not know Connor and had never spoke to him. The prisoner said that he had struck Haywood in mistake for a man named Gillear, who had insulted and struck his wife. The prisoner was committed to the next Quarter Sessions, bail being granted, the prisoner in £20 and two sureties of £10 each.”

[At the Quarter Sessions in June 1902, William Connor agreed to pay compensation of £5, to be paid at 10s a week, and was bound over to come up for judgement when called upon.]

Walsall Advertiser 3/5/1902

“Jane Connor, of 56, Long Acre Street, married woman, charged John Gillear, of 52, North Street with assaulting her on the 14th April.

Complainant’s evidence was to the effect that while in the NEW INN, John Street, defendant struck her three times, and blackened her eye. She denied she struck Gillear with a jug.

A girl named Selina Jeffries said she saw defendant strike Mrs. Connor once in the face.

Miss Hollingshead, the daughter of the manageress of the NEW INN, said that she was in the bar while the quarrel took place, but she did not see complainant strike Gillear.

Defendant called three witnesses, all of whom agreed that he and Connor were having high words, but none of them saw any blows being struck.

The majority of the Bench considered that the defendant was proved guilty, and they inflicted a fine of 5s and costs, or seven days’ imprisonment.

This case, it may be remembered, had been adjourned from the previous week for further evidence.”

Walsall Advertiser 12/12/1908

“William Turner (38), labourer, Dudley Street; Patrick Curley (40), miner, 68, Burrowes Street; and William Connor (39), Long Acre, were charged with stealing a haddock, value 6d, the property of Mary Ann Jurdison, Stafford Street. It seemed on Monday night at 6.30, the prisoners went to Mrs. Jurdison’s shop, and whilst Connor was talking to the prosecutrix, Turner picked up a haddock and went off in the direction of Short Acre. The other two prisoners loitered about the stall, and Rushton sent a fellow employee after Turner.

Police-constable Lewis spoke to ejecting prisoners from the NEW INNS, John Street, ten minutes before the alleged robbery, and to arresting them. Turner, charged, said he purchased the haddock, and the other two denied any knowledge of the affair. Turner pleaded guilty, and said the other prisoners had nothing to do with the case. Connor and Curley were discharged, and Turner was sent to gaol for a month.”

1911 Census

5, John Street – NEW INN

[1] Edward Egan (31), licensed victualler, born Ballinasloe, Co. Roscommon;

[2] Ellen Egan (27), wife, married over 3 years, assisting in business, born Walsall;

[3] Ellen Mary Egan (9 months), daughter, born Walsall;

[4] Dorothy Whitby (15), servant, born Walsall:

Walsall Observer 12/1/1918

“Walsall and District War Aid Committee. Collection By The Licensed Victuallers, December, 1917.....
NEW INNS, John Street. £0 5s 0d.”

Staffordshire Advertiser 14/3/1925

“At the adjourned licensing sessions, on the 5th inst.... the justices sanctioned alterations to the NEW INN, John Street, subject to the work being commenced within six months.”

Staffordshire Advertiser 26/6/1926

“At Walsall on Wednesday, David Walker, licensee of the NEW INN, John Street, was fined 20/- for having in his possession for use of trade 48 unstamped half-pint glasses. Evidence was given that 20 glasses were correct, nine deficient and 11 over measure. Mr. Jackson who defended, said the glasses were purchased for use at a supper. There was no intent to defraud.”

Harry Brooks = Harry Brookes

Harold Cooper married Nancy Thomas.

1939 Register

John Street – NEW INNS Public House (3 of 4)

[1] Harold Cooper, date of birth 2/9/1908, galvanizer, steel tube works, heavy work, married;

[2] Annie M. Cooper, dob 6/4/1914, public house manageress, married;

[3] Alan W. Cooper, dob 19/8/1934, at school, single;

Walsall Observer 19/10/1940 - Advert

“Pianist Wanted, at once, Saturday evenings.

Apply Cooper, NEW INN, John Street, Walsall.”

Walsall Observer 4/1/1941 - Advert

“For Sale, Table Mangle, large size, £3, large Dog Kennel, 15/-.
Cooper, NEW INN, John Street, Walsall.”

Walsall Observer 16/8/1941 - Notice

“Motor Ambulance Effort on behalf of Walsall and District Division of the British Red Cross Society.
Third List Of Subscriptions.....
NEW INN, John Street. £0 18s 0d.”

Walsall Observer 15/1/1944

“Walsall Licensed Victuallers’ Society.
Appeal on Behalf of the Merchant Navy Fund, The Duke of Gloucester’s Red Cross Fund and the Aid to China Fund. List of Subscriptions.....
NEW INNS, John Street. £0 7s 9d.”

It had a folk club, which closed in 1968.

Walsall Branch of CAMRA was founded here in 1972.

It was refurbished in 1983.

David Davies’ partner was Joy Swinburne.

It closed in January 1994 for structural repairs and alterations.
It reopened on 17th March 1994 as the TAP AND SPILE.

*probably the same person

Sandwell Evening Mail 7/5/1994

“Down Your Local. TAP AND SPILE, Walsall.

John Davies and Joy Swinburne jointly run the ever-popular real ale pub now known as the TAP AND SPILE in Walsall’s John Street. They’ve been together for 12 years now and haven’t even got round to getting engaged, let alone married. ‘We’d rather travel and see the world than get married,’ says 33-year-old Joy ‘As much as we both love travelling, it’s rather nice to come home to our little back-street pub,’ she says.

The pub became part of the Tap and Spile chain of pubs in late 1993, providing John and Joy with the opportunity to bring back a varying range of exotic guest beers. The pub was closed for three months until recently while it underwent a £100,000 facelift. And John, aged 42, and Joy jumped at the chance to indulge their love of travel during its closure until Walsall FC boss Kenny Hibbitt officially reopened it last month.

John admits to being a novice in the pub trade, having been a carpenter and joiner all his working life until six-and-a-half years ago when he took over. Unlike John, his partner has known nothing other than the pub trade since an early age. Her parents ran the ACORN pub in Blackheath and later went on to run a hotel in Kington, where she met John. Trained at Halesowen Catering College, she says, ‘I worked as a chef there for a few years, then spent a summer season working on a floating hotel on the Brecon Canal.....’

Mick Gull was married to Sue.

See also LITTLETON ARMS

[2007]

It was renamed PRETTY BRICKS. [2008]

John Horton – see also FOUNTAIN.

It reopened as a Black Country Traditional Inns pub in 2011.

Kim Langford was married to Roy.

See also BLACK COUNTRY ARMS.

Lucy Rushton was married to Mark.

The folk club restarted in 2015.

[2023]

PRINCE (BLUCHER)

239, (230), Stafford Street, WALSALL

OWNERS

John Hadley, lock maker, 200, Stafford Street, Walsall
Great Haywood Brewery Co.
Chesters Brewery Co. Ltd, Manchester
North Worcestershire Breweries Ltd. [1901], [1902]
Wolverhampton and Dudley Breweries Ltd. (acquired in 1909)
Admiral Taverns
Union Pub Co. (W&D) [2001]

LICENSEES

James Wiley [1818]
William Mason [1822]
Joseph Roper [1828] – [1848]
George Tonks [1849] – [1851]
Thomas Darby [1855] – [1873];
Stephen Griffin [1875] – [1876];
Emily E Ross [];
Walter Farmer [];
John Jordan [1881];
William Chamberlain [];
Richard Hall [] – 1889);
Charles Taylor (1889 – 1890);
William Boys (1890 – 1893);
John Frederick Ford (1893 – 1894);
James Davis (1894 – [1901]
Richard W E Dunn [1902] – [1904]
John Harry Brown [] – 1905);
John Owen (1905 – [1916]
Mrs. Emma Owen [1921]
Arthur Probert [1921]
Edward ‘Teddy’ Gilbert [] – 1931);
Harold Hinton (1931 – 1932);
John Holland (1932 – 1938);
William Devey (1938 – 1940);
Arthur Abraham Cannings (1940 – 1942);
Harry Wood (1942 – 1943);
Robert Preston (1943 – 1948);
Albert Edward Jones (1948 – 1950);
Richard Henry Woodward Lakin (1950 – 1952);
Frank Dawkin (1952 – 1958);
Leonard Spencer Hopkins (1958 – 1960);
Francis Wright (1960 – 1964);
Christine Wright (1964 – [1966]
Samantha Angela Jones []

NOTES

239, Stafford Street [1860], [1871], [1872], [1904], [1932], [1939], [1940]
230, Stafford Street [1868]

BLUCHERS HEAD [1822]

OLD PRINCE BLUCHER [1828], [1830]

GENERAL BLUCHER [1829]

PRINCE BLUCHER [1818], [1831], [1842], [1849], [1850], [1860], [1861], [1864], [1871], [1892], [1897], [1903], [1904], [1911], [1916], [1921], [1932]

BLUCHER [1837], [1848], [1850], [1855], [1857], [1861], [1862], [1872], [1876], [1890]

PRINCE [1940], [1942], [1996], [2004], [2006]

Staffordshire Advertiser 24/1/1829

“On Tuesday evening week, about 6 o’clock, two men went into the house of Mr. Joseph Roper, the sign of the GENERAL BLUCHER, in Stafford Street, Walsall, supposed for the purpose of obtaining refreshment. In a short time afterwards Mr. Roper’s daughter thought she heard some noise on the stairs, and on going up to ascertain the cause, the door of Mr. R.’s bed-room was found fastened inside, and immediately a man (one of the two that entered the house as above stated) jumped from the window into the street, and escaped, taking with him, from a drawer which he had forced open, £40 in notes of different banks, and from ten to twenty sovereigns; also several tradesmen’s bills – the latter being the only property Mr. Roper can swear to. The other man was taken into custody, and underwent an examination the same evening at the Guildhall, but nothing could be elicited further than that his companion is a pig-jobber attending different markets, and that he (the prisoner) went to the GENERAL BLUCHER with the intention of drinking a cup of ale with him, not suspecting him to be of bad character. The man taken remains in Walsall prison, and it is said that his companion has been apprehended in Birmingham.”

Staffordshire Advertiser 23/9/1837

“William Hickman was committed to Stafford for six months to hard labour, for robbing the garden of Mr. Joseph Roper, of the GENERAL BLUCHER, Stafford Street.”

Wolverhampton Chronicle 18/10/1848 - Died

“On the 9th instant, Mr. Joseph Roper, of the BLUCHER public-house, Stafford Street, Walsall.”

George Tonks was also a letter cutter and engraver. [1849], [1850]

Birmingham Journal 6/1/1855

“On Monday, Thomas Darby, BLUCHER INN, Stafford Street, was charged at the Guildhall with keeping his house open on the night of Sunday, the 24th ult, after ten o’clock. Defendant pleaded guilty, and said it rained hard, and when shutting-up time came, his customers could not leave. He was fined 20s and expenses.”

Birmingham Journal 11/3/1857

“Thomas Cox was charged on Monday at the Guildhall, with uttering two counterfeit florins. Elizabeth White, waiter in Gray’s liquor shop, deposed to receiving one from the prisoner on Sunday night in payment for a glass of gin, she giving the prisoner change. The girl identified the prisoner and the florin. The other florin was attempted to be passed in the BLUCHER INN, Stafford Street, the same evening, but it was detected by the landlord, Thomas Darby, who secured the prisoner and gave him into custody. 19s in silver, and 2s 2½d in coppers, were found on him. Mr. Darby identified the florin offered to him by the prisoner. Police-constable Babb, who searched the prisoner, said that he told him he was a tailor, on tramp, and until he was searched denied that he had any money in his possession. The prisoner was remanded, in order to allow time for communication with the Mint authorities.”

Bells Life in London and Sporting Chronicle 10/2/1861

“R. Craddock of Bloxwich will run S. Bateman of Wolverhampton 300 or 400 yards, for £5 or £10 a side. Money ready at T. Darby’s, the BLUCHER, Stafford Street, Walsall.”

1861 Census

Stafford Street – PRINCE BLUCHER

- [1] Thomas Darby (33), brush maker, born Walsall;
- [2] Emma Darby (27), wife, born Shrewsbury;
- [3] Daniel Darby (13), son, scholar, born Walsall;
- [4] Ann Darby (6), daughter, scholar, born Walsall;
- [5] Samuel Darby (4), son, born Walsall;
- [6] Mary Ann Darby (2), daughter, born Walsall;
- [7] John Darby (9 months), son, born Walsall;
- [8] Mary Newman (17), niece, house servant, born Walsall:

Bells Life in London and Sporting Chronicle 1/3/1863

“F. Bolton of Walsall will run Kettle of Willenhall 100 yards if he will give him a yard start, or two in 120, for £5 or £10 a side. By calling at T. Darby’s, PRINCE BLUCHER, Stafford Street, any night next week a match can be ensured.”

Thomas Darby was also a brush maker. [1864], [1865], [1868], [1870]

1871 Census

239, Stafford Street – PRINCE BLUCHER INN

- [1] Thomas Darby (43), victualler, born Walsall;
- [2] Emma Darby (37), wife, born Shrewsbury;
- [3] Ann Darby (16), daughter, barmaid, born Walsall;
- [4] Samuel Darby (14), son, caster, born Walsall;
- [5] John Darby (10), son, scholar, born Walsall;
- [6] Joyce Darby (9), daughter, scholar, born Walsall;
- [7] Robert Darby (7), son, scholar, born Walsall;
- [8] Florence E. Darby (3), daughter, born Walsall;
- [9] Phoebe A. Darby (1), daughter, born Walsall;
- [10] Mary Conolly (17), domestic servant, born Ireland:

Bells Life in London and Sporting Chronicle 4/1/1873

“J. Craddock of Walsall will run T. Dalton of Spring Hill, for £5 a side. Money ready at T. Darby’s, PRINCE BLUCHER INN, Stafford Street, Walsall.”

Bells Life in London and Sporting Chronicle 26/7/1873

“Mr. Cotton’s bitch of Manchester and Mr. Hawkin’s Rose of Walsall run, for £10 a side, on handicap terms, at the Royal Oak Grounds, Burnt Tree, Dudley Port, on Aug 9. Mr. T. Darby, of the BLUCHER INN, Stafford Road, Walsall, stakeholder.

Stephen Griffin was fined 10s and costs, on 31st December 1875, for Sunday trading.

Staffordshire Advertiser 16/9/1876

“Adjourned Licensing Session..... The licenses of the undermentioned were renewed with cautions, viz:

Stephen Griffin, BLUCHER INN, Stafford Street In the course of the proceeding the Mayor said the newly-added district of Rycroft had occasioned the Bench a great deal of trouble, chiefly through the drinking propensities of the inhabitants of that locality, and the magistrates had therefore received special instructions as to looking up the licensed houses in the district.”

1881 Census

Stafford Street – PRINCE BLUCHER Public House

- [1] John Jordan (25), licensed victualler, born Ronsham, Oxfordshire;
- [2] Elizabeth Jordan (30), wife, born Redborough, Gloucestershire;
- [3] Margaret E. Jordan (2 months), daughter, born Walsall;
- [4] Selina Malcolm (14), domestic servant, born Cannock:

Birmingham Daily Post 27/11/1890

“At the Guildhall, a special session – the first under the new local Act – was held for the purpose of hearing applications for music, singing, and dancing licenses The following applied in person William Boys, the BLUCHER INN, Stafford Street. Refused.”

1891 Census

239+240, Stafford Street

- [1] William Boys (26), publican’s manager, born Walsall;
- [2] Hannah Rose Boys (24), wife, born Walsall;
- [3] William Henry Boys (1), son, born Walsall;
- [4] Ann Hicklin (13), servant, born Walsall:

Walsall Advertiser 26/6/1897

“The Diamond Jubilee.....

There was a brilliant gas device in front of the Science and Art Institute; whilst among the inns, the PRINCE BLUCHER, in Stafford Street, was a capital show, among its adornments being a device in arms, the use of which young men of proper calibre can speedily be schooled after the requisite consultation with the recruiting sergeant.”

Walsall Advertiser 18/12/1897

“A correspondent furnishes us with a somewhat remarkable instance of an accidental meeting of veterans which occurred one noon this week in Walsall. The PRINCE BLUCHER INN, Stafford Street, happens to be the headquarters for local recruiting for the Royal Marines and the Navy, and it was here that first one veteran and another dropped in for a midday libation, until within a few minutes the company numbered six veterans, two still serving and the remaining four no longer counted on the strength of her Majesty’s forces, though all willing and able to respond to any call should the country’s needs require further test of patriotism. Of these six one was an ex-colour-sergeant, four sergeants, and one private, all having served with the Royal Marines or Infantry. Their united service amounts to 147 years, and there is scarcely a part of the world but some or other had visited on duty – the Mediterranean, the White Man’s Grave, West Indies, the Gulf of Aden, Indian Ocean, the Mauritius, East, and West, and South Africa, from Colon to Venezuela in South America, Newfoundland, Labrador, the Brazils, the Pacific stations, Australia, Demerara, Jamaica, Rio de Janeiro, China, and so on. One ex-sergeant claimed to have made the longest voyage in the shortest time that was ever accomplished by our men-of-war – from Plymouth to Rio, with but one call, at the Canary Islands; 6,000 miles in six weeks! Of active service too, they had seen a share, for they mustered six medals, and one of these had three clasps recording four engagements in Egypt and the Soudan. Among the six veterans also were 23 good conduct badges. And what is more pleasant to record, the four not now serving are all in good positions, and three of them have a useful little pension atop their weekly earnings in civil life. We offer no apologies for once more reiterating the fact that, comparatively, Staffordshire is regarded as the foremost soldiering county in England. And certainly Walsall can claim to have furnished its fair quota to this patriotic distinction.”

1901 Census

239, Stafford Street

- [1] James Davis (48), licensed victualler, born Tipton;
- [2] Sissey Davis (48), wife, born Dudley;
- [3] Harry Davis (19), son, gas fitter’s apprentice, born Wolverhampton;
- [4] James Davis (17), son, general mechanic’s apprentice, born Wolverhampton;
- [5] Walter Davis (14), son, grocer’s errand boy, born Birmingham;
- [6] Emily Davis (15), daughter, dressmaker’s apprentice, born Birmingham;
- [7] Alfred Davis (11), son, born Walsall;
- [8] Sydney Davis (9), son, born Walsall;
- [9] Rupert Davis (8), son, born Walsall;
- [10] Mary Massary (9), visitor, born Plymouth:

Walsall Advertiser 31/8/1901

“The annual brewster sessions for the borough of Walsall was held at the Guildhall on Wednesday.....

Mr. H. H. Jackson applied for the renewal of the license of the PRINCE BLUCHER, Stafford Street, to which the Chief Constable objected on the ground that it was not required and was not structurally adapted.

Police-sergeant Jones gave evidence on behalf of the police. He said the house was not structurally adapted, and was not required. The BELL AND CUCKOO was only 50 yards away, and 20 yards further away was the FOX and IVY HOUSE; the SARACEN’S HEAD and the KIMBERLEY RESTAURANT were also close too.

Replying to the Chief Constable, the witness said the house in its present state was not fit for habitation.

Police-sergeant Haycock was also called. He said the house was an old one and requires re-constructing. The rooms were spacious but the back portion seemed extremely limited. In its present condition the house was not fit for use as a licensed house.

Mr. Loxton: Can you give evidence to the magistrates to show them that the license should not be renewed? – No, sir, I cannot.

The Chief Constable: Can you give evidence to show the state of the back of the premises? – The rooms at the back are very bad; they want re-constructing.

Mr. Loxton: Are the premises in such a state as to reasonably answer the requirements of the public using the house? – I have no doubt that people would complain.

Mr. Loxton: Can you tell the magistrates that the premises are in such a state that the ordinary member of the public who visited them would say ‘these premises are not fit for me to go in?’ – No, sir; I could not say that.

The license was renewed.....

The PRINCE BLUCHER. Mr. H. H. Jackson made application on behalf of the North Worcestershire Brewery Company as owners, and Mr. James Davis, as tenant, for the provisional grant of a license for new premises to be erected on the site of the present inn in Stafford Street. Mr. Jackson said there was not an inch of new ground to be used, whilst on the other hand a considerable area of ground would be given up. The house needed to be structurally adapted to the requirements of the neighbourhood. The drinking area of the premises at present was 95 square yards, but on the proposed new building only 69 yards. The present area of the premises was 826 square yards, but the new area of the premises would be only 318, a decrease of 508 square yards.

Mr. Stanley [Walsall temperance party] objected on the ground that this would be a new house.

The application was sanctioned.”

Walsall Advertiser 19/10/1901

“The Street Committee reported. The following plans have been approved.....

North Worcestershire Brewery Co. Ltd., rebuilding the PRINCE BLUCHER INN, Stafford Street.”

Walsall Advertiser 27/9/1902

“An order was made declaring final the provisional grant of the license of the PRINCE BLUCHER INN, Stafford Street, on an undertaking being given that the land behind the house not included in the licensed area should be cut off by an unclimbable wall. The application was made by Mr. Bolton.”

Wolverhampton Chronicle (October 1902)

“Mr. Boulton (Stourbridge) applied for an order to declare final the provisional grant of the license to sell on premises known as the PRINCE BLUCHER, Stafford Street. The application was granted subject to a piece of land from the back being cut off from the licensed premises.”

Walsall Advertiser 7/2/1903

“On Thursday a meeting of the supporters of the Walsall Football Club was held at the PRINCE BLUCHER, Stafford Street, to consider the advisability of forming the club into a limited liability company, in order to place the organisation on a sound financial basis. There was good attendance, over which the President (Mr. J. West) presided. He explained that at present there was a small debt of about £60 on the club, but with the team playing so well he felt that the debt could easily be wiped off. When that was done he did not see why they should not form a company, and when this came about there was no reason they should not regain admission to the Second Division of the League.

After some discussion it was resolved that the names of those present who were willing to take shares in a limited company should be taken by the secretary and a further meeting called at a date to be decided upon.

It was stated that it was proposed to form a company with a capital of £250, and that the players were willing to be transferred from the present committee to the company. It was eventually resolved to form a sub-committee to carry out the scheme, with 1,000 shares at 5s each."

Walsall Advertiser 7/3/1903

"On Tuesday the adjourned annual licensing sessions were held at the Guildhall, when the Court was crowded.....

On behalf of Richard W. E. Dunn, of the PRINCE BLUCHER, Stafford Street, Mr. Boulton (Messrs. Harward and Co, Stour-bridge), applied for a dancing, singing and music license. An application was made at the licensing meeting, and on that occasion a musical society, which it is proposed to form, had not been established. It was intimated by their worships that the application might be renewed when the society was formed. That society had now been established under the name of the 'Walsall Apollo Musical Society,' and the rules drawn up.

The chief constable objected to dancing being carried on in a public house.

Mr. Boulton said the notice was served in the usual form, but he did not apply for dancing.

The Chief Constable: Then I have no objection."

John Harry Brown – see also NEW INN, RED LION, NEW STATION, THREE CUPS.

Walsall Advertiser 30/1/1909

"George Lynex (18), carpenter, living at the PRINCE BLUCHER, Stafford Street, was seen by Police-constable Ashby riding a bicycle on the footpath in Ablewell Street, on the forenoon of the previous Wednesday, when half the path was fenced off through the opening of the Mond gas mains. Defendant said he only rode a short distance on a side street. Ordered to pay costs (4s)."

Indenture 28/10/1909

"All That public-house situate in Stafford Street Walsall aforesaid known as The BLUCHER together with the bowling green occupied therewith which premises were formerly described as All that messuage or public house (formerly 2 messuages) situate in Stafford Street Walsall aforesaid and known as The BLUCHER And Also the outbuildings yard and appurtenances thereto belonging and occupied therewith. And Secondly all the range of shopping in the yard at the rear of The BLUCHER And Also the yard in which the said range of shopping stands part of which range of shopping formerly consisted of 8 dwelling-houses."

1911 Census

239, Stafford Street

[1] John Owen (41), licensed victualler, born Rushall;

[2] Emma Owen (40), wife, married 15 years, assisting in the business, born Walsall;

[3] George Lymer (19), brother in law, carpenter, born Walsall;

[4] Sarah Hatton (18), general servant, born Brierley Hill:

Walsall Advertiser 21/12/1912

"In connection with the PRINCE BLUCHER Sick and Dividend Society, Stafford Street, a dividend of 8/- per member, two nights and card has been declared. The balance sheet showed receipts £145 15s 2d, and expenditure £71 3s 2d, and a balance was left in hand of £15 8s. The LAMP TAVERN Society, Stafford Street, paid a dividend of 10/-, two nights and a card. While at the Caledonian Corks, FOUNTAIN INN, Long Street, the amount was 3/9."

Walsall Advertiser 20/12/1913

"The annual general meeting of the PRINCE BLUCHER HOTEL Sick and Dividend Club, Stafford Street, was held on Tuesday evening. The secretary presented his report, which showed the total income to be £118 2s 10d and expenditure £49 19s 4d, which is an increase on last year's total of 3s 6d. The membership at the commencement of the year was 105, but 42 have since lapsed. The Borough Member (Sir Richard Cooper, Bart.) is an honorary member. During the year £38 7s 6d has been paid away in death and sick money. The balance in hand is £6 0s 8d. The election of officers for the ensuing year resulted as follows: President, Mr. T. Myring; vice-president, Mr. T. Atkins; secretary, Mr. W. Aulton; treasurer, Councillor G. W. Warner.

The Women's Death and Dividend Club in connection with the PRINCE BLUCHER HOTEL held their meeting on Monday evening, when the sharing was announced at 13s 9d per member. The receipts amounted to £237 13s 5d, and expenditure £30 5s 3d, while the membership of the club is given at 266 – an increase of 31."

Edward Gilbert – see STAG, Bloxwich.

1939 Register

239, Stafford Street \(4 of 5\)

- [1] William Devey, date of birth 7/12/1892, publican, married;
- [2] Edith Devey, dob 3/9/1895, unpaid domestic duties, married;
- [3] William Devey, dob 15/10/1916, plasterer, heavy work, single;
- [4] Clifford Devey, dob 23/10/1922, polisher, heavy work, single;

Walsall Observer 16/12/1939

“At the monthly meeting of the Walsall Licensed Victuallers’ Society, held at the HAME MAKERS ARMS INN, Blue Lane West, on Thursday.....

Mr. William Devey, PRINCE INN, Stafford Street was elected member of the Society.”

Walsall Observer 7/12/1940

“Walsall Licensed Victuallers’ Society.

Motor Ambulance Effort on behalf of Walsall and District branch of the British Red Cross Society.

First List of Subscriptions.....

PAYNE’S WINE VAULTS, High Street, £3 0s 0d.”

Walsall Observer 10/5/1941

“Well-known for many years as a licensee in Walsall and Birmingham, Mr. John Harry Brown died on Sunday at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Cronin, of the FOUNTAIN INN, Bott Lane, with whom he had resided since he retired about eight years ago. He was in his 79th year, and had been ill for about a month.

Eldest son of John Brown, a well-known Walsall cricketer, who for twelve years headed the town club’s batting averages (and who had at times played with or against some of the most famous men of his time, including the Graces, Parr, Minn and Daft), the late Mr. Brown himself, like several of his brothers, took an active part in the game and assisted the town club.

He left the currying trade to take his first licensed house, the PRINCE BLUCHER, Stafford Street, and among other Walsall licenses he held were those of the NEW INNS and the CUPS HOTEL, Park Street. He had been at the latter before his retirement and it was while he was there that his wife died eleven years ago. He had been a member of both the Walsall and Birmingham licensed victuallers’ societies. He leaves six sons and a daughter. The funeral took place at Ryecroft Cemetery on Thursday.”

Walsall Observer 24/12/1942

“Walsall Licensed Victuallers’ Society. The Duke of Gloucester’s Red Cross Fund. List of Subscriptions.....

PRINCE, Stafford Street. £2 2s 6d.”

Robert Preston- see also HAMEMAKERS ARMS and FORGE AND FETTLE.

Walsall Observer 15/1/1944

“Walsall Licensed Victuallers’ Society.

Appeal on Behalf of the Merchant Navy Fund, The Duke of Gloucester’s Red Cross Fund and the Aid to China Fund. List of Subscriptions.....

PRINCE INN, Stafford Street. £4 10s 9d.”

Leonard Spencer Hopkins – see also QUEENS HEAD.

Samantha Angela Jones, 10 Grace Road, Tividale, unemployed, lately residing at 16 Greenhill Road, Dudley, and lately carrying on business as the GEORGE, Birmingham Road, Oldbury, the BULLS HEAD, Birmingham Street, Oldbury, the OAK AND IVY, Oxford Street, Bilston, the DOG AND PARTRIDGE, Sandwell Street, Walsall, the PRINCE BLUTCHER, Stafford Street, Walsall, the ROYAL OAK, Daw End Lane, Rushall, and the SPRING MEADOW, Halesowen Road, Old Hill, filed for bankruptcy in the County Court at Dudley on 1 March 2016.

[2017]

PRINCE OF WALES

145, High Street, BLOXWICH

OWNERS

William Starkey

John Holland, pawnbroker, High Street, Bilston

J. Foster Esq.

Mrs. Brooks, High Street, Bloxwich

Anne James, Stafford Street, Walsall [1925]

William Butler and Co. Ltd. (leased) [1925]
Punch Taverns [2005]
Kenny Wallas

LICENSEES

William Starkey (Snr.) [1861] – [1868]
Joseph Banks [1872]
Charles Dunn [1877] – 1899;
William Mason (1899 – 1901);
George Deans (1901 – 1905);
Albert Herbert Price (1905 – 1915);
Robert Henry Price* [1907] – [1908]
Robert Herbert Price* [1909] – [1912]
Benjamin Shakespeare (1915 – 1922);
William Jones (1922 – 1933);
Richard Hamer (1933 – 1938);
Mrs. Susan Louisa Hamer (1938 – 1946);
Samuel Smith (1946 – 1965);
Edward Todd (1965 – 1966);
John Lewis (1966 – [])
Kenny Wallace (2010 – [])

NOTES

It had a beerhouse license.

William Starkey (Snr.), baker and beer retailer, Bloxwich. [1861], [1868]

1861 Census

PRINCE OF WALES

- [1] William Starkey (40), baker, master employing 4 men and 1 boy, and publican, born Bloxwich;
- [2] Maria Starkey (42), wife, born Bloxwich;
- [3] John Starkey (14), son, baker, born Bloxwich;
- [4] William Starkey (12), son, scholar, born Bloxwich;
- [5] Sarah Starkey (11), daughter, scholar, born Bloxwich;
- [6] Henry Mill (47), servant, baker, born Giberalter (sic):

Walsall Free Press and General Advertiser 23/12/1865

“William Starkey, landlord of the PRINCE OF WALES (beerhouse), Bloxwich, pleaded guilty to having had his house open during prohibited hours on the night of the 11th inst, and was fined 2s 6d and costs.”

Joseph Banks, beer retailer, High Street. [1872]

Birmingham Daily Post 1/9/1877

“The annual licensing session for the borough of Walsall took place yesterday, at the Guildhall.....

The applicants for full licenses..... Charles Dunn, the PRINCE OF WALES, High Street, Bloxwich, supported by Mr. Gillespie. Refused.”

1881 Census

145, High Street

- [1] Charles Dunn (50), bricklayer, born Brierley Hill;
- [2] Eliza Dunn (50), wife, born Brierley Hill;
- [3] Eliza Dunn (21), daughter, dressmaker, born Brierley Hill;
- [4] Clara Dunn (17), daughter, dressmaker, born Brierley Hill;
- [5] Ephraim Dunn (19), son, bricklayer, born Brierley Hill;
- [6] Alice Dunn (15), daughter, born Dudley;
- [7] Charles Dunn (13), son, scholar, born Dudley;
- [8] Annie Dunn (11), daughter, scholar, born Dudley;
- [9] James H. Dunn (9), son, scholar, born Brierley Hill:

Birmingham Daily Post 18/12/1890

“At the Walsall Guildhall, yesterday, before Messrs. J. Brewer, E. T. Holden, J. Thorpe, W. E. Blyther, and J. Lindop, and Captain Brooks, further applications for singing, and dancing licenses were heard....

Mr. Stanley applied for Charles Dunn, the PRINCE OF WALES, Bloxwich for a music and singing license on Monday, Tuesday, and Saturday evenings. Refused.”

1891 Census

145, High Street

[1] Charles Dunn (63), beerhouse keeper, born Brierley Hill;

[2] Eliza Dunn (60), wife, born Brierley Hill;

[3] Clara Dunn (27), daughter, born Brierley Hill;

[4] Annie Dunn (20), daughter, born Brierley Hill;

[5] James Dunn (18), son, brush maker, born Brierley Hill:

Charles Dunn, beer retailer, 145, High Street. [1896]

George Deans = George Dean

1901 Census

145, High Street

[1] George Deans (62), publican, born Wombourne;

[2] Elizabeth Deans (62), wife, born Bridgnorth;

[3] Richard Deans (17), son, born Hednesford;

[4] Harriet Richards (28), daughter, born Chase Town;

[5] James Richards (29), son in law, moulder, born West Bromwich;

[6] Lucy Clarke (19), general servant, born Willenhall:

Walsall Advertiser 13/7/1901

“The monthly meeting of the Walsall and District Licensed Victuallers’ and Beer Retailers’ Friendly and Protection Society was held on Thursday last Mr. George Dean, PRINCE OF WALES INN, Bloxwich was elected member of the society”

Walsall Advertiser 26/4/1902

“George Dean, landlord of the PRINCE OF WALES, High Street, Bloxwich, was summoned for permitting drunkenness on his premises, and for serving a drunken man named John Humphries, with intoxicating liquor on April 11th.

The prosecution was conducted by the Town Clerk. He stated that at ten o’clock on the morning of the date named Inspector Marshall noticed a man come out of the PRINCE OF WALES INN. He was drunk, and nearly fell into the gutter. He went inside, and found another man in the bar who was also very drunk. The man he pointed out to the landlady, who said he and the other had been ordered to leave the house. At this point the landlord came in, and made a statement to the inspector to the effect that the men had been supplied in his house before he noticed their condition. Later, he saw they were drunk, and took the liquor from them, ordering them out. He left the house for a time, and had just come back. He (the Town Clerk) wanted to impress on the licensed trade that it was their duty to satisfy themselves of the sobriety of anyone who came into their houses and asked to be supplied with drink. Every protection was given by the law to licensed persons. They could refuse to admit to their premises anyone who was in liquor, and they could eject a man who would not leave.

Inspector Marshall, Sergeant Cattermole, and Police-constable Edwards gave evidence as to the condition of the men in the PRINCE OF WALES.

Mr. Jackson (Stanley and Jackson) who defended, said his client had kept licensed houses for 33 years, without complaint, and on this morning there was nothing whatever about the two men to lead him to believe there was anything the matter with them, and he supplied them with a quart of ale. It was only when the quart was nearly finished that he noticed something about one of the men which was suspicious, and he at once took the jug away and told them to leave the premises. He (Mr. Jackson) contended that the defendant’s statement to the police absolutely vindicated his conduct in the matter, because he told the police that when he served the quart he saw nothing the matter with them. The landlord said now that these men were not drunk, that although they no doubt had had drink, they were perfectly right and straight.

Frank Fryer (a painter who was at work on the premises adjoining the PRINCE OF WALES INN) was then called to prove that both men were sober when they left the house.

Cross-examined by the Town Clerk, he admitted that they had had sufficient drink, but he still contended that they were not drunk. Henry Brierley (another witness) was also called.

The magistrates considered the case proved, and fined the landlord 10s and costs; they also fined Humphries, for being drunk on licensed premises, 10s and costs.”

Walsall Advertiser 16/2/1907

“The monthly meeting of the Walsall and District Licensed Victuallers’ and Beer Retailers’ Friendly and Protection Society was held on Thursday last at the house of Mr. R. H. Price, PRINCE OF WALES, Bloxwich.....”

* probably the same person

Walsall Advertiser 11/9/1909

“The monthly meeting of the Walsall and District Licensed Victuallers’ and Beer Retailers’ Friendly and Protection Society was held on Thursday last at the house of Mr. Robert Herbert Price, PRINCE OF WALES INN, High Street, Bloxwich.....”

1911 Census

145, High Street

- [1] Robert Herbert Price (47), beer retailer, born Denbigh, North Wales;
- [2] Sophia Annie Price (44), wife, born Bushbury;
- [3] Dorothy Gladys Price (17), daughter, school, born Swindon, Wiltshire;
- [4] Sarah Ann Herbert Price (76), mother, widow, born Exmouth, Devon:

Robert Herbert Price – see also ROYAL EXCHANGE.

Walsall Observer 21/11/1914

“The following is a list of box collections to date made on behalf of the Prince of Wales’ National Relief Fund (Walsall Branch).....

PRINCE OF WALES, Bloxwich, 5s 10d.”

Walsall Observer 1/1/1916

“At the Guildhall on Friday of last week, Benjamin Shakespeare was summoned for being drunk on licensed premises, the PRINCE OF WALES, High Street, Bloxwich, of which he is the licensee, on December 10. Mr. F. Cooper appeared for the defendant, and pleaded not guilty.

Police-constable Allden stated that at 9pm on the date in question, as he was going off duty, he called at the PRINCE OF WALES and ordering half a pint of ale, was served by the landlady. Whilst he was standing at the bar window the defendant came to him. He was very drunk and excited. When he saw witness he said, ‘You’re a —— policeman,’ and challenged him to fight. Witness tried to persuade him to be quiet, but defendant took up a fighting attitude and struck him in the mouth. He was eventually taken to the kitchen, and witness told the landlady he should report him.

Mr. Cooper: Have you ever had any meals at this house? – No.

Nothing? – I may have had a little bit of bread and cheese.

Have you been extremely friendly with the defendant? – We have been friendly, but not extremely friendly.

Have you been out on trips with him? – Yes, once.

You had a whole day together once? – No, half a day.

Have you often been at the house? – No, not often.

Did Inspector Haycock tell you not to go often? – No.

Did you go into the kitchen when you had ordered a drink and speak to Mrs. Shakespeare? – No.

Have you ever ‘larked’ with the defendant? – We have cracked jokes together.

Have you ever sparred with one another in a friendly way? – No.

I put it to you that what really happened was that you and the landlord were ‘larking’ together in the passage. In a friendly sort of way you sparred at one another, and the landlady came out and said to you, ‘Stop that damn foolery and clear off’? – No. she asked him to go to bed.

According to your story, he was obviously drunk to anyone? – Yes.

Inspector Haycock gave evidence that at 9.30 last night, and in the company of Sergeant Woolley, he went to the premises. Defendant usually closed at 9.30, but on some days of the week he kept open until 11pm for the sale of non-intoxicants. On this occasion, however, the house was in complete darkness, with the exception of a light in the bedroom, and it was then only 9.40. He knocked three times, but there was no response. About four days afterwards the defendant came to the police office and said it was all a mistake and that he was only ‘larking’ with the policeman, as they had done before.

Cross-examined by Mr. Cooper, Inspector Haycock said he knew nothing at all against the defendant, and he had never seen him the worse for drink. He called at the house once a week. When he visited the house on this occasion he did not go to the back premises, as there was no means. He knocked sufficiently loud for anyone on the premises to have heard him. He agreed it was possible that people did knock at public house doors after they were closed.

The Clerk (Mr. S. E. Loxton): There has been a question asked about Allden whether you have cautioned him about being at this place? – I visited this house once and found the officer there. He was not in uniform.

The Clerk: What I want to know is whether there has been anything in the conduct of this officer that has caused you to caution him? – No.

Mr. Cooper: You went to this public house once and saw Allden there. Did you tell the licensee not to have Allden on the premises? – I told the wife not to serve any police officer at all without asking whether they have got permission.

Has Allden to your knowledge used this house frequently?

The Clerk: He had a right to.

Mr. Cooper: I am not suggesting he has not.

Allden, recalled, was asked by the Mayor what were the particular signs of drunkenness he noticed.

The officer replied that the defendant was swaying about and very excited. He was also unsteady in his gait. He could not speak clearly.

Mr. Cooper, addressing the magistrates, said it was a serious matter for a licensee to be before them on a charge of that sort. With regard to the evidence of Allden, to put it at its height, he had the defendant under observation for one minute in the passage, and came to the conclusion he was drunk because he swayed about. The defendant had held this and other licenses without previous complaint. On the day in question the only intoxicating liquor he had was three bottles of stout. He went to the Fleur de Lis at Norton, kept by a relative, to see the meet of the Staffordshire hounds. He returned home at 7.30 in the evening, and from that time until the house closed at 9.30 he was talking to his customers. It was perfectly true there was some 'larking' in the passage, but the defendant showed not the slightest signs of drunkenness. It was apparent from Allden's evidence that he was perfectly well acquainted with the man.

The defendant gave evidence confirming the statement of his solicitor. He said that since Police-constable Allden had been stationed at Bloxwich he had been a regular caller at his house. He had had meals with his wife and himself on nine or ten occasions. When he returned home on that particular night he was waiting upon customers and conversing with them until 9.30. Allden came in about 9.35 in plain clothes. He (defendant) joked with him in the passage and asked him if he could do a sharp round, and they did the same as they had done many times before. There was no hard hitting. His wife told them to stop their foolery, and got between them. The policemen went out. He never said anything to him (defendant) about being under the influence of drink. The Chief Constable: You can see that this officer reported the case at great personal risk. Why should he report you if you had not done anything? – I don't know why he should have done.

Recalled, Police-constable Allden said he always paid for what beer he had at the house. He did have a bit of bread and cheese there occasionally.

Corroborative evidence was given by Eliza Shakespeare, wife of the defendant, who said her husband was not under the influence of drink, and the officer made no such suggestion.

In reply to the Mayor, witness said there were not many days but what Allden came to the house. He paid for his drinks, but had food as a friend.

Walter Thomas Adams, High Street, Bloxwich, said he went into the PRINCE OF WALES about 8.15 and came out at nine. There was not the least suspicion of drink about the landlord.

The Chief Constable: A man can get drunk in half an hour.

Witness: I don't think so, sir. I never knew one yet. (Laughter).

Henry Walton, William Jarvis, and Chas. Edward Holt also swore that the defendant was not drunk.

After a private deliberation the Mayor said the magistrates had come to the conclusion that there was some doubt in the case, and therefore the defendant would have the benefit of the doubt. The case would therefore be dismissed.'

Staffordshire Advertiser 18/8/1923

"Two women of the gypsy class, Clara Smith (55), of no fixed abode, and Ida Smith (47), of Drafton Street, Leicester, who was stated to be the mother of seventeen children – were charged with stealing £9, by means of a trick, from Elizabeth Jones, of the PRINCE OF WALES INN, High Street, Bloxwich, on June 29. Mr. H. Lenton Lester, who appeared for the accused asked that the hearing might be adjourned, and applying for bail said the husband of Ida Smith had brought to court the deeds of a house for which he had paid £650. The Chief Constable (Mr. G. H. Ballance) also mentioned that the police had £24 belonging to the accused, who were remanded for a week on bail."

[When the matter came to trial, the case was dismissed, the prosecutrix being told she was a very foolish woman and a very unreliable witness on whose evidence it would be unfair to convict anybody.]

It was rebuilt in 1928.

1939 Register

143, High Street – Inn

[1] Susan L. Hamer, date of birth 20/8/1885, licensee, widowed:

Walsall Observer 29/8/1942

"County Borough of Walsall. Mayor's War Aid Fund. Nineteenth List of Subscriptions.....

Mr. Hamer, PRINCE OF WALES, Bloxwich. £3 11s 0d."

Walsall Observer 24/12/1942

"Walsall Licensed Victuallers' Society. The Duke of Gloucester's Red Cross Fund. List of Subscriptions.....

PRINCE OF WALES, Bloxwich. £1 16s 0d."

Walsall Observer 15/1/1944

"Walsall Licensed Victuallers' Society.

Appeal on Behalf of the Merchant Navy Fund, The Duke of Gloucester's Red Cross Fund and the Aid to China Fund. List of Subscriptions.....

PRINCE OF WALES INN, High Street, Bloxwich. £2 8s 1d."

Richard Hamer was married to Susan.

A full license was granted on 8th February 1951.

[2017]

PRINCE OF WALES

13, (9), Portland Street / 9, Red Lion Street, WALSALL

OWNERS

Ann Whitney and Mrs. Marshall, Station Street, Walsall
William Downing, maltster, Smethwick [1895], [1908]

LICENSEES

William Witney [] – 1857);
David Smith (1857 – [1858]
William Foster [1860] – [1861]
Elizabeth Sharp [1861]
Mrs. Mary Ann Sharp [1862] – [1870]
Thomas Bowater [1872];
Emma Bowater [1873] ?
Charles Gnosill [1875] – 1887);
Sarah Gnosill (1887 – 1888);
Frederick Thompson (1888 – 1889);
Theodore Douglas Grice (1889 – 1897);
Harriet Grice (1897 – 1898);
Job Daniel (1898 – 1907);
Mrs. Maria Edwards (1907 – 1908);
Cornelius Paul (1908);

NOTES

9, Red Lion Street [1858], [1860]
Red Lion Street [1862], [1864], [1865]
9, Portland Street [1872]
13, Portland Street [1881], [1891], [1896], [1901], [1904], [1908]

It had a beerhouse license.

Walsall Free Press 12/2/1859 - Advert

“To Be Let, and may be entered upon immediately, that old-licensed Public-House, the PRINCE OF WALES, situate in Portland Street, and now doing a good business. The Stock and Fixtures to be taken to at a valuation. For particulars apply to John Osbourn, Auctioneer, 52, Lower Hall Lane, Walsall. N.B. The present proprietors are leaving solely on account of health.”

1861 Census

Portland Street – PRINCE OF WALES Public House
[1] Elizabeth Sharp (66), widow, victualler, born Longdon, Staffordshire;
[2] Mary Ann Sharp (27), daughter, born Milford, Staffordshire;
[3] Louisa Archer (20), daughter, married, born Milford, Staffordshire;
[4] Jane Charles (20), visitor, born Milford, Staffordshire:

Birmingham Daily Gazette 8/7/1862

“Mary Ann Sharp, beerhouse-keeper, Red Lion Street, who was charged before the magistrates with having on Sunday, the 29th ult, had her house open for the sale of beer, admitted she had filled beer to two men, who represented to her that they had come from Birmingham. The officer who proved the charge said he found the men in the back yard with black eyes, and swollen faces and all more or less drunk. Besides these there were four men in the petty and in the wash-house in a similar condition. Defendant, who stated the yard in question was a public yard, and that the parties seen there had not been to her house, was sentenced to pay a fine of 2s 6d and costs.”

Walsall Free Press 19/11/1864

“Martin Scully was charged by Police-constable Bishton with having been drunk and disorderly, on Tuesday morning last, in Portland Street. The constable said that, at a quarter to three o'clock on the morning in question, he heard a great disturbance in Blue Lane. On proceeding to the spot, he found the prisoner drunk, shouting, and fighting with another man, and advised him to go home. Prisoner refused, and was therefore taken into custody. On his way to the station, the prisoner tripped the officer up, who then used his staff.

Police-constable Stevens and Fellows and a man named Johnson corroborated.

William Kendrick, bricklayer, said that he had been at supper at the PRINCE OF WALES, Portland Street, on Monday evening, and left between two and three o'clock on Tuesday morning. The prisoner was there, tipsy. After they left, prisoner got to fighting with another man. Shortly after, Bishton came up, and said to the man who was fighting with prisoner, 'What is the matter Jack?' who replied, 'Oh, we have only been having a scrap or two.' The policeman made use of some low language, and told the man to give it to the prisoner and he would help him. The officer afterwards ordered the prisoner off, and struck him on the back of the neck. Other policemen then arrived.

Two other persons named Horton and Atkins, also witnessed the affair.

James Atkins, junior builder, said the prisoner was drunk, when taken into custody, resisted, and then the officer struck him on the top of his head.

The Chief-superintendent said that the witness, Kendrick's statement that the man, Horton, saw the officer strike the prisoner, was false, for, on Tuesday, he saw Horton at Birmingham, who denied seeing the policeman use any violence to the prisoner.

The Mayor said the Bench had listened very attentively to the evidence, and had given it their careful consideration. It appeared that the prisoner and his friends had endeavoured to charge the police with dereliction of duty, but had failed. In all cases of this nature coming before them they would deal more severely than if the truth had been spoken. Prisoner would have to pay a fine of 10s and costs, or be imprisoned for 21 days."

Walsall Free Press 16/2/1867

"Alfred Saunders and John Keeling were charged with having, on the 15th of December, assaulted Charles Kendrick. In this case Mr. Glover appeared for the complainant, and Mr. Mathews for the defendants. Mr. Glover, after stating the circumstances under which the assault had been committed, called and examined his client, from whose evidence it appeared that on the night in question as he was going to the PRINCE OF WALES, Portland Street, he saw the prisoners strike a man, named Newton, and knock him down. Complainant, on seeing it, said, 'I'll not stand that any longer,' and went to Newton's assistance. Thereupon Saunders struck him (complainant) on the mouth, and asking who had done it, Saunders said, 'It was I.' Complainant then took off his coat and asked for the man who had struck him, when he saw Saunders running towards him. At the moment some one struck him on the head, and rendered him insensible. He was then taken home, and attended by Dr. Kelyt till about within a week since; and in consequence of his inability to attend to give evidence, the case had been adjourned from time to time.

The next witness, Hannah Harris, corroborated the complainant's evidence, and said that she saw the prisoner Keeling strike complainant with a weapon about half a yard in length having a knob on the end of it.

Dr. Kelyt described the nature of the wounds, which appeared to have been inflicted by a sharp instrument. One of the wounds was five inches in length, and penetrated to the bone. The injuries were very serious in nature, and not at all like such as would be inflicted by a fall on the street.

This being the case for the complainant Mr. Dale who had taken over the case for Mr. Mathews (who, with Mr. Glover, was called to attend a case in the County Court), called and examined Mrs. Leadbetter, Thomas Baker, and Mr. H. Saunders (the prisoner's brother); and the bench, after hearing the evidence on both sides – that for the defence being very conflicting – sentenced Saunders to a pay a fine of 40s and costs, or to be imprisoned for one month, and Keeling to two months' imprisonment without the option of a fine."

Walsall Free Press 6/8/1870 - Advert

"To Be Let, the PRINCE OF WALES, Portland Street.
Apply on the Premises."

Walsall Free Press 27/5/1871 - Advert

"To Be Let, the PRINCE OF WALES Public-house, Portland Street.
Apply on the Premises; or to Mrs. Whitney, 335, Lichfield Street."

Staffordshire Advertiser 19/10/1872

"Thomas Bowater, of the PRINCE OF WALES beerhouse, Portland Street, with selling ale at ten minutes to twelve o'clock on the night of the 14th inst, and the charge being proved, was fined 20s and costs."

Birmingham Daily Post 12/7/1873 - Advert

"To be Sold by Auction, by Mr. William Davis, on Tuesday, the 29th day of July, 1873, at the house of Mr. Stackhouse, the LAMP TAVERN INN, Stafford Street, Walsall, at 6 o'clock in the evening, all that well-built and conveniently-arranged Freehold Old-Licensed Inn called the PRINCE OF WALES, situated at the corner of Portland Street and Red Lion Street, in Walsall, in the occupation of Mrs. Emma Bowater, at an annual rental of £19.

The House comprises a Bar and Liquor Shop, Tap Room, Parlour, two Kitchens, large and commodious Brewhouse, four Bed Rooms, Malt-room, good Cellaring, and Appurtenances.

Also, all those Five Dwelling Houses, being Nos. 10, 11, 12, 13, and 14, in Red Lion Street, and adjoining the above, in the respective occupations of Lees, Johnson, Saunders, Wright, and Hussey....."

Walsall Free Press 6/9/1873

“On Thursday afternoon A. A. Fletcher, Esq, coroner for the borough, held an inquest at the PRINCE OF WALES public-house, Portland Street, upon the body of a female child, aged one month, the daughter of William Portsmouth, who on the 31st ult. had been found dead in bed. From the evidence of Mr. Moore, surgeon, who had made a post mortem examination of the body, it appeared the child had been suffocated; but as there was no evidence to show how it had been suffocated the jury returned an open verdict of Found Suffocated.”

Charles Gnosill = Charles Gnosall

Midland Counties Evening Express 21/5/1875

“Charles Gnosall, PRINCE OF WALES INN, Portland Street, was summoned for selling liquor in his house after midnight on Wednesday night. Mr. Rhodes defended. Police-sergeant Bailey swore that at the time named he looked through the window and saw the defendant’s wife supply a woman named McCann with beer. There seemed to be some misunderstanding as to the time by the defendant, an extension of half an hour having been allowed that night, and the case was dismissed.”

1881 Census

13, Portland Street – PRINCE OF WALES

- [1] Charles Gnosill (33), collar maker, born Walsall;
- [2] Sarah Gnosill (34), wife, born Walsall;
- [3] Phoebe Gnosill (11), daughter, scholar, born Walsall;
- [4] Frederick Gnosill (10), son, scholar, born Walsall;
- [5] Charles Gnosill (8), son, scholar, born Walsall;
- [6] Wille Gnosill (3), son, born Walsall:

Staffordshire Advertiser 9/6/1883

“On Monday Mr. Fletcher, coroner, held an inquest at the PRINCE OF WALES INN, Portland Street, on the body of John Phillips, 52, a waggoner in the employ of Mr. A. G. Boys, timber merchant, Bradford Street. It seemed that on Saturday the deceased was delivering a load of wood at the Patent Shaft Company’s Works, Wednesbury, when the horse jumped round, partially detaching the shafts, which fell and caused the animal to kick and plunge and run away. The deceased held by the horse’s head as long as he could, and then he fell and the wheels of the waggon passed over his back. He afterwards got upon his knees without help, and after brandy had been given to him he was taken home and died whilst being lifted out of the cart in which he was carried. A verdict of Accidental Death was returned.”

Theodore Douglas Grice = Thomas S. Grice

1891 Census

13, Portland Street

- [1] Thomas S. Grice (32), licensed victualler, born Walsall;
- [2] Harriet J. Grice (29), wife, born Walsall;
- [3] Sidney Grice (9), son, born Walsall;
- [4] Leonard Grice (8), son, born Walsall;
- [5] Henry Grice (6), son, born Walsall;
- [6] Nellie Grice (1), daughter, born Walsall;
- [7] Emily Hartley (21), barmaid, born Wednesbury:

Walsall Advertiser 5/1/1895

“They say it is better to be born lucky than rich and certainly in some degree this saying was true in regard to Theodore Grice, PRINCE OF WALES INN, Portland Street, who was allowed to leave the court on payment of one shilling and costs, the fine inflicted upon him for opening and selling drink during prohibited hours. Police-constable Cowley said he saw at 5.40am on December 24 three men enter defendant’s public-house, and when he went into the house all were drinking. Mr. Jackson who appeared on behalf of Grice, pleaded guilty to selling and opening, but said it was purely a question of time. However, the Bench held that the constable had proved the case, and the fine as above mentioned was inflicted.”

AND

“Out of the last case arose the charges brought against Martin Durkin, 10, Railway Street, and John Flynn, 3, Railway Street (the third man not being summoned), of being on licensed premises during prohibited hours. The cases were dismissed.”

Walsall Advertiser 31/8/1895

“The annual Licensing Sessions for the borough were held yesterday at the Guildhall.....

The following is a return of licensees who have been proceeded against during the year ending August 30th, 1895.....

Theodore D. Grice, PRINCE OF WALES, Portland Street, for having kept his licensed premises open during prohibited hours on January 4th, fined 1s and costs.....

Objections were also lodged against Theodore Grice, PRINCE OF WALES INN, Portland Street on the grounds (1) that Grice was fined 10s and costs on June 15th, 1888, for keeping open during prohibited hours, (2) that he was on January 4th, 1895, further fined 1s and costs for a like offence, (3) that he was not a fit and proper person to hold a license, and (4) that the license was not demanded by the requirements of the neighbourhood.....

In the case of Grice which was taken first, Mr. H. H. Jackson appeared in support of the landlord. Mr. J. N. Cotterell represented Mr. Downing, who is the owner of the house. Mr. Jackson, referring to the objections raised by the Chief, stated that the first conviction in 1888 was when his client held the license of the OAK INN, Hall Lane, so that he considered it most unfair now that the magistrates had granted Grice a transfer of another license that that offence should again be brought up against him. With regard to the second conviction, it was shown that his client was guilty of having opened his house too early in the morning owing to his clock being wrong. As to the general objection that the house was not required in the neighbourhood, he submitted that it had been in existence for 33 years, and was very well patronised, showing that it was required. The applicant paid £450 to enter the house, and surely the magistrates would not take his living away from him on such a mere pretence. In answer to Mr. Cotterell, he said that under the lease the owner could require Grice to give up the house at any time, but the very fact that the owner expressed himself satisfied with the tenant he thought was a point in his client's favour. The license was renewed with a caution."

Walsall Advertiser 8/1/1898

"Harriet Grice, landlady of the PRINCE OF WALES INN, Portland Street, was charged with selling drink during prohibited hours, and also with failing to admit Sergeant Ballance on his demanding admittance; and Samuel Groves, 124, Portland Street, and Henry Russell, of 88, Whitehouse Street, were charged with being on licensed premises during prohibited hours. Mr. H. H. Jackson defended, and Mr. J. N. Cotterell watched the proceedings on behalf of Mr. Downing, the owner of the house. It seemed that at 1.15am on December 20th Police-sergeant Ballance saw a light in the PRINCE OF WALES INN. He got the assistance of Police-constable Woolley, placed him at the gate leading to the back, and then knocked several times at the front door. Mrs. Grice came to the gate from the back, and asked what was wanted. She was told there was a sergeant and a constable who wanted admission, but she went away without making any remark. They then waited about five minutes, and had to climb the wall to get to the back. They found the back door open and walked in, but they found no one downstairs. In the room where they had seen the light were empty jugs and glasses, which had evidently contained ale. They heard shuffling upstairs and went there. They found Mrs. Grice in a bedroom with her apron on, drunk, and they discovered the two men hiding in a closet near the clubroom. Mrs. Grice said they were friends of hers staying for a week. Russell said they 'were trying to get out of the way to save any bother; be lenient with her; she is a poor widow.' Police-constable Klopke was sent to watch, and at 2.30 he saw Groves leave. When they asked to be let out Mrs. Grice said she would not let them go until they told who had put them on, and she then told them to get out the same way as they came in, but Russell got the key and let them out. The Chief Constable pointed out the law in regard to refusing admission to the police, and said that the fact that the men hid themselves was presumptive evidence that the men were not there for a proper purpose.

In defence, Mr. Jackson said that on the night of the 19th December Mrs. Grice went to a party at Mr. Russell's, who was paying his attentions to Mrs. Grice. Shortly before one o'clock in the morning she returned to her own house in the company of Groves and Russell. The son let them in and then went back to bed. They had not been in the house above ten minutes when the police came. Mrs. Grice went out to them, and said 'Wait a moment I will fetch the key out of my son's bedroom.' She left the back door open, which showed that there was no intention to keep out the police, but the police would not wait for them. It was all very well for the police to say they waited five minutes, but neither of them took the time, and sometimes half a minute would seem a long time. The young men hid themselves because they were frightened and did not know how the law stood. He thought the Bench would say that the police had reasonable ground for going to see why there was a light, but that the explanation was to their satisfaction.

Alderman Lindop: They would not both be suitors of the landlady (laughter).

Mr. Jackson: One goes to take the lady home and the other to chaperone. You quite see the etiquette of it (laughter).

Mrs. Grice gave evidence practically bearing out the opening of her counsel. Cross-examined by the Chief Constable, she said Mr. Russell did not let the police out – they went the same way they came, over the wall. She went to the party about ten minutes past eleven, in company with Samuel Groves and Henry Bailey. She left by the side gate and her son locked the gate after her. When she got back she rattled the gate and her son came down to let them in. At the party there were Mr. Russell's four sisters, Bailey, Groves, and Mr. and Mrs. Hopley. The men went into the cupboard because she was afraid when they said it was the police. What she told the police was that she had invited Russell for a week and that Groves had come to see them home.

Henry Russell was next called for the defence, and corroborated the last witness.

Cross-examined by the Chief Constable: He did not see the officers leave. He did not see them go out of the back gate, and he did not let them out.

The Chief Constable warned the witness to be very careful, for he had other officers.

The question was repeated, but witness adhered to his answer, and said he did not get the key for anyone. There were no jugs or glasses on the table. Witness said he called the attention of the sergeant to the fact that there were no glasses or liquor about, and he replied that that was all right.

Chief Constable: I am compelled to believe that this man has come here to commit perjury.

Mr. Jackson objected to this remark.

Witness, replying to further questions from the Chief Constable, said he left the house a few minutes after the police.

Chief Constable: Then if Mrs. Grice says you left at nearly eight o'clock in the morning she is wrong? – Witness: No, I am wrong, she is right.

Chief Constable: And are not you mistaken about letting the officers out? – Witness: No.

The Chairman pressed the witness to speak the truth and admit that he let the officers out if it was so.

Witness, however, still adhered to his statement.

Chief Constable: This is becoming too common a thing here. I am bound to treat these witnesses as hostile. I place implicit reliance on my two witnesses.

Mr. Jackson: Police officers are not infallible.

Chief Constable: And unfortunately your witnesses are not Mr. Jackson. We see too much of it now.

Groves was next called, and in answer to questions he said he got away upstairs because he was frightened.

Chief Constable: Another frightened Walsall man (laughter).

Witness, in cross-examination, said Mrs. Grice was sober, but excited. There was no jugs or glasses on the table, and they had not anything to drink since they went into the house. He could not say whether Russell let the officers out – he did not see them.

W. Hopley, who was the party referred to, said defendants were there also and were perfectly sober when they left.

The Bench retired to consider their verdict, and on returning they fined Mrs. Grice £5 and costs for failing to admit the police.

The other cases would be withdrawn of payment of costs. The license would not be endorsed.

Chief Constable: I should like to make application, if I can corroborate the officers, and I think I can, for a summons of perjury against the witness Russell, on the question of the glasses on the table, and the statement that Russell did not let the officers out of the house, if you think it material to the suit.

The Chairman: There is too much evidence given in that box that we cannot believe. We think the Chief is quite justified in asking for the summons, and we shall grant him a summons if he had got sufficient evidence.”

Walsall Advertiser 3/9/1898

“The annual licensing meeting for the county borough of Walsall was held in the Guildhall on Wednesday forenoon.....

Since the 27th August, 1897, 5 licensed victuallers have been proceeded against, 4 of whom were convicted, viz.....

5th January, Harriet Grice, PRINCE OF WALES, Portland Street, fined £5 for failing to admit the police.”

Job Daniel = Job Daniels

Walsall Advertiser 12/11/1898

“The monthly meeting of the Walsall and District Licensed Victuallers’ and Beer Retailers’ Friendly and Protection Society was held on Thursday.....

Mr. Job Daniels, PRINCE OF WALES INN, Portland Street, was elected a member of the society.”

1901 Census

13, Portland Street

[1] Job Daniel (37), private brewer and innkeeper, born Walsall;

[2] Mary Daniel (35), wife, born Walsall;

[3] Nelly Heath (20), domestic servant, born Walsall;

[4] Minnie Lynex (18), barmaid, born Walsall:

Walsall Advertiser 12/10/1901

“The monthly meeting of the Walsall and District Licensed Victuallers’ and Beer Retailers’ Friendly and Protection Society was held on Thursday week, at the house of Mr. Job Daniels, the PRINCE OF WALES INN, Portland Street.....”

J. Daniel was a committee member of Walsall and District Licensed Victuallers’ Association. [1902]

Walsall Advertiser 27/2/1904

“On Monday afternoon last a football match for the benefit of William Hicken (who has been ill for a long time and unable to follow his employment) took place between teams representing the PRINCE OF WALES, Portland Street, and the PHEASANT INN, Windmill Street. The match was played at Weston Road, on the ground of L. and N.W. Football Club, who had kindly lent the field for the occasion and resulted in a win for the PHEASANT by 7 goals to 2. The versatile Sam Holmes officiated as referee. For the winners Edkins and the brothers Smith played well in their respective positions, and at the back Baker and Chapman were a tower of strength to their side, the latter in particular frustrating many promising attacks of the opponents. After the match both teams adjourned to the PHEASANT, where a most enjoyable evening was spent. It is expected that a substantial sum will be handed over as there was a good gate.”

Walsall Advertiser 16/4/1904

“Frank Edwards, 133, Portland Street, pleaded guilty to being drunk on the licensed premises of the PRINCE OF WALES INN, on April 2. Job Daniels, the landlord, pleaded not guilty to a charge of permitting drunkenness. Mr. H. H. Jackson defended Daniels. Inspector Pritchard said he and Police-constable Grainger visited the PRINCE OF WALES on the night in question, and found Edwards in the vaults, drunk. The landlord, who was in the bar, said the man had only been in the place a minute, and he was going to send him out.

Edwards was fined 5s and costs, the other charge being dismissed with a caution to Daniels.”

Walsall Advertiser 12/11/1904 - In Memoriam

“In loving memory of Florence Abigail, the beloved child of Job and Mary Daniels, of the PRINCE OF WALES, Portland Street, who died November 8th, 1903.

Sweet little flower, nipped in the bud, to memory ever dear.”

Walsall Advertiser 10/6/1905

“Arthur Mercier, James Street, was summoned for misbehaving himself in Portland Street, on the 29th May, and also using obscene language towards Minnie Lynex, at the same time and place. Mr. F. J. Adison prosecuted.

The complainant said she was the sister of Mrs. Daniels, whose husband kept the PRINCE OF WALES INN, Portland Street and that she lived there. Mercier was for some time employed as a brewer at the house, but was dismissed from the employment on account of his conduct, and since that time he had been a continual annoyance to them. When the public-house was closed on the date named she went on an errand up the street, a man in their employ named Perry accompanying her. On coming back she saw defendant misbehaving himself near their house, and she called him a ‘dirty hound,’ where upon he commenced to use filthy language towards her and she had to go into the middle of the road to get away from him or he would have struck her. Her sister and her nephew came out, and defendant pulled his jacket off to fight her nephew, and he again struck at her (witness), and she would have ‘had it’ had she not bent her head.

In answer to questions put by defendant complainant denied that her sister struck him.

Dr Lynch: Was the man drunk? – Witness: No, sir, he could see me.

Mr. E. A. Loxton (deputy clerk): Was he the worse for beer? – Witness: He had had beer, but he knew what he was doing.

The Clerk: I suppose you mean he was not blind drunk? – Witness: Yes, sir.

James Perry, stated that he was an assistant at the PRINCE OF WALES INN, and that on the night in question, accompanied Miss Lynex on an errand. On coming back he saw the defendant misbehaving himself on the step of the PRINCE OF WALES INN, and on Miss Lynex speaking to him he began to use very bad language towards her.

Mrs. Ada Bate, sister of the complainant, stated she was in the bar ‘washing up’ after closing time on the night in question, when she heard the defendant using very bad language towards her sister. She could recognise his voice as she knew him well and she saw him when she came out, when he was again cursing her sister.

Arthur Thomas corroborated.

Defendant said he was drunk and did not know anything until the next morning.

The Chief Constable (Mr. A. Thomson) said the defendant had been before the court seven times previously.

Fined 10s and cost in each case or 14 days.”

Walsall Advertiser 9/2/1907

“The general annual licensing sessions of the borough were held on Monday at the Guildhall.....

Notices of objection (compensation clause) had been served on five license holders, on the ground that the licenses were not required.....

The first was the PRINCE OF WALES, Portland Street, occupied by Job Daniel. Mr. Norris Foster appeared for the owners, Messrs. Downing, maltsters, and Mr. Jackson represented the occupier.

Chief-inspector Ballance gave evidence that there were five other licensed houses within 122 paces of this one, and a population between them of only 280 persons over 16 years of age. It was an old house, but very clean inside. The club-room stairs were dangerous, and the out-building old and dilapidated.

The case was adjourned to give notice of objection also on the ground of structural unfitness.”

Walsall Advertiser 2/3/1907

“The adjourned annual licensing meeting for the borough was held on Wednesday at the Guildhall.....

There was objection to the renewal of the license of the PRINCE OF WALES, Portland Street (Mr. Job Daniel, occupier) by the Chief Constable, on the ground that it was used by betting men, &c, but the Bench renewed the license with a caution. Mr. Morris Foster (instructed by Mr. H. H. Jackson) appeared for the owner (Mr. Downing) and occupier.”

Walsall Advertiser 18/5/1907

“Bankruptcy Cases. At the Walsall County Court, on Thursday, before Mr. Registrar Clarke.....

Job Daniels, the PRINCE OF WALES, Portland Street, Walsall, licensed victualler, whose statement showed liabilities expected to rank for dividend £588 10s 1d and assets estimated at £10 12s 4d. Mr. Addison, for the debtor, put in a medical certificate that he was suffering from nervous prostration and the loss of memory, and the examination was adjourned to a date to be fixed.”

Walsall Advertiser 15/6/1907

“Applications for the transfer of licenses were granted as follows.....

PRINCE OF WALES, Portland Street, from Sam Wells Page (trustee of the estate of Job Daniel), to Maria Edwards.”

Walsall Advertiser 16/11/1907 - Advert

“PRINCE OF WALES, Portland Street, Walsall, full-licensed, home-brewing corner Public-house, tied for malt only; six years’ lease; goodwill, plant, fixtures, stock, &c, for immediate disposal.

Apply, A. C. Fraser Wood, Auctioneer, 28, Bridge Street.”

Walsall Advertiser 8/2/1908

“The annual licensing meeting for the borough took place at the Guildhall on Wednesday.....

A temporary authority was renewed of the license of the PRINCE OF WALES, Portland Street, to Cornelius Paul, an objection by the Bench to the continuance of the license being adjourned to the adjourned sessions.”

The license renewal was referred to the Compensation Authority on 18th February 1908.

Walsall Advertiser 29/2/1908

“The adjourned licensing sessions for the borough of Walsall were held yesterday (Friday), at the Guildhall.....
The Bench proceeded to hear notices of objection which had been taken by the licensing justices to the renewal of six licences.....
PRINCE OF WALES, Portland Street. Mr. Norris Foster represented all parties interested in the above license, and Chief Inspector Ballance repeated his previous evidence as to the requirements of the neighbourhood. The house was formerly frequented by bookmakers or betting men, but there had been no complaints of late.
Mrs. Maria Edwards, who had held the license six months prior to a few weeks ago, said the rent was £80 a year, and the takings were not sufficient to pay expenses, though perhaps that was partly owing to her not understanding the business.
Cornelius Paul, the present occupier, said his total takings since November 29th last were £53, up to last Saturday.
The license was referred to the Compensation Authority.”

Walsall Advertiser 6/6/1908

“A full bench of magistrates sat on Wednesday morning to hear applications for renewals and to fix compensation for closed houses.....
In the case of the PRINCE OF WALES, Portland Street, Mr. Norris (instructed by Shakespeare and Company, Birmingham) announced the compensation (£300) would be accepted and the house closed.”

Walsall Advertiser 13/6/1908 - Notice

“The Licensing Act, 1904. Notice as to sending in claims to be treated as persons interested in licensed premises.
The County Borough of Walsall.
Notice Is Hereby Given, that the Compensation Authority for the above area having decided at their principal meeting on the 3rd day of June, 1908, and the 5th day of June, 1908, to refuse the renewal of the Licenses of premises specified below.....
The PRINCE OF WALES, Portland Street. Alehouse. Licensee Cornelius Paul. Registered Owner Messrs. Downing.”

Walsall Advertiser 13/6/1908 - Advert

“PRINCE OF WALES INN, Portland Street, Walsall.
Important to Licensed Victuallers, Refreshment House Keepers, Clubs, and others.
Mr. A. C. Fraser Wood, F.A.I. (Watkins, Powell, and Wood), is favoured with instructions to absolutely realise by Auction on Tuesday, June 23rd, 1908 (in consequence of the extinction of the license of the above house), the whole of the Useful Public House Fixtures And Fittings, including Grained and Varnished Seating, Partitions and Screens; 19ft Panelled Counter, 4-pull Beer Machine, with piping and connections; Brass and Copper Muller, zinc-lined Wash-up Sink, Painted Bar Fixtures, Painted China Spirit Barrels, Drinking Tables, Chairs, Stools, and Benches, Pewter Measures and Dripper, Jugs and Glasses, and Sporting Prints &c; together with the complete Brewing Plant, comprising 160 and 85 gallon Steel Boilers, Cooling Vats, Copper Refrigerator, Fermenting Vats, Store Casks, and other Plant; also the Stock-In-Trade, including well-known brands of Whiskies, Clarets, Cordials, Champagnes, Ports, Cigars, Cigarettes, &c.
Sale to commence at 11 o'clock precisely.
Auctioneer's Offices, 28, Bridge Street (adjoining the STORK HOTEL), Walsall.”

The license was extinguished on 9th October 1908.

PRINCE OF WALES

34, Queen Street / Short Street, WALSALL

OWNERS

George Smith, IRISH HARP, Long Street, Walsall
Mrs. Julia Marshall [1880]
Mrs. Elizabeth Smith, Bath Road [1902]
William Butler and Co. Ltd. (leased) [1915]
William Butler and Co. Ltd. (acquired on 1st May 1936)
Mitchells and Butlers Ltd.

LICENSEES

John Bailey [1865]
John Marshall [1866] – [1873];
Mrs. Julia Marshall [1880] – 1902;

George Smith (1902 – 1908);
Louisa Lilian Smith (1908);
Samuel Frederick Smith (1908 – 1911);
Mrs. Emma Smith (1911 – 1915);
Ernest Smith [1914] ?
Albert ‘Bert’ Atherton (1915 – 1916);
Benjamin Fawkes (1916 – 1925);
Reginald Henry Hill (1925 – 1950);
Alfred William Prosser (1950 – 1952);
Frank Evans (1952 – 1954);
John Thomas Westwood (1954 – 1958);
Lucy Nickless (1958 – 1965);
Frederick William Cresswell (1965 – [1966])
Barry Goodwin [1969]

NOTES

It had a beerhouse license.

Walsall Free Press 2/9/1865

“Licensing day. There were 174 applications for the renewal of licenses, and 19 new applications.
Mr. Matthews, from the office of Mr. Wilkinson, applied on behalf of the following parties.
John Bailey, PRINCE OF WALES, Queen Street Granted.”

Walsall Free Press 16/12/1865 - Advert

“Re J. Bailey, in the Court of the Queen’s bench.
Sale at the PRINCE OF WALES INN, Queen Street, Walsall.
To Be Sold By Auction, by J. Osbourn, on Tuesday next, December 19th, 1865 (under an Execution from the Sheriff), all the Household Furniture, and other Effects, belonging to Mr. John Bailey.
Sale to commence at Ten o’clock in the Morning, conditions as usual.”

Staffordshire Advertiser 24/11/1866

“Mr. Marshall, landlord of the PRINCE OF WALES public-house, Queen Street, has reported to the police that on Wednesday evening last a bedroom in his house was entered and £50 stolen from a drawer therein. The catch of the window is broken off, and there are some suspicious marks on the lead adjacent to the window. The drawer seems to have been opened by means of a skeleton key.”

Aris’s Birmingham Gazette 2/3/1867

“On Thursday afternoon Mr. A. A. Fletcher, coroner for this borough, held an inquest at the PRINCE OF WALES public-house, Queen Street upon the body of Sarah Redgate, aged 18 months. It appeared that about one o’clock on Tuesday afternoon the deceased was taken out by her aunt – a younger sister of her mother’s – and about three o’clock was brought back again. When she returned the mother was about to put her to the breast, when deceased dropped her head upon her mother’s shoulder and expired before medical aid could be procured.
The jury, after hearing the evidence, returned a verdict of Death from Natural Causes.”

John Marshall, beer retailer, 34 Queen Street. [1868], [1870]

1871 Census

34, Queen Street

- [1] John Marshall (40), brush maker, born Walsall;
- [2] Julia Marshall (39), wife, born Walsall;
- [3] Thomas Marshall (19), son, brush maker’s apprentice, born Walsall;
- [4] Ann Brown (19), general servant, born Walsall:

1881 Census

34, Queen Street – PRINCE OF WALES

- [1] Julia Marshall (49), widow, licensed victualler, born Walsall;
- [2] Elizabeth Sirle (?) (20), domestic servant, born Chester:

Evening Star 24/1/1882

“This afternoon, Mr. A. A. Fletcher, held an inquest at the PRINCE OF WALES INN, Queen Street, upon the body of John Marshall (30), a shoemaker, who resided at 182, Queen Street, and who committed suicide on Wednesday last under circumstances already reported in these columns.

Emily Reynolds, wife of the deceased, was the only witness called, amongst other evidence stated that the deceased frequently had his meals whilst at work, and since he had a slight stroke about two years ago had sometimes behaved very strangely. He had often expressed a wish to die and go to heaven, but never referred to committing suicide. After recapitulating the circumstances connected with his death, she added that to her knowledge, no men of the deceased's family had ever suffered from insanity, neither had he himself been confined in a lunatic asylum. She was not benefitted in any way from his death. A verdict of Insanity was returned."

1891 Census

34, Queen Street – PRINCE OF WALES

- [1] Julia Marshall (59), widow, licensed victualler, born Walsall;
- [2] Julia Marshall (16), granddaughter, dressmaker, born Walsall;
- [3] Elizabeth Marshall (15), granddaughter, housework, born Walsall;
- [4] Annie Marshall (4), granddaughter, scholar, born Walsall;
- [5] Annie Thompson (21), general servant, born Wednesbury;

Walsall Advertiser 19/6/1897

"Mr. T. H. Stanley, coroner, held an inquest at the PRINCE OF WALES INN, Queen Street, relative to the death of Sarah Hughes (65), widow, of 181 Queen Street, who died on Tuesday morning from the effects of a fall downstairs. From the evidence adduced it appeared the woman went to bed about eleven o'clock on the evening of June 8th, but went downstairs again for the purpose of fastening the door. While doing so she fell from the top of the stairs to the bottom. Dr. McKinstry was sent for, and found the woman suffering from fractured ribs and a broken forearm. The injuries thus received were the primary cause of death. The jury returned a verdict of Accidental Death. The Coroner remarked that all such houses ought to be provided with hand-rails."

Walsall Advertiser 9/12/1899 - Advert

"Wanted, a respectable servant.
Apply, Mrs. Marshall, PRINCE OF WALES, Queen Street."

Walsall Observer 15/12/1900

"On Thursday evening, at the PRINCE OF WALES INN, Queen Street, a supper was given to celebrate the coming of age of Mr. Fred Marshall. About fifty guests sat down....."

1901 Census

34, Queen Street – PRINCE OF WALES

- [1] Julia Marshall (70), widow, licensed victualler, born Walsall;
- [2] John Marshall (24), grandson, carpenter, born Walsall;
- [3] Frederick Marshall (21), grandson, lithographer, born Walsall;
- [4] Clara Marshall (18), granddaughter, born Walsall;
- [5] Frank Marshall (16), grandson, buckle maker, born Walsall;
- [6] George Marshall (12), grandson, born Walsall;
- [7] Amy Skeels (22), barmaid, born Northampton;
- [8] Lucy Myatt (29), domestic servant, born Brownhills;

Walsall Advertiser 6/2/1904

"The annual licensing sessions for the Borough of Walsall were held on Thursday at the Guildhall, and aroused considerable interest. The court was crowded, and many license-holders were unable to obtain admission..... Notice had been given to 76 license holders to show cause for the renewal of their licenses, evidently as a result of the visits of a sub-committee of magistrates to the licensed premises, the reasons why cause had to be shown being various....
G. Smith, PRINCE OF WALES."

Walsall Advertiser 12/11/1904

"George Smith, landlord of the PRINCE OF WALES, Queen Street, was summoned for permitting card playing for money upon his licensed premises on October 29th. Mr. H. H. Jackson (Messrs. Stanley and Jackson) defended. Police-constable Ayres said that in company with Police-constable Bell, both in plain clothes, he visited the defendant's house and remained there from 9pm to 10.20. He heard someone propose a game of cards, and four men named Pinches, Henstock, Marshall, and Devey sat down at a table, one of them remarking 'For a quart.' Defendant himself produced the cards and cribbage board. They were playing at whist and counting 'honours.' Marshall and Devey lost, and the former put down a shilling and called for a quart of ale. This was supplied by the landlady, and Devey afterwards passed 6d over to his partner, telling him to take 3d. Marshall, however, had no change, and he passed it to Henstock, asking him to take 2d which he owed him for 'honours.' The landlord was in the bar the whole of the time, and he must have seen what was going on. At the conclusion of the game he called defendant from the room and told him who they were and what they had seen. He said, 'My God, this is not a case against me, but I will be candid with you.' Witness said, 'But you gave them the cards and the cribbage board and knew they were playing for quarts.' He replied 'I know.'
Cross-examined by Mr. Jackson, witness said he did not know that one of the men was drinking whisky, and consequently could not have been playing for beer. He saw coppers thrown on the table, but could not say by whom they were picked up. Police-constable Bell corroborated.

Defendant said previous to going to the house two years ago he had been employed for seventeen years by Messrs. Brace, Windle, and Blyth. So far as he knew neither money nor ale was played for. Devey was drinking whisky, and at the conclusion of the game a man named Thomas Davis fetched a quart of ale, and collected 2d from each of the others three players.

Thomas Davis gave evidence bearing out this part of the statement.

Devey, Marshall, and Pinches denied that money or ale was played for.

The Bench imposed a fine of £5 and costs.”

Walsall Advertiser 11/2/1905

“The annual Brewster Sessions for the Borough were held on Wednesday at the Guildhall.....

The renewal of the license to George Smith, PRINCE OF WALES, Queen Street, was also objected to.

The Chief Constable explained that the man was fined £5 and costs for allowing gaming on his premises on October 29th, 1904.

The Chief Constable said the place had been under special observation since the offence but he had no further complaint.

Mr. Jackson applied for the renewal. He said the applicant had always borne a good character, and had been in the employ of one firm, previous to taking the house, a great number of years. The offence complained of was card playing, when it was alleged the men were playing for beer. It was the first time he had slipped, and the house had been in the family’s hands for a good number of years, and hoped that it would be still. The house had been well conducted ever since without complaint.”

Walsall Advertiser 12/5/1906

“The monthly meeting of the Walsall and District Licensed Victuallers’ and Beer Retailers’ Friendly and Protection Society was held on Thursday last.....

A funeral donation of £10 was voted to the representative of the late Mrs. Julia Marshall, who joined the society on 1st October, 1878.”

Walsall Advertiser 12/6/1909

“The monthly meeting of the Walsall and District Licensed Victuallers’ and Beer Retailers’ Friendly and Protection Society, was held on Thursday last at the house of Mr. S. F. Smith, PRINCE OF WALES INN, Queen Street, Walsall.....”

1911 Census

34, Queen Street – PRINCE OF WALES INN

[1] Samuel Frederick Smith (48), victualler, born Walsall;

[2] Emma Smith (37), wife, married 16 years, assisting in business, born Walsall;

[3] Ernest Smith (26), son, victualler’s son working at home, born Walsall;

[4] Emily Smith (23), daughter, born Walsall;

[5] Herbert Smith (15), son, electrical fitting maker, born Walsall;

[6] Leonard Smith (12), son, school, born Walsall;

[7] Ivy Smith (9), daughter, born Walsall;

[8] Vera Smith (4), daughter, born Walsall:

Walsall Observer 15/4/1911 - Deaths

“On the 13th inst, at the PRINCE OF WALES, Queen Street, Samuel Frederick, dearly beloved husband of Emma Smith; aged 48 years.”

1911 Probate

“Samuel Frederick Smith, of the PRINCE OF WALES INN, Queen Street, Walsall, Staffordshire, died 13 April 1911. Probate Lichfield 23 May to Emma Smith, widow, and Archibald Wilkes Yardley, brewer. Effects £1,366 8s 4d.”

Walsall Advertiser 17/6/1911

“The Walsall Transfer Sessions were held on Monday.....

PRINCE OF WALES, Queen Street, from the Executors of Samuel Frederick Smith, deceased, to Emma Smith.”

Samuel Frederick Smith – see also GOATS HEAD.

Walsall Advertiser 28/6/1913

“A well-known local licensed victualler passed away at his residence, the OAK INN, Green Lane, on Tuesday night in the person of Mr. Frederick Marshall. Deceased who was only 33 years of age, succumbed to a long and painful illness. He leaves a widow and four children to mourn his loss. Mr. Marshall was the second son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Marshall, of the PRINCE OF WALES, Queen Street, and has been closely associated with the Walsall Licensed Victuallers’ Association for some considerable time. He had always given a helping hand in needy cases, and was greatly respected in the licensed trade. The funeral took place at Ryecroft Cemetery yesterday (Friday) and among the numerous wreaths received were those from the Walsall Licensed Victuallers’ and the Highgate Brewery Company.”

Walsall Observer 28/3/1914

“Samuel Hopkins, of 145 Queen Street, was summoned for being disorderly on the licensed premises of the PRINCE OF WALES INN, Queen Street, on March 15th, and refusing to quit when requested. Mr. H. H. Jackson appeared for the licensee, Ernest Smith, and Mr. F. A. Platt for the defendant.

Mr. Jackson remarked that he should not keep the magistrates more than five minutes.

Mr. Halford: I never dread lawyers; they are so very pleasant and gentlemanly.

Alderman Clare: And well they might be, when they have something to get.

Mr. Jackson: I am afraid most of us are ‘on the get’; it is the same amongst all classes.

Mr. Jackson went on to explain that at nine o’clock on the night in question the defendant went to the house and commenced shouting and using bad language. The landlord requested him to leave, but he refused to do so, and the police were sent for. Before they arrived, however, Hopkins took his departure. The defendant had that morning apologised for his conduct, and under the circumstances he (Mr. Jackson) would leave the case with the magistrates.

Mr. Platt said the defendant did not attempt to justify his foolish conduct, but he had expressed his regret in the fullest sense of the word.

The magistrates dismissed the case on payment of the costs.”

Walsall Observer 2/10/1915 - Adverts

“Bert Atherton, having taken the PRINCE OF WALES, Queen Street, will be pleased to see old friends.”

AND

“PRINCE OF WALES INN, Queen Street, Walsall.

Tuesday, 12th October, 1915, at Eleven.

Leonard C. Philpott has received instructions from the Lessees (Messrs. W. Butler & Co. Ltd., Wolverhampton) to Sell by Auction, without reserve, upon the Premises, as above, the Excellent Brewing Plant, consisting of 200-gallon Steel Boiler, 80-gallon Boiler, 10-Bushel Mash Tun, Copper Pump, 3 Fermenting Vats, Large Wood Cooler, 2 Atemporators, 7 Ale Casks, 100, 80, and 60 gallons; 28in Copper Refrigerator, by Keyte; Platform Weighing Machine (Avery), to weigh 4cwt; 3 Underbacks, Barm Tub, Mash Rule Sieve, and other Useful Brewing Utensils.

Further particulars may be had at the Auctioneer’s Offices, Midland Bank Chambers, The Bridge, Walsall.”

Walsall Observer 24/11/1917

“Disturbances alleged to have followed a public house argument on military matters were described at the Guildhall yesterday, before Messrs. E. J. Shaw, and T. A. Smith. Walter Hitch, 2, Frederick Street and Ernest Sheldon, a discharged and disabled soldier, Portland Street, were summed for assaulting Frank Middleton, 17, Francis Street, and Arthur Middleton, 84, Regent Street. Mr. Jackson appeared for the complainants, and Mr. F. J. Addison defended.

Mr. Jackson explained that the complainants were brothers, Frank being a caster, and Arthur being a private in the South Staffs, who had been to the front twice, and was now wounded. On November 7 complainants were in the PRINCE OF WALES, Queen Street, but there was no controversy at all between them. Arthur Middleton went into the yard, and on returning to the front of the public house found his brother lying on the ground, being brutally assaulted by the defendants, who were kicking him. Arthur went for a policeman, but failed to find one, and as he was returning to the public house he met his brother in Navigation Street. Frank was terribly knocked about. Arthur decided to take him home. On the way defendants overtook them and assaulted Arthur, one hitting him in the ear, and the other in the mouth, while Sheldon kicked him in the eye while he was on the ground. Mr. Jackson submitted that it was a case of grossly aggravated assaults, committed without provocation.

Both complainants gave evidence, and Mr. Addison’s cross-examination suggested that Arthur had a dispute with a sergeant-major (Hitch’s brother), who disputed he was at Loos and Festbert, and that he afterwards gave him a ‘good hiding.’ Both complainants denied these suggestions. Private Middleton, who was wearing hospital blue, and said he was on leave from Lichfield, added the sergeant-major only asked witness what battalion he was in, and witness told him. He also said that when looking for a police officer he met one constable who said he could not leave his beat, although witness told him his brother was being kicked to death. Hitch told the magistrates that in the public house there was a dispute between Pte. Middleton and witness’s brother, the sergeant-major, as to battles at which Pte. Middleton fought, and outside Pte. Middleton struck the sergeant-major, and a fight followed. Frank Middleton then struck witness, and he retaliated. Complainants then ran away, as witness and Sheldon were on their way home they found complainants waiting for them. Pte. Middleton ‘went for’ Sheldon, and his brother attacked witness.

Mr. Addison: There then was quite a scrap? – Witness: Yes, a fair fight.

Mr. Jackson: You and Sheldon seem to have come out of the fight wonderfully well. – Witness: Yes.

Mr. Jackson: Neither of you was injured – No.

Sheldon gave similar evidence, and suggested that complainants were the worse for drink.

Other witnesses were called on both sides, and the Bench, after a private consultation, decided to convict defendants of what they considered disgraceful assaults. Sheldon, who had been previously convicted of assault and other offences, was sentenced to two months’ hard labour, and Hitch to six weeks’ hard labour.”

Walsall Observer 12/1/1918

“Walsall and District War Aid Committee. Collection By The Licensed Victuallers, December, 1917..... PRINCE OF WALES, Queen Street. £1 11s 8½d.”

Benjamin Fawkes = Benjamin Fewkes

Staffordshire Advertiser 25/8/1923

“The monthly meeting of the Walsall and District Licensed Victuallers’ and Beer Retailers’ Friendly and Protection Society was held on the 16th inst. at the house of Mr. Benjamin Fewkes, PRINCE OF WALES INN, Queen Street, Walsall.....”

1939 Register

34, Queen Street

[1] Reginald H. Hill, date of birth 30/6/1882, licensee tenant, public house, married;

[2] Rosa R. Hill, dob 16/4/1888, unpaid domestic duties, married;

[3] Jean R. (Hill) (Prosser) Hatton, dob 24/10/1920, tailoress, single;

[4] Joyce H. (Hill) Flynn, dob 21/4/1929, at school, single:

Walsall Observer 30/11/1940

“That yard at the back of the PRINCE OF WALES, Queen street, was the scene during the summer of some delightful children’s entertainments. Mr. R. H. Hill is following up the useful work then done for war funds by getting his customers at the inn to subscribe to the Coventry relief effort. He has sent a first cheque for £5 to the mayor of Coventry to be used ‘for any purpose which in your judgement will do most good.’ The first cheque may not be very large but the spirit behind it is splendid.”

Walsall Observer 7/12/1940

“Walsall Licensed Victuallers’ Society.

Motor Ambulance Effort on behalf of Walsall and District branch of the British Red Cross Society.

First List of Subscriptions.....

PRINCE OF WALES INN, Queen Street, £1 14s 6d.”

Walsall Observer 29/8/1942

“County Borough of Walsall. Mayor’s War Aid Fund. Nineteenth List of Subscriptions.....

Mr. Hill, PRINCE OF WALES. £1 1s 9d.”

Walsall Observer 24/12/1942

“Walsall Licensed Victuallers’ Society. The Duke of Gloucester’s Red Cross Fund. List of Subscriptions.....

PRINCE OF WALES, Queen Street. £1 1s 0d.”

Walsall Observer 15/1/1944

“Walsall Licensed Victuallers’ Society.

Appeal on Behalf of the Merchant Navy Fund, The Duke of Gloucester’s Red Cross Fund and the Aid to China Fund. List of Subscriptions.....

PRINCE OF WALES INN, Queen Street. £5 0s 3d.”

Reginald Henry Hill – see also PHEASANT.

Walsall Observer 24/8/1962 - Advert

“Attention! all Mild drinkers.

Highgate Mild is now available in the following Butlers and Atkinsons houses.....

PRINCE OF WALES, Queen Street, Walsall.”

Walsall Observer 30/5/1969

“The first meeting of Walsall Compensation Committee since 1966 will next month consider the cases of three public houses for which the licensing justices have decided not to renew licenses. The houses are the BARREL, Horton Street, Darlaston; the PRINCE OF WALES, Queen Street, Walsall, and the BUTTS INN, Butts Street, Walsall.”

Walsall Observer 20/6/1969 - Notice

“County Borough of Walsall.

Notice is Hereby Given that the compensation authority for the above area having decided at their principal meeting held on the 12th day of June 1969, to refuse the renewal of the license of the premises specified below, all persons claiming to be interested in the said premises for the purpose of the payment of compensation under the said Act are required to send to the compensation authority notice of their claims before the 21st day of July, 1969.....

PRINCE OF WALES, Queen Street, Walsall. Publican’s Old on-license. Licensee, Barry Goodwin. Registered Owners, Mitchells & Butlers.”

PRIORY

52, (47), Park Street / Priory Yard, WALSALL

OWNERS

The Misses Robbins, Caldmore Road, Walsall
Richard Henry Elwell, Horsham, Sussex
North Worcestershire Breweries Ltd. (leased) [1901]
Wolverhampton and Dudley Breweries Ltd. (leased) [1909]
Highgate Walsall Brewery Ltd.
Mr. Robert Holyland
Mitchells and Butlers Ltd. (acquired in 1948)
Fretwell Properties Ltd.

LICENSEES

David Hawkins [1849] – [1858]
Mrs. Susannah Hawkins [1860] – [1861]
John Hawkins* [1864] – [1865]
John Tipping ‘Tippy’ Hawkins* [1868] – [1870]
James A Froggatt [1869] – [1871]
Thomas Penzer [1872] – [1873];
James Fielding [1875];
Samuel Fenn [1876];
Ross Cattnach [1877] ?
Joseph Rose [1880] – [1885];
Maria Rose [] – 1887);
John Colling Cooke (1887 – 1888);
Annie Lees Cooke (1888 – 1889);
Maria Rose (1889 – 1891);
William Ross Catternach (1891 – 1893);
Charles Francis Brown (1893 – 1898);
Edwin James Diver (1898 – 1902);
Mrs. Alice Diver (1902 – 1909);
Peter Cameron Gordon (1909 – 1914);
Lucy Ellen Sorge (1914 – 1915);
Arthur Cresswell (1915 – 1928);
Lily Walker (1928 – 1929);
James Bolton (1929 – 1950);
John Edward Earp (1950);
Leo Sydney Hill (1950 – 1952);
Eric Wood (1952 – 1957);
Leslie Melbourne Morley (1957 – 1958);
David Edwin Smith (1958 – 1960);
William Riley (1960 – 1961);
Thomas Quinton Lewis (1961 – [1966])

NOTES

47, Park Street [1858], [1861], [1864], [1871], [1873]
52, Park Street [1891]

CITY OF LONDON [1850], [1858], [1860], [1868], [1871], [1873]
WINE AND SPIRIT VAULTS [1864], [1865]
PRIORY HOUSE HOTEL [1875], [1877], [1881]
PRIORY HOTEL [1880], [1881], [1939]
PRIORY INN [1885]
PRIORY HOTEL and Dining Rooms [1911]
PRIORY Commercial Hotel [1904], [1912]
YE OLDE PRIORY HOTEL

The original house was owned by the Elwell family.

Mary Elwell, PRIORY, Park Street. [1813]

David Hawkins, wine and spirit vaults, Park Street. [1849], [1850]

1851 Census

Park Street

- [1] David Hawkins (51), wine and spirit merchant, born Bloxwich;
- [2] Susannah Hawkins (41), wife, born London;
- [3] Susannah Hawkins (18), daughter, born Walsall;
- [4] John Hawkins (11), son, born Walsall;
- [5] Ann Hawkins (9), daughter, born Walsall;
- [6] Amelia Webster (20), servant, born Stourbridge;
- [7] Mary Cordwell (16), servant, born Walsall:

David Hawkins was also a wine and spirit merchant. [1858]

1861 Census

47, Park Street

- [1] Susannah Hawkins (52), widow, spirit merchant, born London;
- [2] Jane Hawkins (25), daughter, scholar, born Walsall;
- [3] Ann Hawkins (19), daughter, scholar, born Walsall;
- [4] Elizabeth Docker (22), house servant, born Lutton, Staffordshire;
- [5] Ann Gibson (20), house servant, born Nottingham;
- [6] John J. Gibson (21), son, scholar, born Walsall:

* possibly the same person

John Tipping Hawkins, spirit vaults, 47, Park Street. [1868]

John Tipping Hawkins beer retailer, 47 Park Street. [1870]

Walsall Free Press 12/12/1868 - Advert

“CITY OF LONDON WINE VAULTS, Park Street, Walsall.

Important Sale Of First-Class Vintage Wines.

Messrs. Farrington & Son beg to announce that they are instructed by Mr. John T. Hawkins, who is leaving the above premises, to offer by Auction as above, on Friday next, the 18th December, 1868, at Two for Three o'clock in the afternoon, subject to conditions: about 70 dozens of first-class Vintage Port Wines in bottles, pints and ½-pints, most of which was bottled by Mr. Hawkins' late father, and will be sold in lots to suit purchaser; 30 dozens of Champagne, and about 50 dozens of excellent Sherry Wines. Samples tasted at the Sale.

Aris's Birmingham Gazette 17/4/1869 - Advert

“Important Sale Of Grocery, Shop Fixtures &c, at Digbeth, Walsall.

Messrs. Farrington and Son are instructed to Sell by Auction (without reserve) on Tuesday and Wednesday Next, the 20th and 21st days of April, all the Capital Stock of Grocery, Shop Fixtures, Furniture, and Effects of Mr. J. A. Froggatt, who had given up the Grocery Business and removed to the CITY OF LONDON WINE VAULTS, Park Street, consisting of about half a ton of choice Young Hyson Gunpowder, and Conou Tea and Tea Dust, Coffees, Chicory, Spices, Starch, Mustard, Toilet and other Soaps, Rice, Pickles, Sugars, Currants, Tea and Tobacco Papers, Black and White Pepper, Figs, Raisins, Soda, Tapioca, Sago, Corn Flour, Foreign and British Wines, Sussex and Belgian Hops, capital Shop Fixtures, large brass Hopper, Coffee Mill, Stand Scales, Tea Mill, Show Bowls, Sugar Tray, strong Trap, Grocer's Delivery Cart, Harness, five-year-old Chestnut Mare, 14½ hands, very steady. Also, useful Household Furniture, consisting of mahogany Loo Tables, Chiffonier, mahogany Chairs, Chimney Glass, Carpets, Timepiece, birch and iron Bedsteads, Mattresses, feather Beds, Washstands and Tables, Glass, and other useful Effects. Particulars in catalogues, to be had at the Office of the Auctioneers, The Bridge, Walsall. Sale to commence at half-past Ten each morning. Conditions as usual.”

It later became a rooming house [1871]

Birmingham Daily Gazette 10/1/1871

“John Tippy Hawkins, formerly landlord of the CITY OF LONDON public-house, Park Street, was charged with having on Friday last, assaulted Mrs. Froggatt, the present landlady of the house in question; and also with breaking a pane of glass, value 1s. It appeared that about seven o'clock on Friday evening, the defendant went to complainant's husband's house, and after making threats to her, stating what he would do to her husband, he threw a glass of liquor over her. About three o'clock next morning he returned and threw a piece of cinder through one of the bed-room windows. For the first offence defendant was fined 5s and costs, and for the second, 10s and costs in addition to the value of the pane of glass 1s.”

1871 Census

47, Park Street

- [1] James A. Froggatt (38), licensed victualler, born Walsall;

- [2] Elizabeth Froggatt (38), wife, born Shropshire;
- [3] Elizabeth W. D. Froggatt (11), daughter, born Walsall;
- [4] James A. P. Froggatt (7), son, born Walsall;
- [5] Eleanor G. Froggatt (1), daughter, born Walsall;
- [6] Elizabeth Heyson(?) (19), servant, barmaid, born Stafford;
- [7] Elizabeth Adams (21), general servant, born Wolverhampton:

Birmingham Daily Post 26/7/1871

“At the Guildhall on Monday, James A. Froggatt, of the CITY OF LONDON INN, Park Street, was charged with having had his house open at 25 minutes past one o’clock on Friday morning, when a police officer found three men and three women drinking at the bar and the landlord and one or two other men playing at cards in the parlour. Mr. Glover appeared for the defence, pleaded that it was entirely through an oversight that the house was open after one o’clock. The Bench imposed a fine of 10s and costs.”

Birmingham Daily Post 12/9/1871

“The Adjourned Licensing Sessions. This session took place at the Guildhall, yesterday.....

Mr. Glover then applied for the renewal of the licenses of the undermentioned, whose licenses were suspended on licensing day.....

J. A. Frogatt, the CITY OF LONDON, Park Street. Granted.”

It originally was an Alehouse with no sign. [1872]

London Gazette 7/12/1875

“The Bankruptcy Act, 1869.

In the County Court of Staffordshire, holden at Walsall, In the Matter of Proceedings for Liquidation by Arrangement or Composition with Creditors, instituted by James Fielding, of the PRIORY HOUSE HOTEL, Park-street, Walsall, in the county of Stafford, Licensed Victualler.

Edward Broadhurst Scholefield, of Wednesbury, in the county of Stafford, Auctioneer, has been appointed Trustee of the property of the debtor. All persons having in their possession any of the effects of the debtor must deliver them to the trustee, and all debts due to the debtor must be paid to the trustee. Creditors who have not yet proved their debts must forward their proofs of debts to the trustee.

Dated this 24th day of November, 1875.”

Post Office Directory 1876 - Advert

“Commercial Hotel & Restaurant, PRIORY HOUSE, Park Street, Walsall.

One Minute’s Walk From The Railway Station.

Samuel Fenn, Proprietor.

An Ordinary At One O’Clock Daily, 2/-

Tea, Coffee, Chops, Steaks, At Any Time.

Well-Aired Beds.”

Birmingham Daily Gazette 7/3/1877

“The adjourned licensing sessions for this borough took place on Wednesday at the Guildhall.....

A six-days music license for dinners, bona-fide parties, and similar gatherings was granted to Mr. Ross Cattnach, of the PRIORY HOTEL.”

Birmingham Daily Post 26/4/1877 - Advert

“Housemaid and Waitress (combined) Wanted; one who understands her duties.

Apply, PRIORY HOUSE HOTEL, Park Street, Walsall.”

Walsall Advertiser 4/12/1880 - Advert

“Ribbed Glass. About 500 Panes, 15 inches by ¾ inch thick; price 2½d each.

Address, S. J., PRIORY HOTEL, Park Street.”

Evening Express 6/1/1881 - Advert

“Wanted, at once, a good Plain Cook.

Apply PRIORY HOTEL, Park Street, Walsall.”

1881 Census

47, Park Street

[1] Joseph Rose (35), innkeeper, born Wolverhampton;

[2] Mariah Rose (45), wife, born Tipton;

[3] Ann L. Doughty (19), daughter, unmarried, barmaid, born Tipton;

[4] William W. Doughty (17), son, hinge maker, born Tipton;

[5] Fl___y Doughty (11), daughter, scholar, born Tipton;

- [6] Henry W. Hempson (22), visitor, born Hardwick;
- [7] Sarah Wilson (21), waitress, born Wolverhampton;
- [8] Eliza Baker (29), cook, born Walsall;
- [9] William Clark (48), visitor, labourer, born Rushton;
- [10] William Clark (22), cellar man, born Rushton:

Evening Star 2/1/1882

“On Saturday night the second annual railway carters’ dinner, promoted for the encouragement of kindness to their horses, took place at the PRIORY HOTEL, where nearly 100 of the carters and their friends sat down to an excellent repast. The chair was taken by Mr. W. H. Duignan.....”

Evening Star 13/1/1882 - Advert

“Wanted, at once, a good plain Cook.
Address Mrs. Rose, PRIORY HOTEL, Park Street, Walsall.”

Walsall Observer 14/3/1885

“Royal Antediluvian Order of Buffaloes (Garrick Lodge). On Monday evening last the above lodge having been removed from the PRIORY HOTEL, was reopened at Bro. Charles Spicer’s, the MARKET TAVERN, Freer Street, by Prime Donellan, PGP of Walsall, with a numerous and excellent gathering of primes and brothers of the Order, after which the evening was spent in conviviality.....”

Walsall Observer 25/4/1885

“Court Perseverance (No.4230) will hold their next meeting at the PRIORY HOTEL Court, that being the newly selected Court house.”

Walsall Advertiser 20/6/1885

“On Monday night the anniversary of Court ‘Perseverance,’ Ancient Order of Foresters, was held at the PRIORY INN, Park Street, Walsall, under the presidency of Councillor Wheway. After ample justice had been done to the repast provided by Host Rose, the Chairman proposed the usual loyal and patriotic toasts, which were loyally responded to. The Chairman, after proposing the toast ‘The Court Perseverance,’ delivered an address, taking the name of the Court as his theme. He hoped each member would adopt the word ‘perseverance,’ as his motto through life. The growth and prosperous position of the Court showed that perseverance was a characteristic of it, for he learned that there were funds in hand amounting to more than £1,900, being nearly £6 10s per member. Mr. Davis, the secretary, responded, and gave many interesting particulars of the history and present position of the Court. Mr. Frakes, the District Treasurer, in replying to the toast of ‘The District,’ stated that there were in the district 1,763 members, and that Court and District funds amounted to £11,000, of which more than £5,000 had been invested with the Walsall Corporation, that which a safer investment could not be found. Other speeches followed, and the remainder of the meeting was passed in a convivial manner.”

Lichfield Mercury 4/9/1885

“On Monday the Walsall Poultry and Fancy Pigeon Show held a show of young fancy pigeons at the PRIORY HOTEL, Park Street. The birds divided into seventeen classes, and some promising birds amongst those shown.”

John Colling Cook – see also SPRING COTTAGE, Holtshill Lane.

1891 Census

52, Park Street – PRIORY HOTEL

- [1] William R. Cattenach (42), hotel keeper, born Aberdeen;
- [2] Elizabeth Roads Cattenach (34), wife, born Coningsby;
- [3] William R. Cattenach (11), son, scholar, born Hull;
- [4] Albert R. Cattenach (10), son, scholar, born Hull;
- [5] Barbara M. Cattenach (6), daughter, scholar, born Goole;
- [6] Margaret Bradbury (48), cook, born Gnosall;
- [7] Annie Bradbury (24), general servant, born Walsall;
- [8] Lucy Robinson (23), waitress, born Ellesmere;
- [9] Charles Braddy (23), boots, born Colchester;
- [10] Arthur Withnall (16), waiter, born Birmingham:

Walsall Advertiser 27/2/1896 - Advert

“Conservative League Jottings.
‘Lord Randolph Churchill’ Lodge will meet on Monday next at the PRIORY HOTEL at 8.30, when very important (Thornton) business will be discussed.”

Walsall Advertiser 20/6/1896 - Deaths

“On the 17th inst, Annie, wife of Charles Francis Brown, PRIORY HOTEL, Park Street, aged 27 years.”

Edwin James Diver = Edward J. Diver

Walsall Advertiser 2/9/1899

“The annual licensing sessions for this borough were held at the Guildhall on Wednesday.....

Then the magistrates also want to know if you can report to them during the sitting of this meeting as to the accommodation provided by the GEORGE HOTEL, the STORK, the DRAGON, the PRIORY, NEW INNS, the WOOLPACK, and the QUEENS?the Chief Constable said he was then in possession of the information asked by the Magistrates with reference to the bedroom accommodation at the hotels. At the GEORGE HOTEL there were nineteen beds for commercials. The two large rooms at that hotel, formerly used for balls, &c, had been converted into eight bedrooms and a bathroom, and no plans had been submitted for the alterations. At the PRIORY there were six bedrooms for accommodation, five at the DRAGON, three at the QUEENS, but there was no bedroom accommodation at the STORK, NEW INNS, and the WOOLPACK Hotels.....

Mr. Loxton announced that the hotel licenses would be renewed with the exception of the GEORGE.”

Walsall Advertiser 27/1/1900

“Walsall Railwaymen’s Supper. The above was held on Thursday night at the PRIORY HOTEL, Park Street, when about fifty of the Walsall Station staff belonging to the various departments sat down to a substantial supper, catered for by Mr. E. J. Diver in an excellent style. After doing ample justice to the good things placed before them, the men settled down for an evening’s enjoyment.....”

Walsall Advertiser 14/4/1900

“The monthly meeting of the Walsall and District Licensed Victuallers’ and Beer Retailers’ Friendly and Protection Society was held on Thursday.....

New Members... Mr. E. J. Diver, PRIORY HOTEL, Park Street.”

Walsall Advertiser 21/4/1900

“For a considerable period, the Star Minstrels, a new troupe, have been rehearsing at the PRIORY HOTEL, Park Street, and they made their initial bow before the public on Monday evening at the Temperance Hall, where they again appeared on Tuesday. Each night the place was crowded, and many were unable to obtain admission. The corner men engaged are the original ‘Little Tim,’ from the Standard Theatre Pantomime, and Geo Lester, late of The Moore and Burgess Minstrels, so that nothing was lacking in this respect. All round, however, the troupe, which numbers 30, was a decided success, the jokes were smart and ripe, the choruses and solos capital, and the company is to be congratulated on so admirable a debut. That they have a fair prospect before them may be judged from the fact that two-thirds of the numbers were encored.”

Walsall Advertiser 8/9/1900

“Walsall Early Closers’ Football Club. The annual general meeting of this club was held on Wednesday at the PRIORY HOTEL, Park Street. There was a numerous attendance.....”

Sporting Life 10/1/1901

“Mr. J. H. Ellis, the honorary secretary of the Birmingham Licensed Victuallers’ Billiard League, has favoured us with an advanced copy of the entries for this year’s competition. All the best known men in the Midlands have signified their intention of taking part in the tournament, which promises to furnish better sport than in any previous year.....

E. J. Diver, PRIORY HOTEL Walsall.”

1901 Census

PRIORY HOTEL

- [1] Edward J. Diver (40), hotel manager, born Cambridge;
- [2] Alice Diver (33), wife, hotel manageress, born Birmingham;
- [3] Nora Diver (4), daughter, born Birmingham;
- [4] Clara Beasley (36), relative, school mistress, born Muggleton, Shropshire;
- [5] Ellen M. Carrick (19), chambermaid, born Brewood;
- [6] Emma Robottan (20), kitchen maid, born Wednesbury;
- [7] Agnes Smith (42), cook, born Cheltenham;
- [8] Elizabeth Pritchard (23), waitress, born Meny Head, Cornwall;
- [9] John James (24), boots, born Chester;
- [10] Dora Stonley (20), nurse, born Birmingham;
- [11] Ethel Jones (23), barmaid, born Aspull, Lancashire;
- [12] Kate Harrison (20), barmaid;
- [13] George S. Sydenham (34), visitor, theatrical manager, born Liverpool:

Wednesbury Leader 30/11/1901

“At Walsall Police Court on Monday, Mr. Thompson, solicitor, Dudley, applied on behalf of the North Worcestershire Brewery Company for a temporary transfer of the license of the PRIORY HOTEL, Park Street, from Edwin J. Diver, the well known Warwickshire county cricketer, to his wife, Alice Diver. Mr. Thompson said the circumstances under which he made the application were that Mr. Diver had disappeared, having left home on the 12th inst, and having since that date made no communication whatever with the wife, who herself had not the slightest idea that he was going away. The only information she had as to his whereabouts was from a gentleman who was at the hotel on the previous day, and who stated that Mr. Diver was seen at Queens Town to go aboard a boat bound for New York. That was all that was known concerning him. He had certainly acted in a most disgraceful manner, as he had left his wife and child entirely without means, and they were liable to be turned out into the street at any moment. Under these circumstances he asked that for the present, at any rate, the license should be transferred to Mrs. Diver, who had had considerable experience in the trade, and had taken charge of the house during her husband's absence through crick-eting and other engagements, always he believed, with perfect satisfaction.

At the request of the Bench that there should be sworn evidence of the facts narrated, Mrs. Diver was called and corroborated Mr. Thompson's statement. Her husband gave her no information at all that he was going away.

In answer to Mr. Thompson, she said it was a fact that he was in pecuniary difficulties, but questioned by the magistrates, she said, as far as she knew, there was no process or judgement summons against him likely to interfere with his liberty.

Acting Chief Constable Ballance stated that he did not object to the transfer, but he should object to Mr. Diver coming back and managing the house.

Mrs. Diver, questioned on this point, said she would not allow her husband to live at or take part in the management of the house if he came back at any time.

The Bench then granted the application."

Walsall Advertiser 25/7/1903 - Notice

"Walsall And District Hospital.

List of Workpeople's Contributions received by the Treasurer from August, 1902, to July 24th, 1903.

PRIORY HOTEL (per Mrs. Diver). 2s 1d."

Walsall Advertiser 23/6/1906

"Walsall And District Football League. The annual meeting of the above league was held at the PRIORY HOTEL, Park Street, on Wednesday evening."

Walsall Advertiser 21/1/1909

"In the Divorce Division, on Monday, before Mr. Justice Dean, Mrs. Alice Diver, of the PRIORY HOTEL, Park Street, Walsall, petitioned for the dissolution of her marriage to Edwin James Diver, a professional cricketer, (stated to be residing at Newport Mon.), on the ground of his desertion and adultery.

Mrs. Diver stated that the marriage took place on 21st November, 1894, at St. Martin's Church, Birmingham. Afterwards they lived at Smethwick, and then at the PRIORY HOTEL, Walsall, of which she is now manageress. Her husband left her in November 1901, and had never since returned. He had never asked her to join him, or offered her a home, and has not supported her in any way. The last communication she received from him was shortly after he left Walsall, when he wrote asking her to intercede for him with his late employer. She became aware of his whereabouts some months ago. There were two children of the marriage, but only one survived, and that child, Norah, was with her. Her husband had never made any claim for the custody or to take charge of the child. Misconduct would be proved against him with a Mrs. Ellen Williams.

Mrs. Williams stated that she was willing to give evidence, and said that she went through the ceremony of marriage with Samuel Williams, a journalist, but she afterwards discovered he was a married man, and he deserted her. She met a man named Edwin Diver about three and a half years ago. Afterwards he called upon her at Riverside, New Usk Road, Newport, and intimacy took place between them. Mr. Diver had visited her on other occasions.

Mr. Reynolds, managing clerk to the petitioner's solicitor, said he saw the respondent at Newport Athletic Ground, and served him with the divorce papers, and he then said it would be absurd to deny the charges.

His Lordship granted a decree nisi with costs, and the custody of the child to the petitioner."

Walsall Advertiser 26/6/1909

"Billiard Licenses were approved of in the cases of.

Peter Cameron Gordon, PRIORY HOTEL, Park Street."

Walsall Advertiser 9/4/1910

"The annual conference in connection with the Central Divisional Council of the National Federation of Hairdressers was held at the PRIORY HOTEL, Park Street, on Thursday afternoon last week."

Walsall Advertiser 28/1/1911

"Thomas Russell, Royal Marine Light Infantry, Lichfield, was summoned for assaulting David Benjamin Jones, on Jan 17. Defendant pleaded guilty, 'under great provocation.' Complainant, who is employed at the PRIORY HOTEL, Park Street, stated that on Tuesday night the defendant was in the hotel and struck him on the nose, making it bleed. There was a scuffle and defendant used his feet freely.

Mr. Gordon, the licensee of the PRIORY HOTEL, corroborated, stating defendant, besides striking the complainant, also kicked him in the ribs.

Detective-sergeant Burrell stated that he saw a crowd outside the PRIORY HOTEL. The complainant was bleeding from a wound on the nose and complained of having been kicked by the defendant. The latter refused to give his name and address.

Defendant said the complainant had orders ‘to chuck him out of the hotel, and I struck him as any Britisher would do.’ He added that he had been twenty years in the Service and never had a case against him. Fined 2s 6d and costs, or seven days.”

1911 Census

The PRIORY

- [1] Peter Cameron Gordon (40), hotel keeper, born Walsall;
- [2] Frances Susannah Gordon (37), wife, married 14 years, born St. Ives, Huntingdonshire;
- [3] James Cameron Gordon (13), son, school, born Walsall;
- [4] Gladys Kate Gordon (11), daughter, school, born Walsall;
- [5] Frances Muriel Gordon (10), daughter, school, born Walsall;
- [6] Agnes Smith (47), unmarried, servant, hotel cook, born Wednesbury;
- [7] Nellie Birch (23), servant, hotel waitress, born Walsall;
- [8] Clara Venables (18), hotel chambermaid, born Dudley Port;
- [9] Charles Cliffe (19), hotel boots, born Walsall;
- [10] Kate Emery (29), hotel barmaid, born Walsall;
- [11] Nellie Hill (28), hotel barmaid, born Walsall:

Walsall Advertiser 2/5/1914

“Those who suffer with their eyes will be interested in the announcement that Messrs. Jahangir & Sons, Indian eye specialists, of Berry Street, Wolverhampton, will visit the PRIORY COMMERCIAL HOTEL, Park Street, Walsall, every Saturday, commencing May 9th. Further details, together with recent local testimonials, will be found on Page 1.”

Walsall Advertiser 1/9/1914

“An application was made to plans regarding improvements at the PRIORY HOTEL, Park Street. A solicitor appearing in support of the application said it was proposed to adapt an old shop which had become somewhat derelict, and make an alteration which would be a great public improvement and would contribute to the rates of the town. The application was granted on condition that a gate was kept locked, except at certain times.”

Walsall Observer 21/11/1914

“The following is a list of box collections to date made on behalf of the Prince of Wales’ National Relief Fund (Walsall Branch).....
PRIORY HOTEL, Park Street, Walsall, 12s.”

Walsall Observer 7/9/1915

“We regret to record the death of Mr. Peter Cameron Gordon, who was exceedingly well known in Walsall, particularly during the period he kept the PRIORY HOTEL, Park Street. Latterly he had been at the TROCADERO, Wolverhampton, and it was there he passed away, at the early age of 43, after an illness extending over eight months, though he had been in indifferent health for the last two years. He was the second son of the late Mr. James Gordon, and an old boy of Queen Mary’s School. Before going to the ‘PRIORY’ he was with Messrs. John Wheway and Son for twenty-four years. The funeral that took place at Wolverhampton on Wednesday, was attended by many relatives and friends, and a large number of wreaths were sent.”

Staffordshire Advertiser 4/3/1916

“Lighting Order Prosecutions..... Arthur Cresswell, proprietor of the PRIORY HOTEL, Park Street. Fined 20s.”

Walsall Observer 12/1/1918

“Walsall and District War Aid Committee. Collection By The Licensed Victuallers, December, 1917.....
PRIORY HOTEL, Park Street. £0 15s 6d.”

Bilston and Willenhall Times 21/4/1928

“The PRIORY HOTEL, Park Street, Walsall, was sold by Alfred W. Dando and Co, at a public auction at the Grand Hotel, Colmore Row, Birmingham, on Thursday for £5,000.”

Walsall Observer 14/1/1939

“Mr. Robert Holyland.....bought the PRIORY HOTEL about eight years ago.”

1939 Register

Park Street – PRIORY HOTEL

- [1] James Bolton, date of birth 7/5/1890, hotel manager, married;
- [2] Polly Sankey Bolton, dob 5/12/1882, hotel manageress, married;
- [3] Leslie Jepson Guest, dob 16/8/1906, assistant hotel manager, married;
- [4] Irene E. Guest, dob 8/1/1912, waitress, married;
- [6] John Gorman, dob 24/6/1920, cellarman, single;

- [7] Joseph E. Gorman, dob 4/2/1915, barman, single;
- [8] Jane Nicholls, dob 9/5/1919, chambermaid, waitress, single;
- [9] Ivy (Sawbridge) Trumpeter, dob 13/11/1908, barmaid, single;
- [10] Bridget (Shine) Cooper, dob 8/10/1914, barmaid, single;
- [11] Eva (Horden) (Pinson) Bate, dob 30/3/1918, barmaid, single;
- [12] Lucy Smith, dob 14/10/1884, assistant cook, widowed;
- [13] Dorothy (Evans) Hill, dob 26/8/1923, housemaid, single;
- [14] Fanny (Commies) Kemmies, dob 5/8/1893, stillroom maid, single;
- [15] Jack Patrick Connell, dob 17/3/1900, chef, married;
- [16] Thaddeus Cyril Allsop, dob 31/5/1906, engineer's representative traveller, manufacture of road traffic signs and ARP material, single;
- [17] Herbert Bruce Harris, dob 18/12/1867, saddlery hardware manufacturer, married:

Walsall Observer 27/4/1940 - Advert

“Barmaid Required for evenings.
Apply, PRIORY HOTEL, Walsall.”

Walsall Observer 7/12/1940

“Walsall Licensed Victuallers’ Society.
Motor Ambulance Effort on behalf of Walsall and District branch of the British Red Cross Society.
First List of Subscriptions.....
PRIORY HOTEL, Park Street, £6 0s 0d.”

Walsall Observer 10/5/1941

“Mrs. Frances Susannah Gordon, widow of Mr. Peter Cameron Gordon, who for some years kept the PRIORY HOTEL, Walsall, died at Bridgnorth on Wednesday at the age of 69. Mr. and Mrs. Gordon left Walsall to take the TROCADERO HOTEL, Wolverhampton, and since Mr. Gordon's death in 1917 his widow has been the Proprietress of the Falcon Hotel, Low Town, Bridgnorth. She had been in failing health since the death of her younger daughter, Mrs. J. Milton, wife of a well-known Birmingham sportsman. She had also lost her son, Cameron, who was in the licensed trade at Wolverhampton. Her surviving daughter, Mrs. F. R. Cooksey, resides at Parlors Hall, Bridgnorth. The funeral takes place today (Saturday).”

Walsall Observer 15/1/1944

“Walsall Licensed Victuallers’ Society.
Appeal on Behalf of the Merchant Navy Fund, The Duke of Gloucester’s Red Cross Fund and the Aid to China Fund. List of Subscriptions.....
PRIORY HOTEL, Park Street. £5 17s 2d.”

It was modernised in 1969 at a cost of £20,000.

It closed in August 1984.

It was being used as a sports shop. [1999]

PUDDLERS ARMS

Little Street, Birchills, WALSALL

OWNERS

LICENSEES

John Heath []

NOTES

London Gazette 23/11/1869

“John Heath, of Deadman’s-lane, Birchills, Walsall, in the county of Stafford, Puddler, previously thereto of No.2, Far-rington’s-buildings, Stafford-street, Walsall aforesaid, a Puddler, previously thereto of the WHITE LION, Birchills aforesaid, Licensed Victualler, Provision Dealer, and Puddler, and previously thereto of the PUDDLERS ARMS, Little-street, Birchills aforsaid, Retail Brewer, Provision Dealer, and Puddler, having been adjudged bankrupt under a Petition for adjudication of Bankruptcy, filed in the County Court of Staffordshire, holden at Walsall, on the 17th of November, 1869, is hereby required to surrender himself to the Registrar of the said Court, at the first meeting of creditors to be held before the said Registrar, on the 10th day of December next, at twelve of the clock at noon precisely, at the Court-house, Lichfield-street, Walsall. Mr. F. F. Clarke, of Walsall. is the Official Assignee, and Mr. John Glover, of Walsall, is the Solicitor acting in the bankruptcy.”

PUMP

Digbeth, WALSALL

OWNERS

LICENSEES

Joseph Wright [1813] – [1854]

Mrs. Humphreys [1856]

NOTES

PUMP TAVERN [1849]

It had a beerhouse license.

Joseph Wright, retailer of beer, Digbeth. [1835]

Birmingham Journal 6/7/1844

“At the Town Hall, on Monday, before Howard Fletcher, Esq, Mayor, and A. Adams, Esq, Henry Hill, servant at the PUMP TAVERN, Digbeth, was charged by Frederick Crompton with stealing a pair of boots, of the value of 2s 6d, his property. The complainant is owner of a small butcher’s shop in Digbeth, but resides at Aldridge. The shop was locked as usual on Saturday night last, and the key left at the prisoner’s master’s house, by which means he (Hill) gained entrance, and stole the boots. The prosecutor declined to press the charge, and the prisoner was discharged.”

1851 Census

Digbeth

[1] Joseph Wright (68), widower, licensed victualler, born Sutton Coldfield;

[2] Elizabeth Meedham (73), sister, widow, born Sutton Coldfield;

[3] Isaiah Morgan (17), groom, born Much Wenlock, Shropshire;

[4] Ann Aulton (16), house servant, born Stonnall, Staffordshire:

Staffordshire Advertiser 20/5/1854 - Advert

“Valuable Freehold and Leasehold Houses, Public House, and Premises, in Walsall and Wolverhampton.

To be Sold by Auction, by G. Allin, at the OLD STILL in Digbeth, in Walsall, on Monday, the 29th of May instant, at six o’clock in the evening, subject to conditions to be then produced.

Lot 1. All those two Dwelling-Houses, with Stable and other Outbuildings, and a Plot of Land lying at the back thereof, situate in Digbeth, in Walsall, bounded on the north side by premises belonging to Mrs. Clements, and on the south by premises belonging to Mr. Thurstan, and which said houses are in the occupation of Joseph Wright and Battersby. The premises comprised in this Lot are eligibly situated in one of the principal streets, and contain in by admeasurement 465 square yards or thereabouts. The house occupied by Joseph Wright is an old licensed Public-House, called the PUMP TAVERN. To the back of the said premises there is a right of road through an entry fronting Digbeth.....”

Staffordshire Sentinel 13/9/1856

“Monday being the day for the renewal of old licenses and considering the application for new ones, there was a full attendance of magistrates All the old licenses were renewed excepting those of Mrs. Humphreys, the PUMP TAVERN, Digbeth, who had made some alterations in her house which induced the bench to consider that it did not contain sufficient accommodation.”

QUEEN CAROLINE

Butts, WALSALL

OWNERS

LICENSEES

John Clarke [1835]

QUEENS HOTEL

71, (35), Station Street, BLOXWICH

OWNERS

Richard Thomas, coalmaster, Bloxwich
William Butler and Co. Ltd.

LICENSEES

George Thomas [1861]
Richard Thomas Snr.* [1862] – [1865]
Richard Thomas* [1868] – [1870]
Dennis Proctor [1871] – [1872];
Henry Thomas [];
Sarah Ann Thomas [1881];
Richard Thomas [];
William Pettifer [];
William Neville [] – 1887);
George Crump (1887 – 1888);
Mrs. Sophia Matilda Crump (1888 – 1895);
George Willis (1895 – 1896);
Enoch Watkiss (1896);
Arthur Grose (1896 – 1897);
John William Lynforth (1897 – 1903);
Joseph James Brown (1903 – 1906);
John James Grew (1906 – 1907);
John Thomas Griffiths (1907 – 1912);
William James Howard (1912 – 1929);
Joseph Seagar (1929):

NOTES

35, Station Street [1871]
71, Station Street [1881], [1891], [1911]

QUEENS ARMS

QUEENS HOTEL [1861], [1881], [1896], [1908], [1911], [1912], [1932]

QUEENS HEAD HOTEL [1900]

* possibly the same person

1861 Census

Station Street – QUEENS HOTEL

[1] George Thomas (23), son, QUEENS HOTEL, born Alrewas, Staffordshire;

[2] Mary Ann Thomas (21), sister, born Bloxwich;

[3] Mary Thomas (14), niece, born Bloxwich;

[4] Ann Parten (17), servant, born Pains Lake, Shropshire;

[5] Henry Thomas (16), brother, farmer, born Bloxwich:

Birmingham Daily Post 14/1/1863

“The annual dinner, given to the members of the Bloxwich Rifle Corps, by the officers, came off on Monday night, at the house of Mr. Thomas, the QUEENS HOTEL, Bloxwich, when a repast of excellent quality was served up by the worthy host. Captain Strongitharm presided.....”

Richard Thomas was also a farmer and colliery master. [1868], [1870]

Birmingham Daily Gazette 13/12/1869 - Advert

“Wanted, at Christmas, a good General Servant, who understands Plain Cooking. Good character required. Apply, QUEENS HOTEL. Bloxwich.”

Walsall Free Press 25/3/1871

“On Wednesday afternoon, A. A. Fletcher, Esq, coroner for the borough, held an inquest at the QUEENS HOTEL, Bloxwich, upon the body of Thomas Horton, aged 16, son of Thomas Horton, miner, Station Street. From the evidence it appeared that on Sunday last deceased and two other boys were amusing themselves by hoisting one another up and down in a bucket used for the taking up of materials to be used in refining at one of the furnaces; and that deceased when about eight yards from the ground, fell out of the bucket and was so injured he died on the following day. The jury returned a verdict of Accidental Death.”

1871 Census

35, Station Street – QUEENS HOTEL

- [1] Dennis Proctor (63), innkeeper, born, Blackburn, Lancashire;
- [2] Anne Proctor (62), wife, born Stoke on Trent;
- [3] Catherine Evans (22), general servant, born Willenhall:

Walsall Free Press 25/1/1873

“On Tuesday evening a meeting was held at the QUEENS HOTEL, Bloxwich, for the purpose of taking into consideration the propriety of getting the chapelry of Bloxwich separated from the borough of Walsall. The meeting, which had been convened by circular, was numerously attended. After a lengthened conversation, in the course of which it was the general opinion that it was desirable the chapelry of Bloxwich should be separated from the borough of Walsall – seeing the trades of the two places were so different, and the interests of the inhabitants not identical – it was resolved, on the motion of Mr. E. J. Stanley, seconded by Mr. Philip Starkey, that a public meeting should be held in the Music Hall, Bloxwich, to consider the desirability of taking the necessary steps for effecting a separation of Bloxwich from Walsall – the meeting to be held next Monday evening.”

1881 Census

71, Station Street – QUEENS HEAD

- [1] Sarah A. Thomas (34), widow, licensed victualler, born Hatherton;
- [2] Frederick H. Thomas (10), son, scholar, born Bloxwich;
- [3] Emma G. Thomas (9), daughter, scholar, born Bloxwich;
- [4] Ada M. Thomas (7), daughter, scholar, born Bloxwich;
- [5] Edgar E. Thomas (6), son, scholar, born Bloxwich;
- [6] Thirza J. Thomas (4), daughter, scholar, born Bloxwich;
- [7] Elizabeth Thomas (15), domestic servant, born Bloxwich:

Walsall Advertiser 17/10/1882 - Advert

“QUEENS HOTEL, Bloxwich.

To Be Sold By Auction (under a distress for rent) On Wednesday Next, October, 18th, 1882.

The whole of the Public House Fixtures and Effects, together with a large quantity of very superior Household Furniture, comprising Mahogany, Telescope Dining and other Tables; Mahogany, Hair-seated, Crown-back, Kitchen, and Bed Room Chairs; Birch and Iron Bedsteads, Mahogany Washstands, Dressing Tables, Mahogany Chest upon Chest, capital 6-motion Beer Machine, Spirit Fountain, with Taps and Drippers complete, Tap Counter, with Zinc Top; quantities of Spirits, glass and earthenware, capital ‘White-chapel’ Dog Cart, quite new, suitable for a cob 14 hands; large Cooking range, Washing and Wringing machines, Gas Fittings, Chamber Appendages, Kitchen Requisites, and numerous other Effect; and a quantity of Drapery and Clothing.

The House and Premises to be let with immediate possession.

Sale to commence at half-past Ten o’clock prompt.

Catalogues may be had on application at the Auctioneer’s Offices, Bridge Street, Walsall.”

Walsall Observer 6/1/1884

“Conservative League..... ‘Thomas’ Lodge. A well-attended meeting of this lodge was held at the QUEENS HOTEL, Bloxwich, on Thursday evening, under the presidency of the Master of the Lodge. Short addresses were delivered by Bros. R. B. Sutton and W. P. Banks; and Bro. Joseph Horton, a railway employé, spoke on the Employer’s Liability Bill, pointing out the hardship that would be inflicted on his class if they were not allowed to contract themselves out of the Bill. The health of Councillor W. C.

Littler, who was present, was drunk with musical honours. The next meeting of the Lodge will be held on Thursday, 18th inst.”

Wolverhampton Express and Star 9/11/1889 - Advert

“Wanted, a good strong Girl, 18 to 20, from country preferred.
QUEENS HOTEL, Bloxwich.”

Birmingham Daily Post 18/12/1890

“At the Walsall Guildhall, yesterday, before Messrs. J. Brewer, E. T. Holden, J. Thorpe, W. E. Blyther, and J. Lindop, and Captain Brooks, further applications for singing, and dancing licenses were heard....

Mr. Stanley for Sophia Matilda Crump, the QUEENS HOTEL, Bloxwich, applied for a music and dancing license for the large club room, and for a music and singing license for a small room on the premises. Refused.”

1891 Census

71, Station Street

- [1] Sophia Matilda Crump (49), widow, licensed victualler, born Blakenall;
- [2] George William Crump (27), son, commercial clerk, born Wednesbury;
- [3] Sarah Marshall (26), married, daughter, born Wednesbury;
- [4] Harry Crump (22), son, engineer's draughtsman, born Wednesbury;
- [5] Annie Crump (19), daughter, born Wednesbury;
- [6] Maria Crump (16), daughter, born Wednesbury;
- [7] Richard Marshall (25), son in law, assistant schoolmaster, born Bloxwich;
- [8] Richard G. W. Marshall (2), grandson, born Bloxwich;
- [9] Reginald C. H. Marshall (3 months), grandson, born Bloxwich;
- [10] Phoebe Asson (21), domestic servant, born West Bromwich:

Walsall Advertiser 22/12/1894

“The monthly meeting of the Walsall and District Licensed Victuallers' Society was held on Thursday.....
New Members..... Mrs. Sophia Crump, QUEENS HOTEL, Station Street, Bloxwich.”

Walsall Advertiser 2/4/1895

“William Wright (26), miner, 19, Alfred Street, Bloxwich, who was charged with having been drunk and disorderly in Station Street, Bloxwich, on April 13th, was so violent on the night in question that the magistrates, after hearing the evidence, decided not to discharge him although it was his first appearance.

Inspector Alden said he tried to persuade him to come peaceably out of the QUEENS HOTEL, Bloxwich, but he would not, and became so violent that he had to be carried out. He then commenced to fight, and eventually had to be thrown to the ground and handcuffed.

‘I only had a drop of beer’ pleaded the prisoner, but the chairman retorted, ‘It must have been a good drop.’
He was fined 5s and costs, or 7 days’ imprisonment.”

Walsall Advertiser 10/8/1895

“Charles Taylor (35) watchmaker, no fixed abode, was charged on remand for that he being a bailee of a certain watch belonging to Joseph Loundes, contractor, 91, Station Street, did convert the same to his own use.

Complainant said that on a certain day in September or October, 1894, he was in the QUEENS HOTEL, Bloxwich, and saw the prisoner there. In a conversation with him it was arranged that prisoner should call at his house to repair a watch.

The Chief Constable: Is the number of your watch the same as that of the watch produced? – Witness: Hardly. Some time ago I took it to Mr. Heitzman's, Bloxwich, and the number he gave me is slightly different to the one on the watch (produced). I think the number 1 has been missed by Mr. Hietzman.

Mr. Holden: Has the number 1 been erased? – No.

Witness continued his evidence stating the prisoner fetched the watch and he had seen him several times and asked about it, but it had not been returned. Prisoner told him that there was something the matter with it which he could not himself manage, and that he had sent it away to be repaired. On Thursday week he went to Hednesford, and there saw the watch in a pawnshop and identified it.

In reply to Mr. Corbett, witness said he did not wish to press the charge.

Julia Loundes, wife of Joseph Loundes, deposed to the prisoner calling at her house for a watch. She could not swear that the watch produced belonged to her husband but it was like it. She did not hand over the watch to the prisoner the first time, but complied with the request the second visit. She had on many occasions asked him for the watch, but could not get it, he making the same excuse to her as he did to her husband.

Annie Maria Bickley, manageress, and daughter of Thomas Vaughan, pawnbroker, Cannock Road, Hednesford, stated that on September 22nd, 1894, she received the watch (produced), which was pawned in the name of Arthur Evans, West Cannock Road, Hednesford. She believed it was the prisoner who pledged the watch. She had certainly seen him in her shop. On August 1st Inspector Cliffe and Joseph Loundes came to her shop and asked for the watch (produced), which Loundes thought was his.

Police-sergeant Gibbs, stationed at Cannock, said that on April 19th he arrested the prisoner on another charge. In his possession he found a bunch of keys. On April 20th the prisoner told witness he had a box at his lodgings in Reeves Street, Bloxwich. He gave him the key to the box, and told him he would find some pawntickets in it, and that among them there would be one with reference to the case for which he then had him in custody. Witness searched the box and found ten pawntickets, and among them was the ticket (produced) on which the present charge was based. He showed prisoner the tickets at Cannock Police Station the same day, and he said he would make a clean breast of it. He would tell the officer to whom the other watches, for which he had the pawntickets belonged. He thought 'they will not do anything at me if they get the watches back.' He said the ticket (produced) was for a watch he had pledged belonging to a man named Loundes, of Bloxwich.

The second charge against Taylor was having converted to his own use between November and December of the last year a watch, value 30s, belonging to John Dockhouse, chequer, employed by the L. and N.W.R., at Bloxwich, and residing at 24, Church Street, Bloxwich.

Complainant said that on November 24th, 1894, he gave the watch (produced) to the prisoner to be repaired. On December 24th he saw the prisoner, and asked him for his watch. Taylor said he had sent to Coventry for some new wheels, which he wanted to put into the watch, and had not yet been supplied with them. He never returned the watch. He saw his watch in a pawnshop in Shaw Street where he was taken by Inspector Cliffe.

By Mr. Cobett: He did not want the man punished if he could get his back.

Ernest Herrick, partner in the firm of Cordwell and Herrick, pawnbrokers, Shaw Street, deposed to having, on December 10th, received the watch (produced) into pledge from the prisoner. On the 31st of last month he showed it to the last witness, who identified it was his property.

Police-sergeant Gibbs said prisoner admitted to him to whom the watch belonged.

The third charge was similar to the previous ones. The watch in this case belonged to William Fereday, miner, 120, Parker Street, Bloxwich, who said he gave the prisoner a silver Geneva watch to repair in December 1894. He asked him sometime afterwards when the watch would be finished, and he answered that he had had to take it to Birmingham to have a new spindle put in. He had not yet received the watch, which he valued at 10s. He next saw it on July 31st, when he visited Cordwell and Herrick's pawnshop, in company with Inspector Cliffe.

Ernest Herrick deposed to the watch (produced) having been pledged at his shop on January 11th by prisoner, he advanced 5s on it. Police-sergeant Gibbs gave similar evidence to that given in the previous charges.

Mr. Holden, who officiated as chairman in place of the Mayor, who had retired, said prisoner would be sent to the next Quarter Session for trial.

Mr. Corbett said it seemed to him a case of great persecution for his client to be charged on the present offences, when he had practically expiated his crime. He had been three months in solitary confinement awaiting the Cannock Sessions, and was then committed to one month's hard labour. On gaining his discharge he was immediately arrested and brought to Walsall. The different items on which the charges of that morning were based were very small, and the watches were to be replaced, so that he would ask the Bench instead of allowing bail to bind the prisoner over in his own recognisances to appear for trial. He had no doubt his client would have less punishment than the police wished he should have (the Chief Constable: We did not wish him to have any.) There is another little charge against prisoner, and I hope the Chief Constable will not drop on him as soon as he comes out of gaol.

The Chief Constable: I don't object to bail, but I think Mr. Corbett is aware of the practice of the Court. I have merely proved the case and have offered no evidence.

The bail as previously was allowed."

Walsall Advertiser 31/8/1895

"The annual Licensing Sessions for the borough were held yesterday at the Guildhall.....

The following is a return of licensees who have been proceeded against during the year ending August 30th, 1895.....

Sophia Crump, QUEENS HOTEL, Bloxwich, for having kept her licensed premises open during prohibited hours on November 28th, 1894, dismissed.....

Other objections were against Mrs. Crump, QUEENS HOTEL, Bloxwich, and in this instance proceedings were pending for the infringement of the license."

Birmingham Daily Post 7/9/1895

"Sophia Crump, QUEENS HOTEL, Bloxwich, was summoned yesterday for permitting drunkenness on the 25th ult. Mr. Jackson (Stanley and Jackson) defended. Police-sergeant Marshall stated that he visited the house and found a man there drunk with a jug before him. Police-constable Cook corroborated; but Mr. Jackson called the defendant and other witnesses, who denied that the man was drunk and the case was dismissed."

Walsall Advertiser 28/9/1895

"The adjourned licensing Sessions for the Borough of Walsall was held at the Guildhall yesterday.....

Owing to a criminal proceedings against Mrs. Crump, of the QUEENS HOTEL, Bloxwich, having been decided in her favour the Chief Constable now withdrew his objection to the renewal of her license, which was forthwith granted."

Walsall Advertiser 23/11/1895

"Re Sophia Matilda Crump, the QUEENS HEAD, Station Street, Bloxwich. Public examination. Mr. H. H. Jackson (Messrs. Stanley and Jackson) attended on the bankrupt's behalf.

The statement of affairs showed liabilities £354 12 6d, of which £332 6s 2d was estimated to rank for dividend, and assets £180 12s 3d, leaving a deficiency of £151 3s 11d. The bankrupt's late husband, Mr. G. Crump, formerly a postmaster at a branch office at King's Hill, Wednesbury, carried on business at the QUEENS HOTEL from March 1887, to January, 1888, when he died. His wife continued the business until October 21, when, being pressed by creditors, she consulted her solicitors, and by their advice filed her petition. She attributed her failure to taking her husband's business, which was insolvent, and bad trade. Adjourned until the 27th instant to close."

Walsall Observer 14/4/1900

"A smoking concert was held by the Court Royal George, Bloxwich, on Thursday evening, at the QUEENS HEAD HOTEL, for the purpose of making a presentation to two of their members.

Mr. J. Benton, who has been secretary for 23 years, and Mr. W. Lees, who had been treasurer for the same number of years....."

John Lynforth = John Linforth

1901 Census

71, Station Street

[1] John Linforth (48), publican, born America (British);

[2] Helena Linforth (34), wife, born Lane Head;

[3] Cecilia Linforth (14), daughter, born Bilston;

[4] Bernard Linforth (6), son, born Willenhall;

[5] Winefrede Linforth (4), daughter, born Lane Head:

1911 Census

71, Station Street – QUEENS HOTEL

[1] John Thomas Griffiths (38), publican, born Bloxwich;

[2] Sarah Scholfield Griffiths (37), wife, married 15 years, assisting in business, born Wednesbury;

[3] Lilian Irene Griffiths (14), daughter, apprentice dressmaker, born Walsall;

[4] Gains Charles Griffiths (13), son, school, born Walsall;

[5] John Stephen Griffiths (11), son, school, born Walsall;

[6] Archibald Henry Griffiths (8), son, school, born Walsall:

Walsall Observer 21/11/1914

"The following is a list of box collections to date made on behalf of the Prince of Wales' National Relief Fund (Walsall Branch).....

QUEENS HOTEL, Bloxwich, 2s 7½d."

Walsall Observer 12/1/1918

"Walsall and District War Aid Committee. Collection By The Licensed Victuallers, December, 1917.....

QUEENS HOTEL, Bloxwich. £1 3s 0d."

The license renewal was referred to the Compensation Authority on 7th March 1929.

The license renewal was refused on 27th June 1929.

It closed on 31st December 1929.

QUEENS

Norton Road / Victoria Road, (Brownhills Road), Pelsall, WALSALL

OWNERS

LICENSEES

John Ghilkes (1869 – [1871])

Thomas Lunt [1881]

John Dorsett [1890] – 1909);

Mrs. Hannah Dorsett (1909 – [1914])

Rowland D Massey [1932]

Bernard James Smith [1939]

Samuel Charles Holland [1939] – [1940]

NOTES

It was originally the QUEENS.

QUEENS HOTEL [1871], [1881], [1896], [1900], [1908], [1912], [1932], [1940]

1871 Census

Brownhills Road – QUEENS HOTEL

- [1] John Ghilkes (46), labourer at forge, born Grandbrogh, Warwickshire;
- [2] Jane Ghilkes (39), wife, born Kings Bromley, Staffordshire;
- [3] William Ghilkes (25), son, labourer at forge, born Grandbrogh, Warwickshire;
- [4] Mary Ghilkes (16), daughter, general servant, born Norton, Staffordshire;
- [5] John Ghilkes (13), son, coal miner, born Ogle Hay, Staffordshire;
- [6] Jabex Ghilkes (5), son, born Walsall Wood;
- [7] Thomas Ghilkes (2), son, born Pelsall;
- [8] Alfred Marshall (23), lodger, coal miner, born Galey, Staffordshire:

John Ghilkes – see also RAILWAY.

1881 Census

QUEENS HOTEL

- [1] Thomas Lunt (49), licensed victualler and beer agent, born Sutton Coldfield;
- [2] Sarah Lunt (43), wife, born Essington;
- [3] Charles Thomas Lunt (24), son, engine fitter, born Pelsall;
- [4] Mary Jane Lunt (22), daughter, hotel waitress, born Pelsall;
- [5] Sarah Ann Lunt (21), daughter, hotel waitress, born Pelsall;
- [6] Frederick George Lunt (17), son, railway clerk, born Pelsall;
- [7] William Richard Lunt (12), son, scholar, born Pelsall;
- [8] Arthur Edward Lunt (10), son, scholar, born Pelsall;
- [9] J___ Arnold Lunt (7), son, scholar, born Pelsall;
- [10] Edith Lizzie Lunt (5), daughter, born Pelsall;
- [11] Ethel Maud Lunt (8 months), daughter, born Pelsall:

Thomas Lunt – see also RAILWAY.

Birmingham Daily Post 23/10/1885

“The General Election..... A meeting was held at the QUEENS HOTEL, Pelsall, in which Mr. Wiggins attended and addressed. Mr. J. H. Bullock presided over a large audience, and a resolution was passed similar to the meeting at Rushall.”
[In favour of the candidature of Mr. Wiggins, Liberal Candidate for the Handsworth Division.]

Lichfield Mercury 3/10/1890

“The following publicans were granted one hour’s extension on Monday, October 6th, on the occasion of Pelsall wakes John Dorsett.”

1891 Census

Station Road – QUEENS HOTEL

- [1] John Dorsett (40), publican, born Wolverhampton;
- [2] Hannah Dorsett (33), wife, born Clayhanger, Staffordshire;
- [3] John Dorsett (14), son, scholar, Clayhanger, Staffordshire;
- [4] Mary Dorsett (11), daughter, scholar, Clayhanger, Staffordshire;
- [5] Eliza Dorsett (8), daughter, scholar, Clayhanger, Staffordshire;
- [6] Thomas Dorsett (3), son, Clayhanger, Staffordshire;
- [7] Catherine Dorsett (11 months), daughter, born Pelsall;
- [8] Eliza Marklew (18), general servant, born Pelsall;
- [9] Sarah Eaden (17), general servant, born Pelsall:

Walsall Advertiser 11/11/1899

“Mr. H. A. Pearson (County Coroner) held an inquest on Monday morning at the QUEENS HOTEL, Pelsall, touching the death of Samuel Willdig (17), errand boy, formerly of Ash Tree Road, Pelsall. On Thursday night, about 10.30, the brother of the deceased found him hanging with a strap round his neck in an outhouse suspended from a beam. He was quite dead, and his boots were off. Deceased went home from work about 5.30 in the evening, had his tea as usual, and appeared all right. He went out again at 6.30, and was not seen alive again. No cause could be assigned for the rash act, and a verdict of Suicide whilst of Unsound Mind was returned.

A Juryman mentioned a rumour was current that deceased had been plagued by other boys, who had told him they would take him off for a soldier.

Police-constable Snow, however, stated that he had not heard of such a report.”

Walsall Observer 3/3/1900

“Albion Cricket Club. The annual dinner of this club was held at the club house, the QUEENS HOTEL, on Monday last, when over thirty sat down to an excellent repast, served by the host, Mr. J. Dorsett.....”

Walsall Observer 11/8/1900

“Manchester Unity of Oddfellows. On Tuesday last the members of the St. Michael’s Lodge of the Bescot Bridge District held their twenty-fourth annual dinner and march to church. The members met at their headquarters, QUEENS HOTEL, and headed by the Victoria Brass Band marched to the old Parish Church, where an excellent address was given by the Rev. R. W. Southwell, after which the village was paraded, and despite the rain a capital attendance of members was present. The dinner took place at the QUEENS HOTEL.....”

1901 Census

Station Road

- [1] John Dorsett (50), public house keeper, born Wolverhampton;
- [2] Hannah Dorsett (45), wife, born Clayhanger, Staffordshire;
- [3] John Dorsett (24), son, bricklayer, born Clayhanger, Staffordshire;
- [4] Mary Dorsett (21), daughter, born Clayhanger, Staffordshire;
- [5] Eliza Dorsett (17), daughter, born Clayhanger, Staffordshire;
- [6] Thomas Dorsett (13), son, born Clayhanger, Staffordshire;
- [7] Kate Dorsett (10), daughter, born Pelsall;
- [8] Annie Dorsett (7), daughter, born Pelsall;
- [9] Florence Dorsett (6), daughter, born Pelsall;
- [10] Fanny Bull (19), domestic servant, born Pelsall:

Lichfield Mercury 30/10/1903

“Mr. H. A. Pearson, district coroner, held an inquest on Tuesday morning at the QUEENS HOTEL, Pelsall, touching the death of Jenny Eveson (5), daughter of William Eveson, postman, Slate Row, Pelsall, who was fatally burned last Saturday. Mr. Snape was foreman of the jury.

Annie Eveson, mother of the deceased identified the body. About mid-day on Saturday witness went to a neighbour’s house leaving deceased in charge of a sister, aged nine. A few minutes afterwards a neighbour came to tell her deceased was on fire. The flames were extinguished with a coat and Dr. Wolverson was summoned. Deceased died next day. There was a guard at the fire. Another daughter informed witness that deceased lit a piece of paper and set her clothing on fire.

Sarah Ann Eveson, sister of the deceased, stated that she was coming across the common and heard a scream. She ran to the house and saw deceased in flames, which she extinguished with a coat.

Eliza Eveson (9), another sister gave evidence that deceased was left in her charge. Deceased pushed a paper bag through the guard and lit it at the fire, and set her clothing on fire. Witness screamed for her mother.

PC Milner gave evidence as to making enquiries.

Dr. Davies, of Pelsall, stated that the deceased was extensively burned about the lower part of the body. The cause of death was shock due to the burns sustained.

The Coroner, in summing up, said it was a very sad case. They had heard there was a fire guard, and the evidence seemed very straightforward. He thought their verdict would have to be Accidental Death. The jury returned a verdict accordingly.”

Lichfield Mercury 3/6/1904

“On Monday last Messrs. Winterson and Sons offered for sale by auction, at the QUEENS HOTEL, Pelsall, a freehold messuage and shop and six cottages, situate at Pelsall, and let a rentals amounting to £64 2s 8d. The property was sold to Mr. Stokes for £650.”

Walsall Advertiser 26/9/1908

“The District Coroner (Mr. Gerald C. Lewis) held an inquiry at the QUEENS HOTEL, Pelsall, on Wednesday morning, concerning the death of a miner named Walter Arms, of Church Street, Pelsall, who was injured at the Pinxton Colliery, Alfreton, Derbyshire, on January 23rd last. Mr. Madew (general manager) appeared for the Pinxton Collieries Ltd.

It was stated by Jane Arms, mother of the deceased, that her son returned home from Derbyshire about three weeks ago. He had been in the Nottingham Hospital about three months as the result of an accident, and since his return home he had been under the care of Dr. Trevor.

James Meredith, a collier employed at the Pinxton Colliery, stated that he was working in the same section of the pit when the accident occurred in January last. It was his (witness’s) duty to test the roof, and it was examined that morning prior to the accident. The deceased, in company with some other men, started to proceed along the workings to get their lunch when a piece of rock about ½cwt in weight gave way and alighted on the back of Arm’s head. There was no warning of the fall.

Dr. Edward Fitzgerald Trevor stated that Arms had been under his care for about three weeks and was suffering from a fracture of the spine, and also an immense bed sore on the lower part of his back. Death, in his opinion, was due to fracture of the spine and septic absorption from the bedsores.

The jury returned a verdict of Accidental Death, and Mr. Madew, manager of the Pinxton Colliery, expressed the sympathy of the officials with the relatives in their bereavement. Mr. Madew added that twenty years ago he was connected with the Pelsall Collieries and it was no doubt owing to his connection with the collieries at Pelsall that this man came to work in Derbyshire.”

Walsall Advertiser 8/5/1909 - Deaths

“On the 5th inst, at his residence QUEENS HOTEL, Pelsall, John Dorsett, aged 58 years.”

Walsall Advertiser 29/5/1909

“The Rushall bench on Monday granted a temporary transfer of the license of the QUEENS HOTEL, Pelsall, from John Dorsett’s executors to Hannah Dorsett, on the application of Mr. S. Grundy Newman.”

Walsall Advertiser 17/7/1909

“On the application of Mr. S. A. Newman, the Rushall Bench on Monday granted the full transfer of the license of the QUEENS HOTEL, Pelsall, from the executors of the late John Dorsett to Mrs. Hannah Dorsett.”

Walsall Advertiser 16/10/1909

“Cricket Club. It would appear, in view of the fact that the old Albion club has been lying dormant for the past two seasons, that cricket in Pelsall has long since died away. However, through the instrumentality of Mr. Jas. Harrison and Mr. Jas. Edwards a meeting was held at the QUEENS HOTEL, Pelsall, on Saturday evening to consider if the old club could be revived and judging by the keen enthusiasm manifested in the proceedings, it is obvious that there is still a great deal of interest taken in the good old national sport. Mr. E. Breeze who occupied the chair said it was a pity that Pelsall Cricket should have been allowed to temporarily fade away. The name of Pelsall Albion was known throughout the whole district, and he did not see why they could not for next season secure a team equal to any of the past. Mr. W. J. Rowley, who is one of the oldest members of the club said that no team could exist without enterprise, and it behoved everyone to do his utmost, then he was confident that the club if they decided to have one could not help but be a huge success.

It was then unanimously decided that the old club be revived, Mr. George Breeze being elected captain, whilst Mr. Charles Hodson was selected as vice-captain; Mr. Leonard Dilkes was appointed match secretary. The meeting was then adjourned until Tuesday next, the 19th inst. The majority of the old players are available, and it is hoped with the assistance of young members, to maintain the high standard of cricket, which has always been expected from Pelsall.”

1911 Census

Pelsall – QUEENS HOTEL

- [1] Hannah Dorsett (56), licensed victualler, born Walsall Wood;
- [2] Thomas Dorsett (23), son, bricklayer, born Walsall Wood;
- [3] Annie Dorsett (17), daughter, assistant in business, born Pelsall;
- [4] Florence Dorsett (16), daughter, assistant in business, born Pelsall;
- [5] Alice Cartwright (19), general servant, born Bilston:

Walsall Advertiser 4/4/1914

“The good fellowship and brotherly feeling that exists among the mining fraternity generally was strikingly demonstrated on Tuesday evening, when a benefit concert, organised by a few of his friends, was held at the QUEENS HOTEL, Pelsall, for the benefit of Mr. James Taylor, who, unfortunately, met with an accident whilst working at the Wyrley (Harrison’s) Sinking Colliery in July of last year, and has been unable to follow his employment since. There was a large company present, and what is more gratifying, there is every indication that a handsome sum will be handed over to Mr. Taylor. Mr. W. H. Brownbridge presided. A capital musical programme had been arranged, to which Master Duce (pianist), Messrs. S. Deeley, Cliff, and Francis (soloists), F. Moore, and Williams (comedians) and last, but by no means least, the Brownhills Glee Party, contributed. Their items included ‘The Jolly Smith,’ ‘The Comrades’ Song of Hope,’ and ‘The Soldier’s Farewell.’ A duet, ‘The Battle Eve,’ was also given by Messrs. Cliff and Bradbury.

At the close the chairman proposed a hearty vote of thanks to the artistes and Mrs. Dorsett (licensee) for so kindly lending the room, and this was carried unanimously. The chairman was also thanked for presiding.”

Lichfield Mercury 21/11/1924

“On Saturday evening a special meeting of members of Court Excelsior, No.445, A.O. Foresters, Walsall district, was held at the QUEENS HOTEL, Pelsall. Bro. W. Sanders presided over a good attendance, which included several District officials. During the business transacted, the Court Secretary (Bro. H. E. Williams) submitted the valuation report received for the last five years ending in 1923, which showed a relative solvency of 21s in the £; this was received with much satisfaction. Bro. C. Wootton, D.C. Ranger, said he had a pleasing duty to perform, and that was to make a presentation to their much-respected Bro. H. E. Williams of a past District Chief Ranger’s ribbon and certificate. The recipient briefly responded. During the evening light refreshments were partaken of. A vote of thanks was accorded the District officers and the chairman. The meeting terminated with the singing of ‘Auld Lang Syne.’ It may be stated that the court was opened in August, 1864, and the present secretary’s father, Bro. Williams, held the same position for a period of 38 years.”

Lichfield Mercury 23/10/1925

“Brownhills And District Air-Gun League.....

Pelsall OLD HOUSE AT HOME (away) defeated Pelsall QUEENS HOTEL (home) by 215 to 194.”

Lichfield Mercury 21/12/1934

“Brownhills And District Bagatelle League.....

With the first half of the completion completed, the QUEENS HOTEL, Pelsall, head the table by games average only over Rose Villa W.M.C., Brownhills, with the Elms, Brownhills, two points behind.”

Evening Despatch 21/2/1939

“Bernard James Smith, licensee of the QUEENS HOTEL, Pelsall, was fined £10 and seven guineas costs, at Rushall today for selling intoxicants at 3.10am on 22 January, and ordered to pay 4s on each of the two summonses of selling at 2.30am and aiding abetting two men in consuming.

Ellen Smith, his wife, was fined £1 and 4s costs, and Mary Shorthouse, of back Crescent, Queen Street, Chasetown, was ordered to pay 4s costs for aiding and abetting the sale.”

1939 Register

Norton Road – QUEENS HOTEL

[1] Samuel C. Holland, date of birth 15/3/1901, publican, own account, and coal miner, hewer below, married;

[2] Daisy E. Holland, dob 22/2/1903, assistant in public house, married;

[4] Lucy M. (Blower) Ray, dob 30/10/1922, domestic servant, single;

[5] Samuel Ganderton, dob 23/6/1903, coal miner, hewer below, single:

Staffordshire Advertiser 17/2/1940

“At Aldridge and Rushall General Licensing Sessions on Monday.....

All the licenses were renewed with the exception of the QUEENS HOTEL, at Pelsall, consideration of which was adjourned until March 11.”

Walsall Observer 18/8/1945

“I am satisfied that this unfortunate occurrence was brought about, not by any carelessness or negligence, but by the fact that the girl’s view was screened by the lorry and trailer parked outside the QUEENS HOTEL. She meant to go to Walsall, and it is clear that when she heard the Sheffield ’bus approaching she thought it was travelling to Walsall and rushed out from behind the lorry, meaning to run over the road and round the Cenotaph to the Walsall ’bus stop.’ These comments were made by the District Coroner (Mr. Frank Cooper) at an inquiry at Rushall Police Station on Tuesday, concerning the death of Margaret Lloyd (aged 20), of 84, Ash Tree Road, Pelsall.

Her father, Josiah Lloyd, of the same address, said that on Friday, August 10th she left home at about 10 o’clock, meaning to go to Walsall. At 12.30 he learned she had met with an accident.

Thomas Barnard, of ‘Woodland,’ Allens Lane, Pelsall, said that at about 11.45 on August 10th, he was a passenger on a ’bus travelling from Bloxwich to Sheffield. As the ’bus approached the QUEENS HOTEL, Station Road, he noticed a brewer’s lorry and trailer parked outside. The ’bus began to slow up for the stop about 25 yards beyond the hotel, as it was passing the trailer the driver jammed on his brakes and the ’bus stopped almost immediately.

Witness said that when he got out of the ’bus he saw that a girl was pinned under the near side of the front of the ’bus. The driver had to reverse in order to release her. As far as he could see the driver was in no way to blame for the accident.

Alfred Henry Snape, of 1, Station Road, Pelsall, said he was in his shop when his attention was attracted by the screech of brakes and a woman’s scream. He ran out to see what was the matter and saw a girl lying pinned under the front near side of a single decker ’bus, travelling to Sheffield. He directed the driver to reverse the vehicle.

Daisy Ellen Holland, of the QUEENS HOTEL, Pelsall, said that she was looking through a front upstairs window at the time of the accident. She saw the girl walking past the trailer as a single decker ’bus was approaching from behind at moderate speed. As the ’bus was passing the end of the trailer the girl ran from the pavement, as if making for the Walsall ’bus stop, and was knocked down by the ’bus. In her opinion the driver could not possibly have avoided the accident.

Sidney Smith, of 38, Station Road, said he was standing by the Sheffield ’bus stop, just behind the QUEENS HOTEL, when he saw the girl dash from behind the trailer. When she got clear she saw the approaching ’bus and hesitated for a moment, but was unable to avoid it.

Dr. W. W. McCullough said that Miss Lloyd had been employed by him as a maid for over two years. She died about three minutes after he was called to the scene of the accident from shock due to multiple injuries.

In recording his verdict of Accidental Death, the Coroner said, ‘I am satisfied that there was no negligence of any kind on the part of the driver’.”

It was renamed the BLOCK AND CHOPPER. [2003], [2005]

It was renamed QUEENS. [2007]

Express & Star 26/4/2019

